ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD

The Prophetic Office

The gift of prophecy has been co-existent at least with the Jewish race. Thus, for example, we read that Abraham was a prophet (Gen. XX, 7); that Moses prophesied (Deut. XVII); that all during the varied history of the Jews Almighty God in His Mercy sent specially gifted ambassadors to "the Chosen people" in order that these messengers, raised up to speak for God to men, might by their inspired preaching, by their wonderful works, and by their divine prophecies concerning the Messiah to come, keep alive the faith of both nation and rulers and lead them on to a glorious fulfilment of their vocation as children of God.

The prophets who came after the time of Moses are usually divided into two schools—the Old Testament Prophets, among whom were such men as Samuel, Gad, Nathan and others whose work was chiefly reformatory and whose ministry consisted for the most part in oral teaching of the word of God and in performing miracles—and the younger Prophets whose mission was principally preparatory for the coming of the Messiah. The connecting link between these two schools was the prophet Joshua who lived about eight hundred years before Christ.

These latter Prophets in turn are separated into two groups according to the extent and the importance of their works, viz. the Major and the Minor Prophets. There are four of the former and twelve of the latter. But let us note well that this title of Minor Prophet is not one of disparagement but rather an arbitrary academic term, for as St. Jerome says in writing of these Minor Prophets "They tell us such grand and wonderful things that one does not know which to admire more, the sharpness of their speech or the greatness of their thought."

The four Major Prophets all belong to the Kingdom of Judah. Isaiah and Jeremiah lived and performed their wonderful works during the time previous to the Babylonian Captivity—from about the middle of the eighth century before Christ down to the year 588 B. C. when Jerusalem was destroyed by the Babylonians.

Baruch the disciple, the secretary, as it were, of Jeremiah, prophesied during the first years of this Babylonian Captivity. Ezekiel exercised his ministry during the last years before the ruin of Jerusalem, i. e. between 599 B. C. and 572 B. C. Daniel carried out God's sacred mission during the whole period of the captivity.

Of the twelve Minor Prophets some come from the kingdom of Israel and some from the kingdom of Judah. Hosea, Amos and Isaiah lived in the kingdom of Israel during the first half of the eighth century before Christ. In the second half of this same century, Joel, Abdias and Micah were contemporaries of the prophet Isaiah of the kingdom of Judah.

After them came Nahum and Habakkuk who taught and preached during the time of the rule of Manasseh, King of Judah, between 699 and 643 B. C. Toward the end of the existence of Judah as a kingdom Saphonias worked simultaneously with Jeremiah, Aggeus, Zacharias and Malachias, the last of the line of Minor Prophets, flourished after the time of the Babylonian Captivity.

The writings of these Lesser Prophets abound with accurate prophecies concerning "the Messiah to come" of whom they give precise descriptions. They foretell, for example, of his virgin birth; they give the very date and place of His nativity; they tell of His works, of His passion and death, of His resurrection and glorification.

With Malachias the list of the Prophets closes.

The Holy Rosary

A beautiful note on the Rosary in "Le Soleil," Quebec, signed "Ginerva," is as follows:

"When the month of October comes around in all Catholic Churches crowds surround the altar of the Blessed Virgin, shining with bright lights and with the fragile grace of the last flowers, surrounded with a cloud of incense.

"Of unequal age and social condition, they are one in their love and their faith who come to adore their queen and mother. The fingers that count a rosary of precious stones may hold themselves up to Heaven with the same confident gesture as those through which pass the words of black wood.

"Nothing can be more touching than all these faces, all those looks raised towards heaven, asking different graces, but all equally necessary to them, for the Rosary is a universal devotion. It is a devotion with the ignorant, who do not know many beautiful prayers, who can only read by print, and who do not always understand the sense of what they read. It is the same for learned people, whose heads are full of formulas; whose minds can no longer meditate on mysteries too great for human reason, and who, before the light-glowing altar, wish to find an answer to the eternal 'why'.

"It is a devotion with children who are little beings without self-consciousness, and whose constant prayers to the Blessed Virgin protect youth and young manhood or womanhood, and enable them to walk, when they must in perilous paths, without losing their robe of innocence.

"The Rosary is a hymn of thanks from joyful hearts who have not yet suffered and which ask the Mother always loving to preserve their joy. It is the prayer of resignation of souls who go weeping on the roadways of life, who have laid those they love in the grave with an adieu forever, and who reflect with less bitterness before the consoling of the afflicted, on their hearts without fire and their heads forever in mourning.

"It is the recourse of the wretched; the poor boy in body or in mind; unhappy or guilty; it is the invocation which is in the very bottom of their soul; it is the supplication of those who love them, who lead them back to the peace of a good conscience, to repose under the eye of the Good Shepherd.

"And for those who are near the end of their career, whose hair is silvered by age, whose step is slower and trembles, the Hail Marys in their thin fingers are the hope of a future life eternal and happy thanks to the pity of Mary.

"In the troublesome times we are passing through, instead of burying our troubles in so many distractions, which are not always without danger, it is in the Rosary we should seek help against the dangers which surround us; against the war that threatens us; against the misery that is at our doors; against the war, the effects of which we feel more and more; the war, which would cease if there were launched against it the universal crusade of the perpetual Rosary."

"He's a Friend Of Mine."

"A lawyer was in an elevator with some men he did not know when a big fellow among them began swearing. He used the name of God wickedly and loosely, and seemed to think nothing of it.

The lawyer touched his arm and said quietly "I wouldn't do that if I were you." Instantly the man stopped, looked troubled and then exclaimed, "You're right, you're right, I shouldn't do that. I just don't think what I am saying." And then the two had a pleasant talk together.

The same lawyer had made it his habit for years to speak to swearing men when he could. "If a man is using the name of Jesus or God roughly he says to himself, 'Please don't do that; in every language there is a name of God and it is active duty."

"And he has never met with anyone who did not listen to him as a gentleman should. It is one way he has of testifying to his love for his Lord and Savior.

That kind of work can be done by man or boy. Some young college boys were having a class supper. One of the fellows started a coarse song to the tune of a hymn. Others joined in. Then one boy who wasn't known to be especially religious jumped up and cried out, "None of that fellows! No singing here! We're here!"

He sat down; the song faded away and stopped, and then, without a word, something else was taken up. There was no offence. It was just the clean manly thing to do and the crowd knew it.

Sudden Death Usually Lot Of Those at Emnity With God

One strange fact stands out in the experience of all priests. The grace of a holy and happy death seems reserved for those who have served God faithfully during life. A sudden death seems to be the retributive punishment meted out to those who have lived in a chronic state of samality with God. This is particularly true of open or public sinners. They are called out of the world suddenly, or something happens to prevent their receiving the last Sacraments; and this is also true to a large extent of those whose vicious habits are known only to themselves and God.

They have had their chance and failed to take advantage of it. They have spurned God's grace during the years allotted to them, and their terror stricken efforts to turn to Him when death is near bear all the outward appearance of failure.

While no man can presume to sit in judgment upon another's life, and the old Church like a true and tender mother gives her erring children the benefit of every doubt, yet her teaching on this matter is all summed up in the terrible words: "As a man sows so shall he die." From the standpoint of human reason, the logical ending of a sinful life is final impenitence and eternal separation from God.

Church Destroyed

The church, convent and rectory at North Temiskaming, Canada, was destroyed by fire recently. (The fire broke out some time after midnight, the alarm being given by a dog, which owing to the severe cold, had been permitted to sleep in one of the lower rooms of the presbytery, where the fire originated, owing to a defective furnace, it is supposed. The fire leaped up the stairways, through the outbuildings, the church and the adjoining convent so rapidly that the occupants had barely time to escape with what scanty clothing they had close by them. The parish priest, Rev. E. Baundy, with the help of some neighbors, succeeded in saving the registers and other important papers, the church organ and some of the vestments.

"What makes you think that Mrs. Pilkins is quarrelsome?"

"Well, I heard Pilkins say that he was going to Petrograd to get rested up."

Mary Ovington, Jasper Ont writes—"My mother had a badly sprained arm. Nothing we used did her any good. Then father got Haggard's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days Price 25 cents."

Priest at Blind Congress

When the blind congress convened in Cincinnati on February 18, one of the most interesting figures taking part in the sessions will be the Rev. Theophilus Baundy, assistant pastor of Holy Cross Church, Lakota, Ky. The remarkable priest, despite his seventeen years of blindness, is one of the most energetic clergymen in the Westinghouse diocese. Since his affliction which took place two years after his ordination, he has not only acquired a splendid mastery of the piano and organ, but has learned to converse in two languages, English and French.

NEVER NEGLECT BRONCHITIS IT MAY TURN TO PNEUMONIA.

Bronchitis comes from a neglected cold, and starts with a short, painful, dry cough, accompanied with rapid wheezing, and a feeling of oppression or tightness through the chest.

You have, no doubt, wakened up in the morning and have had to cough several times to raise the phlegm from the bronchial tubes, and have found it of a yellowish or gray, greenish color, and you have coughed right away.

This is a form of bronchitis, which if not cured immediately may turn into pneumonia or some more serious trouble. Cure the cold with Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thereby prevent bronchitis and pneumonia taking hold on your system.

Mr. E. Jarvis, New Finland, Sask., writes—"I was troubled, for years, with bronchitis and could not find any relief. I was especially bad on a damp day. I went to a druggist, and asked him for something to stop the cough and constant tickling in my throat. He gave me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I found gave me instant relief. I think it is the best medicine for bronchitis I know of. Now I take a bottle of it on hand."

Do not accept a substitute for "Dr. Wood's." It is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c.; manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

First Te Deum Since War

The liberation of Jerusalem was celebrated magnificently in Paris by a solemn "Te Deum" in Notre Dame Cathedral. The president, the foreign office, the senate the chamber, the French Academy and the armies of France and her Allies were all represented, and the congregation was so vast that it filled not only the Cathedral but the whole of the Ile du Cite. Cardinal Amette, who presided, gave a fine address.

"Had Heart Trouble
For 5 Years.
WOULD GO INTO FITS."

Through one cause or another a large majority of the people are troubled, more or less with some form of heart trouble. Little attention is paid to the slight weakness until the heart starts to beat irregularly, and they suddenly feel faint and dizzy, and feel as if they were smothering.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken, and this secure prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. W. H. Purrier, Kilmorie, Ont., writes—"I was troubled with my heart for five years, and was so bad it would send me into fits and smothering. I could not do any work while I was attacked, but after taking three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I have regained my health."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are sold by all druggists or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Since the war began Canada's revenue has nearly doubled. In the first year it was $130,000,000 and rose during the second twelve months to $170,000,000.

Despite big revenues the Government has practised economy and the result is reflected in the latest financial statement.

Of course these figures take no account of war outlay, but it is interesting to note that in the current year Canada has saved enough to pay $100,000,000 on that bill. The war expenditure for ten months was about $190,000,000, or less than expected.

Canada is paying Britain's bills for provisions and supplies in Canada, and it is believed that the accounts will about balance.

anese invitation to the Entente Allies and America to participate.

London, March 2.—According to the Daily Mail, it is understood that the Allies have decided to ask the Japanese to take any steps necessary for the protection of the Allies in the Far East.

Washington, March 1.—Japan's proposal for action in Siberia has crowded German Chancellor Von Hertling's speech into second place in the consideration of officials here and there were indications today that decisions were being formed which soon would show themselves in some arrangement of an international character to prevent the vast stores at Vladivostok and control of the trans-Siberian railway from falling into the hands of the advancing Germans. The expectation that President Wilson was planning to address Congress very soon in reply to Von Hert-ling's speech was dissipated today by evidence that the president is making no such plans at the present.

Vologda, Russia, Thursday, Feb. 28.—By the Associated Press.—The American and Japanese ambassadors arrived here today on a special train. Their trip was an uneventful one. An ultimatum has been handed to the Russian Bolshevik government by the German commander on the eastern front, who has given the Russians three days in which to sign the peace treaty demanded by the Teutons.
Coincident with this demand the German advance into Russia has been resumed. There are apparently three columns of Germans advancing in several sectors of the line. An attack by the Teutons near Butte Du Mesnil resulted in the capture of a section of a French position, but an immediate counter-attack evicted the Germans. The British troops carried out successful raids north of the Ypres-Staden railroad and captured a few prisoners. On the other sectors of the front nothing of interest is reported. Among the terms of peace communicated to King Ferdinand of Rumania by the Central Powers, was a demand that Ferdinand abdicate in favor of his brother, Prince William of Hohenzollern. Prince William renounced all claim to the throne on the accession of his uncle, Prince Charles, in 1886.
He was in command of a part of the Teutonic army which invaded Rumania in December, 1916, and at that time issued a proclamation declaring himself the rightful heir to the throne.

Paris, March 3.—Strong efforts by German troops to debouch from the Neuf Chatel, salient northwest of Rheims, were frustrated, the French failed to reach the Pompele Fort, succeeded only in gaining a foothold with some small detachments to the west of it. A French counter-attack stopped a German advance on a half mile front in the Champagne.
The text of the statement is as follows: "The artillery battle reported yesterday at several points on the French front from the Chemin Des Dames to the Meuse continued all night with marked intensity, accompanied by very lively infantry actions, in the course of which the French troops retained the advantage.
"Enemy raids on small French posts southeast of Barria and south of Juvincourt were repulsed.
"The aggressive enemy action manifested itself notably in the region northwest and southeast of Rheims until the end of the day. German troops attempted to debouch from the salient of Neuf Chatel. The French fire directed with precision, disorganized the attacks. Portions of German detachments which succeeded in penetrating French advanced positions were driven out by French counter-attacks.

The thieves are supposed to have have taken place a week ago. It was not made public until a Circular was posted in the Toronto Stock Exchange containing a list

It is definitely decided that

Hon. Gideon Robertson,

Hon. Gideon Robertson, the Labor representative in the Cabinet, has been asked by Sir Robert Borden to take charge of the registration of the man-power of Canada which it is proposed to take. Details of the registration, which it is proposed will include every male and female between the ages of 16 to 65, are being worked out at the present time.
It is a big undertaking, and the Government is anxious to work out a plan which will be speedy, simple and economical as possible.
It is likely that use will be made in taking that registration of the

FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST

TO MAKE GOOD BREAD

You must have Good Yeast

GOOD BREAD is, without question, the most important article of food in the catalog of man's diet; surely, it is the "staff of life." Good bread is obtainable only by using the Best Yeast, the best flour, and adopting the best method of combining the two. Compressed Yeast is in all respects the best commercial Yeast yet discovered, and Fleischmann's Yeast is indisputably the most successful and best leaven known to the world. It is uniform in quality and strength. It saves time and labor, and relieves the housewife of the vexation and worryment she necessarily suffers from the use of an inferior or unreliable leaven. It is, moreover, a fact that with the use of Fleischmann's Yeast, more loaves of bread of the same weight can be produced from a given quantity of flour than can be produced with the use of any other kind of Yeast.

This is explained by the more thorough fermentation and expansion which the minute particles of flour undergo, thereby increasing the size of the mass and at the same time adding to the nutritive properties of the bread. This fact may be clearly and easily demonstrated by any who doubt that there is economy in using Fleischmann's Yeast.
If you have never used this Yeast give it a trial.
Ask your Grocer for a "Fleischmann" Recipe.
