"Where the Money Came From" is Still a Mystery—Great Body of Evidence Against Gamey Charges More Credible Than That Adduced in Their Support, Hence They Are Declared Disproved—"Can't You Forget" is Forgotten—Gamey's Career Condemned.

Judges Analyze Evidence Decision For Defendants

Testimony Given Before Commission Gone Over in Detail— Gamey's Politics Was Manitoulin and He Wanted to Be on the Side of Any Government.

IN OUR OPINION THE CORRUPT CHARGES STAND DISPROVED BY A GREAT BODY OF EVIDENCE WHICH APPEARS TO BE MORE ACCURATE AND CREDIBLE THAN THAT ADDUCED IN SUPPORT THEREOF.

This is a word in the finding of the Royal Commission re the Gamey charges. The Honourable Sir John A. Borden, Chancellor, and the Honourable Chief Justice Falconbridge, the Commission, sent their report to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor yesterday at noon, and it was laid on the table of the legislature at 3 o'clock.

The commissioners find against R. R. Gamey, M.L.A., on every point. Search the voluminous analysis of the evidence and you will find no soft word for the man from Manitoulin. While his testimony has been chased to a finish with searching zeal, yet it is apparent that the same zeal cooled when it started on the scent of Hon. J. R. Strathairn's admissions on the witness stand. The "Can't you forget" episode, related by Reporter Hammond, is touched as with a feather.

Hon. Mr. Strathairn is exonerated of all corrupt knowledge. The commissioners find that no bribe or money was received from the Provincial Secretary. The real source of the money is not yet disclosed. It is hinted that a clue to "where the money came from" might be obtained if the missing pages of the Crossin book could be seen. The charge of conspiracy is dismissed with a wave of the hand. As a matter of law there is no evidence to support it, is the excuse.

In short Mr. Strathairn is whitewashed, and Mr. Gamey scorched by words.

JUDGES' FINDING.

The following is the concluding words of the report of the commission, which are in the nature of a judgment drawn from the evidence given before the commission:

Character of Witnesses.

As to the demeanor and credibility of the witnesses generally, the commissioners would report that most of them seemed to be desirous of telling the truth, and that the important witnesses the commissioners were impressed by the evidence of Arthur, Dr. Struthers and Mr. J. F. Boyd.

Frank Sullivan and Mr. Gamey were two of the chief actors in the variety of transactions under investigation, and their evidence is contradictory and irreconcilable at most, if not at all important points. Both, by their own confession, practiced systematic duplicity and pursued various and conflicting interests in their view. Impertinent reticence, shown in the placing upon their uncorroborated statements in material points, and where these statements conflict with those of independent or distinguished witnesses the latter should be preferred.

Hammond's Evidence.

Whatever comment may be made upon the expression attributed to the Provincial Secretary by Mr. Hammond, when recalled, it seems to the commissioners unwarrantable to assign to it such exaggerated import as to overshadow the whole body of substantial evidence in favor of the Minister and against the member. The testimony of Hammond was on a comparatively minor branch of the enquiry, that is, relative to the payment of money, which, as a matter of fact, is not in dispute in the investigation, and the statements of Hammond are not in conflict with those of the Provincial Secretary, save as regards the variation in details which happens very commonly in the evidence of different speakers.

Gamey's change in Faith.

It was a proper thing to take pains to advance publicly the change in the political attitude of Mr. Gamey, and had greater publicity been bestowed the publicity would likely have been more advantageous if made earlier. Sheldon Amos, writing of cases in which a member leaves his party on account of independent conviction, says: "As a matter of fact very little encouragement is shown at present to defection of this sort, and when they occur the member who is guilty of them is invariably put to the utmost pains to defend his action, and in the opinion of his own party never does succeed in freeing himself from the stigma of disloyalty, not to say treachery. Nevertheless, if the grounds on which an individual desires to leave the ranks of party may be justified, they are clearly ascertained and publicly announced. It is not that not only would the institution of party government be rid of much of the moral suspicion with which it is surrounded, but its true nature and object would be better appreciated throughout the country." (Pages 71 and 72, from "Sixty Years of the English Constitution, 1880.")

Mr. Gamey's Version.

Looked at in this way, Mr. Gamey's version is that his purchase of the Manitoulin property was initiated with Frank Sullivan and was taken to the Minister's office, who he did not know, that the letter was to sign was all ready, and put before him for signature, and the information volunteered by the Minister that the protest would be withdrawn, all the patronage given to him, and unstated valuable consideration paid when he signed, but as the money was not ready, the

MISS THE MARK.

The commission find Gamey guilty, but they make no finding, where the people of Ontario have already ruled and erroneously made a finding, as to the degraded condition of politics and public affairs in the Province of Ontario, brought about by list of office and the desire to entrench one party in power and office forever, if possible.

The commission find against Gamey, but not against the parties with whom he was dealing. We may now witness the edifying spectacle of the House government, including Mr. Strathairn, taking proceedings to expiate the condemned accusation in the House, and urge it of his presence, and Mr. Strathairn will be placed on a pedestal worse than "sun clear" character may lighten the youth of the land.

These are personal matters. On larger questions of public policy the people have clear views. They are looking for the man or the men who will show a way to a cure, who will concentrate their energies to reforms of a drastic kind.

The weakest point in the situation is the apparent and we believe it is sorely apparent—absence of men in Ontario politics who are ready to say to the people that the long period of compromises and saw-offs and the supremacy of corruption influence in the legislature of Ontario must cease forever.

The Ministerial party has been led and corrupted; the opposition that must cope with this condition must be vigorous, persistent, never willing to saw-off at any point, free from the influence of the corporations, and ready for an aggressive and progressive policy.

The Globe interview is published at the end of the paper, wherein his political affiliation is still further reduced below the standard of support. In the letter of Oct. 27, and only extends to support "in all matters connected with the Government, but not in matters of public policy." This publication brings trouble around his head from the Conservative and Liberal ranks, and he is unwell to resign at this crisis.

Mr. Gamey's resignation is not an independent, but the answer then and always was the "expense," and the risks and changes involved in the test. Yet the member is now in disfavor with both parties, he is getting to be regarded as a minded man, with all that suggests. He surveys the situation, the government prospects, and the political situation, and he has decided to resign.

for the time being, upon its being made satisfactorily to appear that the claimant has legitimate title thereto.

This enquiry occupied 27 days of hearing in open and public session, during which 110 witnesses were examined, giving 3512 pages of evidence, some 92 exhibits filed, giving 2396 pages more, as embraced in a volume of exhibits and eight volumes of evidence. The arguments of counsel appear in another volume numbered nine.

All of which is respectfully submitted to Your Honor.

GAMEY'S CHARGES.

Laying down its facts before drawing its conclusion, the Royal Commission, in its report, says:

The text of the charges before the House is regarded by the Commissioners as a document of supreme importance. Its statements and its omissions invite critical consideration. Its preparation was undertaken in a leisurely way, with care, with deliberation, and with the aid of a staff of investigators, during part of at least ten days, and with corrections, with a desire to make it accurate, and with opportunity to refer to books and memorandum of detail to assist, and subject to the final perusal of Mr. McGreggor, Mr. Gamey's counsel, and a counsel throughout. It was thus prepared (comparing everything bulging parcel, which was carried down to the smoking-room, and the contents of which, amounting to $3000, were equally divided between Sullivan and Mr. Gamey.)

That, by appointment next day, these two—Sullivan and Mr. Gamey—saw the Provincial Secretary, and the signed letter was given to him, and he thereupon took from his pocket a bulging parcel, which was carried down to the smoking-room, and the contents of which, amounting to $3000, were equally divided between Sullivan and Mr. Gamey.

That, to get evidence of the patronage deal of the 23rd September, Mr. Gamey wrote to the Provincial Secretary, asking the appointment of a "Fisher" as Justice of the Peace, the electoral district he represented.

That, and that he also applied on the 8th October to the Provincial Secretary to have the Sheriff (Jackson) appointed as returning officer, to take the referendum in the electoral district.

That, about the 23rd October, Mr. Gamey saw the Provincial Secretary and the Premier's advice was obtained, that nothing should be done.

That, that the Provincial Secretary then asked Mr. Gamey to send a letter, a duplicate of that of the 10th September, but of later date, and the other would be returned. The duplicate letter was altered by Mr. Gamey, and mailed to the Premier, but the first one was not sent back to him.

That, on the 15th January, 1933, the Provincial Secretary questioned Mr. Gamey about his taking part for the Conservatives in the North Perth election, and asked why the letter had been altered, and gave Mr. Gamey particulars of a coalition deal, and discussed appointments, and that Mr. Gamey agreed to come down shortly.

Will Not Expel Mr. Gamey To Make "Martyr" of Him

Premier Says Code of Honor Calls for Person Who Makes False Accusations to Resign—Gamey Will Make Statement to House.

Mr. Ross laid the report of the Royal Commission on the table without any comment, except to say it was the report of the Commissioners appointed to investigate charges made by R. R. Gamey against Hon. J. R. Strathairn.

Mr. Whitney recalled the remark of the Premier, made at the time the charges were preferred, that it would be improper for the government to proceed with legislation while it was under grave charges. Now that the report had been laid on the table, after being discussed by the cabinet, it was important that all members should understand it before the business of the House was proceeded with. The House was the tribunal which would pass upon the report and every member should be given an opportunity of acquainting himself with its contents. Mr. Whitney suggested an adjournment for a couple of days.

Refuses an Adjournment.
The Premier said the position was no worse now than it had been, and he saw no necessity for an adjournment, as the House could go on with ordinary business before proceeding to a discussion of the report. He agreed that the legislature was the final court and had a right to adopt or reject the report. In the Parnell case the report was adopted by the House. The Premier said the report was discussed in the cabinet after it was received, which was his right.

Mr. Whitney said his reason for asking for an adjournment was that the members could inform themselves on the contents of the report. There was a question whether it was competent for the House to adopt the report; because the report of the Parnell Commission was adopted in no reason why this report should be. The duration of the session would be shortened if the Premier adopted his suggestion and allowed the House to adjourn for a few days.

Distributed To-Day.
The Premier read the procedure in the Parnell investigation, but did not say the House would adopt the same course.

Mr. Whitney did not think it seemed to go on now and finish the work of the session without knowing the contents of the report.

Mr. Ross said the report would be printed and distributed by Friday.

Mr. Whitney said he did not accuse the Ministers of giving out the report, but several gentlemen behind them have professed to understand what it contained. The matter then dropped, and ordinary business was taken up.

Mr. Whitney's Opinion.
Mr. Whitney made a hasty examination of the report during the session of the House, and took from it a few extracts. After the sitting The World asked for an expression of opinion.

"After a hasty look at it I may say I regard it as a cleverly written and most complete exoneration of the Ministers," he said.

Mr. Whitney extracted one point only from the report, and said it was a sample of the judicial pronouncement. Speaking of the patronage deal the report says: "Does it indicate a corrupt bargain or a policy of conciliation?"

It is to Laugh.
Mr. Whitney laughed outright when he read the lines, and said his view of the finding could best be judged by his contempt for a pronouncement of that kind.

Mr. Gamey would not make a statement, as he had not read the report. He promised, however, that he would meet it at his earliest opportunity, and make a statement in the House.

Premier Expresses Opinion.
Mr. Ross said he was satisfied. "We accept the finding," he said, "and we would have accepted it if it had been the other way."

"How do the other fellows take it?" he asked, and was told they were somewhat depressed and disappointed.

"Well, when we play the game we must expect to be bowled out some times," was the Premier's laconic remark.

Mr. Ross said the House would probably take three or four days to digest the report before it was discussed. That was Mr. Whitney's desire, and he agreed that some time should be given for the purpose.

Not Law to Expel.
Asked what action would be taken by the government majority the Premier said he could not say.

"Will Mr. Gamey be expelled?"

"There is no law to warrant such action. I remember a case in Nova Scotia where a man was expelled by the legislature, and he appealed to the courts and was sustained. The code of honor is that if a man makes charges against a fellow member of the House he should resign. But we will not make a martyr of him."

FATALITY IN A GRAIN BIN.
Child Tumbles Into a Campbellford Elevator and is Smothered.
Campbellford, June 4.—(Special.)—Smothered in a grain bin of wheat, 11-year-old Gerald Fraser was removed from the Fowlds elevator this morning. The boy was employed at the elevator driving a horse, which supplied the power to carry the grain into the chute. He must have climbed a high ladder and fallen into the bin. The force of the grain moving by gravity carried him into the chute. The workmen were apprised of the accident by the grain ceasing to flow. They made an investigation and discovered the legs of the victim protruding from the chute. The side of the building was hastily chopped away, but life was extinct. He had been smothered by the six hundred bushels of grain.

ROYAL COMMISSIONERS

New Ontario: that he expected the return to power of the Conservative party at the general election, but accepted the situation when it was found that Mr. Ross had a majority there.

Mr. Ross had a majority there. He was elected to the office of Premier. In the statement, Mr. Gagey further says: "I spoke to the Sheriff, and he was out of the city, and it was transferred to the Premier."

No Proof of Deal. It appears that the referendum matter had been discussed by the members of the government, and it was decided that, for the returning officers, the referees should be appointed where possible. Before this, and in September, the referees were appointed to either Sheriff or Registrar being appointed, but Abrey, the Registrar, was not appointed, and he was made equally eligible, it was more of a compromise than matter of substance to ask for opinion in the correspondence. This patronage correspondence is set forth in the statement, as supplied by written evidence of the "deal."

With the touchstone, "Honi soit qui mal y pense," are the ministers' letters to be read, in the light of a corrupt bargain, or as indicating a policy of concealment? To work the downfall of a minister and the overthrow of a government, something of greater probative force should be forthcoming. This correspondence may exemplify the employment of a tactical or of political tactics on the part of the minister addressed, but hardly seems to demand any graver consideration.

STRATTON NOT TOUCHED. We turn now briefly to some other matters set forth or omitted to be set forth from the statement to the House. It is here suggested, if not affirmed, that D. A. Jones, Frank Sullivan, and his father were in touch with the Provincial Secretary or in some way authorized to deal in his behalf. This is explicitly and emphatically denied by the minister, and is also contradicted by Jones and Frank Sullivan. Capt. Sullivan, the father, was not called as a witness by either party, and it did not appear to be of importance to have him examined by the Commissioners, as he plays a subordinate part in the narrative. As to the other two alleged agents, Jones and Frank Sullivan, they were unquestionably acting in concert with Mr. Gagey, separately, or on parallel lines.

Extrajudicial Omission. An extraordinary omission in the statement is made to an alleged loan of $1200 from Sullivan to Mr. Gagey out of the $1500 said to be received by Sullivan as his half of the $3000, the first bribe money.

He seeks to excuse the omission by saying that he thought Sullivan would be more apt to tell the truth if he were going to get out money back. But after Frank Sullivan had given his evidence to the Commissioners, and had denied that any $1000 extension or other obstacle was removed which hindered this disclosure, but to the reporters who followed Mr. Gagey to the office, knowing that he spoke for the purpose of publication, then the $900 was said to have been gathered up during the summer, and to have come from Manitowish.

But Gagey Failed. The Commissioners directed that this sum of $1200, admitted by Mr. Gagey to be in his hands as part of the bribe, should be brought to the attention of the Commissioners, as had been done with the $1500 said to be his own share, but herein Mr. Gagey has failed. The Commissioners go on to show contradictions in the evidence, and refer to Mr. Gagey's intervention in the end of January, 1902, when he went with Mr. Gagey to the Parliament Buildings and saw him there.

Now, the remarkable thing is that, with all this personally conducted supervision by Mr. Gagey, and his having a hand in the final shaping of the evidence, the fact that he had been with Mr. Gagey to the Parliament Buildings and saw him there, is not mentioned in the statement.

He asks that, if there is no promise to give it, if in truth Mr. Gagey had not been in the office, he would become a supporter of the government, he might expect such perquisites as attach to that position.

Statement Not Supported. The statement sets forth the alleged promise of the Provincial Secretary that he would give Mr. Gagey the office of riding entirely in his own hands but nothing supports such a promise.

It is no violent inference to assume that Mr. Gagey, when he made his protest when, on September 29th, he wrote the letter to the Provincial Secretary, was in possession of the statement, enclosing the petition, dated 20th September, for the appointment of Mr. Gagey as Registrar.

Before the protest, Mr. Gagey had "condemned" (to Lord Palmerston's words) to express a wish, while in apparent opposition, for the appointment of Mr. Swanson as J. P., and to recommend the same, letter of the 24th June, 1902, to the Attorney-General's Department, beginning "Dear Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 22nd inst., and in reply to inform you that I have no objection to Mr. Swanson's appointment."

Wives of Leading Lawyers in Habit of Meeting to Have Whiff of the Weed. Hamilton, June 4.—Rev. I. M. Meyer, Toronto, said tonight that many of the most prominent women of Toronto smoked cigars. He said that he did not want to get too personal, but he knew for a fact that the wives of the leading lawyers of the city were in the habit of meeting to have a whiff of the weed. He was speaking at the Sunday School Convention of the Evangelical Association, which was held at the Market Street Church, and the gathering passed a resolution condemning the habit in any form, but especially the cigars.

WANTS SHERIFF DISMISSED. Mr. Gallagher Says Official Did Acts That Were Not Very Honorable. MINISTER IS INVOLVED IN DEAL.

Partner of Hon. F. R. Latchford Put Thus a Power Grant at Hands of Sheriff. In anticipation of something doing, there was an unusually large crowd in the galleries of the legislature yesterday. The final act of the Gagey trial, the removal of Sheriff Dawson from office, was expected, and it came; but the spectators had no opportunity of knowing the verdict from anything that was said in the House. The report was in the hands of the Premier in the morning, and the cabinet was called to hear it read. When the House met in the afternoon, the Premier lost no time in placing the report on the table, but the opposition had never an inkling of what the nature of the report was. Now did anything occur during the afternoon, or evening to indicate the tenor of the remarks of the learned Judges.

There were, however, some questions brought up which provided opportunity for rapping the knuckles of the powers that be.

Franchise's Sheriff. Mr. Gallagher moved for a return of the correspondence touching the request for the dismissal of Sheriff Dawson from office. The Attorney-General had stated that the dismissal was desired to secure the purchase of supplies and was not of such importance as to call for the disapproval of the House. The Attorney-General admitted, as shown by the resolution passed by the County Council, that the Sheriff had not been a very desirable officer. He took an interest in the last year's election, and did things that were not very honorable. He issued fifty-two certificates to men who were not entitled to vote in the county. Mr. Gallagher thought the matters complained of by the County Council should be investigated. The speaker entered an action against the sheriff for his conduct during the election. The sheriff had been found guilty of having stolen out of the ballot boxes, either by the returning officer or by some other means, a number of votes. The proof destroyed it was impossible to go on with the case against the sheriff.

The Attorney-General, in reply, said there had been more or less difficulty for some time, but because there was no reason why the sheriff should be dismissed. As to the charges that the sheriff had committed unlawful acts, the Attorney-General had not heard of them before. There was machinery in the election courts for the removal of such officers.

The papers will be brought down. Minister Interested in Grant. In moving for a return of correspondence relating to the granting of water-powers on the Ottawa River to the Metropolitan Power Company, Col. Macleod, in the other way, said Mr. McLaughlin, the law partner of the Hon. F. R. Latchford, had been in the office of the Minister of Public Works in the grant.

Mr. Gagey objected to the clause in the bill, empowering the government to reduce the rate of interest on articles entering into manufactures. Mr. Patterson said that the law at present enabled the government to do so in certain cases, but did not give the lesser power.

Mr. Kemp asked what manufactures the reduction would apply, and the minister answered, "To all classes." Mr. Patterson said that the law at present enabled the government to do so in certain cases, but did not give the lesser power.

METHODISTS TO MAKE WAR ON BETTING RING

Rev. Dr. Carman's Strong Words on Political Corruption—Education and Religion Discussed.

Political corruption in Ontario, especially as revealed by the recent investigation, received a warm denunciation from Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent, at the general assembly of the Conference yesterday morning.

There was great difficulty in securing suitable men for taking up the work of the ministry. Toronto Conference was twelve men short.

As to the Wesley Bi-centenary celebration, he would place the emphasis on an old-time revival. The financial end of things would take care of themselves.

It was announced that the ordination of probationers would take place at Elm-street Church on Sunday morning, and not at Sherbourne-street.

Rev. Dr. Carman presided at the afternoon proceedings, and it was decided to accept an invitation to Conference to attend a reception at Annesley Hall, Victoria College, on Saturday afternoon, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

MARKET BUTCHERS FAVOR COLD STORAGE SYSTEM

But Protest Against High Rental of Stalls—Markett No a "White Elephant."

The Property Committee were waited upon yesterday by three members of the legal profession to press the case of their respective clients, butchers in the market, complaining of the high rentals of stalls. A. J. Russell Snow stated that the Davies Company were paying a lower rent than the other tenants, due to an arrangement whereby the company were enabled to get their stalls before the auction sale of stalls took place.

It was pointed out by members of the committee that the butchers have only themselves to blame, for, owing to their wishing to beat one another the bidding at the auction the stalls were very high in some cases, and now they had to pay for their folly. Again it was explained that the stalls were already to issue writs against most of the tenants in order to recover the rent due.

Butchers Want Cold Storage. John Woods, a butcher, and proprietor in one of the largest businesses of the market, spoke at some length, and incidentally corrected a misstatement made by Controller Burns at the last Council meeting in which he stated that the butchers should appear before the Council and press their claims for cold storage if they so desired, but as yet nothing had been done. Mr. Woods said yesterday that a petition had been signed by all the butchers, but two asking for the installation of a plant, and these two could be explained. He stated emphatically that all the butchers were not only willing to pay for cold storage, but had been so strongly of opinion that a plant was to be put in that they had delayed making any preparation for their cooling until it was so late that they had to go outside to get proper accommodation.

The question of rentals will be dealt with later by the committee. Market is Paying Well. Superintendent Frame reported business in the market to be increasing rapidly and as being better than ever before. In reply to the oft repeated assertion that the market is a "white elephant" on the city's hands, Mr. Frame, who knows whereof he speaks, says the market is presently paying four per cent. on the net outlay of $250,000.

In course of Mr. Snow's remarks he said the approaches to the market were in such a muddy state that no woman would venture down there to her shopping. Mr. Frame, however, denied this statement very strongly, and said there were hundreds of ladies shopping there all the time. Several of the lawyers statements were thus criticized.

One City Coroner. The Mayor is opposed to the measure before the Ontario House providing for the appointment of a city coroner. His Worship opposes it only insofar as it applies to the city paying the fees which amount to a considerable sum yearly, and because the bill only applies to the city.

Would Be Costly. Engineer Rust in his forthrightly report says he has been looking into the question of the construction of a Lake Shore road from Bathurst-street to Sunnyside crossing, and to utilize the same as a dumping ground for the present. The cost of the necessary cutting would be about $250,000, and a breakwater would cost in the neighborhood of $175,000, but it would not be necessary to carry out all this work at present.

City Engineer Rust reports the pavement on the southern section of Dufferin-street, south of King-street, as being in a very unsafe condition, and should be repaired at once. The cost would be about $500.

The Engineer suggests that the Mayor apply to the Public Works Department to construct a couple of graynes outside of Fishermen's Island for the protection of that part of the Island during severe storms. The sidewalk fronting on the property between Simcoe and John-street on the north side of King-street will be delayed for a while longer, owing to the owners wishing to construct areas front of their property.

King Pong in the Courts. The County Court presided an indoor tennis tournament yesterday afternoon. Atkinson and Co., fancy goods dealers of Toronto, are suing Ketchum and Co. of Ottawa for a bill of table tennis sets, sold a year ago, and Judge Winchester and the officials are all armed with samples of different grades of bats. There were also several pretty girls, who are to appear as witnesses, but whether as experts, could not be ascertained.

A Kidney Sufferer FOR Fourteen Years. TERRIBLE PAINS ACROSS THE BACK. Could not Sit or Stand with Ease. Consulted Five Different Doctors.

Doan's Kidney Pills FINALLY MADE A COMPLETE CURE.

Mr. Jacob Jamieson, Jamieson Bros., the well-known Contractors and Builders, Welland, Ont., tells how he was cured: "For fourteen years I was afflicted with kidney trouble which increased in severity the last five years. My most serious attack was four years ago, when I was completely incapacitated. I had terrible pains across my back, floating specks before my eyes and was in almost constant torment. I could not sit or stand with ease and was a wreck in health, having no appetite and lost greatly in flesh. I had taken medicine from five different doctors and also numerous other preparations to no purpose. Finally I began to take Doan's Kidney Pills and before I had taken five boxes the trouble left me and I now feel better than I have for twenty years. Those who know me know how I was afflicted and say it is almost impossible to believe that I have been cured, yet they know it is so. I have passed the meridian of life but I feel that I have taken on the rosy hue of boyhood. Price 50 cts per box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or THE DOAN KIDNEY PILL CO., TORONTO, ONT.

Concussion

Feet strike the ground six thousand times per hour in walking.

This means six thousand shocks to nerve and spine on city pavements. From physician's knowledge of the result sprang an immense market for rubber heels.

But solid rubber heels take up only a small proportion of the jar. The RESILIA cushion centre-sole extends from toe to heel, between the leather insole and outsole.

It has twice the spring of a solid rubber heel, with half its weight, and no "sneaker" disadvantage.

It is springy as a bicycle tire, distributes pressure over the foot sole, wear over the shoe sole, is water-proof and ventilating.

Half the labor in walking—observe cushion centre-sole beneath.

AT OSGOODE HALL. The steamer Acadia was frozen in at the Simcoe-street wharf at Hamilton last winter and by reason of not water being discharged thru the city sewer the ice was melted on one side of the boat, which caused her to list and opened the seams on the other side. For the damage thereby occasioned, the owners, McInnes and Ross, sued the City of Hamilton and recovered $200 before County Judge Squire, the city appealed to the Divisional Court, but yesterday Judge Squire and British handed out written decisions upholding the judgment with costs.

The suit of W. A. Hall, a dealer of Peterborough, against D. L. Lefebvre, a solicitor of the same town, was before the court yesterday. Hall is asking $1000 damages for alleged negligence in the examination of a deed which the defendant denied, saying that the deed was given away by the husband's cruelty. The defendant, Lefebvre, refused to produce an examination of the deed, letters which passed between him and Mr. Hall, on the ground that the deed was given away by the husband's cruelty. The Master ordered that the papers should be produced and that the defendant should pay the costs of the examination.

Judge Winchester decided the case of Taylor and Lout against the Skelton Bros. Co. of Toronto, who had declared bankruptcy yesterday, giving the plaintiffs $25,312. The court refused to grant an injunction against the Skelton Bros. Co. and ordered that the plaintiffs should have a judgment in their favor for the amount of $25,312, with costs.

Proceedings have been taken by the Colonial Investment Loan Company to foreclose three mortgages amounting to over $800, given by Cassie McKinnon and W. G. McKinnon on part of lot 73 on Givens-street, in default of payment. George Keenan, a member of the Ontario Land Office, has been appointed receiver of the property and will have possession of the property on Saturday next.

Small properties will not doubt be very much benefited by the proposed change, but, asks the Commissioner in closing, would such a change be warranted?

CAR FENDERS ARE TENEMENTS. Before the Legal Committee, at the Parliament Buildings, yesterday, F. G. Meredith, cabinet of the London County Council, proposed that an amendment to the present Act regarding fenders to be used by street railways should be amended so as to require the railway companies to use one of the fenders approved by the Public Works Department, and that the bill should give in place of under $20,000. The clause in the bill providing for the inspection of all leading employees reside on the premises was amended. It is aimed at Chinese and Italian tenements.

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT. The report of the commissioner on the Gony charges made a folio of 109 typewritten pages. The best press each received a copy, with the complaint, and Mr. Nelson R. Butcher, the official reporter of the senate proceedings. The thanks of the World are tendered to Mr. Butcher and his office staff, who very generously volunteered to spend Wednesday evening in preparing the extra copies of the report, the newspapers. It is a courtesy which will be appreciated by all who read the report.

It is a matter of pride with Mr. Butcher that in spite of the vast amount of stenographic work in connection with the trial, he was able to have in the hands of those interested in the conduct of the investigation a complete verbatim account of the proceedings. The evidence taken during the investigation, the report of the commissioner, and the argument made at the trial.

"Imperial Limited." The Canadian Pacific tri-weekly transcontinental summer service between Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver will resume, commencing Sunday, June 7. The superb "Imperial Limited" train, consisting of the new two eight sections, double drawing-room, first-class sleepers, one tourist-car, will leave Montreal, Windsor, and Toronto, on Saturdays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays, at 11:40 a.m., on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays, westbound, and Vancouver at 1:30 p.m., eastbound, on Saturdays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, making the run in each direction in 91 hours. The unanimous appreciation of the travelling public evinced towards this splendid equipment and that service last season will no doubt be extended this year.

The connection for Toronto for the "Imperial Limited" leaves the Union Station at 1:45 p.m. on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays, connecting at North Bay at 10:40 a.m. On these days the Toronto-Winnipeg first-class sleeper will be hauled on the regular day of course in addition to the regular daily service between Toronto and Vancouver. St. Francis' R.C. Church Dedication. There will be an imposing ceremony on Sunday at the opening of St. Francis Catholic Church on the corner of Arthur and Grace-streets. His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto, Vice-Governor McCann and other dignitaries of the church will take part in the dedication. The edifice has been fitted up in the most elegant style, and the congregation has purchased, and handsomely furnished the residence on Grace street, opposite the church, for the new priest, Father William McCann, who is a nephew of the Vicar-General.
