WAREHOUSE FULL OF LARD MADE A SPECTACULAR FIRE

Blaze in a Pittsburg Packing Plant Thought to Have Been Extinguished Burst Out Again Today—Rivers of Grease Flowed Over the Streets.

PITTSBURG, April 25.—One of the most remarkable and spectacular fires seen in this vicinity started last night in the Wildam Sellar Packing Co's plants, Spring Garden Ave., Allegheny, opposite this city. Early today when the fire was thought to be under control, a large fire-proof warehouse, in which was stored 600,000 pounds of lard, suddenly burst into flames. All efforts to extinguish the fire in this department were futile, and the firemen finally fastened the iron doors of the building, shutting in the burning lard. The interior of the building soon became a seething furnace. Spouting from crevices, doors and windows, streams of hot grease ran into a sort of trench prepared in an endeavor to prevent the hot fluid from spreading over surrounding territory. Danger was encountered at every turn by the firemen, who stood by in case the walls should collapse and allow the blazing lard to reach the adjacent property. Shortly after the fire was discovered last night, when thousands of spectators were gathered, a dozen large ammonia tanks exploded with terrific force. There was a panic among the spectators but no one was injured. That no loss of life attended the fire is considered marvelous. At eight o'clock this morning the fire had apparently been got under control. It was said the fire loss would probably reach $300,000, partly covered by insurance.

GERMANY DIVIDED ON THE ARMAMENT QUESTION

Foreign Secretary and Chancellor Von Buelow Do Not Agree as to the Policy to be Adopted.

BERLIN, April 25.—According to reliable information received here the attitude of Germany toward the Italian compromise proposition, in the matter of discussing at the recent peace conference the question of the limitation of armaments, is due to international policy of the empire. Prince von Buelow, German foreign minister, who is rather influenced by the anti-Italian current, was the person who had the proposal rejected. By doing this he pleased the party in Germany that is opposed to Prince von Buelow.

CHILD MARRIAGES INVALID UNLESS PARENTS CONSENT

OTTAWA, April 25.—There will be no prorogation this week. Business has not gone through fast enough to enable the Governor General to come down Saturday. This morning Mr. Aylesworth introduced a bill to declare invalid marriages of boys and girls without the consent of their parents. The bill would only apply to Ontario and in other provinces which endorsed it by local acts.

WILL MAKE A TEST CASE IF IT HAPPENS AGAIN

MONCTON, April 25.—The case of the intercolonial against Alfred J. Babang, a local wholesale dealer will not be proceeded with further, having been dismissed by Magistrate Kay. Railway Solicitor Sherrin said today that if the point intended to be raised in the Babang case arises again it will be thoroughly gone into. The point was whether or not a consignee had a right to take goods out of custody on which charges were not paid.

PROMISE STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS LATER

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Herald today says the identity of the man who engineered the raid on the securities of the Trust Company of America, for which two men, and another employee are under arrest, has been disclosed, and his arrest is expected today. He is stated to be a bondman. When the man is arrested, it is said, there will not be the most amazing story that the financial district has heard in years.

KLAW & ERLANGER AND SHUBERTS JOIN?

Cincinnati Enquirer Says These Rival Interests Have Combined.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 24.—The Cincinnati Enquirer tomorrow will publish the following story:—Rumors of a combination of interests by Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger and the Shubert forces were given confirmation by the statement of Mr. George B. Cox, of this city, one of the largest shareholders of Shubert stock. He admits that the combination is about to be completed; in fact, the negotiations have progressed so far as to be practically an accomplished fact, and the papers should have been signed today. But he declines to discuss details of the merger at this time nor will he talk about the union of the two great interests in the theatrical world. He believes the story got out at Detroit, where Mr. John H. Haylin, manager of the Grand Opera House, of Cincinnati, held a conference recently with Mr. Stair, his partner. Mr. Henry M. Ziegler, who is interested in the New York Hippodrome, with Mr. Cox, Mr. Max Anderson and Representative Rihnock, is said to be on the inside of the new combination. But Mr. Ziegler avoids the interviewer on that proposition. He was asked for a statement and replied:—"Nothing is ready for publication."

MANAGERS ARE SILENT

Mr. Harry Rainford, who with Mr. John H. Haylin, controls the Grand Opera House, the oldest syndicate theater in Cincinnati, was equally secretive when questioned on the subject. However, he said:—"It is likely that there will be an amicable arrangement of a condition which is detrimental to everybody concerned." Further Mr. Rainford would not say.

This development in the national theatrical situation has been suspected for some time by those who are in touch with the movements of the managers against the thirteen men accused of being leaders of the "Black Hand" and "Mafia" societies and now on trial here on several charges. On the witness stand today Rizzo was telling the story of how he had been persecuted, his life threatened and his money taken by the society when the startling announcement of the wide influence of the society was made. He said that when he was planning to flee from Rome at Brownsville, in an effort to save his money and escape the vengeance of the society, a member told him that if he fled he would be longer pay tribute and to defend themselves as best they could. Before this time he had been taken to several meetings of members of the society, and he pointed out among the defendants the men who had been present at the meetings. They had been required to take an oath of secrecy, which consisted, as he dramatically illustrated, of crossing the wrists in front of the face, the hands with palms downward and repeating the oath. From time to time he and his brothers had been taken to meetings where they rebelled threatening letters. Four of these were given to the police. Two they kept. The letters ordered them to pay tribute or suffer death if they refused. Rizzo said he took $500 to one of these places, but also carried his rifle and waited in vain for some one to appear. No one came, but the next day he received notification to leave the money there and not to carry his rifle. He kept the money and prepared to defend himself. Then the attacks began. The house was bombed, some fifty shots being fired through it. Photographs showing the bullet holes were submitted to the jury and made a good impression for the prosecution. The prosecution also managed to have submitted the threatening letter sent to the Rizzo brothers and to show how they had been hounded by members of its society in the effort to make them pay tribute. District Attorney Saleburg says he has thirty more witnesses to put on the stand in the present case and has other charges against the accused which he may present at the next meeting of the grand jury.

SPAIN PROPOSES TO BUILD MANY LARGE WARSHIPS

MADRID, April 25.—In the matter of Spain's naval increase it is understood that the government has decided upon the construction of six battleships of the Lord Nelson type, six fast cruisers and several torpedo boat destroyers. Three of the battleships will be built in Spain by British firms, and the remainder in England. Furthermore the construction of dry docks capable of caring for a vessel of 20,000 tons will be undertaken at Cadix, Ferrol and Cartagena.

Prof. Leacock and Mrs. Leacock came to the city today and are registered at the Royal. Prof. Leacock, who will speak tonight before the Canadian Club on the Imperial Movement, his first address in a tour of the British Empire, has promised to speak in St. John on his return from the tour. This city will have the honor of hearing his first and last addresses.

PEDLAR PALMER DID NOT ENJOY THE MUSIC POUNDED A MAN TO DEATH BECAUSE HE WOULD NOT STOP SINGING IN A RAILROAD CAR.

LONDON, April 25.—Pedlar Palmer, the English pugilist, who with another man was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having caused the death of an unknown man whose body was found in a railroad carriage from Epsom after the races, was charged at the Croyden police court this morning with murder. After a passenger on the train had testified that he saw Palmer strike the deceased several blows because he refused to stop singing, the prisoner was remanded.

CHARLOTTE TOWN HARBOR LIKELY TO BE OPENED BY THE MINTO ON SATURDAY.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., April 25.—Yesterday John McIntyre, alias Allan J. MacDonald, aged 34, was convicted by trial at the supreme court on the charge of robbery of the Montague railway station last March. Entrance was effected through a window, the safe opened and $88 taken. A letter that had contained money was found on a farmer's premises where the prisoner frequently stayed. McIntyre has served two terms in the penitentiary for burglary and has no visible means of support. Prior to the robbery he was known to be hard up but subsequently he was seen with plenty of money. Arthur L. Jones, chief of the I. C. R. police and Sergeant Drabloy of Charlottetown, worked on the case. The winter steamer Minto will endeavor to open up the Charlottetown-Fredericton route on Saturday.

BRITAIN AND SPAIN FORM AN ALLIANCE?

Madrid Paper Says This is Being Done

As a Result of King Edward's Visit—Terms of Agreement Now Being Prepared.

NEW YORK, April 25.—A despatch from Madrid says:—"The Correspondencia de la Espana says in a diplomatic authority for stating that the effect of the meeting of King Alfonso and King Edward at Cartagena was the perfection of a far-reaching understanding for the purposes of war and peace. It would have been considered in the last century, according to the paper, an alliance, but in modern diplomatic language it is an 'entente cordiale.' Everything concerning Morocco, was ratified, everything in reference to the general European situation was discussed, and the basis was formulated of an agreement which is now in the hands of the diplomatists."

"THE BLACK HAND" HAS 50 BRANCHES

Its Societies Wreak Vengeance All Over the Country

Joseph Rizzo, Testifying Against Thirteen Prisoners at Wilkesbarre Trial, Tells of Power the Organizations Have.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 24.—More than fifty branches of the "Mafia" and "Black Hand" society exist in this country, each of them ready to execute vengeance upon any man who swears from one which threatens him, according to the evidence of Joe Rizzo, one of the informers against the thirteen men accused of being leaders of the "Black Hand" and "Mafia" societies and now on trial here on several charges.

On the witness stand today Rizzo was telling the story of how he had been persecuted, his life threatened and his money taken by the society when the startling announcement of the wide influence of the society was made. Charlottetown Harbor Likely to be Opened by the Minto on Saturday.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., April 25.—Yesterday John McIntyre, alias Allan J. WHISKEY AND DYNAMITE A DANGEROUS COMBINATION

And the Sale of Liquor in Railway Construction Districts Will be Stopped—Washouts on C. N. R. North of Regina Cut Off Large Sections

WINNIPEG, April 25.—Hon. Mr. Skakatchewan, in the city and brings the startling information that the C. N. R. line between Regina and Lumsden is washed away in about twenty places, and no traffic can be carried until the track is restored, which will require considerable time. The north is completely cut off.

KENORA, April 25.—It has been felt here for some time that the mixing of liquor and dynamite in railway construction work has resulted in too long a chain of fatalities and accidents, and the government will be asked to strictly enforce the prohibitive proclamation. Yesterday B. Lochon, M. Murphy, and L. Cardinal, saloon keepers, and George Drewry, shop keeper, of Kenowin village, were summoned to appear before the commissioner of police this morning, charged with selling liquor within the limits prescribed by the proclamation issued under the Dominion Public Works Act.

All pleaded not guilty, and their counsel asked for an adjournment of eight days, which was granted. The adjournment was asked for in order to allow them to appeal to the attorney-general of Ontario to identify them for any losses which they might sustain on account of this act, which has been brought into force by the Dominion authorities to aid in the building of the trans-continent railway near this point.

MIKKELSEN'S VOYAGE.

A great deal of interest is entertained by scientists in a voyage of Arctic exploration now being carried on by Captain Mikkelsen. A letter written by him to the American Geographical Society in October last from some point on the Arctic coast of Alaska has just been published. It conveys the information that Mikkelsen and his little party had intended spending the winter on their schooner, the Duchess of Bedford, at Flaxman Island, about 240 miles west of the McKenzie River Delta. The heavy ice which pressed on the Alaskan coast last summer prevented the party from reaching their proposed winter quarters at Minto Inlet. Mikkelsen's voyage has been undertaken principally for the purpose of locating land supposed to exist somewhere in the Arctic, north of Alaska. The only time that this land is believed to have been seen was some thirty or thirty-five years ago, when Capt. John Keenan, a whaler, reported that he was sailing northward somewhere between Harrison and Camben Bays, on the Alaskan coast, the fog lifted and he and all of his crew distinctly saw land to the north. Through want of time, he was unable to visit it. The Eskimaux in this vicinity also say that on the brightest days of early spring they can see land far to the north.

Mikkelsen and two or three of his men are now, no doubt, well along on their sledge journey from Flaxman Island, and whether they actually reach the supposed land or not they will undoubtedly bring back a great deal of information of value to scientists. Already a number of curious facts which can only be explained by the existence of this land are known to scientists. Whalers report and other voyagers have discovered, that each spring a narrow lane of water opens in the thick pack ice to the north of Cross Island. Here the Eskimaux carry on their fishing. The ice pack is almost motionless outside of this lane of water, which extends far to the northeast. In the latter part of May the whales disappear from the neighborhood of Point Barrow. They head for the northeast and nobody knows where they go, unless they follow this lane of water which perhaps takes them to the north of the supposed land. They are next seen hundreds of miles to the eastward, between Banks Land and Cape Bathurst, where they appear regularly in the latter part of July coming from the northward. The only reasonable explanation why this pack ice should open year after year and supply the whales with a channel through which they can travel to the northeast, is that there is a land of some magnitude in the north from which the ice recedes in the spring. It is also a well known fact that millions of birds which pass Point Barrow in the spring travelling to the northeast breed elsewhere than on the mainland, for they do not live on the coast of Alaska but pass over it to the north and are not seen again until autumn, when they are travelling south. Geese go flying southward to Herschel Island as late as the middle of August, and this fact leads the whalers to believe that Mikkelsen will find land this spring not very far north of the Alaskan coast.

Mikkelsen had intended to take a party of two or three men early this spring and strike out from Flaxman Island towards the north-north-east, following this direction for 150 miles, then travelling west for 100 miles, thence south to Cross Island. He will winter next year, if all goes well, in Banks Island, and in the spring of 1908 will start on another sledge trip towards the west from Cape Prince Alfred. These two sledge journeys, it is believed, should solve the problem as to the existence of land of any magnitude between 76 degrees north and the coast of Alaska.

INSPECTION NEEDED.

St. John people are long-suffering, slow to anger, and all the rest of it. The particular kick which the Star has to make now is concerning the sale of milk. There is a Dairy Act in this province by which certain regulations are provided; there are also laws governing the duties of the boards of health. The latter include the simple provision that skim milk must not be offered for sale unless it is marked as such; the former fixes the standard of butter fat. It has never occurred to any of the board of health officers that they are expected to apply to their own work those laws which exist for the protection of the people but which are not definitely set forth in the health regulations. Hence it happens that dealers sending supplies of milk to St. John first remove as much as they desire of the cream—in some cases the greater part—and because a little is left in the cans they are able to avoid the skim milk clause. There is stuff on sale in this city today at eight cents a quart which is not fit for pigs, but which must be used by the poorer classes because they cannot get better, and are unable to afford the money required for cream. There are stores where day after day cans of the bluest any stretch of imagination which could be classed as milk, are sold to all customers. It is in some cases not only skimmed, but watered as well.

The skim milk clause is utterly worthless. It is on the statute books, but as there is no milk inspection and consequently no penalty for violation, it is useless and absurd, like many others of the health regulations. It is nothing less than a disgrace that people should be so imposed upon. This by no means applies to all milk dealers, for the great majority are thoroughly honest, but there are a few who should certainly receive prompt attention.

ARILD'S HARVEST.

"My lord the earl," Count Arild said, "Thy lawful captive, here I stand; Yet grant me leave again to tread Fair Solberg's earth—to plow my land."

"To sow and till those acres wide; And when the harvest yield is stored To Aalborg's keep again I'll ride And give myself to chain or sword."

"One harvest more? The time is short," The earl replied; "I grant it thee." Count Arild passed the frowning port And spurred for Solberg, fast and free.

But thrice the Danish fields were sown, And thrice the waving harvest glowed. Yet back to Aalborg's keep of stone The Count of Solberg never rode.

To Solberg's hall Earl Eric came. "A deed," he cried, "is Arild's oath! False Count, unworthy knight-hood's name, Thy faith and head are forfeit, both!"

"Nay, Earl," Count Arild laughed, "not so!" "One harvest more!—my faith I keep; My acorn-fields have much to grow Before their oaks are ripe to reap!"

Earl Eric stared. Where once the sheaves Of gathered grain at harvest stood, The furrows shone with glossy leaves Of baby oaks—a future wood.

So wit and shrewdness conquered strife, And hate in laughter found an end, The Count of Solberg won his life, The Earl of Aalborg gained a friend.

In slumber lies the Earl, full low; The Count beside him shares his sleep. The mighty oaks of Solberg know That Arild's fields are still to reap.

ADAPTABLE.

Small Robbie was laboring over a drawing which was obviously of great importance. His mother, who was sewing in the room, got up to see what he was doing.

"What is it you're drawing, dear?" she said, as she stood behind him. Robbie was embarrassed, struggling to cover his nervousness, he answered with an air of great nonchalance:

"Oh, it's papa I'm drawing, but I don't care anything about it. Guess I'll put a tail to it, and have it for a dog."

THE LIGHT-HEADED SEX.

"Borra, me love, it is stashed that man," said Pat to his Nora one day. "Has a brain that is built on a heavier plan Than woman's—now, phat do ye say?"

"O'm not sayin' nawthin'" said Nora, "except, if we weren't light-headed, bebad, We never would marry the men that we do— So I guess ye spalpanes should be glad!"

CHICAGO FAST EXPRESS WAS IN COLLISION

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 24.—The Chicago Express on the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. which left this city for New York at 10:45 p. m., was wrecked tonight near Bennett Station on the West Pennsylvania division of the Pennsylvania R. R. shortly after the 10 o'clock. Bennett Station is about ten miles east of here. The express crashed into a Pennsylvania R. R. freight train several persons are reported injured. The passenger engine and the caboose of the freight train were demolished. A misunderstanding of signals, it is said, caused the wreck. The engineer and fireman of the express seeing a collision was inevitable, jumped. The caboose of the freight train which fortunately was unoccupied, was crushed to pieces. Before abandoning the train, however, the engineer sounded the air brakes causing the train to come to a sudden stop. A majority of the passengers in the Pullman sleepers were thrown from their berths, sustaining bruises, but none were seriously injured.

SENTENCED TO TWO YEARS, HAS BEEN IN JAIL FOR THREE

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—Charles Ughbanks, a resident of Canada, who in state prison in Jackson, Mich., has filed papers indicating his purpose of asking the courts to retrieve his sentence. The case involves a Michigan state law, inflicting a penalty of five years' imprisonment for the offence of burglary, unless some good conduct of prisoner. Ughbanks was sentenced for only two years, but because of the state law the warden of the penitentiary refused to release him, and he has now been held for more than three years. He will ask the supreme court to permit him to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

BRADFORD, Pa., April 24.—Miss Hala Belle Stroup, who went from Bradford to Oil City today and there killed Thaddeus Ross, conducted a dressmaking establishment here. For a week she had been ill. She arose this morning from her bed of sickness and despite the advice of her friends, went to Oil City. It is claimed that Ross had promised to marry her, the wedding day set for some time in July next. Miss Stroup was not an attaché of a hospital as reported.

FORTY INSPECTORS OF CANNED MEAT IN CANADA

OTTAWA, April 24.—Out of the fifty-nine young veterinary surgeons who were sent from various parts of Canada to Chicago during the past winter to take a course in meat inspecting in that city, fifty-eight have passed the examination, after only one month's study. In the short space of one month the Canadian doctors had mastered every stage of the work, and all but one succeeded in passing the examinations.

Out of the number who were successful it is expected that forty will be appointed to cover the whole dominion at a proposed salary of $1,200 each per year, as inspectors in connection with the meat canned goods bill. Dr. Rutherford will likely be appointed as head inspector. The duties of the inspectors will be to look after all meats which are canned in Canada for export, as well as to examine all that is used for home consumption.

BLOWN OFF THE ROOF DURING SEVERE GALE

BOSTON, Mass., April 24.—A northwest gale which reached the velocity of 55 miles an hour this afternoon caused injury to two people and did considerable damage to property about the city. Clark was knocked down by the wind on Tremont street and had his hip broken. The gale blew the top off a freight car in East Cambridge, and blocked the track for nearly an hour. The cross and a portion of the steeple of a church in East Boston was blown down and several vessels in the harbor dragged their anchors.

DISCOUNT RATE REDUCED.

LONDON, April 25.—The Bank of England's rate of discount was reduced today from 4½ to 4 per cent. This doubtless will be further increased by the absorption of the bulk of $5,000,000 which will be available during the coming week.

STEAMER UNIVERSE IS ASHORE AT SEAL COVE

Struck Early This Morning and is in a Dangerous Position—Is Full of Water.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 25.—The Norwegian steamer Universe from New York for Louisburg, is ashore near Canso. A Canso despatch, received today, says "The steamer Universe, bound for Louisburg, went ashore at Seal Cove, near White Point, a few miles from here, after midnight. She struck heavily and was damaged, but was apparently not leaking when the message left here. There was deep water under her stern, and the sea was rough, but the ship is somewhat sheltered. The captain sent here for a tug and the steamer Oliver has gone to the scene. It is feared, however, that the Universe has filled and sunk by this time. A later despatch says the steamer is a 2,000 ton Norwegian steamer, chartered by the Dominion Coal Company.

AMERICA'S NAVAL FLEET IS WAITING

Rise of the New Navy Shown in Contrast Between the Little Texas and Big Connecticut

NORFOLK, Va., April 24.—Every type of fighting craft in the United States navy is represented in the great fleet which is assembled tonight in Hampton Roads, spick and span in white paint, awaiting the visiting foreign war ships which are expected to take part in the celebration of the Jamestown Exposition. There are more than 300,000 tons of floating steel, and the whole fleet, anchored in a huge semi-circle off the shore of the exposition grounds, makes a sight to fill every American heart with pride. The first and the last of the new navy battle ships are here; the Texas, contemporary of the ill fated Maine, eight guns and 3,300 tons, and the great Connecticut, 24 guns and 15,000 tons, are fitting examples by which the strides of twenty years may be measured.

The German cruiser Bremen is here and the Hoon, one of Emperor William's newest armored cruisers, is expected tonight. The British fleet will be here for the opening on Friday, and the fleets of Germany and Austria are also expected to be complete by that time. Admiral Evans has the Connecticut as his flagship.

CRUISERS ALL MODERN.

The cruisers of the fleet are all modern craft, though the variance in size between the largest and the smallest is as great as that which marks the heavier vessels of the battle class. The armored cruisers Tennessee and Washington, each of 14,500 tons and mounting twenty guns apiece, are the heaviest of the cruisers. They can hurt a weight of metal almost equal to the first class battle ships, while at the same time they possess the fleetness of the ocean greyhound, the massive, throbbing engines in their hulls being capable of the development of 20,000 horse power. The smallest cruisers are the Denver and the Cleveland—3,100 tons each—their armament consisting of protected vessels of the navy. In the cruiser-class the most interesting vessel is perhaps the Brooklyn, the flagship of Rear Admiral Schley in the battle of Santiago and the protected cruiser Aspern will arrive either late Thursday evening or early Friday morning. The vessels of the other navies will arrive on Friday, yet to be fixed. The Japanese squadron is expected on May 8.

President Roosevelt will review the gathered American fleet and the visiting foreigners from the bridge of the Mayflower on Friday morning before he lands on the exposition grounds. The foreign vessels will be given positions of honor inside the long, sweeping circle of American ships during their stay in the roads.

SAILORS TO PARADE.

Fifteen hundred sailors will be landed from the American vessels to take part in the military and naval parade on Friday afternoon, which will be reviewed by the President from the grand stand erected on the exposition's plaza, known as "Lee's Parade." The foreign vessels will be given positions of honor inside the long, sweeping circle of American ships during their stay in the roads.

STRIKING BAKERS STARTLE PARIS

Agitation in French Capital Assumes Threatening Shape.

Leaders Boast That They Could Invade the Elysee and Say Critical Time is Approaching.

PARIS, April 24.—Sensation has been caused by a startling proof given by the strikers of the perfection of their organization and their discipline. The mot d'ordre was passed around on Monday night from the Bourse du Travail that the bakers should assemble on the Place de la Concorde. The men were warned to proceed to the place of rendezvous singly or in small groups and only form a solid column on the signal being given.

This programme was carried out to the letter. At ten o'clock the panic stricken tradespeople in the Rue Royale saw a solid body of two thousand men marching toward the Grand Boulevard. The police, completely taken by surprise, were not able to oppose the advance until the column had almost reached the Madeleine.

Here the strikers found their advance barred by solid lines of police. As the men still came on a vigorous charge was made and a violent collision took place between the head of the column and the forces of public order.

M. Bousquet, leader of the strikers, was knocked down in the melee and trampled upon. The first half of the procession was dispersed, but the rear half turned into the Rue Saint Honoré and tried to gain an annex of the Bourse du Travail.

Repeatedly charged en route, the strikers reached the Bourse. Here they came in collision with the Republican guards mounting guard outside. A terrible melee followed and the position of the guards was critical when a body of cul-de-lampe men rushed up and charged the rioters.

TO MAKE DEMAND FOR BETTER RAILS

Association Takes Up Matter and Will Present it to Manufacturers

Bad Steel is Cause of Many Accidents Because of Hurry in the Making.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 24.—The managements of American railroads are preparing to make a demand upon the manufacturers for a better quality of steel rails upon the ground that many railroad accidents are caused by a poor grade of steel. The demand is to be made through the medium of the American Railway Association, which is the most powerful organization of its kind in the world, now holding its spring meeting at the Auditorium.

It is charged by the railroad operating officials and by the presidents that investigation has shown that many of the wrecks which have been caused during the last few years are the result of rails which failed to stand the strain they should and many of which are said to have shown flaws. The charge is not made that the rail manufacturers are deliberately manufacturing an inferior steel rail, but it is feared that owing to the great demand for rails the manufacturers may not have exercised the care they were wont to exercise in the past.

The association members have evinced a willingness to go into the question of steel rails from all sides and from an unbiased standpoint. They admit that possibly changed operating conditions, such as heavier trains, greater speed and the introduction of electric motors, may have made it advisable that new rail specifications be adopted. Wherever the blame, however, they insist that there are too many broken rails with their terrible record of death and disaster and that a rail should be manufactured upon which operating officials may depend with reasonable certainty.

Among the reports which have been prepared for presentation to the general meeting of the association today is one by the committee on standard rail and wheel sections. This committee took up the problem at the October meeting and held a session in New York in February. Among other things the report states:

"The question of proper specifications for the manufacture of steel rails which was referred to your committee at the October meeting has been given careful consideration, and the committee has called to its assistance a number of experts to prepare a draft of proposed specifications to form the basis of a discussion with the steel manufacturers, and when this draft is ready it is the purpose of your committee to take the matter up with all the American makers in an effort to improve the quality of material in steel rails. It is thought that something substantial can be accomplished in this direction, if the unanimous approval of the members of the association can be had to the reasonable suggestions of the committee."

When the committee considered the question it is understood that it had before it several broken rail sections which had caused accidents in the east and which chemists and metallurgists' reports showed to be imperfect rails. One of the theories entertained is that the new processes employed in the manufacture of steel rails result in many imperfect rails, owing to the short time given for cooling.

The object of the meeting was to make preparations for the brigade camp at Sussex, which begins on June 25th. Major T. D. Walker addressed those who assembled, making a few remarks on the various things that would make the twelve days in Sussex pleasant than usual. After the meeting refreshments were served and an informal smoker held. Recruiting for No. Eight has already begun and until camp opens, Monday and Thursday of each week will be devoted to enrolling recruits. An effort will be made to increase the musical talent in the Unit's ranks so that No. Eight will be able to more than hold its own at the sing-songs and concerts held in camp.

BUILDING BURNED
AT KITTERY, ME.
Occupied as Storehouse in Navy Yard—Believed the Loss Will Probably Reach $150,000.

KITTERY, Me., April 24.—A three-story brick building about 100 feet long, forty feet in width, occupied as a pattern shop and storehouse, at the Navy Yard here, was ruined by fire tonight. At one time a high wind threatened to carry the flames to the group of nearby buildings, but after the fire had been in progress an hour the wind diminished in force, and the firemen of the yard, assisted by the Portsmouth City department, were able to confine the damage to the pattern shop building. During the fire a ladder fell and sustained a broken shoulder. No other person was injured.

Fire broke out from some cause unknown on the top floor, used as the pattern shop. The flames extended to the lower stories, which were occupied by the storehouses. A large quantity of oil at one end of the building was a danger to the firemen at one time, but part of the oil was taken out before the flames reached it, and the remainder was in a part of the storehouse not touched by the flames. A large number of costly patterns and valuable brass fittings and other stores were either destroyed or badly damaged. The fire was placed under control after two hours hard work by the firemen. No inventory of the destroyed property has been taken, and the navy yard authorities did not care to make an estimate of the loss at this time. Unofficially a rough estimate places the total loss at $150,000. The burned building belonged to the engineers and hydrographic department and was across the street from the building used by the Russian and Japanese peace delegates. The peace building is a substantial brick structure, and although it was thought to be in danger at one time it was not damaged.

MAN FOUND DEAD WAS WANTED BY THE POLICE

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 24.—The body of a man which was found hanging to the elevated railway structure in Brooklyn Sunday night was identified today as that of Otto J. Adams, an inventor. The police, it is said, have been looking for Adams since January on the charge of robbing a woman. Adams was arrested several times on similar charges, but was never convicted.

WOODSTOCK NEWS.

WOODSTOCK, April 24.—The members of the 6th Regt. band, under the leadership of Prof. J. J. Ansell of Seatington, Pa., are making arrangements for a grand band competition here in June. Invitations have been extended to upwards of twenty of the best organizations in New Brunswick and northern Maine, and already several entries have been received. Subscriptions are piling up rapidly in the fund for the proposed Methodist church. To date nearly $10,000 has been subscribed.

J. Albert Hayden will put up a fine three story brick and cement building this season. He has bought the Barkin street lot adjoining his property Main street. The new structure will be an ornament to the town.

Peter Polchis, an Indian from the reservation just below the town, was before Magistrate Dibles today on the charge of stealing a pair of driving shoes from a neighbor, Gabe Joe. The defendant pleaded guilty, and being anxious to make amends was permitted to escape imprisonment on undertaking to pay for the shoes and costs of the trial.

John A. Lindsay, Scott Act Inspector, had Fred Deboles, colored, up for trial Monday charged with violating the Scott Act, by what is known as pocket peddling. The accused pleaded guilty in two cases and was $100 and costs.

DANISH ARMY AND NAVY.

COPENHAGEN, April 24.—The correspondent of The Mail and Empire learns on excellent authority that negotiations are going on between the Danish and German Governments concerning the arrangement of the Danish army and navy in case of war. German requests the concentration of a Danish army in Zealand, new fortifications at Copenhagen, the establishment of a naval base in the Great Belt, and the expansion of both the material and personnel of the navy. The negotiations, which commenced during King Frederick's visit to Berlin, are now nearly concluded. In military circles it is considered that the fulfillment of Germany's requests would have the same effect as the Kaiser's favorite plan of closing the Baltic.

NO EXHIBITION FOR ST. JOHN THIS YEAR—GOVERNMENT TURNS DOWN APPLICATION FOR A $3,000 GRANT

St. John is not to have an exhibition this year. The decision of the provincial government with reference to the application of the Exhibition Association for a grant of $3,000 was made known yesterday afternoon by Premier Pugsley in a letter to A. O. Skinner, president of the Exhibition Association. The premier called attention to the fact that the understanding was that St. John and Fredericton should receive the grant alternately, and as St. John had it last year the capital was justly entitled to it this year. He had discussed the matter with Commissioner of Agriculture Parris, and this was the conclusion they had reached. Nevertheless, the people of St. John will be deeply disappointed, particularly as the last exhibition was so successful. It is impossible, though, to make ends meet financially without a grant, and the project will necessarily have to be abandoned for this year. Regarding the exhibition buildings the premier informed Mr. Skinner that he would exert every endeavor in his power to have the Minister of Militia permit them to remain undisturbed.

LONDON THE HOME OF THE HOMELESS
One Person Out of Every 2,000 Has No Habitation.

LONDON, April 24.—According to a census taken by the London County Council, one person out of every 2,000 of London's population is homeless. The percentage is growing every year. It is interesting to note what the facilities are for obtaining cheap food. At a mission in Shore ditch 500 men are fed daily for four cents a meal. Free food is distributed to an average of 350 on Sundays and 900 on Thursdays. From 900 to 1,500 are supplied on the Thames embankment with soup and bread nightly, and 400 bread tickets are distributed nightly in Limehouse. In this manner, the London County Council's report says, a man can live, so far as food is concerned for four cents a day.

SPANISH GOVERNMENT WINS
Stronger Than Ever in the Cortes—Republicans Win in Valencia.

MADRID, April 24.—By the elections yesterday the government obtained a large majority in the new Cortes. The Republicans, however, have won a number of seats. They carried all before them in Valencia, where not a single monarchist was successful. The elections have given Prime Minister Maura immense power, and unless something unforeseen occurs he can expect to hold it for five years. Apart from the electoral majority his report says, a man can live, so far as food is concerned for four cents a day.

Furthermore the discipline of the Conservative party is good, and in marked contrast to that of the Liberals, whose divisions when they were in power led to perpetual crises. The returns are not yet complete. The results in 270 districts have been officially declared, but 130 are yet to be announced. The former districts return 180 Conservatives, 50 Liberals and 30 Republicans. It is calculated that the final constitution of the Chamber of Deputies will be approximately 275 Conservatives, 85 Liberals, 52 Republicans and 10 Clericals and Independents. A striking number of young men are among the Conservatives elected.

GHOST DRIVES OUT
NEWLY WED COUPLE
Startling Apparition Meets Mr. and Mrs. Cabre When They Begin Housekeeping.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 24.—Mysterious manifestations in a pretty little villa near Wissinikon Drive, in Chestnut Hill, have nearly driven a young bride insane. She is now a nervous wreck, and nothing could induce her to return to the house from which she and her husband fled early yesterday morning. The house is a two story stucco villa in Hillcrest avenue and is surrounded by one and a half acres of ground. To it last Friday went Mr. and Mrs. William Cabre, newly married. The place suited them and with bright plans for the future they started housekeeping. All went well until night. The couple were sleeping quietly, when Mrs. Cabre was awakened by a peculiar noise. Looking toward her eyes, she was horrified to see the face of a woman staring in at her. With a cry she awoke her husband.

The man saw a towering face, and leaping out of bed, rushed to the casement. As he approached the ghostly visitor shook her head and her eyes were fixed on the floor. Mrs. Cabre turned to his wife, who was weeping and almost in hysterics. The frightened couple fled to their room, but determined to await further developments. Nothing out of the ordinary occurred on Saturday until the couple retired. There is no gas in the house and as Mr. Cabre placed a lighted lamp on the bureau the latter roomed like a ship at sea and the light was suddenly extinguished as if blown out by a breath from invisible lips. Then, as the frightened couple fled to their room, they were again startled by a peculiar noise and at the window appeared the same towering woman. Thoroughly shaken by her strange experience, Mrs. Cabre vowed she would never spend another night in the house. Mr. and Mrs. Cabre spent yesterday with George Johnson, a neighbor.

"EXCUSE ME," SAID
VANISHING BURGLAR
Police Intruder Thus Salutes Woman Who Confronts Him

CHESTER, Pa., April 24.—"Excuse me, I'll call at some more convenient season," was the manner in which a strange man addressed Mrs. Jacob Hoffman, 215 North 12th street, when she walked into the sitting room of her home early this morning. The man gained entrance to the basement by crawling through the laundry chute. His purpose was evidently robbery. Mrs. Hoffman was taken ill during the night and came downstairs. She was sitting in the rocking chair when the burglar made his appearance. Both received a genuine surprise. The thief's nerve and his deliberate manner in the woman at her knees until he had time to quietly withdraw by the same way he entered the room. Mrs. Hoffman screamed and aroused her husband, but before he could get downstairs the polite burglar had escaped.

DEATH IN SMOKY AIR.
Sir Frederick Treves Tells Some Startling Facts About London.

LONDON, April 24.—Dr. Sir Frederick Treves, lecturing in behalf of the movement for the abatement of the coal smoke nuisance here and in other large cities, said that while the lungs of a healthy young child were pink right through, the lungs of an adult living in a large city were as dingy as a thundercloud, pitched and streaked with blue and lined with dark marks, which permeated the innermost depths of those organs. This was entirely due to dirt and soot inhaled. He had seen the lungs of many persons who had died in London which were black from the surface to their innermost recesses. This not only made it more difficult to resist disease, but started disease, causing appalling misery. Everybody knew the terrors of a London fog. It would be merely a white mist but for the coal smoke, which gave it its filthy, choking constituents. Not by scores of London killed people, not by fogs or hundreds, but by thousands. Experiments showed that during a bad fog six tons of soot were deposited to the square mile.

NEW YORK, April 24.—A despatch from Santiago, Cuba, says: Antonio Infante, a negro, is dead at the age of one hundred and fifty years. Despite his great age, he was recorded in modern times, he retained all his faculties unimpaired to the end. He was born in 1757, nineteen years before the beginning of the American revolution.

SUCCEEDS LORD
CROMER IN EGYPT
Sir Eldon Gorst Has Been Well Trained in Affairs of Khedive's Country.

LONDON, April 24.—In appointing Sir Eldon Gorst to the high post vacant in Egypt the government has, it is believed, acted, not only on the advice of Lord Cromer, but on the personal recommendation of Lord Cromer himself. He may be said to have been the favorite pupil of Lord Cromer. He has been thoroughly grounded by that statesman in all that appertains to Egyptian affairs, possesses his complete confidence, and, next to the great financier himself, deserves credit with Lord Milner for the financial reforms achieved in Egypt. More recently Sir Eldon Gorst has been the pre-eminent Foreign Secretary's "right-hand man" in London, where, as assistant Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs he has been brought into contact with the diplomatic world, and its central, and perhaps its most important point, in character quiet but brilliant, unobtrusive but determined, still in the prime of life, Sir Eldon Gorst will be able to deal, not only with the financial aspect of Egyptian affairs, but with any social or political phenomena which may call for the astuteness of a ruler. Finance, as becomes a pupil of Lord Cromer, has been his special study. In organization he has had considerable experience, having been responsible in 1884 for the reorganization of the Egyptian police and the internal administration of the country. He will also be notable as the first Consul-General of Egypt with a masterly knowledge of Arabic.

The son of the Right Hon. Sir John Gorst, the new Consul-General was born in New Zealand forty-six years ago, and was educated at Eton and Trinity College, Cambridge, of which he is a Master of Arts, and where he took twentieth place in the year after leaving Wranglership. Some time after leaving the house, Sir Eldon Gorst was for a time one of Lord Randolph Churchill's private secretaries. Later he studied for the Bar, to which he was called in 1884. A year later he was nominated an Attaché in the Diplomatic Service, and after passing a competitive examination and an examination in public law, obtained his first appointment in Cairo on September 24, 1888. From the beginning of his service in Egypt it may be said that he has been singled out, along with Lord Milner, who was one of his colleagues, as one of the "promising young men" of the day. In the year following his appointment in Cairo he was appointed a Third Secretary in the Diplomatic Service.

He received his first Egyptian appointment of sending of importance in 1890, when he was made Controller of Direct Revenues. This post he held until 1892, when he succeeded Lord Milner as Under-Secretary of State for Finance. Two years later he was selected to organize the public administration and internal affairs of the province of the interior, to which some four years later he became Financial Adviser. For his services in this and other directions he was rewarded in 1892 with the K. C. B.

He married in the realms of high finance, Lady Gorst is the daughter, Mrs. C. D. Ford, the celebrated South African millionaire pioneer, who was Mr. Rhodes's partner in founding the Consolidated Gold Fields Company, and in extending the Matieland concessions from Lobengula.

BANDIT LEADER NOW HELD FOR DEPORTATION
Enrico Alfano Released on Murder Charge and Sent to Ellis Island.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Enrico Alfano, leader in Italy of the secret Camorra di Napoli, the famous criminal society of Naples, who was arrested in this city last week during a police raid on the East Side, has been turned over to the immigration authorities and will be deported to Italy. Alfano escaped from that country shortly after the mysterious murder of one Cuccolo, and Cuccolo's wife, crimes of which Alfano and other Camorra criminals are accused. Fear of Cuccolo's growing power in the Camorra was the motive for the murder. When Alfano was arrested he was taken to the Tombs and charged with murder, but the Italian detectives were advised to submit the case to the immigration officials, as the presiding judge considered it unlikely that Alfano could be held for homicide in the absence of documentary evidence from abroad. The court's suggestion was followed. In the Tombs Court today the defendant was discharged on the murder complaint, but was immediately turned over to the Federal authorities and removed to Ellis Island. He will be deported in a few days.

Laurier and Botha Proclaim Fealty to British Institutions—An Important
Assembly—The Cattle Embargo.

LONDON, April 24.—The climax of the memorial gatherings associated with the colonial conference was reached today, when in historic Westminster Hall and in the presence of the assembled lords and commons Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a French-Canadian and General Botha as a Boer stood up to proclaim their fealty to the British institutions of which the British parliament is the head. In the same hall William Wallace was tried; Charles I. was tried and condemned there for high treason, and so was Warren Hastings. Gladstone lay there in state and all the English sovereigns from Stephen to George IV. hold their coronation feasts amid every manner of pomp and circumstance.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, as premier, and Mr. Balfour, as the leader of the opposition, proposed the toast to the colonial premiers and warmly welcomed the offspring of the British race, who, they declared, had become as brothers.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, though badly heard in so vast a hall, rose to the opportunity and touched a sympathetic chord by recalling all through his youth he had fed on the doings of Pitt, Sheridan, Canning, Peel, O'Connell, Disraeli and Gladstone. He had even dreamed at one time of himself finding a seat within these hallowed walls, but he was a member of another parliament in which the traditions of the mother parliament were treasured. Now, he declared, he and his colleagues would return home more impressed than ever with the sense of imperial unity, based as it was on local autonomy.

General Botha also replied. As belonging to the younger parliament in the world, he rejoiced in British freedom. A Malacca dispatch says Haldane's resolution regarding the colonial defense is described by Sir John Forrest, acting commonwealth premier, as very wise. Mr. Ewing, minister of defense, says the proposal will prove of great value to the whole Empire.

Sir Frederick Borden, speaking at St. George's Day banquet, said the word "Englishman" stood for everything best in humanity. The press is unanimous in its approval of the scheme of a general tariff for the Empire, regarding it as a military link in federation.

The M. P.'s in both houses today entertained to the young and the old. The interior of Westminster Hall was appropriately decorated, but did not present so brilliant a scene as on the occasion of the entertainment of the officers of the French fleet, two years ago. Prior to the luncheon a reception was held, after which a procession was formed to the banquet hall. Among the last to arrive were Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier.

The prime minister and practically throughout the cabinet and many other distinguished notabilities were present. After grace, luncheon was begun and the clatter of cutlery and the hum of conversation and the playing of the Maple Leaf Forever. After the usual loyal toasts Premier Bannerman proposed in appropriate terms the toast to colonial premiers, Balfour supporting.

Though Hon. Sidney Fisher is absent, Sir Wilfrid Laurier means to bring the Canadian cattle embargo most pointedly before the colonial conference. One of his colleagues explains as follows the attitude the ministers will adopt: "Question is one upon which we are determined to make an emphatic stand. We have nothing to do with the affairs of political parties here. Both of them have connived at what we deem a piece of political dishonesty. Canada's interests we must speak out however much they may be hurt. The British people have a perfect right to protect their Irish and British store cattle trade from Canadian competition, but they have no right to do so under the pretense that Canadian cattle are branded with disease. This is a calumny which they can neither prove nor justify."

"If they persist in this attitude they must be prepared to see private members bring a resolution in the Canadian House of Commons in order to rescind the preference until the embargo is removed. It is difficult to see how the Canadian government could be expected to seriously resist such a resolution."

The real importance of yesterday's decisions of the colonial conference regarding the defense lies in the quick recognition that the new general staff of the empire is merely advisory. The resolution approves but most expressly refuses to commit the colonial governments to Haldane's ideas and also distinctly excludes the questions connected with the command and administration.

BERLIN, April 24.—It is understood that the new provisions of tariff between Germany and the United States shall endure for a year or so and that it will prolong itself if no notice is given of a change.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 24.—A census of the wage earners in Canada has been taken and a bulletin issued. It shows a total of 222,531 wage earners in Canada of which 78,459 are males and 154,072 females. The average earnings of the males was $37 a year and of the females $31.

NOT LIKELY TO BE DISCUSSED AT THE CONFERENCE

Senator Loughheed Asks If Intermediate
Tariff Is to be Referred to by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 24.—In the senate tonight Senator Loughheed read a dispatch from London to a Canadian paper stating Sir Wilfrid Laurier would go to Paris and Italy after the colonial conference; that on the next week's discussions at the colonial conference would depend what line the Canadian ministers take in their negotiations with France, Italy and possibly Australia.

Senator Loughheed said the cable indicated that the possibility of Canada extending the intermediate tariff to colonial countries possibly to the disadvantage of Great Britain was being discussed at the colonial conference. He asked to what extent Canada had discussed the matter with other countries. Sir Richard Cartwright said he had not received information as to what Sir Wilfrid had done with regard to these matters. There had been certain four parties with one or two others, but they had not special reference to the conference. Italy was one of the countries, and there had been some informal communications with Germany. There was nothing in the shape that he could make a communication to parliament in regard to them.

Senator Loughheed—"Would my right honorable friend be at liberty to say whether it will be a subject to be discussed at the colonial conference now being held?"

Sir Richard Cartwright—"I doubt considerably whether anything as regards our attitude to foreign countries will be discussed there. I think it unlikely. I think the proceedings of the conference will be confined almost exclusively to the traditions of the British Empire, and to the colonies as between ourselves. I do expect that communications will be had particularly with New Zealand and Australia on the subject of their extending preferences to us and ourselves reciprocally to them. These two colonies, and very probably also the colonies of South Africa, but I do not think the question of our relations to other countries is likely to come up."

Senator Loughheed asked if the attitude of Great Britain toward Canada would not be important in event of Canada extending the intermediate tariff to the countries mentioned.

Sir Richard said he expected Sir Wilfrid would discuss that with the British government. Personally, he did not think that the extension of the intermediate tariff would materially affect the British preference. Senator Loughheed said that while it had been stated in Canada there would not be more than 2 1/2 per cent difference between the colonial and intermediate tariffs, reliable publications in England seemed to think granting the intermediate tariff would result in a British trade position to the extent of five and seven per cent.

Sir Richard said he thought this was a mistake. There are few cases, but very few, in which it may exceed 2 1/2 per cent, but they are very rare, and as a rule they are not very important, we deal chiefly with the United States and not with other countries.

LARGE ATTENDANCE
AT THE HALIFAX
PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

HALIFAX, April 24.—Tonight the convocation of Halifax Presbyterian College was held and eight graduates received diplomas. There is an encouraging increase in the number of students entering the ministry, the total attendance of the session being thirty-eight. The degree of bachelor of divinity was conferred on Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, B. A., Rev. Malcolm J. Macpherson, M. A., and Rev. A. J. Myers, B. A. The address to the graduates was delivered by Rev. A. A. Graham of St. John, N. B., who said the great question before the people was the Canadianizing of the Presbyterian daily pouring in. This immigrant problem was a crisis to Canadian national life and a crisis in religious life. He appealed to Christians to drop all distinctions of the old world and band together to give the gospel to the incoming people. He strongly approved of the stand of the Canadian premier in resisting the proposals for money contributions to the imperial army and navy at this time, when so many great problems confronted this young nation.

HORSFIELD STREET
HOUSES FLOODED.

During the last few days the water main running along Horsfield street has burst in three or four places. The latest break was discovered yesterday morning, when John M. Hay of 29 Horsfield street found about seven inches of water on his basement dining room floor. The water escaping from the broken main, instead of flowing through the surface on the street, worked its way under the sidewalk and into the basement of the house, doing considerable damage.

The water works department were notified, and for another day Horsfield street residents had to go without a water supply. A gang of men were at work all day repairing the break. It is thought that a complete new main will be laid along the street, as the present one is very old and defective.

WESTERN MEMBERS
DEMAND BETTER
RAILWAY SERVICE

OTTAWA, April 24.—All the western members of parliament today waited upon the board of railway commission and demanded pressure be put on the railroads to compel them to give a proper train service throughout the West. They stated it was not severe weather but the lack of facilities which held up the Canadian Northern and parts of the Canadian Pacific in the West. It was this and not the strike which caused the fuel famine. They declared the railroads had put bonuses in the pockets of their shareholders instead of buying engines and cars for their lines.

OPENING OF NAVIGATION
IN ST. LAWRENCE WILL BE LATER THAN USUAL

QUEBEC, April 24.—All indications point to a much later opening of navigation in the St. Lawrence than usual. The government steamer Montcalm has been doing excellent work for some time past and had succeeded in clearing all the narrow parts of the channel between Port Quebec and Cape Rouge. From that place for a distance of 30 miles up the channel there is a solid ice, but the weather and favorable currents of the past few days have had a very telling effect in weakening its hold.

A GRACEFUL GOWN FOR A MISS.

2396.—The dressing of a growing girl is always a problem of importance to both the young miss and her mother. There must be a nice simplicity in her dress, and the same may finish the sleeves. There is a choice of light or round neck and full length or shorter sleeves, so that the design may prove suitable for an everyday or dressy frock. The skirt is a five gored one, gathered at the top and sewed to the waist. A girth of any kind may be made of cloth or silk or washing fabric. The medium size calls for 4 1/2 yards of 42-inch material.

MAYOR MacILREITH OF HALIFAX GOES IN
BY ACCLAMATION

HALIFAX, N. S., April 24.—The sequel to the Conservative campaign against Mayor R. T. Macilreith was found in his election today by acclamation for third term as chief magistrate of this city. This is the second time that Mayor Macilreith has been given the compliment of an election without opposition, and in view of recent libel suits against him he still enjoys the fullest confidence of the electors of Halifax. In two of the six wards the retiring incumbent, P. P. Martin, and Geo. A. McKenney, were unopposed. In wards two and three, Jos. A. Chisholm and P. J. McManus were also elected by acclamation, leaving only contests in wards one and four. Practically no interest was taken in these contests, less than half the vote being polled. Alfred Whitman was elected in ward one and C. R. Hoben in ward four.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS

FREDERICTON, April 24.—The river during the day was filled with floating ice and logs. During this afternoon and evening between three and four million feet of the latter floated down. A heavy rain prevailed here all day, the water is rising rapidly, having come up over a foot within the past twelve hours. The ice was in a most rotten condition and moved out very quickly. Reports from up river are to the effect that the river is coming up rapidly and that the rain today is prevalent. Tonight it has cleared off and is turning quite cold.

His lordship Bishop Richardson delivered his lecture on The Holy Grail at the church hall to a good sized audience this evening, and the lecture was a great treat to all present. CHATHAM, N. B., April 24.—While hauling pulp across the river from the Dominion pulp mill to the Canada dock on Saturday, Alex. Morris nearly lost one of his horses. The animal broke through the ice when near the middle of the river and was with difficulty rescued.

Arthur Williams and David Pow of this town were crossing the ice at Nelson on Sunday, when Mr. Williams went through the ice, and but for Mr. Pow's assistance stood a good chance of drowning.

FELL THIRTY FEET
INTO POOL OF WATER

Moncton Workman Had Narrow Escape
From Serious Injury—Liverymen Form Combine.

MONCTON, N. B., April 23.—A young man named Robert Watson had a narrow escape from serious injury at the P. C. R.'s new snops a few days ago. He was working on a staging about thirty feet in the air when he slipped and fell, but fortunately just below him there was a pool of water four feet in depth. Into this he dropped and escaped with a badly bruised shoulder and general shaking up.

In the police court today, an I. C. R. brakeman was fined twenty dollars for creating a disturbance on the streets. He said he had merely taken his coat off because he thought there was trouble coming, and the magistrate said that such an action was a poor scheme for calming a disturbance.

John P. Weir has returned from Montreal, where he went to superintend a test of a patent attachment to locomotives which he has invented. Owing to a misunderstanding regarding the construction of the locomotive on which the invention was to be tested, Mr. Weir will have to return to Montreal again.

The market committee has decided to close and dismantle the local Opera House after July first.

J. Fred McArthur, private secretary to E. T. H. H., general manager of the I. C. R., is seriously ill in the hospital with typhoid fever. His father, Rev. Robert McArthur of New Glasgow, has been summoned.

Miss Lucy Logan, sister of H. J. Logan, M. P. for Cumberland, is spending a few days in the city en route home from the Pacific coast. She visited the latter place for the benefit of her health, which is greatly improved.

The local livery stable proprietors have recently been having some trouble about cut prices, and have therefore arranged a schedule of rates. In future a horse will be hitched up to a car for less than a dollar, and a team taken for the day will have to be returned before six o'clock, or a dollar an hour will be charged up to nine o'clock, and fifty cents an hour after that.

TREATY OF PEACE BETWEEN
SALVADOR AND NICARAGUA
SIGNED TUESDAY NIGHT

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, April 24.—A treaty of peace between Salvador and Nicaragua was signed last night at Amalapa by ministers representing each country. The terms of the treaty are honorable to both countries. The conditions proposed by Salvador were accepted and the demands made by President Zelaya of Nicaragua for reparation for Salvador's part in the recent war between Nicaragua and Honduras, and that there be a free interchange of commodities between Nicaragua and Salvador, were rejected.

The Mid-Week Change.
There were five pictures on the programme the last three days of the present week at The Nickel, formerly Keith's, and there will be five on the list for the last three days, but they will be as usual a different fare.

The titles of the new pictures are Pierrot's Revue, The Hold-up of the Leadville Stage, Caught in a Trap, The Travels of a Barrul, and Another Crime. Some of them, particularly the Leadville hold-up and the last named, Another Crime, are thrillingly interesting.

One of the shorter ones, but a very cute one, which cannot fail to bring a laugh, is the one entitled Caught in a Trap. A policeman sees two burglars enter a house. He goes and stations himself under the window at which they have entered, and his eyes are expected capture is so great that he dances up and down for joy.

The interior of the house is then shown with the two thieves packing up their plunder in bags. They complete their ransacking of the house and one steps to the window to see if the way is clear, where he catches sight of the policeman and dodges back.

He goes into another room and returns immediately with a big wire frame such as dressers are sometimes displayed on. The exterior of the house is again shown with the policeman still checking to himself at his easy prey. One of the thieves quietly leans out of the window with the wire frame and quickly shuts it down over the policeman's head, enclosing him effectually in a trap.

They then leisurely climb out of the window, leaving the plunder behind, however, and after giving the "hobby" a few punches by way of remembrance, saunter off. The policeman struggles to lift the wire trap off, but with little success, and to add to his misery a lot of dogs run up and thinking him some strange animal attack his legs vigorously.

It's only a nickel at The Nickel to see these pictures and hear a new illustrated song. Try it.

MORSE MOVE FOR SHIPPING TRUST

New Company Has a Maine
$60,000,000 Charter.

Coastwise Lines Asked to Join With Big
Consolidated Steamship Lines—
The Terms of Merger.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The first step toward the final consummation of Charles W. Morse's plan for a coastwise shipping trust was made today when the stockholders in four of the coast-going lines, which and his associates already control, received circulars offering to exchange stock in the new Morse holding company, incorporated in Maine some months ago, under the name of the Consolidated Steamship Lines, for their shares of the smaller operating companies.

It has been known ever since the incorporation of the $80,000,000 consolidated steamship lines that it was Mr. Morse's intention to get the benefit as soon as possible of the great economies which might be effected by the operation of all of his steamship lines under one administrative head. Nothing definite, however, was learned about the terms of exchange until circulars were sent to stockholders of the Clyde, Mallory, Metropolitan and Eastern Steamship companies today.

These said, in part: "Up to the present time a majority of the total shares of your company's capital stock has been exchanged for bonds and stock of the Consolidated Steamship Lines."

"The stock of the Steamship Company is convertible into stock of the Consolidated Steamship Lines, share for share, and in addition thereto 4 per cent. collateral trust bonds of an equal par value."

"If you will promptly send your certificates to N. H. Campbell, treasurer, room 902, 45 Exchange place, New York city, indorsed in blank and witnessed, he will see you in exchange for the stock and bonds of the Consolidated Steamship Lines under this arrangement."

"Of the Clyde line it is announced that over 100,000 of the total of 140,000 shares have agreed to the exchange, and of the Mallory line that 'over a majority' of the 140,000 shares are willing."

It is expected that the Ward line and the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company will be taken into the merger later on practically the same terms. The Hudson Navigating Company, which Mr. Morse controls in the Hudson river trade, is not expected to enter the consolidation at present.

The Clyde line, which is one of the newest of Mr. Morse's purchases, has 23 steamers plying between New York, Boston, Philadelphia and southern ports. It is capitalized at $4,000,000 and has outstanding $4,000,000 of bonds.

The Mallory line, for which Mr. Morse is understood to have paid $7,000,000 last November, has 11 vessels plying between New York and South Atlantic and Gulf ports and is also capitalized at $4,000,000, with $3,000,000 bonds outstanding.

Under the offer the bonds of the constituent companies remain undisturbed.

The Metropolitan Steamship Company has six ships in the New York and Boston trade is capitalized at $3,600,000 and has bonds of $1,000,000.

The Eastern Steamship Company, which is a consolidation of a number of smaller lines on the Maine coast, is capitalized at $3,000,000 and has over $1,000,000 bonds outstanding.

THOMAS COLLINS WOULD HAVE BEEN EXECUTED TODAY

Had Judge Gregory's Sentence Been Carried into Effect - Counsel at the Trial in June Will be the Same as Last Time - Prisoner is Happy

Thomas Collins, convicted of the murder of Miss Mary Ann McAuley would have been hanged at Hopewell Cape today had the sentence of Judge Gregory been carried into effect. As it is, the prisoner is now confined to his cell in the jail in the Albert County shiretown with the chance of a new trial on the crime with which he is charged. His case is to be tried in June before Chief Justice Tuck, and Thos. Sherren who was associated with Hon. H. A. McKewen in the prisoner's defence, says that the counsel for the prisoner at the next trial will probably be the same as on the last occasion. Hon. Mr. McKewen is now in England but will return in time to take up the Collins defence.

WILL TAKE THE FIRST OFFER; WANTS NO LAW

James Leitch Willing to Accept $1,500 for the Land at Loch Lomond Expropriated by the City.

The claims committee met at city hall this morning. Aid. Bullock presiding. The meeting was called for the purpose of considering the claim of James Leitch. The latter owned a portion of ground at Loch Lomond, which was expropriated by the city during the water extension operations. The claim of Mr. Leitch at the time of the expropriation was for $1,500 which the city agreed to pay without contest. When the date of payment arrived, however, Mr. Leitch increased his claim by two or three hundred dollars, and as a result payment was made, as was the intention of the civic authorities to contest the claim. The matter dropped here and this morning's meeting was called in order that the long standing matter be settled. The committee was not obliged to discuss the matter at any length, as Mr. Leitch during the year and a half that the matter has been standing, had changed his mind again and sent word to Supt. Murdoch that he would not press for more than $1,500. This statement was read at the meeting and it was decided that Mr. Leitch be given the $1,500.

DUSKY VIOLET GOES INTO THE COOLER

She and a Young Frenchman Were Arrested Together on Sheffield Street.

There were only two prisoners in the police court this morning, Violet Jones, a young married colored woman, and a young French Canadian, who gave his name as John Ruel. They were charged by Police-man Marshall with not giving a satisfactory account of themselves. The Frenchman told the court that he was looking for a place to purchase some cigarettes and met the Jones girl on the street. He was given some good advice to keep away from that section of the city and allowed to go.

The woman said she lived in Carleton and only went to Sheffield street to pay a woman 40 cents that she owed her. This is not the first time that Violet, who is but 17 years old, has been before the court and she was sent into jail for two months in default of paying an eight dollar fine.
