IN BELGIUM AND FRANCE

With Canadian Weekly Press Party—
Received by King Albert and Cardinal
Mercier—Visited Famous
Battle Grounds—Royally
Entertained in Paris

(Second installment of chronicles of C.W.N.A. tour, by representative of Canadian Printer and Publisher).

The party composed of Canadian weekly newspaper editors and their wives, numbering one hundred and seventy, organized and led by Rupert Davies, of the Renfrew Mercury, crossed the ocean without mishap, and landed at Antwerp in Belgium on the morning of June 21, ready to start on their tour which was to cover Belgium, the battle fields, Paris, Great Britain, and touch Ireland at Belfast.

On the morning of our arrival, the Canadian Pacific entertained with us at breakfast on board the Melita, the government and civic officials of Antwerp.

Immediately on landing it became apparent that we had entered another world. We passed through the docks and warehouses piled high with boxes
of freight from the Congo, elephants' tusks and queer bags of nuts. The dock workers wore fullgathered smocks and had on their heads monk-ish-looking caps of cloth once white, which hung over their shoulders to protect them from the dusty bales they carried on their backs. These men with the wonderfully big Flemish horses pulling the heavy low-hung wagons about the warehouses recalled
to mind the scenes painted by the old Flemish artists.

The city built right down to the water's edge, many of the buildings being unmistakably Byzantine in architecture. A legend connected with one of these fine old buildings accounts for the name "Antwerp." A giant living there demanded a toll from everyone entering the harbor, until one,
braver than the rest, cut off the giant's
hand and threw it into the Scheldt.

The officials conducted our party to the Hotel de Ville (City Hall) where we were formally received by the burgomaster and other councillors, and shown through the rooms of that wonderful old building, rich in art and historical significance. President Lorne Eedy replied to their words of welcome in a very neat French speech.

From there we were taken in tow-boats for a two hour ride about the harbor. This was a revelation, for there are more than twenty miles of frontage to the wharves which were crowded with ships of all kinds from every port in the world. Antwerp, in fact, has the largest amount of freight shipping in the world.

On our return we were taken to the Cathedral, a splendid example of Gothic architecture, full of the rarest treasures of art—paintings, wood carving, and statuary. In its floor is a brass line marking the meridian.

We had our first continental meal in a restaurant, the tables being decorated with rows of bottles down the centre. Water here is evidently considered only as a last resort for quenching thirst. Also we made our first gallant attempt to converse in the French language with our Belgian friends who were most kind during all our stay in Belgium.

Outside on the streets there was scarcely passage for pedestrians between the cobble stone roadway and the scarcely much smoother cobblestone sidewalk, on account of the many places in the open, filled with table and chairs, where every Belgian comes with his family or his friends
at least once a day to sit and leisurely drink beer or wine, and to talk. Women passed by dozens with large aprons covering their dresses and bedroom slippers on their feet, or "clacking" wooden shoes. Here and there women were washing the outer walls of buildings or the sidewalks, their wooden shoes keeping their feet dry.
Little boys and big boys, too, wore aprons similar to cotton dresses.

After luncheon, we had our introduction to a continental train which is altogether different from our own,
with small compartments opening directly on the platform, on one side and connected with one another by a corridor on the other. We set out for Malines, the home of Cardinal Mercier and of the famous carillon player Jef. Denijer. The country through which we passed appeared to be exceedingly fertile, divided into small unfenced fields where men, women and children worked together. A great deal of truck gardening is done, supplying the large markets in the cities, even as far as Convent Garden,
in London.

At Malines we were received by Cardinal Mercier, who spoke to us with much feeling, using both French and English. He expressed great gratitude for the part our Canadian boys had taken in the war. President Lorne A. Eedy made an appropriate reply in English and Monsieur Dubuc in French, and the Cardinal, who has a very kindly face, shook hands with all the members of the party, afterwards coming down into his garden,

where we went to listen to the wonderful organ music.

LABOR DAY PICNIC AT BATH

A Very Successful Event—Good
Games of Ball—Other Events

The monster Labor Day picnic held here on Monday afternoon was very successful, considering that a much larger number would undoubtedly have been present, had it not been for the general appearance of the weather, which in the morning, did not look very promising. The afternoon however, was all that could be desired.

Following are the results of the three games played by the four teams,
representing Plaster Rock, Juniper, Perth and Bath. The winners of the two afternoon games played off in the evening for the championship of the day, in this the Plaster Rock team was successful in carrying off the coveted crown. The results follow:

Perth and Juniper staged the first game, Perth winning, score 5-4. Batteries: Perth—A. Lewis, p., P. Lewis,
c. Juniper—Turner, c., Turnbull, p.
Second game—Bath vs. Plaster
Rock—score 5-4 in favor of Plaster
Rock. Batteries: Bath—Shaw, p.
Estabrooks, c. Plaster Rock—Bishop,
p., Giberson, c.

In the evening the winners of the two afternoon games, namely, Perth and Plaster Rock, played off for the championship of the day. Plaster Rock won with score 6-5. Batteries:
Perth—P. Lewis, p., H. Lewis, p., A.
Lewis, c. Plaster Rock—Reynolds, p., Giberson, c.

From a financial point of view, the picnic was also considered as very successful. The combined gate, supper and refreshment receipts amounting to over $176.

After the final game, a most enjoyable dance was held in the Elite Theatre. Music was supplied by the Florenceville orchestra.

On Saturday, August 30, the Bath
team played the Plaster Rock aggregation at Plaster Rock. The Bath boys had their opponents on edge throughout the whole of the four innings which were played. The game was then forfeited to the "Monquar-ters" by Plaster Rock. The dispute arose out of a foul hit by one of their men, over third base and landing outside the base line. The umpire declared it to be such, and refusing to change his decision, the Plaster Rock team packed their
"duds" and left the field. The score
then stood 5-0 in favor of Bath.

The work on the Lloyd bridge on the main highway about a mile north of town is rapidly progressing, and a decided improvement. John B. De-Merchant is in charge of the work.

PRINCE OF WALES SPEAKS TO C.W.N.A.

Following is an account of the entertainment given to the members of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association in London, July 1st, at the time of their visit there this summer.
It is taken from the Victoria County
News whose editor with his daughter were members of the party:

The morning of July 1st, Dominion
Day, was spent in sight seeing around London and in the afternoon, Mr. P.
C. Larkin, High Commissioner for Canada gave a reception. Viscount Burnham, President of the Empire
Press Club was also present.

In the evening a Dominion Day Dinner was held at the Hotel Cecil where about half of our party stayed, the other half being at the Russel, no hotel being able to accommodate all.
Here the Prince of Wales was the principal speaker and received an ovation.
He seemed very nervous before his address, and as it contained a pleasing reference to Canada, we reproduce it at length, with pleasure:

The Prince of Wales, replying to the Royal toast, said: "I am very grateful to be present at this Dominion Day banquet. It has given me an opportunity of meeting so many representative Canadians who are in London at the present time. Many members of my family have learned to know Canada and to love Canada.
(Cheers). I do not think I need to tell any of you that I have a certain love for the Dominion. Canada has always been a real tonic to me. I don't know what it is exactly, whether it is the air of the great spaces or what it is, but the fact remains:

"I remember the tonic effect it had on me in 1919, the year of my first visit, a few months after the Great War, when I came straight from four years of horror and confusion to a great, free country, and a young country full of hope and confidence in the future. (Cheers). And so it was last year—a real tonic, when I spent a very happy summer after a somewhat strenuous summer and I am sure it will be the same this fall (Cheers),
when I have every hope of returning to my ranch. (Cheers).

"Canada will always be great and I am quite sure those of my countrymen who have not seen Canada will take the first opportunity of going over to the other side. I am not going to say that Canada is not her own problems. Like the rest of the world, she is facing those problems with the courage and common sense that are characteristics of our race. (Cheers). I feel that her invigorating atmosphere
and the breadth of her lands from ocean to ocean give Canada an advantage over the old country.

"I congratulate the Dominion Government on its splendid contribution towards the success of the British Empire Exhibition. (Cheers). The high standard and the effective organization of the Canadian pavilion at Wembley have won the admiration of all its visitors. (Cheers). I have only been there once myself, but I found it not only very interesting, but I cannot think of a better way of recalling my very happy days in Canada and learning a great deal that is new at the same time. There is, a personal reason why I am certainly going there again. It is to see how I have fared during this hot spell. (Laughter). I have the greatest possible faith in everything that is Canadian, including butter. (Laughter). I hope that I am not including to a dangerous angle, and that I and my horse are not going over at the knees. (Laughter). I thank you for the kind way you have received this toast and also for your kind invitation to me to be here tonight." (Cheers).

(The reference to the butter is due to the fact that the Canadian exhibit at Wembley contains a statue of the Prince of Wales and his horse made out of butter).

TENTH of the series dealing with the establishment of the BANK OF MONTREAL at representative points in CANADA and elsewhere

IN THE RINGHOLD STREET, IN THE OLD CITY SECTION OF LONDON, the financial heart of the British Empire, the Bank of Montreal has been representing the interests of Canada since 1870.

BANK OF MONTREAL Established over 100 years Total Assets in excess of $650,000,000

IN BELGIUM AND FRANCE (Continued from first page) defaulter, carillon playing, and chatting with many of us.

Moore spoke in reply to toasts and were driven from there to Fort Louvain where General Naessens (who was in charge when the Germans blew up the fort, and who was carried away prisoner while unconscious from gas poisoning) explained to us the strategic importance of the fort, the advance and attack of the German army and the whole story of the tragic ruin which we saw about us.

They went to visit the House of Parliament and the Senate. Rooms under Philip Cayrol was considered a hands. This building and the Hotel de Ville which was shown as next to be just as we read of them in the histories. All the old tapestries, paintings, and decorations of a medieval time still remain in perfect preservation.

On one of the city the scars left by the war can still be plainly seen. The towers of shot iron and shrapnel stand where they have been cleared from the fields. Lines of dugouts still remain in some places, and once in a while a "pillbox." Houses and buildings are being rapidly restored and rebuilt, but yet there are many which remain as ruins and such "desolate ruins." We were driven through Roubaix, Tourcoing, and other villages to Ypres, coming back through Dickebusch, Mount Kemmel and Armentieres. Some of these had been entirely wiped out but are being restored again. At Ypres, the buildings are all new, but the ruins of the magnificent Cloth Hall and Cathedral are to remain as they are as a war memorial.

Another day, we were taken by special train to visit Liège, where several motor cars met us to drive us about the city, which has a population of 400,000. The general impression among Canadians is that Liège is only a village, and to take in all the great steel shops known as the Crocq and Establishments. These employ 11,000 men, and are recovering after having been dismantled by the Germans. We returned to Liège to be received formally by the mayor at the city hall. A. B. Colman of Pictou, replying most fittingly.

At Arras we found a train waiting to take us to Paris. For some time we were still passing ravaged country—ruins blackened and bereft of their loveliness, and ruins of homes. But everywhere the country appeared for the better and prosperous, and everywhere the whole family seemed to be working in the fields. The red-tiled houses and brick-paved roads showed a far older civilization than ours. Soon we were away into the sunny France of our dreams before long coming to Paris.

There, the Bienvenu Francaise again met us, foremost among them being Madame de Jouvenal, a most charming woman who can speak English fluently. During the four days' stay in Paris, the program prepared occupied every moment. The party was received everywhere with open arms. One day there was a reception at the Hotel de Ville by the Mayor of Paris; another, a breakfast given in the peristyle of the Grande Trianon where no one but royalty ever had a meal before; one evening, a dinner, with Marshal Foch presiding, and another afternoon, a reception in the beautiful ancestral home of Madame Sterne. One morning we went in a body to lay a wreath on the grave of the unknown soldier beneath the Arc de Triomphe, where it is re-burned continually. The President of France, too, received us at his official residence, The Champs d'Élysees, and shook hands with each one as we were introduced by President Eddy.

Of course, whenever a moment could be found we went sight-seeing, and the ladies made frantic efforts to secure a few moments for shopping. We must see The Louvre, and the Luxembourg, Notre Dame and the Madeleine. One day was spent out at Versailles, where the history of Marie Antoinette was vividly brought before us. Visits were also paid to the offices of the Petit Parisien, and the Petit Journal. On all these occasions, some members of the C.W.N.A. replied to a toast, or offered an expression of gratitude for entertainment. Rupert Davies, President Lorne Eddy, Rev. A. H. Moore, Mr. Dubuc, Mr. Cormier and Roy Carmichael all had their part to take and the association may be congratulated on having so many who can speak well in public.

IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS

The following is taken from the Aroostook Pioneer, Houlton, and speaks for itself: The United States Immigration Service now maintains a patrol squad on the Maine-New Brunswick border in addition to the regular force of immigration officers, which has been stationed at the various ports of entry. The need of this patrol may be seen from the statement issued recently by an official of the Immigration Bureau, to the effect that the number of aliens entering the United States from Canada without immigration inspection has been estimated at 100 per day. This number not only includes citizens of Canada, but aliens from other countries who have entered Canada and gained access to the United States by that route. The purpose of the immigration patrol is to cover the highways leading from Canada into the United States and examine occupants of automobiles and teams which enter the country at points which cannot be covered by the regular force of immigration officers.

As various erroneous statements have been made regarding the restrictions imposed upon Canadians wishing to enter the United States, a short summary of the regulations is given here: Every resident of Canada, or alien from any other country who has been temporarily residing in Canada, must report to the immigration officers when entering the United States.

Canadian citizens entering the United States for a temporary stay, not exceeding six months, are allowed to proceed on their journey, after showing to the satisfaction of the immigration officers that their stay is not to be longer than six months. Canadian citizens who are unable to satisfy the immigration officers that their stay in the United States is for six months or less must deposit a cash bond of $500. If they do return to Canada within the six months period this bond is cancelled. If they remain in the United States over six months, this bond is forfeited and the alien is also subject to arrest and deportation.

Canadian citizens entering the United States for a stay of more than six months must go to the United States Consul in Canada and obtain a consular visa. To obtain a consular visa the person must have two recent photographs of himself, or herself, two copies of their birth certificate, a recommendation from some person living in their town, and pay a consular fee of ($10) ten dollars. On entering the United States the person must pass the examination of the immigration officers and pay a head tax of ($8) eight dollars, if admitted. Children under 16 years of age must have a consular visa the same as adults, but children under 16 years, if accompanied by their parents, are not subject to head tax. In case the alien returns to Canada within six months neither the ten dollar consular fee nor the eight dollar head tax is refunded, as the present regulations do not provide for a refund of the head tax on return within six months as was formerly the case.

YOU CAN GET RID OF DYSPEPSIA

By Taking the Fruit Treatment In the Form of "Fruit-a-lives" You can get rid of the pain; the heavy, uncomfortable feeling; the heart attacks, headaches and constipation that accompany this trouble. The Fruit Treatment—which is the distilled juices of apples, oranges, lemons and pines combined with tonics will always relieve Dyspepsia. Mrs. Thomas Evans, Everett, Ont., says: "I have been troubled for years with Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Disease from which it was impossible to get relief until I took 'Fruit-a-lives'. Thanks to their wonderful results, I am free of these ailments and in normal health again."

It is likely that the hundreds of workmen who annually enter Maine from northern New Brunswick and Quebec for work in the lumber camps on the St. John and Allegash waters will come under the heading just referred to and must provide themselves with a consular visa and pay the head tax unless the immigration officers are satisfied that their stay in the woods will be less than six months. American citizens returning from Canada are not exempt from Immigration inspection, but must report to the immigration officers and satisfy them of their right to enter the United States. Every resident of the United States going to Canada and intending to return to the United States at a point other than his point of departure, should have a copy of his birth certificate or a letter of identification from the town clerk of the place where he resides.

COST OF PUBLISHING

To many people have the idea that a weekly newspaper should publish every item of news handed in, because it is local news, notwithstanding that the "news" referred to is in its way an advertisement announcing a meeting of some organization or society. "Here's something to fill up" is often what accompanies the handing in of such an item. Perhaps newspaper publishers are themselves much to blame for this impression, for they too often accept such items and publish them without protesting. The sources of income to a weekly newspaper in a small town are very limited and the cost of production is just as great as in a large town. The newspaper publisher is no more a public convenience than any other business man and you might as well ask the railway company to carry you free to the next town because the trains are going there anyway and there are a number of empty seats, as to ask the publisher to publish your little advertisement as news because the paper is to be printed anyway, and it has so much space to fill up.

A. Aiton, Mr. and Mrs. Rex York and Mrs. S. York, Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Keswick, Mrs. Effie Nixon, Misses Clara Hagerman, Lide and Georgie Reid and Kilburn Smith.

The death of George L. Holyoke of Woodstock occurred on Wednesday evening after an illness of several months. Although Mr. Holyoke had reached the age of 84, up until the time of his illness he was bright and active. At one time, from 1855 to 1900, he was editor of the Press. He leaves two sons and two grandsons. The funeral was on Friday, Rev. J. T. Cavers officiating, and interment was in the Methodist cemetery.

T. Thorian of Edmundston is in Hartland this week, and while motoring down Monday had a very serious accident. He was driving along at a moderate rate of speed when a young boy on a bicycle came from behind a board pile on the side of the road in front of the car. Neither saw the other quick enough to avert trouble. The consequence was that the car passed over the boy, breaking his leg. Mr. Thorian was, of course immediately pulled out of the boy and carried him, although a good sized boy weighing about 100 pounds, to the hospital that fortunately was nearby, the incident happened at St. Basil.

Prominent Passengers on Empress of France

The tide of steamship traffic is turning westward again, and the St. Lawrence route is still the favoured one. Beside large numbers of immigrants and returning Canadians, a great many European tourists are now turning toward Canada and these form a small percentage of steamship passengers. Perhaps the most distinguished list this season, was carried by the Canadian Pacific S.S. Empress of France on her last westward voyage. Among those on board was Lord Beaverbrook, who with several members of his family will spend some time in this country. He was also accompanied by T. Marston Till, O.B.E., his secretary. Other prominent British passengers were Right Hon. Sir Evelyn Cecil, O.B.E., P.C., M.P., and Col. Vaughan Morgan, O.B.E., M.P., of London. E. W. Bok, the famous Philadelphia publisher of Peace Prize fame also made the voyage.

Two passengers in whom much interest centered were Prince and Princess Serge Obolensky whose recent marriage in Paris was one of the big social events of the year. The Princess was formerly Miss Astor. The Hon. Charles A. Dunning, premier of Saskatchewan, was also on the France. Other prominent passengers included Mr. R. Bosch, the inventor of the Bosch Magneto, and Mrs. W. H. Taft, who was met at the dock by her husband, W. H. Taft of the U.S. Supreme Court and ex-President of the United States.

E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, returned on the Empress of France from a short visit to the Company's agencies in England and Scandinavia. He was much impressed by the great possibilities of a furtherance of trade between these countries and Canada.

Asked whether he had seen the Canadian papers while abroad, and had noted the storm of comment and protest that had followed upon the putting into effect of the Crow's Nest Pass rates, Mr. Beatty replied that he had seen a good deal of this, and it was nothing more than had been expected by himself and other railway officers.

"At the time the proposed restoration of the Crow's Nest rates was under discussion," he said "it was made abundantly evident by the railroads that they could not afford in the face of existing costs of operation for labor, materials, equipment, etc., to extend the operation of the company very satisfactorily. Somebody has got to pay wages and other operating costs, and if the shipper is not willing to do so, I do not know who will, unless the country will pay it as a whole and I imagine that even the strongest supporters of public ownership will agree that we have reached the limit in that direction."

"One of the grave difficulties of the day in railway operation in Canada is that the interests in railroad management are preaching a doctrine that gives no thought to the cost of operation in relation to the price the railroad is permitted to get for the service it gives as a common carrier. In most other lines of business, cost to the consumer is based on the cost of production. I cannot see why it should be different in the selling of freight or passenger transportation. Somebody has got to pay wages and other operating costs, and if the shipper is not willing to do so, I do not know who will, unless the country will pay it as a whole and I imagine that even the strongest supporters of public ownership will agree that we have reached the limit in that direction."

"It is axiomatic, too, that the continuous betterments and improvements to existing railway lines and the provision of capital for extensions and new constructions generally depends directly upon the earning power of the companies, especially in the case of the Canadian Pacific, whose funds must be secured in the money markets of the world and it would be in every respect unwise to borrow unless the general earnings of the company were satisfactory. One of the difficulties facing the railway companies in Canada is that there is not a sufficient margin between revenues and outlays to permit of surpluses for working capital and for the general purposes of the companies. Until this margin is re-established extensive borrowings are highly undesirable. Nothing is more conducive to satisfactory commercial conditions than a healthy transportation situation and this can only be accomplished if a proper relation exists between revenues and disbursements."

"I should like to point out," said Mr. Beatty, "that the Interstate Commerce Commission in the matter of rates and charges on grain and grain products in the western United States very recently decided that the general basis of rates then in effect did not appear to be unreasonable and dismissed the application for reduction. Here it should be remembered that rates on grain and grain products now in effect in western Canada are not less than 25 per cent. lower than those in the United States. The Interstate Commerce Commission is comprised of highly qualified economists who approach the technical and allied questions of railway rates and costs in a thoroughly scientific manner. On the other hand, the rate situation in Canada which has been the subject of so much comment recently has been brought about by the restoration by act of Parliament of a scale of rates fixed nearly thirty years ago without regard at all to present day costs of the inevitable disruption of the relationship which otherwise existed between various commodities and various producing centres."

Mr. Beatty added that figures had been filed with the Government showing the approximate decrease in revenue to both the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific railways by the adoption of the Crow's Nest rates on grain. These, he said, reflected a very serious loss of earning powers to the roads which would be made still more serious by the recent restoration of the rates on the balance of the commodities enumerated in last act.

"Exhausted Nerves and Palpitating Heart"

Mrs. L. Whiting, 202 King St. West, Brockville, Ont., writes:

"I took very sick with my nerves and stomach, and seemed to be all run down. At times my heart would flutter and palpitate so and I would take such weak spells in the pit of my stomach that I sometimes thought I would never get better. I tried several doctors, but it seemed nothing they gave me helped. I had almost given up hope when a friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I tried it, and can say it certainly has done wonders for me. I did not stop until I had taken twenty-five boxes."

Edmundston Locals

Engineer Lowry of The Hydro Commission was in town this week.

Billy Brebner who has been vacationing in Notre Dame returned home this week.

Dr. Hammond of Van Buren and Dr. Dobson of Presque Isle were visitors in Edmundston last week.

Mrs. R. Gunter of Fredericton, who was a guest over the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Richards, returned home on Tuesday.

Bruce Pincombe of Three Rivers, an old resident of Edmundston, was in town on Monday on his way by automobile to Sydney, Cape Breton.

Mrs. T. J. Scott left on Monday morning for Woodstock to visit her mother, Mrs. Robb of Montreal, who is a patient at the Hospital there.

The evening service at Fraser Hall has been changed back to 7 p.m., the Sunday School will resume its work next Sunday, Aug. 31st, at the usual hour, 12 noon, as all further danger from the scarlet fever epidemic seems to have passed.

Miss Marion Henderson of St. John, Miss Helen Yerxa of Houlton, Miss Dawn Brown of Mars Hill and Miss Evelyn Windsor of Charlottetown, P. E. I., who have been guests of Miss Phyllis Hall at a Camping Party, left for their respective homes early this week.

The Catholic Church Bazaar was liberally patronized last week, a great many people being present each night. None of the lucky prizes fell to the editor, however, although he did his best to win one. The merry-go-rounds were full most of the time, a great many grown-ups as well as children taking advantage of a ride on the ponies.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Perry of Braintree, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Post of Topeka, Kansas, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Sherwood during the past two or three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Post motored here from Kansas coming through Braintree on their way. They left today for Fredericton and will motor down the New England Coast to Braintree. On Saturday last accompanied by Mr. Sherwood they had great luck on the trout, and Mr. Perry and Mr. Post this week on another fishing party were successful in catching over four dozen.

When in Quebec last week the editor had the pleasure of going over the latest battle cruiser in the world, H. M. S. Hood. This cruiser has a complement of fourteen hundred men. A great many of the Quebec people availed themselves of the privilege of going over this vessel, and were astonished at the discipline, the cleanliness and the arrangements on board. The officers and sailors were courteous and to go over a battle ship of this sort is an education itself. One wonders how long it is going to be before Canada is going to bear her share in protecting herself upon the high seas. As a nation we are pretty small when we protest so much about our independence and do so little to help bear the cost of maintaining our independence. Sooner or later our Standard Oil Premier will be replaced by a real Statesman, and the sooner that is the better it will be for us as a people. Anyway his platform fell at Montreal, and coming events cast their shadows before, he was doused with cold water, but at election time he will feel the avalanche.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Vanwart motored to Presque Isle on Wednesday. The Rev. Rees Jones of Andover was a guest of the Rev. N. Franchetti last week for a day or two.

Mrs. Matheson and son Donald, and her two little daughters, Isabel and Mary, returned from Fredericton on Tuesday.

Miss Phyllis Hall accompanied Miss Helen Yerxa to Houlton on the latter's return there and will be her guest for a few days.

Mrs. T. J. Scott returned from Woodstock on Tuesday accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Robb, who has been undergoing treatment there.

Miss Blende Matheson and her guest, Miss Marion Sealy of Kentville N. S., motored to Kilburn, N. B., where they are the guests of Miss Kilburn.

We are glad to see Miss Grace Stevens home again and gaining in strength after her sojourn in the hospital at Woodstock. She arrived home last week.

The Editor and son James arrived home from Toronto on Thursday last, after a vacation of two weeks spent in that city. An account of the doings whilst away will be found in another part of this paper.

Weir Elliott, who has been vacationing in New Brunswick for the past few months, and who has given so much pleasure to people in Edmundston by his magnificent singing, left with Dr. Lockhart by motor on his home in Ontario this week.

Miss Donahue who has been nursing in the Emergency Hospital on 21st street left for St. John on Monday morning. We are thankful to say that there are no more cases of scarlet fever, as far as the authorities know.

Dr. Lockhart with Mr. Elliott and the Editor left on Thursday morning in the Doctor's car for Bangor, Me., there they dropped the scribe, the other two proceeding via New England and New York State for Ontario. Dr. and Mrs. Lockhart and baby will motor home by another route. The editor and son John and daughter Janet returning to Edmundston by train.

The Rev. John Hardwick received last week an invitation to become the minister of a United Presbyterian church in Vermont. This invitation came quite unsought and was totally unexpected, as he had never heard of the church before, and came about through the congregation hearing of him through his Pastorale in that denomination in Ohio previous to his coming to Edmundston. The invitation, however, has been declined, as Mr. Hardwick has no intention of forsaking the British flag at this time, much as he has appreciated the hearty invitation extended to him.

Mrs. L. M. Sherwood held an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. Perry of Braintree, Mass., and Mrs. T. H. Post of Topeka, Kansas, on Friday of last week. Those present included Mrs. J. M. Stevens, Miss Grace and Miss Helen Stevens, Mrs. A. W. Brebner, Mrs. T. J. Scott, Mrs. C. M. Rideout, Mrs. John Hardwick, Mrs. A. Pickard, the Misses Audrey and Beth Rideout, Mrs. McCabe, Mrs. F. S. Murchie, Mrs. A. Lawson, Mrs. Belyea, Miss A. Hebert, Mrs. Hebert, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. J. Reith, Mrs. L. Seely, and Mrs. T. L. Landers. The guests present were delighted with the music rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Post and Mr. Perry who rendered duets and solos. Delicious refreshments were served.

A SIMPLE LUNCHEON

One runs out of ideas for a simple, nourishing, tasty luncheon, especially for a fish day or for warm weather.

Hereunder is a suggestion with recipes which have been carefully prepared:

Cream of Green Pea Soup
 1 1/2 cupfuls Borden's St. Charles milk, 2 1/2 cupfuls cold water, 1 teaspoonful sugar, 1/2 teaspoonful scraped onion, 2 tablespoonfuls butter or butter substitute, 1 1/2 tablespoonfuls flour, 1 teaspoonful salt, 1-8 teaspoonful pepper, 2 cupfuls canned or cooked fresh peas. Add the peas, sugar and onions to the cold water and simmer for twenty minutes. Then rub through a sieve; add the evaporated milk, reheat and thicken with the flour blended with the butter and the seasonings.

Steamed Salmon with White Sauce
 1 slice salmon, about 2 pounds, 2 hard cooked eggs, parsley. Once the recipe for white sauce. Wipe off the salmon with a damp cloth; lay it on a well oiled plate, dust lightly with salt and pepper, and steam for thirty minutes. Then carefully remove the skin, transfer the fish to the centre of a medium sized platter, surround with the white sauce and garnish with the egg cut in sixths, and the parsley.

Custard Pie
 3-4 cupful Borden's St. Charles Milk, 1 1/4 cupfuls water, 3 eggs, 4 1/2 tablespoonfuls sugar, 1-4 teaspoonful salt, few drops nutmeg extract, grated, nutmeg, pastry. Line a deep pie plate with the pastry. Beat together the eggs, sugar, salt and nutmeg extract, then pour in the evaporated milk and water. Mix well, pour into the lined plate, grate over a little nutmeg. Bake in a quick oven at first to set the rim, decrease the heat afterwards, as the egg and milk in combination need to be cooked at low temperature.

T. W. CALDWELL, M. P., HAS TRIP TO P. E. I.

T. W. Caldwell, M. P., and Mrs. Caldwell spent the past week on Prince Edward Island visiting their son Edward, who is manager of the Frost & Wood Farm Machinery Agency for the island and lives at Charlottetown.

Mr. Caldwell with his son motored pretty much all over the island while there and was very much impressed with the beauty of the province and the evident prosperity of its people.

Mr. Caldwell says he did not see a rock pile on the whole island, the land being entirely free from stone. Mrs. Caldwell arrived home from the trip on August 29, and Mr. Caldwell proceeded to Ottawa for a few days on official business.

Among other things Mr. Caldwell is trying to impress upon the Government the advisability of negotiating a better trade agreement with Cuba by reducing the duty on raw sugar coming from that country and in return getting Cuba to reduce the duty on our potatoes entering Cuba. By an agreement of this kind Canada would benefit by both ends of the bargain.

 "At the first shot I was about ten feet from the man who fired."

 "I didn't measure the distance."
 "Speaking approximately, how far should you say?"
 "Well, I should think it would be about half a mile!"

A Scotchman went to the box-office after witnessing the new film.

"Will ye kindly retain me the amount of the amusement tax," he said.

"Why," asked the manager.

"I wasna amused," said the Scotchman.

During gun practice a sudden cry of "Man overboard" was raised. The captain promptly shouted an order, "Throw out two buoys."

A new Irish sailor, standing hold of two lads who were standing near, flung them into the sea.

"You idiot," shouted the captain, "I meant two cork buoys."

"Bedad," retorted Mike, "how was I to know whether they came from Cork or Tipperary?"

Two students on a train were telling about their abilities to see and hear. The one said: "Do you see that barn over there on the horizon?"

There was a good deal of excitement in the village when notices appeared on the boardings announcing that the local minister would, that night, address a meeting at the Assembly Hall, on the subject of "The Perfect Woman—Where is She?"

He had quite a good audience, and soon got warmed up to his subject.

"Now," he said, during the course of his address, "I ask you, has anyone ever seen or heard of a perfect woman?"

Suddenly, from the back of the hall, rose a tall, gaunt, angular woman in rusty black. In a melancholy voice she said:

"Yes, sir, I have heard of the woman you mention."

"Who was it?" inquired the speaker.

"My husband's first wife," replied the gaunt one feelingly.

Here and There

Although Alberta only became a province eighteen years ago, its population has increased fourfold, while the grain yield has increased twentyfold. The total agricultural products of Alberta in 1923 were worth $223,000,000.

The scheme for the settlement of British emigrants in Canada may assume a new aspect as a result of the presence in London, England, of the Hon. J. A. Robb, Canadian Minister of Immigration. Canada favors the movement of entire families to Canada from Great Britain, rather than that of single men.

Among the biggest muscalunge caught this year was one landed at the Canadian Pacific Railway's French River (Ont.) Bungalow Camp, by Samuel Franklin, Southern Sales Manager of Claffins, Inc., New York City. Mr. Franklin had a light tackle and had never hooked a lunge before. He had a hard fight to secure the fish, which tipped the scale at 38½ pounds.

A total of 13,743 Canadians, most of them native-born, has been repatriated from the United States during the months of April, May and June, according to figures announced by the Department of Immigration. During these three months 53,425 persons immigrated to Canada, which represented an increase of 12,292 over the same period of last year.

Marquis wheat, originated at the Dominion Experimental Farms and now world famous, has successfully invaded South America, being grown in the Argentine Republic last year with results that, according to authorities there, exceeded the expectations of the most optimistic advocates of the grain. Further shipments of seed are being made to the Argentine by the Canadian Seed Growers' Association.

One of the most diverse and interesting aggregations of passengers ever assembled in Canada left Montreal for Europe on August 20th aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Minnedosa. It included Majors S. de Beires and Brito Pais, who recently flew from Lisbon to Macao, China, a large party of scientists returning from the recent convention of the British Association for the Advancement of Science at Toronto, Colonel Geo. Ham, genial and internationally known "ambassador of the Canadian Pacific" and "Soldier" Jones, Canadian heavyweight boxer.

The first all-British direct cable service between Montreal and London was opened on August 18th by the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs. As business warrants, this service will be extended to embrace other Canadian cities with which it is now connected but which, as yet, cannot offer a reasonable return for a regular service. Messages were exchanged between the London Chamber of Commerce and the Montreal Board of Trade and between the Canadian and the English headquarters of the Bank of Montreal, conveying expressions of mutual goodwill and prophecying closer relations as a result of the improved cable facilities.

The splendid success attained by irrigationists in Alberta is evidenced by the last financial statement of the Taber Irrigation District. The report reveals a total surplus collectable or on hand of $30,000, of which $7,000 is on deposit in the bank. Operations have been so satisfactory that negotiations have been entered into with the Canadian Pacific Railway to set up a sinking fund of $3,000 to $5,000 to redeem bonds of the district held by the railway. In this way it is hoped that the district will be cleared of debt in a few years.

The Canadian Pacific Railway announces that it will resume its winter cruises in 1925, one round the world and the other to the Mediterranean. The 22,000-ton Empress of France has been selected for the former cruise, which will last four months and will completely encircle the globe. She will start from New York on January 27th. The ship has been recently converted into an oil-burner and entirely renovated. The Empress of Scotland, 42,500 tons, will make the Mediterranean cruise, lasting four months and including all points of interest on that sea.

The Trans-Canada Limited, the crack daily train of the Canadian Pacific between Montreal and Vancouver, and the longest distance and fastest long-distance express in the world, will resume service May 18th at both ends of the route. The running time between Montreal and Vancouver, formerly 92 hours, has been cut by two hours and the running time between Toronto and Vancouver, formerly 85 hours and 50 minutes, by one hour and 15 minutes. These cuts will benefit those going to Europe and the Orient.

Rev. and Mrs. Thos. Pierce attended the Clyde-Avery wedding at Knowlesville on Tuesday.

WEDDING AT KNOWLESVILLE

At 12 o'clock on Tuesday, Sept. 2, at Knowlesville, N. B., the marriage of Miss Jennie B., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avery, and Walter S. Clyde of Everett, Victoria county, was solemnized by Rev. Thos. Pierce, assisted by H. T. Tupper, theological student at Mt. Allison College, Sackville. The bride was attended by her sister, Lillie, and the groom by Charles Edgar of Three Brooks, Victoria county. The contracting parties stood under a pretty floral arch, the bride looking very lovely in a gown of white satin, with veil and a wreath of orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of white roses. Her attendant looked very pretty in a gown of pink satin with black lace hat trimmed with pink roses. She carried pink roses. The bride was a very popular school teacher. After a very delicious luncheon the bride and groom left by car for Newcastle to spend part of their wedding vacation. The bride travelled in a blue broadcloth suit, with hat of blue satin and toast colored velvet with plume and toast colored shoes and stockings. She wore a neck piece of Alaska sable. The groom's present to the bride was a string of pearls. A large and varied assortment of presents were in evidence.

The invited guests numbered over 150 and consisted of members of a large family connection. Very noticeable among the guests was the grandfather of the bride, Bradford Day, 90 years of age, who was part of a group of four generations photographed by the bride.

The happy young couple are coming to Hartland to reside.

Sceptic—Yes, but your poor old mother couldn't push you now!

"Last night I woke up with the strange impression that my watch was gone," said Jim, "so I got up and looked."

"And had it gone?" asked George.

"No, but it was going."

"You say that your friend speculated on a large scale," remarked the waggish one. "May I inquire what was the use of the large scale?"

"Certainly," returned the cheerful guy. "He needed it to weigh the consequences."

Little Rosie had heard that Yarmouth was noted for curing herrings. "Oh, mummie," she cried, suddenly, "how funny it must be to see all the poor little herrings sitting around getting better!"

"Ma'am, there's a man at the door with a parcel for you."

"What is it, Bridget?"

"It's a fish, ma'am, and it's marked C.O.D."

"Then make the man take it back. I ordered trout."

An old Irishman sent a parcel to her son, in which she enclosed the following note: "Pat—I am sending your waistcoat. To save weight I have cut all the buttons off.—Your loving mother." "P. S.—You will find them in the top pocket."

Mr. Smith: "That horse you sold me is blind, and you never said a word to me about it!"

Mr. Jones—"Well, the man who sold him to me didn't tell me, either, so I thought perhaps he didn't want it known."

He employed every expedient he knew to make the kettle boil.

He burned up a great quantity of adjacent furniture without success. He almost demolished the kitchen in an unfortunate experiment with kerosene oil.

Finally, to his chagrin, he was obliged to call on his wife. She showed him a scheme he had not thought of at all.

She put some water in the kettle.
