A Wild West Show Seized.
ANTWERP, July 30.—A Pawnee Bill Wild West Show, which has been here since the exhibition opened, was seized to-day for debt. The cowboys were watching for the bailiffs, and fled when the first officer appeared. Most of them took the first train that would carry them over the frontier.

Soldiers Sunstruck.
BERLIN, July 30.—Although tropical heat prevails throughout the Empire, the summer military drills have been carried on according to programme. The troops have suffered intensely. Fifteen soldiers have died of sunstroke at the garrison maneuvers around Bismarck, Kautzen and Leisnig.

In Essen lightning struck three electric cars. One person was killed. Eight persons were injured by lightning yesterday in Almshof.

Fatal Fall From a Horse.
VIENNA, July 30.—Archduke William III., son of the late Archduke Charles, and a second cousin of Emperor Francis Joseph, met with an accident yesterday that resulted in his death. He was riding at Wolkersdorf, near Baden, when his horse shied, being frightened by a passing electric car. The Archduke was thrown out of the saddle and in falling his head struck a stone. One of his feet became entangled in a stirrup and, the horse running, he was dragged some distance before the animal was stopped.

The Archduke, who was unconscious, was carried into a nearby restaurant and medical aid was summoned at once. The physicians found that he was suffering from concussion of the brain and gave orders for his removal to his own villa. Shortly after he had been placed in bed at the villa he recovered consciousness and hopes were entertained of his recovery. He soon relapsed, however, and shortly afterward died.

China vs. Japan.
PEKIN, July 30.—The following official version of the recent engagement between the Chinese and Japanese fleet has been issued by the Government: The collision between the Chinese and Japanese ships occurred in the Prince of Wales Gulf in the isles on which Ashan is situated. The Japanese attacked the Chinese vessels, which were escorting the second and smaller division of troops dispatched from Taku to reinforce the Chinese army at Ashan. The Japanese opened fire on the Chinese, having orders not to fire unless attacked or if the landing of the Chinese troops was opposed.
The result of the action was that one Japanese ironclad was disabled by the Chinese battleship Chen Yuen.

The Kow Shing, which was sunk by the Japanese, was a chartered transport flying the British flag. No news has been received here of the loss of the Chinese warship Izo, which was captured by the Japanese. The Chinese and Japanese Ministers remain at their posts.

It is reported that two German passengers on the Kow Shing jumped overboard and swam to the Japanese warship and asked to be taken on board.
Though they declared themselves non-combatants their appeal was refused and they were shot by the Japanese.

The French warship Lion saved a few Chinese who were struggling in the water after the Kow Shing sank.

The report that a large Chinese army has crossed the northern frontier of Korea and is marching down the peninsula is confirmed. It is reported that Japanese cruisers have sunk several Chinese steamers at Taku and captured a number of others.

LONDON, July 30.—In the House of Commons today, Sir Edward Grey, Under Foreign Secretary, said that the Government had not offered to mediate between China and Japan, except in the way of proffering friendly advice to the disputants in concert with other powers. It was hoped that these officials would tend to the maintenance of peace. The Government, he said, was not yet in receipt of information as to a declaration of war between China and Japan, nor had they any direct news that there had been an encounter between the warships of the two nations.

The absence of official news from Great Britain's representatives in Peking and Tientsin has caused much complaint in the House of Commons. The Foreign Office therefore telegraphed orders this afternoon to the British consuls and ministers in China and Japan that they must send more comprehensive dispatches and not permit the Chinese or Japanese officials to delay forwarding them. Sir H. Macartney, Secretary of the Chinese Legation, made a long call at the Foreign Office today.
He still urges negotiations for peace.
The Foreign Office received important dispatches late this evening from British representatives in China. No definite statement was made, however, concerning the declaration of war.

Sir Edward Grey, in the House of Commons today, said that as long as war was not declared the hope of a settlement remained. From the beginning the Government had taken the view that it was desirable to maintain peace in the general interests. Russia and the other powers had fully agreed with this view, and all had exerted themselves to persuade the Japanese and Chinese Governments not to resort to arms.

It is understood that China will not formally declare war until the vessel and ammunition which she has ordered abroad reach Chinese ports.

The transport Mee Foo and Toonan, which the Chinese feared had been captured, have arrived at Che Foo. The 41 survivors of the Kow Shing disaster who were picked up and landed at Che Foo by the French gunboat Tion tell a story differing in few details from previous accounts of the Kow Shing's end.

WHAT WILL PULLMAN DO?

Another Palace Car Company May Take
His Men.
CHICAGO, July 30.—The Record today publishes the following: If the negotiations now pending are carried to a successful termination, the striking car builders at Pullman will quit the "model town" in a body and become the employees of a powerful new corporation organized for the manufacture of palace and freight cars and day coaches.

For more than a week secret communications have been passing between the agent of the corporation in Chicago and the striker's local committee. All of the offers to the men are in writing, signed by a man of wealth and prominence in the business circles of the city. The names of a number of capitalists who are connected with the enterprise are also mentioned to give the communications greater weight.

THREE CHILDREN SMOTHERED.

They Were Locked in a Newly Painted Freight Caboose.
HARTFORD, Conn., July 30.—Raymond (9), Leroy (7) and Freddie (4), the children of James W. Ganion, a locomotive engineer on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, who have been missing since Thursday afternoon, when they went to bathe in the Connecticut River, were found dead at 8 o'clock this morning in the cab-of a freight caboose standing on a side track near the roundhouse not 300 feet from their home. They were shut in by a spring lock.

The inquest by Medical Examiner Fuller resulted in a verdict of accidental asphyxiation. The caboose was newly painted and the children went in to play, a pack of cards being found in the closet. It is supposed they closed the door and could not open it, and soon suffocated in the stifling hot air of the narrow enclosure.

Aniff, the light-weight pugilist, and Catherine Rowe, one of the Luman sisters, actresses, were married here today.

Farmers Rushing in Stock.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Live stock receipts today were the largest ever known—hogs 60,000, cattle 25,000, sheep 12,000, a total of 97,000 head. This extraordinary movement is attributed to the reported failure of the corn crop. Farmers who had bought stock to be fed and fattened with corn next winter, finding they could have no corn to feed the animals, are hurrying them forward.

H. Nason, who went to Phillips in charge turned today. He said that the reports of short of the truth.

The total loss of life will be at least 40.
Eleven bodies had been recovered up to noon today.

penditures at about $30,000,000, with interest payments of $7,500,000 to be added, leaving a few hundred thousand dollars on the right side of the ledger. Not the slightest uneasiness is expressed as to the gold reserve, as the treasury has $70,- 000,000 currency—less $7,500,000 interest paid—to meet current demands, and can obtain gold in the west in exchange for legal tenders laid down in New York.

entirely overcome by the continued use of Eseljey's Liver Lozenges by taking one or two regularly after every meal." They

I Had Coitre
Oswellings in the neck since I was 10 years old; am now 52. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla
recently and the swelling has entirely disappeared.
It has been very troublesome. When I began I was feeling so discomforted with the goitre and rheumatism I felt that I would as soon be dead as alive. Whenever I caught cold I could not walk two blocks without fainting. Now I am free from it all and I can truly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from Mrs. Jennie Siglow, now of Fremont, Mich., asking if my testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; I replied it was, and sent particulars. I have another letter from her thanking me very much for recommending

Hood's Sarsaparilla
and stating that she also has been cured.

LOCAL RECORD BREAKERS.
There was some tall record breaking done by London Bicycle Club members last night in the road race from Victoria Park to St. Johns and return, 10½ miles. Hundreds saw the start and finish. The best was held by Wm. Sherbrooke, of the Motors. That was good, but Radway went him over three minutes last night, covering the distance in 29 minutes, 7-5 seconds. Frank Sweeney and Charles White were the other record breakers.
The race was a handicap and the riders finished in this order:

Riders.	Handicap.	Time.
1. Sweeney.	3 minutes.	31:37
2. E. Croden.	8 minutes.	36:11
3. Radway.	14 minutes.	37:25
4. Elson.	5 minutes.	34:38
5. Dilloway.	5 minutes.	34:39
6. White.	14 minutes.	31:15
7. Bernard.	7 minutes.	37:27
8. Carson.	6 minutes.	36:04
9. Baker.	3 minutes.	36:11
10. A. Croden.	7 minutes.	37:35
11. Holt.	24 minutes.	33:12
12. McKay.	3 minutes.	36:12

There were three place prizes, which fell to Sweeney, Croden and Radway, and two time prizes, which were won by Radway and White. The London club deserves credit for the able way in which they managed the run. They lined up 100 on each side of the track and kept every person behind them, thus giving the riders plenty of room to finish.
Manville fell coming down the Masonville hill and didn't finish. Brock and Screaton also sustained falls, which threw them out.
The officers in charge were: Starter, Dr.
Balfour; timer, Thos. Gillen; judges, P.
T. Carroll and H. C. McBride; scorers, W. Mann and Ben Glover; clerk of track, James McCormick.

SPOKES.
Capt. McCormick requests every member of the London club to be at the club house tomorrow (Wednesday) evening at 7:15 sharp, to participate in the club run to the asylum grounds. A pleasant time is anticipated, and all wheelmen are cordially invited to join in.

An Infant of Five Months

Was very Low from Cholera Infantum.

SAVED BY LACTATED FOOD.

A London, Ont., lady writes as follows:

"Three weeks ago our baby (Florence) was very ill indeed, and we did not expect her to live. We soon discovered the child had cholera infantum. For over two days diarrhea and vomiting were severe, and it seemed useless to administer food of any kind. Just at the worst point, my son-in-law advised me to send for Lactated Food, and give it in small quantities to baby. This was done, and in from eight to ten hours we noted a happy change. We continued the use of the food at regular intervals when baby was awake, and I am glad to say that in four days our darling was almost quite well. As I write baby is in perfect health and getting stronger every day. Your food is one of earth's best blessings for babies."

Dear mothers, this is the most trying and most dangerous time of the year for baby; a perfect food is of the utmost importance in order that all fatal complaints may be avoided. Lactated Food certainly and surely "Saves Babies' Lives."

Teacher—What is the meaning of the phrase, "Adding insult to injury?"

The Raw, Cutting Winds

Bring to the surface every latent pain. A change of even a few degrees makes a difference between comfort and pain to many persons. Happily disease now holds less sway. Science is continually bringing forward new remedies which successfully combat disease. Polson's Nervine—nerve pain cure—has proved the most successful pain reliever remedy known. Its application is wide, for it is equally effective in all forms of pain whether internal or external.

BRANT.

Louis de Lapierre, ex-warden of Brant, died at Paris Monday, July 30, aged 60. He was a French-Canadian and a very able man.

ELGIN.

Complaint has lately been made that M. C. R. Cabot was being robbed, and on Saturday evening Detective Henson arrested Joe Ineson, a C. P. R. brakeman who lives in Woodstock, in his caboose at St. Thomas. He recovered ten window blinds, a blanket, a pillow, a lamp, a monkey wrench, a hammer and a chain. He pleaded guilty and was remanded a week for sentence.

The death of Mr. Hugh Black on Saturday removes a prominent citizen of St. Thomas. He was a prominent member of the A. O. U. W., I. O. O. F. and Select Knights.

ESSEX.

James Gow, of Windsor, reported to the police Saturday that he was coming from the Driving Park he was held up by two men on the road. One asked for a chew of tobacco and the other struck him in the neck. Then the first man grabbed at his watch, but secured only the chain. Gow knocked this man down, but they both escaped, keeping the chain. Chief Willis is investigating.

There were 123 births, 225 marriages and 83 deaths in Windsor the past six months.

Miss Clara Jarmin, G. N. W. telegraph operator at Amherstburg, suffered a severe shock during the heavy storm last Tuesday night, from the effects of which she is still confined to the house. She retired to bed without placing the storm plug in proper position in the telephone. The electric fluid entered the room and a loud explosion followed, the shock partially paralyzing Miss Jarmin's arm.

HURON.

Wingham's civic holiday has been set for Aug. 8.

Thos. McLaughlin, of the township of Grey, has disposed of his 100-acre home-stand, 2 1/2 miles north of Brussels, to James Parr, of London township. The price, $8,200, is very reasonable, considering the prime condition of the place.

KENT.

Blenheim's civic holiday is on Aug. 9. A scheme for the erection of a large summer hotel at Rondan is in process. The basis is a joint stock company with a capital of $5,000 to $10,000, in shares of $25 each.

LAMBTON.

Grand Trunk Engineer William Nye, of Point Edward, had a narrow escape from death on the morning of July 27. While sleeping a large piece of plaster fell from the ceiling, striking him on the face, waking him up. He found the room full of smoke and the rafters above his head in flames. He quickly aroused the inmates, all managing to escape with but their sleeping apparel. The house was destroyed with contents. The fire is supposed to be incendiary.

The five alleged river pirates accused of assaulting and robbing Charles Gilman, of Moretown, have been remanded, awaiting examination.

The annual excursion of the G. T. R. loop line employees to Sarnia Saturday was attended by 1,000 people.

OXFORD.

Two young men, each 18 years of age, were arraigned at Woodstock Friday on the charge of violently assaulting a young English girl named Phoebe Moore, 16 years of age, and a member of Miss McPherson's Home, Stratford. Their names are David Tree, son of John B. Tree, and James W. King, son of George King. They all reside at Hickson. The girl has been working at Hickson. George King's for some time past, and the alleged offense is said to have taken place at the residence of her employer on June 24. They were remanded.

Sun Talking.

The Council Talk Electricity Until Midnight.

And Then Adjourn to Continue the Discussion on Wednesday.

Ineffectual Effort to Impose a Heavy Car License—The Route as Laid Down by the Company Materially Altered—Fares Agreed Upon.

The City Council sat until midnight yesterday evening to continue the debate on the street railway question. The present offer contains twelve clauses and six of these were discussed. A great many amendments were tacked on to the street routes laid down by the company, and an endless number of motions were voted down in an endeavor to make the company pay a license ranging all the way from $5 to $100 a car. Ald. J. W. Jones submitted another proposition early in the evening, but the aldermen decided to go on with the latest submitted by the company. Ald. Thomas Jones was the only absentee.

It was moved that the offer be taken up clause by clause, and in amendment that it be taken up clause by clause and section by section. Ald. J. W. Jones moved in amendment to the amendment that the London Street Railway Company, having declined the offer of the City Council of July 6 last, on the grounds that they could not supply both material and labor for roadbed repairs and paving or pavements at present bases, with workingmen's tickets added, would be in the best interests of the citizens, hereby decline the present offer and re-submit the former offer of this council, striking out the fares therein mentioned and inserting the fares mentioned in the present offer, namely: Cash fares, 5 cents; six tickets for 25 cents; children, 3 cents single, 5 cents double; workingmen's tickets, eight for 25 cents, from 6:30 to 8 a.m. and from 5 to 6:30 p.m., all tickets to be entitled to transfers. The company to be paid at the end of the franchise for rails, ties, wires, poles, cars, car houses and electrical stations and power house only. This offer is made without prejudice to the city's right of mileage or percentages and with a view to immediate electrification.

Mayor Essery seconded. He stated that in the recent offer of the street railway company they proposed to do the paving and furnish the material in the beginning of the offer, and then in the last clause (which always governs) the city is made to pay for the paving done in taking over the system at the end of the term. Ald. O'Meara thought the offer contained in the amendment was better than cheap fares, but he was not pleased with the extensions.

Ald. Parnell spoke strongly in favor of cheap fares as the best in the interest of the ratepayers. The saving that would be derived from the paving being done by the company would not be of as great benefit as the direct benefit of cheap fares.

Ald. J. W. Jones said there was no equity in cheap fares, giving a man a ride for 2 1/2 cents and making another man pay the other one and a half. Ald. Parnell quoted many figures, but when he began to tell them that cheap fares would mean a saving to the citizens he must have struck a bank somewhere that had not been chartered. Regarding paving and material he reiterated that it was unjust to charge the city for the paving at the end of the term.

The amendment to the amendment was lost on the following division: Yeas—John Heaman, O'Meara, J. W. Jones, James Fitzgerald and Mayor Essery—5. Nays—Taylor, Pritchard, Coe, Fitzgerald, Carrothers, Garratt, Dreaney, Shaw, Judd and Parnell—10.

Ald. Parnell then moved an amendment, which practically meant cheap fares from the starting of the cars in the morning until 10 p.m., and the company to do the work, the city to furnish the material. He made a point by stating that the greater part of the present roadbed was already cobbled stoned, and the city could be made the sole arbitrator in the paving to be laid.

Ald. Judd warmly espoused cheap fares and Ald. Parnell's amendment, and the mayor as vigorously opposed him. He asked the men in No. 6 ward not to favor an offer simply because it was loaded in favor of their end of the town.

Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald urged that the "alternative" offer of the company be taken up clause by clause and discussed.

Ald. Garratt wanted the council to stand by its offer to the company.

Then, on the question being put, Ald. Parnell's amendment was lost, only the mover and seconder voting "Yeas."

Then the street railway company's offer was taken up and discussed. An hour and a quarter had been lost in the discussion. Mayor Essery and Ald. Garratt moved that the vital question of fares and roadbed be taken up before the matter of street extensions.

This was lost and the question of extensions was then taken up.

Ald. Taylor and Garratt moved that "York street, between Richmond and Ridout," be struck out. Lost.

By Ald. Carrothers and Garratt—That the line be built on Hill or South from Wellington street to Adelaide, and then to Hamilton road. Carried.

By Mayor Essery and Ald. Garratt—That a line be operated on Rectory from Hamilton road to Dundas street. Carried.

By Ald. O'Meara and Searrow moved that a line be laid from Oxford on Waterloo north to Victoria and west to Richmond. Lost on a tie vote.

It was 10:30 when the extensions were dropped and the discussion of fares entered on.

Ald. Garratt moved that a cheap fare of eight tickets for a quarter be offered for all day.

Mayor Essery seconded the motion, to bring the matter to a test.

Ald. Coe and Pritchard considered the company had made a fair and square offer and were going to support it.

Ald. Coe moved that the original clause be amended to read "children in arms to be carried free."

Ald. Garratt gave the council to understand that he drew no distinction in his cheap fare motion "between males, females or children."

Ald. Coe's amendment was lost and so was Ald. Garratt's cheap fare motion. The original clause of 5-cent fare, with a workingman's cheap rate was adopted with the amendment that children under 5 years be carried free.

Ald. Carrothers moved that the fourth clause which read that no car license be charged be struck out.

Ald. J. W. Jones and O'Meara moved in amendment that no licenses be charged for the second five years, $2,000 for the third, $3,000 for the fourth, $4,000 for the fifth, and $5,000 for the sixth five years. Lost.

Ald. Carrothers' motion was lost on a tie vote.

Then Ald. J. W. Jones and Garratt moved that a license fee of $50 per car be charged.

Ald. Wm. Heaman and Coe moved that the license be $10 per car.

Ald. Wm. Heaman's amendment was lost, and so was Ald. J. W. Jones'.

Then Ald. Carrothers and J. W. Jones moved that the license be $50 a car after the first five years. Lost.

Ald. Parnell and Judd moved that the license be $5 per motor car, the first five years, second five years $10, second ten years $25, and the last ten years $50 per motor car. Lost.

Ald. O'Meara and J. W. Jones then moved that the license fee be $40 a car per year. Lost.

By Ald. Searrow and Garratt—"That the license fee be $25 per car per annum." Lost.

Yeas—O'Meara, J. W. Jones, Searrow, Carrothers, Garratt, James Fitzgerald and Mayor Essery—7. Nays—Taylor, Shaw, J. Heaman, Nutkins, Judd, Parnell, F. J. Fitzgerald and Dreaney—8.

A $40 motion by Ald. Carrothers and a $100 motion by Ald. J. W. Jones were voted down.

Ald. Parnell said that if a large license was charged it would perhaps cause the company to give an inefficient service of cars.

Ald. Pritchard said that the way the council was going on moving motion after motion was absurd, and the company and the council could never agree in that way.

Then the council voted down another graded license motion of Ald. Garratt and Searrow.

The original clause was then adopted whereby the company will not be obliged to pay a license.

Mayor Essery moved an amendment to the next clause relating to the supplying of materials, binding the company to furnish the same. Carried.

It was then midnight, and the council adjourned until Wednesday night, the one half of the offer having been discussed.

ALBERT HIBBETT'S DEATH.

A coroner's jury says it was accidental—Excepting Gas Deet, several Times Thursday—The Evidence.

The adjourned inquest on the death of the late A. R. Hibbett, the Toronto traveler who was asphyxiated by gas at the Grigg House on Friday morning, was held at the police court last evening before Coroner Flock.

The first witness was Mr. Horsman, proprietor of the Grigg House, whose evidence was published in these columns before.

Miss Carrie Wood, head waiter, had known Hibbett some two or three years and noticed him going to his room between 11 and 12 o'clock Thursday night. He appeared to her to be very much intoxicated. She had warned him to take care of himself or he would be getting the tremens.

Miss Edith McDermid, chambermaid, on Thursday morning found the gas jet turned on in Hibbett's room. She turned it off, thinking he had forgotten to do so.

RAM'S HORN BLASTS.

It is seldom that a man with a big income is ever persecuted for righteousness' sake.

Whenever the world comes face to face with unselfish love it has to stop and think.

Some very good people can never see any harm in sin while it can wear good clothes and ride in a coach.

There is no sin so little but that if it had the right of way and time enough it would wreck the universe.

The Egyptians had four separate and distinct styles or forms of writing—the hieroglyphic, the hieratic, the enchorial and the Coptic. The hieroglyphic was probably in use as early as the year 4000 B. C., and at first was made up entirely of pictures.

About the year 2000 B. C. the hieratic form or style was introduced. In this the picture hieroglyphs were greatly simplified, finally developing into forms purely linear.

According to some recent statistics of the cost of living, an Englishman spends on an average $48 a year for food, a Frenchman $47, a German $42, a Spaniard $38, an Italian $24 and a Russian $23. Of meat the Englishman eats 100 pounds a year, the Frenchman 87, the German 64, the Italian 26 and the Russian 51. Of bread the Englishman consumes 380 pounds, the Frenchman 640, the German 560, the Spaniard 480, the Italian 400 and the Russian 635.

ABOLISH IT FIRST.

Some people do not take kindly to the ADVERTISER'S proposition that the fifth wheel of the Dominion legislative machinery, the useless and expensive Senate, should be abolished. Other countries have their Second Chamber, they argue; so should Canada, because some day the House of Commons may legislate too fast.
 Then the Senators will be handy to have around to apply the drag.

Who ever heard of the Dominion Senate condemning seat steals, or wholesale peculation by Dominion Ministers and their friends, or preventing vicious legislation like the gerrymander bills or the Dominion Franchise Act?

The fact is that as at present constituted the Dominion Senate is worse than an expensive toy. It should be removed, root and branch. Then if we could not have good government without a second chamber, and we in Ontario have successfully proved that a second chamber is an expensive luxury that an intelligent people can easily dispense with, let those who favor a modified chamber bring forward their scheme.

Our view is that national wants, and not national suspicions or fears, should be legislated for. Surely our legislation would not be less satisfactory than it has been in recent years if the old fellows in the Red Chamber were permitted to spend their days at home. When the Senate is made a dumping ground for the reception of men who have been defeated, and sometimes discredited by the people who know them best, how can we regard the Chamber as either a fair, satisfactory, or a necessary body? The good men in the Senate will find scope for their energies in some other walk of life.

From this return it is evident that Canadians have room to add to the market for their products in Great Britain if they are willing to successfully compete with other countries. They cannot force an increased price for what they have to sell in Great Britain, in competition with the keenest traders in other parts of the world, unless by producing a superior article, as they have done in the case of cheese, and as we hope to see them accomplish with regard to butter. But they can add to the returns received from what they sell by cutting down the taxes on goods which they must import in payment of Canadian products sent abroad. Only by this means can the people of Canada satisfactorily increase their trade with the motherland or any other country.

We have a great land, fraught with possibilities for a splendid future, if it is well managed, but full prosperity cannot be reached till the young northern giant throws off the swaddling bands which restrict both his energies at home and his trade abroad.

—Philadelphia has had the same experience as Port Huron with regard to brick as pavement. The director of public works of the first-named city, in his annual report, says: "The streets repaved with vitrified bricks, which have been subjected to the wear of ordinary business travel, have no lasted five years; there are bricks in these streets disintegrated and gone, while others are in a fair condition to withstand longer wear. If all had shown the same endurance, bricks as a material for street paving would be greatly favored. The maker knows the quality of his bricks. Those from the portion of the kiln that are 'firsts' should be sold as such, after selection by the maker. The buyer or inspector cannot always know the grade of bricks by their looks, and as long as brick are put on the market without selection to guarantee uniformity in their quality there will be distrust and their general use for street paving will be delayed."

A WORD WITH WHEELMEN.

Let us make a suggestion to the officers of the city bicycle clubs, which they may act on in future meets. They are in the habit of granting prizes for those who can show the most speed, and for the purpose of amusing the crowd they give a prize to the wheelman who can ride with the least celerity. Why should they not offer a prize to the rider who exhibits the greatest gracefulness on the saddle and who sits with the most ease? Close study of the bicyclists reveals the fact that women riders almost invariably ride gracefully, whereas far too many men—we are told it is the "speeding" that does it—get themselves into a crouchy, almost bent double position, even while riding at a slow rate.
 A contest such as we have outlined, with medical men as judges, might have tendency to effect a reform. The bicycle has come to stay, and we are confident that it is capable of developing the human frame, rather than of injuring it, but not if wheelmen get into the bad habit of doubling themselves up while engaged in the exhibitering exercise.

INTIMIDATION.

(From the Toronto Globe.)

It has been learned that in many of the constituencies on the eve of the election the political bosses of the P. P. A. sought out the members of the order who had been Liberals, or were suspected of sympathy for Liberal candidates, and threatened them with expulsion from the order on the ground of violation of their oath if they dared to vote against the Conservative party. Not a few who voted for the Liberal candidates in defiance of the bosses have been expelled.
 Other suspects are undergoing "investigation."
 It is well that this system of intimidation should be made the subject of inquiry in the courts. Neither pluralism, priest nor secret order may be allowed to attack the liberty of the citizen and punish him for the free exercise of the franchise. This order sought to carry elections by the exercise of intimidation, just as a few years ago certain priests in Quebec sought by the same means to defeat the candidates of the Liberal party.

Every election in which the secret order exercised its powers of intimidation should be voided, just as the courts should stand between the citizen and any attempt at the exercise of undue clerical influence. It is a scandal that a Liberal should be expelled from a professedly Protestant order and then expelled therefrom by Tory bosses because he would not vote for Tory candidates. And if we read the signs aright Liberals who do not withdraw in time will be expelled after the next Federal election if they fail to vote for the candidates of Sir John Thompson. Mr. Madill is playmate to Mr. Clarke Wallace. The grand sovereign takes his orders from Sir John Thompson. Bro. Madill and Bro. Wallace march hand in hand in the case of "protectionism. Sir John Thompson leads on, the real chief of the P. P. A. and the Orange order. This may be good politics for the grand old party, but Liberals are not likely to run at the heels of the combination.

There is one other respect in which the P. P. A. is expected to serve the Conservative party. Very many workmen have declared that the promises of the protectionists are dust and ashes. They have discovered that good wages are subsidiary to fat dividends, that protection breeds combinations, that combinations put up prices, keep down competition and put down wages, close up mills in order to limit the supply of work, reduce the demand for labor and intensify the struggle among workmen for leave to earn their daily bread. The facts have come home to the workmen, and there is danger that here, as in the United States, the masses of labor will at last cast their votes against the bosses of the protected interests. Hence there is hope and comfort in the fact that the P. P. A. is strong in many industrial establishments. The vote that the protectionist bosses cannot swing for protection may be rounded up by the Tory bosses of the secret order. All things work together for protection and the Tory party and against the workman and his fellow burden-bearers in the glorious cause of high taxation. P. P. A.-ism and "civil and religious liberty," protectionism and industrial slavery, march on triumphantly under the leadership of Sir John Thompson.

A FINE OLD CUSTOM.

(Journal of Commerce.)

Advertising is not an outcome of modern necessity, but it is a very ancient practice.
 The British Museum possesses a collection of Greek advertisements printed on leaden plates. The Egyptians were great advertisers. Papyrus leaves over 3,000 years old have been found at Thebes dis-creasing runaway slaves and offering a reward for their capture, and at Pompeii ancient advertisements have been deciphered on the walls.

FEEDING WHEAT TO HOGS

In Indiana and selling the Corn, Which Brings Better Prices.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 31.—The farmers of Indiana, for the first time in the history of the State, are feeding wheat to hogs and selling their corn. Wheat brings 43 cents per bushel when delivered at the country station, and corn sells readily at from 45 to 47 cents. The farmers say one bushel of wheat contains as much nutriment as two bushels of corn, and, as hogs are bringing good prices and corn is higher than wheat, it is economy to feed the latter and sell the corn.

MANITOBA'S FINE CROPS.

It is Expected Wheat Will Yield 25 Bushels to the Acre.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 31.—The farmers of Manitoba and the Northwest are now assured of an abundant harvest. It is expected that harvesting will be general in a week or ten days. Grain is all headed out, in a good length, and is filling up well. Farmers are hopeful that the price of wheat will advance, but even if it does not, with the yield now assured, they will still be in a good position. There is not much speculating yet as to the probable average yield per acre, but good judges say the wheat crop will exceed last year's, and may run 25 bushels to the acre. Oats and barley are an excellent crop. In the northern parts of Manitoba many farmers report they will have 35 bushels of wheat to the acre. Hay is plentiful and root crops promise well.

THE muscles of the hand reach the highest perfection in man; no other animal has a true hand; the muscles of the eyes, ears and nose show that several groups, which in the lower animals are very highly developed, in man are almost in a rudimentary condition.

DEFYING THE LAW

On the Isle of Orleans—Trouble Feared There.

QUEBEC, July 31.—The anticipated disturbance at St. John, Island of Orleans, last night, did not take place on account of the Ottawa policemen awaiting reinforcements. Six men will be down tonight, and resistance will be offered. Last night the mob sang songs and defied the officers, and carried the goods from the boat without wharfage.
 Later in the night there was a demonstration around the house where the policemen are boarding. There will likely be a row tonight.

WAS THE UNION JACK INSULTED?

The Japanese Sunk an English Ship Offshore by Britons.

LONDON, July 31.—It is stated at the offices of Hugh Matheson & Co., the owners of the Chinese troop ship, Kow Shung, that no telegrams have been received which absolutely confirm the reports that the Kow Shung was lying the British flag when she was fired upon by the Japanese warship. They believe it probable, however, since she was an English vessel commanded by an English officer. War had not been declared at the time she was fired upon, and there was no reason why she should have flown the Chinese flag. If war had been declared, the contract between the owners of the vessel and the Chinese Government would have ceased.
 The Kow Shung was the fastest vessel in eastern waters, and the Japanese were glad of the chance of depriving China of her services. The presence on board of Gen.
 Von Hanneken would be an incentive to the attack upon the ship, as that officer was supposed to be on his way to take command of the Chinese army in Korea.

The Pig's Eyes Case.

WINNIPEG, July 31.—Adolphus Martin, a wealthy farmer of Maidstone, was brought before the magistrate yesterday for sentence on the charge of cutting out the eyes of some pigs, one of which died. The court fixed his penalty at a fine of $20 and costs.
 The limit of the law for such crime is three months in jail, $50 fine and costs or both. The fine was paid, and then Attorney Hanna, for the prisoner, entered a notice of appeal.

Protestant Ladies Will Attend.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Several hundred delegates to the convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union to be held in St. Paul Wednesday arrived in this city yesterday. One of the features of the convention will be a delegation from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. One of the railroads tendered Miss Frances E. Willard the use of a private car to the journey to St. Paul, and she, being unable to attend, asked that the car be used by a Chicago delegation of the W. C. T. U., and a number of lady delegates, most of whom are Protestants, will attend the meetings of the union.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

A PAIN REMEDY.

For nearly 50 years this wonderful remedy has proved itself the best, quickest, safest and surest antidote for pain in the world.

THE TRUE RELIEF

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is safe, reliable and effectual because of the stimulating action which it exerts over the nerves and vital powers of the body, adding tone to the one and inciting to renewed vigor the other.
 It is a powerful stimulant of the physical structure, and through this healthful stimulation and increased action the cause of the PAIN is driven away and a natural condition restored. It is thus that the READY RELIEF is so admirably adapted for the CURE OF PAIN and without the risk of injury which is sure to result from the use of many of the so-called pain remedies of the day.

In using medicines to stop pain we should avoid such as inflict injury on the system.
 Opium, Morphine, Ether, Cocaine and Chloral stop pain by destroying the sense of perception, when the patient loses the power of feeling.
 This is the most destructive practice; it masks the symptoms, shuts up, and instead of removing trouble, breaks down the stomach, liver and bowels, and, if continued for a length of time, kills the nerves and produces local or general paralysis.

There is no necessity for using these uncertain agents when a positive remedy like RAD-WAY'S READY RELIEF will stop the most excruciating pain quicker, without entailing the least difficulty in either infant or adult.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

DYSENTERY, DIARRHEA,
 CHOLERA MORBUS.

A half to a teaspoonful of Ready Relief in a half tumbler of water, repeated as often as the discharges continue, and a flannel saturated with Ready Relief placed over the stomach and bowels will afford immediate relief and soon effect a cure.

 water will in a few minutes cure Cramps, Spasms, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Sick Headache, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Colic, Flatulency and all internal pains.

MALARIA.

CHILLS AND FEVER, FEVER AND AGUE CONQUERED.

Radway's Ready Relief

Not only cures the patient seized with this terrible foe to settlers in newly settled districts, where the Malaria or Ague exists, but if people exposed to it will, every morning on getting out of bed, take 30 or 35 drops of the Ready Relief in a glass of water and eat, say, a cracker, they will escape attacks. This must be done before going out.

There is not a remedial agent in the world that will cure Fever and Ague and all other Malarial, Bilious or other fevers, aided by RADWAY'S PILLS, so quickly as RAD-WAY'S READY RELIEF.

Price 25c per bottle. Sold by druggists.

 ious drugs.

DYSPEPSIA

Dr. Radway's Pills are a cure for this complaint. They restore strength to the stomach, and enable it to perform its functions, the symptoms of Dyspepsia disappear, and with them the liability of the system to contract disease. Take the medicine according to directions and observe what we say in "False and True" respecting diet.

My Sister Kate.

By Mary S. Hancock.

All her light curling hair was gathered in a heavy coil on her head, but a few tendrils had escaped, and wreathed in low clusters on her forehead, while her bright eyes looked fearlessly into their faces and gave back smile for smile. She had taken off her cloak and hat and hung them up behind her, for the room often became hot and stifling, and she could not stand that. When I saw her, she was singing while the girls worked. She had taught them to sew, taught them with the gentlest patience in the world. I know, and had succeeded. Kate was a rare one for training, be sure of that.

Her head was high in the air, and the glorious tones of her voice filled the room, ringing out over the atmosphere all laden with frivolity and sin as it might be, and she sang on and on unwearingly, until many of the girls were quietly wiping away the tears that rose unbidden to their eyes of which they could have been heartily ashamed outside.

When they were more than usually on the rampage, or the warpath, Kate would stand forth and upbraid them.

"Girls, I am going to sing."

It was enough. Every strong-armed young woman, by virtue of her strength, lay down upon her neighbors and carried the day by force of arms, the great silence would fall upon the place, and Kate's voice would reign supreme. I tell you—sister of mine though she may be—I shall not soon forget the impression she made upon me when I heard her sing.

They tell me she had other auditors sometimes, of whom she knew nothing. I heard, for instance, how one night a gang of carousers from a public house near by came along joyously to make a swoop upon the damsel and upset the decorum of the assembly. But when they neared the door Kate was singing.

The lady gathered round the half-open doorway.

Not a man of them dare venture inside. As for their bravado, it died away in harmless smoke—they stood and gazed and stared. Some slunk away; they had heard enough.

Others remained to the end, and sighed when her songs were over.

But no one ever thought of disturbing Kate after that.

Once or twice I met the vicar near the turning to the schoolroom, and bowed as I passed him. He returned the greeting, and pursued the open road. I never connected him with Kate's work. It was Clara De Grey Stranton herself who startled me.

"What a gift your sister has!" she remarked. "And what a peculiar girl she is! She will not come here, and yet she sings by the hour to those half-civilized girls in St. Anne's Lane. It is for the sake of the old vicar, no doubt."

CHAPTER III.

The dear girl tossed her pretty little head, with those slight, curved curls that I knew so well as she said these words, and I stood aghast.

"No, Clara, my darling," I murmured softly, my arm stealing round her waist. "No, Clara, my beloved, I have no liking for old men's interests at heart; she has her brother's interests at heart, her brother's welfare. These demand all her time, and all attention. She has no eyes for elderly gentlemen."

"And you are none for her," he retorted my betrothed quickly. "But oh, Elwin, must she always live with us?—I mean—I mean—"

"Here the dear girl buried her head on my shoulder, and was overcome by her feelings for a few seconds, while I endeavored to calm her agitated emotions."

"The subject of Kate," I began in my most clerical tones; "the subject of my sister's residence here is unfortunately beyond my control. My parents seem to consider that their business. But when—when we arrange matters, darling—(here I dropped the cleric and became human)—when I will take the reins into my own hands and Kate can return home once more." This pacified Clara, I am sure I do not know why. I never can understand how it is that marriage generally causes such upsets in families. We are told that a man must "leave" to his wife; but why that should mean that he should deliberately set himself, in so many cases, dead against his own friends and relatives, is really beyond my comprehension.

However, Clara is not in that position as yet, so she was taking time by the forelock, so to say, in the attitude she was assuming toward Kate. My sister was indeed convenient to me, on the point of parting with until I had the opportunity of replacing her. So, while I tenderly appeased Clara, I still held my own way with regard to Kate, upon whom I intended to keep a strict watch in future.

My vicar was said by the numerous widows and spinsters who attended our church to be singularly handsome. I did not share that opinion; but old maids are peculiarly sensitive to looks on the part of their clergy, and not too discriminating either.

It is true that he carefully abstained from more than the merest passing acquaintance with them, never presenting himself at any of the little tea drinkings which were so common among us, and never by any chance putting in an appearance at Mrs. De Grey Stranton's, even when a big "spread" was under way.

Mrs. De Grey Stranton liked a "little party." She aired her best china and her antique electro-plate on those occasions, for which the household was in purgatory for a whole week, while Gemma's tears were frequent, and her grimaces greater than usual during the mysterious processes of preparation. It would have gratified Mrs. De Grey Stranton if she could have enticed the vicar to grace her tea-table and eat her cakes.

But it was not to be. He was blessed—or cursed, which you prefer—with a digestion, and hence was "obliged to live carefully," an expression which I have since learned to believe was a pious fib invented to save appearances.

The vicar's abstinence was not my loss. It was distinctly my gain. If he had a digestion, I had no qualms about mine. Three-and-twenty is a glorious age. A man has the digestion of an ostrich and the vigor of a Hercules—or ought to have, if he be managed properly. And I was in my element at our local tea drinkings. It is, even now, part of my parochial duty which I understand to perfection and enjoy, and in those early days of my work it was just exactly what I delighted in. Perhaps I should not have enjoyed these gatherings so much had my vicar been there. In the tender years of a curate's life he does not hunger and thirst for his flock's bodily presence wherever he appears. He likes to float before the popular gaze by himself, to promenade, as it were, upon a platform all by himself, and to display his new "clericals" unabashed by other priestly presence. The girls admire him, and, as he is able to exhibit himself to more purpose in his superior's absence.

Kate, too, kept aloof from these social gatherings. Kate had plenty on her hands with the babies and the old men and had something to do; occupation, as I have said before, is good for young women of Kate's age.

But, after Clara's remark, I kept a sharper lookout at home.

"Mrs. Malony," said I to my landlady the very next morning, "did any one call last evening?" "Nivir a blissid sow!" was the instant reply. "The blissid young lady, yer riv'ence's sister, whom the saints preserve! she was alone herself all the night; an' me sittin' by the kitchen fire the whole time whativ'."

Mrs. Malony is a great talker, so I did not hear her say that I have reason to believe she did not tell the whole truth. And if I had only seen her five minutes later in her kitchen I should have been quite sure of the fact, for this is what she did. I was told long afterward. She flung herself down on her low chair in front of her fire, and, tossing the corner of her huge white apron over her head, gave vent to a series of chuckles and laughs that scared her niece who lived with her.

"Let Us Cross Over the River and rest in the shade of the trees." Thus spoke the dying hero, Stonewall Jackson, a man whose conception of war was so heroic, so chivalric, that friends and foes praise him alike. How many despoiled women feel that they would indeed like "to cross over the river and rest."

Every day brings its measure of annoyance and pain. If only they could be made to realize the inestimable comfort and physical strength to be found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, they would soon feel that "their ways were ways of pleasantness, their paths were paths of peace."

Mrs. S. E. BONGER, of Red Oak, Stephenson county, Ill., writes: "One of my neighbors was very sick during her 'change of life.' After advising her to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, I visited her a few days ago, and she told me she was so strong she could work all day long without getting tired, and says she was greatly benefited. I know many afflicted women who have been cured by your medicine."

Do a man a favor and he will be grateful enough to return for another.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are especially subject.

The prisoners in the Ohio Penitentiary threatened to strike, but they didn't walk out.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shilo's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would cure me any good." Price 50 cents. Sold by W. T. Strong.

Newly-married couples start on their tours in palace cars. They return in what they can get for the least amount of fare.

She—You look positively seedy. Look at your hair. How long it is since you've had it cut? He—I don't know. I haven't measured it.

SHILO'S VITALIZER.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shilo's Vitalizer 'SAVED MY LIFE.' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated body I ever used. For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75 cents. Sold by W. T. Strong."

The man who thinks he can do anything finds it difficult to do something, and generally winds up by doing nothing.

Untold Misery—What a Well-Known Commercial Traveler Suffered, and How He Was Cured.—Gentlemen,—About five years ago I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time under the care of Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was cured by some of the best physicians in the country, but all to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine, and when the third bottle was finished I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of dyspepsia. (Signed.) T. S. McIntyre.
