Pleaded For Safety For Self and Family---Nicholas Rallies Armies To Battle---Home Rule For Finland---New Government Regulates Prices.

London, March 19.—What most perturbed Emperor Nicholas, says the Petrograd correspondent of the Times, was that suffcient guarantees should be given that his life and those of his family be spared. It is said he was reassured by Gen. Ruzsky, who vouched in the name of the whole army under his command that no harm would befall any member of the family. The first request made by the emperor, was that he be allowed to see his wife, but this was refused point blank. There are reports that he even contemplated suicide, but eventually was induced by his confessor to accept his fortunes calmly and submit to the inevitable. His last words as emperor are said to have been that he had been betrayed by those he trusted most.

May Go to Italy.

The Times correspondent says he has been told the former ruler will have to reside in the Taurus Palace in Crimea with his family, but eventually will be allowed to go abroad to some Allied country, probably Italy.

The abdication of Emperor Nicholas was signed at the town of Pskoff, where the train on which he was traveling toward Petrograd was halted early in the week.

He added that since the happiness of Russia was the only consideration, he believed this would be best assured by his abdication, and therefore surrendered his authority.

Enemy Not Overlooking Usual Frightfulness as He Retires.

By William Philip Simms, (Special Cable to The Advertiser.) With the British Armies Afield.—Never was an army happier than that of England today, as its men pressed forward unceasingly, boring in to make the gains the greatest any army has achieved in two whole years of fighting on the western front.

Cavalry Moves.

The speed of the British "pets" is best illustrated by the fact that at several points British cavalry have had their long-sought-for opportunity of going into action—and they went in against the fleeing Germans at a trot. Retreat In Full Cry.

Retreat in Full Cry.

The German retreat beyond the battlefields of the Somme began slowly. Today it had developed into pursuit at full cry, over a trail marked by ruthless use of the torch by the retreating Germans and at least one instance of poisoning of wells. This one instance was at Barleaux. There a British army surgeon discovered quantities of poison in a well.

With the fall of Bapaume—predicted in these dispatches last Thursday—the German retreat widened and received a new backward impetus. The fine weather of the past three days also proved a boon to the pursuers.

A WEAK DEFENCE.

In the Lassigny region west of Roye the Germans appear to have made only a weak defence, since the French were able to push forward 13 miles at one bound. General Nivelle, the French commander, who is credited with possessing almost uncanny ability to gauge the powers of his opponents, is following up the retreating Germans with great rapidity. It is regarded here as doubtful whether the Germans will find it feasible to offer serious resistance before reaching the basic line of defence between Lille and Soissons, ten days' march from where they now are.

time ago a wise man said there is no argument with an east wind, except to put on an overcoat, and in view of what happened yesterday at Windsor armories it may truthfully be stated there is no argument with William T. Gregory when he goes on the warpath for patriotic money except to put on ear muffs and leave the community. tomorrow morning, as Mr. Kennedy expressed the bird to the colonel with compliments of the Canadian people. After this the colonels got all mixed up and Col. McGregor bid in "Col. William T. Gregory" at $30, this being a pit game that Capt. Fred Reid brought into the building in a suitcase, which caused many to wonder when the "main" had been held the night before.

"Gum Shoe Bill Stone," an old yel-low cock wearing rubbers, was then put up and while waiting for bids a put up and while waiting for bids a telegram was received from the Hearst New York American, bidding 30 cents for "Gum Shoe Bill" and the auctioneer immediately knocked him down remarking that 30 cents was a d—n sight more than he was worth.

"Sir Douglas Haig" became the property of W. N. Galfield, after $50 had changed hands, and "General Maude," whom the Turks say is no lady, goes to the summer home of J. C. Scholfield, who paid $60 for the bird. $30 for "Bapaume."

"St. Patrick" was right at home with A. F. Healy, after he had displayed a check for $50, and the band struck up "The Wearing of the Green." "Admiral Sir David Beattie," the Jutland hero, found a friend and admirer in the Hon. E. G. Henderson and was sold to him for $50. Mr. Henderson then donated the bird to the fund and the next time under the hammer a loyal Yankee, who now sings "God Save the King," J. C. Scholfield bid him in at $25.

The 241st brass and pipe bands dispensed high-class music and at the close of the sale Col. McGregor announced the results as follows: The town of Leamington, $250; the McGregor Kilty Club of Leamington, $400; proceeds of sale, $1,290; total amount, $1,940.

Three cheers and a tiger were given Mr. Gregory and in a short speech he announced that he was already preparing for next year's sale, and if the war was still on that we would likely be then working for the 44ist Battalion. BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, March 18.-Via London.-9:35 p.m.-So rapid became the pursuit of the Germans retreating in the Ancre and Somme sectors today that the British cavalry came into play after restless months of waiting and longing. It has been a wonderful sight to see the cavalry squadrons moving towards the front for several days past. They have included some of the crack English regiments, looking very grim and businesslike, in steel shrapnel helmets and equipped with gas masks.

The fine drying weather of the past three days has helped the pursuit, which in some cases has reached solid ground that has been little damaged by shell

It was officially stated today that poisoned wells were found in the vil-lage of Barleux, southwest of Peronne, which was occupied by the British in the wake of the retreating German garrisons. This serious accusation was made in a report by the British doc-tors on an analysis of the water. The British test all waters in occupied territories, in order to safeguard the troops from various diseases. They were startled to find that the Barleux wells contained a deadly poison. ### RAILWAYMEN WIN EIGHT-HOUR DAY AVERTING STRIKE

Managers Yield to Wilson's Appeal, Who Expects an Early War.

SURRENDER IS COMPLETE

300,000 Men Will Benefit by $60,000,000 Increase in Salaries.

New York, March 19 .- The railroad strike has been averted. Yielding to the appeal of President Wilson and facing the probability of the United States entrance into the war, the railroads, early today, granted the demands of the four employees' brotherhoods for a basic 8-hour day. The telegraph wires this morning are carrying throughout the country messages from the brotherhood chiefs res-cinding the orders for the inauguration of the great progressive strike at 7 o'clock tonight.

A Complete Surrender.

The decision is regarded as a complete surrender to the brother-hoods, brought about, however, after the patriotism of the railroad managers had been put to the test. The president's mediators, playing what they considered their last trump card, were not successful in their mission until after more than fifty hours of anxious conferences, all of which pointed within a short time before the decision was announced to an inevitable deadlock. By the terms of the settlement, the combined salary list of the rail-roads, will be increased approxi-mately $60,000,000 a year, according to conservative estimates. The num-ber of workmen profiting by this increase will be more than 300,000.

Sinkings a Factor.

The Agreement.

The statement reviews the negotiations in detail, and concludes: "The provisions of the eight-hour law, by agreement between the roads and the men, became the basis of the settlement, and whether the stipreme court holds for the validity of the law or against it, there will be no strike."

The agreement was signed in Secretary Lane's room at 5:15 this morning. As the last of the nine to sign it attached his signature the tension in the little group relaxed. The managers and the chiefs shook hands with one another and with each of the Washington mediators.

Bananas which since time immemorial have been quoted in cook books and women's journals as "an economical and appetizing dessert," are no longer in that class. They cost 30c a dozen now, if you buy them at the grocery store, just twice as much as they did last August.

In Toronto, the first night of the campaign, 300 members were obtained.

Mrs. Wright referred to the good will work already being done by the organization in London. Nineteen cases of kindred of Associated Kin have been helped with Insurance claims and in other ways.

An official organ for the London Associated Kin, known as "The Kinsman," will be issued shortly, and thereafter monthly. It is proposed to sell the paper on the street at five cents a copy, they did last August.

Local fruiterers are of the opinion that the doubled price has been caused through the formation of a banana There has not been a serious shortge of bananas reported, they say, and hey see no reason why the wholesale price has been increased, necessitating jump in the retail price.

All railroadmen will be interested in the film to be shown at the Grand Opera House, three times daily, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 19, 20 and 21. The film is called "The House That Jack Built," and is a human interest story, based on the dangers of carelessness in railroading. The title of the story is taken from the Story, is a fine type of railroad brakesman, who, though happily married and of fine character, has one fault, namely, taking chances. His wife, on being told of this by a conductor friend, is best with visions of a train collision due to her husband's carelessness in not observing the flagging rule. Mrs. Foster becomes so hysterical that she hastens to the railroad yard, where she overhears a conversation between two men, one of whom has lost his legowing to home troubles having occupied his mind at a critical moment.

A friend induces Jack to attend a Safety First raily, at which unsafe practices are illustrated. Jack is so impressed with what he has seen and heard that on his return home he bends over the bed where his two children are sleeping, and determines to banish carelessness forever.
