The Whipping Post.
The young man whom P. M. O'Loane sentenced to two months in the county jail, at Stratford, and ten lashes in two instalments, for an indecent assault on the daughter of a respectable Mornington farmer, received his first instalment on Friday morning last. The whipping was done in one of the corridors of the goal. Dr. Shaver the goal physician was present and pronounced the boy's condition capable of undergoing the punishment. The young man listened with indifference while the sentence was being read to him by Sheriff Hossie, and when told to remove his jacket and shirt he did it quite sprightly. He walked briskly to the triangle and stood upon the "footboard" without the least sign of fear. His feet were then fastened to the base and his arms passed round the uprights and secured by a pair of handcuffs. After the fastening was all secure a young man wearing a mask over his face stepped forward with the instrument of war in his hand—a short stick with feather thongs attached to it. After measuring the distance with his weapon he brought it down in quick succession on the back of the unfortunate boy. The flesh on the back reddened and was raised in numerous ridges, but no blood was drawn. He said nothing, but when released he sobbed convulsively and showed signs of considerable suffering. The young man Branch—from St. Mary's, who is waiting trial for a similar offence witnessed the flogging of Gilpey.—Times.

A young man named Robt. Jas. Corbett, who has been living with Mr. C. Jacques, on the 2nd concession, for some time past was found dead in the barn on Monday evening last. Rev. Mr. Osborn's Reply.

Corrie May 2nd '92

EDITOR GAZETTE.—I was somewhat surprised to read in your issue of the 28th ult., a letter from Rev. J. W. Fring, who states, that on account of the step the Rev. W. J. Waddell has taken, he has had his doubts removed and is now fully convinced that the Pedobaptist position is impregnable and the arguments on this side simply unanswerable. Not quite so I think as the following clippings will show:

"Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin, M. P., in the course of a conversation a few weeks since, incidentally referred to the reply which he had at one time made to the request of a former Editor of the Baptist for his opinion on the meaning and use of the Greek word Baptiso, in the New Testament. Knowing that our readers would be interested in learning the view of a gentleman of superior intellectual ability and of wide scholarship, not himself a Baptist, we asked Mr. Davin to kindly repeat his reply in writing, with permission to publish. Following is his answer to our request:

"I forget the exact words I used in my reply to the question by the editor of the Canadian Baptist. It was some years ago. But as my opinion remains unchanged, it will be as well to give the answer I would make if the request were repeated.

"I hold, and have held ever since I was in a position to have an opinion on the subject, as both as regards the form of baptism and those who should be the subjects thereof, the Baptists have the best of the argument. As to the more important question of the two, the subjects—the nature of the case, the order of the words 'believe and be baptized,' the apostolic practice and, most probably, that of the early church, are on the side of those who hold that Christian baptism presupposes conscious faith in Christ. The ancient form outlined the departure from the ancient rule. As to the subjects of baptism and the meaning of baptiso, the well known practice of the early centuries and the fonts in old European cathedrals make out a case difficult to overturn, not to speak of St. Paul's argument in the 6th chapter of Romans, the beauty and appropriateness of which is lost unless you bear in mind that the only form of baptism known to Paul was immersion. The literal and metaphorical use of the word baptiso in Greek writers gives no countenance to sprinkling. Ships are described as baptized when they have been sunk, and men as baptized with wine when they have been soaked with it. In the first verse of the 8th chapter of Matthew Johannes ho Baptistes is only half translated. We get the English equivalent for the proper name but not for the cognomen; we get just the Greek word. The proper translation would be, 'John the Dipper.' The meaning of several passages in the New Testament is obscured by the timidity of the translators in dealing with baptiso and its derivatives. In the 11th verse of the 8th chapter of Matthew we read, 'I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance.' But the Greek is, 'I indeed dip you in water into repentance.' In the 5th verse we read that they flocked out to him and were 'baptized,' 'confessing their sins.' The metanoia was not an end to be reached through baptism; they were repentant before they were baptized. If baptism led to repentance, John would never have addressed the Pharisees and Sadducees as in vs. 7-10. What force in 'dipped in Christ' as compared with 'sprinkled with Christ,' (Rom. vi:3), not to speak of the impossibility of correctly translating either the verb or the preposition so.

"The same word baptisterion which Pliny used for a swimming bath, the ecclesiastical writers apply to the baptistry in a church."

N. F. DAVIN.
Regina, N. W. T., Feb. 6, '92.

"It may be well enough now, when it is being blown about that there is a certain large sort of interpretation which makes it contrary to the mind of Christ to hold to immersion as essential to baptism—it may be well to call attention to a statement by the renowned church-historian, Dr. Philip Schaff, which I cut some time since from a religious newspaper:

On strictly exegetical and historical grounds, baptism must be immersion. Without prejudice, no other interpretation would have been given to Bible baptism. It is the most natural interpretation, and such we must always give. Immersion is natural and historical; sprinkling is artificial and an expedient for convenience's sake. All the symbolism of the text (Rom. 6: 3, 4), and everywhere in the Bible, demands the going under water and coming up out of it to newness of life. Sprinkling has no suggestion of burial to sin and resurrection to holiness. In order to be true to its original meaning, and its vital relation to redemption through Christ Jesus, baptism must be immersion. Why do you wish to get rid of it? Eminent theologians have wasted their learning attempting to defend infant-sprinkling. Imposition is not exposition. All the early defenders of Christianity taught that nothing but immersion was baptism, and all the Greek or Oriental churches continue to immerse to this day.

For myself I desire no ampler largeness than the most precise obedience to the divine Christ. I think it is a most dangerous thing to attempt to interpret Christ's mind against Christ's words.—Dr. Wayland Hoyt, in the Examiner.

I might quote the testimony of other Pedobaptists who all agree that there is no Scripture warrant for 'Infant Sprinkling.'

Yours for Truth,

A bad accident happened in Brussels on Wednesday afternoon. While the freight train was working near the station a brakeman named Thos. F. Andrews fell under a car, the wheels of which crushed his arm off. His recovery is yet doubtful.

A cross petition against M. C. Cameron, the defeated candidate in West Huron, has been filed at Osgoode Hall on behalf of Hon. J. C. Patterson, by Messrs. Meredith, Clark & Bowers.

Mrs. J. O'Neill, an old time resident of Clinton, died on Sunday, 24th April, aged 69 years, and was buried in Clinton cemetery April 26th.

As Mrs. Wm. Swaffield, accompanied by Miss Swaffield of the Bayfield Road, was driving into Goderich on Saturday, the horse ran off the road and got the buggy into a ditch upsetting it, the occupants being thrown out with great force. Mrs. Swaffield was severely injured, but her daughter escaped almost unhurt.

On Thursday, Mr. W. Kelly, butcher, Blyth, met with rather a bad accident by getting a bad gash in one of his legs with a draw knife while doing some wood butchering. Three stitches were put into the wounded parts.

On Saturday evening last the residence of Robert Marshall, of Porter's Hill, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was at once given, but the flames had obtained such a hold on the building that but little could be done to save it or its contents, and in a very short time what had been the cosy homestead of Mr. Marshall for many years was reduced to a smouldering heap of ashes. A defective stovepipe is supposed to have been the cause of the disaster. Mr. Marshall has the sympathy of the entire community.

WELLINGTON.

The Lorne lacrosse club, of Mt. Forest will be re-organized this week.

Henry Yallett, for many years a resident of Mt. Forest, and an ardent cricketer in the old days, died last week.

A very sad accident occurred at the Arthur C. P. R. station at 11 o'clock on Friday night, 15th inst., whereby Albert J. Pinkerton, a brakeman, had a very narrow escape from instant death. His train was approaching the station and he and another brakeman were on top of the box cars setting the brakes. They passed each other on a car and his comrade turned around to say something to Pinkerton. Just as he did so, he was almost paralyzed to see him fall between the cars. Quickly the remaining brakeman signalled the edgineer to stop the train, but it was impossible to bring it to a standstill before a number of the cars had passed over Pinkerton. His comrades ran back expecting to find him mangled beyond recognition, but, strange to say, only his right leg was injured, except a few slight bruises about the body. He was carried to the caboose, which was attached to the engine, and no time was lost in starting for Toronto. Mr. Pinkerton was taken to the general hospital as that place, and the doctors found it necessary to amputate the injured limb at the knee joint. The operation was successfully performed and the patient survived the shock wonderfully well, and will soon be around once more. It is only about three months ago that Mr. Pinkerton's marriage was announced.

On Tuesday 18th inst., about 6 o'clock p.m., the barn of Richard Gearns, con. 10 Maryboro, was destroyed by fire. It contained feed, seed, grain, and implements. Loss, $2,000; insured in Waterloo Mutual for $1,500. Fire arose from the six year son of the owner playing with matches.

The Palmerston Telegraph says:—On Thursday last the town Bell was tolled for the funeral of Mr John Warren. At one time deceased owned a farm in the township of Wallace, but unfortunately for him he was appointed collector of taxes, and by a mistake in making a seizure for taxes he was run so heavily into debt for law costs, as to make a poor man of him. For some months past he had been living with his son-in-law, Mr. Charles Agar, at whose house he died. He was a devoted member of the Methodist church and before the union used to worship in the M. E. church, to which he has given as much as $50 a year. His straitened circumstances of late years compelled him to give little. Some surprise has been expressed by friends of his that no sermon was preached on Sunday in memory of him, and two reasons has been advanced for the omission. One that he was a poor man, and the other that there is an objection now-a-days to preaching what is known as a "funeral sermon." Probably the latter is the true reason.

A serious runaway accident occurred on the farm of Mr. B. McAnany, Arthur tp. on Saturday. Mr. McAnany had just driven into his barnyard on the way from working in the field to his house for supper, and had his three children, two girls and a boy, on the on the wagon with him. Arriving in the yard, he jumped off the wagon and threw down the lines, and before the children, who are all under ten years of age, could get off the horses started. Mr. McAnany managed to seize the boy as the wagon passed him and jerked the lad to the ground, bruising him some. The little girls were thrown off the wagon, one of them being severely cut and bruised about the back. Before stopping, the team dashed into a seeder standing in the yard, smashing it and the wagon to which they were attached. A doctor is now attending the children.

Navigation is now fairly open on the northern lakes, boats are running regularly from Owen Sound and the Georgian bay fishing season is commenced.

Wiarthon has a chartered bank at last, a branch of the Union Bank having been opened there.

Mr. David Porter, M. P. P. for North Bruce, is dangerously ill with lung fever at his father's home near Toronto.

William Smith on Monday the 18th ult. had his boat up at Parker's landing and pulled it up on shore. He and a little son of Sam. Moore's then went down the shore a few yards away to eat their lunch, and when they looked around they saw the boat out on the lake. Smith built a raft and started after the boat. The little boy watched him till he could see him no longer. The boy went home that night about six o'clock and told his father, who went down to the shore that night but could see nothing of him. He went down again next morning and saw where the boat left and where he built his raft. The wind was off shore from the north east. Mr. Smith came from Dunganon. His father is now living in Chicago.

PERTH.

A young man in Stratford went with his sister to the station the other day, had her trunks checked to Toronto, gave her the checks, then bought her a ticket and absent-mindedly put it in his pocket book, leaving his sister to start without it. A message from the station-master, sent by the advice of the Times editor, to the conductor, straightened matters out however.

Licences have been granted to the following hotels: Listowel—Barber Bros., P. Collison, Jas. Mahnell, Archie McIntosh, G. Zilliaz, Rolls & Kidd. Wallace—Andrew Cress, J. G. Scott. Elms—A. Huggins, Monkton: A. Wynn, Newry; N. Coughlin, V. Ioerger, Atwood.

Conductor Snider is running on the main line between Stratford and Toronto.

Alex. McGregor, an old resident of Perth, died in Texas recently. He took a leading part in promoting the division of the united counties of Huron, Perth and Bruce in 1850-1-2, and for his services he was appointed clerk of the county court and treasurer of Perth county. For some years he was also treasurer of Stratford and Downia.

The election to fill the vacancy in Toronto caused by the recent death of Mr. H. E. Clarke, was held last Friday and resulted in the defeat of the conservative candidate, Mr. Bigelow having a majority of over 800. The vote was very small, less than half the number that voted at the municipal elections at New Years. The defeat of the Conservatives is (possibly) due to the fact that they neglected to take the GAZETTE'S advice and bring out Mr. D. Creighton, of the Empire, as their candidate. An election was also held in Welland last week at which a Reformer was returned by a majority of about 850.

An election contest is now going on in North Perth at which Mr. Grieve is again the Reform candidate and Mr. Scrimgeour, of Stratford, carries the banner for the Conservatives. It looks like a case of "which and tother" between them, but the unseated candidate has a very good assistant in the "sympathy" appeal. Meetings are being held everywhere throughout the constituency and the personal canvass is a very active one.

In East York, too, politicians have their war-paint on. The death of the universally lamented, the late Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, has thrown that constituency open, and both parties already have candidates in the field, the Conservative being Mr. Maclean, and the Reformer Mr. Leslie. The date of the election is May 11, and the battle is already at fever heat. East York has always been a close constituency, even so strong a favorite as the late member being only able to secure a small majority of less than 50, so that no one can give even a probable prophecy as to which will win.

Deeming the Australian murderer, has been found guilty and sentenced to be hung. Besides murdering several of his wives, he has confessed to having been the perpetrator of many of the 'Jack-the-Ripper' Whitechapel murders which horrified the world a year or so ago. It is a credit to the Australian government that justice is being meted out without unnecessary delay to this terrible criminal. In a case of this kind our American cousins would have taken up at least two terms of court besides appeals, etc., which almost allows their criminals to live out their allotted days by nature before tardy justice overtakes them.

The Redistribution Bill is now before the Dominion parliament. It is not a very extensive measure, and is either a "disgraceful gerrymander" or a "very equitable readjustment" according to the partisan proclivities of the newspaper you read. In Ontario, Monk and North Wentworth are wiped out and added to their neighbors. One of these constituencies was Grit and the other Tory. Two new Ridings have been formed, by which Algoma and Toronto each send an additional member to parliament. Several other smaller changes are proposed, but on the whole the measure is not nearly so extensive as the one which preceded it.

Word comes from England that 120 selected emigrants left Liverpool on April 15th for Canada under the auspices of the Self Help Emigrant Society. They were for the most part people under 30 years of age, healthy-looking young men and comely women and girls respectably dressed and of good physique. That is the class of emigrants that Canada welcomes. Give us in hundreds the robust, intelligent, earnest people who want to earn their living, and Uncle Sam may have his mendicants, anarchists and outcasts in thousands.
