

HOW CANADA'S CASUALTIES ARE KEPT STRAIGHT AT OTTAWA

In a Most Remarkable Bureau of Military Information, 600 Clerks and Stenographers Compile the Real Story of Canada's Part in The War.

While the Canadian army has been growing to its present great proportions, one of the most remarkable bureaus of military information has grown with it at Ottawa.

Under the fostering care of Surgeon-General Fiset, Deputy Minister of Militia, and the direct guidance of Mr. Frank Beard, Chief Record Officer for the Dominion, the unassuming and painstaking charge d'affaires of the casualty division, this bureau has grown until it is claimed that it outshines even the famous military information bureau for bureaucratic efficiency. Practically all the hours of the 24,000 clerks and stenographers work carefully compiling the real story of Canada's part in the great war. The Canadian public naturally looks to the department at Ottawa for all information regarding officers and men of the Canadian expeditionary force, whether it relates to casualties or other particulars, and the information is there for present or future use.

Owing to the importance of the information this bureau has at its disposal the utmost care and accuracy must always be exercised, and the absence of corrections of the casualty list evinces the great care displayed by these devoted officials. They know that mistakes bring unnecessary grief to the relatives of Canadian soldiers. They have also been trained to the necessity of breaking the news gently to the next of kin. The feelings of the relatives of the dead heroes therefore have the first consideration when casualties are being handled by the staff. In almost every instance the cablegrams reporting casualties reach the Record Office after 6 p.m. Every effort is made to send out all notices the same evening, but all telegraph companies have been instructed that no telegram reporting a casualty is to be delivered to a bereaved home after 9 p.m., and that no charge whatever is to be made for delivery of the message. So far as possible no information relating to a casualty is communicated to the public press until the next of kin has received notification of same, or every source of information regarding the whereabouts of the next of kin has been exhausted.

The Casualty Division. The Casualty Division deals with the decoding of cablegrams, reporting casualties, and notifying the next of kin. Each cable is received in cipher, and before the information is forwarded to the relatives it is checked over twice. A record is kept of each telegram when it leaves the department, showing the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, and the name of the officer or man who has been killed or wounded, etc.—when the telegraph company reports that the message has been delivered it is entered on other lists which are prepared for the Premier, the Ministers, several members of parliament, and the press. These lists, before being issued, are also checked over very carefully. All information pertaining to a casualty is placed on a card and filed alphabetically the same night, so that the latest information is ready for the enquirer at any time. In addition to the casualties reported by cable, daily lists are received by post furnishing information regarding men in hospitals. This is communicated by letter to the next of kin in all cases where the casualty was reported by cable in the first instance. This is done to

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice instead of bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anemic-looking souls with nasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning, inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effects upon the system.

quiner. Messages of this nature average fifty per day.

Missing Men. The Record Office deals with cases of all men who have been missing for a period of six months or over, whose next of kin resides on this continent. In each case an enquiry is addressed to the next of kin asking if information is not obtainable to show that the man is alive, he is officially presumed dead, and a certificate is issued accordingly. No man is ever officially reported dead until all sources of information are exhausted, and the parents of boys reported under this heading have unfortunately never had occasion to doubt the veracity of the department. The insurance companies look very largely to this section for their information.

Yet another section makes investigations and reports upon the cases of prisoners of war. These are forwarded to the different societies which exist to look after the men's welfare. In short there is nothing of no detail in connection with Canada's forces which can be recorded that is overlooked by this office.

FAREWELL TO MISS E. MOFFAT

Member of Zion Church Choir Honored on Eve of Her Departure as a Nurse.

The choir of Zion Church met at the manse on Friday evening last to say good-bye to Miss Ella Moffat, who has been a faithful and valued member of the choir for several years, and who leaves shortly for Montreal to go in training at Royal Victoria Hospital there.

After a dainty lunch had been served by Mrs. Woodside, assisted by several of the lady members of the choir, occasion was taken to present Miss Moffat with a travelling bag; Mrs. D. L. Wright expressing the kind feelings of the choir toward Miss Moffat and Master Moffat. Woodside making the presentation, presented Miss Moffat with a beautiful bouquet of white "Mums."

In behalf of the musical committee of Zion Church, Mr. E. L. Cockshutt presented Miss Moffat with a splendid wardrobe trunk, and pressed the board's appreciation of the service rendered by the guest of the evening and the regret of all in losing her. Miss Moffat extended thanks in a neat speech, stating that the choir and congregation of Zion Church were so glad to have her with them more by her than she would be missed by the choir.

Mr. Woodside also spoke a few words, making use of the work that Miss Moffat is about to enter upon and wishing her every success in her new duties, as does every member of Zion Church where she will be greatly missed in almost every department of the work.

The Lure of the Movies

As the result of a sensational attempted elopement on Tuesday night two young men about twenty-two years old appeared in the police court this morning to answer charges of abduction of two young girls, the charges having been preferred by the parents of the girls. The authorities in Hamilton were notified and as the culprits stepped out of the radial car they were taken in charge.

The young men claimed Erie, Pa., as their home when questioned in the police court. The girls concerned, are fifteen and eighteen years old. The case was adjourned until tomorrow.

TO AUTO OWNERS.

Chief of police Chas Slein states today that the police of the city desired the co-operation of automobile owners, in the new system of parking vehicles before the theatres. ## CASUALTIES NEAR TOTAL OF 75,000

In British Forces During November, Over 2,000 Officers Included.

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Nov. 30.—British casualties in the month of November, as reported from all fronts, were 74,650.

Of the total 2,351 of the casualties were among officers and 72,299 men.

There was a marked falling off in the November losses as compared with recent months, probably owing to the slowing down of the Somme campaign on account of bad weather. The average daily loss in October was 3,452, compared with 2,488 in November. The November casualties bring up the total of British casualties reported in the five months since the beginning of the Somme offensive to 488,852.

INTERNATIONAL LAW IN CONTEMPT

Germany Protests Against Dismissal of Her Ministers From Greece.

Washington, Nov. 29.—In a note delivered to Secretary Lansing by German Count von Bernstorff, Germany protests against the ejection of the German, Austrian, and Turkish Legations from Greece, and asks that the state department forward the protest to Great Britain.

The text of the note, signed by Count von Bernstorff, and addressed to Secretary of State Lansing, follows: "The French commander of the naval forces of the Entente in the Greek waters has notified the Embassadors of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria that they had to leave Greek territory immediately with the staff of their Legations and of the Consulates."

"The German Empire most emphatically protests against this contempt of international law, of the free will of a neutral country, and of the most elementary rules of international courtesy."

"Acting under instructions from the Imperial government, I have the honor to request your Excellency to forward this protest to the British government."

"I accept, Excellency, the renewed assurance of my highest consideration."

Forwarded to Britain. Germany's protest will be sent on part of the ordinary routine of the State Department. The note requires no other action on the part of this Government, which is involved only because it represents German interests in England.

Scores of similar notes have been transmitted through the department from both sides as part of the ordinary routine of the American Government in representing belligerent interests in hostile countries.

Surprise was expressed that the request was made to transmit the note to Great Britain only, especially as Admiral du Fournet, commander of the French fleet is the active head of the whole allied forces before Greece and has conducted all the negotiations.

Coming to the Grand

The great character comedian and singer, Al H. Wilson, has now become a standard attraction, and managers may count upon sure box office returns when their theatre-going public are made aware of his coming. His engagements in the leading cities have always been productive of splendid financial results, such as to make him a welcome yearly visitor, and in order to maintain that well-desired pinnacle, it is the purpose of his management to present him in song-plays that afford abundant opportunity for enjoyment. The excellent impression Mr. Wilson gave last season in "As Years Roll On" is sure to create new interest when he repeats this coming season in a new and longer song play entitled "My Killarney Rose."

This attraction may be booked with the certainty that managers will be offering something in the line of stage entertainment that will attract and delight, which is the only satisfying kind of a show that counts.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS. Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backachy or Have Bladder Trouble—Take a Glass of Salts.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked, filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, or full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act properly for all time.

Complaints Of Non-Delivery

Under ordinary circumstances the distribution of a Daily Newspaper is a big task, even with an organization trained for the purpose. When great numbers of new subscribers come all together, the difficulties become greater. The rush during the Great Prize Contest now on is an illustration.

At this time it will probably be impossible to avoid all mishaps and mistakes, although every precaution will be taken by the publishers to ensure the delivery of each number of the paper.

The publishers are determined not only to remedy any such mishaps and mistakes, and to reduce them to the lowest degree, but to spare no trouble or expense to prevent them in future.

With this end in view the publishers request subscribers to communicate every complaint regarding late or non-deliveries by letter, card or Phone 139.

THE SITUATION

The enemy troops are now only twenty miles from Bucharest, and it is not believed that the Roumanians will make any serious attempt to defend their Capital. Experts differ as to whether Ferdinand's troops can continue withdrawal fighting until their present menacing position is relieved. Meanwhile Russian troops under Brusiloff have struck a heavy blow in the Carpathians. They captured a series of ridges and also took seven hundred prisoners and some machine guns. These operations, it is announced, are intended as a relief to the Roumanians.

Reports with regard to the fighting in Macedonia differ. The Bulgars claim that the Allied troops have been halted with heavy losses, while the Allies state that they have heights beyond Monastir have been successfully held despite several counter-attacks, while British troops have been successful in the Yadar valley.

The British Government has taken a drastic step in deciding to assume control of all the coal mines in South Wales. There has been a lot of trouble there between miners and operators and it is evidently felt that the supply must not be jeopardized.

A cablegram has been received in Ottawa from Bonar Law, the British Colonial Secretary in which he affirms on behalf of the British Government:—

"It would be impossible and indeed manifestly injurious in the conduct of the war to prohibit the export of Canadian nickel matte and they have occurred in the method of supervision now being adopted, which seems to them to be the best practical method."

He adds that Merton's—the firm mentioned by Hartley Dewar, M.P., in his charge—have eliminated the enemy holdings in the company and that the British Government is now using the services of said company. Thus the Grit nickel charges are utterly and completely exploded.

ADMIRAL BEATTY FIRST SEA LORD.

The war has witnessed many notable changes, principally when Grand Duke Nicholas was relieved of the supreme Russian command, and Sir John French was replaced by Sir Douglas Haig as head of the British overseas forces. The third momentous step in the appointment of Sir David Beatty to the position of head of the grand fleet, while Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, who held that post, becomes First Sea Lord. The last named has been under a tremendous strain since hostilities started and at his age the tension must have been very great. Under his guidance John Bull's navy has kept the German fleet bottled up, the trade routes have been kept open for the transport of troops and produce and German shipping has been chased from the seas. As First Sea Lord his splendid knowledge and advice will still be available in a practical way.

Beatty, who is quite often spoken of as a "second Nelson," has had a wonderful career in his chosen profession. He is still a young man—only 45—and entered the navy when he was only thirteen years of age. When he was in his early twenties, in 1896, he was sent to the Soudan to help Lord Kitchener and was given charge of the British gunboats winning the D. S. O. Later he did excellent work in connection with the Boxer uprising in China. He was appointed a rear-admiral at the marvellously early age of thirty-eight. Before the war started he was in command of the First Battle Cruiser Squadron and knighted. During the present struggle he has done notable work time and time again. He was the hero of Heligoland and also of the Dogger Bank battle. His greatest exploit, however, was off Jutland in June, when, with his cruiser squadron, greatly outnumbered, he stopped the German fleet, which sustained severe losses and before the grand fleet came up was only too glad to scurry back to the shelter of the Kiel Canal. He has constantly proved his worth, his cool headed daring, and initiative in every direction and his preferment will be received, with general acclaim. Mr. Balfour evidently retains office as Lord of the Admiralty. Unlike Winston Churchill whom he displaced, he is not a man of overweening personal ambition. Instead, although an ex-premier, he willingly took office upon his acceptance of a post which would be a service to the Empire, and his whole public career has thoroughly demonstrated that his one desire is to assist on behalf of the common good.

WHAT SIR WILFRID WANTS. Sir Wilfrid Laurier does not want to take part in any coalition government. What he desires is to get into power, if he can, as head of his own administration. He yearns for that regardless of anything else. As a matter of fact he has never been asked to take the step and he would certainly be altogether out of place in any cabinet formed to press matters on an entirely national basis without regard to the desires of la-sgard Quebec. The Liberal chieftain expresses his attitude in an inspired special despatch from the Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Globe. Here is an extract:—

"The attitude of the Liberal leader, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with regard to Canada's participation in the war has been from the first that there should be only one party in regard to united and whole-hearted efforts towards its successful prosecution."

Then follows the claim that the present administration has been lax and lacking, and that Sir Wilfrid is the one gentleman who can deliver a strong brand of goods. Still one more extract will suffice:—

"According to the best informed here, the Liberal leader does not see the necessity of the practical usefulness of a coalition government, in preference to party government, rightly led and honestly and courageously carried out. If and when the time comes for him to again assume the responsible duties of office, he will do so as the leader of the Liberal party, believing that the whole Dominion wishes a non-partisan, courageous and energetic war policy."

Such as he exhibited during the Boer War? At that time it was only when forced by the rising tide of public opinion that he consented to send troops at all and he took the ground then and since that parliament should first sanction any help.

It is safe to say that had he been in power during present hostilities not one half the service would have been rendered the Empire that has been accomplished under the Borden administration for the simple reason that he never makes a move without one eye on Quebec and that province has not warmed up to the supreme duties of the hour so that the fact can be noticed.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Laurier says in effect, "Coalition be blown; all I want is to be boss." The London Advertiser recently compared Rowell to Lloyd George. The incident is interesting as further illustration of the exaggerated political notions held by that paper.

The cablegram from Bonar Law knocks the bottom out of the latest attempt of the Grit manipulators to twist political capital out of the war at the expense of the Borden Government.

David Beatty may be relied upon to sling everything possible at the foe.

Charles M. Schwab recently gave a banquet to prominent citizens in Bethlehem at a cost of $10,000. Potatoes and eggs must have figured largely on the menu.

Presidential candidate Hughes is going back to the practice of law. In place of his brief aspirations for occupying the White House, he will now tackle other briefs.

WEDDING BELLS. John Lewis Anguish and Annie Emmeline Brackenbury were united in marriage last evening at the First Baptist parsonage by the Rev. Llewellyn Brown. They will reside in Brantford.

"Desperate to Madness"

Brooklyn Eagle: Only a Government desperate to madness could conceive of adding this final outrage against Belgium to the record that has placed it beyond the pale of civilization.

Cigarettes for Haberdashery New York Sun: Those who have fancied all of Egypt standing all day in hurricane and sandal making cigarettes for America will be interested to learn that the country of the Nile sent only $24,315 worth of cigarettes to the United States in 1915 and bought in return $32,810 worth of what the Department of Commerce calls haberdashery.

A Single Tax Waterloo. Springfield Republican: The proposed single tax measure which was defeated by a referendum vote of 184,984 to 48,829. This may be taken, with the Hughes victory, as assurance to conservatism that such a measure where direct legislation is at its highest has not lost its moorings in old tradition.

Warning to a Canning Company New York Mail: With the cost of living higher than ever before, one of the great economic concerns of the day is to have abandoned its domestic trade in order to make larger profit by selling abroad. To add to the food troubles of the American people the danger of scarcity is bad citizenship, and may prove to be bad business. More power to the retailers who have determined never to handle this country's products again. It is time the spirit of "America First" found lodgment in America.

NEWS OF NORFOLK

133rd Battalion Loses Identity in England; 150 Men Rejected.

(From Our Own Correspondent) Simcoe, Nov. 30.—Letters received from officers and men of the 133rd Battalion, C.E.F., indicate that the battalion has lost its identity. The medical examination culled out not more than one hundred and thirty men. Some were too young and some were too old, but very probably few will return home at present, work will be found for all about camp. The rejected men out of A and I Companies appear to have been drafted for early transfer to France. One private remarked, "We may be in the trenches before you get this." But the tenor of other letters would indicate that he was over sanguine.

The men say they have new officers, but that these know little business. A considerable part of the unit goes to the 23rd reserve. One man writes that Major James has been rejected, another that Major Aiken is on his way home (Mrs. Aiken, however, has no such news). All the N.C.O.s were reduced to the rank of private. Paymaster Capt. Selby may be sent back to London.

The Patriotic Association of Norfolk County met last night. There were present His Honor Judge Boles, Mayor Williamson and Messrs. Wm. Burt, M. Smith, T. J. Edgar, F. Reid, H. P. Innes, K. O. R. Atkinson. It was decided to hold a meeting of leading citizens of the county, municipal officers and councillors, clergymen and other leaders of public opinion to the number of about two hundred. The time and place are fixed as two o'clock on Wednesday, Dec. 6th, at the Court House. Lieut. Col. Norris, Lieut. Col. Cockshutt and Col. Williams will probably be present. The object of the meeting is to foster a sense of responsibility, and revive recruiting. Lieut. Col. Norris has stated that he is prepared to open a company headquarters here as soon as there are fifty men in sight.

Leslie Scram of Langton was brought before Justice Earl yesterday morning charged with the theft of another of the missing bicycles. He was remanded and allowed out on bail of $500 to appear on Dec. 11. Scram is only fourteen years old. More arrests are expected.

Joseph Kinkhammer of Brantford, and Ethel Leighton of Port Dover were married this morning at St. Mary's by Rev. Father Nagle, and left by north-bound trolley.

AN ATHLETE. Pte. Hawkins of Simcoe, who enlisted with the 215th battalion to-day, is noted for his participation in the fastest 100 and 220 yard runs in the province, and will be a decided acquisition to the sporting ranks of the battalion.

Three Years of War Have Not Stopped English Racing

Race Tracks Continue to Flourish with Fair Success—the Recently Closed Season Having Been One of Exceptional Quality.

London, Nov. 30.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The flat racing season in England, which ended with the first week in November, was accounted quite successful notwithstanding that it ran into the third year of the war. There were twenty-three meetings in England, eleven at Newmarket, four at Lingfield, three at Gatwick, three at Newbury and two at Windsor. There will be jumping meets during the winter, but as special trains are not permitted and the supply of petrol for automobiles is limited, the crowds are not expected to be up to the usual standard.

The King continued to lead his patronage and appears in the final list of winners with purses aggregating $3,685 to his credit. All the classic races of the English turf were maintained, although many of them did not come up to the value of the past years.

The leading winning owner was E. Hilton, a newspaper proprietor with $86,820. The Earl of Derby, whose time is almost wholly taken up by his duties as Under Secretary of War, kept his racing establishment intact and was the second winner with $45,830. The Duke of Portland was fourth with $31,500; J. Buchanan, fifth with $25,425; and Lord D'Abernon, head of the day, sixth, with $23,250. The winning jockey was S. Donoghue, who had 43 mounts first past the wire.

A day's racing at Newmarket, known as headquarters of the English turf, retained this fall many of the picturesque features of pre-war days, with some distinctly novel attractions. The crowds were perhaps a bit more subdued although English racing throngs never have quite the same exuberance, or the same tendency to "ride" the winner home as one might expect to see in New York, Latonia or Louisville.

The winners here take their winnings with a calm and somewhat disdainful self-assurance while the losers lose with no disposition to "grouse" or "grouch" as it would be rendered in "American." Newmarket, however, is not northeast of London, but this is not a great distance when a splendid big motor car has been successfully requisitioned and the day's program offers a card of seven well-filled races.

The way leads out the famous Seven Sisters Road, through Epping and its royal forest, which, a few weeks ago, had been the site of a great number of German chortled voices of thousands of German soldiers. The old English inns and public houses along the road at a point of interest to visit-ants are a source of interest to visit-ants because of their quaint construction and still quaint names. There are the "Fighting Cocks," the "Bull and Hornshoe," the "Wagon Wheel," the "Coach and the Whip," the "Three Tuns," and scores of others. The English country is beautiful at all times of the year, and in the autumn months the grass is as green in the fields as in the spring. "Six Mile Bottom," is a welcome station along the way, for there to Newmarket lies a six-mile stretch of arrow-straight road which invites a speed limited only by fear of the county constable.

Newmarket, somewhat slow and sleepy by general standards, is alive and teeming with excitement on racing days. The road from town to track is fairly clogged with all manner of vehicles. One finds wartime racing a bit cheaper than the ordinary sort and entrance to the grand stand is to be had for one pound with two shillings extra for England takes stand is not large, for England takes his racing in the open—on the broad lawns and in the open air paddock. Betting goes on as usual, with the bookmakers setting their odds in a manner calculated to attract and persuade. In return for a five pound note, or a one pound note, or perhaps your "two and six" in silver, you get a bit of numbered paste-board, which may or may not be worth preserving.

Newmarket is not a race track in the American sense. The grand stand and surrounding enclosures seem rather a gathering station set in the midst of never-ending fields of wonderfully green and velvet turf. But to the right there are the familiar white rail fences which merge the several slants or straight-away courses into the home stretch.

Witnessing the start of an English race is a mile race the horses start a mile away from the grand, if it is a mile and a half race they start a mile and a half away from the grand. Here are built for racing, not to afford a spectacle. The racecourse must be content with the brief stretches of sees in the last hundred yards or so. Even this thrill is denied when one sees the flash past the winning post.

Even this thrill is denied when one sees the flash past the winning post. A curious thing is noted occasionally the British track to conform to some century-old tradition. During an afternoon's racing this year one could see on the tracks all the colors long familiar to the English eye: the primrose of Lord Rosebery; the black, white cap of the Duke of Portland; the dark blue of the Duke of Devonshire; the blue and yellow hoops of Baron de Rothschild; the dark blue and buff stripes of the Earl of Jersey; the light blue and pink sash of Major Faldor Astor, and the scarlet

There was an earnest devotional prayer spirit felt in the earnest prayers of those taking part. The subjects of prayer were the deepening of spiritual life of the membership of our churches all over the city, and an outpouring of the Holy Spirit, so that there may be a setting apart and separation between the true disciples of the Lord and the world. Every woman in the city who believes in the powers of prayer is welcome. The meetings are informal. Anyone able to spend only part of the hour is urged to come. The meetings open at 3 p.m.

Early this year our authorities at home were urged to devise some scheme for the co-ordination of all efforts...

Thus impressed, I obtained permission to go thoroughly into the whole question of the working of these new regulations at 4 Thurloe place...

I did not approach this subject quite "new to the game." I had already visited general post offices in England, Switzerland and elsewhere...

QUARRELING IN PUBLIC

The other evening as we were walking down the street to attend a political meeting, a young couple passed me.

There was nothing very bitter in the words, but the tone was packed with bitterness. One could feel all manner of accusations and recriminations and irritabilities behind it.

It is a very unhappy, unlovely thing for married people to be bitter with each other.

TO CONTROL COAL MINES OF S. WALES

Board of Trade Will Assume Charge in Order to Prevent Trade Dispute.

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Nov. 29.—The government's decision to assume control of all the coal mines in South Wales on December 1, under the Defence of the Realm Act was announced...

Secretary Richardson of the South Wales Miners' Federation, after an outburst of astonishment, declared emphatically that the miners would oppose such a measure unless it were made applicable to the whole country.

Mine owners are reticent, but seem as much at a loss as the miners to understand the bearings of the new regulation.

FRENCH CANADIAN BRIGADE TO FRONT

Is Project Now Receiving Consideration of Military Authorities.

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—The constitution of a French-Canadian brigade as part of the Canadian forces at the front, is being considered by the military authorities for some time, and matters have now reached an active stage.

The intention is to constitute the brigade from those French-Canadian units already at the front and to concentrate recruiting efforts in Quebec and among French-Canadians generally on the raising of reinforcements to keep such a brigade up to strength.

As regards the constitution of a fifth division there is as yet no definite announcement from militia department. The plan, it was considered today, is however, under consideration and the name of General Lessard was mentioned by a high authority as the probable head of the new division.

German Government Led Into Error Bulk of Nation

Seathing Arraignment Made By Socialist, Dr. Liebknecht—Government Is Unscrupulous Representative of Policy of Conquest.

The Zurich Socialist paper "Volksrecht" publishes the text of the letter written by Liebknecht which was submitted to the Reichstag Committee during his trial. It reads:—

To the Royal Council of War in Berlin:—

At the hearing of inquiry into my case, I want to lay stress on the following points:—

1.—The German Government, as it is at present constituted, is only an instrument for the oppression and the exploitation of the working classes, both inwardly and outwardly. It serves the interests of the Junkers, of capitalism, and of Imperialism. It is the unscrupulous representative of the policy of conquest, and by reason of its armaments it has been the principal instrument in bringing about the present war. The Government has prepared this war in agreement with the Austrian Government, so that it bears the chief responsibility.

It bears the chief responsibility for the bringing about of the present war. The Government has prepared this war in agreement with the Austrian Government, so that it bears the chief responsibility. It bears the chief responsibility for the bringing about of the present war. The Government has prepared this war in agreement with the Austrian Government, so that it bears the chief responsibility.

For the German Government, there can be no thought of its ever coming to terms with leaders animating such ideas, and I shall pursue the struggle against them with all my strength.

KARL LIEBKNECHT.

The Government had recourse to political proceedings totally devoid of all scruples, and it increased its demands on the working classes further by its organization of the food question. During the war everything has been done with an eye to the wishes and demands of the agrarians and capitalists, at the expense of the masses of the people. Even to-day war must comprehend the conquest of territories, and these desires for annexation form the greatest obstacle in the way of the conclusion of peace.

The password of all true Socialists ought to be this: "Down with the Government!"

2. The present war is not a war of liberation or a war waged for the liberation of oppressed peoples. From the proletariat's point of view, it merely signifies a concentration and an accumulation of political oppression and military sacrifices, increasing the misery of the working classes to the profit of the capitalist class and to the profit of the bourgeoisie.

For the German Government, there can be no thought of its ever coming to terms with leaders animating such ideas, and I shall pursue the struggle against them with all my strength.

KARL LIEBKNECHT.

London, Nov. 29.—A Borne despatch to the Wireless Press says that the will of Emperor Francis Joseph, which was opened the morning after his death at Asolo, near Trieste, contained directions for his funeral, which was to have in it a provision for a legacy of $250,000 to the actress Katharina Schraak. This part of the will, the despatch says, was dated some years back, while other clauses had been added during the war.

Princess Elizabeth, the Emperor's granddaughter, inherits the same amount.

WILSON SENDS HIS FINAL WORD

Ambassador Gerard to Outline to Germany Attitude of U. S.

On Sub Situation and Also Upon Deportation of Belgians, Which is Disapproved.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Ambassador Gerard conferred with President Wilson yesterday and received final instructions on views to be presented to the German government regarding the deportation of Belgians and submarine warfare.

No written communications have been given to the Ambassador, but Mr. Wilson outlined to him fully the attitude of the American government toward pending issues. The President is understood to have emphasized the unfavorable impression created here by Germany's treatment of the Belgians and to have reiterated that the United States was not prepared to enter on submarine warfare, and expected Germany to live up to her pledges.

While Mr. Gerard would not discuss the matter for publication, he is said to have said that the President had ordered the Ambassador to be ready for peace on terms satisfactory to her.

HAD NO PLACE TO SLEEP

Visitors to New York for the week end found great difficulty getting a place to sleep. Hotel clerks were kept busy informing would-be guests that every room was taken, and "the only thing left was the roof." Never in the memory of leading hotel managers has there been such congestion.

It was practically impossible to find a room of any sort, and the crowd of visitors who thronged the lobbies begging for rooms at any price were forced to make a night of it and hunt for lodgings in the furnished room district.

Many Attractions

The congestion was caused by the rush of shoppers upon the annual before Christmas pilgrimage to the great metropolis, to the convention of hotel men; the Army and Navy football game in New York, and the Yale-Harvard game at New Haven.

After the arrival of the Twentieth Century Limited on the New York Central Saturday more than four hundred persons were waiting to be assigned rooms at the Waldorf. Crowds were in great demand and lined the corridors of all the hotels, while regular customers were billeted out in private homes and some even had to be sent to Newark, New Jersey, to get sleeping accommodation.

Under the Stars

New York never was invaded by such an army of week-enders before, and hotel clerks will not forget, for some time, the difficulties encountered in trying to sleep people without rooms. For once travellers were willing to rough it, without complaint, regardless of price, could they only get space enough to lay down anywhere with a roof overhead and many slept on the roof at that.

Joseph Coler, a Negro, arrested at Chicago for murder, admitted he held up Charles Brown, a tinner, 52 years of age, on the street, and because the victim had no money, he hit him to death.

WHIPPING POST IS ADVISED

By Detroit Pastor as Means Of Protecting Marriage Ties

Detroit, Nov. 30.—To correct those who violate the sanctities of marriage and who cannot be appealed to through a moral sense, Dr. W. H. Wray Boyle, pastor of the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church, formerly of St. Thomas, advocated the whipping post in the second sermon on the series on "The Safeguards of the Modern Home."

The first safeguard he named was loyalty to the best ideals of life, socially and morally. He said a large percentage of moral failures in the life of the school can be directly traced to the lack of moral training and influence in the home.

"If we are alarmed by some of the conditions reported from Detroit schools," he said, "there is good reason to question the quality of our homes."

Flays Unwise Parents

"It is unthinkable how any God-fearing and intelligent parent can make wise provision for the temporal needs of a child in food and dress and social privileges, and then neglect the moral and spiritual training of moral choices and moral ideals."

Discipline was named as the second safeguard. He quoted Jane Adams, of Chicago, as saying there are no fewer than 10,000 boys and girls in that city of pronounced criminal tendencies, and that court records show 80 per cent of these are from homes where no Christian discipline has ever been exercised. He said that where right principles were inculcated in a young nature by training and example, right purposes could hold defiance to any environment.

"Fidelity to the holy relationship of life," he said, "is another safeguard. The most sacred of all relationships is the relationship between the man and the woman."

"Mutual and kindly appreciation of deeds and people is a fourth safeguard. In selecting a wife, put gentleness and cheerfulness each before preference for beauty. If you cannot have all three,"

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Remedy that's Anybody Can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmothers' days. It is used to keep hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking for a drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of ingredients which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

News Notes

A shadowy form leaped into the road from the bushes and into the path of Al Drape's car near Peekskill, N. Y., last night. Draper found that at the cost of a wrecked car he had killed a big bad deer.

Six persons were injured, three women among them seriously, when an automobile standing outside Symphony Hall, Boston, started on a wild rampage just as the hall was disgorging its hundreds at the conclusion of the concert.

John A. Monahan, 31 years old, was shot dead on Seventh avenue, New York. The three-man running away from the scene of the shooting were arrested.

Louis Schulman, aged 6, was killed on street car in New York, and a cordon of police was necessary to protect the motorman from an angry mob. He was arrested.

Two hundred and fifty suspected gunmen are in jail in Chicago as a result of a city-wide round-up by policemen following the thirty-fifth Black hand crime of the year.

Mrs. Martha Wigglesworth, 76 years of age of New Britain, Connecticut, was married yesterday to her old-time sweetheart, Stephen Hibbard, also 76 years old, a farmer in Hartland, Conn.

Robbed of all the oxygen in their prison by a bonfire which they started to attract rescuers, three boys, from 9 to 13 years of age, were suffocated in a box car in the Santa Fe freight yards at Chicago. The car had been locked by the night watchman after the boys got in.

Floyd Fellows, 16 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fellows, of New York, was shot to death when both barrels of a shotgun he was dragging were discharged into the left side of his head as he was crawling between the barbed wires of a fence while hunting for rabbits.

To The Editor

FROM THE MILK VENDORS.

To the Editor, Dear Sir,—Pardon me taking the liberty of trespassing on your valuable paper but I think the public should know a little of what the milk vendors have to contend with in getting for them their usual supply of milk. First there is the usual shortage at this time of the year which I know is general throughout the country and cannot be helped by the vendors or farmers. Then, second, the big companies who are offering the farmers 6 and 8 cents a gallon more than formerly, quietly pushing the old vendors to the wall, which will in time mean that the consumers will have to pay considerably more for their milk, as there will not be so much competition, if the public are wise and will insist on the old order of things. By that I mean, dealing with the man who through thick and thin has endeavored to supply them milk for twenty years. I may be wrong, but personally I think if the companies get the monopoly the price which is plenty high enough, will be maintained. The farmers are looking for the highest price and are getting it from the companies. Well what will be the result after the small vendors are pushed to the wall? The companies will say, look here Mr. Farmer, our price for your milk will be so and so after a certain date, what will the farmer be able to say? He will be in such a position that he will have to accept. Will the price to the public go down? I guess not. I myself have taken milk for twenty years from one farm and have been thrown down by the farmer in favor of the company, the farmer getting 4 cents per gallon more than the said contract called for to finish out his term. It would then have given me an opportunity to have gotten another supply, which is almost impossible to get now. The contract was a yearly one, ending in the spring.

"Thinking you in anticipation of your inserting this, I am Sir, Yours truly,

W. R. C. JAMES, on behalf of other Brantford milk vendors.

FOSTER FAVORS EQUAL SUFFRAGE

Sir George Predicts Vote for Women Throughout the Empire.

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—Sir George Foster, has declared himself for woman suffrage, and predicts that women throughout the British Empire will have the same voting rights as men within a few years. In a letter to Mr. J. R. Dickson, an official of the Ottawa Equal Suffrage Society, Mr. Foster writes that the part women have played in the war and the sacrifices they have made have strengthened his opinion in favor of equal suffrage.

"There is little doubt," he says, "that a few years will see the inequality in voting between the sexes in most if not all British countries done away with, and new impetus be given, especially in questions of social and moral reform, to the great body of the democracy of the country."
