The Remedies With a Record

Father Morrissey's "No. 10" For Throat and Lungs

During his many years of practice Father Morrissey successfully treated thousands who were suffering from Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Inflammation of the Lungs. His favorite prescription was a Cough Mixture and Lung Tonic that came to be called "Father Morrissey's No. 10."

Unlike the majority of cough mixtures, "Father Morrissey's No. 10" does not depend on such drugs as Opium and Morphine to deaden the irritation and give temporary relief—in fact, there is not a trace of any of these dangerous drugs in it.

The simple but effective remedies provided by Nature herself were selected and combined by Father Morrissey, with remarkable skill, into a medicine that has earned the name of a "Lung Tonic" as well as a Cough Cure. It soothes the inflamed membrane of the throat or lungs, removes the irritation or mucus that causes the coughing, relieves the congestion, and restores the parts to a healthy condition. More than that, "No. 10" tones up and strengthens the whole system and fortifies it against future colds.

For ordinary winter coughs and colds "No. 10" is unsurpassed and is one of the safest remedies you can use. Trial size 25c. per bottle. Regular size 50c.

Read what it has done for these two sufferers:

I had been ailing for some time and in a low, run-down condition; two experienced physicians were consulted and gave me case up as hopeless. I determined to try Father Morrissey's Lung Tonic, and had scarcely finished one bottle when I felt my strength returning. I persevered in the treatment, and am now perfectly well, and would recommend the Lung Tonic to all who are afflicted as I was.

MRS. FELIX N. BOUDREAU.

FATHER MORRISSEY MEDICINE CO., LTD.

I can testify to the benefit derived from Father Morrissey's cure for Bronchial Trouble. For some time I was a sufferer from this trouble, and could get no relief from it, until I used his medicine prescribed. On taking Father Morrissey's medicine, to my surprise, I began to improve, and was completely cured. With a grateful heart I give this testimonial to the great value of Father Morrissey's prescriptions.

JOHN GRATTAN.

FATHER MORRISSEY'S LINIMENT FOR ACHES AND PAINS

In treating Coughs and Colds with "No. 10," or Rheumatism with "No. 7," it helps a great deal to rub the affected parts with Father Morrissey's Liniment. For sore throat and cold in the chest a piece of flannel should be wrung out of hot water, sprinkled with a few drops of the liniment, and applied after the rubbing. For Rheumatism the liniment should be warmed and rubbed in freely, morning and evening.

The genuine Father Morrissey remedies are being put up by the same druggists, in exactly the same way, as they were prepared during the priest-physician's lifetime. What they accomplished there for hundreds of sufferers they will do for you now. You know something of their record in years past; you can depend on them now. Get them at your dealer's or from

FATHER MORRISSEY MEDICINE CO., LTD.

CHATHAM, N.B.

Father Morrissey's "No. 7" For Kidney and Rheumatism

When the slightest exposure to dampness or cold brings rheumatic aches to joints or muscles, it's a sure sign that the blood is wrong. It's loaded with Uric Acid, poisonous and exceedingly irritating—formed from the worn out tissues and waste matter taken up by the blood from different parts of the body. When things are working right, this poison is immediately filtered from the blood by the kidneys and got rid of. But sometimes the kidneys do not keep up with their work—the blood gets overloaded with Uric Acid, and it collects in the fibres of the muscles—in the joints—in the valves of the heart. Then there's a case of Rheumatism, caused simply by defective action of the kidneys, and brought on by exposure.

Father Morrissey had a wide experience in treating Rheumatism, and an exceptionally successful one. The prescription on which he depended was one of his own, called "Father Morrissey's No. 7." It acts directly on the kidneys, and has a toning, invigorating effect on these organs, helping them to clear themselves of the accumulated Uric Acid and to get working properly once more. Then they quickly purify the blood—and the cause of the Rheumatism is gone. The joints limber up, the pains go away and the disease is eradicated from the system.

Price 50c. a box.

Hundreds of letters like these have been received from those who have been benefited and cured:

I have used Father Morrissey's medicine for Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble and found it the best medicine I ever used.

JAMES CAVANAUGH.

St. John, N.B., Nov. 17, 1900.

FATHER MORRISSEY MEDICINE CO., LTD.

I sought the advice of the late Father Morrissey about two years ago. I was suffering from Rheumatism, aggravated by other complaints, and had been treated by local physicians without any result whatever. Almost totally discouraged, I consulted with the late Father Morrissey by letter and he prescribed for me. His medicine, while not effecting a permanent cure, benefited me greatly. You are at perfect liberty to use my name, as I shall deem it an honor to have it connected with the skill of the late Father Morrissey in any way, however remote.

Yours truly, PATRICK BYRNE.

Mr. Stanley K. Smith, Gen. Secretary Chatham Y.M.C.A., writes on July 3, 1909:

Having used Father Morrissey's Liniment in my capacity as Physical Director of the Chatham Y.M.C.A. for rubbing down after a hard run or exercises, I can heartily recommend the liniment to runners, athletes or anyone whose muscles are subject to strain. During the season I have placed a large number of athletes in the field and the majority used nothing else but Father Morrissey's Liniment. For removing stiffness and soreness of the muscles, it is unequalled.

the red-headed girl in secret; and why the strange old woman in the cottage in the wood spoke to her as if she knew her.

Taking it by and large, as she would have said, Cottie concluded that there were some strange people in this Starborough.

She rose very early—it was wearisome lying awake through the silver-grey dawn—and, slipping down softly, so as not to arouse Betty, lit the fire and tidied up the place, just as she would have done if she was "at home" in the hut.

Betty was astonished, and somewhat embarrassed, by "the boy's" industry and neatness.

"I see you've been properly brought up, Master Ronald," she said; "though I think you ought to have been a girl; you've done it all so well. But there isn't any occasion for you to bother yourself; I should feel lost, like, if I didn't do the house work, and I'd rather you helped me with the gloves."

"All right," said Cottie, cheerfully—she had winced and turned away at the reference to her sex—I'm not much at needlework but I'll do what I can."

"No; I should think not," said the old lady, with a smile. "The idea of a boy, excepting he was a tailor, and being any good at sewing! But you might learn to cut out. I'll show you how it's done."

"All right," said Cottie again; "but bringing the work out into the garden, I hate being indoors when the weather is fine."

The City of Pens

Birmingham Turns Out About Thirty Million a Week.

In these days, when there is so much said about dying British industries, it is gratifying to note that in spite of foreign competition Birmingham still supplies the world with pens. These are now turned out by the capital of Midland at the rate of 30,000,000 per week, over twenty ton of steel being used in their manufacture. The pens are sold at prices ranging from 3 cents to $12 per gross and the fact that each gross requires 144 pieces of steel to go through 12 different processes renders this cheapness of sale one of the greatest marvels of manufacturing skill and industry.

The advent of the steel pen dates back to about one hundred years ago when steel pens of the barrel type—that is, with the holder and pen in one piece—were made and sold for nearly 50 cents each. To Mr. James Perry belongs the credit of bringing steel pens into general use. He began pen-making at Manchester in 1819, and ultimately developed the pen trade in London before the prominent Birmingham makers, Mitchell, Gillott and Mason caused a revolution in the trade by machine-made pens. The greatest improvement in the manufacture was the adoption of a new hand press for the cutting out of pens. By means of this process one man can cut as many as 45,000 blanks a day.

The shape is given to the blanks of course, by the dies in the press; and there are many different shaped dies for the different types of pen to be made. As a matter of fact, a leading pen-maker has a catalogue containing 5,000 varieties of pens, while it has been estimated that no fewer than 100,000 different shapes and sizes are in the market. Perhaps one of the most popular types of pen ever invented was the ball-pointed pen, which the well-known Birmingham firm, Messrs. Brandauer & Co., introduced on the market. The advantage of this pen, of course, was that it obviated that spurring and scratching which some people complained of in regard to steel pens.

The great objection to the steel pen when it first came into general use was its stiffness. There was not that "give" and "spring" in the metal pen which characterized the old-fashioned goosequill pen. This was remedied, however, by the side slits which we see in pens to-day, and for many years the method of slitting pens by means of a press was kept a secret by those famous pen-makers, Gillott and Mason. Briefly, the method of manufacture of a steel pen to-day may be described as follows: The blanks are pierced and the slits cut, after which the pen requires to be softened by annealing. Then they are raised and hardened, scoured with acid, colored, varnished, and dried, girls afterwards looking over the pens, throwing aside the faulty ones, and packing the good ones into boxes ready for sale.

How the trade has grown may be gathered from the fact that in 1839 steel pens were not generally known, but in 1849 the trade was a leading industry in Birmingham; there were 12 factories employing about 2,000 men, women and girls, the weekly output of pens being stated at 65,000 gross. The output in 1866 had increased to 98,000 gross weekly, and about 4,000 people were employed in all departments. In 1886 the weekly average of pens manufactured was about 160,000 gross, or 13,000,000 pens.

Grace Before Meals.
A Prayer That Was Retrospective as Well as Prospective.
Most small boys—and many other people, too—have experienced the mortification that comes from beginning a meal before the blessing is said. The usual reason for such a breach of etiquette is that the small boy—or the other person—did not allow that the blessing was going to be said. The awkward feeling that is sure to follow such a blunder cannot be helped, but it may be mitigated. On one occasion, says Mr. Adlai E. Stevenson in "Something of Men I Have Known," a gentleman at a formal dinner, being very hungry and exhausted, made this mistake of starting in before grace.

BEARINE
FOR THE HAIR
DAVIS & LAWRENCE CO. MONTREAL

After the blessing was asked, he turned to Mr. Knott and said: "I am humiliated at my conduct. I should have remembered that Presbyterians always say grace before meals."

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT myself as well as prescribed it in my practice where a liniment was required and have never failed to get the desired effect.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION
By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Belleriver, Que.—"Without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I would not be alive. For five months I had painful and irregular periods and inflammation of the uterus. I suffered like a martyr and thought often of death. I consulted two doctors who could do nothing for me. I went to a hospital, and the best doctors said I must submit to an operation, because I had a tumor. I went back home much discouraged. One of my cousins advised me to take your Compound, as it had cured her. I did so and soon commenced to feel better, and my appetite came back with the first bottle. Now I feel no pain and am cured. Your remedy is deserving of praise."—MRS. EMMA CHATEL, Valleyfield, Belleriver, Quebec.

Another Operation Avoided.
Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from female troubles, and my doctor said an operation was my only chance, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me without an operation."—LENA V. HENRY, R.F.D. 3.
Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases.

To this Knott replied: "You ought not to feel so. That blessing of Dr. Fullock's was broad and general, in large measure retrospective as well as prospective. It reminds me of a little incident that occurred on the Rolling Fork.

"An old time deacon down there was noted for the lengthy blessing which at his table was the unflinching prelude to every meal. His hired man Bill Taylor, an unconverted and impatient youth, had fallen into the habit of commencing his meal before the blessing had been fully invoked.

"The frown and the rebuke of the good deacon were of no avail in effecting the desired reform. Righteously indignant, the deacon in a spirit possibly not the most devout, at length gave utterance to this petition:

"For what we are about to receive and for what William Taylor has already received accept our thanks, O Lord!"

"Knott," said one of the guests, "you are the only man on earth who could have thought of such a story as just the opportune moment."

The temporary depression vanished, and the premature guest was himself again and was soon the life of the assemblage.

Which Was The Heir?

SIDNEY nodded, though he could not remember whether the captain had or had not mentioned it.

"Perhaps you can lend me a little to go on with?" Sidney took out some notes rather reluctantly—he did not quite like lending the money, but it was difficult to refuse; and the captain pocketed them and thanked him with cool ease.

"And what shall we do to-day?" he asked. Sidney's head was rather worse than usual that morning, and he was quite resolved to go down to Starborough.

"I'm going off for a day or two," he said; "really going off," he added, emphatically; but the captain smiled incredulously.

"Oh, put it off for one more day," he said, pressing. "Why, what's your business? It is not an affair of petticoats, is it? Eh, what! Ah, sly dog!" And he winked and leered at Sidney in a manner highly flattering to "The man of the world."

Sidney said nothing, and the two men went off to spend the day.

There was a suburban race meeting which the captain particularly wanted to show his young friend, and they drove down in a cab in the best of spirits, though the captain became thoughtful now and again, and glanced curiously at Sidney. Of course they betted; Sidney, strange to say, won; but the captain's ill-luck stuck to him, and the notes which Sidney had given him in the morning passed with the fickleness of their kind to the book-makers.

Sidney always lost his head over good fortune; he drank heavily—the captain seemed to be always hovering about him with a champagne bottle—and late that night he found himself in his rooms, seated in a chair with the captain opposite him listening with the deepest attention to a confidence which Sidney was making with tipsy gravity and impressiveness.

In the morning, when he woke, he had only the vaguest recollection of conversation, but he felt rather uneasy, and he was rendered distinctly uncomfortable when, later on, the captain appeared, and after the usual greetings and enquiries, carefully closed the door, and fixing his small eyes upon Sidney, said in a low voice:

"I've been thinking of your proposal last night, Richards; and I—well, I'll do it, though, mind, I think the figure you mentioned is scarcely up to the mark. But, there! if I can do a friend a good turn and save 'im from making a fool of himself, I shall think myself amply repaid."

"What are you talking about?" said Sidney, colouring. The captain raised his eyebrows. "Oh, come, now, isn't that plain?" it ran her low down? Do you mean to say that you've forgotten takin' me into your confidence about the little girl in the country?"

"Little girl in the country!" echoed Sidney, turning pale. "What—?" "Oh, no names was mentioned, and I don't blame you; and I ain't curious. It's no concern o' mine who she is; but upon my word, it's coming it rather strong to pretend you've forgotten your proposal. I suppose you'll say it slipped your memory that you was to give me a hundred pounds for the—er—little service?"

Sidney sat and stared at the evil face, with its still more evil smile, and the captain watched him with cunning eyes.

"What are you talking about?" I don't know what you mean. What proposal?" stammered Sidney. The captain leant across the table and explained in a low voice, a voice that was scarcely above a whisper; and as he listened Sidney's sallow face went almost livid.

"What?" he exclaimed in a choking voice. "Good God! Did I—did I propose—that—ask you to do that?" The Captain nodded.

"Of course you did," he said in the same hushed, toneless voice, "and devilish clever I thought it."

Sidney rose—he staggered slightly—and turned his face away; the sweat was standing on it in great drops, and his lips were twitching. And the man stood watching him closely with a stealthy and half contemptuous leer.

CHAPTER XXIII. YOUR gipsy, though he has a rooted aversion to stopping in one place, has a valuable knack of quickly adapting himself to any locality and circumstances. Cottie's life had been very much like that of a gipsy, and she at once settled down at Betty's cottage; indeed, before she had been many hours there she felt and made herself at home.

As a matter of fact, the rest and the quiet of the place were very welcome to her after her strange vicissitudes, and she resolved to remain in her haven until she had earned enough money to pay her passage to Australia—for Cottie's one thought and desire was to get back to Geoffrey; and she lay awake the first night thinking of him. The loss of her small fortune did not trouble her very much. Indeed she was not altogether sorry that it was gone; for if she had kept it, she would have felt bound to go to school, as Geoffrey had directed her in his letter. And, well, for obvious reasons, the idea of a school was not pleasant to this child of the wilds, and presented difficulties, under the circumstances of her assumed sex, which made her shiver when she considered them.

As she lay, staring at the moonlight on the whitewashed walls of her scrupulously clean, little room, she also thought of the persons into whose society she had been strangely cast, of Miss Eva and her brother, Sir Edward; wondered why Mr. Bassington—for whom her dislike increased as she thought of him—met

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Cannot be cured with ordinary soothing syrups. The disease must be attacked at the root to eradicate the irritation of the lungs, heal the wounds and strengthen the respiratory organs. The composition of of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other Medicinal Extracts marks it amongst all other remedies as the true specific for the diseases of the throat, the bronchial tubes and the lungs. Here are a few conclusive proofs:

CHURCH POINT, July 31, '08.

Blacking & Mercantile Co., Ltd., Amherst, N.S.
Dear Sirs,—Nearly one year ago I had my first order of "Mathieu's Syrup" from you. It was not known in this country, and I gave samples to several families whom I know would use it. After a few weeks I began to have a call for it, and trade has increased wonderfully since. I have not the least doubt but that it will soon be the best selling remedy for coughs, colds, etc., on the market. In my store here sales are good and our people ask for it. Several stores in this country now keep it in stock and report sales increasing. I have bought from you since August 1907, 4 gross and have only 3 dozen on hand at this date, and which I am holding for retail trade in my store. Yours truly,
LOUIS A. McLANSON.

AGAINST HEADACHE there is no remedy so active as Mathieu's Nervine Powders which contain no opium, morphine or chloral. 25 cts. per box of 18 powders.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

They had twice broken their engagement. She had thrown the ring on the floor in true dime novel style, and he had sworn never to have anything more to do with her. "So" when he told me that the wedding day was set for the third time and the wedding cards actually out at last, I think I must have looked dubious, despite my words of formal congratulation. "I know it, Ruth," he said, answering my look instead of my word. "I know it. She's all I ever said she was in my angriest moment. I know she's a little brainless thing, that she's half way bad and that she's got the temper of the devil, but, Ruth, I love her." That was eight months ago, a month before the wedding. And now she has gone back to her people and he to his while the divorce suit is pending. Of course. It simply couldn't have ended otherwise. He used the word "love" of the attraction that drew him to her in spite of himself, but he should not have. He degraded the word by doing so. It wasn't love at all—love respects and exalts and glorifies its object. It was simply one of the biggest life wreckers in the world—inflation. Beware of the emotion that does not respect and glorify its object. To any man or woman who feels as this man did, a passion that he himself admits is not founded on any basis of worth, and who feels it so strongly that he is in danger of being married on the strength of it, my heartiest advice is, "Get someone to lock you up until the fit is over, if necessary. No measure is too strong that keeps you from committing matrimony under these conditions." The man who marries under the influence of such an attraction might as well hire his divorce lawyer at the same time he procures his marriage certificate. He is that apt to need him. How are you going to tell the difference between love and infatuation? I don't see how anyone can ever have any doubt on the subject. Infatuation is the kind of emotion that man felt—the kind that says, "She isn't really worthy to be loved but I can't seem to help loving her." Love is the kind of feeling that says, as all true lovers do— "I am not worthy to love her, but I can't seem to help loving her." There was a little squib in "Life" the other day that just belongs here. It ran something like this— "Young Man to Clerk—I want a license to marry the best girl in the world. There was evidently 1,200 men in that city who loved the woman they were going to marry, and 1,200 weddings that I'll wager will contribute mightily little to the divorce total. Seems to me that it wouldn't be a bad question to have asked young men seeking a license, "Are you going to marry the best girl in the world?" and those who couldn't say "yes" with the proper fervor shouldn't get the license.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Dipping the tips of the fingers in warm olive oil every night is the best method for keeping the nails in good condition.

Raw eggs rubbed into the hair and scalp before washing are excellent, and tend to prevent the hair from turning gray.

To clean rugs, lay them straight and brush with a stiff, dry scrubbing brush. This is much better than shaking or beating them.

Though it is extravagant, the substitution of cream or milk in the making of pumpkin pie will result in a most delicate dessert.

In making cranberry jelly or jam, much less sugar will be required if the sugar is not added until the fruit is well cooked.

When cooking a spare rib, peel four apples, core and cut in half; bake them with the pork. They will be found a delicious accompaniment.

A good salve to use for the lips when they are inclined to crack is composed of half an ounce of lanoline and an equal part of honey or glycerine.

Ivory knife handles that have become yellow from constant washing may usually be whitened by rubbing with emery paper and polishing with chamofie.

Keep a pumice stone by your sink. When there are brown streaks in your granite, porcelain lined or steel settles, rub them off with the stone.

A clean cloth dipped in hot water and then placed in a saucer of bran will clean white paint and not injure it. The soft bran acts like soap on the paint.

When making aprons, especially those to be used in doing housework, do not forget a large pocket. It will save many a step in dusting in picking up.

A crust of bread is best to clean a sticky bread or cake pan. Never use a knife or anything that will scratch the surface and invite more sticking thereafter.

A small button of garlic in a quart of vinegar will give it a mysteriously delicious flavour, and will also immensely improve salads or anything with which it is used.

A refreshing drink for afternoon card parties is made of equal parts of ginger ale and grape juice. Serve in straight, thin glasses, with a maraschino cherry floating on top.

In putting down linoleum or oil cloth have strips of moulding nailed on the edges, next to the baseboard.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES BURNS, Etc.

DOCTOR GAVE HIM UP
A Terrible Experience with Kidney Disease and Dragging Backache. Expected Death any Day.

To get well and keep well after being pronounced incurable by his physician was the wonderful experience of Mr. A. P. Chapman who was snatched from the very jaws of death by the timely use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. "For two years I had suffered from advanced kidney disease, was stooped, back weary, hollow eyed and completely played out. One Saturday night I was seized by an acute attack and became so sick I had to call in a physician. For a week he attended me constantly, but I grew weaker and sicker every day. The pains in my back, the blinding headaches, the awful weakness from which I suffered almost killed me—the doctor saw it was hopeless. "As a last hope I was persuaded to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They brought back my strength, aided my stomach, created new appetite, cleansed my blood and gave me relief from pain. After I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills for a month I was like a new man. I continued the treatment for three months and was cured." Surely there is an obvious moral and lesson here for all men and women. If you are suffering from any derangement of the system, if you are tortured and distressed by indigestion, if you are weakened by the ravages of constipation, kidney, liver or bladder complaint,—if your blood is weak and your system run down,—then use Dr. Hamilton's Pills, take them continually till you are fully restored to health again. Give Dr. Hamilton's Pills an immediate and thorough trial, your aith in them will not be disappointed. 5c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00 at 11 dealers or The Cattaraugus Company, Kingston, Ont.

his prevents dust from getting under and preserves the edges.

Roller shades may be satisfactorily leaned. Remove from the window, spread on a table, and rub them thoroughly with heated corn meal, wiping them off with a cloth dipped in gasoline.

Arrowroot will be found more satisfactory than cornstarch for thickening fruit sauces or jellies to be used with sauces. It does not change the fluid, nor does it cloud it at all.

When a color of a dress has faded owing to stains from lemon or other fruit juice, a good idea is to touch the spots with liquid ammonia, which will often restore the color.

OLDEST MUMMY. Professor Elliot Smith, of the University of Manchester, declared recently that the mummy of Ra-Nefar, a present in the museum of the Royal College of Surgeons, is six centuries older than any other known mummy. The body of Ra-Nefar, who was a high official in the Court of "Nefertu" of the fourth dynasty (3,700 B.C.), was found by Dr. Flinders Petrie at Medum, Egypt.

"The curious thing about the mummy," Professor Smith stated, "and the reason why it has preserved its present state is that it was encased in a thick layer of hard resin paste. It is mummified in a different manner from those Egyptian mummies belonging to a period some six centuries later, and which fell into powder when examined."

No evidence has appeared which will date the skeleton of the paleolithic man, discovered recently in the Dordogne, further back than 20,000 years, said the Rev. A. Irving, at the Victoria Institute, W. C.

TOO HOARSE TO SPEAK. An American Doctor Tells of the Grand Results Achieved With "Nerviline."

"I had a patient with Quinsy that I found great difficulty in curing," states Dr. Wilson. "Every time he caught cold or got chilled he suffered intensely from sore throat, huskiness, throat and chest soreness. After every attack his throat and chest seemed more sensitive. This patient lived in the country, and couldn't come to the city for treatment. I concluded that the best remedy would be an honest, efficient, and because of its enormous sale and well-known merit, I advised Nerviline. Morning, noon, and night Nerviline was rubbed over the neck and chest, and once a day diluted with water it was used as a gargle. In a day or two my patient reported an improvement, and by continuing the treatment with Nerviline he was cured. I can recommend Nerviline for breaking up colds, for chest tightness, throat inflammation, quinsy, tonsillitis and similar conditions."

Not a druggist or doctor who has examined the formula of Nerviline who won't tell you how good it is—why it contains the best medicaments known to science and for general family use it has no equal.

Civic Elections.

Several citizens have already given formal notice of their intention to offer themselves as candidates for election as Councillors at the forthcoming Municipal Elections.

We have not heard how many of the present Councillors have decided to offer themselves as candidates again.

As to the Mayoralty contest it is generally believed that the present Mayor, Hon. M. P. Gibbs, and the Deputy Mayor, Mr. W. J. Ellis, will be the candidates. We should not be surprised if another gentleman with considerable civic experience was prevailed upon to put himself in the field. We are of opinion that experience in the management of the affairs of the city is a valuable asset in any candidate, and is almost absolutely essential for the office of Mayor, and should not be disregarded. If the civic career of the candidate has been a successful one. For this reason the old style of the composition of Municipal bodies in England appeals strongly to us. Many of these bodies are composed of a Mayor, a bench of Aldermen and a body of Councillors. Every year one-third of the Councillors retire. After every election not more than one-third of the Councillors can be new men, one-third will have a year's experience at least, and the other third at least two years' experience. Aldermen are chosen from successful and experienced Councillors and the Mayor from the Aldermen. This insures always a Council of men well versed in the affairs of the Municipality. The majority are always veterans of some standing, and yet there is a constant accession of new blood.

Although the Constitution of our municipality does not provide automatically for the retention of a majority of experienced and successful members of the municipality, yet it does afford the public opportunity of returning successful and experienced members of the municipality back to office, and also of infusing what is desirable in the way of new blood.

We were furnished this morning with the statement above. It will be noticed that it does not and cannot take in the catch of the captains this season, as Capt. Barbour has not yet brought in his catch. If, however, we add the 49,969 seals just landed to Capt. A. Kean's record as given above, it gives him 313,812 for the last thirteen years, and if we add the 28,000 reported in the Beothic to Capt. G. Barbour's record, it gives him 314,136 for the same period. This is as near a tight match as one could think of.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

In the police court to-day 2 drunks were released on paying cab hire, and two others were unconditionally discharged.

A saloon keeper summoned by Head Constable Peet for opening before the legal hour was fined $20 or 30 days. The case against a chauffeur for reckless and negligent driving on the 5th inst. was postponed till Monday for the obtaining of certain evidence.

Head Dawe summoned two persons for having defective chimneys in their houses. They will be repaired.

Two men were summoned by Constable Lee for loose and disorderly conduct on the 6th inst. One was fined $1 or 3 days and the other was dismissed.

An old man, a resident of Kellergrews, summoned three others of the place for damaging his property and throwing stones at his residence. The case was set for hearing at 1 p.m.

Aspirant for Civic Honors.

We draw the attention of our readers to the card issued by Mr. Jas. Channing, Druggist, and which appears in another column. Mr. Channing is the latest candidate for the suffrages of citizens in the coming Municipal Election. His friends both east and west are many and he is well and favorably known in all sections of the City. He is possessed of sound common sense, coupled with energy and ability and would certainly make an ideal representative. Mr. Channing is the Proprietor of a flourishing Drug business, reared as a result of integrity and strict application to duty, and he will bring before the attention of the City those traits of character which enabled him to achieve the success which is his in trade.

OBITUARY.

MRS. GEO. LEMESSURIER. The death occurred yesterday at noon of Mrs. George Lemessurier, at her residence, Topsail Road. The deceased lady who was in her 88th year was well and favourably known in the city and suburbs. Her husband, the late George Lemessurier, predeceased her by several years. Mrs. Lemessurier only celebrated her birthday on Sunday last. There are surviving her four sons—Mr. J. W. Lemessurier, Manager of Bowring Bros. hardware and grocery stores; Geo. W., accountant at the Post Office; Alexander, of the Customs Department; and Peter, farmer, of Topsail Road.

REID NFLD. CO. The a.s. Argyle arrived at Placentia at 8 p.m. yesterday. The Bruce left Port aux Basques at 11.40 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe arrived at Port aux Basques at 7.30 p.m. yesterday.

Bishop Cameron's Funeral Wednesday.

The funeral obsequies of the late lamented Bishop Cameron will take place at Antigonish on Wednesday next. After Requiem High Mass in St. Vivian's Cathedral, where the body has been lying in state since Thursday last. His Grace Archbishop Howley, accompanied by Rev. Fr. St. John, will leave by the express to-morrow evening to attend the funeral. His Grace Archbishop McCarthy of Halifax, Archbishop MacDonald of Pictou, and the Bishop of Charlottetown will arrive at Antigonish on Monday also to be present at the funeral. His Grace Archbishop McNeill of Vancouver, who will be leaving St. George's by the express on Monday evening for Vancouver, will stop off at Antigonish to attend the funeral also. He and the late Bishop Cameron were life-long friends. It is expected that His Grace Archbishop MacDonald, late of Harbor Grace, will preach the funeral panegyric. The whole community of Antigonish is in deep mourning for the death of their beloved Bishop.

Supreme Court.

The case of Liberius Brown vs. T. L. Murphy was continued to-day. Mr. Pitman stated the defendant's case. Defendant is called, sworn and examined by Mr. Pitman and cross-examined by Mr. Clapp and per Curiam. Mr. Pitman is sworn and gives his evidence. This closed the defendant's case. Mr. Clapp asked leave to call the plaintiff, who is examined by him and cross-examined by Mr. Pitman. The Court took time to consider.

In Chambers.

In the matter of the Nfld. Whaling Co., application is made on the part of the Liquidators for order that they be allowed to sell the property of the company and do all acts necessary to wind up the estate without the sanction of the Court. Furlong, K.C., is heard in support of the application. It is ordered accordingly.

Won't Try it Again.

A young man who was walking with his girl along LeMarchant Road Thursday night last had the mortification of being obliged to put up with not only a gross verbal insult to himself but to the young woman who was with him. He realized that he was only one against three roughs and that it would be acting wisely not to enter into an encounter with them. He told his friends about the incident, and one of them, being an athlete, volunteered to accompany him next night dressed up in women's clothing. When they reached Buckmaster's meadow last night the three roughs were in the same place. The insulting conduct was resumed, and one of the roughs went so far as to roughly handle the supposed young woman. He received a solar plexus that he will remember all his life. Throwing off the hat and motor veil the athlete laid on the three assailants and laid them low one after the other.

Here and There.

WEATHER UP THE LINE. — Along the line to-day the wind is light and fine; temperature 40 to 70 above. Summer weather at Bishop's Falls.

M. G. B. COMPETITION. — The Methodist Guards boys had a competition for the Pitts Shield last night. The presentation will take place on the 21st.

AT THE DOCK. — The whaler Port Saunders and four schooners that have been on the R. N. Co. Dock the past three days will come off this evening.

OFFICERS WILL COLLECT. — The T. A. officers will take up the offertory collection at the R. C. Cathedral and St. Patrick's at the masses to-morrow.

The tail of the Comet appearing here early next week is not so very long, but interesting. It still has the two distinct spots, as seen in 1876. ap9,11

BELLAVENTURE'S SEALS. — From noon on Thursday, when she began discharging, until 6 p.m. yesterday, the Bellaventure turned out 14,500 seals. They average 49½ lbs. She will finish Tuesday next.

HAY FROM CODROY. — Several carloads of pressed hay arrived by the freight train from Codroy this week. The shippers expect to send 160 tons here next year.

GOING TO VANCOUVER. — A Wells a young machinist, who served his time at the R. N. Co. machine shops, will leave for Vancouver by the express to-morrow to work with his uncle who is five years there.

SEALERS RETURN HOME. — The S. S. Newfoundland sailed this forenoon taking the crew of the Florizel as well as her own. The men go to their homes at Trinity, Catalina and Wesleyville.

SEALERS GIVE DONATIONS. — When the sealers of the Florizel were being paid off last night they donated some money to Frank Sawyer of the city and Jacob Hoyle of Brookfield, B.B., both of whom have lost their legs and will if possible secure artificial legs. Mr. Fliske, the Marconi operator also received a donation.

FOUND A WATCH. — Almost every day the Telegram is finding lost and missing articles for its patrons, and they represent the whole public. Thursday we advertised the loss of a watch owned by a resident of Hutchings' Street, and yesterday it was returned to the owner. Verily Telegram ads. pay.

On three or four occasions of late the premises of Weeks, Bay Bulls, has been broken into at night and considerable goods and about $20 in cash stolen. Const. Fahey has been quietly at work on the matter and today wired Inspector General Sullivan that he had captured the thieves and is bringing them here to stand their trial. Mr. Sullivan had intended to send Sergt. Byrne to the place when he got Fahey's message.

New Alarm Box.

Now that Alexander Street and neighborhood is so populous and that the big shoe factory of Messrs. Parker & Monroe is erected there, Inspector General Sullivan has taken the wise precaution of placing a new fire alarm box on that thoroughfare. Heretofore alarms for fires in that direction were turned in from the box on Patrick Street, but with the new box in existence the fire fighters will proceed directly to alarms from this street and will have at command a copious supply of water from the hydrants on Hamilton Street, so that the danger of a big conflagration will be reduced to a minimum. Mr. Sullivan's most assiduous in looking after the safety of all sections of the city.

Value in Every Way.

The annual concert in aid of the Mount Cashel Industrial School, which takes place at the British Hall on Wednesday evening next, promises to even out the previous success in this connection. A particular interest is attached to this year's performance by reason of the fact that the building of the new wing and the other improvements being effected at Mount Cashel, will necessarily mean a large increase in the numbers under the Brothers care at that institution, and a large corresponding increasing expense account. There are at present over one hundred boys provided with homes there, and the manner in which they will be equipped to carve out their life's destiny is too well known to need comment.

A Peculiar Happening.

A choir of a prominent church in New York recently determined to serenade their pastor. At sunrise on a certain morning they got together and marched off to what they thought was the home of the spiritual adviser.

Snapshots Around the World.

(By the Man in the Moon.)

A guillotine, said to have done service during the French Revolution, was recently sold in Paris for $185.00.

A memorial will be unveiled by Earl Grey, in Toronto, on May 24th to the men who fell in the South African War.

Sovereigns to the value of $59,000, 000, and half-sovereigns valued at $10,000,000 were struck at the English mint last year.

Billy Papke is now the middle-weight champion boxer of the world. He recently defeated W. Lewis at Paris in the third round, thereby winning the above title.

Mr. Otto Kahn, a banker, recently paid $100,000 for a portrait of "Frans Hals and his Family," which had been painted by Hals himself. Big price for a picture!

A town was destroyed by fire in Southern Nigeria 80 years ago. The site of the town is now covered with a growth of mahogany trees, some of which are said to be more than ten feet in diameter.

Some American capitalists have formed a new "hotel trust" in New York. Their object is to conduct a chain of hotels in the large cities. The company will invest $50,000,000, and several large hotels besides the new Vanderbilt will be taken over in New York alone.

Dorando, the famous Italian runner, has again shown his mettle by defeating Tom Longboat, the Indian, in a twenty-five mile race at Pittsburgh on March 31st. Dorando took the lead in the 7th mile and continued until the finish. His time was 1 hour, 54 mins. 8 2/5 secs. At the pistol shot Dorando led by 25 yards.

A net work of subterranean passages has been discovered under the Royal Palace of Spain. One of the passages is directly under King Alfonso's private apartments. The discovery was made quite accidentally a short time ago when a street car was passing along the Plaza de Oriente into a deep hole in front of the Palace. The hole was forty-five feet deep.

According to the New York American, J. P. Morgan and the Standard Oil Company have entered into a great scheme whereby they hope to wrest the banking supremacy of South America from Great Britain and Germany. The projectors hope to establish a chain of banks (American) which will finance five hundred million dollars of trade between the North American and South American Republics.

Mr. Mordecai Bibbero, the veteran Jewish Professor of swimming, recently died in the Old Country at the age of 85. He it was who trained Capt. Webb, the great English swimmer. In August 1808, to celebrate his golden wedding, the professor gave a display of swimming in a rough sea off Dover, and another of the feats of his credit is the swimming of the river between Brooklyn and New York with his hands manacled. He had saved fifty persons from drowning during his career. He had lived to some purpose.

All the Canadians are not elated over the outcome of the Tariff negotiations between their country and the United States. Here is what one of the papers up there has to say of the outcome: "And the country that is the birthplace of the authors of the tariff back-down is the same haughty nation that was ready to burn Lord Alverstone in effigy." Lord Alverstone it will be remembered was an arbitrator in the Alaskan dispute, and it was claimed by many Canadians that he had sacrificed their interests and awarded the United States a big slice of Canadian territory.

Mr. Patten, the man who cornered the cotton market recently, is home in the States again after quite an experience in the Old Land. He has given some of the New York papers an account of the reception he received in Manchester. He is credited with saying: "It was not until I had been shoved some seventy-five feet in the Royal Exchange at Manchester that the fact that the crowd was hostile penetrated my thick head. Then I took the hint and went." He also said he was delighted because the crowd had dubbed him a "Yankee." "The Man in the Moon" is under the impression that Mr. Patten has an overdose of swelled head, and the Manchester "cotton spinners" are to be congratulated if they succeeded in reducing his "block" to any appreciable extent.

A Boomerang!

"P. J. K." what manner of man art thou?

For the life of me I cannot solve the riddle of your prose. You are certainly as recondite as a chapter in Talmud. The Fourth Dimension is nothing in it when compared with the abstruseness of your erudition. "Verbatim strong" and "partio essay" are as unfathomable to my mind as a reading in Hindustani. They have a stimulatory effect on the aural nerve when rapidly repeated; and one is inclined to the idea that they would serve as excellent names for a breakfast cereal or the latest summer drink.

All I can infer from your succinct reply, poor "P. J. K." is: you evidently believe "By-stander" has taken offense at your memorable article appearing in the "Herald" six days anterior to the Ides of March; and to use the jargon of the low-ways and the by-ways, "he has an axe to grind." Permit me, esteemed and honored sir, to disabuse you of this erroneous idea by the gentle removal of that very soft and very grey matter which gave birth to such a false conception of my remarks. I could take no offense, my dear friend, (may I use the appellation?) for the reason of its absence. Nothing offensive could have been intended, I presume. Albeit I do not understand such words as "verbatim" and "partio" as applied. Surely I am not a graphophone record or can I lay claim connection with a South American enclosure. Anyway I shall forgive you this time but, please, don't say such hard things again. Now, cease worrying that little "Ko-Ko" of yours that I misconstrued the nonsense of your remarks.

I cannot forget about the axe. Who has not an "axe to grind," or in other words, who does not want to succeed. We all have our little axes, dear "Peejakay" (our author's nom de plume, phonetically spelled) and we wield them as valiantly as did the Red Indians of old. Every man of us who is striving to win out in the race of life has his little axe wherewith to hew the path to the goal of his desires. You are the exception, my friend. Your pen might do much better work if it were exchanged for a spade or pick.

Now, really, that "real thought" of yours was the most real of 'em all. (Have you been in Green Bay lately that you speak of them as 'em!)—really the most realistic of all the real things you have offered. But the "real subject" was lacking, and in your endeavour to "knock the wind out of something or other," as you aptly say, you but did damage to your "sub-conscious ego." ("Sub-conscious ego" is not the name of a food or drink.) In your puerile attempt to take the middle stump you fell flat to mother earth. The ball through some miscalculation on your part or by the agency of some undisclosed law governing moving bodies acted as a boomerang and fairly bowled you over—stumped, to use the more favourite expression. "Every real thought or every real subject knocks the wind out of somebody or other." Somebody happily escaped, but you were the unfortunate "other."

"As soon as the breath is recovered, it is expended in hard words" speaketh the high jokolorum, and having

Before entering upon the second act, let me tell you "Peejakay," in all sincerity I don't know who you are. In all my time I have never seen you. I don't know what size hat you wear (presumably a No. 6) nor can I guess the number of your shoes. I bear you NO personal grudge. My only "prejudice to satisfy" (as you miscall it) is to prick the airy soap bubbles of your epistolary efforts in the field of nonsense ere the sanity of the community is endangered.

"BY-STANDER."

What a pregnant message to the world! Did one ever read such advertisement of poll-parrot prattle? What do you mean—tell us, man, quick? The gods pity those who know you best.

WHAT THEY DO IN QUEBEC.

Tells How They Cure Weariness and Tiredness in Sherbrooke.

Probably no remedy has come so rapidly to the front and is held in such high estimation by the people of Sherbrooke as "Ferrozone."

Everyone is talking of the wonderful cures it has made, and no one is more enthusiastic in their praise of Ferrozone than Mrs. George Ray, of No. 3 Alexander Street, who writes of her case as follows:

"Permit me to say a few words concerning that grand medicine, 'Ferrozone':

"I had lost my appetite. I had very weak. I had pains in my back. I suffered with bad digestion. Headaches were frequent. I always felt weary.

"I commenced to use Ferrozone and improved rapidly. I now feel well—am cured, and am glad to recommend Ferrozone to all my friends."

(Signed) "MRS. GEO. RAY."

If you have any of Mrs. Ray's symptoms you will be quickly cured by Ferrozone—the best of all tonics—the most nourishing and strengthening. Try one or two Ferrozone tablets at meal time—the result will surprise you; 50c. a box, six boxes for $2.50, all dealers, or The Catarrh-ozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

thus riddle-me-ree-d he brings the illustrious Johnson to his spiked cannon, and, with the appalling presumption of a literary parvenu in the most literal sense of the word, thus calls upon the philosophy of genius to support his catermaultings to his SILENT muse. For such arrogant and insolent display of presumptuous bumpiness this is certainly hard to beat.

What next? The comet and destruction! "Peejakay" has "neither the time or inclination to treat on this matter." This is what the "down-and-outer" says to his disgusted supporters, and further cries aloud: "Wait till I catch him next time, boys."

"Controversy equalizes fools and wise men, in the same way (admirable quotation)—and the fools know it." Yes, "Peejakay," the phoos knows it. Give me the cap and the bells any old time in any old place and before any old polygamist king to play the role of jester than be considered wise with such as you. Verily, Minerva in her fabled wanderings through Elysian Thessaly must have chanced upon the citrous tree and plucked a juicy lemon as a fitting bequest to any ashine aspirant of the laurel wreath!

"I intend to write many articles in the future and I have judgment as such to those people who know me best and not to 'By-stander' who, if he has not an axe to grind, has a prejudice to satisfy" exclaimeth the prophet. The six-year-old intends to surprise us in his sixty-sixth year, but the pleasure of the surprise is long delayed and infrequently is never realized—its action is of the future. "I have judgment as such to those people who know me best"!

What a pregnant message to the world! Did one ever read such advertisement of poll-parrot prattle? What do you mean—tell us, man, quick? The gods pity those who know you best.

Placentia Notes.

Master M. Bonia has taken the position of clerk in the Anglo office, Jersey Side, in place of T. Delaney, resigned. He took up his duties on Monday. We wish Mike every success in the future.

Messrs. R. and J. Wyse and crews left town by Monday's train for the city to bring up their boats which they left there last fall. Messrs. Wyse will again prosecute the codfishery at Cape St. Mary's, and if pluck and energy will succeed they will be high liners.

Mr. P. Croke is at present painting the gasoline boat. He is painting her green. She appears to be a pretty model.

Rev. Fr. St. John was up from Argenta on a visit to Rev. Mgr. Reardon on Tuesday.

The different schools opened on Tuesday and all the school children were once more delighted to be back to school.

Mr. L. Brennan narrowly escaped losing his hand on Monday. Mr. Brennan while cutting wood accidentally slipped, and as he did the axe came across the thumb on his left hand, almost severing it. He lost no time (but a great quantity of blood) in getting back to his house and having it dressed. It is now healing and in a few weeks will be as well as ever.

LAY FOR WEEKS AT DEATH'S DOOR

But Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Mrs. Thompson's Dropsy.

It Started With Backache and grew worse till the doctor said she must die.

Holt, Ont., April 8.—(Special).—All the countryside here is ringing with the wonderful cure of Mrs. Samuel Thompson, who lay at the point of death for weeks, swollen with Dropsy so that the doctor five different times decided to tap her but desisted because, as her husband said, "It might be better to let her die in peace." After the doctor had given her up Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her. Mrs. Thompson's terrible trouble started with pain in the back. She grew worse and the doctor treated her for jaundice for eight weeks. Then her feet and legs began to swell, and it was realized that Dropsy was the trouble. For seven months she suffered. The doctor said there was no hope; she must die.

As a last resort Dodd's Kidney Pills were tried. The improvement was slow, but gradually her strength came back. To-day Mrs. Thompson is a well woman. She says, and the countryside knows, she owes her life to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

If the disease is of the Kidneys, or from the Kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it.

P. S. A.—Mr. A. J. W. McNelly will address the Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Class from 3 to 4 to-morrow afternoon, on "The Poetry of the Old Testament." Males of all ages are cordially invited.

Cheaper Than Gasoline

The first boat on the Chesapeake Bay to have a gas producer is the "Mary A. Sharp," which has had her equipment installed by the Page Engineering Co., at Baltimore.

The "Sharp" is 65 feet long, 14 feet beam and 5 feet depth. She will be used in the passenger and cargo business on the Rappahannock River. The forward cabin of the boat is for passengers, and cargo will be carried in the hold of the midship section, while the after house will contain the motive power. Of this power, which is similar to the power on the non-magnetic survey yacht "Carnegie," the "Sharp" has a 75-horsepower engine which will be operated by gas that will be produced from pea coal. It is claimed that it will be possible to operate the boat at a cost of 15 cents per hour, which is cheaper than it would be by either steam or gasoline. As this boat will be the first of its kind on the Chesapeake, it will be watched with a great deal of interest. She is owned by Mr. E. Sharp, of Sharps, Va., by whom she was built.—Shipping Illustrated.

McMurdo's Store News

SATURDAY, April 9, 1910.
During this damp, muggy weather you are very liable to take cold in the head or throat. Why not, then, protect yourself with a box of Pine Tree Lozenges. They are a real and pleasant preventive of colds if used occasionally. Price, 25c. a box.

When you step into our store today for a glass of soda, you will find Rademaker's Hoples immediately before you. This sweetmeat is bound to be the fashion very soon, and you are losing pleasure every day you neglect to try them. Packages, 10, 20 and 30c.

One comfort is—the present damp weather will help to prepare your ground for sowing. The next move then is to put in Sutton's Seeds—which you can obtain from us, Sole Agents for Newfoundland.—adv.

The Senate Committee on Pensions at Washington have reported favourably on bills granting to Mrs. Cleveland, widow of President Grover Cleveland, and Mary Lloyd Harrison, $3,000 a year each. They ought to be able to keep "the wolf from the door" on such a nice allowance as the above.

It is said there are 299,293 Indians in the United States.

Concert for Blind Man.

The concert to raise money to buy an organ for the blind man at the People's Theatre last night was a great success. The T. A. band rendered some excellent music. Miss Strang sang a solo, Mrs. Geo. W. B. Ayre rendered "Believe me if all these enduring young charms" to a new setting, and as an encore "The little silver ring." Miss Croshaw sang a sweet solo. Songs were also rendered by Mrs. Penneck, Messrs. Fox, Martin and Courtenay. Mr. T. H. O'Neil and Miss Pauline Baird gave recitations and Mr. Furlong a reading. Irish dances were given by the boys of Mount Cashel. Mr. Clouston read letters from the Archbishop and the Premier, regretting their inability to be present and enclosing donations. An enjoyable feature of the programme was a series of moving pictures and a number of times on the pathograph, kindly lent by Messrs. Ayre & Sons. The financial results were beyond expectations and the people responded to the appeal of Messrs. Walter Clouston and James Vey in that well-known spirit of generosity that distinguishes the people of St. John's. At the conclusion Mr. Clouston thanked all who assisted in the rendition, as well as the audience.

FUNERAL ON MONDAY.

The funeral of the late Mrs. George H. LeMesurier will take place from her late residence, Topsail Road, Monday next, at 11 a.m.

Pilot Boat's Cruise.

The new boat purchased for the pilots of St. John's and named the Pilot Boat, to which the Telegram referred yesterday, was taken for a trial spin in the afternoon. She ran out as far as Cape Spear, and after returning circled the harbor a couple of times. The little vessel, which is run by gasoline, proved herself a good sailor and substantial sea boat. There went out in her the Premier, Hons. J. Harris, M. P. Cashin and J. C. Crosbie, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Mr. P. F. Moore and Rev. E. Birchy. All after returning pronounced her to be a fine boat of her class.

CHURCH SHIP FUND.

A good programme has been arranged for the concert at Canon Wood Hill in aid of the Church Ship Fund on April 15th. A play will be acted by the pupils of Miss Bright's school. Mrs. Gosling, Misses Withers and Furlong will take part in the farce entitled "His Majesty's Mails." Nothing is being left undone to make the affair a success.

A Record Turnout.

At 3.15 p.m. yesterday the s.s. Florizel finished discharging her seals at Bowring's South Side premises and turned out by far the greatest number of seals and heaviest weight of fat ever brought into this country by a single vessel. Immediately the last sling of seals went over the rail to the wharf amidst the firing of rockets from the ship, the crew, who were lined up on the quarter deck, cheered loudly for the firm of Bowring Bros., Capt. Kean and the Florizel, while answering cheers came from the employees on the pier and the crew of the Eagle, lying near. Here are the particulars of this big turn-out of seals as given by the tallymen, Messrs. Kean, Moore and Horwood:—

48,918 Young Harps—
Gross weight	20,831 3 0
Nett	20,176 2 11
146 Old Harps—
Gross weight	132 0 24
Nett	162 2 8
5 Old Hoods—
Gross weight	7 0 23
Nett	6 1 7

Total 49,669 seals.
Gross value $91,200.19
Nett value 90,852.90
203 men share each $148.36

tons cwt qrs lbs
Gross weight 1045 11 0 19
Nett weight 1014 19 1 26
Average weight young harps, 47 1/2 lbs.

This is one of the largest, if not the largest, bill ever made by a steamer's crew, out of this port on a single trip, each man sharing $148.36, while Capt. Kean's pay day yields to him $3,620. The men actually worked 24 days amongst the seals and their average daily earnings was $6.18. Certainly a good day's pay, Capt. Kean is well styled the commander of the sealing fleet now, and his record all through has been a brilliant one. He has been engaged in the sealfishery as commander since 1889, or 22 springs, and in that time has landed 490,669 seals, valued at three-fourths of a million of dollars. Capt. Kean lost the Wolf in 1896. His average for 21 years is 21,262 seals. Mr. F. W. Hayward, the popular cashier at Bowring Bros., had a big contract to pay off the crew, and starting at 7.30 p.m. he had all finished at 9 o'clock, performing the work in a thorough and business like manner. We congratulate both Capt. Kean and Messrs. Bowring Bros. on the outcome of the Florizel's trip to the floes this year, and wish both the ship and her commander many more future successes.

First Aid to Injured.

It will be noticed that an advertisement in to-day's issue gives notice of a meeting in the Board of Trade Rooms, on Monday, with a view of starting a branch of the St. John's Ambulance Society. The object of this Society is to provide instruction and training to all and sundry who attend its classes, in order that they may have the knowledge and skill to render first aid to the injured before expert medical attention is obtainable. Such skill on the spot often saves life and limb to those in distress.

ROSY COLOR

Produced by Postum.

"When a person rises from each meal with a ringing in the ears and a general sense of nervousness, it is a common habit to charge it to a deranged stomach."

"I found it was caused from drinking coffee, which I never suspected for a long time, but I found by leaving off coffee that the disagreeable feelings went away."

"I was brought to think of the subject by getting some Postum and this brought me out of trouble."

"It is a most appetizing and invigorating beverage and has been of such great benefit to me that I naturally speak of it from time to time as opportunity offers."

"A lady friend complained to me that she had tried Postum, but it did not taste good. In reply to my question she said she guessed she boiled it about ten minutes. I advised her to follow directions and know that she boiled it fifteen or twenty minutes, and she would have something worth talking about. A short time ago I heard one of her children say that they were drinking Postum now-days, so I judge she succeeded in making it good, which is by no means a difficult task."

"The son of one of my friends was formerly a pale lad, but since he has been drinking Postum, has a fine color. There is plenty of evidence that Postum actually does 'make red blood,' as the famous trade-mark says."

Read "The Road to Wellville," found in pkgs. "There's a Reason." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

BAD TIMES IN THE COTTON TRADE.

Special Evening Telegram. MANCHESTER, April 8. The Master Cotton Spinners Federation to-day voted in favour of a 5 per cent. reduction in the wages of operatives, and has called a joint meeting of employers and operatives to discuss the matter. The step was taken owing to the depression in the cotton trade. It is believed that the operatives who are already suffering from the effects of the curtailment in work will strongly resent the reduction in wages.

FIGHTING IN BALKANS.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, April 8. The Standard Correspondent reports fighting between the Turkish troops and the clansmen who are threatening Pristina. The Turkish troops are reported to be 200 killed or wounded, 40 men taken prisoners, and two guns. The losses of the Clansmen are unknown. The Daily Telegraph correspondent says that after fierce fighting with the clansmen they withdrew to the mountains pursued by the Turks, who had two officers and 40 soldiers killed.

ASKED FOR ASSISTANCE.

Special to Evening Telegram. DOVER, England, April 8. The emigrants who were transferred to the steamer Kanawha from the steamer Cairnora after the fire broke out on the latter vessel yesterday, became so unruly this morning that the Captain of the Kanawha was obliged to ask for naval assistance. A detachment of armed marines were sent on board to restore order.

POLO CHAMPIONSHIP.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, April 8. The committee recently formed to raise $50,000 to purchase ponies with which to equip a polo team to be sent to the U. S., in an endeavour to win back the International Cup, already has subscriptions amounting to $50,000. A long list of subscribers to the fund is published to-day.

AEROPLANE RECORD.

Special to Evening Telegram. CHALONA, Sur Maree, France, April 8. Daniel Kineo, a Belgian, broke the world's record for a flight with a passenger to-day. With a companion he rose in an aeroplane and remained in the air for two hours and twenty minutes.

FRENCH ELECTION.

Special to Evening Telegram. PARIS, April 8. The Parliament which was elected in 1906, ended its labours to-night. The general election will take place April the 24th, and the new Parliament will assemble June 1st.

WILL VISIT ITALY.

Special to Evening Telegram. PARIS, April 8. According to the Figaro, plans are under way for a visit by President Fallieres to Rome to emphasize the friendly relations existing between France and Italy.

SUBMARINE RECORD.

Special to Evening Telegram. CHERBOURG, April 9. The French sub-marine boat Ventose to-day established a record by navigating at a depth of 112 feet for 34 minutes.

FIRE EXTINGUISHED.

Special to Evening Telegram. DOVER, England, April 8. The fire on board the Cairnora was extinguished to-day and the steamer proceeded to London.

SIGHTED THE COMET.

Special to Evening Telegram. CAPE TOWN, April 8. The Observatory here sighted Halley's Comet this morning for the first time since its passing the sun.

STRAINED RELATIONS.

Special to Evening Telegram. LIMA, Peru, April 9. Absolute tranquility prevails here in the face of the continued strained relations between Peru and Ecuador.

St. Andrew's Church.

A very interesting programme has been arranged for the recital by the choir of above church on Monday evening next. The choir will render among other anthems "The Heavens are Telling" from Haydn's Creation, and "Worthy is the Lamb" from "The Messiah." Solos will be given by various members of the choir and will be assisted by Mr. H. Lemesaurier (Baritone) and Miss Sybil Johnson, who will render Ruffa's "Cavatina," on the Violin. Particulars will be seen from advertisement.

MARSHALL BROS.

How a Fashion Started

Queen Marie Antoinette and the Diplomatic Hair Dresser.

At the end of the year 1781 Leonard, hairdresser to Queen Marie Antoinette, was confronted by an alarming situation: Her Majesty's hair was falling out, and with the fulfilment of this dread event would fall his credit. But with his native "Gascon quickness"—as Leonard puts it in his "Recollections"—he proceeded to save his reputation.

"Madame," said he one day to the Queen, when he saw that the fall of her hair was imminent, "the high headdress is becoming very common; it is long since the bourgeoisie has taken possession of it and now it is the turn of the common people."

"Good gracious, Leonard, what are you telling me? Do you know it grieves me to hear it? These headdresses were so becoming to me!"

"And what headdress would not become your Majesty? * * * I have carefully thought over a total revolution in your Majesty's headdress. I have even had your portrait drawn with the new arrangement I have in view, and, as I expected, my august sovereign by adopting my innovation would be made younger by six or seven years."

"Do you mean it, Leonard? The headdress you have in mind would make me look younger?"

"I do not see what your Majesty could gain in that, for many women of the court would take on years to resemble the Queen of France."

"Oh, I do not deceive myself, Leonard. I shall soon be 27, and at that age a style which makes one look younger is always favorably received."

"Well, madame," Leonard continued quickly, while placing a miniature before her Majesty's eyes, "see this portrait; it is a striking resemblance. * * * It is your Majesty, but ten years younger."

"What do I see? The hair cut a few inches from the head."

"Yes, madame, it will be, if you are pleased to consent to it, a coiffure a l'enfant, and you will see it taken up with as much enthusiasm as all those that I have created for your Majesty."

"You are right, Leonard; it is charming! In truth I am but 18 with my hair-dressed like that. * * * But to sacrifice my beautiful hair!"

"Your Majesty will have the satisfaction of seeing all the ladies of the court, all the ladies of France, sacrifice theirs."

Municipal Election.

TO THE ELECTORS WITHIN THE MUNICIPALITY OF ST. JOHN'S

Gentlemen: I have been requested by a number of citizens, to become a candidate for Councillor, in the forthcoming Municipal Election, and after carefully considering the situation, I now announce that I have decided to agree with their request, and respectfully offer myself as a candidate for your suffrage.

I will not just now, enter into any details, as regarding the administration of civic affairs, as I hope to have the pleasure of a personal interview with the greater number of you between this and Polling Day, and thus be in a better position to discuss matters in connection with the business of the City Council, and give a fuller expression of my views regarding matters Municipal. I have in mind at present several plans or ideas, by which many improvements or reforms can, I believe be successfully carried into effect that would tend considerably towards the comfort and health of the city generally, without adding one cent of an increase to existing taxes.

These ideas gentlemen, I will make public, at the proper time.

If honoured by you with a seat at the Council Board, I pledge myself to do all in my power to safeguard your interests, to watch with careful eye, the expenditure of public monies, and that the City obtains a full dollar's worth for every dollar spent, and whenever possible effect such improvements, that the rate-payers and citizens in general, may enjoy many comforts, that up to the present have been denied them.

If you have confidence in my ability to serve you faithfully and well, and elect me as one of your representatives in the Municipal Council, I promise you that I will make a supreme effort to prove myself in every way worthy of your trust.

Gentlemen, I respectfully solicit your support and influence. Faithfully yours, JAS. J. CHANNING.

DR. BOVEL'S IRON TONIC PILLS
A Heart and Nerve Food

Dr. Bovel's Iron Tonic Pills are manufactured from a specially prepared formula, and have proved their worth and great healing powers amongst young and old, male and female, in every country in the world. They are sold under guarantee that they are absolutely pure from harmful drugs of any kind, and they differ from so-called patent medicines and regularly prescribed drugs as day differ from night. They not only give giant strength and new life and vigor to weak and hopeless sufferers, but they are a cure for countless diseases which result from broken-down health. The many years of patient labor, and the expense and care that has been given to the perfection of this pill have been amply repaid by the marvelous cures that have been effected, and the many testimonials that have been received of the benefit they have been to suffering humanity.

CURE Anaemia, All Nervous Diseases, Paralysis, Locomotor Ataxia, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Palpitation of the Heart, Faint or Dizzy Spells, all Female Weakness, Suppression of the Periods, Pale and Sallow Complexion, all Diseases arising from Mental Worry, Overwork, Excess, Early Decay, etc.

PRICE, 25c. per box

FROM A THANKFUL MOTHER

Dear Sirs,—
Having given Dr. Bovel's Iron Tonic Pills a fair trial, of two boxes, I can truthfully say that they are all you claim them to be.

I have been greatly benefited by them, having suffered several years with Neuralgia of the Heart, Liver Trouble, Stomach Disorders, and a complication of diseases. Why, the pains have left me entirely and I feel now as if life was worth living for.

I always used your Bovel's Herb Tablets at the same time.

And your Menthol Inhaler is really a blessing to the house. I have used it for colds in the head. When I could not sleep at nights, sore throat was cured like magic. I have cured my sister's two little children with very bad colds in the head, and herself. We could not be without it, especially during winter months, when colds are so frequent.

You may publish this testimonial if you wish, as it may help some other poor sufferers as it surely helped me.

Yours truly, MRS. CHAS. H. MARTIN,
John Island, Ont.

A RHEUMATIC SUBJECT

Dear Sirs,—
I have used three boxes of Dr. Bovel's Herb Tablets. They have done more to relieve my rheumatism than anything I have ever used. I have been a martyr to this disease for years.

Gratefully yours, D. M. PELLOW,
Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

DR. BOVEL'S HERB & GUM SALVE
Nature's Remedy for All Skin Diseases

Dr. Bovel's Herb and Gum Salve is Nature's ideal skin cure and healer; it is free from the objectionable features of ordinary salves, ointments and embrocations. To produce it, medicinal plants and herbs were taken, and from them were extracted gums and juices possessing considerable healing and curative powers. Costly experiments at last secured the right blending of these juices, and to the final product, a preparation virtually capable of growing new and healthy skin, the name of Dr. Bovel's Herb and Gum Salve was given.

CURES Eczema and Salt Rheum, Shingles, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head and Baby Eczema, Chafing, Pimples and Blackheads, Rough Red Skin, Old Sores and Bed Sores, Sore Feet and Toes, Chilblains and Frost Bites, Ingrowing Toe Nails, Corns and Bunions, Itching peculiar to Women, Poisonous Skins, Scalds and Burns, Chapped Hands and Faces, Sore and Cracked Nipples, Sore and Inflamed Eyelids, Itch, Piles, Barber's Itch, Itching Piles, Blind and Bleeding Piles, Protruding Piles, Pin Worms, etc.

$100.00 CASH GIVEN AWAY

In order to advertise Dr. Bovel's Home Remedies, we have framed a competition, the particulars of which will be found herewith. The prizes mentioned below will be awarded immediately after the 31st of May, 1910. Persons living in the Outports have an equal opportunity with others to win one of these valuable prizes. Do not hesitate to enter this competition. The conditions will be carried out with the strictest integrity.

Opposite will be found three sets of mixed or jumbled letters. The first set when placed in proper order spells the name of something we all need when ill. The second set spells the name of a large wild animal. The third set spells the name of a small fish used as bait.

Can you place the above set of letters in proper order, as to spell the words wanted? It is not easy, but with patience and perseverance you can do it. If you can do it, you will win a prize. Write your answer to the above neatly and plainly on a slip of paper, and send it to us at once. Both writing and address count in this contest. If you do not happen to be a good writer, have some post writer enter the contest for you, in his or her name, and if you are awarded a prize, agree with the person who does the writing that the prize belongs to you. All this may take up a little time and be a little trouble, but the prize is worth the trouble, and you do not desire to enter the contest, and yet not desire to lose the prize.

DR. BOVEL'S HERB TABLETS
Nature's Great Liver and Kidney Cure

"Dr. Bovel's Herb Tablets" is a remedy sold on its merits. A medicine which owes its marvellous curative and healing powers to simple plants and shrubs of the field and forest, in which nature provides a cure for all our ills. This wonderful remedy is composed of ten of the most efficacious herbs, barks and roots known to the medical world which are gathered in proper season by skilled hands, and carefully dried and powdered. The powder is then scientifically prepared by expert chemists and made into small chocolate coated tablets containing the exact proportion necessary to achieve certain and perfect results in treating all diseases arising from bad blood, disordered stomach and inactive liver and kidneys. These organs may rightly be called the main machinery of the human system, as they are either directly or indirectly responsible for all our suffering.

CURE Liver and Kidney Troubles, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Bilioousness, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Nausea, Pale and Sallow Complexion, etc.

PRICE, 25c per box

BURNT BY BOILING GREASE

Dear Sirs,—
Having received your medicine, I take great pleasure in recommending same to all concerned. Your Gum Salve is worth its weight in gold. Recently I burnt myself badly with grease catching fire which caused most excruciating pain. Only one application of your Gum Salve was necessary to render immediate relief.

Trusting that someone may read this and give your Gum Salve a test, the way I did, and wishing you every success.

Respectfully yours, F. F. TAYLOR,
Station Operator, Macoun, Sask.

NERVOUS TROUBLE CURED

Dear Sirs,—
Some time ago I was persuaded to purchase four boxes of Dr. Bovel's Iron Tonic Pills. At the time I had little faith in them, as I had been a sufferer from nervous trouble for several years. At the same time I was very much run down and out of sorts. I am now pleased to say that after using eight boxes of your pills and tablets I am entirely built up, and have to thank your company for my good health.

Yours truly, S. M. FLYNN,
114 Bellevue Ave., Toronto.

DR. BOVEL'S MENTHOL INHALER

Dr. Bovel's Menthol Inhaler is an instant relief in cases of inflammation of the mucous lining of the nose, throat, eye, or intestines—in less than a minute after the first application the air passages are freed, and the breathing becomes natural and easy—the most acute attacks of cold in the head are cured in a few hours—cures incipient catarrh in a few days—and will permanently cure most chronic cases in from one to three months—it allays pain—counteracts all fullness of the breath—keeps the nose in an incredibly short while absorbs and drives up all discharge. It contains no injurious ingredients, such as cocaine, the use of which, like morphine in many cases has been the means of contracting the dreaded narcotic habit. Beware of catarrh cures containing such ingredients. Dr. Bovel's Menthol inhaler is sure, pure, harmless and easily applied.

Mary and Tom Visiting.

Tom Shows Mary the Magnificent Station Promised the People of Mosquito by the Tory Party, and Built—A Promise Fulfilled.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—I think it is a great wrong to say that Governments, or members rather, never fulfil their promises. I am convinced now that they do. Our Mosquito friends got the promise of a Railway Station fulfilled. I can prove this as I was there and saw for myself. It was the greatest surprise ever I got when Tom came home a few nights ago and says he, "Come, Min., child, put on your things and let us go for a walk down to Mosquito and see the grand station the Tories built for the people of that place." I thought he was really in earnest so I got on my best clothes and we were soon on the way. We went by way of Kitchen's Hill and the railway track. Tom said he was not right sure where the station was, but if we followed the track we would be pretty sure to see it. In passing near the small pox hospital, he told me to keep on the opposite side of the track, as there was small pox there 25 years ago. When I got down in the valley I said there is no lights down there yet, Tom, what direction is it in? Oh, he said, 'tis down there behind a rock that shelters it from the east wind. But my sakes alive, 'tis I was mad when the old villain took his glasses and began looking about for the much-talked-of station. I told him there and then that he was an artful old schemer and I'd never go for a walk with him again. And then he put his arm around me, as he used to do years ago, and he said, "never mind, old girl, you will soon see how the Tories fooled the Mosquito people," and you know, sir, with that arm around me I had to smile as I used to. However, we got down to the station, and really, sir, I would like to have it for a hen-house.

Poor old John Guy
When you visit us by and bye,
If you get off at the station
You'll feel most mighty shy.

'Tis six by six in size,
The light will spoil yer eyes;
The elevator, run by power,
Will be a great surprise.

Oh, how they fooled the people,
The artful, Tory crew;
To give them that old hen-house,
For a railway station, new.

Tom laughed until he cried,
As we stood there side by side;
Now you see the station
They mentioned with such pride.

We had a grand walk, and I was not sorry I went as it showed me at least one promise fulfilled. I pity our friends in Mosquito this summer when people go there and see that station. I expect they will have to fall in line with us and celebrate up here and buy the building referred to for a smoke house to smoke caplin in.

MARY.

Hr. Grace, April 5, 1910.

P. S.—I gave Tom this letter to post on Tuesday morning, but when I was sewing a button on his coat on Wednesday night it fell out of his pocket. That's what caused the delay, sir. He got no memory, sir, so don't blame me.—Mary.

Mail Under Difficulties.

In olden times there were various devices resorted to to establish mail communication over the water. The steamers from England for several years after the transatlantic service was established threw a can overboard off Cape Race in which the last English newspaper was enclosed, together with a synopsis of the state of British markets. A pigeon express was likewise established.

The day for this sending the news has not yet passed. The people of Magdalen Islands have adopted the plan of enclosing their letters in a barrel and sending it adrift on the waters. A barrel was picked up on the Cape Breton coast the other day which was found to contain between thirty and forty letters. These letters were received at the post office that night, and were transmitted to their respective addresses. It is the intention to send a similar barrel once a week.

The Magdalen Islands have adopted this plan because of the fact that the cable between the Islands and Cape Noth has become unworkable, and the opportunity has been taken from them of sending their messages by cable, and having them transmitted in due course through the mails.

Municipal Council.

The weekly meeting of the City Council took place last evening. Present: Mayor Gibbs, Councilors Martin, Kennedy, Collier and Cowan. James Spratt sent a letter complaining that the tax levied on theatrical shows was excessive. He with others were clubbed together giving shows to make money for themselves and the tax would prevent them from making as much as they expected to make. He showed that the expenses of a nickel show were $354.30 per week. He asked that the tax be reduced.

D. Courtenay asked the Council to take up a consideration of his claim for damages by water flooding his cellar. The question was deferred.

J. Drew applied for leave to put a gas engine in his shop at King's Bridge. Referred to Engineer.

The application of Rob. Peary for the position of engineer on steam roller was placed on file.

W. J. Harris asked for information about sewerage on Bond St. Report will be got as to the cost also cost of sewer on Gower Street, near Cochrane Street.

P. C. O'Driscoll wrote offering pipes. He will be asked to send in an offer as to price at which he will supply them.

J. Leard asked for water and sewerage on Bond Street. He will get it when the weather is favorable.

The Angel Engineering Co. sent in plan of automobile shop on Water St. It will be a wooden building covered with iron. Ordered that they be informed of the law relating to buildings on Water Street.

Mr. Furlong asked permission to build a coach house on Central St. Deferred for report.

J. R. Johnson will not be allowed to extend shop and machinery on Prescott Street.

Masked Burglar Enters

Drawing-Room, Shoots One Woman Dead, Wounds Another, and Escapes.
Springfield, Mass., March 31.—His demand for money ignored, a masked burglar who had entered the drawing-room of the Dow homestead on Round Hill early this evening, shot and killed Miss Martha B. Blackstone, 39 years old, a guest, and a teacher in the Jefferson Avenue Primary School; and probably fatally wounded Miss Harriet P. Dow, a fellow teacher, in whose home the tragedy took place. Miss Blackstone was shot through the heart as she ran screaming into an adjacent room. Miss Dow was shot in the skull, which was fractured; trepanning will be resorted to in an effort to save her life. The murderer escaped.

All were in the drawing-room when the unknown robber entered the house from the rear and suddenly appeared before the frightened women, threatening them with a revolver and demanding money. Mrs. Dow retained her composure and replied:

"We have no money," but Miss Blackstone in fright jumped to her feet and ran screaming into a reception room to the right of the living room. The burglar fired at Miss Blackstone, the bullet entering her left breast. Death was instantaneous. The murderer hardly paused to see his victim fall before he turned the revolver on the group, shooting Miss Dow in the head. The murderer ran to the front door; leaped over the railing and disappeared. The police have no clue as to the identity of the murderer.

THE HEART A GREAT WORKER.
What a wonder is the heart. Day and night it works away pumping tons of blood through the body and is supplied with rich, red blood such as is formed by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. While sending supplies of nutrition to other parts of the body the heart renews and rebuilds its own wasted cells and so retains health and strength.

Regulus in Port.
The s.s. Regulus, Capt. Randall, arrived from Philadelphia at 4.30 p.m. yesterday after a run of 5½ days. She had fine weather from the time of leaving, in fact it was a summer voyage all through. The ship brought 1,677 tons of coal, 981 tons of gas coal belong to the Gas Co., the remainder of cargo for A. J. Harvey & Co. The ship, which brought the first cargo of ore from Bell Island to Philadelphia, had a rough time on the run.

Badly Hurt In Thresher

Blood poison set in—Great suffering—Cure effected by DR. A. W. CHASE'S OINTMENT.
Mrs. C. Hopkins, St. George, Ont., writes:—"I feel like shouting the praises of Dr. Chase's Ointment. While threshing grain, my son got badly hurt. One of the men who was pitching sheaves, missed the sheaf and ran the prongs of the fork into my son's leg. He did not take much notice of it and in a day or two it got sore and very itchy and blood poison set in. We did everything for it but it would heal one place and break out at another and kept on this way for three months.

Finally I thought of Dr. Chase's Ointment and in a week's time we noticed a wonderful change. By the use of three boxes he was completely cured and the wounds healed up. There has not been a sign of a spot on him since."

Wherever there is itching or irritation of the skin or a sore that refuses to heal you can apply Dr. Chase's Ointment with every assurance that the results will be prompt and satisfactory. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Ed. Mansson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy Dr. Chase's Recipes.

The Gas Co. will be permitted to put crossing at the upper end of the Promenade.

After the regular weekly reports were presented the meeting adjourned.

Inter-Club Billiards.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the B. I. S. Billiard Committee was held in their rooms last night to arrange for the proposed series of inter-club championship matches. The attendance was large and representative, several members of other clubs being present. Great interest was manifested in the movement, and after some discussion the scheme was thought to be practicable. An adjournment was taken till next week, when it is likely a decision will be arrived at.

COCHRANE ST. CHURCH.—Rev. F. R. Matthews, B.A., will occupy the pulpit at both services in Cochrane Street Methodist Church to-morrow. The subject of the morning discourse will be "God's voices of the spring-time," and that of the evening, "Jesus Christ and our twentieth century problems." Visiting friends always welcome. Ushers in attendance, who will gladly give you a seat.

"COME OUT OF BABYLON."—At the Adventist Church to-morrow Elder Keslake will preach on "Come out of Babylon." Service at 6.30. Books and seats free.

Children Had Eczema
Treatment prescribed had no effect—DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT made thorough cure.
Mrs. Oscar Vancott, St. Antoine, Sack., writes:—"I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment to be a permanent cure for Eczema and other skin diseases. One son, while nursing, broke out with running watery sores all over his head and around the ears. Many salves were prescribed to no effect. The child's head became a mass of scabs and he suffered agony untold. He became weak and frail and would not eat and we thought we would lose him.

"Provisionally we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and it soon thoroughly cured him. He is seven years old now and strong and well. An older boy was also cured of eczema by this Ointment and we hope more people will learn about it so that their little ones may be saved from suffering."

As a cure for eczema and itching skin disease there is no treatment to be compared to Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers of Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes sent free.

St. Bon's "At Home."
The children's "At Home," given by the ladies of St. Bon's in the British Hall yesterday afternoon, was an unqualified success. There was a big gathering of little ones, for whom a splendid tea was provided, and needless to say all did justice to it. Dancing then was indulged in and continued until 7 p.m., after which the children retired. At 8 o'clock a dance was held for adults and continued until midnight. Refreshments were served by the committee and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

HOW CAN WE COUNTER-ACT THE INCREASED COST OF LIVING?

A second's reasoning will supply the answer. Beef and pork are dear and getting dearer all the time, and the cost is out of proportion with their food-value.

EAT MORE BREAD.

There is more nourishment in a shilling's worth of bread than a shilling's worth of beef or pork. But the problem is not done with yet. The shilling's worth of bread is not always the same value. Breadmade from contains more nourishment than any other, because it contains the greatest amount of gluten, the health-giving nutriment of wheat.
