AGAIN THE WEEK OPENS GLOOMILY FOR J. BULLER

Buller's Turning Movement Has Failed and The London Times Takes a Pessimistic View of It.

Ladysmith's Relief Grows More Improbable—Perhaps it Will Be Abandoned and General White Left to His Fate.

The silence of the War Office as to the movements of the British forces after the abandonment of Spion Kop has been broken. On Saturday the air was full of reports of distressing rumors, via Berlin and Brussels, but now the story is coming out in its true light. At 3 p.m. yesterday a despatch was posted in the War Office from General Buller giving the long-awaited explanation for the abandonment of Spion Kop. Gen. Buller's explanation is that on Jan. 23 he assented to Gen. Warren attacking Spion Kop, which was evidently the key to the position, but far more accessible from the north than south. He attacked Spion Kop that night, but found it very difficult to hold, as its perimeter was too large, and water, which he had been led to believe existed, was found to be very deficient. The crests were held all that day against severe attacks and heavy shell fire. The British fought with great gallantry. He especially mentions several regiments. Then he continued that Gen. Woodgate had been wounded and the officer who succeeded him, on the night of Jan. 24 decided to abandon the position and did so the next night. Gen. Buller, who was on hand on the 24th at 5 a.m., decided a second attack on the Kop was useless. Accordingly he withdrew the forces to the south of the Tugela, where Warren's force was concentrated at 8 o'clock yesterday morning without further loss.

The story from the Boer Headquarters at Modder Spruit, Upper Tugela, dated Wednesday at midnight, says that when it was found that the British had occupied Spion Kop reinforcements were ordered to take it. The Boers found that the English had improved the position by entrenching. Between the lines of trenches was an open field, which the Boers had to rush under a heavy fire. The English tried to rush the Boers with bayonets, but their infantry went down before the rifle fire as before a scythe. One hundred and fifty British in the front trenches surrendered and were taken prisoners. The Boer advance continued until two kopjes east of Spion Kop, when many Boers were shot, but so numerous were the burghers that the gaps were filled automatically. Towards twilight the Boers reached the summit of the second kopje, but did not get farther. The British Maximists belched fire, but a wall of firing Mausers held the English back. Their centre under this pressure gradually gave way and broke, abandoning the position.

The War Office is silent as to General Buller's casualties, but a despatch from the Boer Head Langer, Ladysmith, dated Thursday at 5 p.m., says: "The British dead left on the battlefield yesterday numbered 1500. This number is thought in London to include the wounded."

A despatch received in London on Sunday from Pretoria, via Lorenzo Marques, says that after heavy fighting near Spion Kop 150 British prisoners were taken. The message also says "some" British on the kopje hoisted the white flag. The Boers also lost heavily.

There are rumors in London that the Defence Committee of the Imperial Cabinet on Saturday decided to wire Gen. White at Ladysmith to surrender or to cut his way out. This proposition is openly discussed in London.

London, Jan. 28.—(4.15 p.m.) The week has opened gloomily for the British public, and the reaction is all the stronger because of the high hopes that were reposed in Gen. Buller's turning movement. Open talk of Ladysmith to the original plan of an advance over the Orange River upon Bloemfontein.

Appointment at Ladysmith. To Ladysmith the disappointment must be very bitter. A despatch from the Boer Head Langer on the 24th, says that the garrison as "very evidently prepared for a desperate coup in order to effect a junction with Gen. Buller's advancing army." It may be regarded as a certainty that in the confident hope of an early relief Sir George White has lately been issuing extra rations, and this fact has given rise to an exaggerated idea as to the length of time the provisions would last.

Would Take a Month Now. Even should it be decided to send Gen. Buller reinforcements, and to attempt to reach Ladysmith by a movement through the still more difficult country east of

SPION KOP IS BROKEN AT LAST BY A MESSAGE FROM BULLER

Who Says That General Warren's Forces Have Been Withdrawn and Are Now Concentrated South of the Tugela River.

Spion Kop Was Found Difficult to Hold for Want of Water, and the Officer Who Succeeded Gen. Woodgate Decided to Abandon It—Buller Thought That a Second Attack on the Kop Was Useless, as the Enemy's Right Flank Was Too Strong—No Mention of Losses.

GENERAL BULLER'S MESSAGE.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The following is the text of Gen. Buller's despatch dated Spearman's Camp, Saturday, Jan. 27, 6.10 p.m.:

"On Jan. 20 Warren drove back the enemy and obtained possession of the southern crests of the high table land extending from the line of Acton Homes and Honger's Poort to the western Ladysmith hills. "From then to Jan. 25 he remained in close contact with the enemy. "The enemy held a strong position on a range of small kopjes stretching from north-west to southwest to southeast across the plateau from Acton Homes thru Spion Kop to the left bank of the Tugela. "The actual position held was perfectly tenable, but did not lend itself to an advance, as the southern slopes were so steep that Warren could not get an effective artillery position and water supply was a difficulty.

Spion Kop Unsuitable. "On Jan. 23 I assented to his attacking Spion Kop, a large hill, indeed a mountain, which was evidently the key of the position, but was far more accessible from the north than south.

"On the night of Jan. 23 he attacked Spion Kop, but found it very difficult to hold, as its perimeter was too large, and water which he had been led to believe existed, in this extraordinarily dry season, was found to be very deficient.

Crests Held All Day. "The crests were held all that day against severe attacks and a heavy shell fire. Our men fought with great gallantry. Would especially mention the conduct of the Second Camerons and the Third King's Rifles, who supported the attack on the mountain from the steepest side, and in each case fought their way to the top, and the Second Lancashire Fusiliers and Second Middlesex, who magnificently maintained the best traditions of the British army thruout the trying day of Jan. 24 and Thorneycroft's Mounted Infantry, who fought thruout the day equally well alongside of them.

Decided to Abandon It. "Gen. Woodgate, who was in command of the summit, having been wounded, the officer who succeeded him decided on the night of Jan. 24 to abandon the position and did so before dawn Jan. 25.

"I reached Warren's camp at 5 a.m. on Jan. 25 and decided that a second attack upon Spion Kop was useless and that the enemy's right was too strong to allow me to force it.

The Force Withdrawn South. "Accordingly, I decided to withdraw the force to the south of the Tugela. At 6 a.m. we commenced withdrawing the train, and by 8 a.m. Jan. 28 (Sunday) Warren's force was concentrated south of the Tugela without the loss of a man or a pound of stores.

"The fact that the force could withdraw from actual touch—in some cases the lines were less than a thousand yards apart—with the enemy in the manner it did is, I think, sufficient evidence of the morale of the troops, and that we were permitted to withdraw our cumbersome ox and mule transport across the river eighty-five yards broad with 20 foot banks and a very swift current unimpeded is, I think, proof that the enemy has been taught to respect our soldiers' fighting powers."

HEAVY STORM AT SEA. Nova Scotia Coast Swept Saturday Night by a Terrific Gale—Vessels Delayed.

What is Roberts Doing? The situation at other points is unchanged, but indications that Lord Roberts is preparing plans for an advance across the Orange River come in a despatch to The Daily Chronicle from Sirker's camp, dated Jan. 25, which says that Thebes, an important position near Steynsburg, on the Stormberg-Rosmead line, is now occupied by the British, who are repairing the railway and bridges. The correspondent observes that this will facilitate communication between General Gatacre and General Kelly-Kenny.

Rehman's Infantry Surprised. A special from Colenso, dated Wednesday, Jan. 24, says that Commandant Lewis Meyers' command surprised and surrounded a strong body of Gen. Rehman's infantry, killing or wounding 23 and capturing 15.

THE BOER ATTACK ON THE BRITISH MOST DESPERATE

Retaking of Spion Kop Was Only After Terrible Casualties, According to the Burgher Story

British Could Not Hold the Position, Which Was Retaken—150 British Prisoners and 1500 Casualties, the Boers Report.

Boer Headquarters, Modder Spruit, Upper Tugela, Wednesday, Jan. 24.—(Midnight.) via Lorenzo Marques, Thursday, Jan. 25.—Some Vryheid burghers from the outposts on the highest hills of the Spion Kop group rushed into the laager saying that the Kop was lost, and that the English had taken it. Reinforcements were ordered up, but nothing could be done for some time, the hill being enveloped in thick mist.

Boers Attack the Kop. At dawn the Heidelberg and Carolina contingents, supplemented from other commands, began the ascent of the hill. Three spurs, precipitous projections, faced the Boer positions. Up these the advance was made. The horses were left under the first terrace of rocks.

English Had Entrenched. Sealing the steep of the Boers found that the English had improved the opportunity and entrenched heavily. Between the lines of trenches was an open field which had to be rushed under a heavy fire, not only from rifles, but of Lyddite and shrapnel from field guns. Three forces ascended the three spurs co-ordinately under cover of fire from the Free State Krupps and a big Maxim.

English Went Down. The English tried to rush the Boers with the bayonet, but their infantry went down before the rifle fire as before a scythe. 150 Prisoners Taken by Boers. The Boer investing party advanced step by step until 2 p.m., when the white flag went up and 150 men in the front trenches surrendered, being sent as prisoners to the head laager.

Many Boers Shot Down. The Boer advance continued until two kopjes east of Spion Kop. Many Boers were shot, but so numerous were the burghers that the gaps filled automatically. Toward twilight they reached the summit of the second kopje, but did not get farther. The British Maximists belched flame; but a wall of firing Mausers held the English back. Their centre under this pressure gradually gave way and broke, abandoning the position.

Effect of the Abandonment. The prisoners speak highly of the bravery of the burghers, who, despite cover, stood against the skyline edges of the summit to shoot the Duff's Fusiliers, sheltered in the trenches. They continued for some time, and then the Fusiliers and the Light Horse, serving as infantry, threw up their arms and rushed out of the trenches. The effect of the abandonment of Spion Kop by the English can hardly be gauged as yet, but it must prove to be immense.

An unusually high proportion of Lyddite shells did not explode.

150 BRITISH WERE TAKEN. But the Boer Losses Were Heavy. Says a Despatch From Pretoria.

London, Jan. 28.—The following despatch has been received in London from Pretoria, dated Jan. 25, via Lorenzo Marques, Jan. 26: "The Government is advised that, after heavy fighting near Spion Kop, some British on the Kop being stormed, hoisted a white flag. One hundred and fifty prisoners, God be thanked, but also had to give bare and valuable lives."

"THE BRITISH DEAD 1500" According to a Despatch From Boer Head Langer at Ladysmith, on Thursday.

MR. C. A. YOUNG IS AN HONEST POLITICIAN

Feels He Was Elected Under False Pretences and Tenders His Resignation.

HAS NO FEAR OF THE COURTS But Greenway's Deal With the C. P. R. Was Unknown to Him Prior to Election.

WINNIPEG TRIBUNE COMMENTS The Action of Mr. Young and Declares That Mr. Greenway Has Been False.

Winnipeg, Jan. 27.—(Special.)—C. A. Young, Liberal M.L.A. for Deloraine, has written the following letter to John Newton, president of the Deloraine Liberal Association, dated Jan. 20, 1900:

Dear Sir:—As I told you when in the city, the promise made by Mr. Greenway to grant assistance to the Waskada Railway has placed me in an awkward position with my constituents. At the time of my election I distinctly stated that no aid was to be given this road, and at that time, and till I saw the letters published in The Telegram, I believed such was the case. Consequently I feel that I have secured my election under false pretences, and, notwithstanding my having done so in good faith, I feel it my duty to tender my supporters my resignation. With that end in view, I would ask you as president of the Liberal Association, to take such steps as you and the other members of the executive think best, and would suggest that you call a meeting at which I will endeavor to be present. There is another awkward feature in connection with this road, and that is the fact of my friends, contrary to the spirit or letter of the Election Act, and I am not afraid of the consequences of a trial. Yours truly, (Sgd.) C. A. Young.

Mr. Young has left the matter in the hands of the Deloraine Liberal Association, and he has not heard that the association has taken any action in the matter. Commenting on the above, The Tribune said to-night such conduct as that of Mr. Young is what makes the future of this province hopeful. His many act is a rift in the clouds that for the time being have closed over the Legislature of the Liberal party in the Lower Legislature. We cannot have too many such men in our public life, and the electors of his constituency should retain him as their representative against all comers. Mr. Greenway, in his dealings with the C.P.R. has been false not only to the electors but in particular to the

CITY'S OWN PATRIOTIC FUND

Representative Citizens, on Saturday Afternoon, at a Meeting in City Hall, So Decided.

NAMED PERMANENT SECRETARY. Who Will Be Assisted by a Permanent Committee—All to Work for Canadian Fund.

It was nearly 3.30 on Saturday afternoon when the chair of the patriotic fund at the public meeting called in the large committee room adjoining the Council chamber, under the auspices of the Canadian Patriotic Fund Association. There were about a hundred prominent citizens present.

The Mayor Explains. The Mayor said: In accordance with a letter received from His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, I cannot but be pleased to be inserted in all the papers, announcing this meeting. I had heard nothing about it until 2.15 the day before yesterday, and I am here now at your disposal to do all in my power to help the end in view. I am very much absorbed in public business, and I fear I will be obliged to leave this meeting as soon as the permanent chairman has been elected, with a secretary to carry out the objects of the movement.

Mr. Mulock on Hand. Hon. William Mulock here entered, and was invited to occupy the chair of the meeting. Mr. Mulock said: "I am here solely in the capacity of a citizen of Toronto, and I had the pleasure of attending the worship of the Mayor and a delegation of the City Council this morning. He invited me to drop in here for a few moments, and have an appointment at the University at 10 o'clock on Friday next, at 3 o'clock, to discuss the matter as well as public notice will be sent out."

A SENSATIONAL PANT STORY.

By P. Jamieson. The Frontispiece is by our Window Artist. See Yonge St. Display of Painting in Window.

CHAP. I. Dame Fashion has decreed that widely cut Scotch tweed pants are the only correct pants.

The checks and colors are a little above a whisper. One roll of large-checked tweed with a masterly suggestion of green effect bewitches with its saucy newness.

Other patterns are more subdued, but all are snappy with tasteful beauty and crisp with style.

The Senior League Changes its Name and Montreal Gains Admission.

TEGUMSEHS AGAIN TURNED DOWN.

Delegates Meet Feb. 12 in Montreal to Draw Up Playing Schedule.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—A meeting of the Senior Lacrosse League was held here on Saturday night to consider the arrangement for the coming season. The delegates present were: Shamrocks, R. Lunny and C. Macdonald; Nationals, J. Lamarche and A. Meulier; Capitals, A. A. Pitagib; Quebec, Capt. Fenwick; Sherbrooke, E. W. Smith; Toronto, J. M. Macdonald. Applications for admission to the league were received from Montreal and the Tecumseh Lacrosse Club. Several of the delegates objected to the Tecumseh and Montreal clubs, but to entertain their application. BANNOCKBURN'S GREAT RACE

Carried 128 Pounds and Won Lissak Stakes, After Wretched Start In 1.39.

BEAT FLAMOORA BY A LENGTH.

Sixteen Horses Started and There Was a Remarkable Scene at Oakland.

Salvator, 4, 110 lbs., at Mont. 2 1/2, straight course, 1.30 1/2. Lissak Stakes, 1.39. Bannockburn, 4, 128 lbs., at Mont. 2 1/2, straight course, 1.30 1/2.

A comparison of the best-on-record in the mile, shows that Bannockburn's mark Saturday, at Oakland, is, perhaps, the greatest performance in the history of the world has ever seen. Fast time, however, is recorded under light weight, but this time, carrying 128 pounds, Barney Schreiber's big brown colt, by Harney Edwards—Lissak Stakes, 1.39.

Bette Blane, gave an exhibition of speed and gameness perhaps never equaled. The event was for the Lissak Stakes, and Bannockburn spent 45 minutes at the post, took eight lengths the worst of the start, and then won, pulling up, in 1.30, equaling his own mile record made in the Turf Congress stakes the Saturday previous, when he carried four pounds less. The stake was worth $1200 to the winner.
