Desperate Fighting Marks Conflict With The Enemy on Western Front

Artillery and Infantry at It And British and French Make Gains

Some Trenches Evacuated as Men Were Up to Shoulders in Sand and Water—Bayonet Used Effectively in Repelling Violent Attack of Germans

Paris, Jan. 8.—The French War Office gave out an official statement this afternoon as follows:—

"The artillery of the enemy showed during the day of January 7 great activity in Belgium and in the vicinity of Arras. The French artillery responded spiritedly and efficaciously.

"Our infantry made some progress near Lombartzyde. We occupied, at a point fifty yards in advance of our trenches, a hillock which had been held by the enemy. To the east of St. Georges we gained ground, and we inflicted serious damage on the trenches of the enemy in the vicinity of Stenstraete. . .

"In the section of Arras, at the forest of Resthovaal, without being attacked, we were compelled to evacuate certain trenches, where our men were up to their shoulders in sand and water.

"To the left of Boiselle, our line of trenches has been moved forward, and we occupied the road from Boiselle to Aveluy.

"In the valley of the Aisne the artillery exchanges yesterday were quite spirited. Our heavy artillery scored good results near Blanc Sablon. At this point, the mine throwers of the enemy inflicted losses on us, but in the afternoon we checked this fire from the Germans.

"In the sector of Rheims, to the west of the Forest des Souaaves we blew up a blockhouse and occupied a new trench 200 yards in advance of our lines. MANY GERMAN KILLED

"The artillery engagement between Bethany and Prunay, was conducted yesterday with great fierceness. The Germans left many dead on the field; our losses were not heavy. Between Jonchery-sur-Saube and Souain, we time and again reduced to silence the artillery of the enemy, demolished his trenches, and destroyed his breastworks.

"In the Argonne, to the west of Haute Chevauchee, the enemy, by means of a mine blew up some of our first line trenches, which were completely demolished.

"A violent attack undertaken at once by the enemy on our position, was repulsed with the bayonet. We took some prisoners and maintained our front except for a distance of eighty yards. Here the demolition of the trenches obliged us to establish our line twenty yards farther back.

"On the heights of the Meuse and between the Meuse and the Moselle there is nothing to report. Here the wind blew a tempest all day January 7.

"Our offensive continued yesterday in the region of Thann and near Altkirch, and brought important results. We recaptured the trenches on the eastern flank of Hill 426, a position where the enemy two days ago succeeded in re-establishing himself. We then gained some ground to the east of these trenches. Farther to the south we occupied Burnhaupt-Le-Haut, and at the same time we made progress in the direction of Pont d'Aspach and the Khalberg.

"The artillery of the enemy, which had endeavored, without success, to reach our batteries, gave over shooting at our artillery in favor of the exclusive bombardment of the hospital at Thann, which has been evacuated."

FIERCE FIGHTING IN LOWER ALSACE

Geneva, via Paris, Jan. 8.—The fighting in Lower Alsace is daily growing in intensity around Steinbach, Germiny and Thann. Villages, houses and trenches are taken and retaken at the point of the bayonet, and the casualties on both sides have been extremely heavy.

It is said that about 250,000 in all are engaged and that both sides are using heavy guns. The Germans are continuously hurrying reinforcements from the Rhine front.

General Pau, it is said, is in command of the French forces, which have made progress despite the fierce resistance of the Germans. French aviators from Belfort are assisting the artillery, the booming of which is heard day and night in the neighborhood of the frontier.

FLOODS IN FLANDERS WORSE

New York, Jan. 8.—A London Daily Express despatch dated "on the Belgian frontier, Thursday," to the New York Herald says:

"The Germans are continuing their attack to the southeast of Ypres, where their heavy artillery has been steadily bombarding the allied trenches.

"There is a steady rainfall in most of Flanders, and the floods are increasing. In the Dismude area the German infantry reinforcements in some places are advancing ankle deep in mud. The troops have been forced to sleep in the open for the last few days, awaiting orders for the next counter attacks and they are suffering severely in health.

HELIGOLAND NOT ENJOYING HIS VIEW

New York, Jan. 8.—A Herald cable quotes Herr Albert Ballin, managing director of the Hamburg-American Steamship Line, a personal friend of Emperor William, as expressing the view that Germany must admit that her position at Heligoland does not give the German fleet a desirable base of operations. He also admits that England has brought the whole of Germany's overseas trade to a standstill.

He declares there can be no lasting peace if Germany does not get her fleet station in the North Sea which, at least, will give to Germany the same advantages in Europe as Great Britain possesses.

VON JAGOW SETTLES IT

Bumptious German Says All Over by June—His Schedule is Interesting

New York, Jan. 8.—A London Daily Express despatch from Amsterdam to the Herald says:

"It is understood from a most authoritative source that in a recent conversation with the German minister to a neutral country in Europe, Herr Von Jagow, German under-secretary for foreign affairs, made the following statement: 'We do not need to worry. Things are progressing excellently for Germany. Let me make the following forecast:—

"By the end of February we will have smashed up the Russians. The end of March will see the end of the French army. In April we will finally start reckoning with Great Britain, which I expect will be finished by the middle of May. All Germany's enemies will be beaten before June at any rate!'"

Six Hundred Reach Rome—No Lives Taken, But Convents, Monasteries and Schools Made Baracks

Rome, Jan. 8.—Pope Benedict yesterday received more than 600 religious men and women—Franciscans, Benedictines, Dominicans, Passionists, Christian Brothers and members of other orders—who have been expelled from Syria and Palestine. They recounted details of their experiences, but said there had been no loss of life.

The Turks, while they respected the lives of holy men, expelled the convents, monasteries and schools held by the religious orders and transformed them into barracks. The expelled monks, however, to pile the furniture into the churches, and permitted the locking up of places which could not be emptied. The archives of the state have been packed up ready for removal from the city, and many of them already have been sent away. SOLDIERS ATTACK A CITIZEN; WRECK PLACE AND ASSAULT POLICE

Four of 26th in Serious Situation Over Occurrence of Last Night

Joseph May, John Savage, Michael Moran, and Patrick Anderson, four members of the 26th Battalion, who were arrested last night on charge of assaulting John McVane, proprietor of a beer shop at the corner of Garmarthen and St. Andrews street, and doing bodily injury to him and his son, George, also being guilty of destroying property of the man, and later assaulting Police Sergeant Joseph Scott in the discharge of his duty, were remanded in the police court this morning. The magistrate said that he would confer with Colonel McAvilly regarding the matter, and he expected that they would be given their just deserts.

Mr. McVane appeared in court and his battered features gave testimony of the assault. He was not asked to give evidence, as the magistrate remarked that he was in no condition to do so. To the Times he gave the following account of the fracas: "The four soldiers entered my shop and ordered beer. After they had drunk it they walked into the room adjoining where my son was sitting. They then took out a bottle of liquor and my son told them that they could not drink it on our premises, as we would be held responsible. An argument ensued and after a heated discussion things quieted down. The soldiers then came out into the shop. I noticed one of them with some of my glasses in his pocket and ordered him to put them back on the counter. My son appeared with an empty revolver and ordered them off the premises. They apparently realized that it was not loaded, for they chased him up the stairs of the house and my son wrenched a rung off the banister. What followed I do not recall. All I know is that they were kicked me and dragged me out on the sidewalk. Today I can hardly breathe; my body is so badly bruised and sore. It takes four Canadian soldiers to beat up an old man like me, I wonder how many it will take to beat up a big German!"

The rung of the banister was produced by Sergeant Scott in court. The end of it was besmeared with blood. Sergeant Scott, who was on his way home last night heard shouts and cursing coming from the place and hurried there to ascertain the cause of the trouble. He attempted to place Anderson under arrest, and says he was set upon by the other three. A message had been sent to the army and to central station by nearby residents and Police-men Rankine and Powers, and an officer from the army were soon on the scene and the soldiers were placed under arrest. They are still in jail.

James Doyle was again in court this morning, having been arrested in Charlotte street last night for drunkenness and shouting. He was ordered out of court and told to return to Halifax where he belongs.

John Egan, a soldier, given in charge for being drunk and disorderly in the army, was remanded. Later he was escorted to the army under guard.

Young Murray Jones, working at his large model house, which was considered a perfect piece of workmanship by his instructors. Denver, Col., Jan. 7.—When he was only fifteen years old, young Murray Jones of this city left school to take a position paying him $120 a month! That was his reward for having taken pleasure in patiently training himself to work with his hands! Young Jones had the advantage of attending the Denver Trades school where he was taught carpentry and building. But according to his instructors, it was more the boy's own enthusiasm for "doing things with his hands" than his training school, which made him an expert of big wages instead of a mere apprentice, so early in his life. Jones left school in August. The city of Denver gave him a job at once on the elaborate decorations for the big

USE THE WANT AD. WAY

COMMISSIONERS TAKE LOOK AT THE PLACES WHERE WORK PROPOSED

Important Propositions Considered on the Spot This Morning

Two important propositions were considered by the city commissioners this morning in the field, the full council with the exception of Commissioner McLellan looking over the proposed street in Metcalf extension, North End, and the street work in Lancaster and Winslow, West Side, where the grade is being reduced. A formal meeting of the committee was to have been held on the return of the commissioners but one o'clock struck before the autos reached Prince William street and an postponement was made until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The council had before it an application from the representatives of the owners of the Simons estate to take over the right-of-way for a street, grade it and extend water and sewerage. On visiting the place, however, the commissioners found that a great deal of work would have to be done to put it in shape, that the application really asked for a diversion in the original street line and that the necessary grading would bring up the street six or seven feet above the foundations of five or six houses already built in the locality. Commissioner Wigmore thought the work could be done if the money could be provided and the matter will be taken up at once. The situation in Lancaster and Winslow streets was explained to the members of council on the spot by Road Engineer Hatfield as outlined in yesterday's Times and they seemed to be pretty well agreed that it was a big proposition to grade the street at Lancaster and Winslow corner while at the same time blasting out the rock on both streets to make a passage through to Prince street and City Line respectively. One of the commissioners said that it appeared to him that the street was not so much money in streets where there was no development at present. This matter is also to come up this afternoon or at an early meeting.

THE MAGIC DISC

Here's a mystifying trick of magnetism to puzzle your friends with. Take a small horseshoe magnet—ten cents at the store, if you haven't got one among your possessions—and an ordinary pastebord shoe box. Glue the magnet firmly in place on the inside of the box, cover it with a piece of paper. When the box is closed, the magnet is hidden. Then neatly paste a false top in the cover over the magnet, thus concealing it. Cut from the top of a can a disc of tin the size of a dollar. The disc is held in place by a magnet, to the utter bewilderment of your audience. Remember that a few mystic words and passes will lighten the odd effect of your trick.

WHEAT STILL CLIMBS

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Smashing of war record prices for wheat began promptly today at the market. The leading opening quotations were 1/4 to 1/2 cents above last night. May wheat, the leading option, jumped to $1.09 1/2, against $1.08 1/2 the previous night. Reports of an ultimatum to Turkey by Italy had an explosive effect with buyers. On a second wave of buying, May wheat went to $1.40 a bushel, the highest figures with few exceptions in fifty years, the parallel thus going back broadly to American civil war. Today's high prices were supported by dispatches telling of excitement in the grain trade at Liverpool, and admitting that demand there was keen.

SMITH WINS THE SEAT IN CARLETON COUNTY

Woodstock, N. B., Jan. 7.—In an election marked by unusual activity by the government forces and the expenditure of much money on their part in bringing voters from the woods and from the side points besides actual corruption of which more is to be heard later in the courts, B. F. Smith was elected by the legislature for Carleton county today by a majority of about 700 over R. L. Simons. FOR THE BELGIANS His Worship Mayor Frink today received $10 from H. H. PRE-STOCK-TAKING SALE IN FULL BLAST!

This Store Will Be a Busy Place Tomorrow

The why of it—It's near stock-taking time. February 1st closes our business year. Naturally every store has broken lots. This store has more, because we carry more stock than most stores. In every department, we have broken lots and sizes—overcoats, suits, ulsters, sweaters, shirts, underwear, etc. etc. We have not packed up the best garments and put them away for next season's business. Not a garment from the lowest to the highest priced has been disturbed. Only the mark-down pencil did its work on the price tags. "But seeing is believing." Therefore, the only thing to do is to come and see. If we cannot show you the greatest bargains in clothing and furnishings in St. John today, do not buy from us, but go to some of the other stores you have been reading about. We are confident we will get your business.—Donaldson Hunt, 17-19 Charlotte street.

"CRIMES OF HONEST PEOPLE" DISCUSSED
An Instance Where Parents Unwittingly Wrong Their Children by Choosing Unsuitable Medicines
(Montreal Mail)
Before a large gathering of the members of the Women's Canadian Club in the Ritz-Carlton yesterday, M. Eugene Brioux, a noted French dramatist and academician, lectured on "The Crimes of Honest People"—crimes, he said, that were committed unwittingly before witnesses who did not remark them, and on victims who seldom raised much protest, for they are weak, children or women or men in a state of inferiority.
The chief crime committed against children in France, said the lecturer, was the choosing by the parents, with out in any way consulting the children, of their vocations, and even their husbands or wives, when the time came. Then there were the crimes against womanhood, suffering heaped upon woman in consequence of the laws of the land, and so on. The lecturer dealt with crimes committed against the poor, committed generally by those who were endeavoring to do the impoverished with charity. These, the speaker said, arose from a misunderstanding of the positions of these people. As to crimes committed against the weak, these were generally perpetrated by people of much influence, for instance, some doctors and other people of high position.
M. Brioux concluded by referring to crimes perpetrated against one's country. Politicians, he considered, were guilty of some of these; then there were authors and others who misrepresented their country, creating false impressions of it in other lands. There were many books in circulation, he declared, which are purported to expose social conditions in France as they are, but are very lieentious to his country. He stated that he had investigated the origin of many of these and found that a great majority of them were published in Leipzig. "I believe their production is more limited now," he added.

Constipation, Indigestion and Horrible Backaches
Searched for a Cure for Years—Advised to Try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Was Cured.
Where there is poison there is pain. This is a provision of Nature to warn you against conditions that are likely to prove serious.
Constipation of the bowels is undoubtedly the greatest source of disease and suffering. By using one of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills at bed-time as often as is necessary to keep the bowels regular you can cure constipation and the consequent indigestion, and remove the cause of backache, rheumatism and other painful diseases.
"Daily government of the bowels" is the greatest law of health. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will help you to form this habit, and to your years, and bring comfort in old age.
Professor A. T. Smith, 1 Mt. Charles street, Montreal, and formerly of Boston, Mass., writes:—"I suffered for many years from bad digestion, constipation and horrible backaches. I have been treated by many doctors without any results. One day a friend in Boston advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. After using two boxes I noticed great improvement, and after the fourth box I was completely cured. My digestion is good. I never feel any pain in the back. My head is clear, and I feel like a young man. I think Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are one of the best medicines on earth."

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Simple, Sturdy Empire
Used by the Canadian Government
Costs less—yet does more work
THE first cost of the "Empire" is from $40 to $60 lower than that of any other standard typewriter.
—because it is the ONLY typewriter "Made in Canada", and hence the only one on which you do not have to pay a heavy duty.
—because it has but two-thirds as many working parts as its nearest competitor, and so costs considerably less to manufacture.
THE upkeep of the "Empire" is the lowest known.
One of Canada's largest corporations, which uses over 3,000 "Empires" has found the repair bills for the "Empires" average just 1/5 as much as those for other machines.
This is due to fewer working parts—the easy sliding stroke—the exclusive "Empire" locking device, ensuring permanent alignment—and the splendid material and workmanship.

Let us give you a demonstration, or send you an "Empire" on trial without expense or obligation to you. Call, phone or write:

PATRIOTISM OF FRANCE ENDURING
M. Boutroux Says it Manifests Itself Under Different Aspects and Must Always Be French
An article entitled "The Spirit of France," by Emile Boutroux, member of the French Institute and the Academie Francaise, and professor of modern philosophy at the University of Paris, appears in the columns of the London Daily News and Leader. M. Boutroux introduces his theme of patriotism as follows:—
"It was a favorite idea of Hippolyte Taine that men but imperfectly know themselves, that the pressure of circumstances is needed to bring about both in their own eyes and in those of others, what has lain concealed deep in their hearts; and that a man who regarded himself as timid, proves in the hour of trial, to be a hero; whereas another, who considered himself a great hero, is found to be a very ordinary person indeed. This theory appears particularly true in France. Because we do not keep this in mind, we gibly talk of moral revolutions in such and such a sphere of thought, revolutions, the scene of which frequently is France itself. Of course, France passes through transitional periods, like that everything that lives, but she probably remains herself far more than men of letters affirm.
"French patriotism," continues M. Boutroux, "is independent of any event. It is indissoluble from the genius of France. But at different periods it manifests itself under different aspects. During the Dreyfus affair it showed itself in two distinct forms. Those who called themselves Nationalists, assumed pre-eminently the role of defenders of the French fatherland; they relied mainly on tradition, and, turning their gaze upon the past, required that France should wipe back the glorious role in the world which she had played in former times. Others, no less patriotic from their own point of view, were especially eager to emphasize and cause to triumph the ideal of justice and humanity, wherein they saw the very heart of the patriotism of France."
Of the patriotism which animated the youth of France on the outbreak of the present war, M. Boutroux says: "They were happy and proud to feel in accordance with French tradition, that they were not only the soldiers of France but soldiers of the world; not only the defenders of their country, but also the champions of the rights of all nationalities. . . . Our young soldiers' letters tell of a solidarity, a sense of common duty, which effaces all differences of opinion."
Under the necessity of fighting for the very existence of France, M. Boutroux shows that the distinction existing between traditional patriotism and nationalistic patriotism completely disappears. It is only too evident that the preservation of France is necessary for upholding the ideal to which she has consecrated herself. . . . How can we help feeling greater love than ever for this France of ours, which, throughout her whole history, has proved herself a lover of moral greatness, of beauty and generosity? Moral unity has thus been achieved, the heart of France, ever yours!

Mr. Murray, agent at Shediac, is retiring from the service, and Mr. Breaux, of Sackville, goes to Shediac. Robt. Murray, formerly operator at Shediac, goes to Colbrook. YOU CAN'T EARN MONEY WHEN YOU'RE LAID UP
There are a lot of people in the town who cannot afford to be sick. Perhaps none of you feel that you can, but certainly some of you can't, for as soon as you are sick, your wages stop and worry and debts begin to pile up. So soon as you feel run-down and worn out, no matter what the cause, it is to take something just as quick as you can to build up strength and health. Make yourself more comfortable and provide against serious sickness.
We don't believe there is any other medicine made that will do as much towards saving your health and thus helping you save your money as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is a medicine that is right at the trouble and relieves it by toning the nerves, enriching the blood, and giving new strength to the system. It is a whole body, not just a part, means of alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. Its strength and health-giving power is due to pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites, long endorsed by successful physicians, the one for its food value, the other for its tonic value. Here, for the first time, they are combined, and the result is a real nerve, blood and body-building medicine—a real strengthener that we are proud to tell you about. You don't need to hesitate in using it, because if it doesn't do all we say it will and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. THE WAR NEWS.

Apparently not discouraged by the failure of previous prophecies, Herr Von Jagow, the German under secretary for foreign affairs, is said to have predicted that the Russians will be "smashed" by the end of February, the French by the end of March, Britain by the middle of May and all of Germany's enemies defeated before June.

opening of his brilliant address that it had seemed to him when asked to discuss this subject of the war that everything which could be said had already been spoken, but his audience, however much they may have heard or read, must be able to see the whole matter in a new and clearer light as a result of the application of his trained and alert mind to an analysis of the whole situation.

MR. FLEMING AGAIN

The Hon. J. K. Fleming has been re-elected to the New Brunswick legislature in the person of his candidate, Mr. B. Frank Smith. The Fleming influence in provincial politics is still paramount in Carleton county. This is bad for Carleton county and bad for the province.

The electors of Carleton county will of course get only such representation as they desire. If they desire Mr. Fleming's candidate, and are satisfied with Mr. Fleming's methods, the rest of the province can only regret their choice and the impression their choice will convey to the rest of Canada concerning the state of politics in New Brunswick.

Today's cables tell us that the heaviest fighting in the west is in Lower Alsace, where General Pau is in command of the French troops, and is making progress despite fierce resistance and the continual reinforcement of the Germans. It is estimated that a quarter of a million men are engaged in the operations around Stenay, Cernay and Thann. The Austrians have resumed operations against the Serbians, but suffered a minor defeat in the first contact.

It is believed in London that the crushing defeat of the Turks by the Russians in the Caucasus has completely changed the situation, and is likely to compel the Turks to remain on the defensive. The Russian invasion of Hungary is also expected to have important results.

A military observer with the British army headquarters at the front describes the situation as more favorable for the Allies than at any time since the war began, and that the enemy is now kept very largely on the defensive, contenting himself with counter attacks to relieve the steady and fatal pressure of the allied forces.

JUDGE RUSSELL'S ADDRESS

In his address before the Canadian Club last evening Mr. Justice Russell set forth with great clearness one view of the cause of the present war. It is that the German people have been so absorbed in the task of securing the greatest efficiency in regard to internal affairs that they have left without question the whole external policy of the country in the hands of the Kaiser, whose vaulting ambition has dragged the country into this great conflict.

Mr. Justice Russell gave a very illuminating review of German expansion from the time Bismarck became the power behind the throne of Prussia, and imposed his policy of blood and iron upon the Prussian people, to the consolidation of the German Empire after the war with France. The unwarrantable seizure of Schleswig-Holstein from Denmark, the defeat and exclusion of Austria from the Germanic Confederation, the war with France and the seizure of Alsace-Lorraine, the solidation of the German states, with the Prussian king as Emperor, were shown by the eloquent speaker to have been the accomplishment of Bismarck's policy, which also built up an absolutism that became his own undoing when the Emperor took the reins of power into his own hands.

Judge Russell pointed out that it was quite natural that German historians and philosophers, reviewing the remarkable history of the period and the amazing success of Germany, should get the idea that still greater successes and even world domination might await the German people. This is exactly the notion that seems to have seized the German mind, and while Bismarck may originally have been responsible, and may to a great extent have imposed his policy upon a somewhat passive people, there seems good reason to believe that the people themselves, or the great majority of them, have been so influenced by their philosophers that they are today much less passive and much more intelligent and sincere, however misguided they may be, in their support of the policy of the Kaiser and the militarist group by which he is surrounded.

In sharply criticizing the government of the United States for not denouncing the violation of the neutrality of Belgium, which was one of the signatories to the Hague Convention she was herself pledged to observe, Judge Russell was able to quote no less an authority than Ex-President Roosevelt. It must be noted, however, that neither the Belgian government nor the British government has as yet protested as vigorously as do Judge Russell and Mr. Roosevelt. The Judge paid a warm and deserved tribute to the attitude of the people of the United States, and the unqualified expressions of sympathy on the part of their leading men with the cause of the Allies.

Mr. Justice Russell observed at the Francis Wilson, a popular comedian, always has some good stories. Here is one of his new ones:

"Mrs. Matthews very rarely visited her husband's office, but one afternoon, while out with a friend, she chanced to be in the locality of the office, and so the two women dropped in for a few moments. The small office force included five girls, all of them in the 'squad' class and all exceedingly pretty.

"During the course of the conversation which went on while the two women rested, the friend asked: 'Did you do up much fruit this season, Emily?'"

"Not yet, Grace," replied Mrs. Matthews, with a glance around the room, "but I have ably made up my mind to can a few peaches."

DYING MOTHER HAD WISH.

Episode Proves K. of K. Is Not Devoid of Sentiment.

London, Jan. 8.—The Daily Chronicle says Lord Kitchener is so generally credited with an iron character, devoid of sentiment in matters affecting his great purpose, that the following story of his thoughtfulness is of special interest.

A Sunderland woman with five sons in the army lay dying. Her one desire was to see her boys again. Through the officers of the local Salvation Army four of the sons serving England reached home in twenty-four hours, their expenses being paid by the authorities. The fifth son, however, was at the front and there seemed little chance of the woman's wish being fulfilled.

But the Salvationist wired to the War Office, and back came a reply over Lord Kitchener's signature saying that if the son could be found he would be sent home. At length a wife to say the man was on his way home, and eventually he landed in time to see his mother. The authorities had paid his expenses and gave him a seven days' furlough and ration money.

N. B. BIBLE SOCIETY HAS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Judge Forbes presided last evening at the annual meeting of the St. John Branch, New Brunswick Bible Society, at which all the officers were re-elected. The meeting was considered one of the most successful of the society. His Honor gave an account of the activities of the British and Foreign Bible Society generally and, dealing with the province, said that last year there had been raised in New Brunswick $4,000 and in St. John $1,400. They had remitted $5,000 to the parent society, and for colporteur work they had Dr. Heine, who worked among the foreign immigrants and Mr. Elders, who worked in the lumber camps of the province. Then there were two Bible women in the city, Miss Wally and Miss Henderson. The society had purchased the Magee building for $12,000, of which $8,000 had been given by the British and Foreign Bible Society, and the rest had been raised locally. They intended to go forward with the work of adapting the building and were spending $2,000 on it.

Prior to the meeting the St. Andrew's choir gave a service of song and others who addressed the meeting were Mr. Hayes, Rev. Mr. McPherson, Rev. P. P. McKim and Rev. M. E. Connon, of the Portland street church, who spoke of the Bible in national life.

TWO PERFORMANCES OF RED CROSS CONCERT

Those who attended the concert given last night in the Star Theatre, North End, were delighted with the splendid programme provided. The audience was large, particularly so considering the disagreeable weather, and showed appreciation of the programme by hearty applause, each number being well received.

In the afternoon a matinee was given at which many children were present. The concert was under the able direction of Mrs. Irving D. Appleby, on whom is reflected much credit for its success as she has been actively engaged for some time in its preparation. She is deeply grateful to all who assisted in addition to the proceeds from the sale of tickets, there were some other receipts from the selling of candy by a committee composed of Misses Cora Higgins, Katie Jackson, Josephine Mullin, Marion McCormick and Marion Dever. Miss Selma Hunter was in charge of the ticket booth.

The programme in detail follows: Reading, The English Flag, Miss Stella McKay; violin solo, Thomas Bailey, with piano accompaniment by Miss Edith Bailey; Japanese folk song, ten young girls, Misses Eleanor Mullin, Muriel Hawker, Margaret Dever, Doris Hawker, Jean Giggie, Gladys McGinley, Grace Parkinson, Alice Floyd, Lilian McCormick and Dorothy Donald; selected reading, Steve C. Hurley; solo, Miss Florence Hain; dramatic sketch, "A Private Dining Room in a Boarding School" by six young ladies, Misses Josephine Connor, Sabra and Ripahs Mahony, Kathleen O'Mally, May Caples and Betty Appleby; reading, The Song of the Camp, Miss Lillian Appleby; reading, Dutch dialect, Miss Betty Appleby; solo, Miss Josephine Connor; closing chorus, Dear Old England.

Special pleasure was afforded in the dramatic sketch "A Private Dining Room in a Boarding School" which was under the direct supervision of Mrs. Edward P. O'Toole. The work of the young ladies in this piece was excellent, particularly that of Miss Sabra Mahony and Miss Betty Appleby of Buffalo. It reflected credit upon Mrs. O'Toole. The solo of Miss Hain and the readings by Mr. Hurley won special favor.

Gratitude is expressed for assistance given by Barnes & Co. for the gift of tickets; J. & McMillan for programmes; D. McArthur for decorations; M. R. A. Ltd. for rugs, and Jacobson & Co. for furniture, as well as to many friends who donated candy for the affair.

LASH COMING, SAYS TORONTO MAGISTRATE

Grand Jury "Exceeded Authority" But Cadi Believes They Spoke "Frankly and Honestly"

(Toronto News.)

Paul Courian was sentenced to six months in the Ontario Reformatory today by Judge Coatsworth who found him guilty of assault on a young girl in the crowds at the Exhibition grounds.

Chas. Henderson said he had known Courian for seventeen years. It was impossible, he said, for Courian to sit still in any excitement.

T. C. Robbette pleaded against a jail term. Something was beginning in Courian's brain, he suggested.

"Brain storm," intimated R. H. Greer, who then reminded Mr. Robbette that the grand jury had publicly taken exception to His Honor's clemency in such cases and that His Honor had felt it keenly.

"I would maintain my independence," said Mr. Robbette, "and tell the grand jury to go plump to Hades."

"The grand jury did exceed their duty," said Judge Coatsworth mildly, "but they spoke so frankly and honestly I could not find it in my heart to resent it. They said their children would not be safe in the streets if more stringent methods were not taken. The day is not far distant when we shall have to add the lash."

COURT-MARTIAL IN CASE OF DESERTION

(Newcastle Advocate.)

A case of court-martial will come up in the court here next week, when Leo Legere, of Bathurst, will face a charge of desertion. When he broke out of the garrison here, he was suspected of selling liquor to the soldiers, and on hearing that he was being watched he left town and went to Bathurst.

He was arrested there by Chief Chamberlain under the Canada Temperance Act, convicted and fined $50. After his trial he returned to Bathurst.

The Militia Defence Department took up the matter of his desertion and an agent of the Thiel Detective Agency was sent here to locate him. Through Captain Jones at the garrison here, Sergeant N. A. Mackenzie was despatched to accompany the detective to Bathurst, where they found Legere and placed him under arrest on a charge of desertion and brought him back to Newcastle, where he was handed over to the chief of police who lodged him in jail.

He will face a trial by court-martial here.

The Beginning of The End

In any general survey of the history of the Great War in its fifth month, the moral rather than the military effect of the operations takes first place. For if the German attack in the opening months might fairly be likened to a forest fire sweeping irresistibly forward over vast districts, ever widening its area of destruction and mounting ever higher in its violence, it is not less true that, December came, there was east and west in Europe an evident slackening of the fire—giving competence on the part of those whose necessity it was to limit, control, extinguish the blaze. Looking to the operation in December, it was plain that while there had been no success yet in actually extinguishing the conflagration, it had been limited, circumscribed, confined to the narrowest bounds since it broke out. In places it was actually flung back; at no point was it permitted to range against many of the districts which it had swept over in the early days of August and September. In September it was Paris which had been in danger. In October, in November, the German drive for the coast, for Calais and Dunkirk, threatened to conquer for the Kaiser that "window on the Channel" which for all Pan-Germans had been the dream of all dreams, the first step in the series which was to acquire for Germany her "place in the sun."

"Digging In" On The Firing Line

(From the January Number of Popular Mechanics Magazine.) Lying flat on the ground, alternately digging with his bayonet, and snatching up the loosened earth from the top of his breast, a soldier hastily makes at his side a trench which extends from the head to the knees, placing each little scoopful as he digs in a pile at his feet. The trench is made with the utmost caution, for bullets are whistling past only a few inches above the soldier's head, and any part of his body would mean almost certain death. When this shallow trench is made, the soldier cautiously rolls into it. Under this slight cover he then begins to dig another and deeper trench at his side, but one that is long enough this time to take his body. If he lives to complete the task, he has made what is known as a "lying down trench." He has done his best to protect himself from rifle fire but not from shrapnel or the flying fragments of bursting shells. This is not an ordinary instance but a typical case. It is one phase of the "digging in" process which is one of the biggest features of the biggest war the world has ever known. When a column of soldiers has advanced until it can advance no farther, and the men are ordered to hold their exposed position, they "dig themselves in" in this fashion. Perhaps they are compelled to remain where they are, for a retreat over exposed ground is often as dangerous as an advance. As soon as night comes, trenching tools are brought forward, and the little trenches made under the day are enlarged, deepened until they are continuous, and furnish cover in which men may stand and move about safe from rifle fire, but always in danger from shell fire and shrapnel. In this shelter the soldier has dug for himself he may remain for weeks, or the trench may be abandoned in a few minutes or a few hours for an advance or a retreat. In the face of modern weapons, infantry troops fighting long in the open, simply get themselves slaughtered, and the first thing an army does after its preliminary advance has been stopped is to dig itself in.

This war is therefore primarily one of field intrenchments. Much has been written before this about field intrenchments and their importance in modern warfare. But a battle line 800 miles long, extending from the North Sea through northern France into Alsace, consisting of practically continuous lines of intrenchments, so securely held that neither side could make any material advance in weeks, is a thing so big that it had apparently never been dreamed of. Along this battle field the country is cut up, not by two parallel lines of intrenchments alone, but by numerous trenches, some of which have been occupied repeatedly by first one army and then the other as the fortune of battle wavered along the battle line. There are new and half-finished trenches, trenches with shrapnel-proof shelters and with zig-zag excavated approaches from the rear, abandoned trenches and trenches that have been wrecked by artillery fire. So carefully are the trenches and their occupants concealed that the battle field would have much of the time the appearance of a deserted country, if it were not for the bursting shells and shrapnel. Back of the firing line, on both sides of the great conflict men have been busy for weeks constructing trenches for the army to fall back on in case of retreat. Since this work is not done under fire, these trenches are carefully made on selected ground, often motor-drawn plows being used to break ground for them. Since men not only fight in the trenches, but also live in them, in them, the cave shelters have become one of the common features of the intrenchments on both sides of the battle field, and, crude as they are, they furnish the one homelike touch of the war. Here are found dishes, simple cooking utensils, and the ever present coffee or tea pot, the latter being indispensable for the English soldier in spite

BISMARCK'S BLOOD AND IRON POLICY CAUSE OF PRESENT GREAT WAR

Mr. Justice Russell of Halifax Discusses the War and Sharply Criticizes Inaction of the United States Government

Addressing the Canadian Club last evening, Mr. Justice Russell of Halifax traced the present war back to the inauguration of the blood and iron policy of Bismarck. When the latter became the real power in Prussia he imposed his will upon the people of that country and built up an absolutism which is today represented by the Kaiser. The seizure of Schleswig-Holstein, the ousting of Austria and securing first place for Prussia among the Germanic states, the war with France and the consolidation of the German Empire under the leadership of Prussia were all the result of Bismarck's policy, and he remained the absolute dictator until the present Emperor seized the reins of power in his own hands. Bismarck lived long enough to realize in his own person the effect of his own policy, and to be troubled by doubts and remorse as to the justice and wisdom of that policy. Judge Russell said that the German people have been so absorbed in home affairs that they have left the conduct of the foreign affairs without question in the hands of the Kaiser, and in respect to the relation between ruler and people they are today where the people of England were in the time of Charles I. Bismarck's policy of blood and iron had sowed the wind, and today his country is reaping the whirlwind. Dazzled by the great expansion and wonderful development of Germany her historians and philosophers had dreamed dreams of universal dominion, but in this war the Kaiser had made the fatal mistake of not learning at the outset who would be his allies and who would be his enemies. He had been completely misinformed with regard to the British Empire, while Italy's declaration that she was not called upon to join Germany, because the latter had entered upon an offensive and not a defensive war, was the most complete condemnation of Germany's course.

Referring to the attitude of the United States, Judge Russell paid a very warm tribute to the friendliness of the people of that country, and the outspoken advocacy by their leaders of thought of the cause of the Allies. He condemned President Wilson and his cabinet, however, for not having denounced the violation of the neutrality of Belgium and the atrocities committed by the Germans in that country. He was able to fortify his views by quoting a strong denunciation of the failure of the American government to protest by Ex-President Roosevelt, in a very strong article in the last issue of the Independent. The Judge, however, pointed out that we must not wait for the United States or for the intervention of any other power, but rely upon ourselves and make every preparation to carry on the war until German militarism has been overcome.

A hearty vote of thanks, moved by J. Hunter White and Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, who spoke in terms of the highest appreciation of the address, was tendered by President Bridges to Dr. Russell, who in a brief response pointed out that it would be a lamentable and futile ending of the war if it did not lead to the organization of such an international league as would prevent forever the recurrence of such a conflict.

A robin was seen a few days ago on the lawn of Frank P. Carpenter, of Manchester, N. H. How it has survived the rigors of the winter so far is a mystery, and why he stayed here, instead of going south with his kind, is likewise a mystery. Mr. Carpenter's man has been seriously thinking of capturing the creature, putting it in a cage and shipping it to some point in the far South with instructions to free the bird.

NEW YORK OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHER

Escapes Nervous Breakdown—Strength Gradually Ebbing Away. Made Well and Strong by Vinol.

New York City:—"I have found Vinol to be a godsend as a reconstructive tonic for a run-down constitution. I am an official photographer and for a long time I suffered from weakness and general debility, and soon realized that my strength was fast leaving me. I tried different tonics without benefit, but one day I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it. Before I had taken two bottles I had gained in health and strength so I could do 10% more work than before. Vinol is the best tonic I ever took and I cannot say enough in its praise to do it justice."—WILLIAM KOHLHOFF, 4 Irving Place, New York.

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the cod's livers aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in overcoming such conditions.

If you are weak, sickly, run-down, and overworked try a bottle of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, with the understanding we will return your money if it does not help you.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES

The Imperial Life Reports a Very Satisfactory Year's Business.

That the European war is not having the disastrous effect upon the business of our Canadian financial institutions that might have been expected is daily becoming more apparent. Very satisfactory reports have already been published by some of the banks and now the Life Insurance companies know in a general way the success which has attended their operations during 1914. If the experience of The Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada is any criterion this great business has again demonstrated its ability to weather any financial storm, to provide security which can stand the test of any business disturbance and to pay to its patrons increased profits while hundreds of industrial and commercial institutions are passing their dividends.

The Imperial Life Assurance Co. report that their new business for 1914 was practically the same as that of 1913, and that the loss of business through lapses was very much below what was expected. The death losses were only about 60 per cent of the expected.

A particularly gratifying feature of the year's business was the opportunity afforded during the past few weeks for securing self-secured investments at prices to yield higher rates of interest than ever before. This did not effect appreciably the interest earnings in 1914, but it will have a very beneficial effect in 1915 and following years. The average rate of interest earned by The Imperial Life upon its investments in 1914 was again well above 7 per cent.

J. F. Weston, manager of The Imperial Life, states that with the growing appreciation of the value of life insurance in the minds of Canadians the prospects are bright for even a more successful business in 1915.

WHAT CAUSES COLDS?

This question and "How to Prevent Colds" is asked a thousand times every day. A cold is really a fever, not always caused by the weather but due to a disordered condition of the blood or lack of important food-elements. In changing seasons food-factors are essential because they distribute heat by enriching the blood and so render the body better able to withstand the varying elements. This is the underlying reason why the medicinal fats in Scott's Emulsion quickly overcome colds and build strength to prevent more serious sickness. It contains nature's medicinal fats, so skillfully prepared that the blood profits from every drop, and it is totally free from harmful drugs.

Young Mooney should make a good player with proper coaching. Walter Kitchen, of the Freshman class, although light, is showing up well in the practice. Horncastle, Gibson, Jewett, Edgcombe and others have turned out and will be heard from later.

JACK MARSHALL HOCKEY COACH

Producer of Champion Teams Long Identified With the Stanley Cup—Has His Own System

Few hockey players can claim more of a bowing acquaintance with the Stanley Cup than Jack Marshall, coach of the Toronto Hockey Club, present holder of the coveted silverware and champion of the world.

Jack can claim more than a nodding acquaintance. He and the cup have knocked around together for the last fifteen years. They have been on the team four or five seasons. Both have threatened to quit the game several times but they've never succeeded and the year of grace 1915, finds both still in the hockey ring.

Just at present the two are once again together. Jack can claim a slight edge over the cup, but Canadian hockey when he wakes up in the morning and begins to figure out some of his string in need of exercise, advice or the blue envelope.

Marshall is nearly as much of a hockey institution as the cup. He started the game away back in the dim ages, 1884, with the Montreal High School. After that he joined the old Point St. Charles club of Montreal and for four years stuck to them, turning down even the haughty Montreal Victorias, the aristocrats and founders of the game as we have it today, when they invited him to fill a place on their forward line.

In 1889 Marshall took Greeley's advice and went west to Winnipeg and in 1900 came east with the Winnipeg Victorias after the Stanley Cup then held by the Montreal Shamrocks. Old-time hockey fans will remember that series in the Montreal Arena and how the Vics lost by a single goal in the odd game of the three. The cup itself at that time demanded the best two in three games. Marshall had cut his foot with a skate and did not play but next year he came back with the Vics and this time had the honor of playing on a Stanley Cup team.

In the summer of 1901 Marshall came east with the New Westminister lacrosse club, stayed in Montreal and in 1902 the Winger Wheel aggregation put him on another Stanley Cup team by going to Winnipeg and wrestling with the Vics from the Vics. In 1908 Montreal, with Marshall on their forward line, defended the cup against Winnipeg but lost it to Ottawa. In 1909 Marshall, Jimmy Gardner, Hyland and several others formed the Wanderers. They won their league title and played one game at Montreal with Ottawa for the cup but a dispute arose and the series was never finished. Marshall was still with the Wanderers in 1908 living in Toronto but going down east for the games. In 1906 he remained in Toronto but did not play.

In 1907 he joined the Montagnards in the Federal League, which was the Wanderers and was again on a Stanley Cup team with them in 1910 after playing two seasons, with the Wanderers when the Wanderers were in the City League at St. John.

Marshall has a system of coaching all his own. He does not drive his players but he tells them what they don't know. The Bluebirds and lost the first three games and needed a coach badly. Jack again intended settling down and quitting the active end of the game—bringing Toronto its first Stanley Cup.

NO. 4 TEAM WINS BY LARGE MARGIN

Walk Away in the Five-Men-Team League—Giants Defeat Leaders in City League.

In the Five Men Team League on Victoria alleys last evening Team No. 4 took four points from Team No. 5. The game was one sided, thus diminishing the usual enthusiasm among the spectators. Riley led the winners with an average of 89.2-3 and Ted the losers with 102.2-4. The following was the official score:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Total, Points. Riley: 446, 476, 476, 1401. Lewis: 88, 76, 96, 260. Lewis: 86, 74, 89, 249. Labbe: 82, 90, 77, 249. Teed: 108, 114, 94, 316. Hill: 80, 81, 82, 243.

Some excellent bowling is seen daily on the Vics alleys. On Wednesday six men did exceptionally well in competition. Their scores were: Riley 119, Covey 102, Howard 114, H. R. McLellan 115, and Sweeney 116.

City League In the City League on Black's alleys last evening the Giants took three points from the Tigers. The scores of both teams were the lowest made on the alleys for some time, probably due to weather conditions. The following is the score:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Total, Points. Giants: 83, 87, 92, 262. Cleary: 83, 82, 79, 244. Morgan: 92, 101, 98, 294. Dever: 93, 82, 88, 263. White: 101, 80, 88, 269.

THE TURF SPEEDERS

During the last harness racing season the increase in the number of fast and slow standard speed performers was a record breaker in turf history, while the fast marks made both in the world's championship table and season's marks were beyond all expectations. The complete returns show that during the season a total of twenty-seven names were added to the 210 trotting list.

The new list is headed by Brighton S. Linda Wrona and Margaret Druhen, all with records of 2:03; while twenty-three took records of 2:08 or better, which is ten per cent of the total number of trotters in the entire division. In the whole list thirty-two of the total gained their marks in starts against time, records which will not interfere with their eligibility next year, while of the twenty-three in the 2:08 class four were started against time, indicating that the fastest performers made their best showing in actual races.

All seventeen that reduced their former fast marks also took their records in races except Anvil, who heads the list with 2:02. Of these five entered the 2:08 list, while two that were in that class—Anvil and Peter Volo—brought their marks to the lower figures. This brings the total number of 2:08 trotters up to 48. The average record of the list is exactly 2:04, while previous to 1914 only sixteen horses were in the 2:04 list, some of which secured their marks in time trials, and two behind wind shields, while this year all except one were race records.

The Pacers For the first time in five years the increase in the number of fast pacers falls short in comparison with the number of fast trotters. A total of 110 new names were added to the season's fast racing list, while thirty-nine pacers already in the 2:10 section previous to 1914 reduced their records, indicating that the speed exhibition paces were phenomenal during the season, and it was wonderful that many world's championship marks were lowered or equalled, all in actual racing. No less than ten of the new two-tenths entered the 2:05 class while sixteen others paced to records from 2:05 1/2 to 2:06.

Headed by Anna Bradford, 2:05 1/2, a sensational three-year-old, paced fastest twenty-six in the new 2:05 list, showed an average speed of a shade faster than 2:04, while the average record of ten in the 2:05 division was a little faster than 2:03 1/2, a speed exhibition which was never thought possible before this year.

Of the thirty-nine pacers in the new reduced list, three entered the 2:05 class, in races, headed by Directum L. 2:58, Frank Bogash, Jr., 2:59 1/2; and William, 2:00 flat, all world's two-minute pacers in races. Fifteen in this list paced 2:05 or faster, and as only three were in the 2:05 class previously, this division added one-eighth of a second, making twenty-two altogether, or over 25 per cent of the total number of 2:05 pacers in the complete list prior to 1914.

The average record of the fifteen in the 2:05 list was faster than 2:02 1/2. Granting for the purpose of explanation twenty-six in this list paced 2:05 or equal to their general average of 2:02 1/2, the increase of fast performers for the season becomes sensational, as previous to 1914 the total number of 2:02 1/2 or faster performers was thirty-nine, including the windshield records.

In the trotting section twelve new championship records were made this year with surprising average speed reductions, while three others were equalled. Pacers of the calibre of Directum L., Frank Bogash, Jr., Anna Bradford, R. H. Brett, William, and lesser lights made twenty-five changes in championship records, while only one was equalled. The "Lion" of the trotters was Etawah, a 1-year-old colt and a race horse, who set Peter Volo next in line for age and sex. The former made four new championship marks and tied one. In spite of the great performances of Directum L. and Frank Bogash, Jr., R. H. Brett holds most of the new championship figures as a four-year-old gelding; and a race-pacer, with six to his credit; Directum L. has five, Bogash, Jr. three, William, three, and Anna Bradford, two. The other marks were distributed among six.

OUR INDUSTRIAL INDEPENDENCE Independence should be the glorious privilege of every country under the sun. That's the thing that the Allies are fighting for, to establish the right for every country, no matter how small or how weak to run its own affairs in its own way. Kaiserism is dictatorship. It aimed to dominate Europe. It would fit its eastern regime on to other nations, smash other peoples and then extract indemnities enough to recoup Germany for the trouble she had taken to do the smashing.

That was the modest programme mapped out by the Kaiser and his crew.

WAS SOON ARRANGED Some comment was caused along the harbor front by the alleged refusal of the Atlantic Sugar Refiners Co., to allow the admiral's patrol steamer to moor at their wharf, and a report on the matter was made to J. C. Chesley, marine agent here. Mr. Chesley said this morning that the matter was easily adjusted, the only trouble being that the company did not understand the admiral's right to use private docks when required.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

The Parish Councillors—Presentations to Soldiers—Basket Ball League Organized

It is reported in the street that the government party has already chosen a slate to carry out their will and wishes at the next parish council. Two of the old councillors are said to be on the list and the third halls from Beaconsfield which section has been claiming for some time that they should have a man of their own. So far as can be learned there is no talk of opposition yet though that is likely to develop.

Somebody resembling a machine gun hard at work on the French frontier, caused some disturbance on Thursday evening, when the village was enjoying its weekly rest from business cares. The noise was traced to a gasoline wood sawing machine. After a night of the passers by could hardly account for the rapid shot like barbs with pauses between spasms, coming out of the darkness and in a prohibition locality.

The Climbers' Class of the Methodist Sunday school met in their room in the church vestry last evening and enjoyed a social time in games and impromptu entertainment. Refreshments were served at the close and the whole affair was voted a pronounced success. A club to meet once a week in under consideration. The young men will celebrate the anniversary of their class on Sunday evening by a special service in which they will participate and there were present Senator Daniel, Mayor Frink, D. Mullin, G. E. Barbour and James Gilchrist, the secretary.

Mr. Gilchrist submitted the following report of receipts and expenditures which was adopted:—

HAD IT ROUGH

Hesperian's Voyage Stormy—Some Canadians From Salisbury Plain The Allan Limer Hesperian arrived in port at 8 o'clock this morning and later docked at No. 6 berth, Sand Point. She was due here yesterday afternoon, but was delayed for twelve hours, owing to a violent storm. She came via Halifax, where she landed about eighty passengers and several thousand bags of mail. Among the passengers were twenty-seven returned Canadians from Salisbury Plain. There were also eight employees of the British government who came to Canada to purchase saddlery and other goods. The captain this morning said that the passage across the ocean was one of the worst he had experienced in years. About sixty passengers were brought to St. John.

NEWFOUNDLAND SOCIETY HAVE SOLDIERS AS GUESTS

Doing this as they have done all other things well since their organization, some 70 members of the Newfoundland Mutual Benefit Society, met in their hall in St. James street and tendered a reception to some eight men Newfoundlanders who have come to the colors and are going to the front with New Brunswick's men to fight for king and empire. There was also a warm welcome for another Newfoundland visitor, Mr. Flynn. The committee in charge had arranged a nice programme of speeches, recitations and music and a tempting tea was served. A delightful time, one of the best the society has yet enjoyed was spent by all.

The following toast list was carried out: The King, proposed by Isaac Mercer, musically honored; Canada, proposed by the chairman, responded to by Thomas Sparks; Newfoundland, Percy Gibbon and Arthur Green; Our Society, E. Vey and I. Mercer; The Ladies, E. Clark and John Curtis; Our Soldiers, the chairman, Privates Keefe and O'Brien. Three cheers were given for the soldiers and mention was made of the fact that of the volunteers in St. John, for first and second contingents fifty were from Newfoundland. Entertainment was provided during the evening by Miss May Sparks and John Nicholls.

FREIGHT CONGESTION

Unexpected delay in the arrival of steamers, it is understood, has resulted in an unprecedented congestion of winter port freight on the C. P. R. One official said this morning that between the city and McAdam there were as many as 1,500 cars of freight while both elevators on the west side were full of grain. This is expected to be pretty well cleared out in the course of a few days, as there were eleven steamers in the harbor today, and others expected will tax the accommodation of the port. The C. P. R. has nineteen steamers under charter for this winter's business at St. John.
