C. I. R. EARNINGS SET NEW HIGH RECORD

NET REVENUE FOR 8 MONTHS UP 148 PER CENT

Steady Improvement Shown During Last Five Years

GROSS ALSO MORE

Operating Ratio Gradually Reduced, With Period to Aug. 31 Best Yet

Canadian Press MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Increased earnings and a decreasing operating ratio are shown in the financial statement of the Canadian National Railways, issued today, which deals with the summary of earnings and in the expenses for August just past, and also with the summary of results for eight months of 1926 in comparison with similar periods from 1922 and covering the years of the amalgamation of the system.

BEST RECORD IN HISTORY The net earnings for the first eight months of 1926 amounted to $30,585,074.68, as against $8,285,691.81 for the first eight months of 1925, an increase of $22,299,382.87, or 270 per cent, equivalent to a gain of 148 per cent being the best record in gross and net for such periods during the history of the system.

With increasing earnings, working expenses have shown slight advance, but the ratio of expenses to earnings, the operating ratio, has been steadily decreasing when compared with the similar month period of 1925, while for the first eight months of 1926, the ratio was 85.22 compared with 89.90 a year previous.

FIVE YEARS COMPARED The favorable development of the operating ratio is shown by the following summary of the net financial results during the similar eight-month periods of five years:

Table with columns: Year, Net Earnings, Ratio, Operating Expenses, Ratio. Rows for 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926.

For the eight months which terminated with the close of August, 1926, the gross earnings of the Canadian National Railways were $105,783,341. During the first eight months of 1925, the gross earnings were $106,021,097, an increase of $242,746.84 during August, 1926, an increase for the year of $2,715,074.57, or 2.6 per cent.

During these periods the working expenses in 1926 amounted to $144,955,266.27, compared with $188,275,303.19, an increase during 1926 of $42,718,037.18, equal to 4.83 per cent.

HEAVYWEIGHT BOUT IS UNLIKELY FOR BRITAIN LONDON, Sept. 27.—Sporting writers are voicing in their newspapers, views on the proposed Gene Tunney-Jack Dempsey fight, next year at the Wembley Exhibition arena. They give special attention to a reported demand by Tunney for a purse equal in amount to that received by Dempsey, when Tunney defeated him last Thursday night, in Philadelphia. Several of the writers including the expert of "Sporting Life" concur that it would be difficult to obtain admission money here to satisfy such a demand, let alone what Dempsey himself also would want. "The British," says Sporting Life "are not educated to open air boxing as are the Americans," another expert declares that no glove fight in London would draw more than $125,000.

WHITE STAR CO. MAKES NEW YORK ITS TERMINUS

Gives Up Portland as Winter Port; May Use Halifax for One Ship

MONTREAL, Sept. 26—Definite decision to make New York the winter terminus of the White Star Line, Canadian service, instead of Portland as has been the case for some years past, was made known on Saturday when the Montreal management issued their winter sailing schedule. It is expected that Halifax will be the terminal port for the last two trips of the winter season, one of the White Star liners making its turn-round at the Nova Scotia port during the last week in March and another the first part of April. Halifax will, otherwise, be solely a port of call for passenger liners on the Canadian service sailing to or from New York.

It has been said that the number of passengers embarking at Portland did not warrant making that the terminus for the passenger liners. The volume of freight available at that port will be taken care of, however, by the freight service operated by the White Star Line, the Welshman, Huronian, Star Line, the Welshman, Huronian, Colonial and possibly the Oxonian, making their winter terminus there. These steamers will make their trans-Atlantic voyages by way of Halifax, provided that there is sufficient cargo to warrant their putting into that port. There are to be two distinct services to and from Halifax, one being from Liverpool via Cobh, and returning by the same route, the other being from Antwerp via Boulogne and Southampton, returning via Plymouth and Cherbourg.

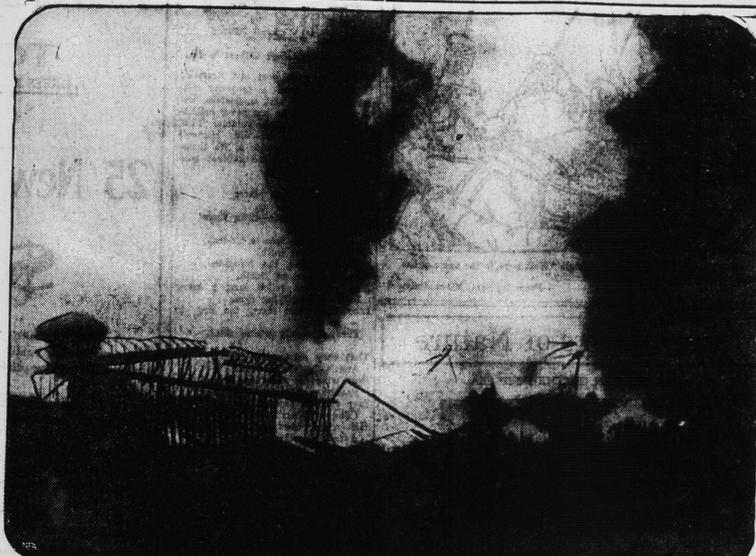

Six of the White Star Line ships will be employed on both services: the Doric, Reginia, Penland, Cedric and Celtic carrying cabin and tourist third-class passengers, while the Baltic will carry first, second and third-class passengers.

FOREIGN TRADE JUMPS

OTTAWA, Sept. 26—The average of Canada's total foreign trade continues to increase. In the five months ended August 31 last, it was $900,294,379 compared with $842,378,886 for the corresponding period in 1925.

WHERE TWO DIED IN FONCK CRASH

End of New York-Paris Flight—A stop-up of the giant Sikorsky biplane, the S-35, after it crashed in its take-off from Roosevelt Field and burst into flames. Charles Clavier, radio operator, and Jacob Isamont, mechanic, are trapped in the blazing ruins. Captain Rene Fonck and Lt. Lawrence W. Curtin escaped with minor injuries.

Deaths

George A. Gambin, Sr.

Word came to the city early this morning that George A. Gambin, sr., had passed away at his residence, 100 St. John St., at 1 a. m. in the 78th year of his age. His death will be heard of with very deep regret by a wide circle of friends throughout the province. Although he had been in failing health for nearly a year he had been able to be about until about a fortnight previous. He was born in Studholme, Kings county, and for a short time, in his younger days, he was in the meat business in Sussex. For the last 30 years he had resided at Cody's and on March 12 of this year Mr. and Mrs. Gambin celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home there. Besides his wife, Mr. Gambin is survived by four sons, seven daughters, two brothers, four sisters, many grandchildren and several great-grandchildren. The sons are James R. Gambin, of Cole's Island; George A. and W. H. Gambin, of Saint John, and H. S. Gambin, of Cole's. The daughters are Mrs. R. E. C. Clark, of South Deerfield, Mass.; Mrs. S. E. Perry, of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. E. L. Northrup, of Cole's Island;

Mrs. J. B. Hetherington, of Cody's; Mrs. H. Hickson, of Fredericton; Mrs. E. M. Yalls, of Centreville, and Mrs. W. C. Goodwin, of Boston.

The brothers and sisters reside in New Brunswick.

Mary A. Wayland

After an illness of several months Mrs. Mary A. Wayland, widow of James N. Wayland, died at the General Public Hospital on Sunday in the 73rd year of her age. Her illness had become critical only a short while ago and she entered the hospital on Saturday. Mrs. Wayland was of Loyalist descent and was the last surviving member of the Bain family, a daughter of Arnold and Margaret Bain. She was born at Little River and all her life had resided in that locality, where she was widely known and greatly respected by all who knew her. She loved. She was a faithful member of the Church of England. Her husband was for many years road supervisor for the parish of Simonds. One son and two daughters survive. The son is William J. Fox, of this city, and the daughter are Mrs. Fred Wayland, of South Bay, and Miss Gertrude Wayland, of Saint John. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon from Brennan's, 111 Paradise Row.

Mrs. C. M. Ellingwood

Mrs. Catherine M. Ellingwood, wife of John Shaw, who had been for many years a member of No. 2 fire department, and was formerly in the employ of G. S. and Fred Fisher, as a roofer, passed away on Saturday, and very many friends heard of his death with keen regret. Mr. Shaw had lived the greater part of his life in Lower Cove and was widely known throughout the city. He was held in universal respect and warm regard, and will be deeply mourned. He had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Andrew Heenan, of late years, and at the time of his death she was away on a visit in New York. Although he had not been in good health it was not realized that his condition was at all serious, and his death was a surprise. The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning at 8 a. m. from the residence of his son-in-law, Andrew Heenan, 124 St. James street, to St. John the Baptist church.

Charles J. L. Asbell

Charles John Leo Asbell died suddenly on Saturday morning, just two hours after he was striking with a painter's fall illness while working as a painter in the employ of A. McCallister. He had gone to his work as usual on Saturday morning, appearing to be in his customary good health, but complaining of a pain in the head he was conveyed to his home, 228 Waterloo street, and two doctors were called. As the case appeared serious he was taken across the street to the hospital but all medical care proved unavailing. He was a very popular young man and had lived all his life in Saint John. He was a member of the Holy Name Society of the Cathedral parish and had walked in the procession last Sunday.

Mr. Asbell is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Gertrude Callaghan, by three small children and by one brother, residing in the United States. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at 8 a. m. from his late residence.

DUNCAN REPORT NOT LIKELY TO BOOST UNION

Maritime Probe Findings Presented to State Secretary; Consideration Later

OTTAWA, Sept. 26—The report of the Maritime Rights Commission may not be made public for several days.

It has been announced to the government and is officially in the hands of the Secretary of State, Hon. Ferdinand Rinfret, who was sworn yesterday. Premier King stated yesterday that it would be examined at the earliest possible date. Unofficial forecasts says that the freight rates and the revival of trade are the chief subjects dealt with in the report. It will probably recommend some reduction in the freight rates to promote interprovincial trade between the eastern provinces and the rest of Canada. The extent to which the government ought to assume responsibility for the Saint John Valley Railway may be made the subject of a further separate investigation.

UNLIKELY TO URGE UNION

It is said to be unlikely that the report will recommend amalgamation of the three Maritime Provinces in the near future. Evidence adduced at the investigation is said by observers to indicate that any economy in administration effected by merging the three provinces will offset increased difficulty of dealing with the special problems of each province. Rehabilitation of industry in the Maritimes will be dealt with. It is not known whether or not the report will recommend government subsidies for the iron and steel industry, or government subsidies to facilitate transportation of the products of the Maritimes to the markets of the world.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 27, 1926.

THE CABINET.

The interest of the day naturally centres in the Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King's Cabinet. In spite of the quantity and variety of material on a government cannot have been altogether easy. Mr. King had to consider not only the abilities and experiences of those available, but necessarily had to take into consideration the adequate representation of the various sections into which Canada is naturally divided.

In forming his Cabinet Mr. King regarded the services of ten old stalwarts, including himself, and introduced seven recruits—if we include Col. Ralston for whom a seat must be found if he is to assume the portfolio of National Defence, as it is understood he will be asked to do. Those with previous cabinet experience are too well known to warrant comment. The newcomers are for the moment the most interesting.

Mr. W. D. Eiler of Kitchener, Ontario, is entrusted with an extremely difficult job as Minister of Customs. Mr. Robert Forke, the Liberal-Progressive leader, in accepting the Minister of Immigration, brings the rank and file of the Progressive Party into definite alliance with the Liberals. Mr. James Malcolm becomes Minister of Trade and Commerce and Mr. Peter Heenan becomes Minister of Labor. Both these come from Ontario and would appear to be appropriately located in the posts to which they are designated. Mr. Bernard Rinfret, as the new Secretary of State draws the interest of Maritime Canada in that his first duty will be to examine the recently submitted Duncan report.

Hon. P. J. Veniot becomes Postmaster General. Control of that department should allow Dr. Veniot ample time to devote his energy towards Maritime interests. Col. J. L. Ralston, another Maritime is designated, but not yet definitely appointed, Minister of Defence. Assuming this last materializes, the Maritimes will have a second and able champion in their cause. Col. Ralston, it will be remembered, presented the Maritime case before the Railway Commission and acquitted himself nobly thereat.

It is possible that Mr. King may make several changes and readjustments in his cabinet. For example it is suggested that Prince Edward Island may secure representation by the appointment of an additional minister and the splitting up of the Department of Marine and Fisheries. Be that as it may, Mr. King already has a strong cabinet. He also has a strong following in the House. With these two assets it should not be difficult to give Canada strong government and Canada desires nothing more ardently than that.

DEVELOP LONG REACH. Wealth poured into Florida because it had great attractions as a winter resort. It has just been demonstrated that as such a resort the state has its drawbacks. It lies in the path of storms which spread havoc and destruction. Of course the recent disaster will not deter people from going to Florida. The ruined centres will be rebuilt, and great numbers of people will go there in winter to escape the rigors of the northern winter. It becomes more and more the habit of American people to make holiday, and the number of those who can afford to go to pleasure resorts increases with the nation's wealth. In summer as well as in winter they seek a more agreeable climate than that of their own cities and towns.

The time must come when the merits of the Maritime Provinces will commend them to more motorists and passing travelers. Consider, for example, the dozen miles or more of the Saint John River known as Long Reach. The majestic stream is there from three quarters of a mile to a mile in width, largely with wooded hillsides, and with barely beaches and points here and there thrusting themselves into the stream, and sheltered coves that afford safe anchorage for craft of every kind. There is no finer cruising ground for yachts or motor craft, while the stretch of the Saint John river and lakes, and the Kennebecas, opens out to lure the voyager. The stage has been set by Nature. The climate is unsurpassed. No devastating storms ever sweep this great area. Why should not the shores of Long Reach be dotted with handsome villas, and its waters alive with pleasure craft. Why should there not be great hotels, with golf links and all the attractions the summer visitor requires? Why should not this region be a Florida of the north in summer, without the drawbacks of the southern climate? It is merely a matter of development and proper advertising. Our neighbors to the south entertain a warm regard for Canada, and Saint John is within easy reach of thirty or forty millions of their people. We have not attracted and cannot expect to attract the wealthier class until capital is invested as was done in California and in Florida, and a definite and intelligent advertising campaign is carried on in channels that will reach the people whose interest it is desired to attract.

DINNER STORIES

TO THE south of Atlanta not far from the federal penitentiary there is a statue that was erected where a famous controversy took place. On each side of the statue there is a group of cannon balls.

A young thing accompanied by her grandfather was observing where the great man fell. The old gentleman said solemnly: "And this is where the great colonel fell!" The girl's answer was quick: "No wonder, I almost tripped over it myself."

IN A LONG glistening Rolls Royce he glided up to the filling station, and called out, "Let's have some gas, please!" "How much you want?" asked the man in the overalls, opening the door. "Thirty cents was all he had in his pocket. The motorist struck by a sudden thought, put a hand in his pocket. Thirty cents was all he had in his clothes.

"One gallon" said he. The man in the overalls glanced over the big car again and then fixed the driver with a stare of utter disgust. "One gallon?" he asked, "watcher tryin' to do, wean it?"

IT is announced that Luis Pirpo, the Argentine heavyweight desires to have several fights in Canada. What have we ever done to the Argentine?

It is at least a gratifying fact, since Saint John has provided itself with a vocational high school, that it will be utilized to its capacity during the first term. Parents have not been slow to realize the advantages it offers for those who must enter gradual occupations as soon as their school days are over.

At the opening ceremonies of the one-hundred-and-seventy-third academic year of Columbia University, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of the University, during the course of his address, said:

"The mind expressing liberty always holds law subordinate to liberty's just domain, and never permits an invasion. The notion that man's liberty is the creation of another man's will is monstrous. There is nothing more sacred than human personality and its right to its own beliefs and conduct with proper regard for the rights of others. There is no right to be apart from the interests of the individual of whom the public is composed. In a sound organization of society each individual will gain by association and cooperation with his fellows, and only in this way will freedom of will be preserved."

"Liberty contests privilege, for privilege is something other than that excellence or possession which follows upon the just and righteous contests of liberty itself. Liberty also contests conformity, which is a hopeless attempt to bind human wills to the chariot wheels of numbers using force. The rights of the majority are as closely limited as the rights of the individual and the same tests are to be applied to both."

This should give a certain type of legislator furiously to think. But will it?

Odds and Ends Improved by Printers (London Observer) The psychology of printers' errors is an unusual topic for the British Association, but Professor Spearman was unfortunately not able to point out any way to avoid them. A writer in the Evening Standard says that he knows a poet "who boasts in one of his poems an exquisitely appropriate epithet, due entirely to the printer having been unable to read his writing correctly." But does not something like that happen to Gray? The story is that in the first line of the Elegy he put comma after the word "tolls"; "The curfew tolls, the knell of parting day," but the printer left it out, and that the poet approved and accepted the amendment.

Picking Flaws. (Chicago Herald-Examiner) To many people criticism is mere matter of finding fault. Often a critic thinks his work is half done unless he picks some sort of flaw with the production. Fault finding at best is cheap. Any work can be approached in a hostile manner, and everything is open to objection. Sympathy is rare. It is the old that makes the bearings of life work with a minimum of friction.

The Thing That Counts. (Stafford Beacon-Herald) Neatness in women is far more fetching than style.

KREP YOUR LEGS (Youth's Companion) "Keep your legs," is Viscount Grey's advice to the England schoolboy; and the advice is just as good for men, women and young people of all countries. It is especially commended to Americans, who are in some danger of forgetting how to walk. Lord Grey talks of doing twenty miles a day, and every one who can find the time and strength for such a walk would be the better for it. But four or five miles is excellent medicine, and two or three is far better than the few hundred yards that satisfies so many people.

"HOW is it I never can find you when I want you?" asked the office manager. "First you're in the stock room, then in the factory, then down in the shipping department, and now here you are up on the roof. What's the big idea?" "You advertised for an all-around boy—and that's me."—Christian Science Monitor.

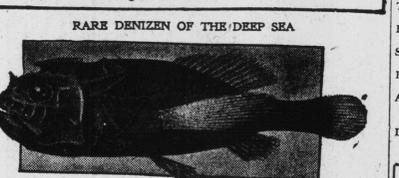

"I DON'T hear it read in de paper," said Uncle Mose. "What some of dem here flying machine gentlemen says a man kin do anything a bird kin." "Dat's what dey say," replied Aunt Chbe. "Well, when any o'em sees a man sit ashlep, holdin' onto a tree branch wif his feet, I sho' wishes dey'd call him de human bird."

POEMS OF LOVE

"Azrael" by Robert Gilbert Welsh. THIS American poet and dramatic critic has been a frequent contributor to our best magazines, but for some reason he has never collected his poems in a volume. This, which I found in an old Harper's Magazine, both because of its theme and technique, is as fine as that gold under Azrael's wings.

The angel in high places Who minister to us, Reflect God's smile—their faces Are luminous, Save one whose face is hidden, (The Prophet saith) The unwelcome, the forbidden, Azrael, angel of Death. And yet that velvet face, I know is lit with pitying eyes, Like those faint stars, the first to Through cloudy winter skies.

That they may never tire, Harassed, by God's decree, Bear wings of snow and fire,— Passion and purity. Save one, all unavailing, (The Prophet saith) His wings are gray and trailing, Azrael, angel of Death. And yet the souls that Azrael brings Across the dark and cold, Look up beneath those folded wings, And find them lined with gold.

Just Fun SPEAKING of being on pins, the ultra nice housekeeper is that way all the time for fear somebody will come in with muddy feet.

REV. G. COFFIN RETURNS TO ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Rev. M. T. Murphy Welcomed at St. Rose's—Catholic Notes

Rev. George Coffin, C.S.S.R., formerly of St. Peter's parish in Saint John, has returned to the city after an absence of two years and four months spent attached to the Cathedral at Regina, Sask., and will be attached to St. Peter's church here for the present.

FATHER COFFIN had heard of the Holy Name parade in Saint John on the previous Sunday when he was in Montreal and he said he had been very proud to hear how successful the parade had been.

Among the announcements in St. Peter's church yesterday were those in reference to the fall festival which will be held next week when a turkey supper is to be served. The kitchen equipment in the basement of the church has been entirely remodelled and newly equipped.

These new pieces of equipment have been so arranged that they will make serving much more convenient. The servings of food will come from one part of the hall and the dishes to be washed will be taken to a entirely different part, doing away with the meeting of the two streams of servers, which under the old arrangement made for crowded and awkward conditions.

IS GIVEN WELCOME A very cordial welcome to St. Rose's parish was extended to the new priest, Rev. Michael T. Murphy, by the members of the congregation at a gathering after vespers last night, when Arthur W. Carton expressed the hearty greetings of the parishioners and Rev. Wilfred Mallette, curate, introduced Father Murphy to the gathering.

Father Murphy preached at both masses in the church in the morning and delivered an eloquent sermon on the gospel of the day, the story of the healing of the man who had been lame for thirty-eight years.

MISSION ENDS The two weeks' mission which has been conducted in Holy Trinity church by the Franciscans, Father Daniel and Father Paul, was concluded last night when the mission for the men closed with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the Papal Benediction.

FATHER BROWN CELEBRANT The celebrant at mass in the Silver Falls church yesterday morning was Rev. J. H. Brown. The former parish priest, Rev. C. P. J. Carleton, had left for his new pastorate in Milltown and his successor, Rev. C. J. Carroll, who is coming from Moncton, is to be inaugurated into his new charge on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week.

PARLIAMENT TO ASSEMBLE EARLY IN DECEMBER

New King Cabinet Sworn in Saturday; Veniot Is Postmaster General

OTTAWA, Sept. 26—Shortly after noon on Saturday the Liberal Cabinet was sworn into office at Government House in the presence of Lord Byng.

During the afternoon Premier King made several official and unofficial announcements: 1—Mr. King accompanied by Hon. Ernest Lapointe and probably Hon. Vincent Massey, will attend the Imperial Conference in London in October.

2—Hon. Vincent Massey is slated for appointment as Canada's first minister plenipotentiary to Washington.

3—Parliament will probably meet during the first week of December and there will be a long adjournment over Christmas.

4—The commission investigating the customs department is to be enlarged from one to three.

5—The portfolio of national defence, which was not assigned on Saturday, is to be given to Col. J. L. Rolston of Halifax, when a seat can be found for him.

6—The departments of health and soldiers' civic re-establishment are to be under one minister—Hon. Dr. J. H. King. There will also be other minor changes in certain departments.

7—Senator Dandurand will again lead the government forces in the Senate.

8—It is probable that the customs commission will resume work in the very near future.

9—Premier King announced that all the members of the new government came in as Liberals, the Liberal-Progressives of Manitoba having consented to the entry of Hon. Robert Forke, minister of immigration, on this basis.

10—The Premier said that he had been informed by Colonel Biggar, chief electoral officer, that writs could not be issued for ministerial by-elections until after the returns were in from the general election.

Palm Beach In Wreckage of Second Disaster of the Year

Ocean Boulevard, Palm Beach, strewn with storm wreckage. For the second time within a year Florida suffers as the result of a tropical storm. By far the greatest damage was done by the recent storm which left Miami a wreck and took the lives of many hundreds of its citizens. Palm Beach, on the edge of the storm belt, found itself in difficulties more severe than those brought by the former storm.

Cuticura Loveliness A Clear Healthy Skin

Most dull teeth and many serious tooth and gum disorders have recently been traced, by dental science, to a film that forms on teeth. It can be felt by running the tongue across the teeth—a stubborn coating that ordinary brushing does not successfully combat.

On dental advice, people are adopting this new way of tooth cleaning. Obtain Pepsodent, the quality dentifrice, at drug stores. Two months' supply at a moderate price—or send coupon for 10-day test. Use twice every day. See your dentist twice each year. Make both a habit.

The Business Man appreciates its Comfort and Economy

Lay floors of Dominion Battleship Linoleum and you have ECONOMY, because it is permanent and needs no costly upkeep. You have also, greatly reduced cleaning costs because Dominion Battleship Linoleum is firm, smooth and non-absorbent and cannot hold dust or dirt.

Increased EFFICIENCY comes from the foot comfort and quietness Dominion Battleship Linoleum always provides. Soft and springy; it proves a boon to jaded nerves and stimulates concentration.

Dominion Battleship Linoleum's many fine qualities are equally appreciated in schools, hospitals, libraries, stores and public buildings of every type, countless installations having proved its ability to meet the peculiar needs of each.

Dominion Battleship Linoleum is odorless; attractive yet dignified in appearance. Light brushing keeps it spotless. If a high polish is desired, an occasional waxing is all that is necessary.

Dominion Battleship Linoleum, AAA quality, is made in eight standard shades—brown, green, terra cotta, grey, buff, blue, black and white (used extensively for tile floors). AA and A qualities, in four standard shades only. Special colours for large contracts.

Dominion Battleship Linoleum is made in Canada to suit Canada's climate and is installed by all large departmental and house furnishing stores. Write us for free samples and literature.

Announcing
A new Motor Fuel

IN keeping with that policy which has always guided this Company toward an ever-alert seeking for the latest and best, we will place on the market, on October 2, a new and revolutionizing motor fuel.

Leading automotive scientists—after 7 years of research—have developed in the laboratories of the General Motors Corporation, a product called Ethyl Brand of Anti-Knock Compound.

This great discovery is now offered to the motorists of Canada in Imperial Ethyl Gasoline; which is a special grade of Gasoline—with the new and wonderful Ethyl ingredient added.

This Ethyl ingredient endows gasoline with miracle-working qualities. You will notice these qualities immediately you try your first tank-full of Imperial Ethyl Gasoline.

You'll feel the difference in your motor on the first hill or when you try a quick get-away in traffic, for this new motor fuel is more powerful than any you have ever used—powerful with a smooth, sure rhythm that gives a new thrill to driving. And no matter how badly your motor has "knocked" before—either on hills or when you tried a fast "pick-up"—Imperial Ethyl Gasoline makes it absolutely knockless.

The Ethyl ingredient brings about these amazing results by maintaining the rate of combustion. Every time the spark flashes, a powerful, sustained explosion results. Power waste -- as indicated by engine "knocks" -- is eliminated.

No other gasoline ingredient compares with Ethyl Brand of Anti-Knock Compound. Manufactured by the Ethyl Gasoline Corporation, this remarkable product cannot be successfully imitated. It cannot be duplicated. It is absolutely unique and it stands alone as a new discovery.

The introduction of Imperial Ethyl Gasoline at this season is particularly timely. Nights are getting cool-- Winter will soon be here. Imperial Ethyl gives the motorist entire freedom from those troubles which he has formerly encountered with the approach of cold weather.

To those who want "knockless" engine performance, coupled with a new wealth of engine power and quick starting we recommend a trial of Imperial Ethyl Gasoline-- truly the most important and amazing motor fuel discovery of the past twenty years.

The price of Imperial Ethyl Gasoline is 4 cents per gallon above the regular Premier price—and well worth it.

CAUTION!

Do not confuse this wonderful new fuel with the many so-called "Anti-Knock" Gasolines on the market. And do not be misled by other gasolines purposely colored red to resemble Ethyl.

Our well-known Premier Gasoline has as much "Anti-Knock" quality as any gasoline made or sold in Canada with the sole exception of Imperial Ethyl Gasoline. The latter is more than a gasoline—it's a motor fuel of super-efficient qualities.

For your protection, no dealer or service station will be permitted to sell Imperial Ethyl Gasoline through any pump that does not conspicuously display the official Imperial Ethyl Trade-Mark as reproduced in this advertisement.

Answers S. O. S. Call, But Disregard Appeal for Help; Crew Saved

HALIFAX, Sept. 26—While the crew of the ill-fated Nova Scotia schooner Mary O'Connor, which was abandoned 30 miles south of Cape Sable on September 21 last, were fighting a losing battle with the storm-lashed Atlantic, an unknown steamer answered her S. O. S. call and then, though informed of the fact that the crippled schooner might go to the bottom at any minute, steamed away without rendering any assistance.

This fact was related here today by the Mary O'Connor's master, Captain J. C. MacKenzie, who with the seven men comprising his crew, were eventually rescued from the battered wreck of the schooner by the Dutch freighter San Jacarta and taken to Boston.

TELS GRAPHIC STORY.
Captain MacKenzie told a graphic story of the loss of his vessel after four harrowing days and nights, during which he and his crew labored incessantly to keep their helpless ship above water. Soon after the storm struck, the Mary O'Connor's rudder was carried away, leaving her wallowing in tremendous seas.

The next misfortune came when her mainmast was swept overboard with a large portion of the rigging. Her calls for assistance were answered about this time by the unknown steamer,

"THOUGHT-END COME
Captain MacKenzie said he thought the end had come, for even with the working, the water kept mounting in the hold. However, in desperation, the crew began to operate the hand pumps and for 24 hours worked them steadily. Then they jammed. From that moment until help arrived, the schooner drifted over the wild wastes of angry sea, completely at the mercy of the elements, the missing rudder rendering the gasoline motors useless.

Finally when further hope seemed futile, the San Jacarta hoisted her light and took the wrecked mariners off the hold. However, in desperation, the Mary O'Connor was set adrift and abandoned. She was formerly the Boston-owned Chantleier, one of the notable pleasure craft of the North Atlantic, 118 feet long, of steel construction, registered 108 tons and was built at Morris Heights, N. Y., in 1922 for E. C. Fitch, of Waltham, with Boston as home port.

Answers S. O. S. Call, But Disregard Appeal for Help; Crew Saved

HALIFAX, Sept. 26—While the crew of the ill-fated Nova Scotia schooner Mary O'Connor, which was abandoned 30 miles south of Cape Sable on September 21 last, were fighting a losing battle with the storm-lashed Atlantic, an unknown steamer answered her S. O. S. call and then, though informed of the fact that the crippled schooner might go to the bottom at any minute, steamed away without rendering any assistance.

This fact was related here today by the Mary O'Connor's master, Captain J. C. MacKenzie, who with the seven men comprising his crew, were eventually rescued from the battered wreck of the schooner by the Dutch freighter San Jacarta and taken to Boston.

TELS GRAPHIC STORY.
Captain MacKenzie told a graphic story of the loss of his vessel after four harrowing days and nights, during which he and his crew labored incessantly to keep their helpless ship above water. Soon after the storm struck, the Mary O'Connor's rudder was carried away, leaving her wallowing in tremendous seas.

The next misfortune came when her mainmast was swept overboard with a large portion of the rigging. Her calls for assistance were answered about this time by the unknown steamer,

"THOUGHT-END COME
Captain MacKenzie said he thought the end had come, for even with the working, the water kept mounting in the hold. However, in desperation, the crew began to operate the hand pumps and for 24 hours worked them steadily. Then they jammed. From that moment until help arrived, the schooner drifted over the wild wastes of angry sea, completely at the mercy of the elements, the missing rudder rendering the gasoline motors useless.

Finally when further hope seemed futile, the San Jacarta hoisted her light and took the wrecked mariners off the hold. However, in desperation, the Mary O'Connor was set adrift and abandoned. She was formerly the Boston-owned Chantleier, one of the notable pleasure craft of the North Atlantic, 118 feet long, of steel construction, registered 108 tons and was built at Morris Heights, N. Y., in 1922 for E. C. Fitch, of Waltham, with Boston as home port.

INSPIRATIONAL ADDRESS.
A splendidly inspirational address on the Leadership of Jesus was given by Miss Marjorie Trutter, Maritime girls' work secretary, at the evening service in the Lullow street Baptist church, which was held under the auspices of the C. G. I. T. The members of the C. G. I. T. had seats in the choir and under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Newton Sterritt, took part in the evening program. Rev. W. A. Robbins, pastor of the church, conducted the service and there was a large congregation present. Rally Day Sunday will be observed in the church next week and Rev. John Unsworth will be the special speaker on that day.

SYDNEY BOY KILLED IN SHOOTING MISHAP
SYDNEY, Sept. 26—Roy Graham, the 17-year-old son of John Graham, of Dominion No. 4, was accidentally shot and killed shortly after noon today while duck shooting near Castle Bay, a small village about 40 miles from Sydney on the Sydney-St. Peter's highway. The victim was pulling the boat up on a beach when the gun, which was lying in the bottom of the boat, discharged, the bullet passing through the boy's heart, causing instantaneous death.

PRICES RISE IN NEW YORK UNDER STABLE CONDITIONS

QUOTATIONS ARE BETTERED WITH MONEY EASIER

Initial Gains Registered by Baldwin, Dupont and Others

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Trading on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning was a dull affair, opening at 119 1/2, up a half. This issue advanced to 120 1/2, but in later trading it eased back to 119, for a loss of a half point.

Attili and Brompton were strong, the former at 97, being up a quarter, while the latter scored a flat gain of one point at 23 1/2. Penman's was the weak spot. This issue lost two points at 188 on a single board lot sale. Also began the day with a quarter point gain, while Breweries sold unchanged at 85. Brazilian at 12 1/2 was down a half point at the opening.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Stock prices headed upward again today as indications of more stable money conditions appeared. Initial gains of a point or more were registered by Baldwin, Dupont, General Asphalt, Atchafalaya, Potomac Cereal and Brooklyn Edison, a few points of weakness remained, however, selling of the mining stocks, such as American Smelting and Alaska, being on the sharp drop in silver prices. United States Steel also was heavy.

Morning Stock Letter NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The stock market on Saturday morning until the last half hour showed more general strength than it has at any time in recent weeks, with both General Motors and U. S. Steel back in the leadership again. In the last half hour there was a general profit-taking movement, accounted for by the break in American Smelting and Refining, which selling can be attributed only to the weakness in the price of silver. We rather look for general strength to be resumed this week, with higher prices throughout most of the industrial list. Business is now about to enter on the stage where one can get a good idea as to how it will continue in the next three or four months. October nearly always shows the trend for three or four months to come, consequently the various reports this week should be closely watched. The gain in the surplus reserves in the bank statement on Saturday would indicate no higher call money rates should come in the next few days. Generally, we continue bullish on U. S. G.M.C., D.D., I.T.C., Air Lines, General Electric, and International Telephone. There is a possibility of a sharp advance. Eventually, we will think the stock is going to be a large amount of profit-taking movement. Warner Bros. A run into profit-taking, but on weakness we think it will be bought. We look for higher prices also in the leading rates.

Gatineau Power 6% Debentures Gatineau Power Company is constructing hydro-electric plants with an initial generating capacity of 397,500 h.p. to be completed in 1928. 90% of this initial capacity has already been contracted for, principally by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario. It is estimated that the Ontario Hydro 30-year contract alone will ultimately give Gatineau Power Company annual net earnings of over 1 1/4 times combined Bond and Debenture interest. The effect of this contract — which extends beyond the term of the Debentures — is to make the Debenture interest practically as safe as that of a government bond. Gatineau Power Company 6% Sinking Fund Gold Debentures are therefore an unusually attractive investment at the current offering price of 99 1/2 and interest, yielding 6.05%.

ORPHANS' FAIR WELL ATTENDED ON SATURDAY Estimated 1,500 People Were Present—Numerous Donations Received

There was a bumper house at the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage fair at St. Andrew's rink on Saturday night when about 1,500 persons attended, many doing their Saturday shopping at the various booths and the patrons carried away from the fair large supplies of various kinds secured at the fair. Roxborough Lodge, L. O. B. A., had charge of the home cooking booth and opened at 4 p. m. with a sale of brown bread and beans, closing with an auction of all remaining supplies at 11 p. m., and realizing at their booth more than $100. The house-housie, circus wheel and other attractions had continuous patronage until 11:30.

"GOAT" IS POPULAR. The orphans' goat was especially popular with the young people. "Billy" goes the rounds of the rink at least once every evening and seems to enjoy the experience. Initiated by a liberal supply of lettuce, beet tops and apples he will rise and walk on his hind legs and perform amusing stunts. It is hinted that the C. N. B. officials, who makes "Billy" do his stunts, and "Billy" are affiliated with the degree staff of a local fraternity.

On Saturday morning G. H. Lewis and H. J. Allingham took an auto truck to Quebec and secured a full load of vegetables and other produce previously solicited by Mr. Allingham and they also brought in among other donations $21 in cash, a pure bred water spaniel pup, a pair of young Belgian hares and hen and rooster of the Ancona breed. These gifts of live stock, together with three other green dogs and a pen of pure bred single comb white Leghorns, will be disposed of during the coming week.

On Saturday afternoon R. J. Adams and W. H. MacDonald took a truck, kindly loaned by J. Northrup, and went over a portion of the Loch Lomond road securing much of the produce. They have arranged to cover the Golden Grove road next Tuesday and a large amount of produce has been promised from that locality. Every day sees fresh supplies coming in for the fair, arriving both by the river boats and by the railways, but the committees in charge are hoping for many more contributions yet and can find a use for anything that is donated. Messrs. Allan and Adams, who had spent the week selling tickets on the automobile at the Fredericton Exhibition, returned on Sunday and reported a good week in sales.

SAINT JOHN MEN AT OSHAWA MEETING H. R. Brown Tells of Convention of Motor Parts and Service Men

H. R. Brown, supervisor for General Motor products in Saint John, has just returned after attending a parts and service convention held by the company at Oshawa, Ont. A. W. Purdy, superintendent of the McLaughlin Motor Car Company here, also attended. There were about 60 parts and service men there from various parts of Canada. Matters pertaining to parts and service and field organization were taken up, and the large plant at Oshawa was inspected. The visitors also made a trip to the proving grounds of the corporation at Oshawa, where a number of all makes are tested by employees of the company. These grounds cost about $1,000,000, and consist of speedways of all kinds, roads of all conditions, hills, etc., where the company's own product, as well as cars of rival manufacturers are tested. During August 25,000 gallons of gasoline were used in making tests.

Until a year ago parts for General Motor Corporation automobiles had to be secured from Oshawa, but at that time a branch was established in Saint John, with distribution to dealers throughout the Maritime Provinces. Six employees are kept busy in this department, which is in charge of Mr. Brown.

SAVES ANOTHER FROM DEATH IN HARBOR WATERS

John J. McDermott Makes Thrilling Rescue of Drowning Girl

One of the bravest rescues from the waters of Saint John harbor was witnessed Saturday evening when "Jack" McDermott saved the life of Miss Myrtle Slumwhite of Boston, who had fallen between the side of the steamer Governor Dingley and the wharf.

This is not the first time that Mr. McDermott has saved life in the harbor and as about 15 years ago he jumped into the water near the drawbridge and rescued a man who had fallen from the trestle.

After Mr. McDermott and Miss Slumwhite had been taken from the water they boarded the steamer Governor Dingley Saturday night and proceeded on their way to Boston.

There was a large number of passengers boarding the Eastern Line steamer ship Governor Dingley Saturday night and the United States immigration officers were busy examining the passengers. It was nearly time for Captain Ingalls of the ship to give the signal on the ship's steam whistle that the ship was to cast off her moorings and leave the dock for sea.

LAST THROUGH CUSTOMS Miss Myrtle Slumwhite, of Boston, with her sister, Mrs. Eldon Webb, of 5 Elliott Row, were among the last to get through the examination of the United States immigration officials. The two ladies started down the deep incline of the landing as it was low tide, and as far as they learned, Miss Slumwhite started to run and when nearing the gangway leading to the steamer's passenger entrance she tripped and is thought to have fallen and rolled under the guard rope from the gangway to the side of the wharf, and fell into the water between the steamer and the side of the dock.

The place near the gangway between the water and the steamer's deck was hardly discernible with much steam from an exhaust, the night was dark and there was also a thick fog prevailing. John J. McDermott, a stevedore of 18 Horsfield street, was close to Miss Slumwhite at the time she rolled into the water and without a moment's hesitation he dropped his parents and went over the side of the passenger float and, despite the darkness, grasped hold of the women, who appeared doomed to death, and held her up. Immediately a life buoy was lowered from the gangway of the ship and shortly afterwards a colored porter of the ship and others came to the rescue.

LIFTED TO FLOAT Mr. McDermott and Miss Slumwhite were lifted on the float and proceeded on board the steamer to proceed on their voyage to Boston. When the accident happened there was a considerable amount of excitement on the dock where several hundred persons assembled to witness the departure of the steamer.

SENDS WORD A telegram was sent to Boston which was received by the rescued young lady and a reply was received at the home of Mr. Webb yesterday afternoon from Miss Slumwhite that she was well. Mr. McDermott, who made the heroic rescue, is on his way to Miami, Fla., to join his wife and daughter, who fortunately escaped injury during the recent hurricane that caused so much damage. He was a resident of that part of the country during the past winter.

Body of Drowned Boy Comes Ashore

Reginald Titus, Had Fallen From Saint John River Steamer Majestic

The body of the nine-year-old Reginald Titus, who was lost from the steamer Majestic on Aug. 30, was found on the shore at Richardson's Beach, below Oak Point, on Sunday by boys, who notified the coroner. The latter sent word to the city and Mrs. Harold Titus, mother of the boy was notified. She had still clung to the hope that her son might have gone ashore unnoted at one of the steamer's stops and still was alive. Burial will be at Belyen's Cove.

CARDINAL INNER WORKS HAS SLIGHT EDGE IN COMING SERIES

LESTER BELL IS SWAT LEADER WITH .329 MARK

Westerners Are in Slight Lead in Base Running, 37 to 29

Canadian Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Offensively the infield of the St. Louis Cardinals, champions of the National League, shows a slight superiority over the New York Yankees, coming to bat in behalf of the American League, in the approaching world series.

The four regular infielders of the Cardinals have a batting average of .286 against .274 for the same number of players likely to occupy places in the Yankees' first line of defence. Base-running activities of the two westerners are not impressive, but the Cardinals maintain their slight edge here, also, with a total of 37 to 29.

TOPS BOTTOMLEY

Lon Gehrig, with a batting average of .311, tops Jim Bottomley, whose mark is compiled .297. Gehrig has been more successful in hitting for extra bases than the greatest of the great in getting tripping and home runs. With a batting average of .317 compared to .270 for Bottomley, Gehrig has made only five trips to the plate in extra bases while the former Pacific Coast star has 13 three base hits and 18 home runs. Bottomley drove in 11 runs, 10 for Gehrig, and they were all in stolen bases at 10.

Lester Bell, St. Louis baseman, has a better record than that of Joe Dugan, who will play opposite him. On paper Bell is the better hitter in either infield. His average for the season is .329. Dugan has hit .284. Bell, however, has made 30 doubles, 18 triples and 17 home runs, while Dugan has been forced to satisfy himself with 20 two-base hits, five for three bases, and one for the circuit. Bell has stolen ten bases, while Dugan has been able to get away with only two thefts.

WEARS SPECTACLES

George Toporcer will probably have a chance to lead the top of his "specs" from an infield position for the Cards, during the series. He has out-hit Mike Casella, who has the best average of a Yankee infield substitute .267 to .282. No excitement whatever has been caused by the wearing of this unusual but modest pair, Toporcer having stolen one base and Casella barely doubled his output with two. Neither has made any impression on the home run records.

HOCKEY LEAGUE TO HAVE TWO SECTIONS

Detroit and Chicago Admitted to National Circuit—First Game Oct. 16

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—Two sections of five clubs each will be formed for this winter, following the admission of Detroit and Chicago at the annual meeting held here this week-end, bringing the circuit to ten-club strength.

The loop will be divided into eastern and western sections. Ottawa, Montreal, Canadiens, Toronto and New York Americans are the five clubs comprising the eastern section. New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit and Chicago make up the western group.

Inter-sectional games will be played in accordance with a schedule to be issued shortly, western teams making two tours over the eastern circuit in the season, and vice versa. The three leading teams in each section will play off for the section championship at the end of the season and the two section champions will meet for the league title.

Opening games will be played Nov. 16 and the schedule will end on April 2, each club having about 20 home games. Canadiens will open the season here on Nov. 16 in an inter-sectional game with Pittsburgh, while Montreal Martoons will meet the New York Rangers on the same date at Madison Square Garden. Chicago will be ready with artificial ice in the Coliseum in that city by the opening date. Detroit, if its new rink is not completed by that time, will play its first few games in Windsor, Ont.

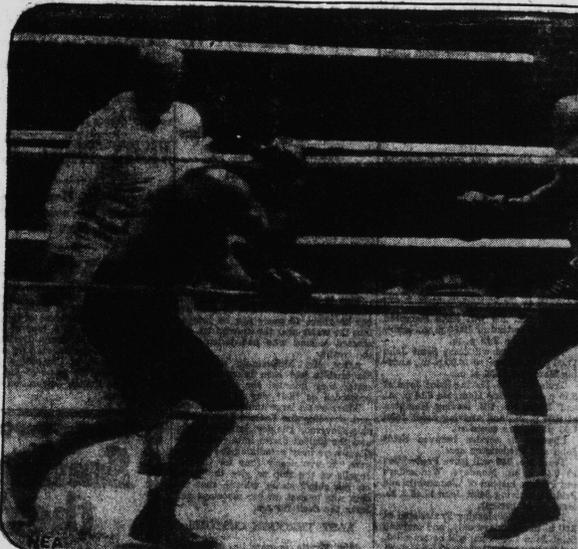

MORGAN DEFENDS TITLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Joe Glick, Williamsburg challenger, will take a sting at Tod Morgan's junior lightweight title in a 15 round match at Madison Square Garden Thursday night. The Seaside champion has a slight favorite to retain the crown.

McINNIS RELEASED

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 26.—John (Stuffy) McInnis, veteran Major League first baseman, has been given his unconditional release by the Pittsburgh National League club.

Dempsey's One Big Chance

HERE is shown the one stage of the battle of the Basquecentennial when victory lingered within the grasp of the now disposed heavyweight champion. In the fourth round, Dempsey put over a hard left hook which sent the challenger into the ropes, where he hung by both hands, unguarded and dizzy. Another such blow would have ended the battle, but it did not come. An instant later, Tunney rallied and staggered Dempsey with a hard right.

UMPIRE DIES

LONG ISLAND CITY, Sept. 27.—"Kill the Umpire" cried disgruntled fans, after Umpire Pat McTavey had rendered a close and adverse decision at a baseball game here, costing the home team the game. A disgruntled fan, allegedly a brother of the catcher of the Long Island City Country Club team, ran onto the field and struck McTavey. The umpire died before he could be taken to a hospital and his assailant is being sought.

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP.

IN RESPONSE to a request from six amateur clubs of Moncton, S. F. Doyle, president of the M. P. B., announces he will be at a special meeting, the date to be announced later.

The Moncton request was for a meeting to investigate charges made in The Telegraph-Journal by A. W. Covey, regarding irregularities at the annual meeting in Amherst.

Mr. Doyle's reply is that the meeting will consider the attitude of the affiliated clubs to the proposed break with his organization, according to the Canadian Press.

This matter, it is pointed out, is now being considered by clubs in New Brunswick, the chief abode centre in the present agitation. Six clubs in Moncton and one in Saint John have already said they do not favor a break. Eight clubs in Saint John already have said they do favor a break. A committee is now getting in touch with other clubs in the province to ascertain their sentiment.

A definite report on how the 44 affiliated clubs in this province feel on this matter is expected the latter part of this week.

IF THE M. P. B., after finding out how New Brunswick feels about this matter, still thinks a special meeting should be called to consider this matter, that is for them to decide. It is doubtful, however, if clubs would attend such a meeting, confined to this one matter.

Mr. Doyle's answer is that the meeting, to be held at a definite time, will consider the question of a break. It is doubtful if he could confine the issue to that one topic, however.

That matter will likely be settled, so far as New Brunswick is concerned, within a short time.

THREE weeks ago, The Telegraph-Journal demanded a special investigation under oath of the M. P. B. annual at Amherst.

This was done in the name of the sporting public, so that all sides would be given a fair hearing and an unbiased report on the matter reached. One man could have been appointed—three, if necessary—to get the charges and evidence and report. It could have been done in a month's time.

Only one club in the Maritimes responded, that was the Martello, the idea of a special meeting apparently not appealing to the clubs at that time.

Eight Saint John clubs go on record favoring the control of sport in New Brunswick, being placed in the hands of a New Brunswick A. A. They took the lead in this matter. It was opposed by Moncton clubs and so far one club in Saint John.

IN ALL this argument about the amateur situation, one question should be paramount—"How best can we progress in amateurism in the Maritimes?"

Personalities, charges and counter-charges must take second place to this one all-important matter.

If the M. P. B. can be purged thoroughly and adapted to fit the athletic needs of the three provinces as a result of this present situation, well and good.

If separate branches means a step forward in the betterment of conditions, well and good.

Obviously, the present state cannot continue.

It is for reasonable leaders, holding in thought the best interests of amateurism for present in future, to carefully weigh and decide the issue.

athletic clubs the power to make their own rules and elect their own officers.

(a) Because under the M. P. B. there has not been a single separate association in New Brunswick governing the four major sports and it is doubtful if there ever will be while the M. P. B. has control. The M. P. B. officials have not the time to settle arguments and arrange play-offs—the present baseball league is sufficient proof of this and this year has been no exception.

(b) Because under present conditions our grievances are never given immediate attention—the general procedure has been to PASS THE BUCK to the other official with the result that no questions of real importance are satisfactorily answered.

(c) And last of all because we want OFFICERS WHO HAVE NEVER HELD OFFICE IN THE M. P. B. or other words we want A CLEAN SHEET AND A CLEAN SWEEP.

These are some (not all) of our reasons for voting for a separate branch of the A. A. U. of C. and have given them as a guide to the general public who are not in a position to know all that goes on and are quite often left in the "dark."

Respectfully yours,
TROJANS ATHLETIC CLUB,
Saint John, N. B., Sept. 27, 1926.

REMARK STYLED OBJECTIONABLE BY COM. FRINK

Brings Up Reported Statement of School Board Secretary

RELATIONS OVER THE "VOCATIONAL"

Terms for Taking Over Prospect Point Road Are Stated

At a meeting of the Common Council in committee this morning, Commissioner Frink said that he noticed in the report of a meeting of the vocational committee of the Board of School Trustees, on last Friday, that A. Gordon Leavitt, secretary of the board, was reported to have said that "it was a shame and outrage" the way City Council had provided the payments for Vocational School expenditure. He would like the Mayor to write to the chairman of the school board and ask him if Mr. Leavitt had been expressing the opinion of the board, or his own personal opinion, when making this remark.

The commissioner said he considered such remarks as this derogatory to the dignity of the council and they should not be allowed to pass unchallenged. He felt the action of the council in keeping an eye on the expenditures of the Vocational School had been justified as the monthly bills had been much less than the amount estimated at the first of the year by the vocational committee and in view of the statement of the chairman of the school board that no provision had been made in the original estimate for the architects' fees, amounting to about $20,000 and the land for the buildings, which cost about $16,000.

The Mayor said he would communicate with Dr. Curran, chairman of the board, on the matter and the Commission.

PROSPECT POINT ROAD

Commissioner Frink said he was ready to submit a resolution concerning the taking over from Murray & Gregory, Ltd., the street known as Prospect Point road. He had this morning with the City Solicitor and secured his approval of the resolution. He moved the road be taken over subject to the following conditions: That the city have the right to cut into the property on either or both sides of the street when necessary; that the city have the right to overflow the land on either or both sides of the street to a distance of eight feet when grading the street; that the city will not build or construct any retaining wall or other structure in the discretion of the council; that the city have free and untrammelled access to the boulevard (so-called) until such time as the city take over from Murray and Gregory, Ltd., a right of way from Prospect Point Road to the boulevard, the site of such right of way to be determined by Murray and Gregory and the Common Council.

Commissioner Harding suggested that in the section relating to the improving of the street, the words "or lighting" be added so that lights would not be asked for once, and this was agreed to by Commissioner Frink. The resolution was then adopted.

NEWCASTLE HERE FOR GAME TUESDAY

Second Contest at Newcastle on Wednesday—Westville Entertains Abbies

The Newcastle team, finalists for the New Brunswick senior amateur baseball title, arrived today for their contest with the Watermen, 1925 Maritime champions, in the first of a three-game series here tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock on the North End grounds. The second game will be played on Wednesday evening. A slight hitch in the arrangements developed over the week-end when Saturday's game was postponed and Manager McLeod, of the Waterworks, says he was not notified of the team's coming until Sunday night, when it was too late to make arrangements for the game here today. However, a conference this morning smoothed out the difficulty and the game will be played tomorrow afternoon, regular time making a night game impossible. Abegweit, P. E. I. winners, and Westville, N. S. winners also meet tomorrow afternoon in the first game of a series with the second game carded for Charlottetown on Wednesday. If Westville and the Watermen can win two games straight, the first game of the series for the Maritime title will likely be played here on Saturday afternoon.

CLEARING UP OF ELEVATOR SITE IS NEARLY DONE

Preliminary Work for Increased C. N. R. Trackage Here Progresses

Clearing up the site of the old I. C. R. elevator, burned at the beginning of the war, to make room for the new C. N. R. Railway yard facilities to the northward of the proposed new trackage, is nearing its finish. A large number of concrete subments and supports upon which the huge elevator stood have been drilled and broken up with gun powder. When this work is effected and levelled a considerable new section will be added for railway tracking.

Tenders for the erection of the new trackage are due for opening on Monday, a week from today. It is practically assured by the officials at Montreal that the work will be pushed rapidly and that the winter—unless unusually severe—will not retard the work. If such turns out to be the case the railway situation will be improved to that extent.

CITY MAIN CHANGES

While the weather is yet comparatively warm and there is no frost yet on the ground Commissioner Wigmore of the Water and Sewerage Department is having some necessary changes made in the supply mains etc., that have to do with the C. N. R. property affected by the proposed building plans. In fact there is much work now going on as preliminary to the vigorous commencement of excavations for the trackage.

A wide cutting has been made on the southern side of Lombard Street to carry out the C. N. R. chief engineer's plans for increased trackage necessary when the trackage is erected over the platform area, now existing at the depot. Almost 100 men have been at work from time to time and things have been pretty busy on the depot site.

VANDALISM BY BOYS

Smear Mud on Garage Door and Smash Seven Pains of Glass

An example of daylight vandalism, declared all the more flagrant because it was perpetrated under the eye of High Sheriff A. A. Wilson, took place Saturday afternoon in Cornerbury Street, near the corner of Queen. Four boys passing along Canterbury Street beneath the door of a garage facing the sidewalk with mud gathered in the gutter. After pelting the mud they picked up bricks and half bricks and threw them through glass windows breaking seven large panes.

SUGAR CARGO HERE

From South Africa

The first shipment of raw sugar to come to this port from South Africa arrived this morning when the steamer "Easter" from Cape Town, under the command of Captain A. L. ASKS ABOUT FRENCH FORTS

Mayor White this morning received from Alfred Bosence, New York, a request for information about the French forts in the Maritime Provinces and this will be forwarded to Dr. J. C. Webster. The writer said he was gathering this information for an exhibition to be held in Paris next year, in which French forts in Canada would be featured.

DID NOT HIKE

The hike of the Boy Scout leaders which was to have been made on Saturday, was deferred on account of the weather.
