British Policy As to China

Salisbury Not Likely to Support Germany's Proposal-A Claim That the Latter's Note Has Been Misunderstood— The Ultimatum Story Discredited.

New York, Sept. 27 .- I have strong, with the construction they put on the isbury will not support the German demand that certain leaders of the antidesignated by the powers, shall be sur- representatives of China." rendered or punished before negotiations are entered into for permanent peace. He has remained in the background, brooding in silence over the whole subject, and will deliver his an-swer after all the other powers have expressed their views. I do not believe that he will use phrases fuentical with those employed at Washington, but I am convinced that his position will not be far removed from that of the state department, with the single exception that there will not be any intimations that British troops will be withdrawn from China. Lord Salisbury is too adroit a diplomatist to cause irritation at Bérlin by a point blank refusal to consider the German proposals, but unless I am misled by those having the best sources of information he will not commit England to the impracticable policy of suspending all negotiations for peace until the leaders of the campaign of outrage and massacre are surrendered by the empress.

reasons for believing that both the note when it was first made public.

Berlin and London process have been The Times editorially, Sept. 19, declar-Berlin and London press have been ed the German government "recognizes misinformed, says the Tribune's Lon-don correspondent, and that Lord Sal-consistently laid down, that the punishment of the real authors of the tacks on Europeans must be a condition precedent to diplomatic dealings Tien Tsin. The present plan is unforeign movement in China, to be of any kind with any of the diplomatic derstood to be tentative, and based the theme of the whole editorial. The proposal that the ministers at Pekin be empowered to designate such real side the city. Gen. Chaffee paid a visit authors of the attacks, was, it is point- to Li Hung Chang, and informally disauthors of the attacks, was, it is pointed out, treated merely incidentally and as a sequence to the first part of the note, no endeavor being made to sep-arate what Germany considered essential from what she proposed. In fact, the proposal regarding the designation of the authors of the attacks was then thought by the Times and other papers in England and on the continent to be a logical result of the powers agreeing that their surrender was to be precedent to the negotiations. This view was fully shared by the Berlin correspondent of the Times, Sept. 19, in spite of his change or base in today's issue. Thus, it is claimed, the efforts show that if America, or even England, misunderstood Germany's meaning, it can only be the result of ignorance or an endeavor to enable the German government to retire from a position they find untenable. The St. James Gazette says: "This discovery of the true inwardness of the note is very convenient. It is explained in Berlin that the refusal of America is doubtless owing to the dullards at Washington having confused the two parts of Von Buelow's document. It is a pity an analytical commentary was not forwarded with the text of the note."

THE ULTIMATUM STORY. The British authorities discredit the report that Germany will present an ultimatum to China, and intimate that it was probably concocted at Shanghai with the object of causing friction between Germany and Great Britain, and thus delaying united action. The officials of the German embassy declare the "ultimatum story" to be perfectly groundless.

It is asserted from excellent diplomatic sources that Italy and Austria are the only powers which have replied favorably and unconditionally to Germany's note. It is certainly a fact that the replies of Russia and France are almost identical, advocating the pun-ishment of the originators of the antiforeign assaults, but not making their surrender an absolute condition of the peace preliminaries. Japan takes a middle course, leaning a little more strongly toward Germany, while Great Britain declines. A powerful argument used against Germany's position was its establishment of the precedent that it would permit the powers in future wars to demand the surrender of personages considered by them to guilty leaders, and that their punishment was deemed necessary before peace negotiations could be undertak-WHAT JAPAN WANTS.

London, Sept. 27-According to the Yokohama correspondent of the Daily Mail, Japan assents to Germany's proposition, but at the same time stro urges that there should be no prolonged delay in the negotiations. The same authority says that Japan would decline to follow Germany in pursuing the imperial court into the interior of China. THE U. S. WITHDRAWAL

It is believed that Gen. Chaffee at Tien Tsin has by this time received the instructions cabled him relative to reduction of his force in China, and that by Monday he can begin the movement toward Tien Tsin. It is desirable that the change of the status of the American troops shall take place before Field Marshal Waldersee shall appear on the scene. The rapid trend of events in China toward actual war is regarded here as justifying that the purpose for which these troops were sent into China had been accomplished. The department has held from the first that a state of war did not exist with the Chinese Government, and it secured the assent of every one of the powers to that proposition. still does not believe there is sufficient ground to change that position, and refuses to be drawn into war without such ground.

LONDON TIMES' CRITICISM. The Times, dealing editorially with the attitude of Washington, says: the United States Government withdraws its troops, it will virtually leave the American legation under the protection of powers with whom the United States decline to co-operate. America must be aware that no legation with only a guard to defend it, would long be safe under a Chinese government, including Prince Tuan and the other Boxer leaders."

KILL WOMEN AND CHILDREN. The Times prints correspondence from Niu Chwang, declaring that the CLOSE TO CHURCHES, SCHOOL AND C. R. railway stations nearly 160 acres, good brick house, large barns, stone stable under barn, granary, etc. Lands in con. 3, London township. Sale at 3 p.m., on Monday, Oct. 8, 1960, on the premises. The bridges had been dynamited, the stores, buildings and homesteads looted and burned, as had been also the railroad property, all the chief stations being mere masses of smoking ruins, among them Kaap Muiden, Hectorspruit and Komatipoort. At the last place there is an enormous area over which the Boers have wrought destruction. The devastamon includes hundreds of wagons, trucks and carriages, which have been burned, together with all kinds of stores of clothing, ammunition, forage and provisions, such as sugar, coffee, rice, flour and statonery. Thousands of tons indeed, are still burning. Gen. Pole-Carew has secured hundreds of locomotives. The whole of the Selati railway line is simply blocked with rolling stock. The great waste in the effects of the Boers was evident. Trunks, furniture, provisions, clothing and other articles were lying about in every direction. Any good police force, say one of 20,000 Mr. Alfred McIntyre, of Learnington, men, can do the rest of the work of is renewing old acquaintances here this pacification with security. If Gen. Buller and the others move on to seize the passes, neither Ben Vilioen, the commandant-general, with Steyn and Schalkburger, nor Koetze, with the rest of the derelicts from Komatipoort. can escape through the mountains toward Lydenburg and Pletersburg, while to remain in the low yeldt at this season of the year spells death for men and cattle. The Portuguese have disarmed all the Boer refugees taken. The Irish-American mercenaries are clam-oring for pay and threatening the Boer may be summarized as follows: When the Boers, numbering 2,000, evacuated Komatipoort, they took up positions between the Lobogo range and the river. They had good positions, and could have made a capital stand, but owing to the disorganization and lack of discipline that were prevalent they were only half-hearted. Wishing to avoid a conflict and unnecessary bloodshed, the British consulgeneral consulted the Portuguese governor-general. Senor Machado, as to the best course to be pursued to attain this end. He asked that emissaries should be sent up with an address to the Boers, pointing out the uselessness of their resistance and the absolute needlessness of going on fur-Besides, if they continued to fight there was a fear of the natives rising. Owing to the fact that the Portuguese had been most kind to the Boers, and as they are guaranteed their maintenance and repatriation, and promised to send them back to their country free of charge, the scheme succeeded beyond the wildest hopes of its originator. Instead of dozens coming down to Lorenzo Marquez, 2,500 arrived in this wise.

The Canadians

REVIEWED BY LORD ROBERTS. Pretoria, Sept. 25.-Field Marshal Lord Roberts, in the presence of Lady Roberts and his daughter, reviewed the Canadians on the eve of their departure. It was a brilliant scene. The men, who are in excellent health, making a splendid appearance. After the march past Lord Roberts addressed them briefly. He said:

"I cannot allow you to depart svithout expressing my thanks for and appreciation of your loyal services and excellent work, especially at Pacrde-berg, on Feb. 27. I am sure the people of Canada will be pleased to hear how gallantly and how splendidly you have all behaved in action. Deeply I regret the losses you have suffered. I should have been happier if you had returned in your full strength; but no one could expect you to pass through so arduous a campaign without loss. I am sorry that some of you are obliged to return sooner than the rest of the regiment, but I recognize the urgency of private affairs. I am confident that the Queen and the British people will never forget your services. If it should ever be my good fortune to visit Can-ada I hope to meet you all again." After the troops had given cheers for the Queen and the field marshal, the latter shook hands with the Canadian officers and presented them one by one to Lady Roberts. HOME AGAIN. Montreal, Sept. 27 .- A number of the returning South African soldiers ar-rived last evening, and were given a rousing reception by the local militia

PLAIN TALK

To Catarrh Sufferers.

Every person suffering from catarrh in its many forms, knows that the common lotions, salves and douches do not cure. It is needless to argue this "Pole-Carew reports that he found at point or to cite cases of failure, because every victim of catarrhal trouble knows it for himself if he has tried them.

A local application, if it does anything at all, simply gives temporary reifef; a wash, lotion, salve or powder cannot reach the seat of the disease which is the blood.

The mucous membrane seeks to relieve the blood of catarrhal poison by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up nostrils descending to the throat and larynx, causing an irritating cough, continual clearing of the throat, deafness, indigestion and many other disagreeable and persistent symptoms. A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal treament; a remedy tem from catarrhai poison and remove the fever and congestion always present in the mucous membrane. The best remedies for this purpose are Eucalyptol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, but the difficulty has always been to get these valuable curatives combined in one palatable, convenient which will gradually cleaner the sys-

Recently this has been accomplished and the preparation put on the market under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets: they are large pleasant tasting lozenges, so that they may be slowdissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane and finally the stomach and in-

An advantage to be considered also ton your correspondent overtook, first, is that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, morphine or poisonous narcotics, so often found in catarrh powders, and the use of which often entails a habit more dangerous

Assizes Drawing Rapidly to Docket Entirely Dis-Criminal posed Of.

'No Bill" Returned in the Glencoe Outrage Case and in the Case of Victor E. Hall, Charged With Manslaughter,

What promised to be one of the longest and most important sittings of the assize court ever held in Middlesex know by your appearance that you are county, proves instead to be one of the shortest. The grand jury yesterday found "no bill" in both of the criminal cases considered by them. These being the manslaughter charge against Victor B. Hall, of Philadelphia, the charge of criminal assault against the three Glencoe men, Montague Golding, Arthur Monk and Wm. Orr, and the charge of theft against Archie Mc-Callum, arising out of the same case. This, with the postponement of the Sifton trial and Walter Herbert's plea of guilty to the charge of murder, leared the criminal docket.

The major portion of the civil docket has also been expeditiously disposed of. Two cases were settled, they being: Guest vs. Guest, a suit to recover $1,-660, rents, said to be due the widow of Thomas B. Guest, of St. Marys, out of her husband's estate, under a deed of separation, and Armstrong, vs. Shrum, in which C. B. Armstrong, assignee for J. H. Angleman, of Edy's Mills, sued to recover $400, value of a horse and team owned by Angleman, and of which the defendant refused to give up possession. Plaintiff asked also for an account of the dealings of the defendant as agent of the said Angleman, previous to the latter's assignment. One case was postponed, that of Union Advertising Company, of Donald and bride are spending a short | London, Limited, vs. Highway Advertistime at the latter's home here before ing Company, of Toronto, Limited, a leaving for their future home in Missanabi, Ont.

ing Company, of Toronto, Limited, a suit to recover $4,500 alleged to have been wrongfully obtained. This left only two cases to be disposed of this morning.

The grand jury's decision in the Glencoe affair was brought in about 4 o'clock. The prisoners were at once brought up and discharged, the judge at the same time warning them to so London, called on the former's friends in the "Ark" on Friday.

It was after 5 o'clock when the grand jury filed in and returned "no bill" in the case of Victor B. Hall. The prisoner was brought up from below and told he might go. In a courtly manner he bowed, and said to the court, "Thank you, my lord." The prisoner was a little thinner than at the time of his arrest, and his hair had turned a trifle grayer, but otherwise his five fice. months' incarceration did not seem to have affected him. The crime with which Hall was charged was that of causing the death of Mrs. Charlton, a resident of East Williams, by treating her according to his own ideas of hygiene and health. The woman was suffering from what the physicians said was typhoid fever, and was making progress towards recovery, when Hall arrived on the scene, at the request of Mrs. Charlton's relatives. He discarded the medicine left by the doctor, and began to treat the patient according to his vitalist belief. Mrs. Charlton died soon afterward.

RUSSIA'S QUEER ALPHABET

It Has Thirty-Five Letters and Some Other Hocentrio Vagaries.

At the very threshold of the Russian language you are confronted by the alphabet, says a writer in Stray Storles, Gives His Honest Opinion cland a most formidable obstacle it is to linguistic study. Cadmus, with a prophetic sympathy for the modern schoolboy, stopped short at 24 letters when he invented Greek, but Cadmus-koffovitchsky (as his Russian prototype is called) launches no fewer than 35 on the guileless foreigner.

Some of these, it is true, have the same form as Roman characters, but as their sound is entirely different, this similarity is rather an additional stumbling block than a help. Others, again, resemble our letters, turned upside down, or wrong side about, or otherwise contorted.

There is one letter for which we con-There is one letter for which we con-ceived a profound respect, not unmix-ed with awe. It resembles the figure III on a clock dial, and has the ap-palling sound of "chtch." When we came across a word containing this letter we gazed upon it in silent admiration. Any attempt to pronounce it would, we felt, prove fatal to our incisors, and considering the high fees charged by good dentists, we could not afford to run any risks.

Another curious specimen, like a small "b," with a projecting snout on top, has absolutely no sound whatever, and is defined as a "final mute."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are box or 8 for $1.25, at all draggists.

In spite of (or perhaps on account of) its silence it is greatly in evidence, no word of any size being considered comwithout it. Its only purpose, apart from that of an ornament, seems to be to warn the reader that the preceding word was in Russian, and that he must not try to pronounce it according to western rules, When a foreigner writes his name in Russian he invariably tacks this "final mute" onto it. It is regarded as a subtle compliment to the Russian nation, and doubtless has due weight with the secret police.

How much more she would have said can only be guessed at, but, of course, they would. The staff of clerks passed up their quarters like little boys before the circus wagon. "Thank you, gentlemen," she said, bowing herself out. "You have indeed assisted in a noble work."

Then came Jimmy, the office boy.
"Say, where did you fellows get them little blocks?" he inquired. "Bought them from a lady," responded one. "They are souvenirs from the battlefields of Lookout Mountain and Wore a Ring Knife With Which He Marked the Cards.

"The current story that John W. Gates, the iron trust baron, was-fleeced on an ocean liner by card sharps who used a 'pricked deck,' reminds me of a curious thing that happened years ago at Memphis," said a veteran sporting man. "It was in the days of 'wide open' gambling along the river, and the principal figure in the affair was a strapping Californian who was known as Col. Henry, and who had attracted some attention as a phenomenally successful poker player. He made no secret of being a professional gambler.

One night Henry got into a row with a man in a club room, and, jumping up from the table where he was playing poker, he struck him in the face with his clenched fist. The man fell like a log, and when he was picked up everycheek was cut wide open from eye to lip. As Henry had nothing in his hand none could understand how the cut had been inflicted, but the victim himself threw some light on the subject. 'The scoundrel wears a ring especially made for pricking cards,' he said, 'and I guess that's what he wounded me with.'

"An investigation ensued, and, sure enough, a very peculiar ring was found on the middle finger of the Californian's right hand. A small triangular blade could be raised from the side of the setting and projected about onesixth of an inch above the surface.

BASEBALL.

JONES HAS MADE A HIT. Detroit News: Of the young players picked up by the Detroit management this year none is more favorably regarded than Charles C. Jones, the outfielder. By some clever work in the field and a nice way of going at the ball when at bat, Jones made himself solid with the club and patrons on the start, and Manager Stallings announces that he will play regularly on the 1901 team. Jones is 23 years old, stands about 5 feet 11 inches, weighs 165 pounds, and is a well-proportioned young man, besides being one of the best-looking players in the league. His home is at Pa., where he started playing on an independent team in 1896. The next year he was with the same club, and later with Irwin, Pa. In 1898 he came up into Canada, and played with London and Chatham, and in 1899 he played with the London champions of the Canadian League, ranking second among the outfielders, and .318 in bat-This year he was with London, and until two weeks before the season plosed on Aug. 6, he had batted over "I was impressed with Jones the first time he went to bat for us," says Manager Stallings. "The pitcher had got two strikes on him, and then, instead of showing nervousness, and shortening his grip on the bat, he cut loose at the next good one and sent a fly to the outfield. He is a natural hitter, and I think he will rank high among the batters next year. He is also a splendid judge of fly balls, and about as good a youngster as I have the first time in the history of the summer game, we have had eleven centuries scored by one individual in first-class cricket. Even the redoubtable "W. G." himself never achieved the distinction, although for 25 years following 1871 he remained the only man who had ever scored ten hundreds in a single year. Prince Ranjistinhji has proved himself head and shoulders above any of his confreres in the cricket field this season, and the honor of being the first to score eleven centuries in one year could fall to no worthier player. He held the record, however, for one day only, for Abel, the Surrey professional, also scored eleven centuries this season. The Indian amateur can, however, law claim to a feat which Dr. Grace himself has never accomplished-that of scoring five innings of over 200 in one season. On the other hand, "W. G.'s" record of three innings of over 300 runs each, made in 1876, has still to be beaten. In the number of centuries scored, Dr. Grace, of course, stands without a rival. During his career he has compiled over 100 centuries, whereas Abel has made only 60, and Ranjitsinhji and Hayward about 30 each.

Can Be Promptly Relieved and Cured by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

The pain and suffering, the weakness and oftentimes collapse associated with an attack of Diarrhea make it a disease to be dreaded, and for which prompt relief and a ready cure are greatly to be desired. The salutary action of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in giving almost instant relief from the pain, checking the too frequent and irritating stools, settling the stomach, and bracing up the weakened heart, render it without a peer for the treatment of bowel complaints of young or old. Mrs. Peter Christensen, Parry Sound, in speaking of this remedy, says: have been very much troubled with Diarrhea for the last three summers, and have always had to have the doctor before I could get it stopped. This summer I used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and it cured the Cramps and Diarrhea promptly. have given it to my little girl for the Colic and she got relief at once. I can highly recommend this most valuable remedy. Always ask for Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and refuse substitutes or imitations, many of are worthless and some of them highly dangerous.

120 MILES AN HOUR.

CANADIAN CANDIDATES. London, Sept. 27. - Among the candidates who are seeking election to the British Parliament are two Canadians who have come to the front on this side of the Atlantic. Gilbert pains or cramps in the stomach. It was a godsend to me. CHAS, SCHOENFIELD, 27 Linwood avenue, East N.Y. Parker, the distinguished Canadian author, whose name is familiar to the whole British reading public, will contest Gravesend in behalf of the Conservative party.

Forster Boulton, another prominent Canadian, has presented himself as a candidate in North Faversham, Kent. Mr. Boulton is a former Toronto lawyer, who has been practicing for ten or twelve years in London. He is a son of the late Forster Boulton, of Toronto, and a great-grandson of the late D'Arcy Boulton, once judge of the King's bench for Upper Canada. Hon. Edward Blake, a native of Middlesex,Ont., and for several years leader of the Liberal party in Canada, but more recently representing South Longford in the British House, is also a candidate for re-election.

BOMBAY SPINNERS AFFECTED. London, Sept. 27.-The cotton crisis, according to the Bombay correspondent of the Daily Express, is paralyzing the Bombay spinners, who had hoped to purchase cheaply on a full crop. Prices, the correspondent says, are rising; 35 mills have closed and others are restricting their output. DAVITT'S LESSON.

London, Sept. 18 .- The Pretoria correspondent of the Standard, in a recent dispatch throws new light upon Michael Davitt's experiences in the Transvaal and his feeling towards the Boers. It is as follows:

"Mr. Michael Davitt left Pretoria on the 15th of May, broken and sick at heart, according to the words he himself used on the railway platform. The Rev. Batts, Baptist minister, has recorded them, and they are testified to by the Rev. Henry W. Goodwin, Congregational minister. 'He told me,' says Mr. Batts, 'that he had that morning advised the Transvaal Government if they would commend themselves in the eyes of the world and obtain the sympathy of European nations, that they should at once wire Lord Roberts to this effect: "Now that the Free State is conquered, and we are quite unable to resist alone the might of England, in the interests of humanity and to prevent further bloodshed, we will sur-render." "'Instead of doing this,' said Mr. Davitt, 'they have sent a message of a threatening character, telling Lord Roberts that they will blow up the mines or destroy Johannesburg, some terms are not made. What the terms are they do not state, and they do not really mean to carry out the threat. Their whole action will cover them with ignominy and contempt before the civilized world. They purpose prolonging the business without seriously meaning to fight, for the only object of heaping up the bars of gold they are taking from the mines and of accumulating and hoarding them in obedience to the direction of that old man, Paul Kruger.' "'That old man, Paul Kruger,' continued Mr. Davitt, 'is engaged in a sort of spiritualist seance business, with some blind boy predicting events that are to happen on certain days. I came out here at my own expense: it has cost me £300. I was full of enthusiasm for these people. They know me, they know my feelings, but they have never trusted me Today they refused to give me any information as to the situation for my papers; I go away broken and sick at heart. I am thoroughly disillusionized. For me to remain in this atmosphere is no longer possible; I cannot endure it. They ask me: "Why go away so soon? Things are not so bad as you think." "What?" said I, "when 10,000 men retire as at Kroonstad, and practically run away without firing a shot?" I went down to Kroonstad and saw their positions. They were excellent. The Boers thoroughly deceived me. They assured me that they would dispute every inch of ground, and would sell their liberties with their lives. What hap-pened you all know. All along the line I have been refused their confidence and have been thoroughly deceived. I wrote to my papers this rubbish about the grand stand that was to be made at Kroonstad speaking through them to Europe. I passport from Delagoa Bay.' yourself.'

would give £100 to withdraw what I have written. I go away today, but do not know that I can get a British "'But,' interposed Mr. Batts, 'there are other English journalists besides "'Yes,' replied Mr. Davitt, 'but I am journalist plus politician. There is a difference.' "A French baron came up at this moment. 'He has,' said Mr. Davitt, 'fought through the war. He has given up everything for their cause. Now he is going away a pauper, utterly neglected, without money enough to pay for his fare."

Your best friend can give you no better advice than this: "For impure blood, bad stomach and weak nerves take Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Signs of Prosperity,

The Bank of British North America has increased its business 63 per cent in the last five years.

A pulp mill to turn out 100 tons 2 day is to be built in Ottawa.

The manufacture of fine tapestry and velvet carpet is to be started in Sherbrooke, Quebec, by an English company. Four hundred hands will be employed. Immense pulp mills are to be built immediately at Fort Frances, Rainy

The Canada Cold Storage Company has been incorporated in Montreal with a capital of $1,000,000.

A very large lumber mill will be erected either at Port Arthur or Fort William, which will cut 10,000,000 feet a year. A Michigan firm are the proprietors, and they come to Canada to do their work as a consequence of the policy of our Government.

A Telling Contrast. The reason for the persistent Opposition denunciation of Hon. Mr. Tarte in Ontario is well known. The Opposillen manipulators have never forgiven the Minister of Public Works because he exposed the colossal rascalities that were permitted under the late regime, and they desire to get even French-speaking man at its head.

That the attacks on Mr. Tarte are ing Canada may be made higher. without warrant is shown by the fact that though he has been head of the Department of Public Works for over four years, not one of his opponents is able to point to a dollar that has been wrongfully spent.

The record of Hon. Mr. Tarte stands in marked contrast with that of his predecessors in office, under whose regime millions of dollars of public money were, by one expedient or another, filched from the public purse and appropriated to the uses of the con- it would have been natural to look for tributors to the campaign funds of the a large addition to the public debt, but instead of a large addition we find that Conservative party. Witness such colossal steals as the Curran bridge, the Quebec and Esquimalt docks and Section "B." Mr. Tarte has challenged one of his traducers to meet him at Toronto and present his accusations before the public, so that they can be the judges. So far, however, Mr. Macdonald has not had the courage to agree to a meeting.

They Cannot Be Trusted.

So great is the demand for coal in Cape Breton that the mine owners have Toronto Not the Whole Province been compelled to decline an offer from the British Government to supply the navy at Halifax, N. S. Never before, indeed, have the mines been so busy, or so many miners found employment. How different all this is from the prophecies of the opponents of Hon. W.

They cannot be trusted.

Not as Known by Sir John.

In Bruce county, a leading Liberal is being berated because at one time he supported the Conservative party, although he now holds that the present and his associates. Down in New Brunswick. Hon. John Costigan and Attorney General Rigsley, who both at one time suported the late administration, are now strongly opposed to Tupperism, and they have thousands of followers. Indeed, the Conservative party, as Sir John Macdonald led it, no longer exists. It is a thing of the past, and the leader who is to revive It, so as to secure its success, does not appear to be yet in sight.

The statue of Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, Canada's honored statesman, which will at an early day be erected on Parliament Square, Ottawa, repre- in her material interests and her na-

Dr. Roddick and Mr. Quinn, retiring Opposition M. P.s, owed their election in two divisions in Montreal in 1896 to the fact that the majority of the manufacturers and mechanics in their districts believed the cry of "blue ruin" preached by them and other Tupper

Liberal rule, as they prophesied. Canada being more prosperous, in manufacturing, in farming and in every occupation of life under the present Government than in any previous period of the existence of the Dominion, these false prophets are now doomed to defeat, and their agents

M.P.s, offering to secure their election by acclamation if they, too, are permitted to be returned unopposed. Such an exhibition of weakness is significant of the condition of affairs in Montreal. The manufacturers and their employ es, having been treated with fairness by the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as well as all other classes in the country, cannot again be cajoled to give their support to the Opposition. The workers of the country, indeed, have discovered that far from being acts, has this been shown. The Two Faces.

In the Northwest, the Opposition orators and newspapers are arguing that Hon. Mr. Sifton and other Government condidates should be defeated because the tax on agricultural implements, clothing and other supplies has not been sufficiently reduced by the present Administration. In Quebec and Ontario, Sir Charles Tupper, Hugh John Macdonald and Mr. Foster take very opposite ground, and call upon the electors to place them again in power that the taxes on commodities enterwith him on that account. They also tariff in favor of Great Britain and rehope, by attacking him, to add to the impose the old N. P. duties. Indeed, strength of their private canvas against some of the Opposition candidates are the Government because it has a urging the defeat of the Liberals, so that the taxes on commodities enter-

Something to Rejoice Over.

Some very pertinent comments are made on the year's Dominion balance sheet by the Shareholder, an independent Canadian journal. It says:

"Such a result as this speaks well for the condition of the Dominion's finances, as with the heavy expenditure incurred during the past year, includ-ing that connected with the South African contingents sent by this country, than it was at the same time last year."

This is how the Shareholder exposes the hollowness of the Opposition outcry with regard to the increased income: "The large increase in customs is not due to any increase in duties on inports, but to an increased volume in many cases, notably those of British manufactures, at reduced rates, the result of which was that the consumer received better value for his money than before the adoption of the preferential tariff on such manufactures."

That staid old joker, the Montreal

Gazette, angues that because there was a crowded audience in Massey Hall to hear Sir Charles Tupper speak the Province will go Tupper in the coming general elections. Toronto is S. Fielding, Finance Minister of Can- not Ontario, though some of its resiada, who maintained that the bargain dents may at times act as if they he made would ruin the industry, shut | thought so. Canada is well satisfied with Laurier.

According to a Berlin professor, Dr. Rietz, the language of the future will be English. The professor sees in the spread of the language in Australia and America a sign of the coming victory of English. Naturally, he is not quite sure of its right to hold this proud position. With true patriotism he points out that the German grammar has a much more logical structure than the English. But logic does not conquer all things, nor determine them in this world. English will become the universal world speech .- St. James'

A PLEASANT AFFAIR

Reopening of Ottawa Normal School-Remarks by Hon. George W. Ross and Principal Merchant.

Just 25 years ago Saturday the Ottawa Normal School was officially declared open by the lieutenant-governor of Ontario, at that time Hon. D. A. Macdonald. Dr. MacCabe was the first principal of the school, and has ever since occupied that important position, with credit to himself and marked benefit not only to this institution, but to the advance of education throughout Danada, during which time, too, more than 5,000 students have passed through the course here. Most of these have themselves become teachers throughout this continent, and it is estimated that the influence of Dr. MacCabe has thus directly and indirectly been felt by at least 200,000 of the pupils educated in the schools of Canada At the reopening on Saturday, among those present were: Hon. George Rose, premier of Ontario; Hon. F. R. Latchford: Hon. R. W. Scott. secretary of state, who was instrumental in establishing the school; Rev. H. A. Stevens, wife of the principal of the Constantineau, rector, Ottawa University, and a number of other distin-

The students at present attending took the opportunity of presenting Dr. MacCabe with a useful traveling companion and an address, expressing their recognition of the privilege of being the class during such an important term of the school, and wishing a continuation of his success to their prin-The Grey Nuns presented a silver inkstand in recognition of service rendered their educational work by Dr. MacCabe.

SALISBURY'S VERBAL REPLY

To the German Ambassador at London.

Correctness of the Report Denied and Reaffirmed-Germany May Break Down.

London, Sept. 27 .- The statement that Lord Salisbury had verbally answered the German ambassador, Count Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, in the same terms as the United States Government used in replying to the German note, has called forth many denials throughout Europe. In the first place, it may be reiterated that on Tuesday last, the 151/2c to 21c. Cheese firm; large white, British premier told the German ambassador here that Germany's idea of the surrender of the authors of the outrages as a precedent to peace negotiations and in so doing Lord Salisbury employed terms similar to those used in the note from Washington. Though this was intended as a refusal of what is regarded in Downing street as the only really important feature of the German note, it was not accepted as such by the German ambassador, on the ground that Lord Salisbury had not 'formally" answered the note, and had left the patter part of the German proposal - that the ministers at Pekin should designate the offenders-unanswered, pending an hourly expected message from Minister Claude Mac-Donald at Pekin.

FOREIGN OFFICE STATEMENT, The British foreign office has issued what may be taken in England to be a denial of the statement made to the Associated Press, saying that the British answer had "not yet been sent." This was expressly set forth in the dispatch announcing Lord Salisbury's reply to the German ambassador, and it was added that the answer might not be sent for several days.

There is no reason to believe that the awaited message from Pekin will have any bearing on Lord Salisbury's determination to agree with the United States in refusing to consent to the only proposition of any weight contained in the German note, though the formal pronouncement of such disagreement may be staved off at the last moment by Germany receding from the position she has taken up and submitting to a compromise. If such should be the case—and a high German official in London has already hinted to the Associated Press that IT MAY OCCUR would be only natural that Berlin and the other capitals, in accord with ermany, should use every effort to conceal the fact that Germany had been coerced into a compromise arrange-ment by the action of Great Britain and the United States.

Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg Count was not the only recipient of Lord Salisbury's views on Tuesday, for during the usual foreign office reception several foreign representatives sounded the premier on Great Britain's attitude towards the German proposal, and they were all satisfied Lord Salisbury's decision was against Germany.

The witnesses for the state testified that Howard was seen jumping the fence and running away just after the shooting. Witnesses said he had a beard. The most sensational testimony for the state was that of James Stubblefield, an ex-deputy sheriff of Clay county, who showed that Howard avowed the crime to him, and that he said: never sight down my gun barrel without I get meat or money, and this time I got both."

THE MINISTER OF LABOR

Postmaster-General Mulock Accepts the Title.

In the address presented to Mr. Mulock by his constituents, he was spoken of as the minister of labor, and in recognition of that new title he said: "You have been good enough, Mr.

Secretary, to refer in the address you have read to the fact that I fill, at present, the position of postmastergeneral and minister of labor. This is the first time publicly that I have been referred to as minister of labor, and it is perhaps proper, therefore, that I should make clear to you the significance of that term. Early in our public career as a government, we discovered that so far as the governments of our predecessors were concerned they had been unmindful in their own atfairs of the interests of labor, and that the public works paid for by the public money of Canada were being carried out by wage-earners most insufficiently paid. It seemed to fall to my lat to be the cause of the investigation being made as to the terms upon which large portions of the militia clothing of Canada had been manufactured. A commissioner was appointed in 1897, and after some months' investigation, re-ported that the sweating system, as it is called—a system the object of which is to wring out of the people a maximum amount of work at a minimum amount of pay-was in operation in Canada. The fact was disclosed that this system had been fostered by the methods of our predecessors, to the great wrong of many toilers in Canada. As an instance I may say the reports showed that militia clothing, the large, heavy militia overcoats, heavy, stiff and hard to sew, were being made by women at 40 cents apiece: that a week's wage upon them did not amount aften to more than $1 for a week's work of six days, ten hours a day, or 11/3 cents hour. ("Shame!") work upon that class of public work. (Cheers.) We expanded the system, and last spring introduced into parlialution, which provides that upon all public works no less than the fair current rate of wages to competent workmen shall be paid to those who perform work for the public. That resolution obtained the approval of parliament, and in connection with it parliament passed a measure calling upon the government to establish a department of labor for the proper consideration of labor problems and the advancement of the labor cause in Can-ada, and his excellency the governorgeneral did me the honor of asking me to accept the first portfolio as minister of labor, which I did, and so today I am minister of labor as well as post-

They entered the chair car and were soon dozing. Nearing Topeka, they were awakened and were informed that two pickpockets had been discovered the train and were locked in the bagage car, and that a third light fingered man was supposed to still be on the train. Mr. Neilson left the train at Topeka and went to a hotel. He there discovered that his watch was missing, the chain having been cut with wire nippers close to .his waistcoat. His friend, who had gone to the platform with him stepped back into the car. The seats that he and Mr. Neilson had occupied were taken by others. He glanced down the aisle and noticed at the other end a vacant chair beside a tall man with a heavy black mustache. He sat down beside the stranger. The man appeared to be nervous, and at the next station left the train. Mr. Neilson's friend rode on to Emporia. Just before his station was reached his foot touched thing on the floor. He picked it up. It was a watch. Thinking the stranger had lost it, he advertised in the papers of the town where the man had left the train, but received no answer.

A year passed, Mr. Neilson was again going to Topeka, when he met the same friend. They began discusswatches, when Mr. Neilson remarked: "It's a peculiar-coincidence, but I lost my watch on this train just a year ago tonight."

"It's still more peculiar," answered his friend, "but I found one on this train just a year ago." He showed the watch. It was Mr. Nellson's.

The explanation was that the stranger was the third pickpocket, and it was he who had taken the Neilson watch. When the friend sat beside him the pickpocket thought he was suspected and dropped the watch on the floor and left the train .- Kansas

LIONS YEARNED FOR FAT PUG

Dog Guessed Their Intentions and Made Frantic Dash for a Place of Salety.

One afternoon a stout, elderly woman with an exceedingly fat pug dog which she was leading with a chair drew up before the lions' cage at the "Zoo" in Lincoln Park. Perhaps it was because the lions had not had their regular afternoon meal, and perhaps it was because of the inviting fatness of the pug, but in any event hardly had the woman and her dog come into sight before the fence which surrounds the elevated cage in which the lions are kept than the latter began to evidence the most unmistakable interest in the dog. Crouching like a cat about to spring on a rat, with lowered heads and eyes fastened on the dog, they crept along the bottom of the cage oward where the pug was, as if the iron barriers which intervened had been entirely lost sight of. There was no mistaking the greedy looks of their eyes, which held in them the most eager anticipation, as if they beheld the most toothsome morsel that had ever come to their notice. Those on the broad shelves where they were wont to stretch themselves in slipped quietly down and lined up in a crouching attitude close to the bars of the cage, with eyes which followed every movement of the dog. For a moment or two the woman did not seem to comprehend the significance of their actions, but not so the dog, and it gave every evidence of being anything but pleased by it, It tugged this way and then that way at its chain, and every time it moved the lions within followed up and down along the bars. "I wonder what ails them," the woman finally said, in a rather uneasy tone; and then, seeming to comprehend, she gave a little scream and made a plunge as though to gather up her dog. But in doing so she let go her hold on the chain, and the pug. finding himself free, proceeded to put as much space as possible between himself and the lions. The latter had by this time become much excited, and as they beheld the pug lumbering away and rapidly get-ting out of their reach, they dashed against the bars of the cage and roared their disappointment at the escape of their anticipated quarry.

This entirely completed the poor woman's discomfiture, and with a scream of terror she started after her dog as rapidly as her avoirdupois would permit, shouting at frequent intervals: "Oh, they will kill my Fido! They will kill my Fido!" The actions of his mistress probably added to Fido's terror, for with one look toward her he fled down the graveled pathway at a rate of speed of which no one would have thought him capable, with his mistress in hot pursuit.-Chicago Tribune. FOR THE OVERWORKED .- What are the causes of despondency and melancholy? A disordered liver is one cause and a prime one. A disordered liver means a disordered stomach, and a disordered stomach means disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection and the victim feels sick all over. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy in this state and relief will follow their use.

The determination of the United States to withdraw her troops from China while at the same time increasing the strength of her fleet in Chinese waters, is rather disconcerting to the powers. But the interpretation put upon it in official circles is that the United States is resolved to protect the policy of the "open door" to the extremity, and is therefore preparing a fleet for the purpose of maintaining that pol-

Mire. Ward and her husband, who is an English missionary, were at Chang

San, Southern China, for several years.

They remained at their post until it became evident that their lives were endangered. Mr. Ward placed his wife and children on a boat and started them down the river, while he and some native Christians started over-

Presentment of the Grand Jury-Old Court House Good Enough for the Present-Mr. Justice Rose Dissents From Such a View.

At 10 o'clock this morning the grand jury brought in their presentment. They congratulated the judge and the people of the country on the success evening at the residence of the bride's of the British armies in South Africa, and the part taken by Canadians in the game. In consequence of the forth. judge's remarks, the jury had made a partial examination of the court house, and found that while the buildings are somewhat aged, there has been considerable repairing done, that they are well ventilated and a model of cleanliness, and as far as they could see ample for present requirements, but they recommend that the judge's suggestions be forwarded to the proper authorities. While the cases considered by the jury had been of a serious nature, they were few in number. The jail was visited and found neat, clean and in a good state of repair. Eighteen prisoners, 15 males and 3 females, were confined therein, their offenses being classified as follows: Insane, 5; murder, 2; assault, 3; vagrancy, 1; drunk, 3; theft, 2; supplying liquor to Indians, 1; neglect to support children, 1.

THE JUDGE'S REPLY.

Mr. Justice Rose, in replying, said that in common with them and all Canadians he rejoiced that the war in South Africa was coming to a ter-mination, and hoped it would prove of benefit to Great Britain. In relation Edwards is said to have done to their remarks as to the condition of the courthouse, the judge said he could not approve of them. He regretted that they did not see their way clear to make a request more in accordance with his suggestions, and he feared they had not made a thorough investigation. The building was old, totally unsuited for its purposes, ill-ventilated and unsanitary. The building is not a credit either to the city or the county. inflicting a wound on his head. The If grand jurors are going to be content that the matter would be remedied, and if it was not, and he lived to come back to another assizes, he would make it his business to have an indictment prepared agginst the proper authorities, and have a grand jury pass upon In other particlars the jury mad performed their duties well. He dismissed them with the hope that they would safely reach their homes. At the assizes today the last two cases on the list were heard together, they being the Agricultural Savings and Loan Company vs. Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company, to recover two sums of $300 and $1,200 respectively, insurance upon property owned by C. R. Annett, of Watford, of which property the plaintiff company are mortgagees, and the Agricultural Savings and Loan Company vs. Alliance Assurance Company, a similar suit to the above, the amounts claimed being $600 and $900 respectively. The cases will be concluded this afternoon. The jurymen were paid off this morning and left for their homes. The grand jurors were paid $129 20, ar + he petit jurors received $741 60.

HURON COLLEGE

Alumni Heartily Indorse the Choice of Ontario Diocese

In the Election of Ven. Archdeacon Mills, D.D., as Coadjutor Bishop-Election of Officers.

After the Huron College alumni supper last evening, which is not the least pleasant part of the alumni's proceedings, the following resolution was moved by the Rev. R. S. W. Howard. B.A., seconded by the Venerable Archwithin, the home was beautifully de- deacon Evans Davis, M.A., and carried unanimously by an enthusiastic standing vote:

"That the alumni of Huron College greatly rejoice in the happy selection that has been made by the Synod of the Diocese of Ontario in choosing for coadjutor bishop, with the right of suc-cession, the Venerable Archdeacon William Lenox Mills, D.D., who is a distinguished graduate of this college, and the first to be called to so high and sacred an office in the Church of God. That we hereby desire to express to the bishop-elect our most hearty congratulations, and to assure him that our prayer is that God will be with him in his consecration to this great and holy work, and that through all his life he may enjoy increasingly the presence and power of God the Holy Spirit to enable him to discharge the duties of his sacred office, for the advancement of God's glory, the good of Business of the Assizes About his church and the salvation of men."

THE TURF NEWMARKET RACES.

London, Sept. 27.—At the third day's racing of the Newmarket first October meeting today the Jockey Club stakes of 10,000 sovereigns, the second horse to receive 1.500 sovereigns, the third 1,000 sovereigns, the nominator of the winner 400 sovereigns, and the nominator of the second 200 sovereigns out of the stakes, was won by Mr. J. R. Keene's bay colt Disguise II., ridden by H. Cannon. Lord William Beresford's Jolly Tar was second and Mr. R. A. Brice's colt Foriarshire was third. Eight horses ran.

The result of the race for the Jockey Club's stakes was a great upset for the racing public, as the Prince of Wales' Diamond Jubilee was confidently expected to capture the last £10.000 race of the season. The Prince of Wales' crack, however, was unable to give Disguise II. twelve pounds weight, and although the prince's colt led to the bushes he was beaten by Disguise II., who drew to the front and won by two lengths. A neck separated the second and third horses. The betting was 100 to 30 against Disguise II., 6 to against Jolly Tar, 100 to 7 against Forfarshire, and 7 to 4 against Diamond

"I would rether not, sir," objected Louis, with heightened color. "My son, all that I have is yours from this time forth," said Mr. Forest, and drawing from his pocket a checkbook upon the Bank of England, to-gether with a stylographic pen, he laid both in Louis' hands.

"Now, what would you do if you yere worth that sum, and in my dace?" he asked. "Write the amount one of those slips and let me

Louis saw that he was in earnest, could not refuse to comply with one of the checks, and then passed it back to his father, saying: will give him a pretty fair start in life if he is disposed to use it rightly; if not, you certainly need not be troubled with remorse for not having done your duty toward him.' Mr. Forest read the amount-it was ten thousand dollars-and smiled a pleasant assent.

Then tearing the check from the book he signed it, after which he excused himself, and followed his nephew from the room.

CHAPTER XLVII.

Forest questioned, as he entered his room and found the young man standing thoughtfully beside his portmanteau, which he had just finished pack-

'I have none beyond getting out of this country as soon as possible," he answered moodily.

"Do not let your mistake make you restless, my boy," said Mr. Forest, kindly. "It is never too late to begin to do right while we have Mfe and "Alas! my life has been nothing but a mistake from beginning to end.' Well, half the battle is fought when we become conscious of our sin-the other half must be fought to conquer it," said his uncle. "I cannot forget," he resumed, with some emotion. "that you are my sister's son, and I shall always feel an interest in you. I hope you will try to do well from this time on, but if you get sick or in trouble at any time, I want you to let me know." 'Do you suppose he will countenance you interest in any one who has done him nothing but injury?" Arthur curtly asked, with a motion of his hand toward the room where Louis was. "You wrong him, Arthur," Mr. Forest returned, quickly. "He told you himself that he would grudge you nothing that I might choose to do for you. And see-I can prove it. I asked him to name some sum to give you a start with, and he filled out this check for you with his own hands." Mr. Forest banded it to him as he Arthur took it and stood silently regarding it for a moment. He was very pale. His face was overcast, there was deep furrow between his brows, and his lips trembled nervously. Uncle Albert, I cannot take it!" he burst out at length. "Why not?"

"It is too much; it burns me like a red-hot coal," and the paper fluttered from his nerveless fingers to the floor. Mr. Forest's face brightened.

The young man hesitated a moment, then he took the paper, folded it carefully and put it in his wallet.

"I will say good-bye to you here, Uncle Albert; I cannot meet them again," with another nod toward the adjoining room. "You have been very good to me," he added, speaking with difficulty, "and though I have acted the part of a knave, I believe I have come to my senses sufficiently to ap-preciate your generous conduct." He held out his hand as he con-

"Good-bye, Arthur," he said sadly; "let me hear from you. My address will be here for the present, and I beg of you, let the future, as far as may be, redeem the past." His nephew made no response, but,

The whole party were saddened by the event. They had known him even since boyhood, and could not help feel-ing deep regret that one who had so many advantages and everything to contribute toward a life of usefulness and success, should have misused his opportunities.

It is very unwise to rear children in luxury and idleness," Mr. Forest remarked; "they should be taught to act and think for themselves, and be made to feel that they have duties and responsibilities in life."

He glanced with an air of pride at Louis as he spoke. It was wonderful, he thought, considering the unfavorable influences by which he had been surrounded during the early years of his life, that he should have developed into the noble, cultivated gentleman that he was.

Of course, the young man's prospects were all changed upon learning his

He was now the heir to a large for-tune, and he could now return to his ve as he chose.

His father argued this matter with him one day.

"Of course, I know that, and I do not ask you to sit down and fold your hands, but at the same time I do not feel like spending my life here with for my native land and the scenes of my youth; but I cannot be separated from you; now that I have found my want to enjoy his society. Inson I deed, Louis," Mr. Forest concluded, "you once told me that you would not like to make this a permanent home." "No, I am too thorough an American not to prefer my own country," Louis responded, "but my position here is an excellent one, and I naturally feel a pride in making the most of it."

"True, but it will be a good open-ing for some other worthy young man, and we will go home and establish some business that will be both agreeable to us and helpful to others. believe we can do more good there, too; we understand the ways of Americans better than those of any other people, and I long to do something for poor boys there who are struggling upward as you struggled. "Yes; I believe that duty as well as inclination points that way," Louis thoughtfully replied.

Other influences also combined to draw him homeward.

Made by many a man for taking a drink at the bar is that he needs a bracer. He feels weak, his stomach is "out of sorts" and liquor makes him "feel good." The tired man who sits on a pin leaps up with new energy but no one would sav that this energy was evi-dence of the strength giving power of a pin. So with the energy induced by liquors. They only spur the body but do not strengthen it. Strength is made from food properly digested and assimilated. When the stomach is diseased there is a failure to extract the nutrition from food and the body grows weak. The weak body needs strengthening, not stimulating. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nutrition of food is perfectly extracted and assimilated and the body nourished into health and strength.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is no other medicine "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and ailied organs.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have been of great benefit to me," writes (Prof.) Pleasant A. Gliver, of Viola, Fulton Co., Ark. "Before I used the above mentioned remedies my sleep was not sound: digestion bad; a continual feeling of misery. I now feel like a new man.

CALIFORNIA'S MARVELOUS FARMS

A Hundred Million Pounds of Fruit a Year.

With striking unanimity the people of California turned to the agricultural, horticultural and climatic advantages his uncle said, quietly, "And now," he added, stooping to pick up the fallen check, "I think it will be best for you to take this: if you like when the inhabitants entered extensively into the growing of oranges and lemons, figs and kindred semi-tropical fruits. Oranges quickly became one of the distinctive products of California, enjoying wide marketing, much flattery and plenty of profit.

In the central valleys, the residents learned to irrigate and to find artesian wells, evolving the Wright law defining riparian rights as the mining period had evolved the hydraulic and other mining laws, and producing wells flowing as hight as 2,500,000 gallons of water daily. Here chiefly in the region now known as Fresno, raisin growing gradually developed, until, in combination with other sections of the state, it has become almost as conspicuous a feature of California's products as wine and oranges, the annual output running as high as 50,000 tons, or to the almost incredible sum of 100,000,000 pounds.

Drying grapes for raisins was accompanied by drying prunes and pickling olives, and the picturesque and romantic aspect of the state was added to by the fact that its rolling hills were dotted with the tree whose wreaths decker the brows of victors in the Roman and Grecian circuses, and whose wood is sought as memento of the sacred scenes upon the Mount in Jerusalem. One county alone puts out enough prunes to feed a score of states, while the general product in California is gaining in celebrity almost as rapidly as the raisins and the wines. In the foothills of the state where formerly the hydraulic hose carried away acres of rich soil, all the deciduous fruits were found to acquire an exceptional sweetness and lusciousness. In the meadow regions of the high mountains on the fog-swept banks of the coast counties were the dairy and vegetable farms. There fruits and veg-etables were canned. The canning industry became one of the stable occupations of the people. By the beginning of its fortieth year as a state, California easily led America, if not the worlld, in the amount of horticultural output, as thirty years previously it had led in the output of gold. At the expiration of its forty-fifth year, California fruit, including the delicious figs which formerly had been the exclusive product of the Adriatic regions, had settled themselves upon the stands of public markets in all cities.

At the close of the fiftieth year-the end of the first half-century-the state's output of wines, vegetables and fruit combined amounted to 55,000 carloads annually. That would be enough to stretch a highway of peaches, brandy and canned pears and other fruit from New York to Buffalo. Furthermore, the fruit industry had grown so important as an economic factor in the United States that the protest of the Californians virtually defeated the recently own country whenever he wished, and proposed reciprocity treaties with Jamaica and France. The exploiting of the fruit industry completed the determination of the gen-"But, father, I can never consent to eral possibilities of the state. It fixed live in idleness," he objected; "If I its local characteristics, gave towns and knew I should inherit five times as counties a basis to work upon, and much, I should be very restless and unnumity. The interior took on permanent strength. San Jose, in the midst of the prune belt, became rich and lovely with homes and roses. Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys became the fruit shipping center as well as the these chattering Frenchmen; I long railroad center. Stockton became the center of the grain and melon district, and one of the principal points of trade with the mountains. Los Angeles grew into a sectional metropolis, with a dozen or more thrifty cities surrounding it. Around San Francisco, as its population increased, the adjacent cities acquired size, improved their streets and assumed the position of home and manufacturing cities. Oakland grew to a population of 90,000. One of the characteristics of the towns was the liberality of their construction. The homes were surrounded with plenty of gardenroom. The streets were made wide. Modern improvements were introduced as I rapidly as they could reach the coast. San Jose was among the first cities of the country to use the high electric arc light tower, which was popular not many years ago,—Arthur Street, in Ainslee's.

CITIZEN-A teamster, in taking his wagon to and from his premises, leaves dirt and cinders on the sidewalk to the annoyance of persons using the street. It is a daily occurrence. Can he be compelled to sweep the sidewalk? Ans. -No, he cannot be compelled to sweep the sidewalk, but he may be fined for fouling it by dirt or rubbish, which would possibly have the same effect. Report matters at police station.

LOW BRANCHES-The owners of shade trees on the street have paid no attention to the notice of the city engineer regarding trees to be trammed so as to leave room to carry an umbrella in wet weather, I don't want to complain of my neighbors. Is there no way of enforcing the law without a citizen having to make complaint? Ans.—It is the duty of the city en-gineer to enforce the bylaw as to trim-ming of shade trees. If he has failed to do so the remedy is for a citizen to make complaint against the offender or against the city engineer.

Perfectly Raw From the Knees to the Toes-A Terribly Painful Case, Which Was Thoroughly Cured

The torture which is caused by the intense itching and burning sensations of eczema makes it one of the most distressing ailments, while the presence of the raw flesh, which refuses to heal under ordinary treatment, adds to the misery of the sufferer.

Th following case is reported as one which illustrates the extraordinary control which Dr. Chase's Ointment has over eczema, both as a prompt relief for the dreadful itching and as an antiseptic healer, which speedily and certainly brings about a thorough cure. In vain were all sorts of medicines and ointments used and doctors appeared to be helpless before the dread-ful ravages which the flaming fires of eczema were making. Here is the way

Mrs. Knight describes this interesting case. Mrs. Knight, 17 Hanover Place, Toronto, states: "My mother, Mrs. Wright, of Norval, suffered for a summer and winter with eczema on her foot. She could neither walk nor sleep, and it became so bad that she was perfectly raw from her toes to her knees. After trying every available remedy without success, and almost hopeless of relief, she began using Dr. Chase's Ointment. She has altogether used eight or nine boxes, with the happy result that she is now completely cured. Anyone wishing further particulars can communicate with Mrs. Wright, Norval, Ont. After such a grand success, is it any wonder that we recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment?" It is just such tests as this one that have convinced physicians of the truly wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Ointment. If you are a sufferer, with any itching skin disease, or have a sore that will not heal, make a test for yourself. on townline between Dorchester and You will certainly become an enthusiastic admirer of Dr. Chase's Ointment. just as is everyone who knows its merits. Screaton & Co., London, Ont., passed through the city today on his way to the Adirondacks, where he will enjoy a week's deer shooting as the guest of Governor Edward C. Smith, of Vermont State, who is also president of the Vermont Central Railway. Mr. Screaton admits that if luck should attend the efforts of his shooting iron, he will be in a quandary. The laws of the state will not allow him to take a carcass out of the country, but if by any chance a buck could be smuggled across the line it would be seized by the Can-adian authorities, for the deer season here is yet a long way off.

-Miss Margaret Wallace, who is a medical missionary in China, has written from Wel Ha Wei to her sister, Miss Jean Wallace, of this city, under date of Aug. 17. News had just been received of the relief of Pekin, but there were no particulars. A celebra-tion was being arranged for that evening, in which the warship Terrible would take a leading part. The nurses were preparing for the sick and wounded to come down from the front. Miss Wallace says: "I have seven new patients down from Tokio yesterday. Three of them were at Ladysmith. Two of them have phthisis bad. Poor boys. They want good feeding. Three of us are running the canteen hospital, and it is hard work. We have now 64 men. I would rather have them very sick than well enough to run the guard and get drunk, as some of them The English are great for beer and stout, and they get it pretty freely, as the water is not good tasting-condensed sea water. el she would never, never act again, and that she was quite content to settle down in Boston as Mrs. Benjamin F. Cheney. But it is as hard for her to give up the fascinating life behind the footlights as it is for all the host of other actors and actresses who have tried it and failed. Consequently her added statement that this is really the last attempt creates amusement. Miss Arthur has an original interpretation of Hamlet. It is not like the divine Sara's, nor in fact patterned after any conception of modern times. Possessing a millionaire husband, Miss Arthur can well afford a production which rumor says will put all Hamlets in the background, if for no other reason than its scenic magnificence. Costumes and ideas are to be obtained in Europe, and the tragedy will be presented some time next March at the Broadway Theater. In a few weeks the actress starts on a private car tour of her husband's road, the Santa Fe.

Interesting Morning and Afternoon Sessions Held Yesterday-Able Papers Presented.

The sessions of the Huron College Alumni Association yesterday were very interesting.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was partaken of at St. Paul's Cathedral procession upon certain evenings.

Revs. Canon Hill, A. P. Moore and at 9:30. The meeting of the association was continued at Huron College, Rev. others continued the discussion. and Miss Mary J. McGibbon, of Ko- S. F. Robinson, of Walkerton, occupying the chair.

paper on "The Leading Characteristics of St. Luke's Gospel," pointing out amongst other things that it is a Gospel especially adapted to the needs of the world at large as distinguished from the Jewish people, and laying great stress upon St. Luke's lengthy account of our Lord's Peraean ministry, which, while it occupied only two months in time, is given nearly ten chapters in space by St. Luke-chapters which contain parables such as the Prodigal Son and the Good Samaritan, which have wielded such a mighty influence upon the whole world.

The animated and highly instructive discussion which followed was engaged in by Revs. J. Downie, Provost Watkins, D. Williams, of Stratford, and

W. Stout, of Kirkton. In the discussion it was ably maintained by Provost Watkins and the Rev. D. Williams that St. Matthew's Gospel was written originally in the Greek language, and that the writers of the New Testament had a fair general education, while some are acknowledged to have been scholarly, Renan's acknowledgment concerning St. Luke's Gospel was quoted: "This the most beautiful book there is." Rev. William Stout drew attention to the fact that pure Hebrew was a dead language at the time of our Provost Watkins moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Cox, and also that the paper be printed. Rev. S. F. Robinson read a paper on "Church Lessons from Canadian His-tory," which proved to be a most trenchant and powerful exposure of the quarters from which the church had been opposed and despoiled in the past. and contained a stirring appeal to the clergy to uphold to the utmost her claims upon the people of her own communion and to guard against the influences which militate against her progress in Canada today. The speaker in the most fearless manner gave his reasons for believing that the different denominational churches were politically more opposed to the Church of England than they are to the Church of Rome IN THE AFTERNOON.

Rev. John Downie gave a searching paper on "Consecration," in which he passed in review the leading saints of the Old Testament and the New, and in showing that separation unto God was a distinguishing feature of God's people in all ages. A ship is safe in the sea, but not safe if the sea is in the ship; so the church is safe in the world, but not if the world is in the church.

Rev. R. S. W. Howard, B.A., gave an excellent paper on the need of systematic teaching of fundamental church doctrine. He maintained that the pendulum had swung too far on the side instruction in practical goodness as a natural reaction against the excessive doctrinal teaching of earlier days. The various heretical cults, as spiritualism, Christian Science, etc., were strongly dogmatic, and the best means of guarding against these false teachings of the day was by solid instruction in the sound doctrines. Many popular novels were now written with the view of insidiously instilling false The reconstruction that is needed is that return to the old doc trines which are the true basis of all truly religious life.

Rev. T. S. A. Wright, B. A., spoke at length in support of Mr. Howard's paper, maintaining that the Church of England is above all things a teaching church. Rev. F. G. Newton spoke of the growth in the creeds, the church year, and the Thirty-Nine Articles, which he had received as a child. He advocated instruction on the doctrines of sin,

After votes of thanks to the speakers, the bishop gave a few encouraging words. He said: "We want not more gold in the treasury, but more inner communion with God and more and more of the love of God shed abroad in the hearts of our people. Not the declaration of dogma, but the drawing nearer to the personal Saviour, is what will draw us near to one another." He exhorted the members to keep up the association and to strengthen one another. After prayer by the bishop the alumni adjourned to the annual sup-

Ald. Garratt Chosen to Succeed Ald. Plant-Fire Department Affairs.

It was necessary last night to appoint a successor to Ald. Plant as chairman of No. 8 committee. Ald. Wray was the choice of Ald. Dreaney and Ald. Ross, while Ald. Jenkins and Ald. Garratt supported Ald. Pritchard. To break the deadlock Ald. Dreaney suggested Ald. Garratt's name, and he was unanimously elected. Chief Roe suspended Fireman Tom Hartley, who left his work the other day without reporting. He had to attend to some legal matters. The suspension was reported to the committee, who decided to leave the affair in the chief's hands. The latter intimated that Hartley would be reinstated, but the pay of his substitute will be de-
