CEASELESS STREAM OF VISITORS COMMENCES AT NOON HOUR

Most Optimistic Outlook For the Largest Attendance in Show's. History-Weather Now in Good Humor.

This is Farmers' Day at the Western Fair, and the present indications are that all former records for attendance will be broken.

At noon there were 20,000 people on the grounds, and the street railway poured a constant stream of visitors into the park. At 3 o'clock the figures could not be obtained, but conservative estimates placed the number at 40,000. And the crowd was still coming. It is expected that the evening's performance will be witnessed by a much larger crowd.

Special trains were run on all the railways today, and they were all crowded. The train from the Sarnia branch was particularly well filled.

The visitors did not go to the park grounds was heard today. There is as early as is usually the case, the no question that more room is needed.

The grounds are literally packed with majority spending the morning in the downtown stores. Later they made their way to the exhibition, and the large staff at the grounds was kept busy handling the throngs. The judging has been completed, and the awards are all placed.

"No Complaints," the Keynote. The regular meeting of the board directors was held at noon, but there was little business to be done.

"We have had no complaints of serious nature," explained Secretary "Not a single protest has been entered, the first time in the history of the Fair that such has happened. Everybody is satisfied."

It was reported that the receipts from the parts and grandstands are incorporation to the other buildings and ahead of 1911 by fully $700. Tuesday the rebuilding of the race track are conalone was $500 better than the correspending day last year, while Saturday and Monday showed satisfactory increases. If the weather continues fine, the Fair Association will have a handsome sum to place in the reserve fund, which is somewhat depleted owing to the rain last year, and because some extraordinary expenditures.

ing Tied Up. [Canadian Press.] London, Sept. 10. — A national joint onference between shipbuilders and the Boilermakers' Society will be held at Newcastle today. The interests of several thousand shipyard workers are involved, with the possibility in the background of a national strike. The national agreement between the shipbuilders and the Boilermakers'

Society expired yesterday, and the boilermakers now want a new agreement, doing away with compulsory arpitration and allowing strikes at will. The reason given for demanding this change is that the largest part of their work is piecework, and the boilermak ers say that in case of dispute the job is finished before arbitration can take

The agreement embraced thirteen other unions, which have not broken away, but which call for amendments in the agreement at the confer-

The outcome is of special importance as all Birtish shipyards crowded with work.

Death of Man Found Under Bridge To Be Investigated.

[Special to The Advertiser.] St. Thomas, Sept. 10.—An inquest will be held into the death of Thomas Lorton, who was found dead beneath the Mill Creek bridge. He was subject to fits, and had been in the Amasa Wood Hospital here for six days on that account. He came to Port Stanley from Port Colborne. One of Lorton's legs was broken, it was

A BRITISH WARNING.

"It is pleasant to see that fine statesman, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, denounce with characteristic force the wicked attempt to generate an international passion, and rush the Dominions into evil and unconsidered courses. Sir Wilfrid told the panicmongering visitors—they were, no-body will be surprised to learn, a group of financiers—that the German peril does not exist, and that Canada has no intention of being drawn into Europe's mad race for armaments."-London Daily News and Leader.

The News and Leader gauges with accuracy the latest move of rampant imperialism and jingoism. Get the people excited, then, with race hatred, convince the colonials that they have to fight, and Englishmen that they need colonial help; thus the empire may be rushed into some hasty machinery of federal government such as Mr. Borden has been put up to ask for, such as every constituent part of the empire except New Zealand rejected last summer at the Imperial Africa nor Australia shows any inclination to accept. "There can be little doubt," says the News and Leader, "that the idea of a single Imperial fleet under a single control, has no chance of acceptance by the Dominions." . Why? "The single imperial navy implies some imperial organ with executive powers on which the Dominions are represented." But, as an Australian writing in the "Round Table" expresses it, the sense of nationality is far too highly developed in the Domin-Mons. Nevertheless a well-managed agitation, with a powerful press for its guns and panie for ammunition, is endeavoring to the utmost to railroad. In the second place, the News and Leader hints that large financial interests are deeply concerned in fomenting this anti-German frenzy. Shipbuilding is one of the greatest of British industries and numerous others depend upon it. A contribution from Canada would be acceptable, of course, and they are passing the hat as they ery out what passes for wisdom in the street and circulate the Harmsworth press.

As the News and Leader says, "the -people of Canada can and should consider the question of imperial defence with due deliberation, unmoved by any anxiety lest a moment's delay or hesitation to accept this or that specific will bring disaster upon the empire.' Disaster is much more likely to come 'through credulity and precipitate ac-

THE MIDLOTHIAN ELECTION.

The British Liberals have lost the constituency of Midlothian, endeared to them by Gladstone's famous victory in 1879, when he signalized his re-entry into public life and into the leadership by storming this stronghold of landlordism, and overthrowing the long ascendency of the Duke of Buccleuch. His campaign had become a cherished tradition of British Liberalism, which is now hit in a tender spot.

The vote tells the usual tale - the Unionist candidate snatching a victory out of the feud between Liberalism and Labor. The combined Liberal and Labor vote was 8,402, the Unionist vote 6.021. In the last general election, when there was no Labor candidate, the Liberal vote was 8,837, the Unionist 5.680. The Unionist vote has increased 341; the Liberal vote has decreased 2,848. Without doubt the Labor vote of 2,413 was drawn almost entirely from the Liberal party. The Laborites had a popular and able candidate in Provost Brown, of Dalkeith, the centre of a busy mining and industrial region, where the Liberals have nationalization of lands, railways, and mines, must have appealed strongly to the mine and factory workers at the expense of the Liberals. The Unionist candidate absolutely ignored the tariff question and trained his heavy guns on the insurance act, tactics benches. which would be impossible in a general election. It has to be admitted that politics is an unsavory mess in Manitoba. ### FRANCE IN CONTROL OF MEDITERRANEAN Arrangement With Britain and Russia a Safeguard Against Triple Alliance.

[Canadian Press.] Paris, Sept. 10. — The recently negotiated Franco-Russian naval convention and the older Anglo-French convention, relating to the Mediterranean seaboard, will be brought into practical operation within a few days when the French fleet, which heretofore has had its headquarters at Brest, will be permanently transferred to Toulon. This naval move will give to France complete control in the Mediterranean over any possible combination of the Triple Alliance, and will leave to England the defence of the North Sea, while Russia guards the Baltic Sea. Experts point out that with the Russian fleet in the Baltic, the strength of the British fleet will be materially increased against any contemplated German attack, while the English hannel is considered sufficiently defended by the numerous fleets of destroyers and submarines stationed on both the English and French coasts.

The J. J. Callaghan Piano House has arranged an exhibition of Martin-Orme Pianos, specially chosen for the Western Fair, at 195 Dundas street, next The Advertiser office.

Space was not to be had at Queen's Park, but judging from the interest manifested, so far; this makes little difference to the music lover.

There are pianos and pianos, but there's only one Martin-Orme. It is the instrument with a perfect tone. Good workmanship may be put into a piano by any maker, but it requires the experience, the training, the natural aptitude, in short, the genius of a man like Mr. Owain Martin, to produce instruments like those on view at 195 Dundas street.

Any person who cares to hear or try one of these pianos will be sure of a welcome at any time up till 9 p.m.

The word "bargain" seems out of place in connection with "quality" like this, but the fact that the cost of these specially-chosen instruments is no higher than ordinarily cannot be overlooked

Usually the price of "an exhibit" like one of these would break the strings of the average purse, but in this instance anybody in want of a piano couldn't make a more reasonable or advantageous investment.

This is an opportunity. 613 WELLINGTON ST

The Poor Little Toe

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

"My work," said the Hand, "is the hardest in the land." Nay, mine is harder yet," said the Brain;
"When you toil," said the Eye, "as steadily as I, OH, THEN, you'll have reason to complain."

Then a voice, faint and low, of the poor Little Toe, Spoke out in the dark with a wail,
"It is seldom I complain, but you all will bear your pain
With more patience if you harken to my tale.

"I'm the youngest of five, and the others live and thrive, They are cared for, and considered, and admired, am overlooked and snubbed, I am pushed upon and I am always sick and ailing, sore and tired,

"But I carry all the weight of the body, small or great, Yet no one ever praises what I do; I am always in the way, and 'tis I who have to pay For the folly and the pride of all of you."

Then the Mouth and the Brain and the Hand said, "Tis plain,

Though troubled be our lives with woe,

The hardest lot of all, does certainly befall The poor little, humble little toe. The snubbed little, rubbed little toe."

WHAT EVERY WOMAN WISHES HER FALL HAT TO BE:

Stylish, Becoming, Distinctive

Every woman wants a stylish Hat, one which is in line with fashion's latest novelty. Every woman wants a becoming Hat. There is not a woman the world over who will wear a Hat, no matter how stylish if she does not believe that it looks well on her, and lastly, every woman wishes her headgear to be distinctive. She wants a Hat which is individual not one like her next door neighbor's.

Gray & Parker Millinery is up to the minute—every Hat turned out of our workrooms conforms to fashion's latest dictates, and besides, each and every Hat has been the recipient of some dainty touch by an artistic hand, some new idea of trimming, or some new turn in ribbon, or stylish tilt of wing—some one of the many finishing touches, which added to fashion's set rules, gives a Hat the possession of individuality which every woman longs for. In other words, Gray & Parker Millinery is distinctive.

FATALLY CRUSHED WHEN AUTO UPSET

Mrs. Taylor, of Chicago, Was Western Irrigation and Marriage Killed in Accident Near Wheatley.

THE CHILDREN ESCAPED THANK GERMAN NAVY

dut Husband Had His Arm Broken When Car Dashed Over the Embankment.

[Special to The Advertiser ] Wheatley, Sept. 10.—Mrs. N. H. Tay-lor, of Chicago, was killed when the automobile she was driving ran into a ten-foot ditch on the tenth concession of Mersea, near here, late yesterday.
It appears that Taylor, with his wife and two children, was making a motor tour through Ontario, on his way from Chicago to Buffale, and that between Essex and Kingsville the party lost its bearings and turned out of the regular road into that of the tenth concession. This road ends abruptly in a pile of gravel, near the Romney Town Line, and, in endeavoring to avoid the obstacle and at the same time to turn the car sharply. Mrs. Taylor caused the machine to upset. She was pinned under the car by the steering wheel, and was severely crushed. Her husband sustained fractures of one arm and three rms, but the children were uninjured, except for a few scratches. A number of men who were working in the vicinity quickly righted the overturned car and removed Taylor and his wife to a nearby house, where medical attendance was summoned. Mrs. Taylor died in a few hours, apparently from internal injuries. Dowrles Needed. If the money spent on expensive schools for boys and girls were to be put by as for the girls, and if the boys were taught practical farming and then married to the girls and sent out to Canadian farms with modern capital, there would no longer be the sight of young men hanging about for odd jobs, with all the professions crowded, and so many militant Suffragists making Britain the laughing stock of the world. The Suffragist worry was the price which had to be paid for spending so much money on extravagant and painful education for boys, while the girls had no dowries provided for them.

The speaker expressed great hopefulness with regard to the future of irri-gated Canada, though he thought the people there, like true sons of a shopkeeping nation, rather over-advertised their attractions. Napoleon had saved Great Britain from that spirit a hun-dred years ago, and he thanked God that the German navy was rising into power, and that, when really formidable, it would wean Canada, as well as the people of Britain, from that harlot spirit in commerce against which Isalah pronounced his bitterest woe, and which was capable, above all else, of making the nation lose that title of respect which a proud man never pays but to the proud

INSPECTOR DUNCAN SUSPENDED BY BOARD

Toronto Officer Cannot Resume Duties Until After the Investigation.

Toronto, Sept. 11.-The board of police commissioners yesterday afternoon formally suspended from office inspector of Detectives Walter Duncan until the conclusion of the authorized investigation into that officer's conduct regarding the Farmers' Bank case. The real investigation will be opened on Sept. 23, at which time Inspector Duncan, who is now on leave of turned to the city. The proceedings will be open to both the press and the general public. A large number of witnesses are to farm. The Garden of Eden was an ir-rigated farm, with wild alfalfa, fruit trees and cattle, just as in irrigated Yates, of Calgary, who was formerly Inspector Duncan's secretary, and a > quiry might lead farther than the door of Inspector Duncan's office. While stating that he proceedings would primarily concern the conduct of the suspended official, he was not prepared to say to what length the probe would eventually extend.

Evidence submitted before Sir William Meredith at the last session of the Farmers' Bank inquiry, in which certain discrepancies were apparent in the testimony of Mr. Duncan and other witnesses, furnished the foundation for the action of the board yesterday.

Constable Jeffers was awarded merit mark for bravery in arresting a burglar, and the resignation of Platn-Clothes Officer Nesbitt, of the Court street station, was received. Mr. Nes-bitt expects to locate in New Zealand.

Emperor William Says He Finds Solution of All Troubles in the Bible.

Paris, Wednesday, Sept. 11. - Rene Ruaux, the military expert of the Temps, who was in close contact with the German Emperor during the re-Wilton McCordic Will Be Suc- cent manoeuvres of the Swiss army, quotes the Kaiser as summing up his satisfaction with the work of the troops in a conversation with President Ferrer, in the words: "Your army saves me six army

It is known that the Emperor's main object in attending the man-oeuvres was to convince himself of the ability of the Swiss army to make the case of war, and his remark is interpreted to mean that by the Swiss army forming a screen to prevent the French from invading Germany through Switzerland, the Germans could release six army corps in South in Alsace-Lor-Germany for service raine or along the Belgian frontier. The Emperor, in conversation, constantly insisted upon the necessity of understandings as the best means of dissipating suspicion, and declared his personal desire to maintain peace. On one occasion, in emphasizing this in conversation with President Ferrer the Emperor intimated to the president that he acquired much of his inspiration from the Bible.

"I don't care much for priests and clergymen," said the Emperor, "They dilute the gospel with too much of their own dogma. I hold to the Bible which I constantly read and re-read In it one finds the solution of every difficulty, of every problem, even of a political description

George Perley worked hard as acting-premier during the absence of Hon, Mr. Borden and the other ministers, the work piled up, and the Privy Council basket is now full, and many matters from the lands, the public works, and the marine departments are demanding immediate attention.

It will be some weeks before the Government begins consideration of matters which will figure in the sessional program.

The naval policy will not be touched until the British admiralty has received information from England W. E. Gordon. which was asked for when the Canadian ministers were in Britain. However, they brought back a good deal of information with them, and this is being put into shape and printed for the information of the ministers who did not have the advantage of sitting at the session of the defence conference.

shown by the result of the Nutmeg pacing stake, raced on Wednesday at Charter Oak Park. Joe Patchen II., the logical winner if he started, had been declared out, and it looked that that other Canadian stallion, Knight Onwardo, was the best of the starters. Talking with the owner of the latter shortly before the start, that gentle-man informed the writer that his horse ROCHESTER BEAT would not go to the post over such a track if he could prevent it. Knight Onwardo was not a mud horse, he informed me, and could not negotiate the heavy going. The homestretch was in very bad condition, and as the pony pacer is a great finisher he believed that this spoiled his chances, as he would be in the heavy going when he commenced his usual spurt. He held the management a strong argument, but finally allowed the horse to start. The pony then went out and trimmed the field in three straight heats, and now the owner believes that he owns a real

Well-Behaved Horse.
While he is a well-behaved horse. when it comes to racing, the diminutive Canadian stallion is a demon in his stall, and more than one person bears marks of his savagery. His present groom takes no chances with him, and when leading him always carries a cudgel with which to repel attacks. The horse is afraid of one and that is Nat Ray, the steeplechase jockey, who drives him in his races. Ray can make the illtempered pony eat out of his hand; in fact, just such horses are his delight, and back in the days when he was riding the "leapers," he favored those which the other jockeys were afraid of. His early experience on the harness turf was with the hobbled pacer, John McEwen, 2:081/4. one of the worst-tempered animals which ever looked through a bridle. He had grooms and trainer alike stepping ise, but Ray conquered him and won many good races with him on half-mile tracks.

Horse Is Balky. Knight Onwardo is a rather notional horse when scoring, particularly when returning after the recall bell been sounded. Sometimes he will stop and refuse to budge. Ray will humor him for a minute or so, then threaten him with the whip, although he never strikes him except at the finish of a heat. The little fellow will finally give in and do what his teamster wants him to do, although in a manner which gives the impression that he would like to bite a piece out of the grandstand. Aside from his ill-temper, he is a great lit-tle race-horse, his performances throughout the season entitling him to rank next to Joe Patchen II., among the stake pacers which have shown on the Grand Circuit.

The Patchen horse, however, ranks in a class by himself as far as the other horses which he has been meeting are concerned, but the circuit followers are anxiously awaiting time when he will hook up with the Colorado colt, Braden Direct, who set the world's record for four-year-olds at 2:03% during the Grand Circuit meeting at North Randall. This colt left the big ring after the Pittsburg meeting and has been racing in the west, where he is keeping up his winning career. He will probably meet Joe Patchen II, at either Columbus or Lexington, and with both in condition and a fast track, there is Hable to be a pacing race such as has not been seen for many a day. Sallee Was Pitching as Good Weakened Toward the End of the Game, But Hall Held It Safe.

Only Three Regular Tigers on Line-Up Against Mackmen-Senators and Yankees Win.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Joe Wood won his fifteenth straight victory today, when Boston defeated Chicago in the opening game of the series, 5 to 4.

Wood weakened toward the end of the battie. Marquard pitched solid ball all the way, but was no better than Sallee until the sixth, when three hard drives, led by Becker's homer, wrecked the Cardinals' chances. The score:

WILL BREAK EVEN Directors Are Satisfied With Season

Just Ended-Injuries to Players Cost Club Large Sum.

St. Thomas, Sept. 10. - Despite several handicaps, the directors of the St. Thomas ball club, in the Canadian League, will just about break even, financially, this season. Here are a few outstanding features of the year's record: The new directors assumed $1,000 of last year's liabilities, and paid Chaucer Elliott $500 additional for the franchise. Injuries to the players cost them, it is estimated, $650, besides keeping the team down in the race. All injured players were kept on, and substitutes secured in their places. The team played at home on only one holiday, but St. Thomas earned the reputation of drawing the best week-day crowds in the league. The schedule called for playing ten or twelve games more on the road than at home, which created heavy travelling expenses, as well as keeping down local receipts. With all these drawbacks an even break is considered satisfactory. As for next year, St. Thomas will be in the Canadian League, or there will be no Canadian League.

The Watermelon Yields. Eager to accomplish the plan he had uddenly conceived, the Watermelon turned and strolled back to Billy, while the boy gazed after such majesty in awed ad-"What was it?" asked Billy, looking up as the Watermelon approached, "The telegraph cierk," said the Water-melon caimly. He made no motion to sit down, and Billy rose.

"I suppose you have to go back," said she. Sie had to throw back her head to see into his face, for the top of her be-flowered hat only reached to his shoulder.

"No," said the Watermelon, preparing the way for the future. "I could take a few days off, if I wanted to. Come on. I might as well try and save the remains of my car after the general has done his best to ruin it. I heard him go into the garage as we got out of sight. The general is more expensive than a motor car."

"I like the general," said Billy, as they started slowly back.
"I suppose he has been like a grandfather to you," said the Watermelon, glancing down at the top of the big hat.
"Don't you want me for a relative of some kind?"
"You said relatives were afflictions," objected Billy.
"I know; but it is only through our afflictions that we can rise to higher nings."

"What higher things?"
"Why, Heaven, as I described it last." They found the general with Henrietta and Bartlett in the garage. Bartlett agreed with a chuckle. Things were coming his way with hardly any effort on his part, as they had had a way with the covenant, which is to be fort on his part, as they had had a way of doing until William Hargrave Batchelor had made himself too annoying. He took it as a good sign and smiled cheerfully. "You can take us all." laughed Billy, "A week," said Bartlett, tentatively, "in the country, away from telegrams and letters and repers it would do me a wat letters and papers, it would do me a vast amount of good. "It sounds alluring," said Henrietta. "Suppose we all go, just as we are."

"We could," cried Billy. "Why, Dad, we could do it easily. I have that linen dress I were yesterday, and my brush and comb and things, and you have yours." "But the general and Henrietta," ob jected Bartlett. "They only ran up here for the day, my dear. They may not have

"I was thinking of it," acknowledged the Watermelon with truth, lounging gracefully in the doorway.

Bartlett laughed. "We are crazy, all of us," said he, and waved the suggestion aside as a whimsical fancy best forgotten.

"Oh, Dady, please!" teased Billy.
"But, Billy, child, the others don't want

"Ah, yes!" cried the eager Billy, patting the arm she clung to. "You used to do it, General, why, in half an hour, out on the plains."
"What do you know about it, puss?"

asked the general.
"Didn't you?" pleaded Billy.
"Yes," said the general, who always gave in to a pretty woman. "I used to. In those days we were always ready for a fight."

Real Summer Weather Just Starting After Regular Season Was Spoiled.

SARNIA BRANCH OFFICE, 209 Front Street. Office hours, 9 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., 3:39

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, Sept. 11. - After a most disagreeable summer, Sarnia is having more than its share of hot weather, Even though the haberdasheries are all displaying the latest styles in fall goods, straw hats are still in the ascendancy, and the sice cream parlors are doing an even better business than last month. Owing to the heat the schools throughout the town closed early yesterday afternoon; and dozens of small boys promptly sought the cooling waters of the River St. Clair.

It is expected that street car service will be resumed today, and the shoe dealers are prepared for a slump in the sales department. The majority of the citizens won't be convinced, though, until they get aboard a real car. The motor bus owners, who have done a good business for the last month, will no doubt view the reestablishment of service with despond-

Considerable Annoyance Still Exists Over the Ferry Situation. [Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Sept. 10. Large quanti-ties of fruit, particularly plums, are being shipped over to Port Huron now by ferry. Much inconvenience is suf-fered by the ferry company, and the shippers, owing to the lack of proper dock facilities. It is understood that the town does not consider the ferry question settled yet by any means, and that the mayor will continue to investigate to find out whether anything can be done to stop

The Best Treatment for Itching Scalps and Falling Hair

To allay itching and irritation of the scalp, prevent dry, thin and falling hair, remove crusts, scales and dandruff, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, the following special treatment is most effective, agreeable and economical. On retiring, comb the hair out straight all around, then begin at the side and make a parting, gently rubbing Cuticura ointment into the parting with a bit of soft flannel held over the end of the finger. Anoint additional partings about half an inch apart until the whole scalp has been treated, the purpose being to get the Cuticura ointment on the scalp skin rather than on the hair. It is well to place a light covering over the hair to protect the pillow from possible stain. The next morning, shampoo with Cuticura soap and hot water. Shampoos alone may be used as often as agreeable, but once or twice a month Burgenerally sufficient for this special treatment for women's hair. Notwithstanding Cuticura soap and ointment are sold everywhere, those wishing to try this treatment may do se without expense by sending to "Cuticura." Dept. 4M, Boston, U. B. After declaring the $1,000 ball forfeited, the court fixed bail at $2,500 for Nolan when rearrested, and paroled the McVicker girl. The arraignment

Nolan was arrested last night on the complaint of agents of the Old Domin-lon Steamship Company, that the Mc-Vicker girl, whose father is reputed to be a prosperous innkeeper at Glasgow, Scotland, had disappeared from the steamer Jefferson shortly after its arrival here Friday. The McVicker girl had been intrusted by her brother to the care of the stewardess of the vessel, with instructions to remain aboard until Saturday, when she was to have sailed for Scotland on a ticket purchased from the Anchor Line by her father. The couple were located at a fashionable Broadway hotel, where had registered as H. E. Nolan and wife. The girl broke down and told the detectives that she had met Nolan aboard the vessel, and at his suggestion that she get a position in New York, had changed her mind about going back to Scotland and gone with him. Nolan had nothing to say, and was held until this morning, when a lawyer furnished bail for his appearlawyer furnished bail for his appearance in court today.

THE COOK-FITZGERALD COM-PANY, LIMITED, EXHIBIT. The exhibit of the Cook-Fitzgerald Company, Limited, of this city, illustrates the extent to which fine shoemaking has developed in Canada. Not many years ago such shoes would be seen only at one of the great exhibitions of footwear in Boston, or other shoe centres, and Canadian retailers promised to each and every one who abroad in order to fulfill the requirements of the discerning and fastidious. The heavier grades of footwear made n Canada were satisfying, but for stylish models and skilled workmanship the United States had to be invaded. That day has passed, however, and London has in its hibition for sixteen years, and has heart today an organization whose product compares favorably with any of the American factories. > GAS POWER ENGINES. Much interest is being shown by mechanical men in the exhibit of the London Gas Power Engine Company, Limited, in the Machinery Hall.

Two special types of engines are shown this year. One is the upright model 11/2 to 41/2 horsepower, and the other the horizontal type of 8 to 12horsepower. Engines of all sizes between these standards are on exhibition.

One of the advantages of the new nodel gas engine which forms a special feature of the display is the Bosch oscillating type of magneto. This magneto does away with all batteries, none being used even for the starting of the engine. Just as hot a spark is obtained at one revolution as at

BARR REGISTERS

The new system of accounting which Barr Registers, Limited, of Trenton, Ont., are demonstrating in the annex of the Main Building, should prove of especial interest to retail merchants. This system is operated by carrying the indexed accounts upon a bank of metal leaves, which, when dropped, rest upon a gravity table so constructed as to preserve a uniform reading surface. This prevents any possibility of confusion in turning up accounts, a further advantage of this register is the upright position of the index at the end of the machine, where it is always available for immediate Wanted to Make Room to Bury His Wife in Aylmer Cemetery.

[Special to The Advertiser.] moved the body of a child from one grave to another in Avlmer cemetery in order to make room for the remains of his wife, T. E. Pound, of London, was fined $1 and $8 costs by Magistrate Hunt. The charge was laid by Mrs. Foley, of Crosswell, Mich., a sister-in-law of the defendant. The child was Mrs. Foley's by former marriage. Mrs. Foley is the daughter of the late Oliver Baker, of Aylmer, who bought a piece of land in the Aylmer Cemetery for the burial of himself and family. On April 30, Mrs. Thomas Pound, of London another daughter of Mr. Baker, died and her husband went to the cemetery to make the arrangements. Although there was room in the plot for two more bodies, he ordered the grave of the child deg up. This the caretaker did and found the skull and some other small portions, which he put in a band box, and deposited in the little cemetery house until after the funeral of Mrs. Pound, which took place on May 2. When Mrs. Pound's casket was lowered into the earth the caretaker shovelled some earth in, and then laid the box containing the remains of the infant in the earth, before filling up the grave

These facts were proved to the satisfaction of the magistrate, who found that such matters had been at first governed by the ecclesiastical law of England, and had later been incorporated in the and were embodied in the Canadian criminal code. He held that when human remains were interred with the solemn rites of religion, with the consent of the next of kin, and with the consent of the individual in whom the property is visited in the plot, they could not be disturbed, to cause the next of kin to sorrow and grieve. He considered that the present offence had been committeed thoughtlessly and ignorantly, and made the fine in accordance

The resolution committee reported ion-concurrence in the resolution. The convention sympathized with Arcaud's position, but as it was largely a question of jurisdiction, and in ther parts of the country the two orders work together harmoniously, it was decided to take no action.

The report of P. E. Draper, the secetary-treasurer, was submitted, showing receipts of $15,699.79, and expenditures of $10,219.82, leaving a balance of $5,479.97. The Great Farce Comedy "Billy." There is a "forgetinary" mother in the farce "Billy," at the Grand twice today and twice tomorrow, matinee and night, who blames her daughter for all her mislaid belongings, and then finds them in her hand. She is nice and fat and ought to be good natured accordingly, but she isn't. She is nervous and fussy, and irritable and very amusing, and character is not the least of those which make you laugh when you go to see "Billy." The part is played with fine discrimination by Miss Mary Anderson. Mr. Albert Phillips and Miss Leila Shaw as "Billy," and the sister, are the chief funmakers. Seats selling at special prices,

"The Great Divide."

In the Messrs. Shuberts' production of "The Great Divide," which will be seen at the Grand Opera House for an engagement of two nights, com-mencing Friday night, with matinee Saturday afternoon, there will be two picturesque and decidedly unusual scenes disclosed. One is a cactus farm on the great desert of Southern Arizona, and the other is home-made house on a plateau high up in the Catilina Mountains. These scenes are said to be veritable triumphs of art, and form a striking centrast to the one in which the final act takes place, a typical New England farm house of the better class No expense has been spared to make the production perfect in every detail, and the cast selected is claimed to give a perfect performance of this great American play.

DODGE BIG BOX

A large packing-case, which for some mysterious reason had been placed at the top of the open grand stand at the exhibition grounds, was the cause of a great deal of consternation during the evening performance on Tuesday. Some small boys set the box teetering, and an extra jolt caused it to shoot down the incline. The spectators cleared, screaming, right and left, and it was next to a miracle that someone did not encounter the heavy case. Two young men stood and braced themselves and caught it after rolling about 30 feet, and prevented

Auto Owners in Ignorance of Regulations Until Hauled

Some sharp criticisms were made of the city's traffic bylaw in police court Tuesday. An attack was directed at the section of the bylaw which relates to automobiles and their time allowance for standing at a curb unattended. A local auto owner was summoned for leaving his car standing on King street last Tuesday for two hours and fifty-five minutes, according to P. C. Holden's official timepiece. Dear Sis.,—If you could see me now you'd surely wonder what witchery had wrought the transformation—for you wouldn't recognize your Amazon sister in the gracefully molded figure sitting here. Yes, I have a surprise for you—that huge mountain of fat you once knew as sister is no more—I'm as trim a body now as you'd meet in a day's walk. And the change from fat to just plump was so easy and gradual and natural and perfectly harmless, that I didn't realize it was taking place. You remember that horrible nightmare You remember that horrible nightmare that confronted me every day—the physician called it "exercise"—but as I look back on it now I can call it nothing but torture. Lying flat on my back and trying to kick holes through the ceiling with my feet. Attempting to stand on my hands on a chair when nothing less than a derrick would lift my bulk into the air. Standing with stiff knees and trying to touch my toes with my fingers—when I couldn't even see them. And other things as ridiculous. "Exercise!"

I just quit it all. A few months ago I got a mixture of half ounce Marmola powder, three-quarters ounce Cascara Aromatic, 4% ounces Peppermint Water at the drug store, took a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime—took it persistently and faithfully—and now, Sis, I really have a beautiful figure, smooth skin, firm fiesh and the digestion of an ostrich. It's simply wonderful. Lovingly, Sarnia, Sept. 11. - Dr. McCullough, hairman of the provincial board of health, has written to the mayor of Sarnia stating that the bylaw to be submitted to the people for the removal of the waterworks to Point Edward cannot be voted upon until the plans and specifications have been submitted to the provincial board of health and approved by them.

The board has received nothing but general report from the engineer, which is not considered sufficient.

Would Invalidate Bylaw. If the request is not complied with the bylaw would be invalidated.

Dr. McCullough concludes by saying: tiser asked President Wm. Wake-"I also note that on the 29th of last nonth a sample of water from your "Well, we are going to have a meetntake pipe showed contamination with ing of the society next week, when we colon bacillus.
