" It is more Blessed." # Gice ! as the morning that flows out of heaven;

Give! as the waves when their channel is riven Give ! as the free air and sunshine are given ; Lavishly, utterly, joyfully give. Not the waste drops of thy cup overflowing, Not the faint sparks of the hearth ever glowing, Not a pale bud from the June roses blowing;

Pour out thy love like the rush of a river, Wasting its waters, forever and ever,

Scatter thy life as the summer's shower pouring !

What if no blossom looks upward adoring? Look to the life that was lavished for thee

Laid on an altar all ashen and dreary;

Though from its pulses a faint miserere Beats to thy soul the sad presage of fate; Bind it with cords of unshrinking devotion, Smile at the song of the restless emotion, 'Tis the stern hymn of eternity's ocean; Hear, and in silence thy future await.

So the wild wind strews its perfumed caresses, Evil and thankless the desert it blesses; Bitter the wave that its soft pinion presses : Never it ceaseth to whisper and sing. What if the hard heart give thorns for thy roses What if on rocks thy tired bosom reposes? Sweeter is music with minor-keyed closes;

Fairest the vine that on ruin will cling. Almost the day of thy giving is over: Ere from the grass dies the bee-haunted clover.

What shall thy longing avail in the grave? Give as the heart gives whose fetters are break- present assist in this needed work?
