THE DUTY ON COAL OIL
Mr. Davis' Motion to Place it on the Free List Debated.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY.
That Combine, Says Mr. Davis, Cause Him to Move His Resolutions—Mr. Fraser Says Canadian Wells Are in Canadian Hands for the Most Part—Answers to Questions.
Ottawa, April 25.—The plebiscite order paper was further reduced in bulk yesterday by the disposal of a couple of more questions, many of them referring to small post offices, etc., in the lower provinces. The daily motion for free coal oil was debated for a couple of hours. Mr. Fielding suggested that the debate be adjourned until the budget came down, and Mr. Davis agreed, but Mr. Davis insisted on a division, when the motion was carried by 68 to 30. Last night Mr. Fielding brought down the estimates, and promised the budget for Tuesday of next week.
The following private bills were given second readings:
Respecting the Canada Life Assurance Company, Mr. Gibson.
Respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, Mr. Gibson.
Then followed the usual fusillade of questions, most of which were of purely local interest.
A dozen cases of dismissals of country postmasters were explained by the Postmaster-General, causing various questions, many of which were of purely local interest.

WILLING TO ADVOCATE THE CLAYTON-BULWER TREATY FOR A RETURN.
New York, April 25.—A Herald dispatch from Washington says: Although willing to advocate the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, Great Britain has made it plain to the United States that she expects an equivalent in return for her action. The equivalent will be exacted during the negotiations of the American-Canadian commission, which is to resume its session in Washington in August next. It is because of a demand for concessions equal in value to that which will be given to the United States in the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty that the negotiations have not progressed with the promptness at first expected. It is reported that the officials now at Washington are unwilling to give it to her. It may be, therefore, that she will suggest that in return for her rights in the Nicaragua canal, she should demand for the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

MICHIGAN JUDGES WERE WRONG.
Washington, D.C., April 25.—Chief Justice Fuller yesterday announced the opinion of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Thomas Congrave v. Eugene Y. Winger, United States marshal for the Eastern District of Michigan. The case involves the extradition treaty between Great Britain and Canada, the particular point at issue being whether a resident of Canada, who has been extradited and brought to the United States on an charge, can be arrested on another charge before the extradition proceedings have terminated, and he had had opportunity to return to his own country. The Chief Justice held that he could not be thus dealt with, reversing the finding of the District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY ADVANCES.
London, April 25.—Signor Marconi, the electrician, whose experiments in wireless telegraphy are attracting international attention, has successfully completed his experiments at St. Paul's, England, to the French armed dispatch vessel this while sailing in the English Channel. In conducting the experiment he was accompanied by a French naval officer. The feat marks also his first success in communicating messages at one point, to the exclusion of all others.

HALF THE TOWNS CREW STOK.
San Francisco, April 25.—Nearly half the crew of the battleship Iowa are on the sick list and the men are loudly protesting. All of them seem to have more or less malaria, and they are clamoring for the removal of the ship to better quarters. The Iowa is now lying off the Union Iron Works, and the sick men are being sent to the hospital.

JONES FELLOWS FITZGIBB.
St. Thomas, April 25.—Mr. George C. Jones, superintendent of the Walsh and Grand Trunk Railways in St. Thomas, has been promoted to the position of superintendent of the middle division of the Grand Trunk Railway, with headquarters in Toronto, in place of Superintendent E. H. Fitzgibb, who has received the appointment of general manager of the Central Vermont Railway.

YELLOW FEVER IN HAVANA.
Havana, April 25.—Two new cases of yellow fever were reported yesterday among the natives.

DID NOT CONVICT QUAY.
The Jury Found No Proof to Sustain the Conspiracy Charge.
Philadelphia, April 25.—Matthew Stanley Quay was yesterday declared by a jury of his peers to be not guilty of the charge of conspiring to use for his own private gain and profit the funds of the People's Bank of this city. This verdict was announced by the foreman of the jury at 11 o'clock.

CORBIN DRAWS OUT.
Cannot Get Legislation This Session and Quits the Game.
Greenwood, B.C., April 25.—A telegram to hand is as follows:
W. S. T. Greenwood: Bowdell wired that he had received message from Boston that Bill for Corbin charter could not pass House this session, therefore I have withdrawn application for charter. (Signed) D. C. Corbin, Spokane.

CANADA'S ESTIMATES.
Provision for Public Works in the Province of Ontario.

ANNUAL DRILL OF THE MILITIA.
A Great List of Harbor Improvements—Large Decrease in the Appropriation for Legislation—Comparatively Few Increases in the Expenditure—Cost of the Yukon Administration Increased.
Ottawa, April 25.—The estimates for the financial year 1899-1900 were brought down last night. The total amount asked for is $46,265,000.77, against $41,400,487.18 last year, a decrease of $4,864,513.59. The leading items are as follows:
Public works, $12,312,700.00
Militia, $10,100,000.00
Civil government, $1,431,901.25
Justice, $1,431,901.25
Agriculture, $1,431,901.25
Immigration, $1,431,901.25
Quarantine, $1,431,901.25
Railways and canals, $1,431,901.25
Mails, $1,431,901.25
Subsidies to provinces, $1,431,901.25
Liquor, $1,431,901.25
Municipalities, $1,431,901.25
Customs, $1,431,901.25
Excise, $1,431,901.25
Trade and commerce, $1,431,901.25
There is noticeable a very large decrease in the appropriation for legislation, the amount asked being $249,054.14 less than last year. A large cut is made in the expense of ocean and river steamships, the decrease being $1,000,000. On incidentals there will be a saving of $55,735.33. In the item of interest on public debt there will be a decrease of $32,100. The administration of Indian affairs will cost $38,445 less than last year, or $38,445,000 less than last fiscal year for redemption of debt. On capital account there is a decrease in railways and canals of $9,373,788.

GERMANY TAKES OFFENSE.
Over Captain Coghlan's Report of the Minister's Visit to the States.
Washington, April 25.—The German Government has entered a formal protest against the language used by Captain Coghlan in his report to the United States League Club banquet in New York last Friday night. The protest was lodged with Secretary Hay, through the German ambassador, Herr von Holleben.
Secretary Hay replied that the language used by the German ambassador appeared to have been used at a dinner in a club, and could not be regarded as an official or public utterance. In the same that would be the State Department in action. However, the Navy Department was fully competent to take such action as it deemed proper. With this statement, the ambassador was content, for the time at least, and will doubtless serve a reasonable length of time upon the Navy Department.

VIEWED IN GERMANY.
Berlin, April 24.—The afternoon newspapers contain few comments upon Capt. Coghlan's remarks, and they generally take a calm view of the after-dinner speech, and consider the incident closed. The Postzeitung is the only one which takes a different view, and pronounces itself in favor of demanding severe punishment for Capt. Coghlan.

DEADMAN'S ISLAND FRACAS.
The Fight Now Between the Dominion Government and Vancouver City.
Vancouver, B.C., April 25.—There indicates the loss of Deadman's Island morning landed 30 men on the island, and at 8:30 was met by Mayor Gordon, City Solicitor H. Menery and Capt. Lusk, chairman of the park commission. The mayor and the police chief, Mr. Lusk, commenced the cutting of a tree, followed in turn by his men, all of whom were at once arrested. The case will be heard in the Police Court. There was an excellent prevalence in the city over the arrest.

WELLAND CANAL.
Opened Up for Navigation at Nine on Monday Morning.
Port Dalhousie, Ont., April 25.—The Welland Canal opened up for traffic at 9 a.m. yesterday. The Montreal transport steamer Banrock was the first to pass the locks. There are eight m.e.s. boats here to follow.

PEOPLE'S FIGHT IN DETROIT.
Detroit, Mich., April 25.—A committee of 63 citizens, by their attorneys, yesterday afternoon filed a bill of complaint in the Circuit Court, asking that Governor Pingree and the other members of the Detroit Street Railway commission, and the Detroit Street Railway commission, be removed from office, and that the street railway be sold to the public. The bill also asks for the removal of the Michigan State Police from office, and the removal of the Michigan State Police from office, and the removal of the Michigan State Police from office.

STEPHEN AFTER FRONTALS.
Montreal, April 25.—Yesterday a writ was issued in the Superior Court on the order of Judge McKeown, that Governor Pingree and the other members of the Detroit Street Railway commission, and the Detroit Street Railway commission, be removed from office, and that the street railway be sold to the public. The writ also asks for the removal of the Michigan State Police from office, and the removal of the Michigan State Police from office.

TWO MORE BIG TRUSTS.
Trenton, N.J., April 25.—The United States Trust Company, with an authorized capital of $70,000,000, and the American Plumbing, Supply & Lead Company, with an authorized capital of $15,000,000, were incorporated yesterday at the office of the Secretary of State.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.
St. Thomas, April 25.—A young man named William Vaughan was struck by the C.N.E. train at Atholville on Sunday night and instantly killed. The coroner was notified.

PREMIER HARDY'S HOLIDAY.
Toronto, April 25.—Premier Hardy will not return from his holiday for another week. He will be back at the buildings for business on May 1.

EFFECTS WERE WONDERFUL.
"I had been troubled for years with pains in my sides and kidneys and had been to a number of doctors, but to no effect. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and in a few days I felt a great relief. I continued to take them, and in a few weeks I was completely cured. I am now in the best of health, and my kidneys and sides are perfectly sound. I can now do all my work, and I am very much pleased with the result. I would recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all who are troubled with kidney and side pains."—Mrs. F. W. G. Green, 210 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

GLASCOW VOTES FOR A LIBRARY.
Glasgow, Ont., April 25.—A vote was taken yesterday on a petition asking the council to establish a library under the Libraries Act. The enthusiasm of the citizens was very strongly shown, almost a full vote being polled, resulting in a majority of 35 in favor of the petition.

LOST MAN'S LANE

A SECOND EPISODE OF THE LIFE OF AMELIA BUTTERWORTH

Copyright, 1897, by Anna E. Robble.

down an old album and began hunting up the pictures...

I did not mean to take them by surprise—that is not entirely true...

So the telegram was sent and my preparations completed for an early departure.

But, resolved as I was to make this visit, my determination came near receiving a check...

Another person missing. Never seen to have entered Lost Man's lane...

"Mr. Gryce had me say that he would be up here some time before noon," said the man...

My companion, who was the shiest man I ever saw, did not speak a word...

I discovered my equanimity, however, as we approached. The scenery was really beautiful...

which had led me through that affable next door had asked me again in a way that meant equal absorption...

"Where are we going?" I asked. "To Miss Knolly's house," he found words to say...

"Do they live on this road?" I asked, remembering with a certain shock...

"Waal," said he, "Knollys is usually here, but I don't see him now."

But they all drew back with a sort of scared look, and I was beginning to track up my skirts preparatory to walking...

I stepped into the wagon and prepared myself for a ride into town.

But it seems I was not to be allowed to enter upon this adventure without another warning.

"Perhaps you have not heard that this village just now is under a cloud."

"Oh, nothing," he cried eagerly, "only I didn't know but you might be timid."

"Oh, I'm not at all timid!" I hastened to say. "If I were, I should not have come here at all."

My companion, who was the shiest man I ever saw, did not speak a word...

any of this was as one whose words had been as a flash in one of the upper windows.

faces of these young people recognized the fact that they were the victims of a web of circumstances so tragic and incomprehensible...

I forgot that these girls had a brother and that—but not a brother who was the truth. I wish this story to grow up on you just as it did upon me...

The farmer who drove me, and whom I afterward learned was called Silsbury, showed a certain dogged interest in my behavior...

"What is the matter?" I asked innocently, "that one or two men have disappeared from here somewhat mysteriously."

"That's what you mean?" "One person, a boy, disappeared only two days ago."

"Oh, nothing," he cried eagerly, "only I didn't know but you might be timid."

"Oh, I'm not at all timid!" I hastened to say. "If I were, I should not have come here at all."

THE DOUKHOBOVS' CREED.

The following is given as the "creed" of the Doukhoubovs, who recently emigrated to Manitoba:

1. The members of the community reverence and love God as the source of all being.
2. They respect the dignity of man both in themselves and in their fellow-men.
3. The members of the community regard everything that exists with love and adoration, and they try to bring up their children in the same tendency.
4. By the word "God" they understand the power of love, the power of life which is the source of all that exists.
5. Life is progress; and everything tends towards perfection, in order that the seed received should be returned to the source of life in the form of ripe fruit.
6. In everything that exists in our world we see consecutive stages towards perfection. Thus, beginning with a stone and passing over the plants, we come to animals, the full development of which is man regarding him from the point of view of life and of a conscious being.
7. The members accord full freedom to the life of man; and, therefore all organizations founded on violence they regard as unlawful.
8. The basis of man's existence is the power of thought—reason.
9. It is recognized that the communal life of man is based on the moral law, which has for its rule, "What I do not wish for myself, that I must not wish for any one else."

BRIDGE ACCIDENT.

From the Almonte Gazette.—About nine o'clock on Monday morning 17th an extremely bad accident occurred at Appleton. The ferry at the late Mrs. Dalnuge was announced for ten o'clock, and at nine o'clock half-a-dozen of the relatives—Mr. and Mrs. John Morphy and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Morphy and Mr. Place—reached Appleton on their way to it. They occupied a side seated covered "bus" owned by Mr. John Campbell, liverman, of Carleton Place. On Saturday evening last the bus knocked out one of the timbers supporting the upper side of the centre span of Appleton bridge and a log was struck along that side to strengthen the structure. Early on Monday morning the floating log knocked away the timber support on the lower side of the same span, greatly weakening it. When the log was struck, the bus was on the bridge. Mrs. Morphy got to the bridge. Mr. Milton Teskey, pathmaster, warned them that the bridge was unsafe, and advised as many as could get out of the rig, which was a heavy one. All got out but the driver, Mr. John Lyons, and Mr. Abo Morphy, who started across the bridge with the team and rig, both occupying the driver's seat. When they reached the middle span—the weak part of the bridge—it shook greatly, and the horses had almost reached safe footing above the stone pier when the whole span gave way and the outfit was precipitated into the raging water, which just now is unusually high and turbulent. A Gazette reporter was on the scene an hour after the accident, and secured the following details from eye witnesses: The rear of the "bus" struck the water first. Mr. Morphy fell to the left and swam to the first pier, which he grasped, but a heavy wave washed him away, and he was borne along over the apron of the dam that runs up the river in an oblique direction from Mr. Teskey's factory. Mean time Mr. Lyons held on to the rig till it reached the first rapid, where it struck, one of the horses in the interval having become detached from the vehicle. While hanging on to the rig he took off his overcoat, and after buttoning up his undercoat he waved his hand to those on the bridge, and almost at the same moment he was carried away by the water. He was swept down over the main fall, and though he was stunned, he in some miraculous way grabbed a floating log and hung on to it as it went down the rapids and across the bay till it was near the opposite shore. Messrs. A. E. Teskey and Robt. N. Code saw the chance of saving his life and lost no time in getting a boat and hurrying to his aid. They reached him and pulled him into their boat, exhausted and partially unconscious. He lay in the bottom of the boat till the shore was reached, by which time he had fully revived and was able to walk the residence of Mr. J. A. Teskey, where restorative and massage treatment helped him greatly. His limbs were abraded and bruised by his rough passage over the rapids but he is now restored, and thankful that he did not meet the face of his companion. Both horses were drowned and the "bus" was wrong side up, lodged in the rapids below the factory.

People are engaged in what they call "educational work" who ought to be pounding sand. Clothes do not make the man, but there is nobody living who does not judge people, more or less, by the way they dress.

A fellow doesn't care so much how many are ahead of him in the barber shop, if only somebody is behind him. If all the men who started out to study for the ministry had succeeded what a plenty there would be. The fellow who has the paper you want at the barber shop is always ready for the chair just as you are.

ADDITIONS

MONDAY, April 24.—Mr. William Hay is spending a few days with his many friends in this section. He is happy to entertain his old friends as usual.

Mr. Joseph Moulton has leased the Grand Central on the corner of King and Queen streets. The section have happy to entertain his old friends as usual.

Dr. Brown has been engaged for the past few days with the farmers in this section, clipping their horses and putting them in shape for spring work. Anyone having anything to do in that line should give the Doctor a call, as he will insure a first-class job or no pay.

Our King street blacksmith is doing a splendid business since his arrival in our village. We think he is the right man in the right place.

Mrs. (Rev.) Short is slowly recovering from her recent illness. We hope her recovery will be permanent.

Several families in the section have commenced ploughing, but report the land rather wet yet.

Mr. Jas. Marshall and lady of Lyng passed through our village on Saturday last, on route to "4 friends in Kitley. Misses Hunt, and Quinlan stayed a few days at Mrs. Marshall's last week, for which they paid the highest price.

PLUM HOLLOW.

SATURDAY, Apr. 23.—Mr. T. H. Percival took a very valuable cow one day last week.

The suckers are running and the boys are having fun now at night. This vicinity was the scene of a festive occasion last week when a heavy weight put and a feather weight came together. The stakes were a pair of horse clips, the road was the ring, it came out as would be expected by the heavy-weight knocking his opponent out in one round.

Mr. A. H. Grenham has added some new cows to his stock. The new store is under erection at the factory.

Mrs. Ethel Jackson and Miss Mettie Sexton visited Mrs. Louise Kilborn one day last week.

The cheese makers in Plum Hollow are leaving this week for their factories in Lower Canada and other places.

Rev. L. A. Betts of Brockville has been spending a few days with friends in Athens and on Sunday evening occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church. His hearing has noticeably improved since his last visit, and his general health appears to be excellent.

GREENBUSH.

MONDAY, April 24.—Mrs. M. Johnston of Honolulu is spending a pleasant time with her many friends and relatives. She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Teckberry.

Some eight years ago, for the improvement of her health, she went to California, after which she was united in marriage with Mr. Johnston and has since made her home in Honolulu. She gives very interesting accounts respecting the manners and customs of the inhabitants of the Pacific Islands. Also is very warmly welcomed by her many Greenbush friends. She expects to return to her distant home about July 1st.

Sugar making is about over and ploughing has commenced.

Mrs. Justus has returned after a lengthy visit in Brockville.

L. B. Kerr paid his parents a visit this week and returned to Brockville on Sunday.

M. J. W. Kerr of Athens is renewing old acquaintances with her many friends in Greenbush at present.

Our cheese factory is running now with Henry Davis as cheese maker. He is a first-class manufacturer and we wish him a successful season.

Thomas Kerr has a large quantity of seed corn of the stout nose variety.

It is a good time, now, before the buds burst forth into leaf, to look out for and remove the nests of caterpillar eggs, of which quite a large number are to be seen on the twigs of the trees.

The dog disappeared from Charlottetown last week. There was no "shoring" this spring, which leaves a considerable item off the ordinary expense account of owners of boat-houses, wharves, etc.

Athenians have enjoyed very pleasant weather of late, but not so tropical as has been suggested by the constant mention of "hot" and "Athen" children and the merry music of a parrot that has been fitting from tree to tree in the village.

The Conservatives have caused the arrest of two men in Brockville for being concerned in illegal practices alleged to have been committed by a consignor with the intention of evading duty on Thursday last. Both men have given bail.

Out of 89 who wrote on the arts exam at Queen's university, 64 were successful. Mr. W. Purvis of June-town gained his M.A., and the degree of B.A. was won by Miss Caroline Grant of Greenbush, G. Greenleaf, and our townsman, Mr. E. B. Withers.

Brockville Business College is doing excellent work for the young people in this part of the province. Mr. M. J. Dixon of the Commercial department has a position as book-keeper in Foley, and Mr. R. McMullin of the abstract department has a position in Montreal.

Recorder: Mr. C. G. Slack of Athens, who is a great gunner, has presented Mr. Graham with a handsome oil sketch entitled "called out." It represents a soldier boy whose regiment has been called to the front, parting with his broken loaded mother. The recipient is very much pleased with the gift.

In the results of the Divinity exam of Trinity College, Toronto, we are pleased to notice that Mr. R. H. Steacy, brother of Mrs. E. Fair, Church street, takes a prominent position. The third year student wrote on nine subjects and on eight of these Mr. Steacy stood 1st in his class and 2nd on the remaining subject. He also won the prize for Old Testament subjects.

On Saturday last news reached here of the death at his home in Toronto of Mr. G. L. Tucker, a former teacher in the Athens high school. Deceased had been ill with consumption for some time, so that his death was not unexpected. Mr. Tucker was a most exemplary young man, an excellent scholar, characterized by many pleasing social qualities, and was deservedly popular with the people of Athens.

A well known grocer of Kempville, named Robert P. Harding, made an attempt to commit suicide in his shed on Wednesday morning. The rope with which he was trying to commit the deed was cut down in time. When rescued Harding was still alive. He may recover, but is in a very critical condition. He is about forty-five years of age, married, and has several children.

We received this week a copy of the Wright County Progress, published at Hartsville, Missouri. A blue-pencil mark calls our attention to its advocacy of temperance. The editor is a former school's relation to the care of fire, explosives, live wires, gas jets, etc. This may be a good idea, but judging from the fact that this paper contains no less than thirty-four advertisements for whisky, we think the Progress should devote a little space to instructing its readers in the art of dodging executions and mortgages.

The Hon. Sir John Robert Mowbray, father of the House of Commons since 1898, is dead. Sir John Mowbray was the first baron of that name, the baronetcy being created in 1860. He was born on June 8, 1816.

The body of Andrew Love, missing clerk in the Grand Trunk freight department on Friday, was found floating in the bay at the foot of York street bridge on Saturday morning. He disappeared on Dec. 8 about midnight. Heart failure was attributed as the cause.

Xavier Guerin died at Matville, Que., on Friday, at the ripe old age of 108 years. He was a well-known veterinary surgeon in the Gattineau Valley.

The body of a young man, whose name was not given, was found on the roadside about three miles from Harrison on Saturday. The inquest was adjourned till Monday.

William Thompson, a former resident of Ottawa, was found dead on the Omaha & Kansas branch of the Missouri Pacific, where he secured a job last January as freeman.

phers of the manufacturer, he must be provided with a pedlar's license. If the article is manufactured in the province and the seller is a servant or employee of the manufacturer, he must have authority to sell from employers in writing and must show it when asked by any municipal or peace officer.

In Toronto some big employers of male and female labor pay such paltry wages that it is questionable if they could raise, educate, clothe, feed, house, nurse in sickness, and bury after death, slaves and get from them the same service as a little cost as they now get from free men and women. They would be answerable for the life of slaves. Self-interest would make them careful of the health of slaves. As matters stand they are not answerable for the lives or the health of those who serve them, and the employe who contracts a gnawing disease is turned from the door to die when and where he must.

Oyeling bids fair to be more than ever a popular pastime in Athens this season, as a large number of new riders are taking to the sport and a keen interest in the event is manifested by all. The lack of a cinder-path has militated seriously against the full enjoyment of this pleasure, up to the present, but there is now an agitation to secure this desideratum. It is proposed to lease the half mile race-course, no longer used for horses, and construct upon it a cinder path double the width of an ordinary path. This is estimated, should cost only $30,000, and such a small amount could be easily raised among the wheelmen or by an entertainment under their auspices.

Hog Cholera.

In the annual report of the Department of Agriculture the following occurs: In September last Prof. Bakr investigated reported outbreaks of hog cholera in the neighborhood of Ottawa, counties of Russell and Carleton. The disease was found on ten farms, the infection being supposed to have been introduced from pigs brought on the Ottawa market. On the 31st of October Dr. McEachern accompanied Dr. Percival of Ottawa over the infected farms, and directed him to proceed with the slaughtering of all the diseased and contact hogs. If the whole of the infected places have been discovered the slaughter, through disinfection and sanitation that has been made, should exterminate the disease. It is to be hoped that the county council will enforce more rigorously sanitary regulations within its jurisdiction. Up till the 31st October there were nineteen outbreaks in Russell and Carleton counties, 317 diseased pigs and 115 contact were killed. It would appear that the disease has been in existence for probably two years without being reported. The necessity for taking some active measures under the Animal Contagious Disease Act to awaken farmers and hog feeders to their responsibility and liability for not reporting the existence of contagious disease, is made apparent by these extensive outbreaks.

FOR MEN OF WAR.

The Rochester, N. Y., Naval Reserve, numbering about 600, will be present at Kingston on Queen's Birthday.

The Barocian police have discovered the existence of a Carlist plot in that city, and arrested five of the conspirators and seized a quantity of arms and ammunition.

FAMILY PERSONAL.

The marriage of Richard Harding Davis and Miss Cora Clark of Chicago will be solemnized at Marston, Mass., on Thursday, May 4.

The Paris correspondent of The New York Journal says: "Despite all reports to the contrary, M. Rostand, the author of 'Cyrano de Bergerac,' is insane, and has been placed in an asylum." The Academy of Moral and Political Sciences has awarded the Audiffren Prize of 10,000 francs, given yearly for the greatest action of devotion, to Major Marchand for traversing Africa.

The Marquis of Salisbury reappeared in the House of Lords on Friday evening with his usual long hair close cropped, with the result, as one paper says, of "transforming him from a Cavalier into a Roundhead."

Col. Clarke, a well-known racing judge at Louisville, Ky., committed suicide on Saturday.

Love, opposition and sycophancy conspired to cause William Roland and Leslie Brunette, of Edmonton, N.W.T., to take their own lives on 10.30 on Friday night.

Jonas Lundin, a jeweller who has a wife and three children in Kingston, attempted to commit suicide on Saturday night by swallowing a quantity of poison. The city physician took the poison in James Groundwater, an old man living in Toronto, aged 70 years, delirious, committed suicide Saturday by swallowing the contents of a small bottle of strychnine. He died in great agony ten minutes after he swallowed the poison, although a physician used a stomach pump. Groundwater took the poison in a cup of tea while partaking of his mid-day meal in bed. He evidently put the poison in the tea and swallowed it.

RAILROAD RUMBLING.

It is stated in railway circles that the new standard of rules will be put into operation on the Grand Trunk on May 1. The rules have been made as simple as possible and the officials claim that the employees will have no trouble whatever in making them.

New grain regulations will go into effect on the Grand Trunk on C.P.R. the first of next month at Montreal. The inland rate to either railway on oats will be 10 cents per bushel over heavy grain, 2.50 cents, corn, 2.75 cents, and barley, 3.17 cents. These rates are free of the inspection fee, and include 30 days free storage.

Mr. William Wright of Bradford intervened in the Grand Trunk freight department on Friday, and on Saturday he was taken to the hospital by Dr. Arthur White of the Grand Trunk on Friday in regard to the proposal to lower the level of Lake Superior. He died in great agony ten minutes after he swallowed the poison, although a physician used a stomach pump.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS.

Several farmers in southwestern Manitoba have been fined heavily for having smuggled tobacco in their possession. John K. Moore, who recently dropped from St. Thomas to Detroit with Mrs. Goodchild, has been arrested on a charge of neglecting to report for his two children at St. Thomas. He will be tried Tuesday at St. Thomas.

The Minister of Justice on Friday liberated Ernest Kennedy, a convict who was doing a three years' sentence for indecent assault. He has served four months of his term. The assigned reason for pardon is ill-health.

The finding of the body of Miss Pearl Billings in the Grand Trunk on Friday revealed a shocking crime. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that the deceased had been murdered. The head was found in the hands of George W. Kerlin, a prominent and wealthy farmer of that place.

Mr. Justice Robertson on Saturday intimated to counsel that he would require the written consent of George W. Fare and W. H. Holden, the two men held for robbing the Napanee bank, before he would change the venue for their trial to Toronto, as he has done in the case of W. H. Ponton.

CASUALTIES.

A child of William Hanbury was run into by an electric car on Saturday at Winnipeg and killed. The cars there have no fenders.

William Henderson was fatally injured while cutting cordwood at Oliphant, by a falling tree fracturing his skull. He leaves a wife, but no children.

While crossing the Kaministiquia River, near Mission Bend, Fort William, yesterday, Harry La Riviere was carried away by the current and drowned.

Friday morning a carpenter named James Kidden fell off a Kingston scaffold across a pile of lumber. Two ribs were broken and he was internally hurt.
