The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

In response to my request to tell me about some of the unusual occupations at which they, or any other woman whom they know, are earning their bread and butter or even a little jam to go with bread and butter already furnished, one girl has written me such a very interesting and meaty letter that I am going to devote the whole column to-day to quoting it.

She writes as follows:

"While my side line is not absolutely unique, it differs from stereotypical employment in many ways.

"Three years ago, when I was living in Los Angeles, my father gave me two large Belgian rabbits. And because I am fond of animals I spent much time with them and gradually added to my stock, later investing in the new and purer breed, New Zealand Red, until at present I keep about three dozen does at work constantly.

"Of course, it is much easier to write the bare facts of the matter than it is to describe the hours I have spent and the finger nails I have completely ruined building pens. Or the tears I shed when one after another of my promising young rabbit families simply lay down and died. But after a few months' experience, I know the why and wherefore of a rabbit's demise, and it doesn't happen again if I can prevent.

"The work means perhaps two hours day of work, and many hours of interest and 'fussing,' but I know to a dollar how much I will have at the end of a month over and above expenses, and it is no inconsiderable amount for a woman to earn at home.

"Besides the financial side of the work, I have found that a healthy interest in 'live things' and the caring for those helpless, eyeless, little wrigglers, that in six weeks will develop into lively young rabbits, will do away with more troubles than one would imagine. Who could stay morose or sour when they had to scamble wildly over fifty or a hundred small 'frys' in the run, and manage to feed and water them without breaking any little furry necks in the process.

"Then, too, every single rabbit has a personality of its own. I can turn twenty does in together and distinguish everyone and return her to her proper pen, while to the stranger there would be no difference among them.

"There is a steady demand for market stock that, so far, I have never been able to fill, for I cannot devote my time to the work as I wish I might. But for a woman who could and would work six to eight hours per day at it, there is not only money, but big money, waiting.

"With my three dozen does I clear from one to two dollars per day. What could anyone do with fifty?"

Will the young woman who took the time and trouble to contribute this interesting document, please consider herself very much thanked, both by any of my readers who may get a hint from it and by myself.

Ruth Cameron

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms can be Cured. It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything, I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden.

Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

New Scholarship Scheme in Vogue.

American Girl's Two Years' Course in London.

Tall and graceful, with a personality essentially feminine and attractive, Miss Juliet S. Points was the guest of honour at a gathering of the American circle of the Lyceum Club yesterday afternoon. She has the distinction of being the first woman to win the scholarship which has been endowed by the Federation of Women's Clubs of America with the object of giving to American women the same opportunity of studying English life as the Rhodes scholarship offer to men.

Only one scholarship is yet available, but the scheme has met with the support and encouragement from the Rhodes trustees, and a sub-committee has been formed under the League of Empire, with Sir John Cockburn as chairman, to watch over the development on this side of the Atlantic.

"This scholarship, which is of the same value as those given under the Rhodes Trust, £300 a year, enables me to take a two years' post-graduate course at either Oxford, Cambridge, or London Universities," said Miss Points, "I have chosen London because sociology and economics cannot be better studied than at the London School of Economics, which is famous throughout the world. Another reason is that London is the centre of English life, and therefore must be the best place to study English personality and the English point of view.—Daily Mail, Oct. 22.

Those who are planning to send Christmas packages abroad are reminded that a number of countries, such as Great Britain, Germany, British East Africa, and a great many British dependencies, will not admit packages bearing Christmas stamps if the stamps are affixed on the address side, while Portugal, Guatemala, and Uruguay will not admit packages bearing Christmas stamps at all. Every package mailed to a foreign country should bear the sender's name and address.

25 Knot Steamers.

London, Nov. 7.—The Financier News, commenting on Lord Strathcona's statement that shipbuilders were prepared to build 25-knot steamers for the Canadian service with a guaranteed cost of maintenance two-thirds less than that of the Mauretania, says that if they would also guarantee the absence of fogs in the Straits of Belle Isle the deal might be considered closed.

To Those Sending Christmas Presents.

A druggist can obtain an imitation of MINARD'S LINIMENT from a Toronto house at a very low price, and have it labelled his own product. This greasy imitation is the poorest one we have yet seen of the many that every Tom, Dick and Harry has tried to introduce. Ask for MINARD'S and you will get it.

Smallpox Outbreak in Springhill.

Springhill, N. S., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The town has been thrown into consternation over a serious outbreak of small pox which has taken place among the strike breakers. Eight cases are fully developed and many suspects are being isolated. The cases are being carefully watched and isolated in the company's houses. The health officer is fully alive to the seriousness of the position. The disease was introduced by some colored people recently imported. The people of the town are necessarily alarmed over the introduction of the scourge in their midst.

Asbestol Horsehide Gloves for Men.

TAKE men who are plying their calling through storm and tempest—the crew of ships handling icy ropes, cases and all kinds of packages in all conditions of weather, many of these packages with bails and sharp edges of iron jutting out at the sides.

Picture a man with pierced and bleeding hands caused by these sharp edges.

The captain from his position on the bridge exposed to the severest cold—the railroad man at all kinds of work—the engineer handling and fitting hot steam pipes—the truckman doing rough and heavy work—the mechanic doing outside skilled labor, and you will say it is necessary for these men to protect their hands with Asbestol Horsehide Gloves.

Asbestol Gloves are made of genuine horsehide, tanned by a mineral process, which makes these gloves stand the test of heat, steam, water and washing—sewed in the strongest possible manner, perfect fitting, and made for rough, heavy and hard work.

These gloves when dirty can be washed with soap and water, can be wet through and dried in the strongest heat and will dry out absolutely as soft and pliable as when new. Made in black and yellow. Size 9, 9 1/2, 10, 10 1/2.

Come in and see these gloves. Prices are low for the qualities.

From Jersey City.

Mr. H. Barrett who formerly worked at R. Pennell's and afterwards at E. J. Horwood, grocers, this city, writes us from Jersey City, U. S. A. He had read in the Evening Telegram the first report of the loss of the S. S. Regulus in which in setting down the names of the crew those of Hutchings and J. Grace were not mentioned. Young Hutchings, whom he knows well, was second steward on her when the Regulus collided with the Karema. He went to the States about two months ago. His mother and father are dead but he has a sister living at 35 Field Street, St. John's, Nfld. Up to the time that Mr. Barrett wrote the letter Hutchings' name had not appeared in the report of the passenger list, but it has been published since and he is therefore relieved of the sad duty of being the first to break the news to his friends here, as he evidently thought he would be when he asked us to publish the enclosed particulars. Mr. Barrett's many friends here in St. John's will, no doubt, be glad to hear that he is doing well and has a good position with Messrs. Butler Bros., a large wholesale house in Jersey City, where there are three other St. John's boys working, viz., S. Thompson, James Wilson and M. Murphy.

The Famous Needham Organ—Tens of thousands in use world over. Sold in almost every Core and Hamlet in Newfoundland. Seven styles to choose from. Liberal terms. CHESLEY WOODS, Sole Agent, 140 Water St.—nov.21.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.

Fads and Fashions.

There is a preference for white laces this season.

It requires a perfect profile to adopt extreme collures.

Light, filmy laces are trimmed with fur for winter gowns.

The popularity of the one-piece gown does not abate.

More ostrich feathers are being sold than ever before.

Black velvet is paramount as trimming, while satin trims a close second.

Large colored wood buttons are seen on some of the new tailored suits.

There seems to be no cessation in the demand for allovers and baby Irish.

Chiffon scarfs are worn as sashes with a large belt-pin and tasseled ends.

Scarfs continue in demand and will no doubt see another season of popularity.

Marie Antoinette corsage draperies are a feature of evening and day garments.

Nets are in great demand for evening dresses, yokes, sleeves and separate waists.

Embroideries done with beads are used on both afternoon and evening gowns.

Hair puffs bunched on each side of the ears broaden the face, but are quaint.

Black velvet or patent leather makes the dressiest street boot of the moment.

Shoes with slanted Spanish heels are a natural outcome of the present fashions.

Marabou trimming ornaments the sleeves of many of the latest "little dresses."

Suede leather shoes are again seen and may take for want of a more extreme style.

Raccoon stands first in the list of long-haired furs. Sables, of course, are in great demand.

Irish laces are as popular as ever and are shown in charming bands, edgings and all-overs.

Much used for simple house gowns is a soft woolen material, now called mousseline de laine.

Deadlier Torpedoes.

London, Nov. 7.—A new invention which, it is claimed, will increase enormously the effectiveness of torpedo warfare, has been tested in the great basin at Birkenhead.

By the new plan torpedoes will pierce the nets round warships as a protection, by means of a new and highly powerful explosive, instead of by the cutter with which they are at present fitted. Indeed, if the new invention is approved, these nets will be rendered obsolete.

During the test a torpedo cut clean through a net placed some distance away.

The inventor of the new device is Mr. G. S. Hazlehurst, ex-Mayor of Birkenhead.

Privileges of Empire.

May Vanish Unless Responsibilities are Faced.

London, Nov. 5.—The Times apropos of the Cape Union says: Hon. Mr. Lemieux, in his speech on Thursday night, dwelt eloquently upon the value set on the Empire by the French of Quebec. It has given them the fullest security, as he truly said, for their religion, language, traditions and all they prize in life. It will do no less for the Dutch, but it must always be remembered in Canada and South Africa, as in other parts of the Empire, that the privileges of Empire will vanish if the responsibilities are not clearly and conscientiously faced.

The Right Chord.

Tim Shannahan's advice about constancy in pushing local goods is sound and should appeal to all sensible men who do not wish the lessons of the exhibition to lose now force that the exhibition has closed.

"Isn't any use of us getting over-heated on the home-made article business one week, and then getting cool on it. Our people must be made acquainted with our own goods," says Tim, and Tim strikes the right chord. The Manufacturers' Exhibition was the big eye-opener of the combined shows. Few visitors had any idea of the extent and excellence of goods locally manufactured. But whose fault is that. Largely the Manufacturers themselves? People have no intimate knowledge of such things. If people are to know of them, they must be brought to their attention; and it is only by seeing themselves, reading about them, looking at pictures of them that they can be brought before and kept before people. There are shop windows to display the wares, there are newspapers to exhibit pictures of them and with letter press to set out their attractive features, and these are always available and must be constantly used if people are to be kept in touch with the goods that are being made here. Otherwise the flurry of a week will pass away, the value of the exhibition will be lost, and even if the exhibition is an annual event as it should be, people will have 51 weeks to forget what they learnt during a visit or two to an exhibition which lasted one week out of fifty-two.

Hopeall Coal Mine.

Messrs. J. C. Phillips and Angus Walker returned from Hopeall, Trinity Bay, by train to-day. They report that there are 16 men now working on the recently discovered coal seam at Hopeall Head and that the quality is improving as they go deeper. All the surrounding area on the mainland, as well as the island, has been struck the past week.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

In the police court to-day two drunks were discharged. A West Ender, drunk for the fifth time this season and also assaulting and beating a lad named Jas. Kielly yesterday, was sent down for 6 months with hard labor. Mr. A. J. W. McNelly, who saw the man attack the lad, testified and said it was an aggravated assault. The man kicked and beat the boy unmercifully, and evidently received his just deserts at the hands of the judge.

Coastal Boats.

REID NELD. CO. The Argyle left Baine Harbour at 5.45 p.m. yesterday and arrived at Placentia to-day. The Bruce arrived at our bay Basques at 7.10 a.m. to-day. The Clyde arrived at Lewisporte at 7.45 p.m. yesterday and sailed to-day for the north. The Dundee left Port Blandford at 4.50 a.m. to-day. The Ethie left Clarendville at 3.25 a.m. to-day. The Glenoee left Placentia at 7.30 p.m. yesterday. The Home arrived at Bay of Islands at 1 p.m. yesterday and sailed this morning. The Invermore is north of Twillingate.

BOWRING SHIPS.

The Porta sails west at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The Prospero is still north of Seal Cove.

Amethyst in Port.

The s.s. Amethyst arrived here at 10.30 to-day from Montreal via Sumneride, Charlottetown and the Sydney to Shea & Co. with a full cargo of foodstuffs. She left Montreal on the 27th ult. and had excellent weather all through and left Sydney at 1 a.m. Wednesday. This will be the last trip of the ship to this port for the season. On discharging she goes to St. John's, N.S., and takes a cargo of plaster to Paris to Montreal. She will lay up at Quebec for the winter.

AT THE DOCK.—The s.s. Aurora and s.s. Bonaventure were put on the R. N. Co. dock to-day for repairs and a cleaning up.

Still in Doubt.

This morning the Telegram reporter interviewed Skipper Follett of the Schr. Campana, relative to the non-appearance of the Schr. Mary Joseph of which Follett's father is master. He says that she did not arrive at Bay Bulls Wednesday, as he had anticipated, neither did she get to Cape Broyle, and he now believes that she ran back out of Wednesday's storm to St. Mary's, though he is not sure of this. Men, however, residents of that section fear there is something wrong, as all the craft who left St. Mary's Bay when the Mary Joseph did have arrived here days ahead of her.

Launch From Labrador

Baine Johnstone's launch, Jennie Foote, H. Morris master, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Rigolette, near Battle Hr. She left the latter port on the 26th of October and encountered a succession of storms. She had to shelter at Hooping Hr. St. Anthony, St. Juliens, Seidom, Tilt Cove, and Trinity. She tried to get through Bacalleu-Tickle Tuesday, but could not owing to the storm and had to run back to Trinity and remained there that night. She also harbored in Old Perlican. She left Rigolette 26 days ago and then it was intensely frosty down there with four feet of snow covering the ground. The same applies to Battle Harbor. The launch was collecting fish down there and brought Mr. Adams, of England, to Rigolette.

Another Schr. Ashore.

Messrs. Harvey & Co. had a telegram yesterday stating that the schr. St. Elmo, Benson, master, went ashore Wednesday afternoon at Northern Head, three miles from Botwood. She left here Monday laden with iron pipes for the A. N. D. Co. of Grand Falls. Yesterday they were taking the cargo out of her, and it is hoped when she is lightened that she will come off. She went ashore in the storm of Wednesday.

Marine Notes.

The Adventure, from Sydney, passed the Narrows bound to Harbor Grace, coal laden, at noon to-day. The Bonaventure was towed to the Dry Dock to-day by the tug John Green for necessary repairs. The Durango sailed for Liverpool this afternoon taking 1,000 tons of codfish, oil, lobsters, etc. The Tobasco arrived at Halifax at 6 p.m. yesterday. The Wasia left Sydney for here yesterday afternoon, coal laden.

Personal Notes.

Mr. A. Pest with his wife and family left here by the Bruce express last evening and will reside in Sydney in future. He was a member of the C. L. B. for many years, and the lads of the brigade assembled at the station and gave him a hearty send off. Mr. Arthur Tarrant, of the firm of Law, Young & Co., Montreal, who has been here taking orders in the interest of his firm the past week, returned by the express last evening.

The Horse Tax.

Editor Evening Telegram: Dear Sir—Permit me to ask Horse Tax Collector Koyfe if it is true that certain members of the present Council are owners of several horses and have only been paying for one. Yours faithfully, T. J. W., St. John's, Nov. 11, '10. Truckman.

SCHOONER LOST.—The schr. Minnie, belonging to James Baird, went ashore on North Harbor Point, Wednesday last in the storm and became a total wreck.

TWO TRUSSES FOUND.—Two trusses almost new were picked up this morning near the Parade rink and are now at the Police Station. The owner can get them there.

St. Bon's Pupils' Exhibition To-Day

The T. A. Hall was crowded this forenoon by the parents and friends of the pupils of St. Bonaventure's College on the occasion of the presentation of the spectacular two-act drama "If I were King" and the distribution of prizes. Amongst the audience were His Excellency the Governor, Lady Williams, His Grace the Archbishop, the Premier and the members of the R. C. Board of Education. The drama was a very happy selection, and the boys who took part acquitted themselves in such a manner as to reflect credit on themselves and their teachers. The plot is laid in Naples, where the enemies of King Ferdinand conspire to de-throne King Fernando and seize the castle of St. Elmo. The conspirators are overheard by Genaro, a shepherd, who had formerly saved the life of the King's son. Genaro is heard by the King's courtiers in his dreams to wish that he were King, and they conceive the plan of carrying out the joke of making him King. They bring him to the castle and place him on the throne. His knowledge of the conspiracy against the real King's life enables him, with the help of the shepherd, during his temporary reign to put down the conspiracy and save the King and his people. Afterwards evidence is brought forward to show that he is the King's son, who had been stolen by the gypsies when a child, and the lawful heir to the throne. The acting of Master P. Knight as Rulisco, cousin of the King and chief conspirator, as well as that of Master P. Halley, as Genaro the shepherd King, was particularly clever and showed that they both possess marked histrionic ability. In fact all sustained their parts well. The following boys took part in the cast—P. Halley, B. O'Reilly, F. Knight, N. Duchemin, A. Power, P. Kennedy, K. Keegan, G. Byrne, E. Rawlins, E. Crawford, J. Edens, H. Barnes, G. Emerson, T. O'Neill, F. Keating, J. McGrath, M. Cashin, W. McGrath, J. Barron, R. Costigan, E. O'Hagen, A. Black, R. Leseman, R. Cashin and P. O'Brien.

At the conclusion of the performance, Rev. Bro. Tuilane read the report of the school work for the year, which showed that St. Bonaventure's had kept up to the standard of good work done in former years. He thanked His Excellency the Governor, His Grace the Archbishop and the Premier for attending and for always having taken such a kindly and practical interest in all that pertained to the advancement of education. The rev. gentlemen then requested His Excellency and suite, the Archbishop, the Premier and members of the Board of Education to come to the platform and assist His Grace the Archbishop at the presentation of the prizes.

When the prizes were all distributed His Excellency arose and delivered a graceful speech. He congratulated the boys on their success, and in speaking of the benefits of education referred to the great advantages gained by the boys in cultivating a manly spirit amongst themselves. His Excellency also referred to and warned the boys against the spirit of socialism, now so prevalent throughout the world. The boys had all done well in the drama and the prize competition, but he hoped that they would do better on the next occasion. He was particularly pleased with the distinct utterance of those who took part in the drama. His Grace the Archbishop followed in a congratulatory and encouraging address in the course of which he thanked His Excellency for coming and paid a well merited meed of praise to the zeal and ability of the teachers of the College.

REGULUS BREAKING UP.—People of Petty Harbor, who were recently at the scene of the wrecked Regulus, say that the hull is becoming broken up. The other part of the ship is completely broken away by the sea and cast into deep water, but the forward part of the hull is still intact.

The sales "To-night" and "Where the Abana flows," were tendered at the tea and concert held by the Ladies of St. Bonaventure's Association on Wednesday afternoon, by Miss Bates, not by Miss Strang, as incorrectly stated in our issue of yesterday.

At 241 Duckworth Street, on the 10th inst., by the Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite, Mr. Peter D. Moore to Miss Miriam Evans, both of this city.

A Treasured Souvenir.
Mrs. O'Keefe, of the "Grove," Harbor Grace, is the possessor of a valuable souvenir in the shape of a pocket book sent out to her husband from Waterford about 70 years ago by the father of the late Sir Ambrose Shea. Mrs. O'Keefe who is now a very old lady has outlived all the friends of her youth in the good old families of the Hendersons, Foxes and Ryans and others. "Keefe's Grove" was in the hidden days a favourite and hospitable resort. Mrs. Keefe has also several family souvenirs and heirlooms over 100 years old.

Had Eczema In Both Legs
Remarkable cure of Chronic Eczema by use of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.
You could scarcely imagine a more severe test of this ointment than the cure of Mrs. Clark recorded here. For twenty years she suffered all the tortures of this terrible disease and tried in vain the prescriptions of doctors; and the cures commonly recommended. Mr. Fred W. Clark, Petworth, Ontario, writes: "My mother had Eczema in both legs for about 20 years and suffered from the dreadful itching, stinging sensations which can never be described. She doctored and tried everything for it but got no relief until she used Dr. Chase's Ointment which was recommended to her by a friend. She found that this brought relief and by continuing its use has been cured of Eczema. I do not think any one could have this horrible disease any worse than she did and can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a thorough cure for Eczema."
Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes sent free.

S. A. PEOPLE CAME.—By last night's train and yesterday's express a large number of S. A. officers arrived in the city to be present at the Army Congress here over which Col. Gaskin will preside. Numbers of the S. A. people were at the station to welcome them.

ASSAULTED A BOY.—Yesterday afternoon on New Gower Street a man for some reason or other attacked and beat a boy passing that way. Mr. McNelly, who was near, saw the attack, denounced the brutal fellow and on complaining to the police the man was arrested.

AN EXCELLENT DISPLAY.—In the windows of his large establishment on Water Street Hon. George Knowling has on exhibition the carrots, pumpkins, cauliflower and other agricultural products of his which took prizes at the recent Agricultural Show. ### Mexicans Re-sent Lynching.

Special Evening Telegram.
MEXICO CITY, Mex., Nov. 10. Mexico City to-day resembles an armed camp, following nearly 48 hours of demonstrations against Americans and the Government. In the course of the rioting an American flag was torn down, trampled on and torn to pieces. Citizens were assaulted or insulted in the streets, and windows of "booth" American business places were shattered, and an attempt was made to destroy the plant of El Imparcial, the leading Mexican daily, and the exponent of Government policies. Quiet was restored only after squads of mounted police with drawn sabres had repeatedly charged the mob, killing three of the disturbers, roughly handing scores of others and arresting more than two hundred. Today companies of mounted police are stationed in every block and hundreds of policemen are patrolling the streets. The demonstration was confined to the business portions of the city, no disturbances having been reported in the residential quarter. Of several reported fatalities, one occurred in front of the offices of El Imparcial and two during a charge of police near the Alameda Public Park near the outside of the city. The only explanation of the attack on El Imparcial was the political contents, fired by the students' activities over the burning of a Mexican in Texas on Nov. 3rd, took an opportunity to wreak vengeance on a Government organ. An American was reported to have been captured by the rioters, who tore off his clothing and beat him.

England an Interested Observer.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, Nov. 10. England has been an interested observer of the American elections, particularly Mr. Roosevelt's part in them. The papers for weeks have carried long dispatches of the progress of the contest. The London morning newspapers print lengthy editorials on the subject. The Standard thinks it an exaggeration to describe the elections as a crush to Roosevelt or an overwhelming disaster to the Republican Party. Roosevelt, says the Standard, says in the belief that the party organization must immediately reorganize and that he was the only person to carry out the task. The Daily Graphic says the agency clearly has gripped the country. The old party system is seriously near the melting point if it is not actually in it. The Chronicle sees in the result revolt amongst the protectionists. The Morning Post says that it cannot be said that the Democrats owe the victory to any positive merits of their own. Their success must be attributed to the impetuosity inspired by the Republicans and to divisions which weakened the powerful party. The Daily News says Mr. Roosevelt took upon himself to reform American policy without re-

Cable News.

Special Evening Telegram.
NEW YORK, Nov. 10. Professor Geracieli I. Parker, of Columbia University, who recently returned from his exploration of Mount McKinley to-day, made public a series of photos taken near the Alaskan Mountain which he claims is indisputable evidence that Dr. Fred. A. Cook the Brooklyn traveller, never reached the top of the highest peak in America. Prof. Parker stated he found the mountain peak which Dr. Cook photographed and called Mt. McKinley and the top of the continent, and in support of his statement showed his photograph of the mountain peak taken by his expedition last summer and pointed out that a comparison of the two photographs shows identical outlines of rock formation proving that they are pictures of the same mountain. The mountain which is photographed said Prof. Parker, was 20 miles from Mt. McKinley and 15,000 feet below its summit. This is the same peak that Cook photographed and called the top of the continent.

Nerves Were Exhausted.

Wants others to know of her remarkable cure by use of DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.
Mrs. Martin's condition as described in her letter below gives some idea of the extraordinary restorative power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Such cures as this have placed Dr. Chase's Nerve Food where it stands today as the most popular and most effective nerve restorative that money will buy. Mrs. Edwin Martin, Ayrer's Cliff, Que., writes:—"Before I began using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food I was in a terrible condition. Dizzy spells would come over me and I would fall to the floor in a faint. I could not even sweep the floor without fainting and my nervous system seemed to be entirely exhausted.
"The use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has built up my system wonderfully so that I can do my housework and washing without any trouble, and I want others to know about it." ### The Benedick Here.

The S. S. Benedick, Capt. Roberts, arrived here at 6.20 p.m. yesterday from Montreal. She has one of the largest cargoes of food stuffs ever brought into St. John's, consisting as it does of 25,000 barrels of flour, 150 head of cattle, 225 sheep, poultry, pigs etc. The ship left Montreal at 6 a.m. Wednesday, October 26, and had it fine on the run down the St. Lawrence, arriving at Charlottetown, P. E. I., Saturday forenoon. Here for fully three days rain fell in torrents delaying the ship as nothing could be done in the way of putting a big consignment of oats which she later took on board. She left there Tuesday last at daylight and had a good run to port. She brought a couple of passengers, and will make one more trip to and from Montreal, and may later take another cargo to England from the Southern States.

Inside Story of the Elections.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Evening Post this afternoon declares that early in October, 1904, Henry C. Erick, the Pittsburgh multi-millionaire, and Hamilton McK. Twomey, of the Vanderbilt group of capitalists, visited President Roosevelt at the White House and pledged themselves to turn over to the Republican campaign fund for use in the election the following month $50,000 each. This pledge was kept. The Post declares, and the money was used in New York State. This incident, the Post asserts, immediately preceded the visit of E. H. Harriman to Mr. Roosevelt which resulted in the railroad king turning over $200,000 to the Republican campaign fund and with which, Harriman later declared, "fifty thousand votes were turned to the Republican party in New York City alone."

Do Cats Carry Paralysis?

Kansas Doctors Investigating Cases in Animals.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 2.—Dr. A. L. Skoog, of Kansas City, an infantile paralysis expert, and Dr. F. B. Schöenleber, State Veterinarian, have gone to northwest Kansas to investigate some cases of paralysis in dogs, cats and farm animals.

The paralysis in these animals seems to be very similar to infantile paralysis, which has been epidemic in Kansas this year, there being about one hundred and fifty cases in the northwestern part of the state. The physicians will try to learn whether there is any connection between the paralysis in children and in animals, and they say they may be able to show that the disease is carried by domestic animals.

Tim Shannahan on After the Fair.

SHANNAHAN AND TUCKER HAVE A CHAT.

Lonely stands the Rink—both Rinks in fact. The gorgeous display is dimmed and the surging, restless crowd of spectators have gone about their business.

The man from Harbor Grace who had charge of the grand display of boots and shoes from that city is again gazing out on the waters of Conception Bay and wondering was it all a dream. The ducks and drakes, the noisy rooster, and the fattened goose, have again reached the quietness of the country home; horses and ponies have lost their ribbon and are again growled at because they refused to "get over" in their stalls, and the cabbage and turnips which fetched no prize are ired recklessly in a corner awaiting to be trotted forth on the market, at the time approaching Christmas, when vegetables will command a "decent" price.

The silver tongued orator, who held sway on the day of the opening, saunters along Water Street and thinks if he had another chance he'd do a lot better; and the busy housewife mourns the loss of a silver brooch in the crush. The policeman who acted a little too busy at the Rink is again on his solitary beat, and has made up his mind to act more leniently in future.

"This is the lingo of Tucker; this is part of his speech that he delivered to us last night.

Sometimes I almost hate Tucker. He seems to be getting too smart. Do you know there's such a thing as a man getting too smart. We all like to be considered it, and we all hate to be made feel that our companions are walking ahead of us.

"This is human nature, pure and simple, and the next thing we'll know is that Tucker will be gone "on his own hook." Responsibility, though, is a heavy thing to carry, and Tucker is welcome to take the load. I'll do my best to keep him as my first officer, but if he gets "swelled head" he'll be given all the line he needs.

"That's a fine oration, Tucker," says Delaney, "but there is room for an addition. The crowd is dispersed, and the 'make a fuss' politician sits in his easy chair, smokes his cigar and peers into the grate. He wonders if the money has been well spent, and he can see shiny paragraphs dealing with the Exhibition in his next manifesto."

But away above it all in importance is the great mass of people, the purchasing public. What effect is the Exhibition going to have on them? Are they going to ask for local made goods in future, or are they not? Surely the show must have convinced them that they can do as well by buying our local goods as they can if they fired their cash at the man who talked up outside productions. Tucker says we'll have to keep the movement on the swing by advertising. Let no man be ashamed or afraid to say his goods are the goods made in the country, and let every one of us men and women create an interest, a whole-souled interest, in everything local by talking it up and putting forth every effort to boost the sales.

"Here," says Mrs. Tucker, handing over a stool, "take a sit down for yourself, Tim, over by the door, where 'tis nice and cool, and give me a chance to have half a say on this subject. 'Tisn't any use of us getting overheated on the home made article business one week and then getting cool on it. Our people must be made acquainted with our own goods. Why I was up to a house-to-day where a woman was washing, and alongside the wash tub was a cake of soap and a packet of washing powder. I looked at them and discovered that they were both made outside the country. Said I, 'Weren't you down to the Exhibition last week?'"

"I was," says she. "Why do you ask me that?"

"Well," says I, "you went down there, looked at all you saw, and you listened to the sincere addresses of the gentlemen with the English made clothes on. You heard on every side 'buy the local made article,' and now here before me lies soap and powder of alien production. Shame on you, said I, 'I'll tell the Premier about you, and he won't sleep a wink for a week when he hears of it.'

"Hold on," says she, "don't get too excited. Let me have a word or two. Now, I go over to a shop for soap and powder. Very well. The shopkeeper hands me out the articles. How am I to know whether they're local or not? He can tell me they're local and I can't dispute it. One thing is sure, if they want us to buy their goods they'll have to get the shopkeeper interested, and the shopkeeper will have to be able to sell it to us as cheap as the imported, or we'll go for the imported every time. We're patriotic around here, just as long as we lose no money by it; but if it costs us one red ha'penny to be fond of our own goods, we let some one else get fond and we stick to the same old goods that we stuck to before."

"That's very true for that woman," says Delaney. "Oh, if women were only allowed to speechify at election times, what a prosperous and happy people we would be."

At this Tucker law hawed, and the cat went out.

G. C. Kennedy and the Policeman.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—Would you kindly give to the public the benefit of this note in connection with the police uniform. The clothes they wear in inclement weather is not suitable for a natural man to walk the streets with, for when the rain falls it falls heavy, and is likely to wet, and the poor policeman must take refuge in hall doors or corners for shelter to avoid catching a chill. They are not provided for in the clothing line. In the first place each man should have one pair long rubber boots up to the thigh, with long oil coat and oil hat, so as to avoid being wet doing duty. The policeman is a man who suffers hardship night and day to protect the lives of the general public and his labour is not appreciated. By all means protect the policeman, for he protects you. I am not laying any blame to anyone in particular. I will comment further on this subject if the clothes are not provided for the policeman.

Thanking you for space,
I remain,
G. C. KENNEDY.

Learned to Drink Coffee When a Baby.

If parents realized the fact that coffee contains a drug—caffeine—which is especially harmful to children, they would doubtless hesitate before giving the babies coffee to drink.

"When I was a child in my mother's arms and first began to nibble things at the table, mother used to give me sips of coffee. As my parents used coffee exclusively at meals I never knew there was anything to drink but coffee and water."

"And so I contracted the coffee habit early. I remember when quite young the continual use of coffee so affected my parents that they tried roasting wheat and barely, then ground it in the coffee-mill, as a substitute for coffee.

"But it did not taste right and they went back to coffee again. That was long before Postum was ever heard of. I continued to use coffee until I was 27, and when I got into office work, I began to have nervous spells. Especially after breakfast I was so nervous I could scarcely attend to my correspondence.

"At night, after having coffee for supper, I could hardly sleep, and on rising in the morning would feel weak and nervous.

"A friend persuaded me to try Postum. My wife and I did not like it at first, but later when boiled good and strong it was fine. Now we would not give up Postum for the best coffee we ever tasted.

"I can now get good sleep, am free from nervousness and headaches. I recommend Postum to all coffee drinkers.

Colonel Gaskin Welcomed to the City.

Colonel Gaskin, of the Salvation Army, who arrived here by the express yesterday, was given a warm reception at the Citadel, New Gower Street. A large gathering assembled, including the officers from the out-ports. Col. Rees opened the meeting with a hymn and prayer. The band having played a fine selection, Mrs. Rees, Bandsman Cummings, Ensign Sainsbury, Capt. Stafford, Capt. Holmes and Cave all spoke in turn, and expressed the pleasure that it afforded them to welcome Col. Gaskin. At the close of the speeches medals were presented to Julie Clarke and Lizzie Taylor, who won the highest marks in the C. H. E. exams. Col. Gaskin concluded the meeting with a lengthy and eloquent address relative to the business of the Congress. Commissioner Coombs, who is ill, will not be able to visit Newfoundland this year.

The s.s. Portia, Capt. T. Fitzpatrick, arrived here from western ports at 5 p.m. yesterday after one of the most disagreeable trips in the experience of the captain. The ship left here on Friday, October 28th, and had very disagreeable weather until Saturday evening, when she arrived at Placentia. She remained there until 2 a.m. Sunday, and from that till Gaultois was reached, at 5 p.m. Monday, she had fairly good weather. Owing to a S. E. storm the ship had to remain there over night, and leaving at 5 a.m. next day had a continuous run to Bonne Bay, where she arrived on Thursday, the 3rd November, at 3 a.m. Thick fog compelled the ship to lay up that night. It rained hard with an east wind. She left there at 4 p.m. Friday for Bay of Islands. The ship reached Cape Ray at midnight and encountered a southerly wind and dense fog and she did not make Port aux Basques until 4 a.m. At 9 a.m. she arrived at Rose Blanche on the morning of the 5th inst. in a dense fog and remained there until 5 Sunday morning, and at noon that day she was off Burgeo in a dense fog. When it lifted momentarily the ship managed to enter and leave port, and arrived at Ramea at 5 p.m. Sunday. Here the ship had to again lay up at night, and leaving Monday morning she arrived at Hermitage at dusk. Owing to another S. E. storm the Portia was compelled to stay there till 4 next morning. Thence to Placentia she had it fair until Wednesday, when from 8 a.m. till noon she had a gale of S. E. wind, heavy rain and dense fog. She arrived at Placentia at 1 p.m. The ship brought a small freight and these passengers: Messrs. Cornick, Summers, Edens, Leary, Morry, Dr. Freebairn; Mesdames Avery, Moehan, Power, Devine, Miss Walsh and 74 steerage.

Herring Catchers Arrive on West Coast.

By the Portia we learn that the herring which were at Bonne Bay when the ship was there on her last trip have struck off. When the ship was there this trip three vessels owned by the Gerton-Pew Co., of Gloucester, were there. They were at Burgeo for squid and went thence to Bonne Bay for herring but found that it had struck off, and later came to Bay of Islands where herring were reported at North Arm. Capt. Joseph Bonin, of the schooner Fanny Smith, has charge of operations and has a freeing apparatus on the vessel. One of the other vessels has a load of salt on board, and the other a cargo of ice. The three vessels are working together. When the Portia arrived there Friday morning last there was a big school of herring in North Arm, and the fishermen were making big hauls. They could be seen hauling their nets from the ship's deck. There is good fishing at Middle Arm also, but except the three American schrs. aluded to all the other vessels there are local. It is thought there will be a good winter herring fishery at Bay of Islands this season.

Brought to Hospital.

The man Nolan, of St. Bride's, who had his hand almost blown off Sunday week, as reported in the Telegram, came in by last night's train to enter Hospital. The gun which did the damage was being examined by a friend of the injured man, who passed in front of it when it was accidentally discharged. He narrowly escaped getting the whole charge in his body and being killed. Dr. J. B. Lynch attended the sufferer. It is thought the hand will have to be amputated.

The Regulus Enquiry.

Yesterday afternoon the Marine Court of Enquiry continued its sittings in connection with the Regulus disaster. Mr. R. G. Rendell, who was on the John Greene, which had the ship in tow, was examined, as was also Capt. Strong, manager of the Tug Company. At this afternoon's session the lightkeeper at Cape Spear and people of the shore on which the ship was lost will give their testimony.
