BEATTIE NESBITT PASSED AWAY ONE HOUR AFTER INDICTMENTS AGAINST HIM WERE QUASHED

Famous Politician, Organizer, and First President of Defunct Farmers' Bank Died After a Lingered Illness From a Complication of Diseases.

CRIMINAL ACTION DISMISSED BY JUDGE MIDDLETON

Mrs. Nesbitt Told Her Husband Before He Died That He Was a Free Man and Toronto's Best Known Figure Smiled and Died in Peace.

DR. W. BEATTIE NESBITT

Who died yesterday afternoon at his residence, 71 Grosvenor street. He will be buried on Monday.

Dr. W. Beattie Nesbitt, athlete, physician, politician, company organizer, bank president, mayorally aspirant, is dead. The man, large physically and mentally, who had had a steady career of ups and downs in life, passed to his reward at 3.30 yesterday afternoon at his home, 71 Grosvenor street. During the last twenty years he was prominently known in Toronto, in fact he was one of the city's most picturesque characters. Complications arising from Bright's Disease and heart trouble, combined with worry over the indictment against him in connection with the collapse of the Farmers' Bank, brought about the end. He was 47 years of age.

The death was no surprise. During the past month it was known by his physicians and friends that he would not survive. Six months ago when he was brought back from Chicago, where he had been in hiding from the police for one year, he was in a poor physical state and soon after went into decline. For some time he was confined in the Lyndhurst Hospital, College street, and then he was taken to his home, where he died yesterday in the presence of his wife and young daughter.

Until a few minutes before the end he was conscious. At 2.30—one hour prior to death—his home on Grosvenor street was called by phone by Hartley H. Dewart, his counsel, in the Farmers' Bank case. Mrs. Nesbitt answered the ring and Mr. Dewart's first enquiry was as to the doctor's condition.

"He is very low," said Mrs. Nesbitt, "but he is still conscious."

Indictments Quashed.

"Then, tell him," said Mr. Dewart, "that Judge Middleton quashed the indictments against him at 2 o'clock this afternoon."

Mrs. Nesbitt was quite relieved by the news and rushed to her dying husband's bedside. He was still conscious and apparently not suffering. He was told that he had been freed of the charges which had been hanging over him for more than a year, and by his smile it was quite apparent that he understood the meaning of the few words spoken to him. One hour later he passed away.

On Thursday, after Mr. Dewart had presented his argument to the effect that the indictments should be quashed.

TRIBUTES PAID TO DOCTOR'S MEMORY

Conservative Party Is Weaker Because of His Demise, Says E. W. J. Owens, Who Always Found Dr. Nesbitt a Good Fighter and a "White" Man.

"The Conservative party is weaker today because of his demise. Some may not have seen eye to eye with him in his methods, but he had at all times the sincere and honest purpose at heart—our party's cause."

In these words E. W. J. Owens, M.L.A., at the Ward Three Liberal-Conservative Association banquet last night referred to the sudden death yesterday afternoon of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt. Sincere regret was also expressed by the other speakers.

"It is with deep and heartfelt regret and with a feeling I cannot put in words that I heard of Dr. Nesbitt's death," said Mr. Owens. "He and I have stood shoulder to shoulder in many a tight corner, and he has always been white. He was a man who would go any length for a friend, and for friendship's sake would always give the best that was in him."

Claude Macdonell, M.P., said it was with the greatest regret that he learned of the death of his warm and personal friend. "We have all to go to our fate when our time comes," he said. "Dr. Nesbitt has gone to his rest and I trust to his reward."

Of considerable attention since the day before, and had finally decided to quash each of the five indictments on which Dr. Nesbitt was extradited from the United States. His lordship said, however, he would reserve the reasons for his judgment until later, as they were of great importance.

Mr. Dewart said that he did not desire to argue the question on his own account, but that he had been definitely instructed to do so by Mrs. Nesbitt. His argument for the quashing of the indictments was on the ground that none of them disclosed an indictable offence at law.

Mr. Dewart lost no time in informing his client of the good news after Mr. Justice Middleton had given his decision. At a late hour last night Mr. Dewart was seen by The World.

"It's the most extraordinary thing I ever heard tell of," he said. "While I knew that Dr. Nesbitt's condition was very serious, the news of his death, an hour after the quashing of the indictments, came to me as a great surprise. I phoned Mrs. Nesbitt of the decision, and she was able to tell her husband before he died."

SKIRMISHING AT TCHATALJA LINE

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—A dispatch to a news agency from Constantinople says that advances received there are to the effect that there was outpost skirmishing on the Tchatalja lines today.

GOVERNMENT IS INVESTIGATING HIGH FREIGHT RATES ON OCEAN

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—In the house today, W. F. Maclean (South York) called the attention of the government to the excessive increase in ocean freight rates, and asked if any corrective action were possible thru the subventions granted to the steamship companies.

Hon. George E. Foster said that the matter had been called to his attention by the Toronto Board of Trade and was under investigation.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux said that there was a marked diversion of freight from Canadian to American ports and urged the early establishment of a Canadian Lloyd's.

Mr. Foster said the government was quite sympathetic with the proposal to establish a Canadian Lloyd's, but the initiative must be taken by the mercantile and shipping interests.

CHANGES IN N. T. R. GRADING MAY RESULT IN GRAND TRUNK REFUSING TO TAKE OVER ROAD

Chairman Leonard Contends That Changes Are Slight and Desirable From Engineering Standpoint, But President Chamberlin Protests Strongly—Illuminating Correspondence Before House.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—What truth is there in the charges made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier last summer at Marleville, and repeated again in the house in the debate upon the address to the effect that the standard of the National Transcontinental Railway had been degraded under the direction of Chairman Leonard and with the approval of the Borden government? It will be remembered that the prime minister in replying to Sir Wilfrid in the house contended himself with saying that the subject would be fully and satisfactorily dealt with by the minister of railways and canals.

Since then there has been no opportunity for Mr. Cochrane to make a statement and the opposition has not repeated the charges, awaiting a return of the documents and correspondence ordered by the house on motion of Hon. Geo. F. Graham.

Chamberlin Made Protest.

The return has now been tabled and in his correspondence between Mr. J. M. Chamberlin, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company, and Major Leonard, a letter from Major Leonard to the minister of railways, and considerable correspondence upon the subject between Chief Engineer Grant and the district engineer at Cochrane.

Some "momentum" grades were introduced, increasing the grade at certain points from 4-10 of one per cent. to one per cent. These changes were justified from an engineering standpoint by Chairman Leonard, but elicited a vigorous protest from President Chamberlin, who more than intimated that the change in the gradients, if persisted in, would justify the Grand Trunk, in refusing to take over the road.

On July 18 Mr. Chamberlin wrote to me: "The return of the documents and correspondence ordered by the house on motion of Hon. Geo. F. Graham, has been received. It is a matter of regret that the documents and correspondence are not yet available. It is a matter of regret that the documents and correspondence are not yet available. It is a matter of regret that the documents and correspondence are not yet available."

Even at this late hour each side of the dispute is accusing the other of bluffing. The Turks declare that in their note to the powers Thursday the allies were given greater concessions as a basis for resuming the peace negotiations than they had expected to be made them at the commencement of the conference. The allies practically admit this, but they say what would have been acceptable even a fortnight ago cannot now be entertained, and that the Turkish game obviously is to lead them by the nose for months, counting on the allies' financial exhaustion and hoping that complications will arise to favor Turkey.

Conspiracy of Young Turks.

Dr. Danef, head of the Bulgarian delegation, said today that the feelings of the Balkan populations must be considered. Excitement among them, he declared, had reached the highest degree against their "fraudulent treatment."

CANADIANS SHOULD UNITE IN BUILDING UP SEA POWER ON CONTINENT OF NORTH AMERICA

Plea of W. F. Maclean, M.P., That Parties "Run Like the Horses of the Sun, All Aboard," Applauded on Both Sides of House—South America Solution of Germany's Colonization Problem.

BRITAIN'S RURAL LIFE SHAME TO EMPIRE

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—Amid general applause from both sides of the chamber, W. F. Maclean (South York) pleaded with his fellow-members to get together on the naval question and to "run like the horses of the sun, all aboard."

Mr. Maclean gave unqualified support to the proposal of the government. The vote of $35,000,000, proposed by the prime minister, was a declaration of faith by Canada, and inaugurated a new era in her relations with the empire. He believed, however, that the vote was but the first step in developing a permanent policy, which would include not only assistance to the general navy of the empire but the rise of a great sea power on the North American continent.

The German menace, Mr. Maclean believed, would soon disappear if the German people were allowed to expand.

"The German," he said, "has sailed into the sun and he has a right to take off his coat and hang it up on any peg he may find, if that peg is not already occupied by the coat of Canada or Australia."

As a member of the Canadian Parliament, the speaker declared that he now had for the first time a right to speak to the motherland and the nations of Europe. His message and the message of Canada to them should be to clean up the awful conditions prevailing in southeastern Europe, and assist the Christian nations struggling for civil and political liberty.

Cannot Shirk Responsibility.

Mr. Maclean said that he could not consent to the proposition that a referendum should be taken upon the question of national defence. The safety of the nation is its supreme law, and neither the government nor parliament could shift the responsibility to the people. He believed in the referendum for social and economic questions, and believed constitutional machinery should be provided so that the people could be consulted upon questions like parcels post, the drink evil, and public ownership of public utilities.

"This policy before the house," Mr. Maclean continued, "is not a temporary policy, and I am not supporting it as a mere makeshift to meet some emergency. It is the beginning of a big permanent policy. It is a confession of our responsibility, a declaration of faith and a first attempt to help in the common naval defence of the empire. We have begun a permanent policy, and it has not been fully disclosed to us as yet, but we know that Canada is to be represented on the imperial defence committee and that Britain is to begin at once building ships in Canada."

Should Run All Aboard.

Mr. Maclean urged his fellow-members to lay aside party differences and to present a united front to all the world. Recalling an old work on fox-hunting, wherein the author said he liked to see a pack of foxhounds "running like the horses of the sun, all aboard," Mr. Maclean said he wanted to see all Canadians aboard on this question and to see Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand and the other seats of the empire "running like horses of the sun, all aboard."

The German menace, he said, would soon disappear if the Germans were allowed to settle and colonize in South America, or much might be accomplished if Germany were allowed to take Persia. In any event German democracy should be assured that they

MONETARY COMMISSION IS URGED IN MANY PETITIONS NOW POURING INTO OTTAWA

Request Sent by Sharbot Lake Residents Urges Immediate and Searching Probe into Affairs of All Chartered Banks in Canada—Western Farmers and the Dominion Grange Will Send Both Petitions and Delegates.

OTTAWA, July 31.—(Special.)—The popular demand for a monetary commission to inquire into the banking and currency situation in Canada is being exemplified by the petitions already pouring in upon parliament. This afternoon Mr. Speaker Sproule decided that a petition from a number of citizens of Sharbot Lake could not be received because the rules of the house requiring three signatures upon the first page of the petition had not been complied with. This technical defect will no doubt be corrected, and the petition will then be received, which prays for an immediate and searching investigation into the affairs of all the chartered banks of Canada.

Farmers Up in Arms.

It is understood that the grain growers from Manitoba and Saskatchewan, the united farmers of Alberta, and the Dominion Grange are preparing to petition parliament respecting the banks and the banking system of Canada. These organizations will send delegates to the hearings before the banking and commerce committee, or in some other way impress upon the government that some relief must be afforded to the public, especially in the matter of safeguarding the money of depositors.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 31.—(Can. Izzet today addressed a general order to the troops, notifying them of his assumption of command of the army and calling on them in this critical moment of Ottoman history to show themselves worthy of the glorious traditions of their race as true sons of noble ancestors.

TAUGHT HISTORY BY NOVEL MEANS

John Ross Robertson Collection of Historical Paintings Helps Children.

LIBRARY BOARD MEETS Annual Reports Bring Out Facts of Astonishing Growth.

Facts and figures of an interesting nature were disclosed at the annual meeting of the public library board, which was held Thursday. An addition to the reference library of novel significance was the collection of historical pictures to the number of four hundred, donated by J. Ross Robertson.

The work of Dr. Locke, chief librarian, was strongly commended by members of the board, and striking tributes were paid to his ability and capacity.

Dr. Locke explained to the board that some thousands of books were distributed yearly to the lumber camps and fall farms. It transpired that at the Church street library there was a very large stock of books attributed to various causes, among them being, that ladies were afraid to venture near their dark, and had to restore the circulation the open shelf idea was tried, with the result that a large number of books were taken away of which no trace has been discovered.

The services of the chairman for the past year were eulogized by each member of the board, and the resolution was adopted that a gift of an edition de-luxe be presented to him on his retirement.

The inaugural meeting of the new board will take place about the middle of next month.

Sums of the facts taken from the report of the public library for 1912 are as follows: Books used in municipal reference branch at city hall, 7963; main reference library, 190,555; children's reference library, 184,000; circulation of books, including all branches, 485,914.

The library showing the largest increase in Riverside, 7244; showing largest decrease in Church street, 10,141. Books added to library in 1912, 21,707; books withdrawn, 10,000; account of age and unclean appearance, 5318.

The following directors were in attendance: John Turnbull, chairman; Messrs. N. B. Gash, A. E. Huestis, T. W. Self, T. W. Hanton, Mr. Justice Kelly, W. T. J. Jones, J. G. MacPherson, and Dr. G. H. Locke, librarian.

Prof. Jenks to Preach. The Rev. Prof. Jenks of the General Theological Seminary, New York, is to preach at the Church of St. Mary Magdalene tomorrow morning.

GETTING GRAY? USE SAGE TEA TO RESTORE NATURAL COLOR OF HAIR

Says Sage and Sulphur Darkens Hair Beautifully and Ends Dandruff.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair, says a well-known local pharmacist. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and even today this simple preparation has no equal. Millions of women and men too, who value that even color, the beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Nowadays we are not bothered with the task of gathering the sage leaves and the musky mixing at home. Sim-

ALBERTA LOSES TO ROYAL BANK

Province Is Made Liable For Six Million Dollars of Confiscated Bonds.

STATUTE IS NOT VALID And Bank's Appeal Is Accordingly Allowed—Province Saddled With Costs.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(C.A.P.)—The privy council today allowed the appeal of the Royal Bank against the judgment against it in the Alberta provincial court. The lord chancellor, delivering the judgment, said the questions are of great importance, and he proceeded to review exhaustively the grounds for the appeal.

The judgment went on to speak of the public measures shown in 1910 about the action of the government in entering into the arrangements. The royal commission of enquiry was sitting there was a change of government. The new administration introduced and passed two statutes, one on the validity of the first of these the question to be decided in appeal turns. This statute, after setting out in the preamble that the railway company had made a default in payment of interest on its bonds and in the construction of its lines and then ratifying and confirming the guarantee by the province of the bonds, enacted that the whole of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds and all the interest thereon, including such part of the proceeds of the sale as was then standing in the banks in the name of the treasurer of the province or otherwise, and comprising interest on the six million dollars accrued in the appellants' bank, should form a part of the general revenue fund of the province, free from all claims of the railway company and to be paid over to the treasurer without deduction.

It was also provided, notwithstanding the form of the bonds and the guarantee, that the province should be liable to the railway company and should indemnify the company against claims. By another statute, passed at the same time, any person, claiming to have suffered loss or damage as a consequence of the passing of the act, might submit his claim to the government.

The lord chancellor went on to cite the steps subsequently taken in the legal proceedings. Continuing, he said that their lordships are concerned with the merits of the political controversy which gave rise to the statute, the validity of which is impeached.

It is a question whether it was within the power of the legislature of the province to pass the act of 1910. They agree with the contention of the respondents that in a case such as this it was in the power of that legislature subsequently to repeal the act which it had passed. If it were the only question which arose the appeal could be disposed of without difficulty, but the act under consideration does more than modify the existing legislation. It purports to appropriate to the province the balance standing at a special account in the bank and to change its position under the scheme to carry out which the bondholders subscribed their money.

The decision means that the Royal Bank is to recover bonds valued at six million dollars which were confiscated by the Sifton Government in 1911. The privy council holds the statute of confiscation is ultra vires, and orders the Province of Alberta to pay all costs.

The Royal Bank of Canada, the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway Company and the Canada West Coast Construction Company, Limited, entered the appeal on the ground that the legislation involved affected the Bank Act, a Dominion matter, and was ultra vires so far as the province was concerned.

NATIONALIST IS VICTOR IN DERRY

Historic Seat Noted For Bitter Contests Is Lost by Unionists.

VOTING WAS STRENUOUS Every Available Vote Was Polled—Aged and Infirm Taken to Booths.

Hogg (Nat.) 2899 Pakenham (Un.) 2842 Nationalist majority . . . 57

The result makes the parliamentary representation in Ulster; Unionist 16, Nationalist 17. LONDON, DERRY, Jan. 31.—Both sides left absolutely nothing in yesterday's by-election. The result is seen in the record vote polled, despite a drenching rain, which fell all day. Nationalist committee rooms were converted into schools for voters, and the presiding officer who conducted a test to which all doubtful electors subjected, was in almost every case a Catholic priest. Any man who could not pass the test was told he must vote as an illiterate.

There was one paucity voter who could not even pronounce the name Colonel Pakenham, but by repeating the first syllable he gave the presiding officer to understand for whom he wished to vote. Three confirmed invalids, bedridden since the election of December, 1910, voted Unionist. Corporal Stewart, of the Royal Scots Fusiliers, who was invalided out of the regiment when it was in Derry last year, and has since become stone blind, also travelled from Edinburgh. Immediately after the voting he returned to Edinburgh to enter the Royal Infirmary to undergo a delicate operation, which, if successful, may restore his sight.

Taken from infirmity. The Nationalist took two voters out of Derry infirmity, one of whom underwent an operation for appendicitis on Friday night. They brought from a distance a man in the last stage of pulmonary consumption. On reaching Newry, the doctor who examined the man said he would not answer for his life if he proceeded further. The elector, however, insisted on going on. He was transported to the hospital which reached Derry in the course of the afternoon. Gideon Wilson, who had intended to vote for Colonel Pakenham, dropped dead in his house while a motorcar was waiting outside to convey him to the poll, but his condition was known to be grave, but as he said "I die for it." Finding it useless to persuade him not to take the risk, a doctor accompanied him to the poll.

The motor arrived at two o'clock. Two Unionist workers went inside to bring out the members of the striking force, who were wrapped in blankets, sat in his kitchen, and rose to greet the visitors. "I am ready for you," he said. Next moment he collapsed and died. Candidates Not Heard. Neither the victorious nor defeated candidates were able to make themselves heard after the official announcement. Green and red handkerchiefs were waved, also Union Jacks. Unionist youths sang "Rule Britannia" and the National Anthem. Colonel Pakenham did not remain on the steps, but proceeded to his hotel to address his followers. Mr. Hogg was escorted off by the police as snow fell.

In fact, snow fell heavily during the three hours occupied in counting the votes.

The poll constituted a record, the percentage being 98-1-4 of the register, and in the names of the dead and emigrants are excluded.

The result is attributed by Unionists to personal Protestant support given to Hogg. The Nationalist claim to represent the majority of electors and population. EIGHT-HOUR DAY ASKED BY BRITAIN'S TOILERS Trades Union Congress Passes Resolution and Will Start Vigorous Campaign.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—A resolution calling for an eight-hour day for all classes of workmen and work women was adopted today by the Trades Union Congress, at which over 2,000,000 British workmen and women are represented.

In the mercantile, marine and transport industries, where fixed hours are impossible, the demand will be made for a manning scale, or an arrangement of gang work such as will secure a corresponding reduction in the work done by any one man in the course of a week.

A vigorous campaign for the settlement of the men's demands by negotiations between employers and workmen is to be carried out and steps are to be taken to bring the whole force of the organized workmen to bear upon any trade which has definitely refused to come to terms.

Notices are to be handed in March to those employers refusing the demand for a contract with them will be terminated at the end of April, when the men will walk out. SAFE AT WINNIPEG. G. T. P. Train From Oshawa Made a Good Run.

STRIKERS URGED TO NEGOTIATE

COMPANY SUES MEN Grip, Limited, Claims Damages For Alleged Broken Agreements by Employees.

"Stay with it, boys, and I promise you that no matter whether this strike lasts two weeks or two years, the International Union will always be at your back, and in the end you can do nothing but win." Cheers came from more than 125 photo engravers of the city Thursday as the foregoing word of encouragement was uttered by Matthew Woll of Chicago, president of the International Union, at a mass meeting of engravers called by the local union.

By actual count there are 81 engravers out on strike. These men were nearly all at the meeting to hear what Mr. Woll had to say. The president, while pledging the support of the international, advised the men to be considerate. If the Employers' Association were ready to negotiate with the men, he advised that a meeting should be arranged as soon as possible. In this way both employes and employers would be money in pocket.

The strikers want recognition of the local union, and are fighting the open shop, but if the employers are willing to sign agreements with the union the men are willing to go back to work. The present scale provides for a minimum of $18 a week for line work and $22 a week for tone work. The men wish these figures to be raised to $22 and $24. Edward Sleas, president of the local, announced that the local unions of all the allied printing trades in the city were in sympathy with the photo engravers, but as yet he could not announce the names of the members of the striking force, as the unions he mentioned would call out their men.

"Cutting their throats." Since the strike began there has been an exodus of engravers from the city. The majority of these men have gone out to different cities in Ontario, where many of them have started up shops of their own. It requires about $3500 to start a shop, and a city of 1500 can support one. The employers are cutting their own throats," said one man to the World, "for they do a big mail order business with outside cities, and if the strike continues shops will be formed in many of these cities by the strikers."

The local shops so far affected by the strike are those of Messrs. Hood & Sanderson, Grip, Limited and Photo-Engravers, Limited. The Grip Co. have entered an action against five of their former employes who are members of the striking force, for the recovery of $5000 damages for leaving the employ without notice, contrary to written agreement.

Mr. Woll said last night that the union would not disqualify a man in the union before he had broken an individual agreement, but he further stated that the union never encouraged the breaking of individual agreements, youths who are alleged to have broken their agreements, have engaged a legal representative, but the union claims that it is giving them no support.

It is estimated that the total number of photo engravers in the city, including apprentices, is 150, so that at present there are only 59 at work. Many of these 59 have refused to work overtime, and for this reason many of the plants are closed, and the business generally is in an acute condition.

AFTER EFFECTS OF LONG ILLNESS

Speedily Vanish When You Use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Loren G. Ladd only found complete relief after using the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy. LADD'S MILL, Stanstead Co., Que. Jan. 31.—(Special.)—That the seeds of disease left in the body after an illness are sure to cause trouble is the experience of Loren G. Ladd, a well known young man in this community. Mr. Ladd has also learned that these seeds can be cleared out of the body and perfect health restored by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"At the age of six I had Scarlet Fever," Mr. Ladd states. "At twelve I had Typhoid Fever, and at fourteen I had Measles. About a year later I began to be troubled by swellings of the face, feet and hands. The doctor told me I had kidney trouble. He gave me medicine, but the swellings continued to come at intervals of a week to a month. Two years ago one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills stopped the swellings. Last winter the swellings returned and again I was cured by using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Healthy kidneys strain the seeds of disease out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy kidneys."

WHITNEY NOT IDOL OF DAVID HENDERSON, M.P. Halton Member Attacks "High-Handed Methods" in Opposing Canada Permanent Bill. OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—"Don't let us follow the high-handed methods of Sir James Whitney here." This was the appeal made by David Henderson, Conservative member for Halton, during the discussion of the Canada Permanent Trust Company's bill in the banking and commerce committee this morning. A clause giving the company power of amalgamation was under consideration.

6 IMPORTED REGISTERED CLYDESDALE AND PERCHERON STALLIONS

Consigned for absolute and unreserved sale, Mr. Hassard, one of the best-known importers of Clydesdale and Percheron stock in Canada, and whose long experience has led him to thoroughly understand the requirements of the Canadian breeder, is sending us all his choice stock for sale by public auction. No sale of recent years has offered to buyers such a selection of high-class horses as this. The breeding of this lot could not be improved upon, the Clydesdales being by such well-known horses as "Baron's Buchlyvie," "The Bruce," "Baron Albin," "Montrose Ronald," "Monroffe Marquis," "Baron Rothschild," "Royal Fashion," "Baron Beaulieu" and "Mullino." The Percherons are by "Campygnon ex Robion," "Vallant," "Villiers," "Fernand," "Gillon," "Gaber," "Falot" and "Gosdubois," all famous sires, and all producers of the very highest type of stock in their respective breeds. Mr. Hassard's offerings have the necessary quality to go with such breeding, all of them being prize-winners, having taken first, second and third prizes and championships at the leading Canadian shows, and are now in the pink of show condition. This is without doubt the feature sale of the year, and is an extraordinary buying opportunity for farmers, breeders and all interested in magnificently-bred heavy horses. Catalogues of this great sale are now ready. Write or phone us and we will send you one at once.

THURSDAY FEB'ARY 6th AT 11 A.M.

Our offerings on this day will be large in number and of first-class quality. This is bargain day here, many of our shippers preferring to sell out at a little less than cost if necessary rather than hold their horses over to the following week. We also sell a number of serviceably sound workers and drivers consigned to us by city people who have no further use for them, also a number of sets of new and second-hand harness and rigs, sleighs, etc., of every description. Our stock of horse blankets and fur robes cannot be equalled anywhere in the city, and the prices are right.

WE SELL STRICTLY ON COMMISSION

ALL HORSES sold with a warranty are returnable by noon the day following day of sale if not as represented.

Hockey Varsity 2 McGill 1

SENSATIONAL VARSITY WIN

Winning Goal Scored on McGill With Only Three Seconds of Time.

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—Whirling in two goals in the last thirty seconds of the game, the Varsity team snatched victory from the McGill septet at the Arena tonight, just as the supporters of the red and white were beginning to discuss their chances of defeating the Queens in Kingston and carrying off the championship.

For all the first half and for nearly 23 minutes of the second the two teams had each other scoreless, fighting it out thru pools of water and ice half an inch deep in slush. With little more than two minutes left to play Harry Smith, McGill's right wing rushed down the boards and, missing practically the whole Toronto team, passed to Thompson, who whipped the puck past Laird, the Toronto goal-tender. McGill's success seemed assured, but Toronto came back fast. There was a rush on the McGill nets and Clarkson shot, Montgomery sending the puck spinning away to the left. Basil Frith, the Toronto captain, followed up fast and, taking a backhand swing, more characteristic of polo than of hockey, betted it into the McGill nets.

The audience settled back prepared for overtime. McGill rushed from the face-off and Thompson shot, but failed to take. The blue and white players carried the puck back up the ice and Laird, shooting from an almost impossible angle, found a lodging for the puck in the McGill net, only an inch behind the far goal post. With only three seconds to play the shot settled McGill's chances of victory and effectively crushed the hopes of the most optimistic students for the championship. It is only if McGill defeats Queens in Kingston and Toronto and Queens split even over the two games which take place at the Arena that McGill will get into the running again, as the results would bring about a three-cornered tie.

The game was especially clean, not a man being ruled off and no one hurt seriously. Knight of Toronto twisted his shoulder and retired in the first half, but the injury was a slight one and he will be back in the game shortly. The line-up: McGill (1): Goal, Hanley; point, Rankin; cover, Hughes; rover, Wilson; centre, Thompson; right, Smith; left, White.

CURLING TONIGHT

It looks like four degrees of frost tonight and thus the second round of the single rink competition will likely be curried, starting at 7:30.

The group final between Toronto and Queen City will take place, weather permitting, early next week.

ST. ANDREWS ARE GROUP WINNERS

Down St. Michaels in Junior Prep. School Game—Scotchmen Best at All Times.

St. Andrew's College won their Junior O.H.A. district yesterday afternoon when they scored a one goal victory over St. Michaels. The Scotchmen were always the best and it was the good work of Sullivan in the nets for the Irish lads that kept the score 6 to 5.

St. Michaels played their poorest game of the season in the district in every other fixture this year have checked back hard at all times and their forward line has been as speedy as any in the group. Yesterday it was a different story with the front men like a lot of dead ones and the back-checking conspicuous by its absence.

Sullivan in goal stopped shots from every angle and St. Andrew's found him a veritable stone wall. At the other end Travis had an off day and the easiest kind of shots slipped into the net.

The St. Andrew's team were all over St. Michaels and they had the play three-quarters of the time. Murray was the leader in the checking-back and put the spirit into the rest of the boys.

At half time it was a 3-all tie and the Scotch ran in three goals in the second half and it looked all over but the cheering. Nelson and Servais rolled a couple at Travis from the side and they landed in the net. This all time and had one goal behind and the battle was hot. St. Andrew's rushed the play to the other end, but Sullivan was Johnny-on-the-spot and he turned aside dozens of hot ones. It ended without further scoring. The summary:

St. Andrew's (6): Goal, Travis; point, McQuinn; cover, Alexander; rover, Munro; centre, McGill; right wing, Cantley; left wing, Hatch.

Referee, Fred Waghorn.

George Payne Alleged to Have Stolen Groceries From Employer.

Jam, charcoal and salmon are commodities which did not figure in the high cost of living of a woman who lives at 44 Milan street and claims to be the wife of George Payne, 201 West Richmond street, who, until last night was employed by Thomas Dowd of 102 Wilton avenue, to deliver groceries. Mr. Dowd had been missing small supplies of groceries for some time, and finally communicated with the police department. Detectives Newton and Wallace shadowed Payne yesterday and saw him deliver a jar of jam to the Milan street home. The detectives followed the jam and discovered that in the house there were three bags of charcoal and four tins of salmon which answered the description of a stock which at one time belonged to Mr. Dowd. Payne is charged with theft.

HORSE OWNERS AT OTTAWA ICE RACES HAVE GRIEVANCE

Officials Unnecessarily Delay Starting the Heats—Monarchical Lady and Nettie Ethan Win Their Races.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—The second day of racing by the Hull Driving Club was not as successful as the first, for more reasons than one. Just before racing should have been started rain came on. It rained continuously all afternoon, and the track was a veritable sea. The horses going down the back stretch resembled a street car going thru the Toronto subway, with the water up to the floor. The association did not seem anxious to assist the horse-owners, nor the public, who patronize their meeting. In the first place, races are carried so many for a particular day. First day there were three races, and the second day there were supposed to be on the track and warmed up for their particular race. On Thursday, in the classified trot, the horses were brought to the track shortly before twelve o'clock noon and got ready for their race, which was not called till about 4.30. This is not fair to the horses, standing on the track and they do not have the chance to show to the best advantage. When sundown comes so early in the winter season, and the races are carried, they should be run off or sandwiche'd, which would give all the horses in the different events a chance to cool off too much. The officials in charge seemed to purposely delay calling the heat, and when a heat was called, the result should be announced as quickly as possible, which was not the case, and the actual timing horses were allowed 10 hours from the time of finishing a heat till they were called for the next one. Some very poor decisions were handed out by the officials, and it seems quite apparent to all that Starter Pike has not the best control of his fields. When a horse wins the pole he should be protected and not be sent away with the outside horse fully ten lengths ahead, as was the case in a classified race today. The first race called was the unclassified trot. Margot Leonard had won two heats and Monarchical Lady one, and it should have been finished Thursday night for the delay of the officials. After several scores for the first heat today they were given the word, and it was a beautiful race from wire to wire, Monarchical Lady just nosing out Margot Leonard in the last stride in the fast time of 2:18 with Silver Tail third. After a delay of one and a half hours, they were called for the second heat and when they got the word Margot Leonard shot to the front, and was seemingly riding easy. Before the three-eighths pole was reached Margot pulled a front shoe and boot, and raced all the way to the wire with the shoe and boot off, which no doubt cost her the race. Monarchical Lady went a grand race and proved herself a real good trotter.

The 2.08 pace was won in straight heats by R. J. McBride's Nettie Ethan, who went a game, hard race, and the time, considering the state of the track, was very fast. St. Anthony went his first race since his accident at Dufferin Park, and finished second in the first heat in 2:18. Jenny W. Got it and heat in 2:18. Nettie Ethan and Nettie Ethan tried to carry her, but she was there every inch of the way and finished full of racing in each heat. The last mile she went nearly the last half with the fire off, but she could not be beat. Billy Hudson drove her a splendidly-raced race, and both the owner and driver were the recipients of hearty congratulations. The summary:

Morrison Plays a Draw.
NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(Usually) studied the American chessmaster's tournament, two of the most important remaining, finished at the adjournment hour. Jose R. Capablanca of Havana scored his ninth straight win, this time by a 2-0 victory over Washington, after 27 moves. Jaffe had a narrow escape but drew the game after 64 moves. Marshall was in good place in most of the one-half played behind Capablanca. Marshall was outplayed by Whiteaker in near the evening's close. At the adjournment after 60 moves, Marshall was thought to have a chance with a pawn sacrifice. Whiteaker played the most complicated game of the day, which also was adjourned. Whiteaker and Tenenbaum fought stubbornly to a draw, in which Starter had a share. Whiteaker had a share in the other games finished. Kline won from Kupicki and Rubinstein defeated Leibach.

Preston are bound to revenge themselves on Tuesday when they meet the T.R. & A. team and they expect to trim the black and white by several goals.

Hodgkin; curator, J. C. Grove; treasurer, W. C. Milne; assistant secretary, E. G. Smith; councillors, G. G. Bricker and A. G. Ferguson. A resolution presented by J. P. Ferguson that the society endorse the Liberal platform, caused a warm discussion. An amendment was introduced by the Independents which favored the establishment of parties, but called for independence in voting. This carried by about four-fifths majority. Dr. W. H. McDonald presided.

MATRICULATION MODIFICATIONS

Minister of Education and Universities Concerned Have Agreed to Certain Alterations.

Some modifications have been made this year by the minister of education and the universities, concerned, in the regulations governing the matriculation examinations. "The object of the education yesterday," he to make clearer the fact that the matriculation board and not the department is responsible for these examinations. The department conducts them, that is all. The modifications do not affect the subjects presented. The matriculation board consists of representatives of the Universities of Toronto, Queen's and McMaster. It appoints the persons who set and read the papers, and it controls the results in all respects. As some misunderstanding exists on this last point, it has been thought well to make clear to candidates and others interested, that appeals, and other matters arising out of the examination, are decided by the board and not by the minister. The machinery of the department for holding examinations is placed at the disposal of the universities as heretofore, a policy which will be adhered to because it is in the interests of education."

LENDING SHIPS TO BEAT C. P. R.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(C.A.P.)—The Times' Berlin correspondent says that so far as a ban judged from inspired communications to the German press, Canadian Pacific as decided upon yesterday by the remaining members of the North Atlantic "pool" is that regular services from Trieste to Canada, and the Holland America, North German Lloyd and Hamburg America Line shall place three ships apiece at the disposal of the Austro-American for this purpose. The campaign in favour of course he a German one, although at the back of it make it appear that the Austro-Americans, which is really under German control, is genuinely Austrian concern and express some mild surprise at the attitude of the Austrian Government towards "its own steamship line."

SENATE ADJOURNS FOR THREE WEEKS

Lack of Crisp From Legislative Mill Reason Given For Holiday.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—The senate cleaned its slate today, and as there seemed little prospect of getting any legislation from the commons for some time, it adjourned for about three weeks. Before adjourning a difference of opinion was aired. It arose over the question of who has authority to make temporary appointments to minor places on the senate staff. Since the last Civil Service Act came into force the right to control such appointments has been claimed both for the Speaker and the internal economy committee of the senate. Today Senator Power moved to ask

SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 1, 1913

DOGS AND FITS.

One of our esteemed evening contemporaries the other night took a fit and ran out on the street barking wildly and foaming at the mouth. It bit several city hall officials in the legs and then ran up a lane, tore up an ash heap, and chewed cinders until its throat went dry. Then it ran down to the lake, swam around awhile, came home shivering and lay down beside the stove to dry out. A vet should be consulted.

There was really no occasion for the fit, but strangers hearing the howling might have thought there was something dangerous afoot someplace. Ordinarily no one has any complaint to make about this watch dog, but the truth is it has fits every now and then, which render its alarms unreliable. It all comes of doggoneed. No one dog, however good, is active or vigilant enough to watch this big city. Three or four of the dogs are usually on the job. With a certain amount of concerted action they managed last election day to get some attention paid to necessary affairs. But one of them got the idea that it did this all itself with its little yelp. Its obsession has been expressed as follows:

For months The News has been fighting for business-like administration. Its efforts are meeting with success, etc.

But it shouldn't forget that there are other dogs in the pack, which have been fighting much longer than months for business-like administration.

And just here we may remark that there was nothing business-like about the convulsions of last Tuesday because the little "News" had not got all the information it thought it did have. The fit attracted some temporary attention and the echo of the howling emitted might possibly be conveyed thru imaginable media to the commercial centre of the world.

But what good could this possibly achieve? It could not improve the credit of the city, or attract buyers for city bonds, or do anything such as the convulsion was supposed to be intended to effect. There are times when a good bound must learn to keep to heel. The incident, was no Beddler occasion, and there was no wolf to destroy. The city's credit, that lovely creature, is still safe in its peaceful cradle, and growing bigger and brighter every day.

U. S. STOCK EXCHANGE REFORM. In a recent message to the legislature of the State of New York, Gov. Sulzer supported supervision and regulation of the New York Stock Exchange and other similar organizations. In his opinion the time was ripe for the state to end "flagrant abuses, shifty schemes and clever combinations to catch the unwary and mislead the public."

To effect this he recommended the passage of various statutes, of which one at least should provide penalties for its violation. This recommendation he bases on the admission made by various officials of the exchanges, to the effect that these have been either incapable or unwilling to devise measures that will eradicate the evils of the public complaint.

The governor urges a law distinguishing clearly proper transaction of purchase and sale from artificial manipulations, and another to prohibit brokers from selling backward and forward among themselves with intent to mislead or deceive outsiders. He wishes brokers to be prohibited from selling on their own account stocks they have been ordered to buy for customers, and that insolvent brokers be compelled to suspend operations after their insolvency. The governor further proposes that it be made a criminal offence to issue statements or publish advertisements containing knowingly false statements as to stock values or the financial condition of any company. While his message is generally recognized as a fair and honest attempt to procure stock exchange reform, doubt is expressed whether it can be obtained by the measures he specifies. But that reform is necessary is conceded.

THE BALKAN SITUATION. International finance has again been placed in suspense by the prospect of an early renewal of hostilities between the Balkan allies and Turkey. But while this is regarded as possible, the opinion yet prevails that a way will be found securing a peaceful close to the interrupted negotiations. What appears to be authoritative statements disclose a situation among the Turkish troops that precludes hope of obtaining better terms by a resumption of the war. Indeed the difficulty is political rather than military, and the real problem is how to save the face of the Turkish Government.

Mr. Oscar S. Straus, for some years United States ambassador at Constantinople, has issued a statement regarding the deadlock, in which he appeals to the great powers to invoke the offices of the Hague tribunal, which he thinks will do justice to all sides and maintain the amour propre of Turkey as well as of the Balkan allies among their own people. Could this suggestion be carried out, it might be successful, but there is no certainty that the decision of that tribunal would be regarded as binding or could be enforced. The same jealousies that stand in the way of settlement now would remain.

SKYSCRAPERS AND SPECULATION. There are certain men in the city who are of the commercial order of "bears." They make their money by encouraging a falling market. They see a chance just now for a little real estate manipulation. They bought cheap in the last slump, and have plenty of ready money to use in another slump. They are out against skyscrapers. The city has already committed itself to the principle of skyscrapers by passing the Traders Bank Building and the C. P. R. building. The erection of those buildings practically doubled the value of neighboring real estate. To get revenues out of present values skyscrapers are essential. If the city could prevent skyscrapers, values might fall to the limit of revenues derivable from ten storey buildings. In American cities the councilmen have to be "approached" by owners who want building privileges. We are still beyond this stage. But we are getting dangerously near it in another direction, if the council permits itself to be used to reduce real estate values so as to give speculators a chance to buy cheap, and hold on till the inevitable change in public feeling. Skyscrapers are going up everywhere. They have come to stay. They are hygienic, economic and as far as appearances go, quite equal to the buildings put up and lived in by those who object to them. At any rate it is interesting to study the antecedents of the men who are objecting to skyscrapers.

PUBLIC BURDENS AND COMPANY MELONS. Altho Toronto and Ontario have to some extent shaken themselves free from the grip of the electric monopoly that a few years ago appeared to have them in its grasp, the fight for freedom is not yet ended. Unable to check the progress of the movement for public ownership and operation of hydro-electric light and power, the interests are now engaged in a campaign to undermine the credit of Toronto and the other municipalities included in the power union. In this it is quite safe to predict they will not succeed, whatever temporary prejudice may be raised among British investors.

And in the meantime they are themselves engaged in placing additional burdens on the shoulders of the people. The agents of the public service companies busy themselves in the task of alarming the citizens over the amount of the city debt. But they take very good care to refrain from telling the people that the stock and bond issues of the public service companies are also burdens on the people. From whence do these companies expect dividends and interest and reserve funds to meet the liabilities to bond and stockholders, except out of the public. Thru that same public also they hope to cut their melons.

LABOR AND WOMAN SUFFRAGE. By its decision to withhold support from any franchise measure that does not include women, the British labor party have markedly strengthened the movement for equal suffrage. Chaotic as is the situation in the United Kingdom over this question, it is becoming every week more clearly apparent that only the stress of political circumstances prevents the endorsement of the proposal. Complete equality may not come at once, and certainly would be a much more daring leap in the dark than was taken in 1867. But, however partial the step first taken, the principle, once admitted, could not be long delayed from obtaining full recognition.

The Globe had a fine chance to let Controller McCarthy know yesterday what it thinks of a Liberal who voted against reciprocity.

The Derry election will at least make it clear that a very good testant may be a home ruler. The new member, David C. Hogg, is a Presbyterian, elder. He will receive much more persecution from his Protestant co-religionists than from the other side.

OLDTIME BLIZZARD IS RAGING IN GERMANY. BERLIN, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—A snowstorm of unusual violence prevails throughout northern Germany. Trains arriving in the capital are subjected to great delay, while many minor branch lines have suspended traffic.

A train composed of eight passenger cars was derailed in the storm near Oppersdorf, in Silesia. One of the cars was burned, but none of the passengers were injured. At Flensburg the German cruiser Augsburg was driven ashore in the storm, but was later refloated without suffering any damage.

Traffic in the Berlin streets is greatly impeded by the heavy fall of snow.

Orangemen in Hespeler. GALT, Jan. 31.—(Special)—As a result of the efforts of those interested in the Orange order, a lodge was revived in Hespeler after years of inactivity. Officers were elected, a number of candidates initiated, and several applications for membership accepted. With the infusion of young blood, the order promises to prosper and thrive in Hespeler.

REVISION OF THE CANADIAN BANK ACT

This is the first of three articles in regard to the Bank Act revision, submitted to The World by a Western business man, located in Winnipeg. The World believes they are worth reading. One of the things the writer sets out to prove is that the savings of the people in the west as well as of the other portions of Canada, are rapidly being concentrated at two points, Toronto and Montreal, and therefore that it is almost impossible to organize new banks for local centres, based on the savings of the people in these "two towns" they have all lifted away! And he seems to be hinting at a system of provincial local banks and quotes the constitution to that end.

The public cry is to place bank monopoly under discipline, thru external inspection, with publicity. Free, unbiased auditors, chosen by an independent court or commission might answer to this end. The writer agrees. But to expect auditors chosen by the proprietors to fill any functions in the name or interest of the public, is to look for a "moneyed interest" to restrain or purge itself.

Conceal Irregularities. The shareholders and executive officers of a bank are all concerned to conceal irregularities from the depositors and general public. To alarm the auditors is to invite disaster. An audit, to be of any "external" value, must aim to do more than merely give the auditors to make special audits. If an interest were to count most in election of auditors, then by all means have the depositors make the appointments.

How can the service be "external" which is performed in its own interest, or "compulsory" if at the option of the auditors? An audit is not likely to be effective, nor even likely to take place, if at the bidding of one who courts or fears political prejudice. Even the minister's character were above all political bias, what, pray, shall prompt him to call on the auditors to make special audits? The bankers' monthly returns to the finance minister never did give indication of looting, or of anything else that would sharehold the audit, and continue to hide the slightest mark of wrongdoing? Nor does it appear, if the one audited is to be wholly, or nearly so, but seldom or never made, how the capability of the accountants for an onerous task is to be proved, or their compensation named, sufficient to induce acceptance of the work.

Talking Nonsense. To say that England's banks provide the benefit of the public, and therefore a like provision on the part of Canada's banks will all the measure of security and publicity demanded by the public, is to talk nonsense. There is only one kind of bank inspection that would be of any use, and that is the clamor for thorough external examinations. It is such inspection as will result from parliament establishment of a central bank, or a commission, for selecting examiners, passing on qualifications, naming auditors, and assisting in the annual test, frequency and nature of examinations, receiving, analyzing and publishing reports, and for making recommendations to the government as to how the whole system and insure sound banking.

The foolish practice of decennial revision, and the still more stupid plan of inviting bankers alone to suggest the nature of the revision, have placed the banking business in the hands of a gigantic money monopoly. These practices have destroyed the confidence of the public, which otherwise would exist between the electoral and representative bodies and the public. Systematic "padding" has been introduced to silence a free open discussion of banking methods. Bank reform is exert themselves to hinder or prevent a representative discussing with the electors banking affairs, the subject matter is of greater importance than all others which may affect the present parliament's attention?

Public Benefit. For precisely such a central bank, or external examination hateful to bankers, it will be of utmost benefit to the public. It will cause the light of publicity to shine on operations now veiled in secrecy. This would subject as to deposits secreted from each, as also of loans and discounts made on the prime of a mutual bank. The application of a blanket act of law strings to all new and old banks, weak and strong, and the free interplay over all provinces of "branch" offices of old Canada's long established banks, will do more to establish confidence in the public service than the present parliament's attention?

Disolve Fiction. External examiners reports on boycotts of particular businesses, thru withholding bank credits, while the money of the community under duress were loaned out in "Wall Street Call Loans, should disclose, once for all, the fiction in the bankers' old refrain: "Leave all to us, these loans but serve a safe retreat for our reserve."

While for months "tight money" has been the war over Canada, one bank has had loaned in call loans in New York an amount on an average four times in excess of its reserves. When by the published statistics the true cause and consequences of this or any like money squeeze are widely published and explained, the movement will be forced by public opinion to curtail within a prescribed limit, or prevent these foreign loans made on the credit of Canadian deposits.

Denied Advances. How important that public inspectors fully apprise the people of such instances as $1,453,214.63 being loaned to one milling firm, six of whose directors were bank directors, and bankers were restricted loans to wheat covered by bills of lading, and hence forced to quit shipping and sell to elevators owned and run by millers. With such information in hand and widely discussed on public platforms, how long before an aroused people should frighten parliament to take heed for restriction to parliament and to firms of which they are directors, within limits as obtained ere the Bankers' Association began to dictate bank laws to parliament and bankers, departing from their lawful and forgetting their social position as servants, assumed the arrogant airs of masters, and talked of disciplining the public?

Under such government inspection the gross earnings of banks, now carefully concealed, come into open view, and a thorough inspection of the items should expose any political contributions. There can be little doubt the people, astounded by these exposures, would suddenly pour life into parliament to prohibit such contributions, by insertion of a section similar to that in the Bank Act of U. S. inspectors, to give the command "come in or freeze out," in order to effect mergers of its own fraternity, as also of industrial and manufacturing enterprises. Of the 25 banks now remaining out of 46 in 1890, those that act as masters to an ever decreasing number of dependents will have hands clamped up for public scrutiny, and the stock gambling element, that particularly shuns the light, will swing fully within the radius of government inspection with publicity. Banks denied admission to the privileges of the clearing house, because venturing to diverge from monopoly rates of interest on deposits and loans now commanded by the Bankers' Association, would discover in public examiners free agents to place before the commission, followed by a mingled shout of rage and indignation from every province of Canada, might strike terror into and electrify parliament to demand proper feelings of responsibility in relation to correcting the evils of an interprovincial "branch" banking monopoly.

LAND TAX AND INSURANCE.

The following copy of a circular letter received by the Tax Reform League of Eastern Canada from the Guaranty Fire Insurance Company of New York City, will be of interest to both the supporters and opponents of the land tax.

In this connection, I desire to emphasize a point which may be of interest to you, namely, an extraordinary increase in the fire insurance business is indicated by the following: The annual premium income of the American fire insurance companies has increased during the last ten years from 180 million dollars to approximately 400 million dollars. This increase has occurred despite the fact that building construction has not kept pace with the normal demand. This is largely owing to the restrictive tax on buildings, which takes about one-fourth of the gross rental income and which, added to cost of maintenance, collections, etc., has reduced the net income to only two or three per cent on such investments. There is in prospect a tendency in certain parts of the country towards the reduction or elimination of taxes upon buildings. This reduction of taxes upon buildings, if carried out, would result in a serious consideration in Central and Eastern Canadian provinces in New York, St. Louis, Kansas City, Pittsburg, Seattle, Houston, etc. As an evidence of the effect of this change in the rate of taxation, the Western Canadian provinces have had an unprecedented increase in building operations; the small town of Edmonton, with a population of only 50,000, issued 14 million dollars ($14,000,000) in building permits during 1912. A bill, embodying this idea is now pending in the New York Legislature and, owing to the force of the support behind it, there is probability of its being enacted into law. This would undoubtedly encourage more and larger building operations and naturally create a great demand for fire insurance. In this connection it may be advisable to state that such change in taxation would be of considerable interest to banks and to steel, railroad and other large corporations. The fire insurance business is normally very interesting and I think offers a considerable opportunity for capital, but the prospect of such an unusual amount of building operations as would be involved in such changes in taxation, renders it a business worthy of most serious consideration."

A comparison between the vatican and the Museum's holy shrines in Adrianople, Dr. Danoff said was inadvisable. The Italian he declared made concessions to the papacy after they had taken possession of Rome.

"In case Adrianople was vanquished, he would try to impose conditions," he asked.

Dr. Danoff repeated that nothing could stop a reopening of the war except the unconditional surrender of Adrianople and the Aegean Islands.

"I do not believe that I shall return to London for the drafting and signing of a definite treaty, which can be done more easily at Sofia or Constantinople. However, each of the delegations is leaving one of its members here as was originally decided upon, in order to keep in touch with the ambassadorial conference and the ambassadors any necessary explanation regarding questions under discussion by them."

VETERANS' SMOKER.

His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans' Association held a most successful smoking concert last evening in the Royal Grand Opera house, over three hundred friends being present.

Major W. A. Collins was in the chair, and a very pleasant musical evening was thoroughly enjoyed. Many new members, ex-servicemen were introduced. The best thanks of the association and committee are due to Sergeant-Major Moon, G.G.B.C., president of the entertainment committee.

STOLE FROM CHUM.

Glen Martin Took Clothes While Pa Was in Jail.

A scheme former by Glen Martin, a chauffeur living at 41 Gwynne avenue, to enrich himself by the personation of Martin's brother, Louis Cowell, who had met in jail, was responsible for his arrest yesterday.

Martin, while serving time on a charge of stealing a house kept by Mrs. Borden, learned that before Cowell had gone down he had boarded at 95 Borden street, a house kept by Mrs. Borden's Armstrong. When Martin gained his liberty, he paid Mrs. Armstrong a visit and told her that Cowell wished to get his personal effects from him. Mrs. Armstrong gave them to him, but on finding out later that Cowell knew nothing of it, she informed the police. Acting Detective Jarvis who was sent out on Martin's trail arrested him at the corner of Bloor and Dufferin streets.

Martin is also accused of passing a worthless cheque for $8 on W. T. HERR, 1359 West Queen.

CHANGES IN T. R. GRADING

to Major Leonard as follows: "I learn from our engineers that the standard of work on that portion of the Transcontinental Railway between Superior Junction and Cochrane, which was at the outset adopted and has so far been completed, is being separated from, and that instead of a four-tenths grade and permanent structures, you have authorized grades up to one per cent and the erection of temporary wooden structures. In regard to this, I would call your attention to clause 7 of the agreement of July 24, 1908, which provides that the work of construction of the eastern division shall be done according to the specifications approved by the company and shall be subject to the joint supervision, inspection and acceptance of our chief engineer."

"I beg to say," the letter concludes, "that if this work is done in accordance with your instructions, it will not be in compliance with the agreement, nor satisfactory to this company and cannot be accepted."

It is to be noted through the correspondence which follows that Mr. Leonard has adhered to this stand, and has not deviated from it since.

On July 19 Major Leonard answered a query of "The World" regarding the profiles, that there are many places where a large expenditure may be saved and the line actually improved for operating purposes and the time of completion considerably shortened, without in the least affecting the safety of the line.

Major Leonard volunteered the opinion that such modifications were in accord with the provisions of the Grand Trunk Pacific on the portions built by that company from Winnipeg west and from Port William to Superior Junction. It was he said necessary in some cases to put in wooden trestles instead of steel structures.

"I have carefully perused the letter of August 2, 1912," the letter continues, "and I fall to notice in this or in any other agreement or act relating to the construction of the eastern division any provision relating to the gradients to which the line shall be built or the nature of the structures."

In answer on July 23, Mr. Chamberlin asked for profiles and for a suspension of such modifications until the approval of the company had been given.

Changes Only Trifling.

"You have apparently been misinformed in regard to the reported changes," again wrote Major Leonard on August 2. "As no change whatever in any of the provisions of the agreement contemplated, but merely such trifles as slight local sags in the grades across soft swamp, which will not in any way affect the safety of the locomotives, and which, if found desirable to lift out in the future, can be affected more cheaply than at present cost by the use of such sags."

Major Leonard concluded by saying that "these were simply details too trifling to occupy either your attention or mine."

In reference to charges made in the press, Major Leonard was forced on Nov. 21 to reply to the charges of the minister of railways. He said that the only change in gradients made since Sept. 30, 1911, was to allow for sags on the line which would be operated "as velocity grades," the same loads, making the same time, with the same expenses and the same degree of safety and comfort can be handled over a road in which such sags or velocity grades exist as on a road of the same ruling gradient in which there are no sags or velocity grades.

The advantage to be gained were chiefly saving of expense and the expedition of the completion of the road.

Major Leonard said that such sags were examined by F. P. Gillullis and Lynch Stanton, who are stated to have given evidence that by the introduction of "velocity grades" the cost of the road would have been greatly reduced.

Then follows a file of correspondence between Chief Engineer Grant and District Engineer H. M. Balkham of Cochrane, Ont. "re revised momentum grades." The revised grades were formally approved by the commission on June 20, 1912.

On July 16 a letter of Gordon Grant to Mr. Balkham discloses that with the adoption of the "revised momentum grades engineering difficulties at once commenced."

"I herewith enclose one blue print," the letter says, "on which I have instructed you to make no change in the grade between miles 137 and 138, for the reason that such a change was introduced as proposed by you, a train stopping to throw the switch at station 137, would probably not be able to start again, as there would be 1000 feet of the train on a six-tenths grade and another 1000 feet on a one degree curve. The angle of banking would be the latter significantly, "would not justify the risk of criticism which would be the result of this proposed change."

Refused to Approve.

Approval was also refused of changes between miles 3 and 4 on contract 16. There is a station near mile 3, says the correspondence, "consequently when the train moved out of the station and stopped with the engine about station 140 the train would not have acquired sufficient acceleration at station 80 to enable it to surmount the one per cent grade you have introduced between stations 80 and 87."

A further letter appears in the correspondence noting the introduction of 2400 feet of a one per cent grade at Peplar River and questioning its workability. A permanent wooden trestle was also put in here, and difficulties were encountered there. "The revised momentum grade" between mile 85 on the east, and mile 85 on the west.

"When a train pulled out of the siding at mile 83," says Mr. Grant, "the locomotive would probably be in the neighborhood of station 49, which would only give her 3000 feet of a level grade to acquire momentum and the train would therefore be unable to negotiate the one per cent grade between 88 and 89. Therefore, this will have to be changed back to the original grade, if the permanent wooden trestle is not yet constructed between stations 85 to 89."

Objects to Wooden Trestles.

Mr. Grant further questions the advisability of putting in a wooden trestle at certain points, and as to whether they will be sufficiently strong to allow freight trains to run over at 30 miles an hour, which they will have to do in order to negotiate the 26 stations of one per cent grade.

Major Leonard will be observed correcting the popular understanding respecting the gradients on the eastern section of the National Transcontinental so far as they are affected by the agreement and the Grand Trunk Pacific. The contract provided that the western section between Winnipeg and Moncton must have as good a grade as the Grand Trunk between Montreal and Toronto, but no specific standard was established for the eastern section between Winnipeg and Moncton. That was to be a matter of agreement between the government and the company.

The matter will doubtless come up in the house before long. It may be stated that the investigation is confidential and that the charges which have been made against the N. T. R. Commission will not be sustained.

BEATTIE NESBITT HAS PASSED AWAY

ed on the ground that they were invalid. Mr. Justice Middleton reserved judgment until yesterday. At 2 o'clock his lordship announced the decision, which expunged the stain from the name of Beattie Nesbitt.

An Exciting Life.

His life was one of excitement, a thing which he sought. From the time he began an arts course in Toronto University his career had been eventful. Many stories are told of the man's activities in college. He was a born leader; he led the college men, and he led politicians and others after he left his alma mater. It ever Toronto had a loss it was Dr. Nesbitt, who with Richard Armstrong, formed the Young Conservative Association here in the early nineties. This organization practically controlled the destinies of Toronto for a number of years. While living in his summer home in Muskoka, a warrant was issued for his arrest, but Dr. Nesbitt evaded the law. He was "tipped off" that the police were on his trail and he left the country. One year later he was arrested in Chicago. Detective Wallace brought him back to Toronto after a legal fight over extradition. The prisoner was a changed man. He had fallen in health. His face was no longer so rugged, but his eyes were clear. It was clearly seen that his year of absence had been one of much worry. Soon after coming home he became ill with Bright's disease and this, combined with a weak heart and constant anxiety over his affairs in connection with the defunct banking house brought about his end.

Couldn't Sit Still.

His life was full of energy. He had been proudly described as "the man who couldn't sit still." He was born on a farm in Oxford County and at the age of 19 entered Toronto University, after completing a preparatory course in Pickering College. He was a young giant and his athletic prowess soon brought him to the front in college circles. His classmates tell many stories of his feats of endurance. Just to win a bet he stripped naked in midwinter and ran around the Varsity campus. On another occasion someone wagered that he could not throw a piano out of a window, but the bet was soon won by him, for this young giant lifted the piano to the window sill, and his comrades decided that that was far enough. He was an idol among the students. His personality was magnetic in college, as well as in later years. He participated in all the activities of the students and was always the leader. He never appeared to study until the last awful weeks and then, as if by magic, he passed his exams, usually high up in the list, the last year getting honors.

Refused Honor.

Every summer after beginning his medical practice he visited Baltimore to experiment in the laboratory of Johns Hopkins University. Once while in the south he attended a pre-election meeting and was urged to deliver a speech. His address so pleased the audience that he was offered a safe constituency in the interests of the Democratic party, if he would only change his nationality. But Dr. Nesbitt was after bigger game in his native country.

Napoleon His Hero.

Every man has his hero. Dr. Nesbitt's hero was Napoleon. What he didn't know about this great fighter was not worth knowing. He read every line about the warrior's life, and he liked him. He had a bust of Napoleon in his room at college, and the bust now stands in his house. Some will say that he, as far as facial features were concerned, resembled the French emperor. This might also be true in the case of other traits of the man's character. For he was an indomitable fighter, a giant, mentally and physically.

Dr. Nesbitt's father and grandfather were physicians and he himself had a wide knowledge of scientific matters and was a fellow in the Society of Chemical Industry and a prize man in mineralogy. He was a staunch Anglican and Orangeman. He was married to Miss Clara Louise Hubbard of Toronto on Oct. 18, 1887, and the widow and one daughter, Miss Clara, aged 14, survive.

The funeral will take place on Monday.

CHAMBERLIN TO SHOW LETTERS

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—The federal grand jury did not finish its investigation of the New England transportation situation when it found indictments yesterday against three principal officers of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, and the Grand Trunk Railway. The jury now wishes to examine certain letters that passed between E. J. Chamberlin and the president of the New Haven, and Alfred W. Smilthers, chairman of the Grand Trunk board of directors. A subpoena today ordering him to produce these letters before the grand jury on Feb. 6.

Thru these letters the federal attorneys hope to learn more regarding the alleged traffic agreement between the Grand Trunk and the New Haven, and the alleged bribery of President Mellen of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, and the Grand Trunk Railway. The jury now wishes to examine certain letters that passed between E. J. Chamberlin and the president of the New Haven, and Alfred W. Smilthers, chairman of the Grand Trunk board of directors. A subpoena today ordering him to produce these letters before the grand jury on Feb. 6.

Refused to Approve.

Approval was also refused of changes between miles 3 and 4 on contract 16. There is a station near mile 3, says the correspondence, "consequently when the train moved out of the station and stopped with the engine about station 140 the train would not have acquired sufficient acceleration at station 80 to enable it to surmount the one per cent grade you have introduced between stations 80 and 87."

A further letter appears in the correspondence noting the introduction of 2400 feet of a one per cent grade at Peplar River and questioning its workability. A permanent wooden trestle was also put in here, and difficulties were encountered there. "The revised momentum grade" between mile 85 on the east, and mile 85 on the west.

"When a train pulled out of the siding at mile 83," says Mr. Grant, "the locomotive would probably be in the neighborhood of station 49, which would only give her 3000 feet of a level grade to acquire momentum and the train would therefore be unable to negotiate the one per cent grade between 88 and 89. Therefore, this will have to be changed back to the original grade, if the permanent wooden trestle is not yet constructed between stations 85 to 89."

Objects to Wooden Trestles.

Mr. Grant further questions the advisability of putting in a wooden trestle at certain points, and as to whether they will be sufficiently strong to allow freight trains to run over at 30 miles an hour, which they will have to do in order to negotiate the 26 stations of one per cent grade.

Major Leonard will be observed correcting the popular understanding respecting the gradients on the eastern section of the National Transcontinental so far as they are affected by the agreement and the Grand Trunk Pacific. The contract provided that the western section between Winnipeg and Moncton must have as good a grade as the Grand Trunk between Montreal and Toronto, but no specific standard was established for the eastern section between Winnipeg and Moncton. That was to be a matter of agreement between the government and the company.

The matter will doubtless come up in the house before long. It may be stated that the investigation is confidential and that the charges which have been made against the N. T. R. Commission will not be sustained.

BAR ROOSEVELT IN FRONT CAPITOL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—The senate today defeated every attempt to amend the World's single six-year presidential term term. The measure, which was introduced tonight it appeared certain that a final vote on the proposed constitutional amendment would be reached tomorrow, and its opponents were mustering all possible strength to defeat it.

As the measure emerged from the senate's fight in the senate it still provides for one term of six years for chief executive, and makes ineligible to re-election any person who has in the past held the office by election or by succession. The closest votes of the day came on Senator Owen's amendment for a direct popular vote on president and vice-president, which defeated 35 to 32, and Senator Payne's amendment to lengthen to six years the term of the president who might be in office when the constitutional amendment was finally ratified. This was defeated 38 to 30.

Prospects for the four-year term and one four-year term, suggestions to modify the resolution so it would not affect Taft, Wilson or Roosevelt, and amendments to make it apply only to presidents elected after its ratification, were all defeated by large majorities.

Aimed at Roosevelt.

Progressives and Republicans, who doared themselves friendly to Col. Roosevelt, again led a fight against the entire resolution. The Progressives declared it was against American governmental principles to limit the right of the people to choose a president. Senator Crawford insisted it was aimed at Col. Roosevelt.

"We are asking the American people to force themselves from the right to call into their service the man of the hour during a crisis upon which the very destiny of the republic may be hanging," declared Senator Crawford. "No, we are not afraid of a despot," retorted Senator Williams. "We are afraid of another fool nation that were existed until after they had spit him."

Every man has his hero. Dr. Nesbitt's hero was Napoleon. What he didn't know about this great fighter was not worth knowing. He read every line about the warrior's life, and he liked him. THE BEAUTIFUL NURSE

Saving Nervous Force

Watch people who are talking together, or even one person reading or apparently occupied in some way, and you will notice that most of them are surprisingly restless.

Some part of each individual, his feet or hands or head, is almost always in motion. Everyone needs to have the "fidgets," and unconsciously they transfer their restlessness to those with whom they come in contact.

It is not a becoming habit to acquire, nor is it wise, since people addicted to it use up nervous energy in a useless fashion. Everyone needs all the power he possesses, and every bit that is wasted is just so much loss to health and enjoyment. It may seem a small matter to the individual by tapping the feet, playing with the hands, constantly changing the position goes a long way towards creating a habit which is a menace to dignity and self-control.

If you have ever been in a school-room at a time when no work was required of the children, and a correct position, you would have noticed the spirit of restlessness that prevails. No matter how interested the children may be in their work, observing, you will see hands playing with pens or bits of paper, feet moving about under the desk, shoulders strutting, heads bobbing, and other signs of this national malady. I know teachers who have a "quiet drill" for two or three minutes at a time they expect the children to sit perfectly still. Some succeed, but many lack the self-control necessary to keep the body under subjection for even this short period.

Mothers can be of big assistance to children and teachers in this respect. If you are quite sure that your boy or girl has sufficient exercise for the day, do not permit him or her to make a reading time for others impossible by wandering about the room and making unnecessary noise.

There are times when children, naturally restless, should sit quite still, reading, or listening to conversation. Some children cannot exercise for long in the family talk unless they are walking around, picking up one thing after another, or trying different chairs.

If you visit a school, you will see, as well as that of your children, begin early to train them to be quiet and self-controlled at the proper time and in the proper place.

LADY GREORY SPEAKS ON IRISH FOLKLORE

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—The hall of Royal Victoria College was filled to capacity at to-day's luncheon of the Women's Canadian Club, the guest speaker being Lady Gregory, the founder of the Irish National Theatre. Lady Gregory delivered an interesting lecture on the allied subjects of Irish poetry and the Irish drama.

Lady Gregory said that in collaboration with Mr. Yeats she had collected over 10,000 words of folklore direct from the people. These records of the supernatural and legendary traditions of Ireland were noted for her by the editor of the advanced psychic investigations undertaken by scientists in Italy and France. Lady Gregory concluded her lecture by the recital of some of the fairy stories and legends which she had collected.

English Beauty Tells Complexion Secrets

"Elise" in American Home. Through a fortunate meeting with an English lady, noted for her complexion, I recently learned the full meaning of that old adage, "Beauty is but skin deep." She taught me how to move my muddy old skin, revealing the young and beautiful skin underneath. The process is so simple, harmless and inexpensive. I'm sure you'll be glad to know about it. I'll give you a good ordinary mercerized soap and apply it, like cold cream, for a week or so. Every morning, rub it off with the wax, tiny particles of worn-out skin come off, too. The action is so gentle and refreshing, that you can use it every day. It's a wonderful treatment, as it not only cleans off the faded or colored skin, but all of its defects, as chaps, roughness, freckles, pimples, blotches, blackheads, etc.

I am indebted to the same lady for a remarkable wrinkle-removing formula. The once powdered sassafras is dissolved in a half pint of water. Used as a face bath, this is so effective that just one application causes the finer lines to disappear, and soon even the deepest ones go.

PROS AND CONS FOR GLOVES

Decidely long white Suede gloves are luxuries not to be indulged in by women of limited income. They are lovely, they are comfortable, but what an evening's wear will do to them! Their distinctive attraction—that soft, creamy, mat surface—is the very thing that renders them prohibitive to many of us. This surface catches flecks of dust or chance soilure that would slip off a glazed glove easily. Dark evening cloaks or fur that has been long in use is fatal to the daintiness of white Suede gloves. As for putting them into a muff that has a couple of seasons' use one might as well use them for dusters!

By the way, muffs slip off abominably and should be reined or have a removable white silk lining put in at the beginning of each winter. But to the beginning of each winter. Suede gloves are not so durable as glazed gloves. Here and there one finds wear places in them that we never found in glazed, and these thin places are usually exactly in parts of the glove upon which there is most strain. I have just been mending a pair that cost $3.50—a really appalling price for a single ephemeral article to a woman with little to spend upon her dress—and I found in both gloves that the skin is poor and thin at these points. The rough surface hides a defect "in this which in a glazed glove would be instantly detected. Had I had the forethought, when buying the gloves, to go over all the parts that I thought I had found poor, I should not have come into possession of so wretched a bargain. It is what I shall do in future.

But after all one need not feel aggrieved to be limited to white glazed gloves! They are always correct, always smart, and always pretty rippling up the arms to the elbows or to the short sleeve of the evening gown. To go over all the parts that I thought I had found poor, I should not have come into possession of so wretched a bargain. It is what I shall do in future.

Prayers for Woman Suffrage

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—Tomorrow, St. Bride's Day, has been appointed as a day of special meditation and ultimate cheapness! Every time they were washed they were dirty and new again. And they had the advantage of the wash leather glove and they did not shrink in the wash. In old days cotton gloves were things to be avoided, now they are become so shapely, so smartly fitting, and are so prettily fastened—exactly as white kid is fastened—that they are most desirable for wear in summer with wash frocks and dresses of muslin and linen.

YONGE STREET MAY YET BE WIDENED

Civic Guild and Ratepayers' Association Ask For Improvements.

ELECTRIFY RAILWAYS

Want Wider Street From Bloor North, Also Wider Subway.

Electrification of the raised C.N.O. and C.P.R. tracks across the north end of the city; Yonge street, 86 feet wide from Bloor to the tracks, and the addition of 20 feet to the west side of Yonge street from the tracks to the northern city limits were asked for by deputations from the Civic Guild, headed by Edmund Burk, and the North End Ratepayers' Association, which appeared before the board of works yesterday.

"What we propose to do," declared Edmund Burk, "is to add 80 feet to the west of Yonge street from Christ Church north and on the east side opposite the church south to the tracks. The point in favor of this," he continued, "is that such a proposition would give plenty of room for electric traffic west of the tracks. As circumstances are at present the property holders on that side are blanketed. Another thing, there are fewer properties involved under our proposition, and it will save tremendous expenditures."

"We want Yonge street widened to 86 feet," said M. J. O'Leary, "from Bloor street to the tracks, and the viaduct widened to the whole width of the roadway or crossing. That part of the city seems to have been neglected and we want you to give it some attention."

"We believe that the time has now arrived," he continued, "when the heart of the City of Toronto is destined to be located at that crossing, and it is only proper to take that into consideration. You should also have the tracks at that point closer together. 'What width would you want that viaduct?' asked Ald. May.

"It is 66 feet wide now and the company has a right in the middle of the sidewalk, and I think they should be forced to move them back."

"Do you think the viaduct will be high enough?" he was asked. "Many of our members seem to be satisfied with 14 feet, but I think it divides the north from the south." Commissioner Harris will report.

BIG INCREASE SHOWN IN MONTREAL CUSTOMS

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—(Can. Press.)—Today was a record day for the Montreal Customs. The inland revenue department, for the day's receipts amounted to $308,000, a larger sum than has ever before been taken in a single day. The past month shows an average of $114,907.71 as compared with January 1912. The details for the past month for the two months are: January, 1912, $824,896; January, 1913, $1,170,228.

There has been an increase in customs returns the past month of well over half a million dollars as compared with January 1912, the figures being: January, 1912, $2,097,189; January, 1913, $2,577,228.

The increase for the month is $484,845, which is a shade over 23 1-2 per cent.

Last winter there was introduced experimentally an automatic system of heating the water in tanks on the roof so as to prevent freezing, and the device was so successful that it is now being extensively resorted to. Where there is a tank used for sprinkling systems it is very important that they should not be allowed to freeze up, and the electrical apparatus takes care of the tank without any attention. When the temperature of the water approaches the freezing point the heat is turned automatically and ceasing prevented.

WHAT A REAL TONIC WILL DO

Strikes at the Root of Disease and Gives New Health.

If you look in your dictionary you will find the word "tonic" defined as "a medicine that increases the strength and vigor of the system." That tells you Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a real tonic. Thousands of men and women are attaining today, not sick in bed, but without strength and ambition, utterly tired out after a day's work. No one organ seems to be at fault, yet the whole system is lacking in health. They do not sleep well and are always tired and nervous, many have headaches, backaches, and stomach trouble. All these people need the tonic help of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The beneficial influence of this medicine reaches the whole system. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do more than relieve the symptoms, they actually remove the cause of the trouble. The case of Mrs. H. H. Sharpe, London, Ont., is one of the many above statements. Mrs. Sharpe says: "I was so run down and weak that life was a burden. The least exertion would exhaust me so greatly that I could hardly breathe. If going upstairs, I would have to rest several minutes when I reached the top. My heart would palpitate until I felt as if it would choke me. I was so nervous, in fact a complete wreck and would sometimes have to remain in bed for a couple of days or more at a time. I found no relief from medicine until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and my experience with them was that they made a complete cure. I gained in weight and my friends tell me I look younger than I did ten years ago—I know I certainly feel younger. I feel sure that what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me they will do to other women who are given a fair chance."

If you are at all unwell do not fail to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and you will find new health and strength. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Commissioner Rees Issues a Letter of Appreciation

In the history of the Salvation Army, the last few days in Toronto have been unique, the citizens have brilliantly accomplished a task hitherto not even attempted anywhere in the way of assisting our work.

Through the medium of the press, I desire to place on record on behalf of the Salvation Army, my high, deep debt of gratitude to the chairmen of the citizens', business men's and young men's committees, with their respective captains and teams, for their intense interest and hard, faithful work in connection with the campaign, which has been brought to such a successful finish. Language fails to express my sincere thanks for all the labor put into the effort, and I am not ungrateful to the men composing the committees and teams who have sacrificed a good deal of their valuable time in connection with the effort.

To the citizens who have so generously and spontaneously contributed in large and small amounts toward the work, I would like to say from the depths of my heart, a great big "THANK YOU." With the hearty co-operation of the citizens we would never have been able to realize the amount which we had so earnestly hoped for. Thanks to yourselves, it is now an accomplished fact.

I can also say that the news of the great victory will be read with delight by our people in all parts of the world.

(Signed) COMMISSIONER REES.

MISSION WORK IN FAR FIELDS

Dr. Murdoch MacKenzie and Dr. Margaret McKellar Told of Results.

Convocation Hall, Knox College, held a good sized audience last night, when Dr. Murdoch MacKenzie of China, and Dr. Margaret McKellar of India told of their experiences in their respective fields of missionary endeavor. The occasion, too, marked the fifty-eighth public meeting of the Students' Missionary Society, and copies of the fifty-eighth annual report were distributed. Rev. Prof. Morton presided and introduced the different numbers on the program.

Dr. MacKenzie sketched his missionary life from its beginning, twenty-five years ago, when he formed one of a small band who stood in forced silence and dumbness forced upon them from not knowing the language. After rehearsing the difficulties experienced in acquiring the wonderful Chinese tongue, he told of the methods adopted in teaching the Chinese. An illustration was that of the opium-eater who may be a good story-teller and a good worker in the field of the gospel, and then to rectify them from the Chinese point of view to the people of his own nation. Today the Chinese are beginning to enquire into Christianity. The Lord's Day is now beginning to be observed.

Dr. MacKenzie in concluding invited young men and women to join the field of Chinese missions. "If Britain left India today, there would be bloodshed," was one of the statements of Dr. Margaret McKellar. The Presbyterian mission which she represents in Central India, has 600,000 people. They have 10 principal stations, a high school, six dispensaries and three hospitals for women. A high wall surrounds the hospitals, and on it are three towers bearing gongs in gold letters on a white ground. One of these mottoes runs, "We wash the wounds of the heathen." Today the towers were erected by money given by a young Canadian engineer working in Cashmir.

Musical numbers were given by Miss F. Gillies and Miss M. Henderson.

CLAIMS DAMAGES FOR DISMISSAL

Dr. A. H. Caulfield Sues National Sanitarium Association For Large Amount.

The National Sanitarium for Consumption at Gravenhurst is being sued by Dr. A. H. Caulfield, formerly director of the department of damages in the sanitarium, for $20,000 damages.

Dr. Caulfield claims that he was dismissed from the hospital without sufficient reasons, and that research work which he was carrying on in the laboratory of the sanitarium was interfered with, that materials and specimens were destroyed and cultures of bacteria in his test tubes taken away. He claims that these were the results of years of study and research and experimental work, and that their destruction has made it impossible for him to continue his investigation. He claims that the National Sanitarium Association has interfered with the research and experimental work, and that their destruction has made it impossible for him to continue his investigation.

The case is going on. Yesterday Mr. Justice Burton struck out several paragraphs in the doctor's statement of claim, on the ground that they were irrelevant.

Babies on the Battlefield

When the Turks fled before the conquering Bulgarian army, as at Mustafa Pasha, mothers fleeing in panic left their children and babies behind them, so that the conquering Bulgarians in addition to gathering the dead and wounded had also to pick up crying babies. Many a Bulgarian soldier considered it his duty to send home a Turkish baby to be taken care of by his mother. He left it in the care of a Bulgarian woman in the city, and when after the battle he could not discover its mother, he sent it to Detroit to be cared for as one of her own.

LARGE INCREASE IN WARD SEVEN

Building Permits For January Give Promise of a Record Year.

As anticipated early in the month, the report given The World last night by Building Inspector Armstrong of the building permits issued during the past month in ward seven shows an exceedingly large increase, both in the total amount and also in number over all previous months.

Thirty-four permits in all were issued in ward seven, including three factories, two stores and forty-eight dwellings. The total value of these permits amounted to $233,465, which is nearly $70,000 increase over the first month of 1911. Only fourteen permits were issued in January last year, while last month's report shows over twice that number, and the list includes only three larger items.

These are a billiard table factory at Carter avenue and Pelham street; Samuel May & Co., costing $50,000; a $30,000 addition to the piano factory of Holzman & Co. on Holzman avenue, and a $12,000 store and apartment house on Dundas street, erected by A. Rappaport. D. Slideman is also building a tin shop on Maria street, costing $3,000.

It is most probable that the mild and open weather thus far this winter has caused this great increase in the building business in ward seven, but over twenty-five permits are already in for February, and this month also looks like a record-breaker.

MY ADVICE IS FREE

Don't waste any more time worrying about your weakness—you can be cured.

Use Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt and it will soon brace you up.

Even if you are in lying awake, fretting about your troubles, in another step on the downward road.

Don't get discouraged because doctors and drugs have done you no good. It's more than likely that you are not what you require. You get strength and energy from the proper application of Electricity, and drugs only stimulate a little.

You ought to look into this matter. Electricity is the remedy of to-day. It is gaining ground every month. My Belt is making men out of physical wrecks.

Electricity, applied according to system, cures nervous debility, sexual debility, all signs of premature decay, physical breakdown, rheumatic or neuritic pains, indigestion, constipation, sleeplessness, and hundreds of ailments that drugs cannot cure. It restores vitality and manhood's powers. It makes strong and vigorous men and women.

Ten months ago a young mechanic walked into my office the very picture of despair.

"Well," said I, "what are you looking so gloomy for?"

"Doctor," said he, "I'm up against it. Have been losing so much time on account of weakness, the firm I have been working for has let me out. Been doctoring right along, too."

He told me all about his trouble. I told him exactly what my Belt would do for him, and he bought it.

Last week this young man called on me again and gave me a grip that I can feel yet. He laughs about his appearance and the fix he was in when I first saw him.

"Your Belt is all right," said he. "It put me on my pins in less than six weeks. Went back to my old job, have been promoted—got married since, and going to buy me a home."

If you will call at my office I will show you thousands of letters like the following—

General Debility. Ridgeville, Ont., June 29, 1912.

Dear Sir—I have used one of your Belts and found it very satisfactory in every way, and can recommend it to anyone suffering from weakness or debility.

Yours truly, THOS. EHL.

Cultivate cheerfulness. It pays. Energy and cheerfulness—that's a combination that can't be beat. Feed your system with this great invigorating Electricity. Apply it with my Belt—the only Belt that will overcome your weakness, your pains, your aches. Animal vitality, that's what you lack. If you want to feel strength and energy in every part of your system; if you want to feel the life blood dancing through your veins; if you want to make your mark in the world, build up your vitality with my Belt, and you can be a Man among Men.

Call at our office or mail this coupon with your address, and we will send you our beautiful illustrated 80-page book, full of good news to weak men, and free for the asking.

Re estate of William Beard, deceased—W. J. Elliott for Annie Beard, appointed the United Trust Co. receiver, where executor lives out of the jurisdiction and has refused to account. The order shall receive.

Judgment: I think the beneficiary has made out a case for the appointment of a receiver in this matter. I have not found it necessary to say anything to show that Albert E. Knox, named or is dead. Before the order issued there must be an affidavit filed showing that John Beard is, and how he became, sole executor. Order made appointing United Trust Co. receiver.

Maple Leaf Portland Cement Co. v. Owen Sound Iron Works—W. G. Thurston, for plaintiff, R. M. McKay, K.C., for defendant. Action on contract alleged to have been entered into with defendants for sale and delivery of an Emerick Pulverizer and an Emerick separator. For use in the cement business at Atwood. Judgment: In this case there were positive acts of defendant company which had estopped them from denying liability. The manager of defendant company stated that he turned over to Moyer all communications which were received from plaintiffs. Moyer did not in any way communicate this to plaintiff and did nothing to remove any impression they had that they were contracting with defendant company. I think I am not going too far in holding Moyer liable as well as the co-defendants. Judgment in favor of plaintiffs for repayment of the $1000 paid by Pearson to defendant company and interest thereon from date of payment

ASK PROVINCE TO TAKE OVER ROAD

Lincoln County Council Willing to Contribute to Upkeep of Highway Used by Motorists.

ST. CATHARINES, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—The Lincoln County Council, at present in session, has appointed a deputation to wait upon the Ontario Government asking them to take over and maintain the Queenston and Grimsby stone roads, the main thoroughfare for automobiles between Buffalo and Toronto and other eastern parts of Canada and the United States. The county will offer to pay an amount to the province equal to that now expended on the upkeep of the road, which has begun to show signs of deterioration on account of the steadily increasing thru auto-traffic. The deputation will take the ground that the province may tax auto owners to make up any expense the taking over of the road may entail.

HOUSE FAMINE WORRIES GALT

And as a Result Year of Great Building Activity Is Expected.

GALT, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—The present year promises to exceed the last in the extent of building operations in Galt. The house famine has received the recognition of contractors and realty companies and this summer will see the erection of several hundred residences. Suitable dwellings for mechanics and artisans is an imperative need and the larger proportion of houses to be erected will be of this character. Already 120 sets of plans have been prepared on contracts let, independent of individual enterprises in house building. Several factories are going up and large additions to others are planned. The summer of 1913 will be the busiest in the history of the town.

Investigating Hotel Receipts. GALT, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—License Inspector C. M. Knowles and Provincial Inspector Coroy of Toronto are investigating the receipts of hotel-keepers in Waterloo. In several instances in North Waterloo hotel-keepers were obliged to contribute a large amount to make up the deficiency in their returns on the five per cent. basis.

REAL ESTATE NEWS
FIRST DEAL FOR MANY MONTHS AT YONGE-CARLTON COMPLETED

Property at 428 Yonge Street Sold by Allen Family For Thirty-Two Hundred Dollars a Foot to Unidentified Investor.

The first real estate transaction for six months or more in the property very close to the corner of Yonge and Carlton streets was yesterday completed by McArthur-Richey-Trimble, Ltd. For a client they have purchased 428 Yonge street, the second property north of Buchanan street, paying $3200 a foot. The only bid to go through was further south, the block front between Ann and McGill streets. The property changing hands belonged to the Allen estate and had been in the family and closely held for forty years. It is occupied as a dry goods store by John Passmore. McArthur-Richey-Trimble are now ready to say what plans their client has for the property.

The frontage on Yonge street is 24 feet 11 inches and the depth is 100 feet to a lane. The building is two storeys, brick, and is assessed at $2000; the land is rated at $28,900.

Leaside on the Market in Two Weeks Say C. N. R. Men

The World was informed by officials of the company yesterday that preparations now under way will allow of the Canadian Northern Railway Company's Leaside subdivision being placed upon the market in about two weeks' time, which will be the date when Col. Davidson, land commissioner, will return from the coast. He and Sir Donald Mann, the vice-president, are at present arranging with the British Columbia Government in regard to western terminus projects.

The Canadian Northern have now more than fifty men at Leaside laying out street lines and lots. The work has been under way for some time, and the statement was made yesterday that next week will see it completed.

DANFORTH AVENUE SELLS AT $410 FOOT

Corner of Logan Bought by Dominion Bank at Big Figure.

A new high level in Danforth avenue transfers was made yesterday by a deal completed for the northwest corner of Logan and Danforth avenues. The price of $410 a foot was paid.

The property was bought by a bank thought to be the Dominion—and was sold by John Sheridan thru E. M. Armstrong. The size is 75 feet on Danforth by 55 feet on Logan avenue. The consideration was $30,750, half cash.

Over four hundred a foot for this part of Danforth shows how real estate along this thoroughfare—the most modern street in Toronto—is advancing. The changing of the street from the conventional 66 feet to the metropolitan width of 86 feet has proven most beneficial to the property owners, in fact they could have well afforded to give the widening strip to the city.

UPTOWN CENTRE IS FOUND AT LAST

That the Radials Would Join in North Toronto Was Only Known Two Years Ago.

At last The Telegram has found out that the radials are going to centre in North Toronto, and leverishly announces that real estate up Yonge street is in a turmoil of excitement over it. Two years ago The World said North Toronto crossing was going to be a great uptown centre—and simply because the time when all the lines from east, west and north will be linked up at North Toronto is getting nearer.

The Telegram, in a day or so, will come to the conclusion that a city subway to bring the electrical monorail's radial passengers downtown would be a good idea—and a profitable one for the city.

TAKING LARGER OFFICES. Prosperity has touched George M. Proctor so kindly that he has had to take a suite of three rooms in the Imperial Life Building, moving across the way from 48 Victoria street. He has also formed a company—Proctor-Nixon, Ltd.—of which he is president, and has turned over to it considerable

LOCAL MAN SELLS CLEVELAND LEASE

At a Price Higher Than Anything in Toronto Considering Location.

Green Miller of the Scotland Wagon Mills Co. who recently took a $20,000 lease on the property at 515 and 517 Euclid avenue, Cleveland, has sub-leased for a year term to the Christian Moolten & Brown Co. at $15,000 a year and taxes. The entire building, which is three storeys, was included in the deal. The property is the highest assessed land in the City of Cleveland, and the price of the lease, figuring on similar holdings in Toronto, is a higher than our prices. The size of the property is 23 by 97 feet.

No recent lease near King and Yonge has been made, but the store at 117 Yonge street, just north of Adelaide, was leased three months ago at $10,000 a year and taxes. The size of the store is within a few inches of the Cleveland store.

AN INVESTOR'S OPPORTUNITY.

Nothing has been more remarkable in the recent history of Canada than the unprecedented rapidity with which towns have come into existence and developed into large and prosperous communities. Huge fortunes have been made in real estate in the various districts of the Northwest and there is little doubt that undue advantage has been taken by certain speculators to market lots at distances from trade centres that render the prospect of profit other than a distant date very unlikely. Indeed, it is now almost impossible to get in on the ground floor unless in a few exceptional cases, or where an entirely new section of the country is being opened to the agriculturist, the trader and the merchant.

This renders the announcement of a sale of lots in Athabasca of more than usual importance. Athabasca is an incorporated town of 1200 inhabitants, located at the most southerly point of the great Athabasca River, and is the natural gateway of the vast region included in the basins of that river and the Peace River, destined to take its place among the most fertile grain-growing districts of the Dominion. The town has already railway facilities on a Canadian Northern system and will have other connections in the near future. Its lumber future is secured by the timber supply, unexcelled east of the Rockies, which by the end of 1912 will have all modern improvements except street railways and sidewalks. Athabasca will certainly increase in population and importance, and its real estate values will correspondingly benefit. In another column will be found the particulars of this unusually inviting sale.

COLLEGE STREET SALE.

A plot of ground on the north-side of College street, near Gladstone, 280 feet by 102 feet to a lane, has been purchased from John Ferguson by Keers & Maybee for $35,000. Preparations are being made for the erection of several stores on the site.

Nearly a thousand birds and all the finest of their kind are to be seen at the fourth annual exhibition of the Toronto Pigeon Fanclub's Association, which opened yesterday at St. George's Hall, and which continues until tonight. PLAN FOR I.C.R. TO ENTER ONTARIO

Road to Get Running Rights Over Central Railway to Goderich.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—Extension of the Intercolonial Railway in Ontario is involved in a scheme of the Central Railway of Canada, which was explained at a well-attended meeting of senators and members this morning. The proposed line is from St. Boniface to Montreal and thence to Midland, with a branch to Goderich.

It is explained that the government road is to be given running rights. The bill was up last year, when a claim that, by reason of having certain old charters, including the ancient Castillon and Greyville roads, the company is entitled to 850,000 acres of land in Ontario and a similar tract in Quebec all to be located in the Ottawa Valley, was opposed by the Ontario Government.

F. S. McLennan, K.C., Montreal, explained today that a compromise had been reached whereby, in the proposed bill, no land rights would be legalized, but that what exist already will be left to the courts to pronounce upon. A subsidy is asked for 340 miles of railway, the company promising to handle grain between Port Arthur and Montreal at 4 1/2 cents a bushel. It is claimed to be 42 miles shorter than the new C. P. R. line from Port McNeill to Montreal.

The bill will be considered in the railway committee next week.

MORE FAMILIES TO BE UNITED

Eighteen Applications For Assistance Granted by Home Reunion Association.

The first meeting this year of the governing committee of the Imperial Home Reunion Association of Toronto was held at the office of the British Welcome League. The chairman, Frank Wise, presided over a full meeting. Twenty-two applications were considered, 18 of which were granted. There are 39 children in these families, varying in age from a few months to over 20 years, a good percentage of them being wage earners. Last year the association enabled 321 visits to be made to their parents, with 373 children being reunited with their parents. The number of immigrants who availed themselves of the hospitality of the British Welcome League during 1912 was 2759, against 2240 in 1911.

GRAND TRUNK IN LAKES COMBINE

U. S. Government Asked to Provide Terminal Facilities Refused by Railways.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(Canadian Press).—A recommendation that the government provide terminal facilities for the handling of package freight at ports on the great lakes was presented to the house merchant marine committee today by Julius H. Barnes, a Duluth, Minn., grain exporter. Mr. Barnes declared that package freight rates on the lakes were held at a high level by the railroad owned steamship lines, which, he said, dominated the trade.

"There are no independent steamship lines on the lakes," said Mr. Barnes. "The steamers are owned or controlled by the New York Central, the Pennsylvania, the Grand Trunk, the Lehigh and the Lackawanna railroads. These roads have made no improvement in their methods of handling package freight and the loading and unloading facilities are practically where they were forty years ago. As a consequence, while the rates on bulk shipments, such as ore, coal and grain, have gone steadily downward, as improved terminal facilities were installed, the rates on package freight have been increased."

"An independent ship must pay what rate the railroad chooses, said Mr. Barnes, and this rate, he declared, was always high enough. He said the government, in order to guarantee to shippers the benefits of money expended on harbor improvements of the lakes, should acquire terminal waterfront facilities and break the "railroad control."

Covers 80 blocks, comprises scores of monumental structures, with 88 miles of tracks underneath.

New Grand Central Terminal

A wonderful city within a city built for the comfort and convenience of the traveling public.

The main Grand Central Terminal Building in New York is now open to the public. This vast improvement is more than a great railway terminal—it is a Terminal City, complete in itself, providing every detail essential to comfort and convenience.

It will embrace convention, amusement and exhibition halls, hotels, clubs and restaurants; post office, express offices, modern apartment and office buildings, and numerous stores and specialty shops.

Grand Central Terminal is the Heart of New York at Forty-second Street and Park Avenue (4th Avenue), one block from Fifth Avenue and convenient to Broadway.

Plan your trip East over the New York Central Lines; enjoy restful sleep on the "Water Level Route," three hours of picturesque grandeur along the separate levels, the upper for Through Service and the lower for Suburban Service.

Each level forms a complete terminal in itself, separate entrances and exits, with equal facilities for the comfort of passengers.

Both levels are reached by gently inclined walks, (no need to climb stairs) and no confusion, since incoming and outgoing traffic is separated.

Ticket, Pullman, Baggage and other facilities are progressively arranged from waiting room to train, no step need be retraced.

It is the only Terminal on all lines of local traffic—subway, surface and elevated. More than 7,000 cars pass its doors every day, affording easy transit facilities to any part of New York. Around it, within a radius of a few blocks are forty-nine hotels, fifty-eight clubs and thirty-five theatres.

Three new lines of underground transportation are now building to Grand Central Terminal, and soon there will be six levels of human traffic in Forty-second Street.

Below the Terminal City under all its buildings and streets are 88 miles of railway tracks on two

Stock Markets Firm--Brazilian at New Record at Montreal

NEW HIGH RECORDS WERE ATTAINED

BRAZIL EX-DIVIDEND Money Expected to Work Easier After Month-End—Dominion Bank Was Lower.

Strength in some of the specialties and general firmness in the usual favorites were the features of the Toronto stock market in a fairly active session yesterday. The speculative movement was of about the usual proportions, with public interest showing signs of broadening, particularly in view of the general expectation that money would be slightly easier after the week-end with the incoming of the new month.

The character of the market was plainly evidenced in the fact that several of the prominent issues scored new high records. Brazilian was quoted ex-dividend 1 1/2 per cent. here, with the shares at the time up to 97 7/8, equivalent to 101 3/8 with the dividend added.

STEEL EARNINGS WILL SHOW UP WELL

Increase of Two Million Dollars Likely This Quarter—Higher Wages Paid.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—It is estimated that the net earnings of the U. S. Steel Corporation in the current quarter will aggregate a total of about $27,000,000, or approximately $2,000,000 in excess of earnings in the last quarter of last year.

MUCH BRAZILIAN IS HELD IN EUROPE

In discussing the position of Brazilian, Edward Crony & Co. of Toronto point out that one of its strongest features is the extraordinary market for the securities.

COTTON MARKET LOST ITS EARLY ADVANCE

Erickson Perkins & Co. (J. G. Beatty) wired: The market bulged at the opening, but leading interests attempted to take down profits and prices melted away during the balance of the session.

BANK STATEMENT FORECAST

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Reported movements of currency this week indicate gain in cash by banks of $8,140,000.

YOUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
Your will must be carefully drawn up, with due regard to the many legal restrictions that apply. It must be securely deposited for safe keeping. It must be promptly filed in the Surrogate Court after the testator's death.

STRONG SPOTS AT MONTREAL

Spanish River and Montreal Power Leaders in Activity—Brazilian Holds Advance.

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—Spanish River and Montreal Power were the strong features among the active stocks here today. The former resumed its forward movement from 70 1/4, and the close on Thursday to a new high level of 71 7/8, selling at its highest in the final transactions of the day and scoring a net gain of 1 3/8.

Apart from these issues the market was inclined to dullness, but prices as a whole held firm. Brazilian sold for cash in the early trading at 101 1/2, a new high for the movement, and a new high for the movement, and a new high for the movement.

TO MAKE TEN SHARES UNIT OF TRADING

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—An agitation is under way in Wall Street to make ten shares the unit of trading. Brokers assert that the odd lot business is particularly prominent, the shares dropping back to 31 under scattered selling.

CHILIAN LOAN TOOK WELL IN LONDON

LONDON, Jan. 31.—J. Henry Schroeder & Co's offering of £1,000,000 Chilean Government 5 per cent. annuities at 92 in London, was oversubscribed. Rumored portion of £1,000,000 was offered in Paris at 94 1/4, was largely oversubscribed, but London portion did not go so well.

BRAZILIAN EARNINGS SLIGHTLY LOWER

The approximate gross earnings of the Brazilian Fraction Company as received by the company yesterday, amounted to $41,310 in the week ended Jan. 25, a figure slightly below the average of the last six weeks.

STEEL COMPANIES MUST RAISE WAGES

Erickson Perkins & Co. (J. G. Beatty) wired: After today's spurt in stocks a somewhat reactionary tendency developed and prices were irregular in the last half hour.

MACDONALD ROSE TO NEW HIGH RECORD

Macdonald rose to a new high record at 62 1/2 in the Toronto market yesterday, a net gain for the day of about half a point. The street has had a lull on the stock for some days now.

FAILURE RECORD ABOUT AVERAGE

The number of failures in the Dominion during the past week, in provinces, as compared with those of previous weeks, and corresponding week of last year, are compiled by Dun's Agency as follows:

MARKET IS IRREGULAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—There was no trace today of the bullish enthusiasm of yesterday in stock market speculation, and although a fair degree of strength developed in the forepart of the session, the movement as a whole was halting and irregular.

Traders operated in a more cautious way, and there was a marked falling off in the amount of business. Tentative efforts to bring about a reaction during the first hour were accomplished and the failure of the bears was followed by increased activity on the long side, with the result that Reading, Union and Steel were marked up a point or more.

C. P. R. WAS LOWER IN LONDON MARKET

General List Was Improved on Favorable Peace Reports—Tin Shares Booming.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Reports that Turkey will make further concessions to the allies assisted the cheerful tone developed on the stock exchange yesterday. The continent supported the market today and caused some improvement in foreign rails and Kafirs, while home shares advanced amply.

STATE MAKES WAR ON BUCKET SHOPS

Drastic Measures Proposed in Bill Introduced in Legislature at Albany.

ALBANY, Jan. 31.—A bill defining bucketshops and curtailing certain practices in the sale of stocks, bonds and grain, which now exist, was introduced by Assemblyman Cuvillier today. Among other things the measure makes it a felony for a corporation, association or copartnership, persons or agents to maintain a bucketshop.

OIL COMPANIES ARE MAKING MONEY FAST

Another Seven Point Rise in Price—Daily Boost Again in Effect.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 31.—The rapid advance in the price of the principal grades of crude oil was continued today, when at the opening of the market another seven cent rise was tacked to the price, making Pennsylvania crude, the basis of oil values, $2.40.

MONTREAL POWER NEW ISSUE IN SPRING

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—It is accepted as practically certain that the new issue of Montreal Power will be brought out in the spring. The amount is estimated at from three to four million. It will be the first issue since the incorporation of the company in 1901.

PAINKILLER LAKE IN THE MELT

First Ore Shipment From Cartwright Gold Fields, Limited—Phenomenal Assays Reported.

On Tuesday, Jan. 28, the first load of ore was landed in Matheson from the properties of the Cartwright Gold Fields, Limited, who are operating in Painkiller Lake. They have installed a three-drum compressor, hoist, boiler, etc.

Sinking operations are proceeding on a vein, which on the surface was very narrow, but which has gradually widened out to three feet, and is still improving. It will be remembered upon these properties the phenomenal assay of over $5000 per ton in gold were given in the spring of 1912.

PUBLIC INTEREST BROADENING OUT

Demand For Mining Stocks Includes Many of the Usually Inactive Issues.

SOME SMART ADVANCES

Vipond, Jupiter and Swastika in Front of Stage—Pearl Lake Is Resilient.

The most significant feature in the mining exchanges yesterday was the disposition of public interest to broaden out so as to take in some of the lesser-priced stocks, which have been more or less neglected of late. This was a purely natural outcome of the recent sharp upturn in some of the favorites, the remarkable appreciation in values of such shares as Pearl Lake and Dome Lake calling attention to the favorable position of the remainder of the list.

COBALT STOCKS IN CENTRE OF STAGE

The diversion of public interest from the Cobalt into the Porcupine section of the mining market has been evidently used by some brokers to put pressure on the silver mining issues, and the falling-off in activity in the latter may be attributed to that fact.

DEAL CLOSED FOR CHAMBERS-FERLAND?

It was reported on "the street" last night that the deal between the Chambers-Ferland Mining Company and the English syndicate which has been trying to acquire the controlling interest has been closed and the papers signed.

WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER RESIGNS

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—At a meeting of the directors of the Erie Railroad held today, the resignation of William Rockefeller as a director and a member of the executive committee was accepted. The vacancy has not as yet been filled.

DROP IN MERCURY MENACE TO CROPS Alarming Reports From Iowa and Nebraska Cause Flurries in Wheat.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Iowa and Nebraska reports of wheat 10 below zero, where there is little snow production, brought about two separate buying turfs today in wheat. The market closed firm, 1-2c to 3-4c above last night. Corn finished 5-8c to 7-8c up, oats at 1-8c to 2-8c advance and provisions strung out from 2 1/2-2c decline to a rise of 12-15c.

Speculators in wheat showed decided nervousness during the first hour and still during the last 30 minutes. The buying at the wind-up was led by three big houses with apparently unlimited orders for the May option. That delivery gave signs of being congested and shorts were badly punished on the last level. Besides the cold wave, the reported withdrawal of the Turkish envoys from London had a disturbing effect on would-be sellers of wheat. Estimates of harvest, world shipments served only as a temporary check to the bulls. Prices at no time reacted to last night's level. Instead, the top prices the day were in full force when the bell cleared the pit.

Coarse grain advanced for the same reason as wheat. The cold wave was expected to increase feeding, especially of corn. Demand for oats, however, proved relatively small. In provisions there was a sharp break due to heavy selling by stockholders. Shorts bought January pork at an advance.

Northwest Receipts. Receipts of wheat at northwest points, with usual comparisons, follow: Week Year Chicago... 57 65 15 Minneapolis... 57 65 15 Winnipeg... 57 65 15
