A DARING DAYLIGHT ROBBERY AT HAMILTON

Rifled Contents of Till at Grand Trunk Station—Conservative Rally a Fizzle.

HAMILTON, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—One of the most daring daylight robberies committed in this city in some time occurred to-day between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock, when the thief entered the Grand Trunk street station, and, heklipping himself to the contents of the till, amounting to over $100, walked out without leaving the slightest clue to his identity behind him. Agent Wilkinson, who was in charge at the King-street station, left the office shortly after 12 o'clock and proceeded to his home. He arrived back shortly after 1 o'clock, and was surprised to find that the door leading from the waiting room to the ticket office was open.

The much advertised rally of the Conservatives in ward one, turned out to be a fizzle to-night. Professor Clay, who occupied the chair of Assyriology at Yale university, delivered his illustrated lecture on recent discoveries in Babylonia before a large audience, under the auspices of the Hamilton branch of the Archaeological Institute of America this evening.

The rumor that Hamilton is about to lose the wholesale crickery business of Taylor & Mulveney has been confirmed. Negotiations, which have been completed whereby on Jan. 1 next this business will be amalgamated with that of the Gowans, Kent Co. of Toronto, and the management have decided to close out the Hamilton end entirely. Mr. Mulveney, who has been an active partner in the business here, will remove to Toronto, where he will assume the management of the Gowans, Kent Co. A. J. Taylor, who has represented his mother, Mrs. J. C. Taylor, in the firm of Taylor & Mulveney, will devote his time to other interests which he has had in view for some time.

After an absence of two months and a half John Patterson, promoter of the Hamilton, Waterloo and Guelph Railway, returned to Hamilton this morning from London, England. The object of Mr. Patterson's visit to London was to endeavor to raise money for the building of the road.

The sensational evidence which it was reported would come out to-day in the case of Albert Dow of Toronto, charged with passing counterfeit money, was not forthcoming at the police court trial. Dow pleaded not guilty and was sent up for trial at 10 o'clock. It is said that he had followed the prisoner around hotels and caught him attempting to pass counterfeit 50-cent pieces.

A mild sensation was sprung in the first division court this morning when John L. Counsell moved to commit Oswald D. Peat, a young lawyer of the firm of Lees, Hobson and Stephens, to jail for contempt of court. Judge Snider, who presided, failed to make the order, nor did he dismiss the applications, simply adjourning it till the next sitting of the court.

The affair was the result of the Ontario Pipe Line Co. v. Bligs action, in which the former were suing for money owing to them. Peat had acted as the defendant Bligs, and was recently subpoenaed by J. L. Counsell to give some evidence on the case. But because the usual witness fee, amounting to 75 cents, were not forthcoming with the subpoena, Peat refused to obey it, hence the application for committal to jail.

TRINITY CONVOCATION

Successors Chosen to Fill Canon Powell's Places.

At the annual convocation of Trinity College the officers were practically all re-elected, except that in the case of Rev. Canon T. W. Powell, R. B. Beatty was substituted as one of the representatives of the graduates in arts and divinity, and as representative elected on the senate of Toronto University, elected by the graduates. Canon Powell is succeeded by Rev. Canon J. S. Broughall. Canon Powell has removed to King's College, Nova Scotia.

The following representatives, elected by convocation to the corporation, whose term had expired, were re-elected: Representing arts and divinity, Kirwan Martin; representing law, D. T. Symons, K.C.; representing medicine, Dr. W. H. Pepper; representing associates of convocation, F. Gordon Osler.

YOUNG TRAVELERS.

STRATHCONA, Alta., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Hilda, aged 6, and Phyllis, aged 5, daughters of M. Heath, arrived here last night after traveling all the way from England unattended. The girls were both on a train at Sheffield, Eng., tagged like merchandise. A broad leather belt surrounded the waist of each, with painted letters reading "To Health, Strathcona, Alta., Canada," per Empress of Britain, care C.P.R.

Woman Struck by Auto. Mrs. Jean Green of Todmorden is in St. Michael's Hospital with a dislocated shoulder. When crossing Queen-street at River-street at 6 o'clock last evening she was struck by an auto, owned and driven by J. Loudon, 85 West King-street.

David Gow Smith, an inmate of the House of Industry, was struck by a street car while crossing College-street at Elizabeth-street last night. He was carried into the Hospital for Sick Children, and a scalp wound was dressed.

LARGE CROWDS AT SHOW PRIZE AWARDS ARE MADE

Government House Party Pleased With the Exhibition, Success of Which is Assured.

The second day of the Ontario Horticultural Exhibition was an even greater success than the opening day, crowds pouring in all day long. Never before has such an interest been taken in the exhibition, which is apparently growing as fast in public favor as it is in size and excellence.

During the afternoon, President H. B. Frankland met the Government House party at the entrance and conducted them thru the maze of fruits, vegetables and flowers. Mrs. Gibson expressed herself as much pleased with the improvement made this year, but in the artistic manner in which the exhibits have been arranged. She thanked Mr. Frankland, saying she would return again to-morrow with his honor, who she hoped, would by that time have returned to the city.

The prize winners of the fruit and flower exhibits have been announced, and the red tickets help the observer to decide which of a bunch of beauties is the best. So many exhibits were on hand, and so uniform in excellence, that the judges had a hard task before them, and they must have worked quickly to have finished the work yesterday. Only the vegetables, money and preserved fruit remain unticketed. They will all be judged by to-night.

Thought to Be Responsible for Babe's Death. Coroner J. M. Cotton will open an inquest at 4 o'clock this afternoon into the death of the 29 days old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Belanger, 215 Wilton-avenue, which was taken to the General Hospital Sunday and died yesterday. The parents had given the child soothing syrup and shortly afterwards it showed signs of collapse. At the hospital it was thought to be suffering from opium poisoning.

A NEW EGYPTIAN POLICY? LONDON, Nov. 16.—(N. Y. Tribune Cable.)—Rumors are gaining strength in Cairo concerning the possible departure of Sir Eton Gort, owing to an impending change in Egyptian policy on the part of the British Government. It is asserted, says The Standard correspondent, that the British agent will receive a percentage and go in a diplomatic capacity either to Brussels or to Washington.

The Beautiful Hair of English Women. (Annie Bly, in N. Y. Graphic.) The long, abundant and glossy tresses of English women are not due to hair tonics and heroic shampooing. There is a general belief over there that the less water put on the hair the better it is; they say wetting "takes the life out" and leaves the hair dull, brittle and colorless. They mix four ounces of theriac with four ounces of orris root and sprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixture on the head; then brush the powder thoroughly through the hair. They thus also avoid the danger of catching cold and the discomfort that accompanies washing, rinsing and drying the hair.

Opposition Convention. REGINA, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Hon. F. W. G. Haultain this morning announced that he would call a conven-

CANADA'S DEBT TO NATIONAL POLICY. Continued From Page 1. Advantage thru the increase in the consuming population caused largely by the expansion of the wages and pay sheets at industrial centres. The farmer, indeed, has been, as Mr. Hendry observed, the chief beneficiary under Canada's protective policy.

Protect Natural Resources. The appointment of the conservation commission is due to the conviction that the prosperity and the future of Canada are intimately bound up with the protection of its natural resources from improper exploitation and with their employment for the benefit of its native industries. Canada to-day stands where the United States stood about a century ago. The republic was then untried in the magnitude of its wealth of land, coal, mineral, fisheries and timber. How it has dispipated its invaluable heritage is a matter of common knowledge. Now, what is happening? With depleted resources and at a time when it is absolutely dependent on other countries for its raw material the United States turns to this Dominion for both, with the openly avowed purpose of obtaining, thru commercial unification, political supremacy on this hemisphere. No one can doubt that Canadians will be unanimous in their determination to maintain their independence in every branch of national life and activity.

During thirty years of strenuous and loyal endeavor we have tested Canada's native strength, have fully realized our own individuality, have proved our capacity for self-government and our ability to manage our business and concerns according to the fullness of the Canadian spirit and the national patriotism of our people.

Wherefore, Canadians, unless we are not what we were do not consent to undo the work of all these years or to check the progress of our country as set forth in John Hendry's words by departing from the policy of protection which has been vitally instrumental in making Canada the land of twentieth century promise.

KINGSTON BOARD OF TRADE OPPOSED TO RECIPROcity

Lowering of Customs Would Be Injurious to All Canadian Interests.

KINGSTON, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The board of trade, by a unanimous vote, passed a resolution against reciprocity in trade between Canada and the United States. The members are convinced that lowering of the Canadian customs would be injurious to all Canadian interests. They believe that the tariff must be so framed as to encourage investment of Canadian capital in Canadian enterprises, and to transfer to workshops here the manufacture of goods which we now import from other countries, principally from the States. While tariffs should be primarily framed for Canadian interests, it should give preference to products of the British Empire, with which reciprocal preferential trade can be arranged, recognizing the fact that the mutual tariff must afford adequate protection for all Canadian producers. The board of trade will petition the minister of railways and canals to have the necessary steps taken to preserve the Beauport Canal as a waterway and that necessary improvements be made to it, claiming that trade in this district will be seriously affected if nothing is done.

CRAWLED THRU ICE AND SNOW WITH BROKEN LEG

Trying Experience of Octogenarian Hunter in Madawaska District.

BROCKVILLE, Nov. 16.—Wm. Neilson of Lyn lies in the Brockville General Hospital in a critical condition, as the result of an injury received while deer hunting in the Madawaska district. Neilson, who is over 80 years of age, had a most unusual and trying experience. Being left alone in the camp on Monday, he thought he would take a little side trip on the lake, a quarter of a mile away, in search of the big game. Getting into the snow, he fell and broke his right leg above the knee. He crawled thru ice and snow on hands and knees back to the camp, which he reached in an exhausted condition.

On an improvised stretcher, he was carried three miles to the C. P. R. tracks, and then conveyed five miles on a handcar to the nearest station, where a train was boarded for Ottawa. From there he came on to Brockville. The fracture was not reduced until he reached here to-day.

EVERY ORGAN REVERSED

Unique Case Discovered in Operating Room at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—What is regarded as a remarkable case in the annals of medical research as regards human anatomy, was revealed before the medical faculty of Queen's University. Dr. A. W. Richardson was engaged in demonstrating to the class of second year students how to operate for appendicitis, when he made the discovery that the location of the organs of the body of his subject was completely at variance with the location of the organs of the normal man. The heart was on the right side, and the appendix, instead of being on the right side, was located in the corresponding position on the left side, and all the other organs on the side opposite to that on which they are found in the make-up of the normal man.

The members of the local profession say it is the first case of the kind to come under their notice, and the case will go on record as the first in which the whole internal system of a man has been found misplaced in the body, as in that of a convict who died a short time ago at the penitentiary.

WAS TERRIBLY AFFLICTED WITH LAME BACK.

COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR. Three Boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause. But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered they get out of order. Weak back is simply a warning from your kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney trouble.

Mrs. N. Larnour, Smith's Falls, Ont., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About a year ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back and was so bad I could not even sweep my own floor. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, which I did, and with the greatest benefit. I highly recommend these pills to any sufferer from lame back or kidney trouble."

IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

Now that the board of control has decided upon amalgamating the Parliament-street viaduct with the Bloor-street viaduct, the city has before it all that is necessary to bring about the greatest development which has ever followed any one improvement.

The citizens as a whole have an interest in the Bloor-street viaduct of a direct nature. The city has property over the Don which will be enhanced in value, quite as much as any private citizen's property.

The city has 19 acres of park land south of Danforth-avenue, between Carlaw and Logan-avenues. This is worth $60,000 at least. The city has park land abutting on the proposed approach to the viaduct on Danforth-avenue with about 600 feet frontage.

Here is $113,000 worth of city property which will be benefited quite as much as any other property across the Don or within five miles of it. The Globe declares that it is not to be thought of.

WILL ASK MEMBERS TO DECLARE THEMSELVES

Grain Growers Will Only Vote For Men They Can Rely On to Further Their Views.

SASKATOON, Nov. 16.—(Special).—The executive of the Provincial Grain Growers' Association held a session here, at which E. A. Partridge outlined the co-operative system, whereby farmers would eliminate local stores and middlemen.

A motion was offered to impress federal members with the grain growers' attitude on public ownership, and operation of the Hudson Bay Railway, cold storage, elevators and other questions are to be taken up as early as possible and legislated upon. It was finally decided that delegates from the various constituencies should go to Ottawa, to wait on their members and have them declare themselves in the house on all these topics, and that in future elections the grain growers would vote only for those men whom they could rely upon to uphold the western farmers' views at Ottawa.

Partridge also brought up a new proposition regarding Hudson Bay Railway. As the leader of the government was opposed to government ownership and operation of the road, Partridge thought that as an alternative scheme, a co-operative farmers' company should be formed, to secure a charter, and build and operate the road. Five hundred farmers might put up ten dollars each, when articles of incorporation could be drawn, and application made for a charter. This idea caught the audience so thoroughly, that a motion was passed unanimously endorsing the scheme, and five men came forward with $10 each, to show their earnestness, and others intimated their intention of doing the same.

Fresh Air in Winter

In winter, it is hard to get fresh air in certain rooms. Some rooms in a house are usually colder than others, and if you open the windows it is hard again to heat the room properly. If you keep the windows closed you don't get fresh air; if you keep them open you cannot quickly reheat the room. The solves the difficulty. You can leave the windows in a room open all day in winter, and when you close them apply a match to a Perfection Oil Heater and heat the room to any temperature you desire in a few minutes.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font.

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

ONLY THREE WEEKS MARRIED
To-day a Patient in the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

Very touching are the stories that come from the sufferers in the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, showing how the dread white plague selects its victims, without regard to class, creed, community or condition. In one of the large airy wards of the Free Hospital there is resting a young woman of 26. Only three weeks after she was married she discovered that she had tuberculosis, and, under instructions from her physician, she entered the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

"I feel kind of weak in bed," she said to an interviewer, "but not so bad when round on my feet. I sometimes think I will get along all right, but sometimes I am discouraged, but I am of a very nervous disposition anyway, always have been. I like the hospital, the doctors are very kind and always seem willing to do anything for me." It would be strange indeed if the heart of the people of this prosperous Canada was not touched by incidents of this kind, and if its people were not all classes are responding generously to the appeal for funds for the

IMPORTANCE OF G. T. P. TO CANADA'S WELFARE

Senator Casgrain's Illuminative Address—Comparisons With the Hudson Bay Route.

Senator J. P. B. Casgrain, C.E., D. L.S., in his address to the Empire Club yesterday on the "Transportation Problems of Canada," gave the most lucid and effective account of the National Transcontinental and Grand Trunk Pacific lines that has been heard in Toronto. Transportation lay at the root of all prosperity, he said. Material wealth was but the transformation of raw material into useful condition and its transportation from the place where it was produced to the place where it was wanted.

All nations had realized the importance of easy connections. What had been done by Rome two thousand years ago was being done by Britain to-day in India, Nigeria, Uganda. They all remembered what a boom the old pioneer road of the province gave Ontario. No enterprise had done more to develop and advertise Canada than the C.P.R. It had created Manitoba, it had brought Saskatchewan into existence, and it had made Alberta. Mr. Beaman in Victoria and that gentleman had told him that had it not been for the C.P.R., British Columbia would have been in the United States to-day. Delegates came from British Columbia and asked Sir John Macdonald at Ottawa if he would build them a wagon road to the coast, knowing that such a road would not be sufficient. But Sir John knew the ground. "Build you a wagon road! I'll build you a railway," he declared, and secured British Columbia for confederation.

It was a great thing for a city like Toronto, proceeded the senator, to have men associated with it like Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann. He knew of no greater feat than theirs in building a mile a day of railway for ten consecutive years, as they had done on the C.N.R. system.

The Highest Standard. The G.T.P. was being built on a higher standard than any road ever built before in the world. This was a big assertion, but there was no road of such length built anywhere of such easy grades and flat curves.

With respect to the Welland Canal, he stated that all other canals should be of equal draft and width, as the system could be no stronger than its weakest link.

The development of the United States was due to its railways. The States and Canada had between them half the railways of the world—250,000 miles. Canada had one-tenth of that, or 25,000. Notwithstanding its mileage the United States traffic was paralyzed some years ago, and J. P. Casgrain declared that business was growing ten times as fast as the railway facilities. The gauge was too narrow. The steam locomotive had reached its limit. Mr. Casgrain suggested that to deepen the Mississippi, improve the Illinois Canal and connect the Chicago Canal with it, and let the railways be tributary to them.

In an interview with Theodore Roosevelt, when he was president, Senator Casgrain had been told that America had three outlets: the Mississippi, the St. Lawrence and Hudson Bay.

"Canada has Hudson Bay," said Roosevelt. Senator Casgrain mildly suggested that Canada had something to say about the St. Lawrence route also.

The Hudson Bay Route. The Hudson Bay route, in Senator Casgrain's opinion, would never supersede the St. Lawrence. There was no objection to building a railway to give access to the bay, which was a fine sheet of water 900 miles long and 600 miles wide. There was three months' navigation, but the difficulty was the Straits, 500 miles long and never free from dangerous icebergs any month of the year. These icebergs were the greatest obstacles to navigation, and the huge insurance rates would be another barrier.

Senator Casgrain passed on to a comparison of the G.T.P. with the C.P.R., which he said was no longer a modern road. It was 23 years old, he had seen the first sod turned at the Kaminitiquia. The idea of building then was to follow the surface, avoiding the hills and valleys. There was little consideration for the cost of operation. The C.P.R. had rebuilt from Port Arthur, and from Winnipeg to Calgary. They could not rebuild in the Rockies or the Selkirk, nor on the north shore of Lake Superior. It was a mistake ever to lay a road there. So they could not compete with a modern road. This was still very steep, but there was an object in having a smoother grade, as the Selkirk grade was only steep. J. P. Casgrain described the C. P. R. in the Rockies as a succession of toboggan slides. The summits were 3,000 feet in Columbia and 4,800 feet crossing the Selkirk. The total adverse grades on the C. P. R. were 29,000 feet. The total adverse grades on the G.T.P. from tide water to tide water were only 7,000 feet.

Magnificent Plateau. Cochrane Junction was situated on a magnificent tableland or plateau 200 miles in Ontario and 400 in Quebec. This plateau was at an elevation of 1,100 to 1,200 feet, and descended gradually 400 miles to Winnipeg as an elevation of 400 feet. The soil was fertile and the climate better than Manitoba.

West of Winnipeg the G.T.P. ran 733 miles straight to Edmonton on a easy grade and then 125 miles to Wolf Creek where the prairie ends. After that it was called the mountain section. The summit was 2,200 feet to the west of Winnipeg, and the grade was one per cent. Altogether having an elevation of 3,700 feet, it was only 200 feet higher than Calgary, and the grade over the summit was 2.2 feet to the mile. The best of coal was to be found on both sides of the line, and the senator stated, in reply to a question, that he had no doubt it was a good steam coal. The Southern Pacific ran on an even grade and then only 21 miles to a grade of one per cent, along the bank of the Fraser River, which had water power of splendid character which could be used to assist the traffic.

Fort George had splendid farming land, and from Hazelton to Prince Rupert the road was practically level along the Skeena River. The land was all taken up on both sides of this river. They could start at the Yellowhead Pass and go to Quebec without finding any worse grade than 21 feet to the mile. When the late John Charlton made his great railway scheme, stating that roads would be built at this grade, he was thought to be stating the impossible. He had gone to his rest, but his predictions have been fulfilled, said Senator Casgrain.

A Superior Position. The New York Central and the Pennsylvania road had no such grades over their systems. The Southern Pacific ran below sea level for miles and miles. No road on the continent could cope with the G. T. P. Hudson Bay would have no better mileage than Prince Rupert. Grain shipped to Prince Rupert and embarked there via the Panama Canal would be in a superior position to Hudson Bay traffic.

He had been talking to the inspector sent by the French Government, recently in Montreal, and he said that Great Britain was always the first to look out for commerce. Britain had been the first to realize that commerce was moving from the Atlantic to the Pacific. England had furnished money lavishly to improve the roads across Canada. In them she had a valuable link with India. By them she could land her troops and stores on the Pacific coast eight days after leaving England.

"The whole of Canada," concluded Senator Casgrain, "has joined in doing this. Let us hope that the whole of Canada will do its duty when any responsibility arises."

Alliance Field Day. The Dominion Alliance will hold their field day in the Toronto churches on Sunday, November 27, when the question of the regulation and restriction of the liquor traffic will be discussed from over 175 pulpits. Speakers are being brought in from local opinion centres. A mass meeting will be held in Massey Hall in the afternoon. Three presidents of Dominion Alliance provincial branches will be there: Joseph Gibson of Ontario, Rev. C. A. Lawson of Nova Scotia, and Rev. F. M. Wootton of Saskatchewan.

Adopting the recommendation of the works committee, the board of control yesterday decided to incorporate the extension of the Parliament-street to Bloor-street in the viaduct by-law.

At midnight Sunday, when the work of lowering the Queen-street bridge over the Don river, north of the King-street cars will run only to the Don from both directions, allowing people to transfer to destination either way.

Out of the Ordinary

Step out of the procession on a busy street some day and take particular notice of the kind of clothes the men are wearing. Count the number of men who can boast of other than "very ordinary" clothes. Women have a tendency to be always fighting against ordinary styles, but the average man seems to take to them like a duck to water.

Men's clothes that get the ordinary look in a very short time are poorly designed and poorly made. Most of them are picked up out of the ordinary run of "bargain" clothes. Our Men's Store is never offered "ordinary" clothes-bargains by a manufacturer, because we always turn them down. You'll find that these clothes for men offered here for tomorrow are outside of the ordinary "bargain" run. You'll notice the difference in the quality and in the making, and you'll be delighted with the values.
