BOTH SIDES PREPARE FOR RENEVAL OF HEAVY FIGHTING

Lord Curzon Condemns the Enemies of Lloyd George Government

LOYD GEORGE LEADS EMPIRE WELL IN WAR

Lord Curzon Condemns Government by Soldiers—Sick of Wailings.

OBNOXIOUS TO ARMY

Use of Great Generals' Names by Politicians Ruins Discipline.

London, May 10.—Speaking at the annual meeting of the Primrose League today, Earl Curzon, government leader in the house of lords, and member of the British war council, condemned the British war council, the present government, he said, was predicted by some to be doomed to a short existence. He continued:

"We have been told frequently during the past few months that our government was in weekly, not daily, peril of having an end put to its existence. Against it only yesterday was directed a lethal blow which somehow glanced off the target.

"The present is not a moment for prophecy. It is a moment for grappling with hard facts, because the military menace is greater than at any time during the past four years. It may be truthfully said that the enemy is at our gates, and the hour of our entry is with us at this very moment."

Earl Curzon said he was thoroughly astonished when he read in the newspapers proposals made by responsible persons that the right thing to do at this emergency was to place generals and admirals inside the cabinet. The strange thing about this suggestion, he said, was that it was made by a man who had been a German militiaman.

Function of Officers. "Let the generals and admirals," he continued, "attend cabinet meetings as they do every day and advise cabinet ministers, but do not advise a soldier placed in control of policy and administration. The soldier is spoiled and he does not imp administration. The names of great soldiers have been used by party politicians, and this is deplorable and a dangerous form of discipline. Such a practice is extremely obnoxious to the army itself."

He said that mistakes might have been made, but he said, "since the present government has been in office the empire has given forth as much as any other government has ever done in history. The position of England today is that she is at the moment the pillar and bulwark which is upholding the liberties of the world."

Lloyd George Preferred. Earl Curzon did not claim that the present government was indispensable. There were, he said, other patriotic, disinterested men who might take office and discharge their duties well, but he said, the British Empire would sooner have Lloyd George as premier than any other statesman.

"If Lloyd George had fallen yesterday," he said, "the rejoicing would have been in Berlin and not in London. Paris, Calcutta or Mexico. The country in a state of railings and wallings made under the shelter of the forms of distinguished soldiers. The moment a country allows a military administration to assume the upper hand it is on the path that leads to disaster."

He said yesterday's vote in the house of commons was much more than a mere rebuff of charges against the government. It was a warning to snipers and sharpshooters to desist from those tactics and that the commons had no sympathy with their manoeuvres.

"Grave times are ahead," he declared, "and British soldiers may have to give ground. Encouragement is to be found, however, in the unity of command, in America's effort and in the resolute indomitable spirit of the British people."

He concluded with a wish that Ireland had joined in the military effort and hoped that it was not yet too late.

"There is only one thing we cannot afford to lose, and that is the war," were his closing words.

Provincial Government Considers Appointing Housing Committee

Sir William Hearst, premier of Ontario, stated yesterday that the provincial government was considering the appointment of a committee of housing experts to take up every phase of the housing problem. This information was given to a committee from the Great War Veterans' Association, which had been invited to confer with the premier upon the housing problem.

Discussion had taken place between these lines during the conference between the representatives of labor and those of the G.W.V.A. about a week ago. The G.W.V.A. committee reported progress at the executive meeting of the district executive, held at the Carlton Street

ARTILLERY FIGHTING IS RATHER VIOLENT

French Report Activity in Region of Grivesnes and Between Lassigny and Noyon.

Paris, May 10.—"The artillery fighting has been rather violent in the region of Grivesnes and between Lassigny and Noyon," says the official communication issued by the war office tonight.

The statement continues: "Army of the east—There have been reciprocal artillery actions at the mouth of the Struna, on the Serbian front, in the bend of the Cerna and to the north of Monastir. Serbian troops have carried out with success a surprise attack against Bulgarian trenches near Zborisk. They also have repulsed an enemy attack against Dobrovoje."

"There have been reconnoitering encounters east of Lake Ochrida. Allied aviators have bombarded an enemy airfield at Drama and troop encampments at Beronet."

London, May 10.—Despatches from Moscow state that the newspapers there publish statements that an ultimatum was recently handed to the council of the people's commissaries by the German ambassador, Count von Mirbach, which demand the immediate execution of measures making Russia virtually a German colony.

The main points of the ultimatum were the settlement of the prisoner question, complete cessation of arming troops, and the abandonment of units recently formed for the occupation of Moscow and other cities of Great Russia.

A few minutes later the Americans will review before King George at Buckingham Palace. Afterward they will return to barracks.

ENEMY TO RESUME ATTACKS ON BRITISH

Germans Still Concentrate Bulk of Reserves in Rear of Somme Front.

DECISION OF ENDURANCE

End of Battle Will Come When One Side Exhausts Reserves or Resources.

London, May 10.—"The bulk of the German reserves is still in the rear of the Somme front, and it must be assumed the enemy's main effort will be in that direction," said a representative of General Deims Kodchiffe, chief director of military operations at the war office, in summing up the week's war developments today.

"It is equally certain that he will not discontinue his attacks in Flanders the other."

"In considering the course of these battles it must always be remembered that the capture of any particular position is not a material factor. More geographical gains are not the main consideration. It is rather a question of staying power. We must look to the end of the battle."

"While the German gain in Flanders is important owing to the narrowness of our front, we must not judge by the loss of one position or another. The end of the battle will come when one side exhausts its reserves or reaches the end of its resources before the other."

"The Germans have put in a considerable number of fresh divisions, both in Flanders and on the Somme front, during the past week, and this is getting their fresh divisions to the heights in Flanders makes it likely that he will continue his attacks during the past week."

In the period between March 21, when the German offensive was launched, and April 25, the heaviest of the French were only one-fourth to one-fifth those of the British.

Since April 25, he said, there has been no respite for the British. The losses of the French have been any heavier than those of the British. (The British losses since March 21 were estimated on May 4 by the British military mission at Washington at nearly 250,000.)

This information was given out in refutation of German propaganda that they expressed the lack of success during the past week.

ALLIED LEADERS SURE OF VICTORY

Premier Orlando of Italy Declares Germans Will Fail.

ITALY TO DO SHARE

United Front From North Sea to Adriatic Becomes Established.

Washington, May 10.—A despatch quotes a statement made by Premier Orlando upon his return from France, where he attended the inter-allied war council.

"I have conversed with the highest military commanders of the entente armies," said the premier, "and while taking into consideration the possible surprises and fluctuations of the war, I am confident that the entente will not reach their essential strategic objectives. General Foch has in common with the great commanders the power of drawing fresh strength from difficulties and to maintain his energy in proportion to the danger."

"The questions resulting from Italy's participation to the recent military agreements were discussed and important resolutions were adopted. I cannot give particulars about this, but I can state that in this respect, Italy remains part of the military and political union of the entente nations, which grows more firm and more intimate with the growth of the danger and with the importance of our decisions. One fact is now established, that the conference of Abbeville recognized a united front from the North Sea to the Adriatic, not only as an abstract aspiration, but as an effective reality."

RUMANIANS EXPECT VICTORY FOR ALLIES

London, May 10.—It has been learned from well-informed Rumanian circles that the first result of the peace treaty between their country and the central powers is that there is not a single pro-German left in Rumania.

The Austrian premier, clearly brought a hardening of policy toward Rumania. Baron Burian and Dr. von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, are being urged by Pan-Germans, tried to achieve success, and they obtained it by force.

The majority of Rumanians realize that the only hope of saving their country from becoming a virtual German dependency is allied victory, of which they are confident.

RAID POOLROOMS WITH BIG RESULTS

Ninety-Seven Alleged Defaulters Taken by Dominion Police. EIGHTEEN ARE HELD

Others Sent for Papers or Provide Bail.

Ninety-seven alleged Draft Act defaulters were gathered in by the Dominion police in a sudden raid last night on eleven of the downtown poolrooms. The raids incidentally showed that altho the Dominion police in this district are putting about 30 defaulters into the army every day there are more fish yet to be caught.

Eleven poolrooms were raided, all being in the West Queen street district, between McCaul and Yonge streets.

The men who appeared to be defaulters were gathered in so quickly that within half an hour about 35 had been apprehended, and the 16 constables working under direction of Capt. Tom Managan were all engaged in escorting the men under arrest to the police headquarters in the old board of trade building, Yonge and Front streets. Sixty-five per cent of the men apprehended were foreigners, including an Austrian who had reported to the authorities in 1915, just after the war's outbreak, but not since.

Eighteen of the men apprehended could not prove their standing in regard to the Military Service Act in a satisfactory way and went to the court street police station. On being taken to the Board of Trade building the men were permitted to make arrangements for the phone for the sending of their military papers, and many were able to get free in this way. Others were freed on their producing cash bail.

Some United States citizens were apprehended, but released on promise of appearing today before the United States consul to prove their status.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH UKRAINE OPEN

Hostilities Cease on Three Fronts With Establishment of Line of Demarcation.

TO DISARM ENEMY BANDS

Trotsky Issues Peremptory Orders for Enforcement of Bolshevik Neutrality.

London, May 10.—A Russian Government wireless despatch announces peace negotiations with the Ukraine have commenced. It says that hostilities have ceased on the Voronezh, Kazak and Bransk fronts and that a line of demarcation has been established.

It is expected, says the despatch, that the Russian delegation will shortly meet the Germano-Ukrainian delegation and sign a peace. Meanwhile the Russians have established on all front defensive guards, who will not permit armed detachments to enter Russian territory.

The statement, which is signed by Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik minister of war and marine, asserts that many enemy detachments have violated the orders of the central authorities and crossed the frontiers of the Ukraine and invaded the region of the Don and Cosack. These detachments, it says, must be disarmed by the relentless use of force.

With a view to combating such bands, the Don and Kuban regions are declared to be in a state of siege. Guards will be placed at exposed points on the frontier and the military commanders made responsible for a vigilant defence. The statement says severe discipline must be maintained and that reports shall be sent to the high military council regarding obedience to these instructions as well as information concerning the movement of all bands.

The allies will gain new heart and spirit in your company, which I can shake hands with each one of you and bid you God-speed on your mission. (Signed) "George R. L."

Three days to unfold in a marvelous way, the miracle of the greening of the earth in the springtime—gold at times, with hail, but lots of rain, showers, and a few bursts of sunshine. Pasture now clothes the meadows, and the seed in the fields have sent up their slender blades to turn what was a yellow, rolled, earthy surface into a lacework of emerald, that shimmers and bends in the wind.

The buds of the earlier bushes are either burst or ready to break thru, and in a few days the green on the ground will have lodged in the trees as well. The willows are yellow-green in all their bark and limbs above the trunk.

The farmer never had a better spring for seeding, and now, pretty well thru with it, he is mending fences to turn out his sheep, cattle, horses.

But the chill of the evening air was even more impressive than the greenness of the verdure in the afternoon.

The night was clear, with the stars shining brilliantly, but there was a haze over the sea.

Under Fierce Fire. The Vendictive came under a fierce fire from the German shore batteries. She was navigated close into the pier in fine style and sunk by an internal charge. The crew escaped in fast motor boats. Only the number of officers and men absolutely necessary were on board—the ship on account of the danger of her total loss. These, however, were saved from the engine rooms and stokeholds and took their positions at stations appointed so as to sink the ship quickly into the motor boats. The small boat was fired by the heavy gunfire all the time while they were transferring the crew to waiting destroyers.

The announcement follows: "Operations designed to close the ports of Ostend and Zebrugge were successfully completed last night, when the obsolete cruiser Vendictive was sunk between the piers and across the entrance to Ostend harbor. "Since the attack on Zebrugge on April 23 the Vendictive has been filled with concrete and fitted as a block ship for this purpose. "Our light forces have returned to their base with no loss of one motor launch, which had been damaged by a mine sunk by orders of the vice-admiral to prevent it from falling into the hands of the enemy. "Our casualties were light."

PEACE DRIVE FAILS AGAINST PRESIDENT

Prof. Heron Summarily Refuses Proposal to Publish Offer.

London, May 10.—A story of how an attempted German peace offensive directed towards President Wilson was turned down ignominiously by Professor Heron, an American living in Geneva, is told by the Swiss correspondent of The Daily Mail in his dispatch dated at Annemasse, on the Franco-Swiss frontier. Professor Heron is described as a friend of President Wilson.

The German Government, according to the correspondent, tried to get peace offers sent to the president thru Professor Heron, who was visited on April 19 by Herr Quidde, of Munich, a friend of Count von Hertling, the Imperial German chancellor. Professor Heron was accompanied by the Dutch pacifist, Dr. Jong van Beek.

Professor Quidde said he had come to the way for a merciful peace and gave Professor Heron to understand that he spoke for Chancellor von Hertling and the German foreign office. He assured the American professor that the peace party in the reichstag was about to gain predominance in Germany, and that he wished to prepare President Wilson to take advantage of that auspicious moment. Germany, Professor Quidde said, was willing to make the following terms:

First—To grant autonomy to Alsace-Lorraine within the limits of the German Empire, provided the allies would not broach the subject of Alsace-Lorraine at the peace conference.

Second—The Brest-Litovsk peace treaty not to be discussed at the peace conference, although the allies might submit claims for the revision of them and Germany might make certain concessions.

Professor Heron, after listening to the German educator, exclaimed: "I wonder that you have the effrontery to ask me to lay such a rignarole of cant and deceit before the American people. Far from creating a spirit of conciliation, it would simply strengthen the American will to smash the perfidious and nefarious offer of such proposals."

Professor Quidde, adds the correspondent, left the house weeping. The next week Professor Heron was besieged by new offers by telephone, one of the speakers saying he was Dr. W. S. Solf, German Colonial Minister. Professor Heron talked straight to all of them telling them, among other things, that:

"The United States no longer wants peace. It wants to sweep out the Augean stable at Potsdam."

AUSTRIAN FINANCES IN DESPERATE WAY

Despite Warnings, Military Authorities Squander Money Recklessly.

London, May 10.—Vienna newspapers represent the financial as well as the political situation in Austria as being most desperate, says a Zurich dispatch to The Morning Post. The reichsrath, just before its adjournment, had its attention called almost peremptorily to the empire's finances. The committee for the control of the national debt reported to the lower house that not only the large indebtedness of the states to the Austro-Hungarian Bank, but the frequent use made by the administration of the note-issuing bank could but arouse the gravest apprehension from financial and economic standpoints. The indebtedness to the note bank is now 1,500,000,000 kroner, it is added, and the notes in circulation have increased correspondingly. The committee complained that despite warnings from parliament the military authorities squandered money recklessly.

FIELD MARSHAL HAIG APPRECIATES GUNNERY

London, May 10.—Field Marshal Haig expresses his deep appreciation of the services of the artillery in the Somme and Lys battles. He adds that the infantry was the first to admit the inestimable value of artillery support. The British commander-in-chief is confident that the reliance of each arm upon the most whole-hearted and self-sacrificing co-operation of the other is the greatest possible assurance that all further assaults will be met and defeated.

Edinburgh, May 10.—For making speeches prejudicial to recruiting, John MacLean, consul in Glasgow of the Russian Bolsheviki Government, in the high court yesterday was sentenced to five years' penal servitude under the Defence of the Realm Act. SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 11.

After the British Battle.

Altho the anti-government forces were given a thoro licking on Thursday, they do not seem to realize it, and several newspapers profess to think that Premier Lloyd George evaded the issue. This is merely a smoke device to cover a retreat. The country as a whole has no sympathy with attacks on the government at the present time, and any man who persists in meddling with the war-machine is likely to suffer more damage than he can easily recover from. As far as General Haig is concerned he is learning that things are not what they seem, as many a better man has learned before him. There will be general respect that a distinguished officer should not forget himself and his nation as to make such a false step. There is only one explanation, and it is applicable to many other incidents in public life—he allowed personal feeling to obscure his cool judgment. Lord Hugh Cecil is evidently suffering from rancor, and while Mr. Asquith took care to explain that he did not wish to harm the government unless the bomb went off, he never would have thrown the bomb if he had been wise enough to get all the facts before he made a public statement about them. Mark Twain's advice should never be forgotten: "First get your facts. Then you can distort them as you please." The absence of facts was what put Mr. Asquith and his supporters in the unenviable position they found themselves in after the premier's speech.

It was on Tuesday that General Maunier's letter appeared, and the whole incident was over on Thursday evening, so rapidly do events move in these days. In this electric atmosphere it is well to be prepared for rapid developments. Premier Lloyd George said that what was probably the biggest effort of the German army was now in preparation. There is confidence among the allies that the attack, on whatever scale it may be launched, will meet the same fate as the previous ones. Germany knows that she must win the war this year before the full strength of the United States overwhelms her next year. If her next offensive is a failure nothing will remain to her but to sue for peace, or retreat behind the Rhine and fight on the defensive.

This would be an equivalent of admitting defeat and would involve a settlement with the German army and the German people who are the leaser and the junkers are anxious to avoid. The want of food is a condition which admits of no palliation. While the people starve victories and advances comfort them not. Once it gets home to the German nation that the Kaiser and his staff are the cause of all their woes, the situation in Russia will be as Eden in comparison with Germany. Hindenburg and Ludendorff are in a quandary over the western situation. They dare not retreat and they dare not go forward. But it seems safer to go on than to go back, and so a further offensive is contemplated. But it will have to be much better organized than the last to achieve any effective result.

Holland and the Submarines.
Germany's relations with the neutral nations will continue to be a matter of vital interest to the little powers of Europe till the war ends. It is difficult to believe that the Germans with all their ineptitude compiled the statement that is being circulated in Spain telling the number of watches, pieces of underwear and other articles they stole, the four cathedrals they destroyed and eight others rendered unrecognizable, besides scores of churches they have ruined. If Lord Northcliffe is really busy on an active propaganda campaign this is the sort of thing that might be regarded as effective. And yet the Germans may have been capable of just such folly. They are so readily scared themselves they think everyone else about succumb with fright at the recital of their brutal acts. They have an exceedingly active propaganda in Spain, and one which has been influential in politics. The reason is not far to seek. If France were conquered Spain would be the next victim, and it could be managed easily by previous preparation so much the better. The objective is, of course, Gibraltar. If Germany had Spain it would be easy to subdue Gibraltar with the heavy artillery Bertha Krupp supplies. At least so the Germans think.

Holland is the other little nation immediately under inspection. Germany is likely to come to a crisis with Holland this week as a result of the blocking of the Ostend harbor. Zeebrugge and Ostend were the two outlets in the west for the German submarines. With these stopped Germany must use her own ports 200 miles further east for a base. The alternative is to come down the Scheldt, which is Holland's waterway, and neutral, and a violation of which would be an act of war. If Holland acquiesced in the violation that would constitute an act of war against the allies. So Holland is naturally uneasy, and none the less so because Germany is in desperate straits, and liable to do anything that might seem to offer an advantage.

This is obvious from such incidents as the despatch of a Dutch peace emissary to England, and of another, as the English to Genoa, with the hope of transmitting a message thru Prof. Heron to President Wilson. Dr. Heron will be remembered as the author of "Caesar or Christ?" which made a great impression 20 years ago, and more recently his book on the war had a vital note in it. Prof. Quiddle, the Potsdam emissary, had a list of heads-I-win-tails-you-lose proposals, and Dr. Heron told him they were a "rigmarole of cant and deceit," whereupon the Potsdam professor made his exit weeping.

The blocking of Ostend is a serious blow to the German submarine campaign and will almost certainly raise the question of the navigation of the Scheldt. Holland has her own problem to settle. If "Dutch William" had the settlement of the matter there is no doubt about what side he would be on and what action he would take. Queen Wilhelmina has a German consort and must be sorely perplexed. The next few days will not diminish her perplexities.

North End Dogs.

That complaint about dogs in North Toronto ransacking the garbage cans and scattering the contents over lawns and flower beds as well as in back lanes is not an imaginary one. In Britain they are reducing the canine population, as it is estimated the food they consume would supply a population of half a million people. We presume the dogs of North Toronto are a self-supporting tribe, and make no demands on the food controller. If they do they are not satisfied with the home ration.

Dogs of all kinds, collies, fox terriers, nondescripts, mongrels, trot around on regular routes every day, not being able, apparently, to distinguish garbage collection days from other days. Everybody appreciates the fidelity of the dog, of course, and its intelligence and its docility, and all its other virtues. But the people who maintain dogs should do it in a complete if not generous fashion, and not compel the dogs to graze on the neighbors' garbage cans. Failing this, they might train the dogs to eat out of the garbage cans in a genteel way with good table manners, and not to litter the lawns with the remains and scraps that are rejected.

Municipal Chapter Discusses Billings for National Chapter

At the meeting of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Sherbourne House Club, Mrs. Angus MacMurphy was in the chair, and the principal discussion was Rose Day, which is arranged to take place on June 20, and the arrangements for billings the delegates to the annual meeting of the National Chapter, to be held shortly in Toronto. Dr. Steele was present and explained the objects and methods of the registration of man and woman power. Many cards were taken by those present as a guarantee of giving assistance. An object of great interest to the meeting were the plans for the new wing of the creventorium, which were shown to the gathering by Col. A. E. Gooderham. The work will be begun in the near future.

CANDLERS HAVE LONG HOURS.
The officials of Gunns, Limited, stated yesterday that egg candlers could make about $20 a week working from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., with Saturday afternoon off. One could not, they said, become an egg candler in a month or two. It would be necessary to train for at least a year. So far as they knew there were only two or three places affected by the grievances of the men, and Gunns, Limited, was not one of them.

BOOKS FOR RED TRIANGLE.

The board of management of the Toronto Public Library held its regular meeting in the board room yesterday and heard the reports of committees, after which it was decided to transfer the books which have been used to form a library for the soldiers at the Exhibition Camp, to the Triangle Club, where a similar library will be conducted.

DEPUTATION COMES TO SEE WAR WORK

Parties From Toledo and Cleveland to Inquire Into Canadian Methods.

Believing that their country, which has been a year at war, can learn some things from this country, which has been in the same war nearly four years, a body of representative men from Toledo, Ohio, will reach Toronto this morning to confer with those who have had the longer experience on the subject of reclaiming the returned soldier.

The advance guard of this delegation which will number about 25, consists of two prominent citizens of Toledo, A. R. Fernald, who was a director of the speaker's committee, and B. C. Bowen, vice-chairman of the executive committee of Toledo during the recent Liberty Loan drive. After a talk with these delegates, the delegation will be reached that if they have come over to learn, the exchange of ideas will be of mutual benefit.

"We are in the position Canada was three years ago," said Mr. Fernald, last night. "We are here to learn. There is one big thing in regard to the coming back of the wounded men we've got to give them the best and wisest treatment and we are looking around to find it."

ZEEBRUGGE BOMBED.

Strong Allied Flying Forces Attack Mole and Submarine Base.

Amsterdam, May 10.—Strong allied flying squadrons bombed the Mole and the Village of Zeebrugge, the German submarine base on the Belgian coast, at noon, and in the evening. Thursday. No military damage was done according to an official statement issued in Berlin. Two of the hostile airplanes were shot down by German airmen.

FRANCO-BRITISH AID PRESENTS THREE PLAYS

Under the auspices of the Franco-British Aid Society, the entire corral received splendid demonstration at the Royal Alexandra Theatre yesterday when the matinee offerings were a trio of plays, two in French and one in English, all three the productions of writers of La Belle France.

A prologue written by Prof. D. R. Keyes and spoken by Emma Scott Naamith, was given before each of the acts.

In Act III, Scene V, of "L'Avare," by Moliere, the part of Harpagon, the miser, was admirably taken by Henri B. Smith, the humorous role of Maître Jacques the cook, was assigned to Ernest Godin with J. B. Wallace playing the part of Valere, fiance to Harpagon's daughter. The costumes and vivacity of the players made the opening act a decided success.

The second offering was "The Bishop's Candlesticks," from Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables." In this the leading role was taken by Farnum Barton, whose exquisite work as the aesthetic and golden-hearted bishop was of a very high order. Eugene Beaupre was a rugged and forceful Jean Valjean, true to type, his work good throughout, and Miss Topley Thomas, as the loquacious housekeeper of the bishop, and Miss Dorothy Taylor as Mile. Baptistine, the dainty sister of Monsignor, were good support.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Charged with the theft of a number of articles from the Canadian Express Company, Benjamin Benjamin, 3 Manchester avenue, was arrested by Detective Cronin. The police say that Benjamin worked with several other men who were arrested recently for a similar offense.

BENCH WARRANT ISSUED.

David Kizminsky was not present when his name was called in the county criminal court before Judge Winchester yesterday on a serious charge, so a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. He is out on bail of $1000, which was estimated.

LONG WAY AHEAD OF ITS OBJECTIVE

Three Quarters of a Million for Red Triangle Over Aim.

Canada's objective of $2,250,000 in the Red Triangle drive was passed by over three-quarters of a million. The figures, as yet incomplete, show that in the three days $2,077,883 was collected, made up as follows:

General subscriptions, including grants, $3,008,613. The special fund, collected by the students of the universities of Canada, which is earmarked for the Y.M.C.A. work among the prisoners of war, amounted to $10,500. The Earn and Give campaign, the reports of which are still very incomplete, realized $28,170, which the boys of Canada will earn and contribute for the Red Triangle work.

In the whole of Canada only two provinces have so far failed to reach their objective. British Columbia, with $100,000 to raise, has reported only $27,500. Prince Edward Island, where $25,000 was aimed at, had $11,500 last night, but it is explained that the condition of the roads in that province is such that a number of days must elapse before complete returns can be compiled.

G. A. Warburton, national director of the campaign, in announcing the successful conclusion last night, said: "The press of Canada has been our chief ally in making the Red Triangle visible and appealing, and we are very grateful."

MORE FOOD DESTROYED.

Geo. Wilson, street commissioner, reported yesterday the destruction of nearly 11,000 pounds of food at the city destructor and at the incinerator. Eight thousand pounds of carrots and 3000 pounds of apples were among the foods destroyed.

MAY RETURN LIQUOR.

Liquor which the express companies failed to deliver prior to May 1 and which was torped in shipment, will be returned to the vendors, according to J. D. Flavell, chairman of the Ontario License Board.

BACK UP, YOU INSECT, OR YOU'LL GET STEPPED ON

THE WOMAN WHO CHANGED

BY JANE PHELPS

Plans for David's Entertainment.
CHAPTER LXXXVIII.
Fussy About His Paper.
The moment I saw the newspaper I trembled. If there was one thing more than another which George was impatient, it was his paper. He always knew if it had been touched, no matter how carefully it might be redolled, and he never failed to find fault because of it.

"Not much news that I can see," David said carelessly, laying the paper down as he kissed me good morning.

"No?" George said, coldly.

"No! Won't you pay to read it!" David returned, oblivious.

"I will read it, just the same." Just then James appeared with the breakfast. I poured the coffee and commented to chat with David. But George's face wore a forbidding scowl until he had nearly finished. I made up my mind that I would have to tell David that George was peculiarly sensitive about opening his morning paper himself.

But I forgot all about it in my pleasure, as George remarked: "They tell me the play at the Academy is excellent. Shall I send you tickets for the matinee?"

"Oh, please do!" I heard Evelyn say she had heard it was good.

"Why not ask her to go with you? Call her while I am upstairs, so that I can know how many tickets to get." Evelyn was delighted, and promised to come right over and meet David. She knew he was my favorite brother, and was very anxious to see him.

So, once more, George had upset my theory that he was certainly indifferent. It was puzzling, to say the least. Just as I had made up my mind that he was cruel, unbearable, he would do something nice and I would be all set again.

But I was glad he had shown himself so gracious before David. My brother would have a good impression at the start. I never thought of the finish.

Evelyn and David made friends with each other at once. We ordered the car and took an hour's spin out into the country, then we went home with Evelyn to luncheon, and then to the matinee.

David is puzzled.

The play was delightful. We decided to walk home. It was just getting dusk, as we left Evelyn at her door. The afternoon had been cloudy, and darkness had set in very early.

"Isn't that George?" David asked in a stage whisper, as we turned the corner.

"Yes, come on," I said, taking his arm and hurrying him along. George was standing in front of Julia Colville's house, and she engaged in an animated conversation with a head-dresser, and I plotted David across the street.

"What do you mean, 'the same'?" "Why don't you want George to see us? He told you to go? Or have it. You didn't want him to know we saw him! That's it, isn't it, sis?"

It might embarrass him. He was very busy, I answered as calmly as I could. I would have avoided him, had it been in any way possible. But David had seen. Now I must quiet any suspicions he might have.

"Is he that kind?" David asked, real concern in his voice.

"What kind?" I spared for time.

"The kind of man who isn't satisfied with his wife, but wants to make love to other women, too?"

In spite of my anxiety and my hurt, I laughed. There was such real tragedy in David's voice.

"No, indeed, dear. He isn't at all that kind. It is vulgar to do such things, and George never is common."

"Well, I don't like the looks of it. Honest, don't you care, sis? If you do, and he makes you unhappy, I'll—well, I'll do something!"

Monday—David Watches His Brother-in-law.

On Parliament Hill BY TOM KING

Ottawa, May 10.—W. F. Nickle, Unionist member for Kingston, created a sensation in the house of commons tonight, in the course of a debate upon the government's bill to extend the Civil Service Act to the outside service. He declared in effect that the bill, if enacted, would be liable to deprive a member of parliament of all influence in his own riding and vest the power of appointment in a centralized ring of deputy ministers at Ottawa.

Mr. Nickle, however, was not thru with the matter. He took advantage of the debate tonight to tell the government what he thought of it. He warned them that he was giving them independent support and would not stand for the reign of nepotism and intrigue which he thought might follow the inauguration of civil service reform.

HERE IS THE DAILY SORROWFUL TALE

Leafs One Run Down to Bingos—Boots Galore the Feature.

Binghamton, N.Y., May 10.—Binghamton took the entire series from Toronto by winning today's game here by the score of 5 to 4. Rain preceded the game and made the ball wet and difficult to handle. Frequent errors by both sides and wild throws made the score large, and both sides hit hard. Four three-base hits and two two-baggers were on the card.

Wagner, second baseman of the Toronto team, again was the star of the game. He made some of the most impossible catches of grounders and fly balls that injured the Bingos' chances of victory. Binghamton started in early to win. The second inning two runs were made. Hartman fled out to Lied. Hanley hit to Wagner, who made an error. Haddock hit to Warhop, who made a nice stop and threw to Wagner to force Hanley at second. Attempting to get the ball one-handed Wagner muffed it, both men being safe. Frock got a two-bagger between right and centre field and Hanley and Haddock scored. Oakes hit a slow roller to Hersche, who caught Frock between second and third and then almost got Oakes between first and second, but Omslow dropped the ball. Zimmerman fled out.

Our First Score.

Toronto drew its first blood in the third. Howley hit to Hanley, who made a nice stop, but he threw wild to Shields and the Toronto manager got to second. Hersche sacrificed him to third. Lied got a clean single over second, scoring Howley. Thrasher fled out to Kay. Bailey went out. Hartman to Shields. Riley struck out. Kay got a clean three-base hit and scored on a poor throw home on the same play when Lied batted his throw to Shields. Shields fled out to Bailey. Hartman out. Toronto got another in the fifth. Lied made a two-bagger and scored on a hit by Omslow. The sixth inning was Toronto's big inning. Warhop fled out to Riley. Crabble swung hard twice and accidentally scratched a single past Shields. Howley hit to Hartman, who touched Crabble out and tried to complete a double by hitting to second. Hersche scored. It looked as if the Kay should have caught both balls, but evidently he misjudged them.

MAY BE PRELIMINARY O.B.A. TOURNAMENT

A general meeting of the Ontario Bowling Association was held yesterday afternoon at the Queen's Hotel, with President B. R. Farrow of Ottawa, in the chair. It was decided to name the usual week for the annual tournament at the Queen's Royal, Niagara-on-the-Lake, beginning Monday, July 8.

On the suggestion of R. T. McLean, the indefatigable worker for the tournament, a committee was appointed to consider the advisability of giving a tournament the week previous, beginning on Dominion Day, for local clubs, including Niagara-on-the-Lake, Niagara Falls, St. Catharines, Welland and Buffalo.

The committee was named as follows: Windsor Baker, Balmy Beach; R. T. McLean, Queen City; Joseph Burns, Niagara Falls, and W. Hodgins, St. Catharines.

If these gentlemen find it advisable the O.B.A. will donate the prizes for whatever competitions are decided upon. The preliminary tournaments would have the additional effect of working the greens into condition for the championship.

AT DUNNVILLE TO MEET A STRONG CLUB

Leafs Will Find a Peck of Trouble in Baltimore. Thinks Ida.

By Ida L. Webster.

We owe Mr. Bailey, the ex-Stallingite, an apology, for even imagining that he had given up his heretofore position of joining the Leafs, but there have been so many "intentions" which failed to materialize that our mistake was quite justifiable. It is still a matter of conjecture why the delay of his reporting, but no doubt the reason, if one knew it, would be more than sufficient. Howley played him in the field for a start, but his official position, we understood, was to be more of a spectator. There will relieve Hersche and give him a chance to get into the box.

No one can deny the fact that the home of the Bingos is strong on celebrations, in fact, the folks seem to be eagerly awaiting a cause for a celebration, and more power to them. There are two outstanding features to date about Binghamton, which have been repeated three score times within the week. The first is, that they have a splendid diamond, which is a very close second to the Toronto park, and on which in a day or two they are supposed to be playing at the park on the opening day, and 1000 people are expected to be there. Neither of these big attractions is to be sneezed at, but it is getting to the point where one longs to hear something else about Binghamton. So far no one has thought of mentioning just what kind of a club is sheltered there, but do not put their faith in box scores if they probably have fans or supporters. It is able to glean that from the official box score. However, for the few who do not put their faith in box scores it would be mighty nice to have someone, anyone for that matter, loosen up as to the players' names.

John Always Has One.

At the Baltimore stop there can be no doubt as to the calibre of the players. Dunn has found time to get a club together, which is almost the pick of the league, but then it is not unusual for him to get the best of the material, in fact, the sales from that club to the majors each season is considerable. Dunn gets his players from all over the place. Where, how, or when he gets them is a mystery. He is supposed to have no reason to be surprised if he knocked out one every time he goes up. The rest of Dunn's line-up may be recalled upon to "the" fans or merely so.

Arthur Irwin has gathered a nice bunch of players in Rochester, and it is to be hoped that he will receive better support from the fans than that accorded the club last season. There were days when Irwin's sales from that club were big. "Gate" in that city, and naturally such lack of enthusiasm takes the heart out of the manager. Mr. Irwin is probably better versed in the game of baseball than any other manager in the league, but then he has grown up with the game, and has seen it in all its various stages. His association with money and winners makes him a broadened mind, and then Dunn's troubles help him out, until he has gained a reputation of being one of the best "fixers" for making money in the business. You can date the exhibition games on every available date. This is one of the surest methods of making money, and one at which he excels.

We Hope So.

However, charity begins at home, and before all the luck is dispensed with, it would be well to put in a petition for some for the Leafs. Led is showing himself off to good advantage, and this every day is getting a couple of hits in his centre fielder, in fact the club in batting average, which should spur the other warriors on to action. Mr. McCaffery's back in the city, and he is extremely busy setting on the track of new players. There will no doubt be some result of his efforts within the next few days, and then Dunn's troubles will be over—at least for a time.

Just one run beat the heroes again yesterday, which makes the defence very hard for Dan to bear, but it proves that his boys are working madly to win, and with a little luck they might be able to bag a couple of games, but with neither luck nor sufficient players it is certainly a tough life.

FOALED TRIPLETS

Lexington, Ky., May 10.—Breck-enridge Viley, master of the Stonewall Stud in Woodford County, has reported that Early Love (dam of Warsaw and Lucile B. L.), has foaled three perfectly-developed colts by Great Britain. "I have been breeding horses for fifty years," said Mr. Viley. "But I have never heard of another delivery of triplets from a mare. This mare is owned by my brother-in-law, Charles W. Parrish of Midway. Dr. Frank Newton of Versailles was called to see the colts, and he has reported that one of which was dead and the third of which lived for about one-half hour. They were all chestnut in color."

FOOD CONTROLLER TO GIVE ADDRESS

He Will Give First-Hand Information on Conservation.

Canadian women everywhere are asking how they may help the country in the conservation of food. What they wish to have is detailed information on what foods should be conserved and what foods can be used to replace those required by our allies. Many also are asking why all this is necessary. Most of these points are to be cleared up in a talk that will be given by Henry B. Thomson, chairman of the Canada Food Board, at a monster mass meeting to be held at Massey Hall on Wednesday evening, May 15. Mr. Thomson's talk will be right to the point and bring home to Toronto people just what the needs of the country really are and how they can be of help in food conservation.

Sir John Hendrie has been requested to be chairman of the meeting and Sir Robert Falconer will introduce the speaker of the evening. In addition to the talk by Mr. Thomson two interesting moving pictures, entitled "Everybody's Business" and "Waste Not, Want Not" will be run. There will be patriotic songs by the well-known Toronto vocalist, Gladstone Brown, and music by the 48th Highlanders' Band.

This meeting offers an opportunity for everyone to secure first-hand information on a subject affecting the very existence of our people. It is felt by those who know the actual food conditions that if Canada is to be saved from bread, cards, meat cards, butter cards and other forms of compulsory rationing, concerted effort must be made now and by all to save essential foods and increase production in every possible way.

SOCIAL SERVICE STUDENTS' EXERCISES

The final exercises of the department of social service were held in Convocation Hall yesterday afternoon, at which the diplomas and certificates were awarded. President Falconer presided, and the students were presented by Professor Franklin Johnson to receive their awards. In his introductory remarks Mr. Johnson referred to the fact that all the successful candidates were not present, some having already taken positions so great was the demand for trained social workers. The Right Rev. Bishop Sweeney gave an interesting address on the value of social service. President Falconer also spoke briefly.

At the close of the ceremony a reception to the graduates, which was largely attended, was given by Mrs. Franklin Johnson and Professor Johnson in the rooms of the social service department.

WILD FLOWERS

BY Michael R. Todd, M.D.

THE WOOD DAFFODIL

Large-flowered Bellwort.

"And the wood daffodil in her gown of sheer gold, Demure in the shadows, awaits her sun king."

—The Lily Pool.

Many people love the shy wood daffodil for her sweet grace, and many for her gown of sheer gold; some declare she is indeed the queen of all our spring wild flowers here in Ontario; and all love her for her rare beauty, dainty fragrance and demure air of quiet modesty.

This week, and next, should find wood daffodil's friends on the alert to spy her pretty gown of fringed gold. Already the strange tall grey-green spears have been pushing their way up thru the moist earth, and their tiny, smooth-margined and parallel-edged leaves are just ready to unfurl from their close winding round the spear. These are lovely, so clean, so bright, and so downy on the under side. And they form such a sweet swaying protection for the hanging yellow blossom that is awaiting the sun's kiss, before she comes to life.

No one can mistake the wood daffodil if they once see the first tall, straight, grey-green spear; no one can mistake the plant when they see the lovely drooping leaves, two to four inches long, and certainly none can ever forget the blossom, hanging half-hidden among the shading leaves.

This long blossom, like a lily, is solitary, drooping very fragrant, from two to four inches long, and made up of petals and sepals together, beautifully curved at first, and twisted around each other.

The bees do love this blossom, and when, as often happens, the plant bears two blossoms, they are visited by swarms of bees and insects, who feast themselves gorgeously on the thick, sweet nectar.

There are several very interesting points to be noticed about the plant. First, take close note of the peculiar way each leaf grows all the way around the leaf stem, as if, indeed, the stem had been strung thru the blunt end of the leaf. This is one of the characteristics of this plant. No other wildflower so far mentioned possesses this peculiarity.

Then, as mentioned above, the first appearance of the plant is strange. The leaves are closely furled around the stem, which pushes itself up like a straight and stiff young spear. One or two other wild flowers, if you remember, send up the first stems thus. They, too, look like young spears—but there is no chance of confusing the bellwort with these others.

Wood daffodil loves rich, moist earth, cool shadows, and later, to open her blossoms, a warm touch of sun. Often she may be found in company with the trilliums, Solomon's seal, and the violets. She follows the footsteps of dog-toothed violet and spring beauty, and her odd spears may be seen just as trout lily and windflower are dancing their last light steps up and down the hills.

I found several unusually large specimens last Friday in the vicinity of Grenadier's Pond, and there should be some also in High Park, altho it is too bad that every year we find fewer of our old friends in this

DANGER LURKS IN EVERY ONE OF US

We Are as Full of Deadly Poisons as a Germ Laboratory.

AUTO-INTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

"Fruit-a-tives" Absolutely Prevents This Dangerous Condition.

The chief cause of poor health is our neglect of the bowels. Waste matter, instead of passing from the lower intestine regularly every day, is allowed to remain there, generating poisons which are absorbed by the blood.

In other words, a person who is habitually constipated, is poisoning himself. We know now that Auto-intoxication, due to non-action of the bowels, is directly responsible for serious Kidney and Bladder Troubles; that it upsets the Stomach, causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Sleeplessness; that chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Pain in the Back, are relieved as soon as the bowels become regular; and that Pimples, Rash, Eczema and other Skin Affections disappear when "Fruit-a-tives" are taken to correct Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tives" will protect you against Auto-intoxication because this wonderful fruit medicine acts directly on all the eliminating organs.

once favorite haunt of spring blossoms.

The bellwort family shows two other wild blossoms besides the wood daffodil, both of which are rather rare here in Ontario, but still may be watched for.

One species, the straw bell, a few days later to bloom than the wood daffodil, is almost identical with this plant in every respect save that it is much smaller, and the blossoms conform to a more rigid shape.

Rush Seats for Monday Night. A limited number of rush seats at $1 will be placed on sale on Monday evening for the big concert in Massey Hall by the four great opera singers.

Any of these artists would individually be considered ordinarily attractive enough to fill a concert hall, but when the four are brought together for one event, splendid success is assured.

Those who have not yet secured their seats should do so without delay.

Marie Cahill Coming. "Just Around the Corner," the new comedy by George V. Hobart and Herbert Hall Winslow in which Marie Cahill is to be seen comes to the Princess Theatre the week of May 20.

PLAYS PICTURES AND MUSIC.

Grand Opera Company.

The Boston English Opera Company is coming to the Princess next week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

The organization has had a most successful season, with a four months' run in Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Denver and San Francisco. The cast includes such well known artists as Joseph P. Sheehan, John W. Warren, Elaine De Sellem, Alice May Carley, Hazel Eden, Florentine St. Clair, Arthur Deane and Francis J. Tyler.

Three of the best known operas, all of them most tuneful, will be presented at the local playhouse during next week's engagement as follows: Monday and Thursday evenings "Il Trovatore"; Tuesday, Friday, Saturday evenings and Wednesday matinee, "The Bohemian Girl"; Wednesday evening and Saturday matinee, "Martha."

"The Gipsy Trail." Theatregoers will next week receive a welcome shock when they witness the performance of "The Gipsy Trail," the first stock presentation on any stage by Edward H. Robins and his Players, commencing next Monday evening at the Royal Alexandra Theatre.

"The Heart of Wexona." The famous David Belasco play, "The Heart of Wexona," comes to the Grand next week. Its freshness and royal and genuine worth commend it to every admirer of all that is good in play building.

There is nothing overdrawn, it is in every way an ideal drama and one that both sexes may enjoy without the slightest risk of being offended. "The Heart of Wexona" has been enthusiastically received everywhere. The American and Canadian press is a unit in pronouncing it not only a great play, but one of the best of our time. The company and production will be in every way worthy of the play.

Loew's Theatre. Montagu Love, June Elvidge, Arthur Ashley, Julia Dean, Irving Cummings, and Hubert Wilke are the stars heading the very remarkable cast in "Rasputin, the Black Monk," the feature photoplay of next week's offerings at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden.

"Bon Voyage," a miniature musical comedy with twelve people headed by Jimmy Glides will top the vaudeville attractions. The songs are catchy and the dialog rollickingly funny and foolish, yet entertaining. Archie Lloyd and his better half giving imitations of some of London's leading music hall entertainers, including George Lashwood, singing "The Number of the House" will be the added features.

Knapp and Cornalia, in a potpourri of vaudeville, of an unusually good routine of comedy; Donovan and Murray, in a laughable sketch entitled "In Clubland," including catchy melodies and a piano; Billy Purcell and Evelyn Ramsey, offering a classy business and a hilarious comedy sketch.

The Breakaway Barrows, in eccentric aerial and cycling specialties, are among the other features of the bill.

A third installment of the "Mutt and Jeff" comedy pictures, and Loew's

Universal topic films round off the program. The Gayety. An attraction strongly demonstrative of modern progress and broad gauged managerial policy and methods, will be noted in next week's offering at the Gayety Theatre, which is to be the 1917-18 fashion plate.

"Across the Border." The title of the satire offered by the "Rainbow Raiders" which will be the attraction of the Star next week. This satire deals with that period along the Mexican border when a different revolution was a daily occurrence, and has for its comedy vein the troubles of an Irish moving picture operator who manages to get himself in all kinds of predicaments with the ever changing governments.

Douglas Fairbanks. The ever versatile and popular Douglas Fairbanks adds another screen success to his already numerous collection in his role of "Mr. Fix-it," which will be shown at the

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength.

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by any druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Allen Theatre all next week. The action is, of course, of the whirlwind sort, one cannot imagine the agile Douglas appearing in a character calling for an exhibition of indolence and restful mood. And it is safe to prophesy that this comedy, which shows the star at his best, will create a veritable sensation among his admirers. It is a genuine rip-roaring comedy, alive with situations in which the celebrated Fairbanks' smile flashes brilliantly, while the owner thereof plays his role with magnetic dash and ginger, and keeps the audience in a perpetual gale of laughter thru every reel, scoring a tremendous hit.

Chaplin at the Regent. The place to see Charlie Chaplin next week is at the Regent Theatre. The world's most popular comedian will be here all week in his first picture for eight months—"A Dog's Life"—and it is a laugh from beginning to end. One can hardly conceive of the fun Charlie and his dawg put into this film until it is seen and enjoyed. In addition to this splendid joy-producer, there will be the charming Bessie Barriscale in a new and thrilling story, "Blindfolded," and the Regent Symphony Orchestra will be heard in an appropriate program.

Chaplin at Strand. For the whole of this week Charlie Chaplin in his new $100,000 comedy, "A Dog's Life," will be presented at the Strand Theatre. The theatre will open each day at eleven, and the Chaplin film will be shown at 11.15, 1.15, 3.10, 5.10, 6.55, 8.45 and 10.25 daily. Chaplin has extended himself to the utmost of his ability in this picture, with the result that he has produced a swift-moving vehicle filled with rapid-fire comedy situations, with added touches of pathos, creating a wholesome and human, and surely the funniest story in the world. The bill will also contain the splendid five-act Metro production, "The Shell Game," with delightful comedy written in the principal part. This is a picture which affords a magnificent vehicle for the favorite artist.

Louise Glum at Madison. Louise Glum, who will be seen next week at the Madison Theatre in "An Alien Enemy," has few equals among screen artists in the capacity for emotional acting. The photodrama has a plot of concentrated strength with elements of international intrigue running thru it.

"Mister Antonio." Otis Skinner, the greatest of American actors, plays the role of an Italian organ grinder in "Mister Antonio," the Booth Tarkenton comedy which comes to the Princess Theatre the week of May 27.

Thomas Wise Coming. The biggest theatrical event of the season was consummated last week by Edward H. Robins, owner of the Robins Players, when he secured the signature of Thomas Wise to a contract whereby Mr. Wise is to appear under the management of Mr. Robins this coming season in a brand new play built around the history of one of America's greatest showmen, P. T. Barnum. The play, which is a comedy from the joint pens of Harrison Rhodes and Thos. Wise, will have its first production on any stage with the local company at the Royal Alexandra Theatre. Miss Frances Neilson will reappear with the company in this comedy.

"Mrs. Wiggs' Optimism." Theatregoers will be pleased to learn that "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is coming back, the splendid revival of this famous play, founded on Alice Hegan Rice's stories, meeting with liberal patronage everywhere. All the quaint characters of the book are found in the play, and Mrs. Wiggs' optimism, expressed in her own peculiar way, will cheer you up in these times of stress and trouble. The sale of seats opens Monday morning.

Hints for Back-Yarders Vacant Lots Cultivation

A rule is noticeably persistent for several years. On soils which are deficient in lime, a satisfactory growth of clover will be encouraged by an application of, say, two tons of ground limestone per acre.

MANURIAL VALUE OF PLOWED CLOVER Large Root System of Clover Affects Lower Soil Layers.

The amount of semi-decomposed vegetable matter or humus present in our cultivated soils stands in an intimate relation to their productive capacity. Humus not only fulfills the mechanical function of rendering soils porous and more retentive of moisture, but it furnishes also the essential medium for the activities of the bacteria which liberates plant food in the soil.

NITROGEN FROM AIR Plant Food Thus Brought to Soil From Above and Below.

(Experimental Farms Note). The amount of semi-decomposed vegetable matter or humus present in our cultivated soils stands in an intimate relation to their productive capacity. Humus not only fulfills the mechanical function of rendering soils porous and more retentive of moisture, but it furnishes also the essential medium for the activities of the bacteria which liberates plant food in the soil.

POINTS TO REMEMBER FOR GARDENERS IN MAY Tomato Plants and Tender Seedlings Should Not Be Planted Too Early.

This is a critical month for the gardener. Should the early days of the month be mild, with the ground in a warm, moist condition, we may be inclined to rush out many subjects which otherwise would be safer in the frame till after the middle of the month.

WAR GARDEN Bulletin.

THE GARDEN TRENCHES. To sow a row of seed quickly, evenly and thinly requires care and practice. The beginner is very apt to be prodigal in his use of seed and to sow indiscriminately. This not only entails waste but causes overcrowding and corresponding injury to the plants.

ROOSTER IS FOUNDATION FOR DELICIOUS SALAD

It is good farm economy to eat the rooster. For roasting, of course, the chicken makes a good fat hen, but for chicken dishes that call for slow cooking like the rooster goes into the pot. He is full of meat and flavor, nutritious and easy to digest.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

If onions are put in water and allowed to stand overnight before peeling, they will not smart the eyes. Old magazines or catalogs are fine for cleaning iron. Protect your polished floors by pasting small pieces of felt on the legs of your chairs.

EARLY POTATOES.

Potatoes can be procured from 2 to 3 weeks earlier than normal by placing the seed potatoes in the full sunlight about a month before they are to be planted. This is called "early potatoes" and they are very dark green sprouts that are very early.

FARMING AND AMATEUR GARDENING

HATCH CHICKS EARLY AND FEED WITH CARE

The aim this year should be to make everything count. Make every hen lay her best, make every chick mature early enough so they may be ready to lay or to fatten by the maximum returns.

WHOLESALE FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

Pineapples—Pineapples have again advanced in price, the latest arrivals selling at $4.50 per case. Spinach—Canadian spinach is beginning to come in. White & Co., Ltd., had a heavy shipment of the ordinary variety from Titterton Bros., St. Catharines, which sold at $1.75 to $2 per hamper.

TO GET BEST RESULTS FOOD MUST HAVE BULK

Necessary to Keep More Concentrated Feeds From Causing Constipation in Fowls. To obtain best results in feeding poultry the food must contain a certain amount of bulk. Bulky feed is necessary to keep the more concentrated feeds from causing constipation in the fowls, and will help generally in keeping the mass of undigested feed porous, so the digestive juices can act upon it.

KILL AND EAT OR HENS THAT DO NOT LAY

It is Economic Waste to Feed Fowl Which Do Not Lay. Saw poultry feed by killing and eating or culling all fowls as soon as they cease to lay. The food controller will not object, as home consumption of fowls in this way is not forbidden.

SAGE TEA RETURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Color, Lustre and Youthfulness to Hair When Faded, Strreaked or Gray. That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

GRASS OR CULTIVATE?

Apple orchards kept in grass mulch return a better profit than trees returned with annual tillage and cover crops in tests conducted at the Ohio Experimental Station. The mulched trees yielded more fruit at less expense for their care.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

When sewing on silk and satin, use fine needles in place of silk and satin. Use fine needles in place of pins to fasten material to the work. Don't bathe with sewing silk instead of thread. They will avoid large pinholes and marks of basting.

How to Treat the Egg-Eater. Egg eating is said to be acquired usually by idle fowls kept in covered runs. It is usually caused by the fowls being open to the light. Keep the fowls busy and well fed; do not overwater; provide clean water; and see that the nest is kept clean.
