VACANT LAND IS IN GREAT DEMAND

Shortage of Houses Given as Reason for the Activity.

A recent development in the real estate situation is the revival of interest in vacant land, especially in properties fairly convenient to car lines. The activity of the market for houses is showing no abatement even in the middle of the holiday season with thousands of people out of town, and this midsummer rush convinces real estate dealers that the fall is going to witness a scramble for houses such as the city has not before witnessed.

Speaking to The World Saturday R. H. Williams said that while building is fairly brisk it no more than equals the normal demand and the old prospect of being wiped out. There are practically no houses to rent at any figure and consequently many people are out to buy houses who have in the past been regular renters. Business property is moving very slowly just now, declared Mr. Williams. Mr. Clapp, of C. R. Clapp & Co., sees no prospect of early relief for the housing situation. Houses, especially of the better class, are simply not being built, and while builders are waiting for material to drop in price the market for good homes in Rosedale, on the Avenue road hill, High Park and elsewhere is steadily advancing. He predicts an unprecedented move in the house market during the coming fall. F. B. Robins, of Robins Limited, said that the high tax rate ruling in the city had caused a moderate rush for lots just outside the limits. He believed that for every lot sold in the city in the month of July five lots were sold outside. The demand was especially noticeable in the Danforth and New Toronto sections. More property, he said, had changed hands in these districts in the last few months than in years before. The vacant land market, says Mr. Robins, is shackled by the lack of needed civic lines, a lack that even the unusual demand for new homes is not sufficient to overcome. "A couple of real business men," he declared, "would clean up that north Toronto situation in half an hour, and a private concern could lay down a car line on Mount Pleasant road and have a service there in 60 days, or about the time it is taking the city hall people to get out plans, if they do it in that time. In big cities where they do things, lines are ready when the people need them, but in Toronto a district must be thickly settled before it has any chance for a car service. It looks to me as if the crowd in the city hall are determined to let North Toronto walk or bounce over unpaved roads."

AND STILL IT COMES

Provincial Inspector A. E. Sarvis made a large seizure of liquor in the station yard at about 1 o'clock Saturday morning, coming into Toronto from the east. The inspector observed a leakage in one of the freight cars, and his suspicions were aroused. A search was instituted, and a seizure of 18 cases of liquor and about 100 gallons were made.

DEATH FROM ASPHIXIATION.

Edgar Fletcher, 48 years of age, was found dead in his room at 831 Balm avenue Saturday morning. The room was filled with gas and the burners on the jet were wide open. Mrs. Fletcher said her husband died when the door of the room was forced open. Fletcher recently returned from overseas. There will not be an inquest

FOUR ARRESTS MADE OVER SOLDIER'S DEATH

Following Norman Lavoie's Death From Injuries, Police Take Action.

Four arrests were made Saturday afternoon in connection with the death of Norman Francis Lavoie, returned soldier, of 221 Broadview avenue. Lavoie died early Saturday morning in St. Michael's Hospital from blood poisoning, which developed from injuries received during a fight on Empire avenue. Mrs. Julius Kennedy, 5 Empire avenue, and her two sons, George and Percy, are held as material witnesses, as is Arthur Daulty.

Statements from all four were taken at headquarters, and, alleging that conflicting stories were told by the prisoners, Assistant Inspector of Detectives Wallace stated that all would be held until after the inquest is held. The inspector is of the opinion that Lavoie was injured in a drunken brawl in the Empire avenue house last Sunday night. Coroner J. W. McCallum held a preliminary hearing of the inquest at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the morgue. After the jury had been empaneled and the body of Lavoie viewed the investigation was enlarged.

Further developments are expected, but the police believe that no serious charges will be laid until the result of the post mortem examination is given at the inquest. It now appears that a party was given Saturday night and there had been much drinking going on in the house. Some of those who attended the party say that Lavoie received his injuries when he fell from a street car on his way home.

Further information gathered by Detective Sergeants Mitchell, Wickett, Crowe and Winters, showed that Lavoie was found crawling on his hands and knees Sunday night near a coal yard on East Queen street by George Platt, 153 Booth avenue. He was taken home and had the wound in his head bathed. During the week his condition kept getting more serious until he was removed to St. Michael's Hospital, where he died early Saturday morning without being able to give the police a statement. Lavoie's funeral will take place from his parents' residence, 221 Broadview avenue, to St. Ann's Church tomorrow at 8.30 a.m., and thence to Mount Hope Cemetery.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS.

Albert James Brown of the firm of Brown Brothers, butchers, who died in Toronto on July 22, left an estate valued at $11,100, which he bequeathed entirely to his widow and sixteen-year-old daughter.

Robert Beggs, a hvyerman at Mountain, Dundas county, who died at Swatmore, Sask., left an estate valued at $15,026, which he left to his wife and children, all of whom reside in Saskatchewan. Daniel Mahoney, who died in the General Hospital, Vancouver, on January 1, left an estate valued at $9,329, which he left to his mother and brother, both of whom live in Ireland.

KILLED BY ELEVATOR.

Pietro Glasco, aged 24, 78 Walton street, was crushed to death in an elevator accident Saturday morning while working in a building in the course of erection on Teroulay street. The police stated that Glasco was attempting to board a moving freight elevator when he lost his footing and was crushed between the platform of the hoist and the floor above. The body was removed to the morgue and an inquest will be held.

HUTTERITES CONTINUE TO POUR INTO WEST

Thousands of Acres of Land Taken Up by Them in Manitoba.

Winnipeg, Aug. 3.—The Manitoba Free Press this morning publishes a letter from H. Gerald Wade, J. P., which states that Hutterites are still coming into Canada. In part the letter says: The Hutterites at Elie are still coming into Manitoba. Twenty families are expected within the next few days. Thursday two carloads of settlers' effects are to be seen at the siding at Elie station. Mr. Wade adds that he has it on good authority that in the next few days, unless some speedy action is taken, 4,000 more acres of some of the finest land in Manitoba will pass into the hands of the Hutterites.

FATHER WAS REMOVED.

In the woman's police court Saturday morning, Andy Galloway was remanded in custody until next Wednesday by Magistrate Cohen, on a charge of assaulting and beating his 16-year-old daughter. The young girl testified that her father came home Friday night under the influence of liquor and ordering her to be struck her, blackening her eye. The girl fainted and was found by neighbors.

NEW BRIDGE OPENED OVER MIMICO CREEK

At noon on Saturday the new bridge over the Mimico creek on the Toronto-Hamilton highway was opened. There was no ceremony of any description in connection with the opening, the chief engineer, S. A. Cummingford, was present when the bars were let down opening the bridge to general traffic. Motorists will now be able to get thru to the west without the delays that have been common at the creek during the heavy traffic hours. The York county highways commission has arranged that all main roads in the county will be open on Sunday and Monday to accommodate heavy traffic over the week-end. The Toronto-Hamilton highway will be open throughout the entire length, and the work is still underway on the Burlington Beach road it will be open for traffic. Motorists are advised by the Ontario Motor League to take the Galt road from Hamilton to London and that from Orillia to Midland, the Moonstone road is the best one.

S. O. E. IN GUELPH HONOR WAR HEROES

Impressive Ceremony When Handsome Granite Monument is Unveiled.

Special to The Toronto World. Guelph, Ont., Aug. 3.—The first memorial to be erected in Guelph in memory of the men who sacrificed their lives during the late war was unveiled here this afternoon at the Guelph cemetery. It was a beautiful monument erected by the members of Royal City Lodge, No. 73, Sons of England, to perpetuate the death of six of their brethren. The monument is a very handsome granite one, standing about nine feet high, surmounted by a British lion. On the side are the names of the six men—Pte. William Edwards, Pte. Charles A. Lovering, Sgt.-Major Alfred J. Jolley, Pte. John Lovering, Pte. Le Bedford and Pte. Ernest Colley.

A parade was formed up at St. George's square and led by the Salvation Army band proceeded to the cemetery. In the parade were D. J. Proctor, supreme president of the Sons of England; George R. Price, D.D.G.M.; Rev. Canon Davidson of Regina, A. V. Lodge; Major J. E. Carter, members of the city council and relatives of the deceased soldiers. Then followed the members of local visiting lodges, the G.W.V.A., Salvation Army, the Elora and the Guelph Musical Society band. At the cemetery an immense crowd of people had gathered and the ceremony proved to be most beautiful and impressive. Short addresses were delivered by President Gumbley, D. J. Proctor, who unveiled the monument, Rev. Canon Davidson, Ven. Archdeacon Mackintosh and Mayor Carter.

SOLDIER BALL PLAYER CALLED BY DEATH

The death has taken place at his home, 256 East Dundas crescent, of Kenneth D. Rogers, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Harold Cascard. Deceased, who was 26 years of age, went overseas with the 1st Canadian contingent in 1914, being with the Army Medical Corps. He was four years and three months overseas. He was a cousin of Colonel Bart Rogers. Deceased was a great baseball enthusiast and pitched at Lords, London, in 1917, for the Astoria, who won the championship. He had a fine silver cup. Lady Astor gave him as a memento. He also played for the Toronto Veterans baseball team.

Three weeks ago Mr. Rogers took ill and on Saturday succumbed to pneumonia. While overseas his health was undermined and that was a contributory cause. Deceased was employed in the registration department of the postoffice. The interment takes place at Mount Pleasant cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

G. W. V. A. JOURNAL SOON TO APPEAR

Ed. Stephenson of Scarborough G.W.V.A. will be the editor of the first provincial G.W.V.A. Journal yet published in Ontario. It was stated last night that the new Journal would be on the streets within the next two weeks, and that it would express vigorously the sentiments of a large percentage of the association membership in Ontario. This is but another of the activities for which Scarborough G.W.V.A. is becoming noted in the field of veterans' activities.

WORKED HARD AT PICNIC

Among those who were responsible largely for the great success of the Riverdale G.W.V.A. picnic on Saturday was Vice-President A. Jennings of the association, who worked hard for the picnic. Mrs. Kirby of the Riverdale Auxiliary and F. J. Smith were also in the thick of the innumerable details connected with the occasion.

MILITARY FUNERAL

The funeral of Sapper Norman Francis Lavie, 231 Broadview avenue, who met with a tragic death on Saturday morning, will take place with full military honors at nine o'clock Tuesday morning. The Great War Veterans of Riverdale will conduct the funeral arrangements. The place of interment will be Mount Hope cemetery. Rev. Father O'Donnell, of St. Ann's Church East Gerrard street, will officiate.

TO THE VETERANS ON NICKEL

From an argumentative point of view the reply of The Globe on the nickel scandal as published on Saturday was not worth the proverbial cent, let alone a nickel. As an admission of weakness it was a perfect masterpiece.

The Globe evaded the main issue, and for the simple reason no doubt that it has traversed the real facts would have been diametrically opposed to its characteristic policy. To have come out in the open would have been far worse than "crossing the floor."

This it would have been inconsistent with The Globe's previous unpatriotic attitude on the nickel question to publish the official statement made in the British House of Commons or to so much as mention in passing even what Attorney-General Palmer of the Wilson cabinet said concerning Capt. De Lamar and German firms controlling the metal business.

The Globe did display one bit of ingenuity, and that was in opening its "reply" by publishing the Great War Veterans' resolution which calls upon Sir Robert Borden and Sir William Hearst to show cause for the negligence which permitted Canadian nickel finding its way into Germany. One would have imagined on starting to read The Globe editorial that an entirely new subject was being discussed—something of which it had never heard before! Accustomed to preaching a sermon occasionally sandwiched among political clap trap The Globe is at home with texts. Consequently the G. W. V. resolution was used as a text with a view to throwing dust in the eyes of a wide-awake public.

Having got the resolution off its more or less many chest, The Globe proceeds to insult the veterans by remarking, "That there is so much VAGUE unrest among them that the Government should at once order a public inquiry of the most searching description." If the unrest is as vague as The Globe would have us believe, why have an inquiry at all? As a matter of fact there is nothing vague about what the veterans have to say. They are armed with the truth. The Globe is merely taking cover, and it is rather surprising that, like The Telegram, it did not take refuge armed with a Ross rifle.

Having conceded the necessity for an inquiry, no matter how "vague" the basis may be, the dear, good Globe proceeds to metaphorically mop the floor with the naughty World for bringing such an important public question so prominently forward. The Melinda street model of journalistic propriety declares "It is not in the interest of domestic peace that The Toronto World should continue to print items such as this." Then follows The World's now well-known quotation referring to Captain De Lamar and his activities.

It is the domestic peace which is likely to be

SEEKING TO TRACE ALL MISSING MEN

Records Offices of Overseas Forces Are Making Last Grand Tally.

London, Aug. 3.—Records offices in London of the various overseas forces are making their last grand tally and trying to trace every man who has appeared on their books. Up to the present time about 7000, or about one per cent. of the total, cannot be accounted for. Not all these men are considered to be definitely lost. Some have gone on furlough and accepted work when the formalities of communicating with the authorities; others have married and settled down in preference to returning to camp and following the color of their own noses, many of whom will trickle back.

The South Africans have but 25 absentees, every other man of the 25,000 who came over being accounted for. The New Zealanders are 300 short. Most of the missing are Australians and Canadians, and it will take a long time for the military police to round them up and shepherd them into concentration camps. Some of the advertisements warning these men to return by a certain date unless they wish to forego their gratuity and free passage home.

LUDELDORFF DENIES STAFF WAS NERVOUS

Takes Sharp Exception to Many Statements Made in German White Book.

Berlin, Aug. 3.—Gen. Ludendorff takes sharp exception to many statements contained in the White Book, particularly the charge that he and his staff were unreliable as a consequence of nervousness. The general declares that it is strange the members of the foreign office were so ignorant of the situation.

The second note sent by President Wilson left no doubt in his mind of the necessity for continuing the fighting, says Gen. Ludendorff. He adds that he and his staff were not at all nervous, and that it was possible to hold out or not.

Gen. Ludendorff declares further that Dr. Solf (secretary of state for colonies at the time) drew false conclusions when Dr. Solf said that he (Ludendorff) could not hold for three months, for he (Ludendorff) had prepared new positions that could have been held.

LED POLICE CHASE OVER BACK FENCES

Run to Ground at Locked Doorway—Kelly Broke Suspicious Bottle.

Chased thru Trinity square, over back fences and verandahs, Morris Kelly, 35 Wolsley street, was finally captured on Crawford street by Plainclothesman O'Driscoll, charged with a breach of the Ontario temperance act. According to the police when Kelly saw that O'Driscoll had got him, he pulled a whiskey bottle from his pocket and smashed it down on the sidewalk in hopes that the broken bottle could not be used as evidence against him.

O'Driscoll spotted Kelly walking in the direction of Crawford street with a bottle bulging out of his hip pocket. O'Driscoll looked across the street at Kelly, and Kelly started to run. Kelly cut across vacant field, scaled several fences, which took himself and O'Driscoll up and down Crawford and Shaw streets. Crawford street proved unhelpful to Kelly, and when he attempted to run thru the front door of a house he found it locked. An elderly woman sitting on the verandah became frightened at the approach of Kelly and was on the verge of collapsing when neighbors came to her assistance. When O'Driscoll caught up to Kelly, the prisoner threw the "crook" on the pavement. Pieces of the neck of the bottle, containing the government seal, were taken to Claremont street by the plainclothesman.

WOODSTOCK CITIZENS HONOR WAR HEROES

Special to The Toronto World. Woodstock, Aug. 3.—Thousands of people from all parts of Oxford county participated in the big memorial proceedings held here this afternoon in honor of the boys from this city who made the supreme sacrifice. Prior to the parade to the park, Mayor Gahagan presented the veterans with a beautiful Union Jack. The line of march of the parade was headed by the band of the Oxford Rifles, followed by the veterans of the Fenian Raid, then the members of the G.W.V.A. and the members of the public men. At the park the proceedings consisted of addresses by returned officers and clergy, selections by the band and roll call of the dead. The main address was given by Capt. D. Wallace Christie, chaplain, recently returned from overseas.

DEFINITE POLICY NEEDED IN RUSSIA

President of Northern Government Asks That Britain Announce One.

London, Aug. 3.—M. Tschekovskiy, president of the North Russian provisional government, arrived here today to confer with British officials in an effort to induce the government to announce a definite policy in North Russia. He said that the lack of a clear-cut allied policy is affecting the morale of the North Russian population and troops and preventing recruiting.

The allied force in northern Russia, M. Tschekovskiy said, "has never been sufficiently large to be of real aid in fighting the Bolsheviks. The reports that any nation is about to withdraw really does more harm than the actual withdrawal. These reports, which have been numerous the last few months, are keeping our people in constant turmoil. We are forever facing stories that the allies are abandoning the situation, and a definite policy one way or the other is what we need."

The reason given for the sealed verdict was the fact that Collette has not yet had a preliminary hearing, but it will be officially open in a few days.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4.

Ontario Conservatives Want a Convention Before the Election.

At the recent Queenston picnic Premier Hearst concluded his statement of policy with the declaration that co-operation should be the watchword of the Canadian people.

The bulk of Sir William's address was devoted to the prohibition issue and a repudiation of Mr. Dewart's policy as leader of the provincial opposition on this question.

"The prohibition question," he said, "is being submitted to the people in such a way as to permit of public opinion being freely and fairly expressed."

Under these circumstances it is not remarkable if the people of Ontario, outside the confidential circle of the political machines, find themselves at a loss to know what to do.

A National Evil Must Be Corrected by the National Government. President Wilson, his administration, including the attorney-general and a congressional committee, are grappling with the ill-absorbing problem presented by the high cost of living in the United States.

straightforward, outspoken frankness on public affairs. In opposition to this the Liberal-Conservative party in 1904, under Sir James (then Mr. J. P.) Whitney, held a convention and constructed a platform upon the embers of which Sir William Hearst, after fifteen years, is still warming himself.

It is not pleasant for Conservatives to feel that they are sitting on a volcano, which may break into eruption any day and calve their ideals.

There is not the slightest doubt in the mind of square-dealing Conservatives that a convention should be called immediately, representative of all who belong to the Liberal-Conservative party, and who wish to identify themselves with its policies.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 2.—At the final meeting of chairman of the Grain Growers' Federation, constituency executives and members of the executive of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, the following resolution was passed:

Whereas at all the constituency conventions held under the auspices of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association in no uncertain terms they have expressed in no uncertain terms their lack of faith in the existing political parties, and their conviction that it would not be possible to secure through any of them, legislation which would give effect to the new national policy laid down in the platform of the Canadian Council of Agriculture.

THIRTEEN-YEAR OUTLAW GUN-A-NOOT SURRENDERS

Most Progressive Indian of British Columbia at Vancouver to Face Consequences of Act Committed Under Tremendous Provocation.

Press despatches from Vancouver state that "Simon Gun-a-Noot, the notorious Indian outlaw and 'bad man,' has experienced a change of heart; he has given himself up, after evading the police and the white man's law for thirteen years."

More than a quarter of a century ago, Simon Gun-a-Noot listened to and weighed and pondered the message brought to his people by the priest who studied the pathetic problem of his people.

Then came the tragedy and "crime." During one of Simon's business absences from his home, that home was visited by a French-Canadian half-breed, Max Le Clair, and a trader, Alex Mackintosh, who brought with him bottles of the white man's "potium." Max sought hospitality at the home of Gun-a-Noot, and repaid that hospitality by giving liquor to Simon's young Indian wife, her ruin following fast.

Some seven years ago the word was sent to him that his presence at Hazelton was necessary in the settlement of his business affairs, particularly in connection with the sale of his milling interests.

Then came the tragedy and "crime." During one of Simon's business absences from his home, that home was visited by a French-Canadian half-
