TWO PASSENGERS HURT IN A CAR COLLISION

Bad Accident Near the Docks—Hamilton Athlete Winner of Police Games' Gold Medal.

HAMILTON, Aug. 4.—(Special).—A serious accident, in which two passengers were injured and many others given a severe shaking up, occurred on the street railway this evening, at James and Gore-streets, when a car from the shops, running right, crashed into another car standing in front of the station, jammed with passengers from the boat. The injured were Mrs. Williams, 16 Soppia-street, and Cecil Flanders, a traveler. The empty car was running at a lively clip, and the crash could be heard for blocks. The passengers were terror-stricken, but escaped with few injuries, although both cars were badly mangled. A GERMAN VIEW OF ENGLAND.

To see ourselves as others see us is usually taken to mean a disclosure not calculated to increase the bump of self-esteem. This makes the picture all the more flattering when a foreign hand finds our merits to exceed our demerits and undertakes to correct our mistaken ideas of his fellow-countrymen concerning us.

According to Herr Bleibtreu, and he ought to know whereof he speaks, the popular German view of England is much distorted. The Englishman appears as the incarnation of selfish arrogance and vainglory. Inordinately proud of a history in which his success has been largely fortuitous, a 'shop-keeper' with his eye fixed on the main chance and only now and then throwing up by some unaccountable accident a fiery genius like Shakespeare or Byron, who stands out brilliantly against a background of petty, materialistic minds, devoid of all sense of the ideal.

If Germany allowed itself to be depressed by such circumstances while England, under the most difficult conditions, struggled indefatigably upwards - an extraordinary achievement for a nation originally owing but one-eighth the population of Germany - what can this denote but a great intellectual, moral and physical superiority?

Herr Bleibtreu holds that not only on sea, but, relatively to her needs, on land as well, England is stronger and better equipped than ever before. He corrects, too, the current German notion regarding the comparative spiritual and intellectual development of the two countries and insists that there is implanted in Englishmen "a notable artistic impulse, which a certain loftiness of spirit ever tends to turn inward to the things of the soul - in a word, to poetry."

ELECTRIC COMPETITION IN BRITAIN.

Those people who concerned themselves so much over what they termed the unfairness of civic competition in the supply of electric light and power, and declared it to be opposed to British practice, may have their attention called to The Electric Lighting Acts (Amendment) Bill, now before the House of Commons Standing Committee.

Clause six of the bill as approved by the House of Lords enables an authorized distributor of electricity to supply premises beyond the authorized area if "the undertakers within whose area of supply the premises are situated are not able or willing to give a supply to the premises, and cannot

Of particular interest too is Clause 13. of the Bill, which reads as follows: "If an auditor appointed by the Board of Trade to audit the accounts of any undertakers who are not a local authority reports to the Board that the undertakers have declined or neglected to comply with any of his recommendations or requirements in so far as they relate to matters affecting the interests of the authorities empowered to purchase the undertaking, or of the consumers, the Board may, if they think fit, after giving the undertakers an opportunity of being heard, make an order directing the undertakers to comply with such recommendations and requirements with or without modification, as may be specified in the order, subject to an appeal to the Railway and Canal Commissioners, or any two of them, who shall finally decide the matter, and confirm, annul or amend the order as they think fit."

OPENING OF STAR

Two one-act musical comedies with a first-class cast will be offered. The opening entertainment will be "A Girl From Albany," in one act and three scenes. The piece is described as a riot of fun, melody and surprises. The closing number, which is called "A Texas Desperado," is equally as diverting and humorous.

Next Week at Shea's. Next week at Shea's Theatre the big bill will be headed by Cherish Simpson, the American prima donna, later star of "The Red Feather," and Gus Edwards' blonde typewriters, with Percy Chapman in the musical offering "A Pleat for One."

THROUGH KEEWATIN ROCK ASTOUNDS ENGINEERS

Astonishment Expressed at the Valuable Find Made in This Once Despised Formation.

COBALT, Aug. 3.-Casual visitors to this camp are surprised and even astonished at the surface indications. This astonishment is the result of casual observation by an eye unpractised as to mineralized formation. They see the silver and that is all-sufficient. The next observation is the stock market quotations.

The experienced engineer has also been astonished and they that came to scoff at Keewatin remained to gaze, as it were. Keewatin, like most other formations, has been taboed in its day.

What is Keewatin? To the lay mind, Keewatin means practically nothing but a term that is used to describe a rock and lately with silver bearing formations. Keewatin is, to quote Prof. Miller, the oldest of a series, what is known as the Keewatin complex, consisting largely of green stones or traps of different ages, together with quartz-porphyrity and other igneous rocks.

Spells a Fortune. It is a long, long call from time which cannot be estimated until a month ago, when the Keewatin was first discovered. It is a long, long call from time which cannot be estimated until a month ago, when the Keewatin was first discovered.

Over at the Provincial mine, a few hundred yards from the Waldman Silver shaft, a diamond drill brought to the surface silver-bearing material of Keewatin. Engineers here in the camp proclaim it to be the most sumptuous find since the discovery of the Keewatin.

What It Means. This victory of the Keewatin means a grand bonanza. Only the other day, the Nipissing mine found a 4 inch vein in Keewatin, and latest advices say the metal is getting stronger as the find is investigated.

LAKE HURON AND LAKE SUPERIOR. A magnificent summer trip is enjoyed by taking the "fresh water sea voyage" from Sarnia, Ontario, to Fort William, Ontario, thru these great inland seas.

Rust's Army of Men. City Engineer Rust says that exclusive of his office staff, there are 1750 men directly in his employ or in the employ of contractors now working on city, street and sewer work.

Rebuilding Cobalt. Mayor Otter has returned from his trip to Cobalt, and reports substantial progress in mining operations. The rebuilding of the burnt area of Cobalt, he said, was being delayed by the fact that the Nipissing Mining Co. wanted $1.25 per foot yearly rental for their ten-year leases.

Sold For Library Stack. Quickens will not impede the erection of the stack for the new university library. The 250 tons of pig iron which were loaded on the footings a couple of weeks ago have been removed, and it was found that the wall was not the slightest. Work will now be pushed.

AMATEUR FIRE FIGHTERS IN KEEN COMPETITION

Results of Annual Tournaments of the Western and Northern Associations Held Yesterday.

PARIS, Ont., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—The Firemen's Association of Ontario is the new title of the Western and Northern Amateur Firefighters' Association, whose annual convention concluded to-day. The executive were authorized to obtain letters patent.

The proposed change will embrace all firemen in Ontario who wish to join, whether paid or volunteer. The establishment of a provincial home for disabled and infirm firemen is desired, and the association will seek a provincial annual grant of $500, also the reduction of time from seven to five years as the period of service which entitles firemen to exemption from serving as constables, jurymen, etc.

The firemen's demonstration was a great success. A large number of companies and bands were present, while thousands of visiting firemen and friends from all the principal towns of Northern Ontario. Fire brigades were present from Brockbridge, North Bay, Midland, Brantford, Wainwright, Burk's Falls, Orillia, Huntsville and Perry Sound, and bands from North Bay, Brockbridge, Midland, Penetang and Perry Sound.

In the marching contest, Burk's Falls won first prize for best appearance and marching. Firebrigade and general appearance in the band contest. In the horse wagon contest, which was a severe test of the experience of the fire fighters, Huntsville won in 63 seconds, Penetang second in 65-2 seconds, and Brockbridge third in 72 seconds.

The winning team was composed of L. H. Ware, chief; D. Richards, H. Hebler, G. Settery, W. Jago, A. Talderson, J. Thirion, D. Draper, W. Miller and O. McCarther.

The competition called for a start 200 feet from hydrant, with 20 men of hose on the wagon, run past the hydrant, lay 200 feet of hose, attach branch, turn on water and knock down a dummy who possesses a 20-foot distant from hydrant, the branchmen to be not less than 116 feet from hydrant; then turn off water, uncouple hose two lengths and insert a "y," uncouple the two forward lengths of hose and attach to "y" and attach extra branch, turn on water and knock down.

In the band contest, North Bay won with a percentage of 79, Orillia second with 69, and Brockbridge third with 55. Penetang won the contest for bands with under twenty performers. Others given were road and firemen's and landmen's.

Capt. Alex. Gunn, serial 1, and W. Simpson, assistant superintendent of fire alarms, Toronto fire department, and George T. Gault, Tutia Percha and Rubber Company, Toronto, made admirable judges, and under their management everything went off in the first-class style without a hitch or dispute. Bandmaster Divor of the 23rd Regiment and Mr. Parke, Perry Sound, were the judges in the band competitions, and gave general satisfaction.

AVIATORS WILL BE CAUTIOUS

Don't Expect to Fly Across the Ottawa River For Awhile.

PETAWAWA CAMP, Aug. 4.—(Special.)—So rapid has been the progress of assembling Baddeck No. 1 that unless something unforeseen happens the new aerodrome will be completely set up by Friday. The framework is ready for the motor, one wing and bow control have been attached, and the other wing is nearly ready.

A feature of the new machine is the entire absence of parts which cause any air resistance. The conical shaped gasoline tank is not seen, and the space formed by the construction of the double surfaces is utilized for the purpose. The radiator, common with all automobile motors, is inserted at the side. Wood has been displaced by steel and aluminum for the body.

Stories that flights over the Ottawa River may be attempted are fictitious. All tests will be developed when the performance of the aerodrome is seen. The aviators will proceed with caution.

DO YOU WANT TO BE A "BOXBARREL" SHAREHOLDER?

Do you want to be part owner of an industry that will be fairly swamped with orders the moment the machines are in running order? Have you five hundred dollars that is earning a meagre three per cent. Then ten shares of "BOXBARREL" stock is yours for the asking. Yesterday morning's mail brought an armful of enquiries from all over Ontario and several from Buffalo, N.Y. This shows the widespread interest in the "BOXBARREL," the package that will soon be in use all over this country as fast as the factories can turn them out. Do not hesitate to send in your subscription for one share or twenty. The low capitalization of the Company—only $50,000.00 share capital, the great demand for shipping packages and the cheap price at which these packages can be furnished—all tend to make this Company a big dividend payer. Opportunity knocks occasionally at every investor's door. Do not let this chance slip by. Shares are $50.00 each. Only 600 shares will be sold.

Bank of Commerce Reports Indicate a Greater Than Average Yield.

With few exceptions late reports received by the Canadian Bank of Commerce from its western branches bear out previous indications of a greater than average harvest.

The farmers are getting ready for the cutting of spring wheat, which it is reported will be general in less than three weeks. Harvesters' excursions from the east to the prairie provinces will be arranged by the C. P. R. within the next week.

Following are quotations from the bank's reports: Durban—Grain crops are all looking very well and making wonderful progress. Hay is desperately poor, and I regret to note, many farmers are forced to curb swamp grass. Gleichen, Alta.—No damage from frost or hail in this district and an exceedingly large yield may be expected. Above the Average.

Portage la Prairie—Prospects could not be brighter. While not exceedingly heavy, the crops are, generally speaking, above the average. Red Deer, Alta.—The crops will be a little light on account of the slow growth early in the season. Several hailstorms have passed thru, with, however, very little damage to anything. Rivers, Man.—The writer had a 50-mile drive, traveling in a southwesterly direction, and saw splendid crops all the way. A great many farmers estimate 30 bushels to the acre and are feeling jubilant. Treherne—The crops are for the most part good and the yield should be satisfactory. Harvest will be general by August 10 and 15. No Pest.

Brandon—Farmers assure us that their fields never looked better and that the grain shows a healthy root, stalk and head; no evidence of rust or bugs having yet made an appearance. Elbow—The crops are looking splendid and present indications are for a yield per acre as follows: Wheat 30 bushels, oats 50-60 bushels, flax 15-15 bushels to the acre. Eikhorn, Man.—The crops continue to make excellent progress and no

ASSESSMENT APPEALS

Hotel Owner Asks For Reduction Because of "Cut Off."

A good deal of work was done by the court of revision yesterday morning with Ward Two cases. The court will meet again this morning.

It is expected that the assessment of the Street Railway electric plant will be taken up at an early date when the experts of the company will be heard. The Electric Light Company's plant is to be considered.

The assessment on Jas. E. Henry's apartment house, 57 Jarvis-street, was reduced from $2,000 to $2,000.

An appeal was made by the assessment department against Thos. Long, investor, having no income assessment.

The department wanted him assessed for $15,000. It was fixed at $15,772. The small estate, corner of Front and Berkeley-streets, was reduced from $800 to $300.

Bernard Heck, who appealed against the assessment of the O'Connor House on the ground that there was no license for the hotel now, failed to convince the court that the assessment should be reduced.

Will Be Great Residential District - Popular Wedding in West Toronto-County News.

NORTH TORONTO, Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Among the improvements that will be carried out in North Toronto this summer and which were put thru the council last night is a water main on Richmond-avenue, and concrete sidewalks on South-avenue, Eglington-avenue and Algona-crescent.

From the report presented to the town council by Chairman Burnaby, agent the general condition of Metropolitan Railway last night, there is little hope that the company have any intention of materially improving the roadbed in the immediate future.

Some suggestion relative to a new belt line was however thrown out by Manager Moore.

Councillor Wm. Parke's condition, while not as favorable as his friends could desire, is such as to give good ground for hope.

Metropolitan History. Discussing the early history of the Metropolitan Railway and the charges imposed for travel in the north end a prominent citizen said to-night: "After the Metropolitan Railroad Company began their hourly car service from the city limits to the English Methodist Church on Yonge-street, they quickly learned that the residents in the district served were in no wise dependent upon the accommodation given by the newly-created venture, possessing as they did their own conveyances, while only a small proportion worked in the city."

"The developments which took place the next three years were of historical importance. Some of the directors of the railway company, who were large landed proprietors in their efforts to popularize the district and create business for their railroad, constructed a grand stand and race track at Glen Grove. A toboggan slide was built on their Glen Grove estate and they agitated for the section of the district into an incorporated town."

"The race track and toboggan slide were not successful for the reason that in progress in the City of Toronto it naturally grew out to the districts served by the leading county roads. Yonge-street, with its street railroad, proved attractive, but the available transportation facilities were inadequate and necessary called for relief. The Metropolitan Street Railway responded by interesting themselves in the installation of electric power."

Cross at Glen Grove. "John T. Moore and others responded by promoting the belt line railway, which was planned to cross Yonge-street at Glen Grove. The project induced many Toronto people to invest their money in North Toronto property."

"The railway company secured from the county the right to use electric power June 28, 1888. North Toronto was incorporated in 1892, and the limits of the district north of Glen-wood were, after being led to believe that upon consenting to allow their property to be used for the extension of the street railway, they would be served by the Metropolitan Street Railway, induced to petition the county council to grant the railroad company an extension of their franchise. The railway company extended their tracks and rewarded the district with a poor service and a black eye, by charging an extra two cent fare from the Methodist Church to the northern limits of the town, a thing wholly unexpected."

Apart entirely from the legal aspect of the case there is a general feeling around town that the action of Councilman Burnaby and the trustees in advancing the sewer bylaw was well timed and proper. Regret is expressed that Mayor Brown and Councillors Murphy and Grew have not.

All Good Residences. "Every lot but four on Glen Grove-avenue is sold, and two of these are under option for 24 hours," said Nicholas Garland to 'The World' to-night. All the properties have been sold, not one remains, but some headstrong seekers, men who will put up houses ranging in value from $5000 to $8000. Even this fall some seven or eight of these residences will be begun and completed.

The firemen's picnic on Saturday afternoon and evening in the water-works will be one of the biggest events ever held in North Toronto. If the weather is favorable there will be a record crowd.
