One Week More—Then Liberal Victory

NOMINATION DAY FINDS THE LIBERALS WELL ORGANIZED IN EVERY COUNTY IN THE PROVINCE THE ST. JOHN CANDIDATES AGREED TO CUT OUT SPEECH MAKING ON THE HUSTINGS

This is the First Time in Years That This Course has Been Adopted—The Nomination Papers of the Candidates and Those who Signed Them—Reports From Other Counties.

Nomination day finds the Liberal party all over the province in fine fettle for the election on Monday, October 26. In every county, candidates of recognized strength have been nominated, and the general feeling is that the government will make gains in the province. Indeed, looking over the array of government candidates it would not be surprising if Hon. Mr. Pugsley went to Ottawa with a solid twelve supporters of the government at his back.

Never before in the history of the party have they been so strong and presented such a united front as in the approaching contest. There is not one constituency in the entire thirteen that the opposition can point to and say they feel sure of getting their candidates, while in every case the Liberal party have reason to believe they will substitute a government member in place of the Conservative follower. October 26 will not doubt witness a sweeping victory for New Brunswick as well as for the other provinces of the dominion.

By agreement between the four candidates there were no speeches at the nomination proceedings today. The announcement which was made by Sheriff Ritchie about 1:30 o'clock came as a great disappointment to the large crowd that had gathered in the court house expecting to hear the various candidates discuss the issues of the campaign. The sheriff opened his court at 12 o'clock when he read the writ ordering an election for members of the Dominion parliament. There were only a few citizens present at this time. Later the crowd commenced to gather and at 1:30 o'clock the court room was fairly well filled with the candidates and their supporters. The candidates were filed first at a quarter of one o'clock. Dr. Daniel was the only candidate who appeared in the court room and in talking with a Times man said he was quite willing that there should be no speech-making if the others would agree.

Shortly afterwards A. P. Barnhill, representing the Liberal candidates and J. B. Baxter, representing the Conservative nominees met and after consulting the candidates over the telephone it was agreed to cut out the usual programme of speeches. The ground taken by the candidates was that the issues have been pretty thoroughly discussed in the public meetings of the past few weeks and any speeches today would be simply a repetition of what has already been said. The crowd that attended with the expectation of hearing some oratory of the fireworks variety when the rival candidates met on the same platform, were, however, greatly disappointed. At 2 o'clock the court was declared closed and the usual demand was made for a poll, which was granted by the sheriff. Just before two o'clock Hon. Mr. Pugsley and Dr. A. W. MacRae appeared at the court room and were given a special reception by a number of citizens who were waiting for the polls to close. At 2 o'clock the sheriff declared the nominations closed and Edward Lantalam demanded that a poll be taken. Court was then adjourned until October 26, when the official count will be announced.

Dr. Pugsley's Nomination: The nomination papers for Hon. William Pugsley, minister of public works, Liberal candidate for the city and county of St. John were filed by Edmund S. Ritchie and A. P. Barnhill. The following names appear on the official list: Joseph Finley, Robert Thomson, W. E. Vroom, Chas. McDonald, F. J. G. Knowlton, Theo. H. Estabrook, Edw. Lantalam, A. O. Skinner, John Keefe, John W. Adams, J. S. Gregory, Theo. McAvity, W. G. Scovell, W. A. Barnaby, W. F. Barnhill, M. F. Moore, M. B. Edwards, Joseph L. O'Brien, Henry Shepard, D. J. Eakin, John Flood, H. A. McKeown, O. H. Warwick, G. Herbert Green, Thomas Gorman, James Christie, Edward L. Sage, J. Fraser Gregory, I. E. Smith, Thomas Rippey, John Sealy, Uriah Drake, W. E. Dr. Daniel's Paper: The nomination papers of John W. Daniel, physician, Liberal-Conservative candidate for the city of St. John, were filed at noon by B. R. Armstrong and J. Milton Price. Among the names of the official list are: W. H. Thorne, R. B. Emerson, J. D. Hagen, H. A. Powell, M. E. Agar, J. B. Baxter, B. K. Jones, J. E. Wilson, J. R. Stone, Philip Grannan, Robert Maxwell, Geo. W. Jones and others.

Mr. Macrae's Paper: The nomination papers of Alexander W. Macrae, barrister, Liberal-Conservative candidate for the city of St. John, were filed at noon by B. R. Armstrong and J. Milton Price. On the official list are, in addition to those who signed Dr. Daniel's papers, the following from the county: Jas. H. Grey, J. P. Mosher, Frank Joseph, Geo. T. Clarke, Alex. Willis and E. A. New.

Mr. Pender's Nomination: The nomination papers of James Pender, manufacturer, Liberal candidate for the city of St. John, were filed by Edmund S. Ritchie and A. P. Barnhill and bore the signatures of the following: Joseph Finley, Robert Thomson, W. E. Vroom, Chas. McDonald, F. J. G. Knowlton, Edw. Lantalam, T. H. Estabrook, A. O. Skinner, W. A. Barnaby, John Keefe, J. S. Gregory, Joseph Allison, W. G. Scovell, John V. Ellis.

BETTING IS NOW TWO TO ONE THAT GOVERNMENT WILL WIN IN THE GENERAL ELECTIONS From All Quarters Come Reports of Increased Liberal Successes.

In St. John City and County No One Will Be Found Who Will Back MacRae's Chances Against Minister of Public Works.

The coming election is almost the sole topic of conversation on the streets and a considerable number of bets are being placed on the result. The bets made on the Liberal party's tactics in trying to win the Dominion election as a whole are two to one better, that the government will be sustained. Wagers made on the result in the city and county have the Liberal candidates on the larger end at odds of 10 to 8 and in many instances, 10 to 6 or better. Very few can be found to put any money on Dr. MacRae's chances against the minister of public works.

GREAT DANGER OF FOREST FIRES IN NEW YORK STATE: North Creek, N. Y., Oct. 16—The forest fire conditions in this locality have suddenly grown serious and the danger appears to be as great as at any time in September. Today the fall of smoke is so thick that at a late hour this morning it was difficult to see without artificial light. Old fires are reviving and many new ones are reaching dangerous proportions. Near the village of North River, a community of houses is surrounded by flames which are within 20 rods of the families who have prepared to leave if the fire gets beyond control. At second Pond Flow there is a bad fire estimated at four miles in length and one in width. About fourteen hundred acres have been burned and the fire is spreading. A charge of incendiarism has been made against a negro who is said to have been setting fires in different places. At second Pond Flow, the fire fighters have dug a trench five miles in length.

FRIGHTENED BIRDS TOOK REFUGE ON SHIP: New York, Oct. 16—The Scottish bark Pass of Killarney, which now occupies the most commanding berth in the harbor, was made a way station in her trip here by flocks of birds blown off shore. Leaving Passage Dock, the little port between Queenstown and Cork, a storm drove the Pass of Killarney south to the Bay of Biscay. Knowing the uselessness of trying to beat across the Atlantic in ballast, Captain Vint kept on the southward for the trades and the westward of Bermuda felt the alarming accompaniment of heat, humidity and tumbling barometer, which was the effect of the West Indian cyclone. In the latitudes of 24 and 25, the sun being on the other side of the equator and the wind north-east vast numbers of birds, which had been driven off shore, alighted on the Pass of Killarney. As nearly as Captain Vint could calculate, there were hundreds of them. All appeared to be much exhausted and were glad to rest on either rigging or deck. Birds that were naturally at odds or enemies ashore, in the situation of common presence, they overtook one another's presence. They were so submissive that they could easily be picked up. The apprentice boys tried to keep some of the visitors, but none of them would eat anything that the ship had and they were allowed to go. None died aboard. They were grateful for fresh water. Some of the aerial travellers stayed for two days, but all left as soon as they had covered their strength, although the wind was still north-east.

WASHINGTON STATUE STOLEN: Lugano, Switzerland, Oct. 15—During last night a bronze statue of George Washington was removed from the top of a monument on the Quay here and it is believed thrown into the lake by rodents. The inhabitants of the town are indignant at the outrage. The statue was made in 1831 for the country home of an American resident. Subsequently it was purchased by the municipality.

YARMOUTH MAN BURNED TO DEATH BY FIRE IN A BARN: Yarmouth, N. S., Oct. 15 (Special)—A distressing fatality occurred in Yarmouth on Sunday morning when William McDonald, aged 30 years, left his life by being burned to death in the left end of a stable on Central street owned by R. J. Melvin. The alarm was rung in at 9:30 o'clock and the department responded and found a brisk fire among the hay. The smoke was very dense but as the fire was subdued it cleared away and the body of the unfortunate man was found by Charles Wallace near a window at the eastern end of the loft. It was immediately conveyed to the central engine held at which a verdict of accidental death by burning was returned.

DANIEL MULLIN SAYS HE WILL GO HARD AFTER THE LOCAL POLICE OFFICERS

He Objects to What He Terms "Czar Like Methods" and Says he Will Deal With Them—Hearing Continued in Thorne-Kingston Case.

The examination of Vernon Thorne and Leonard Kingston, the two youths arrested on suspicion of burglarizing A. & I. Isaac's cigar factory on Princess street, was commenced before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning and adjourned until tomorrow. Abraham Isaac, of this firm, testified that on Wednesday night he carefully secured the doors and windows in his establishment, and on his return the following morning it was ascertained that a robbery had been committed. The burglar had reached an iron bar from a rear window facing a yard and prised up the window sash to sufficient length which would admit both of the accused through the aperture. On the main floor in the office a number of articles had been stolen, including cigars, razors, fountain pens, pocket knives and jack knives, which the accused had taken on presenting themselves as consumers of their goods in return for tea. The visit of the thieves was betrayed by goods being missing from the cigar case and the useless manner in which sundry articles were strewn over the floor. Twenty boxes of cigars and packages of cigars and nutty bunches of matches were stolen. Also, there had been stolen a number of cigars, a boot through the engine room door, as it was found unbolled. Only one cigar was missing. The witness did not recollect having two prisoners in his employ at any time. He identified the goods in court as his property. It was almost impossible to positively identify the cigars. Immediately after discovering the robbery he notified Chief of Police Clark. He was not aware that suspects had been apprehended until he read it in the Telegraph. He valued the stolen property at $50. In reply to a query, he said he did not acquit the press of the theft. Magistrate Ritchie: "Did you really have the courage to keep the news of the robbery from the papers?" "Witness: "Yes, your honor." "At this point Daniel Mullin counsel for Thorne interjected, "Well, you should have been on the police force." Cross-examination by Mr. Mullin elicited nothing further. His style of questioning was not conducive to police reputation and was disapproved of by the magistrate. William Kerr employed by Francis Kerr Co., wood and coal merchant in the South End, was next sworn. He stated that on Friday at noon Kingston whom he was acquainted with casually approached the witness in the office of his employer and exhibiting a fountain pen requested him to purchase it. The witness asked him if he stole it which he indignantly denied saying he gave it to him. The witness gave the accused 50 cents for the pen and in an hour Detective Killen appeared and took the pen. Kingston waived the right to cross-examine the witness and as the latter's testimony did not affect his client, Mullin cross-examination was discontinued. Several more witnesses will be examined at the resumption of the hearing. After the order of remand was given the accused were treated to a recital by the operators were treated to a recital by Mr. Mullin. Thumping the police clerk's desk, Mr. Mullin said: "I would like to call this to your attention against the high-handed action of the police officials in taking my client to Rowe's photograph gallery and having him photographed in three positions which are placed in a 'Rogue's gallery.' I believe they call it that." "He continued when his baroque was interrupted by the magistrate with "Oh, we are not so sure of that, you know, your honor." "Mullin resumed: "You would like to address those downstate?" "Magistrate: "You should address those downstate." "Mullin: "I will and I'll effectively operate in my own way. I would like to call this to your attention to the car like methods that prevail downstate. We may make a test case of this affair." "Magistrate: "You should address those downstate." "Mullin: "It is useless to talk, nothing can be done."

CLERGYMEN TALK ANGLICAN SYNOD ON ELECTION MATTERS HERE THIS WEEK

References to Next Monday's Contest Made in City Pulpits Yesterday.

In the Cathedral, at the 9 o'clock mass yesterday, His Lordship, Bishop Casey, spoke of the coming elections. He had no intention of saying anything partisan, he said, but it was for him to advise his people that they remain in calm judgment and be patriots rather than politicians.

In Holy Trinity church yesterday morning, Rev. J. W. Whalley, in the course of his sermon, warned the members of his congregation that it was wrong to accept a bribe to vote for a certain candidate.

In Centenary church last evening, Rev. Dr. C. R. Flinders, the pastor, preached on the subject, "For whom should we vote?"

The qualifications for rules today, Dr. Flinders declared, were that they should be well known men of national repute; men who stood out above all others in the public eye; men of high moral character; men who were ready to take the responsibilities of citizenship as well as true ideals for church membership.

"I need not repeat you," said the speaker, "that Canada is a young with a great future before her. In the past, we men gave us a great constitution and we have now received a great reputation, but we are not yet a nation, and much depends on the statesmen you choose. It is not enough that they be honorable and good men of unblemished reputation, but they must be wise and ready to take hold of the opportunities that offer. Men through money or ambition may be able to guide this young Canada of ours, but unblemished reputation, but they must be wise and ready to take hold of the opportunities that offer. Men through money or ambition may be able to guide this young Canada of ours, but unblemished reputation, but they must be wise and ready to take hold of the opportunities that offer."

False Charges Against Liberals in a Vain
Attempt to Hide Conservative Trail of Sussex, N. B., Oct. 18.—The case of George W. Fowler and his political associates in Kings and Albert counties, is becoming desperate indeed. Today the Liberal organizer, E. S. Carter, obtained proof that a deliberate plot was on foot to use the Purty League to discredit Liberal party workers and advance the interests of the Tory candidate.

LIBERAL TIDE IS RISING
CALL OVER THE PROVINCE

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 18 (Special).—A great wave of enthusiasm is sweeping over York county, which will certainly carry A. B. Liberal candidate to victory. Brown's nomination was at first ridiculed by the Conservatives and they went on boasting of an easy victory for Crockett, but behold, a change has come over their dreams. They have begun to realize that Crockett is up against it good and hard and every cool-headed member of the party and his friends are making desperate efforts to stem the rising tide of Liberalism.

HOW THE PLOT WAS KILLED

Here follow extracts from the declarations, made by men of prominence and well known integrity, showing the threats Mayes made in his attempt to blackmail Hon. Mr. Pugsley into buying his dredge at an exorbitant price:

Hon. C. J. Osman, says: "He (Mayes) stated to me that he wished to sell his dredge to the Government, and would accept $160,000, and that unless arrangements were made to purchase this dredge before twelve o'clock the next day, he would expose a great scandal in St. John, which would be a serious thing for the Liberal party and for the Minister himself, and urged me, as a friend of Dr. Pugsley's, to interview the Minister and inform him that this exposure would certainly take place if steps were not taken to satisfy him. He also intimated that if the dredge was purchased at the price fixed by him (viz., $160,000.00), he would be willing to make a handsome donation towards the election campaign fund in St. John."

George McAvity, says: "That in the month of September last, I met Mr. J. B. M. Baxter, and Mr. Baxter proposed to me that if the Government would buy Mr. Mayes' dredge at a price which I thought was about $160,000, there would be a rebate for political purposes of $20,000. I replied to Mr. Baxter that I was through with Mr. Mayes and would have no further transaction with him." And Mr. McAvity further says: "Mr. Holt stated to me that if the Government would purchase the dredge at $153,400, Mr. Mayes would withdraw all suits, return all checks and notes and photographs thereof, and give a letter to take no further action; otherwise he would publish a statement of a damaging nature to the Government and would take the platform himself."

John E. Moore, says: "Mr. Thomson said he had seen Mayes and that unless the dredge was purchased at $150,000, Mr. Mayes would send to the 'Gleaner' by special messenger, a statement damaging to the Liberal party and would himself take the platform."

F. W. Holt, C. E., says: "I called upon Mr. McAvity and stated that Mr. Mayes wanted to sell the dredge and would take one hundred and fifty-three thousand four hundred dollars and that if the purchase was made Mr. Mayes would withdraw all suits and give up all notes and cheques and notes and photographs thereof otherwise Mr. Mayes said he would make public damaging statements and take the platform himself."

Percy W. Thomson, says: "Mayes said he would not sell for less than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, or he would let matters take their course. He said the papers were all ready to serve, and unless he heard from me to the contrary within a few hours, the declaration of the suits would be forwarded by special messenger to Fredericton for filing and published in the 'Gleaner.'" Mr. Thomson also says: "When I called upon Mr. Moore I stated to him the whole effect of the story as detailed by Mr. Mayes, which was that there would be an exposure injurious to the Minister and to the party unless the dredge was bought right away. I had been informed by Mr. Mayes that a payment of two thousand dollars had been made by him to the Minister, and I understood it was after he became Minister of Public Works."

Hon. Wm. Pugsley, says: "Mr. Mayes is a blackmailer, and I am prepared to meet any charges he may make against me."

The force of these statements, the manner in which they agree, the standing of the men who make them, all point irresistibly to Mayes' guilt.

No wonder the Mayes' plot and Premier Hazen's blunder (or worse) in using it for political purposes, have wrecked the Conservative party here on the eve of election.

Election talk, so far as the St. John constituencies are concerned, has come down to a question of the majorities Hon. William Pugsley and James Pender will have next Monday.

MORE REASONS WHY CROCKET WILL BE DEFEATED BY BROWN

Fredericton, Oct. 18.—If there is one county in New Brunswick which the Conservatives felt quite sure of carrying, it was the County of York. This state of affairs lasted until Mr. Brown made his appearance on his canvass, before it was evident that a great change had taken place in the attitude of the electors.

to a single administrative act of the Laurier government which had aided investment and how the tide of emigration from north to south, which existed prior to 1886, had been converted into one from south to north.

THE LAST WEEK

Whatever further is to be done to convince the electors that they will best advance the interests of Canada by voting for the Liberal candidates must be done this week. One week from today the issue will be decided.

There are invariably some voters who remain in doubt until the very end of the campaign. To these, and to all lovers of decency and fair play the attention of the Liberal workers should be directed. The fight is a keen and bitter one, and on that account the greater will be the satisfaction in the victory.

It is a foregone conclusion that the government will be sustained. No government is overturned by a mere scandal campaign and the cry for a change. A change to whom and for what? These are serious questions. Looking over the Conservative standard bearer one fails to see the candidates of the party are either more able or honest than the Liberals. There is no great national issue at stake. The campaign has been made by the opposition a campaign of scandal charges. The Mayes sensation, which has already been properly dissected here, will continue to do duty in other places, and it is by such methods the opposition hope to win. The Liberal party in St. John will not do justice to itself if it does not elect Pugsley and Pender by an overwhelming majority.

PARTY AND POLICY

What will be the general result of the elections? This is the question of questions in Canada for the ensuing week.

It should not be very difficult to tell what the result ought to be. If there were any sharp division between the two parties on lines of public policy there might be more reason to entertain doubts as to the general result of the appeal to the people. But there is no such division. Mr. Borden, if he were made premier, would not inaugurate a new policy with regard to the tariff of the country. He would not change the transportation policy. He would not put an end to immigration. He would not put an end to immigration. He would not put an end to immigration.

COWARDLY AND UNFAIR

"Still," says the Standard, "the head of the department of public works has not told the country what right Mr. McAvity has to that $35,000." The head of the department of public works told Mr. Mayes in an official letter that matters in dispute between the latter and Mr. McAvity were of no concern to him. He was not in parliament in 1905. He had nothing to do with the Mayes contract. But Mr. McAvity says he will show in the courts what right he had to a share in the receipts from that contract. Why does the Standard assail the minister, who had nothing to do with the case? Its attack is merely a part of the settled policy of the Conservatives to use any means, however cowardly and unfair, to destroy the reputation of the minister.

Opposition papers quote portions of articles from the Montreal Star, in which Sir Wilfrid Laurier is criticised, but have no stomach for those which laudate Mr. Borden. The Times today prints the whole of a Star editorial, from which the Conservatives will not be able to extract any large amount of comfort.

Dr. Pugsley's proposals regarding the armory, the marine repair shops, and a park south of Sheffield street do not please the Standard, but the citizens appreciate the value of his policy.

And now Mr. George McAvity has been discovered to be an enemy of the workingman. It is a dreadful thing to build up an industry in this town.

WORTHY REPRESENTATIVES

A careful review of the situation in this constituency indicates the return of both Liberal candidates. The return of Hon. Dr. Pugsley was assured, because he is a member of the cabinet, and as such has done more for the benefit of this port than any of his predecessors in office, and because he has committed the government to a policy which he as minister of public works will direct for the future rapid equipment of this national port. His election, on this ground, was already assured, but the character of the attack made upon him in the Mayes affair has had the effect of bringing to him an even more general support, including that of many Conservatives who might otherwise have stood by their own party. With regard to Mr. Pender, who is new to politics, he has escaped the storm of slander that raged around the minister, and the only canvass that even the most ingenious of his opponents could bring themselves to use against him was the absurd assertion that he was an enemy of the workingman. The humor of the situation, when a young lawyer or an employer of a few girls rises up to denounce as the enemy of workingmen one who gives profitable employment all the year round to a large number of skilled mechanics is not lost upon the electors, who will answer these critics by rolling up for Mr. Pender a large majority. Those who vote for Dr. Pugsley will also vote for Mr. Pender, in order to strengthen the minister's hands in his great work for the benefit of the port of St. John and the province of New Brunswick. Nor is this the only consideration. Mr. Pender is a practical business man, a manufacturer and exporter. He is familiar with industrial and commercial questions affecting the general welfare of the country. He can be depended on to give a good account of himself at Ottawa, especially in committee work, which is really the most important work that is done, and which calls for the constant exercise of business knowledge and clear judgment. The electors of this constituency will send to parliament, in the persons of Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Pender, representatives who will reflect credit upon St. John and take their place among the most capable members of the house.

Dr. MacRae still gravitates between Musqueam and Musquah, and other sections of the county, with occasional glimpses of the city's spires. He says he is having a pleasant time. That will be some compensation.

The battle waxed fierce in Kings county. Now if the Conservatives can enforce purity by the judicious use of force and money it will be a fine example for the future.

Amherst greeted Hon. Dr. Pugsley with greater warmth on Saturday night because of the meanness of the attacks made upon him by his political enemies.

The Standard says that some liquor for Col. McLean's friends was seized at Gagetown. This cannot be the lot that went up river on the Dream yesterday.

Judging from the utterances of some of them, the clergymen of the city are not greatly enamored of the Mayes-Hazen method of purifying politics.

The Standard, which deprecates exaggeration, says that Borden will carry the dominion by a large majority. There's moderation for you.

The citizens of St. John should answer the slender campaign by showing under the candidates of the scandal-mongers.

Aside from party rancor, what citizen would prefer Dr. MacRae to Dr. Pugsley as a representative in parliament?

The Young Liberals will hold a rally on the west side tomorrow evening.

This is the last week of the campaign. Make it tell for the good of St. John.

The government will be sustained. Keep St. John in line.

Support Pugsley and Pender and the greater St. John.

SPARE LEAVES

Not a sound the old leaves utter as they swirl and swoop and flutter from the branches to the gutter. From their glory to their shame. As they die before their fellow leaves have shed their red and yellow. Ere the autumn's fashions mellow into fane.

Yet I catch my spirit trying To interpret their rapturing Of the sympathetic sighing Of the breeze from the west— We have garnered London's leanness With a tiny spot of greenness. We have touched man's sordid meanness With God's best.

So these leaves of nightly musing For a stem my heart are using Till they find their resting place Of the traffic rushing by: Yet perchance their shadow, waving Over the leafless city paving, Yield the hope some soul is craving Ere they die.

whose attire is of a better grade and cut than that of the average villager. He made his appearance in the community with no letters of introduction and seemed to have no business on his mind except to cultivate the acquaintance of Mr. Adams, a gentleman of advanced years, considerable wealth and a pretty daughter. He courted his "pretty Jane" with great assiduity and after a few months they were married, and the couple lived with papa-in-law and were happy. Mr. Adams grew ruddier and jollier after the event and to the loiterers about his store never ceased in his phrases of his son-in-law. By and by a sign appeared under one of the windows of an office building opposite Mr. Adams' place of business, bearing this legend:

ISAAC WRIGHT, Attorney at Law.

and public curiosity as to how he proposed to keep himself and his wife was guessed, for Isaac Wright was the name of the young benedict. But Mr. Wright spent little time in his office and had few if any clients. It appeared to be his delight to lounge about Mr. Adams' store, to chat with the farmers who came in for their groceries and dry goods and hardware, about their crops and to keep them informed as to the world's doings. He gave himself a good deal of latitude in the use of language and one day Mr. Adams, a retired clergyman who was one of his auditors, took it upon himself to reproach him strenuously. Said he, "The use of such language is scandalous; is disgraceful; it is wicked, and I wonder that Mr. Adams tolerates it in his presence."

Mr. Wright said nothing, but rose slowly, walked over to where his critic was sitting and wrung his nose, and swung it good and well; so well that a few moments later it was as big and of the same color as an early rose potato. Then he hid the people in the store good day, and walked across the road to his office.

Shortly afterwards Mr. Wright was summoned to appear before Squire Howe to answer a charge of unprovoked assault and battery preferred by Rev. Mr. Maynard. He was promptly on hand, and was a goodly sprinkling of the villagers, whose curiosity had been aroused by the proceedings.

The "little paffer," as I was called, was then with his father and was very much awed by the proceedings. Mr. Maynard stated the circumstances attending the assault in detail and was corroborated by two or three witnesses.

Mr. Wright was asked if he had anything to say in return and he answered "No"; if he had any witnesses for the defence, and the answer was the same. The Squire said this was practically an acknowledgment of guilt, and that he could do no less than to impose a fine of five dollars.

Mr. Wright pulled from a side pocket a fat wallet (step-father Adams') and after searching for a time among twenty-five and a hundred dollar bills, pulled out a five which he laid before the Squire. Then he turned to Mr. Maynard, saying, "If that snout of yours was not so stalled into the street."

After this Mr. Wright spent much of his time in his office, had a plenty of clients and finally became a judge of the County Court.

Where are the squire, the plaintiff and defendant in the trial I have told of, and all of the spectators but one? Maynard! Over their heads the daisies have blossomed in summer and the snows have drifted in winter for many a year.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF THE CAMPAIGN

CONSERVATIVES ARE AFRAID. Liberals of Amherst have sent a challenge to the Liberal-Conservative club of the same city for a joint debate tonight between R. L. Borden who is billed to speak in Amherst this evening and a speaker to be chosen from the Liberal side. The president of the Amherst Conservative club to whom the challenge was sent refused to consider it.

ACTED LIKE A CHINAMAN. Why did Mayes carry around the secret of Dr. Pugsley's dishonorable (?) transaction since 1905, until just on the eve of an election? Surely the ways of the Heather Chinese and some Tories are peculiar. (Yarmouth Telegram.)

ORANGEMEN FOR PURITY. At the annual meeting of the Albert County Orange Lodge at Harvey A. C. on Tuesday last a strong resolution was passed against the use of money and liquor in the coming election.

FAIR SAMPLE OF TORY LIE. Toronto, Oct. 19.—The Globe says—Another big Liberal scandal has come to light, wires the Globe's Brantford correspondent. It is a real live one, personally involving Sir Wilfrid Laurier. On Wednesday, a local Liberal organ, the Expositor, published a "Laurier edition," containing many illustrations of the premier. One showed him delivering an address at his recent Ontario tour. Above him, and also constituting part of the background, there was to be seen in the picture the dark and light striped tenting which formed the canopy over the outdoor platform from which Sir Wilfrid spoke. The Courier, the local Conservative organ, has mistaken the striped tenting for the Yankee flag, and sprung a flag incident. In a rich editorial, it depicts Sir Wilfrid as speaking with the flag at his back, and in a fervent outburst of genuine Tory patriotism exclaims—"Is it the Union Jack the beloved emblem of the great east empire the world has ever seen? Not much, it is the fringe of the stars and stripes, which is not appropriate as a setting in connection with this greatest of British territories beyond the seas."

STIMMS OF APPLAUSE GREETED DR. PUGSLEY IN AMHERST SATURDAY

Two Thousand People Attend Big Meeting Where the Minister Spoke—Cumberland Will be Solid for Laurier and His Nation Builders.

Amherst, N.S., Oct. 17.—Seldom in the history of this town has there been a more magnificent political demonstration than that held in Aberdeen Rink this evening in the interests of J. Layton Wm. Pugsley, minister of public works, arrived in Amherst on the C.P.R. and was met at the station by a host of enthusiastic Liberals who gave him a royal welcome to the manufacturing centre of the Maritime provinces.

Although Saturday was a busy day and stores all kept open until a late hour, yet fully 2,000 people crowded in the rink, the largest building in the town, to hear the issues of the day discussed. At 7:45 the Amherst military band headed a procession composed of hundreds of stalwart Liberals from the Terrace Hotel, where Dr. Pugsley and H. J. Logan had their headquarters, to the place of speaking.

On arrival at the Aberdeen, the Liberal leader from New Brunswick, the most enthusiastic reception, which showed that the Liberals of Cumberland placed no stock in the contemptible conspiracy that had for its object the destruction of the political career of the minister of public works.

George T. Douglas, assistant manager of the Rhodes Curry Company, and president of the Young Men's Liberal club, occupied the chair. In his opening remarks, he referred to the fact that Mr. Ralston, the Liberal candidate, was the youngest man in Canada who was contesting a seat in this election and although one of the youngest, he was one of the brainiest and best.

Mr. Logan, who had given such faithful service for twelve years and who had been the medium of doing so much for Amherst and the county of Cumberland. On behalf of the Liberals of Amherst, he extended a cordial welcome to Dr. Pugsley to the town. He thanked him for coming to Amherst to assist in the campaign. He then called upon Rev. Mr. Ramsay to address the meeting on behalf of the Cumberland Electoral League.

Mr. Ramsay made a brief but eloquent address, appealing to the citizens of Amherst to do their utmost to have the approaching election conducted on a clean basis.

Dr. Pugsley was then introduced and the reception he received was one of which any public man might well be proud. He was cheered again and again and it was some minutes before he could make himself heard by the vast audience. He expressed regret that owing to the strenuous campaign work his voice was not in such condition as he would make himself heard by the vast audience.

AN OPINION FROM THE MONTREAL STAR

The opposition press has of late fallen into the habit of publishing extracts from the Montreal Star (independent). Particularly when those editorial stunts could be made to cast a reflection upon the Laurier government have they been rehashed and dished up with considerable gusto for the delectation of Conservative readers.

In this way the impression may have gained currency that the Star has been training its editorial brood upon the members of the government and the bona fides of the Conservative leader or his followers. The article in question is as follows:—

THE OPPOSITION WEAKNESS. Hon. George Graham made a neat remark in the course of a speech at Barrie the other day. He told his audience that three of the reasons for the Conservative Opposition candidates in the constituencies affected were either "implicated" or "in the pocket" of the Government. They have ceased to talk of the Montreal land deal because "the man who valued the land for the Government and declared the price to be reasonable" is now the Conservative candidate of Westmorland. Then the Robins irrigation affair is put off for business as an effective "scandal" because the Conservative candidate in the constituency refuses to condemn it. Moreover, we hear no more of the Quebec Bridge having been launched by "a contract to grafters," because Mr. Fisher was not in the Government. It is now a Conservative candidate of the city of Quebec.
