Eczema on Leg for 25 Years

I have been treated by doctors for twenty-five years for a bad case of eczema on my leg. They did their best, but failed to cure it. My own doctor had ordered me to have my leg cut off, but I would try the Cuticura Remedies first. He said, "try them if you like." At the time my leg was peeling from the knee down, my foot was like a piece of raw flesh and I had to walk on crutches. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent. After the first two treatments the swelling went down and in two months' use of the Cuticura Remedies my leg was cured and the new skin grown on. The doctor could not believe his own eyes when he saw that Cuticura had cured me and said that he would use Cuticura for his own patients. But for the Cuticura Remedies I might have lost my life. I am truly grateful for the wonderful cure that Cuticura wrought. I have many grandchildren and they are frequent users of Cuticura and I always recommend it most highly as a safe and economical cure for skin troubles.

Kaiser's Wife Lapses, by Death, an Able Official of Her Household—High Officials of the Russian Court at War

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Every American who has visited the Court of Berlin, or who has come into contact with the Kaiserin, either in Germany or abroad, will remember her very courtly and amiable master of the household, Von dem Knebeck, who has just succumbed to an operation for appendicitis, in the Red Cross hospital in Cassel, and to which he had been transported to undergo the operation from the neighboring palace of Wilhelmshöhe, where he was in attendance upon his imperial mistress.

I reminded me," said the lady-who-always-knows-something, "of something a maid I had when I was first married said to me."

The lady-who-always-knows-something had been in to call on a neighbor of one who had just come back from a long visit, the lady had been telling us how enthusiastic this woman's daughter was at her return, and how she could not seem to do enough for her mother. This was a new character for the daughter. She had the reputation of being a decidedly selfish girl who let her mother wait on her by inches and rewards her with rudeness and impatience.

His death has been a source of great distress to the empress, who was very fond of him since, in addition to having charge of her entire household, he was her chief adviser and her agent in all the matters of the public world in which she has always been interested. In fact, some day I trust to be able to give in these letters a complete list of the extraordinary number of churches, hospitals, of convalescent homes and of orphanages which the Kaiserin, in conjunction with her adviser, Von dem Knebeck, has founded and endowed during the last twenty years; sometimes with her own money, sometimes with money placed at her disposal for the purpose by people of every creed and denomination who were satisfied that it would be turned to good account.

How often we try to pay debts of kindness or gratitude in a lump—a Christmas time, perhaps—when the payment should be made "as the robins feed their young."

An event of much interest to many friends of the groom in St. John, was the wedding at the Jubilee Anglican church yesterday afternoon, when Rev. Miles F. Daniel, rector of St. Paul's church, performed the ceremony in a church which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with flowers and evergreen, and a large number of the friends of the principals were present.

JURY CRITICAL OF POLICEMAN

Rockwood Park Case Under Inquiry—Death Found to Have Been Due to Drowning

An inquest into the death of William Taylor, who remains found in Lily Lake, on Wednesday afternoon, June 16, was held in the police court last evening, with Coroner Berryman presiding. The evidence was not sensational. In its verdict the jury expressed the belief that Policeman McLeod, when first attacked by Taylor, should have dismounted and called upon a man named Drydon, who was near at the time, to assist in making the arrest. The verdict follows: "We, the jury, empanelled to enquire into the death of William Taylor, whose body was found in Lily Lake, Rockwood Park, in the city of St. John, on the 16th inst., find that he came to his death by drowning, being of unsound mind at the time of his death. From the evidence adduced we also believe that Mounted Policeman McLeod should have dismounted and called upon Mr. Drydon to assist in making the arrest, which he failed to do."

In answer to a question from one of the jurymen, witness said he heard the policeman remark, "I will have to shoot you if you are going to stab me." Witness saw the man taking off his hat and coat just before he attempted to cut the policeman.

Ernest W. Green, brother-in-law of Taylor, said that he saw the latter on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 15th inst., at 3 o'clock. At this time Taylor was doing work for the witness in a boiler shop owned by William Lewis. He went to work as 8 o'clock on that day and continued until 5 p.m. When he saw him at 3 o'clock Taylor appeared to be nervous and remarked that the men were all interfering with his work.

Robert W. Short testified that he saw Taylor on the night of the 15th inst., in Mount Pleasant avenue. He was walking towards Rockwood Park at this time and appeared to be of sound mind.

Frank Taylor, who at his own request was placed on the stand also testified to seeing Taylor in the vicinity of the park on the night in question, and said that at that time he was not acting strangely.

Dr. Dunlop told of making a post-mortem examination on the remains of the deceased. As a result of the examination he considered that his death was due to drowning. The forehead of the deceased showed a few slight bruises, but none of these were of a serious character.

A. A. Wilson, K. C., who appeared in the interests of the relatives of the deceased, and Coroner Berryman both made addresses to the jury, at the close of which the jury retired and after about a half-hour's deliberation returned with the foregoing verdict.

PRINCIPAL IN GREAT CRIME MAY BE FREED

Story of Remarkable Murder Case Recounted in Connection With Movement for Release From Prison After 29 Years

Brussels, Aug. 23.—Strong pressure is being exercised, with great probabilities of success, on M. Carton de Wiart, Minister of Justice, to obtain the pardon and liberation of the convict Leon Peltzer, the one survivor of the two brothers sentenced in 1882 for the murder of the Antwerp barrister Guillaume Bernays—"the most wonderful criminal case of the nineteenth century," as it was rightly styled at the time.

The present generation could obtain some rough idea of that extraordinary drama by perusal of the remarkable novel "Andre Cornelia" by the French author, Paul Bourget, drawn from it twenty-five years ago. The case would have attracted universal attention if only on account of the high social position of nearly all the parties concerned.

The Peltzer brothers were of a Belgian-German stock, closely connected by family ties with members of the Prussian House of Lords and with former ministers of the King of Hanover. Armand, the elder of the two brothers, was himself an engineer and lecturer of excellent capacities and a much-courted society man. Guillaume Bernays, a barrister of high standing who was regarded as an authority on maritime law, and also an historian, was the son-in-law of M. Arthur Pecker, one of the merchant princes of Antwerp, enjoying further more, great political power as leader of the Antwerp liberal party.

The motive of the crime of only one of the returning exiles to America, the version accepted by the jury, it was the infatuation of Peltzer for an fascinating wife of Bernays. The latter had given grave offence to his wife, who lived practically apart from him, under the same roof, but who, notwithstanding her deep sympathy for Armand Peltzer, was too pure a woman to require another man's love as long as she had a lawful husband, hence Armand's idea of doing away with Guillaume Bernays. The trial also revealed brotherly affection and gratitude carried to the lengths of crime. Leon Peltzer having come all the way from America to commit the murder, his elder brother, who had, until then, been in his fortune to see him from bankruptcy.

OPENING OF THE EUROPEAN AND NORTH AMERICAN R. R.

Great Event in Bangor and on the Border Forty Years Ago This Fall; President Grant and Lord Lisgar, Governor General of Canada, Were Present as Well as Other Distinguished Guests

The formal opening of the European & North American railway, which took place on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 18 and 19, 1871, was a great event, and the Bangor Commercial. The celebration was made an international affair, the President of the United States, the Governor-General of Canada, and other high officials of both governments, together with representatives of the state and the provinces, were in attendance as guests of the city and the railway. Military and fire companies, and other organizations took part. And a grand excursion was made on the new line as far as the boundary on the second day, concluded the exercises.

A copy of the card of invitation issued for the affair is here presented:

EUROPEAN & NORTH AMERICAN RAILWAY CO.

Sir—You are cordially invited to attend the formal opening of the European and North American Railway, on the 18th and 19th of October next.

On Wednesday, the 18th, President Grant and other distinguished guests will be the guests of the City of Bangor, and during the day, there will be exercises suitable for the occasion.

On Thursday, the 19th, an Excursion Train will leave Bangor for Saint John, at 8 o'clock a. m.

An answer is respectfully solicited.

(Signed) G. K. JEWETT, President.

The Eastern, the Boston and Maine, and the Maine Central Rail Roads, will pass the holder of this Card, both ways, on presentation.

President Grant and Lord Lisgar, the Governor-General of Canada, arrived in Bangor by special train on Tuesday evening, and were formally welcomed by a salute to each of 21 guns. Under escort of ten military companies and five bands they were conducted to the Bangor House, through streets lined with decorations, draped with American and British flags, and beneath arches. At one point along the line the school children were massed, and showered the party with flowers as the procession passed.

The military and fire companies overtly acquitted themselves honorably for all through the reports that the occasion there is no suggestion of any jarring note. Though in referring to the speech by the President he read better than it sounded; the great leader and wonderful general being very far from an impressive figure as a speech-maker. The reporters mention his surprisingly bashful appearance when delivering an address.

Other hand it was observed that "his sensible, candid speech made a most favorable impression." The banquet was noticeable for the absence of liquor. Neither at Bangor nor at Vancouver on the next day was wine served. In commenting up on this, President Jewett of the E. & N. A., said, "We expect temperance habits of our employees of the E. & N. A., and it would not be consistent for us to set a bad example by furnishing liquor to our guests." An added success was given to the banquet by the unexpected appearance of the Hutchinson family, then so deservedly famous, who sang a rather impromptu ode set to the tunes of "God Save the Queen and Yankee Doodle."

The only discordant feature was one beyond the control of the committee. True to its traditions New England weather provided an unkind variety. There was a slight fall of snow on Wednesday, and another on Thursday evening, while a slight earthquake shock was felt in many places throughout the state about 5 o'clock on Thursday. This latter, however, was, as suggested by the "Times," doubt to do honor to the President.

On Thursday there was an excursion "in sixteen elegant new cars" for so the programme of the celebration announced, to Vancouver, with a dinner in a large hall set as nearly as could be upon the St. Croix river forms the boundary between the two states. Here plates were laid for 1,200. As the excursion train approached Vancouver a salute was fired from an old gun, "Independence," which had been rescued from its grave in the river near Bangor, where it had lain for nearly a hundred years.

The president's train on its return, reached Bangor at 10 o'clock, and left for Portland at 11 the same night. This trip of President Grant was notable in that this was the first time a President of the United States had been so far east. President Monroe had visited the "District" in 1817, but did not come east of the Kennebec. Moreover, the opening of the E. & N. A. was at a time opportune for a celebration for it followed close upon the signing of the Treaty of Washington, by which an amicable settlement had been effected of several matters that had been brooding since the close of the Civil War. The treaty was signed on May 8, 1871, and soon after confirmed by the Senate.

Not without interest to us at this day, in connection with this important celebration, are the railroad arrangements for transporting the crowd of visitors and participants, showing as they do the limited facilities of 40 years ago. In 1871 the Maine Central might be said to be just beginning to exist for it was in 1850 that the Portland & Kennebec railroad was leased to the then existing Main Central, the nucleus of the latter between Bangor and Waterville was narrowed to the present standard (4 ft. 8 1/2 in.) and trains were run through from Bangor to Portland and Boston. The train service was limited, and the equipment still more, and the handling of a large excursion was no very simple matter. There were then two

FOX RANCH ON P. E. ISLAND WORTH MORE THAN $300,000

(Farmer.)

Few people have any idea of the extent of the fox breeding business in this province. Although carried on for some twenty-five years practically nothing was known of it outside the charmed circle, until two or three years ago, except that the charm of the circle was becoming fabulously and mysteriously rich. The secret was gradually leaked out and today there is more money invested in fox ranches than in any other industry in the province, with the probable—only probable—exception of farming.

Last Saturday, during the visit of representatives of the British Press Association to the province, in the excess of hospitality extended to them, the veil was partially lifted, the visitors were given a peep into one of the mysterious cities heretofore so sacredly guarded as was the sealed city of the Deia Locusts of the East. The journalists accompanied by an equal number of citizens, were conducted by Frank F. Tuplin, his ranch at New Anson, about six miles from Summerside, the ranch is located in a beautiful grove of spruce and hardwood and covers an area of about two and a half acres.

Within this enclosure, are the fox pens. How many there are, it is difficult to say. The foxes were seen in each enclosure, an innumerable number of graceful, lithe, active little animals, some hiding in holes burrowed in the earth, some peering with frightened eyes at the intruders or clambering up the wire walls. The amazing thing was that each of the restless, ever-moving bits of animated fur was worth anywhere between one thousand and ten thousand dollars.

Mr. Tuplin as a naturally reticent as to the details of the business, and although he gave his visitors every possible opportunity to see all that could be seen, their curiosity on many points was but partially gratified. This much he admitted: He began the business only four years ago with one pair of black foxes. In reply to a question, he admitted that there are 20 foxes in the ranch "at least a hundred foxes." Last April fifty-six young ones were born and he has sold the present season's crop at prices ranging from $4,000 to $6,000 per pair. He has no more to sell this year, and he has sold, in advance a very fair proportion of next year's crop.

To estimate the value of the present contents of the pens would be an impossible task. An indefinite guess might be made from the fact that in going the rounds of the ranch Mr. Tuplin pointed out a few choice males which he said he would not think of selling at $10,000 each.

Nickname to Lord Hugh Cecil

"Leader of the Huglians" is the nickname that the British humorist has found for Lord Hugh Cecil as a result of a recent notorious scene in the House of Commons. Lord Hugh refuses to admit that he was wrong. He represents Oxford University in parliament, and he has been severely criticised by graduates of that institution and defended by others.

"Truth may win in the long run, but a lie is more of a sprinter."

You can generally tell from a man's neckties whether he is married or not.

RECIPROCITY CAMPAIGN GOES WITH A SWING ALL OVER THE DOMINION

LANCASTER SHOW WAS THE BE THE MAN Rousing Organization Meeting Predicts Big Majority for Liberal Candidate in the City and County--Stirring Speeches Heard and Marked Enthusiasm Shown

A large crowd of enthusiastic electors met in Temperance Hall, Parville, last night, to effect the organization of the Liberal party in that district. The big attending and the earnestness displayed by those present indicated in the most positive manner the unity and strength of the Liberal party in that section of the county. The meeting marked the firing of the first gun of the campaign in Lancaster, and the electors who were in attendance showed unmistakably their intention to carry the battle to a successful issue. The general organization was completed, a sub-committee effected for the purpose of raising funds and plans made for a meeting of the electors of Milford to complete the organization of that section. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock, W. F. Barnhill presiding, and rousing speeches were delivered by W. J. Mahoney, J. D. P. Lewis and Dr. L. M. Curran. The speakers were listened to with great attention, and their remarks were greeted with hearty applause. At the conclusion of the speeches the work of organization was carried through in a business-like manner and some time was spent in the discussion of general plans for the work of the campaign. The gathering included many of those who in the past have given generously of their time and labor for the success of the party, and in addition there were many others who for the first time are taking part in a campaign in which the welfare of the county is at stake. PRINCE WILLIAM STREET SITE FOR NEW POST OFFICE

Bayard Building and Lot Adjoining Recommended --St. John Firm Gets Contract to Build Suction Dredge for St. John River Work

Ottawa, Aug. 22--Hon. Dr. Pugsley will leave for St. John tomorrow, travelling by the Ocean Limited. He is recommended for the new post office at St. John, which has been received from the post office department and approved by an expert. The new post office, which has been designed by the architect, consists of an area extending 100 feet south from the Bank of Nova Scotia building, Prince William street, part of it extending back to Canterbury street. It includes the Bayard building, the rest of the site being unoccupied ground. If the recommendation is approved by the minister of public works the land will be acquired by expropriation through the Exchequer Court. It is estimated that the cost will not exceed $40,000, which officials regard as very reasonable, being less than $2 a foot, including the building.

LIBERAL DAIRES IN MAJORITY

PARIS OF THE PROVINCE Rousing Meeting in Woodstock Assures Victory for F. B. Carvell--Plaster Rock Hears Messrs. Carvell and Michaud--List of Kings County Meetings

Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 22--The vigor of the Liberal party in the town of Woodstock and the enthusiasm in the cause of reciprocity was splendidly shown this evening, when the opening rally of the Liberal Club for this campaign was held. The club rooms on Queen street failed to accommodate nearly all of those who sought admission. All through the evening numbers stood about the doorway unable to secure seats within. From the opening of the meeting until the close the greatest interest was shown in the speeches and enthusiasm and a keen determination to win a great victory on polling day was evident. Dr. N. P. Grant was the chairman. The first speaker was F. B. Carvell, who was greeted with the loudest of receptions. Carvell spoke for about an hour, taking up the various phases of the reciprocity question. Among other points which he took up was the question of the effect of the trade agreement upon the laboring man. He showed clearly that the increased demand for labor and the increased wages which must result from reciprocity would far more than equal any slight advance which there might possibly come. He took up also the different alleged objections raised against the agreement by opponents of the measure and in a conclusive way showed that the arguments made by the persons who are fighting the trade pact contradict one another in every instance. Some attention was given to the loyalty rally raised so audaciously by opponents of the measure, and he dealt with it in a manner which brought hearty cheers from the audience. He also showed up the contemptible excess which is being used by certain Conservatives in this county, who are seeking to raise the race and religious cry in scathing denunciations of the Liberal party. GOVERNMENT IS ATTACKED IN HOUSE

BY KIER HARDIE Charges Aiding of Railways in Strike--Lloyd George Answers and Matters are Lively

London, Aug. 22--There was a lively passage between James Kier Hardie, the socialist leader, and David Lloyd George, the chancellor of the exchequer, during today's session of parliament. Mr. Hardie accused the government of taking the side of the railway directors in the strike, and said if the government had brought the same pressure to bear on the directors as it had on the men there would have been no strike. He declared vehemently that the men who had been shut down by troops during the strike "were murdered in the interests of the capitalist system." As a protest against the conduct of the government he moved as an amendment to the motion for adjournment that the house of commons adjourn to August 29 instead of October 24. Mr. Lloyd George replied that the great indignation had been put out by those who were still smouldering fire here and there about the country which at any moment might burst into flames. He declared he would not be a party to any such a thing as a motion which would bring about such a disaster and perhaps cause the men to find away what their leaders had done. He then defeated by a vote of 93 to 18.

SLICK TALKER HERE

QUETLY SPREADING ANNEXATION BOGEY People Warned Against Stranger Said to be in Employment of Tories--Airs Views on Trains and in Hotels

St. Stephen, Aug. 21--He was well put up, a bright talkative fellow, one who made friends wherever he was. I saw him first at Watt Junction in the smoking car, he gave a snorter a match, passed the daily paper to a commercial man and worked the conversation round so that every man present had a word to say. With everybody attentive he launched into the subject of reciprocity and no man ever heard a better presentation of the question, or a better presentation of the great benefits to be derived from it. Incidentally, he remarked that he was from Buffalo, N. Y., that he was intimate with several of the men close to President Taft and wound up an argument overlying with pictures of Canada's great progress which he said had been the result of reciprocity and became part of the great republic of the world. I heard him again in a crowded hotel in the same way, the same talk and the same result. Let the public look out for him. He travels on money furnished by the Tory machine, he is well known here and he is expected to undermine the faith of the people in the leader of the Liberal party.

T. COLLINS SHOWS GOOD RESULTS HERE FROM RECIPROCITY

Speaking yesterday of the profitable trade which was established a few years ago in St. John between this city and the province of the United States in eggs and potatoes, but which was severed when the duty on these articles was imposed, Timothy Collins, the well known wholesale grocer of North Market street, said he was looking forward to the reopening of the American market in the reciprocity and felt that this would be one of the many beneficial results to follow the ratification of the reciprocity agreement in so far as St. John and New Brunswick were concerned. "A few years ago," said Mr. Collins, "before the duty on potatoes and eggs came into effect, I used to ship large quantities of them to the States, and I used to bring a very good price. I've shipped as many as six hundred barrels of potatoes in one week, and when the duty of twenty-five cents, and later fifteen cents additional, was placed on them, it was put to this branch of trade. The enforcing of a duty of five cents a dozen on eggs, also put a check on the line of business. The market was good, and there were lots of potatoes and eggs to be had here, so that the prices locally were no higher. "I think that if reciprocity is passed it will naturally result in the reopening of the market for these staples, and there seems to me no reason why it should not prove as profitable as a few years ago. I certainly think that the farmers of New Brunswick can raise more potatoes than they are doing at present, and with the larger market there would be no necessity of feeding to cattle what were left unsold. "FARMERS AND THE BANKS. "What came out there for the Bankers' Association to oppose this great benefit to the people?" asked Hugh Guthrie at a Liberal meeting in Guelph. "Are these bankers so interested in the farmers? Let us see. "Look for a moment at Sir Edmund Walker, head of the Bank of Commerce, who opposes any extension of markets that farmers get for fear of his loyalty, but he has his branches all over the country looking for deposits from the farmers of Ontario. They may lend you some for a while if they have a dead catch, but the deposits they're after. "These deposits are expressed to head office, and when the time comes that there is a squeeze in New York and money is tight, Sir Edmund walks forth with his big bag. You know the result; no loan of money. It doesn't want a tariff on money. It's your dogs he wants the tariff on."

WHAT RECIPROCITY MEANS FOR THE MAN WHO MAKES CHEESE

The average price of cheese in Montreal for the first half of 1911 was 12 cents per pound. The average price for the same period in New York was 14.48. In Chicago 14.81. In Boston 14.12. Does the Canadian cheese-maker want access to the American market?--Montreal Herald.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The Charlotte county fair will open in St. Stephen on September 12 and will continue for four days. The prize list is generous one and $2,100 will be offered for the horse races. The headless body of a man was found in a marsh near Charlottetown, P. E. I., yesterday. It is supposed to be that of George Ling, a Chinese, who has been missing since July 8. He disappeared after a row, and at the time there were rumors of foul play. The world's finest portrait, for which $5,000 was once offered, namely "La Joconde," De Vinci's masterpiece, has appeared from the salon of Carré F. Louvre, where it had occupied the place of honor. Four American college students from Connecticut, in the yacht "Bunnie Doo," had close call at Westport, N. S., yesterday while on their way to Halifax. The yacht struck a bar near Westport and sank, but the students were saved. Miss Waters, daughter of Benj. Waters, of Digby, was accidentally shot in the eye at home last night and anxiety is felt for her. THE AWAKENING OF THE CITIES

What Has Been Done for Beautifying, Planning Parks, Squares, Etc., Physical Generation Throughout America

Ten years ago the city of Cleveland began the work of transforming a hideous lake front and business centre—a district composed of dumping grounds, tumble-down brick shacks, and semi-hellum public buildings that were an eyesore—into a city centre which in its spirit, in the architecture of its buildings, and in its permanent character should be an inspiration for the whole great metropolis that is destined to grow up around it.

At the same time, Kansas City began the task of making over a naturally ugly city of bumpy hills into a place of beauty by creating a system of parks, parkways and boulevards that place it well at the head of cities of its class as a park city.

Chicago began the active work of supplementing its park system with a series of city squares equipped as playgrounds for children. Since then, in a brief, busy decade, the park area in our cities has increased more than 500 per cent; playgrounds have increased from half a dozen to more than two thousand; the architecture of public buildings has undergone a revolution; civic centres, grouping of buildings and town plans have become a part of every city life, and the epoch of the physical regeneration of American cities may be said to have got fairly under way.

These are extraordinarily important facts. But more important in the new spirit which they indicate. For such accomplishments could not be achieved unless grim industry, the basis and reason for all real cities, had undergone a change of heart and given its approval of the new order.

The President of the National Association of Commercial Executives, Mr. Clarence A. Cotton, who understands the elements of progressiveness, thus explains the new idea:

"When a modern, enlightened business man nowadays comes to a city to look it over as a possible place of location, he asks two important questions. First, does it have a system of parks, parkways and boulevards? And second, does it have a system of public buildings that place it well at the head of cities of its class as a park city?"

KEEP YOUR MUSCLES LIMBER

And Relieve Soreness with Father Morrissy's Liniment. Athletes owe their prowess not so much to natural bodily superiority, as to the systematic consumption of Nature's gifts, particularly by means of regular rubbing with a good liniment. We are not all athletes, but in any walk of life, if we keep our muscles limber, the walking will be much easier.

Father Morrissy's Liniment has repeatedly cured and healed its bruises, burns, frostbites, chapped skin, chilblains, sprains and strains, sore muscles, backache, toothache, neuralgia, and rheumatism. It is valuable in rheumatism, where it is a helpful adjunct to the best medical treatment.

This well-tested and reliable Liniment is mild and soothing to the skin and does not blister. It is safe and has a wholesome, agreeable odor, unlike other preparations from the joints.

In every family medicine chest, there should be a bottle of Father Morrissy's Liniment. It is a household necessity, and a pioneer's stories, while the conclusions of the commission inquiry into the fisheries of Alberta and Saskatchewan was most interesting all over the Dominion.

MILLION TONS OF ROCK TORN FROM CLIFF BY BLASTS

Powder Saves Construction of Sixty Miles of Road in Building of a Railroad Near Spokane—No One Injured

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 22.—Four hundred thousand pounds of blasting powder, discharged in two electrically-fired shots, tore more than 1,000,000 tons of rock from the face of a high cliff overlooking the Snake river, south of Spokane, and made possible the saving of sixty miles of road construction on the third division of the Great Northern Washington railroad & Navigation company's system, between Spokane and Yr Junction. The two shots cost $60,000.

The spectacle was witnessed by 200 sightseers, including two women, Mrs. H. E. Rudi and Mrs. N. H. Boggs, who drove thirty-five miles across the country. Hundreds of fish in the Snake river were killed and stunned by the two electrically-fired shots, and much of the broken rock was hurled across the stream. No one was injured.

THE AUGUST ROD AND GUN. No letter number has been issued this month but has been issued through Rod and Gun in Canada for August published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

In the opening story "From the Log of a Nautical Tramp, the holiday spirit prevails and is prevalent through the two following papers—Luxurious Fruit Picking and Up the Magnetawan, a River of Dams. In addition there is an abundance of other material, articles and stories dealing with fishing, deer, moose and bear hunting while other phases of outdoor life receive recognition and treatment in a manner that must appeal to all sportsmen.

It is particularly the case with the little paper on the subject of wounded game and a pioneer's stories, while the conclusions of the commission inquiry into the fisheries of Alberta and Saskatchewan was most interesting all over the Dominion.

MARINE NEWS. The crew of the abandoned schooner Minnie, of the Sherbrook, N. S., were picked up by the schooner Dorothy Palmer and landed at Portsmouth, N. H. As the Palmer crossed the shoals the captain and crew of the Minnie beheld their vessel being towed into Nantuxet by the revenue cutter Acushnet. The captain of the Minnie will return to Nantuxet in the hope of retaking his vessel. The Minnie was caught in a squall on Friday and nearly dismasted.

THE UNIQUE. Taking everything into consideration, it is doubtful if one could find a more pleasant place to spend part of an afternoon or evening than the Unique Theatre. It is so centrally located and there are no stairs to climb and the ladies especially find this amusement resort a most convenient resting place. The programme billed for today is said to be a splendid one. The first place will be given to a comedy drama, "A Western Waif." The western characters in this production are drawn with accuracy and the entire picture moves with a swing that will hold the spectator's attention. The best scenes are particularly strong.

"The Tyrant" is a very pleasing drama, with a moral, and "The Two Daughters," an Imp comedy, contains numerous opportunities to laugh. Miss Mann will continue singing "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" and tomorrow will be heard in White's classic, "Marguerite."

PYTHIANS VOTE DOWN PROPOSAL TO HAVE LODGE OF WOMEN

Proceedings of the Convention in Charlottetown—Case of Chinese Now Looks Like One of Suicide

(Special to Times)

Charlottetown, P. E. Island, Aug. 23.—At the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias today the reports of committees were received. A proposition to establish a separate lodge of Pythian sisters was voted down. There was a lengthy discussion over payment of the grand lodge delegates to the convention and it was decided to pay certain officers. It was decided that the honors of past grand lodge delegates conferred on the keeper of records and seal, masters of finance and masters of exchange five years in office. Last night four candidates received the rank of knights, the St. John team officiating. It looks as if George Ling, a Chinese, whose decomposed body was found on the marsh near the asylum committed suicide. John Lee, another Chinese, to whom he owed $272, says Ling left a letter saying he intended to drown himself.

IN THE COURTS

Judge Forbes Comments on Case of Titus vs. Menzies—The Absent Sprague Again Called in Vain.

The appeal in the case of George D. Titus vs. Menzies was heard before Judge Forbes in Chambers this morning. Three witnesses were examined and gave substantially the same evidence as given in the police court.

His Honor said it was ridiculous to take the time of the court with such a trifling case.

Mr. Titus, who is the assistant clerk of the Victoria Dispensary, had written Mr. Menzies, on King street, for some pastry sandwiches. While there he and Mr. Menzies had an altercation, which resulted in Mr. Titus being assisted out. He instituted proceedings against Mr. Menzies for assault.

Judge Ritchie dismissed the case on the ground that, while a technical assault had been committed, it was not trifling for the consideration of the court. From His Honor's decision Mr. Titus appealed. The case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in order to secure another witness for the plaintiff, Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and G. E. Logan for the defendant.

A. A. Wilson, K. C., in the case of the King vs. Sprague, had the prisoner called this morning, and on the ball not producing him, moved that the ball be arrested.
