FIFTY THOUSAND FARM LABORERS Says Mr. Preston are Needed in the Older Provinces.

Replying to Secretary Bennett's letter in the English press on the subject of the bringing of immigrants to this country, Mr. Preston declares himself in this way:

The immigration of immigrants to farm laborers going up their own after harvest and returning to industrial centers in the winter months.

Mr. Preston says: "Mr. Kennedy's explanation as to farm laborers giving up their work after harvest and gathering in industrial centres is too ridiculous to discuss."

Notes and Notelettes... Off for the holidays! What a relief from the worry of the city with all its tolls and its conventionalities!
