Pte. Robert Dyer Is Coming Home

Word was received this morning in the form of a cablegram, that Pte. Robert Dyer, of Waterloo, would be leaving England for Canada shortly. Pte. Dyer left here four years ago with the original fighting 18th Battalion and was present in all the big Canadian battles. He was with the Canadian army of occupation and was stationed in Bonn, Germany. Whilst here the Canadians were well treated by the German inhabitants in every way, he says. Pte. Dyer is at present in the town of Lewis on the South Coast of England, and expects to receive his sailing date any time now. Good fortune has followed him right along, having been through the South African war without receiving injuries. He is a brother to Sargent Major Dyer of Ottawa.

MAKING REPAIRS.

G.T.R. Section men are at present replacing the switch running into the W. Snider Milling Co. The plank on King Street were removed this morning and the work will be hurried to completion as quickly as possible.

GAMES CALLED OFF.

The weather still remains mild and Curling bonspiels and games all over Ontario have necessarily been called off. At the present rate no tankard winners will be announced.

A GOOD RECORD.

The following is a list of the wins at the Toronto Veterinary Poultry Show by an old Waterloo and Kitchener, Mr. Alf. Martini of Toronto. The wins on eight birds are justifications on the part of the owner.

3 First, on Bantams.
2 Seconds, on Bantams.
Special for Best Collection on Bantam. Silver Cup for Best pair of Bantams in show, all Varieties.
Special Best Cock in Show All Varieties.
Special Best Hen in Show all Varieties.

Mr. Frank Greenwood of Wolfe Island has returned home after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reitzel.

QUITE SPRINGLIKE.

The weather of yesterday was most ideal being fine and mild and full advantage was taken of it by our towns people. While autos are naturally not as numerous as in summer still a great many took advantage of the fine weather and many could be seen around the town.

Many preferred the old style of walking for exercise and while it was slightly under foot this was not any hindrance and many walked to Kitchener and back. Judging by the number of people who strolled through the Park our Citizens are anxiously awaiting the coming of summer so they can enjoy a stroll through this popular recreation grounds.

AT ST. JOHN'S YESTERDAY.

There was a large congregation at St. John's Lutheran Church last night, who thoroughly enjoyed two excellent addresses by two of the students at the Seminary and College.

Mr. Leon Irshick speaking on "The Churches Part in the Reconstruction Period," and Mr. R. Geelhaas on "Prospects with Regard to Mission Work in Northern Ontario." Both addresses were delivered in Masterly style being clear and concise in every detail and showed marked ability on the part of the students who had given much careful thought and study to these two very important subjects. The choir of the church rendered special music and a hearty response was made in the Collection for Missions.

AT THE PRINCESS.

Undoubtedly the Princess Theatre is coming into its own and the past week the attendance at all performances were most gratifying to the new management. On Saturday evening standing room was at a premium and the special feature by Mrs. Sashbury, in "Twenty One," proved to be all that the management said it would be. The film was one of the best shown at this cozy little theatre and as many more excellent films are booked from now on the public are assured of something extraordinary in the movie line. As a special added attraction Mr. Lyon rendered a vocal solo much to the delight of the large audience. The serial "The Fatal Ring" and a Harold Lloyd Comedy completed a most excellent bill.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Hodgins and Mr. G.E. Hawkins spent the week end with friends in Guelph.

Mr. Oscar Ruppe of Elmira is a business visitor in town this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Morrison of Stratford spent the week end with friends in town.

Mr. Bruno Knauff of Toronto spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Disappearance of Soap.

Several charges of receiving stolen goods were heard in Police Court this morning. The defendants were George Trussler and Rudolph Hilker. They pleaded not guilty. Two cases arose out of the disposal of one hundred cakes of soap which three lads, Joseph Kipper, Willie Fischer and Clarence Ludwig, swore they found behind Schell Grocers' barn, some of which was left at Trussler's livery and the rest with Hilker, they alleged. Fleischauer said all told he was paid a dollar for the soap by Hilker.

Mr. George Schell testified as to missing some soap, and further than this he knew nothing. Mr. Trussler denied the statement of the boys that he had been approached by them; that he had received any good from them and he swore he knew nothing about the matter.

Mr. Hilker stated he had first asked the boys whether they had stolen the soap, some eighty cakes of which the boys later sold to him. The boys emphatically said they had not, but declared they had found it in a lumber yard or in some lumber heap. He did not suspect theft on their part, especially after their emphatic denial. He accepted the soap and had forgotten all about it since this happened, namely, on Nov. 17th.

Then came the summons. After reviewing the case and the opinion of Mr. E.W. Clement, counsel for the defendant, Mr. Trussler, the Magistrate came to the conclusion that a case had been made out by the Crown. The final disposition of the matter was left over until next Monday.

Crown Attorney D.S. Bowiby appeared for the Crown. Inspector Pullam of the Children's Aid Society also was present. Charge Dismissed. Another charge in Police Court today was that of having a rug not his own in his possession. The defendant was George Trussler, who pleaded not guilty. William Gabel and E. Gabel, the owners of the rug, identified the rug as theirs and the former stated that the defendant at his livery barn said he found an extra rug not his own and didn't know how it came there. The defendant also gave evidence that he didn't know how it got there. The charge against him was dismissed.

One of Defendants Ill

Charges of implications in theft against Harold Randall, Rudolph Hilker, David Bush and E. Reinhart were not proceeded with in Police Court to-day, owing to the illness of the last mentioned defendant. The charges will be heard next Monday.

LARGE CROWDS TURNED AWAY FROM ALMA ST. U. B. CHURCH

Meetings Continue This Week Both Saturday and Sunday night the Alma St. U. B. Church could not hold the crowds that came to hear Mrs. Durham preach. On Sunday night every available room in the church was used long before time to begin the evening service. On Sunday morning Evangelist Durham preached to a large congregation from Jer. 6:16 "Ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein." The Evangelist said we need most of all the old kind of family religion, where grace is said at the table, family worship held, where fathers and mothers pray, live holy lives, and rear their children in the fear of the Lord. "Many are longing for the old time religion and asking for the old paths, but are not ready to walk therein. If Christian professors and church members would walk in the straight and narrow way, the churches would have more power, and more souls would be won for Christ," said Mrs. Durham. In the evening the church was crowded to its utmost capacity, many were listening from the basement and many were turned away. The Evangelist spoke from Luke 14:25-33. The subject was "Counting the Cost." "As none but a foolish man," said Mrs. Durham, "would begin to build a tower without counting the cost or none but a foolish king would make war against a mightier host than his own, so none should go on living in sin and rejecting Christ without counting the cost. The price paid to live an ungodly life is wasted manhood, sorrow and pain in this life and eternal sorrow in the life to come. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life."

FREE TRADE WITH THE STATES.

Agricultural organizations in several sections of Canada have gone on record as favoring free trade with Great Britain and the United States. They would have the tariff on British goods gradually disappear within five years and as against the United States levelled as soon as that country would enter into a reciprocity agreement with Canada.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Star recently sent a dispatch which attempts to show that the larger manufacturers would not be averse to free trade with the United States. His statement is an interesting one. The nub of it reads:

Conversation with a number of manufacturers, as they come and go in the capital, shows this question being raised with interesting frequency—why should Canadian industry be limited to a market of seven million people? Why shouldn't it "have a try" at the States, with its additional hundred million?

These men realize that to secure access to the American market, the Canadian market would have to be thrown open to competition from the South. This prospect isn't the bogey it was before the war. Canadian industry, in a supreme emergency, would even itself by its flexibility and efficiency. With such qualities, why should it fear American competition, or at any rate, why shouldn't it face this competition for the sake of the tremendous new and contiguous market which would be opened up?

At present, it is only the larger manufacturers whose thoughts are even turning in this direction, but it is predicted that smaller men, too, will see that the new system ultimately would benefit them.

One powerful argument against free trade in North America is the temporary dislocation which almost certainly would ensue, and which, it is feared, would ruin smaller Canadian firms.

If this first period could be passed safely, the net result, it is claimed, would be of very great advantage to the country and to all those engaged in its business, manufacturing or commercial.

It is not only that Canadians then would have a market of 110,000,000 on this continent instead of 7,000,000. American manufacturers also would be attracted to the southern fringe of Canada which offers water powers and other natural inducements, and which has the additional lure of being a comparatively virgin field. They could supply New Orleans and San Francisco from Welland as well as from Buffalo. Now, from Welland, they would only supply Canada.

Under free trade, after the preliminary time of adjustment, its advocates claim that the southern belt of Canada would become as thickly populated as the northern section of the States, and that the general prosperity of the country would be increased tremendously.

This is not a practical issue to-day, but its appearance, even as a possibility, in the mind of certain ambitious Canadian manufacturers, may be the germ of an idea that will grow.

His statement may have been a kite sent out to test the wind. Providing there are among the largest manufacturers those who are confident they could compete with the best of American firms in their own market, may this not be founded on conditions that prevailed during the war period? The demands for products from associated nations was then so great that they could not be fully supplied.

An examination of our exports to the United States since they entered the war might show that these were principally war materials supplied the American government. Were it shown that any considerable portion of the exports consisted of everyday products, would the cause not be due to their own firms being for the most part engaged in war work?

Recently issued statistics place the volume of American exports last year at $6,000,000,000. This is three or four times the normal amount. During 1918, Canada's exports of manufactured goods decreased $84,000,000 over 1917. It is probable that with the war ended, American exports will also to a large extent decrease. They will assuredly attempt to keep up the volume by invading world's market generally but will meet the competition of nations old at the export business.

It is significant that a number of the larger Canadian firms feel able, if given equal terms, to compete with American manufacturers in the American market. It shows growth in mental stature and self-reliance. But may American firms not have learned a thing or two from war experience? Among numerous other things, the passage of the Webb law, under which the various lines of industry may combine to further exporting, is an example. We may be wrong but it seems as though Canadian industry will be subjected to keener competition, notwithstanding its tariff wall, than in the past.

It may be asserted that under free trade with the States, any loss of orders in our market would be made up in theirs. This might apply to a small number of Canadian firms, but would the majority not find that they could not thrive when opposed to the competition of specialized, organized and wealthier U.S. firms and combinations. For instance, would the furniture and shoe industries of this center welcome the free entry of American furniture and shoes here even though it carried the privilege of selling their products in the States?

Far away hills look green but any nation which builds a huge merchant marine and permits combinations for the promotion of foreign trade says in effect that its industrial equipment has reached a stage of development where its outputs exceed the home demand and must be given new outlets. When the kid goes hunting with the tiger it usually comes home inside of the cat.

The United States, which in manufacturing admittedly had many years the start of us, is not proposing to knock down its tariff bars and admit British goods free. Their defense is that labor costs more in the States and that British firms have to a greater extent specialized.

Those who advocate free trade with the States grant that it would injure or destroy the smaller manufacturers. These not only outnumber the big ones but together exceed them in volume of production.

Were free trade with the States introduced, How would Canada raise the revenue it requires to conduct its affairs? It is clear as a pike staff that for a generation or two about twice as much as formerly will be needed to pay the war debt. The reply may come that it be secured by direct taxation. It is doubtful whether this scheme would supply the sum needed annually or find favor among Canadians. The income tax now levied is not popular only among those who are called upon to pay. Free trade would probably mean the levying of a stiff yearly tax on everyone. Then were the workings of free trade to be injurious to industry, the residents of Canada would be continually in hot water.

A familiar saying has it that a poor man cannot pick cherries with a rich one. The inference being that the latter's arms are too long for the former's.

BY THE WAY.

Apparently Calgary has formed a society of Askers. Our city council received a letter requesting it to endorse the demanding of a billion dollar war indemnity for the Dominion and the handing of one-half of it over to the West.

Guelph has appointed Mr. J. T. Moore city manager at a salary of $3,000 per annum. He will direct all civic undertakings, excepting the department of Light and Power.

M. Paul Cambon, seventy-six years old today, will celebrate this year the twentieth anniversary of his arrival at the Court of St. James as Ambassador of the French Republic. He is one of the veterans of the European diplomatic corps, a shrewd, far-seeing man, as familiar with dangerous diplomatic work as he is with his coffee, and has proved a valuable representative of France during the troublous times of the past five years. Before going to London M. Cambon was successively Ambassador at the courts of Madrid and Constantinople. He is an elder brother of M. Jules Cambon, long the French Ambassador in Washington. In his younger days he was known as one of the best amateur actors in Paris. Of late years he has become a keen connoisseur of art, as the library and art collection which Albert Gate House contains testifies.

To Discuss Livestock Conditions.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 20.—Indications point to a record-breaking attendance at the opening here tomorrow of the annual convention of the American National Livestock Association. The sessions, which will continue several days, will be held in conjunction with the big livestock show now holding forth at the Denver stockyards. Prominent speakers and important subjects slated for discussion combine to give promise of one of the most interesting conventions in the history of the association.

The regulation of the packing industry, Government control of railroads, the administration of public lands, regulation of prices on hides and wool, and a Government appropriation to combat tuberculosis among cattle and hogs are among the subjects that will receive the attention of the convention. Heading the list of speakers will be Secretary of Agriculture Houston and former-Governor Stuart of Virginia, who is now chairman of the national food advisory committee.

Missouri Farmers' Week.

Columbia, Mo., Jan. 20.—Scores of progressive farmers of Missouri, many of them accompanied by their wives and families, are arriving here to participate in the annual Farmers' Week sessions at the State college of agriculture. The program prepared for the gathering this year covers an unusually wide scope. Fifteen State organizations devoted to the promotion of various phases of agricultural work will hold their annual meetings during the week. The sessions will deal almost exclusively with after-war topics and problems of reconstruction. Foremost among the speakers from outside the State will be Miss Jane Addams of Chicago.

The marriage of Sir Douglas Haig, the British commander, was the result of "love at first sight." He met Miss Doris Vivian for the first time on a Monday in Ascut, week and instantly fell in love. He became engaged to her on the following Saturday and wedded her within a fortnight.

At the Morgue in Paris, where are laid out the bodies of the unidentified victims of unsolved crimes, detectives are told off to watch the crowd of visitors who come to look at the ghastly remains, for it is well known that murderers have a peculiar fascination in seeing the dead bodies of their victims again.

The oldest living woman in the world, so far as is known, lives in Posen. She is 124 years of age, and her birth is substantiated by records. She was a young woman when Napoleon swept over Europe. At the time of her birth Frederick the Great was still alive and the United States had been born about eight years.

It was a passing idea which gave to the world the discovery of galvanic electricity, so useful in transmitting vocal or written language. Me. Galvani simply happened to notice the contraction of the muscles of a skinned frog accidentally touched at the moment her husband took a spark from an electricity machine, and that was the whole thing!

Napoleon, who ought to have known, fixed the real death-blow to his vast schemes of ambition in 1808, though he did not finally fall until 1815. Up to 1808 his arms had been deemed invincible; but in that year he invaded Spain, and one of his generals, Dupont, was forced to capitulate with 27,000 men. In his attempts to redeem the setback Napoleon poured into the Peninsula armies and treasure the want of which was fatal to him when he was at last driven to bay.

All the army barracks in Japan are fitted with gymnasia, which probably accounts in large measure for the fact that nearly all Japanese soldiers are expert gymnasts.

You Hold the Key

Will You Keep The Door Open?

WHERE will our men in uniform—Over There and Over Here—go in their spare time, if the doors of the Salvation Army Hostels are closed for lack of funds? WHERE?

This week decides. Consider carefully, for if THOSE doors slam in the faces of our soldiers, the echo will go ringing through the years to come. Canada will regret. You hold the KEY!

Let us state the case quite plainly. The next twelve months are critical ones in the careers of our citizen soldiers. They will have a great deal of time on their hands and it is for you to make it helpful and enjoyable. They have come to know the Salvation Army over there, and realize what it means. Give him a chance, and the soldier will turn to the Hostel, and all will be well!

Salvation Army Million Dollar Fund

THIS WEEK

The Salvation Army has rendered service to millions of fighters for the Allies. It started work in the war twelve days after Germany invaded Belgium. It has 197 Huts at Soldiers' Camps; thousands of Beds in Hostels close to the stations and landings used by the soldiers; it has distributed tens of thousands of parcels of food and clothing among the forces and it has carried tens of thousands of wounded in its ambulances. The need is still great for Hostels over there, and for Hostels and other forms of help OVER HERE, to take care of our soldiers during demobilization.

The Salvation Army serves hot coffee, cocoa and sandwiches to soldiers; cooks, mends, furnishes music and entertainment, safeguards the home ties, and labors for the Master.

Its services are endorsed by public and military authorities, and, best of all, by the men themselves! Ask any returned man what he thinks of the Salvation Army.

Shall the doors be kept open, and the good work continue as long as there is need? The KEY is in your pocket!

Automatic Parcel Lockers Installed

The Grand Trunk has installed in the waiting room of the local station a system of automatic parcel checking for the convenience of the travelling public. This innovation consists of a series of steel lockers, each large enough to hold a two thirty inch suit cases, a number of parcels or a club bag. Instructions as to operation are printed plain on the door of every locker.

The patron selects a locker where the key is in the lock, opens the door and deposits his bag or other property. The patron then places ten cents in the slot of the lock, turning the key to the right which locks the door, and then removes the key and retains it as a check. The number of each locker corresponds with the number of a locker.

The traveller on returning to the station to obtain his property inserts the key in the lock, and turns it to the left, unlocking the door. The key is automatically fastened in the lock and cannot again be removed until another coin is deposited. The checking fee is given for the one payment cover a period of twenty-four hours or less.

These automatic lockers are being used extensively on the Grand Trunk System. They have proved safe and sanitary, permitting the patron to obtain service with the least possible delay. The railway in installing them has felt that they will be appreciated by travellers using the line.

A Broken Wedding Ring

By Bertha M. Clay

And Hettie, whose loving heart was almost broken, fell upon her knees, hiding her face in her hands, and sobbing with bitter tears and cries. She dared not raise her head to take a last look at the face she loved so well.

The general drew Leah near to the door.

"Good-bye, father," she said. "I am not cold, much less, or homeless; but I could not lead the life you selected for me. I would rather have died. I will come back if you want me or send for me."

She moved towards him, as a thought she would fain kiss his hands or his face; but he turned from her with a gesture of angry contempt.

"Good-bye, Hettie," she said, in a broken voice. "Nothing can part us for long; nothing can change our affection for each other; time, patience, and love will bring us together again. If you want me, send, and I will come."

It was a pitiful scene—one girl kneeling in wild distress on the ground, the other pale, trembling, half hesitating moving slowly to the door.

Suddenly Leah threw up her arms with a bitter cry.

"It is worse than death!" she said. "O uncle! help me!"

"I will do all I can to make you happy, Leah," he replied.

He did not know how to comfort her. It was he who, in seeking to rescue her from a life she hated, had brought these troubles upon her. Nature was more kind; for when Sir Arthur beckoned his man servant to help him, Leah had lost all consciousness, and so left her father's house, almost as he had said in the stillness of death.

Chapter VIII.

"She is gone," said Martin Ray, hoarsely, as the sound of the carriage-wheels reached them. "She is gone, Hettie, from our home and life forever. She is dead to us."

And the man whose ends and aims in life were all selfish, who would have trampled over hundreds of human beings to attain the object he sought, buried his face in his hands, and sobbed aloud.

The sobs aroused Hettie, who in

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it."

Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1546 E. Hazzard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, alteration, headache, sickness, headaches or "the blues" should not rest until they have given this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

her whole life never remembered to have seen her father weep—started her into forgetting her own grief, for a time, to console him. She went to him, and knelt down by his side.

"I will love you doubly, dearest," she said, "to make up for it. I will be two daughters to you."

He stood up, gray, worn, and haggard, a prematurely old man. "You are the best of daughters, Hettie," he said, slowly; "but she—well, you see, she was more than a daughter to me. I wanted to live again in her. You are all that is sweet, kind, and gentle; but she had fire and passion, she had power and eloquence, she would have been a light in the darkness. I shall never be the same man again, Hettie. I did not know that I could be so human. I did not know that I was capable of valuing so highly the love of a slip of a girl. I think better of myself for my own grief, Hettie."

She whispered to him, after the manner of loving daughters, that he was perfect, that no man could be better; and unconsciously the gentle flattery soothed him.

"How strange," said Hettie, "for all this to occur in one day! This morning how little we knew of what was about to happen! This morning I hardly remembered that mamma had a brother. She talked to us about him sometimes, but I had nearly forgotten him. Now—"

"Ah, now," sighed Martin Ray, spreading out his hands in speechless distress—"now all is changed!"

Hettie looked up at him with wistful eyes.

"Father," she asked, gently, "was my mother really an aristocrat?"

"Good Heaven no, Hettie! Certainly not. She was a lady; she came from a very ancient and honorable family."

"That is something to be proud of, is it not?" she asked, innocently.

And Martin Ray glared at her with angry eyes. He could not say "No," and he would not say "Yes." It seemed to him that these children of his, so long docile and blind in their belief, were suddenly rising up against him.

"Why do you hate my mother's brother, father? Why could you not be friends with him?" she persisted. "It would have been so pleasant to have an uncle. Why could you not be friends?"

"Why were not Napoleon and Wellington friends?" he asked pompously. "Why are the hare and the hounds, the dove and the hawk, not friends? We are enemies naturally, as they are."

"It seems so strange," said the girl, who was still a child. "How angry his face was, and how stern his voice! He thought you had

Don't Torture Your Child!

TO MOTHERS! See your little one's terror at the very thought of a dose of castor oil, mineral oil, calomel or pills. Ugh!

Cascarets "work" better, safer, surer on the tender little liver, stomach and bowels, besides Cascarets taste like candy. Even bilious, constipated, sick kiddies coax for this harmless candy cathartic.

Each 10 cent box of Cascarets, the pleasant candy cathartic, contains directions and dosage for children aged one year old and upwards. When the little one's tongue turns white, breath feverish, stomach sour, there is nothing better to "work" the nasty bile, souring food and constipation poison from the child's system. Give Cascarets, then never worry.

Lee-Son, a King Street laundry man, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon at Mount Hope Cemetery. Slowly but surely the Chinese in Canada are adopting the white race customs, and the fact that they are adopting the Christian burial marks a big step in their advancement along this line.

Nothing remarkable about Osteopathy
It should not be considered remarkable that Osteopathy cures disease without the use of drugs. Our wise Creator would have made us very badly if we had always to be "taking something." Modern medical men admit that drugs do not cure—they merely palliate the symptoms. Many advanced doctors do not give medicines at all in some cases, realizing that they only complicate matters.

Osteopathy effects its cures by working in harmony with nature and by removing any interference with nature's forces within the body. Osteopathy is rational, simple, efficient and permanent.

"The Musical Guardsmen"
The amusement lovers of the Twin City have a plethora of good things offered for their entertainment this week. The theatres seem to be vying with each other to present programs that appeal to the lover of high class pictures, drama and music.

Of the attractions that are sure to fill the house is the second appearance here of "The Musical Guardsmen", a Redpath attraction which came to the Roma for one concert, next Wednesday night. By the way, the hundreds of more than delighted citizens who vastly enjoyed their previous concert under the auspices of the Lyceum Bureau.

"The Musical Guardsmen" is a sextet of fine, energetic, accomplished young men and when they start off make music on the infinite variety of instruments of which they are masters everyone with a spark of music in his make-up begins to sit up and take notice. It is said of these young men that they produce more real music than was ever before heard in the length of a concert program. The music, too, appeal alike to the jaded masses and the discerning classes; satisfies the musical critic and delights the man who knows only what please him but does not know why. No the least delightful part of the program is the singing of Achille Bragers, a young Belgian with a pleasing voice and much energy. His singing of the Marseillaise, in French, is heralded as one of the triumphs of the evening.

had and his colleen in "Sweet Innisfallen", to be presented at the Roma Theatre next Thursday night. More women of every class of life, as well as mere men, have responded to the appeal of this peer of all love dramas wherever it is to be seen, than all other plays which bear upon the theme nearest the hearts of all the world. In the nobility of its treatment in richness and fidelity of its scenes and the vitality of its action, combined with its perfect dramatic construction "Sweet Innisfallen" stands a very classic of Irish romance and realism. The plot of the play is easily comprehended and the scenes depicting the struggles of Larry O'Connell, his love affair and subsequent marriage to the girl of his heart, are beautifully presented.

A number of the best of the Irish heart songs are rendered by that sweet voiced vocalist, Mr. Tom Daly. The Roma management are confident that this will prove to be one of the most delightful and satisfying dramas presented here this season.

THE GOSPEL OF THE FRYING
What popularized the Salvation Army among the troops at the front was its understanding that you can't talk religion to a man with an empty stomach. The Army has its own system of ministering to the needs of humanity. While its main purpose is to lead wayward people into paths of virtue, it realizes the supreme necessity of ministering first to their bodily wants. With a plate of doughnuts in one hand and a pot of coffee in the other, the Salvation Army gains under the Red Shield Banner the respect and admiration of the exhausted fighting men.

JANUARY THAW HAS UPSET LONDON CLUB SCHEDULES
London Ont., Secretary Halliday of the Simcoe club informed the London Hockey Club that the game tonight cannot be played as the floor of the rink is peeping through large holes in the ice.
The ice here at the Jubilee Rink was good to-night and if the weather turns any colder a game will be possible here on Wednesday night. The Simcoe team was scheduled to play here last Friday but the game was postponed and may now be played on Wednesday as Simcoe is willing to play here if ice is available.

No word comes from Ingersoll cancelling Monday's junior game there with London but it is expected that the game will be postponed on account of the mild weather.
Gunner Fred Reuter, the star goal keeper of three seasons ago arrived at his home in Preston last week from overseas and it would not be surprising if he joined the London intermediates.

LIGHTWEIGHT BOUT ATTRACTS ATTENTION

EW YORK Jan. 18.—Is there a chance of Benny Leonard losing the world's lightweight championship to Johnny Dundee? That is the question that has the New York fight fans guessing today. The hard-hitting "Scotch wop" got his big opportunity Monday night when he meets the champion in an eight-round bout over in Newark.

All the chances seem to favor a victory for Leonard. He will have it over Dundee in the matter of weight, height, reach, and other physical points, and also will possess the additional advantage of the confidence that comes of holding the title. But ring history shows that the "dope sheets" have frequently gone wrong in the past. In other words, there is always a chance for the favorite to lose. Dundee is a fighter of long experience, who in his day has met and disposed of nearly all of the best men in his division. When at his best he is a marvel in the ring. Whether he will be able to pull the big surprise by landing the knock-out blow within the prescribed eight rounds is the question. The consensus of opinion among the experts is that he will not be able to face the champion to the limit of the bout. The formidable Leonard wallow it is believed will dispose of Dundee as it has put away so many others. There is comparatively little betting on the mill, but in the wagers reported so far Leonard is a decided favorite.

The two fighters finished their hard training today. Both the champion and the challenger have gone about their work of preparation in earnest. The word from their respective camps is that both are in the best possible condition and ready to go to start them on their battle.

The Newark Sportsmen's Club, under whose auspices the contest will be staged, expects a record-breaking crowd to be on hand to see the two lightweights battle. The advance sale of seats is reported to be unusually large. Special trains will carry the fight fans from this city to Newark. Large delegations are expected also from Philadelphia and other cities within easy access.

It is rumored up around the Newman Hall that "Joe" Brennan will trot out a new forward man, it's what they need. The L.T.'s line looked weak against St. Patrick's in their game last Wednesday and with a real good forward in there the Newman's will no doubt cause a little trouble. Wednesday night they took up with St. Patrick's at the Arena, and if they want to stay in the hunt they will have to be at their best, as the O'Donoghue gang are going great guns and are confident that they will hand them another trimming.

An inventor has combined a rack and triangle for pool balls in such a way that the balls are placed in proper position on a table as the device is opened.
There's a professional out at the St. Louis Country Club who has the distinction of playing a round of golf which has never been equaled in many attempts by the world's greatest professionals—Vardon, Ray, Duncan, Taylor and Braid. He is William Hunter, a Scotch international from 1906 to 1910, inclusive, and one of the latest professionals to come to this country from England. Up to 1914 he was in charge of the Richmond Surrey course, near London. His record feat was a 71 made in the open championship held at Muirfield in 1901. This mark is the same as that hung up by John Graham, jun., winner of the St. George's vase in 1904. A striking feature about this union is that although the combined banks have nearly 300 branches they meet at only 11 places and these are all large centers.

JUNIOR GAME OFF

No ice—no hockey, so the game with Preston tonight has been called off, and if the present weather conditions prevail it'll be some time, before we see another game in Kitchener.

Never before was the need of an artificial rink felt more than this season, a late one to begin with, and not a decent freeze since.

The juniors are billed again on Wednesday at 1 Galt but with "fair and mild" probabilities today, the outlook isn't too promising.

Two Canadian Banks Are To Amalgamate

NOVA SCOTIA AND OTTAWA DIRECTORS REACH AGREEMENT.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—An agreement, subject to ratification by the shareholders, has been entered into by the Bank of Nova Scotia and the Bank of Ottawa, whereby an amalgamation has been arranged of these two important institutions.

The basis of the amalgamation is that the Bank of Nova Scotia shall exchange four shares of its stock for every five shares held in

Willing To Walk 20 Miles To Tell About Tanlac

Miss McKenzie Gains Twenty-Five Pounds on Tanlac and Health Is Restored

"I'm so grateful for the wonderful relief I have gotten from taking Tanlac, that I would be willing to walk twenty miles to tell anyone who suffers like I did, what this medicine has done for me," said Miss Addie McKenzie, 424 Sixth Ave., South, Nashville, Tenn.

"I suffered for about eighteen months from nervous prostration and kept getting worse in spite of all I could do. I have no appetite at all, and after eating my stomach would burn like I had swallowed a fire-coal. I would turn cold one minute and hot the next at times, and I was so nervous I couldn't keep still. I could hardly sleep at all and I fell off at least sixty pounds."

"After I tried several different medicines without getting any relief, my brother got me a bottle of Tanlac and I started taking it. By the time I had finished my second bottle, my appetite began to improve and the troubles were greatly relieved. The burning sensation in my stomach has disappeared, the nervousness is all gone, I sleep like a child at night and besides gaining twenty-five pounds in weight, I am in splendid health again."

Tanlac is sold in Kitchener by E. O. Ritz & Co., in Galt by R. W. Melcham, in Hespler by Jno. R. Phin, in New Hamburg by W. H. Boullée, in Milbank by R. B. Hamilton, in West Montrose by A. E. Richert & Co., in Preston by H. L. Frick, in Waterloo by A. B. Learn, in Doon by J. L. C. Bullock.

The Bank of Ottawa.
The Bank of Nova Scotia was incorporated in 1832, and is one of the strongest banks in the country. It has about 200 branches established in Canada, West Indies and the United States.

The president is Charles Archibald, Halifax; the general manager is H. A. Richardson, of Toronto.

The Bank of Ottawa was established in 1874, and has made steady progress until its assets have reached a total of about $73,000,000. It has 95 branches, which, for the most part, are located in Eastern Ontario, chiefly in the Ottawa Valley. The president is Hon. George Bryson; the general manager D.M. Finnie.

A striking feature about this union is that although the combined banks have nearly 300 branches they meet at only 11 places and these are all large centers.

The amalgamated banks will have a paid-up capital of about $10,000,000; reserve and undivided profits, $17,000,000; deposits, $178,000,000; total assets, $234,000,000.

Notices are being prepared and will be mailed to the shareholders within a day or two. The Minister of Finance has consented to the amalgamation.

Standard Flour Will Be Continued for Time

FIXED PRICE OF BRAN AND SHORTS UNTOUCHED.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—The status of the Canadian milling industry was considered at a conference which ended to-day of milling interests, with James Stewart of the British Wheat Export Company, and H.B. Thomson, of the food board.

The allies have suspended flour purchasing and it was this aspect of the situation that was particularly considered. At the conference it was explained that Great Britain had heavy stocks of flour on hand when the armistice came and there is a consequent sufficiency to last for two or three months.

On the other hand tonnage accommodation is short, save what is absolutely necessary for reconstruction. It was intimated at the meeting that while buying has been suspended, it doubtless will be resumed. The mills meanwhile are not inclined to manufacture for export. The allies are satisfied with the Canadian standard flour and there is no likelihood of varying its composition either for use at home or abroad; nor is there any likelihood of a change at present in the fixed price of bran and shorts.

Boy Held For Murder

CORONER'S JURY HOLDS THE PRISONER RESPONSIBLE.

Montreal, Jan. 18.—"We the jury, find that Douglas Edward Stott is criminally responsible for the death of Milton Sheehan."

This verdict was signed by the 12 men who listened at the coroner's court to-day to the story of the fatal shooting of the 12-year-old boy on McGill avenue on Friday night. Stott, who is 17 years of age, was afterwards placed in charge of Detectives Foucault and Martin Captain Kavanagh by Coroner McMahon, who made out a warrant charging the boy with murder. He was taken to the courthouse, where he appeared before Judge Gausson and pleaded not guilty. He was remanded for trial next Friday.

The evidence in the hearing showed that Stott had taken a loaded revolver from the safe in the Bank of Ottawa, St. James street, and taken it home, where he displayed it. On Friday evening he went to McGill College avenue to play with several other boys, including the victim, Milton Sheehan, and, according to testimony, pointed the revolver at Sheehan, and fired and killed the boy.

"The only statement I have to make is that I did not shoot that boy, sir," was Stott's answer to a question put to him by Coroner McMahon.

Foch Says France Is

NOT AFTER TERRITORY.

Coblentz, Jan. 19.—The declaration by Marshal Foch to the American correspondents that the Germans must be in future years held on the Rhine represents one demand that the French will make in any plans for a league of nations.

What Marshal Foch said may be construed to mean that if ever in the future Germany decides to make a move in the direction of France she must start from behind the Rhine, which means, of course, that she could not again attack France over night, and that if she moved toward France the first battles at least would take place on German soil, between the Rhine and the French boundary.
