Two Boys Drowned.

CHATHAM, June 27.—Yesterday a colored boy named Harris was drowned in the river while bathing, and in the evening another lad, Gallagher by name, lost his life while bathing in the same place.
It is thought he had a rash of blood to the head. There was no assistance near at hand.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 27.—Rebecca Mc-Cullis, nurse girl, 17 years old, was drowned in the northwest arm last evening while bathing. It is thought she had a rash of blood to the head. There was no assistance near at hand.

were met at the Hotel Wellington at Ottawa Thursday. In the evening the visitors were tendered a banquet, at which about 100 guests were present.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Mrs. Hartley Will be Up for Murder at the Fall Assizes.

PRISONER LING DISCHARGED

No Criminating Evidence Was Produced Against Him—He Turns Queen's Evidence and Tells the Story of the Revolution with Mrs. Hartley.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., June 29.—The trial of Mrs. Maria Hartley and Henry Ling was summoned at the police court yesterday.
Isaac Haight, George Morgan and James Peterson were in the witness box, but the evidence produced was much the same as that at the coroner's inquest.

There being no criminating evidence against Henry Ling, he was discharged with the consent of the crown.

Henry Ling was then put in the witness box and testified that he had never been in the house of Mrs. Hartley and himself on the day Caleb Hartley went to Hamilton. Mrs. Hartley was unalterably opposed to her husband being placed on the free list and she intended to do so.

James Hurd, of Hurd Bros., said that the freight would not compensate for the cost of the article.

A letter was read from a Michigan Congressman, whose name was not mentioned, and the only result of putting lumber on the free list would be to give the planing mill industry of the United States in Canada and thirty thousand of people out of employment. Donald Leslie followed, denouncing the free list business as an outrage on the American workman.

Mr. Montgomery, of Holland, Graves & Montgomery, said that if dressed lumber was placed on the free list it would be just so much money taken out of our pockets and given to the Canadians.

After a long and animated discussion between the members of the committee appointed to draw up resolutions to be forwarded to Washington, giving the reasons why the free list should not be drafted by the committee were unanimously adopted.

THE PLAGUE IN CHINA.

Many More Deaths Reported—Serious Situation in Corea.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The steamer Pera, from Hong Kong, brings news that the plague at Hong Kong has become worse. The disease has broken out in new districts. From the 7th to the 14th of June 201 persons died from the pest and 75,000 Chinese had fled from the city. It is reported a Chinese junk with passengers from Hong Kong, who were trying to escape from the plague, capsized and sank in the Bay of Bengal. Five British soldiers and a Chinese crew were on board.
Sanitary laws have fallen victims to the plague.

The flag-ship Pera brought a budget of news regarding the Korean rebellion. Disaster after disaster has been met by the government and the fall of the government was expected at any time. The garbion of the town of Zenshin fell into the hands of the rebels on May 31.

FIGURED IN THE REBELLION.

Captain Joseph Lee, a Man with a Career, Dies at Windsor.

WINDSOR, June 30.—Captain Joseph Lee, one of Windsor's oldest and most respected citizens, died from the pest and 75,000 Chinese had fled from the city. It is reported a Chinese junk with passengers
soldiers and a Chinese crew were on board.
the plague.

During the rebellion of 1897 he was on duty at Amherstburg and other points along the Detroit river, and later on was in command of the military at Kingston.
He was also in charge of the forces when Yon Sait, one of the leaders of the rebellion, was hanged. While chief clerk in the quarter-master general's office at Montreal he was accused of being connected with the conspiracy to burn the Parliament Buildings and was forced to retire from the service.

Some years later it was shown that he had been unjustly accused, and he was given a civil service position in the Canadian Department.

After quitting the military service Captain Lee turned his attention to theoretical work, and for five years travelled with E.
A. Southern, Mary Gannon, Charles Fisher and other noted players of that time.

Trade in the Provinces.

TORONTO, June 30.—Trade in the Province of Ontario has been quiet, owing to the election on Tuesday. There is no feature in the trade situation in Nova Scotia beyond favorable crop prospects.
Demand in staple lines in the Province of Quebec continues meagre. Exports are restricted, and buyers generally show hesitation. Only here are 800 business failures in the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland reported. Since January 1st a total of 1,000 failures has been reported in the Dominion of Canada. The increase in total liabilities in the first half of this year is $9,500,000 more than in the corresponding period of 1893. Increases in number of failures and liabilities are more conspicuous in returns from Quebec and Ontario.

Laird on Trial in Kincardine.

KINCARDINE, Ont., June 28.—The preliminary investigation of the charge against S. H. Laird of killing Angus Macintosh was commenced before Magistrate Barker and Mayor Toynot. The only evidence taken was that of a number of young men who swore that on May 24th at Lockport they heard Laird say "I am a murderer and the man that killed Macintosh is taking a drink with me and some friends at the time and made the remark in a joking manner. The case was adjourned until Tuesday next, when Laird was allowed to go on his own bail, $500.

The Owen Sound Hotel Robbery.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., June 30.—A burglar of a sum of $875 and $200 in notes at Queen's hotel here. It appears that two months ago the guilty parties. They were seen in the motor car in the Queen's and in some way obtained the key of the safe and made a duplicate. They were captured in the vicinity of Holland Centre, where they have been living a lordly life. Upon their arrest they confessed and $650 was recovered. They are now in the county jail here awaiting trial.

The Registry of Work.

TORONTO, June 28.—Dr. Gilmore, ex-M.P.P., has been appointed registrar of York county, lately vacated by Mr. John Ridout. Hon. Charles Drury, late Minister of Agriculture, has been appointed sheriff of Simcoe to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Phelps.

A Respite for a Disabled Ship.

NEW YORK, July 3.—United States Commissioner Shields has rendered a decision on the appeal of the captain of the steamer Kenilworth. The decision holds that the captain is not liable for the loss of the steamer Kenilworth, and that the vessel is to be allowed to proceed on its voyage.

Chicago, July 3.—Judge Payne has granted a stay of execution in the case of Francis Fitzgerald, because of the present hearing. Fitzgerald's hanging was set for July 2, but the court announced that the execution of the sentence will be deferred until the present hearing is completed.

The Kaiser's Clemency Acclaimed.

BREITENBURG, July 3.—The Berlin press was unanimous in the praise of the Emperor's action in pardoning the French officers who were convicted of spying upon the fortifications of Kiel.

Death and Door Factory Burned.

WESTON, Ont., June 30.—The large saw and door factory owned by Mr. Edwin Shattworth, with lumber and machinery, was totally destroyed by fire. The loss is about $100,000.

Mrs. Sallie Chapman Gerion Law, known as "the mother of the Confederate," died at Memphis, Tenn., on Friday, aged 80. During the war Mrs. Law organized the Southern Hospital Corps.

Ann's Son, of Brooklyn, N. Y., aged seven years, was shot and killed on Friday by her father's journeyman, Michael Gener, who immediately killed himself. He had assaulted the girl and feared exposure.

YANKEE LUMBERMEN EXCITED.

They Claim the Wilson Tariff Will Ruin the American Industry.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 3.—A meeting of the lumber exchange was held yesterday to take action on the Wilson Tariff Bill still pending in the House of Representatives.
The meeting was held in the afternoon and the secretary read a number of letters from prominent lumber dealers in the different parts of the country, all of which deplored the tariff and the association take action by sending a delegation to Washington, or otherwise to protect the lumber interest of the lake. Mr. Burns, president, said that the tariff was a blow struck at the lumber market of the United States and the transfer of the industry of Bay City, Buffalo and Tonawanda to Canada.
At the present time there is a duty of $1.50 on lumber dressed on one side and of $2.50 on lumber dressed on both sides.
Every lumber merchant present seemed to regret the tariff, and all agreed that the tariff was a blow struck at the lumber market of the United States and the transfer of the industry of Bay City, Buffalo and Tonawanda to Canada.

George Eliot, the big lumber man on Elk street, said that if he owned lumber mills in Canada he would welcome free trade, but as an American he had no use for it, and offered a preamble and resolutions to the effect that the Buffalo Lumber Exchange was unalterably opposed to lumber being placed on the free list as detrimental to the interests of the American workman.

James Hurd, of Hurd Bros., said that
the freight would not compensate for the cost of the article.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA, June 29.—In the House Mr.
Mallock once more brought to the attention of Parliament the question of freight rates charged upon cattle from the port of Montreal and the necessity for legislation to remedy this evil.

It is impossible for his bill being again reached this session, since the Government had taken all the days of the week for its own business. He went on to say that there was a combination among vessel owners to keep up rates, and this combination had the effect of injuring not only cattle buyers, but the farmers of the country. If the manufacturing industry was injured in this way, the Government would not have hesitated to grapple with the grievance. The cattle trade was equally as important.

Sir Charles Tupper denied that there was any proof of a combination, but promised that the Government bills of a unimportant character were cleared from the order paper, and a few hours were spent on this

What is he killed? No, my son; there is no need of that...

Westlake-Beal.

Prescott Journal.—On June 19th a very large number of relatives and friends assembled at the residence of Mr. Joel Earl, McLeaville to witness the marriage of his daughter Mary, to W. A. Westlake, Glen Buell.

At the appointed time the bridal party came to the place and the ceremony was performed according to the rules of the Methodist church by the Rev. J. E. Richardson, Spencerville. The bride was ably assisted through the ceremony by Miss Emma Hollis of North Augusta, while Mr. W. A. Rowley of New Dublin performed the same office for the groom.

After the ceremony supper was partaken of and a very pleasant evening spent. They left for their home at Glen Buell Thursday with their best wishes for all future happiness, a reception was given to welcome the bride to her new home. The bride was the recipient of numerous very beautiful presents which partially indicated the esteem in which she was held by many friends.

A Small Fire.

The fire brigade got a sudden call to turn out on Sunday morning. A daughter of H. N. Hawks, who resides on Wilts Street, had occasion to light a lamp about eight o'clock that morning and in striking the match part of the burning end dropped on a partly filled box containing kerosene which near the window, setting them on fire, which quickly communicated to the curtains and stand cover. She at once gave the alarm of fire, and while one man ran for the engine another man ran for the fire alarm bell. The fire alarm was at once sounded. In less than two minutes the engine and hose reel were on the way to the scene, when they received the welcome news that their services were not required. The young lady had, with quick presence of mind, pulled the burning curtains and stand cover on to the floor and smothered the fire with a heavy quilt from the bed.

The fire brigade and citizens generally "got there" lively on the alarm being given, and the new fire alarm, which by the way, was only attached to the Presbyterian church bell the evening before, was found to work well in giving the alarm. In this connection, we would state that the formation of all citizens that to-morrow (Wednesday) an alarm will also be attached to the Methodist church bell, and the end of rope secured in a box with glass front which can be broken when an alarm is given. The fire signal will be on the Methodist church bell, two quick strokes with a pause of about five seconds, and then repeat until a sufficient alarm has been given. On the Presbyterian church the number of strokes will be three with a like pause between each three strokes. The two bells will be tested for the information of the citizens at 7 p.m. Wednesday (to-morrow) evening, and every resident is requested to pay particular attention to the strokes so as to fully understand the system to be adopted.

The fire alarm on the Presbyterian bell will be sounded between 6 and 8 o'clock on Thursday evening to call out the fire company for practice, 6 rings in quick succession followed by 10 seconds interval and repeat, will be the signal for firemen's practice. Please bear this in mind.

It is the intention of the officers of the fire company to place a ring on the fire bell for the special benefit of the firemen. Instructions in regard to this will be given next week.

Kempville is only a little village with population about equal to that of Athens, but it is noted for a celebration of Dominion Day.

Some ladies of Almonte scan the registers for travellers who are to spend Sunday in the town, and then mail them neat invitations to attend church.

At the meeting of the Kingston licensed victuallers, it was decided to post a list of the names of persons who will not pay their liquor bills in each hotel and tavern in the city.

The officers elected for the Canada Baptist association are: Moderator, Rev. S. Sheldon, Delta; clerk, J. D. Kellock, Perth; assistant clerk, Rev. J. H. Gilmore, Brockville.

On the 23rd of June, Mr. R. A. Foley, of Rockfield, extracted 207 lbs. all new honey, made after the 13th of June. Before the 23rd of June he had hived twenty swarms from thirty colonies.

It may be news to some to learn that section 2 of chapter 222 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, reads as follows: "It shall not be lawful to shoot, destroy, wound or injure any bird whatsoever, save and except eagles, falcons, hawks, owls, wild geese, blackbirds, kingfishers, grouse, jays, English sparrows and ravens."

And now the farmers are claiming that "leaf curl" has struck the plum trees. If there is anything else that is liable to strike the plum trees this season bring it on and let's have the agency over our heads. They have already been struck by cold weather, frost, bright, orks, yellows and lightning, and have withstood them all, but "leaf curl" is too much for even a plum tree to keep plumb under.

Laying the Corner Stone.

Owing to unavoidable cause, the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new R. C. church, Athens, has been postponed until Sunday, July 15th, at 3:30 p.m. The programme, as outlined on posters and on 3rd page of today's Reporter, will then be carried out.

He Got Left.

Quite a few of the citizens of Athens, allured, no doubt, by the highly colored posters and the glowing description of the sports and band music, went to the classic village on Dominion Day to help celebrate the auspicious event "In the city of the Thousand Isles." Amongst the rest was a young and popular business man of Main street. He took his wife with him along as far as Lyn and then went up to participate in the party of a liberal portion of the famous Lyn strawberries and cream.

He took in the sports, gazed with rapt attention on the "win" instruments and gorged himself on Gray Gey's Foot Guards band, kept time with his hand, foot and chin while the boys whooped up "Marching through Georgia" and "We won't go home till morning." Thus engaged he passed the time and train time on his way without his ever giving a thought to the fact that the conductor of the B. & W. always runs on schedule time, and like time and tide, waits for no man.

Suddenly, the screech of a locomotive, which had the distance aroused him from his dream of bliss, and he made his way to the outside of the crowd and then "struck it" for the station. He saw the "bus" station up and deliver their loads of passengers, the hurrying to and fro of the bands, and the cheery "all aboard" by the conductor, while he was yet in the distance. He put on an extra sport, and just as he reached the bridge near the station the train began to move. But the conductor was on the platform and his efforts to reach the train, and on his remembering the conductor's goodness of heart in stopping the train to allow the Reporter to scribble to go back a half mile after a fifteen cent hat, was certain that when he saw that he was from the scribble of his own town, he, too, would be allowed to get aboard. He hallooed, he saved his hands, and put on extra sport, hoping to excite the sympathy of the conductor; but the momentum of the train kept increasing and when near the town end of the trestle work the panting and exhausted runner gave out and settled down to a walk. At the time of going to press, it was not learned whether he reached Lyn in time to partake of the fresh strawberries or not.
