Fortunes in Sick Whales.

Should you go to the seashore this summer, keep your eyes open for ambergris. It's worth a lot of money today—perhaps $25 or $30 an ounce.

Ambergris is a bluish substance found floating in the sea, and sometimes it is washed up on shore. Within the last few years a vessel owned in Provincetown, Mass., has brought in pieces of this substance valued at some $30,000. The man who finds a medium sized chunk of this jelly, which hardens when exposed to the air, might invest the proceeds from the sale of it and retire for life. A lump the size of a wash-tub would raise the mortgage on the old homestead.

Ambergris for many years was a mystery. It was usually found washing around in the sea, and whence it came and what its composition was were long unknown. Years ago some obscure person discovered its peculiar and valuable qualities. Perfumery makers had long been troubled by the evanescent properties of perfumes, and the great need had been for a binder to produce staying qualities.

This genius took four ounces of the mysterious substance known as ambergris and dissolved it in a gallon of cologne spirits, thus producing a tincture of ambergris. The tincture is allowed to stand for a year to "ripen," after which a small quantity, a few drops, mingled with perfume, gives an odor that lingers.

But ambergris, being so extremely scarce, commands an enormous price. Perfumers use it in only the most expensive perfumes.

In recent years scientists have established the fact that ambergris is really the secretion of a whale suffering from indigestion. Whales are exceedingly fond of squid, the little cuttlefish which swarm in Atlantic waters. Sometimes the whale eats too much of this delicacy. And it always eats carelessly. The squid is provided with a horny beak, which the whale neglects to remove before eating.

The result is that too great an accumulation of these horny substances in the whale's interior causes a rebellion, which results in the accumulation of the horny substances in lumps. The lumps seek the open air, and a small fortune is set floating on the sea.

Perhaps the whale whose interior apartments Jonah inspected was dyspeptic.

Whale hunters always look through the carcass of a captured whale for this substance. But whales are rarer than they once were, and not all of them are suffering with indigestion when caught. So ambergris remains scarce.

It would be a paying investment to buy a whale and make him sick on squids each day.

The first chunk, for which the Provincetown captain got $30,000, was the size of a barrel. And pieces weighing as much as 200 pounds are said to have been found on seashores, where they had been cast up by the waves. At present a pound of crude ambergris is worth, perhaps, $250. Two hundred times $250 is $50,000!

So watch your steps this summer. You might stub your toe on a fortune.

Von Kuehlmann's Successor.

Admiral von Hintze may be a Pan-German, a war-mad German; he may be, as he is reputed to be, a "bad man" in diplomatic relations, but what can he do if he is appointed Foreign Secretary to succeed the unfortunate von Kuehlmann? With the greater part of the civilized globe Germany's foreign relations are now of such a nature that the interchange of communications is kept up by shot and shell, not by written notes. The appointment of the Admiral, who is a man after von Tirpitz's own heart, will not hurt the feelings of any chancellor; it will make no difference in the policies pursued at any foreign capital.

It will be perfectly well understood everywhere that the going out of von Kuehlmann and the coming in of von Hintze have this meaning, and no other, that in obedience to Pan-German demands civil government has been abandoned in Germany, the military power being now supreme. According to report, it was at the German General Headquarters, the Emperor himself being present, that the decision to accept von Kuehlmann's resignation was taken. The offense of the retiring Secretary in declaring or admitting that Germany could not hope for a victory by arms alone, that she must have resort to diplomacy, was, of course, unpardonable. The war party would have no more of him. Von Hintze ought to be entirely satisfactory, but the consequences of his appointment will be chiefly domestic. It is an official, final notice to the German people that they are underlings, mere goods and chattels of militarism. They must fight and pay and suffer, but they are to have nothing to say about the Imperial policies.

The appointment of Mr. Ballin would have been a very different matter. He is an industrial magnate, a conspicuous figure in the commercial world, who may be supposed to have some very definite ideas about what is going to happen to German trade and industry if the war continues, as President Wilson has said it must continue, until the Imperial Power is destroyed or made harmless. Of his appointment to high office note would be taken in foreign capitals, for it would indicate something like a return of reason in Imperial quarters. But the men who make up the war party, the men now in control of German policies, have this in common with the Hohenzollerns, they are all fighting to save themselves, and for Germany, the enforcement of the only conditions on which peace can be made, would make an end of

CABLE NEWS.

BRITISH RAIDS.

LONDON, July 24. Raids were carried out by the British troops last night in the region south of Bucquoy and northwest of Albert, says to-day's War Office report. A few prisoners were taken. A German raid on the British lines northwest of Bethune on the Flanders front, was repulsed.

COMPLETELY FRUSTRATED.

LONDON, July 24. John R. Clynes, the British Food Controller, speaking at the Manston House luncheon yesterday, said that Germany's ambitious hope with regard to her submarine policy has been completely frustrated. He quoted Emperor William's prediction of a year ago to his submarine commanders that they would deliver the knock out blow in the final stages of the war.

MUNITION WORKERS ON STRIKE.

LONDON, July 24. A strike of munition workers began in Birmingham at 6 o'clock this evening, at the hour the day workers finished their work and when the night shift was to come on duty, according to a despatch to the Central News from Birmingham. The aggregate membership of the twelve societies affiliated with the joint committee of the Engineering Trades' Unions is about 65,000, including "about 5,000 women. Officials of the joint committee say they have no reason to doubt that all the workers will be loyal to the resolution to stop work.

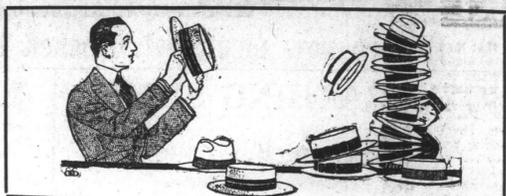

GERMAN CREW SMOTHERED.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE FRONT, July 24.—In one of four German tanks captured by Franco-American troops south of Soissons yesterday, shrapnel had set off a gasoline reservoir and the German crew had smothered. The other three tanks are in action against former owners.

AUSTRIAN PREPARATIONS SHATTERED.

FIRE AT SHIPYARD.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 24. Fire of undetermined origin at Cramps Shipyards early to-day, destroyed the copper plate shop in which interior fittings for torpedo boats were made. No estimate of the loss is available.

DECREASE IN SINKINGS.

LONDON, July 24. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—Conclusive proof of the domination of the U-boat menace is afforded by the Admiralty's latest statement of losses in merchant tonnage. This reveals that the total losses of the world's merchant ships for the month of June were 275,829 gross tons, comprising 161,062 British, 114,567 Allied and neutral. These figures show a month's drop in the world's sinkings of 51,905 tons, as compared with May, 377,786, compared with April and 125,834 compared with March of this year. Compared with June of last year the drop is 437,092 tons. Purely British drops are 64,627, compared with May, 67,005 compared with April, and 63,604 compared with March of this year and 271,232 compared with June of last year. The losses in the world's tonnage including marine risk, are lower for the month of June 1918, than any month since September 1916. Comparing monthly periods the losses for the three months ending with June are lower than for any quarter since the third quarter of 1916. Sailings exceed the high level of recent months. The total sailings for the quarter ending June 30 amount to 7,430,386 tons, being considerably higher than in the two preceding quarters.

WHITE STAR LINER TORPEDOED.

AN IRISH PORT, July 24. The giant White Star liner Justicia has been torpedoed and sunk. It is believed no loss of life occurred. The Justicia was formerly the Dutch steamer Statendam which was taken over by the British Government on the stocks at Belfast when she was nearing completion. She was a vessel of 32,234 tons gross.

London, July 24.—News of the sinking of the Justicia was announced by the Belfast Evening Telegraph. The liner was torpedoed, the paper states. One of the crew of the Justicia is quoted by the newspaper as asserting that ten torpedoes were discharged at the Justicia; four of the approaching missiles, he added, were exploded by gun fire from the ship.

New York, July 24.—The Justicia, reported sunk apparently somewhere off the coast of Ireland, was returning to an American port after delivering a large consignment of American troops. The Justicia had troop carrying capacity of between 7,000 and 8,000 men, her crew numbered 500. The White Star liner Justicia, says a Belfast despatch to-day, was sunk off the north coast of Ireland on Saturday morning last. She carried a crew of between 600 and 700. Eleven members of the crew are dead.

An Irish Port, July 24. (By the A.P.)—Four hundred of the crew of the torpedoed liner Justicia have been landed here. They report that the liner was sunk after a twenty-four hour fight with submarines. No passengers were lost and only ten of the crew were killed. The first torpedo struck the engine room and the ship then stopped, several other torpedoes were fired, but only two of the missiles were effective. The story of the fight between the German submarine and the Justicia, if it could be told, would make one of the finest stories in the annals of anti-submarine warfare. Nothing which has occurred in connection with the sinking of the former White Star liner gives many men any cause for misgivings over the submarine war. The defensive measures and methods showed up to excellent advantage, and indicate that the entente naval forces can always be counted on to make the enemy pay dearly for every attempt he makes.

London, July 24.—The Belfast Telegraph says that land had just been lost sight of when a terrific explosion shook the Justicia. The crew was speedily mustered on deck, but it was soon ascertained that the damage was so vital that the liner would only remain afloat for a sufficient period to enable her to be towed to port. A tug pulled alongside the liner for this purpose, when two more torpedoes were fired by a submarine which had not been sighted. These missiles missed the target, passing between the liner and the tug. Further attempts were made by the submarine to torpedo the Justicia during Friday night, but all failed and it was not until Saturday morning and after the submarine had expended numerous torpedoes that the destruction was accomplished. The final attack was made at eight o'clock on Saturday morning when two torpedoes hit the ship, one struck the engine room causing a violent explosion and the other hurled through the forehold. The liner was in tow at the time and as she did not sink until two o'clock in the afternoon there was lots of time to transfer the crew to the rescuing ships.

THIS IS NEW PERFECTION OIL COOKSTOVE WEEK—

YOU ARE INVITED

YOUR dealer invites you to see his display of New Perfection Oil Cookstoves this week. He is co-operating with other hardware, furniture and department stores to demonstrate to your satisfaction the convenience and economy of cooking on the New Perfection stove.

3,000,000 homes are using New Perfection Oil Cookstoves. That means a saving of millions of tons of coal. It means a saving of time and worry for 3,000,000 housewives. You, too, can banish all drudgery of coal, ashes and kerosene from your kitchen. Use the economical New Perfection—the stove that has made kerosene the ideal fuel.

Your dealer will demonstrate this week how the Long Blue Chimney is necessary in correct oil cooking—how it burns up all the fuel cleanly and gives greatest heat.

The New Perfection Oven bakes unusually well—gives you a complete cooking device for year-round service.

The Cabinet adds to the appearance of the stove and is very convenient in many ways. Look for your dealer's window display this week.

Thoughts Upon the Times

(By PATRIOT.)

We have again and again been warned by the Board of Food Control and others of the necessity of economizing in the use of such food as flour, sugar and bacon. Recently restrictions have been enforced compelling us to heed such warnings. At the present time there is practically no granulated sugar on the market and people have had to use a coarse brown as a substitute. Believing that war conditions demand the enforcement of such strictures, the public philosophically and patriotically submit. But when they find that THIRTY AUTOMOBILES RECENTLY ARRIVED IN THE CITY in place of say three hundred barrels of sugar, can anyone wonder at the indignation one hears expressed on all sides? Householders, shopkeepers and other interested parties have just cause for being indignant. But at whose door must we place the blame? Undoubtedly the Ministry of shipping. Here we have a Department which was created for this very purpose and which is costing us twenty thousand dollars a year, but is proving itself to be nothing but a burlesque on common justice and fair dealing. The past official life and nature of the man at the head of this De-selfishness and personal advancement in the immediate past, that the public will be pardoned if they do not show parliament has been so wrapped up in undue haste to repose confidence in him. The manner in which this and other important matters have recently been handled are forcing things to such a climax that His Excellency the Governor need not be surprised if he be called upon to exercise his duty in the interests of the public good. This is not the first time that foodstuffs have been left behind and automobiles imported instead. It may further be pointed out in justification to the public demands, that the whole coastal service has been disorganized and the country in consequence made to suffer. What for? That a few city sports may be able to import automobiles. And this is done by a Government which boasts that it is a "National" Government and has the support of the fishermen.

There are many places in the country where the fishery to date has been a blank, and as the caplin are now moving off, there is no chance of the trap fishery improving. This will prove a serious matter for a large number of people who depend almost entirely on the trap fishery. They will have to look elsewhere to provide means to tide them over the coming winter.

This is the last week of the Victory Loan. It has been a splendid success and the public are to be congratulated on thus giving tangible proof of their loyalty and patriotism. The only mistake that was made in connection with it was that the authorities allowed such a large proportion to be taken up by outside investors. Their eyes have now been opened and when the next loan is needed the slogan be "Raise it in this Dominion." "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

Judging by the public news coming in the submarines are again active on both sides of the Atlantic. The sinking of a Gloucester fishing vessel off Portland Harbor should prepare our own banking vessels to be on the look out. We should not be surprised to hear of their appearance any day in our own waters.

THE NEAREST THING to the "real thing" about that high priced substitute of Marsh's "Par Excellence" Port Wine, soon to be placed on the market, is the price. Ask anybody who tried it.—July 20, 1918.

Highlanders in Camp.

During the past week the Newfoundland Highlanders have been in camp at their grounds at Mount Pearl, and though the weather has not been ideal for camping purposes they have still contrived to enjoy themselves in spite of the threatening weather. Yesterday afternoon a good number of visitors took advantage of the half holiday to visit the grounds and the Highlanders made their friends heartily welcome. During the afternoon a baseball match was played between members of the Brigade in which officers Trapnell, Herder and Coffield figured conspicuously. The Captain acted as umpire and the satisfaction of all concerned. The Highlanders remain in camp until next week.

School Report.

We acknowledge, with thanks, receipt of a copy of the Report of the Salvation Army Schools, for year ending December 31st, 1917. S. A. Boards have now under their control 67 schools, with an enrolment register of 2,167 pupils, and the general work of the teachers and scholars has been very satisfactory, and the Superintendent looks for better results in 1918.

Published by Authority

Under the provisions of the War Measures Act, 1914, His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to order that the following Regulations respecting Lights shall come into effect as and from this date.

W. W. HALFYARD,
Colonial Secretary,
Dept. of Colonial Secretary,
July 16th, 1918.

1. Measures shall be taken so that the glare or upward reflection from street or other outdoor lights in the City of St. John's or in any place in the Districts of St. John's East or West shall be reduced to fifty per cent of the normal. This Regulation will also apply to Bell Island, Conception Bay.

2. No light shall be lit in any public building, shop or private residence in the City of St. John's, except the windows in such public building, shop or residence are covered by suitable blinds or shades, so that the glare or reflection upon the heavens is reduced to fifty per cent of the normal.

3. Head lights used on any motor cars or motor cycles in or near the City of St. John's, or in or near any settlement in the Districts of St. John's East or West, or on any road approaching St. John's or any of the said settlements, upon which lights may be visible at sea, shall be so obscured that the glare or upward reflection upon the heavens shall be reduced to fifty per cent of the normal.

4. It shall be the duty of the members of the Constabulary to see that these Regulations are strictly enforced and all orders issued by them for their better observance shall be forthwith carried out.

5. Every person convicted of a violation of these Rules and Regulations before a Stipendiary Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100, or in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding Three Months.

Revelations of the Last German Ambassador in England:

My Mission to London, 1912-1914,

By PRINCE LICHNOWSKY.

(With a preface by Professor Gilbert Murray.)

The war has produced few human documents of the importance of Prince Lichnowsky's "Memorandum." It throws a flood of light upon the diplomatic correspondence published by the belligerent chancelleries in the opening months of the war, particularly upon the German White Paper, whose reservations it exposes, whose enigmas it untangles, whose lies it lays bare.

It is the diplomatic story of the Prince's Ambassadorship at London, from 1912 until the war drove him home to Berlin in August, 1914, when he was deprived of rank and distinctions.

Should be read by every man and woman in the Empire; 60 pages, stiff covers.

Prices 25c.; by mail, 27c.

Goodyear Quality Lowers the Cost-per-Mile

Goodyear Value does not stop at fair prices—or rather, it does not begin at any price.

Long mileage is the first aim of the Goodyear factories and excess mileage is the aim of Goodyear Service Stations and Dealers everywhere. We believe that there is not another tyre manufactured today that will give so low a cost-per-mile as the new type Goodyear.

We believe it from our own experience, and because we have seen it proven by figures gathered from many sources.

You can make your decreased tyre-cost-per-mile, through fitting Goodyears to your car, offset your increased petrol-cost-per-mile.

FIGHTING IN ITALY.

ROME, To-day. (Official.) The artillery, at times, were lively in the Lagarina Valley and Valera, where an attempted enemy attack on Monte Como was repulsed. Four hostile planes were brought down and two were brought to earth while raiding Triviso.

SUPERIOR TO ENEMY.

PARIS, To-day. (Official.) Eastern Theatre. — On the west bank of the Corno, a Serbian assault detachment penetrated enemy trenches inflicting heavy losses. In Albania our operations terminated in the occupation of the whole mountain region dominating the right side of the Devoll, above the confluence of the Holitax River. On the left we occupied the villages of Isguba and Kokesheve and repulsed several counter attacks. The number of prisoners taken by our troops on July 21st and 22nd has reached 642, including 6 officers. On the other hand our losses have been insignificant. Our operations which have been completely successful in Albania for two months were conducted with effectiveness very inferior to those of the enemy. Our attacks have succeeded by reason of perfect preparation, and the bravery of our troops, who in the course of engagements, carried out sometimes in snow storms, and sometimes under an unbearable sun in a very difficult country, have by their skill and resolution taken indisputable ascendancy over their adversary.

WAR REVIEW.

LONDON, To-day.

(By the A. P.)—Violent counter attacks and rearward actions in great strength still fail to serve the German high command as barriers to the Allied troops on the Soissons-Rheims front. True they have failed somewhat in slowing down the fast pace set by the Allies at the commencement of the offensive, but nevertheless on the three sides of the new U-shaped front, further important gains have been made. Driving slowly but surely south of Soissons, the French and American troops have pushed their fronts further east toward that part of the Soissons-Chateau Thierry Railway line, that is still in the hands of the enemy, and further south along both sides of the Ourcq River, and the road leading to Fere en Tardenois, Germany's great storehouse for the supply of her troops to the south important penetrations into enemy held ground have been made until the maximum points where the Allies are fighting, near Colney, is about 10½ miles from their point of departure last Thursday. In the Marne region, north of Chateau-Thierry, the French and Americans have met with the fiercest kind of resistance, for here the enemy machine gunners and infantrymen are trying hard to stay their progress, with an endeavour to extricate a large number of German forces which are in danger of capture, and save part of the enormous numbers of guns and material, which it is impossible to get out except by the high roads over the undulating and wooded country.

The advantage in the fighting, however, has been with amalgamated Allied forces, who have pushed on north, passed the village of Episoda, and ousted the Germans from the greater part of the Chatelot Forest. In this region the Allies now hold the villages of Episoda and Trugney-Episoda, which were captured by the enemy and were recaptured on Wednesday in a counter attack by the Americans. Pressing on north the Allies have driven their front beyond Courpou, which lies about 6½ miles northeast of Chateau-Thierry and along the Marne at many points, notably in the region of Charveves and Jaulgonne, and further east at Treloup, the Allies have put the north bank of the Marne further behind them in advances and captured a large number of cannon and machine guns and considerable war material. In the region between the Marne and Rheims, where the German Crown Prince has brought forward large numbers of picked reinforcements to stay the British and Italians, his warriors are meeting hard usage. Following up the advances of the French and Italians of Tuesday, the British immediately to the southwest of Rheims, apparently have begun a movement which possibly portends good results. Here the British have overcome a strong counter attack and a violent bombardment, and struck the enemy line at Vregny for a goodly gain. This manoeuvre if pressed to further advantage will seriously menace the Rheims-Fismes Railway, a scant three miles to the north, and also will tend materially to lessen the grip of the mouth of the pocket through which the Germans are endeavouring to retreat from the Soissons-Rheims salient. Guaged by war maps the new inroads of the Allied troops into the German held territory necessarily add further to the extreme gravity of the situation of the Germans inside the huge pocket, and with the long range guns at both sides of the U heavily bombarding them far behind the actual fighting fronts, with airmen bombing them assiduously, and the infantry attacking them on all sides with rifles and light gun fire, their position seemingly is a hazardous one.

A SCHOOL OF SHARKS.

LONDON, To-day.

From three to eight submarines are said to have been concerned in the attack on the Justicia, according to the Daily Mail, which says the fight began at 3 p.m. Friday and lasted intermittently until Saturday morning. The ship sank about 1 p.m. after nine torpedoes had been fired. When the liner was first struck, the torpedo boat destroyers which accompanied her raced to attack the enemy and dropped machine depth charges, while the boats stood by the ship and a tug took her in tow. The second and third torpedoes were fired about 5 p.m., and both missed their mark, one going ahead of the steamer and the other aft. Two hours later another torpedo was seen coming, but when it got near, a gunner on the liner, with extraordinary aim hit it and it exploded. All was quiet until 8 p.m. when another torpedo was sighted. The gunners on the Justicia placed their shots so near that the torpedo was deflected and missed its target. Most of the crew by this time had been transferred to other ships which had remained near the ship all night. The Justicia was well on her way to port Saturday morning when near 8 o'clock the gunners again were hard at work as the sixth and seventh torpedoes went past. Two hours later a submarine fired the eighth and ninth torpedoes. One of them struck forward and the other aft.

GERMANS THROW IN MORE RESERVES.

PARIS, To-day.

More reserves are being thrown into the battle by the Germans, according to the latest advices reaching Paris, but these were unable to prevent the Allies from making appreciable gains Wednesday. The important point of Oulchy-le-Chateau slowly but surely is being surrounded. If the Germans lose, it will be impossible for them to hang on to Fere-en-Tardenois. Military observers here are convinced that General Ludendorff will shortly launch a counter-offensive. His objects will be, first to clean the front between Soissons and Rheims; second to lessen the demoralising effect of a projected retreat to the Vesle, and third to have Germany gain the initiative. Consequently it is to his interest to prolong the present battle as long as possible, even at the expense of his treasured reserves so as to keep the French occupied and give him time to prepare another blow.

NINE DIVISIONS RUSHED TO AID CROWN PRINCE.

LONDON, To-day.

Nine divisions of reserves from the army of Crown Prince Rupprecht, of Bavaria, and a division from the eastern end of the line, have been rushed to the aid of the Crown Prince William, between Soissons and Rheims, but, says Reuter's correspondent with American troops in France, the Germans may well hesitate to push more troops into the already crowded salient, seeing the difficulty they have of feeding those already there. German resistance on the southern sectors of the salient has been reduced to a mere shell, it is added, and the enemy doubtlessly is concentrating his efforts on keeping open the northern outlets of the salient. The Allied drive toward Oulchy-le-Chateau, not only threatens the enemy communications with Fere-en-Tardenois, but it is a serious threat for the German troops around Episoda, whose line of retreat will pass through the fire.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS ISSUED.

DUBLIN, To-day.

(By the A. P.)—The press censor has issued for publication in to-day's papers, important documents, containing the original details of the reports of the Irish Volunteer leaders in Cork, Kerry and Limerick, explaining to the Irish volunteer executive their actions during the rebellions. The reports are dated September, 1917, and show "the utter futility of the rising and the treachery and selfishness of the Germans toward their unfortunate dupes." The documents were seized by the police during a search, in May last, of the officials of the association for affording aid to rebellion sufferers. They narrate the confusion of plans following on the failure to land an army, and Sir Roger Casement's, Col. Coy, and the Limerick volunteers, concluding his report says, "On Monday morning Lieut. Whelan returned from his second trip to Tralee, having seen Monteth (Captain Robert Monteth of the German Army who was landed in Ireland from a German submarine) and brought word from him that no men were coming, that the arms sent to us were gone, that the Germans were out for cheap Irish blood and that the best thing we could do was to try to bluff through. About 1.30 Monday, I received from Penne, (Patrick H. Penne) Provisional President of Ireland, who was executed, a message beginning, as well as I remember, "The Dublin Brigade goes into action at noon to-day. Carry out your orders."

GERMANS GIVE UP TERRITORY.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 24. (By the A.P.)—With their lines of communication reduced by operations on their flanks, and their rear north of the Marne being constantly punished, the Germans have been forced to give up more territory. The French and American troops rested to-night some distance in advance of the points from where they started. The German retirement, under pressure, is believed to indicate that General Von Boehm, the commander of the army, within the salient has had enough punishment to convince him of the advisability of taking new positions.

Investigate Them.

The charge in the Herald recently against Hon. M. P. Gibbs and an unnamed lawyer, in which accusation is made that in both cases attempts have been made on behalf of young men to evade the provisions of the Military Service Act, should not be passed over lightly.

The Germans will have an interesting and exciting time hunting through the English dictionaries to find out just what Mr. Lloyd George meant when he said "We want no huggemugger peace."

"General Von Bernhardi," says the Kansas City Star, "whose book on Germany and the next War first gave away Germany's plans for world domination, has just been licked by the British. That wasn't planned in the book."

"In our Civil War," comments the Los Angeles Times, "there was but one marked instance of a total disaster in the treatment of prisoners. At Andersonville prison Federal captives were starved, maltreated and murdered. The man directly responsible for this was a Captain Wirz, a German born and bred. After peace was declared he was tried and hanged."

Passing of Rev. Canon Colley.

We regret to chronicle the passing of the Rev. Canon Francis Worthington Colley, whose death occurred at 7 o'clock this morning at the Parsonage, Kelligrews. Deceased suffered for the past two years from a serious internal complaint and with the object of recovering his health, took a trip to New York last year where he consulted specialists and underwent special treatment. Shortly after returning home he entered the General Hospital, this city, where everything possible was done for his comfort but it was plainly evident that recovery was impossible. The late Canon Colley was in his 58th year and was born in the Church of England Rectory at St. John's. Following a brilliant career in his native country he entered St. Augustine's College, Canterbury in 1879 to study for the ministry. Four years later he returned to Newfoundland and was made a Deacon, and went to Trinity to replace the Rev. Mr. Foster who with his young bride lost his life on the ill-fated steamer Lion. From Trinity he was appointed to the mission of Salmon Cove and in 1885 he was ordained Priest, and in the same year volunteered for mission work on the Labrador where he laboured incessantly for two years. His next appointment was as Curate to the Rev. J. J. Curling, of Bay of Islands, till 1889 and on the retirement from the diocese of Rev. Mr. Curling he was appointed Incumbent of the Mission. In 1891 he accepted the incumbency of the large mission of Carboneau where he labored for about 21 years. In 1912 he was sent to England where he remained one year on deputation work for the S. P. G., and on returning to Newfoundland was appointed to the Mission of Foxtrap.

The late Canon W. F. Colley was a son of the late venerable Canon E. Colley, of Topsall, and was created a Canon of the Cathedral of England on July 9th, 1911, and given the Stall of St. Patrick, in succession to the late Canon Dunsfield. The funeral takes place at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at Topsall. To the bereaved relatives and friends the Telegram offers sincere sympathy.

MONEY TURNS UP.—It was rumored around town recently that a large sum of money had been stolen or was missing from the L. S. P. U. Hall. We are pleased to state that such was not the case, the money having since turned up. The person who took it did so by mistake.

SOLD OUT.—That's what happened to the first shipment of Marsh's "Far Excellence" Port Wine after being two days on the market. The Royal Stores Grocery still have a small quantity, get yours there. jly20,lm,co4

ANOTHER DISGRACEFUL SIGHT.—We draw the attention of the Municipal Council to the great pile of clay that is deposited on the west side of the Court House, facing Water St. We do not think this soil adds any beauty to the Court House and it might profitably be removed.

C. C. C. BOAT CLUB.—There will be a meeting of the C. C. C. Boat Club to-night at 8.15 in the C. C. C. Hall. J. TOBIN, Sec'y.—jly25,11

OPENING NEW STORE.—Mr. Chas. Hutton, the ever popular musician, is having a shop built on the back of his present building, which will face on Duckworth Street and McBride's Hill. The shop will be used as a piano show room. Mr. B. Bowering, the contractor, is handling the job, and is accomplishing quick work.

There will be a Special Meeting of the Delegates of the St. John's Amateur Baseball League at the Office of the Imperial Tobacco Company after to-night's game. J. O. HAWVERMALE, Vice-President.—jly25,11

Nascope Sails. The s.s. Nascope will sail at noon to-morrow. By her two apprentices, Messrs. Stewart and Parsons, who came here on the ship when she last came from the north, are returning to Hudson's Bay stations; also the Rev. Mr. Peck is going down on a missionary trip. Fishery Report. Trinity—Codfish and caplin scarce. Lamaline—Good fishing for traps, but salt is scarcely obtainable. Fortune—No bait; fish scarce. St. Mary's—Traps 5 to 10 qt.; caplin scarce. Motor Accident. To-day, at 1 o'clock, Dr. Cowperthwaite while turning up to Cavendish Square from Forest Road in his motor car, was injured as a result of the car of Miss Reid striking his. Miss Reid was turning into Forest Road from King's Bridge and they met at the junction of the two. The wind guard of Dr. Cowperthwaite's car was smashed and a deep cut inflicted on his face. Narrow Escape. Yesterday afternoon while on a ship at Harvey's wharf, a young man named Kean, son of Sergt. Kean, of the East End Fire Hall, fell into the hold, a depth of 16 feet. Fortunately he was not injured, no bones being broken, and beyond a bad shaking up he was soon as well as ever. Salt is too scarce! London.—A British air officer writing from the western front says that the Germans have this spring brought camouflage to a state of artistic perfection that is almost incredible. "The most expert and highly experienced airmen are often deceived except when flying low," he writes. "As a first step, the German military authorities sought suggestions from the most distinguished German artists in color. As a next step every available man was turned on to the business of carrying out the artists' ideas. "Miles of canvas painted to look like roads were constructed, under which regiments could march without being seen. Paper encampments were improvised, and aerodromes, woods, factories and villages of a purely fictitious character were set up merely to distract observers and to cover the movements of troops and guns. Nothing on so vast a scale has ever been attempted before." Corn-colored foulard trimmed with cream yellow lace makes a gown for any occasion. Darnstitch embroidery makes a very simple muslin frock into something of real elegance. DIED. Passed peacefully away at 7.30 last evening after a long and painful illness, Bridget (Bridie), aged 20 years, beloved daughter of Thomas (cabbie) and the late Ellen Power leaving to mourn her a father, four brothers, three sisters and a large circle of friends; funeral to-morrow, Friday, at 2.30 p.m., from her late residence, No. 9 Barron Street. Lack of Housing Accommodation. (Vancouver Daily News.) From every industrial centre in Canada there are coming complaints as to lack of housing accommodation. The scarcity of labor, the cost of material and the uncertainty as to the future, seem to have largely driven private capital out of the business of house building. Will the government have to add this to the many lines of activity it is being gradually driven to undertake? The indications point that way. And for that matter, why not? In past years there have been companies which built large numbers of houses and sold them on the installment plan. Is there any reason in the nature of things why a municipality cannot do likewise? Ontario has appointed a Provincial Housing Commission to study the problem, and there are hints that its report will recommend a wide application of the system of permitting municipalities to guarantee the bonds of companies which will agree to construct modern houses on the basis of a limited dividend.

BRITISH FIGHTING VALIANTLY.
LONDON, July 24.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—
A despatch from French headquarters reads as follows: Some of the hardest fighting on the whole battlefield is now raging on the new British front astride the Ardre in Montagne-de-Rheims. The British arrived at the point of concentration south of the Marne on the 17th inst. and attacked on the morning of the 20th on a five mile front, between the southern edge of Coverton Wood and the village of St. Euphrase. They were opposed by four German divisions, the 26th, 103rd, 123rd and 2nd which have been engaged since the 15th, and suffered heavily in an attempt to pierce the Italian front with a view to reaching the Marne and turning the French position at Montagne-de-Rheims. Last evening the German resistance was most stubborn and the fighting was persistent along the whole front between the Marne and Verigy, which village with the woods to the east was captured by the British. Two British divisions in the Ardre sector were engaged in the battle for four days and scored advances. The line to-night runs roughly along the railway from Nantouilly to Chateau Thierry. The Germans are using artillery on both sides of the Ourcq, and their front is stiffened with machine gun nests. Generally speaking the Franco-American bridgeheads north of the river are being steadily enlarged. During the day we advanced two miles in the region of Chartreves and Mont Pierre. It is known that the enemy engaged with 60 or 70 divisions since the 15th inst.

UNABLE TO HALT MOVEMENT.
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 24.—Along the line north of Chateau Thierry the Franco-American forces have driven the Germans out of nearly all of the Chateau Forest. The Allied advance has made a considerable jump in this area. The Germans are continuing their rearward fighting, and depending much on their machine guns. Further northwest the Americans gained the ascendancy over the Germans and drove through beyond the town of Epieds. American cavalry was used alone in the operations north of the Chateau Thierry. Northward the most intense resistance was offered along the extended German right flank, but the reports are that the Allies have made gains and that the Germans have been unable to halt the movement towards their line of supply.

MURMAN AGREEMENT.
LONDON, July 24.
A Russian wireless message gives the text of an agreement between the representatives of Great Britain and the United States, France and the Murman regional council. "For the defence of the Murman region against the powers of the German coalition." The Russian forces will be under a Commander appointed by the Council, but admission of Russian volunteers into the Allied forces will be permitted according to the messages. The three Entente Powers are to provide the Russian command with the necessary help in equipment supplies, transports and instruction for the Russian armed forces. They agree not to interfere with the home affairs. In view of the impossibility of importing necessary food from Russia the three powers promise as far as possible to secure food for the whole population of the region, the distribution of which will be carried out by trustworthy Russian troops.

SNOWING IN CALGARY.
CALGARY, July 24.
Rain fell during Monday night and morning, and it snowed yesterday afternoon.

REVOLUTIONISTS SHOT.
AMSTERDAM, July 24.
Up to July 19th more than two hundred social revolutionists of the left had been shot by the Bolsheviks for participation in the assassination of Ambassador Von Mirbach and in the counter-revolution. The German charge at Moscow has been informed by Foreign Minister Tschitcherine, says a despatch from Berlin. Among those shot, it is added, was Alexandrovitch, Vice-President of the Committee, which directed the plot against the German Ambassador. An additional one hundred persons are under arrest.

indications point that way. And that matter, why not?
In past years there have been companies which built large numbers of houses and sold them on the instalment plan. Is there any reason in the nature of things why a municipality cannot do likewise?
Ontario has appointed a Provincial housing Commission to study the problem, and there are hints that its report will recommend a wide application of the system of permitting municipalities to guarantee the bonds companies which will agree to construct modern houses on the basis of limited dividend.

A PRACTICAL SET OF SHORT CLOTHES FOR A LITTLE GIRL.

2513—This outfit comprises a simple dress, a short-waisted petticoat, and a combination garment consisting of waist and drawers which could also serve as a model for bloomers. The dress is a design good for lawn, batiste, gingham, chambray, voile or percale. For the undergarment muslin, cambric, long cloth and nainsook could be used. If the combination undergarment is used as rompers, it could be of galatea, gingham, drill, linen, repp or percale.

The Pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years. Size 4 requires, for the dress, 2 3/4 yards; for the petticoat, 1 1/2 yard; for the combination, 1 1/2 yard, of 36-inch material.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Lining the Railway.

OR THE CARIBOU IN ACTION.
Why does the Caribou with nostrils wide Stalk up and down so restlessly the moor?
Why is it that from here to there we stride
As if some rent in yonder line were torn?
Over the shell-torn fields with daunt-
less pride,
Throwing for now the thought of self
aside,
Halt wishing that the Hun may stumble through
That we may get a bloody job to do.
But, no! They hold; and the old 'Bou rears his head
And tears the turf with an impatient
read,
For but a hundred yards from yonder
shed
The threatening German lies and
hides his head:
Prepared is he to make a great attack,
While Scots and Tommies hope to hold him back.
The level fields are green, the hedges
neat,
To see you stately grove is quite a treat;
A farm house here and there helps out
the "scape
And gives our field of fire a lengthy shape.
A piece of railway curved behind us
lies,
From flank to flank our back ground
it supplies.
How little did we think that on this track
The wearied "Bou" would beat the German back.
Adding by glorious deeds another page
To the great history of a glorious age.
'Twas in the afternoon the guns spoke out
And round our ears the shells began to spout.
The bullets hissed, and the planes came hovering by,
And here and there the wounded gave
a cry.
Old Jerry's coming over, that's a cinch.
We sat there. Aye, and smoked and had a lunch,
And hopped from hole to hole for friendly punch;
We shared our jam, Macoonies and
bread,
We lived like lords, but still kept down
the head.
But hallo, boys, look coming down
the green:
Some wounded Tommies beating back
are seen;
They pass quite close and gasp a breathless word:
'He's coming over massed' was all
we heard.
They hurried on to pass the danger
zone,
Back with a Bilguy wound—glad
'twas his own,
For soldiers all in times like this are glad To hasten from a scene so wild and mad.
They take a chance and beat it
through the shells,
They think of home, of Susies and of Nells.
They pass, and o'er the hill they disappear,
And once again to Fritz we give an ear.
Look! there are more and more, and more again.
Some Scots, some Tommies, aye, and
our men;
They beat it back. Ah! lucky dogs thought we.
A day or two and your Emma Jane you'll see.

But now they come in numbers far too great.
By gum! There's something wrong:
are we too late?
Some run, some walk, and help a crippled mate,
And many a stalwart meets a manly fate.
And now the Hun is coming fast and strong,
He thinks the game as easy as a song.
But—"Line the track," our captains
brave are calling:
As here and there our best men fast
are falling.
Our sturdy Sergeant prances to and fro,
As if through him a whizz-bang
couldn't go.
"Come back," he cried, "you cowards,"
to those who ran.
By Heaven! I'm proud to say they weren't our men.
We lined the track and cheered these frightened kickers,
We gave them flags and taught them to be stickers.
We sniped the Hun, and dis'ed him
out full rations,
Of Lewis gun and other preparations.
Our brave old Colonel played the game that day,
Using a common rifle smeared with clay
He took a chance and lay beside his men,
He sniped some Huns. The numbers?
Almost ten.
He sent his runners out to either flank
And found each way two hundred yards a blank.
A while has passed; these nasty gaps
are filled,
And dark comes on and all the guns
are stilled.
Patrol goes out to guard against surprise,
And wearied laddies sleep with open eyes.
For now—'tis near a fortnight since
we rested
And all our feet are sore and spirits tested.
We heard that we were being relieved
that night.
Well! In a sense we had a short respite,
But round that place for several days
we hung Ready to dash where'er surprise was
to come.
Till all was safe, then to the rear we go To fill our much thinned ranks and take a blow.
But, boys, the 'Bou is just as strong
as ever,
Her spirit lives, and death shall grip
it never.
'Twill pass from age to age with life
eternal,
Taught to each child by loving lips
maternal.
As long as this old world continues to roll,
And its shores are washed by the sea,
And the babes unborn are under control
Forgotten she never will be.
The deeds she has done, and the fame
she has won
Into lullaby songs shall be made,
And the babes unborn shall be soothed
by the songs of the game that she played.

PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

NO GAME.
No games yesterday. Consequently, the weather was fine. Let us hope the gods will be propitious for to-night's match. Once again we would say that the Cubs and Wanderers will contest in order to decide the team which is to play the Irish at Mount Cashel. We are afraid to say much more, as it might rain, and we don't believe in tempting Providence.
LATER.
We understand that the Cubs are rather sore over what they claim were the circumstances leading up to the cancellation of their game with the Wanderers which it was understood was to be played yesterday afternoon. Whatever may be the reason it is to be exceedingly regretted that Mount Cashel lost the benefit of the very large gate which undoubtedly would have been realised had the match been run off yesterday.
"MONTY."
If you want to win a wager
Just bet the gallant Major
Will give a wrong decision in a game.

We've watched him all the season
And can say with goodly reason He's a pippin—and all players say the same.

he had hit a home run, and wants to ettes. Five dollars, please.

BELL.
O Bell, Bell, Bell!
He's the shortstop of the Cub team
and he knows his business well.
He can stop 'em, best and worst,
And shoot 'em 'cross to first.
While the painting runner vainly slides, and harshly mutters, he-

The brand of "Port Wine" which has made its appearance on the market during the past week is not of our manufacture and we know nothing of it.
It is impossible to imitate or copy
our brands. In regard to our com-

When we charge you a dollar a bot-

Union Discusses Housing Problem.

Last evening the local branch of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners met in the British Hall for the purpose of discussing the Housing Problem. Hon. Mr. Gibbs attended and in a comprehensive address explained and enunciated the details and particulars of the scheme.
The problem of the city home, said he, is the problem of humanity. Modern industrialism has produced a handless class, and that those who built the city homes and amassed its wealth were not sharers in it. The open fields within the city are inviting occupancy, and there the homes of the working people should be built.
At the close of the address a cordial vote of thanks was tendered.

"Mostly Colonels."

Editor Evening Telegram.
Sir—I have before me a copy of "The Royal Gazette" with a notice that forty Justices of the Peace have been given positions under the Tribunal Commissioners, to do exactly the same work as our fine stalwart "Police" Serg. O'Neill is about to undertake on the Labrador coast.
Does this mean that we are to see the country overrun with this camouflaged of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment?
What I object to is the principle.
If we once allow all these persons to wear Regimental uniform there is no knowing where it might lead to,
and the great privilege it has been to men to wear it with distinction to themselves and honour to the Regiment and country, becomes in reality,
a joke.
Let them by all means carry on the duties entrusted to them, and the exceptions be few, as we will require all the men available, but let us, even if we use only the economy argument, see that the Khaki is given only to those men whom the Tribunals think are fit to protect their country and children by service overseas.
Thanking you,
"RETURNED SOLDIER."

Stars Defeat C. E. I.

Last evening's football game between the Stars and C. E. I. was a most interesting one and resulted in a victory for the former. All through the first half the Stars had the best of the game, keeping the ball in the opposite end of the field most of the time, and by half time they had scored 4 goals. In the second half the C. E. I. put up a big show and quickly scored 2 goals, but the game ended before any more scoring was done. The C. E. I. lack of combination was very noticeable, and it was because of this that they lost many good chances. Mr. J. J. St. John was referee and the players were:
STAR—Cooney, goal; Sullivan, Kay-snagh, backs; Duggan, Hart, Bell, halves; Jackman, Evans, McGrath, Evans, Conran, forwards.
C. E. I.—Lueh, goal; Reid, Stick, backs; Drover, Watson, Hallett, halves; Robertson, Fitzgerald, Jerrett, Ewing, Auckinloch, forwards.

Are You Master

you? Does it insist on following you home and to bed and worrying you day and night until you are on the verge of nervous collapse?
A few weeks' use of Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food will do wonders for any business man or business woman whose nervous system has failed to stand the strain.
It nourishes the nerves back to health and vigor.

Football.

To-morrow evening's game will be a most interesting one, as the contesting teams are the Stars and B.
I. S. Should the latter win they will tie with the Star, and if the C. E. I.
draw with the Collegians in the final game of the first round, all four teams will be equal. A contest between the Star and B. I. S. always means an interesting exhibition, and this one promises to be no exception.

Girls Strike.

Owing to a disagreement with the manager of the Newfoundland Knitting Mills over a laundry pay, twenty-six of the girls working there walked out yesterday afternoon. Out of thirty-eight female employees working upstairs, twelve only remained behind. Until the matter is adjusted satisfactorily the strikers absolutely refuse to go back, and that is the keynote of the whole business.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL DAY.
WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, July 24. (By the A.P.)—Tuesday was another successful day for the Allies along the entire active front. The bag of prisoners captured by the French northwest of Mont Didier numbered more than 1,500. The victory was gained with slight losses. Further northward on the northern side of the Marne the French and American troops met several strong German attacks to which they responded with vigorous counter attacks, as a result of which the Allied line was again advanced. The Americans made their gains in the Barbelon Woods. On the eastern side of the salient the British and French advanced an average of one kilometre. The British increased the number of prisoners taken in three days to 1,100 by capturing three hundred. Approximately 180,000 dead, wounded and prisoners have been lost by the Germans since July 15th. The enemy continues to burn stores and munitions within the salient, being fearful that the future will see him driven back much further.

ATTACK REPULSED.
PARIS, July 24.
 The Germans last night delivered a counter attack upon the Allied lines in the vicinity of Voligny, five miles southwest of Rheims. The war office announced to-day that the attack had been repulsed. There was great activity by the artillery along the front during the night between the Aisne and the Marne and northeast of Rheims.

HAMMERING THE ARMY.
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 24. (By the A.P.)—The French and British and the Americans are still hammering the flanks of the German Crown Prince's army. The Germans are known to have brought up fresh support forces at some points but the Allies report the situation as favorable.

FIERCE FIGHTING TUESDAY.
LONDON, July 24.
 There was fierce fighting Tuesday between the Americans and the Germans along the crests northeast of Chateau Thierry, says a despatch from Reuter's correspondent on the French front. In the morning the enemy retook Epieds and the hamlet of Trigny. A mile to the south the Americans counter attacked and re-entered Trigny and continued to press back the Germans who still hold Epieds and the despatch was filed. In the region between Mont perre and Charves the French and Americans pushed forward two miles, capturing a number of fortified farms and the Americans completed their occupation of the Barbelon Wood. A number of fires are visible from behind the German lines. At some places the enemy is burning his stores, while elsewhere they have been set on fire by Allied shells. A great fire has been burning in the important base of Perre en Tardenois since Monday evening.

GERMANS DESPERATE PLIGHT.
WASHINGTON, July 24.
 Massed German reserves are holding open the jaws of the man-trap that General Foch has sprung in the Aisne-Marne region in a desperate effort to stabilize their lines without the crushing of the forces withdrawn from the Chateau Thierry and Marne salients. Official reports to the war department show that the enemy has but a single railway line remaining in his hands over which to get his heavy material out of the pocket into which he has been forced by Allied and American advances. The situation was graphically explained to-day by General March, Chief of Staff, in a mid-week conference with newspaper correspondents. For the last two days, he said, the employment of probably fifteen divisions of fresh German reserves on the Soissons jaw of the trap has practically staid the line there. On the eastern jaw front the enemy has been crushed back more than a mile on a ten mile front, further impelling his whole position in the salient from which he is now endeavoring to extricate his troops. The railway running from Soissons to Chateau Thierry is either in our hands or under fire. He said, indicating the front on his war maps, the only way in which the enemy can get out now or get supplies over a railway is by the remaining line from Nantouin on the Ourcq to Baroches on the River Vesle.

IMPORTANT ADVANCE MADE.
PARIS, July 24.
 Highly important gains by the French and American forces on the Aisne-Marne front are reported in the official statement of the war office to-night. In the centre of the line an advance of nearly two miles was made. Desperate engagements were fought in the direction of Epieds and Trigny, which villages the Americans again recaptured from the Germans. To the north of Epieds the Franco-American line is now beyond Corpill.
