KENTVILLE MURDER AND SUICIDE

MILLEDGE RUFUSE KILLED WOMAN AND SHOT HIMSELF

The Tragedy Occurred Thursday Evening at Pine Wood, Just North of the Town—Domestic Troubles Probably Caused the Terrible Deed.

A Kentville despatch says: The whole countryside from Kentville to Aldershot was aroused Thursday evening by a murder and probable suicide, when Milledge Ruffuse, aged fifty years, shot and killed Mrs. Ross Veiner, seriously injured Mrs. H. Felig and then turned the gun on himself, inflicting what physicians think will prove a fatal wound.

The tragedy occurred at 10.30 p. m. at Pine Wood, one and a quarter miles north of Kentville, on the road to Aldershot Camp. Domestic troubles, as advanced by neighbors as the probable reason for the deed, Mrs. George Walker, mother of Mrs. Veiner, escaped being shot by flight.

According to neighbors, Ruffuse, who is a carpenter, had been living with Mrs. Veiner for some time, although they had not married. Last week Mrs. Veiner left Ruffuse after a bitter quarrel, during which she accused him of seeing other women, and transferred her belongings to her mother's home at Pine Wood.

Thursday night Ruffuse went to Pine Wood and asked Mrs. Veiner to come home. She refused and another quarrel arose. At 10.25 he again asked her to come home and when she declined he pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot her in the stomach, killing her instantly. He then turned the gun on Mrs. Felig and shot her through the back, inflicting a serious but not fatal wound. He later fired a shot at Mrs. Walker, but missed and she fled from the house.

Soldiers at Aldershot Camp, aroused by the firing then came upon the scene. They tried to enter the house but found the door barred. Axes were then brought into action, the men working with feverish haste with the hope of capturing Ruffuse alive.

Just as the last obstruction was being removed a shot was heard and when the men rushed into the house they found Ruffuse lying in a pool of blood on the floor, shot through the stomach, with a smoking revolver still in his hand. He was unconscious.

Military physicians were quickly summoned to the house. They attended to the injuries of the two wounded. Mrs. Felig, although seriously hurt, is expected to recover, but grave doubt was expected about the survival of Ruffuse.

Here is the story of the tragedy as told to a neighbor by Mrs. Walker: "He came into the house and asked my daughter to come back with him. She refused and they quarrelled. He asked her again and when she said 'No,' he took the gun from his pocket and shot her. Mrs. Felig and I then tried to leave the house, but he shot at us and hit her in the back and she fell down. He then shot at me, but missed and when he looked for me again I was gone."

THE MURDERER DEAD

KENTVILLE, July 8.—Milledge Ruffuse, who on Thursday night shot and killed Mrs. J. Veiner and seriously injured Mrs. Felig at the Pine Woods, died Saturday afternoon at the military hospital at Aldershot Camp. Ruffuse was under guard at the hospital, as he was wanted for the double shooting. When he was found wounded Thursday night, military physicians held out little hope for his recovery. He took a turn for the better Friday and was expected to live, but later got worse and died writhing in agony.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Evelyn G. Foster Observes Her 55th Birthday Anniversary.

A few of the near neighbors and relatives of Mrs. Evelyn G. Foster, gathered at her home on Granville street on Monday afternoon, July 8th, to spend a social hour and to extend congratulations. Mrs. Foster having arrived at the age of eighty-five years on that day.

Among those present were: Rev. and Mrs. M. S. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Warren, Mrs. E. C. Young, Mrs. J. R. Ross, Mrs. John Cameron, Mrs. J. R. DeWitt, Miss Helen Vidito, Mrs. A. S. Bull and daughter Emilie, Mrs. A. S. Williams, Mrs. C. H. Strong, Mrs. Mary Blanchard, Mrs. S. H. Eagleson, Mrs. Eugene Saunders, Miss Mildred Manthorne and Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Young and daughter Ruth.

Miss Manthorne attired in a costume of the hostess and of the fashion of many years ago, received and introduced the guests. After a social hour spent in happy conversation and the extending of congratulations and best wishes a dainty lunch was partaken of. Before the company dispersed, Rev. Mr. Richardson read a portion of scripture and offered prayer and a number of the good old hymns were sung.

A coincident of this occasion was the fact that the day was the birthday of the oldest and youngest member of the company, viz., Mrs. Foster and her grand-niece, Miss Ruth Evans Young. Mrs. Foster, who has lived the greater part of her life in Bridgetown, is the youngest daughter of the late Edward Thorne and Mary (Charlton) Young, and is the only surviving member of that family. She is active and in possession of all her faculties and enjoys good health.

The MONITOR extends congratulations and best wishes for a return of many more such occasions.

MIDDLETON PASTOR'S SILVER WEDDING.

Rev. W. R. Turner Remembered on His Attaining Twenty-Five Years of Married Life.

MIDDLETON, July 7.—Last evening, a pleasant surprise was given Rev. W. R. Turner, pastor of the Methodist church, and Mrs. Turner. They were invited to the church where friends from Middleton, Wolfville, Port Friction and neighboring towns had gathered to offer congratulations and good wishes upon the completion by the pastor of twenty-five years of married life. Isaac Young was chairman. After addresses by Rev. Dr. Hutchins and Rev. W. S. H. Morris and a letter was read from Rev. D. K. Grant, who was unable to be present, Captain G. H. Yroom presented an address and a liberal purse of silver to the bride and groom of twenty-five years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Turner made feeling acknowledgements of the tokens of good will towards them.

(Mr. and Mrs. Turner have many friends among our readers in Annapolis and Digby Counties, having resided years ago in Digby and Weymouth.—Ed. MONITOR.)

Death of Charles T. King.

The many friends of Mr. Charles T. King will be pained to learn of his death which occurred suddenly on May 28th. Mr. King lived for many years at 1378 Masonic avenue, San Francisco, California. He was a prominent attorney and was fifty years of age at the time of his death. He was a man of jovial disposition, with a smile for every one with whom he came in contact and his death will be a decided shock to his old associates. The deceased left to mourn his loss two brothers, Fred G. King, of Berkeley, formerly of Bridgetown, N. S., and Dr. C. O. Forrester, of 1220 Masonic avenue, besides two sisters, Mrs. George Shaw and Mrs. L. S. Gilbert, both of New York city.

A San Francisco correspondent writes the MONITOR as follows: Charles Tupper King was a distinguished and prominent attorney in this city and much admired for his intense loyalty and devotion to the interests of the British Empire, especially at this time. He helped many a man on his way to the front.

Death of Mrs. Phillips

An Esteemed Citizen, of Middleton, Passed Away in Montreal.

On Sunday, June 30th, news was received that Mrs. C. N. Phillips had died the previous night in Montreal. Mrs. Phillips had gone to that city a few weeks ago to visit her son, Kenneth, but was seized with illness immediately upon her arrival. A few days before her death, word had been received here that there was no hope of recovery. The news of her death, though expected, nevertheless came as a shock in the town where she had spent her whole life. The body arrived on Wednesday and the funeral was held next day from her late home. Rev. W. R. Turner conducted the service, assisted by Rev. D. K. Grant and Rev. Dr. Hutchins. The large number present indicated the esteem and affection with which she was regarded in the community.

A TRIBUTE OF RESPECT

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT LAWRENCE TOWN

Two More Heroes From Our Sister Town Who Have Paid the Supreme Sacrifice—A Sketch of Their Honorable Careers

A memorial service for Harland Balcom and Charles N. McKeown, who have paid the supreme sacrifice, was held in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, June 30th, when a large number of sympathizing friends gathered to pay their tribute of respect to the departed.

The church was beautifully decorated with flags, potted plants, pictures of the fallen and an Honor Roll was hung, showing names of the soldiers belonging to the homes and members of the church and congregation.

Rev. F. H. Beals conducted the services, assisted by Revs. S. J. Boyce and Mr. Munroe, of Annapolis Royal. Pastor Beals began his impressive address by saying: "There are several things that combine to make this service most sadly interesting."

1st, the blows have fallen upon the same family (uncle and nephew).

2nd, in the one case it is a mere boy whose memory we honor. In the other, it is the only son of parents advanced in years.

3rd, Another is that the relatives had no opportunity to be with their loved ones, and did not have even a last look at the precious bodies, nor their graves to visit or keep tidy.

Pte. Charles H. McKeown, son of Deacon and Mrs. Wm. McKeown, was born at Brickton, in 1880 and was 33 years of age at the time of his death. He enlisted in the 219th Battalion in the spring of 1916, trained at Aldershot until October when he went overseas with the Highland Brigade. Being unfit for trench duty he was transferred to the 14th Co., C. F. C., and while engaged in mail work, was seriously wounded and was admitted to the war hospital at Chichester, England, on May 28th, where he died on May 30th.

"Charles," as he was familiarly called, was a man of kindly disposition, who had a host of friends, who appreciate the contribution he has made to the winning of the war and who sympathize very deeply with the bereaved families. He was baptized into the fellowship of the Baptist church on April 20th, 1902, by Rev. W. L. Archibald.

Unfortunately no word has come as yet from Chaplain or nurse respecting the closing hours of his life, but we trust that his father's and mother's God was with him and that he has gone to be forever with the Lord. Harland Balcom, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Morse Balcom, enlisted in the 219th in the spring of 1916. He trained at Bridgetown, Annapolis for a few weeks and spent the summer at Camp Aldershot, sailing for England on Oct. 13th, where he entered Whitley Camp on the 19th. While in England he had an attack of influenza and later was in hospital for 21 days with mumps. Had also treatment for his ear in Bramshot Hospital. At this time Harland was given an opportunity to return home, which he refused to take. He went to the hospital at Folkestone in September and while there had his throat operated on and was again given a chance to come home, which he again refused to take. Having enlisted to go to France, nothing else would satisfy him.

Accordingly he crossed the channel the first of November, where he joined the 12th Canadian Railway troops, Transport section.

In January, 1918, Harland was sent to the Guards Battalion for a course in musketry. Here he passed his examinations successfully and was made Lance Corporal, returning to his Battalion about the middle of March.

He was baptized by Rev. H. G. Mellick, April 12th, 1914.

Interesting facts respecting his life and death in the far off land are contained in letters sent—first, from Harland to his S. S. teacher, Mrs. I. F. Brown, in which he was well and hopeful. The second was from his Captain to Mrs. Balcom, which gave him great praise as a willing worker and of a cheery disposition. The third was from the Matron of the Hospital to Harland's sister Pearl, telling about his sickness and how he had endeared himself to them although he had been with them so short a time. The fourth letter was from the Chaplain, who attended him during his illness. He spoke favorably and highly of his life and said he was a boy his parents might be proud of. He was admitted on Monday, the 22nd, to No. 6 Stationary Hospital, France, suffering with a bad ear, which afterwards led to meningitis and though every effort was made to save his life, he had passed beyond human aid and skill and at 5 a. m. on Wednesday morning he passed peacefully away. The Chaplain read the 23rd Psalm and Harland repeated it after him, after which he said, "Isn't that beautiful?" After the chaplain had prayed he gripped his hand and said "Thank you! Thank you! That was nice." His last message was, "Give my love to them at home and ask them not to worry."

A duet, "Tell My Mother I Will Meet Her," was then beautifully rendered by Mrs. Robert Blauvelt and Miss Peters.

Letters sent to Mrs. Charles McKeown, written by the Captain and his comrades were read by Rev. Mr. Munroe.

Rev. Mr. Boyce made a fitting address and spoke very highly and feelingly of the departed.

This very impressive service closed with a duet well rendered by Mrs. Edgar Shaffer and Mr. B. S. Banks and chorus by the choir.

HUNDRED KILLED IN MIDLANDS EXPLOSION

And More Than One Hundred Persons Were Injured

LONDON, July 3.—It is feared that 100 hundred persons were killed and more than 100 others injured in the explosion which occurred in the National Shell-Filling Factory in the Midlands on Monday night.

Announcement to this effect was made in the House of Commons today by Frederick G. Kellaway, secretary to the Minister of Munitions.

The employees of the plant, Mr. Kellaway said, had behaved magnificently, many of them, after scattering at the first explosion, returning to help recover the wounded.

Work in the factory, the secretary added, had already been resumed in part.

WOMEN TORTURED!

Suffer Terribly With Corns Because of High Heels, But Why Care Now?

Women wear high heels which buckle up their toes and they suffer terribly from corns. Women then proceed to trim these pests, seeking relief, but they hardly realize the terrible danger from infection, says a Cincinnati authority.

Corns can easily be lifted out with the fingers if you will get from any drug store a quarter of an ounce of a drug called freezezone. This is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. You simply apply a few drops directly upon the tender, aching corn or callus. The soreness is relieved at once and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts out without one particle of pain.

This freezezone is a sticky substance which dries in a moment. It just shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Tell your wife about this.

Law is like a sieve; a man may see through it, but if he gets through it, he will find himself much reduced.

As a man's idea that he was cut out for a great career decreases his usefulness increases.

Some time—a plain cook is quite pretty.

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for women's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw found the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

STIR YOUR TEA
Stir the pot of Tea a minute or so before pouring. This evenly distributes the tea essence that has been drawn from the leaves, but is lying mostly at the bottom of the pot. You will then get the full flavor from your tea. And if it is KING COLE Orange Pekoe, note when you stir, the delightful fragrance of the infused leaves. Note also the rich color of the tea when poured—both indications of unusual quality.

Head Lice in Chickens

The chicks should be gone over for lice—the head lice are the worst. If the brooder and the surroundings are kept clean as possible, there should not be much fear of head lice.

Should they appear, however, an application of ointment of some kind should be used at once. If this is not available, use vaseline, olive oil or sulphur and lard. Every head will have to be gone over and the treatment will have to be repeated in a week. It is a troublesome task to go over several hundred young chicks, but it must be done, each head by itself. Rub the paste well into the scalp and around the ears. Some use coal oil, but it is too severe and has been known to kill the chicks about as quickly as lice. Head lice in chickens are sometimes hard to locate.

The chicks may be listless, getting thin, wings down, feathers ruffled, and dying off one by one. Upon examining the heads one can see nothing running around and all that appears is what looks like young feathers sprouting out of the head. To make sure that they are there, take some of the ointment and apply thoroughly to the head. Put the chick in a box and examine in a few minutes time.

The young feathers will be gone and large bodied lice will be running for their lives. The "feathers" were the abdomens of the lice, the head and rest of the bodies being buried into the head of the chick, eating away at the tissue. It takes only a few days to have a whole flock cleaned out. Absolute cleanliness is the best preventive.

It is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all—better for the jeweller, the florist, the messenger boy, and sometimes the lawyers.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE

Two Interesting Speakers in Bridgetown Address Public Meetings.

The Red Cross drive is now on and everyone is expected to give, even more than they feel they can afford, for this important work.

Mr. H. B. Hicks is chairman of the committee in this county and is certainly the right man in the right place. Last Wednesday night, Lieut. Toby Jones, of Halifax, a returned officer, addressed a public meeting in the Bridgetown Baptist church, and last night Pte. MacDonald, an escaped prisoner of war from Germany, addressed a meeting in the Primrose theatre.

Both are excellent speakers and are doing a lot of good throughout the province in the interest of the Red Cross Fund. Let's exceed the amount asked for in Annapolis County.

Stamps on Matches and Playing Cards

The following is a copy of the law effecting matches and playing cards:

"Every wholesale and retail dealer shall affix on each unopened package of matches an adhesive or other stamp of the value of one cent for each one hundred matches or fraction of one hundred matches contained in such package, and an adhesive or other stamp of the value of eight cents on each unopened package of playing cards held by him for sale on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen."

Reception for New Pastor.

A reception for Rev. W. J. W. Sweetnam will be held at the Methodist parsonage next Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, at which all the members of the Bridgetown circuit are especially requested to be present to welcome the new pastor. Among the out of town visitors who are expected to be there is Rev. W. I. Croft, the popular pastor of Grace Methodist church, Digby, who is chairman of this district.

Magazines for Kentville Sanatorium

Will all who have good reading magazines or papers to spare for the soldier boys resting in the Sanatorium at Kentville, please send them to the Red Cross room on Thursday afternoon, July 11th.

Red Cross acknowledges with thanks the donation of $7.00 from the Red Cross of Upper Granville, East end.

MARY S. JOST, Secretary.

Our Newest Contemporary.

We received yesterday a copy of the "Lawrencetown News." Its twelve pages were filled with local news. Its two most interesting features were the "Whispering Post" and the "Social Page." It is of similar "make up" to the "Jordan Times," but contained no illustrations while the "Times," during its short career, carried an expert artist.

A Bridgetown Firm's New Contracts.

Messrs. J. H. Hicks & Sons, Bridgetown's well known manufacturers, builders and contractors, already a busy firm, have been awarded two more contracts in Halifax: Repairs on the West end Baptist church, Quinpool Road; residence for Dr. L. J. O'Shaunessy, Gittingen Street.

A. F. & A. M.

The new Masonic Hall, Grant's Block, Yarmouth, will be dedicated on Thursday evening, July 18th, by the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia. It is expected that a large number of brethren from the several Lodges in the Province will be present.

Red Cross

The Lawrencetown South Side Red Cross Society sent sixty pairs of socks to the Red Cross ware rooms at Halifax, May 6th.

MRS. F. H. LONGLEY, Secretary.

Fire in Bridgetown.

A house in Bridgetown owned by Caleb Jordan, of Murray Harbor, P. E. I., and occupied by Susan Owens, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning, together with its contents. No insurance.

Local Happenings

The murder of the German Court Von Mirbach in Moscow has caused great excitement in Germany.

United States visitors to Canada are not obliged to register, nor do they require passports, it is announced.

Dr. Allan Pollok, rector of Presbyterian Church in Canada died in Halifax Monday morning, aged 89 years.

Now is the time for screen doors and windows. The fly is a veritable storehouse of germs of every description, and he carries his samples with him wherever he goes.

The militia department announces that the only person authorized to wear a military decoration or medal or the ribbon thereof, is the soldier to whom the distinction is awarded.

Bridgetown is up-to-date in its manufacturing industries, as was in evidence this week when an automobile of home manufacture appeared on our streets, even before its number was secured.

Thirteen persons were killed and twenty-eight injured in twenty automobile accidents in or near Montreal during the month of June. The accidents were in the main caused by speeding.

At the auction at the Karakule Farm, on July 5th, the standing grass sold for eleven hundred and twenty-three dollars ($1123.00). Otto Nixon was auctioneer. The farm is still offered for sale.

Among the returned officers and men arriving in Halifax since our last issue are: Lieut. Alfred M. Parsons of Middleton; Corpl. F. W. Robinson, of Digby; Pte. F. Worthylake, of Brighton, Digby County.

Messrs. Bishop & Bishop have been putting on some extra good pictures in the Primrose theatre and are advertising more. Read their advertisement in today's MONITOR and make a note of the titles and dates.

The Annapolis paper evidently realizes that Bridgetown is on the map and that the MONITOR is publishing the local news from Walker's Brook to Beaver River, the eastern and western boundaries of Annapolis and Digby counties.

The late J. Ross Robertson, of Toronto, who was generous in his life time, was not less generous in his bequest in his will, making splendid provision for those who were in his employ. A noble example for other men of wealth.

Don't forget the garden party given by the Centrelea Red Cross Society tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7.30 p. m. Amongst other attractions Mr. C. B. Tupper is lending his Edison Diamond Disc. If rainy Thursday will hold it on Friday if fine.

The latest fish story to reach our office is the report that the Valinda from St. John for Bridgetown, narrowly escaped a collision with a whale asleep in the fog a few miles off Point Prim, during the steamer's inward passage last Wednesday afternoon.

Fifteen Canadian officers received Military Crosses recently, and when their names were gazetted, it was discovered that their average age was 25 years. Eight of the officers had previously served in the ranks and received their commissions after seeing service as privates in France.

Married in Annapolis

DOYLE-RIORDAN

A pretty social event took place in St. Thomas R. C. Church on Wednesday morning, when Fannie Riordan, daughter of the late Anthony Riordan, became the bride of Patrick Doyle, of Cape Breton, one of the overseas forces, who was invalided home on account of wounds received at the front from which he has not yet fully recovered. The bride was nicely gowned in navy blue and satin collar and white hat and looked charming. She was attended by Miss Collins, a friend from Kentville, while Joseph Doyle, a brother, did the honors for the groom. The church was very tastefully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Grace and the bride given away by Joseph McMullin, a relative of the bride, the wedding march being played by Mrs. Rathburn, of Kentville, the church being crowded with spectators. After the ceremony the bridal party was driven to the Queen Hotel, where a wedding breakfast was tendered by the proprietor, after which the happy couple motored to Bridgetown, where they took the east bound train for Halifax on a wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Lower Granville, where they formerly lived.

THE UNITED FRUIT COMPANY

Annual Meeting Held in Kentville Last Week

The United Fruit Companies of Nova Scotia, Limited, held their annual meeting at the Court House, Kentville, Tuesday, June 25th. Three sessions were held, morning, afternoon and evening. There was a very large attendance of delegates from the various Co-operative Companies affiliated with the Central organization.

F. W. Bishop, of Paradise, was re-elected President, and T. L. Harvey, of Wolfville, Vice-President. John Donaldson, of Port Williams, and T. L. Harvey, were the retiring members of the Board of Management. Mr. Harvey was re-elected, and C. W. MacKeen, of Kingsport, was also elected to the Board. Kenneth L. Pineo was elected Secretary. John N. Chute wishing to retire.

The following is a copy of the President's address:

GENTLEMEN:—It is a pleasure as well as a duty to welcome you to this our sixth annual meeting, and to give you a hasty outline of the year's proceedings, and to discuss with you the general situation, in the hope that it will assist us in guiding our future business along the most profitable lines.

The great war, with its waste of human life and capital, is still in progress. The most optimistic of us hope that a victorious conclusion cannot now be far distant. As apple growers, with from fifty to ninety per cent of our capital in apple orchards, we have found it more difficult than the stockman or grain grower to assist in the great conflict. In most cases the greater portion of our land is in apple orchard. This must be cared for and protected even if we know that the product will be marketed at a loss, for we know that one year's neglect may spoil the crop for the next two years. Land covered with orchard is of course unsuitable for other crops. Our equipment of machinery, as well as the training of our help, is along the line of growing and marketing apples, and it is therefore impossible for us to grow field crops, such as wheat and other grains, to the extent and with the success that we desire at the present time. In spite of these handicaps, there is no doubt that our members, in response to patriotic calls, have today more land in oats, potatoes and beans, than they have ever had before. In this regard they are probably doing as much, man per man, as the straight farmers in the districts outside the Annapolis Valley, and in addition they are caring for their orchards as well as ever before.

When I say that our members are caring for their orchards as well as usual, I mean just that. It is true that there has been a decrease in the quantity of spraying material used, but this has been a most unusual season, for up to date, practically no apple scab has been found. Our members, hearing the call for more oats, potatoes, beans, etc., have exerted themselves to plant these crops. They have watched the weather and the condition of their apple trees, and with the power sprayer and spraying material ready for use, have planted field crops so long as the weather continued dry and fine. If we had this year experienced a normal season, there is no doubt but that the quantity of spraying material used among our members would have been normal. The point that I wish to impress upon you here is that the decrease in the amount of spraying material used has not appreciably injured either the trees or the crop on them. This exercise of intelligence and good judgment on the part of our members promises to result in their having not only a clean crop of apples but the largest crop of field products that they have ever had. In this way their financial position is doubly safeguarded for the coming year.

The report of the General Manager deals in detail with the marketing of the apple crop. I shall pass over that portion of our business with the statement that had it been possible to carry out the policy that we outlined at the beginning of the season, there is no doubt but that our returns would have been much larger. The main obstacles in the way of carrying out these plans was the defection of a portion of the membership of many of the subsidiary companies. While we know that the temptation of many of the men who did not think that the man played a straight game with his fellow members who kept his apples in his orchard until well into October before deciding on sell, and then let the local manager get the news by hearsay. Such men were numerous enough last season to completely disrupt the selling plans of the Central Office. We are glad that by-laws are being passed by the companies that will allow dissatisfied members to withdraw honourably, by giving notice before the season opens. In this way plans may be made for the greater number of barrels to be handled and prevent the danger of serious losses to other members caused by inability to fulfill contracts, etc.

Passing from the apple portion of our business, I would like to draw attention to the potato industry and the opportunities that we have for developing it. In my opinion we should not be content until we have potatoes handled by our company, as nearly as possible, in the same way as we are now handling apples. We well remember that four years ago, when New Brunswick was receiving 35 cents per barrel for potatoes we were able to return to our members about $1.25 per barrel, and to show that without a doubt, had it not been for our organization we should have received the same price as New Brunswick received. This year the lowest average that you received for your potatoes was $2.19, while the last averages ran as high as $2.19 per barrel. Prices in New Brunswick during January, February, March and April ranged from .50 cents to $1.00 per barrel below Nova Scotia, closing at $1.25 per barrel. We are on the safe side in estimating the New Brunswick returns for potatoes at less than $2.00 per barrel on an average, which is less than it cost to grow them. We members of the United Fruit Companies have averaged about the cost of production for 1917, or about $3.50 per barrel on co-operative shipments. This difference was due to your organization having marketed your potatoes at the right time and before the enormous surplus of potatoes of 1917 became generally known, and also to your being able through your management to provide transportation when it was needed.

A new law requiring the grading of potatoes has recently been passed by the Dominion House of Commons. This law calls for No. 1 and No. 2 potatoes to be of the same minimum size and equally free from scab, sunburn, blight, etc. It also calls for No. 1 potatoes to be of similar varietal character, and practically that potatoes marked No. 1, shall be of one variety. We of the United Fruit Companies can only support such legislation. Personally I should like to see the law go a step further and require that all No. 1 potatoes, be correctly labelled as to name and that No. 1 and No. 2 potatoes, be graded in two sizes. This is particularly important in our Cuban trade where it has been found that the will I hope in time lead to the averaging of our potato returns by grade and variety in the same way that apples are now averaged. By this means the growers of pure strains of long white Cuban table stock, such as Burbank and McIntosh will get their just due. The growers of pure strains of Cuban seed stock, such as Early Rose and Bliss Triumph, will get their just due. The growers of round, white, home table stock, such as Burbank and McIntosh will get their just due. The growers of heavy yielding but poor selling stock such as Dakota Red, Maidens Blush and Beauty of Hebron, and the growers of mixed lots will have to take what their potatoes bring on the market, and will not benefit at the expense of the man who grows higher quality and better selling, but lower yielding stock.

While it is gratifying to know that more potatoes were shipped co-operatively this season than ever before, yet the company was forced again to speculate in order to fill cargoes. This is not co-operation, but conditions rendered it necessary. More co-operative shipping will eliminate this speculation, of which your board of management is in no way fond.

In improving our potato business, which is now a valuable asset, thanks to the efforts of Messrs. McMahon and Clark, could we not aim—

FIRST:—To grow only pure strains of varieties suitable to our trade.

SECOND:—To specialize on one or two varieties in one company or district. Being able to make up a straight car of one variety is an important consideration, especially in a trade like the Ontario seed trade.

THIRD:—Label all No. 1 potatoes correctly as to variety as well as to grade.

FOURTH:—Where the stock is running large and the potatoes are destined for Cuba, make two sizes of No. 1 and No. 2 potatoes, so that if necessary the large stock may be disposed of first without the trouble of repacking and sorting in Cuba.

FIFTH:—Pool and average potatoes in varieties and grades, having due regard to the shrinkage of potatoes as the season advances.

SIXTH:—Ship all potatoes co-operatively, surrendering them to the company in the same way as we do our apples. The management could then market them to better advantage, sending round white stock when necessary to Montreal where such is in demand, sending the long white stock to the markets that demand it, and marketing the Cuban seed varieties at the proper season.

We now have a relatively strong hold on the Cuban market. It has not been the quality of our stock that has won us this position. It has in a great degree been due to our geographical position, and it has also in a great degree been due to the untiring efforts of Messrs. McMahon and Clark, backed by our organization. To us Cuba is the cream of potato markets. Let us grow and supply to Cuba the seed and table stock that they want.

"A great net of mercy drawn through an ocean of unspeakable pain."

The need is so great that a "conscience gift" is needed

PUT yourself in the place of our Nova Scotia boys who are fighting in France. Lying shell-torn or racked by poison gas on the battlefield or the hospital ward—what is your money worth compared to THEIR DEVOTION? When their lives—and the lives of thousands of other Canadians who are fighting our battle—depend on the money we can give, who is going to withhold his money?

ARE YOU?

Turn YOUR pockets inside out—it's no time for cool decisions. Nova Scotia Red Cross Week will be from July 8th to 15th and $250,000 is the amount to be collected.

Give till your heart says stop

Let us label and grade it better than any of our competitors, and by this means cement our position there, and also return to our members the prices that they deserve for the varieties and grades grown.

Returning to the apple situation for the present year and its prospects. We have the promise of one of the smallest and cleanest crops in the history of the United Fruit Companies. We have possibly to market all of our 1918 crop in America. To get the best returns we must allow our management a free hand, for we know that it costs a lot more to sell apples in America than in our normal market, viz., England. Our inspection system in the warehouses must be more rigid. Last season we had to call our Inspector, Mr. Rumsey, off for other work for a time, with the result that certain companies in the future we must agree on a policy of arbitration, and not allow the United to father any losses due to neglect, error or other action on the part of the management of a subsidiary company.

We, who are in the apple industry in the Annapolis Valley, have passed through trying times during the past seven years. Just as we were establishing an ascendancy over the remainder of America in marketing apples in England, and were looking year by year for a turn for the better, the great war broke out. Since that, although our markets have been curtailed, we have kept our orchards in good condition, while in other sections in America neglect has been common. Some of the leaders in Ontario are even advising the farmers to abandon the small orchards. As railway freights go up and the greater advantage we have over all other apple sections in America in growing apples for England. This advantage is growing. Our cost of production, always low, is proportionately now lower than ever. The adoption of the standard barrel means eliminating the discrimination of some markets against our package. A discrimination that usually amounted to more than the difference in the size of the barrel. We have in our organization today an institution that is sound financially, is recognized by all of the trade, a pack that is a recognized standard by which others are compared, and most important of all, an institution backed by the best brains and ability in the Annapolis Valley, and which we believe will be maintained and where possible improved at all costs.

We, of course, do not know when the war will end; at one time the outlook is dark, at other times we think that we can see the end. Whether we are victorious in six, or twelve or eighteen months, our judgment indicates to us that if we in Nova Scotia, then have apples to dispose of; we will get at least good prices for them. Our reasoning is as follows: As soon as the war ends, troops will move from Europe to America, and the main port of landing will probably be Halifax. There are not enough railways running in the past, and probably will again be dead space going to England for this reason. Practically we are at the dock with apples to fill the dead space. We know that wages in England are higher today than ever before, and while there may be adjustments after the war, wages will never go back to their former level. It is business for the Nova Scotian apple growers to stand ready with large crops of clean apples to take advantage of conditions that must inevitably develop as soon as peace is declared.

There seems no doubt in the mind of all those that are best qualified to judge, that the apple industry of the Annapolis Valley is on the verge of the greatest period of prosperity in its history. A period in which we will have our old time market largely to ourselves as we had it in the 90's before the destructive competition of districts which were of the opinion that they could compete with Nova Scotia in the growing of apples for the English market. With the increase of rail freights and the dropping of our competitors from the race, with the development of the port of Halifax, with the faster lines of boats that must come, as new ships take the places of our old friends the Rappahannock, the Kanawa, etc., with the increased wages in England, and the improvement of our organization, we know that the future is bright for the apple industry of the Annapolis Valley.

Let us hold to our course, now that success is almost within our grasp.

MOUNTAINS IN THE RAIN

THERE'S no use saying it never rains in the Canadian Rockies. You couldn't have such wealth of great timber if there wasn't plenty of moisture. The tourist who comes to the mountains with no alternatives but a parasol to keep off the sun and a pack of cards to keep off the blues, is unprepared for the best part of his holiday.

I'd had good weather all through the Rockies—one glorious sunny day after the other. Then, half way between Field and Glacier, somebody tipped over the rain barrel and when we reached Rogers Pass the combined tourist soul was a mighty sponge of woefulness.

In the pouring rain we got off at Glacier, did a swift dash for the hotel and stood around in mentally dripping and mournful groups gazing at the big log fires.

"Do you ever rent raincoats?" I asked the charming white-haired hostess. "I don't see why I should stay in and play patience, with all that waiting for me," and I waved a vague arm in the direction of Mount Sir Donald, who was probably chuckling or dancing or doing sacrilege behind the curtain of his seven cloud veils.

"Certainly," I was told, "you can get a raincoat in the curio tent."

In the curio tent they gave me a big black light rubber covered and a raincoat to match. I had thick shoes anyway—and that was all I needed to complete my costume. An umbrella would have spoiled the whole party. There's something fascinating in starting out to follow a trail that you've never seen before. It's like reading a serial story. But in the case of the path to the Great Glacier you see the last chapter first—shanks of blue sky with white clouds whipped in, frozen stiff and tumbling over the top of the world. That's the Illecillewaet, 3000 feet at the skyline, obligingly pushing its huge head down into the valley so that the tourist has only two short miles to go to be able to climb up and pat this prehistoric monster of the Glacial Period that purrs so tamely in the very backyard of the hotel.

Notice the strange white mud underfoot—ground rock brought down doubtless by old Illecillewaet himself in the days of his youth, when he filled the whole valley. Draw in lungfuls of the aromatic breath of millions of trees, yielding up their spices to the mist. The forest never smells like this on a dry day—wet cut wood of the bridges; giant fir, cedars, spruces; crumbling white rocks; the tossed glacial river; every fern and star-eyed flower. They all fairly swim in the rain and give out a most heady and thrilling perfume! Animals draw much of their knowledge of the world through their sense of smell, but it's the rare human who ever gets the sense to think with his nose. The path winds upward past big rocks covered with white-starred bunch berries, across unexpected bridges, by beckoning benches, till the trees thin out and grow smaller and the air freshens.

It was clear, clean-washed, before. Now there's the snow thrill in it. The path bursts out of the trees into a region of tumbled boulders with mad little streams running hither and thither among them. Strange deep crimson flowers look shyly at you over the top of big shiny rocks, and the path is Irish-Gypsyier than ever, with its staccato turns and leaps.

At the head of it is the immensity of the blue-white glacier, with a swallow's nest hole in the side of it and to the left is a little white tent, with a Union Jack fluttering bravely in front of it. All this belongs to the Swiss guide, a big Newfoundland-dog sort of fellow who makes up in smiles what he lacks in English. You're his first tourist to-day. "Tea" says Christian, showing his white teeth flashingly. He has two tin cups of which one is half full. You're interrupted him. Now join him please. He cuts a slice of bread and you butter it with his jackknife. Oh, certainly, strictly against the rules. But this isn't the hotel's affair. It's Christian's own little treat 'cause you were mountain-mad enough to come out in the rain. He loves you for it. You're a tourist after his own adventurous heart.

Tea over—yes, you took three slices, don't you remember, and two cups!—you and Christian go up the frozen grey-mud-covered steps to the very self of Greenland's icy mountain. There's the side door to the Glacial Period, that cave that Christian's own are cut out. He worked at it for a month.

The opening is as blue as ten August skies sizz-sizzling together. And yet when you go in, the cold catches you by the nose till you have to open your mouth to breathe! At the end of the cave is a Christmas tree on whose top there's another Union Jack in cold storage.

When you reach the outside world again—it's all pink for three crazy seconds! Don't ask me why. Something about complementary colors I suppose, but if you stop to reason it out you lose the Alice-in-Wonderland sensation.

There are five figures emerging from the trees away below the tumbled-boulder field. "Ah," says Christian, waving his hand and smiling as though you were the cavalry leader for sure, "they follow!"

You go home by the other-side-of-the-aver-trail, a still lonelier way, with more moss, more bunchberries, more glad-to-be-aliveness than ever.

THE LONG ARM OF MERCY

By DR. FRANK CRANE

The Red Cross is the Long Arm of Mercy. It is the Kindness of Mankind—organized. In the Man is an Angel and a Devil, a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The Red Cross is the Good, aroused, energized to thwart the Bad.

It is the best antidote we know to the bane of war. There are other Charities, more or less helpful. The Red Cross is the mightiest of all Charities, the Love and Pity of all men made supremely efficient.

If, as Emerson said, "sensible men and conscientious men all over the world are of one religion," "this is the expression of that religion."

The Red Cross is Humanity united in Service.

It asks no man's opinion; only his need.

Black or White, Friend or Foe, to the Red Cross there is no difference; it only asks: "WHO IS SUFFERING?"

And to him it goes.

The Red Cross is so Efficient that Governments recognize it; so Pure in its purpose that whoever wishes well his fellow men, desires to help it; so Clean in its administration that the most suspicious can find no fault in it.

The Red Cross not only seeks to alleviate the cruelties of War; it is the expression of those human sentiments that some day will put an end to War.

It is the impulse of Love, striving to overcome the impulse of Hate.

It is Mercy's co-operation struggling against War's rivalries.

It is the one Society in which every Man, Woman and Child should be enrolled; for it knows no sects, no prejudices, no protesting opinion; the human being does not live that does not feel that the starving should be fed, the sick tended and the wounded healed.

Majestic and divine is this Long Arm of Mercy; it finds the fallen on the battlefield, it brings the nurse and the physician to the victim in the hospital; it leads the weeping orphan to a home; it feeds the starving, cares for the pest-smitten whom all others abandon, and pours the oil of Help and Pity into the bitter wounds of the World.

When a volcano has wrought desolation in Japan, or a Flood in China, or a Hurricane in Cuba, or a Famine in India, or a Plague in Italy, or ravaging Armies in Poland, Serbia or Belgium, there flies the Red Cross, the Angel of God whose fury of men cannot banish from the Earth; and to the Ends of the Earth, over all the ways of the Seven Seas, wherever is Human Misery, there is extended, to bless and to heal, its Long Arm of Mercy.

Nova Scotia's Red Cross campaign is from July 8th to 15th and $250,000 is the amount needed for our boys "Over There." YOU WILL HELP!
