The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Nova Scotia Public Archives

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Nova Scotia Public Archives

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CORRESPONDENCE

RELATING TO

The Emigration of the Unemployed.

To the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of London; His Eminence Cardinal Manning; the Lord Bishops of Bedford and Rochester; and the Members of the Mansion House Committee for Promoting the Emigration of the Unemployed.

MY LORDS,—Sir A. T. Galt, G.C.M. ? has thought it convenient to leave England without venturing to notice the contents of the communications hereafter introduced, and to state to me in writing his intention of so doing. This is equivalent to a public defaulter seeking immunity and escape from trial and punishment on account of the accident of his position, and the laxity of public interest or prosecution.

It is, however, the last resource of cowardice and guilt; and I claim Sir A. T. Galt's speechless flight as not merely affording satisfactory evidence of the full truth of all my allegations against him and his allies, but also as a tacit naming of the hour when it becomes my duty to give these letters to the public, and pursue further measures of warning.

The copies of the enclosures referred to in the communications I have had the honour to address to the Lord Mayor, which are deposited in London, Nottingham and elsewhere, are not fitted in their present condition to point out a tithe of the dangers your Lordships have escaped, of becoming the dupes of decorated schemers, or the potent but unconscious instruments for concealing great crimes.

Therefore, I shall make it a further duty at an early day to unmask the councils of these fugitive men, and point to some of those who have been entrapped in their snares, and, being too weak to escape, are following the dishonouring groove of profitable fraud and limited liability.

The closing paragraph of Sir Alexander T. Galt's letter relates to the communication I had the honour to address to the Right Honourable Earl Granville, on the 21st March, 1882.

Sir A. T. Galt's flight leaves his case in a position so utterly hopeless and self-condemning that it will be incumbent upon me, in the interests of public safety, to communicate copies of this correspondence to the exalted authorities named and concerned in the matters to which my letter to Earl Granville relates.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient Servant,

17, Park Valley,
Nottingham,
May 5th, 1882.

HENRY YOULE HIND, M.A.

To the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Mansion House, London.

MY LORD,—I read the announcement made by Sir A. T. Galt at the recent meeting of the Mansion House Committee respecting his immediate departure for Canada without surprise, although I think that he ought not to leave the country before he answers in full my charges, and I respectfully protest against his sudden flight from inquiry. This protest is the natural sequence of the letters, with enclosures, I had the honour to address to your Lordship on the 12th and 14th April, as enumerated below. (1)

I trust that your Lordship will be satisfied that the fear of Sir A. T. Galt to meet me face to face in open and unrestricted Court, or in any free public discussion, concerning his conduct during the past four years, as indicated and represented in the letters named in the margin (2) is sufficient indirect evidence of his participation in unlawful, unpatriotic, and money seeking acts and operations.

I may also hope that the increasing success of my efforts and warnings, as recently evinced by the failure of the Mansion House Committee to attain the end for which their benevolence, jointly with that of your Lordship, has been so cruelly enlisted by Sir A. T. Galt and his allies, affords additional illustration of the weight of my charges, and the evils they are intended to counteract.

I see in the collapse of the work in which the Mansion House Committee had been induced to engage, the birth of higher aims fitted to enlist, and better methods suitable to direct the benevolence of your Lordship and some of those who constitute the Mansion House Committee, when freed from the presence of the originators of the recent movement to promote the emigration of the unemployed in connection with the Canadian Pacific Railway.

I presume that the misleading representations made by Sir A. T. Galt and his allies of Bartholomew House and Fenchurch Street, from time to time, will now begin to be understood by the public, together with their intrigues from the date when the scheme of Mr. Cyril Graham, of the Hudson Bay Company, as foreshadowed on page 95 of the Blue Book, entitled "Correspondence relative to the Canadian Pacific Railway," (3) was first presented to members of the Canadian Government in 1871. (4)

A correct knowledge of these intrigues and a forecast of the exposure which must necessarily follow, may lead to the adoption of wise and unselfish methods for bettering the condition and means of the uninstructed and self-helpless poor, and for the systematic relief of the unemployed.

It is indeed a marvellous "omen of better times," that the cultured and decorated accessories to vast misrepresentation, who wear the insignia with the legend "auspicium melioris avi," should appear before the people of England in the role of Apostles of Benevolence, and meet with the icy scorn of silent unbelief.

I shall now shortly close my second visit to England for the purpose of unmasking vast misrepresentation and unexampled fraud, but before my departure I desire respectfully to place in your Lordship's hands, in common with others, a record of my work in this relation, (5) to which, in its entirety, and not in detached parts, I may require at some future time to appeal.

(1) No. 1, dated Nottingham, April 12, 1882.

No. 2, dated Nottingham, April 12, with enclosures.

No. 3, dated Nottingham, April 13, with enclosures as follow:—(a). Copy of a despatch from the Assistant Secretary of the Department of State, United States, addressed to Mr. Henry Youle Hind, and dated Washington, U.S., March 25, 1882. (b). Copy of reply to the same, by Mr. Hind, dated Nottingham, 12th April, 1882. (c). Copy of editorial from Nottingham Daily Guardian, on the subject of a letter referring to Emigration to Canada, &c., &c., with a copy of the letter referred to.

(2) Vide accompanying printed copies of letters and documents, particularly one dated May 27, 1881, and those since that date.

(3) Presented March, 1874. See also the cause of this Inquiry and its results, as recorded in the same Blue Book.

(4) See accompanying printed letter, dated Jan. 30, 1882, for an outline of this scheme.

(5) See letter dated August 2nd, 1881, and previous and subsequent letters in the accompanying packet.

I do this, not merely as the basis of my present representation, but to show, as is my right, that I have strictly pursued my work openly and fearlessly, without partisanship or hidden motive, carefully avoiding any ground whatever for just reproach or misleading imputation. It is more than probable that events will soon happen compelling reference to these documents, and from them it will be seen on whom the grave onus must lie of refusing, or neglecting, to look at proffered proofs of gross misrepresentation and much dishonour, (in all particulars complete), in time to prevent painful or disastrous consequences.

Meanwhile, I beg respectfully to say that many thoughtful men will be disposed to believe that no inconsiderable portion of the increasing distress which presses upon the helpless and uninstructed poor of this nation, and which must shortly tax your great benevolence to the uttermost, and perhaps your generous forbearance, has arisen from the countenance which society in England affords to those cultured high officials whose dealings and practices I have outlined in the various documents respectfully submitted with this communication.

I may further venture to add that measures for the successful emigration of the unemployed, and the relief of existing and impending distress, should be regarded as a problem in science which admits of no practical solution other than that which is based upon the solid foundation of unrestricted and unembellished TRUTH.

I have notified Sir A. T. Galt of the transmission of this letter to your Lordship, and of my protest against his leaving the country at this juncture, also that it will be incumbent upon me, for obvious reasons, to give this letter to the public at the proper time.

I have the honour to be,

Your Lordship's obedient servant,

HENRY YOULE HIND.

Formerly in charge of the Canadian Assiniboine and Saskatchewan Exploring Expedition.

INNS OF COURT HOTEL.

HIGH HOLBORN, LONDON,

April 29th, 1882.

To Sir Alexander T. Galt, G.C.M.G., High Commissioner for Canada.

SIR,—I have the honour to inform you that I have this day transmitted to the Lord Mayor of London a letter with enclosures, in which I have respectfully protested against your leaving the country as announced, without formally and fully replying to the various charges I have made from time to time relative to your public conduct during the past four years. I have also intimated to his Lordship that it will be incumbent upon me, for obvious reasons, to give my communication to his Lordship to the public at the proper time.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

HENRY YOULE HIND.

DOMINION OF CANADA.

OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER,

9, VICTORIA CHAMBERS, LONDON, S.W.,

3rd May, 1882.

SIR,—Sir Alexander Galt desires me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th April, and to inform you that he does not propose to take any notice of the communications to which you refer.

The advantages of the Great North West are, Sir Alexander considers, sufficiently proved by the large emigration thither from the Province of Ontario, and Canada generally, and by the success of the settlers.

Respecting the other matters alluded to in your so called "charges," Sir Alexander does not at present intend to add anything to what he has already written.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Prof. H. Y. Hind,
Inns of Court Hotel, High Holborn.

(Signed) JAS. G. COLMER.
