The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche sheet contains the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Anticipated attack on the Canal.

KINGSTON, June 3.

The 14th Battalion have been under arms since Friday night, ready and eager to be sent to the front. At 8 p.m. they marched in a body to St. George's Cathedral, where an appropriate sermon was preached by the Rev. S. B. Windsor, Chaplain to the forces. Just as the battalion was leaving the Cathedral the order to move arrived.

The men were at once formed on the market place in Hollow Square, when the order to proceed without a moment's delay to Cornwall, was read to them by Lieut.-Colonel Paton and received with eager enthusiasm and tremendous cheering.

The scene was one of intense excitement, the citizens participating in the loyal emanation of the men.

The battalion started this evening by special train for Cornwall. An attack on the canal being apprehended. A crowded meeting of the citizens was held in the city Hall this afternoon, the Mayor in the chair. Measures were proposed and adopted for preserving the peace of the city. Just before the meeting broke up it was announced that Lt. Col. Paton had received orders for the fourteenth to proceed without delay to Cornwall, which intimation caused much enthusiasm.

Resolutions were moved by the leading citizens of Kingston and unanimously adopted that the loyal old city of Kingston would take good care of and provide for the families of her gallant volunteers, while they are engaged in the defence of their country against foreign invaders.
