The popy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Library Canadian History Department

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CON-TINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method: L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

> Metropolitan Toronto Library Canadian History Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches. tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

MR. SMALL Morved-That Mr. Stewart should conclude the Meeting by Prayer.

After Prayer, a number Subscribed—and to such an amount, that it is evident they feel the importance of the object.

The Meeting lasted from Seven o'clock, till a little past Nine. It is hoped those who attended reckoned it a feast; and the Committee regret that arrangements were not made for giving all the Speeches to the public at full length.

The cause is of God. and is sure to prosper. It is hoped that many of those who have now stood aloof, particularly those who are looked to by others as patterns of all that is good, will soon come forward and shew their good will to this noblest of causes.

We ought not 'o satisfy ourselves by supporting one good Institution, but, in as far as God has prospered us, we should forward every cause, which has the glory of God, and the good of our Neighbour for its object. Of all the schemes supported by Christians, the present stands first on the list. In circulating the Bible, we send out the Apostles of Christ to preach—the best Missionaries that ever went out,—and Christ has promised to be with them to the end of the world. They speak truth and nothing but the truth. They have the keys of the Kingdom of Heave 2.

The Committee appointed to prepare for, and call the General Meeting, have acted according to their best judgment; and invited those whom they thought the best friends of the Institution to take an active part. They may have erred. 'They may have left out some of its best friends, and invited others whose zeal is not so great. If so, they have don's it in ignorance—and they know that the real friends of the Institution will manifest their zeal by the next time the Society meets. They merely notice this that none may take offence; assuredly declaring that they wished to avoid giving offence.

They wrote to all the Ministers of Religion in Town, requesting them to intimate the Meeting, and to attend themselves to give a Stimulus to the Meeting.<sup>e</sup>

* NOTE.—It is hoped that the substance of some of the Speeches will appear in the public prints, and stimulate others to form Societies for forwarding the same laudable purpose.

Resolutions of the Committee, 10th November, 1828.

Primary Address of the YORK BIBLE SOCIETY, to their Christian Friends of all denominations.

Dear Friends,—It is with mingled feelings of regret and joy that we now address you. We regret that we have let so good a cause as the circulation of the Holy Scriptures, lie so long dormant—but we rejoice that now a new stimulus is given to the work, and we hope the zcal and activity of the lovers of truth, every where, will increase, until every family, and every individual of the human race shall be in possession of the word of God.

Brethren,—our reason for addressing you is, to inspire you, if possible, with such a zeal for the circulation of the Holy Scriptures, as nothing but death can extinguish. The cause is so good that no opprobrium can make us ashamed of it, and we hope that no difficulty or trial will ever divert us from supporting it. Its object is so extensive that we need to call on all the friends of truth to lend their helping hand. It has so many enemies that we need to arouse all the energies of the people of God to engage in the work, and to come, "to the help of the Lord against the mighty."

It is the cause of God, therefore we are certain of ultimate success. The Lord has engaged to build up Zion to raise her ruins—and to make her "a praise in the whole earth."

He has from the beginning wrought by means, and the great appointed mean of illuminating the world, is the word of God. The labours of the Missionary will be in vain, unless he carries the Scriptures along with him, and out of them unfolds the way of life.— These only are able to make the nations wise unto salvation. They only teach the plan of salvation, and exhibit that morality which is pleasing in the sight of Jehovah. In them we have eternal life, because they testify of Jesus. If the Bible has enlightened our minds—purified our hearts—and filled our souls with the hope of eternal life, &cc. shall we not exert ourselves to the utmost of our power to convey the same blessing to others? Giving will not impoverish our own souls, and we are only Stewards, under God, of our money. Can we apply our money to forward a better cause ? No! There is no cause equal to this! The salvation of property, however valuable, nay even the salvation of the body, is nothing to the salvation of the soul !-- Come then, dear friends, let as unite our exertions in the good cause. It is true we must meet with opposition. To suppose the contrary would be to suppose the work we aim at is already accomplished. All who love darkness will oppose the circulation of the Bible. Its light they would extinguish. But the faithful of every denomination are on our side, and the great Jehovah is our Captain. Under his guidance we may march forward-in his power we may trust-not doubting "that our labour shall not be in vain in the Lord." The puny prudential reasonings of men against the circulation of the word of Jehovalı, spring from darkened understandings and vitiated feelings.-They cannot stand one moment before the pure rays of the sun of righteousness, which emanate from the word of God. We need not fear to exhibit our light, for instead of being bedimmed by any other standard of light, it will have the same effect upon them, as the sun has upon the glimmering taper.

The Society is not disposed to east the least reflections upon others. They know that all are accountable to God, and leave all in his hands. But knowing, in part, their own responsibility, they wish to be no longer inactive in the good work, and they hereby call upon all who value the Bible, to join them in promoting its circulation. They suppose that others, like themselves, have been inactive, either from want of knowing the need that exists for circulating the Scriptures, or from want of opportunity of contributing their mite in a way congenial to their feel-The forming of the present Society removes every Those who wish to circulate the Scriptures ings. alone have now the opportunity-and those who wish obstacle. also to circulate tracts, and other good books, can do so by means of the valuable Societies that circulate such.

By means of the valuable thinks the circulation of the word of While this Society thinks the circulation of the word of God the first and great work of the people of God, they by no means despise the landable, though inferior exertions, in which, many of themselves and others are engaged. Neither do they think any apology necessary for thus addressing their christian friends, as they think the importance of the subject far overballances every objection that can be made.

This Society would recommend the formation of Bible associations and societies, in town and country. Their Committee will be ready to give every information and assistance in their power for forming such, and request such as wish any advice to correspond with their Secretaries. In all such cases they recommend large Committees, every member of which should be a collector. The cause is of God, and the Widow's mite may be as acceptable as the Princely donation. If all heartily engage in this good work, it will soon be accomplished.
