WHOLE COUNTRY SWEEPED OVER BY FIRE

Number of Dead Now Believed to Be Higher Than at First Supposed—The Flames Still Threaten Other Towns and Villages in Minnesota and Ontario.

ESTIMATED NUMBER DEAD:
KNOWN TO BE DEAD: 75.
MISSING: 2000.
HOMELESS: 5000.
AMERICAN REFUGEES AT RAINY RIVER: 3000.
AREA OF BURNED DISTRICT: 25 by 30 miles.
PROPERTY LOSS: $100,000,000.
CHIEF TIMBER LOSERS: Shevlin-Mathien Lumber Co., 150,000,000 feet; Rat Portage Lumber Co., 60,000,000 feet; Rainy River Lumber Co., 40,000,000 feet.
TOWNS AND VILLAGES DESTROYED: Beaudette, Spooner, Graceton, Swift, Pitt, Cedar Spur, Zippie, Myron, Malcolm.
TOWNS PARTIALLY DESTROYED: Rainy River, Longwood.
TOWNS THREATENED: Warroad, International Falls, Sprague, Man.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Hon. Allan Berg, United States commissioner and former secretary of State of Minnesota, who arrived on the special from the fire-swept district this morning, declared that conditions were such that very few settlers could have escaped, and he fears that the total loss of life will run to many hundreds. The work of collecting the dead in scattered homesteads over so wide an area of burned country will be very difficult. Fires are still burning, but the wind has dropped, checking their furious progress.

A refugee from Beaudette, who had lost everything and saved his wife and family with the utmost difficulty, said that the property loss would be very heavy, and, as insurance rates were high, about 7 per cent, much would not be covered by insurance. The big hotel had only $2000 insurance. Not one building is left standing in either Beaudette or Spooner, but the old towns, situated some distance away, on the line of the Canadian Northern, escaped, as did that company's depot.

"It's Hell, Down There," said Freeman George Smith of the Duluth express on his arrival this morning. "If she keeps on the way she is going, there is going to be mighty little left of the population of that part of Minnesota. She has quieted down a little, but it just needs a puff of wind, and she is back again as bad as ever."

"There is one good thing, tho. It cannot ever reach the railway again, for all timber in that section is burned for miles around Beaudette and Spooner. The country is now as level as the prairie. Everything is swept away."

He added that the bridge between Beaudette and Pitt thru which half a dozen grain cars went Friday night, has been repaired temporarily.
Danger Not Passed.
Rainy River is one great concentration camp, fitted up as a temporary hospital, but the danger there has by no means passed.
The Winnipeg city council is holding a special meeting this evening to consider measures of relief for the sufferers. Mayor Evans received the following wire from Premier Roblin at Sparta, Wis., to-day: "Am sure generous-hearted Winnipeg is eager to contribute to relief of those suffering from terrible fires in Warroad and Rainy River districts. To that end we meet."

No Sign of Rain
At the Observatory late last evening it was reported that no rain had fallen in the Rainy River district during the day, and that from the present atmospheric conditions, little hope was held out for showers in the near future.

PORTUGAL RESUMING AIR OF TRANQUILITY

LISBON, Oct. 10.—The demonstrations at the capital are being paralleled in the provinces and the remote country districts. From everywhere come reports of fetes in honor of the new republic.
Tranquility prevails thruout the country. The normal life of the nation proceeds. Lisbon is resuming its ordinary appearance. Business routine has been resumed.
A monument to the victims of the revolution will be erected. The funerals of Professor Bombarda and Admiral Reis will be held on Sunday.
Official decrees expelling the Jesuits and declaring their property confiscated, and expelling foreign monks belonging to other orders were formally promulgated to-day.

The decree specifying that Portuguese members of religious orders other than Jesuits, who accept secularization, may remain in Portugal and return to their families, but those refusing to become secular must leave the country.
Antonio Almeida, the minister of the interior of the provisional government, is quoted in an interview as saying that the fighting with the monks was provoked by them, they having fired upon the soldiers and people from the windows of the monastery without a shot having been fired at them. The monks, he said, evidently planned a counter-revolution.

Going to England.
GIBRALTAR, Oct. 10.—King Manuel of Portugal and Queen Mother Amelie decided to-day to proceed to England. They will leave probably within a few days, but are undecided whether they will travel by land or sea.

AU BERLIN!

Sir Henry Pellatt could hardly be restrained from sending a guest of honor to Public Ownership at Berlin to-day.
Adam was the First Man. So he is to-day. Tell us, some of you silent men, why you are ashamed of Public Ownership, as if it were a poor relation!
His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario will not be able to assist at the pressing of the Public Ownership button at Berlin to-day.
Who will mention Andrew Miscampbell's name at Berlin to-day? He proposed in the Ontario Legislature the first resolution in favor of public power from Niagara Falls.
The Hamilton Spectator, The Hamilton Times, The London Advertiser, The Toronto Globe, The Toronto Star, have all tried to hang Adam Beck's dog. And what an awful yellow dog they think Public Ownership to be!
Where is that great electric merger? They were going to take it up to Balmoral to see the King.

What the City Council Did Yesterday.

Appointed Dr. Charles Hastings medical health officer at $5000 a year, the vote being 16 to 7.
Approved the widening and beautifying of University-avenue at a cost of $20,000.
Declined to ask the Ontario Government to appoint an inspector of assessments.
Referred the vexed question of College-street, paying to the works committee.
Voted funds for the construction of a concrete bridge across Hanlan's Point lagoon to the western sandbar.
Endorsed the principle of having a commission operate the proposed municipal street railway lines in the suburbs.
Sent Controller Ward to attend the convention of the Interurban Railways Association at Atlantic City.

AT BERLIN TO-DAY

Premier, at 3 o'clock, will inaugurate Hydro-Power Service.

To-day is to be the big day in Berlin. At 12.30 two special trains leave for that city to attend the inauguration ceremonies and formal opening of Ontario's hydro-electric power system. One train is to leave London and the other Toronto, and, according to arrangements, the trains will arrive together.
It is expected that every member of the cabinet, with the exception of the attorney-general, will accompany the premier, Sir James Whitney, who is to do the button-pressing, and formally open the line for service.
The formalities are all to be conducted in the skating rink, which has been converted into an auditorium, and will remain in darkness until the light is turned on by the premier at three o'clock. The electrical display will be of a spectacular nature.
In the evening at the banquet the speeches are all to be brief, and it is expected that the special train will leave Berlin about ten o'clock and arrive in Toronto before midnight. All the cooking for the banquet spread is to be done by electricity from Niagara Falls.

STREET LIGHTING DELAYED

Owing to Company's Interference the City's Power Plant Will Not Be Ready.

That the delay in work on the municipal power plant due to the Toronto Electric Light Company's tactics of obstruction will probably prevent the city from taking over the street lighting immediately upon the expiration of the company's charter is not involved. The city can either use gas light or buy power from the Electric Light Company from day to day.

TAR, FEATHERS AND WHIP FOR PERSISTENT SWAIN

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Tar in liberal quantities, with feathers added for scenic effect, was applied to Charles Abner Baker, aged 21, who lives a few miles out of Huntsville, on Saturday night last. To-day Baker laid a complaint, and Chief of Police Watson of Huntsville served a summons on Thomas Spier, a well-known farmer of the district, calling him to court Wednesday to defend himself. Baker also alleges that during the evening the adornsment from his wife, Spier, Baker's hair is still matted with tar, but he has succeeded in removing the adornsment from his face, the red marks still indicate where the hot stuff was. His clothes were ruined. They have been put in as evidence in the case.
According to Baker, Spier, the father of a young lady he has been keeping company with, objected to his suit. That led to a quarrel between the girl and her father. She left home and entered the employ of a town resident as a domestic. Enraged by the persistence of the pair Spier gave Baker three days in which to leave the country. But Baker did not go.
Saturday night while on his way to Huntsville, Baker met Spier coming from the town. Baker alleges that Spier set upon him, tied his hands and led him to his (Spier's) house, declaring "I'll fix you."
At the house Spier was reinforced by his wife and son. Then, alleges Baker, he was ordered to remove his coat and sweater and was tarred and feathered. After the operation his coat and sweater were attached to a cord, which was tightly tied around his neck. Then a long piece of clothesline was made into a noose and also put around his neck. Spier, sr., held the other end. The journey to Baker's home, about three miles away, was thereupon commenced. Spier followed and frequently covering for the shoulders is taking some risk. LAURIER REPLIES TO "TORONTO JINGOES"

Premier Says He is Accused of Treason in Wishing to Negotiate Treaty of Reciprocity—Hopes That Negotiations Will Result Well All Round.

LAURIER REPLIES TO "TORONTO JINGOES"

Premier Says He is Accused of Treason in Wishing to Negotiate Treaty of Reciprocity—Hopes That Negotiations Will Result Well All Round.

MONTREAL, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Given a rousing welcome by his compatriots in the Monument National to-night, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, speaking in French, made caustic references to the present organization of the Conservative party, warmly defended the government's navy bill, and got after Henri Bourassa in lively fashion.
Altho Sir Wilfrid did not begin speaking until 10 o'clock, he held his audience until the close.

He led up to a reference to the tariff negotiations by denouncing those who accused him at various times of "treason," and continuing:
"In fact, I have been accused of that all my life. In 1896 I was accused of treason towards my race and towards my religion, because I recognized the rights of the federal government not to impose on a sister province a system of schools which they did not want."
"And now I am accused of treason again by the jingoes of Toronto, by the imperial jingoes, of the crime of violating the national integrity and of wishing to negotiate a treaty of reciprocity with the United States.
First Aim is Prosperity.
"The first duty of a country is to work for its prosperity, and I submit that in this action we are doing that which is likely to become prosperity to this country. And if it is treason to work for this end, then I am ready to accept that reproach."

"On the other hand, we must not forget that we are behind the United States in the matter of industrial development by at least 50 years. I believe it is possible to make a treaty with the United States which will not only be of great advantage to us, but equally profitable to one as to the other."

Raps Conservative Party.

In expressing an appreciation of the welcome accorded him, Sir Wilfrid said that, while in the west, he had often thought, in the course of some of the manifestations, that it would have been impossible to meet with any superior, but it gave him pleasure to say that all he had seen in the west did not compare with this demonstration by the people of his own province.
"But gentlemen, however flattering this welcome may be, the principal opportunity which this occasion affords to me, in my opinion, is to outline the political situation of our country. I come here to discuss with you, calmly, the questions which, at the present time, ought to occupy the attention of our people."
In the provinces of the west, the question will be fiscal, and the lowering of the tariff.
"In Ontario, at least in certain portions of Ontario, it will be the lowering of the tariff, and the increasing of the tariff."
"Also, war will be made on the government, on the question of the navy, with the assertion that the navy is going to lead us not to the enslaving of our province, but to the separation of Canada from Great Britain. This violent section comprises the Pharisees of Canadian Catholicism, those who have constituted themselves the defenders of the religion which no one attacked, those who handle the holy water sprinkler as tho it were a club; those who have arrogated to themselves the monopoly of orthodoxy; those, finally, by whom the people, with their picturesque language, are designated under the name of Castors."

"To this group have been joined certain young Liberals whom chance of birth has thrown into the ranks of the

A DAY OF TRIUMPH AT LAST.

Sound the loud timbrel o'er Egypt's dark sea, Jehovah has triumphed, his people are free.
This well-known and lofty couplet refers to a supreme incident in the history of the chosen people, but we do not think we misuse it when we apply it to the fact that the great principle of public ownership has triumphed to-day in this Province of Ontario, and that it, to our mind, more than any other principle, points a way to the freeing of the people of Canada from the tyranny or the prospect of the tyranny of privilege, from the tyranny of extortionate tolls for public utilities, for the great necessities of life.
The cause of public ownership, a principle more or less new in this province, has triumphed in spite of the most persistent, unfair, unjustified opposition. It has triumphed in spite of the so-called Liberal party of this province; it has triumphed in spite of the opposition in the legislature of the province, and the leader of that opposition; it has triumphed in spite of Senator Jaffray and The Toronto Globe; it has triumphed in spite of the opposition of Sir Henry Pellatt and the Toronto Electric Light Co.; it has triumphed in spite of the persistent and continuous opposition of Colonel John M. Gibson of Hamilton, who was attorney-general in the Ross government, when the electric interests began to shape up as enemies of public rights; and in spite of the opposition of the Cataract Power Company, of which Colonel Gibson was the head; in spite also of the opposition of men who were in office, and yet were ashamed of the principle of public ownership, who were associated with the government when it declared in favor of the hydro-electric policy, and yet who sought to help men to parliament who declared themselves opponents of the proposition; most of all, in spite of quite a number of prominent Conservatives, who, while they could say nothing in favor of the principle, were very active in secret work against that principle. It triumphs also in spite of the opposition of Liberal papers from The Globe downward. We do not know in the whole history of Canada of anything that was so discreditable as the attitude of The Hamilton Times, The London Advertiser, The Stratford Beacon, The Toronto Star, and the attitude of other Liberal papers in this province against this great principle. Only one thing more discreditable than their record is the record of Conservative papers like The Hamilton Spectator, which stands convicted of opposing this Conservative principle; a paper well-known to have been in a steady and consistent conspiracy to keep Mr. Gibson (Liberal), when he was attorney-general in the Ross government, had large interests in the Cataract Co., and from that day to this the Conservative Spectator has been the steady foe of hydro-electric power for the municipalities. And this great principle of public ownership applied to power has triumphed in spite of the offers of the Cataract Power Co. and the Toronto Electric Light Co. to give power to the municipalities at hydro-electric prices. "We have seen many cases of moral obliquity, but nothing the equal of this; that many cases of moral obliquity, but nothing the equal of this; that if they could not kill the hydro-electric, then they would accept its prices for their own goods." But there was much more opposition than what we have related to this principle. There was opposition at Montreal, there was opposition at Ottawa. It can safely be said that the Laurier administration has been favoring the private corporations as against the provincial proposition. It can safely be said that the heads of the leading financial corporations in Toronto have steadfastly opposed the public power proposition. Sir Edmund Walker has been fit to object to the principle all thru his career in Toronto, and to join in the general attack of stigmatizing the public as being unworthy and incapable of looking after a matter of this kind. That has been the worst attack yet made because it rests on the idea that local self-government in a British country cannot be attained. It does not believe, for instance, that what the people of England have done, we can do, successfully run and administer a public ownership proposition. They say the people are corrupt. We say, if they are corrupt in instances, it has been by means of the money of corporations seeking public franchises or holding them, and seeking to prevent legislation that would regulate them.
Well, in spite of all this opposition, the day of triumph has arrived, and to-day Sir James Whitney presses the button that will distribute power to a number of western towns, soon to be followed by many others, including Toronto. As far as we can gather, the plan for the distribution of the power, both as to transmission lines and as to local lines in the municipalities, is the transmission lines and as to local lines, constructed at a reasonable expense, and the work even more satisfactory in these respects than if done for a private corporation.
The price of power has already tumbled because of this policy, and it will tumble down lower because of further expansion; and while no attack is made on private enterprises, private enterprises will have to follow in the wake of the hydro-electric in reducing prices if they wish to keep in business. There is to be no feeling of the public by cornering the supply of power in Ontario and distributing it at enormous prices, as anthracite coal was cornered by the private railway corporations of Pennsylvania and forever doled out to the public at twice what it should command. Ontario has been freed from any such tyranny by the Whitney-Beck policy, and this we regard as the greatest bit of progressive legislation in the history of Canada for many and many a day. It is a new form of National Policy, brought much nearer to the people, and its good work, we trust, is only beginning. It is national work, and a new national party in Canada. The salvation of all North America turns on these new, progressive national policies.
Turn and survey for a moment the condition of affairs in the United States. That which is the greatest republic the world has ever seen, and which promised to do most for the improvement of humanity, finds itself to-day in a most wretched condition. Social disorder, economic disturbance of all kinds threatens that the political turmoil exists. Never was there such a war against privilege waged as is now being waged by Roosevelt and the insurgent senators and congressmen, and the great body of the people against these privileged interests. So bad is the situation that it is best described in the words of Governor Hughes, who said not long ago that the United States would have to be made over again. The interests rule the country, instead of the Country ruling the interests, and the future looks like a lifelong struggle for freedom.
We have seen the leaders vindicated the principle of public ownership in connection with power, and we may thereby avoid some of the troubles now pressing in the United States.
We boldly assert the doctrine that the distribution of power and light and heat, of local traction, of gas, of water, and things of this kind ought all to be municipally owned and administered for the benefit of the public, not owned by private corporations, administered for the benefit of shareholders; that the underlying principle in public utilities should be service and not profit; should be enjoyment of the utilities by the greatest number of people at the least possible cost, not their limitation to the fewest number of people at the highest prices.
Yes, the cause has won, the people have triumphed. A thing has been vindicated that will help to avoid some of the awful complications that now assail the United States and which threaten soon to demoralize our country if not checked.
If we give credit to any one citizen, we do it by the simple statement that we believe the people of Ontario appreciate the patriotic services of Adam Beck. And Sir James Whitney has a fine opportunity to-day to say so on behalf of the people.
The cause of the people, the rights of the people, are more than the cause of the interests, or the rights of capital. And when we say this we avoid all suggestion of confiscation.
Take off your hats, oh you people of Ontario, to Public Ownership and to Adam Beck if you care to. Sir Henry Pellatt had his turn last week.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

WILL TAKE PLEBISCITE ON LICENSE REDUCTION

Council Get Into a Tangle Through Multitude of Alternatives Offered.

HAMILTON, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—The vexed question of the number of licenses to be cut off was discussed by the city council this evening, and finally it was agreed to take a plebiscite from the people to see whether they will allow six licenses to be cut off or not.

The council got into a hopeless state of confusion, on account of many motions and amendments that were brought in. To begin, there was the board of control's recommendation that the number be reduced from 66 to 50.

Controller Bailey moved that the council be allowed to vote on four propositions, to reduce the number to 60, to 55, to 50, and for no reduction. He could not find a seconder. Controller Allan then asked a clause be added enabling the council to petition the legislature to amend the law, so as to allow municipalities to compensate those hotelmen whose licenses are cut off.

This suggestion was accepted. Ald. Clark then moved that the number be cut to 60. Ald. Farmer put it on an amendment that the number be 55, and Ald. Morris amended the amendment by asking for 56. After City Solicitor Waddell had straightened out the confusion over the motions and amendments, voting took place. As Controller Bailey had not secured a seconder, his motion was rejected. Ald. Morris' amendment to the amendment was lost by 15 to 10, and Ald. Farmer's by the same figures. Ald. Clark's motion was carried by the figures reversed.

Controller Bailey gave notice that he would move that election day be changed from the first Monday in January to the first day in January, and Ald. Duff that the bylaw be changed so that all meat be sold on the central market, the meat to be inspected by the food inspector before being offered for sale.

Controller Bailey asked the mayor, as a member of the police commission, to secure an investigation into the case of the butcher who displayed a carcass of decomposed meat recently on the market. The controller said that he understood that the man who originally owned the cow gave it to the man who sold it, and that it was so sick that it could hardly walk. The controller thought that, as the butcher had not been fined in the police court, this was a matter that should be looked into.

Peter Maranni was arrested to-night charged with an aggravated assault on Martin White. Both are employed by the steel plant.

A verdict of accidental death was brought in by the jury, which enquired into the death of Daniel McBride, who fell from the roof of the new building at the International Harvester Company's plant last week. The evidence showed deceased had suffered a fractured skull and ruptured kidneys as a result of his fall.

Silas Smith, a monogamist, was struck by a Grand Trunk train at Glanford this evening, and it is believed he was fatally injured.

Bennie Shepherd, a young lad, was found dead on the G.T.R. track near Burlington this morning. The boy had been playing truant from school, and it is presumed that he was struck by a train while running along the track.

Rev. Felix Taylor, pastor of Trinity Church, has been refused admission to the Ministerial Association here because he would not accept the divinity of Christ.

"Rough House," a Jeweler's Shop. Quite a disturbance was created in Samuel's jewelry store, 255 1-2 East King-street, last night, by Edward Evans, who says he lives at Hanlan's Point. He tried to "mix it" with two or three customers, and finally fell thru a show case. A piece of glass flew and cut a young lady. C. Cobden arrested him, charged with malicious injury to property.

After La Grippe. "I had suffered several weeks with LaGrippe. Had pains in my head and eyes. It felt as though there was a heavy weight on the top of my head, until it seemed that my brain would burst. I was so nervous that I could not rest or sleep. When I dozed off I would awake with a sudden jerking of my whole body. Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Remedy and Nerve and Liver Pills cured me. A number of friends have since realized the same benefits." MRS. ALVIN H. LOCKS, Seabrook, N. H. The after effects of LaGrippe are often more serious than the disease, as it leaves the system in a weakened condition that invites more serious troubles, such as pneumonia, etc. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine should be taken for some time to thoroughly restore nerve strength. HASTINGS NOW M. H. D. DR. HILL HEARD FROM

Minneapolis Man Wrote That He Would Not Play Into Hands of Politicians—Council Doings.

Dr. Charles J. O. Hastings is the city's new medical health officer. It was by a vote of 15 to 10 that he was appointed yesterday at a salary of $5000 a year, by the city council, on the recommendation of the board of control, and will enter upon his duties forthwith. The appointment being made under the Medical Health Act, it was not necessary to pass a formal bylaw as with civic appointments made under the Municipal Act.

The discussion and voting occupied less than 30 minutes. It was apparent from the outset that Dr. Hastings was the choice of the majority, and even Controller Spence, championing the cause of Dr. William Hill of Minneapolis, admitted that he recognized the trend of sentiment. The vote given Dr. Hill and Dr. F. Goodchild showed practically no change from that of last Thursday's special meeting beyond that Ald. Maguire, who then supported the former, and later moved for a reference back, announced his conversion to the ranks of Dr. Hastings' supporters. The divisions resulted in this manner:

DR. HILL, nominated by Controller Spence—For, Controller Spence, Ald. Dunn, Welch, Hilton, McBride, May, Baird, and Chisholm—5; against—The mayor, Controllers Ward, Church, Foster, Ald. Graham, Weston, McCarthy, Rowland, Spence, Heyd, Hamby, Pheasant, McCausland, Maguire and O'Neill—15.

DR. J. F. GOODCHILD, nominated by Dr. Hill and Dr. F. Goodchild—For, Ald. Dunn, Welch, Hilton, McBride, May and Baird—7; against—Controllers Ward, Church, Foster and Spence, Ald. Graham, Weston, McCarthy, Rowland, Spence, Heyd, Hamby, Pheasant, McCausland, Maguire and O'Neill—15.

DR. HASTINGS (board of control's recommendation)—For, Controllers Ward, Church and Foster, Ald. Graham, McBride, Weston, McCarthy, Rowland, May, Spence, Heyd, Hamby, Pheasant, McCausland, Maguire and O'Neill—15; against—The mayor, Controller Spence, Ald. Dunn, Welch, Hilton, Baird and Chisholm—7.

Controller Spence later moved to strike out the board's recommendation to appoint Dr. Hill. This was defeated by 15 to 8, the only change from the previous vote being that of Ald. May. Ald. McMurrich was the only absentee.

DR. HILL HEARD FROM. James Rogers, who figured in the Isolation Hospital enquiry, wrote protesting against the appointment of Dr. Hastings. He proposed either Dr. Roberts of Hamilton, or Dr. Hill.

In a personal letter from Dr. Hill, forwarded to the mayor by Dr. A. M. Dow, Thamesville, Ont., he stated that he would not accept the position if given sufficient authority. He would not, however, take it at twice the salary if subject to the dictation of politicians.

"There may be nothing in this movement at all, but if there is I want the appointment to come perfectly straight from headquarters and not as a result of any newspaper campaign or anything of that kind. I would not care to accept a position that was forced by any public clamor," he added.

Ald. May gave notice of his motion to have the isolation hospital placed under the control of the Toronto General, or the Sick Children's Hospital, and the plumbing inspectors under the authority of the works or city architect. There were demands of "votes" and "carried" when the board's report was reached, but Controller Spence insisted on being heard. He said he hoped council would not act upon Ald. May's proposal. As the medical health department was responsible for the enforcement in charge and for providing isolation from contagious diseases, the proposal was absurd. Several doctors, he said, had told him they had signed the petition for Dr. Hastings only because they did not care to do the latter, and that he had said if Dr. Hill were available he would not oppose him.

DR. HILL HEARD FROM. Controller Church reviewed Dr. Hastings' qualifications, and Ald. McBride followed with support of Dr. Hill. Dr. Hastings' laughter greeted his statement that doctors had told him Dr. Hill was as high above the medical profession in Toronto as the sky was above the earth. There were demands of "votes" and "carried" when the board's report was reached, but Controller Spence insisted on being heard. He said he hoped council would not act upon Ald. May's proposal. As the medical health department was responsible for the enforcement in charge and for providing isolation from contagious diseases, the proposal was absurd. Several doctors, he said, had told him they had signed the petition for Dr. Hastings only because they did not care to do the latter, and that he had said if Dr. Hill were available he would not oppose him.

HASTINGS NOW M. H. D. DR. HILL HEARD FROM

Minneapolis Man Wrote That He Would Not Play Into Hands of Politicians—Council Doings.

Dr. Charles J. O. Hastings is the city's new medical health officer. It was by a vote of 15 to 10 that he was appointed yesterday at a salary of $5000 a year, by the city council, on the recommendation of the board of control, and will enter upon his duties forthwith. The appointment being made under the Medical Health Act, it was not necessary to pass a formal bylaw as with civic appointments made under the Municipal Act.

The discussion and voting occupied less than 30 minutes. It was apparent from the outset that Dr. Hastings was the choice of the majority, and even Controller Spence, championing the cause of Dr. William Hill of Minneapolis, admitted that he recognized the trend of sentiment. The vote given Dr. Hill and Dr. F. Goodchild showed practically no change from that of last Thursday's special meeting beyond that Ald. Maguire, who then supported the former, and later moved for a reference back, announced his conversion to the ranks of Dr. Hastings' supporters. The divisions resulted in this manner:

DR. HILL, nominated by Controller Spence—For, Controller Spence, Ald. Dunn, Welch, Hilton, McBride, May, Baird, and Chisholm—5; against—The mayor, Controllers Ward, Church, Foster, Ald. Graham, Weston, McCarthy, Rowland, Spence, Heyd, Hamby, Pheasant, McCausland, Maguire and O'Neill—15.

DR. J. F. GOODCHILD, nominated by Dr. Hill and Dr. F. Goodchild—For, Ald. Dunn, Welch, Hilton, McBride, May and Baird—7; against—Controllers Ward, Church, Foster and Spence, Ald. Graham, Weston, McCarthy, Rowland, Spence, Heyd, Hamby, Pheasant, McCausland, Maguire and O'Neill—15.

DR. HASTINGS (board of control's recommendation)—For, Controllers Ward, Church and Foster, Ald. Graham, McBride, Weston, McCarthy, Rowland, May, Spence, Heyd, Hamby, Pheasant, McCausland, Maguire and O'Neill—15; against—The mayor, Controller Spence, Ald. Dunn, Welch, Hilton, Baird and Chisholm—7.

Controller Spence later moved to strike out the board's recommendation to appoint Dr. Hill. This was defeated by 15 to 8, the only change from the previous vote being that of Ald. May. Ald. McMurrich was the only absentee.

DR. HILL HEARD FROM. James Rogers, who figured in the Isolation Hospital enquiry, wrote protesting against the appointment of Dr. Hastings. He proposed either Dr. Roberts of Hamilton, or Dr. Hill.

In a personal letter from Dr. Hill, forwarded to the mayor by Dr. A. M. Dow, Thamesville, Ont., he stated that he would not accept the position if given sufficient authority. He would not, however, take it at twice the salary if subject to the dictation of politicians.

"There may be nothing in this movement at all, but if there is I want the appointment to come perfectly straight from headquarters and not as a result of any newspaper campaign or anything of that kind. I would not care to accept a position that was forced by any public clamor," he added.

Ald. May gave notice of his motion to have the isolation hospital placed under the control of the Toronto General, or the Sick Children's Hospital, and the plumbing inspectors under the authority of the works or city architect. There were demands of "votes" and "carried" when the board's report was reached, but Controller Spence insisted on being heard. He said he hoped council would not act upon Ald. May's proposal. As the medical health department was responsible for the enforcement in charge and for providing isolation from contagious diseases, the proposal was absurd. Several doctors, he said, had told him they had signed the petition for Dr. Hastings only because they did not care to do the latter, and that he had said if Dr. Hill were available he would not oppose him.

Day's Doings YORK COUNTY West Toronto North Toronto East Toronto

Decision of Board Awaited With Interest—County Doings.

NORTH TORONTO, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Comment on the railway situation in the town, while less animated than a week ago, when the matter was up before the railway board for consideration, is still in view of the final decision of the board, which was attained to the subject. The accommodation shows no improvement, but this was not in the light of the company's past record to be expected. There will be no change in the conditions until the matter is finally disposed of, either before the railway board or some higher tribunal.

Some anxiety has been expressed by townsmen with respect to section 10, chapter 23 of the statutes of Ontario, passed at the last session of parliament and in the closing hours, and which gives the board of control the power to apply to the board of control, in the case of street railways wholly or partly in cities having a population of one hundred thousand or over, shall include, but in the case of other street railways shall not include, the power to require the company owning or operating the street railway to construct, maintain and operate additional lines and extensions of existing lines, in, along and upon any street or highway or part of street or highway upon which the company has authority to construct, maintain and operate its railway.

Operating Car Lines. Unanimous approval was given the principle of constructing, equipping and operating street car lines to be established by the city in the suburban districts, by a commission, the number of members and manner of appointment, together with their duties and powers, to be fully reported by the board of control and approved by the council, before application is made to the legislative assembly for an act authorizing the same.

No objection to paying Jacobs and Davies the stipulated $5000 for their report on a tube system for Toronto was offered.

Controller Ward goes to the convention of the International Brotherhood of Association, which opens at Atlantic City to-day. Ald. Maguire first proposed that City Engineer Bust or J. L. Bird of his department go, with the dual object of seeing the display of modern railway appliances, and of securing the convention, with its 4000 delegates, for Toronto next year.

Controller Spence thought Ald. Maguire, as chairman of the reception committee, should go, but the alderman declined Controller Spence's suggestion. He said he would not "ride" jaunts, and Ald. Baird supported him.

Ald. McCarthy declared that conventions were a great benefit to Toronto because of the money spent by the visitors. It was not fair, he said, to have the city pay for the trip on the city's business should be accused of joy riding by members not so willing. Applause came with his declaration. He was anxious to see the city as a whole, and to put up with epithets I have not had to put up with in 20 years' business life," he said.

Controller Foster, Ald. Baird and Ald. McCarthy himself alone voted against sending the last named, but Ald. McCarthy, just before council adjourned, announced that he would be unable to get away. Controller Spence said the chance to secure the convention was too valuable to be lost, and moved that Controller Ward go. This was approved.

Residents Protest. W. S. Hodson, on behalf of residents of South Parkdale, wrote protesting against alleged alteration of the power line route. He claimed that the high voltage wires would hang over the back yards of the houses on Empress-crescent and Dominion-street, terrorizing occupants and reducing property values at least 50 per cent. He personally would not live within a quarter of a mile of the wires. A by-law to make the district bounded by College-street, Stephanie-street, McCaul-street and Spadina-avenue a residential district was proposed. The alderman complained that there was too much tendency to exclude business places from downtown districts.

WANT SENTENCE COMMUTED

An Effort to Be Made to Prevent the Hanging of Gunner Allen. VICTORIA, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—An effort will be made to secure commutation of the sentence of death passed upon Gunner Thomas Allen last week for the murder of Major Porter. The matter was brought up yesterday by Dr. Ernest Hall, at a meeting of the Victoria Local Option League.

At the trial Dr. Hall gave evidence to the effect that Allen was suffering from alcoholic insanity. His testimony was described by Chief Justice Hunter as "exaggerated," and obviously carried no weight with the jury. Dr. Hall repeated his opinion with considerable vigor yesterday. He said that a jury of 12 ordinary men can no more tell when a man is insane than they can tell when he has appendicitis.

DISAPPOINTED, RESIGNED. Hon. F. Carter Cotton Out of British Columbia Cabinet. VICTORIA, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Feeling somewhat disappointed that he was not given the portfolio of finance, Hon. F. Carter Cotton, president of the council, to-day handed his resignation to Premier McBride and it was accepted. Hon. Eric Elliott becomes minister of finance and agriculture, and W. R. Ross of Fernie was sworn in as minister of lands, in place of Elliott. A. E. McPhillips, member for Island, resigned from the council. Cotton's retirement is not surprising, for he recently sold his Vancouver newspaper, and is retiring from business and political activity with a million or so to the good. He is representative in the legislature for Richmond; and it is not probable that he will run again.

Couldn't Identify Him. BRANTFORD, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—William Burke, brought to this city recently from Central Prison to face a charge of defrauding Morris Leaboylt out of $220 on a fake diamond deal here last summer, similar to a series of frauds pulled off in Toronto and other centres, was discharged to-day. Altho Leaboylt picked Burke out of five prisoners at Toronto, he was unable to-day to swear to his identity.

ESCAPED FROM SING SING

Five Desperate Characters Get Away—189 Afraid to Go.

OSBINGING, N.Y., Oct. 10.—The door to liberty was opened to 195 convicts in Sing Sing State Prison here at half-past one o'clock this morning. Only five men faced death at the hands of the armed guards and escaped by dropping twenty feet to the ground from a window, the bars of which had been sawed. An hour later another convict, a negro, followed the path of the fugitives and voluntarily gave the alarm to the prison guards. The remaining 189 men, overpowered with a sense of fear, turned their faces away from the temptation to escape. In all the gloomy history of Sing Sing there is no parallel to the scene this morning in the chapel dormitory, a transformed church in which nearly two hundred men passed fourteen hours each day. The escape was planned by Wm. Green, 250 lbs. in weight, and strong as an ox, who was serving 6-12 years for highway robbery. There are two guards on night duty. One was lured into a lavatory by the pretended illness of a convict and was immediately overpowered by Green, who knocked out the second guard when he hurried up. Then with a hacksaw, the bars of a window were broken thru, and the escape made easy. While there are walls 30 feet high, with armed guards on three sides of the prison, the way to the Hudson River is comparatively open.

Those who got away had from 4-12 years to 20 years terms.

FISH PROPAGATE CHOLERA

Italian Biologist Finds Germ in All Caught Near Bari—Deep Sea Search.

ROME, Oct. 10.—Prof. Gosio, the celebrated Italian bacteriologist, is convinced that cholera germs are transmitted by fish. He has undertaken experiments to ascertain whether the recent cholera outbreak in southern Italy was due to this medium of propagation. Nearly all the fish caught near the coast of Bari contained the specific vibrios of Asiatic cholera, and Prof. Gosio's studies are now directed to learn whether such microbes are apt to multiply inside of fishes. He is also trying to discover whether migratory fishes caught far out at sea contain cholera microbes. A torpedo boat has been placed at his disposal in order that he may continue his researches. If his theory is confirmed it will be necessary to have all fish caught in times of epidemic boiled before they are sold, as the mere handling of fish containing cholera microbes would be sufficient to communicate the disease.

DUCKS ON DRY LAND.

Thousands of Them Raised Without Any Water Except What They Drink.

Raising ducks on dry land reads to many a very much like running a locomotive without steam, and yet ducks—Indian Runner ducks, the Leghorns of the duck family—are raised generation after generation with only the water they drink and what little is contained in their food. On a plot of ground two and one-half acres in extent, not all of which is utilized for the purpose, Joseph W. Scull at Vineland, N.J., carries 450 Indian Runner ducks in ten houses with large runs. This is the fourth year of Mr. Scull's experiences with ducks—previously he raised chickens for 11 years—and he unhesitatingly recommends Indian Runners in preference to chickens. Beginning with four females and one male, artificial incubation and brooding produced this flock in the time stated, and a hardy, handsome flock it is, according to Country Life in America. The eggs are fine eating, being larger and richer than hen's eggs. With the Indian Runner duck we find some peculiar conditions, so peculiar as to be almost beyond belief, kept in confinement, forced with food for egg production, some ducks, or possibly every duck, will on some days lay two eggs, usually the second egg soft shelled and laid late in the afternoon. This soft shelled egg has been changed to a hard shelled one with the use of oyster shell fed in the mash in small quantities twice a week. Again the duck is such an active arrangement, so honestly industrious that it devotes all of its energy during daylight to the making of the egg and rather consistently leaves it during the night where it can be secured in the morning, for the laying is done between midnight and 8 a.m. For some reason they become frightened in the dark, running and flying in all directions, making as much noise as possible, materially reducing the egg output and frequently killing themselves, therefore they require a light in their sleeping quarters. A small lamp in the higher portion of the house at a safe distance from the roof is sufficient. Also the Indian Runners are active and nervous, kindness and constant

CONDUCTOR'S VERSION

Conductor Clarence Long takes exception to The World's report of an occurrence on a Grand Trunk train near Millbrook. The despatch from Peterboro stated that Conductor Long roughly used a passenger who was intoxicated and did not produce his ticket. What happened was this: In dragging the man down the aisle to get him off the car, the man fell against a seat and cut his head. Mr. Long says he did not lock him in the lavatory, but merely shoved him in there so that the aisle would be clear for other passengers to leave the train. Moreover, Long indignantly denies that he is a strikebreaker. He started with the Grand Trunk during the strike, but as he accepted a permanent position he thinks that entitles him to immunity from the odium that generally attaches to the term "strikebreaker."

LOSING OXYGEN.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Several men of science are expressing the opinion that the world's supply of oxygen is diminishing with considerable rapidity. Instruments for recording altitude were not so perfect in the early days of ballooning as now, but there seem to be good reasons for thinking that one or two of the early aeronauts were able to ascend to a zone unattainable because of a lack of oxygen by their modern confreres.

TORONTO AND CONFEDERACY

Memory of the Late James Beatty, ex-M.P., Reverenced in Richmond.

A Torontonian, now visiting in the north, contributes the following interesting information to The World: Torontonians will be interested in the exhibit at the Confederate Museum in Richmond, Va. For the information of Canadians having recollection of the civil war, and knowledge of the active sympathy of the defunct Toronto Daily Leader with the "lost cause," files of the paper are preserved for years 1862 and 1863. A portrait of the late James Beatty, M.P., of East Toronto, proprietor, adorns the walls, and several letters in the handwriting of the late Samuel Beatty, but signed by James Beatty, and addressed to Jefferson Davis, are preserved in glass cases framed. The World representative had an opportunity to inspect the old files and the letters on the 7th inst., and heard many kindly references to Toronto, as the name of the late James Beatty is held in reverence by the Confederate veterans resident in Richmond. In this connection it might be worth noting that the present generation of Virginians have little or no knowledge of the "unpleasantness" of 1861-1864. It is only a rapidly diminishing minority of the grizzled veterans that talk about it. The younger generation are thoroughly commercialized. All their interests, commercial and social, are largely dominated by northern influence. "Old Glory" is the only flag now in evidence, a marked change since the Spanish-American war. A tour of the state revealed only one Confederate flag, and that flying from the monument in Norfolk, Va.

Notwithstanding the years that have passed since the civil war, Virginia has deteriorated in the rural sections. The principal cities are greatly improved, with increased population and bear visible evidence of northern capital and enterprise. The old plantations along the James River are said to be worked out, many abandoned, and the buildings in decay. The white Virginian does not take kindly to manual labor, with the result that farming, and it is only truck farming, is in the hands of the negro, and poorly done at that. I was told of a former Toronto man

ASKS BOUNTY FOR EACH BABY

Senator McNichol of Pennsylvania Will Introduce Bill in Legislature.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 10.—State Senator James P. McNichol, one of the Republican leaders of Pennsylvania, declares he believes the parents of every child born in this state should receive a premium from the state. "At the next session of the legislature," said Senator McNichol, "it is my intention to introduce a bill to provide that a bounty should be paid to the parents of every new baby born in the state. 'Let us increase our population by an increase in the birth rate rather than in the increase in the number of foreigners that come to the American shore.'"

It is understood that the plea will be self-defence. On the charge that James Johnson was an accessory to the murder, the found no bill, and Johnson is accordingly discharged.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Eighteen Chinese were captured by secret service officers aboard the Empress of India, which arrived from the orient Saturday night. The Chinamen attempted to evade payment of the head tax by declaring themselves as merchants, each being provided with letters by a Vancouver interpreter, formerly engaged as a customs official. This is the second haul since the officials began an investigation into the smuggling of Chinese laborers.

Official Averages for Toronto Cricket League For 1910

Note and Comment

The cricket averages of the City League, as the secretary states, proves the game at present at its top form in Toronto. No one or two players outshine the others in batting or bowling.

A. H. Thorne of St. Albans is the champion batsman with 22.4 per innings and there are altogether 33 with double figure averages.

Rosedale and Parkdale, the divisional winners, are to be congratulated on their success. Rosedale especially on winning the final, not forgetting Capt. Hugh Reid, the valiant leader who also is enclosed in No. 2 position in the batting averages.

The season is only over a week or so, you have the official records nice and fresh, a fact appreciated by the cricketeers. This is due to the energy and foresight of the painstaking secretary of the league, Mr. H. G. Gault.

You read the American exchanges and believe that their new football, adopted in a major part as the result of the visit of the Canadian team to New York last fall, is winning by leaps and bounds. They used open work, punting, passing and running and you begin to congratulate yourself that the new style is exactly like our own until there looms up something about the "forward pass" and the intercollegiate football camp persist in retaining this basketball feature.

Larry Lajoie and the St. Louis players may say what they like, but the baseball public will believe with the Detroit fans that the Sunday batting statistics are a row deal and that the champion batsman even if the records prove him such, will have the afternoon to reckon with.

The Owens was quoted in this column last week as saying that some of the clubs were pulling to the Frenchman and the closing game shows that St. Louis was palpably one of them.

It's all about the automobile. The manager of the firm that hung up the prize was quoted yesterday concerning the incident. He was asked whether he would demand official investigation before presenting the auto.

"Under the terms of our deed of gift," he said, "we are required to accept the ruling of the National Commission as to the winner of the auto, and it will be ready for the man whom the commission names. Our company probably will not ask that the alleged quitting of the St. Louis Club be investigated, relying on the commission to take any such action that it may deem proper or expedient. I regret very much that any scandal should arise over the batting race. Our company offered this prize with the idea of promoting the game and giving the batsmen something toward which to bend their efforts. We have no reason to believe anything of this sort, and trust that the fans will reserve judgment until all the facts come out."

However, if Lajoie gets the auto, Third-Baseman Corridon is entitled to several free rides, also the St. Louis official scorer.

THORNE AND BUTTON LEAD IN BATTING AND BOWLING

Official Averages of the Toronto Cricket League—Records and Team Batting.

The competition in the Toronto Cricket League during the past season proved about the most interesting on record. One club was playing in two divisions. In Division A a good fight developed between Rosedale and St. Albans, Rosedale coming out in Division B, Parkdale and Wanderers fought it out, Parkdale winning on the very last game played.

The players of Rosedale won in a very close game, and, therefore, in addition to being champions of the league, are holders of the John Ross Robertson Challenge Cup which carries with it the championship of the Dominion. The appended lists of averages speak for themselves, needing only one comment, and that being that they are the best all round, fairly even averages ever made in the league. No one player far outclasses the others.

Baseball Writers Say Lajoie's Hits Were St. Louis Gifts

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—Each of the local sporting writers, in comments on yesterday's American League baseball games between the Cleveland and St. Louis teams, charged today that certain members of the St. Louis team allowed Napoleon Lajoie of Cleveland to obtain hits. The object of this, it is charged, was to enable Lajoie to score a larger batting average during the season than is credited to Ty Cobb of Detroit.

Lajoie and other players say there was no trickery whatever. Lajoie is credited by the official scorer as being at the bat four times in each game of the double-header. Each time he obtained a hit. In the summary he is also credited with a sacrifice hit.

The first time at bat Lajoie hit a liner and made three bases on it. The ball went over the center-fielder's head. Six other times he bunted down the first-base line, and either beat the third-baseman or Corridon did not attempt to throw.

Another time Lajoie grounded to Wallace, who threw wild to first-base. Once Lajoie bunted to Corridon, who fielded it, but threw wild to first. This was the play that gave Lajoie the sacrifice hit.

Lajoie was at bat Corridon played far back off third-base, the writers say. He ran up each time that St. Louis pitched against Cleveland. Lajoie got one hit in three times at bat. Nelson never pitched to Lajoie before.

President Hedges of the local team refused to discuss the team's playing. "Lajoie out-guessed us," he said. "I do not know how he figured he did not have the nerve to bunt every time. He beat us at our own game. We do not send any of my players in to play close to Lajoie when he tries to bunt."

In explaining his playing, Lajoie, in a statement sent to St. Louis newspaper to-day from Cincinnati, said: "After I made my first hit, a clean double, at the center for three bases, the St. Louis men played dead, expecting me to pound the ball out every time. I do not know how they figured they did their best to deceive me, I am certain."

National League Scores. At Chicago—St. Louis defeated Chicago yesterday by 15 to 1 in a closely played contest, marked by free hitting and notable pitching. For three bases, the St. Louis men played dead, expecting me to pound the ball out every time. I do not know how they figured they did their best to deceive me, I am certain.

Frank Johnston Does the Opening Honors—Scores in All the Leagues.

Games To-Night. Central League—Oskwachneckong v. Fling Club. Royal Canadian League—Swans v. Storms. Parkdale Two-Men League—Daily v. Ball and Beer. City League—Brunswicks at Royals. Alton v. Niagara Falls at Domestics. Gladstones at Paynes.

Central League Scores. Central Bowling League was opened for the season last night by Mr. F. M. Johnston, president of the Canadian Bowlers' Association, in the presence of Alderman Maguire. He gave a short speech, making out the strong points of the bowling, the most notable being for the teams to be just as good losers as winners. Messrs. Johnston, Doughty, Good and Claridge each rolled a ball down the respective alleys, the three first names getting strikes and the latter 3 pins, thus declaring the season open. The result of the games was three straight to the Ontario Club.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 11, 1910.

BUY THE STREET RAILWAY.

A basis for negotiation, and what is more important, decisive action, has been reached in the consideration of the proposal that the city purchase the street railway from the Toronto Railway Company. The conference yesterday between Messrs. Mackenzie and Fleming and the board of control has made that sufficiently clear. The statement that no obstacle will be placed in the way of the city acquiring the street car system is satisfactory as coming from Mr. Mackenzie, whose word may be relied upon, who is a reasonable man of business, and whose recommendation will carry great weight with the shareholders.

As The World surmised, Mr. Mackenzie would not consider the sale of the radial lines, and only those who wish to hinder the purchase of the street railway will insist further upon this idea. But Mr. Mackenzie agreed that if the sale were consummated the street car system would be handed over free of all entanglements from the radials inside the present or future city boundaries.

All this clears the ground absolutely for the major negotiation over the price to be paid. We submit that where seller and buyer are both willing, the matter of price is almost entirely an actuarial proposition. The present worth can be calculated to a dollar, and the negotiation should then be narrowed down to the question of re-employment values. Such a matter is certainly not beyond the bounds of expert arbitration.

The important thing for the city now to do is to prepare for the submission of the necessary bylaw to the people authorizing the purchase, and to formulate the legislation which will be required to validate the whole transaction. If Mayor Geary will undertake to put the deal thru and succeeds, he will give himself an historical place in the city annals. It is the most important step in the growth of the Canadian metropolis that has yet been taken, and means doubling the population in twenty years.

STREET RAILWAY ACCIDENTS.

Within a very short time there have been three more fatal accidents on the street railway, the victims in each case falling between a street car and its trailer. The death toll exacted in this and other ways thru the absence of protective appliances that prevent persons from being carried beneath the wheels is inexorable, especially when there are safeguards in actual use that act with invariable success. The Liverpool type, where the guard surrounds the car, has proved thoroughly effective, and it ought not to be difficult to adapt its principle to Toronto street conditions. Something should be done to check the waste of life and limb that characterizes street railway operation in this city, and the matter of improvement ought to invite more attention from the council than it appears to receive.

"O CANADA."

When The Evening Telegram tries, it can beat all the funny writers in America. There have not been such hearty shrieks of laughter for a long time in Toronto as over the reading of the comic article on Dr. Vogt and "O Canada." The admission that Dr. Vogt is an authority on "the mechanics of music" is worthy of Mark Twain at his best, but when added to that it insists in dragging a leading musician into politics because he offers his opinion on the finest tune that has ever been written on Canadian soil, or on the soil of the American continent for that matter, it achieves the joke of the year.

Who is the funny man who thinks "O Canada" is dirge-like and to be classed with Handel's "Dead March" and Chopin's "Funeral March"? The combination of these two is an indication of the musical perception of the critic. Certainly "O Canada" has not the "frivolity" of "Yankee Doodle," nor the flamboyance of "Hail Columbia." But are these qualities needed in a Canadian national anthem, which thru The Telegram's advertising, "O Canada" seems likely to become?

The Telegram objects to the "personality" and "distinction" of "O Canada." It also objects strongly to the qualities which are perhaps best illustrated in the solemnities, as The Telegram would say, of "God Save the King." These are just the qualities which make it popular.

The Telegram, as a matter of fact, has been obsessed by an antipathy for the very powerful musical characteristics which equally attract people with musical taste to the fine air, which, after years of neglect, has been taken up by English speaking Canadians as the finest expression of national feeling yet discovered.

This musical repugnance is an interesting psychological study. There are certain tunes which have such a strong psychic effect that they are forbidden in certain districts. "Party tunes," as they are called, are prohibited in Belfast under penalties. The Telegram will have to be guarded when a band plays "O Canada," otherwise parcels may set in.

THE PEOPLE CAN FIGHT, TOO.

It is declared that the corporations have one fixed policy and only one policy in dealing with the unincorporated public with whom they come into opposition, and especially in their dealing with municipal bodies. That policy is to fight, and to fight without scruple. The chances are that by unintermittent fight something may be gained which might be lost by fair dealing, especially when the heavy guns are on the side of the corporation.

The people are beginning to understand this attitude of the corporations and to play the game as it is put up to them. The people can use heavy guns, too, and can resort to every means that the courts permit. When the corporations meet heavier metal they give ground.

It is of important interest to note how the Toronto Electric Light Company discovered that when the city had a case against it, it could negotiate with the same smoothness it would have adopted towards a brother corporation. The people can fight, too.

"Honest but visionary" is The Mail and Empire's view of the new Portuguese Government. Is the inference to be that one "crooked and clever" is to be preferred?

OUR SOLDIERS.

Editor World: In addressing these my opinions on the numerous comments appearing in our several dailies the past few weeks with regard to the trip to the gallies of our own Rifles abroad, permit me to state with considerable emphasis that I am not the party portrayed in the "Bonnets of a South Sea," but one of our fair-minded citizens who is sick and tired of reading line editorials on the great hardships experienced by these willing young men, on their periodical trips to the gallies, and whose discomforts were met with, but whose soul, why should our hearts bleed for they who went for their own glory and amusement, and not for king and country, these warlike boys who crossed the seas some twelve years ago with no other thought than to die for the cause if need be. When one stops and thinks, how he is struck by the contrast of the gallies and the breasts of these stalwart youths and trusty marksmen as go to make up the Q.O.R. Let's hope that the editor of this morning's papers is expressing the sentiments of one and all of these play soldiers, and that if the time ever should come that assistance is needed to safeguard the interests of these gallies, they will be found wanting, but only too willing to march without whimpering those twenty or thirty miles so often necessary when real soldiering.

In conclusion, allow me to say that the above is not meant as a slur against the regiment which has done its home town proud, but rather a jab at the press which makes poor old Toronto the laughing stock of the universe and often referred to by visitors, who know, as the smallest big miller in the world. F. C. Miller. Toronto, Oct. 5.

VALIDITY OF DIVORCE

Enters into Charge of Abduction Against F. Hamilton.

Frederick Hamilton, accused of abducting his own child from his divorced wife, was before Judge Denton yesterday, when his counsel, T. Robinette, took a new tack and argued that the divorce granted in Indiana, for cruelty and desertion, was not valid in Canada, especially as Hamilton had aided his wife in obtaining it, which was collusion. In any event the divorce gave him the custody of the child for two months in each year, and the mother had refused to give him up.

Assistant Crown Attorney Monahan argued the validity of the divorce, inasmuch as Hamilton had remained in a short time. Decision will be given to-day.

This work of taking the last ounce of flesh on the part of the crown is "too much," said Mr. Robinette, when Crown Attorney Monahan declined to withdraw a further charge against Hamilton of assaulting his first wife.

CHRISTMAS EXCURSION

Sons of England to Run Another Special Old Home Trip.

Another "old home" excursion, under the auster of the Sons of England, has been arranged for, via the Canadian Northern Railway, those brave men, the Sailors will be on the Royal Edward, leaving Halifax Dec. 7, and Royal George, leaving Dec. 11, and special trains will leave Toronto for both sailings. It is expected that 500 will go on each steamer and there will be brass bands and other special features.

Trouble Over Steamer Ticket. E. B. Medcalf was in police court yesterday charged with theft of $60.55, the price of a passage on the Empress of Ireland, John Dodds, complainant. But are these qualities needed in a Canadian national anthem, which thru The Telegram's advertising, "O Canada" seems likely to become?

Rev. Dr. R. P. McKay, secretary of the Presbyterian foreign mission board, left last yesterday for Boston, where he will attend the centenary celebration of the American board of committees of foreign missions. Dr. McKay will be away for three or four days.

COTTON OPERATIVES BACK

Week's Idleness Cost the Union $250,000.

OLDHAM, Eng., Oct. 10.—The cotton mills of Lancashire resumed operations to-day. George Howe, a local employe, whose discharge caused the strike at Fern Mill and resulted in the lockout of 130,000 operatives, was given work in another factory. In one week the lockout cost the workers half a million dollars in wages and depleted the union funds by $200,000.

Tying Up an Industry. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Five thousand girls, makers of neckties, went on strike to-day for better working conditions. The girls say factory owners will go out, unless their demands are granted.

Are You a Sportsman? If so, this season of the year brings to mind visions of past hunting trips; perhaps you have in your office or home a mounted deer or moose head, a trophy of the thrill of knowing that your shot had gone true and brought down a fleet footed deer or noble moose. Do you feel the hunting fever coming on? If so, consult Mr. C. E. Horning, City Passenger and Ticket Agent, Grand Trunk Railway System, northwest corner King and Yonge-streets. Phone Main 4209; he will supply you with full information, illustrated literature, maps, etc.

Two Men Burned With Pitch. Francis Green, an employe of the Canada Foundry, and Herbert Marshall, foreman, were badly scalded as a result of a can of boiling pitch exploding at the works yesterday morning. Green was melting the pitch, to pour into some iron pipes prior to bending. His hands, arms and face were blistered, and Marshall's face burned.

An Earl as a Farmer. The Earl of Harrowby, who is a member of the Stafford County Council, called on Deputy Minister of Agriculture James at the parliament buildings yesterday, and had a talk about Northern Ontario. Zam-Buk. I Swasted Zam-Buk there and cured me for $100! If you are suffering from any form of skin disease or injury, read this! Mr. Arthur Fairbank, of 547 Lansdowne Ave., Toronto, is the speaker, and he says: "A bad eruption on my forehead quickly spread until it covered my scalp with foul and painful sores. I went to a doctor, who treated me for it. Still the sores spread until almost the whole of my head was affected. As the doctor's treatment did me very little good, I left it off and tried various home remedies. I also tried taking various medicinal medicines to try to cure the outbreak through my blood. Still it was in vain! Then I tried blood purifiers, but not one of them did me any good. I was by that time in a shocking condition, and as a last resource I went to a skin specialist. He treated me for a period and it cost me over $50, but the sores got no better. They would itch and burn at times until I was nearly mad. I must have spent over $100 on useless remedies, when one day a friend asked me why I had not tried Zam-Buk, and gave me a little. This little bit of Zam-Buk did me more good than all the long supply of the balm and started right in to give it a proper trial. Very soon I began to see and feel a great difference in the sores, and I knew that at last I had got something that would cure me. Zam-Buk cured me at a trifling cost. If I had got it at first it would have saved me dollars, and hours and hours of pain."

"You are going to ask me, perhaps, by what name this new organization is going to call itself. You might say, perhaps, Nationalists. I might have belayed it like you, except for certain occurrences which took place lately, and which take place every day, and which let us know that the disciples of purity, who respect nothing, do not even respect the man who has given them to themselves."

Dealing with the attitude of the Bourassa faction on the naval question, the premier referred to the colonial conference of 1902, in which he opposed a resolution of Premier Seddon of New Zealand, to pledge the various colonies to a contribution for imperial defence on land and sea.

Accused of Treason.

"But, gentlemen, what is the consequence of this attitude? The consequence of this attitude is that the man you now have before you is accused of crime, is accused of treason. We are accused of treason in the province of Ontario towards our country, and treason towards the British Empire. I have been accused of treason, but I have grown accustomed to that charge during the past four years."

Pine Beach

A Home Community
Close to Nature and Close to the City

100 Lots Sold Means 100 Healthier Homes

100 fine homesites in Pine Beach, the health subdivision along the lake shore, were sold on Saturday. That means that Toronto will be greater and happier by 100 more homes next year. The public simply took Pine Beach by storm on the Opening Day.

Robins Limited regret that their large sales force was greatly outnumbered by home-seekers, and many consequently had to postpone their buying. However, the sales force has now been enlarged. Prices will be pressed down as long as they can be kept down, and there will be another big day for home-seekers in Pine Beach next Saturday. Keep your eye on the papers every day for Pine Beach items. Get ready for a nice trip on Saturday to Stop 26, Lake Shore Road. Even the conductors on the cars look enthused as they call out "Pine Beach!"

If you have a little time to spare you don't need to wait till Saturday if you want your lot before somebody else picks it up. Call, write or phone Main 7171 any time.

PEOPLE MAY VOTE JAN. 1 ON BUYING STREET RY.

President Mackenzie Will Recommend Sale to Shareholders on Satisfactory Terms.

"As the result of the conference yesterday morning between Mr. J. D. Larkin, chairman of the special street railway committee, on one hand, and the board of control, and President Wm. Mackenzie and Manager Fleming of the street railway, on the other, it is not improbable that the ratepayers will be given an opportunity on Jan. 1 next, to say whether they are in favor of the purchase of the railway, subject to later agreement to be made by the city representatives found the company willing to sell the railway, provided satisfactory terms could be reached, undertaking, in the event of a deal, to have over the system of entanglements." Mr. Mackenzie did not, however, explain how the company's contract with the Electrical Development Company is to be dealt with. He ratifies the fact that the company is not in the market to dispose of the radial railway franchises which it controls.

After the private conference in the mayor's office, lasting from 11.30 a.m. to about 1 p.m., Mayor Geary issued a statement. In this he pointed out that the company's representatives only have a few days to make their recommendation to the shareholders as soon as the city had power to purchase. Mr. Mackenzie said he would consider such adjustments as to radial lines within the city as were necessary, and if an agreement of sale were made, the system would be handed over clear of all entanglements.

"They would not give us a price to be refused or knocked down," added the mayor. "They will not state their price until we have authority from the people to purchase. It is likely that the city council will submit a bylaw to the ratepayers."

The board of control will take action within the next few days toward holding within the next few days to send on a recommendation to the council. If the people declare for the principle of purchase, the next step would be to obtain from the legislature the actual power. With this obtained, negotiations could be resumed, and if the council found the company's terms acceptable, it could then submit a money bylaw to authorize the issue of the necessary debentures.

Realty and Building

Appeals against increased taxation were heard by the court of revision yesterday morning. E. F. B. Johnston, K.C., appearing for five firms, whose assessments have been raised, said that the firms were being taxed out of business.

Mrs. Lillian M. Beatty of 121 St. George-street, objected to some of the income tax assessed at $9,945 instead of $945, as at present. The reason advanced by Mr. Beatty why the income should not be increased was that the city residence was only used between November and the time they were "domiciled" at Bedford Park, outside of the city limits. Decision was reserved. Assessment Commissioner Forman said that he would have to hear only the claims as there were a number of similar ones.

The Westbourne School for Girls, 240 West Bloor-street, was made exempt. It was assessed at $23,900, but by Mr. Johnston's clients had been increased from $3000 to $15,000 per acre. The firms objecting are the Ontario Lumber Co., the Standard Chemical Company and the Warren Bituminous Paving Company. They are located between Johnson-street and the railway, south of the railway. "We don't want exemption, but we are being taxed out of business," said Mr. Johnston.

Mr. Wilson said his assessment was $1000 per acre in 1906, from then until recently $2000, and it now was $15,000. "We have no water supply, sewerage conveniences, street light or drainage," he said. "We do everything ourselves even to maintaining watchmen, as there are no police there," he said. Also, there were no buildings on the property, and it had no water supply. "We do everything ourselves even to maintaining watchmen, as there are no police there," he said. Also, there were no buildings on the property, and it had no water supply.

Mr. Forman said that the firm was using land for piling lumber that was too valuable for them to pay taxes on. The land also had a value as waterfront land, he said. By properly laying out, the land would be worth $15,000, but as it was it was only assessed for $23,100.

Mr. McClelland of the Sand and Lime Company said they had filled in the waterfront, and had made a road for their uses. They had spent $7000 on filling and crib work within the last two years.

Mr. Hamilton of the Standard Chemical Company said that there was no comparison between their land and that across the tracks. On their land they could strike water by digging down a foot. He did not think that the water would be of any use. It was used only for piling timber and was, in his opinion, valuable for nothing else.

Cobalt - Timiskaming stock put on three-p.c. quarterly dividend basis

Cobalt Stocks Marking Time

Timisk. Sells Off On Good News

Mining Markets Very Active, But Prices Only Hold Their Own - Chamber Issues in Good Demand.

The action of the Timiskaming directors in declaring a three per cent. dividend for the quarter had the usual effect on the stock market.

As far as values went, the mining markets practically marked time today. Trading was again somewhat quiet.

The directors of the Timiskaming Mining Company decided to resume dividends at a three per cent. quarterly rate at the meeting on Saturday.

The mill is now making about expenses over one thousand dollars per working day from the low grade ore.

The market this week has been distinctly larger than it has been recently, and up till yesterday the tone was quite firm.

Not too Late for These Orientals

Of the 368 Oriental Rugs that were put on sale Monday at special prices, there are still many excellent pieces to be picked up at prices away below their market value. Some of them are good enough to hang on the wall, like paintings. There are still good examples of:

Kermansaahs, Tabriz Carpets, Plain Turkey Carpets, Persian Strips, Royal Bokharas, Royal Herkies, Samar-cands, Gorevans, Sarabands, Kabristans, Shirvans, Shir-ayes, Bokharas, Kazaks.

To the rug expert all these names stand for definite characteristics. One sometimes finds them spelt most weirdly in sale announcements that are not backed up by expert knowledge. Better beware of such confusion, and make your choice from this new Constantinople shipment, where the names and characteristics are as definite as the savings.
