TURKS BEATEN AT FOOT OF ARARAT

Victory for Armenians Over the Nationalists

Reds and Ukrainians Reported to Have Concluded an Armistice—Russian Paper's Comment on Earl Curzon's Warning re Submarines.

Constantinople, Oct. 25.—The Armenians have defeated the Turkish Nationalists in the plains at the foot of Mount Ararat, near Eznik, the seat of the chief patriarch, according to advices received here today.

Georgia has sent an ultimatum to the Turks, and Tartars, threatening war unless they withdraw their troops from Georgia's frontiers and also cease menacing Batum on the east shore of the Black Sea.

Vienna, Oct. 25.—A report received here from Lemberg, Galicia, says that the Bolsheviks have concluded an armistice with General Petlura, a leader of the Ukrainian forces.

London, Oct. 25.—The Investia of Moscow comments ironically on a warning sent to Russia recently by Earl Curzon, British secretary for foreign affairs, that the British fleet would attack Soviet submarines, encountered on the high seas.

The newspaper, according to a wireless despatch from Moscow, declares only one solitary submarine was "launched" at Nikoliev, (on the Black Sea) when the British fleet was cruising where it had no right to be providing help to Poland and Wrangel against Russia.

VISCOUNT CAVE SPEAKS OF CANADA

Tells English of His Impressions After Visit to Dominion and States.

London, Oct. 25.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Viscount Cave, member of the privy council's judicial committee, the emperor's special tribunal, had returned to England from Canada and the United States. Through the "Times" he expressed his impressions of the Dominion. He is also convinced that among responsible circles in the Dominion, there is a friendly feeling for Great Britain which is unwaveringly maintained.

Speaking of the place which the judicial committee of the privy council has in the legal system of the Dominion, Lord Cave said that in Canada the feeling towards the committee was on the whole one of complete approval.

The committee was regarded as a link with the Dominion and the people of Canada were impressed by the fact that it was not a purely British subject in any part of the empire who had a grievance, but one who was a Canadian citizen.

Long Fast Ended; Lord Mayor MacSwiney Of Cork Died Today

END CAME IN BRIXTON PRISON AT 5.40; ONLY PRIEST AND BROTHER PRESENT

Mrs. MacSwiney Told by Brother-in-law—Reception of the News in Various Places—Hunger Strike Had Lasted 73 Days.

London, Oct. 25.—Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, died in Brixton prison, this city, at twenty minutes to six o'clock this morning. His death followed a hunger strike of more than seventy-five days, eclipsing any in the annals of the medical world.

MacSwiney, who has been unconscious for several days, did not recover his faculties before he died. Father Dominic, his private chaplain, and his brother, John MacSwiney, were with him when he died. Father Dominic was at the prison all night and did not leave until several hours after MacSwiney breathed his last.

WIFE NOT PRESENT. John MacSwiney and the chaplain, who had been waiting down stairs in the prison, were told by prison officials at half past four o'clock that they should go to the mayor's bedside, as they thought death was approaching.

The brother asked for the privilege of communicating with other relatives who were not present, but the officials, he alleges, refused him the use of a telephone. After the prisoner's death, his brother John and the chaplain say they were not permitted to leave Brixton prison until a quarter after six.

John MacSwiney immediately conveyed word to the wife of the lord mayor, who was staying at a west end hotel, with Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, the former the London executive of the Irish Self-Determination League. Mrs. MacSwiney, accompanied by her parents and the Misses Annie and Mary MacSwiney, sisters of the lord mayor, arrived at Brixton prison at half past nine o'clock. It is understood arrangements are being made to take the body to Ireland for burial.

News of MacSwiney's death had not become known in the district around Brixton prison until after nine o'clock.

The usual large contingent of police was on duty inside the prison grounds to prevent any demonstration, but outside and along the road leading to the main highway there were no unusual signs of activity. No civilians were waiting there, as they usually did in the early days of the lord mayor's hunger strike.

Military forces are so strong that it is considered improbable that any attempt at riot will be made here. It is understood the Irish parliament had been making appeals to all elements of the population to refrain from violence.

This is also believed to be the policy of various influential leaders of the Sinn Fein movement. Whether such counsels will be followed by the younger element or by members of the Irish Republican Brotherhood, one of the most militant of Irish secret societies, remains to be seen.

Some Features of the Case. Terence MacSwiney was forty years old, and was once an eminent Sinn Fein leader. He started life as a draper's assistant, but became a poet, author and politician. He returned to England from Canada and the United States. Through the "Times" he expressed his impressions of the Dominion. He is also convinced that among responsible circles in the Dominion, there is a friendly feeling for Great Britain which is unwaveringly maintained.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram" said the reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "times are going to be terribly hard this winter."

"You must be a prophet," said Hiram. "Anybody can see them coming," said the reporter. "Not enough working men in the weather—I tell you a lot of people will suffer this winter. It makes me shiver to think of it."

"Then don't," said Hiram. "But how can one help it?" demanded the reporter. "Can you think of people who are going to be cold and hungry and helpless and not care?"

"Hiram" said Hiram, "somehow in this world—in lots of places—the people that's cold and hungry and helpless—not next winter—but right now. I wouldn't be surprised if you found some right here in town. How much was you thinkin' about them?"

"Why?" said the reporter, "I'm sorry for them, of course."

"How much?" queried Hiram. "Ever go to see any of 'em?"

"I have always heard," said the reporter, "that people in want never like to be helped."

"But you're sorry for 'em," said Hiram. "Thinkin' about 'em spiles your appetite—'spose, as they always people starvin' somewhere you can't get no comfort at all. You're always sorry for 'em, but you don't live up to it. A wail and wail—dint it?"

"If I was you," said Hiram, "I'd cheer up. I'd look around to see what I could do for 'em. You're always sorry for 'em, but you don't live up to it. The times won't be quite so hard for somebody you know—no, sir."

TOM MOORE ON THE OTTAWA ORDER

Labor President Says Government Will Be Asked to Protect Rights.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The workers will look to the government itself for the protection of their rights to take part in government, said Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada in an interview last night regarding an order issued by the president of the Canadian National Railway, forbidding employees of that organization to take part in politics or holding public office.

Mr. Moore's opinion is that it is drastic, and a development which cannot go unchallenged. He said that, contrary to the assertion of Senator Robertson that it was a matter for the Canadian National Railway president and not the government to deal with, it was up to the government to gain redress of what he considers a continuing violation of the rights of political rights and the destruction of democratic government.

The order continues to cause widespread comment in labor circles, and it is more than likely that the question will be brought to Ottawa for action.

OPPOSITION TO LEASE OF LAND AT McLEOD WHARF

Prince William Street Cost Less Than Was Estimated

Suggestion to Use Unexpended Balance for Work Between Princess and King Streets—Mispec Matters Before Council.

Both Commissioner Thornton and Commissioner Frink took a decided stand against granting a lease of land from James H. McParland to the Canada Molasses Co. in the McLeod wharf property, when Mr. Bullock moved that the lease be issued to the molasses company on its surrender on Nov. 1, to lease on for five years and six months at $20 a year.

Mr. Thornton said he understood a sewer ran under the property now under lease to Mr. Crosby and he was erecting a shed on the property. He understood that no building was to be erected over a sewer without permission of the council. He also pointed out that the lot which was now in question was immediately behind the city morgue and the proposed building would shut out the light from that building.

Commissioner Frink said that he was opposed to the whole principle of tying up the city property in this vicinity. The property had been acquired by the city at a cost of $120,000, with the idea of making provision for the extension of the harbor frontage between the station and Reed's point. This move, he said, was now practically defeated. He said that he had discussed it with the city and had already leased the lot on which the molasses company is now building, but the same was felt that he could not reverse his previous stand in the matter and he therefore opposed further leasing of the land in this vicinity.

Commissioner Bullock remarked that he was not a supporter of the protection of the harbor frontage as any member of the board, but from what he had gathered from the government railway officials who were in the city on Saturday, it would be a long day before the extension of the harbor frontage would be carried out. He said a year ago the council had renewed a lease for the Eastern Steamship Corp. for additional warehouse room at Reed's Point. He did not see where the leasing of the lot in question would affect the extension of the harbor frontage.

Commissioner Thornton asked how it came about that building had already been erected on the lot for which the company was now asking for a lease. F. S. Heans, who is doing the building, said that the company had planned originally to put in only the lot leased to the city but were now held up by the action of the city. Mr. Crosby said he had arranged with Mr. McParland to take over the rights of the lot leased to him and Mr. Heans went ahead and put in a wall of the building, excavating right up to the wall of the lot leased to the city. He was informed that Mr. Crosby would not increase his previous offer for the purchase of the mortgage. On another matter by Commissioner Thornton, the matter was laid over until tomorrow.

Mr. Frink reported that the matter of Henry King had applied for the use of the wharf at Mispec for the purpose of shipping pulp wood during next year.

"Believing that this matter is one in which the Harbor Master is more directly concerned," he discussed it with him and he suggests that a rate of 25c wharfage be charged for the pulp wood shipped to the wharf, and if advised he is prepared to collect the wharfage. I understand that the usual fee for a wharf is 25c per cubic yard per stack. As the shipper would have to obtain clearance papers at the Custom House in every collection of the wharfage, he would be lawfully entitled to receive from these shipments.

He moved that the request be complied with provided he agrees to pay for any damage that may be done during the time he uses the property. The motion carried.

Mr. Jones moved that he, subject to ratification by Common Council, be authorized to sell or lease in his discretion all or any of the buildings, city land and Mispec under the following conditions:

That in case of sale the purchase be required forthwith to remove the building or buildings as the case may be, or in the event of the purchase of a temporary lease of the property that the applicant shall agree to vacate the premises within thirty days after having received notice from the Common Clerk. Carried.

HERBERT HOOVER STILL HELPS TROUBLED EUROPE.

Former director-general of relief in Europe for the Allies after the armistice, who has been visiting Canada on behalf of the British Empire War Relief Fund.

London, Oct. 25.—Conversations renewed at 10 Downing street today between Premier Lloyd George and executives of the miners' federation were confidently expected to lead to a settlement of the miners' strike which last week threatened to involve Great Britain in an industrial crisis. Prominent executives of the federation and government officials are quoted by newspapers here as being optimistic.

It is believed an arrangement will be reached by which each side can at least say it has not yielded its main contention, and it is asserted that Premier Lloyd George will submit a proposal, which, he hopes, will make an increased output of coal so certain that it will be possible to grant immediately the increase of wages demanded by the coal diggers. Miners' leaders are quoted as saying they are confident the government will before long find a way to concede the miners' claim.

Newspaper of this city continue hopeful for the most part, and express relief at the National Union of Railwaymen's decision to defer such a strike. Such action, it is understood, will not be taken before Wednesday, whatever happens.

A labor conference called by the parliamentary committee of the Trades Union Congress, will meet on Wednesday, and there are indications that a railway strike even if eventually called, may be rather half-hearted. Many messages from local branches are said to have been received at the headquarters of the union, expressing hostility to the idea of a strike, being accompanied by declarations that many of the men will refuse to obey such a call.

It is said that until a ballot of the workers has been taken, the attitude of H. C. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, will certainly influence a large number of the members. In a speech before the Trades Union Congress, while expressing sympathy for the miners, he warned his audience of the dangers of a strike which he said might lead to the downfall of all of us. He declared he was firm in his determination not to support such a strike.

Premier Lloyd George and members of the government this morning conferred with the government specialists concerning a new set of figures for wages of the local miners and production in the coal industry. Later in the day, government leaders and representatives of the miners met and continued the negotiations.

AT ODDS OVER ENFORCEMENT OF LIQUOR LAW

Disension Between Official Agencies Carrying Out Ontario Act.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 25.—Disension is gradually effecting a wide cleavage between the various official agencies aimed at the enforcement of the Ontario Temperance Act, along the Michigan-Ontario border. Over the week-end matters were brought to a climax by a repeated threat of Chief License Inspector Mousseau that he would resign from office unless Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin and his band of special agents were dismissed forthwith, or placed under his jurisdiction evidently with the view to permitting him to dismiss them himself.

One feature of the clash which has developed between the prohibition forces and which extends to local police forces in the various border cities, is the intense hostility which is manifested toward Mr. Spracklin personally.

Mr. Spracklin says this is because many of his arrests, with following convictions, have been tantamount to trespassing upon official toes.

Late on Saturday, Rev. Mr. Spracklin's new run runner chasing launch, "The Leopard," in drydock at Detroit, undergoing repairs, was partially burned. One story said that gasoline had been poured into the bottom of the boat and that an electric wire connected with the puddle caused a blaze immediately the engine was turned over. An official report, however, says that the engine merely "back-fired."

FISHERY FIGURES

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics today issued a preliminary statement of the fisheries production of Canada, prepared from the compilation of returns collected by the bureau in co-operation with the fisheries branch of the department of marine and fisheries. The total value of fish marketed fresh and of fish products is given as $66,485,279, compared with a value of $60,250,544 for 1919.

MATCH DEMPSEY AND CARPENTIER

Terms Virtually Agreed on Says Manager of World's Champion.

New York, Oct. 25.—Terms for a boxing bout for the world's heavyweight championship between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier have been virtually agreed upon, said Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, today.

Kearns said a "final conference" of interested people would be held tomorrow or Wednesday and added that he was confident the agreement would be signed before Carpentier leaves the United States a week from next Saturday.

It was reported the bout would be held in the United States, probably in Madison Square Garden, and that the date would be either in January or June, 1921. Kearns said the match had been virtually assured by a series of conferences held here within the last few days, attended by himself, Dempsey, Carpentier's manager, Tex Rickard, Madison Square Garden promoter; Wm. A. Brady, theatrical producer, and Charles B. Cochrane, British sporting promoter.

"THE LAW DIVINE" WED. AND THURS.

H. V. Esmond in a Dramatization of the Text — "It Is Not Good That Man Should Live Alone."

Henry V. Esmond, the noted English actor, accompanied by Miss Eva Moore and complete party of players of Wyndham's Theatre, London, passed through the city on Saturday en route to Halifax, where they will open their trans-continental tour at the Majestic theatre tonight. The St. John engagement will begin on Wednesday continuing Thursday afternoon and evening. The Esmond-Moore presentation of the society comedy drama "The Law Divine," ("It is not good for man to live alone") is the second of the British attractions contracted by the Trans-Canada Theatre, Ltd., extending from Halifax to Victoria, in reality a new bond of empire.

The engagement of seats for the Wednesday-Thursday theatricals of this week has been going on since Friday and a large number of choice locations have been taken up. The coming of the renowned actor-author and his beautiful wife, surrounded by their original and identical company, holds a special interest to those acquainted with the stage world and its people, and quite aside from the theatrical phase of the visit the presence of so eminent a playwright and literary man in St. John emphasizes the value of the new all-British plan in entertainment.

The Imperial box office is open from 10 a. m. until 9 p. m. for the selection of seats. The telephone calls are Main 2727 and M. 8848.

QUEEN SQUARE THEATRE

BACK AGAIN TO PICTURES All this week pictures will be shown at the Queen's Theatre and a wonderful selection has been secured for today and tomorrow. Edgar Lewis' production, "Lahoma," an eight-reel "Pathé" special is one of the greatest pictures ever shown in St. John. Everyone should see it. Those who do not avail themselves will certainly be the losers.

VOTE TODAY ON IMPORTATION

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 25.—Leaders of the prohibition party expressed confidence in the outcome as Nova Scotia went to the polls today to vote on the question of the prohibition of importation of liquor.

Leaders of the "anti" were diffident about expressing an opinion. They said that very little organization work had been done in Halifax and so far as they were aware there had been no effort to extend "wet" activities throughout the province. The "anti" publicity campaign has been confined to the newspapers of the last few days.

"Anti" based their hope of victory on Halifax and Cape Breton and on the "silent vote."

The opinion was expressed by leaders on both sides that the recent British Columbia referendum result would un-

B. C. ELECTIONS
December 1 Polling Day
The Control of Liquor.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 25.—The election in this province have been set for Dec. 1, nomination on Nov. 10.
As constituted today, British Columbia legislature consists of thirty-one Liberals, nine Conservatives, four soldiers, one socialist and Mrs. Ralph Smith, the only woman member, who is an independent. There is one vacancy in the house, the seat for Aldin.
Government control of the sale of liquor is such a wide question that the government, it is said, has decided to submit a set of general principles for the proposed new act and secure the benefit of public opinion at the hearings before final drafting of the measure.

THE TROUBLES AT PENITENTIARY IN KINGSTON, ONT.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—Reports that as a result of the recent troubles at Kingston penitentiary, Warden Ponsford is taking leave of absence and Brigadier-General W. S. Hughes, superintendent of penitentiaries, is taking temporary charge, are officially declared to be without foundation.
Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The Journal says: Colonel O. M. Biggar, special counsel to the dominion government, who on last Tuesday investigated the circumstances attending the recent dismissal of Guards G. McCauley, P. Dowling and R. Patten from the staff of the provincial penitentiary at Kingston, has reported to the department of justice that the dismissals were justified. Colonel Biggar made an investigation only into the cases of the three guards, but this week will go back to the institution to make an unbiased report of conditions in general.
It was learned on Saturday that warrants are being issued against a few of the guards at Kingston. The charges are for breaches of the regulations—supplying tobacco and other things to convicts.

THE CHARLOTTE RECOUNT.

In the Charlotte county recount, the first day of which closed on Saturday at St. Andrew's, thirteen of the fifty-two ballot boxes had been disposed of. The recount is being conducted by Judge Carleton. The legal agents for the government are Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C. of Woodstock and P. E. McLaughlin of St. Stephen. Those for the opposition are M. N. Cockburn, K. C. of St. Stephen and J. C. Hartley of Woodstock. In one poll in St. Stephen it was found that J. M. Fiewelling (Opposition) had 148 votes instead of 82. At the close of the Saturday session J. W. Scott (Government) was leading Chauncey Pollard (Farmer) by fourteen votes.

CLAIMS VICTORY FOR GOVERNOR COX

Democratic Chairman Sees 256 Electoral Votes Sure

Roosevelt Appeals to New York Newspapers—Joint Request to the Presidential Nominees.—Republican Prediction.

New York, Oct. 25.—George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, in a statement here yesterday forecasted the result of the election, predicted that Cox and Roosevelt will have 256 electoral votes "as good as counted," the Republican 164, and that the Democrats will win a majority of the remaining 111.
Hyde Park, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice-presidential nominee, issued a statement at his home here last night appealing to all newspapers of the state to publish without "partisan interpretation" the full covenant of the League of Nations, in order to make the "solemn referendum of Nov. 2 a fair proposition."
New York, Oct. 25.—More than fifty supporters of Senator Harding and Governor Cox, Republican and Democratic presidential candidates, last night joined in an open letter to them asking their pledge to work, if elected, for the entry of the United States into the League of Nations with whatever revision of the Lodge reservations two-thirds of the next senate may approve.
The letter stated that its writers wished to secure commitments from the candidates at this time, as "the approaching national election may be in jeopardy if the dominant issue of the campaign and may leave the vital question of our entry into the League of Nations still undecided in the senate or between the senate and the White House with decision more hopeless than before."

Montreal Shooting on Spot Where Constable Was Killed in Last June.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—At the very spot, a lane near the corner of Bernard and Park avenues, where Constable Chicoine was shot and fatally wounded on June 18, Constable Ratelle was last night fired at when pursuing three suspects. The bullet missed him and, firing at the flash, he shot and brought down one of the men, who was found to be wounded in the leg.
A search of the district revealed several places broken into, among them a garage and a liquor shop.

Why They Did It.

A salesman was showing an elderly lady the virtues of the car he sells. He made several turns, and at the proper times extended his arm as a turning signal. The old lady watched the proceedings for some time. Then she craned her neck and looked at the sky. "Mister," she said sternly tapping him on the shoulder, "you just tend to your driving! It don't look like rain, but if it should I'll let you know."

ANNA EVA FAY MYSTIFIES ALL AT OPERA HOUSE

Her Uncanny Knowledge of the Future Is Astounding Patrons—Management Succeeds in Having Her Stay Extended.

The extraordinary success achieved by Anna Eva Fay while in this city will long be remembered by patrons of the Opera House. Her uncanny knowledge of the future and information she is imparting is astounding all. In addition to the mystery which enthralled her act, which is accomplished through mental telepathy, she imparts knowledge which until her disclosure has been a mystery to those directly interested. This act is appealing to men and women alike and up to the present time hundreds have had questions answered. It would be well for women interested to attend the afternoon performance as Miss Fay has a better opportunity to answer the numerous questions. In the evening her time is limited and she is finding it impossible to answer all who are desirous of obtaining information.

The management of the Opera House has been fortunate in having her stay here extended for three more days. This is positively her farewell appearance in Canada, as in December she will sail for Europe on a tour which she expects will take at least two years.

THE WAVE OF LOWER PRICES.

(Baltimore American.)
After having traveled so long and arduously under the desert sun of high prices, with the skies above them brown with hopelessness, it may be too much for the housewives of America to believe when told that within thirty days there will be an average drop in the price of groceries of fifteen per cent. Yet this is the word that comes from the watch-tower agents of the Federal Reserve Board. These who look abroad over the land and can readily detect the dust of the approaching columns of reduced price declare that in seven districts groceries show a heavy decline in respect to the volume of trade transactions during the last four weeks.

What does this mean in the terminology of the table? It means that both wholesalers and retailers are more cautious about making purchases. With that barometric sixth sense that business men must develop if they are not to go to the wall, they have discerned the movement of prices downward and are governing themselves accordingly.

LORD MAYOR MACSWINEY

Lord Mayor MacSwiney is dead. He gave his life for an ideal. That ideal was an Irish republic. By those who desire an Irish republic he will be hailed as a martyr. By those who are firmly opposed to the disruption of the British Empire, and who would regard the recognition of an Irish republic as a bomb placed on the doorstep of Great Britain, he will be regarded as a mistaken idealist whose devotion was admirable but whose course was not justified. He himself believed he could better serve Ireland by the course he pursued to the end, and in that cause he was faithful unto death. As opinion was hopelessly divided while he lived, so it will remain divided now that he has passed out of life. There will still be those who see no more heroism in his self-chosen departure from life than in the death of a soldier or a policeman who was killed in the discharge of his sworn duty. The government could not be indifferent to the propaganda in favor of one. It dealing with that it had to deal with the Lord Mayor of Cork. It could not deal otherwise with him than with any other man found guilty of sedition. To have given him the freedom would have been to condone his offence and leave him free as an influential personage to repeat it; for he would give no pledge. His death does not bring an Irish republic any nearer. It will accentuate the bitter change of policy of the government, which is that Ireland must settle its differences and remain within the Empire.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

The outlook for a settlement of the strike in Great Britain is said to be brighter. The extreme gravity of the situation is recognized, and there has been no harsh talk or provocative threats by either side. The leaders of the men realize not only how much suffering would be endured by the families of the workers if a prolonged strike occurred; but that if the strike should fail it would be a calamity for the laborer. So far as the government is concerned, while it cannot assent to the doctrine that the threat of a strike should be a lever which would force the employers to accede to their demands, it is desirous of avoiding trouble by any conciliatory action that may not involve the surrender to the demands of class rule. The danger does not lie so much in the attitude of either the leaders of the miners or that of the government as in the machinations of the Reds, who advocate any course which to them is likely to contribute to the overthrow of the existing government. That they cannot succeed in England as they did in Russia is due to the fact that they have not the same ignorant and credulous mind to work upon; but they take every opportunity to sow the seeds of discord in the minds of the workers, hoping that there may arise such a tension as would completely overturn the Englishman's natural regard for law and order. The present outlook does not seem to favor their designs, and there is hope that wiser counsels will prevail.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

The morning papers contained news of a fatal automobile accident near Salisbury, in this province, and another near Ottawa. The number of such accidents in Canada and the United States is appalling. They ought to impress upon the minds of all motorists the necessity of extreme care, especially when approaching a railway or when traveling at night. It should also be assured that the man or woman at the wheel is fully qualified and not easily tempted to speed when on an outing, but the motto "Safety First" should govern in every case. Accidents are sometimes unavoidable, but the growing death toll from automobile accidents compels the belief that over-confidence, sheer recklessness or inexperience too often has a part in the lamentable result. The number of motor cars in use is rapidly increasing, and there is the more reason for knowledge, skill and care in handling them. Every new story of an accident causing death or injury should be a warning lesson not to be lightly regarded. A wrecked machine may be repaired but life cannot be restored, nor will the thrill of an auto ride compensate one who may be made a cripple for life. It is for the individual motorist to think of the danger and the possible results, and combine caution with skill to the end that accidents may be averted.

DISEASE AND FIRE CAUSE HUGE LOSSES.

The enormous monetary and property loss from causes largely preventable each year in the United States and Canada was outlined by G. F. Lewis, deputy fire marshal for Ontario, in his address before the Ontario Fire Prevention League, as proof for the necessity of greater care and precaution and the enforcement of remedial measures to curtail this menace to health and property. Statistics showed, he said, that $72,000,000 was lost annually from incomes in these two countries, due to industrial diseases, that is diseases which attacked workers on account of their employment in unsanitary conditions. In addition $17,000,000 was wasted through loss of life and illness to workers through preventable disease, accidents and carelessness; $800,000,000 a year wasted through the destruction by fire of buildings, incinerating, foodstuffs, the products of the forest and farm. To this great total must be added another $600,000,000 a year for water supply used in fighting fires, the departments and other charges, all of which made the loss per capita in this country ten times that of European countries. The fire loss in Ontario for the first eight months of the year is practically the same as for the corresponding period of 1919, but is $2,718,111 less than for the same period of 1918. Comparative figures for the three periods follow: 1918—Number of fires, 7,441; total amount of loss, $10,079,441; insurance loss, $7,488,092; loss not covered by insurance, $2,641,299. 1919—Number of fires, 6,581; total amount of loss, $7,352,401; insurance loss, $4,817,059; loss not covered by insurance, $2,535,342. 1920—Number of fires, 6,261; total amount of loss, $7,801,860; insurance loss, $5,099,214; loss not covered by insurance, $2,702,646.

President Hanna of the Canadian National Railways has stirred up a hornet's nest by forbidding employees of the government railways from taking any part in politics. In Winnipeg they are asking of a strike. But are railway men to be given a privilege denied other government employees?

BETTER DAYS

For long, long months we've lived to spend, but now our orgy sees its end, and better days begin; the man who has a bunch of bones now asks himself, in stentor tones, "Why should I blow them up? Why feed my money to the cows when yonder savings bank allows a seemingly easy rate? Too long, too long I've thrown away the shining plunk I depend on, and hit a gaudy gain? And now the merchant princes rise, and say to clerks and kindred gals, "Our prices must come down; so let's reduce some picaresque on every pair of pantaloons, and every velvet gown." And all the hungry yotters are doubtless filled with some grand fear as they stare up their own faces, and they must hunt their holes. The easy marks have all rebelled, and they must hunt their holes. An end to profligate crimes would come, I've said, in countless rhymes, and many a deathless scene, when people, sane again, once more refused to purchase at the store the junk they did not need. And now that happy day has come, or all the signs are on the bum, and all the ones in pink and blue, when the wage war, won't ask the marks, in noble rage, to blow his bottom plunk.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

DOMINION HAPPENINGS OF OTHER DAYS

SITTING BULL.

Sitting Bull was a Sioux chief who from 1873 onward for a few years gave the United States and the Dominion of Canada a great deal of trouble. In that year the United States authorities called upon the famous old brave to surrender, and upon his refusal to obey they ordered they sent several general agents against him. The first found Sitting Bull with 4,000 braves and as he had only 600 troopers, he considered discretion the better part of valor and left him alone. General Custer was lured into an ambush and his entire force was wiped out. Sitting Bull, knowing that the entire power of the United States was against him, crossed the line into Canada.

THE SUGAR QUESTION.

The Nova Scotia Wholesale Grocers' Guild says that during the first six months of the year common stock of the Atlantic Refiners advanced from $40 to $140 a share, but that: "When the fixed price was not satisfactory to them, and they anticipated an advance in price, they withdrew from the market and refused to sell to their customers." And the Toronto Globe adds: "A subscriber to the Globe writes that Canadian refiners when refused permission to sell in the United States would not sell to Canadian fruit factories, which suffered in consequence; while the refiners were, as they now complain, loaded up with sugar. He states that a large jam factory wanted sugar in the worst way but could not get a pound of it, and adds: 'This concern is well managed, and could pay cash, but has no use, and the jam factory lost a lot of probable profit.' "Our correspondent might have added that the action of the refiners caused a loss not only to the jam factory, but to the fruit growers who expected to sell their fruit, and the consumer who expected some relief from the high cost of living through the extraordinary bounty of Providence this year. The whole sugar business must be thoroughly investigated before a cent of the country's credit is pledged to the assistance of the refiners."

BLUR HAZE.

Beauty is garnered in the Autumn haze for harvest come the reapers of the year. Frost, and a wind that thrashes chill, From sudden earth through chill, unquiet days. Beauty is garnered, blue and gold and red. Warm shapies, remembered scents of woodland ways.

A FAMOUS APPEAL.

This is the story of a dog rescued last year by National Canine Defence League of England. "Bobs" belonged to a London school-boy and was used by the police without his muzzle. Witnesses at the trial, including the dog's owner, a London newspaper as "the greatest dog in history" was a successful of his in his arms and ran away with him eventually taking him to his home, where he was kept for several days, the police constantly demanding the dog, but failing to secure possession.

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

"Hi," said Hiram, "that boss you traded off to me to-day day is putty right blind in one eye and plenty together, and you said he was without a fault!" "Hi," said Hiram, "you can't rightly say that's his fault. That's his misfortune!"

CONFIDENCE.

"In which candidate have you the most confidence?" "I have confidence in both. I believe all the mean things they say about each other are absolutely true."

KIPLING AND THE MOVIES.

Rudyard Kipling, until recently thought to be a bitter-ender in holding out against the overtures of filmdom, has at last succumbed. Whether he could not bear to see his compatriots, Sir James M. Barry, H. G. Wells, Arnold Bennett, Henry Arthur Jones, and others, having their try at a new medium without him, or whether he wished to score a feat on G. B. Shaw, a staunch reactionary in motion picture matters, is only conjectural. Be that as it may, he is reported to have signed a contract with the Pathe Company, not for the filming of his stories, but to write several originals.

Miss Emily O'Rourke of 19 Richmond street, is the winner of a beautiful centerpiece, offered as a prize in a drawing conducted by Miss Rose McAuliffe during the Holy Trinity church garden party. MacMillan Trueman, were not included. Joseph Hayes was severely cut from broken glass last night about 10.30 when an automobile in which he was, collided with a street car at the corner of Prince and Ludlow streets West St. John. Dr. T. F. Johnson attended the injured man and he was able to go home. A head-on automobile collision occurred yesterday afternoon in the Manawagonish road, about half way to Spruce Lake, between a car owned by J. T. Wilcox of West St. John and one belonging to a resident of the city. There was no injury reported to the occupants of either car and it was said that neither of the cars suffered any damage. The derailment of a street car took place late Saturday night in Douglas avenue. The last car from Carleton to the city jumped the rails and turned completely around in its course. No injury to the car or to any of the inmates was reported. The car was placed on the rails again during the night and the line was clear for traffic yesterday morning. Frightened at the approach of a trolley car a buck deer, which was roaming in Main street yesterday afternoon, plunged through a grocery store window, demolishing the glass. The animal came from the direction of Indian town and was gracefully leaping down Main street. After his flight through the window it limped toward Fort Howe, cut in its shoulder, apparently by contact with the glass.

THE BRITISH COAL STRIKE

Montreal Star. Summed up briefly, the issue of the strike in Britain today is as follows: "The miners demand an immediate wage increase of two shillings or about forty-eight cents a day. The government which fixes wages and conditions in the coal industry which is 'controlled,' says in response to them: 'If there is increased output we will agree to the increase of wages, but until output advances beyond the present 'datum line' of 240,000,000 tons a year, such wage increase is not warranted.'

Sold by leading dry goods stores, shoe stores and men's furnishing stores. Sizes for men, women and children at 15c a pair (in silk 25c)."

SALES AGENTS: WOOD, TAYLOR & COMPANY. Two of Our Best Doctors. (From Brockton Times). "I have two doctors," said George MacAuley Trevylyan, "my left leg and my right. When mind and body are out of gear, and those twin parts of me live at such close quarters that the one always catches meekly from the other, I know I have only to call in my doctors and I shall be well again." Between summer's languor and the bitter winds of winter lies the season which God gave mankind for walking. The aid is clear and bracing, the ground dry underfoot and carpeted with leaves, the hillsides, roadsides and the woods a painted delight. Sick indeed must be the patient who cannot be cured of his mental and bodily ills by an autumn walk.

A. M. Gregg, secretary for boys' work in the maritime provinces, spoke in the Portland Methodist church in the morning. Rev. G. S. Gardner was the preacher in St. Matthews church. In the Waterloo street church Thanksgiving services were held and special music was well rendered by the choir.

In Central Church.

The evening service in the Central Baptist church yesterday was conducted by the members of the Baracca and Philheta classes of the church and was routing and stimulating in its nature. Some fine music added to the impressiveness of the service. The choir consisted of fifty members from the two classes and was led by Dr. T. W. N. Baker who is the leader of the Baracca class and has proved himself teacher of great ability. Mrs. F. H. Bone is the inspiring and efficient leader of the Philheta class. COUNCIL TAKES UP BRIDGE MATTER

Clearance for Vessels at New Railway Arch Subject of Discussion - Comparison of Bridge Heights.

The matter of clearance at the new railway bridge at the falls was taken up by the mayor and commissioners in committee this morning. C. C. Kirby, resident engineer of the C. P. R., and G. G. Hare, city engineer, were present.

The mayor read the report of the city engineer, which was accompanied by a plan showing that the new railway bridge will be two feet lower than the old suspension bridge. The new highway bridge is now about seven feet higher than the new railway bridge. At 110 feet from the centre of the new railway bridge and the new highway bridge to high water level will be seven feet and at low water level 8 1/2 feet. Slack water level, at which time the vessels would go under the bridge will give about eighty-two feet.

In reply to the mayor, Mr. Kirby said that the engineers at Montreal had designed the bridge to be as much clearance as possible, which was two feet seven inches more than the present railway bridge. Repeating to Mr. Jones, Mr. Hare said that the old suspension bridge was four and a half feet lower than the centre of the present highway arch. Mr. Kirby said that it was not always possible for vessels to pass directly under the centre of the highway arch and that at a point eighty-five feet from the centre, the two new bridges would give the same clearance. In answer to a question from Commissioner Frink, Mr. Kirby said that the plans for the C. P. R. bridge were approved by the board of railway commissioners.

On the suggestion of the mayor the matter was left over until some information could be obtained as to the height of vessels which might want to pass under the bridges.

Commissioner Jones reported that he had received a bill from M. E. Grass for $123.23 for costs in connection with the joining up of a sewer to the main in Douglas avenue. He said that a permit was granted to James Boyd in 1899 to make entry to the sewer and it was found that the sewer had been laid but no connection made and that consequently the sewage was filtering into the street. On advice from the city solicitor Mr. Jones moved that city solicitor advise Mr. Grass that the city was not liable for this expense.

Adelaide Road Water.

Commissioner Jones reported that the cost of laying 350 feet of 8-inch water pipe in Visart street was placed at $13,500. The matter was referred back to him to ascertain what the approximate cost of laying the services in the old Adelaide road.

Prince William Street Paving.

Commissioner Frink reported that the paving work in Prince William street was about completed and the total cost would be a little less than $40,000, whereas the bond issue was authorized for $51,377. He suggested if it was legal to do so that part of the unexpended balance be applied to repairs to the pavement in the track section between Princess street and King street. He said that the sides were in good shape and the proposed repairs would put the whole street in good shape. Mr. Bullock opposed the idea on the ground that money raised by bond issue for permanent work should not be used for repairs. On motion of Dr. Frink it was decided to refer the matter to the city solicitor to get a ruling on the question.

The mayor reported on the proposal of obtaining an addressograph for use in the office of the board of assessors at an estimated cost of $2,000. This machine, he said, would save the cost of one typewriter and operator in sending out tax notices and would enable the work to be done somewhat faster than the assessment could be got out by the middle of June. On his own suggestion the matter was left over until he could ascertain the life of the machine in order to determine whether it was a subject for bond issue.

THOMPSON TELLS OF KNIFE CUTS

Six men were in the police court this morning on charges of inflicting too freely of the "cut-throat liquid." After statements that the intoxicant was a "gift from an unknown friend," the magistrate gave them a warning in the form of a proverb "beware of the man who walketh the streets making a noise with his feet, lest he have a bottle in his pocket."

A postponed case against Arthur T. Merrill, charged with cutting, wounding and doing grievous bodily harm to Charles E. Thompson, was resumed and the evidence of the complainant taken.

Thompson, who has been confined to the General Public Hospital on account of wounds, went on the stand. He said on the night of October 15 he arrived home from work at 11:15 and was told by his wife that his daughter was not in. In consequence of what his wife said he went to look for her, but could not find her. He said he went out again about 12:30 and not being able to find her returned home. As he was going into the house he said he heard a noise in the woodshed and on going in found the accused and Mrs. Minnie Cook, his step-daughter. He said he told the daughter to go into the house and as the three left the woodshed he and the accused clinched and got a slash on the shoulder, which bled considerably. Before he was able to break the clinch, he said he was cut again on the back and called to his wife, who summoned Dr. Stevenson and he ordered him to the hospital where he has been since.

The witness said he elinched the accused first on account of some names the accused called him a week before. He said the accused was under the influence of liquor.

The case was postponed.

Five of the men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty while the sixth said he was not drunk and could walk straight. Policeman Colwell gave evidence and the accused were all remanded.

On their return they will reside at 414 Union street. Many beautiful wedding gifts were received, testifying to their popularity.

RECOUNT OF CITY VOTES IS BEING MADE

Some Preliminary Matters Are Adjusted

A. B. Clifford Acting as Checker, R. A. Davidson and J. M. Trueman Representing Candidates—Question About Ballots Marked With "X" or Cross.

Before Judge Armstrong this morning the matter of a recount of the votes cast in the city in the general elections of October 9 was resumed. Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K.C., and Roy A. Davidson appeared for the applicants...

Mr. Davidson said that he had no suggestions to make, so none were made. Mr. Baxter suggested that the judge might allow one member of each side to count the ballots...

Mr. Ryan said he had Mr. Smith there for another purpose and did not see why he should attend him to this position. Asked by Judge Armstrong if J. MacMillan Trueman was a party to the matter...

At this point Mr. Trueman intervened to say that when the matter came before Judge Barry on Wednesday the judge might order Judge Armstrong to proceed with the recount...

Mr. Ryan said that he did not think, in the event of Judge Barry's granting the order, that he would be called to continue, that he (Baxter) would appeal from the order...

Mr. Ryan asked the sheriff where the ballots had been placed and the sheriff refused to answer. He said the city and county ballots had been put in the same place and if he told where the ballots had been everyone would know...

Mr. Ryan said he had the right to know where the ballots were and the sheriff persisted in his refusal to tell. Mr. Ryan then asked for ten minutes in which to consider the matter...

The judge held that the sheriff was quite justified in his refusal to disclose the whereabouts of the ballots since section day. The judge proposed that one from each side should stand by him as he opened the ballots...

GERMANS LOSE GRIP ON "RARE" SUGARS

America Now Produces Costly Sweets Used for the Detection of Disease Germs.

(N. Y. Times)
Germany's grip on the rare sugar industry has been broken by several American manufacturers who are now able to produce those costly sweets used in the detection of disease germs. The most expensive of these, quoted at several hundred dollars a pound, is far beyond the reach of the average housewife, and yet it plays an important part in scientific research and must be obtained.

At the outbreak of the European war the group of rare sugars used in our laboratories was manufactured in Germany, and they had such a hold on the processes that they were able at any time to destroy competition. One of these sugars is of exceptional value in the detection of typhoid, as the organisms of that disease are so fond of it that they naturally select it and so multiply upon it that their presence can readily be detected.

The military hospitals of the United American Chemical Society to co-operate in the making of rare bacteriological sugars for typhoid work, and, according to a bulletin issued by that society, these efforts soon proved successful. The fact that the health of the expeditionary force in France was so good was largely due to the quest for typhoid germs of which was made possible by the preparation of these unusual saccharine substances in laboratories of the United States. The investigations which developed from the employing of these agents did much to forestall outbreaks of typhoid fever, and to indicate the need of special vigilance in vaccination against that dread disease, which in the Spanish-American war caused more deaths than did the bullets of the enemy.

Another sugar is mannite, derived from manna, that nutritive gum with which the Bible tells us the children of Israel were fed during their wanderings in the wilderness. Mannite is obtained from a tree. Xylose, held at $120 a pound, is made from the lowly corn cob. Inulin is derived from the bulbs of the dahlia, but can be obtained in only certain seasons of the year. Other rare sugars are: Arabinose, for which $100 a pound is asked; levulose, an $80 a pound product; and raffinose, for which the manufacturing chemist receives $75 a pound.

Only small quantities of these sugars are employed at a time in the laboratory, so they are usually sold in 25-gram bottles or by the ounce. An ounce of some of them would last even a busy bacteriologist a year.

CHILE DESIRES
PEACE WITH PERU
AND BOLIVIA

Santiago, Chile, Sept. 25.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Chile desires peace and tranquillity on the South American continent and has earnestly tried to obtain a friendly solution of her questions with Peru and Bolivia, so Senator Eliodoro Yanez, one of the nation's prominent statesmen, told the Associated Press correspondent today. The dispute between Chile and Peru over Tacna and Arica and Bolivia's aspirations for an outlet to the sea has been widely debated by the public and in the press here since the military revolt at La Paz, Bolivia, in July when a political party, said to be hostile to Chile, assumed power. Speaking of the controversy with Peru, Senator Yanez said:

"To push her policy of hostility and repeal of international good faith, Peru has entered into a great program of armaments and believes she can count on the support of the United States and the League of Nations."

"Chile on several occasions has tried to reach an agreement for holding the plebiscite and, with the exception of the unjustified agreement of 1912, Peru always has resisted an understanding, proposing clauses or expressive to Chile."

Referring to Bolivian questions, Senator Yanez said: "The relations between Chile and Bolivia are regulated by the treaty of 1904 under which the latter ceded definitely to Chile the province of Antofagasta, lost by Bolivia in the Pacific war. Until recently, cordial relations had been maintained between the two countries. In July a military revolution broke out in La Paz; President Gutierrez Guerra was deposed and banished and a Junta de Gobierno was organized. This new order raised as a slogan the non-recognition of the territories which by this pact were recognized as Chile's. They were annexed forty years ago and a great Chilean population is in them."

"Chile has manifested more than once her purpose of adopting an economic policy in agreement with Bolivia to meet that country's desire for a port. Peru's resistance to the plebiscite and her support of Bolivian aspirations have hindered or retarded this agreement and the Bolivian revolt has made it impossible for the moment."

The provinces of Tacna and Arica are governed by Chile as territories under the direction of the foreign department with no representation in parliament.

WHIPPED, HE SAYS,
BY THE WHITE CAPS

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—A man describing himself as Peter McMahon of Yonkers, N. Y., with his wrists scarred by a rope and his back bearing the marks of a whip, left a northbound Pennsylvania Railroad train here last week and sought the police for medical attention. Monday night a few miles outside of Trenton, S. C., after he had attempted to assist Miss Florence Powell of Aiken, S. C., in a settlement which involved a division of her father's estate.

McMahon, who is 55 years old, said he was seized when he left the train at Trenton, S. C., and was driven into the country in an automobile. At the point where his mistreatment occurred, he said, eight men wearing white hoods gathered around and beat him.

"They threw a rope around my neck and then tried to put the other end over a tree, but it would not reach," McMahon said at the Hahnemann Hospital to-

They gave me money to buy my ticket to New York after making me promise I would not return. All the way from Denmark to Washington some one came into the car occasionally, and after looking at me, retired into another coach. This man acted as guard to see that I did not leave the train."

McMahon told the police he was friend and adviser of Miss Powell. He said her father lived at Aiken and was President of a bank. Recently, according to McMahon, the father made a division of his property among his children. Florence Powell's share was $50,000. "I did not believe that sufficient," he said, "and she and I went to Aiken last week to see if we could not get a better share for her."

McMahon also said that one of the men who beat him asked if he would sign a paper saying Miss Powell was incompetent to handle her own or her father's affairs. He refused.

Preserve and Beautify Every Surface

To retain the new brilliance of your furniture—to keep floors and woodwork brightly gleaming—to have on every wood surface a lustre that is clean and sparkling use O-Cedar Polish in every room.

It cannot fail to preserve and beautify. Your fine mahogany, your rich walnut, or your tamed oak, will take on that beautiful lustrous appearance which has come to be known as "The O-Cedar Result". A result surprisingly different to that obtained by any other method. A wet cloth, a few drops of O-Cedar on it—a light rubbing to remove all dust and film—then a brisk polishing with a dry cloth; and you have a surface that gleams brightly, with the grain-beauty of the wood revealed in all its original charm. A few drops of O-Cedar on the cloth when dusting, will prolong the life of this lustrous finish.

This same lasting brilliance is just as easily secured on floors by the O-Cedar Polish Mop. Whether for hard wood or soft wood, the treatment is the same; and your floors will be cleaner, brighter, prettier, than they ever were before.

O-Cedar Polish 30c. and 60c. a bottle, $1.50 to $3.50 per case.
O-Cedar Polish Mop, with 54-inch handle, $2.00.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

Santa Claus Has a Set of Sweet Teeth.

Last year W. H. Belcher, who runs a small something-for-everybody store at Macoon, Mo., built up a surprisingly big trade on modest-priced Christmas candies. He carried about twelve or fifteen varieties, and the highest price per pound was thirty-five cents. The large stores were selling chocolates in fancy boxes at from sixty to $1 a pound. But when they sold one pound the "Kandy Korner" in the small merchant's store put out eight or ten pounds.

Belcher's advertising was devoted solely to that feature. Along with his newspaper advertising he had a "Kandy Korner" in the window of his store, and many times his advertising was devoted solely to that feature. CANADA'S TRADE WITH JAMAICA

Quebec Trade Board Receives Copies of Resolutions Passed.

Quebec, Oct. 25.—The Quebec Board of Trade has received a copy of eleven resolutions passed by the Chamber of Commerce, Jamaica, B. W. I. in respect to the trade arrangements between Canada and Jamaica. The resolutions express a preference on all goods produced or manufactured in the colony, exported from there into Canada and all goods imported into Jamaica, to be the natural and manufactured products of the Canada imported into Jamaica. The resolutions express the desire that trading with the dominion by Jamaica be more extended and intimate, but request that the arrangements for full preference on sugar under the 16 Dutch standard in color is aimed to shut out from the Canadian market the better grades of sugar produced in Jamaica in the interest of the Canadian Refiners.

ONE BIG UNION FAILS TO IMPRESS MINE WORKERS

Cobalt, Oct. 23.—The One Big Union has not found sufficient unrest or fires of discontent to make any headway in Northern Ontario, and this outlaw organization seems to have made more noise than progress. The figures presented in Fort William recently which showed a per capita tax on only 12,619 members for the five months beginning with January last, and that this has even undergone a further decline since that time, offers a fair idea of the disfavor into which this radical element has fallen.

The men at the mines have found that they get better results and with less trouble by dealing with their individual managements, and in this way they have learned to shun the doctrine preached by the Bolshevist.

As a consequence of this there is evidence of a less number of agitators in this district than for a number of years.

ORATIONS AND DEBATES
F. G. Sandy, M. P. P., for Victoria, Ontario, is offering prizes for a series of debates among the young people of his county. Some 50 topics are presented for discussion, and every one a live topic of present-day interest. Politics, local questions, commerce and industry are all represented in this exceedingly well prepared list of themes, the whole list appearing in The Lindsay Watchman-Warder.

MEMORIAL HALL IN MEMORY OF FORMER PREMIER

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Ottawa, Oct. 24—The Citizen tomorrow will say:

A new proposal that a national memorial hall be erected in Ottawa to the memory of the late Liberal chieftain the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier one that will house official Liberalism in Ottawa for many years to come, is now being discussed by the party and may be carried into effect.

It has been found that a great many people in Canada are willing to contribute to some enduring monument to the memory of that late prime minister. It is true the campaign for funds has not been pushed lately but this is about to be taken up shortly and thoroughly organized.

"It is now proposed that the original plan be followed and that a fine monument be put up in Notre Dame Cemetery, where the remains of the late leader now lie. It is thought, however, that when the campaign for funds is organized and properly carried through there will be enough money to spare to erect in Ottawa the Laurier memorial hall."

JAPANESE PUT EMBARGO ON CANADA'S FRUIT

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Ottawa, Oct. 24—Advisors intimate that the Japanese government has placed an embargo on shipments to Japan of apples, pears, marmalades, peaches, apricots and plums, or other containers, from Canada, United States, Europe, South Africa, Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand and Brazil. The ban is intended to prevent the import of diseases that affect fruit.

LABOR IN NOVA SCOTIA AND THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The following letter was received from J. B. McLachlan, secretary of the United Mine Workers of America, Nova Scotia branch. It is addressed to Rev. H. R. Grant, and dated Sept. 6, 1920:

Today I am in receipt of your favor of the 1st inst., asking me for "an expression of opinion as to the benefits that would result from the suppression of the liquor traffic."

Let me say that at a convention of miners held in Sydney, N. S., Nov. 19-23, 1919, in a reconstruction programme drawn up, the fifth item on the programme read as follows:

"Temperance reform in the shape of an absolute prohibition act dominion-wide."

This item was passed by that convention by a majority of four to one. I have been actively engaged in the labor movement for the last thirty years, and know of nothing that is better calculated to upset the best efforts of labor men and labor unions than a drinking member.

I hate the liquor traffic with a whole-hearted hatred, because I have seen it used over and over again to dash the hopes of working men when they were on the eve of doing something useful for themselves.

I am, Yours truly, (Sgd.) J. B. McLachlan.

SPRINGHILL IS GROWING FAST.

Amherst News: Springhill is booming as never before, was the opinion expressed by a representative of the mining town who was visiting in Amherst yesterday. He went on to say that there was not a vacant house in the town, and in many houses there were two and three families living together. Just last week there were no less than twelve new families moved into the town, and this had been going on for some weeks. Number 6 and 7 mines are being rapidly developed and are panning out even better than expected. If only a strike can be averted, Springhill will have a prosperous winter.

These Truck Tires Help Solve Transportation Problems

The swift and economical moving of merchandise has received wonderful impetus from the development of Goodyear Truck Tires.

The delay and cost of older forms of transportation is being offset by the increased efficiency of the more modern truck-transportation.

Truck range has been broadened, truck speed has been safely increased, operating cost both for tires and fuel has been decreased, time off for repairs has been reduced.

These are the results of greater reliability, longer mileage, increased resiliency, as built into truck tires by Goodyear.

That Goodyear Truck Tires do possess these qualities is proved by mileage records and testimonials from truck operators, and by the fact that Goodyears outsell any other truck tire in Canada.

So strong is the proof of Goodyear Truck Tire quality that we are able to give a guarantee of their perfection unqualified as to time or mileage.

All Goodyear Solid Truck Tires are guaranteed as perfect when applied to your truck. If, at any time during the life of the tire, no matter how many miles or how many years it has gone, a fault of material or workmanship shows, we accept the responsibility.

The right truck tires may make a difference of several hundred dollars a year in your hauling costs. It will pay you to have the advice of a Goodyear Truck Tire man. No obligation. Phone, wire or write the nearest branch or Goodyear Truck Tire Service Station.

PUBLIC ASKED TO AID POE COTTAGE

Poet's Home in Need of Restoration — House in Fordham in Bad Condition.

(New York Evening Post.) It is such a little cottage, that one of Edgar Allan Poe's in Fordham, that it would seem preposterous for the people of this city, which had the luck to harbor for a little while one of the few great poets America has ever had.

For several years the house itself has been secure, as the property of the city and situated in Poe Park, on the Grand Concourse in the Bronx.

But it is the meantime contributions for restoring the tiny shingled house of Poe, New York city's really old, unique and lovely landmarks, may be sent to the Columbia Trust Company, Third avenue and East 148th street.

Restoration Not Difficult. There are only five rooms in all, the three downstairs, in one of which Virginia Clemm Poe, his lovely, fragile wife, died in 1847, and the two small ones upstairs, under the sloping roof, one of which was Poe's study.

And all that has to be done is to rip off the semi-modern paper, put on in an ill-advised moment by Dr. P. Joseph Chauvert, who owned the house for many years, to get back the original colometry and kind of paper, to paint the walls as it was in those years from 1844 to 1849, and to reconstruct the big kitchen fireplace which used to be the centre of the little house.

There is little danger that these efforts in bringing back vitality to the dying place will go unappreciated; there have been almost 100 visitors to the cottage every day this summer, unnumbered in its look as it has been. Unfortunately the hundred visits a day have netted nothing for support, for the idea is to have the cottage open always, free to every one.

Most Peaceful Period. This period of Poe's life was, except for the illness of his wife, the best, most peaceful, and most productive of his life. In the very small study which looked out on a high and open space with cherry trees about with a view of hills which rolled away toward the Sound, he wrote much, as well as editing his own magazine, the Stylus, which he had started at last in 1848, after working on other magazines in Richmond, New York and Philadelphia. The magazine did not last long—nothing ever lasted long with Poe, his charm and genius being founded on the nearest thing to a mother he had, staying on with him after Virginia died. He was back when he died to the death at two years old; the years of luxurious adoption English schooling, riotous living at the University of Virginia, and being a most successful soldier were far behind him. It was a strangely quiet, beautiful, and poor little house in which so brilliant and rare a man should end. But the little better now that the shabby little place has no one but the public to keep it up.

REVIEW OF CASE OF LORD MAYOR T. MACSWINEY

Circumstances of Arrest and Imprisonment

Notable Discussion on Political and Church Phases Aroused by Hunger Strike Which Ended in Death After 73 Days.

(Associated Press.) London, Oct. 25.—The story of the self-starvation of Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, probably will become one of the most moving chapters in the centuries-long history of the Irish struggle. No other controversy has stirred Great Britain so deeply as this since the one that centered upon Cecil Rhodes, when the Jameson raid was balked by Paul Kruger and the raiders imprisoned. The campaign in England for MacSwiney's release from prison has been, apart from all political and party considerations and even the king was drawn into it. The movement in MacSwiney's behalf was mainly humanitarian and enlisted tender-hearted people of all factions, but was urged by others with arguments of party strategy. "MacSwiney dead and canonized in the hearts of the Irish people with Wolf Tone and the Manchester martyrs would be a more valuable asset to the Sinn Fein than MacSwiney alive and, even though a free pass to freedom for MacSwiney might weaken the government's hand, why help the separatist cause by giving it a martyr?" were arguments put forward even by British unionists. "Stand by the law and do not create a precedent which would make the will of a convicted rebel the decisive factor in determining whether he shall be punished," was the argument of the stand fast faction. A majority of the British papers, including the London Times and the liberal press, the labor unionists, and many members of both parties in parliament joined in the agitation for MacSwiney's release. Two notable controversies, one constitutional and the other theological, have arisen from the case. The first was whether King George could properly exercise his pardoning prerogative independently of or against the advice of his ministers. The second was whether the Catholic clergy, representing a church which holds suicide to be a crime, could consistently administer the sacraments to hunger strikers. The king's reply through the secretary of state for war to the petition of members of parliament was generally interpreted to mean that the king's personal leaning was toward granting a pardon. But, since Premier Lloyd George and the foreign minister, A. Bonar Law, were at the same time issuing arguments against clemency for the lord mayor, it was evident that any action in that direction by the king would be against the advice of his ministers. The newspapers published many editorials and letters setting forth, on one hand, that King George should not be embarrassed by direct appeals to him, and, on the other hand, that he should and had the right to exercise his nominal constitutional power of pardoning. The Weekly Nation, which is one of the most advanced liberal organs and not generally rated as a supporter of monarchy, argued that this was an occasion for the king to vindicate his constitutional right and protect the country against the growing autocracy of the cabinet. There were many other arguments to the same effect. One historical writer, combatting the theory that the king always had been a cipher in such matters, exhorted a new story in the annals of British monarchy, telling how George IV described by Thackeray as the weakest of British kings, used to pace the council chamber with tears pleading for the pardon of criminals and sometimes carrying his point, although once when he wrote to the Viceroy of Ireland granting pardon to a murderer he was compelled by his cabinet to cancel his edict. One of the chief reasons put forward by MacSwiney's advocates, although advanced from anti-Sinn Fein quarters, was that the offenses of which MacSwiney was convicted were so comparatively light they did not justify his suffering, even though voluntarily. Premier Lloyd George's reply was that MacSwiney undoubtedly was a high officer of the "Irish Republican army" which decreed and executed murders of officials and police in Ireland. The Republican army, unlike the Sinn Fein, is purely a secret organization. The identity of its officers and personnel is kept from the public and there is doubt even whether the Sinn Fein controls it or officials know its workings. The theological argument over the course of Bishop Colahan and MacSwiney's chaplain, the Rev. Father Dominic, in, as critics say, encouraging him to commit suicide, was largely libelous. The Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan was the only priest who publicly criticized them. A lecture which he was to deliver in Glasgow, a centre of labor unionism, had to be cancelled on account of the unpopularity his words of sedition and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, which he was serving in Brixton Prison in London. MacSwiney, then an ardent member of the Sinn Fein, was elected lord mayor of Cork at a special session of the Cork Corporation on March 30 of this year. He was a well known Sinn Fein leader and where with respect and on their side had nothing but good to say of the jailers and police with whom they had to deal. Any way out of MacSwiney's imprisonment having been in 1916 in connection with the Irish Easter revolt. When arrested on August 12, MacSwiney managed to escape to the street or death. There can be no doubt the Irish republicans believed MacSwiney had given their cause, the most valuable service in his power and that, like John Brown, "he will trouble you more than ever when you have nailed his coffin down." Began on Aug. 12. MacSwiney's hunger strike was begun on August 12 when, with ten of his associates, he was arrested by soldiers in Cork while attending a session of a Sinn Fein court. After trial by a court-martial under the regulations of the Defence of the Realm Act, he was found guilty of sedition and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, which he was serving in Brixton Prison in London. MacSwiney, then an ardent member of the Sinn Fein, was elected lord mayor of Cork at a special session of the Cork Corporation on March 30 of this year. He was a well known Sinn Fein leader and where with respect and on their side had nothing but good to say of the jailers and police with whom they had to deal. Any way out of MacSwiney's imprisonment having been in 1916 in connection with the Irish Easter revolt. When arrested on August 12, MacSwiney managed to escape to the street from the back of the city hall, which soldiers had surrounded, but was captured outside. He was taken to the military barracks and came up for trial on August 16. The court-martial found him guilty of having control of the secret police cipher, of having in his possession a document likely to cause disaffection, namely, a copy of a resolution of the Cork Corporation pledging allegiance to the Dail Eireann, the Irish Republican Parliament, and of having made a seditious speech on the occasion of his election. Already weak at the trial because of his refusal to take food, MacSwiney disputed the jurisdiction of the court, saying—"I am the lord mayor of this city and its chief magistrate. I declare this court illegal and those taking part in it liable to arrest under the laws of the Irish republic." The day following his trial, Lord Mayor MacSwiney was deported to England aboard a destroyer, under a heavy military escort and was lodged in Brixton jail. The government announced on August 10 that he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. MacSwiney's hunger strike brought numerous solicitations and protests to

CONFERENCE ON HEALTH AND CHILD WELFARE MATTERS

C. B. Allan returned to the city yesterday from Ottawa after attending the meetings of the Child Welfare Convention, the advisory and consultative committee of the Canadian Red Cross, and the central council of the Red Cross at Ottawa and the dinner given by the Canadian Red Cross to Herbert Hoover of the American food administration. The banquet at which Mr. Hoover was the guest of honor was attended by 800 representatives of the Red Cross Society. At it Mr. Hoover made an appeal for starving children in Europe. At the Child Welfare Convention Dr. John A. Amey, deputy minister of public health, presided. The New Brunswick delegates were Dr. G. G. Melvin, Mrs. R. J. Hooper, Miss Hazel McCain, Miss Muriel, V. O. N., and Mr. Allan. Mr. Allan was appointed representative for New Brunswick on the nominating committee to appoint members of a Canadian Child Welfare Council. At the central council of the Canadian Red Cross meeting it was reported that the traveling clinics in Nova Scotia had greatly aided public health work there. Miss Ruddle's campaign in New Brunswick in the interests of public health was highly commended. Approval was given to the plan to establish cottage hospitals in the rural districts. It was suggested that New Brunswick scholarships should be given graduate nurses to enable them to take a course in public health nursing, and that premiums should be given high school and normal school girls in an endeavor to get them to take up nursing as a profession.

In the evening Harold Holder, the grand praelector, gave his opening address and the grand scribe, Jack Cuthbertson of Moncton, read the conference minutes. The deputy scribe, Walter Thomas, gave the reports of registration and read the votes of thanks. The resolutions of the different squares were read by L. B. The denominational resolutions were read in the following order: Anglican, George Coleman; Baptist, Fred. Montgomery; Methodist, Gordon Adams; Presbyterian, Eldred Mowat.
