

GREAT BRITAIN UTILITIES CONDITIONS OF PALESTINE MANDATE

CENTRAL COLLEGE, SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY AND THE EAST, COLLEGE STREET, LONDON

Stormy Morning Session of No. 3 Committee of Board of Education—Trustee Edwin Smith Threatens To Tie Up Whole Question For A Year.

Another attempt to reach a compromise on the matter of providing high school accommodation in the city was made this morning by No. 3 committee of the board of education at its regular meeting on Tuesday last, after failure to reach a definite plan of action, resulted when Trustee Edwin Smith repudiated his acceptance of the compromise agreement unanimously adopted at the previous meeting of No. 3 committee.

Following some discussion, during which Trustee Smith demanded that he be heard as "approving" the action of the board in its decision to build a school of 16 teaching rooms on the old site, and that a site be purchased in East London on which a school may be built. This motion to be in substitution of the motion of the board passed on December 19, 1920, as recorded on Page 211, of the minutes of the board of education, was carried by a vote of three to two, as follows: Yeas—Coleridge, Hayman, and Langford; Nays—Smith and Clarke.

Opening the discussion, Trustee Smith claimed that this year's board had decided upon a definite policy of a 16-room school on the old site, and asserted that he must rule out any other action of last year's board as a mere "issue."

Trustee Coleridge, chairman of the board of education, replied that until the policy and action taken by last year's board as set forth in the minutes of December 10, 1920, has been rescinded, it is not possible to consider the construction of a new school on the old site.

Trustee Langford replied: "There are not sufficient supporters of such a plan."

Trustee Smith then moved that the board should rule out any other action of last year's board as a mere "issue."

MOTHERS' CLUBS NOT ANXIOUS TO KEEP TAB ON THE CITY COUNCIL

Report Referred to the Local Council of Women.

AND NOT CITY "DADS"

Many of Whom Would Welcome Pretty Faces at the Council Gatherings.

Mothers' Clubs have not constituted themselves official guardians of the city council and other governing bodies in the city, Mrs. John Gemmell, president of the Union of Mothers' Clubs, announced today.

Referring to his agreement to the compromise recommended by the committee to the board, when it was discussed in committee, and his repudiation of it at the board meeting, Trustee Smith asserted that the compromise agreement for an 8-roomed school in South London until the motion of December 19, was eliminated, meant that the board would be pledged to an 18-roomed school in South London.

Some discussion took place relative to the continued use of the old Prince's Avenue school, and after pointing out that the building has been condemned by the department of education as insanitary and unfit for school purposes, Trustee Coleridge remarked that if the supporters of the central school were honest in their claim that they were willing to agree to the unit system, being developed later, and in their belief that the continued use of the old school was a mere "issue," they should give their attention to the south and east London schools.

Trustee Smith then moved that the board should rule out any other action of last year's board as a mere "issue."

WARD ONE VOTERS SPOILED OVER 30 BALLOTS IN LAST ELECTION

Citizens Insisted on Voting for Four Aldermen Instead of Three—Worst Number of Mistakes in Years, Condemns City Clerk Samuel Baker.

Either through ignorance or malice, more ballots were spoiled in Ward One during the last municipal election than in the whole city in previous years, City Clerk Baker declared today.

He has almost completed an examination of all the ballots cast in Ward One and Two, and has found that the remaining two wards miserably misled the voters.

That the condition is not due to general ignorance of the election rules is indicated by the fact that there were only one or two instances in which more than the proper number of votes were cast for school trustees.

There were no freak ballots bearing more than three or four votes for school trustees, as is sometimes the case.

A similar condition existed to a less extent in Ward Two, where ballots were spoiled because four candidates were marked.

In no instance was the result of the election changed by the errors, but the voters were misled.

The record of the election was a record of mistakes, and the voters were misled.

GOVERNMENT WHIPS TO HAVE BUSY TIME LINING UP MAJORITY

Small Margin of Members Is Slowly But Surely Dwindling.

LEADERS ALARMED

Meighen Administration May Find Policies Endangered At Times.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Strenuous vigilance on the part of Government whips will be necessary during the coming week, as the Government is to carry its policies through without danger of defeat.

The Government was elected in 1917 with a majority of over 70. That majority has now dwindled to something below 30, and many of the members going to make it up are by no means regular attendants.

Last session the Government narrowly escaped disaster on a more or less snap vote. Since last session there have been certain casualties in the Government ranks, which have gone still further to sap its strength.

Hon. A. K. McLean, former minister without portfolio, who gave the Government loyal support since 1917, has decided to cross back to the Liberals.

Hon. J. N. Rowell, who since the same date was one of the hardest workers on the treasury benches, has left the treasury benches, and is likely to leave the House altogether.

Mr. Robert Borden has also become a private member, and will devote the greater part of his time to his series of lectures at the University of Toronto.

Other Defections. In addition W. A. Buchanan of Lethbridge will cross to the independent benches, and may take with him Fred Davis of New Brunswick and John Campbell of Ontario.

While these latter may join neither of the existing opposition parties, they will at least be counted on the opposition, and cannot be counted on by the Government whips.

East Elgin has also sent another opponent in the place of a former friend of the Government, who has also decided to cross back to the opposition.

The death of Hon. A. L. Sifton, in addition to the above facts, there is a considerable number of more or less chronic absentees, including Sir Herbert Ames, Col. Hume, Dr. D. B. Macdonald, Sir Edward Kenn, and others.

These reports are all the more significant in view of the fact that the Government is now in a minority, and the whips are being called upon to line up the majority.

SELF-GOVERNMENT FOR MANY SECTIONS OF PALESTINE IS PROPOSED FOR MANDATE

Great Britain in Exercise of Control Over Holy Land Will Adopt Measures to Encourage Return of Jews to Country—Civic and Religious Rights of All Inhabitants Will Be Safeguarded—English, Arabic and Hebrew Will Be the Official Languages.

[Special to The Advertiser.] London, Feb. 4.—The British draft of the mandate for Palestine, which will be submitted to the council of the League of Nations at its next meeting in Geneva, provides in its first article that the mandatory nation (Great Britain) shall have all the powers inherent in the Government of a sovereign state, according to the text of the draft, printed in the Jewish Chronicle here today.

Among the outstanding features of the 27 articles of the mandate are stipulations that the widest measure of self-government for localities consistent with prevailing conditions, shall be encouraged, and that the mandatory shall be responsible for maintaining the political, administrative and economic development of the country, and the development of a Jewish national home and the development of self-government institutions.

Assumes Responsibility. The mandatory assumes the responsibility of seeing to it that no Palestine territory shall be ceded, leased or otherwise subjected to any foreign power, that Jewish immigration shall be facilitated, that the civil and political rights of all the inhabitants, irrespective of race or creed, shall be safeguarded, and that there shall be no discrimination against the nationals of any state.

Responsibility for taxation, commerce and navigation is vested in the mandatory. It is also provided that a land system shall be introduced, and that the mandatory shall be responsible for the development of the land and its intensive cultivation, safeguarding the interests of the community and the development of the country.

The mandatory is to be entrusted with control of the foreign relations of Palestine, and the right to issue exequaturs to consuls appointed for powers entitled to afford diplomatic and consular protection to citizens of Palestine who reside outside their territorial rights.

Official Languages. All responsibility in connection with the holy places, religious buildings and their sites are assumed by Great Britain. The mandatory is to secure within a year from the date of the enactment of the mandate the enactment of a law of antiquities, based upon the Turkish law, insuring equality of treatment for nationals of all states, and members of the League of Nations, engaging in archaeological research. English, Hebrew and Arabic are to be the official languages of the country.

To Report Annually. The Palestine administration, if it is provided, may organize on a voluntary basis, the next forces for the preservation of the peace and order and defence of the country subject to the supervision of the mandatory.

A separate Jewish agency, it is stipulated, shall be recognized as a public body, and shall be co-operating with the administration in economic, social and other matters, and the Zionist organization, as it is now constituted, is so recognized.

The mandatory is to adhere to the existing conventions regarding the traffic in slaves, ammunition and drugs, and as to commercial equality and freedom of transit and communication.

Disputes under the mandate provisions not settled by negotiation are to be submitted to the permanent international justice established by the League of Nations.

Great Britain is to make an annual report to the League of Nations council on the measures taken during the year.

CARSON APPEALS TO IRISHMEN TO CEASE SHEDDING OF BLOOD

Belfast, Feb. 4.—Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, in a speech here last night to his constituents, said that what was going on in south and west Ireland made a man ashamed of being an Irishman.

He appealed to those "at the back of this horrible drama" to call a halt and confer with the Government.

Sir Edward added that if the Government of Ireland bill had not given Ulster an absolute victory it was a declaration that Ulster's past services and her loyalty and progress was such that no government was entitled to take away her independence and place her under a government which she would detest and abhor.

The speaker concluded by saying that while he could not accept the Ulster leadership he had undertaken to hold the fort at Westminster and help to bring about a closer union with Great Britain than ever before.

The Unionist council is meeting in Belfast today. Sir James Craig probably will be elected leader of the Unionist forces in the new parliament.

Plain Statements of Dr. R. W. Shaw Not Relished BY RADICAL COUNSEL

Evidence on the financial condition of the London and Port Stanley Railway submitted at the hydro-railway probe at Toronto Thursday by Dr. R. W. FRANCO-POLISH TRADE PACT IS BEING ARRANGED

General Pilsudski and Ministers On Visit to Paris.

Paris, Feb. 4.—Conclusion of a Franco-Polish commercial accord is one of the principal objects for the visit of the Polish minister, General Pilsudski, and his colleagues to Paris, according to statements given out by Prince Radzinski to newspapers here.

The conclusion of a military convention is also a possibility, but no concrete details have as yet been received.

The Journal quotes Gen. Pilsudski, Polish war minister, as saying that the subject of "peace will be concluded with the Russian Bolsheviks at the earliest date possible, perhaps before the end of the year, and every effort will be made to resist any and every attack."

C. OF C. APPROVES OF CITIZENS' RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR CITY

Would Help London to Solve
Many Important Problems.

DIRECTORS BELIEVE

Great Saving of Finances
Could Be Rendered by Unbiased Experts.

The following communication has been received from the London Chamber of Commerce relative to the establishment of a Citizens' Research Institute at London:

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I am instructed by the directors to state their reason for indorsement of the establishment of a branch of the Citizens' Research Institute at London.

As a city of 60,000 people, with prestige and importance increasing with

Some of the problems facing the city administrators immediately or in the early future are: Waterworks and sewerage extensions, street improvements, additional street improvements, garbage separation, Ridout street and probably other bridges, gas rates, street car service, new schools, including additional collegiate accommodation, Victoria Hospital extensions, Western University buildings, playgrounds, London and Port Stanley Railway improvements, Western Fair extensions, city hall, public library, new hall.

Yours very truly,
GORDON PHILIP,
Managing Secretary.

AT LOEW'S.

Enough entertainment for several shows is packed into the bill at Loew's Theatre, played - for the first time on Thursday and here for the remainder of the week. Tragedy is an unknown quantity so far as all parts of this program are concerned. The vaudeville, as well as the comedy and feature pictures, is one continual laugh.

Enid Bennett, the little Australian actress, who has become such a favorite with local movie fans, excels alike her past records in her latest picture, "Her Husband's Friend." The vaudeville acts are all top-liners. The New-themselves lead on with some trick bicycling, which is a complete entertainment in itself. Practically every feature of the presentation is new, and the boxing match on bicycles is a smashing climax.

Curt Calloway is well to the fore with a line of humor that is refreshingly different from most of these offerings. He puts his personality into all he does, and as a result it goes over big.

Charnoff's Gypsies deserve more than usual notice. Their advertisement is

HURRY TO CATCH STREET CAR CAUSE OF SUDDEN DEATH

Mrs. S. A. Webb, Bruce Street, Was On Way to Theatre.

Heart weakness, aggravated by hurrying to catch a Normal street car, caused the sudden death of Mrs. Samuel A. Webb, 23 Bruce street, about 7 o'clock Thursday evening. With her husband, Mrs. Webb was on her way up town to attend a theatre, and hastened to board a car which was seen approaching. After boarding the car, Mrs. Webb collapsed, and was taken to the office of Dr. Robert Ferguson, where she died almost immediately.

Mrs. Webb is survived by her husband, and two sisters, Mrs. D. P. Ross of Detroit, and Mrs. G. Eden of Woodstock. The funeral will be held privately on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her residence. Interment will be made in Woodland Cemetery. Rev. W. L. Arncliffe will conduct the services.

BRANCH OF G. W. V. A. TO BE ORGANIZED IN EAST LONDON, REPORT

House Committee Now Making Search for Suitable Quarters.

H. Q. WILL ASSIST
Will Relieve Crowded Condition at Central Club Rooms.

It was intimated that the house today that an East End branch of the Great War Veterans' Association will be formed next week. Nearly 25 men who have had no connection with any soldier organization have banded together and are today looking for suitable club rooms.

A great many of the present members of the association reside in the east section of the city, and it is thought that if club rooms can be obtained they will be frequented by visitors.

It was intimated that the house committee of the new branch was expediting some difficulty in securing rooms, as practically all suitable places were occupied. However, headquarters are doing their best to help push the scheme along. It was also stated that the men have had several meetings and had elected officers, but nothing definite as to this could be learned.

It is expected that at the regular meeting of the association next Tuesday evening in Hyman Hall the matter of helping the new branch along financially will be taken up.

Secretary J. W. Caniffie of the G. W. V. A., in conversation with an Advertiser reporter today, said he approved the move, as it would relieve the crowded situation in the Queen's avenue club rooms. The executive has for some time considered the matter of securing new rooms, but it is thought that the problem is now solved.

Byron Farmer Gets Biddy to Lay Nice Brown Egg by Approved 'Music Method'

Barred Rock Pullet in Disloyal Manner Refuses to Stand While National Anthem Is Being Played and Makes Straight for Nest—Result, Hen Fruit.

There is a well-known farmer who lives at Byron who now avows by the "music method" of getting Biddy to lay a nice brown egg every day. After reading the dispatch in The Advertiser a few days ago which stated that the latest approved method of extracting eggs from the queens of the nation, being good, loyal subjects, continued to stand, but one Barred Rock pullet hopped lightly to the edge of the long line of nests and flew the nice yellow straw that made resting in the nest quite comfortable.

He Was Ticked. The farmer, quite pleased with his experiment, hustled back to the house and handed out the joyful tidings to wife and family, and was made the butt of much alleged humor. However, he maintained that something would come of the experiment, and he was right.

Returning to the coop later on he found that the disloyal young lady had been true to her preliminary actions, and had manufactured for him a nice brown egg, with which he returned to the house in triumph. For once the woman had nothing to say, he asserts. This son of the soil, who asked that his name be not used in connection with the story, is a Scotchman by birth, and thinks that if he had the happiness of the job his hens would do better than ever.

However, he is convinced that "music" holds charms to soothe the "fidgety hen," and will continue to use the mouth organ as a pep producer for the egg machines.

DR. SAGE CHAIRMAN OF LIBRARY BOARD
Citizens Borrow 300,000 Volumes in Year—Reference Department Popular.

Rev. Dr. G. B. Sage, rector of St. George's Church, West London, is the chairman of the public library board for 1921, his name being unanimously approved at the inaugural meeting of the board held last night.

The year 1920 was an active one in the library, citizens borrowing a total of 300,000 volumes, while 20,000 people made use of the reference department. The year was one of the busiest that the reference department has ever had, the demand for material for speeches, addresses, papers, debates, programs of all kinds, as well as the varied needs of London students being continuous.

Requests for Material. The work of this department has to-day become so well known that the reference department is now a standing request to have material available for the members when they call. It is not unusual to have both sides of the participants in a debate working at opposite sides of the same table in the reference room. The chief difficulty there, is that the shelves are now at their capacity for books, and sometimes there are scarcely enough seats for all who come to study and work. During the year 5,650 people were given personal assistance in special work, while, of course, many thousands of others were self-sufficiently acquainted with the working of a library to need no special help in getting the information they wanted.

For Boys and Girls. The providing of good literature for the boys and girls is one of the important functions of the library. During the last year, the library provided the children of London with 55,000 volumes for their reading, and an interesting innovation was the starting of two new reading clubs for girls, one of these being a demand from the southeastern part of the city for library facilities in being considered by the library board as being as far as possible and to as many people as can make use of the privilege that are their as citizens.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT
Put on by G. F. S. of the Church of St. John the Evangelist.

Thursday evening the G. F. S. of the Church of St. John the Evangelist presented a series of "Stunts" in the schoolroom, and provided a most unique entertainment. Several quaint dances and drills were given, also a pantomime of one of the "Tommy" cock's stories. A new version of a movie film was a novel feature, and the scenario was read, a wild western drama was enacted in a capable manner.

"The Toy Shop," a mimic representation of Toyland, was cleverly given, fifteen young ladies giving a splendid impersonation of a dolls' tale in a toy shop, all the different varieties being portrayed.

Have a Pain in My Sawdust, sung by one of the animated dolls, proved a hit. "Dr. Killensnare," was a rather startling portion of the program, while the "Fishes Ocean" provided much merriment.

LONDON FRUIT GROWERS FIX 1921 PRICES FOR PICKING

Will Pay 2½ Cents for Strawberries and 4 Cents for Raspberries.

The London Fruit Growers' Association had an interesting meeting in the local agricultural office on Thursday, and fixed the prices to be paid for picking strawberries and raspberries during the coming season. It was resolved that 2½ cents per box be paid for strawberries at the beginning of the season, and that 4 cents be the price for raspberries. For picking cherries it was agreed to give 20 cents for a six-quart basket and 25 cents for eleven quarts.

Several members exhibited varieties of apples, and prizes were awarded for the best specimens. A. K. Sadler took the first prize in Spies, while Herb Wickerson was second and William England third.

For Rhode Island Greenings the name owners were the winners, the order of merit being also the same. In making their awards the judges gave an instructive talk on the different points of the fruit, and the growers got along with their co-operative scheme before taking action.

William England presided at the meeting, which, although a large attendance was not present, was a successful one. Several new members were admitted, and it was reported that the association was steadily increasing.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR FOR THE SOUTHERN CONGREGATIONAL
Annual Report Shows Church To Be in Splendid Financial Condition—Pastor's Salary Raised.

At the annual meeting of the Southern Congregational Church held on Wednesday, Rev. W. H. A. Claris, the pastor, was given an increase of $200 in salary. The annual report gave evidence of all departments of the church being in a flourishing condition. The appointment to the forward movement had been doubled and the total receipts for the year were $3,237.47.

The pastor in giving his report, mentioned that since the last annual meeting, Mrs. Claris had died, and also his two deacons of the church, Edward Hargreaves and William Walton. The secretary's report was received with applause, showing a substantial increase in the church's income.

The officers of the church for the year were elected as follows: R. L. Anderson, secretary; Bert Wherry, treasurer; deacons, Messrs. Anderson, Claris, J. E. George, and Wherry; board of managers, Messrs. Powell, Pungner, Anderson, Claris, Wherry, J. E. George, and Wherry.

Following the business session, refreshments were served and a social hour spent.

LOTS OF WORK ON FARMS FOR MEN WITH EXPERIENCE
Harry Wray of the Ontario employment bureau repudiated the statement alleged to have been made by him, and published in the press, that no man need be idle at the present time, as there was work enough for all. What Mr. Wray asserted he did say is that there is no need for men with any special experience to be unemployed at the present time, as there are scores of farmers in this district who are ready to pay married men from $500 a year up, together with free house, while single men can earn $25 up to $40 a month, with a rise in the spring when the season opens. ## INDUSTRIAL HISTORY

SUBJECT OF LECTURE

Prof. Wood Shows How Use of Coal Developed Industry.

Professor Louis A. Wood, Ph.D., of the Western University, spoke in the public library on Thursday evening of "The Industrial History of the Nineteenth Century." He pictured England in the early days when coal was the king of the entire factory. The supplying of motive power and smelting of iron depended entirely on coal. The population of Great Britain has quadrupled during a century, but the production of coal has increased twenty-fold.

He said that the population of England had shifted from the south to the west, and from the north to the east. The manufacture of cotton had driven the woolen industry in the back-ground. During the last forty years an industrial revolution has occurred in business organization and control, and the professor, "This has been due to the growth of business combinations and concentration of capital."

The rise of trusts was discussed by Professor Wood. He told of their subsequent dissolution. The conclusion he gave a short account of the rise of combinations of industrial workers since 1870, stating that the trade union of 1870 had been the Magna Charta of the labor movement.

London today is on the verge of the greatest industrial expansion that has ever known. Industries are flocking in, and "big business" is here to stay. The Buffalo Sunday Times says in its issue of January 2 of this year: "The fact that within the last few months a number of industrial concerns decided to locate in London has had a very happy effect upon the situation generally. During the last year the London Chamber of Commerce has begun to reap the fruit of long and careful preparation and its machinery has been utilized in bringing to London allied businesses. In the east end of the city the factory buildings for these are now going up, a proof that there is nothing visionary or chimerical about the promises made that they would locate here."

SMUT ON THE STAGE.

Social uplifters blame the theatrical producers and managers for impurity on the stage, and propose to war on these gentlemen. They are beginning at the wrong end. The average theatrical manager or producer doesn't care two hoots what the moral standard of his entertainment may be, providing it pays.
He doesn't put on salacious
stuff because he likes that brand,
but because the public likes it.
The smutty song or joke always "gets over" best. When one asks a grocer for butter, that's what one gets. While the public continues to ask for indecent theatrical entertainment, that's what the theatre owner or manager will give him. The way to attack this evil is through the home and the school. The community that possesses refinement and culture will turn from a depraved stage with the same disgust it would show towards any other obscenity.
Compelling the theatres to cut out impurity will not drive impurity from people's minds. That can only be achieved through education carried on in home, school, press and pulpit.
When the public is clean-minded enough not to desire it the stage will quickly eliminate dirt.

COMMUNISTS IN CANADA.

Hamilton has the doubtful honor of possessing the first body of Lenine communists in Canada. Perhaps it would be fairer to say the first one to be unearthed, as it is quite reasonable to suppose these pests are active in other cities. Let us make no mistake as to the aims and intentions of this organization.
Whether at Paris, London, Timuc-too, Medicine Hat or Hamilton, these would-be destroyers of western civilization take their orders direct from the master of the Third Internationale at Moscow, and this gentleman has repeatedly and loudly announced that the duty of the Russian Communist party is to create anarchy by violent methods.
He orders his followers to launch red revolutions. Bloodshed and misery are quite justifiable, according to this infamous creature, providing it wrecks existing systems of government. Capital must be destroyed before Sovietism can be introduced. That is the nub of the doctrine, and it entails civil strife
with all its horrors.

Of course, Russian bolshevism will never be accepted by the people of this country. It is impossible to imagine Canadians submitting to the suppression of free speech, labor conscription, and the other detestable conditions Lenine has forced on Russia. Nevertheless, it would be well to promptly curb these followers of Lenine the moment they overstep the bounds of the law. They are capable of causing considerable local mischief, as one of their favorite tricks is to cultivate dissatisfaction and discord. Strikes and demonstrations are pet weapons. They are the more dangerous, too, because their real intention—revolution—is carefully hidden. Any Canadian subscribing to the principles of the Lenine dictatorship is an enemy to his country, and should be considered as such by the authorities. Tolerance should not extend to agents of such an intolerance as Lenine would put on the world.

BLISS CARMAN'S VISIT.

The city is to be honored by a visit from the greatest living Canadian poet. How many will have the judgment to go and hear Bliss Carman speak?

When "Doug and Mary" visited
the great London, over the water,
the Lord Mayor was out to give them a civic reception, and the big

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT CANADA?

population nearly mobbed the
"distinguished" visitors to death.
Bliss Carman will be alive and probably better known a hundred years hence than now. His tomb will some day be a thing for tourists
to see, and read a guide-book over, while Doug and Mary's bones will concern no one. Perhaps that will be another of their advantages. To be forgotten and at peace in death is almost as happy a prospect as to have attention paid you in life.

However that may be, it will become the intelligent citizens of London to turn out and acclaim their national poet on his first public appearance here. Let us break the rule that prophets and poets are without honor in their own country. A prize-fighter would be sure of a large and enthusiastic crowd. The intellectuals, semi-intellectuals, and all who love or would like to love the chime of musical and impassioned words, ought to be equally cordial, and numerous in welcoming the champion of our poetic ring, as Byron might have called him. Carman is a heavyweight champion in his sphere, though his style in verse is as light and graceful as running water. Perhaps it might interest the multitude to be reminded that he was once a sort of "young Apollo," and still makes an impressive and dominating figure in spite of growing years and a recent illness.

"Who's Who," in a substantial paragraph, lists Carman as a "journalist." Probably, certainly,
"Who's Who" would have listed Matthew Arnold as "school inspecter," and Shakespeare as actor or theatre proprietor. Carman is incidentally a good journalist, as Lamb was incidentally an industrious clerk in the India House when he set about his Elia papers, or as John Macfie was a valued hand in the Yonkers carpet factory when he began composing the Saltwater Ballads.

Most of us remember Carman best as the youthful Bohemian,
pouring dreamy full-throated songs of "Vagabondia." There was the magnificent Ode for the coronation of King Edward, nineteen years ago. In later years, perhaps Mr. Carman has become more subtle, even more visionary, than in his first careless raptures. He is,
like Walter de la Mare, a "listener"
to the finer voices of nature, but sees more, and is more musical than de la Mare. As with Shelley, so with Carman, the stream of song seems to flow swiftly through his mind from a mysterious source and is only a little darkened in the transit by the mental machinery.

Eagerly in our day of cynicism
and noise, Bliss Carman's recent poems,
such as "Masks of Delity," still sing
the transcendental song of old Emerson. Man and things are divine:—

"In every face I shall descry
Some glimpse of divinity:
The laundry girl with bare white throat
And lyric step, and hair afloat
In Berce, who comes to bless
The town with her fresh loveliness.
Old Apple Mary at her stall
Is not her dingy self at all,
But great Pomona in disguise."
—And God!

In another recent poem, "A Measure of Heaven," Mr. Carman says that "Heaven is no larger than Fairfield county," which "the sun
visits and the wandering showers," and the seasons beautify. And in winter,

"One frosty room is large enough
for heaven."
Another production of these last years is a satiric reaction to Edgar Lee Masters' "Spoon River Anthology," immensely worth reading.
Mr. Carman is said to be "the most approachable of men, if you have the directness to approach."
He has his feet firmly on earth,
even though his head seems reaching up to the stars. Now we have him for once in his life approaching the public, as Arnold was once induced to lecture to the people, and Mr. Carman, needless to say, gets away with it better.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Looks as if Germany might have to do some more "kammerading."

Voliva, Dowle's successor, is going to tell New York all about its sins.
Some new sins is what New York
would like to hear about.

Norman Angell, the English
pacifist, who, before the war, wrote
books to show war was impossible, describes the German reparations
terms as "rubbish." But the world long ago sent Norman's opinions to the ash-can.

Germany is howling over having to return a large number of cows to France, as it "brings suffering to German babies." The cows were originally carried off from France,
but, of course, French babies didn't require milk.

President Wilson has denied
Eugene Debs' plea for clemency.
Debs, who boastfully confessed to being guilty of the crime against his country with which he was charged,
remains unrepentant and defiant.
Why shouldn't he serve his term,
just like any other criminal asks
the New York Times.

THE NATIONAL FISH DAY.

[Quebec Telegraph.]
Ash Wednesday is not only to be the National fish day of Canada this year,
but it is understood that the same date
has been decided upon for future years
as well, while thanks to the efforts of the Canadian Fisheries Association, the co-operation of the fisheries department is permitting the use of a postmark bearing the legend "National Fish Day, February 9" to be used in cancelling stamps in fifteen of the large-est cities of the Dominion. It is to be hoped that Quebec is included in this list, for there is probably no other city in the country in proportion to its size
where there is not a larger consumption than here notwithstanding our proximity to large supplies of fresh fish.
It had been hoped that the United States
fish trade would have been able to cooperate in the celebration of fish day,
but the time was too short for it to line up a campaign this year for the same purpose to hold a national fish day on the 9th of March, but to join Canada in the celebration of a North American national fish day in the spring of 1922.

THE UNBORN SONG.

[H. Wilson Evans.]
I was a strolling player, in those years
When all the world was sane, before the war,
And people loved my music, for the notes
Were high and keen and clear, and
like the call
Of wild birds homing—or, sometimes
the tones
Would throbb and beat and moan, like life itself.
And they were all my songs—my songs
I was so happy.

Then war came, and I saw it only as A night adventure, and a dear, glad service.
The red tunnet, and swift murder—all
the joyous
Things around me tore the very fibres
Of my heart—and that I could have borne, until
They shot my arm away!

And now this war, chaotic peace has come,
And I sit huddled here, a deeper blotch
Of dark among the greying shadows, while Sweet, unborn songs in search of fingers
run
All thringing down my arm to where it stops!
And high, clear notes or deep and true,
that once
Were mine, like plaintive, far-off Pipes
Of Tan
Are always calling.

PROOF.

[American Legion Weekly.]
Bobbie came home one day with a brand new golf ball.
"Look at the last ball I found on the links, daddy," he said.
But daddy was suspicious. "Are you sure it was a lost ball, son?" he asked.
"Surest thing you know, I saw the man and his caddy both looking for it."

THE DIVER.

[John Macfie.]
So shall we be: so will our cities be, Unknown beneath the grasses of the summer.
Walls without roofs, nave-opens to the sky.
Doors open to the wind, the only
corner.
And men will grub the ruins, eyes will peer.
Fingers will grope for pennies, brains
will tire.
To chronicle the skills we practiced
here,
While still we breathed the wind and trod the mire.

O, like the ghost at dawn, scared by the cock,
Let us make haste, to let the spirit
live.
Deep in self's sea, until the deeps unlock.
The depths and sunken gold of being alive.

Till, though our Many pass, a Something stands
Aloft through Time that covers all with sands.

A LOVE STORY.

Monroe Salisbury, the actor, was entertained recently at the Lambie Club in New York by some of his fellow-actors.
The conversation turned to the subject of stage fright, and many amusing stories were recounted regarding mistakes made on the stage due to nervousness.

"Talk of nervousness," said Mr. Salisbury, "reminds me of a story."
"Papa," did Walter call on you this morning?" an unnamed young Brooklyn girl said to her stock broker father.

"Yes, but I couldn't make out much of what he said," the father explained.
"Could he make out what he said?"
the girl inquired. "What do you mean?"
"Well," explained the father, "he said

THE GATES OF GOLD.

[Robert Louis Stevenson.]
It's forth across the roaring foam, and
on toward the West,
It's many a lonely league from home,
O'er many a mountain crest,
From where the dogs of Scotland call
the sheep around the fold,
To where the flags are flying beside the Gates of Gold.

Where all the deep-sea galleons ride
that come to bring the corn,
Where falls the fog at eventide
blows the breeze at morn;
It's there that I was sick and sad, alone
and poor and cold,
In yon distressful city beside the Gates of Gold.

I slept as one that nothing knows; but far along my way
Before the Morning, God arose and planned the coming day.
After before me forth he went, as
through the sands of old,
And chose the friends to help me beside
the Gates of Gold.

I have been near, I have been far, my back's been at the wall,
Yet aye and ever shone the star to guide
me through it all;
The love of God, the help of man, they both shall make me bold Against the gates of darkness as beside
the Gates of Gold.

Two friends returning home from a late evening gathering noticed through the window a Chinaman in the dimlylighted rearshop.
"I wonder what that Chinaman is doing up so late?" said one.
"Shirts, I suppose," came the answer.

THE TOUCH OF BEAUTY.
[Eliza Barker.]
What is that magical, strange quality
That gives to all the words and ways
of you Something supernatural? Others are as true
Expression of the inner thought, maybe,
But they are prose, and you are poetry.
You merely look at me—and something new Calls me to give it form, some faint,
far clue
Touches me from a world I cannot see.
And sometimes when the beauty is not so high
It overpowers me, I am moved to sing.
But, O beloved, how mere words belie
The wonder of that half-embodied thing!
It merely brushes me in going by,
But leaves me all alive and quivering.

A CLASH.
Brander Matthews, the famous critic,
said at a Columbia tea:
"Realism tells us the truth about life.
It is opposed to sentimentalism, which throws over life a coat of sickly and enervated flush."
"Realism and sentimentalism never agree. A realistic man was married to

A GOOD-HEARTED COW.

[Boston News Bureau.]
"In one brief period of rest," said
Charles M. Schwab, speaking at Wednesday's banquet of the Massachusetts Bankers' Association, "I took to farming down here in New England. Shortly an old hand at the business came to sell me

a cow.
"Is it a pedigreed animal?" I asked.
"The kind kept by Mr. Barrows and my other competitors around here?"
"I dunno about pedigrees," answered Josh, "but she sure's a darn good, hearted honest cow, an' if she's got any milk she'll sure give it 'y'!"

YES, INDEED!
[London Tit-Bits.]
Pass-footers put up a poster in Glasgow bearing these words: "Every corner
in hell is soaked in whiskey."
Glasgow students wrote underneath
the legend: "O death, where is thy sting?"

WINTER IN THE HILLS.
[Arthur S. Bourinot.]
The hills lie sleeping in the winter snow, Hunching their sunscarred backs beneath the white,
In unconcerned slumber till their slow
Lethargic stirring in the April light.

The river runs in interrupted rills, Forced from the earth's great heart in sluggish best,
An artery of the hibernating hills,
And quietude unutterably complete.

He has been just about ready to give up the job ever since his wife hit on that idea of fastening the signals
onto her churn
handle.

To Cure Russia by "Absent Treatment"

The Washington Herald declares that "until the Allied Powers have at least a semblance of an agreed Russian policy, chaos is certain to continue. President Wilson proposes a policy of hands off, and this may help clear the air." Both Bolshevik and anti-Bolshevik spokesmen in this country, it is interesting to note, find something to praise in the President's proposal, but correspondents report that it is received coldly by the French press, and with a mingling of praise and criticism by the English papers. "Does Mr. Wilson think America can join the League for five or ten minutes whenever it wishes something, and then get out before it is called on to assume responsibilities?" asks the Paris Journal des Debats, and the London Westminster Gazette conceding that the President's proposal "contains much sound sense," goes on to say: "But when he asks the Allies jointly to guarantee the territorial integrity of Russia, we are compelled to remark that America refuses to share not only in that guaranty, but in a guaranty of the integrity of other European states which are members of the League."

Rob Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart,
as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis,
croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia,
congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

RAVAGES OF COMMON COLDS ARE APPALLING

Is Most Prevalent of All Diseases and Causes More Deaths, Suffering and Decreased Efficiency Than All Wars and Epidemics.

COLDS ARE CURABLE AND PREVENTABLE

Instead of Being Treated as Trivial Affections, Colds Must Be Recognized as a Serious Menace to Health.

The common "cold" is the most prevalent of all present-day diseases and although vital statistics do not record the sum total of the ravages, leading authorities now state that the common, everyday "cold" is responsible for more deaths, suffering, insomnia, loss of work and decreased efficiency than all wars and other epidemics.

The word "cold" means an acute infection of the lining membranes of the nose, throat, tonsils and larger bronchial tubes. The "cold" may be even more extensive and amount to a general infection of the entire body. All of the breathing apparatus, excepting the smaller portion of the lungs, may become involved and as a matter of fact the disease may, and often does, spread to these, thus producing pneumonia.

THE SODA HABIT.

Probably more than one-third of all victims of so-called "indigestion" or acid "dyspepsia" who have the habit of taking saleratus or baking soda, or some other alkali which affords temporary relief, have ulcers of the stomach or duodenum. I do not mean that the soda or other alkali has anything to do with the causation of the ulcer, but merely that the ulcer (four times out of five it is in the duodenum, that portion of the small intestine just below or beyond the lower opening of the stomach, rather than in the stomach itself) is the cause of the "indigestion" or "dyspepsia" of which the troublesome acidity is one symptom. ## PITIFUL SCENES FOOD IN PORTS

European Emigrants in Terror Lest Some Affliction May Keep Them Out of U. S.

Bremen, Germany, Feb. 3.—Hundreds of emigrants who come to Bremen, Hamburg and Danzig to seek new homes in America are rejected before they can embark. Tragic scenes are numerous when ships' physicians announce the list of those barred because of disease or disability which would prevent admission to the United States.

One hundred home-seekers were rejected out of 600 who attempted to leave Bremen on one steamer recently. The physicians found one defective, but the rejection of one member of a family in many cases prevented the entire group from sailing for America.

The most pitiful of the tragedies occur in the breaking up of family groups when children are not allowed to travel alone are allowed to proceed. Weeping mothers among the rejected the other day tried to kiss the hands of the physicians in an effort to get them to alter their diagnoses, scared groups of huddled emigrants stood by in terror lest some technicality might also keep them off the steamer.

One of the most pitiful of an army surgeon and his 16-year-old son and a woman with a child in her arms, the boy and his mother, the woman came with her son by train to Bremen and pleaded for admission to the ship. Here, the physicians adhered to their original diagnosis, and the woman was compelled to remain with her son. In several cases one child in a family was allowed to travel, but the mother and father were not permitted to accompany them.

Declines To Accept $1,000 Dare To Prove He Can Cure Disease by Prayers.

Detroit, Feb. 3.—F. E. Bosworth, faith healer, is unwilling to submit his curative powers to the scientific test proposed by John F. Roehl, special inspector for the department of health. He admitted this to a reporter.

Roehl has made a standing offer that he will give to charity the last $1,000 he possesses if Bosworth will cure by prayer in ten days any germ disease that would not be remedied by nature itself in the same length of time. But Bosworth must go without, and even Bosworth must stay slightly bald. Mr. Roehl's offer included the replacement of the locks missing from the revivalist's head.

Insistent Questioning Needed. Bosworth, in conducting a series of meetings in a Cass avenue hall, and has been advertised as effecting cures of all kinds of ailments through the power of prayer.

"Yes," he said, "I accept his challenge. I shall keep right on preaching the power of faith in Jesus to cure the sick. I will demonstrate that power before any board of physicians or the board of health."

"But will you submit to the specific test proposed by Mr. Roehl?" "I may not know as much of anatomy as the physicians, and I am always glad to have their advice as diagnosticians, hygienists and to give up advice as to how to live. But the power to heal disease belongs to God. I can demonstrate it by the Bible."

Refuses Public Test. "But will you submit to a public test, such as proposed by Mr. Roehl?" again he was asked.

"Hundreds have stood here and testified that they or their relatives had been cured in this very hall," answered the evangelist. "Of course, I have no first-hand knowledge of these cases."

"But about the test, Mr. Bosworth, will you submit to a public test?" "No, I shall not," he replied. "This healing of a germ disease is, of course, ridiculous. Next Sunday, if Roehl persists, I shall take occasion—kindly, without rancor—to prove how mistaken he is, to give testimony by the hundreds of cases to the healing power of Jesus through prayer and a godly life."

"Then you positively refuse to submit to a public test?" "Yes," answered Bosworth.

SHORTAGE OF FUEL CAUSE OF THIEVERY

Hungarian Poor People Forced To Stealing Wood and Coal.

BUDAPEST, Feb. 3.—Many poor people of this city are being driven to wholesale thievery by the fuel shortage. The recent theft of 25 carloads of wood from one train of 100 carloads as it entered the city shows the extent to which the stealing is going on.

Wood is so scarce that when a wagon-load is driven through the streets people stop and gaze after it until it is out of sight.

Daring small boys are ever on the alert for a stray piece of wood or anything that will give heat at home. They scamp after every passing wood wagon, but are soon frightened away by long whips in the hands of two women who sit on guard astride the load.

The operation of unloading a ton of Hungary's inferior brown coal before a house attracts many neighbors, who make a pathetic picture as they watch basketful after basketful disappear into the coal bin of the more fortunate owner. Because of the urgency to obtain fuel, by dishonest means if honest ones are of no avail, the juvenile courts were never so crowded with youthful offenders.

The scarcity of fuel becomes more acute daily as the winter advances. The street railway service has been sharply curtailed, and people wait for hours exposed to the bitter cold. The worst operated American street car never tolerated such crowding.

Gas factories are provided with coal for only 24 hours at a time, and the gas is turned on now only at noon and after 6 o'clock. Only one light is permitted in a room, and not more than three rooms in a house or single apartment can be lighted at the same time. Even at the most expensive hotels there is no running hot water. ## EACH NEW TEST PROVES THE POWERS OF TANLAC

Statement of Frank Crossman Typical of What Is Being Accomplished Here by Master Medicine.

The gratifying results being obtained from the use of Tanlac is further evidenced in the case of Frank Crossman of 20 Park street, Hamilton, Ont. Mr. Crossman is a well-known clerk for the Steel Company of Canada, and is also a veteran of the recent world war.

"I have already told lots of others about the wonderful good Tanlac has done me," he continued, "and I'm only too glad to give the medicine my public endorsement. While serving overseas in France received a wound in the abdomen and was taken to the hospital for five months. When I returned home I was weak and rundown, and although my wound had healed my stomach was all out of order. I had no appetite and was formed in such quantities it pressed against my heart and made breathing very difficult for me. I also suffered a great deal from constipation, headaches and biliousness. My nerves were all upset and at night I was restless and wakeful.

"I kept seeing Tanlac so highly recommended I started taking it, and on the second bottle I noticed my appetite began to pick up. My food did me more good, and my whole system seemed to be building up. Well, sir, the third bottle found me greatly improved in every way, and feeling more like I ought to be. In all, I have taken six bottles of Tanlac, and it has fixed me up so fine I want to let others know what a great medicine it is."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

Pre-Heating Principle Wins Highest Endorsement

The Chalmers motor pre-heats its fuel. For three years, the pre-heating device has been a valuable Chalmers feature. It has helped make the Chalmers a famous car.

Now comes endorsement of the pre-heating principle from highest sources.

What Pre-Heating Does

The United-States Bureau of Standards finds that pre-heating the fuel, gives marked improvement in acceleration.

A committee of the Society of Automotive Engineers goes even further. It says that this principle gives—

- (1) Better combustion; decreased fuel consumption.
- (2) Decrease in the dilution of oil in the crank case.
- (3) Reduced carbon deposit in cylinders.
- (4) Higher engine power over longer periods between overhauling.

NEW ANAESTHETIC BETTER THAN COCAINE, THOUGH ITS NAME IS 47 LETTERS LONG

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Feb. 3.—It has remained for surgeons to deaden pain with 47 letters of the alphabet. These letters form the word "para-aminobenzoic-acid-ethyl-ortho-ethanol-hydrochloride." This is a new anaesthetic, better known as pro-cain, or nove-cain, which possesses all the pain deadening, but none of the habit-forming qualities of cocaine.

It was discovered in Germany early in the present century, but did not come into common usage until early in the war. Physicians of the University of Virginia Hospital were among the first to introduce the drug into this country, and for the past few years it has been used extensively in this institution for operations upon the eye, ear, nose and throat, and for major operations.

Some of its unusual properties were described today by Dr. J. N. Waddell. "The fact that nove-cain is ten times less poisonous, or toxic, than cocaine, makes it more desirable as a local anaesthetic," he said. "It is a synthetic benzene derivative, non-irritating in character, and quantities as high as seven and one-half grains may be administered without harmful effects. It produces no exhilaration, after being absorbed by the blood. Its after-effects are practically nil. In operations where large areas have to be injected with a local anaesthetic to block off pain impressions from the brain, doctors are always fearful of using a great quantity of cocaine on account of its harmful effects upon the heart and respiration."

SPLITTING OF LIGHT RAYS REVEALS STAR'S DIAMETER

PASADENA, Feb. 3.—Dr. George Ellery Hale, director of the Mount Wilson Observatory, near here, has given out an article describing the successful measuring at the observatory, December 13, of the star Betelgeuse, in the constellation of Orion, showing its diameter to be 300,000,000 miles.

"The stars are so remote that hitherto it has not been possible to measure their diameters, in spite of the fact that many stars must be much larger than the sun," Dr. Hale writes. "In his presidential address last August before the British Association for the Advancement of Science, Professor A. S. Eddington of Cambridge, remarked: 'Probably the greatest need of stellar astronomy at the present day, in order to make sure that our theoretical deductions are starting on the right lines, is some knowledge of measuring the apparent angular diameter of stars.'"

"He then went on to predict that the star with the greatest apparent diameter is almost certainly Betelgeuse, diameter 0.51 seconds of an arc."

"The result just obtained is a remarkable verification of this prediction. The measurement was made with the 100-inch Hooker telescope by Messrs. Pease and Anderson of the observatory staff."

"No telescope is powerful enough to measure accurately the extremely small angle subtended by a star. This very difficult and delicate task is rendered possible by a method devised by Professor Michelson, director of the Ryerson Physical Laboratory of the University of Chicago, and an associate of Mount Wilson observatory."

The article explains how a device based on the phenomenon of interference of light, called an "interferometer," was attached to the 100-inch telescope at Mt. Wilson and tested.

"After further improvements," the article continues, "the Michelson device was applied to the measurement of Betelgeuse. The measured angular diameter is 0.51 seconds of an arc, in surprisingly close agreement with Professor Eddington's calculation. While this is a preliminary value which will be improved by subsequent measures, it is probably correct within 10 per cent."

"To learn the linear diameter of the star we must know its distance from the earth. The three available measures of the distance of Betelgeuse are not in very close agreement, but the average is probably fairly reliable. Using the table and Right Hon. Arthur Meighen will occupy the prime minister's chair. Hon. N. W. Rowell, who sat on Sir Robert's left, will also move down the House. Hon. Martin Burrell has left the parliamentary arena, and his seat will probably be occupied by Hon. Rupert Wignmore. Right Hon. A. L. Sifton has succumbed to the illness from which he suffered so long. Since last session, also, Lieut.-Col. McLeod, who sat on the Government side, and Joseph Gladu, who supported the Opposition have passed on to the majority. There will, too, be three new faces—the successful candidates in Yale, B. C. East Elgin and West Peterboro.

The tariff revision will be paramount among Government business to be submitted during the session. The Government proposals in this regard are not expected to be drastic. They will be based essentially on the protection and encouragement of home industries; the securing of adequate revenues; development of inter-imperial trade and of Canadian national resources. Since last session, a committee of cabinet, headed by Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, has toured the country and collected evidence. The committee has since been busy in the preparation of its recommendations for the cabinet. The Government will eventually make its proposals known to the House in the budget speech.

With the whole tariff thus thrown into the arena, the budget debate may be expected this year to be long and result probably in some close divisions. Throughout the session, in fact, there is likelihood of keen fighting. It will be the fifth session of the Thirteenth Parliament of Canada.
