I. L. P. CONFERENCE AT HAMILTON STRONG FOR JOINT ACTION

This meeting of the elected and defeated candidates of the Independent Labor party, with the Provincial Executive of the I.L.P. has decided to co-operate with the United Farmers of Ontario in the formation of a Government in the Provincial Legislature.

The object of such conference is to draft a program of legislative action agreeable to both the I.L.P. and U.F.O. members. This program will be submitted to the elected and defeated candidates of the Labor and U.F.O. groups at Toronto on Wednesday, October 29th, and after that to a joint meeting of elected I.L.P. and U.F.O. candidates at the headquarters of the United Farmers in Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—The above is the statement issued by the Independent Labor Party at its Hamilton meeting on Saturday. Mr. J. T. Marks, Provincial organizer of the I.L.P., at the Labor Temple yesterday made the following announcement: "A.F.O.-Labor coalition is a fact. Its policy, as soon as the Government has been formed and the Legislature can meet, will be to introduce progressive legislation and force Liberal and Conservative alike to the mark and show where they stand."

SIR ADAM SILENT ON MATTER

Sir Adam Beck was at his home in London yesterday. He declined to be interviewed upon the political situation in Ontario, and when asked if he would accept the leadership of the United Farmers said that it would be time enough to answer that question when the place had been offered to him.

DAYS OF WORRY AT OTTAWA BYELECTIONS TEST UNIONISM

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Parliament is pre-occupied to-day. In five ridings located in five of the nine provinces, public opinion is being tested on Federal issues. Naturally interest in the probable results somewhat transcends that in any subject before the House, not excluding the G.T.R. bill which is rapidly reaching the critical stage.

VERDICT ALREADY IN; LOAN ADJUDGED GREAT BUY

First Five Subscriptions at $25,000,000. Local Headquarters Urged to Keep Up to Pace. INCREASE THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

It should further be said in regard to the Victory Loan meeting at the Star theatre Mr. Ferguson, who is the Vice chairman of the provincial executive, among other things alluded to the beneficial results of the previous loans, showing how it helped to keep the wheels of industry going, trade channels filled and the impetus derived from it permeated through the whole economic life of the country.

Splendid Baden Meeting The best meeting in the district was that in the Township Hall at Baden on Saturday evening. Mr. J. P. Livingston was chairman. Addresses were delivered by Mr. Tate, Rev. Mr. Harton of Waterloo, and Mr. Fleming. The address by Rev. Mr. Harton was particularly impressive.

Mr. Don Pequegnat also helped with a solo. (Continued on Page Two)

GREAT VICTORY LOAN DRIVE LAUNCHED THIS MORNING

Canvassers on the Job To Get Subscriptions for an Investment that Ensures a Good Return in Money and a Bigger One in Contentedness.

Early this morning an army of canvassers stretching from Atlantic to Pacific went out to battle. They were the great Canadian Victory Loan Corps and they had the big objective "three hundred million dollars" to take. On the taking of this strategic amount depends to a great extent the continued prosperity of the Dominion of Canada.

Every citizen in the country can do more than cheer and wait—not one but can assist in the victory can aid this army to go "over the top."

Canadians never lost a gun, and never failed to take an objective that was in France. Will Canadians in Canada not measure up to the standard set over there?

The Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada offers for sale $200,000,000 in Gold Bonds. These bonds are in four denominations—$50, $100, $500, $1000 and are offered at par. The interest, which is at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent, is payable every six months without charge at any chartered bank. The bonds are issued in two maturities of 5 years or 15 years just as the subscriber prefers. Payment may be made in full at the time of application or in installments at any chartered bank. The installments are as follows: 10 per cent at the time of application, 20 per cent on December 31, 1919; 20 per cent on January 31, 1920; 20 per cent on February 29, 1920 and 31.21 per cent on March 31. This last payment is made up of the balance of the principal and interest at 5 1/2 per cent, from November 1 on the installments. The first interest will be paid on May 1 when a full half year's interest will be forthcoming to all.

The outstanding feature of this Victory Loan is that "every dollar will be spent in Canada." The fact that none of the money will go outside the country will be a welcome bit of news to all, for this assures Canada a continuance of the splendid prosperity she has enjoyed for some time. The money from the Victory Loan is to be used to finish defraying the expenses of demobilization, to keep up the military hospitals, to re-establish soldiers in civil life and to establish credits with overseas countries so that they may purchase Canada's surplus food stuffs and manufactured goods. The Victory Loan is the connecting link between the war and the peace that is to remain, it is hoped, forever.

MEETING HELD YESTERDAY. A fitting preliminary to the campaign was held yesterday afternoon in the Star Theatre. An audience representative of all classes filled the house. The chairman of the meeting was Mr. George C. H. Lang, who filled the post very acceptably and who commended the citizens for coming out to the meeting, thereby displaying their interest in the campaign. It was desirable to have the co-operation of all, which if secured, would ensure North Waterloo going over the top. He recalled the success of the previous campaign which proved that North Waterloo can outdo all others if only the proper efforts are supplied. Regarding the loan, there was no doubt about its soundness as a business proposition. No better investment could be made. The chief speaker at the meeting was Mr. G. Tower Ferguson of Toronto. Referring to the reconstruction period in Canada he drew an analogy between the days of the prophet Nehemiah when he rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem. All young Canadians should become bondholders, thereby showing their confidence in the future prosperity of the country.

THREE MEMBERS OFFERED TO MAKE ROOM FOR BECK O'NEILL OF TORONTO, HALCROW OF HAMILTON, HOGARTH OF PT. ARTHUR

(Special to Record) TORONTO, Oct. 27.—Sir Adam Beck has been offered the opportunity of running in three seats. Such is the report that has been circulating during the past few days. It is further stated that the Hydro Knight has declined to see any of the Hydro First members-elect retire in his favor, but that if supported by the new Government, he will carry on at the head of the provincial Hydro.

It is interesting to note that the insistence that Sir Adam should continue his work as head of the Hydro does not rest with any one party or political group. Offers of a seat have been made by members-elect of three of the four political groups, while the fourth, the U.F.O., have by unanimous motion assured Sir Adam of their whole-hearted support in everything he said and did as Hydro Chairman.

John O'Neill, Liberal member for Southeast Toronto, is understood to have been the first to offer Sir Adam a seat. This offer, Mr. O'Neill modestly admits, he made when he met Sir Adam on a train enroute to Chicago last Tuesday. "You would be elected in any constituency in Canada, where you put up a contest," said Mr. O'Neill to Sir Adam.

The second offer is said to have been made by a Labor member, Controller Halcrow, of Hamilton East, who was far more downhearted over the defeat of Sir Adam than he would have been by his own. The Labor

WATERLOO NEWS RECORD

LARGE CONGREGATION ATTEND CONSECRATION SERVICES

CHURCH OF THE HOLY SAVIOUR CELEBRATE HISTORICAL EVENT.

The impressive consecration ceremony at the Church of the Holy Saviour yesterday was attended by a congregation that occupied every available seat in the commodious chapel who followed eagerly the beautiful service from beginning to end. The conspicuous occasion was marked by the presence of the Right Rev. David Williams, D.D., Bishop of Huron, who in his official capacity accepted the petition of the church wardens, and parishioners and also performed the rites of consecration.

It was a momentous moment in the history of the church and one that will be remembered with extreme pleasure and satisfaction in years to come. The preacher of the day was Bishop Williams who took as his text, "Christ the firm foundation," and in an eloquent and forceful address he urged his congregation above all to build their characters that they would be loving models to other men. The text was an interesting one and one that was most fitting for the occasion and his offering to local affairs, conditions during war time, and the world in general rounded out a sermon that was one of the most appropriate ever heard in St. Saviour's. During the entire service the choir of the church ably assisted and following the sermon they rendered in most excellent style, "Unfold, ye Portals Everlasting," by Gounod. In the Bishop's remarks he made reference to the fact that the freeing of the debt of the church was made possible by a generous donation of a departed adherent of the congregation.

IMPRESSIVE REOPENING EVANGELICAL CHURCH

SACRED EDIFICE TASTILY REDECORATED AND BEAUTIFIED.

The reopening services at the Waterloo Evangelical Church yesterday were largely attended by appreciative audiences both morning and evening. Rev. S. M. Hauch of Crediton, pastor at the time the church was built, preached two very acceptable sermons. His morning message was based on Rev. 3:8 and I Cor. 16:9. He said that while Christianity and the church have been considered failures by some people, yet the fact this appeal upon appeal for help had been made to and been met by the church. This was a recognition of the church's power. There are many open doors for the church to enter. This is manifested by present conditions in all forms of Christian activities and these doors are to be entered by united service, by our means and by prayer.

In the evening Rev. Hauch used as a text Mark 4:11. Peace came to the disciples of Jesus Christ by way of the storm and waves. The disciples, however, were led to see in the storm and the calm which followed, the power of Christ. This power is seen also in nature, in light and darkness, and in the heavens, thus teaching us lessons to-day of trust in that power to sustain in all times of storm and calm.

Mr. Frank Wegenast, of Brampton, inspired the audiences three solos touchingly and effectively rendered. "I'll enter the open door," "Only a little way" and "Impatient Heart be still."

Mr. Robt. Frizell rendered a most pleasing cello solo and the choir with Mr. John Brugeman as Director and Miss Vera Brugeman as Organist, rendered in their usual effective manner two anthems "Open ye the gates and 'Sull Still with thee."

The whole day was one full of blessing and joy to the congregation because of being enabled to worship in the Temple of God which has been so tastily renovated and beautified.

Mr. W. Vavernick left yesterday for Detroit to spend a few days.

Dr. Gordon Brain of Detroit Mich. was a week end visitor at the house of Mr. and Mrs. W. Conrad.

RECEPTION TO YOUNG COUPLE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Shantz Erb St. was the scene of a happy gathering on Saturday evening when a large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Shantz, gathered to extend to them hearty congratulations on their recent marriage. Needless to say the guests present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent in games and music after which dainty refreshments were served.

REV. DR. SCHAEFER D. D. PREACHED FESTIVAL SERMON.

St. Johns Lutheran Church held two large congregations yesterday, when Rev. Dr. Schaefer D. D. the new college professor preached two eloquent and able sermons. The evening service was the annual sermon to the members of the Women's Missionary Society and the words of the speaker were forceful and full of inspiring thought.

The choir of the church rendered special music for the occasion. HAS PICTURE OF 118TH At the Victory Loan meeting in the Town Hall this evening, Pop Phil expects to show a moving picture of the 118th Battalion.

TRUE "LOVE" NEVER SMOOTH SAILING.

True love is never smoother sailing. This was exemplified here a few days ago but the rough road was not the fault of either the august groom or the winsome bride. It was part and parcel of the unfortunate incident's met with now and again. It is said a certain young couple were both ready to go through the solemn ceremony before the minister. The latter, however, kindly informed the prospective groom and bride that a marriage certificate and the also consent of the bride's mother were necessary; the young lady is under the age limit and therefore the parents' approval is essential. But as the mother does not reside next door but quite a distance from here, a post-shipment was necessary. The distance was covered and the assistance and good word of the mother were sought, and fortunately secured. The return to the city was made and another appearance before the ministerial official put in. Now was the marriage certificate missing this time. All was well and before the second last hour of the day the young man and lady were entitled to be called groom and bride. A midnight dinner followed and the happiness of the bridal couple shared by friends.

HYDRO MEETING CALLED BY CHURCH

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Mayor Church, as acting president of the Ontario Hydro Ass'n., has sent out the following call for a great Hydro rally in Toronto on Wednesday, October 29, at 2 p.m.:

"There will be a special general meeting of all municipal and public service organizations, interested in Hydro developments along the lines of both power expansion and railway construction, in the City Hall at Toronto, on Wednesday, October 29, at 2 p.m. "A very considerable majority of the men elected have pledged their support to the Hydro movement, but it will be necessary for us to present our views as to the administration of the Hydro to whatever party or parties may form the new government."

Bienan-Lipps

The marriage took place on Saturday of Mr. Reuben Bienan of this city and Miss Hilja Lipps of Walsley. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Schmieder at St. Matthew's parsonage. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Zuber. After the ceremony a wedding dinner took place at the groom's home, 23 Richmond avenue.

Case on Today. In the County criminal court to-day which was still sitting this afternoon, the theft charge against William Lockridge of Elmira, was heard.

ELECTION STOLEN DECLARES LABOR IN TEMISKAMING

COBALT, Oct. 27.—That the Temiskaming election had been stolen, that daylight robbery had been practiced, and that a recount would be demanded and perhaps a protest entered, were statements made by a Labor meeting called to discuss the political situation. A silver collection was taken up, to pay the expenses for a recount which will be asked for if the official count shows Capt. Tom Magladery, Conservative, elected. This official majority is 123.

Alex. Montgomery, the Labor Candidate, who ran second said that "strange things" had happened in the election, but J. P. McGuire, of the Miners' Union made the deliberate charge and declared that the election had been stolen if his reports were correct. H. McLennan, urged an immediate meeting of Labor in the Federal riding to put up a candidate for the late Frank Cochrane's seat. He said the contest would likely be held on November 27.

PHYSICIAN DIES CANADIAN BY BIRTH

MILDMAY, Oct. 27.—Dr. Peter Tschirhart died a few days ago in Chicago after having been an invalid for about eight years. His disability was the result of an accident on a Chicago Street in which his back was so seriously injured that he became completely helpless and had to remain in a reclining position continuously. He was brought on a stretcher to Formosa, Bruce Co., his native place, a few years ago in the hope that perfect rest might bring at least partial restoration. But no improvement came and he was taken back to Chicago for special treatment which, however, proved of little benefit. The remains of the deceased were brought to Mildmay on Saturday and were taken thence on this morning to Formosa where the burial took place after a requiem mass in the Catholic church. The deceased was an alumnus of St. Jerome's College at Kitchener.

GIVES UP ATTEMPT

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—German opera in New York has succumbed to public opinion. There was no performance at the Lexington Avenue Opera House Sunday night nor will there be one to-night. Attendance at Saturday's matinee and evening performances sounded the death knell. The huge house gaped awkwardly with empty seats. In other words, the show was a "fizzer."

STORM TAKES THREE LIVES

QUEBEC, Oct. 27.—Three men lost their lives in a storm on the St. Lawrence River about five miles from Quebec harbor during the night of Friday and Saturday. The fourth victim was rescued in an unconscious condition after being lashed to the mast of the vessel for an entire night.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—With sirens screeching, bombs bursting, fire apparatus dashing up and down streets, and sundry other demonstrations this city to-day started after ninety million dollars which optimistic ones expect to reach for the Victory Loan of 1919. The special subscriptions committee has announced ten big amounts which are one hundred per cent. more than in 1918.

LESSON IN SCIENTIFIC COMPLEXION RENEWING

Everyone has a beautiful skin underneath the one exposed to view. Bear that in mind and it will be easier to understand the correct principle in acquiring a lovely complexion. Nature is constantly shedding the top skin in flaky particles like dandruff, only much smaller in size. In abnormal conditions, or in advancing age, these particles are not shed rapidly as in robust youth. The longer they remain the more soiled or faded they become—that's the immediate cause of a "bad complexion." It has been discovered that ordinary mercerized wax, to be had at any drug store, will absorb these worn-out particles. The absorption, while hastening Nature's work, goes on gradually enough to cause no inconvenience. In a weak or two the transformation is complete. The fresh, healthy-hued, youthful under skin is then wholly in evidence. You who are not satisfied with your complexion should get an ounce of mercerized wax and try this treatment. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.

MONAGHAN MINES THE "HUMOR VEIN"

There's a merchant in Philadelphia who is a genuine optimist at least, of humor buried somewhere in the makeup of every human being and only awaits bringing to light by a skillful appeal to their humorous sense. That man is T. F. Monaghan, druggist of Twenty-ninth street and Allegheny avenue, who is so firmly convinced of this that he has applied it to all angles of his business.

His advertisements, window displays showards and counter trims all bear testimony to his faith in the comedy of humor buried in every man. "Every man has an ingrained humorous vein in him if you only know how to reach it," says Monaghan. "No matter how serious his business may be or what weight the problems with which his mind is wrestling, the average man looks with relief to anything that will make him smile or help to show up the brighter side of life. That is why I always make it a point to appeal to this sunnier side, and I believe that I've been very successful in doing so, greatly to the advantage of my business."

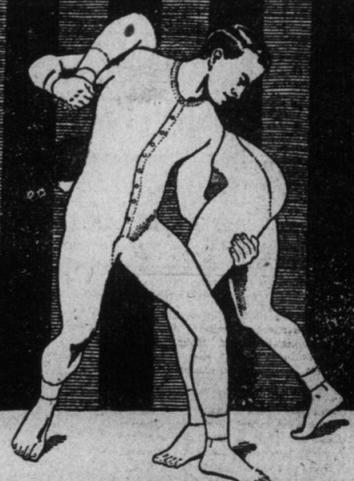

Monaghan's advertisements, run in a neighborhood newspaper, always take the form of mingles containing a humorous allusion to some kind of ailment and inviting the reader to make a trial of his remedies.

PROHIBITION BILL TO BE UP TODAY

G. T. R. BILL TO GO TO SENATE THIS WEEK.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—The Government's legislation in regard to prohibition is likely to be taken up the House to-morrow. The two bills stand for second reading. One strengthens the Doleary Act and the other confers upon the provinces the right of going "bone dry" if by plebiscite they declare in favor of it. In the Ontario when the bills were first introduced a number of Ontario Conservative members insisted upon the measure being held up till after the provincial elections. Some of them were opposed to the legislation being gone ahead with at all at this season and may take occasion to express their views to-morrow. It is not considered likely however that they will actually vote against the measure, though the house might put off the session.

The Merchants' Column

Edited by Mansfield F. House

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general. All phases of store management—buying, advertising and retail salesmanship—will be dealt with, not these in a general way, but in a practical way, with descriptions of methods actually in use by successful merchants.

MONAGHAN MINES THE "HUMOR VEIN"

There's a merchant in Philadelphia who is a genuine optimist at least, who believes that there is a streak of humor buried somewhere in the makeup of every human being and only awaits bringing to light by a skillful appeal to their humorous sense. That man is T. F. Monaghan, druggist of Twenty-ninth street and Allegheny avenue, who is so firmly convinced of this that he has applied it to all angles of his business.

His advertisements, window displays showboards and counter trims all bear testimony to his faith in the comic side of human nature. "Every man has an ingrained humorous vein in him if you only know how to reach it," says Monaghan. "No matter how serious his business may be or what weight the problems with which he is wrestling, the average man looks with relief to anything that will make him smile or help to show up the brighter side of life. That is why I always make it a point to appeal to this sunnier side, and I believe that I've been very successful in doing so, greatly to the advantage of my business."

"REASON WHY" HELP WANTED ADVERTISING

Gimbel Brothers, New York, took a "flier" in the help market with a three column advertisement in a New York Sunday paper, explaining the advantages of department store work. The Sunday advertisement reads:

"Women and young girls earn highest salaries in years at big stores. 'New York's' great stores have become the most attractive places to work that women can find for a number of reasons:

"First Hours are attractive—9 a.m. to 5.30 p.m., with Saturdays off during July and August. Liberal vacations with pay and convenient rest hours during the day.

"Second. Transportation is easy, stores being located in the best neighborhoods and in fine modern, fireproof buildings.

"Third. Associations are very congenial, bringing women and girls into contact with shoppers who represent the best people in New York and with fellow-employees of high character.

"Fourth. Women working in factories are doing work that is not congenial; women at home who want to earn money, or young people just starting in will find store work as saleswomen most interesting and a valuable education.

"Fifth. As to salaries, it is said stores are paying highest wages and

PROHIBITION BILL TO BE UP TODAY

G. T. R. BILL TO GO TO SENATE THIS WEEK.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—The Government's legislation in regard to prohibition is likely to be taken up the House to-morrow. The two bills stand for second reading. One strengthens the Doherty Act and the other confers upon the provinces the right of going "bone dry" if by plebiscite they declare in favor of it.

When the bills were first introduced a number of Ontario Conservative members insisted upon the measure being held up till after the provincial elections. Some of them were opposed to the legislation being gone ahead with at all at this season and may take occasion to express their views to-morrow. It is not considered

WHAT SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION IS.

Fire departments are constantly calling attention to the large number of fires caused by spontaneous combustion. These are especially common in flour mills and grain elevators, but there are also many in factories of every kind. And many of the fires listed as "cause unknown" are undoubtedly to be added to those due to spontaneous combustion.

The bureau of mines, United States department of agriculture, recently had an exhibit at which an explosion of flour was produced by spontaneous combustion in a model elevator. The men in charge of the government's exhibit were asked to tell why under certain circumstances flour, coal or an oiled rag catches fire without contact with anything

STORES FEATURE SERVICE PEDDLERS CAN'T GIVE

In some towns more than others the transient or house-to-house competitor cut into the sales noticeably. At one time house-to-house vendors of corsets sold to many of the women. This was once true of Laramie, Wyo. According to Ginn & Hunter, the women used to believe that they were getting advantage of economical prices. They could not feel that they were getting expert service, because the women who peddled the corsets were not trained or even experienced as retail sellers.

Therefore, the store counteracted the competition by playing up to the very limit the expert fitting service of the store's corset department salespeople. Then they sold brands that the women were fitted to recognize as standard. They enlisted the doctors who sent many women who had peculiar needs in the corset line. As these women were fitted satisfactorily they became advertisers for the store. Now the peddler has become a weak competitor of the store.

THIS STORE STARTS WITH THE BABIES

The Derge-Bodenhausen Clothing Company, of St. Joseph, Mo., believes in catching their customers young. In fact, they make every effort to attract their attention when they are only a few hours old.

This doesn't mean that the firm gathers up the babies and brings them down to the store nursery or anything of that kind, though they would undoubtedly do it if it were necessary. But they are content to do the preliminary "missionary" work through the parents on the principle that the hand that holds the purse strings is the hand that rules the sales.

Every day the store secures, through arrangement with the city Board of Health, a record of the boy babies born within the last twenty-four hours and even before these notices appear in the local papers the following letter is sent to the mother of the new infant:

Dear Madam—Under separate cover we had sent you by the Baby Mine Publishing Company a book called "Baby Mine". No doubt you will find valuable information on every page of this book, and we trust that same will be of service to you.

Each of these letters is personally signed by Roy C. Bretz, vice president of the Derge-Bodenhausen Company, and the "Baby-Mine" book, arriving a few days later always proves of interest to the mother because it contains directions for feeding, clothing and caring for the new arrival. Naturally this attention is appreciated and inclines the father of the family to drop in at the D-B store the next time he needs anything in the line of clothing.

But, while this attitude on the part of the grown-ups is distinctly pleasing to Derge-Bodenhausen, it isn't what they are striving for. They are after trade high will last for many years to come—all during the lifetime of the baby, the boy and the man, in fact.

As the second step in the campaign they send the baby, when he is a few months old, a tiny pair of trousers cut to fit the average infant of that age, and many mothers have reprobated by having the child's picture taken in "his to the boys" department where you will receive a birthday present we have for you.

Extending you many happy returns of the day, we are,

Yours truly,

From this time on the "live list" of sales prospects and letters are sent to him and to his parents from time to time, calling their attention to various timely lines and offerings.

Above the time, according to the company's card-index file, when the boy is ready for his first pair of long trousers he is sent the letter which appears below, the address "Dear Sir" being a touch which has helped wonderfully, because every boy likes to think that others realize his arrival at the estate of manhood:

Dear Sir—It has been some time since we wrote you. Nevertheless, we hope you are still one of our customers. You won't remember, but we sent you first pants (ask Dad) and now you are ready for your "first long".

We would like very much to have the privilege of introducing to you our men's clothing department, just for old times' sake.

This letter, at first glance, does not appear to possess much "selling punch". There isn't a single mention of price or even of quality in it. But it has produced exceptional results because of its friendly tone and the fact that it takes for granted the point that the recipient will have no further use for the boy's department. From the moment he receives this letter the boy doesn't give his parents a moment's peace until they invest in his first pair of long trousers—and it's a practical certainty that these will come from Derge-Bodenhausen.

The purchase of "D-B" clothing has thus become a habit, the former baby is trading in the young man's section and everybody is happy.

hot. Here is the explanation:

The carbon, which is the principal constituent of flour, coal or oil combines with the oxygen in the air. It is a true chemical combination and, like most such combinations, produces heat. The heat encourages the process to become more rapid, thus increasing the rate until the point is reached at which it bursts into flames. In connection with this process a few strange features have been observed, features that are difficult to explain. For instance, if the air is moist, the oxidation takes place more perfectly, seemingly moisture helps the oxidation. Again, if the substance oxidizing is in a closed or confined place, especially if this place be dark, the process is more certain. This seems contrary to what one would expect, but it is a fact that either a greasy rag thrown into a dark corner or closed closet is more likely to catch fire than if it be left in an open place.

Of course what seems like spontaneous combustion is not always spontaneous, but is caused by an electric spark igniting the already heated or oxidizing matter. That is why in flour mills, machine shops, coal storage bins and the bunkers of ships great care is necessary in having all electric connections in good order, for the tiniest spark is often sufficient to start a conflagration.

The Prince in Canada We are about to disregard the advice of the man who said, "Never explain—Your friends don't need it and your enemies won't believe you anyway."

The Record commented some days ago upon the visit of the Prince to Canada and the fulsome adulation showered upon him in certain quarters. The article was not written for the Record, and its appearance in this column almost coincident with the visit of the Prince to the city was accidental, and inopportune. We would not willingly be guilty of the appearance of discourtesy to the Prince or any other guest of the city. It was written some weeks ago and therefore could have no reference to the conduct of our own people. It was prompted by the desire of Toronto's Mayor to spend $200,000 of the citizens' money in decorating the streets and by a knowledge of some instances of toadyism and servility which must have amused if they did not disgust the very human and level-headed Prince himself. If the vigor of our language offended the national sentiment of any reader, we regret it. It was not so intended. The implication in the article that the worship of titles has still a great hold upon democratic people was not personal to the Prince but was directed to the monarchical system in general.

As we said before, the Prince of Wales is himself a pleasing young man with great personal attractiveness. Indeed were it not for the amiable qualities of the royal family and its recognition of the growth of democratic feeling, the monarchy would have disappeared ere this.

If therefore our little article showed discourtesy, we are sorry. If it proved us democratic as opposed to the aristocratic, we plead guilty. If it implied a free Canadianism as against a subservient imperialism, we have no apology to make.

And Thou Too, Mr. Euler. Alas! the only fly in our ointment is that the Telegraph no longer likes Mr. Euler. True, it says it regrets it exceedingly and that it chastens him more in sorrow than in anger. It speaks of the years when it used to support him and leaves him only as a painful patriotic duty.

Just so! And it might have added that it began to see its duty on the day when he became connected with the Journal and later with the Record. It was only a coincidence that, while the Journal added 1400 subscribers, largely at the expense of the Bean Chronicle, so grew the Telegraph's patriotic duty to wield the personal hammer upon the unfortunate member for N. Waterloo. Duty and dollars have more than an alliterative affinity in the mind of the Mr. Bean who took more out of the war than he put into it.

Despair? No! But we still hope. Indeed we cannot but remember that the love of the Telegraph of late years is fatal in its effects. As we view the depressing slaughter of the unfortunate candidates who enjoyed the support of the Telegraph, we become reconciled to the loss we have sustained. The Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

Fouling His Own Nest As the maid who becomes mistress is usually the greatest oppressor of the class to which she formerly belonged, so did the Biehn—Bean befool the people of the same origin as his own, in order, forsooth, to prove his loyalty to British institutions. What a woful lack of vision, what a want of real patriotism, what a failure to realize that here were a people who had no other desire than to do their duty as Canadians and that to take that for granted would have been not only expedient but just. The attitude of the last five years of the D. T. is almost entirely responsible for the unfortunate discord in this city. The false reports that have gone out from Kitchener and the malicious falsehoods repeated of some of its citizens can never be overtaken.

Far-Fetched Conclusions The Telegraph speaks of free institutions and of our desire to destroy them. The folly of the statement is apparent when it attempts to prove it by quoting our preference for democratic ideals rather than for those that are aristocratic. If it strove to inculcate Canadianism rather than Imperialism, democracy rather than autocracy and aristocratic traditions, it would be more patriotic and wield a wider influence.

From the Statesman For the benefit of the Telegraph, let me quote a few lines written by a good Canadian born in the British Isles. He thinks he can speak freely in a free country:

As a monarchical country, Canada must make friends on a republican continent, and the task will not be made easier by a stupid insistence upon loyalty to the monarchical idea where the intelligence of the individual revolts against the whole system as incompatible with a new world in which the idea of Democracy prevails. More loyal than the King, some Canadian politicians, who assault men who decline to join in their fetish worship, use the flag and the throne to cover their disloyalty to their country and fellow-men.

The Nigger In the Fence Mr. Biehn and his chief employe, who is also his Master, should discard once and for all their off-time grotesque patriotism of the last few years. It is unreal, it has no depth; it comes from shallow thinking which has no real understanding of the principles of democracy and liberty and makes its impression only by reason of the lung-power of its vociferation and the prejudice which it invokes.

The patriotism of the Telegraph can find no more apt comparison than that presented by the river Platte, which is 1500 miles long, 100 miles wide at the mouth, and two feet deep.

THE PORK AND BEANS SCANDAL

The Spanish-American war had its "embalmed beef" episode, but the pork and beans scandal of the Canadian canners and soldiers does not seem to have had the charge of embalming included in the transaction. The allegation made in Parliament, which was followed by arrangements for strict inquiry into all the facts, is that "the beans were rotten and there was no pork at all," the place of the beans having been taken up by pebbles which were not only unpalatable, but broke the teeth of the soldiers who tried to eat them for beans.

Against the accusation by a member of Parliament who oratorically developed the sordidness of shipping decomposed beans mixed with pebbles to soldiers deserving of the best the country could send, was the answer of a member of the Cabinet that he knew of no contracts with the particular canning interest named as the culprit. Offsetting this, however, was the statement of a government inspector who had at the close of one day for- midden the canning of any material then ready for sealing, only to find the same material in the chutes when work was ready to be resumed next morning.

It was estimated that in a contract for 80,000,000 cans of porkless pork and beans, if there were only five pebbles in each can, the aggregate would amount to carloads of unpalatable stone paid for at the high price of beans. War contracts unfortunately may have a peculiar susceptibility to such tangencies but a diet of decomposed beans and pebbles for soldiers seems to be striving for a place beyond the limits of tolerance.

It is apparent that Canada is somewhat unfortunate in her experience with war operations, beginning with what was perilously close to a national scandal over munition contracts, then a serious difference with returned service men, especially the disabled veterans over governmental assistance. What has a worse tone than either, perhaps, is the charge just made in Parliament that carloads of unfit food were shipped to the men at the front after the Government had paid a good stiff war price for it.—Flint Journal.

CAPTAIN COOK FEELS FINE NOW

Veteran Conductor Praises Tanlac

"A few bottles of Tanlac has made me feel just like a new man," was the statement made by Capt. F. M. Cooke, residing at 144 East Winifred St., Paul, Minn., recently. Captain Cooke has been a conductor on the Great Northern Railroad for fifteen years, and is one of the most popular men in the service of the Company. "For years," continued Captain Cooke, "I suffered from stomach trouble and had scarcely any appetite, and what little I ate disagreed with me so that I would become terribly nauseated. Gas would form on my stomach and effect my heart so I could hardly breathe. I had terrible headaches that would last for two or three weeks at a time and nearly drive me wild, and grab hold of something to keep from falling. My nerves got in such bad shape I could sleep very little, and I would get up in the morning feeling dull and heavy and all run down."

"Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good, and I kept getting worse all the time. A few weeks ago some one suggested that I try Tanlac and I got a bottle and began taking it, and after taking two bottles I felt a great deal better. I have a fine appetite now, and what I eat agrees with me perfectly. Gas has quit forming in my stomach and I am not troubled with shortness of breath. I never have any more headaches or dizzy spells and can sleep fine, and get up in the morning feeling full of life and energy. I never felt better in my life, and feel as well as the boys. I am very grateful for what this Tanlac has done for me."

The Widow's Son

By Mrs. E. Southworth

As soon as they landed, Mr. Powis leaving all their effects at the custom house, called a cab and put his wife and daughter into it, and gave the order:

"To the Queen's Hotel."

"You see the great English sea port for the first time, by gaslight my dear," said Mrs. Powis to Lily May, "but to-morrow you will see it from the most favorable point of view from the daylight."

CHAPTER XXXV.
REUNION.

The next morning, in a private parlor of the Queen's Hotel, a pleasant party of three sat down to a nice breakfast. It consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Powis and Lily May. They had slept well, had risen refreshed, and were in excellent spirits. Even Lily May was elated with the idea that she had got to the end of her voyage so that the next move would be to turn around and go home again.

At another time under other circumstances she would have desired to see all that was worth looking at in Liverpool, and then run up to London to see the Tower of Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral and perhaps extend her tour into Scotland and the Highlands, and Heaven knows where else.

But now she was only anxious to embark on the first steamer and go back to America. She was hungry, thirsty, faint and sick for home and friends.

"Papa, dear," she said, as she divided her attention between the breakfast table and the bay window which looked down upon the busy street with its gay shops and strange folk—papa, dear, have you inquired when the next steamer leaves for New York?"

"You spoiled, impatient little woman I know with out inquiring, the sailing days of the ocean steamers from this port are fixed. This is Saturday morning and the next sailing is quite crowded. We could not have got a passage in her even if we had got in yesterday morning, instead of last night. The next steamer sails on Wednesday."

"Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday—four days to wait, papa Oh, dear!"

"They will give you an opportunity for seeing London."

"Oh, indeed, I don't want to see London, papa—at least not this time, I want to go back. And besides if we were to go to London, we might not get back in time. We might miss the steamer. Oh, no, dear papa, please let me stay here, where I can watch the ocean (it is the road home, you know—) until we embark upon it," pleaded Lily May.

"And by the way Arthur, would it not be best if you should see at once whether we can get passage in the next steamer? They are very crowded at this season, and staterooms are apt to be taken long in advance," said Mrs. Powis.

"Yes, I will do so at once. And Lily May, my pet, when we have once secured our passage we may safely run up to London and spend two whole days there," said Mr. Powis.

And as he had now finished breakfast he left the table and went to make the necessary inquiries in person. Mrs. Powis and Lily May withdrew their chairs from the table and went and sat within the bay window to look down upon the unfamiliar street with its passing throngs of strange faces.

Mr. Powis went down to the office and to the clerk's desk around which was the usual ever-changing little group of busy men and hinders. Some one was asking questions of the clerk, and so Mr. Powis waited his turn.

"Who was it you wanted?" inquired the clerk of the questioner.

"Sir William Wynne Llewellyn, sir, of Rhydyddis, of Cardigan shire, Wales," answered the man touching his hat.

Arthur Powis, with a start turned to look at the stranger, who had named the very young baronet that was the next heir, falling Lily May, to the American Llewellyn estate.

The questioner was a respectable-looking, middle-aged person in a footman's livery.

"Sir William Wynne Llewellyn is here," answered the clerk.

"Then will you please send this note up to him, sir?"

It does not require an answer," said the footman, laying an unmistakable billet-doux upon the desk, and touching his hat as he retired.

"Did I understand you to say that Sir William Wynne Llewellyn is at present in the house?" inquired Arthur Powis.

"Yes, sir, the baronet always stops here when he comes to this city," was the reply.

Arthur Powis drew two cards from his pocket, wrote a few words in addition to his name, put the cards in a small envelope, directed it, and handed it to the clerk, saying: "When you send this note just left with you, oblige me by sending these cards also."

"Certainly," said the clerk, and he called a waiter and put both missives into his hand, telling him to take them to their creation.

Arthur then inquired whether all the staterooms were taken in the Russia, that was to sail on Wednesday. The clerk took down a duplicate diagram of the steamer that hung in the office, and examined it.

"There is a single stateroom in the ladies' cabin, and a single berth in the gentleman's saloon. That would not be accommodation enough for your party perhaps, sir?" inquired the clerk.

"Yes, since nothing better is to be had, I engage them at once," said Mr. Powis. "The ladies can have the stateroom together, and I must have the single berth," he mused as he turned from the desk.

At that moment the waiter who had carried up his cards returned.

"Sir William is not in his apartment, sir, but I left your cards and the note with his servant," said the waiter.

"Quite right, thank you," returned Mr. Powis. And then he went

Could Not Sleep

Mr. Earnest Clark, Police Officer, 338 King St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"For three years I suffered from nervousness and sleeplessness. I believe my condition was brought about by overwork. I had frequent headaches, neuralgic pains and twitching of nerves and muscles. I had indigestion, was short of breath and easily tired. I commenced a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and seven boxes of this medicine cured me of all my symptoms. I am now feeling one hundred per cent. better than I was, and have to thank Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the good health I am now enjoying."

upstairs to rejoin his wife and daughter. The parlor had been cleared of the breakfast service and laid straight and Lily May was sitting beside her mother at the open window, looking down upon the sidewalk and clapping her hands with delight at the exhibition of Punch and Judy—a street entertainment of the most ridiculous description with which, nevertheless, the gravest people are entertained.

Lily May stopped her lively demonstration, to turn and inquire anxiously of her father:

"Well, papa, dear?"

"Well, I have secured passage for us, in the Russia, to the refuge accommodation in the first cabin of the first cabin. You and your mother will have a stateroom forward, where,

The following firms are specially mentioned in this, "The Home Beautiful" is, of course, the first necessity of this, as every step in the building of a home, and there is no safer, better means of saving than by opening an account with the Waterloo County Loan and Savings Co., an institution for the safe-keeping of savings. This has been the means of many young men starting a home, some of them and insuring themselves against poverty in their old age by opening a deposit account with a small amount, which, through the successful investment of their money, has become a fortune. The success of this depends on thrift, and so does each individual man's or woman's.

aphones of the machine. It is their duty to round out the tone and send it to the listeners.

One of the secrets of the Brunswick's wonderful tone on ALL records is the exclusive patented OVAL tone chamber and throat—built entirely of wood, like a fine violin.

You cannot afford to make a mistake and it costs you nothing to be sure. Hear this wonderful machine. Boger & Schacter will be pleased to demonstrate to you any time.

is at present turning out a very excellent grade of flour, which is especially adapted to home baking.

tarry sometimes even through August so that, in the midst of the plainer white or yellow flowers of late summer there still lingers a hint of June prettiness.

Look for it, yourself, sometime when you happen to be roamin' in the deep, cool northern woods—the dainty little twin-flower which belongs to the honeysuckle family. It is not a showy plant, only a modest vine carpeting shady places on moist hillside above clear brooks, or trailing over mossy stumps in the pine woods

Many country folk have lived for years, with whole colonies of it in their own pastures, not once guessing its presence, indeed, they might be no interest in the flower if it were brought to their attention. Yet, to all botanists and lesser plant lovers, the twin-flower has an especial charm for was it not the favorite of the gentle Linnaeus, the great Swedish botanist, and was it not named in his honor, Linnaeus borealis, which is to say, the northern Linnaea?

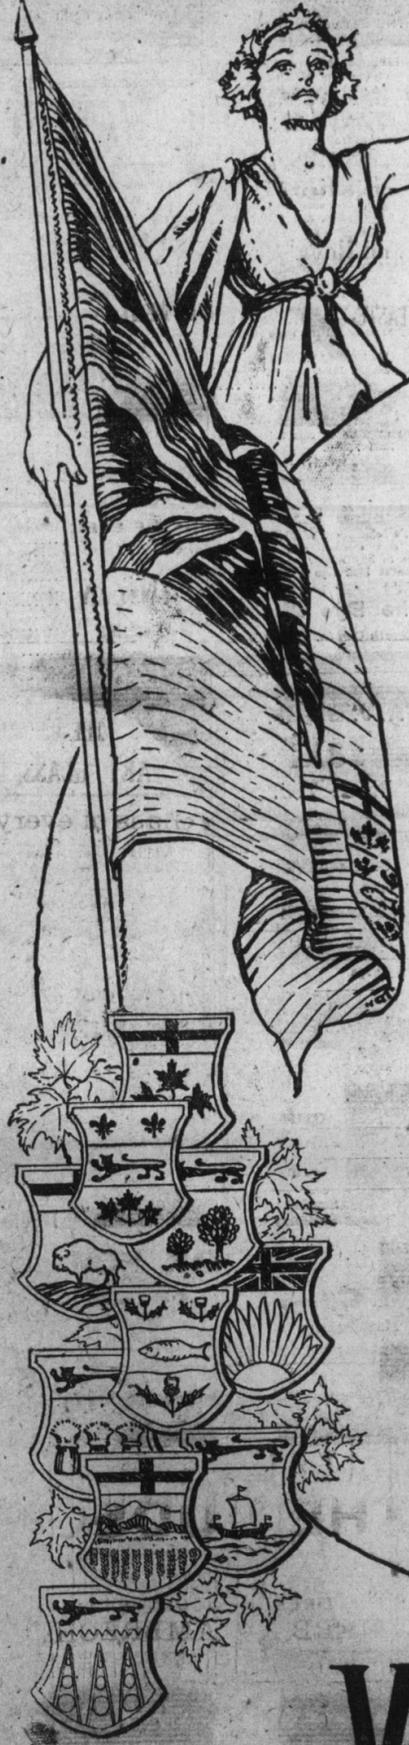

Early in the season, you might tread unconsciously over a whole area of the delicate, creeping vine whose opposite, round, tiny leaves nestle close to the cool earth; but, in May, throngs of dainty green stems rise to their four-inch height all along the matted vines, part at the slender tips and 10, two pink twin-flowers not demurely from each stalk. Now, surely you could never miss their loveliness in passing; even the faintest breeze wafts their gentle perfume not far, it is true, but clearly and unmistakably. It is a delightful fragrance, a real pink, fiery sweetness.

Moreover, the twins are twins indeed. They rise to the same height and outlook, nearly always they elect to blossom at the same time, and apparently they are content to droop together, after their loveliness is past. Though they perfectly resemble each other, that does not signify that all twin-flowers are alike. Far from it! Each colony has its own charmingly individual characteristics, shared by no other colony. Never, if you are familiar with flowers, could the blossoms of one spot be mistaken for those of another locality. In a long ago tract of pine woods, which I frequented as a little girl, I recall three distinct patches of twin-flowers. It is years since I have seen them, yet I feel sure I could distinguish them by group.

Two or three specimens from each group today. Those twin-flowers under the tow, young pines would still be short stemmed, early (coming at June commencement time), and deep pink; those in the farther woods—a smaller group—were sturdy, blunt beak of a dull, almost faded hue, while the third patch had medium tall twins, of an average pink, whose distinguishing characteristics must still be an unusually heavy fragrance and a long season of bloom. Even so late as September I should expect to find there a few merry little twins, still lingering to enjoy the autumn sunshine.

So, whenever you explore a cool shady ravine, where glossy partridge vine leaves and goldthread roots grow even though it be late August, keep your eyes open for a glimpse of dainty pink twin flowers nodding so gracefully and when you find them in all their pink beauty you will understand why Linnaeus so loved the little flower which bears his name.

"I regard BOVRIL as a great protection against INFLUENZA."

"Not only may it be employed to ward off the disease but it might be resorted to, to prop up the constitution during its course, and to obviate its pernicious effects".

The great body building power of BOVRIL does not admit of argument. It's use to keep the system strong, and fit it to resist fatigue and the attacks of prevalent diseases, is recommended by the most eminent food specialists.

The daily use of Bovril is advisable, both as a food-drink and as a strength giving addition to stews, gravies, etc.

The welcome was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Gross. Mr. Smith one of the oldest residents of the vicinity acted as chairman. Each returned man was given $50 and $5 according to whether he saw active service in France or England. The parents of the boys were presented with medals as a remembrance.

A lengthy program in which the Nickel Brothers took an extensive part was given. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gross gave several very acceptable duets. After the program the Nickel Orchestra provided dance music. Many Palmerston and Listowel representatives were present.

West King St. Barber Was Up.
That the bylaw governing hours of barber shops is being enforced was in evidence in police court this morning when J. Ewanowski, who conducts a shop on West King street, answered a charge of keeping the same open after 7 o'clock on the evening of Friday, October 24th.

The defendant was given a chance to comply with the bylaw in the future after paying the costs of an expert witness who has been sent for to interpret the evidence of a witness but whose services were not required, another party who was present acting in this capacity. The costs amount to $1.

The defendant in his defence said it was before 7 o'clock that one customer came in but four people went ahead of him he went out and did some shopping stating he would return later. And he did return later, in words as they could be interpreted by the observer the defendant seemed to put in the plea that he was simply trying to make an honest living and did not want to take advantage of anybody.

P.C. McAllister, and Secretary of the Barber's Union gave evidence against the defendant. The latter said the other barbers had been complaining and the secretary had to act. They were after justice to all, nothing more.

Magistrate Weir summing up the situation thought that the best solution would be to allow the defendant to go with a warning. If he should come up on such a charge again he should remember, he would be liable to a minimum fine of $50.

He was a member of the Roman Catholic church and also of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society.

Taking a Tip From Chipmunks.
Wise Ones Predict, Mild Winter

Chipmunks, who were seen in a farm near Crystal Beach, nature shows indications of a mild winter. He brought some strawberries into Buffalo yesterday and talked boldly of strawberry shortage in November.

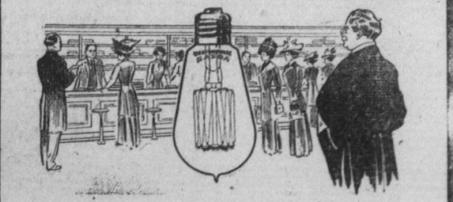

Then he spoke of a Marshall B. Wilder rosebush having a full bloom, which occurs only before a mild winter even with a Marshall B. Wilder.

His best argument, however, concerned the old and unmistakable Mr. Chipmunk. Chippy has a home under the eaves of Mr. Willett's house, and he isn't putting in any winter supplies in the shape of nuts, "and there are lots of nuts this year," says Mr. Willett.

Attended Funeral.
A number of local knights of Columbus were in Preston this morning where they attended the funeral of the late William Buehler who died on Saturday.

HOW OTHER CITIES GET NEW INDUSTRI

Hamilton's Only One of Many Which Sets the Enables Them To Be Johnny on th

How other places are putting forth concentrated efforts to secure new industries is indicated by the fact that all over the province reports emanate about new industrial plants locating in various towns and cities.

Three weeks ago the outside world was told about Hamilton having secured the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, of Akron, Ohio, which will employ 1500 to 2000 hands in a tire plant and two or three other allied factories, provided Barton Township electors carry a bylaw granting certain concessions. Hamilton went after this industry. For months it has been "Commissioner" had been negotiating with the company and he finally overcame competition from other places.

On top of this report followed other announcements about Hamilton's Industrial Commissioner bringing other industries to his city. Hamilton is expending money in its efforts to build up its industrial community and is getting results.

The above city, however, seems to be only one of many. These towns and cities have the advantage of being able to make investigations, not by letter but by visits to the parent plants across the border. They get the American men interested in their towns and frequently with good results.

The paragraphs at the end of this article indicate the general efforts that are being made by Ontario towns and cities in the industrial field which seem to indicate more than anything else the necessity in this city of having the necessary funds so that it can make efforts for a share of the American plants to be erected in Canada which will be worth while. Under present conditions the only means of getting into touch with these companies is by letter. Where is the central fund which should be available in order to enable the city to be on the job as soon as it is whispered an American firm is about to locate in Canada?

ANOTHER MOTOR INDUSTRY
PROSPECT FOR ONTARIO
Nash Motor Company intends to establish a branch plant in Canada for the manufacture of some motor parts and for the assembling of cars for the Canadian and British markets. C.W. Nash, President of the company, who was formerly associated with the General Motors Corporation, made an announcement last week that Whitley was being considered as the prospective site of the Canadian plant. A tract of about 60 acres has been selected as a likely spot for such an undertaking. The export of cars to other parts of the Empire from the other adjoining plant is looked upon as an additional incentive for locating a branch plant in the Dominion.

INTERPROVINCIAL RUGBY FOOT-BALL SENIOR.
W. L. F. A.
Hamilton 2 2 63 73
Montreal 2 2 42 39
Toronto Argos 2 2 41 34

On a mud-soaked field, which proved a handicap to both teams, M. A. A.
A. Montreal, defeated Argonauts in the interprovincial rugby game, Toronto, on Saturday afternoon by 12 to 6.
The visitors, under the conditions, were the better fourteen, but not by
as much as the score would indicate.
With three minutes to play and M. A.
A. A. leading by 7 to 6, Garrett fumbled and Dawson, racing in fast, picked up the ball and went over for a touchdown. It was an unfortunate break for the watermen as Garrett, by splendid kicking, was gradually forcing the M. A. A. back into their own territory and it appeared that the Argos would eventually tally the equalizer.

As a result of the M. A. A. A. and Hamilton Tigers' victories all four in-terprovincial teams are tied for leadership. The Tigers, with all their remaining games to be played on their home field, are favored to win the championship.

In a contest that was more or less of a kicking game for both teams. Sarnia, in a one-sided O. R. F. U. Intermediate football contest, sent the Portwest City aggregation down to a 12-to-0 defeat in an exhibition on the Sarnia athletic grounds.

The Ben Porter friendship day race meet, which was to have been held in Galt on Saturday, had to be postponed on account of rain. There were a large number of horses here and success of the venture was assured. The executive of the organization of Ontario horsemen, who are giving this meet to aid the veteran driver, who is now an invalid, will meet in Hamilton on Tuesday to settle a date of the meet.

Hamilton Collegiate suffered defeat
at Woodstock on Saturday by 17 to 2 in an O. R. F. U. Junior game. However, they won the round by 21 to 17,
having won the round by 21, having won at home by 29 to 0. Hughes scored three field goals and was the star for the locals, while Philpot was the best man on the Hamilton team.

Although it rained all Saturday morning Woodstock and Galt, the In-terprovincial League match at Galt was played the home team running away from their opponents to a 22-2 victory, although the visiting school team had three town players on their line-up. Galt was slow in starting, getting only two points in the first quarter. The half-time score was 7 to 1, the three-quarter 13 to 1.

RUTH WANTS MONEY.
("Babe") Ruth, the world champion home run hitter of the Boston Americans, said before leaving for Los Angeles that he would demand $20,000 salary next year. "I will not play with the Sox," he declared, "unless I get $20,000. I feel that I made a bad move last year when I signed a three year contract to play for $30,000. The Boston club realized much on my value and I think that I am entitled to twice as much as my contract calls for."

SIR ADAM BECK
OFFERED THE HONOR
HE WILL ANSWER TOMORROW
THE U. F. O. MEET WEDNESDAY
He addressed U. F. O. Last Thursday Sir Adam Beck has promised to reply on Tuesday to the request of the United Farmers of Ontario, which, it was learned on Saturday was made to him on Thursday night, that he accept the leadership of the Farmers'
party in the Ontario Legislature.
The members of the party who are members-elect of the Legislature, will will hear the hydro knight's answer on Wednesday when a committee was appointed to negotiate with Sir Adam will report.

"We have no definite intimation from Sir Adam what course he will take," said a U. F. O. man, "but we are anticipating a favorable reply."
It seems that Sir Adam addressed the farmers-legislators at the U. F. O.
headquarters here on Thursday night.
He was whisked to the meeting place in a taxi and entered the place unknown to the newspaper men. The farmers had asked that he attend the meeting.
Sir Adam spoke for nearly two hours, discussing questions raised by the farmers and other members of the of immediate interest to them in respect to their future as a party having the majority voice in the Legislature.

The U. F. O. leaders and indeed the party representatives as a whole, recognize the extreme seriousness of the situation in which they are placed with a large vote of public confidence behind them and the necessity of making good with frosty receptions from the outset. No similar proposition came from the Conservatives
though at least one-half of the farmers-elect were former Conservatives.
The Government has preferred to allow the situation to shape itself, recognizing that the farmers had a difficult task ahead and desiring to place no obstacles in their way but rather to lead them what assistance might be possible, but only when asked to do so.

Names Considered.
Perhaps a dozen names in all were considered for the leadership, with the same barred result. The only exception was the name of Sir Adam

Mr. Dewar, the Liberal leader, has been sitting on the doorstep of the U. F. O. seeking admission and a union of their forces with those of the Liberals, but his proposals to this end met with frosty receptions from the outset. No similar proposition came from the Conservatives
though at least one-half of the farmers-elect were former Conservatives.

Of Utmost Importance

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is a form of growth-nourishment that is of utmost importance to many children. That most children relish and thrive on Scott's is a "truism"
accepted the world over.
Give Scott's to the children and watch them grow strong!

Beck who appears to answer the demands of the farmers, if he will accept.
In the event that Sir Adam should determine to accept the U. F. O. leadership the question arises whether he could form a Government of sufficient strength to command a following in the Legislature large enough to insure permanency. It is recognized that the term at hand will be exceptionally difficult. The Legislature is comprised of four parties, any three of which might wreck the fourth.
The farmers are well understood not to desire to dominate the new Government. They want the representation thereon that their numbers entitle them to, but they also would admit representatives of all other parties.

The Possibilities.
Could Sir Adam Beck form a Government that would win support from practically all four of the parties leaving the Opposition to be made up of the remainder, which would include possibly a few Liberals, a few Conservatives and a few Labor men? There are those who say that a Government on this order might secure a majority in the Legislature of 15 or 20 members. Others doubt it, and say that in any event the Labor men will stand together and will press their demands as a body regardless of who may or may not form the new Government.

Then there is the question of the future of the hydro-electric and radial railways movement. Could Sir Adam give the time to Government leadership without sacrificing the interests of the cheap power enterprise? Friends of the hydro chairman believe he would be in a better position in respect to hydro if he were premier than he can be outside of the Government.
They say that hydro needs a champion with a strong backing at this time because of the needs of Eastern Ontario, where the St. Lawrence development is being opposed by influential financial interests. As premier of Ontario Sir Adam would be able to reach direct understanding with Ottawa upon this matter.

Meanwhile Ontario politics are marking time. Some conclusion with regard to U. F. O. leadership will be arrived at in the week at hand, and when this is settled the work of organizing the new Government will be proceeded with. That it will be a farmers' Government but including a liberal representation of perhaps all other parties is confidently expected.
