BRITISH ADVANCE IN PLACES WAS OVER 2 MILES IN DEPTH

Prisoners Taken Now Number Well Over 5400--50 Machine Guns Taken, and Other Supplies--French Took Two Villages and Crushed German Lines

London, Sep. 18.—The British in further attacks on Saturday enlarged the ground gained in Friday's great drive. They captured 51 officers and 1,700 men in straightening out their lines. The number of prisoners taken indicates that the progress made in the course of the "sibbling process" is important. Altogether the British captured in two days' fighting over 4000 men and 116 officers, six guns, fifty machine guns and much material. The German war office on Saturday afternoon admitted the loss to the British of the villages of Courcolette, Martinpuich and Flers.

Two-mile Gain at Points

The total advance made by the British in the two days' fighting, according to Sir Douglas Haig's night report is from one to two miles deep and extends over a front of six miles. The British on Saturday night made a further extension of their gains near Courcolette on a front of 1,000 yards, pushing their lines northeastward against Bapaume. At the same time they captured the formidable German trench known as the "Danube trench" on a front of about a mile, near Thiéval, and the powerful field work near the Monquet Farm, bitterly contested for many weeks. To-day Sir Douglas Haig's troops repulsed a series of strong German counter-attacks and consolidated yesterday's gains. They took 249 prisoners, including six officers. During the fighting a brigade of

SAD NEWS

Received by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wilkes.

Another Boy Falls for King and Country—Estimable Young Man.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Wilkes, 138 Chatham street, received a cablegram to-day conveying the sad intelligence that their son, Lieut. Maurice Wilkes has been missing since Friday, and is believed to have been killed.

French Also Gain

The French, after two days of comparative rest, resumed their drive south of the Somme yesterday. They captured the greater part of the villages of Vermandovillers and Berny, portions of which they have held for more than a week. Last night the Germans were holding out only in isolated places of the two villages.

GREEK MINISTRY IS RESPONSIBLE

Premier Kalageropoulos and Cabinet Accept Demands

Athens, Sep. 17, via London, Sep. 18.—Premier Kalageropoulos announced to-day that the new ministry had assumed full responsibility before the country for its acts. The cabinet evidently accepts the note presented by the Entente powers last June in the same spirit as the previous cabinet.

BRITISH AIR RAID.

London, Sept. 18, noon—A raid by British naval aeroplanes on German aerodromes at St. Denis and Westrehem is reported in an official statement issued by the War Office. The statement says: "Yesterday afternoon a squadron of our aeroplanes carried out a further attack on enemy aerodromes at St. Denis and Westrehem. A large number of bombs were dropped with successful results. One of our machines was obliged to make a forced landing in Holland and the pilot has been interned."

BIG INTEREST NOW BEING SHOWN IN THE COURIER CONTEST

Everybody Anxious to Win the Car or One of the Other Prizes

The Daily Courier's big $1500 subscription contest is off to a flying start. The finish, although nowhere near in sight, promises but one thing—success. Everybody who reads The Courier devoured the contest story Saturday evening, and the consequence has been that all day long the telephone has been ringing and messages of every character have been streaming in to the office concerning the whys and wherefores of the proposition. For the time being the contest office has been changed into a contest information bureau. And that is just what is desired. If there is a single point in the arrangement of the contest you do not understand, call us up, write or call and the contest manager will be more than glad to explain fully. That's what he delights in—explaining to the candidates how to go out in the field and bring home that touring car, or any of the prizes. From now on the Courier office will be open in the evening as well as during the day, and the contest manager or some assistant will always be present to tell you anything you may desire to know.

SERBS ADVANCE IN MACEDONIA

Take First And Second Line Trenches, Guns and Prisoners—French Active.

London, Sept. 18, 2:42 p.m.—A further advance for the Serbians on the western end of the Macedonian front is reported in a despatch sent out to-day under a Saloniki date by the Exchange Telegraph Company. It says the first and second line trenches of the Bulgarians at Kaimakacalan have been taken by the Serbians who have crossed the Broda River. Heavy fighting continues on the further bank of the river.

2 More Paris Casualties

Two more Paris casualties are reported over the week-end, one man being killed and one wounded. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Birley received this morning a cable that their son, Pte. Cecil Birley, wounded in Belgium in the early part of this month had died yesterday in Farnham hos-

RELEASE ALL CIVILIANS NOW INTERNED BY BOTH COUNTRIES

Is Proposal Made by Germany Rejected by England—Huns Made Several Other Propositions Concerning Exchange of Prisoners

Berlin, Sep. 18.—(By wireless to Sayville)—Present state of negotiations between the German and British governments regarding the exchange of civil prisoners interned in the two countries, is dealt with in an article in the semi-official Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung to-day. The British government in June, says the newspaper, suggested that Germany release British subjects interned at Ruhleben for an equal number of Germans interned in England. The German government replied that on general grounds it would not decline, the article continues, but added that the release of equal numbers of interned civil prisoners in the two countries was hardly feasible because of the difficulties that would be created by the selections of individuals made. The German government, therefore, says the Overseas News Agency, in summarizing the news statement, "suggested that all interned civil prisoners, interned in both countries be released and allowed to depart." This the British government declined, but suggested that all male civil prisoners over forty-five years old be released. The German government then made the counter suggestion that all civil prisoners in both countries be released under a pledge that after their return they would not take up military service. It added that in case of a declination, it made the proposal that all German civil prisoners interned in the British Empire, inclusive of colonies, and all British subjects interned in Germany who were above forty-five years of age, be released. "The British answer to these proposals is still lacking, but the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung expresses the hope that it will be possible to obtain in this way the release and return of all or a considerable part of the interned Germans."

ROUMANIAN KING ADDRESSED COUNCIL BEFORE ENTRY INTO THE WAR

Show Himself no Pro-German, Though of the House of Hohenzollen—A Hohenzollen Has Never Feared a Hindenburg

London, Sep. 18.—(New York Times cable.)—The Daily Chronicle's Bucharest correspondent, describing the meeting of the crown council held before Roumania's entry into the war, writes: "The council was held in the Cotroceni Palace, some distance outside the town, the private residence of the king and queen, not at the old palace in the center of the city, the hour of the meeting being changed repeatedly. The king, by his manly and stirring words, won more for himself than perhaps he had done since he came, a German and a Hohenzollen, to this country. "Gentlemen," he said to those assembled, "I have not called the leaders of the opposition parties and former ministers of note, 'I have not called you here to ask your opinion, but to tell you my decision on a matter of import. I have decided on instant mobilization of the army on the side of the Allies, and an immediate attack on Austria-Hungary. The moment has come to liberate our brothers in Transylvania from the Hungarian yoke. He concluded by saying: "Remember, I have first had to win a preliminary victory, a victory over myself. May Roumania's victory over her enemies be as lasting and complete."

Third Line of Austrian Trenches Broken by Italians

New York, Sept. 18.—A news agency despatch from Rome published here to-day says: "The Italians have broken the Austrian third line in the region of Montefalco after three days of fierce fighting. On the whole front from Gorizia south to the sea the new Italian drive on Trieste is proceeding satisfactorily. A whole series of Austrian positions from Oppacchiasella southward through Flettra-rossa have been carried and the Austrians driven back to trench positions in the valleys. T. E. Ryerson will have two cars of peaches to-morrow. They are from the Niagara District, and will be very fancy."

SUMMARY OF THE ONTARIO TEMPERANCE ACT.

The above measure came into active force commencing with to-day and it is well to bear in mind its main provisions.

In the first place it must be remembered that at the time of the passing of the act the Ontario Government did not possess the power to prevent, or limit the importation of liquors from outside the Province for domestic use. Since then the Dominion Government by an amendment to the Canada Temperance, passed last session has given any Province power to prevent such importations. Whether the Ontario House will next sitting take advantage of the prerogative remains to be seen.

As matters stand now, a citizen for his own private family uses, may secure from outside the Province all that he desires, and may give the same to guests. Any attempted charge is visited with severe penalties and if a man or others on his premises become intoxicated, the Magistrate will have to fine them at least $10 and costs and can make the figure up to $100.

The term private dwelling house means a separate dwelling with separate doors for ingress and egress and does not include a business office, shop, factory, warehouse, club room or public hall of any society, or a boarding house, lodging house, inn, tavern, hotel or place of entertainment.

The term "liquor" as applied to all bars, means all fermented, spirituous and malt liquors and combination of liquors, and drinks and drinkable liquors which are intoxicating, and any liquors which contain more than 2 1-2 per cent. proof spirits shall be conclusively deemed to be intoxicating. Bars can sell temperance ales and porters of 2 1-2 per cent or less.

The Brantford Druggists having refused to handle or keep liquor in any form as they could do under the act subject to many restrictions, it is possible that a vendor might be named. If so, he could only sell on prescription of a duly qualified medical practitioner:

(1) For strictly medical purposes, ale, beer and porter, in quantities not exceeding one dozen bottles containing not more than three half pints each at any one time.

(2) Wines and distilled liquor not exceeding one quart at any one time. Dentists may, when they deem it necessary, administer liquor to a patient, and for such purposes may keep in their offices a quantity of liquor not exceeding six ounces at any one time, but such liquor shall not be drunk or consumed by any other person than such patient. Veterinary surgeons may have liquor in their possession for use in practice, not exceeding in quantity one quart, but no person shall drink or consume any such liquor.

Any officer, policeman, constable or inspector may at any time search any place where prohibited liquors are, reputed to be on sale and the penalties for any infractions of the act run to heavy fines and imprisonment.

SOLDIER'S WIFE

Has Every Right to Do Extra Work.

Fact Does Not Mean Any Deduction in Patriotic Fund Pay.

The following letter has been sent to every soldier's wife in the city of Brantford.

Dear Madam:
It has been brought to our attention that a considerable number of the soldiers' wives and other people in the City and County are under the impression that if the Soldiers' wife does on odd day's work, whatever she may be able to earn in this way will be deducted from her Patriotic Fund allowance. We wish to state clearly and make it as plain as possible that this is not the case.

If the soldier's wife can spare the time from her home duties to do extra work on certain days in the week, and thus make extra money, she has every right to do so, and no deduction will be made from her Patriotic Fund Allowance.

At the same time the Patriotic Fund has not more money than it will need. You know, no doubt, that there are many soldiers' wives who do not draw from the Patriotic Fund at all, because they are able to manage without it.

We feel sure that you will help the committee to carry on its work by assisting them in every way possible.

Yours truly,
JOHN H. SPENCE, President
HARVEY T. WATT, Sec.-Treas.

NO TROUBLE IN SIMCOE

When Bars Closed — New Hotel Inspector—Milk Going Up There Also.

Decoration of Graves of Deceased Brethren by the I. O. O. F.

(From our own correspondent) Simcoe, Sept. 18.—D. G. McKnight has sold to Wyatt Whitehead the residential property at the southwest corner of Syrenham and Culver street.

Ptes. C. E. Johnston and N. Miracle of the 133rd, deserters for some months, were taken in charge while working with farmers northeast of St. George, and placed in detention here Friday evening. On Saturday, Pte. Frank Groat, guilty of a similar offence, was gathered in at Scotland. One of the St. George employers was launching on a line of verbal abuse for the loss of his help, when the officer warned him of his position in the matter.

Official word was received on Saturday from the War Office, by mail to his wife, that Lt. Dr. A. C. Burt, A.V.C., has been admitted to general hospital No. 23, Saloniki. Case not then diagnosed.

Fisheries Inspector Dr. Burt drove Capt. Robinson and Wm. Gray, M.P., over to Normandale to see the construction work for the new hatcheries, on Saturday.

All the idle boasting amounted to nothing. The bars closed promptly on Saturday night and on the stroke of 7 o'clock John Sutton personally closed and locked the doors of the liquor store and drew the blinds. It was all over. The number out from town and country for evening shopping was barely normal, and no drunkenness was evident.

With 26 members in service, the brass band out of town and a murky sky, there was, as might be expected, a smaller turnout than usual. Returning to the lodge room, the members listened with interest to a short address on the I.O.O.F. Home, in Toronto, from Sister May Ralston, of Toronto, president of the Rebecca Degree.

Interspersed were hymns sung by the entire school, and musical recitation numbers given by the classes of Misses H. Simpson, B. Carter and L. Simpson, and a solo by Miss Olive Stenebaugh. Miss Yule read the scriptures. A feature of the program was the reading of the Honor Roll by Miss Bertha Carter, when prayer was offered on behalf of our brave soldiers. Mrs. F. AUTO SMASH-UP

A Maxwell touring car figured in a nasty automobile accident at the corner of Dalhousie street and Park avenue yesterday morning, shortly before noon. The car, going east along Dalhousie street, was passing another car at the corner of Park avenue, and in an effort to avoid a collision, the driver took a sudden turn, with the result that the car skidded for some little distance across the wet pavement, mounting the curb of Park avenue with two wheels, the spokes of the rear left wheel being shattered and torn entirely free from the hub, and the rear right wheel also sustaining minor damage. The driver was uninjured, but was obliged to make quite a wait while repairs were being made to the car.

ELOQUENT SERMON BY REV. C. E. JEAKINS

Rector of St. Jude's Church Made Strong Appeal for Life by Faith.

On the occasion of his first service conducted in the city since his return last week from overseas, Rev. C. E. Jeakins of St. Jude's church, delivered yesterday morning a most impressive and inspiring address upon the subject of the various influences from the other world which influence us here, by the will of God Himself, making a strong appeal for a life of faith and trust by sight alone. He first expressed briefly the pleasure he felt at being home once more, after a world of experiences and incidents of the most varied nature, the most of which would prove beneficial to himself, and perhaps through himself to others. There at the front men found themselves face to face with the big things of life, with issues of life and death. Not from time to time, as was done here, but from moment to moment; through such experiences no one could pass without being changed, and the speaker expressed the hope that it might be always for the better, and with richer, deeper and truer meaning attached to life and the things of life than ever before. Mr. Jeakins announced then his text, taken from 15 and 16 of the second chapter of the Second Book of Kings—"And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and behold, he saw the mountain filled with chariots of fire round about Elisha."

In the pressure of outward and visible things, but little time remained in this world for us to give to those beyond the earth engrossed as we were, there was too much danger of our living by sight alone, and not by faith. So it had been with the young man referred to in the text of the sermon, the servant of Elisha. Seeing with mortal eyes, he had seen but the forces of the king of Syria, which had ringed the city round about; of the heavenly legions which were with Elisha in the defence of the city, he was ignorant. His eyes were opened by the Lord.

Of the many things which he had seen and experienced during his stay in France, there remained uppermost in his mind the scene of the great retreat from Mons, when the enemy was turned back when it seemed as though nothing could save Paris. Capt. Jeakins spoke of a high staff officer in the French army, who had been present at both of these scenes, and who, though not a deeply religious man, had said to him, "No material or earthly cause can ever account for the stopping of the Hun hordes and the hurling of them back. To-day, the question was ripe everywhere throughout France, how had the foe been turned back? Without belittling the efforts of the allied armies at that point, it was a feat far beyond their strength. Capt. Jeakins expressed his unshakable opinion that it was by the direct will of God Himself.

"If indeed we accept the miracle told of in this gospel, whereby Elisha was aided by the heavenly host against the beleaguering armies, then why not accept it in the case of modern Britain, and in the present instance?"

Though to-day the ministers of God were in no prepared form, though they did not appear to the soldier going onto the battlefield, yet he knew confidently that they were there by his side even as the mother cradles that they hover over the cradle of her sleeping child.

"Let us then," urged the speaker, "receive our sight, and commence to realize the influence of these other world powers here; let us see higher things in life; let us, as we look into the dim future, take fresh courage and be strong."

SECOND ANNIVERSARY

Elm Ave. Methodist Church Celebrated Founding Yesterday.

Rev. Wray R. Smith, the new pastor of Oxford St. Church, preached at 11 a.m., taking his text from Acts 13:36: "For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep." David by serving God had secured his generation by building first, physically, then mentally, finally spiritually. As mentally was of more importance than physical, so was spiritual above mental. David's service had scattered seeds and a memory was left before he fell asleep. Mr. Wm. Millard rendered a solo in an excellent voice. In the evening, at 7 o'clock, Rev. W. Baker preached, taking his text from 2nd Corinthians, 6-16: "I will dwell in them and walk in them and I will be their God and they shall be my people." He exhorted the people to be God's servants, witnesses or ambassadors working unitedly, each doing their duty to bring to pass the Kingdom of God.

GOING UP! GOING DOWN!

Price of Flour Advances 20 Cents Per Barrel and Sugar Cheapens.

The features of more than unusual interest to record are the declines in sugar and the advance in flour. All sugars were down, the per hundred and at these levels are holding firm at present. A steadiness is now given to the market in view of the slightly higher prices of raw sugars. As the season for marketing the beet sugar is approaching, higher prices for cane sugar are not anticipated. The flour market is an uncertain one. Situation is dominated entirely by the wheat market. The advance in flour during the week was 20c. per barrel.

In dried fruits there is every indication that there will be slightly higher prices in the primary market in prunes. Growers are holding out for 6c. per pound, an advance of half cent over present prices, and there seems very good likelihood of the advance. The falling off in exports will be at exceptionally high prices this year. It is expected the retail price will need to be around 25c. per pound. Consumption is expected to be about 10c. per ton in normal years on account of the high price. All canned goods hold firm in price. Nuts of all kinds will be scarce and high in price. Eggs have advanced two cents a dozen during the week, with supplies short. Hogs, live and dressed, are slightly easier in tone, although the market has not declined during the week. The falling off in exports is the reason assigned. Cheese prices continue to advance. Honey is beginning to reach the commission men in larger quantities, with the indications that they are ready to come to dealer's prices. Business has been good during the week.

TWO WEEK-END FIRES IN CITY

Both of Suspicious Origin—Incendiarism in a Fruit Store.

The firemen had a busy time early Sunday morning, being twice called. The first one occurred in a fruit store owned by Mr. John Harwood and occupied by Sam Hager, at about 12.30. P. C. Dowling, passing at the time, rang the alarm. Mr. Hager was absent in London at the time, and Mrs. Hager reports having closed the store as usual with everything intact. However, it resembles a case of incendiarism, as burning candles were found by the firemen. The loss will be little, due mostly to smoke.

A frame barn at the corner of Rawdon and Sheridan streets also took fire at 2 a.m. The alarm was turned in too late to enable the firemen to reach the fire in time, the walls falling in on their arrival. However the surrounding buildings were saved. Two buggies and a wagon in the barn at the time were lost. The conflagration was likely caused by tramps.

Eye-Witness Story of Big British Advance on Somme

Friday Last Was Most Dramatic Day in History of British Army in France.

German Losses Immense—British Could Not Be Held Back—Wonderful Motor Cars Used.

(By Frederick Palmer)

At the British front, Sep. 16.—With ceaseless shell fire from unprecedented concentrations of guns, the battle raged furiously all day, with the British making good their advance of yesterday, while the Germans were rushing up reserves from other parts of the western front.

The demoralization of their infantry yesterday by the use of the new British armored cars called "tanks," was freely confessed by prisoners talked with to-day. "There was no standing against that sort of thing, said one German officer. "Of course we surrendered, those of us who were alive. We fired at a tank with our rifles. Our machine guns were turned loose on it. But the bullets were only blue sparks on the armor. We thought the British slow and stupid, despite their courage and stubbornness, and they gave us a surprise like this."

A column of German prisoners passing a "tank," rejoicing in the nickname of "Creme de Menthe," which had returned from battle and was resting from its labors, spread out their hands and shook their heads and looked at it, exclaiming in a chorus: "Mein Gott in Himmel! Is it under control? Would it break out and begin firing again? Will we ever forget our first sight of the thing at it came at us out of the morning mist? It isn't war using a piece of machinery like that; it is butchery."

To this a British officer replied: "No, it is quite peaceable and tame now. It has just been fed. As for it not being war it is quite in keeping with the Hague Convention, which your gas attacks at Ypres was not."

Most Dramatic Day Yet

There seems no question that Friday was the most dramatic day in the history of the British army in France. The Germans, themselves, were massing at many points, it appears, with a view to attacking to recover some of the high ground they had lost. The British anticipated the German attack with their onslaught, assisted by their new machines, whose secret they had been keeping up their sleeves for just such an occasion as this.

Accounts of both wounded British soldiers and prisoners taken from all parts of the line agree that the German losses were immense. As a rule the forces in the front line trenches support patrols in the shell craters in the Somme battle area in small numbers with a plentiful supply of machine guns. This means a small force exposed to artillery fire in case of attack. If machine guns are sited and the front trenches taken then the reserves are expected under cover of artillery fire from their side to take it by a counter attack. Thus, as the Germans intended to attack, they had massed large numbers of men in their front trenches. These were not only caught by the surprise of the sudden blast of early-morning concert of the British guns preceding the charges of the British infantry, but were raked by machine gun fire from the "tanks."

Mob Confusion Prevailed.

As the Germans were in new trenches, which they had built as best they could under a continual shell fire, and had no dugouts, they could find no shelter from the murderous enfilade from the "tanks." Despite the German discipline and the bravery and racial hate which the Germans put into their fights against the British, at many points mob confusion prevailed among those in the front lines. Some attempted to surrender, though surrender seemed impossible against these walking forts. Others fired desperately and hopelessly before they were mowed down, and others were paralyzed by the apparition, which has no precedent in warfare.

The trenches were filled with dead, and those in flight fell like grain before the reaper wherever the "tanks" could direct their sprays of lead in their path. The British plan, as a Staff officer explained to the correspondent before the attack, was not to take either Fiers or Concrete yesterday, but so successful was the early morning advance that the command was given to push on, and by nightfall both places were in possession of the British. The villages are on the left or right on the banks of the canal opposite Peronne. The German forces were congested here in a narrow area in order to hold the salient and prevent the British from widening their battle line by breaking through more frontage on the old first-line fortifications from Thiepval.

Huns Got a Scare.

"But the larger the German numbers, the more casualties it meant," said the officer. "With demoralization in their front line the Germans threw forward all the reserves they had and summoned a division from Lille by train, while according to reports from prisoners and observation aeroplanes every motor vehicle they had was bringing up men and machine guns, and horse artillery was summoned from right and left to reinforce the already enormous concentration of guns."

"Alarm," according to all information the British have, best describes the situation of the Germans after the sudden and unexpected assault by the British, which was the heaviest they had made yet. Got More Than They Aimed For Yesterday the Germans were gathering their forces and attempted to counter-attack at some points to break the new British line, while the British resisted at these points and attacked at others. Under the pounding of the most terrific shell fire modern artillery can produce the stubborn wrestle for position continues, with the British in possession of more ground last night than they had planned to take. The only difficulty in many instances has been to restrain eager battalions and "tanks" attempting to go too far.

Couldn't Hold British Back.

The commander of one famous regiment, finding his men rushing beyond the objective before them, leaped up on a hillock and standing up face to face to the enemy's fire, ordered the bugles to call halt, but in vain. They went on and took their second objective an hour ahead of scheduled time. "We wanted to have the job over with once we were started," said one of them. In one case where no "tanks" assisted the artillery to silence the machine guns, the duty of a certain battalion was to keep up with those on its right and left. Seventy men went forward and were mowed down, then another platoon of seventy rushed ahead; all were mowed down, but the third section, charging over the dead, took that German strong point and thus prevented any break in the line of advance.

The Wonderful "Tanks."

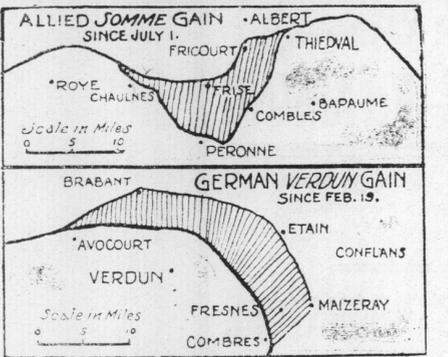

As for the "tanks," stories of their progress continue to be told. One which took on board a German Colonel who surrendered to it, kept him along through the fight. Another took command of the situation in a shell-wreathed cigar factory, spraying fire right and left into the doors of the dugouts. Another ambled in on a German battery of field guns and with its machine guns killed the gunners who were not able to flee from the grotesque caller. One which went through the main street at Fiers had a placard, upon which stood the words: "Extra! Full account of great Hun victory."

PHYSICAL TRAINING.

Dear Sir—Will you kindly allow me to supplement the report of board of education proceedings, as published of their last meeting, regarding physical training. The benefits accruing from following a course of physical training have been amply demonstrated here the last couple of years, and likewise by the large number of rejections for defects that might have been prevented, the necessity of encouraging, if not enforcing greater attention to it in the future.

Physical training or exercise being optional in the school, or at least a study that no standard has to be obtained in—like other studies—to successfully pass an examination, the pupils treat it with indifference, and should be changed. Should be based on same conditions as pertain to all other subjects. However, we had in mind the facts or conditions as they exist, and were endeavoring to lay before the board for consideration a plan that by providing a popular incentive, would create such an interest in the minds of the pupils that they would no longer treat the subject with indifference.

The proposition outlined to the board was that a schedule of the course of training be drawn up for the guidance and practice of the pupils according to the rules governing physical training, drilling, scout, etc., both individual, class and school awards being based on percentage merit marks for progress. Cadet, scout and certain classes of physical drill being open to competition by the county. Suitable prizes or trophies being awarded the winners.

We urged that the matter be taken up promptly, that the pupils might be organized and into training quickly, and be able to present to their parents and citizens generally at the end of the year, on Dominion Day, when the prizes would be presented.

The other part of the proposition was that the event would take the form of a day of sport and picnic combined, that the children, both county and city, be the guests of the city for the day. We hoped to "kill two birds with one stone," i.e., popularize physical training and by annually holding the meeting on that date, train the minds of the children to look forward to our national day, as being an occasion of joy and gladness, in which they would have the largest and most prominent part.

We had spoken to several of our citizens, business men, scouts, sports, and others regarding the proposition. They all expressed themselves as being most heartily in accord and ready to take hold as soon as the program was mapped out. Yours truly, W. N. POWELL.

CONFERENCE ON MAIL CENSORSHIP

British Embassy Officials and American Business Men Will Consult.

Washington, Sept. 18.—A conference between British embassy officials and representatives of important American firms which have suffered from the British mail censorship is being arranged by the embassy with a view to working out some plan to expedite the handling of commercial mail through the censor's office.

The conference will be held soon in New York with Sir Rich. Crawford, commercial adviser of the embassy, as the chief representative of the British government. Neither the British embassy nor the state department has yet received a response to inquiries sent to London regarding the new British restrictions on American commerce with Holland and the Scandinavian countries. Embassy officials believe published versions of the new regulations have greatly exaggerated their scope.

Presentation to J. Hansen

On Saturday evening, Sept. 16th, Mr. James Hansen, 10 Hart Street, was visited by a committee representing the employees of the Pratt and Letchworth Company. Mr. Hansen has recently severed his connection with that company and is leaving shortly for Chicago, and his friends took this occasion to express to him their sincere regret at his departure and at the same time to extend to him their good wishes for his future. Mr. Hansen was presented with a beautiful tea set, while his infant son was also remembered and was the recipient of a beautiful golden lock.

The following addresses also accompanied the presentations: Mr. James Hansen: Knowing that you are leaving us to make your home in a distant city, we, the employees of the Pratt and Letchworth Company, cannot let this opportunity pass without expressing to you our appreciation of you as a foreman here for the past two years. While here, you have always succeeded in promoting harmony among your employees, and at the same time have faithfully endeavored to advance the interests of the company.

During your short stay with us, you have won our esteem, and it is with sincere regret that we hear of your departure. As a slight expression of that esteem and kind feeling toward you, and our confidence in you as a foreman, we hope that you will accept this little token of friendship. With it we extend our best wishes to you and yours, and trust that prosperity and happiness may ever follow you through life.

Signed on behalf of the employees: C. CROWLEY, J. HUFF, A. HAWLEY.

Golfing Event

Proved to be a Great Success on Saturday. Red Cross Realized One Hundred Dollars.

There was a very large crowd in attendance at the golf links on Saturday afternoon, and the scene presented was a brilliant one. The main attraction was a foursome two rounds in the morning and two in the afternoon, with Mr. George S. Lyon, many times Canadian golf champion and George Cummings, Toronto pro, as the opponents of W. M. Freeman and Percy Barrett, also both professionals. A large gallery followed these leading exponents of the game and their exceptional work was greatly admired. Freeman and Barrett were the victors, five holes up. Freeman had the best score of the afternoon, doing the eighteen holes in 77 strokes.

Other competitions resulted as follows: Ladies' Putting:—Mrs. Frank Leeming and Miss L. Gibson tied with 36 each. Miss Cora Jones, second, 37. Gentlemen's putting:—Mr. Geo. S. Lyons 35; S. Alfred Jones, second, 36. Ladies' putting (obstacle):—Mrs. H. Whitehead. Men's putting (obstacle):—Mr. D. S. Large, first; W. Aird and H. McKay tie for second. The prizes were kindly given by Mrs. H. R. Yates, Mrs. H. W. Fitton, Mrs. W. H. Webling, Mr. D. S. Large and the M. H. Robertson Co.

Flags, flowers and refreshments were sold, the proceeds going to the Red Cross fund. The amount thus obtained was about $100. The visiting golfers gave their services free and were loudly cheered as they left to take train for Toronto. At night a very lively dance took place in the club house.

PHILLIES GET KANTLEHNER

Philadelphia, Sep. 18.—Another pitcher was added to the Phillies' staff, it was announced here yesterday, Kantlehner, southpaw for Pittsburg, signed up with Manager Moran. Kantlehner was dissatisfied, it was said, with the Pittsburg team and asked for his release. No announcement was made as to whom Moran traded for the twirler, but several men are believed to be involved.

High Praise For Blackburne

Toronto, Sept. 18.—If ever the services of a ball player were appreciated by a club those of Acting Manager "Lena" Blackburne are appreciated by the Toronto club. Jim McCaffery, President of the Leafs, almost talked himself hoarse Saturday night saying nice things about "Blackie," and the latter deserves it all. Never has there been a more unselfish player on the Toronto payroll. Blackburne had the welfare of the team at heart from the day the season opened until it closed. He suffered injuries which would have sent some players into the hospital, but he did not utter a complaint, and not until Saturday night, when the season had closed, was it known even to some of his team-mates that he was in no condition to play. He will be a very welcome member of the team next season.

COBB AGAIN PROMINENT

Detroit, Sep. 18.—Detroit won from the Athletics by 4 to 5 in ten innings Sunday, though outfielded and out-hit by the Mackmen. Their success was due to the fact that they took chances on bases, while the visitors had two or three chances to score. The home team played a poor fielding game, all but one of the runs scored by the Athletics being due to errors. Cobb brought home the winning run in the tenth. After he walked he sprinted all the way from first to third on Zacher's sacrifice bunt, and scored on Heilmann's sacrifice. Score: R.H.E. Philadelphia 10-0-0-0-5-10-1 Detroit 4-5-0-0-6-7-6 Bush and Haley; Covaleski and Stanga.

Sisler Beat Walter Johnson

St. Louis, Sept. 18.—George Sisler twirled his second game of the season to-day, and outpitched Walter Johnson. St. Louis winning from Washington by 1 to 0. Washington had the bases full with none out in third, but Sisler fanned Leonard, and a fast double play executed by Lavan, Pratt and Barton prevented a score. Score: R.H.E. Washington 0-0-0-0-0-0-0 St. Louis 1-0-0-0-1-4-1 Batteries—Johnson, Henry and Charity; Sisler and Hartley.

Leafs Made One Last Effort

Toronto, Sept. 18.—The International League came to a close Saturday after a very disastrous season. Locally the season closed Saturday, when the Leafs defeated the Bisons by the score of 6 to 5, with Manager Blackburne pitching the last two innings for the Leafs. The latter were the finest bunch of in and outers that have represented the local club in years. They got away to a bad start through not having the material to measure up to the other clubs, and when they did get straightened away they played spasmodically, one week having a winning spurt and the next a slump. A few weeks ago they looked to have a chance for the pennant, and then they "blew" the result being that they finished the season in the second division. This is something President McCaffery should be proud of in view of the fact that according to him Toronto is the best ball town in the International. Such being the case the fans should be given a chance to support a winner once in a while, not a second division club.

Red Sox in Second Place

Chicago, Sep. 18.—Boston went into second place Sunday when they defeated Chicago by 6 to 2. Ruth was in fine form and allowed the locals but five hits. Faber, in the third inning walked Gardner and Scott, and Thomas followed with a single, filling the bases. Ruth then hit a high bouncer to Faber, Gardner scoring. Hooper then singled to centre, scoring Scott and Thomas. The crowd which witnessed the game numbered 40,000, the largest that ever attended a game in the Southside Park. Score: R.H.E. Boston 6-2-0-0-10-10-3 Chicago 2-5-0-0-6-10-3 Ruth and Thomas; Faber, Danforth, Cicotte, Lapp and Lynn.

FOR GERMAN FREIGHT

Amsterdam, via London, Sep 18.—Hamburg is emulating the example set by England. German shipping men have formed a million mark shipping building company, which will immediately begin the construction of a series of 8,000 ton steamers for Germany's freight carrying trade after the war. The Hamburg-American Line is behind the new project, and Albert Ballin, director-general of that line will be chairman of the directorate. The plan is to abandon temporarily the custom of building huge special ships and concentrate on the construction of ten knot boats—several at a time—which can be turned out faster and cheaper than steamers each requiring particular specifications.

DEMAND FOR WAR GROWS

Throughout Greece.—Both Parties Make Demands For It. Athens, Sept. 16, via London Sept. 18.—(Delayed)—The first boatload of Greek soldiers from Kavala arrived here to-day. The men marched through the streets cheering King Constantine and crying: "Down with the Bulgars." The demand for war is growing rapidly among the people. Even the anti-Venizelos press plans an active pro-war campaign which will be opened to-morrow.

THE SEASON IS FINISHED

In the International League—Scores of Saturday's Games. Montreal, Sep. 18.—Montreal closing the International season by defeating Rochester's pitchers for thirty-six hits, for an equal number of runs in Sunday's double-header. The Hustlers never had a chance to win. Score: R.H.E. Montreal 6-2-0-0-10-10-3 Rochester 2-5-0-0-6-10-3 Test, Kirymayer and Hale; Cadore, and Madden.

ROCKY POINT, SEP. 18

By bunching hits with errors in the eighth and defeating Newark 6 to 3, Providence finished the International season in second place here Sunday, 5 games behind the champion Bisons. Score: R.H.E. Providence 6-3-0-0-10-10-3 Newark 3-6-0-0-6-10-3 Peters and J. Egan; Enzman and B. Egan.

Many Sportsmen in Casualties

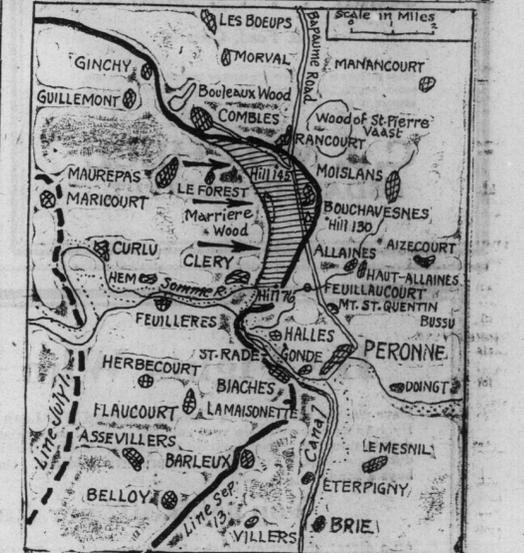

British Athletes of All Kinds Are Prominent at the Front To-day. By Courier Lensed Wire. London, Sept. 18.—(New York Herald cable)—The cream of British sportsmen continue to appear in the casualties resulting from the advance on the western front, the latest casualty list containing the names of many well known public school men, who have made their mark in every branch of sport. Captain J. Vivian Byrne-Johnson, who has been killed in action, was secretary of the Cambridge University Athletic Club, and was a fine long distance runner. G. F. Marsden-Smedley, killed, was captain of both the cricket and football elevens at Harrow. The death in action of Lieutenant Frederick Godfrey, ends the career of a conspicuous athlete on the football and cricket fields, as well as on the track. He established new figures for the army in both the 100 yards sprint and long jump. He was the only member of the bearers party drawn from the Grenadier Guards, which bore King Edward to his tomb who was spared to go into action. W. M. B. Nanson, who saw service in Gallipoli with the Manchester regiment, has been missing since June, 1915. He was a famous footballer, having represented England in the international games against South Africa, France and Wales. Several prominent oarsmen are reported killed, among them Captain T. H. Irving, Lieut. W. Stobart and Lieut. W. B. Tod Naylor. All three competed in the last Henley regatta. Captain Irving, who rowed in the Selwyn College eight in the Thames Challenge Cup, was killed while searching for his brother, Lieut. W. R. Irving, who was wounded, and who rowed in the same eight. James Flood and James Richardson, two well known Heywood footballers, also have fallen in action, while William Walker, of Middleton, famous in the swimming world, has died of wounds. Lieut. T. Harry Watson, one of the best known fast bowlers in Lancashire, also has fallen in action.

Indians Licked The Yankees

At Cleveland—Cleveland defeated New York by 9 to 7, the game being featured by hard hitting and wildness of the pitchers. Cleveland had a lead of eight runs at the start of the seventh, but Smith weakened, and Gould, who replaced him, was wild, but Boehling saved the game. Score: R.H.E. New York 7-11-1 Cleveland 9-7-0-0-10-10-3 Batteries—Smith, Gould, Boehling and Deberry; Shawkey, Love, Cantwell, Buckley and Alexander.

NEWS FROM OVERSEAS

Items of More or Less Interest From Great Britain

On a charge of conspiring to cheat the Treasury in regard to excess profits, Edwin Newman Chilton has been condemned to twelve months imprisonment. The accused was a director of the very respectable firm of Chilton, Wrigley & Co., Ltd. The offence was discovered through the opening by the censor of letters which had passed between the accused and a man named Lautman at Havre. Chilton wrote to Lautman and made a direct suggestion that to enable him to evade payment of part of the excess profits tax Lautman should send two separate cheques instead of one in payment for work done. One cheque, he suggested, should be sent to the firm and recorded in the books in the usual way, and the other should be sent to him privately so that he could evade tax on that payment and distribute the money privately among the partners of the firm. In this way part of the profit would not be recorded in the firm's books and no excess profits tax would be collected by the Treasury in respect of it. It came out in the evidence that the accused was the son of the senior partner of the firm, and the other members of the firm knew nothing whatever about the matter until the prosecution began. The judge in passing sentence, said that while other people were making sacrifices for their country, prisoner desired to make money during this time of trouble. Is it legal or illegal to play cards for money in a public compartment of a railway? This was the question that an Essex magistrate had to consider in a case that came before him at the instance of a Baptist minister. While travelling to the city (London) one morning, the minister entered a compartment where a game of cards was being played for small stakes. The minister protested against the employment of a public place for such a proceeding, and one of the players called the minister a "hypocrite." He further threatened to punch the preacher's jaw. For the defence it was argued that the practice was common, and that the manner in which the card players were approached was distasteful to one, who lost control of his temper. The magistrate declared the practice illegal, although, he said, "my sympathies are with the men who broke the law." The men were fined $10. Owing to the high prices for milk, to enable the London public to obtain it at a reasonable rate, farmers are entering into the retail trade. The Ealing Milk Consumers' Defence League have taken the lead in this matter and have arranged that till the end of September milk shall be sold over the counter at 9 cents per quart; delivered, 10 cents per quart. From October 1 to March 31 one extra halfpenny will be charged. For larger quantities these prices are not binding. The example set by this association is being imitated on a wholesale scale all over the country, and the antagonists that have characterized the milk industry for some months past is expected to disappear from England while the war lasts, when things will resume their normal state. A fortune telling case has lately been occupying the attention of the British Courts. Zealot Lee was the culprit and the witnesses against her were emissaries of the police, who stated that they were shown into a room containing eleven other ladies and one gentleman. The accused asked them to remove their gloves and join hands, and after a short prayer a demand for one shilling per head was made by the hostess upon her guests. In return for the future would be laid bare, the lady already married, but who concealed the fact, was informed that she was destined to wed a Scotsman and she was advised how best to overcome her future husband's tendency towards parsimony. Madame Zealot Lee defended herself with the plea that she was a genuine spiritualist and that the money aspect of the ceremony had nothing to do with the matter at all. The court imposed a fine of $40 to cover debts and costs.

The Central Control Board's pretension that it has greatly reduced the liquor traffic, is warmly disputed in many quarters, yet it is difficult to see how the Police Court statistics can be explained away. There is now published a table of figures showing the convictions for drunkenness during the first six months of the present year as compared with those of 1915. In Great London the weekly average of cases was 1,077 in the first half of last year; for this year it is 569. In Glasgow the fall was from 522 to 229; in Liverpool from 207 to 107; in Edinburgh from 120 to 79. These figures, taken along with those showing the diminution of delirium tremens, place beyond doubt the good effect of the restrictive orders.

A strange story of a woman who passed herself off as a man, has lately come to light in a North London Tribunal. Behind the masquerade lies the fact that she wished to escape from her husband with her two children as they could not get on together. Her natural appearance lent aid to the deception and she was able to obtain work as a foreman in a large factory. As she turned out to be a fine "workman" her employers made every effort to have her exempted from compulsory military service. In this they were successful, but not on the grounds that they argued, as they had no inkling of the fact that their exemplary foreman belonged to the opposite sex until informed thereof by the military authorities.

A lad of thirteen bearing the very un-English name of Paulziki is making somewhat of a reputation for himself by his plucky attempts to save people from drowning, in the vicinity of London. He is known by the lightermen and sailors of the neighborhood for his unselfish attempts to assist people in times of danger. Owing to his age bodily strength is not always equal to requirements. On the last occasion he was obliged to let Florence Chapman of Jews Road drown in order to prevent himself from being sucked under a barge. When the barge danger had passed he dived again but the unfortunate girl was beyond all help when he reached her.

Sphagnum Moss as a dressing for wounds, an ancient but long forgotten remedy, is one of the most important discoveries of the war. It is rapidly making headway among surgeons and nurses and the demand threatens to overtake the supply. The chief depot at Edinburgh is receiving orders from the War Office for some 20,000 dressings a week. The peculiar virtues of sphagnum moss are its lightness—which makes it much more comfortable than cotton wool, especially in hot weather—its silky, comfortable feeling, and its remarkable powers of absorption, by which it carries in its wet state fully ten times its own weight of water. The moss is common on the North American continent.

SURPRISE ATTACK DEFEATED TURKS

British Forces Invaded Enemy Trenches in Sinai Peninsula.

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Sept. 18.—Defeat of the Turks in a minor engagement on the Sinai peninsula, 65 miles east of the Suez canal, was announced officially to-day as follows: "A mobile column composed of Anzac mounted troops and a camel corps, with some artillery, left Bir-el-Abd on September 6, with a view to carrying out a reconnaissance of enemy troops west of El Arish. The column reached an enemy position at Bir-el-Mazar, 65 miles from the canal at dawn of Sunday. A sharp engagement followed, in which our troops penetrated the enemy trenches at several points and inflicted considerable casualties, while our artillery heavily shelled the enemy camps.

"The attack appears to have been a surprise to the Turks, and our aircraft saw and fired on several parties of them, among whom were German officers, riding rapidly back to El Arish. We took some prisoners. Our casualties were slight."

TURFMAN DIED

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Sept. 18.—Sydney Paget, well known turfman, died in London Saturday. Mr. Paget at one time managed the racing stable of the late William C. Whitney. He was 69 years old.

The Don, a small river, is a very treacherous stream and drowning accidents are common within its waters. The latest victim is Herbert Williams Brock, a well-known Doncaster man, who lost his life with his wife and daughters agonized spectators of the tragedy. Deceased was camping out with his family, and went for a bathe. The party included girls and boys. One boy became exhausted, and when Brock went to his assistance he clutched him round the neck several times, but the father managed to get the lad back, and then himself sank, and was not seen again. He was a good swimmer.

ITALIANS GAIN IN THE ISONZO

Further Entrenchments taken, with 800 Prisoners—Severe Bombardment.

London, Sept. 18.—The Italians have taken another big stride forward in their offensive in the Isonzo region. On the Carso plateau, where operations aim to shatter the defenses of the Monfalcone-Triest R.R., Italian infantry stormed and seized powerful enemy entrenchments on a wide front. Against the heights south and east of Gorizia, which have withstood all attacks for weeks, King Victor's troops carried out assaults that were partly successful.

There is no confirmation as yet of the capture of 10,000 Austrians in the fighting of Friday. The official report of to-day (Sunday) says:

Eight Hundred Prisoners.—On the Carso, after repulsing several night counter-attacks our troops continued yesterday to press their attacks on powerful enemy lines. After an extremely violent artillery duel our infantry stormed and captured further entrenchments on a wide front, taking about 800 prisoners, including twenty officers.

MOST DRAMATIC
BATTLE OF BRITAIN

Canadians Took Part in Big Fight of St. Magnus Charge Great Things

Most Dramatic Take One
By Courier Leased Wire.

British Front in France, Sept. 18, via London, Sept. 19.—The most dramatic and picturesque battle of the British army in all its two years in France was fought on September 15. Here is the story of how all kinds of men from the ends of the earth took part in this mighty conflict.

In the same dressing station this week the correspondent has seen Canadians, New Zealanders, English, Scotch, Irish, Newfoundlanders and Americans. These were some of the men of many countries who took part in the now historic battle, and with them there went into action those armored motor cars, called "tanks," which are to the credit of a quiet officer of engineers. When the correspondent met this officer in London six months ago and asked him what job he was on now, he replied: "Sh! Sh! Don't tell!"

The "Tanks." It was the "tanks" that completed the wonderful business of the battle. To-day when the correspondent was talking on a Canadian brigadier, it was a "tank" called the "cordon rogue," looking like a prehistoric monster in a skin of modern armor and with engines inside, which took him across the field of shell craters, weaving its way with pythonic adaptability by all irregularities up to the door of the brigadier's dugout. The skipper of "the cordon rogue" alighted, and with phlegmatic drawl announced that he reported for further orders. The brigadier laughingly gave him a "thumbs down" from the stairs of the dugout, but move it to one side. So "tank" ambled with the bulky leisure of a hippopotamus over some more shell craters to a place where it would be out of the way until it was needed. Then the correspondent went over the ground which the Canadians had taken up to the edge of the village of Concreville. Later they were back the village. He met Canadians who came from Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver. There were also men with the accents of Missouri and New England and others who, on the soil of France, hailed one another in the French tongue of Quebec.

German Official Strive to Con

British Gains Are Never Admitted

By Courier Leased Wire.
New York, Sept. 19.—A New York Times' cable from London says:

Attention is called by a British official to the fact on September 7th the German official staff announced that it would no longer receive the bulletins operations of a secondary importance. The announcement was made towards the end of what is regarded here as the worst week the German armies had had since the first week in July. Guillemont, Fallemont farm, Leuze wood, and more than 1,000 prisoners had fallen to the British, who had just captured all that remained of the German second line of defense from Mouquet farm to the junction with the French. Ghinchy was on the point of falling. The French had already taken Le Forest, Clerf, Secyocourt and Chilly, with 700 prisoners and thirty six guns, many of them heavy.

The British official comments of an "At this point it seemed desirable to the German general staff to distinguish between important events which should be published and secondary events which should not be judged by any other standards of importance than those of the German general staff."

Which of the points in the war map does the general staff consider important enough to be mentioned? It is asked here. It certainly
