GREENWICH NOTES

Mr. Davidson, the Inspector, visited our school last Wednesday morning, his first visit since his appointment. He left a very favorable impression with the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Collins, of Wolfville, moved in to the Morse house here one day last week, having rented it from the agent, Mr. Enoch Bishop, Wolfville. A number of our residents have been enjoying concerts etc. on the radio, at friends' homes in Wolfville.

Miss Esther Pearson has been housed for the past week with a badly sprained foot. We wish for her a speedy recovery from her painful and trying experience.

We are glad to know Olive Bishop is well on the road toward recovery, after her illness of the la Grippe, with a slight attack of pneumonia.

Mr. Grant Murphy, of Port Williams, was absent on Monday from his duties at the station and post-office, reports stating he had met with a slight accident while driving on Sunday, owing to his horse's bits breaking.

Grace Pudey—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Pudey—while going home from school Monday noon, was riding on the sloven wagon of her uncle, Mr. Omar Pudey, and when near her home, in some way fell off, one wheel passing over her limbs, causing cuts and bruises in places, also receiving a bad shaking up and shock. A narrow escape from a serious accident and bringing to the minds of many, the fatal accident of the small boy over at Port Williams, last fall, caused from riding on a sloven wagon.

On Monday evening four of our boys enjoyed a trip and the fun of catching a fine supply of smelts.

CANARD NOTES

A Musical Recital was held at the home of Mrs. C'arence Norris on April 18th. Mrs. Norris has a very large class. A number from Canard were invited. The evening was much enjoyed by all.

Mr. Gordon Eaton, of Lower Canard, who is attending the Wolfville High School, was home for the week end.

The Cornwallis Division held its last meeting Monday, April 24th. It will now close for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burbridge returned from their trip, on Saturday last. A number of friends gathered to surround them and welcome Mrs. Burbridge to Canard.

The Canard Institute met at the hall, Lower Canard, April 24th. Miss McDougal gave a very interesting address, also Miss Ellis. The Institute will meet next month at the home of Mrs. Lorne Rand, Upper Canard. The meeting is left in the hands of the Directors for the coming month.

GRAND PRE NOTES

Mr. Irving F. Boates, of Brooklyn, Nants Co., spent a few days last week with Mr. S. W. Rogerson.

We hope Mr. W. P. Eaton, who has not been enjoying his usual good health of late, will be out again soon.

Several from here were in Kentville on Tuesday.

Miss Sarah Mitchell passed away on Thursday of last week, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Whitman.

Miss Doris B. Eaton left on Wednesday morning for Halifax where she will visit her brother, Mr. Roy H. Eaton.

Mrs. Norman MacRae is spending a few days in Halifax.

WE'D LIKE TO KNOW

1. What steps are being taken regarding permanent paving of the Wolfville-Kentville road?
2. What prospects are there of Wolfville having paved sidewalks?
3. More about the G. W. V. A. scheme for a Memorial Hall?
4. When construction of a harbor is to commence?
5. When the "adequate fire protection" is coming?
6. Whether "the immediate revision of the By-Laws" is completed and when "the rigid enforcement of law" will be commenced?
7. Whether Fielding originated the "platforms are made to get in on" cynicism or whether he borrowed it from some one else.
8. If our advantages as a tourist centre should not receive more publicity.
9. Whether anything is being done to ward off the certain(?) ruin which will face us if the University leaves.

CURIOS

Mr. J. Everett Kinman, of Centreville, who has been looking for a residence in Wolfville for several weeks, has purchased the fine place on Westwood avenue from Rev. Dr. Gates, and takes possession the first of May. The many friends whom Mr. and Mrs. Kinman made during their residence here last summer will be glad to welcome them back to Wolfville.

LADY ASTOR.

Britain's first woman M. P. who recently arrived in America to attend the big conference of the League of Women Voters to be held at Baltimore shortly. After the conference Lady Astor will visit her old home in Virginia.

'TIRED OF THE CURSED BEGGING'

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN

Dear Sir:—The above remark was hurled at me today while discharging my duty in soliciting in the interest of the Nova Scotia Home for Colored Children (an object which is beyond any reasonable doubt a worthy one and the need of which is indispensable), by one of the men of the town to whom I approached. This institution is for the care and protection of colored orphan and neglected children, parallel with the Children's Home in Halifax (white), the Truro Home for Girls or any other institution of this kind. These institutions are dependent on the public for support and it is quite legitimate that solicitations are made for them, as does the Salvation Army, an institution for the benefit of humanity whose service is beyond the conception of some people. In approaching this man I would like if possible to say this gentleman but I can't, for the writer knows that every person who wears a pair of pants, a shirt, a coat, etc. is a man, but each one is not a gentleman. It is unfortunate to think that because a man has much of this world's goods, he is a gentleman, not at all, he is very abruptly, rudely, and discourteously said that he is tired of this cursed begging, he has nothing to give. I must say that this has been the only case of its kind, the other people have proved themselves ladies and gentlemen, but there is always a rotten apple in every barrel—or on every tree, and it is no discredit to the beautiful town of Wolfville. But for this man's benefit and perhaps a few others I want to say that in cases of this kind the parties soliciting are not begging. Soliciting is quite a different word from begging, and has quite a different meaning. Wolfville possesses a large percentage of educational enthusiasts, enveloping within her realm one of Canada's greatest Universities, and definitions of these two words can be given by any of the University professors in their most elaborate forms. At the present time there are many universities and colleges that are making public appeals for funds or voluntary subscriptions for their upkeep, which step is justified. Would it not be preposterous to think or to say that any of these are begging? The action is legal and legitimate. The stand or action taken by the Executive of the Colored Children's Home is a legitimate and sacred one because it is in conjunction with the Master's own words, "Feed my lambs". And to such an appeal anything less than meeting it generously, willingly, joyfully, whether with a contribution in gift or even with a kind word, places oneself within the reach of the Master to whom he shall say "For as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these my brethren, ye did it not unto me."

Rejecting any appeal for charitable institutions for children in respect of color, is putting a millstone around some one's neck, and such should at once be drowned in the depth of the sea. I would like to express publicly my thanks for the very courteous way other wise in which the people of the town have received me and although not receiving large subscriptions the courtesy extended and the expression of sympathy with the efforts of the Home have been graciously appreciated.

W. CONSTANTINE FREY

HOUSING ACT COMMISSIONERS

At a recent meeting of the Council the following gentlemen were appointed as members of the Commission to operate the Dominion Housing Act in Wolfville: Dr. A. J. McKenna, Messrs. J. F. H. Robinson, G. K. Prescott, Fred E. Peck and Harry Brown.

School Exhibition

Civic Club Decides to Hold Exhibition in September

At the meeting of the Civic Club on Wednesday evening the chief matter of business was the consideration of the school exhibition. This exhibition was successfully held two years ago, but owing to what was considered as perfectly good reasons, was not held last year. It was decided at a recent meeting of the Civic Club to make an effort to resume the important work and hold an exhibition next September, provided a competent committee could be secured to carry it on. At the meeting on Wednesday evening Dr. Coit, the chairman of the committee on Town Improvement, which had charge of the exhibition two years ago, reported that Mr. C. B. Russell had consented to take the lead in the matter. The proposed exhibition was discussed at some length and the general opinion expressed was that the undertaking should have the support of every citizen and should be conducted on a larger scale than in previous years. Some preliminary work was done in the way of the appointment of chairmen of various committees to work out details. It was also decided to secure if possible the co-operation of the schools at Lower Wolfville, Grand Pre and Gasperau. It is believed that with a carefully arranged and attractive prize list a good display of the work of the school children can be secured and with the support of citizens which the undertaking certainly merits the exhibition may be made a successful and useful affair. Let everybody help.

HYMENEAL

WATSON-EARLE

A very interesting event took place at North Sydney on Wednesday of last week, when Elsie Marjorie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Earle, was united in marriage at St. John's Church to Mr. David M. Watson, of the Western Union Cable's staff, Rev. J. Hackley officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Watson are spending their honeymoon at Wolfville, the latter having made many friends here during her stay in town the past winter.

MACLEOD-BAIRD

The marriage took place at Wolfville on Tuesday, of Gladys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baird, to Rev. MacInnosh MacLeod, a recent graduate of Dalhousie University and Pine Hill Theological College. The ceremony was performed at the First Baptist Church by Rev. C. W. Rose. The bride is a niece of Mrs. C. P. Wilson, of the town, and has visited Wolfville several times and has many friends here. Mrs. Wilson and son Harold were in attendance at the wedding, the latter acting as one of the ushers. Rev. and Mrs. MacLeod, after a trip to Upper Canadian cities, will reside at Providence, R. I., where Mr. MacLeod is pastor of a Presbyterian church.

REGAN-ILLESLEY

At the Baptist Parsonage, Kentville, on Monday, April 17th, Rev. D. G. Ross officiating, in the presence of the immediate relatives, Norman Regan, of Port Williams, and Grace Illesley, were united in marriage.

County Council Meets

Old Road at Grand Pre Will not be Re-opened

The regular Spring session of the County Council was held at the Court House, Kentville, on Tuesday of this week. It was the final meeting of the present Council as the regular election for Councillors takes place next November. Little besides the regular routine was transacted in the matter of business. One of the matters coming up was the proposed to open the old French road at Grand Pre, laid over from January meeting. A delegation of citizens of Grand Pre appeared before the Council, and asked that permission for the opening of this road be not granted, and on motion their request was acceded to.

A petition from residents of Port Williams, asking for the opening of a new road at that place to provide for increased building facilities was read and favorably decided upon.

The request of the joint committee which has supervision over the work of the district nurse, asking that due consideration be given to the fact that Wolfville provides its own nurse and is thus entitled to exempt from participation in the expense of the district nurse, came up and was laid over for action until the January term.

At the afternoon session a resolution was introduced by Coun. Bill, which asked the Legislature to consider the bill providing for the creation of a taxing commission, on the ground that it would cause more expense and add to the burdens of the people. The resolution was defeated.

Before adjourning the Council passed a resolution instructing the Clerk to procure the necessary legislation to enable the municipality to borrow on the credit of the county the sum of $40,000 at 6 per cent. interest, for the purpose of paying for the site, buildings, etc. of the new County Home.

HELP THE SALVATION ARMY

At a meeting held on Wednesday evening it was arranged that the week of May 8th would be Self Denial Week for the Salvation Army.

The Boy Scouts will leave an envelope of essay house during the preceding week and the people of Wolfville are asked to place their contributions, large or small, in that envelope and give to the collectors who are as follows:

Mr. Herbert Stairs, Main St. West.
Mr. Grant Porter, Highland Ave., Central Avenue, and Prospect St.
Mr. B. O. Davidson, Main St. Centre.
Mr. G. K. Prescott, Summer St., Acadia St. and Linden Ave.
Prof. A. B. Balcom and Dr. W. L. Archibald, University, Westwood and Earnscliffe Avenues.
Mr. C. A. Patriguin, Main St. east of Church of England.
Rev. G. W. Miller, Main St., Mud Bridge to Church of England.
Prof. A. Sutherland, Gasperau, Locust and Sea View Avenues.

Bliss Carman, a poet, native of Fredericton, N. B. and a graduate of the University of New Brunswick, observed his sixty-first anniversary of his birth on April 15. Mr. Carman has resided in the United States for the greater part of his life-time. His first poem was published in 1893.

ENGLAND'S "MYSTERY TOWER" TO BE SCRAPPED.

Known as the "Mystery Tower" of Sherham, this huge structure was built during the war at a cost of over $5,000,000, but it was never used. It is now to be scrapped. Its purpose has given rise to much speculation, but is a closely guarded secret of the British Admiralty. Its destruction will leave for salvage only a few steel girders.

BRIG.-GEN. C. A. SMART, M. P. P.

Who will probably be a prominent figure at the Conservative convention of the Province of Quebec to be held on May 8th and 9th. It is expected that the question of leadership will be definitely decided at the meeting.

THE IRISH SITUATION

The following letter received by the Viscount Forsyth de Fronsac from Lord Sydenham, a descendant of a former Governor of Canada, and at present chairman of a committee on investigation in the House of Lords, gives a splendid idea of the conditions in Ireland and will be read with interest by our readers. Viscount de Fronsac has shown us the envelope of a letter received from the postal authorities at Dublin on which the words, "On His Majesty's Service", are marked out, and some Irish words, which we were unable to translate, put in their place. Lord Sydenham's letter follows:

Dear Sir,—Many thanks for your letter. I regret that I have not time to answer it fully. It is now almost impossible to get certain facts before the British public, and of course people in Canada and America are being misled. The propagandists take care of that. Sympathy here turns more and more to Ulster, the only part of Ireland where the law is still operative. There is not the smallest doubt that the Ma Mahon family were murdered by the Sinn Feiners. They had been warned before and they had refused to contribute. That was enough. It must be known in Canada that Catholic R. I. C. men are being assassinated regularly. It is not a war of religion; but a conflict between men who uphold the law and Bolshevists. The I. R. A., or most of it, is being used just as is the Red Army in Russia, and the state of S. and W. Ireland is appalling. The truth is suppressed and the loyalists (many of whom are Catholics) dare not write because the mails are never safe. Only when some one comes over can we get glimpses of what is going on. The Republican and Bolshevik party is muzzling the Press and preventing free speech. It is all a copy of the Bolshevik proceedings. Of course to some of us, it was quite plain what would happen, when the troops were withdrawn; but the Government would not listen, and Americans knowing nothing, encouraged the revolutionaries. The object seems to be to attack Ulster and we are bound to defend her. As for the rest of Ireland, we cannot go back now; but a time may come when the agriculturists will demand the reestablishment of law. It would have been quite easy to do this at the beginning of last year. A capable soldier with a free hand would have had little difficulty. The Government, under evil influences, decided to parley with assassins and the results were of course inevitable. Believe me

Your very faithfully,
SYDENHAM

NEW WATER WHEEL

The Gasperau Light, Heat and Power Co. are making changes in their plant in order to add to its efficiency. They are now adding an auxiliary water wheel of the latest pattern which will conserve their supply of water and at the same time improve the service. The new wheel is 150 h. p. and is equipped with all the latest appliances. One of these is the oil-control which is very quick in action and thereby gives steadier current, and much better results. The work of installing the wheel, which has now arrived will be proceeded with at once. It will be placed on the south end of the dam and will be used during the day and when the large wheel will not be required to carry the load. THE ACADIAN congratulates Messrs. Wright and Jodrey and wishes them the success which their energy and enterprise deserves.

H. R. McLellan was elected Mayor of St. John on the 24th by 1575 majority over Mayor Schofield. The vicar is the champion of a civic distribution of hydro-electric current.

Wolfville Boy Scouts

Give Splendid Entertainment—Four Boys Receive King's Scout Badge

The local troop of Boy Scouts gave their eleventh annual entertainment at the Opera House on Monday evening before an audience that taxed the seating capacity of the theatre. It proved to be one of the best, if not the best, entertainment yet given and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The following program was splendidly rendered:

- Overture—Scout Band.
- Scout Salute, Promise, Doxology, God Save The King—Roll Call, O Canada.
- Presentation of 2nd Class, 1st Class and King's Scout and Proficiency Badges.
- Th: Scout Song.
- Demonstration of Healthman Badge—Presbyterian Patrol.
- Character Song—"Ding Toes"—Allen Pick, Morris Mason.
- Demonstration of Proficiency Badges.
- (a) Fireman—Mr. Corkum.
- (b) Electrician—Mr. Cleveland.
- Slection—Scout Band.
- Demonstration of Proficiency Badge.
- Starman—Mr. Eley.
- Character Song—"Who dat say Chick-en"—K. Murphy, S. Cook, Gordon Mahaney.

Shadow Pantomime—A Lover's Stragem—"Crusaders" (Anglican Patrol).- Selection—Scout Band.
- Lantern Slides—Showing Scout History of Wolfville.

Song—Grand Pre Patrol.
Cornet Duet—Hal Phinney, John Johnson.

Indian Play—Pocahontas.
Cast of Characters
John Smith—Claire McKenna.
Pocahontas—Robt. Herbin.
Eagle's Wing—Jack Williams.
King—Verne Graham.
Silver Fox—Colin Monro.
Scout—Wm. Cutten.
Guide—Ron. Prescott.

Mr. H. O. Eaman, Assistant Provincial Commissioner of the Boy Scouts, was present and expressed himself as delighted to find the movement in so health a condition. He presented King's Scout Badges to Verne Graham, Claire McKenna, Colin Munro and James Northover. The last two also received the Gold All-round Cord, the highest honor obtainable. The King's Scout Badge was in each case accompanied by 18 Proficiency Badges.

The cup presented by the Sons of Foundation in the best all-round scout was won this year by William Wallace. The Swastika Gold Badge was presented by Dr. W. L. Archibald to Max Brown for very distinguished service to the Scout cause in Wolfville. He has been chairman of the committee of twenty-five college students who have so ably assisted the Scoutmaster during the past winter.

Mr. H. W. Phinney is to be congratulated upon his success in the training of the Scout Band whose selections were splendidly rendered and much enjoyed.

A great part of the success of the entertainment was due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. E. P. Brown, who has taken a keen interest in training the boys in their musical parts. On account of her severe illness during the past few weeks she was unable to play the accompaniments Monday evening, but her place was ably filled by Miss Miriam Coit.

CLINIC NOTES

Eye Clinic at Clinic Room, Weaver Block, Kentville, Friday, May 5, commencing 9. a. m.; Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat specialist in attendance.

This Clinic is made possible through the generosity of the County Red Cross Society with the co-operation of the specialist. We have also to thank Colonel Jacques (a successful Kings County man) and Colonel Sharples for the loan (having been granted permission from Ottawa) of an eye test case of lenses. Both these gentlemen were deeply interested in the progress of Public Health work and glad of the opportunity to help the little ones. In seven months work of county nurse 313 children were found with defective vision; for a very small number was anything being done. The Health Movie Pictures will be shown Sunday May 7, 3.30 p. m. for the children, 8.30 for the adults. Dr. D. A. Craig, known over a large number of provinces, as an entertaining and stirring speaker, will address the audience. Admission Free.

The adv. of Rand's Drug Store, which has been missing from our columns for some weeks past, will be found in the customary place this week and will be worthy of attention in succeeding issues. Mr. Rand has made a number of changes and improvements of late which add materially to the appearance and accommodation of his store. It is now one of Wolfville's most attractive business places and a decided credit to the town as well as to its enterprising proprietor. Rand's Drug Store was established in 1853 and is yet going strong.

W. C. T. U. Notes

Women's Christian Temperance Union first organized in 1874. Aim—The protection of the home, the abolition of the liquor traffic and the triumph of Christ's Golden Rule in custom and in law.

Johnson heard that a liquor seller was going about boasting that the minute he would set his eye upon the Federal Agent, he would be a dead man.

CHOICE RECIPES

FRENCH MEAT ROLLS—Season 1 pound of hamburger steak with salt and pepper and one large chopped onion. Make into rolls three inches long and 1 inch through.

AN EDITOR'S RESOLUTION

"Here is my 1922 resolution," a certain western newspaper Editor exploded recently. "I am going to publish in this column all the town scandal, tell about who is suspected of having hootch in their basements, lambast the loafers and good-for-nothings, tell every inside story I hear, bawl the hypocrites out every time I hear of them putting their religion behind them to make a dollar, tell where the neighbors chickens scratch out the other fellow's garden, kick like thunder every time the electric lights "wink" howl like the dickens every time I have to ring more than once to get central and tell all the secrets the city marshals know."

HON. CHARLES M. HAMILTON

Minister of Agriculture for Saskatchewan will leave for the East immediately after Easter to appear before the Agricultural Committee of the House of Commons to uphold the case of the Wheat Board.

Mother: "This letter from Charlie is very short." Father: "Yes, so is Charlie, or he wouldn't have written."

"SIX MONTHS AGO"

"It's hard to realize that six months ago I couldn't walk across the floor and now I am so well!" "I have never been very strong but the heat last summer was too much for me. This and the fact that my husband was out of work and I had to work day and night to keep from starving, left me a physical wreck. Luckily my husband was able to get a good job just when I had to go to bed. I tried everything I could think of to get strong, but each day I seemed to be getting weaker and weaker. I was reduced to a skeleton, I couldn't eat or sleep, I had no strength left and finally I was so weak that I didn't care whether I lived or died. And then I heard about that marvelous preparation—Carnol! A friend of mine had used it with wonderful results and as it had done so much for her, I decided to try it. The results were nothing less than miraculous. In two weeks I was able to get up and walk about the house. My appetite had returned. I could sleep when I went to bed, something I had not been able to do for months. I have actually taken six bottles of Carnol and already taken six bottles of Carnol and I am still taking it. I weigh more today than I ever weighed before in my life. I sleep like a child. I am never tired and my skin is as clear and my cheeks as rosy as a girl's. I bless the day I heard about Carnol." Mrs. K., Toronto. Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle and he will refund your money. 8-122 SOLD BY H. THE KING'S ENGLISH DRILL

A Review by Earle D. MacPhee, M. A. B. Edic. (Edin.), Lecturer on Education, University of Alberta.

"THE KING'S ENGLISH DRILL." Rosamond M. Archibald, M. A. Published by McLelland and Stewart, Toronto, October 1921.

It is a matter worthy of consideration in a Canadian Educational Journal when a Canadian teacher ventures into a field of educational publications. It is a matter for congratulations when the aim of the authoress is to give to her fellow-teachers the result of years of experimentation and thought. It is of even more importance, from the standpoint of school methods, when the writer declares that the steps by which children can be taught to use correct grammatical forms are but two: Present the correct form: 'Drill, drill and then drill on the repetition of that form.'

The writer of this review is in a position to know that the claim of the Publishers, that the method used by Miss Archibald "has won the enthusiastic commendation of her pupils and their parents," is correct. The aim here is to consider certain problems which arise from a consideration of the King's English Drill.

Perhaps the question of most immediate importance is as to the correctness of Miss Archibald's insistence on intensive drill. In recent years we have witnessed an extension of the concept of interest-education; and have become accustomed to strictures on any form of drill. The term is in fact, almost anathema among many who consider themselves in line with the more recent movements in educational practice. These educators contend that 'drill' lacks motivation; that it appeals only to extrinsic and indirect interest; that it fails to evoke the self-activity of the child; that it is meaningless; that it is a relic of the disciplinarian concept of education; that it views the educational process from the standpoint of the adult, not that of the child.

It must be granted that some forms of drill can be condemned on one or all of these counts. But the drill to which Miss Archibald refers is not of this sort. The "motivation" is to be found in the oral and written composition in the class-room, in checking the forms of speech used by class mates, perhaps even of parents and teachers. The 'interests' are as direct as can be found; the reward for the correct use of speech-forms are far more frequent in life than those to be obtained from a correct use of what may be called "number forms." What Miss Archibald has done is to supply the answers to the queries which distress every youthful author, (and his or her parent) when the propriety of a form of speech is in question. The exercises are 'meaningless' only if the teacher stops where so many did with the old grammar drills—with the few forms supplied by the text. The author of 'Kings' English' has no such intention. The subject and object can be, and should be changed many times. The aim of the text is but to provide types by which the correctness of many similar statements can be judged. The lists include the correct forms of all the more difficult constructions of English speech.

But the authoress is not obliged to remain on the defensive. In even years more scientific measurement of the results of educational practice have shown that we have gone too far in abandoning drill methods. Two facts may be noted in this connection. It has been found that a very great percentage of errors in higher mathematics can be traced to errors in the fundamental processes. Any student of psychology is aware that the causes of this may be varied, but one potent factor in lowering efficiency, both from the standpoint of accuracy, and that of expenditure of time, is the failure to make habitual in childhood certain connections or responses. The attention span (or range) of children is limited; very few can attend to more than one or two parts of a process at one time. No child, studying advanced mathematics, must attend to such a fundamental process as subtraction, he must either lengthen the time spent in the solution, or sacrifice accuracy. The mechanization requires 'drill, drill and yet more drill.'

A second fact may be drawn from the psychology of memory. It has been found that the maxim: "Learn young, learn fair" can be demonstrated experimentally. Although the adult far surpasses the child in his ability to learn for immediate reproduction, the child of ten to twelve retains permanently more impressions than the adult. We need not enter into a discussion of the causes of this phenomenon. The pedagogical implication is obvious: it is in the early years of school life that the child should learn the forms of speech which it is desired that he shall continue to use. The primary teacher, and the intermediate teacher, have especially good opportunities to fix the forms of speech by using the material presented in the 'King's English.' In more advanced grades the method will be varied, with more appeal to experience, and more reference to literature; but the experience of Miss Archibald indicates that much can be accomplished at any stage of school work. Those who have to work with Freshman English classes are quite readily persuaded that King's English Drill seems to be what about fifty per cent of their students need. But it is in the primary grades that the greatest progress can be made: here the speech habits are less fixed, and the cart-harsh less difficult. The fact that memory capacity seems to show a period of arrest at fourteen or fifteen years of age must be kept in mind in determining the ages at which the drill will be most effective.

Yet the 'method' suggested by 'King's English Drill' MAY become lifeless and barren of results. It is founded on sound psychological principles, but no text can be "psychologized" to the extent that an enthusiastic, inspiring teacher becomes a secondary factor in the process. Further, the work must be correlated at every stage; errors must be watched for, and the correct form presented, whether the subject matter be geography, history, arithmetic, or composition.

The 'King's English Drill' is not a grammar; it is essentially inductive, leaving the discovery of principles to the students themselves. To those teachers who have found it difficult to present to their children an adequate statement of the correct forms of English speech; to those who have been looking for a text which recognizes that to present the incorrect forms but serves to confuse children, the King's English Drill can be heartily commended. Miss Archibald has stated her method, and given the material; it now remains for others to submit both to further examination. The writer believes that the method need only be tried to have its worth proven.

The price of the book is 50 cents; postpaid 55 cts.

OBJECTIVE

Advertising for the sake of advertising produces advertising—just that, nothing more.

Advertising for the sake of merchandising produces business—if it is handled the right way.

But advertisers sometimes forget that. They make appropriations, O. K. copy, select media and plunge in. They call it advertising. It is—but it is not merchandising.

For they have made advertising an end. And in merchandising it is not an end. It is the means to an end. The real objective of an advertising campaign is always—TO SELL GOODS.

But before you can successfully sell your goods, you must consider your market. Is it a productive market—great enough to yield big returns, compact enough to be easily covered? Is it an "easy" market—adaptable, accessible, responsive? Can reader interest be aroused—dealer co-operation secured—and above all else CAN YOUR MARKET BE DELIVERED AT A LOW COST?

Once you are satisfied on these points—advertise. But not until then. Apply any one of these questions to the Wolfville market. In every case the answer is a definite, positive yes! For in Wolfville—a rich, responsive, well-defined market—the buying majority can actually be covered through THE ACADIAN.

It's cheaper to retain than to regain the good will of your help. Wise is the employer who realizes this.

FAREWELL AT AYLESFORD

On Friday evening, April 7th, a farewell social was held for pastor McAvoy and his wife who left for Glace Bay, their new field of labor on Monday the 10th. The large audience which jammed into the church showed very clearly the love and respect of this community toward our late Pastor and his dear wife. Many were the expressions of regret at their departure from our midst, and many eyes were tear bedimmed when Rev. McAvoy stood before us to say Good-Bye.

The Aylesford Glee Club added to the evenings entertainment by their presence. The Club was at its very best, and their rendering of several sacred selections under the direction of Rev. McAvoy was a treat seldom enjoyed by this community. This organization was brought into being and trained by Bro. McAvoy until it became the best organization ever developed in Aylesford, so with his departure the Club loses its efficient leader as well the Church its pastor.

On the platform were the Rev. Bridgeman (Anglican) and Rev. H. Puddington, of Kingston. Both of these brethren spoke very highly of Bro. McAvoy and his work, and each in turn expressed surprise at the church permitting our brother to take his departure.

As a Church we deeply regret Bro. McAvoy's going but feel that his new field of labor offers him larger opportunities for the use of his gifts, as a pulpit orator.

Bro. McAvoy has not had a peer in Aylesford. His messages have been uplifting and practical. Practical Christianity has been the key note of his sermons. The large congregations which assembled each Sabbath to hear our brother was sufficient evidence of the keen interest in his work. The financial part of our Church life has been the best in at least 25 years, and while we regret his going we commend him highly to his new flock in Glace Bay.

Bro. McAvoy and his wife were completely taken by surprise when during the social evening representatives from different societies of the pastorate gave to each a tangible expression of love and good wishes. On behalf of the ladies

For years I have never considered my stock of household remedies complete unless a bottle of Minard's Liniment was included. For burns, bruises, sprains, frost-bites or chillblains it excels, and I know of no better remedy for a severe cold in the head, or that will give more immediate relief, than to inhale from the bottle through the nasal organ.

And as to my supply of veterinary remedies it is essential, as it has in very many instances proven its value. A recent experience in reclaiming what was supposed to be a lost section of a valuable cow's udder has again demonstrated its great worth, and prompts me to recommend it in the highest terms to all who have a herd of cows, large or small. I think I am safe in saying among all the patent medicines there is none that covers as large a field of usefulness as does Minard's Liniment. A real truenism-good for man or beast.

CHAS. K. ROBBINS, Cheboque Point

Mrs. McAvoy was presented with a beautiful hand bag nicely lined with brand new crisp one dollar bills and in addition to this received many handsome pieces of fancy work. Bro. McAvoy was presented with a money gift from the Glee Club amounting to $50. Another from the Aylesford section of the Church amounting to $26 and one from Morris-town amounting to $50 to be divided with Mrs. McAvoy. Two young ladies baptized by Bro. McAvoy presented him with a beautiful silver Ever Ready pencil.

The total monetary expression amounted to $151.00.

At the close of the speech making and program the ladies provided a dainty repast which gave each person a good opportunity to say farewell to Bro. McAvoy and his wife, and to wish them God Speed.

Bargain-Hunters

In this community are hundreds of individuals and families on the watch for an advertisement which will offer them what they want at an advantageous price.

Call them bargain-hunters if you will, but there is nothing wrong in waiting for a bargain, especially when the seller is anxious to sell at a reduced price.

One family wants a new carpet—the need is not urgent. Another family is looking forward to buying dining-room furniture—it may not be for a twelve month.

One man is thinking of buying himself a watch. One woman a shopping bag; another an umbrella.

All can be made to buy earlier—by advertising.

NOTE TO MERCHANTS

Stimulate business by the offer of some slow-moving lines at special prices. Brighten up business by advertising some desirable goods at reduced prices. Make advertising banish dull business. Often you can tempt the buyer who is biding his or her time, to buy from you—at a time of your naming.

WHY NOT APPLE DAY FOR N. S.?

In the troubled days of Prohibition, when California raisin grape growers feared utter ruin by the passing of the vineyard industry, an enterprising publicity man, now running a news bureau in Vancouver, conceived the idea of holding a state-wide "Raisin Day" to boost the grape. The raisin was boosted widely. It was acclaimed as a health-giver, a death-defier and the most delicious thing that ever tickled the palate of a dyspeptic. Soon everyone was eating raisins. And the fad spread. The vineyards menare now raising grapes, for the world, and business never was better.

Something like this might prove a great success in Nova Scotia. Let us have a "N. S. Apple Day". Let it be an education, a revelation of the qualities of the apple and other orchard products. Any medical man or drugless healer will tell you there is not enough fruit eaten. The old adage about "an apple a day drives the doctor away" has much truth. An apple taken daily on arising is a true health-giver. The human system craves fruit acids. Apples and other orchard fruits are rich with nature's own tonics to up-build the body, enrich the blood, build the bone, aid the growth, fortify the forming development of adolescence, help healthy maternity, defer the ravages of old age, and keep the Grim Reaper further in the background.

By all means, let somebody organize "Apple Day in N. S.". Let us start a wide campaign and encourage everyone to eat fruit in abundance on the day. Then the orchard product will receive its boost. People will learn to like fruit. They will make every day fruit day. And the result will be bet er general health, with, incidental y, a greater demand for our orchard products.

With three automobile accidents in this county on Sunday last one of which was attended with fatal results and another in the destruction of the car by fire—and this at a time when motor vehicles are supposed to be prohibited by law from the use of the streets—what may be expected to happen when the ban has been fully removed?

The government of an incorporated town is evidently much more democratic than that provided by the Municipal Council. In the former the citizens must be consulted and give their sanction to the borrowing and spending of money for any extraordinary expenditure. It is not so in the county as evidenced by the recent action of the Council, which is now expending the sum of $40,000 for the accommodation of its poor, although the rate-payers were not given the opportunity of expressing themselves for or against.

MONUMENT TO COL. NOBLE

The present, while there is so much in the air concerning proposed doings at Grand Pre, is apparently an opportune time for a revival of the proposition to erect a suitable monument to the memory of Colonel Noble at that place. Although such a worthy undertaking was suggested long ago it has apparently not been seriously entertained and the time now seems ripe for action. The location of the grave of this brave officer, who with his men were taken by surprise during a blinding snow storm on that winter night so long ago and fell while valiantly defending the British flag against heavy odds, has been pointed out from generation to generation and is one of the historic spots which tourists gaze upon with interest while visiting this section. It ought not to be a difficult matter to raise by popular subscription an amount sufficient to provide a memorial as would fittingly commemorate the incident and worthily show our regard for the memory of those heroes of a by-gone day. Who will undertake the leadership of a campaign for the carrying out of such a commendable undertaking?

"A MAN'S HOME" IS VITAL DRAMA OF EVERYDAY LIFE

A notable cast, vital drama, tense situations and a powerful lesson are all included in "A Man's Home," a Selznick special, directed by Ralph Ince, which comes to the Opera House Monday and Tuesday, May 8 and 9. The picture vividly depicts the dramatic upheaval in the home of Frederick Osborn, who has become wealthy only after untiring struggle, and is a keen study of the American self-made man and the effect of his domineering attitude upon his family. Osborn's pretty wife, since the accumulation of wealth, concerns herself only with frivolous thoughts and companions. On a trip East she meets Cornelia and Jack Wilson who, unknown to her, are nothing but a pair of adventurers. They cunningly connive to blackmail her.

Mrs. Osborn invites the Wilsons for a visit to her home, but Osborn is suspicious of them, because of reports he had heard to the effect that his wife had been spending her time in bad company.

Jack Wilson has been flattering Mrs. Osborn during their acquaintance and believes her to be a shallow, faithless wife. He makes advances based upon this supposition but is repulsed by Mrs. Osborn, who coming to her senses, realizes that she has been deceived and angrily upbraids him. In the midst of the scene Osborn arrives and overhears the conversation. He takes a hand in the affair and a stormy session results. Wilson, nothing daunted, attempts to carry out his plans and an engrossed situation follows another until a thrilling and dramatic climax is reached.

The cast selected to interpret the various roles is one of the most notable ever seen on the screen. The list is headed by Harry T. Morey, who portrays the husband, and Kathryn Williams, a screen favorite of many years, who plays the irresponsible wife. Grace Valentine and Roland Bottomley are cast as the two adventurers and Matt Moore and Faire Binney as the youthful lovers. The production was directed by Ralph Ince whose past successes have stamped him one of the greatest directors of the silent drama.

ABOUT MEN

Hervey Savage, of Berwick, who lost his life on Sunday last through a fall from his carriage occasioned by his horse being affrighted by a backing auto, was a man well known in eastern as well as western Kings. His eighty-one years sat lightly on the shoulders, which were always ready to apply to the wheel of progress and reform. Mr. Savage leaves a wife and eleven children.

An alarm of fire in a chimney of his house, followed by a hurried trip up and down stairs, caused the death of Dr. Fred A. Rand, a highly esteemed physician of Parrsboro, on Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Rand was born sixty-seven years ago near Canning, a son of the late William Rand, and has been located at Parrsboro over thirty years. His brother, Charles, of Cambridge, and sister, Mrs. E. B. Strong, of Canning, his wife, formerly Miss Rice, of Bear River, and a son and daughter survive him.

About Birds

We notice in the Halifax papers an item giving the loss through smoke of one thousand valuable canaries belonging to a lady in one of our cities. Also an item from Wolfville relating that four hens had strayed from their coops and been found in a neighbouring flock resulting in a law suit with judgement reserved, names of all concerned being given. Certainly Wolfville wishes (?) to be in the lime light.

About Air

Passing by the Acadia Villa Hotel on Tuesday night of last week we glanced in the window of the dining room and remarked on its beauty, a beauty, not confined to the inanimate objects adorning each table, but enhanced and multiplied by the forms and faces of Wolfville's Board of Trade with associates. An hour later on glancing in, some faces were obscured, the room appearing shadowy and unnatural while a gentleman, apparently addressing the assemblage was emphasizing his remarks with coughs and distressed looks. In viewing the Battle of Jutland through a camera, we accepted the German Screen as a necessary part of naval tactics, and could imagine a feeling of security enjoyed by the commanders of ships back of it, but we could see nothing, and for a moment our enjoyment was suspended. Can we imagine our guests or ourselves as being more attractive and pleased behind a cloud which sometimes impedes breathing to a point of strangulation?

A Burbank treatment might extract the pit or its shades from some of our customs. RAY DUBO

Kent Lodge and its contents are to be sold at auction on Saturday, May 6th. See adv. in another column.

Mr. F. W. Woodman expects to begin the erection of his new residence on Gaspereau avenue about the first of May.

"Effective May 1st, 1922, the S. S. 'PRINCE ALBERT' will resume service between Parrsboro, Kingsport and Wolfville."

A considerable improvement is being made in the sidewalk on the west side of Gaspereau avenue, which has been lowered and graded.

Don't forget that Charlie Ray is coming to the Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday in his latest comedy picture, "Nineteen and Phyllis".

Mr. W. B. Hardwick wishes through THE ACADIAN to convey his sincere thanks to all kind friends and neighbours for help and sympathy during his recent bereavement.

We will have an expert Phonograph and Orphan repair man in Wolfville next week commencing May 1st. Orders may be left at our office. Reasonable charges. N. H. PHINNEY, LIMITED.

The contract for the erection of the new County Home on the recently required farm at Waterville has been awarded to Messrs. Denton & Condon, of Digby and Kentville. The work is to be completed by October 1st, next.

The bill to change the rule of the road in Nova Scotia passed the House of Assembly on Wednesday and now awaits the concurrence of the Legislative Council. The only amendment made to the original bill as introduced was to fix the date by which the change will go into effect as January 1st, 1923.

Mrs. C. R. Nowlan and family take this opportunity of expressing their sincere thanks for the many kindnesses they have experienced during the recent bereavement and the illness of the late husband and father. The sympathy and comfort of many friends has tended to make the loss more easily borne.

W. S. Prince, of Kentville, finding himself unable to accept his recent appointment as Secretary-Treasurer of the Nova Scotia Amateur Baseball Association, has tendered his resignation, which has been accepted by the President Dr. Coit. P. W. Davidson, who is acting temporarily in that capacity has consented to be nominated to succeed Mr. Prince, and the executives of each club in the league are being asked to vote.

Mr. A. N. Perry has sold his fine farm at Hortonville to Mr. R. A. Jodrey, of this place. Mr. Perry purchased this property a few years ago from Mr. C. F. A. Patterson. It is one of the best farms in this vicinity, and produces a large quantity of hay and other produce. Mr. Jodrey has also purchased several other farms this spring and evidently has faith in the future of agriculture in the Valley—and why shouldn't he?

Mr. William B. Hardwick has sold his property here to Mr. George Whalen and, we understand, expects to make his future home with his daughter, Mrs. F. K. Trenholm at Grand Pre. Besides being one of our oldest citizens Mr. Hardwick is one of the longest residents of the town, having come to Wolfville nearly seventy years ago when a youth of 18. He has been one of our most useful men and for years did good service as superintendent of streets and water-works. A host of friends will follow Mr. Hardwick with best wishes to his new home.

MOTORS AND MOTORING:

A Page Full of Interest to the Owner or Prospective Owner of an Automobile.

REV. W. IVENS, M. P.

Who will likely contest a seat in the Manitoba Legislature in the forthcoming Provincial election as an Independent Labor Party candidate. He was a prominent figure in the Winnipeg strike about two years ago.

A GASOLINE SUBSTITUTE.

The Cubans stand a good chance of winning a prize and making some fortunes by the manufacture of a substitute for gasoline.

At the annual meeting of the Agricultural Society at Bezier, France a committee was authorized to organize a competition with a view to discovering a practical and economical motor fuel with alcohol as the basis of its composition. Prizes totalling 200,000 francs have been placed at the disposition of the committee, of which amount 100,000 francs will be awarded to the competitor whose product gives the best results.

Sooner than might have been expected comes a report indicating that molasses produced in Cuba furnishes the base for such a fuel. A dispatch says: Cuba has found a new market for her molasses crop by converting it into denatured alcohol for automobile use. When Prohibition was enacted in the United States it automatically destroyed the Cuba market for millions of gallons of molasses.

When the brewers ceased to brew, molasses became a drug on the Cuba market. A large percentage is now being converted into denatured alcohol, and forms the base of a new automobile fuel used by practically all of the cheaper and many of the more expensive cars in Cuba. It sells for 29 cents a gallon, against 50 cents a gallon for gasoline.

WHEN CAUTION IS NEEDED

When a motorist is placed in a dangerous position, such as crossing the highway or railroad crossing, it is virtually important that the opening of throttle is not made too suddenly. If the accelerator pedal is pressed too quickly the engine sometimes stalls. This is because the air valve yields readily to the increased suction, giving a sudden rush of air before the spray nozzle can respond with enough gasoline.

Hot water is injurious to the finish and surface of a car.

Keep your ear attuned to engine noises to detect trouble.

NOTICE

PROVINCIAL HIGHWAYS BOARD

The attention of the Public is called to the following extract from "The Load of Vehicles Act" for the year 1919, Chapter 1, Par. 7 and 8.

Par. 7. "No person shall operate a Motor Vehicle that is subject to the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Act of 1918, on any Highways in any Municipality, after the twentieth day of March, and before the first day of May following, without the permission of the Engineer of Highways, or any such other officer as may be appointed by the Provincial Highways Board, for that purpose, first had and obtained.

Par. 8. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act, or any permit granted under the authority thereof shall incur a penalty of not more than One Hundred Dollars recoverable under the "Nova Scotia Summary Convictions Act" which shall, when collected, form part of the Highways Tax of the Municipality in which such cases arise."

Permits for the necessary operation of Motor Vehicles in the Counties of Annapolis, Kings and Digby during the closed period may be obtained from the office of the Division Engineer of the Provincial Highways Board, Kentville, N. S. MACINTOSH MILLER, Division Engineer, Provincial Highways Board, Kentville, N. S., March 13, 1922.

REDUCING PISTON FRICTION

It is not generally realized how much the useful power of an engine is reduced by the friction of the pistons upon their cylinder walls. Normal piston friction is altogether the greatest mechanical loss in the engine if not in the whole car and, if it becomes abnormal in amount, car performance suffers in a marked degree. The fuel may do its real work upon the pistons, but if this force is too largely wasted in overcoming their friction, the power left over for moving the car is seriously reduced.

In the case of cars in the engine of which new, tightly fitted pistons and rings have just been installed, useful power is sometimes so diminished by undue piston friction that even slight grades cannot be negotiated on "high" until these parts become smoothed and "worn in" by their prolonged mutual rubbing action. Such a condition is occasional only, but piston friction may, at any time, become excessive and engine performance unsatisfactory, through poor lubrication and it is, in this connection, that the quality of oil used is of great importance, for it is a fact that, without causing acute damage to the parts, excessive friction may exist during much of the time that an engine is in operation, to the detriment of its performance and with extensive resulting wear.

To secure perfect piston lubrication and thus to minimize friction, it is essential that there should always be an unbroken oil film maintained between pistons and cylinder walls and, to insure this, the oil must now become so thin as to be squeezed out from between their opposing surfaces. Detrimental thinning of the oil may result from its quality or its grade being such that it loses its "body", or thickness at the higher engine temperatures; or it may be due to unburned fuel passing the pistons, dissolving the lubricant upon them and entering the crank-case.

The only necessary precautions to be taken are to use only oil of such heat resisting quality and such initial viscosity as shall not become watery at the highest allowable engine temperature and, furthermore, to renew the oil supply before it becomes objectionably thinned by the addition of unburned gasoline components. Very many engines that lose power and knock, when hot and heavily loaded, do so because their oil has become too thin to afford adequate lubrication.

THE EMPTY RADIATOR

When refilling the empty radiator with water, open the petcock at the bottom of the radiator or the one located at the water pump. Pour water into the water pump. Pour water into the cooling system until it runs freely from the open petcock. Close the cock and proceed with the filling. This plan eliminates the possible chance of an air lock in the system.

ACROSS CONTINENT ON MOTOR-CYCLE

Transcontinental touring by motor-cycle, although still somewhat of a novelty, is attracting more people every year. Recently two chauffeurs left New York for the Pacific coast on motorcycles, traveling the National Old Trails road. They completed the 3,381 mile jaunt in eighteen days, and report that the total expense for gasoline and oil was $49.28.

Of the automobile manufactures in the United States, nearly 70 factories are making cars listed between $1000 and $2000. There are 26 makers producing cars priced from $2000 to $3000. Fewer than 15 factories turn out cars selling for more than $4000.

WHEN PISTON PIN KNOCKS

The knock produced by a loose piston pin is considerably lighter than a crankshaft knock and is most noticeable when the engine is running idle with the throttle nearly closed. The only remedy for the knock is the repair of the pin, or bushing, or both. This knock does, however, not indicate so dangerous a condition as a crankshaft or connecting rod knock.

AMATEUR CLUBS ONE OF FINEST RESULTS OF RADIO

One of the encouraging symptoms of recent development in radio has been the gradual merging of the "amateur" and the "public" group.

There can be no doubt that at first there was some hostility between the two, the former resenting the intrusion of his new and unexpected host into his field, and the latter heatedly objecting to the interference often caused by various buzzer conversations. Incidentally, the latter were very often attributed unfairly to the amateur.

However, there can be no doubt that the hostile attitude has softened all along the line. And the chief cause of this new understanding has been the radio club. The latter has grown from a half dozen, on very large communities, to hundreds in the last few months, their growth representing the development of the "fans" into ardent amateurs, from listeners into investigators. Many young people who have never heard of radio a few months ago are now active members of clubs alongside those who have been occupied with citizen radio for years, and the combination has not only smoothed out many of the original jealousies, but it has made intelligent young recruits out of the newcomers.

Radio has in this instance capitalized the gang spirit in the interests of a great, healthy cause, and established a splendid esprit de corps among a fine element in the community having a common interest. No development that has followed in its train is more auspicious than the growth of the radio clubs.

Home must be made more than a place in which to live. A cheerful spirit, a spirit of forbearance and agreeableness, add more than rosewood furniture, cut glass and triple-plate cutlery.

LITERARY NOTES

In Acadia Library we are often asked for a lecture suitable for reading aloud in public. I know of no thing that would delight the average Canadian audience more than the various stories in "Mastered Men", by F. A. Robinson, B. A., a book published in Canada by McClelland & Stewart. They are vivid in their portraiture of the savage, half brutal life of men in the West who have shaken off the trammels of convention and even of decency. To minister unto such men in holy things is the task that confronts the Western preacher. I believe that the stories in "Mastered Men" are largely true, and are taken from the author's personal experience. The introduction is by Rev. Charles W. Gordon, or Ralph Connor, as we love to call him. I quote this paragraph: "The new west is full of the broken driftwood of humanity, showing the marks of the attrition of time and conflict and defeat—good stuff it is, but waste and loss. This book tells of its salvage to the infinite joy of men and the glory of God. The book will do good wherever it goes."

From the Musson Book Company I have received a copy of that most attractive edition of Longfellow's "Evangeline", with the introduction written by Mr. John Frederic Herbin of our own town. Now, I think every Nova Scotian really needs a copy of this "Evangeline." It matters not how many editions of Longfellow you have; if you are at all interested in the historic associations of your native land you will have this one. Mr. Herbin has gathered his facts from unique sources, and has infused into his sketch of the Evangeline country that sympathetic quality that marks the man of genuine literary gifts from the mere raconteur. The illustrations in the book are a very attractive feature, especially those in color. The writer will gladly order either of these books for any who desire them.

The Misses Rockwell were at Halifax this week attending the Music Festival and the Motor Show.

Mr. George Nowlan returned to Halifax on Monday to write his final examinations at the Dalhousie Law School.

Miss Verna Westcott, of Gaspe, spent the week end at North Grand Pre, guest of Mrs. J. Everett Palmeter.

Mrs. A. V. Rand and Mrs. Fred Rand, who have been spending some weeks in Boston and vicinity, returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. L. Bauld and little son, of Halifax, are visitors in Wolfville, guests at the home of Mrs. B. O. Davidson, Summer St.

Mrs. A. J. Woodman, who has been spending some weeks visiting her daughter Mrs. Ryan, at Patterson, N. J., is expected home today.

Mrs. C. E. Gibson, who has been spending a few weeks in Wolfville looking after the disposal of her property, returned to her home in New York this week.

Miss Blanche Leck, of Schubencadie, who has been on the staff of Phinney's, Ltd., at Halifax, has taken a position at the Wolfville office of this company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chambers, who have spent the past few months in Florida, arrived home on Friday last. They had an enjoyable winter but are glad to get back to Wolfville.

Mrs. George Webster, who has been spending the winter at Natick, Mass., returned recently to Wolfville and is staying at her old home, now the residence of Mr. and Miss Weir, Gaspeau avenue.

Mr. William Ritchie, formerly of the post-office staff here, is spending a few days in town visiting old acquaintances and friends. Mr. Ritchie is now located at Bridgewater, where he holds the position of express agent.

Dr. C. W. Thorne, who has been practising in Wolfville during the past few months, left on Wednesday morning for New York, having been appointed to a good position in that city. During his stay in Wolfville Dr. Thorne made many friends who will follow him to his new sphere of activity with best wishes assured that his marked ability will bring him abundant success. Mrs. Thorne will remain in Wolfville for some time, at Evangeline Cottage.

It is reported that Mr. E. S. Crawley has resigned the position of Stipendiary Magistrate which he has filled since the incorporation of the town nearly thirty years ago, and Mr. W. D. Withrow, barrister has been appointed in his place. An official announcement will probably be made at the Council next week. THE ACADIAN congratulates Mr. Withrow on his appointment and Mr. Crawley on the conclusion of a long and faithful service.

Alderman John Murphy was on Wednesday elected Mayor of Halifax by the largest majority ever given a candidate in that city. He carried every ward and defeated his opponent, Alderman J. W. Regan, by 2456 votes.

The most common complaint that we hear about prices is to the effect that they are too low when we sell and too high when we buy.

WOLFVILLE CRICKET CLUB

The annual meeting of Wolfville Cricket Club was held at the Royal Hotel on Friday afternoon last, with J. F. Herbin presiding. The following officers were elected for the ensuing season: Hon. President—Rev. H. F. Dixon President—J. Elliot Smith Vice-President—J. F. Herbin Secy.-Treas. and Official Scorer—P. W. Davidson. Captain—G. S. Bauld Manager—S. A. Robinson The college authorities have granted the Club permission to use the new part of the Campus this summer and it is hoped that the cricket team may have a most successful season.

The executive of the United Baptist Women's Missionary Union of the Maritime Provinces has appointed Mrs. F. H. Beals, of Bedford, N. S., as the editor of "Tidings", succeeding the late Mrs. J. W. Manning.

The Queensland Legislative Council, the Upper House of Parliament, has ceased to exist. Royal assent has been given to the bill abolishing the Council and the necessary order has been passed by the Imperial authorities.

Prices are again on the down grade. Reports to the labor department, Ottawa, for March, show appreciable decreases in both the wholesale prices, index numbers, and the family budget of retail prices of foods. The greatest decreases are in dairy products.

The new Bank of Montreal building, which has been undergoing construction during the past winter, is now about completed and is a handsome structure that is a decided addition to Wolfville's business places. Manager Guest and staff expect to move into their new quarters tomorrow. An extended description of the building will be published in THE ACADIAN next week.

OUT IN FRONT

By the Pioneer Sergeant IT is better to be BORN luck than rich. POSSIBLY, but WE would rather be born WITH someone to give us ENCOURAGEMENT through life; THEN we are born both RICH and LUCKY. LET'S be honest with OURSELVES and admit THAT last year's BALL-TEAM was a proper MESS. DUE mostly to the LACK of boosting and ENCOURAGEMENT. THIS year it is GOING to be DIFFERENT! THE first reports are MORE than encouraging: A BETTER field; TWO good pitchers (PLEASE note the "two"); A SHORT-STOP— HE may be little. BUT oh my— A CENTRE-FIELDER OF the cloud-picking VARIETY; A SECOND-BASEMAN WHO is a second-baseman;

AND that isn't all, NOT by a d-- sight. A BALL-TEAM is in SOME respects like unto A FORD car. IT may have a SELF-STARTER BUT it won't always START itself. LET'S imagine that we own THAT car— GET out and push! WE thank you.

A pleasant congregational social was held in the school-room of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance and a most enjoyable time was spent with music, addresses, dainty refreshments and social intercourse. The speakers included representatives of the different branches of the church's activities and the addresses were practical and interesting. Mrs. Withrow sang two delightful solos and Masters Pick and Mason sang "Ding Toes".

Blue Bird TEA 1,300 TEAS There are more than 1,300 specimens of tea under cultivation. These have all been studied and the best selected to make Blue Bird TEA

W. C. T. U.

A very interesting meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Monday afternoon, in the parlor of the Baptist Church, with a special programme on Labrador. Mrs. T. E. Hutchinson gave a reading on the work of St. Anthony's Home. The speaker of the afternoon was Rev. D. Hemmeon who gave a most interesting and instructive address on Labrador Mission work. A pleasing feature of the programme were solos by Mrs. W. O. Taylor and Miss Myra McLeod. A good collection was received for the Labrador work. The Union is much pleased with the interest manifested by the public in this branch of their work.
