DETROIT horses are down with the new equine disease, which the natives of French descent in that town call "L'Epillaryngyriphodemie." The bare mention of the name is enough to give a horse the whooping cough, and the result is that the suffering animals are tortured beyond precedent in trying to explain what ails them.

A very fatal hen disease has prevailed in some parts of Massachusetts the past year. Whole flocks have been swept off by it, some farmers losing one or two hundred fowls, including turkeys. Altogether there must have been several thousand fowls died from the disease.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

BOSTON CONFLAGRATION. Insurance Companies' Losses. Full Extent of the Damage Done. The Fire at Last Got Under.

Boston, Nov. 10.—The conflagration in the space of fifteen hours destroyed hundreds of the costliest and most substantial warehouses in the country, and temporarily paralyzed three of the leading mercantile interests, the shoe and leather, wool and dry goods trade. It is said there is not one wholesale shoe and leather establishment left in Boston. The wool trade has suffered in an equal degree, and the dry goods jobbing houses left a few and far between.

A meeting of prominent citizens was held in the City Hall this afternoon, presided over by Mayor Gaston, at which encouraging speeches were made, and energetic action urged in order to alleviate the sufferings of the needy, as well as for rebuilding the burnt district. A numerous relief committee was appointed. The committee will hold daily sessions. A bureau of relief was also organized, of which ex-Mayor Norcross is treasurer.

The new Post-office and Sub-treasury building was for a long time exposed to fierce flames and smoke, but has escaped. The massive fire-proof structure saved the Boston Morning Post building directly opposite, and helped greatly in preventing the fire from reaching State-street. The old South Church also escaped though several times given up for lost. The costly and beautiful Transcript building, and Courier & Froit's jewellery establishment, on the opposite corner of Milk-street, were burned.

The Eastern Express office was saved, though reported at one time as burned. Two steam fire-engines came from Portland, with 400 of her leading citizens, headed by Mayor Kingsburg, to proffer every aid in their power.

The buildings mostly used by rag, paper and junk merchants were destroyed. There were no vessels lying at the wharf. At Robin's wharf a schooner was destroyed, as were the coal sheds and a large quantity of lumber on the pier. The wharf of the Hartford & Erie R. R. Company was burned, and the passenger station of the Corporation on Broad and Summer-streets were destroyed.

Boston, Nov. 11.—The fire was got fully under control about 4 o'clock this morning. The Advertiser estimates the total loss at $90,000,000. The Post, on the authority of leading insurance offices at $100,000,000. The Journal gives a full list of individual losses, and estimates the total at considerably over $100,000,000.

A train from New York arrived this a. m. with several car loads of roughs and thieves who cleaned out all the refreshment saloons en route with other robberies and outrages. The Boston insurance companies will be able to pay an average of about 50 per cent. on the risks, and capitalists are coming forward liberally with offers of funds that there is some prospect of their going on without suspension. Their average losses are in the neighbourhood of $500,000 each; two or three reaching $900,000.

Boston, 1.30 p. m.—The fire is still under control, and has been so since 8 a. m. It is now considered thoroughly subdued, although the engines still continue to work. The crowds in the streets in the neighbourhood of the burnt district are immense. Since morning city police headquarters after missing persons have increased greatly, and it is feared the number of victims who have perished in the flames has been greatly under-estimated. Telegraphic communications between Boston and other points have been seriously interrupted by the fire. Western Union, and Franklin Telegraph Companies have both sustained severe losses. As might be expected, the fire has placed the business of the city at a complete stand still, everything being neglected of those who suffer the hardest, by caring for the poorest classes of Boston, whom the fire has deprived of their means of subsistence. It is estimated that upwards of 12,000 men have been thrown out of employment by the occurrence, and in the disturbed condition of the city, which must follow, the support of these poor will devolve upon the city. Business men, however much depressed, are not despairing. The first deep feelings of sorrow and depression have given way to hope, and plans are even now being made for rebuilding. It is evident that there will be no delay in commencing work.

New York, Nov. 11.—A special from Boston says that the New York Insurance Companies had total risks in Boston of $57,789,533, companies in other States $85,414,817 and foreign companies $26,228,362. This of course is not the amount of loss as there is no way of obtaining even an approximation thereof at present.

Boston, Nov. 11.—The number of firms and business houses burnt out is 930. The number of dwelling and lodging-houses is 60. The North British, Hartford, Phoenix, and National report that all their policies will be paid in full, and they will continue business. A general visit to Boston insurance offices this morning reveals the fact that they have been hardly able to do anything towards estimating and determining future steps.

The principal buildings burned were as follows: The Boston Post Office, the U.S. Sub-treasury, the Cathedral building, Boston Pilot establishment, Boston Transcript establishment, Boston, Hartford and Wellington Fall Assizes

Monday, Nov. 11

Before Mr. Justice Morrison

STEWART vs. McTAGGART.—This case was partially reported yesterday.

For the defence several witnesses were called, amongst others was Mr. Moyer, formerly a photographer in Fergus, who was thus haunted by Mr. Guthrie on cross-examination. When did you make the moonlight fitting from Fergus? I did not make a moonlight fitting; I left after seeing my creditors. Did not the matter get into the papers? No; I should like to see it if it did. Here the counsel handed witness a copy of the "Lightning Express" in which the witness was described as "having gone where the wood-bine twineth," a paragraph that seemed to greatly amuse Judge and Jury, and to as greatly astonish witness, who seemed to have been previously unaware that he had been so poetically immortalized in print, and wished to know how the author of the paragraph derived his information that he intended to abscond. The witness was further asked if he was not arrested for obtaining goods on false pretences and had to appear before a magistrate in consequence in charge of a constable, to which the witness replied "No; the constable merely walked on ahead of him to the magistrate's."

(Great laughter.) He was further asked if he had not left his watch in mortgage with one of his creditors since he came up to Guelph from Perth as a witness. This he denied, and was further questioned as to whether he had it on him, the witness replied that he did not care about displaying as much brass jewelry as some other folks; and on being further pressed to discover where his present resting place was, replied that "he was not bound to carry it always about with him." (Great laughter.) His Lordship in summing up commented on the new legal status the Act of last session gave to married women, enabling them to bring actions, carry on business, &c., &c., independently of their husbands. Whether this was a wise extension of legal privileges, experience, he said, could alone tell. He could not help expressing his great regret that such a case, so trumpety in amount with all its attendant expense and trouble had not been settled out of court. The Jury then retired.

QUEEN vs. JOHN THOMAS CUNNINGHAM.—This case has been tried before the magistrates, said to be for obtaining money under false pretences. This is the fourth Court to which, from time to time, it has been adjourned without any action being taken therein by the Crown, and the defendant unwilling to lie any longer under so strong a charge, petitioned the Judge to have it tried. The Judge ordered a Jury to be called; the Crown Counsel stated that he had no case, and the Jury therefore acquitted the defendant.

FERGUSON vs. GRAY.—Record withdrawn. Plaintiff not being ready. Mr. Anderson, Q. C., for plaintiff; Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

ONTARIO BANK vs. ROBT. PATTERSON.—Action on promissory note. Postponed to the December Court of Sessions. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff; Mr. Biscoe for defendant.

QUEEN vs. PIRE & DAVIDSON.—The Grand Jury in this case returned a true bill against defendants for excavating the Guelph Township Road near the cemetery to such an extent as to make it dangerous to travel.

The business of the Court was at this stage greatly hindered by parties not being ready in the various suits that stood next on the docket.

Tuesday, Nov. 12

STEWART vs. McTAGGART.—In this case the Jury were locked up for four hours, till six, p.m., when there being no chance of agreeing they were discharged. It is understood that ten were for plaintiff and two for defendant.

HOLLINGER vs. OFIELD, and another.—The parties live in Arthur. This action is brought by plaintiff against the defendants for damages on a bond given by them in undertaking to build a house for the plaintiff. From the statements made by counsel, it would appear that the house was most disgracefully finished, windows being askew, doors off the perpendicular, and the plaster came tumbling off in large pieces. For the defence it was contended that the original term for the completion of the contract was extended by mutual consent, and whilst the defendants were so engaged, the plaintiff suddenly took the matter into his own hands and dismissed the workmen. The plaintiff claims that to put the house in proper condition for habitation it will require extra work to be put on it to the amount of planning of $70, joinery $185 and carpentering $15. In addition $42 are claimed as actual loss sustained by plaintiff from the house not being ready when contracted for, as the County Council of Wellington had agreed to lease the house for a Registry Office for the North Riding. The original contract was for $245; the next lowest tender was about $295. Mr. M. C. Cameron for plaintiff; Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

After hearing the plaintiff's evidence, His Lordship suggested that the matter was a very proper one for Arbitration, and His Honor Judge Macdonald was mutually agreed upon as the arbitrator in the case, which was referred accordingly.

GORDON vs. GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY COMPANY.—The plaintiff is a wheat buyer at Clifford, and brings this action for the value of a car load of wheat (three hundred and fifty bushels) shipped at Clifford in January last by plaintiff to Mr. J. M. Fraser, but which the latter had not received. The Company pleaded non-liability. Mr. Drew for plaintiff; Mr. M. C. Cameron for defendant.

From the evidence of plaintiff it appears that Henneberry's name, of Elora, was on the Company's books as having received the car in question. Henneberry, however, denied that he had received the wheat. It would appear that Henneberry at the same time received another car load of wheat from plaintiff; the freight on this car was paid by Henneberry, but the freight on the missing car was paid by plaintiff at Clifford. The witness was subjected to a very searching cross-examination by Mr. Cameron, which seemed to sadly bamboozle him, and to result in the discovery that witness was marvellously unacquainted with the details of his business beyond the mere buying of the grain, but which he explained by saying that this was attended to by a person in his employ. His Lordship could not help remarking on the very extraordinary way in which plaintiff conducted his business. Mr. Cameron said to plaintiff that he might be a very good buyer, but he seemed a very simple man, and would get himself into no end of trouble. Mr. Cameron then asked witness if at one time he had not imagined he had lost some two or three thousand bushels of wheat, and afterwards found them? Witness with naive simplicity replied, "Well that is a good one." (Loud laughter.) He denied the statement.

The next witness examined was Donald Campbell, weigher and shipper of grain for plaintiff, who displayed a far more intimate acquaintance with the details of his business than did his employer. From his and the plaintiff's evidence it was gathered that from the 8rd to the 26th of January last they had shipped 20 cars of grain to Elora, of which 19 only could be accounted for, the 20th being receipted in Henneberry's name. Mr. J. M. Fraser testified that he was in the habit of receiving grain in cars consigned to himself and sometimes in Gordon's name, and that the Railway employees always facilitated him when the grain came consigned to Gordon. He never authorized Henneberry to receive any grain from the station. Mr. Cameron examined these witnesses with one view amongst others, that the plaintiff must have received more grain in the missing cars acknowledged to Gordon. He never authorized Henneberry to receive any grain from the station. Mr. Cameron examined these witnesses with one view amongst others, that the plaintiff must have received more grain in the missing cars acknowledged to Gordon. He never authorized Henneberry to receive any grain from the station.

PRESENTMENT OF GRAND JURY.

The following is the Presentment of the Grand Jury at the present Assizes.

We have visited the jail and find it in a clean and comfortable condition, and the prisoners satisfied with their treatment. We find an insane man confined here and we recommend his removal to an asylum. We also find a breach in the jail yard wall, which we would recommend to be immediately repaired.

ARTHUR ROSS, Foreman.

His Lordship stated that he would bring the matters mentioned in the Grand Jury's presentment before the proper parties. With reference to the insane person mentioned he thought it very likely that not being one whom it would be dangerous to allow at large would account for his being confined to jail. His Lordship congratulated the Grand Jury on the exceeding lightness of their duties at the present Assizes, and hoped that future Grand Juries in this County would be as happily circumstanced. The Grand Jury were then released from further attendance.

Town and County News.

Mr. John Anderson requests us to say that he is prepared to frame the bird's eye view of Guelph at a cheap rate, and put it in an elegant frame.

TEA MEETING.—A tea meeting in connection with the Sabbath School of the British Methodist Episcopal Church will be held in the church, Essex street, on Tuesday, the 19th inst., when the public and all interested in the welfare of the school are invited to be present.

CAMILLA ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY.—We are glad to notice that mainly through the exertions of Mr. Thomas Anderson, late of Guelph, a St. Andrew's Society has been organized in Camilla, Township of Mono, under the most favorable auspices, with Mr. Anderson as its President. Long may it prosper.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT IN NICHOL.—A young named Deveraux, living in the 13th concession, Nichol, met with a serious accident on Monday afternoon. He was engaged in rolling a heavy log, when it slipped and fell upon his leg, breaking both bones near the ankle joint. Dr. Griffith promptly adjusted the injury.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY.—At an adjourned meeting of the St. Andrew's Society, held on Monday night, it was decided to celebrate St. Andrew's Day on Friday, the 29th (the 30th falling on Saturday) by a Concert and Ball in the Town Hall. The well-known Fairbairn family, Scottish vocalists, have been engaged to give the concert, and they will present a programme which cannot fail to be acceptable to all true sons of Auld Scotland. Efficient committees have been appointed to make all the necessary arrangements for the Concert and Ball. The St. Andrew's celebrations in this town have always been popular and well attended, and we have little doubt the one this year will fully come up to, if not exceed, any yet held under the auspices of the Society. We will be able to give further particulars in a few days.

LADIES BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—We are requested to state that the next meeting of this Association will be held at Mrs. Dr. Keating's, on Friday afternoon, at half-past two, p.m., when all ladies interested in the movement, whether members or not, are cordially invited to be present. The Association having completed a large lot of useful articles of clothing for Miss McPherson's Home, near Galt, are now engaged in work of a similar character for the poor of Guelph, and all who feel inclined to aid them in this charitable work are invited to cooperate. Besides providing clothing, &c. for the needy and deserving, poor of the town, during the winter months, it is also in contemplation to start and keep open during these months a soup kitchen, where good, wholesome soup would be served out daily to all who require it. The idea is an excellent one, and we hope that not only this but all other benevolent plans of the Association will be carried out by the active and unanimous cooperation of the ladies in the town.

The Union Pacific Railroad is having built at its shops, in Omaha, a snow plow, which, when finished, will be the largest and most powerful in the world.

The American Literary Bureau netted $2,500 from Frode's five lectures in New York, notwithstanding three rainy nights and the horse disease.

The horse disease is very prevalent in Quebec at present.

The Rossin House, Toronto, had a narrow escape from fire on Monday afternoon. It caught in the cellar, and but for the prompt efforts of the firemen in extinguishing it, this fine block might have been a second time burned down.

AMONG our Merchants in Guelph, there are none perhaps so noted for thorough business enterprise as the celebrated Hardware Merchant, Mr. Jno. Horman. Every season finds him ready for the particular wants of the time, with the best articles of what ever kind are required, and at the lowest possible prices. Now, at the approach of winter, Coal Oil the clearest, Lamps the finest, Chimneys, Wicks and Burners the best; Coal hard and Coal soft, Fire Grates, Fire Irons, Coal Scuttles, Cinder Sifters, Lanterns, Floor Oil-Cloth, Mats, &c. Tea and Coffee Pots, Crest Stands, Wringers, Manglers, Scrubbing Brushes, Shoe Brushes, Stove Brushes, Smoothing and Fluting Irons, and every Housekeeper's need can be supplied; and every one knows with what confidence they can go or send to Mr. Horman's, and depend on getting the best goods at the lowest prices. dw

CHAPTER XXIV.
WITHIN DOORS.

While Harry and Matthew Greigson were thus following the track of the missing one, and making the dark discovery as to his fate—described in the previous chapter—Stephen, Gibson and Nathan Garrett passed the day within doors, under feelings fiercely passionate and dubiously apprehensive. It was not exactly their consciences that troubled them. Men of their stamp don't usually allow conscience to get the mastery, but matters were not going with that smoothness on which they had calculated. The unlooked-for appearance of Harry on the scene and the disclosures he had made to them produced tremendous effects on their minds, and a combination of feelings of the very strongest character—rage, fear, alarm, and satisfaction—strangely struggling in their souls, and working on them to an extent nearly indescribable.

Stephen was the most moved of the two. His gusts of passion were terrible, for in one quarter he was baffled and defied already, and in another his cherished scheme threatened to miscarry. He was galled nearly to madness by the knowledge that Harry had married the daughter of Kenneth Bruce—the man so long the object of his bitterest hatred—and in one of the whirlwinds of wrath into which he wrought himself, he turned on Garrett like a raging lion.

"You are answerable for this," he he roared, the foam flying from his mouth. "You told the Bruce were not to be found; you gulled me into the belief that they were all dead, and, fool that I was, I believed you. Why did you dare to deceive me by such a damnable lie?"

"Softly, Captain, if you please," said Garrett, moodily, "take it milder, I'd advise you. Things are not going so well to-day that we can afford to make them worse by rant or foolish recrimination. We need all our coolness and ingenuity, I can tell you, to avoid the rocks that have shot up ahead of us. Wary sailing alone will save us from foundering, so, for your sake as well as mine, don't give way to useless passion.

"Curse it, you are to blame for it all, I tell you. You ought to have discovered these wretches years ago, and you didn't do it."

"And am I to blame for that? Didn't you hear the youth say Bruce changed his name, and went into seclusion? How was I to discover him under his disguise in his concealment? How was I to dream he had disguised or concealed himself at all?"

"Well, you see the result of it. That rebellious boy has brought ruin and disgrace on me and mine by his marriage with that spawn of beggary, whom he may one day bring to be mistress here—"Who may give an heir to Argowson. Oh, there is madness in the very thought. Is there no way to prevent it, man? Can the subtle devil in your brain find no means of averting the danger?"

"There's a danger more pressing that needs to be averted," returned Garrett, gravely; "and one, too, that requires the devils in both our brains to cope with."

"I do. We little knew all the cause we had to remove the youth from our path."

"By heaven, Garrett, I had nearly lost sight of that," said Stephen, turning white with fear. "Yes, we had double reason for getting rid of him. What if that meddling boy, whose friend he turns out to be, should come to know his fate? Even now, maybe, he is making a discovery."

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.—Lancaster, Pa., July 31, 1871. Mr. James I. Fellows—Sir: I am pleased to inform you that my health is improving under the use of your Hypophosphites. Excessive tax of the brain had so exhausted my body that I could neither work nor enjoy myself, and it was with difficulty that I could sleep at all. I tried rest, active exercise, various medicinal remedies, and the most popular physicians, and accidentally heard of your syrup in New York. I purchased three bottles at Caswell & Hazard's, and until I used that nothing relieved me. Now I can eat well, sleep well, work well and feel well, and have good reason to consider your syrup a most surprising and capital restorer of the mind and nervous system, and advise all who have much brain work to take it. You are at liberty to use this as you may. Yours very truly, JAMES SNEYD, Insurance Agent.

Thousands have been changed by the use of Peruvian Syrup (a protochloride of Iron) from weak, sickly, suffering creatures to strong, healthy, and happy men and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial. For Dyspepsia and Debility it is a specific.

THE NEW STORE

WILL BE

Opened on Monday, 4th of November,

When the most unheard of inducements will be presented to purchasers of every description of

Fancy and Staple Dry Goods,

Within the remembrance of the human family. Nothing but READY MONEY will be accepted in payment of the Tremendous Bargains that ever awaited the Public. A Ten Dollar Bill will purchase as much value at the New Store to be named

CASH

As Fifteen Dollars will at any of the Stores now in Guelph.

The New Store "CASH" is the most important and necessary means to create a revolution in the trade of Guelph. The interests of the purchasers of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods must be looked after, and the large profits that are now demanded by Merchants doing business in Guelph must be cut down, and the new store "CASH" will commence to wage war against the now existing combination of storekeepers. On the 4th November look out for the "CASH". Call on the opening day, and all your purses with gold, silver or bank bills, and depend upon it the new store "CASH" will send you away with a radiant smile on your face that will bring joy into your family circle worth a thousand dollars to you.

Spread the News of the New Store "CASH," and its Wonderful Inducement. Don't Forget. Don't Forget.

THE REASON WHY

Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calaisa is called a Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic, because Phosphates constitute more than half the material of the human body, and are absolutely essential to the growth of Bone, Muscle and Nerve, which cannot attain full development without them. They promote a good appetite, perfect digestion, create pure, healthy, vitalizing blood, and supply the waste constantly going on in the system as the result of mental and physical exertion.
Being combined with Calaisa, the Peruvian Bark, the only specific for Chills and Fever, and that condition of Nervous Prostration and General Debility arising from low vitality and exhaustive diseases, it forms an elegant and agreeable, invigorating Tonic, purely physiological in its action, that may be taken safely under all circumstances, and all diseased conditions of the body, as it builds up the constitution in the same manner as our daily food.

POSITIVELY A FACT.

Mustard's Catarrh Specific
Cures Catarrh, Cold in the Head, Neuralgia, Toothache, Nervous and Sick Headache, Weak and Sore Eyes. The Specific is a new remedy, prepared from Medicinal Barks, Roots, Gums and Flowers. Free from poisonous Drugs, it is harmless, novel, and philosophic in its operation. Try it if you are afflicted with the above diseases. It is also one of the best Cough and Croup Remedies extant.
Mustard's Vegetable Pills should also be used in connection with the Specific for Sick Headache and Catarrh; and those who are afflicted with Rheumatism should try Mus-tard's King of Oils.

CAUTION.
The Cornwall Manufacturing Company have pleasure in intimating the complete restoration of their works at Cornwall which are now in full operation, producing large quantities of White and Grey Blankets, and Heavy Medium Class Tweeds.
They regret, however, having again to call attention of the public to the continuance of the disreputable practice of importing English Blankets and selling them as Canadian. These Blankets are made largely of Shoddy and Cotton Waste, with a small percentage of pure Wool, and though slightly in appearance, closely imitating the Cornwall Blankets, and ticketed "Canadian Manufacture," have neither warm nor wear, but can be sold at a lower price than the Cornwall Blankets (which are made of Pure Wool) can be produced for.
The public are cautioned against this attempted deception, and respectfully informed that the name of the CORNWALL MAN-UFACTURING COMPANY is printed on the
