vii)	January 1, 2003	Free

IX. Goods (generally dairy, poultry and egg products) provided for in the tariff items noted Y are exempt from tariff elimination provisions.

X. The rate in the Schedule on a good provided for in a tariff item with staging category X1 will be reduced to Free on condition that such good has been removed from the list of products eligible for "simplified duty drawback". The Free rate shall come into effect no later than 120 days after the Government of Chile confirms to the Government of Canada that the good will no longer be on the list of products eligible for "simplified duty drawback" and no later than January 1, 2003.

XI. The rate in the Schedule on a good provided for in a tariff item with staging category X2 will be phased-out in six equal stages except that the reduced rate provided for by such phasing shall come into effect only in the year the product ceases to be eligible for "simplified duty drawback". If the product remains eligible for "simplified duty drawback" until 2003, then no tariff phase-out will occur and the tariff will be eliminated on January 1, 2003. The first stage of reduction shall start no later than 120 days after the Government of Chile confirms to the Government of Canada that the product is removed from the list of products eligible for "simplified duty drawback" and, in annual stages, on January 1 of each subsequent year. The item shall be free no later than January 1, 2002 unless the product has not been removed from "simplified duty drawback" by January 1, 2002.

Therefore the phasing referred to above, starting from the rate shown in the Schedule, would be the following:

i)	Date of Implementation	16.7	per cent
ii)	January 1, 1998	33.3	per cent
iii)	January 1, 1999	50	per cent
iv)	January 1, 2000	66.7	per cent
v)	January 1, 2001	83.3	per cent
vi)	January 1, 2002	100	per cent

XII. The rate in the Schedule on a good provided for in a tariff item with staging category X3 will be phased-out in equal annual stages on the basis that the rate shall be divided by the number of years between (and including) the year that the product ceases to be eligible for "simplified duty drawback" and 2003 and shall be duty-free on January 1, 2003. The first stage of reduction shall start no later than 120 days after the Government of Chile confirms to the Government of Canada that the product is removed from the list of products eligible for "simplified duty drawback" and, in annual stages, on January 1 of each subsequent year.

- XIII. If Article C-14.4 is invoked for a tariff item, the Most-Favoured-Nation rate in effect on that date shall replace the rate in the Schedule in order to calculate any future tariff reductions.
- XIV. In the event that Canada undertakes, before January 1, 2000, a unilateral reduction of the applied customs duties, the margin of preference for originating goods from Chile shall be adjusted so that it is not less than 2 percentage points for the products subject to a phase-out ending on January 1, 2003 in the Schedule of Canada.

NOTE:

Whenever a tariff reduction is to take place in equal annual stages, the first stage shall be considered to be a full year even if implemented during the year of implementation and all subsequent reductions, unless otherwise provided for, shall take place on January 1 of each subsequent year.
