ALLIES CUT RAILWAY NEAR GENT

Italians Establish Strong Bridgeheads Across Piave, Facing Gorizia—Americans Open Fire on Longuyon With New Monster Guns—French and British Make Advances Between Valenciennes and Guise—British in Mesopotamia Take Kerkuk

ANGLO-ITALIANS CROSS THE PIAVE

Nine Thousand Austrians Are Taken Prisoner in the Operations.

ALLIES NEAR ALESSIO Advance Guards Cross Mati River and Approach the Town.

Rome, Oct. 28.—More than 9000 Austrians were taken prisoner in the operations on the Italian front yesterday, according to the war office announcement today. Fifty-one guns were also captured.

The Italian and British troops have crossed the Piave River, notwithstanding the resistance of the Austro-Hungarians. In Albania the Italians have reached the vicinity of Alessio, 20 miles southeast of Scutari.

The text of the communication issued by the war office follows: "Our army, in conjunction with allied contingents, has crossed the Piave River by force of arms, engaging in bitter battles the enemy, who strove desperately to bar the way.

"Between the Piave and heights of Veduggiada and the mouth of the Soligo torrent our infantry assault troops passed during the night, under violent fire, to the left bank of the river, broke into the enemy's front lines and carried them.

"Supported by the fire of the artillery on the right bank, they gained ground and repulsed enemy counter-attacks through the day.

"To the south the tenth army, taking advantage of the successes of the British at Grave di Papadopolo, compelled the enemy to retire and repulsed two counter-attacks in the direction of Borgo Malanotte and Ronadelle. The prisoners taken yesterday aggregated more than 9,000. Fifty-one guns were captured.

"Allied aircraft, with extreme daring, attacked the enemy troops from low altitudes.

"In local fighting on Monte Grappa, 150 prisoners were taken. The enemy heavily attacked on Monte Periccia and obtained a foothold in the Italian positions at great sacrifices. Later the Italian infantry in severe fighting drove out the enemy and regained the lost positions.

"In Albania our advance guards, having overcome the resistance of the enemy, have crossed the Mati River and are marching on Alessio."

CENTRAL ALLIANCE ALREADY TORN UP

Only Question for Allies is Military Guarantees, Not Negotiation of Stipulations.

Paris, Oct. 28.—Commenting on the Austrian note as to the request of Austria-Hungary for a separate peace, it is pointed out generally by the Paris papers that Count Andrássy, the new Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, represents nothing but a nomination by the Austrian Emperor.

"It," says The Journal des Debats, "Secretary Lansing replies, which is not certain, it will be easy for him to say: 'There is no occasion to pursue the subject as neither Austria-Hungary nor a common minister of foreign affairs exists.'"

Referring to the phrase in the Austrian reply, "without awaiting the result of other negotiations," The Temps says: "In these words the son of the minister who concluded the Austro-German alliance gives official notification that the alliance has been torn up itself that it still exists in Vienna, with that in Berlin and with that in Constantinople," the newspaper continues, "the only question at the present moment can be taken for military guarantees and not negotiate territorial or political stipulations."

Three Towns, Three Mines Taken by Allies in Serbia

Paris, Oct. 28.—The following French official communication was issued tonight: "Eastern theatre, Oct. 27.—The allied forces, continuing their advance to the north, have occupied the important towns of Kragujevatz and Jagodina, as well as three mines at Senje and Ravaraka. Serbian cavalry have occupied Despotovac."

WILSON IS ELECTED.

London, Oct. 28.—Havelock Wilson was today returned unopposed for South Shields.

MAY TIE UP MINES AND STEEL PLANTS

Sydney, N.S., Oct. 28.—At a meeting of representatives of unions among the employees of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, the Dominion Coal Company and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, it has been decided to bring on a general strike at the Cape Breton steel plants and coal mines next Friday unless J. A. Nicholson, president of the recently organized clerks' union is reinstated in his position on the clerical staff of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co.

If the strike decision is persisted in, all steel plants as well as all the island collieries of both the Dominion and Scotia companies, will be completely tied up.

A telegram has been sent to Ottawa by the Sydney Trades and Labor Council notifying the government of the proposed strike.

AUSTRIA SENDS OUT FRESH PEACE NOTE

Count Julius Andrássy Requests President Wilson for Armistice.

WANTS CONVERSATIONS Appointee of Emperor Charles Asks Washington to Begin Overtures.

Baie, Oct. 28.—Austria-Hungary is notifying President Wilson that it is ready to enter upon peace negotiations and arrange an armistice asks President Wilson, in its reply to him, to begin overtures on the subject.

The Austro-Hungarian foreign minister instructed the Austro-Hungarian minister at Stockholm yesterday to ask the Swedish government to send the following note to the Washington government:

"In reply to the note of President Wilson of the 13 (1917) of this month, addressed to the Austro-Hungarian Government, and giving the decision of the president to speak directly with the Austro-Hungarian government on the question of an armistice and of peace, the Austro-Hungarian Government has the honor to declare that equally with the preceding proclamations of the president, it declares also to the same point of view contained in the Austro-Hungarian peoples, especially those of the Czech-Slovaks and the Jugos-Slavs.

"Consequently, Austria-Hungary accepts all the conditions for the entry into negotiations for an armistice and peace between Austria-Hungary and the States in the opposing group for an immediate armistice upon all Austro-Hungarian fronts.

"It asks President Wilson to be so kind as to begin overtures on this subject.

The Austrian note is dated October 28, at Vienna, and is signed by Count Julius Andrássy, the new foreign minister.

FRENCH PROGRESS NORTH OF GUISE

Troops Move Forward to East of the Peron River.

Paris, Oct. 28.—Still further progress has been made by the French north-west of Guise, and they have moved forward to the east of the Peron River beyond the Pargny wood, the war office announces tonight. French aviators have been exceedingly active.

"On the Oise front there have been stubborn engagements on the east bank in front of Grand Verly, where the enemy delivered several counter-attacks.

"Further south we carried our lines as far as the approaches to the Oise, capturing points of support northwest of Guise. We likewise advanced to the east of the Peron in the region north-west of Bois le Pargny.

"On the whole front between the Oise and the Serre our troops are in fresh contact with the enemy lines. Chateau Porcien we have made an advance north of Herpy."

AMERICAN SUCCESS ALONG THE MEUSE

Bois Belle Entirely in Their Hands as Result of Surprise Attack.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The American official statement of today follows: "On the Verdun front east of the Meuse our troops yesterday carried out a successful attack against the Bois Belle. As a result of this operation this wood, which has been the scene of constant fighting since Oct. 25, is entirely in our hands. Further south lively combats are in progress in the eastern portion of the Bois d'Ormont. Artillery fire has been violent on the front from Bois de la Grande Montagne to the Bois de Caures.

LIBERAL IS ELECTED IN RED DEER RIDING

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 28.—With seven polls yet to be held from J. J. Gaetz, Liberal, is leading by a majority of 500 over F. W. Galbraith, Unionist-Independent, in the provincial by-election in Red Deer constituency. The missing polls will increase Gaetz's majority, and it is claimed by the Liberals that Galbraith will lose his deposit.

The City of Red Deer gave Gaetz a majority of 112.

KERKUK CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH

Turks Forced to Give Up the City and Retreat Northward.

London, Oct. 28.—British troops have captured the important town of Kerkuk, in Turkish Kurdistan, lying 155 miles north of Bagdad, according to the war office announcement on operations in Mesopotamia. The town was occupied on Friday. The statement says:

"The Turks still held on Friday strong positions on Jebel Hamrin, west of the mouth of the Lesser Zab; but on the previous day some of our armored cars, by desert track further west, struck in on the Turkish line of communications in the neighborhood of Kalesh Sberghat, where they attacked enemy convoys. At the same time our cavalry moved up the left bank of the Tigris, threatening the enemy communications from the east.

"The pressure of our troops in front, combined with the attacks on their communications, compelled the Turks to retreat twelve miles to the north on Saturday night to a position three miles south of Kalesh Sberghat, where we are in close contact with them. Our troops are showing great powers of endurance in a country possessing no roads and devoid of supplies.

"Kerkuk was captured by us on Friday after slight opposition, and the Turks retreated towards Altky Kupri. Armored cars inflicted many casualties on the enemy close to the town, and on Sunday our main body was in touch with the Turkish troops covering the crossings of the Lesser Zab."

GERMAN TRADE PLOTS TO BE INVESTIGATED

New York, Oct. 28.—An exhaustive inquiry by government officials into alleged plots of German industrial representatives for the re-establishment of German trade in America after the war will be started here this week.

The investigation, it was said, will centre largely around the expenditure of vast sums of money placed in the hands of officials of the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd lines.

The Rising Tide

VALENCIENNES LINE HAS BEEN IMPROVED

British Troops Draw Closer to Town, Which is Infested With Machine Guns.

With the British Armies in France and Belgium, Oct. 28.—The British launched a local attack this morning south of Valenciennes. They improved their positions and drew closer to the town, which is infested with enemy machine guns.

On the rest of the front it was comparatively quiet.

Lille today is celebrating her deliverance after four years of German oppression. President Poincare and other notables reviewed British detachments. The populace is enthusiastically showing its sympathy.

TRY TO MIX ARMISTICE WITH PEACE QUESTION

Paris, Oct. 28.—Commenting on the German reply The Temps remarks that President Wilson did not ask for a reply, adding:

"His note virtually ended with the word 'capitulation.' Dr. Solf accepted everything without wincing and begins his reply with placid banality. The German reply is another attempt to confuse the question of an armistice with the question of peace."

REVOLTING LITHUANIANS DEFEAT GERMAN FORCE

Washington, D.C., Oct. 28.—Diplomatic advice from Amsterdam today says that the peasants in Lithuania have revolted and thousands of them have joined other deserters who are hiding in forests and swamps. German troops are declared to have been defeated in fights with the peasants.

There was no possibility of a reconciliation according to these advisers, and the emperor was compelled to accept Ludendorff's resignation.

LUDENDORFF RESIGNED AS RESULT OF ROW

Washington, Oct. 28.—Press despatches to The Hague transmitted to the state department today say General Ludendorff resigned his post as first quartermaster-general and real leader of the German army, as the result of a complete disagreement with Prince Maximilian, the chancellor.

There was no possibility of a reconciliation according to these advisers, and the emperor was compelled to accept Ludendorff's resignation.

Amsterdam, Oct. 28.—A despatch from Berlin says a proposal that President Wilson's note to Germany should not be discussed in the reichstag was adopted by that body at a meeting held on Friday. The Conservatives and Independent Socialists voted against it.

EMPEROR CHARLES SEES PEACE COMING NEARER

Amsterdam, Oct. 28.—The Vienna Gazette today published a letter signed by Emperor Charles appointing Count Julius Andrássy to succeed Baron Burian as foreign minister and president of the Austro-Hungarian cabinet council.

Emperor Charles, in an order to the army and navy dated Oct. 23, which also is printed in the newspaper, announces that the day bringing peace to the homes is coming nearer. The emperor appeals to all to maintain loyalty and obedience in these grave times full of confusion which must not spread to the army and the navy."

KAISER HOLDS REINS IN SPITE OF "REFORMS"

Amsterdam, Oct. 28.—The Berlin Vorwarts, the Socialist organ, in an account of Saturday's session of the reichstag, says Eduard Bernstein, the independent socialist leader, complained that the government proposals constituted only a half-way reform, because in giving a voice to the bündersath in questions of war, peace and treaties the people were deprived of being able to render the decision.

After all," Bernstein added, "the kaiser finally retains the reins and can impart spirit to the army which is extremely dangerous for democracy. President Wilson refuses to negotiate with those at the head of affairs, and we must meet him if we desire peace."

DEFENCES PILED UP IN REGION OF METZ

Elaborate Fortifications Are Thrown Up in Dread of Allied Breach.

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 28.—Although the German army is making the most desperate effort in the war's history to prevent the Americans from breaking thru in the vital Verdun sector, it is equally or more fearful that there may be a breach endangering Metz, with the consequent necessity of abandoning all the territory still occupied, and of suffering an invasion of the German empire itself.

With division after division of troops, machine guns and artillery, the enemy is bitterly defending himself west of Verdun. But it is with an elaborately strong trench system, planned to be made impregnable, and with rows of barbed wire, and even electrified wire, that he has been feverishly working during the past few weeks to make Metz invulnerable. The system has been laid out, roughly, between Pont-a-Mousson, Avricourt and the River Saille, with a parallel front from Chemnot to Vic.

The enemy's activity first showed itself between Chateau-Salins and Moyenvic, where no less than five parallel trenches have been constructed, and three on the reverse side of the slopes. The greater part of this system has only recently been completed. Two additional lines in the rear have already been planned and traced out, and a double system of dugouts and machine gun emplacements has been prepared. This position is continued in the direction of Marsal and Mulcy.

Another position has been hastily organized, depending upon the heights of Juvetille and Donnelay. It runs along the ridge upon which is situated Marjmont Chateau, and passes about a third of a mile from Bourdonay. It follows the southern outskirt of Bois de Malsieres Wood, and finally reaches the southern outskirts of Rechicourt Forest and the heights of Poulery, east of Avricourt.

The southern pivot of this fortified position is situated northwest of Cirey. The greater part of the line is strong with electrically charged wires, the current of which is furnished by high tension generators, plants being located at the Salins Gorge, Morhange and Sarrebouilly.

EXCITING SCENES IN THE REICHSTAG

Militarism Blamed for Persecutions Carried on in Poland.

KAISER MUST ABDICATE

War With Hohenzollerns or Peace Without Them, Says Dr. Cohn.

Amsterdam, Oct. 28.—Exciting scenes occurred in the German reichstag during the proceedings of the house on Friday and Saturday.

In the course of the discussion the Polish Deputy Korzantz hotly attacked the Polish policy of the government. He declared that in Chemnitz alone the war raw materials department sold 8,000,000 marks' worth of carpets and other goods taken from Poland. Seven hundred thousand poor Polish people were carried off to Germany, where they led the life of slaves, while Brig.-General Flisulsky (of the Polish Legion), whom the Polish nation regarded highly, was still held in the fortress at Magdeburg, despite all appeals. The deputy concluded:

"We are not blaming the German people for these persecutions, but German militarism. We extend the hand of reconciliation to the German people for the common struggle."

The independent socialist, Dr. Cohn, who declared that the war was lost after the first battle of the Marne, said that General Ludendorff at the end of September proposed the formation of a government empowered to negotiate an armistice with President Wilson, as it was impossible to guarantee the maintenance of the war much longer.

Cannot Be Evaded.

"The question cannot longer be evaded," said Dr. Cohn, "war with the Hohenzollerns or peace without the Hohenzollerns. World revolution will follow on world militarism and world militarism and we will overcome them. We extend our hand to our friends beyond the frontier in this struggle."

The speech was received with such commotion, cries of "Shame!" and "Cowards!" that the vice-president threatened to have the chamber cleared.

Another socialist, Otto Ruelle, was called to the tribune, and declared that the emperor must abdicate as a result of "a call to order" won him from the original crowd.

The speaker then declared that the emperor must abdicate as a result of "a call to order" won him from the original crowd.

CHATHAM MAN WON THE VICTORIA CROSS

Chatham, Oct. 28.—The posthumous honor of the Victoria Cross has been awarded to Corporal Harry Garnet Bedford Miner, a Chatham man, who died of wounds August 8, after an act of conspicuous bravery. Corporal Miner captured a machine gun single handed, killing the entire crew, and turned the gun on the enemy. Later, with two others, he attacked a machine gun post and put the gun out of action. Miner then rushed, single handed, an enemy bombing post, bayoneting two of the garrison and putting the remainder to flight. Despite mortal wounds he refused to withdraw. Corporal Miner was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miner, Park street, of this city.

Showing Divisions, Districts, Amounts Collected, Special Subscriptions and Percentage of Objectives.

Returns from thirty-nine out of fifty-eight units in the Province of Ontario received last night give total subscriptions of $12,160,600 for the 1918 Victory Loan. The total amount subscribed the first day last year was $7,824,500. This splendid result from the first day is attributed to more efficient work on the part of the canvassers, many of whom were new recruits, and to the fact that the weather conditions and the prevailing epidemic militated to some extent against more returns being received, but in spite of that the results were received at Ontario headquarters with every mark of enthusiasm and satisfaction.

Read This and Then Decide Whether You'll Buy Bonds

Pretty, attractive and primed with the patriotic spirit of her forefathers is Miss Elizabeth Schiltz. This little Belgian woman has come to Toronto from New York to do her "bit" for the Canadian Victory Loan by telling some of the things which she knows at first hand of the early days of the German invasion of Belgium.

It was intensely thrilling at the King Edward Hotel last night to listen to the story as told to some women of the press by from her house on the hilltop watched the invading army, and heard the clatter of their heavy armor as they came along by four different roads to fall upon the City of Brussels.

"You all know the first week the Belgians gained against Germany," said Miss Schiltz, who heard the first brave days beaming in her eyes, "but by and by the Germans were so great we had to fall back."

"After the fall of Louvain they came on, bringing with them the great gun, called the Big Bertha, drawn by six horses. I saw the refugees coming in and talked with them. All had suffered."

Schiltz, "but they took down our flag. Every day they sent out proclamations. Sometimes, one every two, three or four hours. One would say, 'We are a hundred miles from Paris, then, seventy-five miles' then 'tomorrow morning we shall be in Paris. But the morning they were to have put up the final proclamation the Germans were marching away from the French capital, and the proclamations which they had already posted had been covered during the night with white paper."

Hypocrisy of Kaiser.

The hypocrisy of the Kaiser was brought out by Miss Schiltz when she quoted the note written after the sack of Louvain, when he said: "My heart bleeds to have to destroy the municipal buildings, a gem of architecture."

How the Germans went about the streets first, they entered the houses, and how, when the people became exhausted from being shut up in their homes, they came to the windows to put out a little white flag, and met with the most dastardly treatment, was told in a single incident.

Sample of Kultur.

"A woman came to the window to put out a bit of a white sheet, and a German man, who was behind her, somehow and snatched her in the back. This was German Kultur," said the Belgian refugee with fine sarcasm.

The district headquarters report that Amelia Schiltz, whom Miss Schiltz saw in New York showing a pair of field glasses that he had seen from a German officer, was the inspiration of her work in a similar line. She told a woman who was working on the Liberty Loan that she had seen a man and a woman together. She was induced to tell something of her experiences. Thru a gentleman from Toronto, who heard of her in New York during the first Liberty Loan, Miss Schiltz, who is an artist by profession, is invited to come here for the days of the campaign. She is a guest at the home of W. H. Alderson, 20 Trillier avenue.

German Treatment.

How the Germans treated the people of the village of Schaerbeck, the suburb in which Miss Schiltz lived, was illustrated when she said, "For instance our milkman. He had disappeared for some days. When he came back he told us the Germans started to shoot. They made the people stand out in the middle of the street while they went into the houses and took all their valuables, furniture, the antiques, then they smashed the rest. They made the men go into the church, and kept them there for three days. The women were left in the houses with the doors and windows open to the Germans."

"Yet we are not supposed to kill them," said a professional narrator in speaking of this part of Belgium's tragedy.

"They did not ask us at first to forego our patriotism," said Miss Schiltz.

ill pay day and then I'll be able to buy one for $200 and pay it all. I've been saying up for this for a long time. I've bought one for $100 and $150 of bonds yesterday.

Many American citizens are buying bonds in the district headquarters report that Amelia Schiltz, whom Miss Schiltz saw in New York showing a pair of field glasses that he had seen from a German officer, was the inspiration of her work in a similar line. She told a woman who was working on the Liberty Loan that she had seen a man and a woman together. She was induced to tell something of her experiences. SCORE'S "BALACLAVA" SLIP-ON TOPCOAT—ALL SIZES IN STOCK

The name "Score's" is the "hall mark" of quality in the high-class tailoring trade of Toronto, and that's just why the Score's "BalACLAVA" Slip-on Topcoat is the "hot" distinction—that it is made from very special weaves of high-grade, and the imported British wools, specially mentioned in those winter weaves in the splendid fleecy frieze textures. These coats are all semi-lined with a very fine quality duchesse satin. All sizes in stock or made to your measure. "BalACLAVA" price range starts at $35. R. HON. T. W. MCGARRY AT METHODIST BOOK ROOM

Hon. T. W. McGarry, provincial treasurer, had rather a unique experience yesterday morning when he spoke in the bistory of the Methodist Book Room & more than 500 employees, on the occasion of the opening of the Victory Loan.

The entire staff of the house was gathered in the bistory, the only room in the building here and the book-sewing machines and folders, silent for the time being, Mr. McGarry in his vigorous style, outlined the purposes of the Victory Loan of a year ago and it is anticipated that the Book Room employees will subscribe well up to the quota of $100,000, and one of the governor-general's honor flags. Strong committees have been formed throughout the institution and canvassing has already begun.

SEVENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONSUMERS' GAS COMPANY

Year Ending 30th September, 1918

The Directors have satisfaction in presenting to the Stockholders the Seventieth Annual Statement of the Company and to report a large increase in the number of customers and in the output of gas.

During the year, 1,535 new service connections have been made, and as there have been practically no additions to the street mains system, these services represent new business on existing main pipe lines.

The general shortage of coal and the difficulties experienced by citizens in obtaining sufficient coal for the heating of their houses, has resulted in large quantities of gas being used for this purpose.

The consumption of gas in munition plants, military establishments and for general industrial purposes has continued to increase.

The Company's manufacturing plant has, therefore, been taxed to nearly the limit of its capacity; but it is gratifying to your Directors that there has been no failure on the part of the Company in meeting these extraordinary demands.

Economic conditions have, of course, practically prohibited the installation of new manufacturing plant.

It will not be a matter of surprise to the Shareholders that there have been increases in the cost of raw materials used in the manufacture of gas, but the Directors have thought it well to show the actual increases to the Company in certain items of operating costs for the past year as compared with the cost of the same items in 1917.

GAS COAL	Increase per ton $2.55	Total Increase	$499,214.70
GAS OIL	Increase per gallon 4.1c	"	265,376.20
LABOR	Average Increase per hour 13c	"	201,914.10
TAXES	Increase	"	69,504.27
Total Increase			$1,036,009.27

Having these figures in mind it is not surprising that the financial statement shows an adverse balance, after payment of interest charges and dividend. Your Directors, however, are of the opinion that they are the war, and they have, therefore, refrained from increasing the price of gas to a point which would yield sufficient revenue to cover all of the increase in the cost of gas. It is, of course, recognized that this policy cannot be continued indefinitely, and unless there be early prospect of a reduction in the cost of raw material, it will be necessary to further increase the selling price of gas. Your Directors have been anxious, however, to demonstrate that they were earnest in their efforts to maintain the price of gas at the lowest possible figure.

There are four hundred and fourteen names on the Honor Roll of the Company employees who have enlisted for active military service overseas. Forty-eight of these have given their lives. The Directors desire to express their deep respect for the men who have so patriotically responded to their country's call and would extend sincere sympathy to the families who have been bereaved.

The Shareholders are asked to confirm the following subscriptions and special allowance made during the past year—

February, 1918	Toronto and York County Patriotic Fund	$5,000.00
October, 1918	Navy League of Canada	1,000.00
Payments to wives and families of men enlisted for active military service overseas		21,137.00
The following statement for the past, as compared with the preceding year, shows:
Year ending 30th September, 1918	METERS	GAS SALES
1917	113,022	$3,811,336.89
1918	108,719	3,007,428.89
All of which is respectfully submitted.		Increase, 4,303 $ 803,968.00

A. W. AUSTIN, President.

CANVASSERS OFF TO A SPLENDID START

Returns Indicate Magnificent Final Result, Says G. H. Wood, at End of First Day.

G. H. Wood, Ontario chairman, after viewing the first day's results said:

"Altho the weather conditions were most unfavorable, as it was raining in nearly all parts of the province, the canvassers got off to a splendid start. Last year splendid results were obtained from employees in industrial establishments which were supposed to be the result of their accumulative savings, and could not be repeated in this campaign. It is apparent, however, that this surmise was wrong as reports indicate that the splendid average of last year is going to be exceeded, and what is equally gratifying is the response coming from the people of foreign birth."

"Sarnia had the largest parade in its history, one and a half miles long, and two industries there have already won the honor emblem. These are the Mueller Company with 100 per cent. of its employees subscribing for an amount over 10 per cent. of the annual payroll, and the Loughheed Company, also 100 per cent. of the employees subscribing 20 per cent. of the annual payroll."

"Thamesville stole a march on the whole province by starting the canvasses at midnight, and within twenty-five

TO REMOVE HARD COAL FROM CIVIC BUILDINGS

The fuel question will not down. At the civic property committee's meeting yesterday afternoon, the scarcity of coal was again discussed, when Ald. Sykes secured the passage of a resolution that the local fuel controller, Daniel Chisholm, be instructed to bring in a report as to the advisability of removing all anthracite coal from public buildings and substituting bituminous where possible. The committee also decided, on motion of Ald. Plewman, to recommend the expenditure of $8,000 to cut down dead trees in the city for firewood.

More than $16,000 has been paid out by the Toronto Street Railwaymen's Union in sick and funeral benefits. This is declared by officials of the union in Toronto to be the largest amount in every respect ever paid out, more than $11,000 having been paid out on funeral benefits alone. Nineteen members died during the year, besides many members of their families.

NEWSPAPERS BLAMED FOR THE CONDITION

Col. Fotheringham Would Close Up the Offices for a Week.

BASE HOSPITAL CROWDED

Dr. Clarke Would Not Like to See Upper Floor Used at All.

That the dissatisfaction among soldiers and civilians with the military medical services in and around Toronto was the result of newspapers fostering that feeling among them, was the statement made by Gen. J. T. Fotheringham, acting director of medical services in Canada, last night, at the inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Cadet T. Davidson, who died in the Base Hospital on Oct. 18 from pneumonia.

According to Gen. Fotheringham there was not another place in Canada where the newspapers were as hostile to the medical services as in Toronto. He said there was no reason for this, infamously, because the medical department was the most vulnerable in the department of militia and for this reason was chosen for the point of attack. It was cruel to destroy the public's faith in the medical branch of the army.

He was not a member of the militia council, but his advice to them was always given the utmost deference. Asked if he was satisfied with the conditions at the Base Hospital, Gen. Fotheringham said that he was not satisfied with any of the hospitals in Canada, and not only with Military District No. 2. He explained at some length the reason for the taking over of the hospitals by the Militia Department, saying that their being under the command of the hospitals commission was a contravention of the Geneva convention.

After the Newspapers. He had received many complaints from dissatisfied people concerning his department, but when investigated not ten per cent. of the data was found true. Referring to the newspapers present at the meeting between the managing editors of the six Toronto papers last spring, when the newspapers were asked to refrain from attacking the base until some improvement had been made. Witness replied that he had been present at the meeting, but he did not call it, and did not remember anything being said about the Base. One of the editors had, on leaving, remarked that he would print any story regarding the Base, whether it was substantiated or not. "And," remarked the general, "he has faithfully lived up to his contract till the present time."

No other preventive other than sending out circular letters to warn the M.O.s at the camp of the approach of the epidemic was done by the department. As he remembered the old General, it held 400 patients in all, with another 400 nurses, doctors, servants and the like. But in those times, patients of both sexes were admitted and there were many private wards, which had been converted to open wards. The new hospital at St. Andrew's would soon be ready with an accommodation of 265 beds.

In his last inspection he found the conditions very satisfactory. Of course the top story was as risky as it had always been in the case of fire, but only patients who could walk were placed there. He did not believe that the Base Hospital had at any time been overcrowded despite the fact that on Oct. 4, when the peak load was reached, there were 714 patients in the hospital. Comparison with other mortality tables from hospitals in the city showed that the Base had a very good record. Grace Hospital showed 11.2 per cent., the General 12 per cent., and the Base only 3.3 per cent.

In most cases of pneumonia which he explained was a new kind of pneumonia arising out of influenza, the patients rarely responded to treatment. He quoted figures from New York, showing that in 100,000 cases there were 12,000 deaths. In regard to an editorial in a Toronto paper, he replied that if he were the press censor he would shut them up for a week. He declared that even if there were a modern military hospital in Toronto, the mortality rate would have been just as high. In view of the fact that the military authorities at present had no better accommodation it would be a criminal error of judgment to surrender the Base Hospital. Col. L. E. W. Irving, A. D. M. S., of military district No. 2, stated that he had asked the R. A. F. for use of Burwash Hall, to use for convalescents, to relieve the congestion at the Base. He did not take the responsibility of ordering the Base convalescents at Burwash into tents. He reminded Mr. Greer of the fact that he had only taken over his present office two days previous to the outbreak of the epidemic, and that he had no overflow hospital to accommodate these men who were taken from the Base.

Asked if he would accept the old General Hospital as his working base, Col. Irving said that if he could get any other he would not. He simply took the division as he found it and made the best of it. Explaining why press, he said that reporters were running in every minute of the day and upsetting the work. But every facility was given to the relatives of patients.

Dr. C. K. Clarke, former superintendent of the General Hospital, stated that the only reason he knew of for moving from the old building was to meet the needs of the university, who objected to the students going that far, and that laboratory facilities were not adequate. He would not try to keep 700 cases in the building. He knew nothing of a report made by Dr. Bruce Smith, condemning the building, and he thought, with the exception of the upper floors, the building was in good shape. Mayor Church: You seem to think that the place was a regular health resort.

In answer to Mr. Greer, who asked him if he would put patients on the upper floor, he said he would not like to see the upper floor used at all. The inquest continues tonight.

HAVE WON FIVE CROWNS TO THEIR HONOR FLAG

Powell River, B.C., Oct. 28.—This district, which held the record for per capita subscriptions to the last Victory Loan for all Canada, went over the top with $108,000 in subscriptions this evening. Swanson Bay, rival to Powell River, subscribed its quota at the same time, and both places hoisted five crowns to their honor flag. A telegram was forwarded to provincial headquarters this evening asking for five crowns to their honor flag. This means that Powell River will have subscribed $125,000 over its quota of $100,000.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

WORK ON INTERSECTION IS NEARING COMPLETION

Work was resumed yesterday on the uncompleted portion of the street car intersection at Danforth and Broadview, and the road is torn up for some distance on Broadview avenue south. The job should be completed within the next two days.

Granite sets are now being laid between the street car intersection tracks at Sherbourne and Bloor streets and the structure should be finished by the end of the week. Men from the parks department were busy during the day removing trees and other obstructions along the new road. It is expected that the Hydro will have all the lights fixed and completed between Danforth and Parliament street today.

Owing to the unfavorable weather of yesterday, not much progress was made on the Glen road subway. All wood work in connection with the bridge is in place on the new road for erection, and the footings will be finished today.

PTE JOHNSTON DIES

Pte. R. J. S. Johnston, 33 Hunter street, a returned veteran, died at Guelph Military Hospital on Sunday after a short illness from pneumonia, in his 28th year.

PART OF THE ROADWAY IN BAD CONDITION

W. Smith, secretary of the Riverdale Ratepayers' Association, met R. C. Harris, commissioner of works, and Ald. Hiltz with a large deputation yesterday afternoon and inspected the roadway on East Gerrard street, between Leslie street and Greenwood avenue. Many complaints have been made by the residents of the district regarding the unsafe condition of this portion of the roadway, which is known locally as "Devil's Hollow," and a number of accidents, some of them fatal, have occurred at this spot.

Commissioner Harris admitted the roadway was in bad shape, and agreed something should be done, but said it would be impossible to do anything this year. "If the matter was brought up before the new works committee next year it would receive attention," said Mr. Harris.

ANDREW ELVINS DIES; PROMINENT ASTRONOMER

With the death of Andrew Elvins yesterday at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. W. A. Clark, 33 Dorval road, the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada lost one of its best-known members and co-workers.

Mr. Elvins was born May 4, 1823, in Cornwall, England, and was preparing to enter the church when he became interested in the study of geology. He came to Canada and settled in Cobourg in 1844, and later moved to Toronto and engaged in business with the "Mammoth House."

He had always been interested in astronomy, and had he had the early training of a professional astronomer, his wonderful aptitude in the scientific field, his originality, and enthusiasm, would have, it is said, given him a prominent place among astronomers of world eminence.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday from the above address to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. He was in his ninety-sixth year.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

Austria, in sending another peace communication to President Wilson, shows that, like Germany, she is endeavoring among other things, to nurse the home front during a crisis in the field, by keeping up a constant hope of an early and advantageous peace. For the Italians, supported by British, French and American contingents, have crossed the River Piave on a broad front and have established strong bridgeheads at various points on the eastern bank. They are shaping their dispositions for an advance on Gorizia and Trieste. The Austrian troops are fighting pretty well, but the allied attack is too powerful for them. Nine thousand prisoners and 51 guns taken in one day's operations alone in forcing the passage of the Piave, represent casualties of about 25,000 inflicted on the Austrians and thus show a major military attack in progress.

As the Italians can carry on active operations for two months before winter sets in, they would seem to have ample time to drive the Austrians from the territory occupied by them last autumn after the battle of Caporetto. Germany has all she can do in France to avoid an immediate military collapse, so she can send little, if any, aid to Austria. The steady approach of the allied forces in Serbia to Belgrade is threatening to open a new Danube front for Austria in a few days. She will then have to fight a war upon two fronts in this present campaign. Hungary's fear of invasion from the south will compel the government at Vienna to divide its forces and, in consequence, Austria may collapse in the field much sooner than Germany. The extreme dislike for the war and the nervous dread throughout the Hapsburg dominions do not make for a home front of any great staying power. A separate peace with Austria, on the contrary, is hardly the right thing, for it would protect Germany from invasion by her most vulnerable frontier. The allies will therefore probably be satisfied with nothing less than the complete military occupation of Austria. Hungary in order that they may attack Germany, if she is still resisting from two sides. An attack by Germany thru Austria-Hungary would turn the immensely powerful Rhine front, and it may thus be the easiest way open for the achieving of an early decision against Germany.

In France both French and British armies, after their recent successes, continued yesterday to press the enemy hardest at his strongest point, the front between the Scheldt and the Oise. The British advanced their line locally in the region between the Rhine and the Scheldt, took 100 prisoners, and drove closer to Valenciennes. They found the city, meanwhile, the extreme British range observation. The British are on the point of achieving a clear breach of the only remaining German defensive line on this side of the French defenses, three or four German counter-attacks on the line in front of Grand Verley, and from the south they moved up to the approaches of the Oise. They carried German support positions in the region of Guise. In this region they have also cut German fortified positions east of Peron and also west of Chateau Porcien.

In the region northeast of Laon and south of the Oise the enemy is continuing his evacuation of his salient, and the French army is now looking over level country towards Hirson. The French are also pressing hard against the enemy in the region of Reims. On the allied right wing the Americans are working an artillery surprise on the Germans. They have opened a bombardment of Longuyon station at 15-mile range with a new type of long piece. If these guns perform as promised, then the station at Longuyon will become unusable by the enemy and his chief communications will be cut.

While the Germans are asking the allies for an armistice, they are acting as if they will refuse the allied conditions, for their feverish preparation of defenses in Alsace and Lorraine means nothing else than that they are going to defend these provinces. The enemy has already created a vast entrenched camp in Alsace; he is now preparing a vast series of fortified works in Lorraine. He is throwing up defenses that will permit his holding out with smaller numbers than it would require to resist the allies in more open fighting. Von Hindenburg, it is said, is resigning his position of chief of the kaiser's great general staff. It is going, it will be for incompetency. The failure of Von Hindenburg and Von Ludendorff last spring and summer not only to achieve a decision over the allies, but even to prevent disaster to the German armies, doomed these two men as German military leaders.

What New Men Earn

Speaking to the reporter of an evening newspaper regarding the wages paid by the Toronto Railway Company, one of their employes is quoted as follows:---

"The company pick out one or two men who they say make $70. We only know of one, and he has been 30 years in the service."

There are in the employ of the Toronto Railway Company 1,121 motormen and conductors earning more than $70 a month.

There are 869 earning from $84 to $101.

The following amounts were in the pay envelopes of the eight conductors in the Yorkville barns, working on the 30c-an-hour rate, for the half month ending October 15:

- $37.47, $35.85, $49.09, $40.22
- $33.74, $38.88, $36.79, $41.33

On a monthly basis, this would work out at from $67.48 to $98.18. The one man of the eight who earned less than $35 for the half month worked only ten days.

Similar conditions prevail throughout the service.

It is plain that the anonymous author of the statement to the contrary was either ignorant of the facts or willingly misrepresented them.

BAN HAS BEEN LIFTED; THEATRES TO REOPEN

'Flu' Epidemic, Health Authorities Think, Has Now Been Checked.

DEATH LIST STILL HEAVY
Precautions Taken to Combat Disease Have Proven Successful.

The local medical health authorities think the "flu" and pneumonia epidemic has at last run its course. While the number of deaths continues to be large, the number of cases is steadily diminishing. So sure do they feel that the outbreak has been checked that the ban on the theatres, churches, and schools will be lifted at the end of this week.

"We have indisputable evidence," said Dr. Hastings yesterday, "that we have passed the crest. It is almost too good to believe, but there has been a wonderful slackness reported from all centres this morning.

"This demonstrates the wisdom of preparedness. If we had had our full staff we could have shortened the time in reaching the crest by a week. However, we have reached it earlier by a week than other places. Other places where it has been in full sway are just now adopting Toronto's methods."

At the city clerk's office yesterday, 164 deaths since Saturday at noon were reported as a result of pneumonia and 42 from "flu."

The following shows the death record to date:
Deaths reported in city yesterday:
From Spanish influenza 42
From pneumonia 104
Total deaths so far this month in the city 1208
From Spanish influenza 769
From pneumonia 439

MONEY IS NEEDED TO CONTINUE WORK

Neighborhood Workers' Association Finds Itself Facing a Deficit.

As a result of the publicity given to the fact that the peak of the influenza epidemic had been passed, contributions to the Neighborhood Workers' Association, who have organized branches to fight the epidemic, have fallen off considerably, both in money and goods. Up to the present the contributions have been sufficient to keep the campaign on a working basis, but up to last night the people in charge of the campaign found themselves facing a deficit.

According to F. N. Stapleford, who is in charge of the workers, $1,000 is needed to keep the work going to tide over those whom the association have been attending and to keep them from a relapse. It costs somewhere around $200 a day to buy necessities. All of the work done by the helpers is rendered gratis, and quite a few of these are needed when it is seen that the association attends somewhere about 500 cases a day.

Jewish patients are being looked after by the workers of the Montefiore Patriotic Society, who help the Jewish people at Orde street school, where food and necessities are prepared to be sent out to the patients. The G.W.V.A. Women's Auxiliary, on Shudell avenue, had to shut down, as all the members are ill with influenza.

That the work done is appreciated by those who have been helped is shown in the large number of letters received at headquarters, which thank the association for the help given them.

LITTLE GIRL DIDN'T KNOW WHAT A DOLL WAS.

A girl of five years of age who doesn't know what a doll is must surely be something unique in the history of childhood. There are, however, many such in the Belgium of today who have been born either just prior to or after the outbreak of the war. These miles have no thought of dolls or the usual playthings of children. They think all day long of but one thing—food, and wonder with a despairing fear whether and when they will get their next meal.

That was the lesson that had been burned into this little girl's soul during the awful years of her sojourn in Belgium. What could not be eaten was useless. If it could be worn, there was something to eat. The story illustrates as nothing else would the bitter and disastrous straits that have fallen on the 1,200,000 children of Belgium. Canada CAN and WILL

ON July 31, 1918, Canadians had on deposit in banks more than a billion five hundred million dollars — that was $160,000,000 more than was on deposit on the same date in 1917.

And, in the meantime, Canadians had invested $425,000,000 in the Victory Loan 1917. Besides that they had bought $60,000,000 worth of provincial and municipal bonds.

So the people of Canada during the past year have accumulated $485,000,000 in bonds and over $160,000,000 in cash more than they had on July 31, 1917. That represents concrete accumulated wealth.

Canada is to-day the richest country in the world, per capita.

Her war debt per capita is lower than that of any other fighting nation.

So Canada undoubtedly has the ability to oversubscribe the Victory Loan 1918.

And Canada must manfully and loyally support the Victory Loan 1918, because the national safety, the national honor and the prosperity of the country are at stake.

While the Council Deliberates.

While the advance rolls on in every field of operations east, west, north, south, the enemy continues to indicate his desire for peace. We know he is crooked and unreliable, treacherous and crafty; we know that he wishes to divide us; we know he wants to get the best terms possible for himself, and we know that the Kaiser would like to save his own bacon. But far beyond all these things comes the demand of the enemy's people for peace. They are in the mood for peace at any price. They have lost faith in militarism, in Junkerism, in Kaiserism. They would be willing to make a present of the Hohenzollerns to America any day. The Kaiser himself says he is willing to become the hereditary president of a German republic like the Kings of Belgium, Italy and Britain. No doubt he would, but if the Germans decide to have a republic they will have a real one, and they won't spoil it with the Hohenzollern favoring extract.

We believe that the other German states are fed-up with Prussia. It is Prussia that has made all the trouble. There is no German outside Prussia that has any love for the domineering military overlords. It is Prussia that is going to have to pay the piper, and the other Germans are more than willing that it should be so. It is Prussia that must give up to the Poles, and to the Austrians, and to the Russians, and to France, and to Belgium and Denmark, and perhaps to Holland. But none of the other German princes are willing to bell the cat. They will gladly leave this task to the allies of the entente, and acquiesce in any terms proposed to that end.

The great war council is in session at Versailles and we may be sure that if there is any way of ending the war compatible with securing the entente aims this way will be proposed. But we may be equally sure that the elimination of the Hohenzollerns and their system will be a first consideration.

It is just possible that a suspicion lurks in the minds of the German people, the result of a seed astiduously cultivated by the Kaiser party, that the allies cherish as rapacious a desire and have as formidable a program of land-grabbing as Germany had herself. If this be the case one could understand the anxiety of the German people to hear the terms before they say more. As President Wilson's points represent substantially the aims of the allies the Germans need not suspect our good faith. As to the terms of surrender they will be no easier six months hence should an overwhelming defeat be insisted upon than today when such a defeat is a moral certainty if the Germans persist in having a demonstration.

That is to say, briefly, the Germans are not likely to balk at unconditional surrender if such surrender is not found to involve more than President Wilson has stipulated. The talk about terms incompatible with the national honor is purely humbug. The Germans know very well that there must be guarantees for an unconditional surrender, and they know, too, that they will be getting off cheap with any terms that a civilized council of war might propose.

Another Phase of Assessment Problems.

In a third bulletin dealing with assessment problems the bureau of municipal research sets out a phase of these questions which is usually ignored. It is raised indirectly in a return chiefly concerned with the number of appeals against various assessments in 20 different municipalities. These show that out of 1548 appeals in these places 330 were granted. The greater number of the appeals were against income assessment, there being 625 under this head and more than half of these, or 333, being from one city of over 100,000 population. Two other cities supplied 103 and 107 respectively. Appeals on land values numbered 387, and on values of buildings 270. On land and buildings together there were 13 appeals in one place and 65 in another. The business assessment appeals only numbered 61 altogether.

The general impression left by this return is that there can be no system in our assessment methods, no uniformity, no automatic way of arriving at the approximately indisputable value of properties. It is obvious that incomes are consistently undervalued or there would be more appeals. Only the salaried man whose earnings appear on a roll available for the assessor is justly assessed, and to the extent that others escape his burden is inequitable and proportionately too heavy. The wage earner usually escapes altogether, and the stock and bond owner justifies himself by this fact. When the late Sir James Whitney inveighed against chequerboard legislation in assessment matters he never understood the irony of his objection to local option in this department.

The suggestion of the bulletin is that "highly specialized training and experience are necessary, as well as hard work and hard work are paid for. What sort of salaries are not to be expected unless these things are paid for. Assessment officials and employees are indicated in the return. In the twenty municipalities studied they vary from $200 to $2500 a year. It is obvious that Toronto is not included in this return, but is it not equally obvious that the change in the treasury department has been immensely profitable to the city, and the comparatively small annual investment in an expert has brought stupendous returns? If the assessment department were similarly treated, and double or triple the present salary paid, would it not be possible to secure such services as would be worth anywhere up to a million a year to the city without imposing any extra burden on those who are now carrying an inequitable share of the city's burdens? Might not these burdens indeed be lightened by a proper adjustment of assessment values, and by the discovery of those who evade their just liabilities?

The bureau makes another suggestion which could not fail to do good if adopted. It is one which the provincial government, so strangely reluctant apparently to advance municipal interests, might well take up and place on an experimental basis for one year at least. An equalization assessment bureau has already been spoken of, and this suggestion is to have an "annual provincial conference of assessors of, say, a week's duration, and by the issuance of a manual giving information as to interpretation of the law, methods of enforcement and means of arriving at equitable assessments under the four different classes. Would not such a provincial organization be of great value in advising the government from time to time as to desirable changes in the law?"

We do not think the value of such a conference could be foretold. It might prove reactionary, and overlook the citizens' side of the case. It is possible that the addition of the members of the revision courts in the several municipalities would obviate such a defect and give balance to the proceedings. At any rate, something will have to be done. There is no department of municipal affairs in such confusion as that of assessments, and it is the foundation of our whole municipal economy. No wonder that people complain about their taxes.

Letting Them Down Easy.

General Gough is being elaborately whitewashed in England, and the amour propre of the fifth army is being used as an excuse for the operation. General Haig's despatch covering the operations in which the army under Gough went to pieces shows that the pressure was very great, but this does not explain lack of preparation and precautions against surprise. General Haig himself is not without need of whitewashing, in the view of many. One of the adroitest slurs in H. G. Wells' new book occurs in one of Lady Charlotte Sydenham's letters. She is one of the impossible aristocrats who know nothing they do not wish to know, and rely on their imagination for their facts. She is criticizing the various allies that have come in, and the proposal to establish a supreme command.

"We ought not to have let them come in. What good are they to us? What can they know of war? A crowd of ignorant republican renegades! British generals to be criticized and their prospects injured by French Roman Catholics and Atheists and chewing, expectorating Yankees and every sort of low foreigner. What is the world coming to? Sir Douglas Haig has been exactly where he is for two years. Surely he knows the ground better than anyone else can possibly do."

The Lady Charlottes will rejoice over the whitewashing, but the nation at large will have more faith in the new men at the top.

OPEN HUNTING SEASON IN THE HIGHLANDS NEAR, AND PROSPECTS GOOD.

Probably the best hunting districts in America are located in the Highlands of Ontario, and that section of the province opened up by the Transcontinental Railway. This immense virgin area offers unlimited opportunities to the hunter for moose and deer. The open season for the Highlands of Ontario district is from November 1 to November 15, both days inclusive. In some of the northern districts of Ontario, including Timiskaming, Timagami and the territory north and south of the Canadian Government Railway in Ontario, the open season has been extended, and is from October 1 to November 30, both days inclusive. A synopsis of the game laws is contained in the G. T. R. publication, "Playground." Full information on application to agents Grand Trunk Railway System or Mr. C. E. Horning, district passenger agent, Union Station, Toronto.

THE WIFE

By JANE PHELPS

CHAPTER LXXIV.

Ruth was to be away still three more days. Brian had spent every evening, save the first one, with Mollie King—seven in all. He had been very contented, although sometimes when he reached home late he would feel just a bit conscience-stricken. Then he would mumble: "She's having a good time staying at expensive hotels. Why should I stick around this tuff flat alone?" That the fat was anything but stuffy, he knew also that both the Robertises and the Curtises would be delighted to see him or to have him come in and play cards.

The idea of learning to do his own typing under Mollie's tutelage appealed to him. So, for the next three evenings, he appeared at the little studio with several parcels under his arm.

"I'll bring in the grub and we'll cook it together," he had said when Mollie asked what he had. "We'll have more time than if we go out." So, in the intimacy of a kitchenette and a two-burner gas stove, Mollie cooked beefsteak or chops and made coffee, while Brian fixed the salad, and old Rachel wondered where "Marr's" Brian don't eat his dinners when Missy Ruth was away.

Mollie was, as she had said, a good typist. She insisted that Brian learn the latest method, although with his usual indolence, he said that any old way would do so long as he could write his letters.

"Indeed it won't! What kind of a teacher would he be to let you give your own way like that?"

So, their heads close together, they spent the evenings over the machine. That is, they worked until 10 o'clock. Then Brian would insist upon stopping and they would talk or go to some neighboring cafe for a bite of supper, and gossip with the villagers for an hour or two.

"I won't be down tomorrow night," Brian said on the night before Ruth was expected.

"I shall miss you," Mollie answered. Knowing Ruth was coming she said no more.

"I'll come the next night—for my lesson."

"I understand," Mollie said to herself after the door had closed. "He can come for his lesson, then, but get back or she'll find fault." Had she known that Ruth scarcely ever objected to anything Brian did, Mollie would have been surprised. She supposed he lived in an atmosphere of almost constant nagging. And that was the reason he sought her companionship.

That night as he prepared for bed Brian said:

"No one can find fault if I am with Mollie because it is necessary," and "I hope Rachel won't tell Ruth I was out every night. I guess I better tell her myself. I'll tell her I am learning typewriting, and it was too far to come way up here when she was away. She has no business to leave me alone, anyway," ending by throwing the onus of his defection upon Ruth as usual.

And she, in the cheerless hotel room, was counting the hours, almost the minutes, when she would be with Brian. She had determined to ask Mr. Mandel not to require her to stay away so long again. This time it had been unavoidable, and so afraid he would be so unhappy.

"I do hope Rachel has cooked nice things for him," she had said to herself every day she had been away. She had written daily a short account of her work and how lonely she was without him. He had also written often but his notes told her nothing. He had not mentioned Mollie King, neither had he told how his evenings were spent. Ruth consequently took it for granted that part of them at least had been spent at home.

Her work had gone very satisfactorily. It had been more or less indefinitely postponed on account of the prevailing epidemic. The idea, however, has not been abandoned. There is to be a gathering, probably a banquet, in Toronto in the not distant future which will be attended by prominent Conservatives from all over Canada. We are told,

Political Notes

The Western newspapers are obsessed with the idea that a big political banquet is taking place in Toronto today. The Winnipeg Tribune says an eastern press bureau is sending out a cut of Hon. Robert Rogers, who is represented as "the guest of honor" at the Toronto banquet. The Tribune adds that Mr. Rogers is not only the chief guest, but also the chief promoter of the convivial spread. It believes the object of the banquet is to "resuscitate" the Conservative party, and deplores any effort to revive either old-time Toryism or old-time Gritism in Canada. The Tribune thinks, however, that the banquet will bear watching, and observes that:

There are some things hatching in Canada's politics which must receive very close attention at no distant date.

The World learns upon enquiry that a banquet was planned some time ago to be held in Toronto today, but that the function has been more or less indefinitely postponed on account of the prevailing epidemic. The idea, however, has not been abandoned. There is to be a gathering, probably a banquet, in Toronto in the not distant future which will be attended by prominent Conservatives from all over Canada. We are told, however, that it is to be essentially an Ontario affair, and that neither Mr. Rogers nor anyone else will be the special guest of honor. Several hundred guests are expected, and the gathering will not be without political significance.

The purpose of the gathering, as we understand it, will be neither to extol nor condemn Union government, but to frankly prepare for that return to the party system which many believe to be inevitable after the close of the war.

The press throughout the country continues to comment on the result at Manitoulin. The Montreal Gazette recalls the patrons' movement which resulted at one time in giving a farmers' party the balance of power in the Ontario Legislature. It dismisses the Manitoulin mishap with the consoling thought that the government's majority is so large as to make the loss of one seat unimportant.

The Ottawa Citizen attaches much more significance to the recent by-election, Ontario. The Citizen says:

The successful candidate in the provincial election for Manitoulin constituency is a representative of the United Farmers of Ontario, the defeated candidate ran as a Conservative. The result should help to awaken some of the political pillars of this province to the fact that changes are going on in the world about them.

BACK TO BUSINESS; BAN OFF SATURDAY

City Rugby League Will Resume Schedule—Notes of the Players.

The announcement by Dr. Hastings that the ban on outside sports will be lifted on Saturday next, has caused considerable joy in the ranks of the City League teams, and all the managers have sent out S.O.S. calls for practice every night this week.

St. Vincents at Parkdale Canoe Club, at Trinity grounds at 7.30 p.m. Officials, Sloane and Armstrong.

Beaches at Beaches, at either Kew Gardens or Starbuck Beach Park. Hour to be announced later; likewise the officials. Gene Dopp will likely act as umpire.

Hebrew Lit. at Capitals. Grounds to be decided on as soon as possible. Officials, Telch and Hower.

Beaches at Aringtons, at Riverdale Park, at 2 p.m. with Gladwin and Patterson in charge.

The various clubs are requested to at once get in touch with the parks department and secure their permits for Saturday's games.

While the league has received no official notice that the St. Vincents will continue in the western district, there is talk around town that they have shut up shop for the season. The executive are endeavoring to reach the powers that be, to see where the team now stand.

Parkdale Canoe Club will continue on Saturday and wind up the western district.

FIVE RECORDS SMASHED AT SWEDISH MEET

London, Oct. 28.—The annual track and field championships of Sweden were recently held at Stockholm. In spite of a heavy track four national and one world record were made. John Zander, the greatest runner Sweden has yet turned out, was responsible for a new world's 1500-metre record, running in 4 minutes 54.10 seconds, which is 11.10 seconds better than Abel Kiviata's time, made in 1912.

The results are as follows: 100 metres—Egndahl, 11.8-10 seconds. 200 metres—Egndahl, 22.7-10 seconds. 400 metres—A. Bohlin, 50.1-0 seconds. 800 metres—A. Bohlin, 1 minute 54.9-10 seconds (national record).

1500 metres—J. Zander, 3 minutes 57.1-5 seconds (world's record). 5000 metres—Zander, 14 minutes 57.1-5 seconds (national record).

10,000 metres—E. Backman, 31 minutes 13.7-10 seconds (national record). Five miles—E. Backman, 25 minutes. 10 miles—E. Backman, 50.1-0 seconds (national record).

400 metres hurdles—R. Melen, 65 seconds. High jump—G. Hogstrom, 1.86 m. Long jump—Patterson, 5.30 m. Pole vault—G. Hogstrom, 2.50 m. Javelin—V. Hakkari, 27.36 m. Discus—O. Zallinger, 72.34 m. Shot put—B. Jansson, 25.30 m.

Lemming, who had not competed, also competed, but showed poor form. He was not placed in the javelin event, and was second in the shot.

LAST KICK FROM A DYING HORSE

Clever press-agent work in the east is not causing Charlie Querre, manager of the Toronto Arena and the Arena Hockey Club, to lose any sleep. Reports of topsy-turvy eastern magnates are the last desperate straws of a worried party to try and turn the scales, and will not work, is the way Querre looks at it.

The National Hockey League meets on Wednesday in Montreal, and it was reported that the three National League clubs will present a front and show the fans that no inroads have been made on the proper trenches.

The N. H. L. is the only pro league that will get ice here," said Querre yesterday. "We decided this long ago, and I am willing to lay a little wager with any man that the N. H. L. will be doing business at the same old stand with the three clubs of old."

Don't let the "fly-by-nights" stampepe you, Mr. Fan.

Toronto is in for the liveliest amateur season on record. The Ashtabulians, from the big British foraging plant down the Ashbridge's Bay, stepped into the arena yesterday and deposited a large cheque for practice hours for two teams. The Ashtabulians will be found in the senior and junior divisions, and Coach Corbett Denny says that there is enough material at the plant to make up half a dozen teams.

The senior lay-out has seven teams at the present time. Five of them will be supplied by Toronto and Kitchener, world champions, and Hamilton will be the others. This means that two groups will likely be formed, with Kitchener in line with two of the Toronto clubs and Hamilton being placed with the other three.

Kitchener will be a big drawing card every time they appear at the arena. They made a lot of friends on their last season by their clean and snappy play.

Dentals, Depot Battery, Ashtabulians, St. Patrick's and Royal Air Force are the local senior teams to date.

With the Ashtabulians announcing themselves as ready for the junior struggle, the city group will have at least five teams. De La Salle, Junior champions, Aura Les, Beaches, Matlands and Ashtabulians are the clubs. These clubs yesterday promise an interesting games for the fans.

The prep college group will have the usual four outfits: St. Michael's College, St. Andrew's, Upper Canada and University Schools.—BUY BONDS.

CLEVER BOXING BY SOLDIERS AT CAMP

First Bouts of Fall Campaign Are Staged at Exhibition Camp.

The first of a series of boxing matches was held last night by the 1st Depot Battalion, 1st C.O.R., at the Exhibition Camp, and the contests were not all fought on a scientific basis, some of the appearance, and provided for some time. There was a full turnout of officers, n.e.o.'s and men, the latter being very enthusiastic.

Pte. "Star" Shoveky and Pte. Matthew, 115 lbs., started the performance. The "Star" had the edge in the initial round, but by handling Matthew a few stiff jolts and knocking some of the wind out of his opponent, the latter was able to get the best of the fight.

Pte. Ryder vs. Pte. Burton, 145 lbs. Burton started with some clever sparring, but Ryder used the ropes to advantage and, in a couple of rounds, the second round was a draw, both fighters working penetratingly strong in the last, and the decision was given to Ryder.

Watts and Watts, 140 lbs., furnished the third bout, which was fast and cleverly and ably fought, and the winner was given to Watts, who landed a few telling wallop in the third, and the fourth round.

The next bout between two colored boys, Pte. Pascoe and Green, 145 lbs., did much toward the evening's entertainment. Pte. Pascoe's antics in the ring created bursts of laughter. Green was the better boxer, much to Pascoe's sorrow, but he worked hard in the first round, and his fast work tired Green, who gave up the 15th of the battle between the two.

A 115-lb. bantamweight champion of Niagara, James Douglas, was the opponent of Grant U.S.A., during the American night. This proved the fair, and Pte. Penneva, night. Williams could do nothing to the champion, and the latter, who was fast work keeping the champion, who was usually on guard. In the second round, Williams showed some of his old form, and in the third round, after a bitter war, who deserved a great credit for his gallantry. This bout was declared a draw.

The last bout of the evening, between Pte. Williams and Pte. Solomon, 135 lbs., could do nothing with Williams' efforts. Williams, who had worked constantly around Sol's jaw, piling a strong lead on the latter.

These weekly bouts will prove one of the most interesting events in the sports life of the battalion from now on.

HOME FOR BALLMEN WOUNDED IN WAR

From Entire Proceeds of Next World Series—Government to Handle Fund.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—When the next year's series is played, and by whom, the benefit of our wounded soldiers will be converted into a fund to be used for the relief of the world's war-wounded.

This plan, if acceptable to the government, when conditions permit, will convert a part of the proceeds of the series into a fund to be used for the relief of the world's war-wounded.

The public will know, too, that the money it pays to watch the games will be devoted entirely to the greatest possible good. It will then be possible to auction off box seats and reservations to the highest bidder, and the proceeds will be used for the relief of the world's war-wounded.

And the old scalping scandal will be wiped out, and the government will be able to guard against the possibility of profiteering out of a benefit for the beloved wards of a grateful nation, and the meaning of the slogan, "Treat 'em rough."

Tribute to Hendrie's Rockspring That Met Death on Field of France

By Wilfred Southwood.

Beneath the shadow of a rude wooden cross "somewhere in France" lies one of the heroes of the great war. He gave of his best in the attempt to fell in the pathway pointing to Belgium and allied victory. His would be but a limited joy could he awake to see the thousand horses and victors trampling on, and, as they go, for our hero was only a race horse. But Hendrie—the hero—was a good fighter, and proved it on track and battlefield. He did his share to blast a hole into the human wall that reared itself in Hunland, and he was a gallant and brave soldier, and he regaled three serious wounds, and it required three serious wounds to stop the career of Hendrie, who was a good fighter, and proved it on track and battlefield.

He was a Canadian and American track, five races in 1918, and won not a large purse winner, his trainer declared Rockspring always managed to pay his way.

Had not the war brought him fame, Rockspring would have been remembered for his sire, Martimas. The sire had an enviable record, winning $3,000 in 1915, and in the Futurity he won the Fort York half-brother, the days of 1899, Martimas was a hardy sort of racer, and being of little thought him worthy to carry his own share to battle, and leaving behind him a gift of him to the major.

So after several years as a useful performer of mettle, Hendrie was sent to the stables at the Hendrie farm. His were numbered, and leaving behind him the galaxy of his former days, he had to take up his share of the duties of winning the stables at the accomplishment of becoming a life, however, at the front was not one whole round of hard work. On more than chance Rockspring was given a a and gaily. On these occasions he showed he had lost none of his former speed, and he took his share of honors when he raced against other officers' horses. Some of the victors were British thoroughbred competitors.

EDWARD PALMER ACTIVE.

Terry McGovern is dead, but Edward Palmer, who was christened Thomas, is still very much alive. Terry knocked out Palmer for the featherweight championship of the world at Tuckerton in one round on Sept. 12, 1909. Palmer boxed an exhibition in London on Aug. 15 last in a show for the benefit of his old trainer and second, George Jackson. Palmer, who was 42 years of age, is 19, has not been prominent in the ring since 1905. He fought one contest in 1912.

He kept away from the New York and Maryland race courses.

During the summer he followed the movements of several former jockeys, who were barred from the 1918 campaign open. The stewards of the Jockey Club, it is freely predicted will refuse to grant licenses to these riders, who have been closely watched both at the tracks and elsewhere ever since the horses returned from Saratoga.

The turf governors, it seems, have been trying on a quiet investigation as a result of numerous exhibitions of suspicious horsemanship, coupled with frequent stories of manipulation. It is the policy of the Jockey Club to make sensation charges against persons who have been closely watched both at the tracks and elsewhere ever since the horses returned from Saratoga.
