ROUSING CALL TO THE RUSSIANS TO ADVANCE

War Minister Sends Out a Last Appeal

HE HAS STRONG BACKING

Only Extreme Letters Fail to Applaud New Order to Army to Fight—Political Parties, Generals and Newspapers Say Troops Must Fight

Petrograd, May 27, via London, May 28.—Virtually all the divergent political factions, all class organizations, councils and even the socialist leaders, with the exception of the extreme Leftists, today re-echo an appeal made by Minister of War Kerensky to the troops and appeal the new order of the day "Advance."

Constant efforts have been made during the last two months by representatives, not only of the government but of the soldiers, to bring home to the army the abandonment of active warfare would not only mean treachery to the Allies but the inevitable loss of all that has been gained in the revolution.

General Brusilov said: "It is necessary to annihilate freedom. The soldiers must overthrow and defeat the enemy. Shame and dishonor to those who have a weak spirit."

General Dragomiroff is less laconic: "An advance upon the enemy," he says, "is an immediate necessity. The enemy is taking advantage of our passivity to leave this front open and send forces westward. The French and British are honestly doing their duty as our allies. They are saving our new freedom, which otherwise would be annihilated. But soon their advance must wear itself out and then there will be no one to help us."

The newspapers contain similar appeals from the heads of the government, Premier Lvov writes: "Honor demands our activity. We are drowned in speech and words. The muscles of our organism are being atrophied. Further passivity will mean ruin."

M. Skobelev, the new socialist minister of labor, joins the chorus with the declaration: "Our present task is to advance."

Kerensky's Address.—The Russian minister of war, A. F. Kerensky, according to Reuter's Petrograd correspondent, in the course of a striking address to the army, said:

"You advance in serried ranks, united by discipline, duty and unlimited love for the revolution and the country. Let the army and navy, which are the freest in the world, prove that liberty is a pledge of strength, not a weakness, and that they are forging new discipline of iron and duty and are increasing the combative power of the country."

"Remember that whoever looks behind, stops, or withdraws will lose all and forget not that if you defend not the honor, liberty and dignity of the country your names will be cursed. The will of the people must ride the country and the world of violators and usurpers. Such is the high duty that calls you."

BRAZIL EXPECTING WAR DECLARATION BY GERMANY

Rio Janeiro, May 28.—A Notice says that in German circles it is asserted that Germany will declare war on Brazil within two or three days.

IN MEMORY OF SOLDIERS A memorial service was held in Portland Methodist church last evening in honor of six young men of the congregation who had crossed overseas and who had made the supreme sacrifice on the battle fields of France. Rev. Nell McLaughlin, pastor of the church, officiated at the services and spoke feelingly about the six young heroes who had died fighting for right.

Service in memory of Driver Gilbert Clino was held last night in St. John's (Stone) church. Special music was provided by the choir. During the course of his sermon, Rev. Gustav A. Kubring spoke in glowing terms of the heroic young man. At the close of the sermon the dead march was played and the last word sounded.

Enemy Fails In Attacks On French And Raids On Line Held By Haig

Paris, May 28.—The Germans delivered three attacks last night and this morning in the Champagne, in the regions of the Casque, the Teton and Mont Blond. All were repulsed.

The Germans are bombarding heavily French positions in the region of Dead Man Hill and Hill 304, and the Verdun front. A French detachment of the 1st Battalion of the 1st Infantry, in Alsace and found many dead in the trenches. Prisoners were brought back.

BRITISH REPORT. London, May 28.—"Hostile raiding parties were repulsed last night north-west of Cherley and south of Lens," says today's official report on the Franco-Belgian front operations.

"We inflicted casualties on the enemy by rifle and machine gun fire and secured prisoners. Successful raids were made by us north of Arras and in the neighborhood of Wytschate. Our troops reached the German support line and captured between twenty and thirty prisoners."

GERMANS SAY THIS. Berlin, May 28, via London.—German troops yesterday captured a line of French trenches on the Poperinghe front, in the Champagne region, together with more than 200 prisoners. Army headquarters so announced today.

Enemy Losing Airplanes. Paris, May 28.—"There was very great aerial activity yesterday and last night," says today's French report. "Enemy airplanes dropped bombs in the regions of Baccarat, Nancy and Font-Venot, causing no important damage. Our squadrons made numerous sorties in the course of which they destroyed a number of enemy airplanes and destroyed 15,400 pounds of projectiles on enemy military establishments and railways."

SAY THEY HAVE. Petrograd, May 28, via London.—"On the Russo-Galician and Rumanian fronts no firing occurred," says today's official statement. "On the Caucasian front two Turkish attempts against the heights south of Baneh near the Persian frontier were repulsed by our fire. Twelve bombs were thrown from enemy airplanes on our airbase north-west of Lankaran."

REPUSED ITALIANS. London, May 28.—"The complete repulse of all Italian attacks after most furious fighting is claimed in an official report issued by our infantry on Sunday." The statement also asserts that more than 13,000 unwounded Italian soldiers were captured in the last sixteen days.

PITCHED BATTLE IN CLEVELAND STREETS

Police Attacked When They Break Up Socialists' Anti-War Meeting

Cleveland, Ohio, May 28.—Police attempting to prevent anti-war speeches by socialists on the public square were attacked by a crowd of about 800 yesterday afternoon and a pitched battle ensued. Just previous to the trouble a recruiting party of the crowd attacked one of the socialist orators off a stone structure near the scene, clubbed the crowd back and a half a dozen men were arrested. The crowd was broken up and the police station, breaking several windows.

CASE OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

The first case of its kind in the police court for a long time was heard by Judge Ritchie this morning. Gordon Selig was reported by Policeman Hogg for cruel treatment of two calves on May 22. The policeman said that on that day some people leaving a street car at the corner of Meigs and Mill streets complained to him of cruel treatment being meted out to two calves by the defendant. He found two small calves with their front feet tied together, a rope running around their necks and tied to the front seat of a low express wagon. When the rope was removed from the calves' necks, the policeman said, the animals collapsed.

WIFE OF MAJOR C. ERNEST GREGORY DIES SUDDENLY

Fredericton, May 28.—On Saturday afternoon about five o'clock, Mrs. C. Ernest Gregory, who had been living at the Colwell house with her son, died suddenly from heart trouble. She had been in delicate health for some time but there was no apprehension of approaching death.

Mrs. Gregory was the wife of Major C. Ernest Gregory, O.C., an artillery detachment in Regina and a niece of Sir Wallace Graham, chief justice of Nova Scotia. Her only son, C. Ronald Gregory, has been a member of the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff here for the last year, but recently enlisted with the 9th Siege Battery.

THE MAGISTRATE commented strongly on the case and referred to the great amount of good accomplished since the law with respect to cruelty to animals came into effect. The fine was $30 and was a big factor in the protection of dumb animals.

THE DEFENDANT said that he did not know that the animals were being injured in any way. He had never treated any animal cruelly before and he was ignorant of the circumstances in this case. He had so tied the calves to keep them from jumping out of the wagon. A fine of $50 was struck but a small amount was taken in its stead.

POLICE COURT In the police court this morning Arthur Johnson pleaded guilty to theft of a watch from an employe of Robinson's Bakery. The magistrate allowed him to go with a recruiting sergeant of the 28th Battalion with the understanding that the defendant would undergo the necessary medical examination or he would be brought back to the court and there await an order of the police magistrate.

Peter Petroff was committed for trial on the charge of theft of several bags from the Atlantic Sugar Refinery. A woman with whom he boarded, a clerk from the sugary refinery and the police gave evidence.

Deaths In Wind Storms Are 250

FEAR THEY WILL PROVE TO BE WORSE THAN ZEPPELINS

Seven States Are Swept By Tornado

DESTRUCTION WIDE-SPREAD

Thousands of Homes Wrecked, Thousands of Acres of Crops Devastated, Hundreds of Head of Live Stock Killed

Chicago, May 28.—Tornadoes during the last three days in seven states of the middle west and the south have killed nearly 250 people, injured more than 1,200, wrecked thousands of houses, killed hundreds of head of live stock and devastated many thousands of acres of growing crops, according to summaries early today.

The latest in the series of tornadoes started on Sunday afternoon, apparently in the vicinity of Hillville, southwestern Illinois, and swept southward across the river into Kentucky, down the Mississippi into Arkansas and Tennessee, and finally struck eastward toward Alabama, where the storm apparently spent itself. The dead in the four southern states was roughly estimated at 100, and the injured at several hundred.

Wire communication into the districts swept by the storm on Sunday is demoralized and only meagre reports of the loss of life and the property damage have been received. The destruction began last night in Andale, Kansas, where twenty-six people were killed and sixty injured. Late on Saturday a twister probably the most severe of the series, struck the rich corn belt of Central Illinois, killing fifty-four persons and injuring perhaps 500 in Mattoon. In Charleston, ten miles east of Mattoon, thirty-seven were killed and 120 injured. The property damage in the two cities is estimated at $2,000,000.

Another destructive storm late on Saturday crossed a territory approximately 100 miles north of the centre of Illinois, reaching into Northern Indiana and caused the loss of a dozen lives, the injury of more than 200 people and a heavy property damage.

SOMETHING BIG EXPECTED IN THIS LIQUOR CASE

The finding of a suit case containing liquor at the station on Friday night by sub-inspector Crawford is said to have led to the working up of substantial evidence against a party of men who are alleged to be engaged in illegal liquor traffic between this city and Halifax. When the case reaches court in premises to unfold some interesting features of the new act and also some of the resources of those attempting to beat the law.

INSURANCE FOR AMERICAN SOLDIERS GOING OVERSEAS

Washington, May 28.—Every soldier, sailor and marine who leaves American shores to participate in the war in Europe may be insured against disability, according to plans now being formulated by the council of national defense.

Preliminary steps have been taken by the council to establish the insurance system. It is believed that the plan decided upon is the most advanced step of its kind ever undertaken by any government. At the request of the council, Assistant Secretary of Commerce Sweet has the formulation of a bill to be introduced in congress. Prominent insurance men will be called in consultation in order to establish the system. The plan is first to put the proposal squarely before the insurance companies, and if they cannot handle it the government itself may undertake it.

GUNNER F. McAVITY HOME

Gunner F. McAvity, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McAvity, 605 Main street, has arrived in the city on sick leave. He was invalided home on account of wounds in the shoulder and thigh which he received in last September. Since being wounded he has spent his time in various hospitals and now has been sent home to recuperate.

After a short visit to his home, he will enter a hospital for further treatment. He enlisted more than two years ago and received his training at Fort-ridge Island and in Halifax before going overseas with a heavy sapper battery.

GERMANS SINK IRISH FISHERMEN; THREATEN TO SHELL COAST VILLAGES

London, May 28.—According to stories printed in the morning papers there has been a complete revolution of feeling toward the war in the south and southwest of Ireland as a consequence of recent attacks by German submarines on Irish fishing fleets.

Some fishing boats have been sunk and the victims of one attack off Baltimore say that the Germans told them that they had already sunk the Kinsale and Waterford fleets and would soon put all Irish fishing boats to the bottom of the sea because they sent fish to Ireland. They also threatened to shell villages on the coast.

NOT READY YET TO BEGIN PAVING ON WEST SIDE

City Solicitor Tells Council That Commissioner Fisher is Within His Rights—Oil Company Wants Sea Wall Built—City Lease Tangle

The pavement plans for Union street, West St. John, again occupied the attention of the council meeting this morning. The city solicitor assured the council that Commissioner Fisher's proposals were well within his rights. As no representative of the company was present, Commissioner Fisher promised a report on Clarendon street for tomorrow.

Mayor Hayes presided and all the members of the council were present. Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, city solicitor, was present when the committee came to order. He reviewed the relations between the city and the street railway company with regard to street and railway repairs and assured the council that Commissioner Fisher not only was within his rights with regard to the proposed work in Union street, West St. John, but was offering to do more than the company could ask.

Commissioner Fisher said he had expected that H. M. Hopper would be at the meeting so that a final understanding could be reached.

G. N. Hatfield, road engineer, asked whether or not he should proceed with the plans, including the raising of the street, and was informed that it would be necessary to wait until the company's decision had been announced.

A communication was received from the Canadian Oil Company, Ltd., informing the council that the company was encroaching on the city lots on Courtenay Bay, leased by the city, in a way which endangers their buildings. They asked if the city would erect a sea wall and offer to co-operate in any way such as paying increased rental.

The city engineer reported that four city lots, with a frontage of 160 feet on the south side of the eastern end of Queen street, have been under lease to Miss Jane Wilson at a rental of $5 a year, but the lease has been allowed to lapse. A sub-lease, Mr. McGinn, who has built a house on one of the lots, has asked for a direct lease from the city, and in order to straighten out the matter, he recommended that arbitrators be appointed to fix a valuation on the lots which the improvements should be taken over by the city.

Commissioner Russell's recommendation that the city appoint an appraiser for the purpose was adopted.

In reply to a question of Mr. McEllan's, Commissioner Fisher said that he intends to report on the work to be undertaken there at a meeting of the council on Tuesday.

ASK MAYOR'S CO-OPERATION Mayor Hayes has received a communication from the secretary of A. Boulliez, principal baritone at the Covent Garden Theatre, London, asking his co-operation in arranging for a concert to be put on in St. John by Belgian artists in aid of the Belgian Red Cross fund. The mayor is asked to act as patron and to select a local committee to aid in the arrangements.

Good Things Coming
—To—
Theatres of St. John

MARY PICKFORD'S LATEST
AT IMPERIAL TONIGHT

With the splendid spring weather and with everything favorable to large attendance, Imperial Theatre should be the mecca of every picture-lover in town tonight. Mary Pickford, supported by a new leading man, Elliot Dexter, will prove an extraordinary attraction in her latest Artcraft production "A Romance of the Redwoods," written by Cecil B. DeMille and Jennie Madherson. This tale, incidental to the gold rush of 1849 among the redwoods of California, is a thing of beauty, not only a story but because of marvelous scenic investment and fidelity to conditions existing in that strenuous period. The critics and first nighters of New York, Chicago, "Prisco and elsewhere acclaim "A Romance of the Redwoods" as an artistic triumph in the department of its endeavor. It is an eight-reel story and Imperial patrons are admonished to be hand promptly or else make their reservations for boxes by telephone. The show commences at 7 and 8.45 with Pathé British Gazette. The usual small prices and absolutely no advance on 10c for the lower floor except the usual box seats at 25c.

STIRRING GEM PICTURE

It is from the Fox studio, which is a warrant of worth. Gretchen Hartman and Alan Hale play big parts. The vaudeville rounds out an excellent programme for tonight and tomorrow.

THREE CANADIANS ARE RESCUED IN RAID

(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press in France.) Canadian Army Headquarters, May 28.—It is reported that the Kaiser recently visited Douai and addressed a gathering of officers and troops holding the Scarpe-Lens line, announced that the British offensive in the region of the Scarpe was at an end. The Kaiser is a good talker, but had his officers taken him out to Avion, Mericourt and Achille and other points east of Vimy, where the German defenses are crumbling under the steady pressure of the Canadian army. He might not have been so dogmatic. Our aviators report that the industrious Germans are far from confident of their ability to hold the Mericourt-Oppey line, new systems are being laid behind it on which it is believed British prisoners are being employed. Three Canadian prisoners, the first in a considerable time, were obtained in an extensive raid opposite Achille early this morning. The Germans raided after a heavy barrage and attacked a wiring party. Our casualties were very light, while the enemy left some dead in front of our lines and some prisoners of the Fifth Prussian Footguards.

WHEAT A LITTLE MORE ACTIVE BUT PRICE IS DOWN A BIT MORE

Chicago, May 28.—Wheat today developed a little more activity than has been the rule of late. Optimism in regard to the new crop outlook, however, tended to make prices weak. Besides, the services were that less apprehension was felt in Great Britain regarding supplies. After opening one cent to four cents lower, with July at 207 to 209 and September at 188, the market dropped to a moderate extent.

SPANISH PEOPLE WANT GOVERNMENT TO DECLARE FOR ALLIES

Madrid, May 27, via Paris, May 28.—A long expected gathering of the Spanish people in Madrid favorable to the Allies was held this morning. There was great enthusiasm. The gathering was estimated to number 25,000. A counter demonstration by German sympathizers was forbidden by the authorities to prevent possible disturbances. Conspicuous among the meeting was held were the names of thirty-three torpedoes Spanish vessels, in huge letters. The speakers included all the leaders of the Progressive party in Spain. Miguel Unzueta, former rector of Salamanca University, provoked thunderous applause when he declared that the liberal objects of the Allies in the war were demonstrated by the entry into it of the "Great American democracy." The meeting concluded after the adoption of a resolution asking the premier to make public a declaration of Spain's sympathy with the Allies. Some disturbances were caused by German sympathizers as the crowd was dispersing. A man in the crowd fired at Alejandro Lerroux, republican deputy, without hitting him. The police arrested some demonstrators.

UNDER CONSCRIPTION
Proportions for overseas by province if compulsory recruiting is to be on the same basis as allotted for the 500,000 volunteers which were to be raised. The two military areas of Quebec province, having failed to send according to population, would have larger quotas of men conscripted. The diagram indicates an allotment of 27,800 men to Quebec and Montreal areas, and 8,200 to the London area in the first 100,000 conscripts.

LOSS OF APPETITE
Most Successfully Treated by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla
Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality, which is serious. It is common in the spring because at this time the blood is impure and impoverished and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their functions.
Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-the-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the spring. Get it from your druggist today. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving vitality, vigor and tone, it is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and the other ailments prevalent at this time. It is not simply a spring medicine—it is much more than that—but it is the best spring medicine.
Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood the digestive organs need.

GERMANS EXECUTE WOMEN
Geneva, via Paris, May 27.—La Suisse today prints details of a case similar to that of Miss Edith Cavell, the English nurse, who was executed by the Germans in Brussels in October, 1915. The Germans, says the newspaper, recently executed two women, Mine Frister and her daughter, aged 22, on the Swiss-Alsatian frontier. They were charged with acting as spies.
The women promptly admitted at the trial that they had smuggled letters, without knowing their contents, from Alsatian families to relatives in Switzerland. This was done simply as a friendly act, and without political or malicious purpose.

Albert Wallbank, who was employed at the site of the new elevator, was severely injured on Saturday afternoon. He was standing near the crane, which is used for lifting excavated matter on the cars, when a part of the apparatus broke and the heavy beams fell on the unfortunate man. He was rendered unconscious by the blow. Mr. Wallbank was removed to the General Public Hospital in a critical condition.
Two other accidents of a minor character occurred on Saturday afternoon. Shortly after noon the city ambulance collided with a street car at the corner of Mill and Main streets.
About 8.45 p. m. an automobile collided with a motor truck at the corner of Mill and Main streets. The truck was somewhat damaged, but no one was injured.

Highwayman Killed
Montreal, May 27.—Constable Gale, of the Cheminville police station, shot a highwayman at 9.45 Saturday night in Dorchester street near Bleury street, while the highwayman was robbing Edward Neely, 806 Union avenue, whom he had assaulted and drowsed. The wounded man ran into Nicolas Dominico's grocery store, nearby, and fell across the counter. An ambulance was summoned from the general hospital, but before he could be lifted into it he was dead.

AMERICANS' AIR CHIEF KILLED BY A FALL
Captain Delage Crushed Under Motor of His Machine on the French Front

Paris, May 26.—Captain de Laage, commanding the American Escadrille, special machine of the climbing type, has been killed while flying near Ham, on the Somme front. He set out to attack a German. Mounting almost perpendicularly, he had reached a considerable height when the engine stopped abruptly. The machine dropped straight to the earth and de Laage was crushed beneath the motor.
In June, 1916, the various American air pilots who have been flying in different detachments of the French Aviation Corps were assembled into an organization known as the American Flying Corps. The organizer of this group was Lieutenant de Laage de Meux; its commander, Captain George Thamm, both of the French Corps. Last November, owing to objections made by the United States government, the organization changed its name to the Lafayette Escadrille.
Up to April 8 the corps had shot down thirty German airplanes, and four days later it was said that the members would henceforth wear United States uniforms and fly the American flag as the first United States unit on the front. Since then de Laage had been made a captain.

COAL FOR NEW ENGLAND
(Bangor Commercial.)
Railway officials believe that the coal shortage in New England will be relieved materially by the decision of the war board of the American Railway association to pool all coal for shipment on the Great Lakes through Lake Erie ports. The pooling is expected to result in a saving in the time of freight cars equivalent to adding 32,000 cars to the available freight equipment of the railroads. A considerable proportion of the freight cars relieved by the pooling will be used to ship coal to New England. The Council of National Defense is hopeful that during the next few months, it will be possible to ship enough coal to New England to prevent a shortage next winter. Howard Elliott, formerly president of the New Haven railroad, has been a tireless worker in an effort to get coal for New England.
The practice of shipping coal to the Great Lakes has been for each individual shipper to send his coal to some Lake

Erie port, and there gradually accumulate enough for a ship load. Meaning the cars were held up. Because of the numerous grades of coal handled in this way, much switching was necessary. Under the new arrangement, coal owned by different producers, will be put in a common pool on arrival at a lake port and will be despatched to the northwest as fast as steamers can take it. It is believed that the new arrangement will effect a saving of one and one-half days in the time of each car carrying coal to Lake Erie ports.

HOW CUBS SECURED
MANAGER MITCHELL

A glance over the batting order of the Cubs shows several players who have been slated for the discard. Zeider, at third, has been ready for the scrap heap for years; Larry Doyle was quoted out when he broke his leg last year; Fred Merkle was chased from the Giants to Brooklyn and thence to Chicago and the others have checked careers. But this same flock of so-called "has-beens" is playing good baseball, thus the pennant in 1914. And it is to be remembered that Fred Mitchell was with the Braves that year and some critics gave him credit for the showing of the club. Whether he is to blame or not cannot be discussed now, but the fact remains that he is up there fighting with his club while Stallings is trying to break into the select circle around the club door. Some managers have fame thrust upon them and others fall into it by accident. Mitchell, with his unassuming manner, never would go out and hunt for fame and fortune. He was contented with his lot and probably still would be if it were not for the fact that he was not for a conversation held in New York one day last summer. He was then manager of the Boston club and was being interviewed by a reporter. "Who is he?" asked Weegman quickly. "Lead me to him so that I can look him over," said the reporter. "That's a new one on me. Who is he? Never heard of him." Then Gaffney proceeded to tell the story of Fred's modest life and how he got into the club. "Who is he?" asked Weegman quickly. "Lead me to him so that I can look him over," said the reporter. "That's a new one on me. Who is he? Never heard of him." Then Gaffney proceeded to tell the story of Fred's modest life and how he got into the club.

Kilbane's Easy
Victory Over
Frankie Fleming

Champion Has Easy Task Winning From Canadian; Fleming Was Game, But Was Outclassed
Montreal, May 25.—Frankie Fleming received the hardest usage he has ever received in a local ring at Schmeer Park last night, when Johnny Kilbane illustrated to him once for all that he is not in the American or world's championship class. The trouncing he received was a clean one, Kilbane taking particular care that none of his blows could be interpreted as fouls, and also keeping the punishment which he administered within such limits as would prevent a knockout, which is easily understandable when it is realized that with Fleming knocked out the Montreal meal ticket of half a dozen first rate United States fighters would be gone. That Kilbane could have put the Montreal boy away almost any time he desired was shown conclusively during the moments of the bout when the champion stepped up to his opponent on the bearing upon the result. If the bout had been a real fight, but under the conditions, with Fleming mostly on the defensive, and playing the part of the underdog, it was a negligible quality. Fleming showed lots of heart, however, and stood up to Kilbane like a man, and while his own blows had little effect, did some very clever dodging, and was assisted in his dodging by the champion's left-hand swing. There is no doubt, however, that if Kilbane had desired to do so he could have broken down Fleming's guard at any time. At the end of the tenth round, Fleming was pretty well used up and had to be assisted in his dressing room, but there was no blood spilled. He, however, got well paid for allowing himself to be made part of an object lesson for ambitious boxers as to how a champion works, receiving as he did a thousand dollars as his share of the entertainment, which served admirably to exhibit Kilbane's power and blow, and his wonderfully deceptive defence, in which he constantly invites attack by the non-commissioned manner in which he holds his arms open, only to have them ready at the exact moment when they are needed to bar out an opponent's blow.

AN ETHICAL BRUGLAR
Story of a Curious Career Told by a Jersey Criminal

A burglar arrested in New Jersey recently has told the story of his criminal career, which in its way goes to show that some thieves have an ethical code. This man started on his crooked path at the age of eight and has made a life-long study of the art of robbery. He will tell the story of his career as a master craftsman. He has been a practitioner who treated his work as an art, and whenever he burgled he did it lovingly and according to the technical and ethical rules he had established for himself. That is one of the cardinal principles in the attainment of success, one must love one's work, treat it as a fine art, cultivate a fine efficiency, and pursue it with an honest singleness of purpose. However, perhaps it might be admitted that when an artist could be considered successful. Naturally he got away with many successful enterprises, and it may be granted that they all showed the touch of a master hand. Nevertheless, he had never followed his line of work and adhered scrupulously to some of the rules he had established to govern his professional conduct. Four of the rules were these: "Never break a pane of glass to enter a house." "Never jimmy a window." "Never carry a revolver." "Never rob a poor man." Here apparently is a definite sense of moral obligation. Perhaps the first two rules were partly concerned with a sense of caution and the thought of personal safety. It has been proved that a thief can break a pane of glass or jimmy a window noiselessly, but still there is always the hazard of a slight mistake that will produce more noise than had been counted upon. All the same, it should be granted that even these two rules might have some ethical significance, as well as a purely practical side. A broken pane of glass is in the nature of wanton damage, a crude mark of his work, which a true artist would not want to leave behind him, and likewise a jimmy'd window necessitates repair work. Such damages are often left in the course of burglary operations, but to a refined craftsman they mean more like the raw evidence of a bungling job. These rules indicate some spirit of consideration, as well as an artistic pride in excellently neat work. But the other two rules are wholly ethical in character. A burglar who never carries a revolver may not quite realize the romantic traditions that invest his calling in the mind of the avid layman. If one is a desperado there is a conventional notion that one ought to "dress the part" appropriately, and what is a desperado without a gun? But the times have changed, in some respects sadly, so far as the old-time romantic glamour is concerned. Even pirates in these days are not picturesque, and, instead of pacing the quarter-deck, covered with knives and pistols, they sit comfortably at large desks, in luxurious offices, with their pockets full of cigars, and in "legitimate" man's dress. However, a revolver is a dangerous thing, and when one is present in an emergency, somebody is likely to get hurt. Consideration for the physical welfare of his involuntary clients impelled this New Jersey burglar to go gunless to his work, even at the loss of the romantic tradition. Obviously, he was

DARCY WAS MORE
SINNED AGAINST THAN SINNING

Nafl and Empire, Toronto—Far away from the land of his birth and the country where he earned his fame, lies the body of Les Darcy, Australian middleweight, and once idol of the Antipodes. There is something pathetic in the death of this youthful adventurer, and an ill-advised boy, who paid the penalty in his search for wealth. That he was a victim of the greedy boxing promoter no one will deny. He listened to their stories and fell into disgrace with his fellow-countrymen. However, his untimely end might not have been hastened had these same boxing promoters and so-called managers not tried to cut each other's throats and obtain Darcy for themselves. Those who failed immediately set out in an effort to get "even," the result being that Darcy was practically hounded from one state to another, and an unknown quantity, nothing would have been heard of him, but because he was the champion of Australia he was made the "guy." He was more sinned against than sinning, and while he may have had his faults yet to his credit he died in the colors of the allies. That more than would be said of those who enticed him away from Australia.

Expulsion Of Player For Use
of "Bean Ball"

Chicago, May 24.—Pitchers convicted of using the "bean ball," a highly dangerous ball thrown directly at a batter's head, will be expelled from organized baseball as the result of a ruling by the National Commission here today. The ruling was not alone directed to players in the major leagues, but to every member of clubs operating under the national agreement. The commission's ruling, as announced by Chairman August Herrmann, follows: "It has come to the notice of the National Commission that certain pitchers are being charged with using the 'bean ball,' which charge, if true, would not be a great detriment to the game, but would result in most severe injuries to players and would be un sportsmanlike in the highest degree. The commission, therefore, serves notice that if a charge of this kind is presented to it at any time against any player, and after an examination thereof the same is proven it will result in the expulsion of the player or players so charged from the game." Chairman Herrmann characterized the "bean ball" as brutal, and added that he could not force himself to believe that a pitcher would deliberately hurl a ball at a batter's head with the intention of injuring him. He declared that such practice must result fatally. President Johnson of the American League had previously declared that a pitcher found guilty of using the ball deserved a jail sentence. Herrmann asserted that no specific cases had enforced the ruling, but that general reports that certain pitchers were using the delivery resulted in it. Expulsion of a player for use of the

Suffer With Heart
For Ten Years
Would Nearly Smother

There is nothing that brings with it such fear of impending death as to wake up in the night with that awful sense of smothering. The uncertain and irregular heart action causes the greatest distress of both mind and body. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the only remedy that can give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in cases of such severity. They strengthen and invigorate the heart, so that it beats strong and regular, and tone up the nervous system so that the cause of so much anxiety comes a thing of the past. Mrs. M. O. McCready, Wapella, Sask., writes: "I am not much of a believer in medicines, but I feel that it is only right for me to let you know what your wonderful remedy has done for me, and in very short time, too. I had suffered with my heart for nearly ten years, could scarcely do any work and would nearly smother at times. I had many remedies, some only relieving me for a time. I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and felt so much better that I kept on using them, and can truthfully say I feel like a new woman. I would advise anyone with heart trouble to use them." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c or three boxes for $1.50, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. CASES IN FAIRVILLE COURT.

A case of considerable interest was dealt with on Friday and Saturday last by Magistrate W. H. Allingham in the Fairville court. Three boys, all under seventeen, were implicated. One answered charges of drunkenness and profane language. He had been arrested on May 24 by the park policeman at Seaside. A soldier in the Kilfers Battalion gave evidence. The boy admitted he had been drinking, but said he was not drunk. He left a deposit of $10 which was forfeited on his non-appearance.

Two other boys faced a charge of using liquor in a public place. One said that he had taken liquor from a bottle in the pantry and replaced what he took with water so that he would not be detected. This case was the first of its kind in this court. John A. Barry, who appeared for the three boys, argued that there were too many complications in the case to convict the defendants. The latter case was dismissed.

FARMERS STILL WAIT FOR WARM WEATHER

Some Talk About the Valley Railway—Boys and Farms—At Public Landing Church—The Beautiful River

The Man went up river again on Saturday afternoon to learn what the Woman and the Children had been doing on the Farm. It was raining again when he set out and also fine weather when he arrived at Public Landing, and six short rows of potatoes were added before dark to the state when the vegetables and flower seeds already in the ground. The Woman named them and the Man counted, and there was a total of fourteen, with some varieties still to be planted. Whether they were to be or is one of the mysteries of the campaign for increased production. They tell at Public Landing of a man who planted beans and when they thrust themselves through the soil he dug them out and turned them upside down, so that the seeds and roots were covered and the roots were in the air. He thought that was the right thing to do. Let an amateur farmer smile. It may be his turn next.

There was an interesting discussion on the Valley Railway as the Ozone went up river on Saturday afternoon. One man asserted that whoever was responsible for the construction of this road should be shot. He said they had gone out of their way to make curves, which caused greater friction, and therefore a greater consumption of coal, and a consequent increase in the cost of operation for all time to come. He believed some of the curves were dangerous. Another man stoutly argued that it was a fairly straight road. He had seen it for himself. The other man gave him an appraising look, and made this observation:

"They certainly didn't get prohibition in this country any too soon. You must have been in an awful state when you saw that road and thought it was straight."

The Valley Railway was also discussed at Woodman's Point on Saturday. A deep blast on Friday night sent fragments of rock flying through windows, and in one or two cases through roofs, at least half a dozen houses being hit or having windows broken. Fortunately no one was hurt. Work on the line is slow because men cannot be got. A fencing crew has two acres with houses on them at Public Landing wharf. One is the cook house and the other the bus house, and they provide very comfortable quarters which can be towed from point to point as the work of fencing proceeds. Nobody is laying any bets as to when trains will be running on this road.

Captain Flewelling of the Ozone was visited by a sturdy boy at Indiantown on Saturday. The boy was looking for a place on a farm, and thought he could earn fifteen dollars a month. The captain thought so, too, and undertook to make some enquiries up river in the lad's behalf. This reminds us of two boys—not school boys—who were sent to farmers in Kings county some weeks ago. One farmer wrote last week that the boy was of no use to him, and he was sending him back, and the other wrote that his boy had walked out one fine morning and so far as he knew was still going strong.

Amateur farming is not half bad when a farmer takes you out and says: "There is the land all ready. There are the tools. Go to it. If you don't know what to do, ask me." That was what Charles Parker said to the Man and the Woman and the Children. The Man found on Saturday that a fine cucumber head had been made and the seeds planted, and another bed with sweet peas, nasturtiums and a few other flower seeds; and there was still room for the potatoes and some winter beans and corn, with some squash and pumpkin seeds in odd corners. Until he tries it the city man does not realize the healthful effect of digging in the soil and getting a real interest in the work of co-operating with nature in the field and garden. When the first soreness leaves his muscles the work becomes a pleasure. But the spring is late. Not a tree is yet in full leaf, and the white blossom of the May-cherry which usually gladdens the eye at this season is still folded in the scarcely opening buds. Even the fields on high ground show great patches not yet tinged with green. The winds are cold and low lying lands are still too wet to cultivate. A week of bright warm weather would now trans-

TWO COLE'S ISLAND BOYS DIE IN WAR

Leigh Northrup And Charles Boyd Killed

News Comes From Major Barker in Cable to W. H. Gamblin And Is Sent to Relatives—Corporal Fred Craft Wounded

Walter H. Gamblin, of 82 Mecklenburg street, received a cable this morning from Major L. W. Barker of a well known siege battery unit informing him that his nephew, Gunner Leigh Northrup, son of Edwin L. Northrup of Cole's Island, had been killed. He also asked him to notify the relatives of Gunner Charles Boyd, that he had also been killed in action.

Both young men were natives of Cole's Island where they were well known and highly respected. They had many friends in this city who will regret to hear of their death. Gunner Northrup was seventeen years of age at the time of enlisting and his chum, Gunner Boyd, was twenty. Both stood above six feet in height and were fine specimens of manhood.

Upon receipt of the cable Mr. Gamblin sent a long distance call to Cole's Island and arranged for the sad news to be conveyed to the relatives. When the news spread that the young men had been killed a gloom was cast over the entire neighborhood and expressions of regret were heard on all sides for the unfortunate young heroes and their bereaved families.

Corp. Fred Craft.

Corporal Fred Craft, son of Byron Craft, West St. John, who many friends have with a draft from a local battalion, has been wounded in France. His wife and four children reside in St. Stephen.

NURSING SISTER DEAD IN FRANCE

Miss Priscilla Taylor Well Known In S. John

Death Resulted From Infection—Young Woman Had Been Many Months In Work of Caring For Wounded

Sergeant Taylor, of No. 8 Field Ambulance, has received sad news from France. On May 24 he was officially notified by the authorities in Ottawa that his only sister, Miss Priscilla Taylor, who had been an army nursing sister for more than twenty-two months, had died. Death, as stated in the telegram, was the result.

On May 8 Sergeant Taylor received a letter from a nursing sister in the same hospital in France reporting the serious illness of his sister. Two days later she died and on May 24, Sergeant Taylor got the word here. There were no other particulars.

Sergeant Taylor said this morning that the death of the position that his sister had contracted her illness through the faithfulness she put into her work. She was well known in New Brunswick and although she was born in Nova Scotia she had lived the greater part of her life in this province. She was a graduate nurse of Boothby Hospital and took a post-graduate course in Bellevue Hospital in New York. Following her studies she nursed in this city for a year. In the fall of 1914 she received an overseas appointment and was in England six months in a military hospital. She then left for France and had been actively engaged in her labor of mercy for sixteen months. Sergeant Taylor is her only living relative.

form the whole face of nature. At the pretty little English church by the river side at the Sunday afternoon service, the rector, Rev. C. W. Nichols, referred to the patriotic duty of cultivating as much land as possible, and also to the duty of Christian people in their praying to ask that God, who gives seed-time and harvest, grant favorable weather for the cropping season.

The choir boys at this service were the boys of the Wiggins institution, who are already in summer quarters, and were brought across the river by Mr. Pierce in a motor boat. Their fresh young voices added greatly to the musical portion of the service. It was Whitsunday, and the rector urged upon his flock the importance of seeking the aid of the Holy Spirit to enable them to answer the questionings of this testing time of human faith; to strengthen them against sin and its temptations; and to give the fervor of real supplication to their times of prayer. The afternoon sunshine streaming through the windows, brought out in clear relief the figure of the Good Shepherd, in the stained window behind the altar, carrying the thoughts of the worshippers back to that life whence comes the inspiration of service and of sacrifice, even in these grim days of war and death.

"I have traveled many thousands of miles," said a man on the Ozone on Saturday, "and I have never seen a prettier place than where we are now." They were just moving out from Westfield wharf toward Woodman's Point. The Ozone brought down more than seventy-five passengers this morning. The morning up river was windy and cold, and farmers were still shaking their heads as they discussed the crops.

Dear Mary:—

Well, George and Anna are going to get married, I've already decided what we are going to give them—it will be furniture.

I wish papa and mama had given Frank and me furniture when we were married. I think furniture is such a sensible wedding gift. Young couples need it.

Let's buy our presents at the same time. Then we won't both give the same thing. I'll come for you and we'll go to the furniture store tomorrow. How about it?—HELEN
