SECOND EDITION THE KING GIVES UP ALL HOPE

London, May 6.—"Well, it is all over, but I think I have done my duty." These words fell from the lips of King Edward VII in a waking interval late this afternoon His Majesty's condition is declared critical by the attending physicians. Gloom has settled over the city and provinces following the issuance of tonight's distressing bulletin.

NICHOLS TO PAY $80 OR GO TO JAIL

Ten Months the Option—McInerney Denies Kicking Lucas and Case is Postponed

There was a lengthy session in the police court this morning, when the case against Albert McInerney, charged with assault on Policeman Lucas, and interfering with the police in the discharge of their duty, was dealt with. Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for the defendant and after several witnesses had been examined the case was adjourned until Tuesday at 11 a. m.

NESE PLUCKING FEATHERS FROM A LIVE PIGEON

One of the Chinese citizens of St. John is held up to censure for the act of plucking a pigeon. The case is to be heard before Judge Ritchie. Policeman Sullivan says that yesterday, on going into the restaurant in Mill street, conducted by an Irishman, he discovered the Chinese plucking the feathers of a live pigeon, and also tearing its wings. Presumably he was preparing it for a meal. The S. P. C. A. was notified, S. M. Wetmore, the secretary and J. King Kelly, solicitor for the association, were called to investigate. It is said to be a regular practice of the Chinese to deal with the birds in this manner.

CAMERON AND GORKERY ARRANGE FIVE MILE RACE

Amherst, N. S., May 6.—(Special)—A five mile race in which Cameron and Gorkery will be the principal participants, has been arranged here for Monday night. Tremblin, who is looking after Cameron, said today he was going to allow Cameron to travel his fastest gait.

PARIS SLEUTH'S CLEVER WORK SOLVES BAFFLING MURDER CASE

Paris, May 6.—M. Hamard, chief of detectives in Paris, has accomplished one of the cleverest pieces of detective work in recent years, in the arrest of the murderer of a poor street girl, whose atrocious murder had baffled the police for six weeks. The girl's head was found in a sewer and subsequently her hands, feet and other portions of her body were discovered in different places.

MORNING, SAYS DOCTOR, BROUGHT NO IMPROVEMENT IN CONDITION OF MONARCH AND CONDITION CAUSES GRAVE ANXIETY

Messages of Inquiry and Sympathy Pour Into Palace

Next Bulletin From Sick Room This Evening But Cabinet Ministers Is Quoted As Saying His Majesty May Not Live Through Night

A cable to The Times, received at 2.44 p. m., says—"A bulletin just issued says the King's symptoms have become worse during today and His Majesty's condition is now critical."

(Times' Special Cable) London, May 6.—Canada's loyal millions will learn, with profound sorrow, that King Edward's condition is far more serious than reported. The latest report is that the king is unconscious. The Canadian Associated Press has heard that a cabinet minister expressed a fear that His Majesty may not survive tonight.

(Associated Press) London, May 6.—King Edward spent a comparatively quiet night, it was announced this morning that his condition is not so serious as it was reported. An official bulletin issued by the physicians at 11.05 o'clock this morning is as follows: "The king has passed a comparatively quiet night, but his symptoms have not given rise to grave anxiety."

Doctors Dawson and Thompson, physicians to King Edward, were summoned to Buckingham Palace this morning, and after a consultation with the three physicians who were in attendance a court at three o'clock this afternoon a court was held, so far as could be judged without an expert examination, the king's condition was a shade better than during the night.

The stock exchange was much excited in the early hours of this morning, on a charge of restoring the police and $8 or two months on a charge of being drunk. Nichols became indignant and asked Judge Ritchie "why he hadn't given him a life sentence and have done with it, adding 'you ought to soak some of these white-collared duffers.' His Honor reminded Nichols that he had not been long out of jail, and had been given many chances.

It was out of the arrest of Nichols that the arrest of McInerney came about, although the latter said today he had never met the man before. Lucas said that yesterday at noon he met Policeman Nelson taking Nichols to the lock-up, and as the man was resisting, the witness went to his fellow-policeman's assistance. While stopping over Nichols, Lucas said he received a kick, and turning round, saw McInerney in the act of drawing his foot back. Lucas told McInerney that he "would make it hot for him." In answer to Mr. Mullin, Lucas said that McInerney had helped the police to take Nichols to central station by leading his slave to drive him to jail. When in the jail yard McInerney was placed in custody.

Peter Yapp said that he was standing alongside of McInerney when the trouble with Nichols occurred, and had not seen him interfere with Lucas. He did not think McInerney was near enough to Lucas to kick him. McInerney said he neither kicked Lucas nor said anything to him. Edward Birmingham said he was with McInerney and had not seen him interfere with Lucas. He had, however, seen a fairly large man wearing a brown hat, trying to get Nichols away to north end. James Thompson was remained, pending an examination by a physician. He was charged with assault on his wife, using abusive language and using threatening language to his daughter. His wife and daughter both gave evidence that he had abused them at different times, complaining that they had taken his money. He had threatened to burn the house down yesterday.

E. S. Ritchie appeared for Mrs. Thompson, and explained that the object of having the man arrested was to have his sanity tested. May Necessitate Operation It was learned at one o'clock that, although some of the attending physicians remained close by, their presence had not been required in the sick chamber for some time. This indicated at least that there had been no relapse. What the physicians apparently fear is that they will find some growth on the bronchial tubes to necessitate an operation. It is also known that when the king's throat had been affected previously, he

TWO HUNDRED BELIEVED DEAD IN MINING HORROR IN ALABAMA VILLAGE

Explosion and Deadly Black Damp Takes Live of Half the Male Population of Palos—Women and Children Hope Against Hope in All Night Vigil at Mouth of Mine

Palos, Ala., May 6.—The little mining village of Palos is in mourning today. More than half of the male population is believed to have perished as the result of an explosion in mine No. 2 of the Palos Coal & Coke Co., yesterday. About 200 men—45 white and 150 negroes—are thought to have been killed. Eleven bodies have been found. In the 200 foot level, the greatest number of men were working and there it is expected most of the bodies will be found.

Coming so soon after the disaster in the mine at Mt. Meigs, (Ala.) where forty-one men lost their lives last month, the disaster has spread consternation in the mining villages in this section. Many miners who escaped the first disaster had come here to work and several of them lost their lives yesterday.

Deadly Black Damp The black damp, which filled the mine soon after the explosion and from which it is thought that those who escaped death by explosion died, is being rapidly dispelled as subject to spasmodic contractions of the vocal chords which were rather alarming. In his Majesty's present condition a sudden strain of such nature put on the blood vessels would require likely instantaneous relief. Hence the constant presence of Dr. Thompson, the throat specialist who was called into the case this morning.

(Times' Special Cable) London, May 6.—The Queen arrived at the palace yesterday afternoon from Corfu. Today the ceremony of changing the guard in the palace courtyard was not accompanied by the usual band music. The king returned from Biarritz looking very well, but on leaving the academy a week ago, looked tired and pale. The week end at Sandringham was designed to avert a threatened relapse of the Biarritz bronchial attack. He returned to London apparently better, but the sudden weather change is believed to have had a bad effect. Messages of inquiry and sympathy are pouring into the palace. Silent crowds are gathered outside. Among the callers of Buckingham Palace was Lord Strathmore.

London, May 6.—From a social and business standpoint the monarch's death would be equally unfortunate. The social season, when families are flocking from the country to London for the season, the king's death would throw the court and country into mourning and end the social activities. Consols, which to a great extent are a barometer of the condition of the country, dropped from 81 1/16 when the market

LASHED TO RIGGING; ALL DEAD

Tragedy in Loss of Schooner on North Shore FEARFUL STORM

Waves Sweep Over Bodies on P. E. L. Vessel Ashore at Tabunatic—Another Schooner Wrecked on Kent Shore and Several Fishing Boats Broken Up

Chatham, N. B., May 6.—Word was received from Tabunatic this morning that there is a two-top-mast schooner ashore at the lower Tabunatic Gully. The schooner is of about ninety tons burthen and is supposed to be the John A. Gray, of Tignab, P. E. I., Frank Gallant, master.

Two men from Tabunatic rowed out to the schooner late yesterday afternoon and saw three men lashed to the rigging. They made no outcry and gave no sign of life and it is supposed that they are dead. The rescuers could not get closer than fifty yards because of the tremendous seas which swept over the stranded schooner. As time to take the men back at the scale in force when the strike was declared. The strike has been one of the most bitter in the history of Hamilton. It was the result of a cut in wages.

Calgary, Alta., May 6.—(Special)—After having been driven seventy miles in a wagon, with both his legs broken as a result of a railway accident, Martin Kusan, a rancher, resided Holy Cross hospital last night. Surgeons found it necessary to amputate his right leg at the thigh.

Cobalt, May 6.—(Special)—Wm. Jones, a clerk at the O'Brien Mine, aged twenty-five years, with a wife and two children here, fell out of an ore car yesterday at the mine, dying as a result of his injuries.

Niagara Falls, May 6.—(Special)—There is belief that John Baldwin, who committed suicide on Wednesday, did so to escape arrest for attempting the life of his employer, Paul Thompson, a Stamford farmer, now seriously ill as the result of drinking poisoned water last Saturday. The police say that Paris green had been placed on a piece of beefsteak in Mr. Thompson's home, on Saturday. Baldwin quarrelled over the shooting of a tame dove on a dislocated neck, caused by a fall from a wagon.

Dauphin, Man., May 6.—John Hamilton, son of the murdered man, Tom Fenton, son of the murdered man, may be charged with the murder. Daybreak found scores of women and children at the mouth of the mine waiting anxiously for news from those below. All night they kept up their vigil in hopes that some of the miners might be found alive.

Palos, Ala., May 6.—Eight bodies were removed soon after daylight today. The condition of the bodies indicate that death was instantaneous. business closed yesterday, to 81 at noon today. Leading financiers, when interviewed, expressed the opinion that the monarch's illness or death would have only a temporary effect upon securities generally and that the decline already recorded represents the marking down of quotations by brokers in anticipation of the selling which usually follows any startling news.

London, May 6.—An atmosphere of great depression surrounded Buckingham Palace today. The bulletin describing the king's condition and which five eminent physicians now in attendance issued a little before noon, while vague in terms inspired profound gloom throughout the city. Fear Outlook Unfavorable It was generally construed to mean that the outlook is not at all favorable. The suddenness of the transition from yesterday morning, when the king was receiving presentations, to the present when it is believed he is critically ill, has shocked the country. For the moment, business and politics are at a standstill.

STRAHROY FIRE; LOSS $100,000

Dominion Block is Burned—Pension for Drug Company Employes—Hamilton Strike is Settled—Suicide Through Fear of Arrest

Strathroy, Ont., May 6.—(Special)—Fire destroyed the Dominion block, a three story brick building in Front street east yesterday. The loss is about $100,000. The heaviest losers are T. Statham & Son, machinists, who had an extensive plant.

Hamilton, Ont., May 6.—(Special)—The strike of union moulders which has been going on for more than two years, was partly settled yesterday when Bowes Jamieson & Co., announced they would open a union shop on Monday next. The men agreed to take the men back at the scale in force when the strike was declared. The strike has been one of the most bitter in the history of Hamilton. It was the result of a cut in wages.

RUBBER PRICES GO UP; LOCAL AUTO OWNERS LAY IN STOCK

There has been quite a rush made by owners of automobiles in the city this week to the local offices where articles essential to the running of motor cars are sold, as an advance of 20 per cent was made in the price of such commodities. One concern in town advanced its prices a couple of days ago, while up to noon today its competitor had not done so, as the company was waiting for advice from the head office.

THE LAST DAY AT STORMFIELD

At Redding, Connecticut, The April sunrise pours Over the hardwood ridges Softening and greening now In the first magic of spring. The wild cherry trees are in bloom. The bloodroot is white underfoot. The serene early light flows on, Touching with glory the world, And flooding the large upper room Where a sick man sleeps. Slowly he opens his eyes. After long weariness, smiles, And stretches his arms overhead. While those about him take heart.

With his awakening strength, Morning and spring in the air, The strong clean scents of the earth, The call of the golden shaft Ringing across the hills. He takes up his heartening book, Opens the volume and reads,— A page of Petrarch's, Carlyle, The dour philosopher Who looked askance upon life, Lured, tamed, grim Yet sound at the core.

And when the close of day Reddens upon the hills And washes the room with rose, In the twilight hush The Summoner comes to him Ever so gently, unsees, Touches him on the shoulder; And with the departing sun Our great funning friend is gone.

PERFECT WOMAN

She was a phantom of delight. When first she gleamed upon my sight; A lovely apparition, sent To be a moment's ornament: Her eyes as stars of twilight fair; Like twilight's too, her dusky hair; But all things else about her drawn, From Maying and the cheerful dawn, A dancing shape, an image gay, To haunt, to startle, and to way.

I saw her upon nearer view, A Spirit, yet a Woman, too! Her household motions, light and free, And steps of virgin liberty; A countenance in which did meet Three worlds, to wit:—the heav'n, the earth, And steps of virgin liberty;

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I DO have the worst luck," pointed the youngest and prettiest member of our stenographers' department, as she fished for the five hat pins in the vast reaches of her black hat, coated her hair back into puffiness and began to pin on a fresh pair of white cuffs, in preparation for the afternoon's work.

"What is it now?" we asked. "Did he take you in earnest this time when you said 'Goodbye forever,' or did someone say something rude about those six inches of superfluous hat pins in the back of your hat?"

The youngest and prettiest stenographer pouted still more. Being so very pretty this was permissible. Otherwise it would not have been.

None but a very pretty girl can afford to pout.

"I never saw anything like it," she asserted, loftily ignoring our pertinent questions. "I can't imagine how he happened to be there at just that moment. It's such an out of the way street."

"We suggested that we might enlighten her as to how he happened to be there if she told us how 'he' was and where 'there' was."

"The boss, of course. It was such a dandy day that my chum and I thought we'd take a walk after we had our lunch. We went down by the markets and we went past a big stand with a whole lot of those big grapefruit on it, and Stella stamped me to touch one of them."

"I did, of course, and of course that horrid old Italian came out and caught me and called me several names and half a dozen people stopped to listen, and just then, who on earth should come along but the boss."

"He took off his hat, but he gave me such a look. Ain't it just my luck? He probably thinks I'm a perfect rowdy. What would you do with luck like that?"

Let's look a strange word, or rather a strangely abused one?

When the law of cause and effect acts to their disadvantage, some people have a way of referring to it as their particular brand of bad luck.

I suppose the burglar who gets caught considers his prison term as just his entirely undesired bad luck.

It is, I'm sure you'll agree, an almost inevitable law of circumstances that when you do anything undignified or foolish the boss of the school committee, or whatever particular Mr. or Mrs. Grundy's persons most not grieve to you will undoubtedly turn out to have been present somewhere among the scenery.

You might as well call that unlucky as that you get wet when you go out in the rain.

There is just one way of being sure of being dry when it rains, and that is not to go out in the rain.

And there is just one way of being sure the boss won't see you do some foolish or undignified thing, and that is not to do foolish and undignified things.

REMARKABLE HORSEMANSHIP BY GIRL IN CENTRAL PARK, NEW YORK

MISS MINNIE THOMPSON RIDING HORSE WITHOUT BRIDLE

New York, May 5.—A remarkable exhibition of horsemanship back of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in Central Park was witnessed by several hundred persons.

The rider was Miss Minnie Thompson, said to be the only woman in the world who rides a horse without a bridle and yet keeps the animal under perfect control.

Her feats in Madison Square Garden, where the Buffalo Bill Wild West and

WHAT A PEERAGE COSTS

Heavy Tax on Those Honored—Coronets Very Seldom Made of Genuine Gold

The elevation of Herbert Gladstone and Lord Gosset to the peerage is probably as pleasing to themselves as it is to their many admirers, but each of the gentlemen so honored will have to pay pretty heavily for the privilege of adding a title to his name. Between them they will have to pay out nearly a thousand pounds.

The higher the rank the higher the fee, and thus Mr. Gladstone as a viscount will have to pay £467.4s. 6d. in fees, while Mr. Gosset as a baron, which is one degree lower in the British peerage, will be let off with a mere £390.17s.

As might be supposed the money is not paid over in a lump sum to one of the state officials as a sort of formal payment in exchange for the title, but is divided up into several items. Mr. Gladstone for instance will have to pay £200 in stamp duties, £200 in Crown Office fees, and £77.2s. 6d. in home office fees, while Mr. Gosset pays £129.12s. for his stamp duties, £179 for Home Office fees, and £30.15s. for Home Office fees.

Costly Monogram

But even when the unfortunate peer has paid all these sums he has not by any means come to the end of his long expense list. For the first few months after his accession the newly-titled peer is continually inundated with official documents demanding licenses on one or another of his new privileges. There is the license for the coronet on his carriage or motor cars, and the stamp on his motor paper, not to mention the expensive coronet and robes which all members of the peerage are obliged to provide themselves with.

In the case of the older families, of course, the latter expense is generally avoided, for the robes of state are transmitted to the peer by his ancestors.

RAPID PROGRESS OF NEGROES

Wonderful Change in South Since 1865

When one thinks of what the south was, and what the negro were in 1865, and what they are now, one realizes that never has such rapid progress been made by any backward race as by the negro in these last 45 years, writes Hon. James Bryce in the Southern Worker.

When you think of the property that has been accumulated, the houses that have been built, of the number of people who are lawyers, writers, doctors and teachers—teachers perhaps the most important of all because they help all the others forward; when you think of how largely the leading men among the negroes have won the confidence and respect of the white people, and that there are now in every part of the south hundreds of kindly white men just as willing to help forward the interests of the negro as those who did not want his name published, what a wonderful change it is.

At the May meeting of the managing board of the Home for Incubables yesterday, it was reported that all the wards were now occupied and several applications for rooms had been made. The receipt of $100 was acknowledged from a donor who did not want his name published.

THERE ARE THINGS TO LEARN FROM THE SWEDISH FARMER

Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario Gives Address of Interest to Canadian Club

Huntsville, May 5.—C. C. James, deputy minister of agriculture for Ontario, addressed the inaugural meeting of the Canadian Club here on the "Westward Movement." It was, he said, in some respects significant, but he was firmly convinced that it would prove a blessing in disguise to the western farmer was making no pretense to supply the western demand for dairy products, and thoroughbred live stock—his present ambition was to supply grain for the "white" race through the British Isles. The immigration movement adding practically 1,000 a day to the population of the western provinces, meant the development of a golden opportunity for the farmers and manufacturers of Ontario. This opportunity he urged the farmers to grasp, and it could best be realized by a strongly determined effort to get above commonplace methods. By the introduction of thoroughbred stock, in horses, cattle and swine, and the practical application of scientific agricultural knowledge, the farmers of Ontario were peculiarly adapted to meet just such emergencies as those which were being created by the western exodus. No country in the world could more successfully foster and develop the manufacturing industry as Ontario with her unlimited possibilities in the development of raw materials, and no province in the Dominion was better adapted to meet the needs of mixed farming than Ontario.

Swedish Methods Approved

Giving his impressions of the agricultural methods pursued in Sweden, where he had recently paid a visit, Mr. James declared that Ontario had yet much to learn. He had been greatly impressed with the deep interest taken in developing the agricultural industry among the people there. He found that "Agricultural High Schools" were established throughout the whole kingdom, where the boys and girls were taught every phase of the farming and dairying industry. These were maintained by the government. The cooperative spirit had also spread rapidly throughout Sweden, and an instance of its great possibilities was cited in the case of a farmer, who on 320 acres of land had formed a co-operative company among his own sons, daughters and sons-in-law. By the united efforts of these, this farm now produced 500 tons of hay, 100 tons of 2,114 English thoroughbred Berkshire sows, of a herd of best blood English thoroughbred horses, 500 fat calves, and a successful pursuit of farming on a profitable scale.

And what do you do with those hogs?" Mr. James has gone west.

The reply came in English: "I drive them to the co-operative packing house, and ship the bacon to England."

"Thus you see," continued the speaker, "this shrewd Swede agriculturist procured his pure bred stock from England, he purchased England's best white corn to feed them; he slaughtered the hogs, he cooperated with the packers, and he shipped the bacon, at a handsome profit, back to the English coast."

"We boast of our knowledge," continued Mr. James, "and perhaps we are in a degree a wise people, but we have much that we still have some things to learn, and there is much we can emulate in the Swedish farmer." Mr. James concluded by strongly appealing for the development of rural Ontario.

GERMAN AIRSHIP FLEET

Will All Be Used For Regular Passenger Traffic

The wonderful progress which is being made by Germany's airship fleet is shown by the announcement that four new dirigibles of the Parseval type are being constructed at Bitterfeld, and that they will be named the Parseval VII, VIII, and IX, respectively. Parseval VI, which will be seventy-five yards long, will have a diameter of thirteen yards and a capacity of 6,700 cubic metres, and is to be sold to the Marine Aerial Navigation Company, which will start airship cruises in and around Munich for passengers.

Parseval VII, is ordered by a similar company in Berlin, which will begin Berlin operations at Whitehall by initiating regular trips for passengers in the vicinity of the capital.

Parseval VIII is ordered by the Imperial Automobile Club, the Berlin members having the use of the vessel as an aerostat.

Parseval IX is ordered by the Brussels International Exposition, and will begin passenger cruises in the Belgian capital at the end of April or the beginning of May. It is intended to be one of the principal attractions of the World's Fair there.

An immense airship invented by Herr Schlichter is approaching completion. It is fitted with a 144 h. p. Daimler motor, and will be able to ascend with a burden of thirty tons aboard.

Herr Parseval has invented a flying machine which is approaching completion. It is fitted with a 144 h. p. Daimler motor, and the trials will begin this week at Plan. Mcklenburg, where a factory for constructing Parseval aeroplanes has been erected.

FOUND BIRD COLONY

Cincinnati Woman Gives Land Worth $250,000 for Purpose

Cincinnati, May 6.—Approximately $250,000 of the estate of Thomas J. Emery, who was by far the largest realty owner in Cincinnati, has been set aside by his widow, Mrs. Mary Emery, for the founding and perpetuation of a home for birds.

Mrs. Emery has completed the purchase of a tract of land in Evanswood place of about two acres, and has signified her intention of turning it over to the care of the Department of Biology in the University of Cincinnati.

This ground is to be built up with different kinds of houses where the feathery tribe can be sheltered. It will be made secure against the invasion of cattle and their scavenging species. In addition to this there will be houses for the birds of mixed "nationality" and places where these may be studied in their different classes and under different conditions.

The members of No. 1 Salvage corps last night called on Mr. and Mrs. John Leah, at their home in Crown street, and spent a very pleasant evening. Mr. Leah was married on Wednesday to Miss Sarah Hale, by Rev. J. A. Armstrong.

KEEPING THE BOY ON THE FARM; SOME SUGGESTIONS MADE

(W. J. J. in Toronto Globe.)

It needs only to be stated to be accepted as a fact that the educational and vocational interests of Ontario are more better served by schools and with markets than is possible in the thinly populated rural areas. The social and religious opportunities are also certainly greater. Experiences who know this, are not they go. Why? Because, with all its outward show of prosperity and comfort, life on the farm is often narrow, cramped, dull and depressing, and without hope. In the mere work of the farm, for instance, the father's word is law, and the ideas of his sons are too often overruled with an easy contempt. "Oh, Dad seems to think we are still kids," is the secret, and sometimes spoken, rebellious lament of many boys in Ontario at this moment. He wants to be first of all and above all, his own man, not his father's man, nor anybody else's man.

Give Boy More Rope

Increasing liberty and responsibility as the boy grows in years is the only solution. He will count any sacrifice well made or hardship well undertaken if at the same time, he can feel himself his own man and express his own individuality, though immaterial, structure in which they live. These farmers must learn the use of a house; the chance to give for pride as well as for entertainment, and now in such a house the family life can expand to include a far greater variety of interests and enjoyments.

The piano and the library are more important in the country than in the city. This, of course, involves the expenditure of money, but the farmer who can afford to build a fine house, another of his must learn how to spend money as well as make it. Many have learned, but the influence must spread. Farmers, school teachers, ministers, anyone, everyone who sees the need, must get to work and keep on stringing things up. Any kind of a stir is better than stagnation. Much is being done, but far more must be.

Has 58 Lay Missionaries

The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Mission Society of the Presbyterian church was held this week in Toronto.

In the annual report, it says the society now has fifty-eight lady missionaries in India, Formosa and China. Besides these there are forty-four workers in the north west, and nine in British Columbia. There have been four women, including a trained nurse, constantly laboring among the Jews in Toronto.

The receipts for the year amount to $78,014.65. $54,212.92 was spent in the various fields. India received $25,230.71; Formosa, $2,325.80; North Honan, $8,129.72; Northwest, $16,599.82; British Columbia, $4,884.87. The Ewart Missionary and Deaconess Home got $1,200 and the Jewish Mission $700. This leaves a balance of $37,231.26 in the bank.

The price of fish on the local market has increased, in some cases 20 per cent. The cause is attributed to the stormy weather, which has made the fishing difficult.

The creditors of the H. W. DeForest Co. will meet on the 19th inst.

MONOTONY OF FARM WORK

Increasing subjects of this or any kind to occupy their minds, boys on the farm are apt to find life deadly dull and monotonous. They work all day, and have an hour or two to sit in the kitchen at night before retiring. Often there is not even a newspaper to occupy their interest. No wonder they rebel. Soon or late, they get labor and to keep young Ontario, shorter hours and good wages must come into the country, and the diversions introduced by games and sports, debating, literary and agricultural societies must follow it as well. Social life and relaxation must be put on a broader, better basis.

Laurier's Visit to the West

Plans of Cabinet Ministers—Mr. Aylesworth Leaves For Hague—Million Dollar Subway in Ottawa Planned by C. P. R.

Ottawa, May 5.—Although arrangements are not completed for the itinerary of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues during their coming trip to the Canadian west this summer, it has been settled that all the principal points in the west will be visited and public meetings held. The premier will probably leave Ottawa early in July and will be gone two months. He will be accompanied by Hon. George T. Graham and probably by E. M. Macdonald, member for Pictou, one of the most effective speakers in the commons. There is as yet some doubt as to whether Hon. Mr. Fielding will be able to accompany the premier, the date of the business minister's return from England in connection with the financial and trade matters being problematical. Some of the places at which Sir Wilfrid will speak will be Fort William, Winnipeg, Brandon, Yorkton, Saskatoon, Regina, Weyburn, Moosejaw, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver and Victoria.

TO KEEP THE SKIN CLEAR

You Must Learn for Yourself the Virtues of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Dr. Chase's Ointment is so pure and clean, so delightfully soothing and healing, and so certainly effective in making the skin soft, smooth and clear, that it has only to be tried to be appreciated. You may know of its value from the cure for eczema, salt rheum and the most severe and painful forms of itchy skin disease. But have you realized that a means of clearing and beautifying the skin is equal and no rival to Pimples, blackheads, roughness and redness of the skin, yield readily when this soothing, healing ointment is applied frequently. The cold winds of winter and spring bring actual suffering to many people whose skins are tender and easily irritated. To such Dr. Chase's Ointment is of inestimable worth. 60 cts. a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

THE PENSION PLANS FOR OUR TEACHERS

Regulations Pretty Hard to Meet—Frederickton Has Report That Van Horne Will Secure Grand Falls Power Control

Frederickton, N. B., May 5.—The board of education met this afternoon and adopted the report of the committee on teachers' pensions. The provisions are: 1. All pensions under Chapter 17, Edward VII, 1910, shall be payable half-yearly at the end of the school term. 2. Every applicant for a pension under this act must lodge with the board of education a copy of the registry of the birth of the applicant, certified by a clergyman or in the absence of such a clergyman or in the absence of a church record, a certificate signed by a justice of the peace or by two responsible persons, giving the date of birth of the applicant or such other proof as may be satisfactory to the board of education. (Form of certificate will be supplied by the education department.) 3. Each person entitled to a pension must write to the chief superintendent of education at the close of each school term (in June and in December) over his or her own signature, which signature must be witnessed by a clergyman or by the local postmaster officials, giving the post office address to which the draft should be mailed. 4. In order to entitle the applicant to a pension, no greater deduction for loss of time should be allowed in any one year for which the claim is made than sixty teaching days, nor an aggregate deduction of more than 225 teaching days for the full period under this act shall be paid at the close of the school term ending Dec. 31, 1910. Applications for pensions must be made not later than three months before the end of any school term, to entitle the applicant to a pension for that half year. 5. Pensions were also issued to the graduates of the provincial Teachers' Institute, to be held in St. John, during the last three days of June, published. The agreement made between the committee and the executive of the Strathcona Trust regarding physical and military training in the public schools of the province, was approved.

AMHERST GIRL SEEKS ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Boston, May 5.—A matrimonial complication, in which Miss Olive G. Blair, formerly of Amherst (N. S.), and Merton G. Lowe, for several years a Norwichton (N. S.) business man, are involved, became known today when Miss Blair petitioned the superior court for the annulment of a marriage ceremony with Lowe here on June 29, 1907.

At the time both were residents of Nova Scotia, Lowe being thirty-two and the "bride" twenty. Miss Blair alleges that when the ceremony was performed Lowe had a legal wife, Cora, who, although she secured a decree of divorce on Feb. 4, 1907, it was not absolute until Aug. 4. The Amherst girl left Lowe when she learned of the illegality of the second marriage.

ST. JOHN THIRD IN BUILDING WORK

That St. John's splendid advance in building operations gives the city the third highest increase registered by the Canadian cities during the month of March is the statement appearing in Construction, a magazine published in Toronto. It is pointed out that in March building operations were decidedly brisk in the east, as is indicated in Montreal's increase of 79 per cent and the gains of 42 per cent and 40 per cent made in the case of St. John and Sydney, respectively. Permits issued in twenty representative cities reporting to Construction total $8,887,787, as against $4,790,710 in the corresponding period of last year. This is an advance over the preceding month of $5,812,297 and an average gain over the month of March, 1909, of 87 per cent. Only three cities in the list met with reversals, viz., Toronto, Windsor (Ont.), and Halifax, the loss being 5 per cent, 25 per cent and 59 per cent respectively.

Although St. John, Montreal and Sydney were high up, the honors for the month fall to the west, Calgary, with a gain of 87 per cent, registering the biggest increase. Saskatchewan comes second and Winnipeg overhauls the field both far and wide as regards the volume of work undertaken. Permits to the extent of $49,229 were issued in March for building operations in St. John. In March, 1909, St. John's building permits only totaled $6,300. This is very gratifying.

TO STOP THE LIQUOR SALE IN CHATHAM

Police Get Orders From Municipal Committee—Mon Council Pastor For Campbell Church—News Notes From Canadian Points

Chatham, N. B., May 5.—What is considered the first move in a campaign against the illegal selling of liquor, made last night when a meeting of a newly elected police committee was held. Two of the town policemen were brought before the committee and informed of a fact that that body had made up its mind that the selling of liquor must stop. The policemen were warned that if they did not carry out the letter of the law in the matter they would be dismissed.

IS STRUCK DEAD BY LIGHTNING

George Smith of St. Martins Killed in Concord With Fellow Employee on Large Farm—Body Taken Home

Lightning instantly killed George A. Smith, aged 47, of St. Martins, and Oswald Rauscher, of Concord (Mass.), during a heavy storm at the latter place on Tuesday evening. Both were employed on a large stock farm outside of Concord, of which J. D. Smith, a brother of the dead man, was manager. During the early part of the storm Smith and Rauscher went out to a windmill to start the auxiliary gas pump. As time wore on and they did not return Manager Smith went to the windmill to ascertain what had happened. He never dreamed, however, that anything of a serious nature had occurred. He was horrified on reaching the pumping station to find his brother and Rauscher dead at the base of the steel tower of the big windmill. It is supposed that the tower acted as a conductor for the lightning which struck the men as they were at work at the auxiliary gasoline pump.

George A. Smith had been a resident of Concord for six or seven years and had worked during that time on the farm in which he was killed. Surviving him are Mrs. Daniel Smith, his mother, and a brother, Daniel, two sisters, Mrs. DeLong and Miss Lizzie Smith, all of St. Martins, and J. D. Smith, Miss Effie and Mary Smith in Concord. The body was taken through the city at noon today en route to St. Martins, accompanied by his brother and sisters of Concord, and Alex. Paul, an uncle.

Stores open till 8 o'clock. St. John, May 6, 1910

More Trimmed Hats for Saturday

ANOTHER SPECIAL DISPLAY OF ATTRACTIVE MODELS FOR LADIES AND MISSES

Saturday shoppers have greatly appreciated this regular week-end showing of fashionably handsome headwear, so much so that the allotment each time diminishes rapidly as soon as buyers see what remarkably fine value the hats are. Tomorrow's collection will be equal in stylishness and beauty to any previous exhibit. Floral effects now are largely the vogue in fashion centres, and to please those to whom such hats appeal, models lavishly embellished with flowers will be the leading feature of this display.

To see will be worth while—but to buy will be your verdict after viewing.

Two Prices Only for These Special Hats, Each $3.50 to $5.00
