Germans Strike But Attacks Are Broken

Allies Hold All Gains on the Main Front

British, Between Albert and Arras, Make Further Advance—Further Details of the Driving Back of the Enemy

Paris, July 22.—Strong counter-attacks delivered last night by the Germans on the front between the Ourcq and the Marne were broken by the Allies, the war office so announced today. The Allied positions have been maintained. The enemy counter-blows were delivered in the region of Griselles, seven miles northwest of Chateau Thierry and Beau St. Germain, four miles north of Chateau Thierry.

North of the Ourcq and between the Marne and Rheims the enemy's reaction was limited to artillery fire. The fire was particularly notable in the region of the woods of Courton and Roit.

BRITISH PUSH AHEAD.

London, July 22.—Further ground has been gained by the British in the Hebuterne region, on the front between Albert and Arras. The British likewise, in conjunction with the French carried out a successful enterprise to the south of Villers-Bretonneux, east of Amiens, in which prisoners were taken.

German trenches were entered during the night by British raiding parties at several points on the front including Neufville-Vitasse and north of Bellefleur, and prisoners were taken.

OFFENSIVE NOW IS THE ALLIES

Paris, July 22.—Commenting on the German withdrawal on the Soissons-Chateau Thierry line, Marcel Hittin, in the Echo de Paris remarks:—"The offensive continues—ours."

It has needed all the reserves which promised victory to the German people, he says, to attempt to stop the Allied progress. The enemy has been forced to resist to the last ounce. He was completely beaten at Chateau Thierry from which he scamped off, permitting a methodical advance, up to Sunday night, of fifteen kilometers.

Several Franco-American units have crossed the Marne, M. Hittin adds, which presages that the river soon will be entirely cleared of Germans.

Sunday Night Report

With the French Army in France, July 22.—(Night by the Associated Press.)—On the main battle line between the Marne and the Aisne the Germans again have been driven back a considerable distance. They have been pushed back over the Soissons-Chateau Thierry road at several points north of the Ourcq.

South of the river under the combined pressure of French troops advancing from the west and Franco-American forces which followed the enemy across the Marne and the Aisne, the Germans fell back rapidly during the day and tonight the Allies were on a line marked by the villages of La Croix, Griselles and Epieds, which means an advance of five miles from the west and three miles from the south.

A Rich Harvest

In the abandoned Boche positions south of the Marne, the French and Americans made a rich haul of material, including 400 machine guns and thirty cannon, including two big guns.

The heaviest fighting today was on the eastern side of the salient west of the hills and woods west of the mountain of Rheims where the enemy was fighting tooth and nail to maintain himself. The Germans were attacked fiercely in this region today by British troops, including a Highland division, who took from him Courton Wood, Rheims Wood, and the villages of Bouilly and St. Espreux.

AMERICANS TAKE HUNDRED CANNON.

Washington, July 22.—Fresh successes for the American forces in their drive between the Aisne and the Marne were reported in General Pershing's communique for yesterday, received today. The Americans were driving ahead with undiminished vigor and spirit. More than 6,000 prisoners, more than 100 cannon and many trench mortars and machine guns have been taken by American divisions in the last few days on the Aisne-Marne front. This was accepted as meaning that the 17,000 prisoners referred to in Saturday's statement included those captured by both French and American units.

General Wants to Quit.

Amsterdam, July 22.—General Von Francois, commander of the seventh army corps on the western front, has resigned, according to the Loket Anzeiger. The emperor has refused to accept the resignation and has given him an honor-

NO GENERAL STRIKE YET ON CANADIAN RY'S

McAdoo Schedule Accepted by Railway Shoppers' Representatives, But Westerners Threaten Further Action

Montreal, July 22.—There will be no general strike of railway shippers in Canada, at least at the present time, the intervention of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, announced last week, following the adoption of the adoption by the railway workers of the McAdoo schedule with amendments, was sufficient to prevent the sending out of a strike call to railway shippers' unions throughout Canada. It also had the effect of causing a decided split in the shippers' committee that had been in Montreal for several weeks negotiating with the railway was board. East and west of the adoption by the railway workers of the McAdoo schedule with amendments, the west for taking drastic action and that at once Western representatives, strongly supported by their membership, declared that a strike will yet be called and that the American Federation will be defied.

Local railway employees are pleased that a new rate of wages is to become effective on August 1. For some it means an increase of forty-three per cent over their wages in December 1915. The increase is from forty-three to one per cent the minimum wage being $46 a month, the maximum $290 a month. Those who receive less than $46 will receive a straight increase of $20 and above $46 a rate based on the amount paid for the working in Montreal on a new scale for the trainmen.

CHATEAU-THIERRY CAPTURED EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

Huns Have Only One Railway South of Rheims-Soissons Line

FURTHER RETREAT INDICATED

Allied Belief That Germans Cannot Hold on, for Supply Sources Are Under Deadly Menace—Streams of Prisoners

With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne front, Sunday, July 21.—(By the Associated Press, night.)—South of Soissons American troops today advanced two kilometers (about 1 1/4 miles).

The Allied artillery has found the range of the Soissons-Chateau Thierry railroad, while American troops are outside the Soissons-Villers Coterets railway. As a result there is only one railroad line in the hands of the Germans south of a line drawn from Soissons to Rheims.

Near the village of Bellefleur, northwest of Chateau Thierry, the Americans early on Sunday had made an advance of five kilometers. Some of the most terrific fighting since the offensive began occurred between Givry and Vaux, the Germans using artillery and machine-guns.

The Allied troops occupied Hill 204, commanding Chateau Thierry, at daylight on Sunday and soon afterwards were pressing their way through the city itself. Progress east and north by the French and Americans continued throughout Sunday.

The Germans north of the Marne were subjected to a terrible pounding from the Allied artillery to-day. They responded, however, although unsuccessfully. The Allied airplanes were feeling out the German lines with telling effect, making the enemy's rear guard action costly.

Prisoners captured near Chateau Thierry confirmed the soundness of Gen. Foch's plan when they declared that the German retreat became imperative on account of decreased supplies. Stores of both ammunition and foodstuffs were being taken away and the officers had reported that it was practically impossible to resist.

Orders had been issued, the prisoners added, to retreat to a point ten miles north, but the indications to-night were that the Germans would not for long be permitted to retreat that close to the Marne, for the Allied flanking movement is progressing steadily. Both the railroads and the wagon roads over which the enormous stores for the German forces must pass are so menaced as to make them unusable.

Streams of prisoners were being taken to the rear all day Sunday. Since Thursday the Americans have captured German soldiers representing ten divisions.

JAPS AGREE TO PROPOSALS FROM WASHINGTON TO TAKE HAND IN SIBERIA

London, July 22.—The Japanese diplomatic council has agreed to the American proposal for joint intervention by Japan and the United States in Siberia, says a Central News despatch from Tokyo under date of July 17. The despatch adds that a protocol will be issued assisting Russia that the Entente has no aggressive designs on intervening in Siberia.

It is probable that a relief commission will accompany the joint expedition.

THE KILLING OF FORMER EMPEROR OF RUSSIA

London, July 22.—Recent reports and a recognition that probably the former emperor would suffer a violent death, the killing of Nicholas Romanoff, which, none the less, excites sympathetic references here and has caused some strong denunciations of the perpetrators of the crime.

Nicholas never was a hero in this country for he had always been regarded as weak and a poor specimen of a sovereign, but it is admitted that he had good intentions which by the tragedy of his weakness he was unable to realize.

The news of his death, which in ordinary times would have filled the newspapers and called for the biggest type, appears in most papers inconspicuously, and with one or two exceptions, without editorial notice.

SOME EXCEPTION TAKEN TO STORY OF BIG SHIPYARD

Toronto, July 22.—With reference to a despatch received from Quebec on Thursday, stating that a new shipyard concern had been formed to operate a yard opposite Quebec city, the new syndicate, comprising the Federal Shipbuilding Company of Sarnia, the Dominion Shipbuilding Company of Collingwood, etc., the Dominion Shipbuilding Company, Limited, Toronto, says that it is the only company operating under the name of the Dominion Shipbuilding Company and there is no such yard at Collingwood. It further states that it has no knowledge of the proposed new shipyard and is not in any way interested in it. The article said that the Federal and Dominion Shipbuilding companies would cease building ships in Ontario this, the Dominion Shipbuilding Company, Ltd., states is not true so far as it is concerned.

QUEBEC FARMER KILLS TWO ROBBERS

Montreal, July 22.—A farmer living at Kildare, twenty-five miles south of Montreal, in an encounter with three masked men on Saturday night killed two. It is reported the bandits attempted to hold him up in his house.

BELGIAN INDEPENDENCE DAY HONORED BY THE PARIS POPULATION

Paris, July 22.—Celebrations throughout Paris yesterday in honor of Belgian independence day began with a Te Deum in the Belgian church, attended by the Belgian minister and other officials. President Poincaré, Foreign Minister Fichon and the Archbishop of Paris sent representatives.

THE OTTAWA POSTMEN WILL NOT GO ON STRIKE

Ottawa, July 22.—An interim agreement, it is understood, has been reached between the government and local letter carriers. As a result, there will be no strike here. Promise has been made, it is said, to meet practically all the requests of the men.

DESTROYED TWO ZEPES.

London, July 22.—Concerning the official report from Berlin on Saturday, announcing that three British airmen had made an early morning attack on a Zeppelin hangar at Tondern, Schleswig, but that no material damage had been done, military authorities here consider the raid a brilliant exploit. They assert that it appears to have accomplished important results at a small cost. Two Zeppelins are believed to have been in the sheds destroyed, since stormy weather prevailed in which Zeppelins would not have ventured out. A large naval force was required for the operation.

HAVE CROSSED MARNE.

London, July 22.—American troops yesterday crossed the River Marne between Charvres and Glend, east of Chateau Thierry, and captured the wood of Barillon, according to authoritative announcement made here to-day.

COST STANDS IN WAY OF WRAPPED BREAD

LOOKS MORE LIKE INTERVENTION

Opposition Party in Japan Reported Yielding

PEKIN WELL PLEASED

Feeling There in Support of Assistance for Czechoslovaks—Believed Japan's Answer to United States Has Been Sent

London, July 22.—A despatch to the Times from Tokyo dated July 17 quotes a report that the Seiyu-Kai party is yielding and will accept the government's proposals regarding intervention. It is said that the government has forbidden the press to report movements of troops and other material information. A meeting of the army, navy and finance ministers was to have been held on July 18, to complete arrangements for financing and provisioning the Japanese forces.

A Peking despatch of July 17 to the Times says that the character of the contemplated Allied action at Vladivostok has caused liveliest satisfaction there. The Allies, it is believed in Peking, cannot do better for the moment than to add the Czechoslovaks by occupying Vladivostok and securing their base. Thus supported, the Czechs can proceed against the Bolsheviks, knowing that effective reinforcements will be available should the task prove different than anticipated.

Now Known in Washington?

Tokyo, July 19.—(Friday, by the Associated Press.)—It is believed in political circles here that the Japanese government's reply to the proposal made by the United States relative to the contemplated Allied intervention in Siberia will be despatched to Washington today. It is understood that the Japanese government's answer accepts the American proposal in every particular.

This is better.

London, July 22.—General Horvath, recently proclaimed provisional ruler of Siberia, says a Daily Mail despatch from Helsinki dated last Thursday, has sent a reply to the Allied ministers in Peking which disposes effectively of their fears. The ministers had asked him to draw his proclamation on the ground that he intended to prevent the progress of the Czechoslovak army, but far from offering obstacles, he wishes to come to an understanding with the Czechs.

MAY LET BIG LEAGUES PLAY OUT THE SEASON

Washington, July 22.—Secretary of War Baker and Provost Marshal General Crowder are today considering the advisability of extending the effective date of the work or fight order as it applies to professional baseball players so as to permit the completion of the season.

New York, July 22.—Secretary Heydler of the National League received a telegram this morning from President Fichon, who is in Pittsburgh, announcing definite arrangements for a meeting of the National League Club owners in Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

Cleveland, July 22.—The future of the American Base Ball League was to be decided here today at a special meeting of the club owners called by President B. B. Johnson to take action on the ruling of Secretary of War Baker that baseball is not essential.

Whether or not the schedule should be continued was expected to be the principal question to be discussed.

FONCK NOW HAS FIFTY SIX ENEMY PLANES TO CREDIT

Paris, July 22.—Lieut. Rene Fonck, one of the chief French aces, brought down two German airplanes on July 16, two on July 18, and three on July 19. Six of these were brought down in flames. Fonck's total is now officially fifty-six machines.

Amsterdam, July 22.—Lieutenant Friedrichs and Kirschstein, members of the Von Richthofen squadron, have been killed, says the Loket Anzeiger.

METHODIST BOARD TREATS LT. COL. MACHIN WITH SILENCE

Toronto, July 22.—Lieut. Col. Machin, M. P. P., who recently castigated the Methodist church and Methodism generally, was treated with cold and dignified silence by the Methodist army and navy board, which met here on Saturday.

The board approved of the organization of a local committee in every congregation to render any service to soldiers or sailors, and their families, and that this committee should unite with similar committees in other denominations to form a local inter-denominational committee.

AMERICAN CASUALTY LIST MUCH LONGER

Washington, July 21.—Casualties in the navy and marine corps overseas increased 983 during the week compared with 447 the previous week, and aggregated 12,716 with the inclusion of today's army list of 199 and the marine corps list of twenty-six.

OF COURSE, JUST WHAT THEY DESIRED

Amsterdam, July 22.—"The withdrawal of our troops to the northern bank of the Marne came as no surprise to well-informed circles because the supreme command had confidentially communicated its intention before hand," says the Cologne Gazette, and adds:—"The object which the former of the Marne had in view was attained. Therefore it did not appear dangerous to retreat locally in order to save unnecessary losses."

IT IS GRAVE DEFEAT.

London, July 22.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—The newspapers expose the absurdity of the German apologies for recrossing the Marne and remark that the hurried and foolish attempts to disguise disaster are the most significant and most welcome signals that could be made from Berlin at this particular moment, for grave defeat has been imposed upon the enemy, who dares not, for both political and inability reasons, contemplate failure.

The Crown Prince is fighting furiously between the Marne and Rheims and is ruthlessly sacrificing the rear guards to prevent a rout. It is suggested that General Ludendorff's arrogant under-valuation of the Allied offensive powers is due to his belief in the nonsense recently published in Germany about General Foch and his reserves.

FRANCE HONORS BRAVE ENGLISH GIRL DRIVER

Legion of Honor and War Cross For Miss Fraser

Paris, July 22.—Upon recommendation from General Foch, Premier Clemenceau has decorated Miss Fraser, an English ambulance driver, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor and the war cross. The citation reads:

"Charged with the transport of wounded men on Thursday night under heavy bombardment, she received two serious wounds from a torpedo which destroyed her ambulance. She had the superb courage to reach the hospital 200 feet away, and inform the doctor of the plight of the wounded man. She then fell unconscious. When transported to the hospital for an operation she insisted that her wounds should not be treated before the doctors attended to the injured men for whom she was responsible."

NEW RECORD AT THE BITUMINOUS MINES; GASOLINE HIGHER

(J. M. Robinson & Sons private wire telegram.)

New York, July 22.—Bituminous production made last week when 18,230,000 net tons left the mines. Increase over week of July 19.

Fuel administration approves advance of half cent a gallon in wholesale tank wagon price of gasoline and refined oil in United States effective today.

IS IN ENGLAND.

L. C. Armstrong of T. H. Estabrook Co., Ltd., has received a cablegram announcing the safe arrival of his son, Cadet Joseph L. Armstrong of the Royal Air Force, in England. The young man recently completed his course of training and spent a short furlough at home before going overseas.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by Authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis: The barometer is quite high along the Atlantic coast and relatively low both north and west. The weather is fine throughout the dominion, except near Lake Superior, where thunder storms are prevalent. The temperature is decidedly high in Ontario and Quebec, but elsewhere it is moderate.

Forecasts.

Lakes and Georgian Bay, Upper St. Lawrence and Ottawa Valley: Moderate southerly winds, fine with light temperature; Tuesday, light winds, fair and warm.

Lower St. Lawrence, Gulf and North Shore: Moderate southwest winds, fair to-day and Tuesday, becoming warmer.

Fine and warmer.

Maritime: Moderate south and southwest winds, fair to-day and Tuesday, becoming warmer.

Superior: Moderate winds, partly fair with local thunder storms, cool on Tuesday.

Western Provinces: Fair and warmer to-day and Tuesday.

New England: Fair to-night and Tuesday; little change in temperature; gentle to moderate winds, mostly west.

ALLIES SWEEP ON TO GREAT VICTORY

Advancing on Sixty Mile Front And Gaining Much Ground

Chateau-Thierry Recaptured - Germans Driven Across Marne With Tremendous Losses in Men and Materiel - Collapse of Crown Prince's Army

Victories for the Allied arms in France continue to multiply. Over the entire sixty mile front running from Soissons to Rheims the Allied troops are fighting with a determination that brooks no denial of their efforts.

Further goodly-sized indentations have been made in the German line between Soissons and Chateau-Thierry by the American and French troops, and almost all the gains made by the Germans in their recent drive south of the Marne and toward the vicinity of Rheims have been blotted out under the counter attacks of the Americans, French, British and Italians.

THREE MILES BEHIND LINES

Acting in harmony with the movement on Chateau-Thierry, American and French troops northwest of the city struck the Germans another hard blow, broke through the German lines and drove through at some points more than three miles. Large numbers of prisoners were taken and the machine guns of the Allied troops literally mowed down the Germans who endeavored to stay their progress.

To the north along the Oureq Valley the French are making good progress toward the important junction town of Nantuil-Notre Dame, which the operations south and southeast of Soissons are keeping time with those along the other parts of the front.

The entire southern bank of the Marne has been cleared of enemy forces, French, British and Italian troops are now harassing those southwest of Rheims, and they have been forced to fall back in the Courton Wood, the Ardre Valley and near St. Euphrase, notwithstanding their desperate resistance. The number of British operating with the Allied forces in this region is not known. The first announcement that they were in the area was made Saturday night and doubtless they represent a portion of the great reserves that everywhere are being brought up along the battle line in an endeavor to make secure the victories already won and enlarge them.

With the capture of Chateau-Thierry and the last progress of the French and Americans westward from the northern sectors, the plight of the Germans in the southwestern portion of the Soissons-Rheims salient becomes increasingly disastrous, and it is not improbable that when stock is finally taken large numbers of prisoners and quantities of guns and war stores will be found to have been taken by the Allied troops.

Aviators continue to lend assistance to the troops of General Foch, scouting the back areas and harassing the retreating Germans with their machine guns. Notable work has been done by American Indians for General Foch's men the Aborigines taking a prominent part, in characteristic western fashion, in scouting in the Marne region.

Prisoners and Guns

Washington, July 21—Prisoners captured by American troops in offensive on the Aisne-Marne front up to an early hour Saturday totaled by actual count, 17,000, General Pershing reported in his communique for yesterday received tonight by the war department. Capture of 500 guns also is announced.

Despite counter-attacks and rearguard actions of a desperate nature, the Americans advanced steadily early, says the communique. The towns of Courmoulin, Rozoy, St. Amand and Marigny had been entered by the Americans before 1 o'clock Saturday morning.

Brilliant Work at Front

London, July 20—An official report on aerial operations tonight says: "Early on July 19, several long reconnaissances were carried out by us and many photographs were taken of the enemy's back area. Work with the artillery and bombing were continued throughout the day.

Over seventeen tons of bombs were dropped on hostile ammunition dumps, railway stations and air bases in one of the raids on a hostile airplane the machines dropped their bombs from between 100 and 500 feet. One pilot landed on the airfield and swept the hangars with his machine gun before rising again.

"Hostile machines and six balloons were brought down. Seven of our machines are missing. "A strong west wind blowing and low clouds continually drifting up, our machines dropped fourteen tons of bombs on Vincennes and on the stations at Vincennes and Sables, a direct hit being obtained on a train at the last-named place. All our machines returned again have taken up their advances in Albania. On Saturday, says the Italian war office statement today, Point Isonzo on the crest of Mali Silvas in the bend of the Devoll river south of Ribasco was captured. Up to July 19, 2,167 prisoners and twenty-six guns were captured.

On the Sea. London, July 21—An enemy submarine attacked a tow off the east coast of Cape Cod today, sank three barges, set a fourth and their tug on fire and dropped four shells on the mainland. The action lasted an hour and was unchallenged except for two hydroplanes from the Chatham aviation station, which circled over the U-boat causing her to submerge for a short time only to reappear and resume firing. The crews of the tow numbering forty-one and including three women and five children, escaped amid the shell fire in life boats. Several were wounded, but only one seriously. This happened to be John Botwinich, an American of the crew of the tug. His right arm near the shoulder was torn away by a fragment of shell. The minor injuries of the others were from shell splinters. The headed fight took place three miles south of the Orleans coastguard station which is located midway between Chatham and the extreme tip of the Cape. The firing was heard for miles and brought thousands to the beach from which the flashes of the guns and the outline of the U-boat were plainly visible. Possible danger to the onlookers was not thought of until a shell whizzed over their heads and splashed in a pond a mile inland. Three other shells buried themselves in the sands of the beach. American warships from the first naval district are out after the submarine.

New York, July 20—Between thirty and forty men lost their lives when the

Casualty List

London, July 20—British casualties reported in the week ending today total 14,981, compared with the aggregate of 14,911 reported in the previous week. These are divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds: officers, 91; men, 1,411; wounded or missing: officers, 291; men, 10,189.

Ottawa, July 21—Today's list of 77 casualties reports one Canadian soldier killed in action, two died of wounds, five died, thirty-four wounded, eighteen gassed, and sixteen ill.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 22, 1918. The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

A BRILLIANT VICTORY.

In the most brilliant counter-stroke since the first battle of the Marne the Allied troops on the western front have inflicted a smashing defeat on the Germans in the sector southeast of Rheims, and are pushing the enemy back over a front of sixty miles. They have occupied Chateau Thierry, the main pillar of the German defence line between Soissons and Rheims, and have succeeded in carrying out an encircling movement which has placed the German armies in the entire region south of the Aisne in danger and resulted in the death of a great number of prisoners. The capture of many prisoners, the Soissons-Chateau Thierry railroad, the most important line for the movement of troops and munitions in that territory, has been rendered useless to the Germans by the Allied artillery. This leaves but one railroad line in the hands of the enemy between Soissons and Rheims. The result is that he is seriously handicapped in the movement of troops and supplies.

WORK FOR JAIL INMATES.

Androscoggin county, Maine, has decided to set the able-bodied inmates of Auburn Jail at work on the state highway now being constructed from Auburn to Danville. It is announced that the men will receive recompense for their labor in accordance with its quality and quantity and the expense of maintenance, the pay to go to their dependent families where conditions warrant. Commenting on this decision the Bangor Commercial says: "Androscoggin is setting an example that should be followed in every county. There is no reason why the men who have been convicted of offenses against the state or individual should be supported in idleness at the public expense, if they are able to work. From the physical standpoint it is much preferable that they should work for such terms to keep them in good health and also renders them more capable of securing work at the expiration of their terms. By working the prisoners are able to assist their families, in many cases left without the means of support. It is right and proper that the men should be paid a fair remuneration for their work but the first portion of this should be devoted to paying the state for their keep and clothing. The surplus should then go to their dependents. There is no legitimate argument against putting the convicts to work and their labor can very properly be devoted to the state highway and in other lines as well. There is at the present time a great scarcity of labor and the idle hours of the convicts can very properly be utilized to the benefit of the state, to the benefit of the men themselves and to the benefit of their dependents."

MORE REVELATIONS.

Here are some interesting extracts from a letter by Mr. W. Frank Hatheway in Saturday's evening Globe: "In 1918 the Hydro-Electric Company succeeded in getting control of the power on both the Lepreau and Magalloway rivers. These rights are now owned by the New Brunswick Power Company. At some time in 1919 it was stated that the net horse power available on these two rivers was not over 5,000. Mr. Fred R. Taylor states before the commission that the company value these water power rights at $700,000, or $80 per horse-power, as reported June 28th. This was said to be less than $1,000 horse power in 1912, now is owned by the company to be 15,000 horse-power."

HON. MR. BLONDIN TO THE SENATE.

Ottawa, July 21.—Hon. P. E. Blondin, former member of the cabinet, has been appointed to the senate for the Laurentide division of Quebec in succession to the late Senator Sheehy. Thus will Mr. Blondin fulfill the condition that a member of the cabinet must have a seat in one or other of the assemblies of parliament. The new senator is post-nomine in charge of the department after more than a year's absence overseas. Many of the departments of government have in his past days been presided over by members of the red chamber. He has been twice premier of the province in the case of Sir John Abbott and again in the case of Sir Mackenzie Bowell. Since 1911 the senate has had little representation in the cabinet. However, Sir James Loughheed, leader of the government in the senate, is now minister of the interior, the Hon. Senator Giddon Robertson is a minister without portfolio and may become minister of labor. Senator Blondin is the only French Canadian in the cabinet. He was defeated in the election of 1914 in the Outremont and Champlain on December 11 last, being nominated in his absence overseas.

THE BILIOUS HABIT.

Some people have bilious spells about every so often until they get to be a habit. The liver is at fault. Get the liver right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the bile will not collect in the blood until it poisons you. There is no one organ in the human body which has so great a control of health as the liver. Hence the far-reaching effect of this treatment.

HUBERT MATTHEWS SAVED TWO BIG GUNS.

Former Chatham Boy Took His Engine In Under Shell Fire and Pulls Out the Big Fellows—Gallantry Recognized.

Mrs. A. R. Matthews, of Chatham, now residing at Campbellton, recently received from her son, Hubert, who is a conductor on Transport Trains with the Broad Gauge Railway Operating Co., Royal Canadian Engineers, France, a certificate given him in recognition of his bravery while engaged in the Transport Service. The certificate is neatly printed on a lithographed form, bearing the coat-of-arms of the Royal Engineers and is worded as follows: Royal Engineers, Transport Branch No. 101. A. H. Matthews, 28th B. G. Op. Coy. I desire to express my appreciation of the gallantry and devotion to duty displayed by you on 10-4-18 in going into gun positions with an engine under shell fire, and assisting to pull out and save two 12-inch guns, ammunition and equipment. The example set by you worthily maintains the standard of your corps. S. D. L. CROOKSHANK, Director General (Transportation). General Headquarters, British Armies in France. Needless to say, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews are proud of the distinction granted their son, and his many friends in his home town will also be pleased to hear that his good work in France has been recognized by his officers. Before going overseas Mr. Matthews was employed as brakeman with the C. G. Railway. A brother, Jack Matthews, who went overseas with the Army Service Corps, and transferred to a combatant unit in England, was killed in action in France, some months ago.

DEATH OF SENATOR MASON WAS SUDDEN.

Brigadier-General Hon. James Mason, who died at his home in Toronto, the home day, passed away a few days after an operation for appendicitis. General Mason was born in Toronto, August 25, 1848, and was educated at the Model School. On leaving school he entered the service of the Toronto Savings Bank, which was subsequently converted into the Home Savings and Loan Co., and after into the present Home Bank of Canada. In 1878 he became General Manager and President of the Home Bank, and maintained his active connection with the bank until he was called to the Senate in 1914. He was also a director of several companies. He began his military career as a private in the ranks, serving in the Queen's Own Rifles during the Fenian Raids. In 1882 he was gazetted captain of the 10th Royal Grenadiers. He commanded No. 2 Service Company in the Red Rebellion, and was present at the Fish Creek fight, and volunteered to rush the final position held by the rebels. At Batchoche, the seat of the rebellion, he was severely wounded. In 1890 he became Lieutenant-Colonel of the 10th Royal Grenadiers, and was one of the Canadian officers sent to the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in 1897, and was present at the opening of the Victoria Memorial in London. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and was promoted to Brigadier-General, and he was the recipient of many honors. Chief Organizer of Reserve Militia. His interest in military organization was always active and enthusiastic. He was the Chief Organizer of the Reserve Militia of Canada, and it was a matter of great regret to him that he was unable to see the progress of the war. He visited, however, the battlefields of France and never lost an opportunity of going into the trenches at the beginning of the war, and of urging the need of reinforcements. In all matters of public interest and the good of the country he was ever at the front. He was one of the founders of the Canadian Military Institute, and of the Order of the House of Commons, and was Vice-President of the St. John Ambulance Association, and has long been treasurer and faithful worker for the Red Cross Society. The noble memorial to the heroism of the South African war that stands in University avenue is largely the result of his efforts. He was a Knight of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, and was Vice-President of the St. John Ambulance Association, and has long been treasurer and faithful worker for the Red Cross Society. Schrader Universal Tire Pressure Gauge

Air is cheap—use plenty of it. Nothing is as essential to the life of your tires as air. New air is cheaper than new tires. Give your tires all the air they need. The only way to know whether or not your tires have enough air is to measure it with a SCHRADER UNIVERSAL TIRE PRESSURE GAUGE. If you have been riding on haphazard pressure you have been spending a good deal more money for tires than you need have spent. Each, in neat Leather Case $1.25

Vacation Schools Are Boon To Mothers

Toronto kiddies revel in joys of Daily Bible Training Schools. (Toronto Star). Toronto kiddies are reveling in the joys of the daily vacation Bible training schools. As a result of the steadily increasing interest in the splendid work carried on by those schools during the summer months, two new schools were opened this morning on Dovercourt road and College street. This makes a total of eight such schools in the city, with fully eight to nine hundred pupils in attendance. This work is one of the greatest boons to the children as well as the mothers. In the morning the children are interested in the work for the past six years. "Children come to our school daily, many of them are of different nationalities attending the schools, as they are open to all classes and creeds. Canadian and Scotch children learn to do any work with their hands very rapidly, and display exceptional originality. The English children adapt themselves to their surroundings and games most readily, while the Jewish children are most dramatic and artistic. The schools are open every morning from 9.30 to 12 o'clock. Children of all ages attend up to twelve years. Many tiny tots of three summers were among the groups this morning in the kindergarten classes. No restrictions are placed on the children as in the every day school life. Everything is done to the sound of music. In the morning the children line up in three different groups, and immediately a musical signal is given which causes them to sing themselves to their surroundings and games most readily, while the Jewish children are most dramatic and artistic. A BRILLIANT VICTORY.

The most brilliant counter-stroke since the first battle of the Marne has been the smashing defeat of the German troops on the western front. Allied troops on the western front have inflicted a smashing defeat on the Germans in the sector southeast on the German front. They have pushed the German army back over a front of fifty miles. They have occupied Chateau Thierry, the main pillar of the German defence line between Soissons and Rheims, and have succeeded in carrying out an encircling movement which has placed the German armies in the entire region south of the Aisne in danger and resulted in the death of a great number of his troops and the capture of many prisoners. The Soissons-Chateau Thierry railroad, the most important line for the movement of troops and munitions in that territory, has been rendered useless to the Germans by the Allied artillery. This leaves but one railroad line in the hands of the enemy between Soissons and Rheims. The result is that he is seriously handicapped in the movement of troops and supplies.

The capture of Chateau Thierry, military critics point out, is a crushing blow to the Germans and shatters their hope of a drive upon Paris. It may mean that they will be forced back to the Aisne, as it is doubtful if there are positions which they can hope to make a stand. There are indications that the Allies would take Soissons at any moment, but their guns now dominate the town it is possible that this movement will be delayed for strategic reasons.

While it is too early to accurately appraise the value of the Allied victory, it is clear that they have regained the initiative and are making steady progress in the face of violent resistance. The Marne and the Aisne have been cleared by their splendid advance during the last four days. Military critics, in close touch with the situation, warn us against undue optimism, but they are unanimous that the counter-stroke carried out by General Foch has imperilled the entire enemy position south of the Marne and may mean a German retreat over a very wide front.

MORE REVELATIONS.

Here are some interesting extracts from a letter by Mr. W. Frank Hatheway in Saturday's Evening Globe: "In 1912 the Hydro-Electric Company succeeded in getting control of the power on both the Lepreau and Maguadavic rivers. These rights are now owned by the New Brunswick Power Company. At one time in 1912 it was stated that the net horse power available on these two rivers was not over 5,000. Mr. Fred R. Taylor states before the commission that the company value these water power rights at $70,000, or $30 per horse-power, as reported June 28th. Thus what was said to be less than $5,000 horse power in 1912, now is said by the company to be 19,000 horse-power."

Mr. Hatheway points out that the Niagara Power Company gives Ontario the right to use 20,000 to 50,000 horse-power at $10, which would make it cost from $180 to $225 per horse-power per annum in various Ontario cities. By comparison he shows what a fat profit the New Brunswick Power Company would have if they could develop the power claimed at the value stated by Mr. Taylor. We quote further—

"The government was too lenient in its charge of $1,500 per year rental for the water rights on the two rivers, and sold the 2,500 acres of land too low. Can we understand the control that this N. B. Hydro-Electric Company had over the government of 1912 to 1917?"

Mr. Hatheway notes that in 1916 the company was permitted to increase its capital from $5,000,000 to $15,000,000, although not a dollar had been spent in dams or plant or power-houses nor has any been spent since. With regard to the sale of the 2,500 acres of crown land to Mr. P. W. Thomson at $2 per acre, Mr. Hatheway says no one can blame the latter, but 'tis avalanche of blame is attached to the government that sold it." He adds—

"On Jan. 22, 1914, by order-in-council the government granted the land. On March 19, 1914, the grant was signed by the minister of crown lands. On April 23, 1914, an Act was passed which authorized the sale at $2 per acre. The house was not furnished with an engineering report on the value of the land as it was given to the Hydro-Electric Company in silence. Not a question asked, not a cent spent on public rights."

Mr. M. A. Thomson controls the possibility of 19,000 horse-power after selling the land, plant, etc. Fifteen thousand horse-power, thirty-five miles from the Grand Falls power, at $100 per horse-power, is completed, and $5,000,000 is much cheaper than the sale of Grand Falls power, 250 miles from St. John, for $60,000. Today these water powers at Lepreau and Magu-

Hon. Mr. Blondin To The Senate

Ottawa, July 21.—Hon. P. E. Blondin, former member for Champlain, has been appointed to the senate for the remainder of the cabinet. In succession to the late Senator Sheehy. Thus Mr. Blondin will fill the condition that a member of the cabinet must have a seat in one or other of the assemblies in parliament. The new senator is postmaster-general in the government and is now in charge of the department after more than a year's absence overseas.

Many of the members of the cabinet have in past days been presiding over by members of the red chamber. In fact the position of senator, once held by Mr. Blondin, has been held twice by senators, once in the case of Sir John Abbott and again in the case of Sir Mackenzie Bowell.

Since 1911 the senate has had little representation in the cabinet. However, Sir James Logghead, leader of the government in the senate, is now minister of civil re-establishment and Senator Gleason Robertson is a minister without portfolio and may become minister of labor.

Senator Blondin is the only French-Canadian in the cabinet. He is defeated in the constituencies of Laurier-Outremont and Champlain on December 21 last, being nominated in his absence overseas.

DEATH OF SENATOR MASON WAS SUDDEN

Died After Appendicitis Operation—Had Notable Military Career, Rising From Rank to Brigadier-General

Brigadier-General Hon. James Mason, who died at his home in Toronto, the other day, passed away a few days after an operation for appendicitis. General Mason was born in Toronto, August 25, 1848, and was educated at the Model School. On leaving school he entered the service of the Toronto Savings Bank, which was afterwards converted into the Home Savings and Loan Co., and after into the present Home Bank of Canada. In 1878 he became General Manager and President of the Home Bank, and maintained his active connection with the bank until he was called to the senate in 1914. He was also a director of several companies.

He began his military career as a private in the ranks, serving in the Queen's Own Rifles during the Fenian Raids. In 1882 he was gazetted captain of the 10th Royal Grenadiers. He was promoted to 2nd Lieutenant in 1884, and to 1st Lieutenant in 1886. He was present at the Fish Creek fight, and volunteered to rush the final position held by the rebels. At Batavia, the seat of the rebellion, he was severely wounded. In 1898 he became Lieut.-Col., and was one of the Canadian officers sent to the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in 1897, and was second in command of the Coleridge and received from Her Majesty a photograph, which he has treasured very highly.

General Mason retired from the command of the Royal Grenadiers in 1896. He was appointed to the command of the 4th Infantry Brigade, from which he retired in 1906, with the rank of full colonel. In 1915 he was promoted to Brigadier-General, and he was the recipient of many medals.

Chief Organizer of Reserve Militia. His interest in military organization was always active and enthusiastic. He was the Chief Organizer of the Reserve Militia in Canada, and was a matter of great regret to him that he was too old to serve in the present war. He visited, however, the battle of Jerusalem, and was Vice-President of the St. John Ambulance Association, and has long been treasurer and faithful worker of the Red Cross Society. The noble memorial to the heroes of the South African war that stands in University avenue is largely the result of General Mason's activity in honor of Canada's great deed. In religion he was a devoted Catholic, and attended St. Basil's Church.

General Mason was one of the first to see the need in Toronto of a public library, the "People's University," and was one of the founders of the Mechanics' Institute, and the precursor of the Toronto Public Library, of which he was one of the original trustees, and later chairman of the board.

His philanthropic career was not less active. He had long been a member of the St. John's Hospital, and had served as its president. He was also a member of the St. John's Hospital, and had served as its president. He was also a member of the St. John's Hospital, and had served as its president.

HUBERT MATTHEWS SAVED TWO BIG GUNS

Former Chatham Boy Took Fire and Pulls Out the Big Fellows—Gallantry Recognized.

Mrs. A. R. Matthews, of Chatham, now residing at Campbellton, recently received from her son, Hubert, who is a conductor on Transport Trains with the Broad Gauge Railway Operating Co., Royal Canadian Engineers, France, a certificate given him in recognition of his bravery while engaged in the Transport Service. The certificate is neatly printed on a lithographed form, bearing the coat-of-arms of the Royal Engineers and is worded as follows:

Transportation Branch No. 101. A. H. Matthews, 58th B. G. Op. Coy. I desire to express my appreciation of the gallantry and devotion to duty displayed by you on 10-4-18 in going into gun positions with an engine under heavy shell fire, and assisting to pull out and save two 12-inch guns, ammunition and equipment.

Needless to say, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews are proud of the distinction granted their son, and his many friends in his home town will also be pleased to hear that his good work in France has been recognized by his officers.

Before going to France Mr. Matthews was employed as brakeman with the C. G. Railway. A brother, Jack Matthews, who went overseas with the Army Service Corps, and transferred to a combat unit in England, was killed in action in France, some months ago.

Vacation Schools Are Boon To Mothers

Toronto Kiddies Revel in Joys of Daily Bible Training Schools

(Toronto Star). Toronto kiddies are reveling in the joys of the daily vacation Bible training schools. As a result of the rapidly growing interest in the splendid work carried on by these schools during the summer months, two new schools were opened this morning on Dovercourt road and College street. This makes a total of nine such schools in the city, with fully eight to nine hundred pupils in attendance.

In all matters of public interest and service General Mason was ever at the front. He was one of the founders of the Canadian Military Institute, and of the Empire Club. He was a Knight of the Order of the British Empire, and was also a member of the Order of the Royal Victorian Order, and the Order of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

QUEBEC TRAGEDIES

Alleged Manslaughter Case and Election Causes Death of Two Men.

Quebec, Que., July 21.—A young man named Bernier was killed at Stouffville about twenty miles from this city on Friday last. While the circumstances surrounding the tragedy are not yet clear, it is thought the victim got into an altercation with a man named Simard, whom he provoked and struck. The latter, it is said in retaliating stroke Bernier who, in falling, came in contact with the stump of a tree and died instantly. The body was brought to this city on Saturday, and the inquest will likely be held by Coroner Jalousoeur tomorrow. Simard has not yet been arrested.

A Serbian named Grigjic was instantly killed and a Quebec boy named Magan was badly injured on Saturday afternoon on an electric transmission tower near the Quebec exhibiting grounds. The boy who had mounted the tower in order to see performances of Ruth Law, the American aviator, touched a live wire and Grigjic who happened to be near went to his rescue. When the Serb mounted the tower and reached for the boy he came in contact with the wires and the heavy voltage coursing through his body caused his clothes to take fire and he fell to the ground dead. The boy was rescued later and taken to the Hotel Dieu Hospital where he is recovering.

Hon. Geo. Henry On Co-Operation

Two Years of Co-operative Sale of Wool Shows Possibilities

"I look with the greatest confidence to the future of co-operative marketing by farmers both in buying and selling, and agricultural representatives should give every encouragement to this movement."

This message of encouragement to a movement that promises much for Ontario agriculture was given by Hon. Geo. S. Henry, at a banquet tendered by the Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association to the Conference of Agricultural Representatives in session at Guelph. What had been accomplished in the co-operative marketing of wool showed what might be accomplished, the Minister of Agriculture thought, in other lines. In some cases in the eastern part of the province, a difference of sixteen cents a pound had been realized between the co-operative price and the local price of wool sold this year. Anything the department could do, in an effective way to help sheep husbandry generally would Mr. Henry said, be cheerfully done. President Douglas of the Ontario

WHOLESALE FALL WHEAT LOSSES

(Toronto Globe)
There are few sections in which the losses in fall wheat have been greater than they have in Ontario county. On the farm of R. J. Fleming, west of Whitby, consisting of 220 acres, 180 acres were sown to fall wheat last autumn. That wheat was put in under the direction of Thomas Underwood, one of the best cultivators in the province. Plenty of mechanical and horse-power was available for putting the land and good land it is, in the best of condition. Still there is not more than a quarter of an acre in fall wheat on the Fleming farm today.

On the smaller farms in Ontario county proportionate losses have been sustained. Mr. Tipper has had reports from different school sections touching on this. Here are specimen cases. In one section, on five neighboring farms, there were four fields of ten acres each and one of seven sown to fall wheat. There was a total of nearly fifty acres. There are only six and a quarter acres of fall wheat left in all. In one of the best sections five farms on which fall wheat was sown have none left. About forty per cent of the land sown to fall wheat is now in oats, the rest being divided between spring wheat, barley, mixed grain and corn.

225 Acres in Spring Wheat
On the Fleming farm, when the extent of the loss in fall wheat became known, arrangements were made to put every available acre in spring wheat, and 225 acres were sown in it. There is one block of 112 acres that is a sight to gladden the beholder. This partly on soil and partly on corn land, promises at least thirty-five bushels to the acre. It may go forty. Other fields, on pea land and summer fallow, may reach fifty bushels to the acre.

KHAKI GIRLS TO PULL FLAX IN ONTARIO

(Toronto Globe)
Four hundred girls bent on patriotic service are leaving Toronto this afternoon to pull flax at Dayton and other places in the neighborhood of Guelph. They will be away six weeks, moving on from place to place. The girls wear a khaki national service uniform with smocks, and riding breeches, and sombrero hat. They will live in military tents and provide their own camping equipment, groups of eight sharing sleeping accommodations and cooking arrangements. Fourteen dollars an acre is paid for the work. The flax is used in the wings of airplanes. Mrs. William Galbraith has organized the expedition and the girls will leave in cars provided by Sir William McKensie.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Hannah M. Narraway. A well-known citizen of St. John passed away yesterday afternoon in the St. John's Hospital. She was the wife of the late Rev. J. R. Narraway, formerly a prominent Methodist pastor of this city. She was born in Cornwall, England, and came to Canada when a young girl.

Mrs. Mary Ann Ward. The death occurred on Saturday of Mrs. Mary Ann Ward, wife of the late Henry Ward, at her home, 48 Summer street. Mrs. Ward was seventy-four years of age and was well known to residents of St. John. She was a daughter of the late Abraham Magee, of this city. Mrs. Ward had been in failing health for some time, but her death came unexpectedly. Robert L. Ward of H. W. Cole, Ltd. is a son, and Mrs. Ward is also survived by a daughter, Miss H. May Ward, of the St. John High school. The two sisters are Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick, of New York, and Mrs. C. Dennison of this city. The funeral will be held on Tuesday at St. John's (Stone) church.

Joseph Richards. Frederickton, July 21 (Special)—Joseph Richards, a well known resident of Frederickton, died at his home last night after a lingering illness aged sixty years. He was survived by his widow, three sons and one daughter. The sons are, Lloyd W. of Sydney Mines, Frank H. and Robert H. at home. The daughter is Mrs. Charles W. Pond, of Winnipeg. Four sisters survive. They are Mrs. Gilmour, of Stanley; Mrs. Sanson, of Fredericton; Mrs. Carson, of Houlton, and Mrs. Samuel Bird, of Kennebec. Daniel M. Richards, of Campbellton, is a brother. The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon. The deceased, a few years ago, was proprietor of the York Hotel in this city.

C. P. Hamblin. Minneapolis, July 20.—C. P. Hamblin, veteran newspaperman for several years managing editor of the Minneapolis Tribune, died here today. He was fifty-nine years old. Hamblin retired from newspaper work four years ago, after suffering a breakdown. He was born in London, England.

Mrs. Alexander Mitchell passed away in Fredericton yesterday. She was forty years old and is survived by her husband and one sister.

Mrs. Martin Haley died at her home in Shediac on Friday. She was sixty-two years of age and is survived by her husband, two sons, two daughters, one brother and one sister.

Alfred Orland Sharp passed away recently at his home in Windsor, N.S. He was fifty-six years of age and is survived by his wife and one son.

FOR WITHDRAWAL OF EMBARGO ON SKILLED LABOR

What Munition Workers in England Are Agitating For. TALK OF STRIKE THIS WEEK. Ministry of Munitions in Close Touch With Union Leaders—Appeal Against Stoppage of Work in Time of National Danger.

London, July 22.—The Ministry of Munitions, it was announced last night, had received word at a mass meeting of munition workers at Birmingham that it was resolved to go on strike on Wednesday night unless the embargo on skilled labor is withdrawn. The statement says the ministry is in close touch with the union leaders, both directly and through the Ministry of Labor.

At Coventry the local committee proposed to an official of the ministry who is holding conferences there, to recommend a suspension of the strike notices if the ministry would consent to inaugurate a restriction scheme in districts and recommended a national conference to consider the question of the utilization of skilled labor. The ministry's reply said it was not opposed to the discussion and administration of the plan although the government's considered policies in the matter of the embargo scheme cannot be a matter for discussion.

The ministry also issued an appeal last night to the workers on patriotic grounds to remain at work and lend no aid to a movement which may have consequences of the gravest kind.

The appeal said that the threatened stoppage of work was not an ordinary trade dispute but an attempt to overthrow the policy of the state at a time of national danger.

ALONG THE RIVER

The weather man set out to entertain the passengers on the Occochee on Saturday afternoon. When she passed into Grand Bay a huge mass of dense black clouds hung low over the middle of the bay trailing off to clear sky and sunshine on the left, while on the right flashes of lightning ran along the coast. The water was black, like oil, till a sudden squall arose and bent it into curls. Motor boats ran before the squall or into it. A yacht came to anchor on a lee shore. The shades and tints in the sky changed unconsciously, at times revealing a beauty that is the despair of the painter. Far up river a curtain of rain must obscure the view.

As the Occochee drew in at Sand Point a heavy crash of thunder came, and then a shower that drove the passengers to cover. The river valley was sheeted with rain. At Watters Landing the air was clear, the river smooth, and there was scarcely wind enough to fill the sail of a yacht floating down in mid-stream. In ten minutes rain was falling again, but the moonlight under the sun was shining, and as the evening wore on the sky cleared, the surface of the river became like a mirror, and the serene beauty of the valley charmed the senses with its loveliness and peace.

Later the moon shone and shed its soft glow over landscape and river, and the strands of a mandarin in a boat near the shore floated on the tranquil waters. The moonlight dance at the Landing was the most enjoyable of the season. There were dancers from Westfield, Woodman's Point and other resorts, and they danced to the music of piano, violin and cornet. In the pretty pavilion behind the cedar trees. It was announced that on Wednesday evening the boys of this town would have a masquerade ball at the Occochee Landing. This is an event for the younger folk, and was greatly enjoyed by them.

Rail laying on the Valley Railway has reached Public Landing, from Westfield and a large crew of men suggests increased activity. Yesterday was a delightful day along the river. The Occochee brought down a few crates of strawberries this morning and gobs will soon be plentiful. Cultivated raspberries are ripening and will soon be on the market. The gardens are all flourishing, and green beans and peas will soon be plentiful.

ANYTHING POSSIBLE, SAYS DUTCH PAPER. Victory of Allies Creates Profound Impression in Holland.

Amsterdam, July 21.—The Allied victory has created a deep impression throughout Holland. The Telegraaf says that anything is possible; that the capture of 400 guns will fill the Germans with consternation. The Handelsblad says the double Franco-American success revives French courage and rejoices the Americans, whose young army has proved that it is capable of vigorously tackling the Germans.

BRITISH SCORE IN SURPRISE ATTACK ON THE ITALIAN FRONT.

Rome, July 21.—The official statement from the war office today on operations on the Italian front says: "During the evening of July 20 a British detachment carried out a successful surprise attack to the southwest of Asiago, inflicting losses on the enemy. The artillery activity was moderate on both sides. "Nine enemy airplanes were brought down."

GERMANS SAY QUENTIN ROOSEVELT BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS. Amsterdam, July 21.—The news of the death of Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt is confirmed by a Wolff Bureau message from the front, according to a Berlin dispatch received here. The message adds that young Roosevelt was buried with military honors by the Germans.

AMERICANS CLEAN OUT GERMAN DUGOUTS AT CANTIGNY.

AIRMEN VOLUNTEER FOR EUROPEAN TRIP

40 Army Aviators Ask Permission To be in the First Fleet To Cross the Ocean

Commander Wants to go—Major Rhinehart Believes Flight Will be Undertaken Before the End of This Year

Mineola, L. I., July 19.—Forty American aviators of the First Provisional Wings unit at the army aviation field here, rated as the best trained pilots in service on this side, have presented to their commanding officer a petition requesting that they be selected to fly the first fleet of American-built Caproni or Handley-Page bombing machines across the Atlantic under the plans proposed by the makers of both types of airplanes. These are the same men who thrilled the city by their skillful flights in battle formation on July 4 and Battle Day and who have been enacting sham battles at many places.

In addressing the petition upon their proposal, Major C. K. Rhinehart, commanding officer of the aviation field, said that he believed that the plan of flying airplanes from America to Europe was feasible, and he added that he believed the flight would be undertaken before the end of the year in planes built in America and equipped with the Liberty motor. He told them that he wished to make the flight himself, and that he was desirous of seeing the names added to the list of aviators volunteering for service in the first overseas squadron. It is probable that the petition, with the approval of the commanding officers of the field, and with their names added, will be forwarded to the secretary of war.

Most of the men who volunteered for the flight have received training in the flying of the huge American-built Caproni and similar machines here, and officers at the field said that the men were qualified to fly the type of airplane. Under orders they are continuing their study of the Caproni planes here, and it was announced also that a detachment of the men had been sent to the flying field of the Standard Aircraft Corporation at Elizabeth N. J., to study there the mechanism and flying qualities of the giant Handley-Page airplane that was turned over to the War department with impressive exercises on July 6.

This machine has a wing spread of 100 feet and is propelled by two Liberty motors of 400 horse power each. Lord Simphill and other expert British pilots will show the Americans every trick of the type. All of the pilots in the First Provisional Wings will rotate in studying this plane and the Caproni at the army field here. It is the type of the Handley-Page machine that Joseph Handley-Page has offered to build here and to have 10,000 flown across the Atlantic by next spring.

Major Rhinehart and other officers at the field said they were sure that the flight would be undertaken within a few months, and that some of the machines in the first fleet would be flown by American aviators, although Italian, French and British aviators attached to the field here are anxious to pilot one of the first planes. He said that the American army officers favored the route from Newfoundland to Ireland, instead of flying to the front by way of the Azores and Portugal. The Americans wish to fly the planes from the factories in Newfoundland, and then make the jump of 1,800 miles to Ireland, and thence to the front. They have suggested also that a string of ships be placed at 200-mile intervals along the route so that the pilots would be guided accurately in their swift flight and have facilities to repair their planes in an emergency.

Before his death here two weeks ago, Sergeant Gianfelice Gino, an Italian pilot who was instructing Americans in the flying of the big Caproni, asserted repeatedly that he concurred in the opinion of the late Captain Resnati and other pilots that the flight across the ocean could be made, and that no better men for the undertaking could be found than the experienced pilots at the field here with the young Americans who have become expert fliers under their instruction.

The forty pilots in the First Provisional wings who have volunteered for the flight have all taken long cross-country flights, have been in the air a greater number of hours than have other pilots and have become expert in the flying of battle and reconnaissance planes as well as the big Caproni bombing planes. In sending their petition the wings said that their request did not lessen their desire to pilot battle planes at the front, and that they were anxious to see service over the lines, if it is decided that they have acquired the proficiency in the handling of the bombing planes necessary for the Atlantic flight. Many of them are pilots who have been withheld from overseas service, because they had qualities needed for the experimental work with the bombing planes.

Germany Loses Potash Monopoly

Large Deposits Are Being Worked in Spain—One Hope Gone

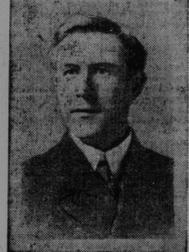

Amsterdam, July 20.—Discovery that Germany does not hold a world monopoly on potash comes as a blow to innumerable economists who repeatedly have assured the Germans that the Fatherland could impose its own terms of peace because the world, and especially America, was bound to come to Germany for fertilizers.

The government has just presented a report to the Reichstag containing the warning that Spain has unexpectedly entered the market as a large producer of potash, and the German mine owners are urged to organize their forces to meet the new situation. Germanias says: "Our supposed independence as regards the fixing of our own prices is gone."

NEW PAY SCHEME FOR AMERICAN ARMY

Men in France May Be Allowed to Draw Money From Quartermaster

With the American Armies in France, June 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Every American soldier in France will receive a "bank book" enabling him to draw $2.00 a month from any disbursing officer, if a change in pay methods of the American Expeditionary Force now under consideration is put into effect. The purpose is to enable every soldier to obtain promptly at least a part of his monthly pay regardless of where he may be, whether in a hospital or with some organization other than his own.

The "pay book" system is in use in the British Army. The sum of $7.50 a month has been fixed as the minimum which a soldier should have for his personal wants every month.

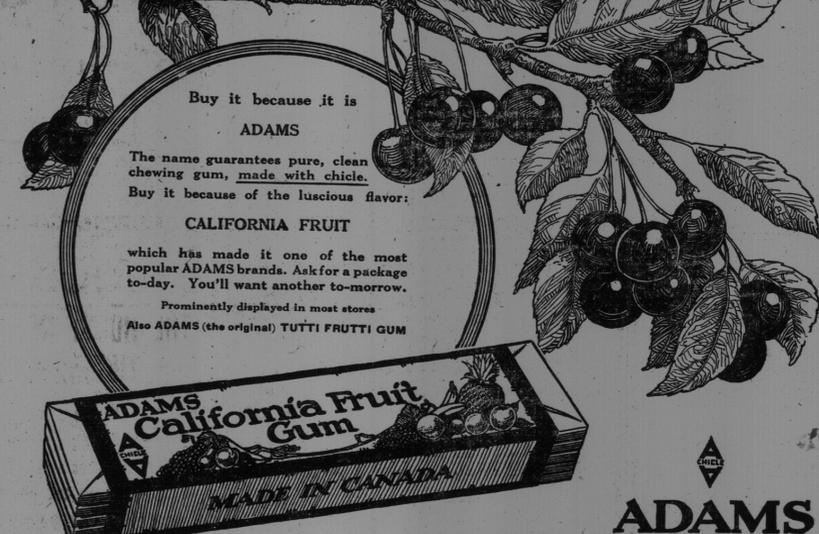

Each three or four months there will be a general accounting, at which his total pay, his insurance, and other allotments, his Liberty Loan subscriptions, and other items will be cast up, together with his monthly drafts. The balance then due him would be put at his disposal.

The proposed system would eliminate the present necessity of having on hand each soldier's service record whenever he draws any money. The service record system, designed for times of peace, does not take into account the frequent shifts for which all military men must be prepared. In many instances nowadays it works hardships on individual men who are transferred faster than their service records can follow them and who consequently cannot draw their money when he is due money because the formalities cannot be complied with.

Banville Boy's Body Is Found

Twelve-Year-Old Lad Who Disappeared on June 5, Evidently Fell From Wharf

Missing from his home since the afternoon of June 5 with nothing to indicate his fate or tell of his whereabouts the body of Arthur Banville, twelve-year-old son of Frank Banville, 5 Long Wharf, was given up by the waters between the C. G. R. pier and the Maritime Pier Wharf of Long Wharf about 8 o'clock Saturday evening soon after the thunder storm had passed over the city. The storm was short but sharp and it is due to this, it is said, that the body came to the surface. Peter Shaw, night watchman of the C. G. R. pier, was the first to notice the small form floating on the water. The missing lad's father was standing about the wharf just about the time the body was first sighted. A motor boat was secured and the remains brought to the pier.

Sergeant Rankine of the North End division was on the scene and he immediately notified Dr. F. L. Kennedy, the coroner, who gave permission for the removal of the body to O'Neill's mortuary parlors in Main street. The father identified the body which was easily done from the clothing of his young son. The clothes were all intact but the profile of the face following the body's removal from the water was beyond recognition. The body had reached such an advanced stage of decomposition that burial was necessary very early Sunday morning.

On the afternoon of June 5 young Banville had returned to his home after school which was his usual custom. He then left his home for Dock street where he was engaged by a shoemaker there for running errands. He went down Long Wharf where it is said he met another little chap about his own age. The two lingered together for a short time playing about the wharf. Soon the Banville boy remarked that he had to go to work and the other lad, who was a "newsie," also made the remark that he had to get his papers. The newsboy started up the wharf ahead of his chum Banville to take the short cut to Mill street. When he reached the end of the dock he turned around to pass a remark to Banville. Here he noticed that the other had suddenly disappeared. He evidently thought his unfortunate friend had returned up the wharf to his home

WITH BRITISH NAVY FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS

Pw St. John men have the record of duty in the North Sea for eighteen months with the British navy. But Edward Garnett, of Main street, holds the distinction and is now home on a short furlough visiting family, relatives and friends. "Eddie" enlisted in the navy some eighteen months ago, and it was not long until his ambition was realized and he was sent as a seaman into the North Sea on board a big British cruiser on patrol duty. Seaman Garnett, when questioned about his experiences, was somewhat reticent, but he did say that he had been in one "smash-up" when the cruiser was sent to the bottom. The cruiser was hit one night and sank within a few minutes. Of the crew 190 men were drowned, but, fortunately, Garnett, with several others, clung to an old piece of wreckage until they were picked up by another British ship.

"I have been through one such experience," remarked Garnett, "and I do not want to see another. I had a narrow escape then. It is a great feeling out on the briny when you are safe on board a big, strong steel cruiser, but a different thing to be suddenly thrown into the depths of the sea with nothing but hungry waves battering you about; then you have to do some figuring."

Seaman Garnett said that he liked the life real well. The men are used with every consideration. There is a healthy atmosphere always surrounding the life, and when one becomes accustomed to the storm-tossed sea it is truly a great life. Garnett has been home some days, and his trim blue regalia and little white hat have made him the pride of his family and friends.

TABERNACLE CHURCH PICNIC

The Sunday school and congregation of the Tabernacle Baptist church held their annual picnic on Saturday afternoon, and they chose the beach at East St. John as the best place to hold it. The bright, warm weather brought a very large number of people to the picnic, and the games and sports were thoroughly enjoyed both by those who took part in them and by the spectators. The programme of sports was arranged and carried out by J. A. Belyea and A. H. Paterson, who saw to it that everyone had a good time. The picnic was also a great success financially. Supper was served by a large crowd, and when the thunder storm occurred the Mission hall was opened and the supper was served under cover. At the evening service in the Tabernacle church on Sunday a baptismal service was held, and one candidate was immersed by the pastor, Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford. There was a large congregation present. Next Sunday the former pastor, the Rev. F. P. Demmons, now pastor of St. Thomas (Ont.), and the present pastor, Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford, will both take part in the services in the Tabernacle church.

WHERE WAS THE SERGEANT?
What happened to Court Sergeant Hastings, or where was his representative? were the questions asked in the police court this morning. The fact that it has been customary, when Sergeant Hastings was absent, to have somebody in his place, but this morning such was not the case. Magistrate Ritchie did not comment on the matter and no explanations regarding his absence were forthcoming. Some of those present took it for granted that his absence was a result of the troubled times.

The funeral was held this morning from the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Portland, Me., and burial took place in Calvary cemetery.

BROTHERS IN SUIT BEFORE CHIEF JUSTICE
In the case of Francis M. Diblee of Boston vs. Edward S. Diblee of Seattle, hearing took place this morning in the supreme court chamber division before His Honor Chief Justice Hazen. This suit was brought for redemption of mortgage on a property in Kings county which originally belonged to a brother of the plaintiff and defendant, who died two years ago. The defendant was $1,800 mortgage on the property at the time, and held as collateral security a policy in the Royal Arcanum for $2,000 on the life of the now deceased brother, John P. Diblee, which amount was paid over by the Royal Arcanum two years ago. The defendant, however, had not given a satisfactory discharge of the mortgage, and this suit was brought on that account. After several witnesses were examined this morning the case was adjourned until next Tuesday morning. E. P. Raymond appeared for the plaintiff and J. P. D. Lewin for the defendant. Both men formerly lived in this city.

ALMOST ANOTHER FATALITY AT DEPOT
In spite of repeated warnings, some of them of a tragic character, the foolish practice of jumping aboard westbound trains at the Mill street crossing continues. This morning a soldier bound for McAdam Junction, finding himself too late to catch the American train ran to the fast-moving cars and essayed to board one of the day coaches. He was thrown violently to the ground, suffering abrasions on his face and head and general shaking up. He was not injured to such an extent that he could not walk but he limped away dazed.
It was only by good luck that the soldier escaped rolling under the train. This morning's accident occurred on the exact spot where Mr. Ervin lost a leg a few weeks ago and under the identical circumstances.

SEVERAL CARS DITCHED YESTERDAY
The fine weather lured so many automobiles far from the city yesterday that not a few cars running without chains on their driving wheels came to grief on roadways still dewy from the recent protracted spell of soaking weather. On the new construction—the freshly turned sods and ditch material between Model Farm and Hampton on the Great Marsh road there was a good deal of trouble. At one time three big heavy cars were slipped sideways into ditches and a half dozen others were assisting them out. A high crowning of the roadbed due to new work made it difficult to pass without skidding. Once the car started to slide—good-night.
However, there were no serious mishaps and the best of good Samaritanism prevailed. Several ditching crews and ditching crews would be better—hurried from town with planks, gear, etc., in heavy trucks to help stalled cars. Indeed, the line day was not entirely without its blue spots, including blue language. If the roads got a few real warm days they would soon dry up hard and pack solidly, thus overcoming this skidding menace in narrow passages. It is a logical automobilist conclusion that in order to have good roads drivers must accept the conditions that obtain when construction is going on.

WHAT A GLORIOUS DAY WAS SUNDAY
Ideal Weather Gave Many Pleasure After Long Wet Spell
Yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock Old Sol was at the height of his not unbecomingly offensive. The mercury had stretched out to seventy-two. Most people thought it the warmest day of the season but the weather man's books state otherwise. That short spell of heat in June did the eighty or so, but somehow or another it did not feel so close and warming as yesterday's.
Dripping fog and lowering clouds suggested everything else but a genial day. Gradually the sun's rays penetrated the haze and big patches of blue sky loomed up. Absence of even the slightest breeze kept the thick, threatening clouds hanging about for quite a while but everybody soon seemed content of a fine day and made their preparations accordingly.
At 9 a. m. the temperature was sixty-nine. At 10 a. m. it had dropped again to sixty-four, on the whole an ideal summer day. The only persons who could possibly find any fault with the conditions of Sunday were yachtsmen, for the wind was next to nothing, a drifting quality. It was a gasoline day pure and simple—autos and motor boats.
Perhaps the chief reason for thinking yesterday's heat to be the height of the season was its searching into the house through last of breeze. Shady places were in lightest summer apparel, automobiles with lightest bare-headed, lines dusters made their first appearance and kiddies played in rompers, nothing more.
On the river it was delightful. Throughout the inland resorts cars and carriages held hundreds of people to their favorite haunts. The parks and cemeteries had an unusual quota of visitors. In the regular Yankfield sort of a Sunday and by long odds the banner day of the summer.
But in the afternoon it was again and today fog ruled. However, they are chasing the Crown Prince out of France and the navy more to us just now than a whole summer of outing weather.

THE POLICE SHEET AGAIN UNSIGNED
Book Refused But the Magistrate Gets it and Court Goes On
After taking his seat in the police court this morning Magistrate Ritchie asked for the sheet and noticing that it was again unsigned he ignored it and sent a policeman below to bring up the book containing the record of arrests. The policeman returned and said that he was told he could not get it, that the sheet was in court. The magistrate instructed the clerk, G. A. Henderson, to procure the book, which he did. He then proceeded with the cases.
Three young men, who were arrested on charges of shouting and bawling in a barroom, were fined $8, which they paid. Two men arrested on drunkenness charges were fined a similar amount.
That it is not necessary for a man to be drunk under the Prohibition act in order to be liable to arrest was a statement made by the magistrate in answer to one of the men charged with drunkenness. Turning to the policemen in court he said that if a man had apparently been drinking he was liable to arrest.

SPOILED THE PLANS OF MANY HOUSEHOLDS
The Weather and the Strawberries—Other Small Fruits Now Coming In
It looks as if this week will wind up the strawberry season and because of sudden stoppage of a promising big crop many householders will be sadly disappointed in their preserving plans. The early spell completely upset all calculations, even the keenest wholesalers being fooled.
Ten days ago word was that strawberries would be a wonderful crop and prices would probably drop as low as eight cents. On Wednesday, the 10th, the river boats brought down more than 800 crates and eleven cents was the lowest figure. The hope was held out that in a few days prices would tumble.
Then the soaking rain grew worse. Farmers could not pick their fruit and before enough of it could be sent to market rotting set in. Thousands of boxes were thus spoiled on the vines. The lower prices did not materialize, instead sixteen, seventeen and as high as twenty cents have been the ruling retail figures since. A few strawberries are looked for this week but not many. They will likely be fairly high.
Blueberries are straggling in in small lots and sell at twenty cents in the stores. Gooseberries are quite plentiful at twenty cents and raspberries are soon expected. Blueberries being a hardy fruit will stay on the market a long while but raspberries are usually of short season duration. So the housewife would be wise to watch the next line of small fruits carefully, with one good eye on the almanac.

THE ROTARY CLUB.
A very timely and inspiring address on The Conservation of Human Values was given at the Rotary Club luncheon today by Rev. M. F. McCutcheon of Montreal. After briefly citing the causes which led to a new appreciation of human values before the war, and how the war had emphasized tremendously the need for conservation, the speaker set out various ways in which the movement may be helped, the human factor being the great essential in successful welfare work. H. Russell Sturdee presided. A. M. Belding reported progress for the playground committee. There was a large attendance of members.

OAK HALL SCOVILL BROS., LIMITED
ST. JOHN, N. B.

Dear Mary:
Sorry I didn't see you at Lucy's house-warming party. She has such a lovely home—a beautifully flowered lawn, a handsome house and charming furnishings all the way through. So many people pay so much attention to the "outsides" of their houses and not enough to the "insides."
But Lucy certainly furnished her home "well." And she certainly was a happy woman. You must go to see her home soon.
Your Pal—HELEN
P.S. Lucy told me that she bought every single thing for her new home
