A despatch from Bangor this morning stated that a B. and A. freight train had gone through the railroad bridge at Island Falls, Me., early today, and the fireman had been fatally injured. POLICE COURT The desire of the average person, particularly visitors in a strange town, is to avoid any possibility of their becoming forced guests in the police station, but such was not the case yesterday morning with a young man from across the border, George Douglas, aged 23 years. He was liberated when daybreak came yesterday but soon returned as the weather was unpleasant outside, and asked to be allowed to remain all day. He was, but he was placed in a cell on a charge of vagrancy, and now an effort will be made to have him returned across the line. Two men charged with drunkenness this morning in the police court were remanded.

POSSE SEARCHING FOR MURDERER

Aged Quebec Woman Is Brutally Slain SHE HAD A LITTLE MONEY Tramp Suspected of Crime—Wife in Illinois Freed of Charge of Killing Husband, Man Sent To Jail For Four Years ... (Canadian Press) St. Hilare, Que., Oct. 27.—Poses of citizens under the guidance of members of the provincial police force are searching the woods in this vicinity in the hope of finding a man who brutally murdered Mrs. Louis Chevalier an aged widow, who lived alone in a little cottage near the highway running from the mountain towards St. Jean Baptiste, in Rouville county. She was found on Sunday night lying dead on the floor of her house with her throat slashed and her skull crushed in by a heavy blow inflicted from behind. The object of the murder was undoubtedly theft as the cottage was in the most disorder, the bureau drawers rifled and the clothing of the dead woman torn in an attempt to discover the hiding place of a small sum of money that she was known to have in her possession. Louis De Soucy, was passing the house of Mrs. Chevalier on Saturday morning about five o'clock and heard loud talking but as Mrs. Chevalier was very deaf, no importance was attached to this fact. The man disappeared about twelve hours later. The police are of the opinion that the murder was the work of one of the many tramps who infest the road on which was situated the cottage of the dead woman. Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 27.—The jury in the trial of John Burton and Mrs. George Cottachalk, charged with the murder of the woman's husband, today brought in a verdict acquitting Mrs. Cottachalk and giving Burton four years for manslaughter.

Three others are in a critical condition and seventeen others were injured but it is not expected that serious results will follow. The block in which the fire broke out is known as Milwaukee's "death block," there having been no fewer than eighty-two lives snuffed out within its boundaries, in the city's history.

FEARFUL SCENE AT MOUTH OF THE MINE

Bodies of 200 or More Victims Being Brought Out—By Noon Today 132 Had Been Buried ... (Canadian Press) Dawson, N. M., Oct. 27.—By noon today 132 of the victims of the Stag Canon Mine No. 2, disaster had been buried. The major portion of the bodies now being recovered, are in such condition that they cannot be shipped or laid out in the morgue for public funerals, as was the case with the first two score. Health officers are using vigilance to see that the sanitation of the town is not impaired. Rescue men, who bring the bodies from the mine, are subjected to disinfestants after each trip. Bodies are taken to the cemetery direct from the temporary morgue at the mine and if identification is possible, members of the dead miners' families are not permitted to view them. Danger from fire passed last night, when all currents were directed into every room of the workings, and no smelters were found. Government mine experts will remain in Dawson for two or three weeks, in an effort to determine positively the cause and the nature of the disaster. The Red Cross, the Salvation Army, and the Stag Canon Fuel Company at once will begin their efforts to arrange the affairs of the dead miners' families.

NO POLITICS IN THE SCHOOL MATTER, SAY TRUSTEES IN OTTAWA

Two Reply to Charge Made by Provincial Treasurer of Ontario ... Ottawa, Oct. 27.—In reply to a charge made by Hon. I. B. Lucas, provincial treasurer, that the trouble in the Ottawa separate schools was of political origin, S. M. Genest, chairman of the board, declared this morning that this was far from the fact. "Immediately the question becomes a political one," said Mr. Genest, "I will hand in my resignation. I sincerely deplore the fact that this 'political' story has gone abroad." Another member of the board, Doctor Freeland, who is collector of inland revenue for the port of Ottawa, said that the politics charge was easily refuted. There were men of both political parties on the board, and he, as well as the chairman, Mr. Genest, was a civil servant and as such eschewed politics. "If the government perseveres in its present attitude in this matter," said Doctor Freeland, "then it is committing itself to a policy of persecution, for to legislate to the injury of one part of the people at the bidding of another part, which has no interests in the matter except the unallowed joy of tyrannizing, is the essence and definition of persecution."

COCHRANE GETS TENDERS FOR HALIFAX WORK

Several Received For First Section of Terminals For Intercolonial—Estimated Cost is $5,000,000 (Special To Times) Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Tenders for the first section of the new ocean terminals of the Intercolonial railway at Halifax have been received by Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways and canals, and a contract will be forwarded at once. The extended period for the receiving of tenders closed at noon on Saturday and it is understood that some eight or ten firms have tendered including several British and American as well as Canadian companies. The contract will call for the construction of about 6,500 feet of quay wall and considerable dredging. It will probably cost in the neighborhood of five millions.

BOY REMANDED; POLICE WANT OTHERS; MILL STREET STEALING

The police are searching for others in addition to Willie Merritt, aged four years, who was arrested yesterday afternoon, in connection with a break made into the store of C. F. Francis & Co. in Mill street early yesterday morning. The lady forced open a door in the rear of the premises facing Pond street and then pried open an inner door which gave them entrance to the main store. Candy, chewing gum, cigarettes, cigars and tobacco were taken. There was quite a sum of money in the cash register but it was not taken. The youngsters hid the loot beneath a large rock in a field off Military road. Yesterday afternoon they were seen by a resident of the neighborhood having a gay old time and were observed to be very generous with their offering of cigars. This resident informed the police and Patrolman Briggs placed young Merritt under arrest. He said this morning in the police court that he hoped to take some others in custody in connection with the case, and the youthful prisoner, who shed tears of repentance, was remanded. MEETING TODAY The members of the board of conciliation in the matter of the dispute between the longshoremen and the Shipping Federation regarding wages plan to hold their first meeting this afternoon.

The sands around this spot are continually shifting. Much of Sable Island has been washed away at various periods, only to be cast again at other points in the waves.

SURVIVORS OF THE VOLTURNO ARE RE-UNITED

Bride Finds Husband Waiting For Her In New York MOTHER REGAINS HUSBAND; CHILDREN THEIR FATHER

Touching Scenes on Arrival of Forty-six Who Escaped Death in the Ocean Disaster—Dead Bodies Found on Death Ship; Hulk is Scuttled ... (Canadian Press) New York, Oct. 27.—There was an echo here, yesterday, of the recent disaster to the steamer Voltorno, which was burned at sea. Forty-six survivors of the ill-fated vessel were brought into this port by the steamer Carmania. They were rescued by the steamer Devonian and taken to Liverpool, where they were transferred to the Carmania. There were numerous dramatic scenes at the Hebrew Shelter and Immigration Aid Society's building, when the new arrivals came face to face with others of the Voltorno saved previously and brought here by other steamers. A bride, who had become separated from her husband during the rescue at sea, and who had believed him dead, screamed in fright, "It is his ghost," when she beheld him, and then fainted. Mrs. Brouche Grossman of Philadelphia, with three children, was among the Carmania's passengers. She had been brooding over the supposed loss of her husband and a child, and was overjoyed when informed that they arrived here last week and had gone to Philadelphia. London, Oct. 27.—The Dutch tank steamer Charlers reports having examined the steamer Voltorno on October 17. She found the fire completely burned out. Several dead bodies were aboard. The Voltorno's stop coles were opened and she was left drifting.

WIFE WOULD NOT LET HER CAPTAIN HUSBAND BE LAST TO LEAVE

Schooner Dismasted and Abandoned, Crew Have Battle For Life in Breakers ... Boston, Oct. 26.—Five men and a woman who barely had time to save themselves before the schooner Henry P. Havens, of Bucksport, Maine, sank off Highland Light yesterday, safely pushed through the breakers and landed on Pointe Alberton Beach at Hall's Cove. The Havens, bound from New York for Bangor, coal laden, was caught in a heavy gale thirty-five miles off Highland Light, and all three masts went overboard. The crew hastily lowered a boat and jumped in. Captain Ernest Ray and his wife followed, Mrs. Ray refusing to enter the boat until after her husband had left the schooner. A long pull through heavy seas brought the boat to shore. The Havens was built at Newburgh, N. Y., in 1882, and registered 300 tons.

HER PRETTY PLUMES ARE CAPTURED AT CUSTOMS

Miss McLoughlin Thought it Was All Right if She Declared Her Aigrettes ... New York, Oct. 27.—The largest single seizure which the customs inspectors have made since the new regulations prohibiting the importation of aigrettes went into effect, is on record at the customs house today. It is that of plumes valued at $600 from Miss Edna McLoughlin, daughter of a former police inspector here, who arrived yesterday from Europe. The young woman had frankly declared the fine feathers as part of her apparel which was valued, in all, at $8,000, and she was shocked when she learned that, regardless of her declaration, the inspectors must seize the aigrettes.

THE FRIEDMANN CURE AGAIN

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The Tuberculosis Congress ended its sessions on Saturday. The congress in 1914 will also be held in Berlin. It was announced by Dr. Friedmann that he would place his vaccine at the disposal of all physicians. He and Professor Ludwig Schleich exhibited patients alleged to have been cured. Dr. Schleich declared that he had cured articular and bone tuberculosis in cases where formerly surgery was the only recourse. Privy Councillor Dr. Friedrich Kraus, director of the medical clinic of the Charity Hospital, where the meeting was held, spoke lastly. He said that his tests of the Friedmann vaccine had not progressed far enough for him to discuss the result. He declared, however, that the remedy was not harmful, and he considered that successes in the treatment of local tuberculosis had been indisputably established. He did not hesitate to recommend physicians to test the preparation, without pre-judgment.

London, Oct. 27.—The Times has an editorial this morning, protesting against the sensational statements published on both sides of the Atlantic, regarding the relations existing between the governments at Washington and London over the Mexican situation and repeating its former assertion that no friction has arisen in any direction between the two governments.

President Wilson has taken another view of the position and is supported by the great body of popular opinion in the United States. The speech which he made at Swathmore, Pa., on Saturday, shows once again by what very high ideals that view is supported.

The Olympic Games

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The principal events of the Olympic games, to be held here in 1916, are to be decided between July 1 and 10, according to an announcement made today by the German Olympic committee. The June dates, contemplated earlier, were abandoned by the committee at the instance of the United States, which objected because the college athletes from that country would be unable to attend at that time of year.

The football and hockey championships are to be contested on May 29 and June 8 respectively, and the rowing and canoeing events on August 12. The dates for the sailing, polo, etc., have not yet been fixed.

A LEADER NEEDED

The jubilant Halifax correspondent of a Montreal paper, happy in the assurance that the big mail steamships are to make their terminus at Halifax, and confident that the Guelph agreement will never be vetoed by Mr. Borden, writes:—

"All the big and important steamships will call at Halifax this winter. Thousands of passengers will land and embark here. Thousands of tons of cargo will be landed and shipped over the rails from here and thousands of tons of freight will come over the rails to be shipped from here. Hundreds of trains will be required to move this extra traffic. Hundreds of men will be required to handle it. This alone will put an immense amount of money in circulation, money that could not possibly come to a port frozen up to the outside world during the winter months."

There is another happy result of the switching of the big steamships from St. John to Halifax which is also joyously chronicled by this correspondent. He says:—

"It will be the biggest and best winter Halifax has ever seen. The real estate men evidently figured on our winters. When the harbors of Quebec, Montreal and other big trade centres are enjoying their heavy sleep the harbor of Halifax will be in its second awakening. The great transportation corporations (the great transportation corporations?) have settled the future of this port and they have settled it in the way that pleases the people who have put their money into the city's real estate. The reason why people who own real estate are holding on to their possessions is readily seen. The land is increasing in value every day. Fortunes will be cleaned up here in the near future."

Consider now the situation at St. John. The transfer of the big steamships to Halifax will mean a loss of $15,000 in harbor revenue on account of the Empresses alone, to say nothing of the Calgarian and Alsatian of the Allan Line. It will mean smaller earnings for longshoremen, since not only will the steamers coming here be smaller but there will be a smaller number of sailing than last winter. This loss of the port's business will greatly reduce the income of the hotels, the firms selling meats and produce and other supplies, the laundries, and the general stores. The loss will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Are the citizens content? Do the members of the city council regard with complacency the loss of revenue? Do the taxpayers like it? Do the merchants and hotel keepers? Do the working men, whose earnings will be reduced? Are the members of the board of trade pleased with the prospect?

If not, what do they all propose to do about it? Will they be soothed by the assurance that they are not hurt, or by the plea of the politicians that Halifax must get something? Is Halifax worrying about St. John? Does Boston worry about New York, or Toronto about Hamilton, or Montreal about Quebec? Has Halifax displayed an eagerness or even a willingness to have a fair test made of St. John as a mail port?

Let us get down to facts and common sense and fair play. What we have ought to hold, when it has been fairly won. We won the mail steamships by virtue of the fact that St. John is the great open port nearest the heart of Canada in winter, and because we have also the best facilities. It is not necessary to rush portable warehouses down from Montreal to provide accommodation at a berth for the mail steamships. The Empresses have never been compelled to move about from one berth to another, or to be delayed awaiting a berth. The Guelph agreement is clearly discriminatory, for the simple reason that it carries traffic past what St. Thomas Shaugnessy has declared to be its natural port. If the crime against St. John is condoned by the government this winter, what further blow may we expect next winter, for the benefit of the C. P. R. and the city represented by Mr. Borden?

If the citizens of St. John do not bestir themselves at once they will certainly deserve whatever blows the smouldering rival ports and designing corporations may hereafter inflict.

Where are the successors to the men who had faith to declare that St. John would be the "Liverpool of America," and made great sacrifices to make their dream come true? Are there no legitimate successors to the men who compelled Mr. Hazen and Mr. Chesley in a former crisis to place their resignations in the hands of the government as a protest against injustice to St. John?

What St. John needs at this moment is leadership. It should look for that leadership to its representative in the government. Since he has made no sign it should be found in the city council or board of trade. As yet there is no evidence that either of these bodies will rise to the occasion. What is to be done? Who is to be the leader in this almost forlorn hope to prevent the spoliation of St. John?

Tribute to Rev. T. J. Deinstadt

Gibson, N. B., Oct. 24, 1913.

Editor Times: Sir,—How much better it is to praise the living than to praise the dead, how much better to give flowers to the sick than to send them to the funeral. Here is the Rev. T. J. Deinstadt. Greetings, brother, and congratulations upon your preaching for so many years; a glorious record, and more so because in your ministry you elevated the evangelistic spirit. There is where your great power lay. Your success with thousands of sinners who first heard the voice of God speaking to them through your ministry lay in the fact that "now is the accepted time." Long may you live, to be a bright leading star to those who are living on the plane of perfect love. For myself, I can say truly, of the many ministers I have heard preach in the last forty-two years, none could so fill the church as Rev. Mr. Deinstadt. When he appeared in the pulpit I would lose all sense of natural things and see only the heavenly. That he may preach many more years is the sincere wish of yours truly, ALBERT TURNER HOWARD.

TWICE PROVEN CURE FOR NERVES

Irritable, Hysterical, Sleepless, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restores Health.

There is a message in this letter for thousands of women who are suffering from broken-down nervous systems. Sleepless nights, much irritability over little things, spells of dizziness and nervous sick headaches are among the symptoms.

You may not realize the nature of your ailment until nervous prostration comes upon you. But, in whatever stage you find yourself, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is ready to help you.

Mrs. W. J. May, 88 Annette street, Toronto, writes: "Some years ago I suffered from nervous trouble, and took Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which completely cured me. About six months ago I received a shock which again shattered my nervous system to such an extent that I was irritable and hysterical, and could not sleep nights. I began to use the Nerve Food again and was not long before I was cured. Improvement was apparent from the first box, and now I am entirely well."

The Bad Roads

Chatham Commercial.—Customers who come into Chatham from the country report the roads to be in bad shape, and worse than that is the neglect of the smaller bridges and culverts. The White bridge in Centre Napan is in especially bad shape, while all along the roads the bridges seem to be breaking down.

APPEALS TO RICH WOMEN The Amusing Letters Which Are Often Received. A correspondent sends us these juicy bits from the correspondence of one of our wealthiest and most charitable ladies: "You are far above me in a social and monetary way, but I try to be for you. I would like to go visiting and would like some close (clothes) or a hat. One that comes over the face is more becoming to me."

Others say: "I have a moral character and so think I am very bright. I am blessed with many friends who will testify to my ladyship."

For a long time I have wanted to feel the pleasure of being even with the world, and when I saw your picture in the paper, your eyes seemed to look into mine and say, 'I will help you if you will ask me.'

"I have long been looking for a person to whom I could make my wants known. Little I ask—some stationery, a good timepiece, one pair of spectacles (good, strong lenses) or the exchange of a railway pass for a good parcel!"

"I have sometimes wished that God would give me some money to start me in the chicken business. Perhaps he would start me in the business to sell the pure food of horse-radish."

"I am a bachelor maid of 62 and have to look out for myself, as I have neither pa nor ma. Think over this letter, and don't disappoint me. Your loving friend."

These letters are plainly from ignorant people, and probably somewhat weak-minded. In fact, it is almost an infallible sign of weak-mindedness to send any sort of an appeal for personal help to the very rich. Kate Upson Clarke, in Leslie's Weekly.

PACKING APPLES AND PEARS. The price received for an article depends much on the manner in which it is presented for sale. This has become especially true in regard to food products whether offered in the natural or manufactured state. Fruit growers have recognized this change in public taste and have, during recent years, greatly improved their methods of putting up fresh products. Reputable apple growers no longer think of marketing their products in second hand barrels or boxes, or those that are soiled or clumsily made. It is regarded important not only that the packages suggest contents of fine quality, but that when opened the fruit shall present an undamaged and otherwise attractive appearance.

The packing of fruit in barrels and boxes involves a few general principles, easily mastered in the case of barrel packing but more difficult when box packing is concerned. In the opinion of Alex. McNeil, chief of the fruit division at Ottawa, it is not too much to expect that a season's practice will make a fair box packer, working on right principles. To teach just how the packing of apples and pears in barrels and boxes should be done Mr. McNeil has prepared an illustrated pamphlet on the subject which is designated Bulletin No. 34 of the dairy and cold storage commissioner's series. In his letter of transmission, J. A. Rudwick, the dairy and cold storage commissioner, points out that this work contains a large amount of new material setting forth the more recent developments in fruit packing. The book constitutes an exhaustive treatise of sixty-seven pages, showing many helpful illustrations. It is published for

MATTY'S BIG LEAGUE GOSSIP

BY CHRISTY MATHEWSON THE GIANTS' STAR PITCHER

In the theatre for me to breathe. I'd never catch my wind. And when I got through I would be sure that the audience would incline to the belief that the air I breathed in the theatre could be put to better use...

"I believe golf is a good game for ball players. McGraw objected to it once this last season when the Phillies were pressing the Giants pretty hard. It was not because he had anything personal against the game, but because he thought it used up too much of a man's energy in the middle of the summer to get out and play eighteen or thirty-six holes of golf in the morning and then go in and work a hard ball game in the afternoon...

On the ball field I am never nervous, but the first and only time I went on the vaudeville stage my mouth was so dry that I drank a gallon of water before the act. I would not have been able to successfully undergo the umpire's test for nerves...

There has been a good deal in the newspapers recently about "Larry" McLean being so because he received only $800 as his share of the Giant's world series purse. I did not think that this was a fair deal to the big catcher, and I was strongly in favor of giving him $1,000. He begged as good as any man who got into the series for the Giants and was largely responsible for our only victory, because it was his hit in the seventh inning that started the run, and it was his steady work at the plate on an extremely close play that cut Strunk off with what would have been a grand slam in the ninth inning...

My father will soon be coming out. That means an awfully big expense. Now she and her mother run about. And spend my money with joy intense. But, it's pleasant to wonder what I'll draw in the way of a titled son-in-law. Away to his school I have shipped my trunk. His upkeep cost is frightfully dear. And he seems to think that he goes for fun—fun—small heed to his books, I fear. I do not know what he wants to be. But my glad he's not here bothering me. I've made his garments from week to week. New hats, new boots, new gloves, new furs, new wraps—these things cause a frightful leak. Of money by which to make them here. Thank goodness! The summer at last is gone. And women must put some garments on!

St. John Boys Won. The St. John High School football team won from the Fredericton High School aggregation on the Marathon grounds Saturday afternoon, 9 to 0.

Princeton Beat Yale. Princeton, N. J., Oct. 25—Princeton's eight-oared crew defeated Yale this afternoon over a one and five-eighths mile course on Lake Carnegie, by a scant two lengths. The time for the Princeton boat was 9 minutes 30 1/2 seconds. That of the Yale eight was 9 minutes 42 1/2 seconds.

Kilbane Can't Make 122 Pounds. Johnny Kilbane, who won the featherweight title from Abe Attell, and longer can make the American limit, 122 lbs. In fact, it is doubtful whether he could reduce below 126 and be strong. Kilbane probably will enter the lightweight division during the winter.

New York Gossip. Before Packey McFarland boarded a train in New York for Chicago late on Wednesday night he had a few interesting things to say about his weight when he defeated Tommy Murphy in the Garden recently. Packey seemed to be annoyed by the assertion that he carried not less than 150 pounds. "Brie at once," "The conditions of the match called for 127 pounds at three o'clock last Friday afternoon," said McFarland, "Murphy and I used the same scales at that hour. Murphy's manager, Jim Buckley, was present and we stripped before we weighed. If I had been an ounce over weight Buckley would have collected my $250 forfeit. As a matter of fact I just tipped the beam. Weighing again a half-hour before entering the ring, in accordance with the commission's rule, Murphy and I mounted the same scales. Murphy wore shoes that weighed 18 lbs. He weighed 188 lbs. He probably weighed 186. Buckley, Murphy and the state's inspector saw me weigh 140 pounds in an ounce. Would they have remained silent if I had been heavier? I make these statements in justice to myself and friends. That is all. I do not know when I will box again. Gibbons wants to make 145 at 8 o'clock for me, which is out of the question. He would outweigh me by eight or ten pounds under those conditions. If he will do 145 ringside I will have to concede five pounds, which will be a pretty big weight. I have left the matter to Gibbons, who will see Gibbons' manager next week. I still want to box Ritchie, Welsh or Crook Buckley, weighing in at three o'clock. Perhaps after the Ritchie-Cross bout. I will hear some good news. Don't bank too much on Ritchie to beat Cross. Ritchie isn't much of a puncher, and Cross, who is a slugger, may surprise him. I think that it will be about the toughest battle Ritchie has ever experienced." Cross said through his manager that he had received vaudeville offers amounting to $50,000 for the next year provided he could stop Ritchie in the Garden next Wednesday night. "If I knock him out I'll be the first to win the lightweight championship," said Leaches earnestly. "You can bet I will put on the fight of my life, too."

BASEBALL

Walsh for Highlanders. New York, Oct. 26—According to semi-official announcement from Philadelphia, James C. Walsh, at present a member of Connie Mack's World Champion Athletics, will wear a New York American League club uniform next season. It is reported that after some time that Manager Chance of the Yankees was trying to get a high class outfielder from the Athletics before the opening of the 1914 season. The choice appeared to be between Strunk and Walsh. No official statement for either club is expected until after the annual meeting of the American League in New York.

Philips Must Win, Baker Says. Philadelphia, Oct. 26—The Athletics have obtained such a hold on the Philadelphia populace that nothing short of a pennant winner will insure the Phillies a lucrative patronage now, according to William F. Baker, new president of the local National League. "We can't promise to win the pennant," said Baker, "but we expect to. The Athletics have set such a high local baseball standard that we will have to 'hump' ourselves next year. There are one or two spots in our team that will have to be strengthened to make it a winner, and they will be attended to."

White Sox 4, Giants 3. At St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 25—Chicago White Sox defeated New York Giants 4 to 3. Batteries—Levens and Schall; Mathewson and Meyers.

Going to United States. New York, Oct. 27—Louis Teller, one of the best professional golfers in France, who made a good showing in the recent national championship in the United States, will become a resident of this country next spring. He has accepted a position as a salaried golfer at the Canoe Brook Country Club in place of Orrin Terry, resigned.

GOVERNMENT WORKS

Contractors Nearing Completion of Operations on Several Contracts—Tenders For Others

During the season which is drawing to a close the federal department of public works, under the direction of Fred G. Goodspeed, resident engineer, has undertaken a considerable amount of much needed work along the southern coast of New Brunswick. Contracts for five wharves and breakwaters were let and the work is now nearing completion. Next year's plans are now being considered and already one contract has been awarded and tenders have been called for three other jobs.

The work done this year includes the construction of a breakwater extension, 100 feet in length, running out to twenty-six feet of water at low tide, at North Head, Grand Manan. The existing wharf was about 400 feet long and the new work will be completed in about a month.

At Fair Haven, Deer Island, Charlotte County, a pier head extension is being erected on a local government wharf. This was commenced only about a fortnight ago, but will be finished this fall. C. A. Huntley is the contractor for both these undertakings.

The breakwater at Lorneville, the end of which had been carried away, has been rebuilt and an extension added, giving an additional length of 125 feet. The work is being done by Contractor John Burns, and will be finished in about two weeks.

At St. Martins, Captain Robert Carson is building for the government a crib-work wharf having a face length of 290 feet with sand and gravel filling and will be completed next month.

A wharf at Albert with cribwork pier-head 40 by 60 feet and stone and gravel approach is being built by Contractor William F. Wilson, and is nearing completion.

The first three jobs were undertaken for the benefit of the fishermen, and the latter two for general shipping and trade.

A contract has been awarded for the extension of the breakwater at Alma and tenders have been called for the construction of breakwater wharves at Little Dipper Harbor, Welsh's Cove in Mace's Bay and Chocolate Cove, Deer Island.

F. CARTER TITUS AND MISS GODFREY WED

An interesting nuptial event was solemnized this morning in Trinity church by the rector, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, when he joined in marriage F. Carter Titus and Miss Edna Godfrey, daughter of E. V. Godfrey, King street east. They are both of this city and have many friends who wish them all possible happiness. They were unattended. The ceremony was witnessed by a gathering of their friends. Miss Godfrey was prettily attired in a traveling suit of brown, wearing a maroon scarf, and a very becoming French hat. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley. J. S. Ford presided at the organ.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Titus left on an automobile trip through the province. On their return they will reside at 197 King street east. They were the recipients of many valuable remembrances of a costly and useful nature.

The bride has been a member of the office staff of Hall & Fairweather for several years, while the groom is one of the traveling staff of the Imperial Tobacco Co., Ltd.

TWO MISSIONS ENDED; TWO MORE BEGUN

With impressive ceremony, the missions which have been conducted during the last two weeks in Holy Trinity and St. John the Baptist churches, were brought to a close on Sunday evening. This morning in each of the two churches a high mass of requiem was celebrated for the repose of the souls of the dead of the parish.

In each church, as was the case in the Cathedral, the mission proved a great success and the pastors are greatly pleased with the results. In Holy Trinity Rev. Fathers Walsh and Scully, and in St. John the Baptist church, Rev. Fathers Hogan and Jackman conducted the mission. The former on Sunday also opened a mission in the Church of the Assumption, Charlottetown, and Fathers Hogan and Jackman in Fairville.

SAY STOCKS WENT IN BAD WAY FOR CLERK IN BANK

More About The Macintyre Case Comes To Light

SAID TO HAVE OWED $1,200

Story is He Had Speculated In Two Which Went Down—A Toronto Paper's Report in Connection With the Arrest

The reason why William Macintyre, former accountant in the Bank of Nova Scotia here, took from the treasury $10,000 before leaving for the Chicago branch to which he had been transferred is said to have been disclosed by the detectives at work on the case.

The story is that Macintyre had been dabbling in the stock market and that a close scrutiny of his operations showed that he had made one or two very bad guesses; that he had bought C.P.R. before the stock had reached the bottom on its recent decline and that he had also invested in another stock, which disappointed investors by dropping from about seventy to about eighteen or nineteen.

As a result of his operations it is said that Macintyre was in debt about $1,200 when he was ordered to Chicago. He was not in a position to pay this amount.

Immediate ruin faced him if the facts were disclosed and it is believed that he chose the use of the bank funds to make good his liabilities as the lesser of two evils, possibly hoping to be able to make up the amount and return it in some way before the amount was missed. It would at least postpone his trouble, although making him liable for much more serious results. It is said that he had about $9,000 with him when arrested.

Detective Killen left St. John on Saturday evening with a warrant for Macintyre and will bring him back to St. John to face trial.

A Toronto Report

The Toronto Mail and Empire has the following account of his arrest in that city:

After being in Toronto at the King Edward Hotel since last Tuesday, having been brought here under the surveillance of Pinkerton detectives, William Macintyre was arrested yesterday by Detective Miller, charged with the theft of $10,000 from the Bank of Nova Scotia at St. John, New Brunswick. The theft was committed on September 8, and immediately private detectives have been following the movements of the accused.

Macintyre was accountant in the bank, and was transferred from the St. John branch to Chicago. He had obtained a set of keys from the assistant manager, and got a duplicate set made. The set he used one of these keys to gain possession of one of the vaults, and took $10,000 from it.

Some time before the theft was discovered, however, private detectives were put on Macintyre's trail.

After some shadowing in Chicago it was found that the man was living at a rate in excess of his salary, and other things pointing to him as the robber were also discovered. The trouble of bank officials, however, and following the advice of the Pinkerton man a ruse which worked to perfection was used.

Word was sent to Macintyre that he was wanted in Toronto for some relief work, and he unsuspectingly came across the line, unconsciously watched by two detectives. Before that, however, he had sent a draft for $5,000 to Montreal, but the police have the man under surveillance.

Macintyre was not told why he was wanted here on his arrival, but the detectives waited until they gleaned the information they needed, and last night placed him under arrest. He admits the theft, and another arrest will be made soon. About $9,000 of the stolen money, including the draft has been recovered.
