Queensland Passes Bill for Bible Reading in Schools—Talk of Direct Resting Service

Melbourne, Aust., Nov. 17.—The Australian labor party is deeply interested in the forthcoming imperial conference, Premier Fisher will represent the commonwealth.

Hon. Mr. Fisher, minister of customs, introduced in the federal parliament yesterday, a tariff schedule rectifying anomalies which have been found inconvenient by the departmental officers, but practically leaving untouched the general revision of the tariff.

The new duties under fifty items including protectionism increases on robes, several classes of paper bags, paper bags, boxes, and a dozen of other minor articles of similar nature.

NOVEMBER 28 IS NOW SAID TO BE DISSOLUTION DAY

British Government Reported Planning to Pass Budget Before Appeal

Excitement at Conference of Conservative Associations is Caused by Unionist's Attack Upon Irish Leader—Earl Crewe and Lord Lansdowne Heard on Veto Question

London, Nov. 17.—Apparently inspired statement issued today fixes Nov. 28 as the date for the dissolution of parliament. The government, it is asserted, desires to pass the budget before appealing to the country, the debate the financial measure proceeding in the house of commons while the lords are discussing the veto bill.

At the "Irish Dictator," will figure largely in the Unionist campaign which is being conducted by the annual conference of conservative associations at Nottingham this morning, when Henry Chaplin, unionist member of parliament for Wiltshire and former president of the legal government board, in an opening speech denounced the government, which he said was handing over the rule of the country to the "sworn enemy of England, who with the gold of foreign millionaires aspires to dictate our destinies."

Lord Lansdowne said this was reducing the thing to its simplest terms. He claimed because the conference failed it was no reason that parliament should be deprived of the opportunity of dealing with these tremendous problems.

Earl Crewe wished an early date for the second reading of the veto bill but Lord Lansdowne replied: "If no suggestions for the improvement of the bill will be accepted perhaps no great advantage will accrue from its discussion." He said he would confer with his friends on the matter.

TOLSTOI AIVE; SOME HOPE OF HIS RECOVERY

Aged Russian Author Gets Angry When He Finds Son Has Invaded Retreat

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The reports of the death of Count Tolstoi are incorrect, the correspondent of the Associated Press has direct and definite assurances this morning that the count is still living.

Reports from Count Tolstoi's bedside were that he had rallied slightly but that his condition was still extremely critical.

The aged author passed a restless night at the home of the station master at Astapova. Countess Tolstoi has not been admitted to the sick chamber and even the fact of her arrival has been kept from him.

When his son entered the room, he count was plainly angry and asked: "Why have you come? How did you know I was here?"

Ill as he is, the novelist continues conscious. His physicians have humored him by allowing him to read the newspapers and also to look over his latest and favorite book Hadji Murat. He has been permitted even to dictate to his daughter, Alexandra, a part of a new article.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA OPENED HIS AFTERNOON

Great Crowd Gathered to Await Arrival of Earl Grey to Open House

Day Cold and Bright—Long and Stirring Session Expected in View of Approaching Elections—Matters of Importance in the Speech from the Throne

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 17.—(Special)—With all accustomed pomp and ceremony, Canada's parliament was opened at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The day was cold and bright and a great crowd gathered about the parliament buildings, listening to the band, admiring the guard of honor, and waiting for Earl Grey, who came promptly at 3 o'clock, repairing to the senate chamber, sent for the members of the house of commons and declared the third session of the eleventh parliament of Canada opened with the speech from the throne.

The speech from the throne, which reflects the government's position, and outlines its programme, referred to the death of King Edward and the accession of King George to the throne of Britain; to the prevalent prosperity of Canada; the growth of commerce and the good crops in Canada east and west.

It also referred to the fact that Earl Grey has been accorded an extra term as governor-general. It is noted that the arrival of the cruise ship "Albatross" marks the beginning of the Canadian navy.

New Glasgow M. P.'s Address at Peace Banquet in New York

NATIONS AS FRIENDS A. C. Bell, at Canadian Club Banquet, Makes Eloquent Review of Historical Events and Pleas for Continuance of Friendship

At the Canadian club banquet in New York on Tuesday evening, before referred to in the Times, one of the speakers was A. C. Bell, M. P., of New Glasgow, N. S.

Part of his eloquent address follows:— It is a great pleasure to enjoy the privilege of being the guest of the Canadian club, and of meeting so many Canadians who have prospered in the new home.

As Canadians in a foreign land we like to meet those who are linked by a common birthright, and we enjoy on these occasions a pleasure in seeing and hearing some who are newly come from Canada, from home, from its sea shores and its headlands, its plains and forests.

It is a great pleasure to enjoy the privilege of being the guest of the Canadian club, and of meeting so many Canadians who have prospered in the new home.

"MRS WIGGS" TREATED UNGEREMONIOUSLY BY TAXI STRIKERS

Noted Writer of Stories Ejected From Taxicab Despite Protest of Infirmities

New York, Nov. 17.—(Special)—New York's striking taxi-drivers are no respecters of persons. Kate Douglas Wiggin, author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," and other stories, ran afoul of them the other night in her pilgrimages about the city.

The machine had proceeded but a short distance before it was stopped by a formidable array of strikers, who compelled her to alight in the mud and take a trolley. Her protest that her infirmities made the evacuation of the car a great hardship had no weight with the men, who dumped her into the street with little ceremony.

JURY DECLARES BRUCE McDUGGALL'S DEATH ACCIDENTAL

Fell Down Hotel Steps—He and Another Beaten by Four Men

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 17.—Inquest into the death of Bruce McDougall, editor of "Vindictor," proceeding this morning. The evidence so far taken indicates that death was purely accidental. He was at the Windsor Hotel yesterday afternoon, and about 5 o'clock, enquired the way to the laundry and was directed to the basement.

Leading to the basement, there is a very narrow dimly lighted flight of steps, at the bottom of which there is a concrete door. McDougall started to go down the steps when his foot caught on the fourth step, and he fell to the concrete floor.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

GERMANY IN 1883
By Andrew D. White

From an address on the message of the 19th to the 29th century, before the class of 1883, Yale college, New Haven, June 26, 1883.

TAKE next Germany. The truth that the life of nations is strengthened and lengthened by variety in the elements of civilization has here perhaps its strongest recent confirmation. For generations the element of princely authority had developed society in defiance of the simplest laws of politics. Religious life-political life, literature-art, seemed lost, but during the last years of the last century, and all the years of this, thus far, have been developing in Germany other great elements, and chief among these a great thinking class centering in the universities, a new power, steady and vast.

Then, too, militarism, evolved as it was out of the struggle with the first Napoleon, though indeed at fearful cost, has given some noble ideals and trained men in some virtues. Commercial enterprise has brought into being a new class which can modify the prejudices of a territorial aristocracy. Literature, philosophy, art, science, each has become a recognized power making itself felt in the sum of things. Kant holds in check today a vast mob of anti-social forces; Lessing and Gutzkow stand as barriers against bigotry; Schiller against political despotism; Arndt, and a host of others, against disunion; Goethe against Philistinism; a poem of Freiligrath or a discourse of Fichte is as much a power as the army of a German prince; a legion of scientific men stand ready to whither blatant unreason.

Governmental authority, popular initiative, sturdy legality, industrialism, thoughtful socialism, all have their strong representatives. All these elements work together with much din, yet not to produce chaos, but to educe a higher order from chaos. Out of these diverse elements, thus stimulating and modifying each other, comes the new Germany, greater, stronger, more lasting than the old.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

Harry Koller, who played here in "The Christian," and who later acted as leading support to Margaret Anglin in her presentation of "The Great Name" by Henry W. Savage.

The Edith Warren Company will conclude their engagement on Saturday in the local Opera House. The house will be dark next week, and from that time until Christmas the only engagements will be those of the King's Daughters in a concert, and T. H. Bird's amateur production of "The Year of Salvation," an excellent company is being organized by W. S. Harkins for Christmas and the holiday season.

Robert Mantel opened a two weeks' engagement in Chicago on Monday night last, and scored handsomely in repertory presentations of Shakespeare's productions, and highly pleased large audiences.

Osga Netherole and a toy back and tan hair the star of the evening, S. S. Lantania, which arrived this week at New York. Miss Netherole announced that she had a new play which she refused to discuss; even the name of the play is a secret yet.

Those who remember Al Stewart, who played leads with Harkins here for several years, and was noted for his interpretation of the character, Napoleon, in "The Year of Salvation," will be surprised to learn of his whereabouts, seriously ill in Rochester, Mass.

Mr. Stuart who is the husband of Jessie Bonstelle, played leads with the Harkins-Bonstelle Co. at the York Theatre, and later at the Opera House. He appeared as Napoleon in "The Year of Salvation," and also played in "La Tosca," and "A Lady of Quality." For information in reference to this matter the Times is indebted to K. C. Tapley.

Speaking of a matter of interest to many in this city, it is the fact that the play "The Year of Salvation" is being presented in the sensational story published the other day that Margaret Anglin was to undergo a serious operation, and that she was in danger of losing her voice permanently. Miss Anglin never has been in any such danger, and the "serious operation" is the very simple one of cutting the tonsils—a process of so little importance that it is usually performed on children without the use of anesthetics. Nor shall we miss Miss Anglin's highly prized services to the stage at Christmas time under the management of Lieber and Company in a new play called "The Backsliders."

Miss Anglin has been playing continuously for six weeks, and is tired. A month ago she told her manager, George T. Terry, that when the company should reach Chicago she would like to have four weeks to herself for purposes of rest. Her tonsils had been bothering her, and the actress thought she would take advantage of the opportunity to remedy the defect for all time.

Among the important engagements made by Henry B. Harris for "The Scare-Crow" Peck, Mackay's tragedy of the Hudson, in which Edmund Egan will star, is Beatrice Irwin. Miss Irwin is a well-known English leading woman. She made her debut on the stage in London in a company supporting Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree in "The Last of the Danes."

The following from the New York Review shows the feeling in the states on the matter of Edward Terry's Canadian tour, in which he will play in St. John about a proceeding so unusual as to attract attention. Mr. Terry will make his landing at Halifax and play straight across the Canadian country to Vancouver and back. This will occupy a period of fifteen weeks, and will require a frequent change of bill. Mr. Terry is highly esteemed in England, where he has been before the public for any such year, so that the success of his journey through the upper section of the continent is reasonably secure. But it looks odd when a noted English speaking actor takes up an American tour avoiding the biggest part of America.

Donald Meek, who has many admirers in this city, is playing this week in Rex Beach's comedy, "Going Home," in the Castle Square Stock Company. Mr. Meek scored a hit in the leading role, that of Wallingford Speed, a would-be Yale athlete.

Miss Mary Gordon, the operatic singer, left her performance given by Miss Fritz Scheff and her company, in the Lyric Theatre, Chicago this week, because she was requested to remove her hat. "I was checked to find the management capable of rudeness," said Miss Gordon. "But I account on the whole came to me as or seven times in the first act requesting me to remove my hat. That bored me. I am accustomed to wear just what I please. I advised about the offending hat, she said, 'It is fair in size; but then I was sitting at the back of the box.'"

Miss Edith Nordica, after her great success at the Paris opera as Isolda, left Clerbourg for New York this week, by the steamship George Washington, of the North German Lloyd line. She had flattering offers from both England and Germany to sing, but her engagements in

FRUIT-A-TIVES FOR THE SKIN

Infallible for Eczema—Removes Pimples, Blotches and Redness.

Grand Ligne, Que., Jan. 2nd, 1910.
My wife was troubled for three years with Eczema on the hands, which made her hands almost useless. The doctor gave her several ointments to use, some of which had any effect. He also advised her to wear rubber gloves, she wore out three pairs.

I persuaded her, at last resort, to try "Fruit-A-tives." The effect was marvelous. Her hands are now used. We both are "Fruit-A-tives" now.

Eczema, Rash, Pimples, Itching, Burning Skin, are always caused by impure blood, due to chronic Constipation, Indigestion or Nervous Trouble.

"Fruit-A-tives" is a positive cure for all such troubles. The salts of Lacta, especially, owe their force, smooth complexion, clearing, cleansing, purifying properties of these wonderful fruit-juice tablets.

Things nowadays have to be better done, he says; actors have to be better equipped; the supporting company must be better; every attention is given to detail, and infinite pains are taken. "And so," he says, "while we have not now a group of exceptionally gifted actors, as was the case when I was a young man (but they will come again), the general average is far higher. Acting and the drama have risen with the other arts out of a hopeless time into a better."

Miss Edna Phillips took the place of Miss May De Souza in "The Communion" at the Criterion Theatre, New York, on Monday. By a strange coincidence Miss De Souza left musical work to go into comedy and is now going back, while Miss Phillips left the field of legitimate drama to go into musical comedy and now will return to the work in which she first made a success.

Anna Held, following Sarah Bernhardt's example, has signed a contract with the English music hall and will leave next week for London, where she will sing both in French and English. "This engagement at the Criterion Theatre, New York, on Monday, was a musical work to go into comedy and is now going back, while Miss Phillips left the field of legitimate drama to go into musical comedy and now will return to the work in which she first made a success."

Caught a Heavy Cold. It Left Him with a Hacking Cough.

Mr. J. H. Richards, 1832 Second Ave., East, Vancouver, B.C., writes:—Allow me to write a few lines in praise of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Last fall I contracted a heavy cold which left me with a hacking cough, and every time I would get a little more cold this hacking cough would become a lung splitting one. It kept on getting worse and I kept on spending money buying different cough remedies until a friend asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I told him I would try anything I thought would cure me on the same day I bought two bottles. The first one was used and I began to get much easier, and by the time I had used a bottle and a half I had had a cough fit and I was able to get on with my work. I am keeping the other half bottle in case it should come again but I am quite sure I have never had a cough since I recommended Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to my wife. It is a cough or throat irritation of any kind.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PARLIAMENT

The government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier meets parliament today with a record of progress and achievement which cannot but be satisfactory to the whole country. During the period since the last session many matters of national and imperial importance have been advanced a stage, and everywhere outside of the province of Quebec the condition of affairs is excellent. In that province a few hare-brained youths, encouraged by the Conservatives, have started an agitation which if successful would set Quebec against the rest of Canada, and result in serious trouble in the future. Such an agitation, however, cannot succeed for any length of time. The government is able to report that the finances of the country are in a most satisfactory condition. Progress has been made in securing better trade relations with other countries. The new naval policy has been fairly inaugurated. Relations between Canada and the United States are more cordial, and some vexing disputes have been settled. Great public works have been carried on. There has been a large immigration of people from the west, and there are evidences of growth, and of the wisdom of the general policy of the government. The Conservatives, encouraged by the Bourassa incident, and nerved by the approach of the federal elections, try to make no doubt put forth great efforts to make capital against the government, but they have no policy, and the country is weary of the mud-throwing tactics of the party.

ATORY HUMORIST

The St. John Standard has engaged a budding humorist as its Ottawa correspondent. Yesterday he told of the "drastic reorganization" of the Conservative party. Today he says:—"When telegraphic communication reached Ottawa today (Wednesday) from St. John conveying the information contained in the Standard that a complete reorganization of the Conservative party had been effected, the most intense surprise was expressed. While there was surprise generally, there was the greatest consternation in governmental circles. This reorganization is looked upon as the last vital blow to the administration. The government is fighting for its life handicapped by the fact that it is going the way of all human flesh. It has become decrepit. Old age is upon it. It is worn to a shadow."

It will be noted that Ottawa was in ignorance of the momentous changes made until the news arrived from St. John, although Mr. Borden himself has been in Ottawa for some time. Are we to understand that the Standard performed the great feat of party reorganization, and then sent word to Mr. Borden? This cannot be, since neither Mr. Crockett nor Dr. Daniel is named for promotion. But without further attempt to solve the mystery of the origin of the reorganization we may go on to consider the references of this brilliant correspondent to the government. He informs us that it is fighting for its life, and that it is old, decrepit, and worn to a shadow. The assumption is, of course, that it will quickly succumb to the attack of the young young bloods who have thrust aside the aged and decrepit leaders of the Conservative party and are now reigning in their stead. Major Sam Sharpe is now added to the list of champions. Major Sam has been but a couple of years in the house, but has already put Col. Sam, on the retired list. The Quebec whip is not yet named, but Mr. Bourassa is expected to look after Quebec, in the interest of the Borden imperialists.

So far as may be discovered outside of the columns of the Standard and some other reckless journals, the government is not at all alarmed by all this pother in the Conservative party. It has all arisen from the fact that Mr. Bourassa carried one Quebec constituency on an anti-British platform. The Borden imperialists rejoice thereat, and join in the onslaught upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who stands for Canadian unity and imperial responsibility. Parliament is now in session, and the Conservatives will have an opportunity to reveal their strength and tell the people what they have to offer in place of the progress and prosperity that have blessed Canada under Liberal rule.

MCBRIDE AND THE NAVY

"Perhaps we do not much mis-state the case when we say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier led the people of Canada as far as they could be safely taken at this juncture." The above statement in reference to Canada's naval policy appears in the Victoria Colonist (Conservative), and is a rebuke to Mr. Borden and every other Conservative who assails Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the ground that he has not done his duty in that regard. When the Rainbow arrived at Esquimaux she was welcomed by a party which included the Conservative premier of British Columbia, who said:—"As one connected with the local government of British Columbia, I am fortunate indeed to be with many of my fellow townsmen taking some part in this formal ceremony. I am sure that we will all join most heartily in what Hon. Mr. Templeman has said and the Lieutenant-Governor has endorsed as to the great historic importance of this event in the national growth, and in the development of Canada. We realize the undertaking of the Canadian government and people for a good effective fighting force to take its place in the defence of the Empire, a place such as our position and wealth and numbers will warrant."

In its account of the reception of the Rainbow the Colonist said:—"History was made at Esquimaux yesterday. H. M. C. S. Rainbow came; and a new navy was born. Canada's blue ensign flies for the first time on the Dominion's own fighting ship in the Pacific—the ocean of the future where some of the world's greatest problems will have to be worked out. Esquimaux began its renaissance, the revival of its former glories. When the call of the Admiralty came to many outlying squadrons to come to their German naval yards look out to the North Sea in 1905 the North Pacific squadron of Great Britain dwindled away. Now Canada will restore the squadron, will build it, man it, and maintain it, and the Rainbow has come to be the training ship for the education of the men who will man the modern cruisers which are to be built according to the plans just authorized by the Admiralty. She is not a Dreadnought, this Rainbow—but she is suited in every particular for the service into which she is being placed. She is a fitting vessel to be the nucleus of the Pacific navy of Canada that is to be."

MR. BORDEN'S ATTITUDE

The Montreal Witness pointedly directs Mr. Borden's attention to the fact that by his silence he is contributing to an agitation that is bad for Canada and the empire, and that he is permitting his followers to play a very dangerous game in provinces outside of Quebec. We quote:—"There is something wretchedly mean about some of the Conservative opportunists on this naval question. The same men who, a year ago, were watching eagerly for signs of lack of loyalty on the part of the premier, and who, indeed, did subject every one of his utterances to false imputations on this head, are now prepared to join in and help an anti-naval cry in the other provinces. The farmers of Ontario, it is held, can be aroused against the expenditure, and instead of the attack of the Bourassa party helping Sir Wilfrid Laurier with those who stand by him under all the circumstances, it is to be made the means of a general adoption of Bourassism. The silence of Mr. Borden is certainly significant, and Mr. Bourassa announces that the campaign he and Mr. Monk have inaugurated is to be carried into Ontario. What will evolve from the several manoeuvrings, including that of Mr. Foster at Toronto, where he said that if Sir Wilfrid Laurier were in opposition he would be saying the same things as Mr. Bourassa? It will probably be some new patent kind of imperialism, similar to that which the protectionists adopted several years ago, when they argued that it was time for the Mother Country to be 'doing something' for Canada. The new imperialists will doubtless argue that Canada should be 'doing nothing' for the Mother Country. These two attitudes would be consistent, but they are not consistent with Mr. Borden's proposal when the naval bill was under discussion. If Mr. Borden was in earnest then, he should speak out now on the principle that Canada owed and owes a duty to the Mother Country in the matter of defence."

FRAUDS PERPETRATED ON NEW YORK BUYERS

Several Crooked Retailers Are Sentenced in Big City

New York, Nov. 17.—The crusade against short weight and misrepresentation of goods, of which the poor are the chief victims, has resulted in three more convictions. Tommaso Pasconti was fined $25 for selling coal in a "bushel" basket which contained less than half a bushel; H. A. Roy, a garage employee, was fined $25 for giving eight gallons of gasoline instead of ten; Abner Workman, a jewelry salesman, sold a bracelet marked 14 karat to Leonard Culler. Culler was suspicious, and took the bracelet to the United States Assay office, where he was told that it was only about nine karat. Workman was fined $100.

ABSOLUTELY CURES STOMACH TROUBLE AND INDIGESTION

Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia and Headache Relieved in Five Minutes With a Little Diapepsin

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or out-of-order stomach, is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin. If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach. People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, no rising gas on the stomach, or belching of unseasonable odors. All these symptoms, and besides, what you eat will no longer do you any harm. Your breath will no longer be sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin. Go to your druggist and get a 20-cent case of Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you will taste good because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel life is worth living.

DAY OF THE BRAVE CAMERON

At Quatre Bras, when the fight ran high, Stout Cameron stood with wakelike eyes, eager to leap as a mettlesome bound into the fray with a plunge and a bound; But Wellington, lord of the cool command, Held the reins with a steady hand. Saying, "Cameron, wait, you'll soon have enough. Give the Frenchmen a taste of your stuff. When the Cameron men are wanted."

Now hotter and hotter the battle grew. With tramp and rattle, and wild halloo, And the Frenchmen poured, like a fiery flood, Right on the ditch where Cameron stood. Then Wellington flashed from his steadfast stance, On his captain heave a lightning glance. Saying, "Cameron, now have at them, boy. Take care of the road to Chateaux Bras. Where the Cameron men are wanted."

Brave Cameron shot like a shaft from a bow Into the midst of the plunging foe. And with him the lads whom he loved, Like a terrible ally green. Sweeping the rocks in its foamy current; And he fell the first in the ferid fray. Where a deathful shot had shovied his way.

But his men pushed on where the work was rough. Giving the Frenchmen a taste of their stuff. Where the Cameron men were wanted. Brave Cameron, then, from the battle's coat, His foster-brother stoutly bore, Back to the village of Waterloo. And they laid him on the green sod, And he breathed his spirit there to God. But not till he heard the loud hurrah Of victory billowed from Chateaux Bras. Where the Cameron men were wanted.

By the road to Ghent they buried him. Then, This noble chief of the Cameron men, And not an eye was tearless seen That day beside the ally green. Wellington wept—the iron man! And from every eye in the Cameron clan The big round drop in bitterness fell, As, with the pipes he loved so well, His funeral wail they chanted.

And now he sleeps (for they bore him home, When the war was done, across the foam), Beneath the shadow of Nevis Ben. With his sires, the pride of the Cameron men. Three thousand Highlandmen stood round As they laid him to rest in his native ground; The Cameron brave, whose eye never quailed, Whose heart never sank, and whose hand never failed. Where a Cameron man was wanted. —John Stuart Blackie.

The attention of a hansom-cab driver was called to a purse lying on the mat of his cab as he "crawled" along Piccadilly. HIGH COST OF LIVING.

The price of mutton is vexatious— And spare-ribs is as bad; The price of steak is most ungracious And fairly drives me mad. It costs a ransom or a hostage To live, but here's the lad who still remains 2 cents for a stage And this restores my calm.

Read and Answer Today's Want Ads. THAT DAY OF BATTLE MAY NEVER DAWN (Continued from page 1.) Aroused by the flash of light shed upon the relations of the countries, the leading minds of both settled to the task of making provision for a system of arbitration in all disputes, because they all realized that war between these people would be a crime against humanity. The immediate object of the action of the citizens was a treaty between the two powers. In that way the question was virtually settled, and the presumption from that day became in favor of the use of arbitration to settle all disputes. We have managed in the case of the Alabama claims and in the case of the Alaska Litoral. We have disposed of questions affecting the national honor and pride as in the case of the Venezuela dispute. We have twice adopted our position in a commercial dispute of a century long standing in the arbitrations at Halifax and at the Hague. We have settled the fisheries dispute. And in the Behring Sea arbitration, a question involving most peculiar and new claims to a power of regulation far beyond territorial limits, they may have thought the conduct of these elements in which their interests were involved, have been received as final. The result has not been in all cases what we wished, but we have always been willing to give the proper importance to the imperial interests and considerations involved. It is unquestionably true that in some matters, Americans have thought the American demands heroic, and in others they have thought the British authorities of arrogant character; but there has been loyal acceptance of all findings of the arbitration courts. The Americans have been so satisfied. They have set aside the arrangements in 1783, 1842, and 1871, and the separate of the United States has declined to give effect to some of the treaties negotiated and set out by representatives of the two countries. We have left all arrangements stand unbroken and have refused none. In fact the British government with the people of the United States was a contingency not to be considered. Great Britain has for long time and in all parts of the globe looked into the face of a world which did not share her ideals, and possibly has made her to preserve the neutrality at least of the United States.

POLICE COURT HEARS OF SPIRITED SCENE IN STRAIT SHORE HOME

Mrs. Wellington Bacon Charged
Husband With Assault and Strokes Do Not Agree

Two contradictory stories were told by Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Bacon, of Strait Shore, in the police court this morning when the former was charged by his wife with assaulting her in their home on Tuesday night last. Mrs. Bacon said that because she had no fire going when her husband came home, he became angry and struck her on the back of the head, although she told him that the reason why she had no fire was that he had not supplied her with wood.

Bacon denied striking her, but admitted having pushed her away from him. He was aggravated at her "ragging him" and when his mother-in-law joined forces with her, it was more than he could stand. To make the ceremony more impressive, he said his spouse showed her skill with a broom and belabored him unmercifully over the back and shoulders. Judge Ritchie remained Bacon, who was defended by A. A. Wilson, K. C., until "the mother-in-law could be heard from." Charles Smith, a stalwart Englishman, did not take very kindly to being placed under arrest yesterday afternoon in Prince William street, and struck and kicked at Policeman Clarke, who was taking him to the lock-up in Water street. So forcible was his resistance that the services of Sergt. Baxter and two other men were called into play in order to land him in his cell. He was remanded this morning in the police court, where he claimed he remembered nothing more than that he had been drinking. A Russian, was remanded on a charge of drunkenness and on the same charge Newton Wilber was fined.

ROAD FOLLY UNDER
HAZEN GOVERNMENT
 (St. Andrew's Beacon).

There is but one verdict in connection with the out-of-town roads—they are simply awful. The folly of spending money in road-making in the fall is shown in connection with the road between Bayside and Waiver bridge. In the morning this road it is like driving through a playground. Near St. Stephen, the stretch of road in front of the slaughter house is even worse. At this point there is a dangerous hole in the culvert. Complaints with respect to the road conditions are not confined to any particular class, every one who has to use the roads is complaining.—(St. Andrew's Beacon).

GERMAIN STREET IN PROTEST

Sewer Material Must Go and There's Talk of an Injunction to Speed the Departure—A Decided Protest

A very decided protest is being made against the action of the city in filling up the space between the houses and the sidewalk and the sidewalk and curb in Germain street with material dug from the sewers.

From the mere standpoint of utility it is wrong, states Mr. Gould, to see that this material will not nourish grass and trees. From the more important standpoint of public health the action of the civic authorities is inexcusable. If there are any germs anywhere they are likely to be found in the sewers. Little children play along this street and should be protected. The Germain street improvement Association has protested without effect. The board of health does not appear to be interested. Engineer Murdoch says he has no soil of the sort wanted by Mr. Gould. The matter is apathetic. As a result, there is talk of an injunction.

Those who are interested in the grass and tree planting along the street, and who think that this sewer sand must be replaced by good earth before any growth can be secured. Everybody is against the ill-looking and ill-smelling mixture, along a newly paved street that should be a model.

ST. PETER'S Y.M.A.
Anniversary Celebration Last Evening Enjoyed By Gathering of 200

The rooms of the St. Peter's Y. M. A. in Douglas avenue, were last night the scene of a jolly gathering of more than 200 young men, on the occasion of the celebration of the twelfth anniversary of the north and association. Starting in life about twelve years ago, with a handful of enthusiastic and active young men, the Y. M. A. of St. Peter's has gradually increased in numbers, and prospered along various lines until about five or six years ago, it was found necessary to seek larger quarters, and with this end in view, the commodious and well furnished rooms in Douglas avenue were built.

The rooms are considered the best used by young men's Catholic societies in the city, being equipped with a splendid library, a finely furnished gymnasium, bowling alleys, and other attractive features. From this it will be seen that during its twelve years' existence the society has flourished, has increased in numbers, and has taken a leading place among the Catholic societies of the city, particularly in the athletic field. Most of the speakers at the function last evening gave "credit to our credit system," namely, the splendid work of the association, Rev. Joseph Borgmann, C. S. R., who has been the prime mover in the work of keeping the north end "up" to the front.

The president, Arthur P. Delaney, occupied the chair at last night's gathering, and made an interesting opening speech in which he dealt with the aims of the society, and welcomed the representatives from the fraternal bodies. Several musical selections were furnished by the Y. M. A. orchestra, which were very well received. The balance of the programme was given by the following:—M. T. Morris, Chip Olive, Harry McQuade, and Wm. P. Higgins, solos; L. A. Conlon, W. D. Ryan, and Stephen Hurley, readings; Joseph O'Brien, step dance; and selections by a quartette composed of Maurice Deighton, Colborne, Wm. Murphy, and John Howard.

Speeches of a congratulatory nature were given by the following representatives of the societies named: Jas. H. McHugh, A. O. H.; F. V. Conlon, P. M. A.; John O'Regan, L. L. & F.; and Wm. Magee, Y. M. S. of St. Joseph.

$3.98 MEN'S REEFERS $3.98

We have had a very successful run on our Men's Reefers this fall already, and find that we have but twenty-one coats left in stock; these are broken in size so they have been reduced to a price that will certainly move them out pretty lively. The coats we are offering at this figure are Grey and Black, in both Frieze and Beaver cloths, with heavy tweed linings and sold from $4.50 to $6.50. These coats are just the proper thing for the man who is exposed to the cold weather and does not care for a real long garment. Do not miss this chance to secure one of these reefers at almost half price.

Are You Ready For Winter?

If you think of changing your stove, or if your house was not warm enough last year you should give the stove question some consideration.

A new stove put up in your house now will give you satisfaction and save you trouble in the middle of winter, for if the old range or heater is cracked and the seams are all sprung, you will be troubled with gas, and you will be using more fuel than you need without getting satisfaction. We make Glenwood Ranges to suit all purposes. We make Cabinet Glenwood, Glenwood E. Modern Glenwood, Glenwood Cook, Glenwood Oak Heaters and Furnaces. All made in St. John. No better ranges made in Canada. Come and examine them for yourselves.
