TORONTO WOMAN HAD PREMONITION OF DEATH

Drowned Cook Of Schooner Van Stranbenzie Which Foundered Off Dunkirk, Deposited Savings Before Trip.

Toronto, Sept. 28.—At least two Torontonians are lying beneath the waters of Lake Erie, as a result of a collision which occurred off Dunkirk yesterday morning between the three masted schooner Van Stranbenzie and the passenger steamer City of Erie. They are Mrs. Madeline Connolly, cook of the schooner, who lived with her married son John, at 377 Parliament street, and James McCallum, mate, who for the past ten years had worked as engineer at the Grand Central Hotel, corner of Wellington and Simcoe streets. There may have been more from this city, too, as relatives of the crew of the Van Stranbenzie say that before.

WHITNEY ENTERS POLE POW WARRIOR

Millionaire Sportsman at St. Johns, Newfoundland, Declares His Belief in Story of Dr. Cook—Surprised at and Feels Keenly the Position in Which He is Placed.

St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 28.—Harry Whitney of New Haven believes that Dr. Frederick A. Cook found the Pole and that Commander Peary did the same. In expressing this belief today, Mr. Whitney said that he knows no reason for doubting Cook more than Peary. "Dr. Cook's story," he added "seems to me truthful and probable. Nothing else would explain his twelve months' absence."

Jeanie Arrives. The schooner Jeanie arrived here today with Mr. Whitney aboard, coming from the Greenland coast by way of Indian Harbor, Labrador. Mr. Whitney feels keenly the position in which he is placed. He went north, he said merely on a hunting trip and now finds himself in the storm centre of a Polar controversy. Dr. Cook left with him at Annotok several cases containing instruments and some other belongings, but so far as Mr. Whitney knew, no written records. There may have been records, however, packed with Dr. Cook's personal effects, but the explorer did not tell him especially that he was leaving written records in his possession. Dr. Cook's Story. Speaking of Dr. Cook's detailed account of his trip, to the Pole, Mr. Whitney said that the explorer showed him how the western drift of the ice had landed him in a region far remote from where he expected to go, and he was unable to get back. He could not speak with authority as to whether Dr. Cook and his two Eskimos could carry on their three sledges enough food for their journey to the Pole as he himself is a novice in Arctic travel. He declared he knew nothing of the controversy but the vaguest details. The first he learned of it was at Indian Harbor, when he received messengers from several American papers asking for a statement. These he answered briefly. Mr. Whitney denied that Commander Annotok had trouble in getting stores from Annotok to Etah. What Pearl really did was to transfer a few things and rebuild the house at Annotok. Boysvain Murphy's only reason for refusing to help Captain Bernier's Canadian expedition to get dogs and sledges at Etah was that they were short of dogs themselves. Mr. Whitney had trouble in getting dogs for his team all through the water and Murphy was looking out for Peary, so that he would have sufficient dogs for the commander's exploring trips around the country when he returned from the north.

20,000 IN THE BIG NEW YORK PARADE

Greatest Crowd Ever Gathered at Metropolis Witness Monster Parade of 20,000 Men and Fifty-Four Floats—Twenty-one Nations Participate in Celebration as Democratic as it is Historic.

New York, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Through streets ablaze with bunting and lined with the greatest crowd ever gathered in New York thoroughfares, a parade of 20,000 men and fifty-four floats passed today before the enraptured eyes of twenty-one nations participating in the Hudson-Fulton celebration. And in its passing, which occupied two hours' time, the epoch-making scenes of three centuries, representing in gigantic figures of wood, plaster, paint and tinsel were removed.

The Route. From 110th Street, along Central Park west, Fifty-Ninth Street and down Fifth Avenue to Washington Square, a distance of over five miles, it is estimated that more than two million persons gathered. As a parade it was as democratic as it was historic, as cosmopolitan as it was democratic. Mayor George B. McClellan and Herman Ridder, Vice-President of the Hudson-Fulton celebration commission, headed the line and covered the entire distance on foot. There was no military show, no distinguished personages in vehicles. All with the exception of the platoons of police mounted on their shiny coated horses, were afoot.

Distinguished Gathering. It was before a distinguished gathering seated in a court of honor on the grounds of the new public library at 42nd Street and Fifth Avenue that the paraders passed. Vice President James S. Sherman was flanked on either side by the admirals Le Port and Seymour of the French, and English squadrons respectively. Governor Hughes, Seth Low and the German Grand Admiral, von Koester, were seated nearby. Others in the official reviewing stands were Rear-Admiral Seaton Schroeder, of the Atlantic Fleet and his staff, Major General O. O. Howard and Supreme Court Justice Brewer. Tunnarney with a thousand lieutenant members in "Prince Alberts" and high hats, made a picturesque showing. Squads of school children, New York University, Columbia, City College and Rutgers's College students; members of Irish, Italian, French, Scotch, Swedish and other cosmopolitan societies followed and behind them came others and others, seemingly without end.

Democracy Evident. The democracy evident in the parade was reflected in the court of honor, where gold-braided admirals chatted with sub-lieutenants and midshipmen and foreign envoys, grown in the service of diplomacy, discussed politics with local aldermen and members of the Assembly. The naval officers of the various nations fraternized and listened to the one here and there who knew enough of American history to explain the floats. Every one wore holiday humor.

BANQUET TO PUGSLEY WAS TAME AFFAIR

At Much Advertised Gathering in Assembly Rooms Last Evening Speakers said Nothing New or Startling.

MANY PROMINENT LIBERALS ABSENT

The much advertised Pugsley banquet came off last evening according to schedule, and as a result of the assiduous work on the part of the committee during the last few days the attendance was fairly large and representative. Of the members of the Cabinet only Hon. Charles Murphy, MacKenzie King, Minister of Labor, were present in addition to the guest of the evening, though it was announced that Hon. Charles Marcell, Speaker of the House, and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Postmaster General, would attend. The subject of comment was the failure of Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. William Paterson to reach St. John in time for the banquet though they will attend a meeting of the West India Commission in St. John today. The absence of Hon. H. R. Emmerson was also noticeable.

THE SPEECHES.

The speeches could not be regarded otherwise than disappointing. Nothing new was announced, the old promises were repeated and much patriotic rhapsodizing was indulged in for the purpose of creating enthusiasm. Dr. Pugsley's effort had a noticeably depressing effect. He confined his utterances to general observations on the growth and prosperity of Canada and the importance of the problem of transportation and predictions as to the development of the port of St. John and the increase in the population of the Dominion. Hon. Charles Murphy made a very good impression but filled his speech with such campaign matter regarding the Liberal immigration policy the personality of Sir Wilfrid and his efforts for the unification of all races and creeds in Canada. Hon. Mr. King did not speak at great length and dealt chiefly with labor matters. Other speakers of the evening included Mr. John Henry, of Vancouver; H. J. Logan, ex-M. P., of Cumberland county, N. S.; Mr. A. B. Warburton, of Queens Co., P. E. I.; Mr. F. B. Carvell, M. P. for Carleton; Mr. O. M. Turgeon, M. P. for Gloucester; Senator Costigan; Mr. A. B. Copp, M. P. for Westmorland; Hon. F. J. METHODISTS TO ENTER THE POLITICAL ARENA

Special to The Standard. Toronto, Ont., Sept. 28.—A meeting of the special committee appointed by the Temperance and Moral Reform and the Lawmof's Mission Association of the Methodist church was held this morning for the purpose of devising means of making the governments sit up and take notice. The Methodist church has for years been preaching that men should take religion into politics and the church will now carry politics into religion. A scheme most comprehensive in its character has been decided upon and will be recommended to the executive. Under this the Methodist church will enter the political field as a factor and support only the man who will pledge themselves to further the interest of morality and temperance by parliamentary enactment. The meeting was fairly large, the official figures being 6,571. Tomorrow is citizens' day and a half holiday has been declared. It is expected that a record crowd will be in attendance.

Copp, M.P.P., Dr. Smith, Rhodias, McQueen, Sheldra, Dr. C. T. Purdy, H. W. Cole, Frank McCaffrey, P. R. Dearborn, J. J. McCaffrey, D. R. Moore, John McAvity, F. C. Boatley, D. L. Brown, W. Adams, J. E. Moore, Ald. Scully.

Decorations. The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Loops of greenery and pictures of prominent members of the Liberal party were hung on the walls. Behind the head table the word "Pugsley" was arranged in electric lights. The pillars in the room were covered with white rosettes and decorated with greenery from which white streamers were extended to the ceiling. The tables were decorated with red and white flowers and clusters of fruit and were lighted with numerous candles.

The catering was in charge of Messrs. Foster and Bond of the Duff Hotel.

The menu was as follows:—

- Oysters on the Half Shell. Queen Olives. Celery. Sliced Tomatoes. Mock Turtle, a la Queenelles. Fillet of Halibut, Hollandaise Sauce. Pommes de Terre. Creamed Mushrooms on Toast. Spanish Puffs, Vanilla Sauce. Roast Rib of Beef, Dish Gravy. Roast Young Turkey, Cranberry Sauce, Dressing. Green Peas. Potatoes a la Cream. String Beans. Roast Black Duck, Red Currant Jelly. English Plum Pudding, Hard and Cognac Sauces. Wine Jelly, Whipped Cream. Frozen Pudding. Oranges, Peaches, Bananas, Confectionery. Imperial Cheese. Cream Sodas, Cafe Nohr.

After the toast to the King had been duly honored, Mr. H. H. Keith read letters and telegrams of congratulatory nature from Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. J. P. Broder, Hon. G. P. Graham, Hon. Sidney Fisher, Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Hon. Frank Oliver, Sir Frederick Borden, Mr. Wm. Patterson, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, James Lowell, M. P., P. C. H. Hickman and Mr. M. McDade. Mayor Bullock in proposing the health of the Governor General of Canada said that Lord Grey's motto had been "The Empire for all and all for the Empire." The toast was coupled with the names of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King.

Hon. Charles Murphy. Mr. Murphy on arising to reply was loudly cheered. After thanking those present for their cordial and hospitable welcome to the city he said he had been asked to reply to the toast most unexpectedly. The Governor General was a constituent of his and it must have been on this account he was asked to reply. His Excellency was an ideal constituent, for although he never attended a political meeting or voted at an election, he had never asked him for a job nor taken an interest in the patronage.

He would travel twice as far as he had to do honor to the Hon. William Pugsley and moreover had a long cherished desire to revisit New Brunswick. It had been his privilege to know the late Hon. A. G. Blair. He had also had close personal relations with Hon. H. R. Emmerson. At a later date had been brought to close contact with Mr. E. B. Carvell, who had done good work in the past campaign. He had also met Col. McLean, Mr. Todd, Dr. Hio, and Mr. Reid, and many other New Brunswickers and last but not least there was the distinguished Minister of Public Works in whose honor they had assembled.

He was a big man with a keenness of foresight and breadth of vision. His grasp of Dominion affairs was wide and true and was recognized from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It was fitting that such a demonstration should have been held in his honor.

The East And The West. During Hon. Mr. Pugsley's recent visit to the West, where he went he made friends. He could today have the pick of at least twenty constituencies. In the East there was no antipathy to the West and in the West there was none towards the East. The West had provided a great outlet for the manufacturers of the East. The developments of the West were somewhat similar to that in California in 1849 and many of those coming here will return to their old homes in the East.

His development was due to the immigration policy of the Liberal party. This policy was due chiefly to Hon. Clifford Sifton. The speaker then in a lengthy campaign speech compared the immigration policies of the Conservative and Liberal Governments.

Canada's vast railway system was described. During Liberal rule, Mr. Murphy said, 25 million dollars had been spent on the railways and, unlike the Conservative Government, value had been received for every cent spent. The improvements of the railway commission was gone into in detail, and the great importance of the Transcontinental Railway in the waterways and terminals were dealt with.

All Due To Sir Wilfrid. This record of splendid achievement, he said, would have been impossible without the genius of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. History would record Sir Wilfrid a leading place among the world's Empire builders. During his term of office the British preference had been established, the contingent had been sent to South Africa, the fortifications at Halifax and Esquimaux had been taken over, the right for Canada to make treaties had been obtained, and no treaties could bind Canada without her consent.

His most important work from the national standpoint had been the unification of the present provinces in Canada. To assist in perpetuating this noble work, Sir Wilfrid appealed to all classes especially the young men. In closing Mr. Murphy asked for a generous response to Sir Wilfrid's appeal for support in his great work for Canada. He resumed his seat amid great applause.

said, was more deservedly popular than Earl Grey. His Excellency had come to Canada while the country was passing through the first stages of a government.

He went on to speak of the beginning of representative government in Halifax in 1749 and said the idea had spread not only to the other parts of the Dominion, but to every British colony in the world. The dramatic meeting of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and General Botha in the shadow of Westmount was only rendered possible by the growth of the system of responsible government. In the South African constitution the ideas and work of Sir Wilfrid Laurier could be traced.

Mr. King quoted Gladstone that "Liberalism was belief in the many (tempered by prudence) and Torrens' belief in the many tempered by fear." (Applause.) He passed on to a eulogy of Dr. Pugsley whom he characterized as one of the ablest and wisest of Earl Grey's advisers.

Earl Grey could speak for himself, he was enthusiastic about Canada and sounded her praises when abroad. His mention of Earl Grey's Excellency belief that Canada would be the predominant factor in any federation, Earl Grey had set a good example by travelling through all portions of the Dominion.

Coming back to Dr. Pugsley the speaker said the guest of honor represented the best traditions of the Maritime Provinces. He was broad and generous in his views and a capable administrator of his department. The Minister of Public Works had given every assistance to the Department of Labor. In reply to a communication which the speaker had sent, Dr. Pugsley had written a courteous letter which his hearers knew so well. (Laughter.)

Mr. King went on to speak of labor matters and said New Brunswick had the best record as regards industrial peace. This was one of the ideals which should be kept before the country. Dr. King was heartily applauded as he resumed his seat.

Mayor Bullock in proposing the toast to Hon. Mr. Pugsley expressed the honor which he felt in being called on to preside at the banquet. The distinguished guest of the evening was recognized, he said, as a great New Brunswicker, and a great Canadian. No man could have achieved a greater triumph than had been accorded him when elected to the position of Minister of Public Works.

Hon. William Pugsley. Dr. Pugsley was given more than the usual ovation. His first words were appreciative of his two colleagues in the Cabinet, who were present. He disclaimed the credit for winning a victory in New Brunswick, but said it was due rather to the strength of the candidates in the respective constituencies. Dr. Pugsley referred in complimentary terms to the different candidates and the mention of each name was the signal for a sound of applause.

Dr. Pugsley referred to his tour through Canada and said that when he had finished his trip, he felt proud to belong to such a great country. Continuing, he pictured the growing of the West as he had noticed it on his recent tour. In speaking of the Western lands, Dr. Pugsley was reminded of the St. Nicholas Valley Railway land deal and entered into the usual explanation of that transaction. He claimed that the tract of land in question was now being opened up for settlement.

Though impressed with the possibilities of the West, he came back, he said, to his native province and returned to the best of America. It was prouder than ever of the beautiful valleys and sunny sloping hillsides of New Brunswick and would endeavor to change them for the rolling prairies of the West.

Predictions. Dr. Pugsley then launched into a discussion of the transportation problem and predicted that with the completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway and the opening of Georgian Bay ports, the whole situation would be revolutionized and very little Canadian wheat would be shipped to the States ports. This would be cheering news for St. John for it would mean that a large proportion of the wheat would be shipped from here.

In five years, Dr. Pugsley predicted, that 50,000,000 bushels would be raised in the West. When the speaker became Minister of Public Works he was inspired by the remark dropped by Sir Wilfrid that he would not permit content until even the Canadian freight was shipped from ports on a Canadian soil.

Continuing to speak of the problem of transportation he said the policy of the Government was to reduce the cost of transportation to the lowest possible figure. Every dollar spent on transportation more than was absolutely necessary was like a dollar thrown into the sea. Dr. Pugsley spoke at some length on the tariff. With regard to retaliation against the United States, he said it would be better to hesitate in this regard, and expend all money derived from this source in the development of transportation facilities and seek to draw from the States the entire trade of the Canadian northwest and the trade of the Dakotas and northwestern United States. He said the Minister went on to speak of the progress made by Canada in recent years and submitted statistics from the Postoffice Department. He predicted that in 1920, Canada would have a population of 20,000,000. This would mean great strength to the Empire. (Applause.) St. John was the city of the Loyalists, but he had found that Rule Britannia was sung with the same fervor on the banks of the St. Lawrence.

Dr. Pugsley, While Canada at present, he said was not a manufacturing country, the east could manufacture for the west. The people of the west feel grateful for the building of the new transatlantic railway.

Mayor Bullock proposed Our Sister Provinces and called on Mr. H. J. Logan and Mr. A. Warburton.

Mr. H. J. Logan. Mr. Logan had the keynote of the banquet was "let Pugsley finish his work." He would like to see the British preference confined to Canadian vessels sailing from Canadian ports. He addressed St. John men to attend the meeting of the West Indies Commission and do their utmost to secure better trade with the West Indies.

Mr. A. B. Warburton, from Queens county, P. E. Island, spoke of the Parliamentary record of Dr. Pugsley and said it was necessary to have seen his performance to appreciate it rightly. Mr. Warburton also paid some attention to transportation and to Sir Wilfrid's unification of the empire. He mentioned his communication with P. E. Island.

Replying to the toast to the Senate, Hon. John Costigan congratulated St. John on being so ably represented in the Dominion Cabinet. There were calls for "Robinson," but the ex-premier had withdrawn. Mr. A. M. Copp, M. P., was the next speaker. He said Dr. Pugsley was trained in a good school and had outgrown it sooner than had been anticipated. While Dr. Pugsley was being stilled he was burning the midnight oil doing something for the province.

Mr. Copp made the first reference to the McAvity scandal, and also attacked the provincial Government for not building the Valley Railway. Hon. F. J. Sweeney, M. P., was then called on. He was still proud he said, of the fact that he was a Liberal, and was one of the men who had learned to love and respect Dr. Pugsley. In the face of the abuse heaped upon him.

A Voice From The North Shore. Mr. O. M. Turgeon, M. P., for Gloucester came, he said, as a voice from the North Shore of the province to do honor to the guest of the evening. He spoke for nearly half an hour.

Dr. Sormany, M. P., for Gloucester, introduced himself as the "baby of the province." He said he was somewhat disconnected but it was gathered from what he said that kind Providence had chosen the Liberals as the proper instrument to bring about the prosperity that was bestowed on Canada. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought the gathering to a close at 2:30 a.m.

BOARD NEEDS $1,500 FOR MAKING REPAIRS TO CITY'S STREETS

Will Use Money Appropriated For Scavenger Work—Several Minor Matters Dealt With Last Evening.

At a meeting of the Board of Works last evening it was announced that $1500 more would have to be spent on the streets. The money will have to be obtained from that appropriated for scavenger work.

The matter of having the telephone wires placed underground instead of on poles was discussed and it was finally referred to the by-laws committee. Several other matters were disposed of and Ald. McDougal presented and Ald. Belyea, Colner, Holder, Potts and Sproul, were present with the city engineer, street superintendent and common clerk.

The city engineer reported that he had given the Recorder all data concerning the accident to Mrs. Margaret Murphy who, it was alleged, was injured by slipping into a hole on Mill street.

The matter was referred to the committee. It was decided to tear down the retaining wall on Acadia street. It was also decided that Mr. R. H. Armstrong be paid $60 for erecting a wall on his property on Paradise Row.

Mr. S. H. Mayes' tender for erecting piling on Spar Cove Road bridge was found to be the lowest and was accepted. A communication was read from Mr. Harry Begg of North Street complaining that on wet days the water ran down Carleton street hill and flooded his wood shed.

The matter was referred to the engineer to report at the next meeting. To Withdraw From Agreement. The chairman then stated that Mr. T. H. Estabrooks wished to withdraw from the agreement which he made in regard to a retaining wall being built at his premises on Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. Estabrooks agreed to pay the cost provided the city contributed $200, but he had since found that it would cost him $700 for his part. The matter was left in the hands of Ald. Sproul and the city engineer, who will make an estimate and report to the board.

Capt. Lissett, who resides on Kennedy street, stated that he had a grievance in reference to his street. He complained that a large rock in front of his house prevented him from building steps properly. He also stated that there was not sufficient light on the street.

The chairman stated that he thought it would be well to have the city engineer make an estimate of what the work would cost but he informed Mr. Lissett that owing to the lateness of the season he did not think anything could be done until next spring.

Telephone Poles. The matter of framing an act which would do away with telegraph poles and have the wires placed underground was referred to the by-laws committee.

Superintendent Winchester applied for his holidays which were granted. The chairman then read the monthly estimate which showed that $1500 more would have to be spent on the streets to put them in proper condition.

The money will be obtained from that appropriated for scavenger work. The chairman recommended that a telephone be placed in Supt. Winchester's home, but no action was taken. Ald. Belyea brought the matter of the treasurer who is employed on the West Side, having an allowance made for horse feed. He stated that Joseph Kivran, of the North End, had this privilege. The matter was left in the hands of the chairman.

The committee then adjourned. FUNERALS. Miss Annie McMurphy. The funeral of Miss Annie McMurphy was held from the residence of her sister, Mrs. M. Mullaney, Pleasant Point, yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. The body was taken to St. Rose's church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Charles Collins. Interment was made in the old Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Patrick McKinley. The funeral of Mr. Patrick McKinley was held from his late residence, 250 Haymarket Square, at 2:30 yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the Cathedral where Rev. W. J. Duke read the burial service. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Martin Dolan, John Dolan, John McCarthy, James McMinnehan, William Wallace and William McLoughlin.

Mr. Barbara Nevins. The funeral of Mrs. Barbara Nevins was held from her late residence, 92 Somerset street yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock. The body was taken to Holy Trinity church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J. Walsh. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Henry Morrissey and Mr. Charles Bennett of this city will leave today for Fredericton to take courses in engineering at the University. Paul and Gustave Kubring, sons of Rev. A. Kubring, will leave on Friday evening for the university, the former to study arts and the latter forestry.

First University Lectures Already Held And Term Is Now On In Earnest—A Record Attendance.

Special to The Standard. Sackville, Sept. 28.—With the lectures in Memorial Hall begun yesterday the term's work for all the Mount Allison institutions is now in full swing. All three residences are filled to overflowing and the registering of new students is not yet completed.

One of the flats of the Commercial Building, containing about 10 rooms, has been taken by the University authorities to house the overflow from the larger residence. This flat was used for the same purpose thirty years ago.

The Ladies' College, it has been found has not room enough for all the lady students of the University and many will be obliged to be accommodated elsewhere.

There are about 50 students and freshettes entering the University, the number of which is about 100. The number of students who have been taken by the University authorities to house the overflow from the larger residence. This flat was used for the same purpose thirty years ago.

Prof. Arnold will also teach physics and chemistry in the arts course. In the faculty of theology Rev. F. W. Des Barres will teach ethics and exegesis. Prof. H. S. Macdonald, M. A., will act as tutor of New Testament Greek. Miss Ethel Baker is the new teacher at the college. Miss Baker graduated from the college in 1908. Prof. Beaumont is the new head of the faculty of music in the college.

WHAT THE JEWISH WORLD HAS TO SAY
London, Sept. 28.—The Cook-Pearry controversy is beginning to grow much less prominent. To the end of last week, no doubt, had things much his own way here and Cook's friends were few and far between;
but already the style and tone of Pearry's telegrams were causing a feeling of reaction, which has grown steadily ever since.

ADmits HE WAS RUDE
BUT NEVER PEDANTIC
London, Sept. 28.—G. K. Chesterton, whose massive bulk dressed as Dr.
Johnson was one of the chief delights of the recent church pageant comes to the support of his hero in a bicentenary estimate which contests the two main popular notions that he was pedantic and that he was rude.
That he was occasionally rude Chesterton admits, but declares that "he was probably the most unpedantic man that ever lived; certainly you and I are much more pedantic than Dr. Johnson. For pedantry means the worship of dead words; and his words, whether long or short, were always alive. He played long words and short words against each other with impromptu but infallible art."

idea of what had previously been mapped out for the Pussy's banquet of not precisely carried out as here indicated is not extraordinary. There are always litches in affairs of this kind.

Neither an Englishman.
Meanwhile the Britisher is extracting what he can from the whole affair. He would not be sorry if the verdict of the scientists were eventually to throw both men over. He would then feel justified in feeling his first disbelief of Cook and his present disapproval of Pearry. There are plenty who are beginning to think that both explorers have made a millionaire in claiming to have found a pole, and one of the most frequent remarks heard where men are gathered together is:
"Thank God that neither of them is an Englishman."

An Example.
Chesterton takes as an example the story of the Scotchman who, vexed at the ritual jeers of Johnson against his country, said:
"Do you remember that God made Scotland?" Johnson replied promptly:
"Sir, you are to remember that the made it for Scotchmen." Then after a pause he said in grave meditation:
"Comparisons are odious, but God made hell."

WANT TOP OF LOG RESTORED AGAIN TO EIGHT INCHES. Lumbermen Decided Yesterday To Petition Against New Regulations—Claim Increased Length Of No Value.

W. C. H. Grimmer, Surveyor General, in the Royal Gazette be changed.

Mr. Hilyard's Views. Mr. Henry Hilyard, speaking to a Standard reporter after the meeting, said that the question of the size of the logs was of vital importance, and if the new regulations were enforced it would mean that all of the mills about St. John except those using American lumber, would be forced to shut down as they would be unable to pay the increased cost of cutting owing to the present unsatisfactory condition of the market and the fact that they could make no use of the increase in the logs.
