Man Disrobed in Prisoners' Dock

Court Attendants Thought One of Lonely Occupants of Garden Eve Appeared.

Portland, Sept. 17.—Court attendants at the Municipal Court rubbed their eyes this morning, gazed toward the prisoner's dock intently and for a while wondered whether one of the lonely occupants of the Garden of Eve had wandered into their midst.

There was a scramble for the figure of James Hickey, one of the elderly respondents who had been placed in the dock to answer a charge of intoxication. Hickey had quietly disrobed while awaiting the opening of the court...

Rev. C. T. Clark On "Plebiscite" Reasons Given in Fairville Church Why Prohibitory Law Should be Enforced.

A large audience was present at the Fairville Baptist church last evening to hear Rev. C. T. Clark speak on the "Plebiscite" and the speaker gave some very convincing reasons why it was the duty of every good citizen to back up the prohibitory law...

He contrasted conditions as they were under the old license system and as they were today under the prohibitory law and showed they were much better today. There were less signs of drunkenness and less drunkenness than in the day of the open bar.

He pointed out that it was the duty of every citizen to assist in the enforcement of the prohibitory law as it was any other law and they must cooperate with the officers of the law and report violations just as they would if they saw some person acting suspiciously around their neighbor's property.

Church of England in Western Canada

Bishop of Columbia Gives Interesting Address at Mission Church.

An account of the work which the Church of England is accomplishing in Western Canada was given in a most interesting way last evening at the Mission Church, Paradise Row by the Right Reverend Charles C. Schofield, Bishop of Columbia.

Choosing as his text, "By Knowledge" (2nd Cor.), the Bishop said it is only by spreading knowledge of the work of an organization that the interest of its members can be kept up.

The diocese of Columbia is self-supporting. Of the forty-two parishes, five parishes are self-supporting and supply all needs in the other thirty-nine.

The Bishop went on to describe the scattered nature of his congregation and the difficulty of ministering to the widely separated homes of settlers.

Wilson And Money Still Far Apart

Middleweight Champion's End of Big Purse Ordered Into Depository Pending Action. The money promised Johnny Wilson for his bout with Bryan Downey on Labor Day in Jersey City is in immediate danger of being credited to the bank account of the middleweight champion. The New Jersey Boxing Commission at a meeting in Jersey City Friday accused Johnny of not putting forth his best efforts to defeat Downey, and by way of punishment told the champion that his end of the purse will be placed in a depository pending further consideration.

According to the story told by Wilson, who was represented by counsel, a blow on the chin had kept him in a dazed condition for five rounds. The scrouching position from which Downey fought, the champion said, didn't give him a fair chance to do any effective infighting. After the hearing Chairman Doherty said: "We have found Wilson guilty without doing anything else. Practically, we reserve decision as to the penalty to be imposed. The commission acted as a jury or as a judge sitting without a jury."

GREAT INTEREST OVER THE INTERNATIONAL SCHOONER RACE

Decision to Bar Boston Built Mayflower Quite Satisfactory—Josephine DeCosta May Take Place of Esperanto as Defender—Boston All Agog Over Races. The action of the Nova Scotia trustees of the North Atlantic Fishermen's Trophy, in barring from this year's races for the International Fishing Vessel Championship the schooner Mayflower, selected as the American defender, has been accepted by the United States Race Committee.

Just which one of the fishing fleet will be selected to go up against Canada's fastest vessel, is not known. There has been talk in Gloucester since the decision of the trustees of the trophy of putting the schooner Elsie up as a defender of the cup. She is a fast vessel of the old type, said to have beaten the Esperanto in a fast race on the fishing grounds, and could easily be recalled from the east fishing grounds in time to be groomed for the International Race.

"RED MICHAEL" QUITS.

Dr. Michael Clark, who for the past two or three years has been Hon. T. A. Crerar's right hand man, and one of the most militant and aggressive members of the Agrarian party, has now decided to withdraw from it.

At all times one of the most uncompromising apostles of progress, as he saw it, Dr. Clark threw in his lot with the band of men, who under the leadership of Mr. Crerar, styled themselves the National Progressive Party and adopted a programme which in advanced policies outdid anything of the kind that had ever been heard of before.

Under the domination of one Henry W. Wood, an American importation into Western Canada, the National Progressive party has become a class organization, which seeks to impose its will upon all others.

"After all, there seems to be only one method of working out human affairs in the political sphere. The apostles of progress must, in the common parlance, sincerely try to resist action, which is ever present like a dead weight to drag down the aspirations of the race for freedom, justice and democracy."

THE CATTLE EMBARGO

Now that the British Royal Commission which has been investigating matters in connection with the embargo on the entry of live cattle from Canada into Britain, has reported that there is no evidence whatever of any disease now existing among such cattle that would justify continuance of their exclusion from Britain, it is to be hoped that those persons who have been clamoring for years past against the so-called stigma which it was claimed the embargo put upon these cattle, will be satisfied.

Whether the decision will result in any practical advantage to cattle raisers in this country, remains to be seen. In view of the fact that four dressed carcasses can be shipped from Canada to Great Britain for less money than it costs to ship one live animal, there does not seem to be any very great advantage to Canadian stock breeders in shipping cattle on the hoof.

trouble is that there are no facilities here for the conversion of cattle into finished carcasses for shipment overseas. What is needed, and needed badly, is a properly equipped abattoir at some central place in those provinces, to which cattle could be sent for slaughter, and kept in cold storage until shipment. It is said that Dr. Tolmie, the present Minister of Agriculture, who is a practical stockman, is taking a deep interest in the matter of sending chilled carcasses to Great Britain and is already arranging to have steamers of the Canadian Mercantile Marine fitted up with suitable cold storage. According to a prominent English meat salesman, there is a market in Great Britain for all the chilled meat that Canada can send there, for years to come.

Why therefore worry whether Great Britain puts an embargo on the import of live cattle or not? By fattening the cattle at home, the people of this country get the benefit of all the by-products, to say nothing of the value of the natural fertilizer that the farmers of the Maritime Provinces come from the fact that their land is poor and artificial fertilizers are costly to buy; and when they have bought them the fertilizers are of less real value than that which can be hauled out of their barnyards for nothing. Maritime Province farmers should unite in a demand for an abattoir down here, and make a bid for some of the British chilled meat trade.

ROUNDING OUT SOUTH AFRICA

The Union of South Africa may be rounded off with the addition of Rhodesia. At present Rhodesia is administered by the British South African Company, somewhat in the same manner as the East Indian Company once governed India, and the Hudson Bay Company Western Canada. Both these companies, in course of time, gave way to responsible government, and the same state of development has been reached in Rhodesia. The question has arisen as to whether there shall be independent responsible government or incorporation in the Union of South Africa. A deputation is on the way to England to discuss the problem with Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, the Colonial Secretary, and has had an interview at Cape Town with Premier Smuts who was prepared to consider annexation, provided the Rhodesians are agreeable.

If the Union of South Africa takes over Rhodesia it will be increasing its territory by a district larger than Ontario, new and old Rhodesia embraces 440,000 square miles, while Ontario's total area is 407,000 square miles. Southern Rhodesia has a total white population of 40,000, with about 800,000 blacks, while Northern Rhodesia has only 3,000 white and approximately 1,000,000 blacks. Annexation with South Africa will vastly increase the responsibilities and difficulties of the Government of General Smuts, so that it is doubtful whether the country is intensely enthusiastic on the subject.

The country is rich in gold reefs and other minerals and has large areas of splendid agricultural land. Potentially it has unlimited possibilities of future development.

Going "over the top" out in Flanders will soon fade into insignificance as a nervous thrill producer when compared with going into the woods during the hunting season. It is rapidly becoming a question of whether hunting is worth the risk involved. Saturday's fatality once again calls attention to the imperative necessity for postponing the open season until the leaves are off the trees, whether the guides like it or not.

For the five months of the 1921 fiscal year, Canada's exports and imports amounted to $602,215,000, compared with $1,063,000,000 in the same period of 1920. The drop of $460,000,000, is large, but most of it is in imports, and the economy thus shown will eventually be for the good of home business.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Money Withdrawn From Industry.

The money withdrawn from industry in the United States is estimated to be $1,000,000,000 at the present market 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 per cent. Municipal securities pay a tax-free income of from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent. In the case of numerous small cities whose credit is not so firmly established, but is nevertheless perfectly good.

I've been down to the barber shop. An' I cut my hair all trimmed on top. An' I smell as nice as my Ma when she is fixed up for some company. I sit in the chair that the men sit in. An' I wore a sheet up to my chin. An' the barber said in a real nice way, "Well, how'll you have it trimmed today?"

She's Used To It. "Are you willing to wait to me, dearest, until I can make enough to support both?" "Yes," replied the maid, "I'm used to waiting—I live on the Spring street car line."

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

To the Editor of The Standard:—Sir:—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words in regard to the present Street Railway dispute. I see that the iron pole at the foot of King St. has recently been painted white. If the Power Company had lots of paint, it would pay them to paint them all white, then the jitney would have to keep going. The Mayor and Commissioners can make all the laws they like, even to the extent of prohibiting the operation of jitneys, but they still have something they cannot do, that is, force the public to patronize the one-man-cars that are being operated by one man, of course we know what that report will be, but we are anxious to see it just the same. My advice to the Mayor and Commissioner of Public Safety, would be to resign and let the Power Co. take the responsibility. If the Power Co. is going to run the City why pay someone else.

Tenement Amenities.

Mrs. Clancy was returning from shopping, and with the crush and the high prices, she was in no pleasant humor. As she approached the door she saw Mrs. Murphy, who occupied the street floor, sitting at her window.

"Well, now, Mrs. Clancy," she called out in deep sarcasm, "why don't you take your ugly mug out of the windy an' put your pet monkey in its place? That's give the neighbors a change they'd like."

Benny's Note Book

Yesterday me and pop was taking a walk after supper and I felt in my pants pocket to feel if my 2 cents was still safe. Which they wasn't, and I sed, Ger, and I sed, G wisa, pop, hohoy Am I to infer from that outburst of eloquents that all is not well? sed pop. Meaning wat was the matter, and I sed, G wisa, pop, hohoy smooaks, I had 2 cents in my pocket and now those nothing there but a hole. Was the hole there wen you put the 2 cents in? sed pop. Yes sir but I forgot about it, I sed, and pop sed, experience is the best teacher, and the best of anything comes high, so I think you got off pritty cheap at 2 cents for being tawt that its not wise to have money and a hole in the same pocket. Yes, I think you're pritty lucky. And we kept on walking, me feeling the opposite of lucky, and we started to go past a drug store with a weighing machine in front of it, pop saying, Somebody down at the office sed I was getting fat today, I think Ill jest invest a cent and see if im putting on eny averdespice. And he got on the machine and put a cent in the slot and nothing happened, and pop jumped up and down on the machine saying, Confownd it, jest my luck, the hand seems to be stuck or something. And he started to shake the weighing machine and hit it and act mad at it without anything happenin, and all of a suddin I sed, O, G, pop, the machine aint working. Tell me something I dont know, sed pop still standing there in case it mite, and I sed, But G, pop, heers a little sine around on the side of it says Out of Order. The dooce, sed pop. And he ooked and saw it and got madder than ever, and I sed, Well goah, pop, you got off twice as cheap as I did for your experience, it cost me 2 cents to learn not to put holes and cents in the same pocket but it only cost you a cent to learn to always look for little sines on the side before you get on weighing machine. Speak wen you're spoken to, sed pop. And we kept on walking.

FOR WOMEN

Low-Cut Blouses Banned In London

Decolets Suitable for Evening Wear Not Objected to —Magistrate's Views.

London, Sept. 18.—(By Dominion News Service.)—A stylishly dressed woman, who wore a blouse which was cut very low, was rebuked by Major F. R. Malone, M. P., the Tottenham magistrate, when she appeared before him.

"It is a pity that a respectably dressed man or woman should attend the court in her nakedness," said the magistrate. "I like to see women properly dressed and not with their chests exposed. I hope that women who have to attend the court hear what I say, I trust that I shall not have to mention the matter again."

Major Malone said to a press representative: "In this case I feel that a protest was called for. Here was a single woman whose low neck, in my view, was highly objectionable, and I feel that before passing sentence I ought at least to make it clear that whatever people wear in other places—at the seaside, and in ballrooms, or anywhere else—this sort of thing ought not to be encouraged in courts where justice is administered."

"I hold that we have a right to expect people to come into court soberly attired. One would be prepared to give greater latitude to women elsewhere, but I should hold the view that this woman's dress would have been objectionable anywhere."

"What is a legitimate low neck for normal wear is not a matter on which I desire to pose as an authority. It is a question of degree, and I would not be dogmatic about it."

"I am sure that most people will agree with me when I say that the tendency of having still shorter skirts and still lower blouses is going beyond what are proper limits."

HOW TO MAKE PERFECT TOAST

There is a right and a wrong way of doing everything, even making a slice of toast. The perfect slice of toast is golden brown and is crisp all the way through, yet not hard. De- liver us from the toast cut thick, and, although it may be brown on the outside, soft on the inside. Bread that has been baked a day or longer should be used, not perfectly fresh bread. Cut it smoothly in slices, not more than half an inch thick. If the crust is baked very hard, trim the edges.

The ideal way to prepare milk toast is to serve the hot buttered toast, a drop plain, and a pitcher of hot milk, or hot milk and cream, then the milk and a little salt and butter have been added. "Cream toast can be served for breakfast, but this is more commonly used as a luncheon dish. It is made by pouring a white sauce over slices of toast. This can be varied by adding grated cheese to the sauce, or sliced hard cooked eggs, or finely chopped meat.

Did you ever eat sour cream toast? Heat one-half pint of thick sour cream to the boiling point, salt it to taste, and pour it over slices of buttered toast. The flavor of this is quite stimulating.

When making toast take care to have each slice perfect. Perhaps too many of us are like the boy in the story who said that he knew how to make toast. First you take it to the stove and burn it, and then you take it to the sink and scrape it."

Toast that is to be served with anything turned over it should have the slices first dipped very quickly in a dish of hot water, immediately poured from the boiling teakettle and with a little salt added. French toast may be made to do as an impromptu desert dish. Beat one egg well, add to it two cups of milk. Soak the slices of bread one at a time, in the egg and milk, fry in butter, turning it until nicely browned on both sides, and sprinkle with sugar over.

Ham toast is a hoary luncheon dish. Put two tablespoons of milk and a tablespoon of butter in a sauce- pan, let them come to a boil, add three-quarters of a cup of cold boiled ham cut in bits, also two eggs beaten light, and season lightly with pepper. Stir constantly until it thickens. Serve in squares of buttered toast.

FOR THE HOUSEWAKER.

Tomatoes cooked in an enameled ware kettle keep their bright red shade.

Hot, unsweetened cocoa may be used in place of scalded milk in custard.

Cook cucumbers as you would squash. They make delicious fritters and pies.

Matches are said to be made in Heaven, and nobody will deny that there are times when a porch swing seems just that.

AGED PARIS DANDY RESIGNS FROM PAPER

Well Known Society Man Giving Up Position as Editor.

Paris, Sept. 18.—(By Dominion News Service.)—It is reported that "the last of the Parisians," as he has often been called, Arthur Meyer, who has just resigned from the Galette, a well known Paris newspaper, has owned and edited for several decades.

Arthur Meyer, with his snow-white mustache and side-whiskers, his pink and white complexion, his hair still fair and carefully curled so as to show from under the shining top hat, which is his invariable headgear, has been the most prominent of Parisian figures ever since the days of the Empire.

At his present age he is still a dandy and is still "in the eye." Not a single marriage reception, first night, or other society function would be thought complete if Arthur Meyer had not consented to put in an appearance for at least a few minutes.

Credit is Community-Created.

The problem of restoring international trade divides itself into accomplishing those things which a nation must do for itself and those things in which the nations must act together. In the present disorganized state of trade there is greater need for the use of credit in getting the movement started than in ordinary times, while the uncertainties which exist make all business more difficult and credit naturally harder to obtain. First of all the conditions essential to credit is the maintenance of an orderly state of society, which includes a stable government, having the support and willing obedience of the people, recognition of property rights, general willingness to pay for the use of the goods they need for the part of the people to work and maintain an effective state of industry. These are the foundations of credit everywhere; and the more clearly it appears that they are understood and the benefits thereof recognized by all classes, the better the credit of a people will be.—From Bulletin of National City Bank of New York.

Pathetic Message To Dead Actress From Her Fiance

Lehrman Tells Undertaker to Whisper in Girl's Ear, "Henry Loves You."

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—District Attorney Brady announced tonight that no decision had yet been reached whether to proceed against Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle in police court on the murder charge preferred against him, or to ask for dismissal of this charge in view of the grand jury indictment against Arbuckle for manslaughter.

The decision will be made tomorrow morning, Brady said. His statement was made after a conference with his deputies and with Chief of Police O'Brien and Captain of Detectives Matheson.

The body of Miss Virginia Rappe will be taken to the Los Angeles morgue. The undertaking establishment in charge announced today that arrangements could not be completed in time to ship the body before tomorrow.

The manager of the establishment was asked in a telegram from Henry Lehrman, Miss Rappe's fiance in New York, to whisper in the dead girl's ear, "Henry loves you."

"I will hear you," the telegram continued.

The exact time for the departure of Miss Rappe's body had not been set late today, but it was expected to forward it tomorrow morning. The body was prepared for shipment today.

Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, chairman of the special committee named by the woman's vigilance committee yesterday to co-operate with District Attorney Brady in the investigation of the Arbuckle case, and Mrs. Robert H. Dean, a prominent member of the special committee, waited on Brady today and pledged him the full support of the committee.

The vigilance committee, which is made up of a number of San Francisco women, will have members of the special committee at every public hearing of the Arbuckle case, and will provide every possible protection to the woman witnesses and will co-operate otherwise in every way possible.

Engage French-Canadian Singer

Jeanne Duseau to be Member of Chicago Opera Company This Season.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—Jeanne Duseau, the French Canadian soprano, among the new stars who have been engaged by the Metropolitan Opera Company, is to sing with Miss Garden's company.

Mlle. Duseau, as representative of the Dominion among Chicago's new song birds, will find herself in company with representatives of almost every other nation on earth. Geo. M. Spangler, assistant manager for Miss Garden, who has by and by combed six states, has just returned from Europe, where he and Mary combed six countries for talent. An announcement from the company's office here states that twenty-one new stars have been engaged and thirty-four of the former members of the company are to be retained.

Among the other new stars will be Tina Patena, the Dalmatian tenor, who Spangler predicts will be the reigning matinee idol, and Clara Dux, the sensation of Berlin and Vienna. The Metropolitan company made an effort to get her, but she preferred to sing with Miss Garden's company.

Others are: Concetta Ballester, Spanish baritone; Nino Kozar, Russian dramatic soprano; Edward Leankow, a Polish bass; Lydia Lipkowska, Russian coloratura soprano; Mary McCormick, a U. S. singer; Gracielita Pareo, Italian coloratura soprano; Jeanne Schneider, French soprano, and Joseph Schwartz, German baritone.

50th Anniversary of Mrs. O'Leary's Kick

New York, Sept. 18.—October 9 will be the fiftieth anniversary of the date Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over the lantern causing the great Chicago fire, and the National Fire Protective Association has designated that day as International Fire Prevention day.

Since 1871 annual fire losses have been increasing until there is now an average annual monetary loss of $50,000,000 and an estimated loss of 15,000 lives yearly, according to the association.

The association is arranging for a nationwide observance of this day to bring to the attention of the people that the fire loss is everybody's responsibility and that the great majority of fires are preventable through the exercise of ordinary carefulness.

When a man boasts of having money to burn he will soon have ashes to throw away.

When you are troubled with diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and pains in the stomach, cholera morbus, summer complaint, bloody fluxes, or looseness of the bowels, be sure and obtain a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" and see how quickly it gives you relief. This wonderful remedy has been on the market for the past 76 years and we wish to warn you against accepting a substitute which may be dangerous to your health.

Mr. Samuel Becker, Tatamagouche, N. S., writes:—"While visiting in Western Canada I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. After trying many proprietary medicines I got no relief, but kept getting worse."

I was advised to take Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I lost no time in doing so. I cannot hesitate in recommending it most highly, for when I had not yet taken half the bottle I was relieved. I must say that "Dr. Fowler's" is given a fair trial it will show its good qualities."

1/2 teaspoon ground cloves.
1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg.
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger.
3 cups flour.

Mix the molasses, sugar and shortening together until smooth, add the cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and ginger, then add the baking soda and boiling water. Sift the flour and add 1 cup at a time. You must have four enough so that the dough will not stick; more can be added. Divide into two places on floured board and roll out quite thin; cut into fancy shapes. Bake on floured sheets ten minutes in hot oven.

The problem of restoring international trade divides itself into accomplishing those things which a nation must do for itself and those things in which the nations must act together. In the present disorganized state of trade there is greater need for the use of credit in getting the movement started than in ordinary times, while the uncertainties which exist make all business more difficult and credit naturally harder to obtain. First of all the conditions essential to credit is the maintenance of an orderly state of society, which includes a stable government, having the support and willing obedience of the people, recognition of property rights, general willingness to pay for the use of the goods they need for the part of the people to work and maintain an effective state of industry. These are the foundations of credit everywhere; and the more clearly it appears that they are understood and the benefits thereof recognized by all classes, the better the credit of a people will be.—From Bulletin of National City Bank of New York.

When you are troubled with diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and pains in the stomach, cholera morbus, summer complaint, bloody fluxes, or looseness of the bowels, be sure and obtain a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" and see how quickly it gives you relief. This wonderful remedy has been on the market for the past 76 years and we wish to warn you against accepting a substitute which may be dangerous to your health.

Mr. Samuel Becker, Tatamagouche, N. S., writes:—"While visiting in Western Canada I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. After trying many proprietary medicines I got no relief, but kept getting worse."

I was advised to take Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I lost no time in doing so. I cannot hesitate in recommending it most highly, for when I had not yet taken half the bottle I was relieved. I must say that "Dr. Fowler's" is given a fair trial it will show its good qualities."

AGED PARIS DANDY RESIGNS FROM PAPER

Well Known Society Man Giving Up Position as Editor.

Paris, Sept. 18.—(By Dominion News Service.)—It is reported that "the last of the Parisians," as he has often been called, Arthur Meyer, who has just resigned from the Galette, a well known Paris newspaper, has owned and edited for several decades.

Arthur Meyer, with his snow-white mustache and side-whiskers, his pink and white complexion, his hair still fair and carefully curled so as to show from under the shining top hat, which is his invariable headgear, has been the most prominent of Parisian figures ever since the days of the Empire.

At his present age he is still a dandy and is still "in the eye." Not a single marriage reception, first night, or other society function would be thought complete if Arthur Meyer had not consented to put in an appearance for at least a few minutes.

Her Logic.

Mrs. A. (at resort)—Doesn't it worry you to write to your husband for more money?

Mrs. B.—Not at all. If he is having a good time he owes it to me, and if he isn't having a good time he has saved it, so why should I worry?

Effective Teaching of Patriotism

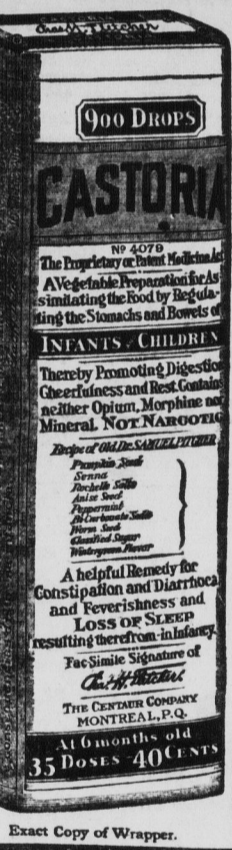

A rather striking illustration of what a civilizing as well as an educating force the Sunday schools of Canada are, is to be given on Sunday, Sept. 25th, this year, when over 80 per cent of the Sunday schools in Canada, including the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian denominations, will unite in celebrating Rally Day. It appears probable that at least 1,000,000 members and adherents of Canadian Sunday schools will attend the special service to be held that day. A feature of this as provided for in a specially printed programme which has already been circulated in enormous quantities throughout all the Canadian schools of these denominations, will be teaching a real patriotism, and the place of the Sunday schools in making our Dominion a better country. Arrangements for this day have been made, by the way, by a joint committee made up of representatives from the Sunday School Board of these various denominations and this in itself is rather an interesting illustration of effective methods of church union which are in operation these days.

New York Market Suffered Decline

Some Speculative Issues Dropped Sharply, Extending Through Leading Issues.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS)

New York, Sept. 17.—The market opened somewhat irregular but on the whole slightly changed from last night. Before long, however, a sharp decline took place in U. F. on reports that they were having trouble in executing their maturing obligations. Some of speculative issues dropped sharply, notably M. N. P. which sold down over three points from its early high and declines extended through the leading speculative issues like Baldwin and U. S. Steel Trading, however, grew dull on the decline and the market rallied leisurely. A good deal of evening up of trading seemed to be going on in different sections of the list. In the last half hour trading was very dull and declines were more numerous than advances. No liquidation of any importance, however, developed in any quarter.

GOSSIP AROUND THE MARKETS

Guaranty Trust Co. reduces quarterly dividend from 5 to 3 per cent. Surplus and undivided profits are down to $16,131,464 compared with $30,546,272 as of June 30th.

Cru. Steel declares a regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent. on common. Dun says that, despite the many irregularities, the present situation is one of slowly reviving activity after a prolonged period of depression with economical recovery winning in scope.

Near Normal Basis Found in Flour City

Nothing to Complain of in Minneapolis — Northwest to Come Back Quickly. Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 17.—At a gathering of bankers, merchants, manufacturers and other prominent citizens of the Flour City held in the Minneapolis Club and called to give your correspondent a report as to conditions, Joseph Chapman, vice-president and general manager of the L. S. Donaldson Company, the largest department store in the city summed up the local situation pretty well as follows:

"We here in Minneapolis are nearer a normal basis, I believe, than in any other section of America. We have no cause for feeling blue. The times of course, are unusual. We are living in a period when everybody knows and talks about the state of everybody else's business. There probably is a lot of talk of profiteering. There can be no profiteering today. Competition is too keen. So far as the department store trade is concerned, I can report a large increase in volume of sales. Last December we took our losses, charging off 25 per cent. at one time. So far as the country outside Minneapolis is concerned, I think it has a better crop, in money, than any time back and a better crop in bushels. Prohibition has proved beneficial. You see to people better dressed to-day than formerly. They retain more of their earnings. The passing of 400 saloons in Minneapolis has been of great benefit."

Looks for Comeback

Roy C. Young of the Federal Reserve Bank, said the purchases by the farmers would not be much this Fall and Winter, but he looked for the Northwest to come back quicker than any other section of the country. The farmer had economized, had buckled down to his hard task under the changed conditions and while the agriculturist needed assistance and must have it, that assistance would be lessened if the crops moved in orderly manner.

U. S. EMERGENCY TARIFF MIGHT REACT BADLY

Leading Senator Regards It as Gold Brick to Farmers of United States. Washington, Sept. 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—Has the emergency tariff on agricultural products been a "gold brick" to the farmers of the United States? Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, one of the foremost of the democratic leaders, himself from a leading agricultural state, calls it a "gold brick" and a humbug and is prepared to carry the issue to the country. On the other hand, Senator McCumber of North Dakota, another advocate of a high wheat tariff to keep out Canadian wheat, insists the effect of the tariff of wheat and the emergency agricultural tariff generally has been to increase or to steady agricultural prices in the United States.

France Marriages Have Doubled

Number of Births Increased and Fewer Deaths in 1920 Than in 1913. Paris, Sept. 17.—The number of marriages in France has doubled, the number of births increased, while fewer deaths are registered in 1920 than in 1913, the last full year of peace. This is shown by the official figures just published by the Ministry of Labor. The excess of births over deaths in 1920 was 159,790, as compared to 63,914 in 1913. The marriages totalled 623,869 in 1920 against 312,036 in 1913.

EX-KAISER BILL CONTINUES HIS WOOD CHOPPING

The Only Thing Democratic About Former Emperor is Devotion to Saw and Axe.

About the only thing that is democratic about the ex-Kaiser's life at Doorn is his wood-chopping. Otherwise he maintains a court that is a miniature of Potsdam. Why he chops wood nobody knows, since it is hard work, but the Kaiser is said to be vigorous physically, and having especially trained the muscles used in falling trees, can work for hours at this exercise without apparent fatigue. Having chopped down the trees, he loves to saw out a section of the trunk, and in his spare hours he smooths and carves this with the capital "W" that used to carry so much terror in the old days. These finished articles he gives away to his more favored visitors. It also pleases him to throw a log which he himself has prepared, on the open fire, which is kept burning winter and summer. Another favorite occupation is talking. When his guests are former officers, as often they are, military maps are produced and the Great War is fought over again, the ex-Kaiser commenting on what might have been except for what was. He clings to the idea that the German armies never were defeated and that the German disaster was wholly due to traitors at home.

WHILE IS PIOUS.

Every morning at 6.30 he rises, and an hour later walks down to the offices of the court-martial, a gaudy building near the gate of the estate which was designed by Wilhelm personally. There he inspects every thing as though he were visiting a barracks. Then he takes an hour's stroll about the grounds, returning to breakfast at 8.30 there. In the era, which all the servants are obliged to attend, the ex-Kaiser Lord reading the services, since the death of the former Kaiser, special prayers are said for her. It is said that Wilhelm has recovered from the blow the death of his wife caused him. At that time he was so entertained that he might do away with himself, and his daughter did not dare leave him. Now he seems to have become resigned, and has resumed the round that he followed while she lived.

The Exile Woodman.

Garbed in old clothes, he begins his wood-chopping at ten o'clock, and works steadily for an hour. Then he refreshes himself with a bottle of Rhine wine, after which he resumes his work until 12.30. Then he takes a bath and has a frugal lunch at 1 o'clock, after which he retires for sleep. In the afternoon he spends most of his time when season and weather are favorable, in his large garden. Of late he has had a great deal of interest in flower culture, and at a recent show in Doorn he won two second prizes for English sweet peas and even himself. The idea of the former Kaiser, spending his time in the improvement of English sweet peas is one that should appeal to Karl, Romaner, his former biologist, except for the lamentable fact that the former biologist has become a bitter critic of his former master.

The Dinner and the Uniform.

At 5.30 Wilhelm Hohenzollern dons the full dress uniform of a Prussian General, wearing all his medals and decorations, excepting those of course, which he indignantly handed back to the British Ambassador in Germany on the eve of war. He walks round in this outfit until 7.30, when a great dinner goes on soundly. It seems certain, however, that he has made up his mind that Doorn will be his home for the rest of his life. He has no illusions that he ever will be restored to the throne of Prussia, but he believes that some day or other a monarchy will be restored in Germany. He is said to be on better terms with the ex-Crown Prince than formerly. The younger man frequently visits his father and they walk and talk together. Before the death of the Kaiser, the son, on the occasion of his visits, spent nearly all his time either with his mother or spending sound the piano in his car.

Ambitions Abandoned.

While Wilhelm believes in constitutional state, he does not spend nearly so much at Doorn as he did at Amerongen, but whether this is due to the fact that he has less money or whether he regards his stay at Amerongen as a mere interlude and decided not to abate his imperial state while he remained there is not known. It seems certain, however, that he has made up his mind that Doorn will be his home for the rest of his life. He has no illusions that he ever will be restored to the throne of Prussia, but he believes that some day or other a monarchy will be restored in Germany. He is said to be on better terms with the ex-Crown Prince than formerly. The younger man frequently visits his father and they walk and talk together. Before the death of the Kaiser, the son, on the occasion of his visits, spent nearly all his time either with his mother or spending sound the piano in his car.

Three-Cornered Ship Freight War Suspends

Conferences Fail to Agree on Japan-India Trade.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17.—A three-cornered freight war, affecting the growing business between Japan and India, is imminent, following the inability of the representatives of Osaka Shosen Kaisha on the one hand and those of the Calcutta Freight Conference on the other to reach an agreement.

The third contestant in the Pacific Mail Company, which is now operating a semi-monthly feeder service between Calcutta and Shanghai, guaranteeing rapid transfers to and from Japan.

The Calcutta Freight Conference is made up of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the P. and O. Navigation Company and the British-India Steam Navigation Company. This triumvirate has refused to accept the Osaka Shosen Kaisha into its membership and the latter has retaliated with a formidable slash in rates. The Osaka Shosen Kaisha, in an effort to get what it considers a fair share of the growing trade between Japan and Calcutta, has announced the sailing on September 3 from Kobe of the steamship Celebes Maru (3,900 tons) hitherto employed on the Japan-New Orleans service.

Germans Re-Purchase Ships From England

Taking Steps to Resume Ocean Carrying Trade.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17.—Press reports from Berlin indicate the Germans are taking steps to get the German flag back in the ocean carrying trade routes. Additional vessels repurchased from England, are selected at Hamburg, among them the Herfeld, 4,734 tons, purchased by the Hamburg-American Line; the Elling, 4,864 tons, and the Offenbach, 4,436 tons, by the Deutsche-Australische Dampfschiffahrt Gesellschaft; the Herfeld, 4,734 tons, by the Continental Roederer.

The steamer Ertha, built by the Janssen & Schmittlinski yard for Roederer Schmidt of Flensburg, has recently made its trials, also the steamer Theban, built by the Nordsee-Verkehr for the Deutsche Dampfschiffahrt Kosmos, has just made its trials at Hamburg.

A new shipping company has been founded at Stettin called the Deutsch-Orient Linie Aktien Gesellschaft, to operate between Stettin and Mediterranean ports.

U. S. Line Ship To Use German Lloyd Piers

Lasker Says Board Will Follow Court's Suggestions.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The United States Line, operators of the ships formerly run by the United States Mail Line, will continue to use the piers and warehouse facilities of the North German Lloyd Company, Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board announced today.

Karl Stapelfeldt and Charles von Helmholtz, representing the North German Lloyd line, conferred with Mr. Lasker today on the board's attitude toward the contracts between their company and the United States Mail Company. The chairman is said to have stated that the board would carry out the suggestions of the Federal court that the port facilities be utilized by the new operators and continued as an asset of the company.

ON SUSPICION OF THE MURDER OF THE GIRL SADIE McAULEY

John Paris, a Malatto, Brought from Truro by Detective Biddiscombe—Will Appear in Police Court This Morning—Believed Strong Case Will be Presented Against Him.

John Paris, the Malatto, will be charged on suspicion of the murder of Sadie McAuley in the police court this morning. The man was brought here from Truro last evening by Detective Biddiscombe, and lodged in the central police station.

Second Appearance. This is the second time the man has been held a suspect in the case. The first time the detectives had nothing of an incriminating nature against the man, nor anything which could connect him with what is one of the most revolting murders in the criminal history of the city. Sergeant-Detective Power stated last evening he would have had nothing to say until Paris was brought before the magistrate, as to what evidence might be produced against him.

A Strong Case. The fact that the Malatto has been arrested on a serious charge for the second time, leads to the belief that evidence of a damaging nature must have been collected and that a strong case will be presented against him.

Paris is a light colored Malatto, thirty years of age, five feet nine inches tall, weighs 170 lbs, and is a native of the U. S. A. He was first arrested at the instance of Walter Humphrey of the West Side, who reported to the police that he rowed Paris across the harbor to Chesley Street, at eleven o'clock on the morning of the murder and that at six the same evening, the man came to him in a state of great excitement and asked his aid in burying a girl he claimed to have murdered.

Humphrey the informant. After Humphrey communicated this information to the police he alleged he was subjected to a murderous attack while returning to his home late one evening. His assailant, he claimed, was a negro armed with a razor, and from whom he barely escaped with his life.

His story was not given much weight at the time, but something has evidently been brought to light since through the investigation of the detectives which has led them to attach more importance to it.

Others Were Held. Fifteen men have been subjected to grueling examinations at the central police station as suspects of the awful murder during the past month. They were all brought before the magistrate, east to the witness, Phyllis Little, and Marion Logan, companions of Little Sadie on the day of her untimely end, and all of whom claimed to have seen the wretch who was responsible for her murder, but none of the fifteen were identified by the girls, as the man. Amongst this group was Paris.

In addition to the fifteen held by the police here, a like number were arrested by the police of other cities in the Dominion from Toronto and Montreal, east to Halifax and Sydney, but none were found to answer to the description of the wanted man. The Moncton police only last Saturday investigated a suspect reported by James A. Hutchinson of Chipman, but he was found to be sixty years of age, and could in no way be connected with the crime.

Superintendent of Chinese Missions. Discourse At Knox Church. "What Should be the Attitude of Church People in Face of Modern Conditions?"

Rev. W. D. Noyes Tells How Christianity is Brought to Chinese in Canada. A thoughtful discourse was given last evening at Knox Church by the pastor, R. Moorhead Legate on the subject, "What should be the attitude of church people in the face of modern conditions?" His text was, "Men that had understanding of the times to know what Israel ought to do" (Luk. Chron. 11-32).

The words were used as a plea to church people to practise and promote their religion in such a way that it would be kept abreast of the times in which they live. We should make our religion shape to the times, we should not be locked up in a narrow world of our own, out of step with modern movements, the preacher said.

He told of the different ways in which churches are striving to keep up with the times—making church services more or less entertainments and multiplying organizations. These are wrong, Mr. Legate said, the Gospel of the Cross still has its ancient power but church people are not giving it a chance. They try to make their religion acceptable to non-religious people.

He pleaded that a clearer grip of the principles of religion is needed and in this connection asked all to read and study the Bible. He also begged church members to live more consistently with their belief, not so much consistently with any petty, bigoted snobbishness of a sect, but consistently with the four square manliness of Jesus Christ.

Pleasing Subject At St. Matthew's. Rev. W. R. Foote Delivered Instructive Address on "Korea" Last Evening. "Korea" formed the subject for the pleasing and instructive address delivered by the Rev. W. R. Foote, D.D., in St. Matthew's Presbyterian church last evening. He said that the Kingdom of Korea was established over 4,000 years ago, and that at the present day it had a population of 17,000,000. He described its inhabitants as a nation of scholars, and musicians Korea, as a land of culture, and learning.

It had proved a most fertile field for the missionary, and today missions were self supporting, and the work was carried on under their own preachers and workers. The Korean Presbyterian church has one general assembly, 12 presbyteries, and over 200 congregations, which have done all too quickly in games and sports of various kinds, for which suitable prizes had been provided by the host of the day.

DISORDERLY CHILDREN. Eloquent Plea By Rev. W. D. Wilson

Secretary of Temperance Alliance Requests Hearers to Vote "Yes" on Referendum

An eloquent plea for support from every Christian to be made on October 10th, when the referendum on the importation of liquor into the province is to be taken, was made last evening by Rev. W. D. Wilson, secretary of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance at the St. David's Presbyterian church. Mr. Wilson also spoke in the morning at the Victoria street Baptist church.

He said that the referendum was a referendum on the issue of whether we were to have a liquor law which would be a blessing to our province or a curse. He said that the liquor traffic was a curse to our province and that it was the duty of every Christian to support the referendum which would place the liquor traffic under the control of the law.
