Thursday, June 13—Black River school hall, the candidates, James Lowell, and others. Friday, June 14—Lorneville. The candidates, James Lowell, Dr. W. B. Wallace, and others.

Friday, June 15—Golden Grove hall, candidates, James Lowell and others. Saturday, June 16—Mifflin. The candidates and others. The city the outlook is equally encouraging. W. Keirstead, at a meeting at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, told of 300 electors in the North End in using that section and of that number three said that they were on the side and would not support the opposition ticket. Mr. Keirstead also told a story on one of the government candidates, who was trying to get in some work at the I. C. R. freight sheds, and to the story the government date shook hands with a veteran and asked for his support. "Oh, Mr. Mahoney," was the reply, "I'll vote for you anyway."

Mr. Fleming himself, it is said, in visiting with a friend on the train, told government losses in St. John. A platform campaign in the city will be held with a meeting in Temple hall, on Tuesday evening, when the dates will appear to the electors of North End. This meeting will be followed by others in other sections of the city. One of the most encouraging signs of election of feeling against the government is the apathy on the part of the private workers on the West Side, government meeting in that hotel of having been very much of a frost, either the indications for the city with the rest of the province in a coming condemnation of the Fleming administration are very strong, and the Liberals are in the field.

Next eight days should be busy ones for the friends of Copp and good government.

WEL ARRIVES MURTENAY BAY

As any tracks are laid. It was at proposed to load the big machine on at the head of the bay but this was found impracticable and it was necessary to repair two bridges on the head road before it was considered to cross them with the heavy steam engine.

A work has been going on for some time it will be some days before the work is in the proper shape and the will remain in the C. P. R. yard until after Mr. Palmer's return to Montreal.

The Methodist of Canada, Sunday, Bermuda and the missions are about 1,500,000, from which the 10 members must be deducted. This leaves 1,100,000, one-fourth of which may be regarded as of voting age. 7,777, but of that number only 1,200 are in favor of the union, or one in 10.

These figures very clearly indicate that the unpolled vote which is in an enormous one," goes to show the mass and unconvincing character of the arguments advanced in favor of the union, and the smallness of the vote in its favor in the face of its nature to far-reaching in its issues.

That this is a layman's movement is sustained by the facts of the case as it is the smallest of the vote in its favor in the face of its nature to far-reaching in its issues.

HEARTY WELCOME FOR LIBERAL CANDIDATES IN CARLETON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Messrs. Keirstead, Foster, Mahoney and Knowlton Expose Duplicity of Fleming Government and Show Up Its Broken Pledges—West End Likely to Lose Its Reputation This Time as Tory Stronghold.

Thursday, June 13.—The opposition candidates were given a hearty reception at their meeting in West St. John last night and, if the character of the meeting and the spirit of the audience can be taken as an indication, Carleton will be a Conservative stronghold.

to believe that on June 20 they will be elected. (Cheers.) Although they were opposed by all the resources of two governments they have the intelligent electors at their backs.

F. J. G. Knowlton. F. J. G. Knowlton was received with enthusiastic applause. In opening his remarks he emphasized the fact that the present opposition did not claim credit for the good deeds of the previous government or accept the responsibility for which it had been criticised on their record.

Mr. Foster said that he was especially pleased to meet a West St. John audience as Carleton was his home for several years when he first came to St. John. He also had a special interest in West St. John on account of the attention he had given to this section of the city when as president of the board of trade it had been his duty and pleasure to do what he could to promote the interests of the waterfront.

Mr. Mahoney was given a reception which showed his popularity with the electors of West St. John. After expressing his pleasure at appearing before a Carleton audience as their candidate, Mr. Mahoney opened up a broadside of charges against the government.

Mr. Keirstead. The promise of the government that it was a coalition body was stripped bare and with pointed references to its action since achieving office the speaker showed it up in its true colors as the foe of every true Liberal in the province.

The government's promise to cut down expenses had been violated, and in spite of an enormously increased revenue it had a deficit last year.

The new audit act was characterized by Mr. Foster as a colossal fraud. Instead of having an absolutely independent auditor we now have a treasury board which can override the auditor and make what payments it pleases.

The action of the government in pledging the credit of the province to guarantee bonds to the extent of $6,000,000, of a large proportion of which the people will be forced to pay the interest, was ruthlessly exposed by the speaker.

The government was scored by the speaker for its conduct in giving away the Central railway while a private corporation, the N. B. Southern railway, is receiving $15,000 a year from the C. P. R. for a much poorer road.

Referring to the local campaign the speaker said that they had given a most encouraging reception in their canvass of the city and they had every reason numerous—hence the necessity for spraying. He will leave tomorrow on his return to Prince Rupert.

Liberals Cheerful Over Reports from All Parts of the Province

ALL SIX SEATS IN CITY AND COUNTY Large Attendance Expected at Mr. Carvell's Meeting in Fairville Tonight, When the Federal Representative from Carleton County Will Deal With Matters of Importance.

Many Conservatives in the city yesterday conceded at least three seats in the city and county to the Liberals, and reports from the sections in the district clearly show that nothing less than the whole six seats will satisfy the Liberal voters.

Automobiles who have occasion to use the roads of the province are daily growing more discontented with their disagreeable condition and declare that in many places they are absolutely dangerous.

In spite of the desperate efforts of Messrs. Baxter and Carson to influence the voters of the county, Mr. Bentley and Mr. Anderson are meeting with unexpected success in the county.

The speaker then made a telling criticism of the government's methods with regard to the Valley Railway, the highway act, their denial of the labor union's request for the appointment of W. F. Hatherly as labor commissioner, and their broken promise regarding the committee of Carleton.

Physicians Visiting Private Patients The board of commissioners may appoint any medical practitioner duly registered under the New Brunswick Medical Act, to attend patients in private rooms in the hospital, under the following regulations:

How Medical Practitioner Appointed 1. Such medical practitioner may be appointed to the board on application to the medical superintendent and on his recommendation.

Visiting Physicians Bound by Rules 1. Such medical practitioner shall be bound by all regulations touching members of the medical and surgical staffs, and all other rules and regulations of the General Public Hospital applicable to his case.

Hours for Visiting Physicians 6. In order to avoid confusion in the work of the hospital, all physicians, excepting members of the staff, are expected to attend their patients after the hour of two of the clock in the afternoon. This shall not apply to cases requiring frequent attendance.

Responsibility for Fees 7. The commissioners assume no responsibility regarding fees payable to physicians by the patient.

Payment by Patients 8. The medical superintendent shall decide what shall be paid for the use of rooms, medicine and nursing by patients.

Needs it for Its Wholesale and Manufacturing Business—Another Proof of the Firm's Rapidly Increasing Business.

Scovil Bros., Limited, have purchased the large building in German street, belonging to the James H. Peters estate and damaged by fire a few weeks ago.

Scovil Bros., Ltd., have long wanted more commodious quarters for their steadily growing wholesale and manufacturing business, and an inspection of the damaged building led to the conclusion that it could very readily be adapted to meet the needs of this enterprising firm.

St. Stephen, N. B., June 11.—Members of the opposition party in Charlotte felt they have been neglected entirely without cause, in the pretentious victory which has been made with respect to candidates for the party in other counties of the province.

Two fine meetings tonight in what are regarded as Conservative strongholds furnished striking evidence of the popularity of the candidates—H. W. Mann, Harrison McAllister, D. P. Gillmor and Geo. M. Byron—and of the bright chances for their success in the coming election.

A. B. Copp, the opposition leader, was given an enthusiastic reception tonight in Milltown, and his presentation of the program made a most telling impression.

At all times the large audience was in perfect sympathy with Mr. Copp. Two of the candidates, Messrs. McAllister and Gillmor, also spoke at the meeting and made a most favorable impression.

Mr. Copp also exposed the government's pretensions to a more efficient collection of the stampage and to the provision of more adequate financial safeguards by the passage of the audit bill.

London, June 11.—In a message to the Salvation Army today Gen. Booth, commander-in-chief, who recently underwent an operation for a cataract on his left eye, says that in a few hours he may be compelled to announce to his comrades that he is hopelessly blind.

My Dear Comrades: I have not lost my sight, but I have lost my eyes. Instead of the restoration of my sight which I had hoped for and which I know you have earnestly prayed for the doctors tell me I am on the very eve of entire blindness.

In a few hours comrades may be under the painful compulsion of announcing that I am blind, and that I have lost my eyes. Instead of the restoration of my sight which I had hoped for and which I know you have earnestly prayed for the doctors tell me I am on the very eve of entire blindness.

These facts were brought out with great effectiveness by Mr. Gillmor himself tonight, and the young candidate is carrying everything before him in Charlotte.

Mr. Gillmor was cheered again and again as he referred to the personnel of the opposition, and remarked on the turning down of any representative from the town by the government convention. He said many prominent Conservatives had pronounced his support.

Mr. Copp was then heard in a masterly address, scoring point after point against the government and outlining his own policies which have been received with much favor by the people of the province.

After dealing with the financial standing, the debt increase, and pledging of the credit of the province to the extent of $7,267,000 for railways, Mr. Copp dealt with the stampage question and crown lands policy, proving conclusively that an increased cut in toll accounts for the increase in the receipts and advocated the taking of an inventory of the crown lands in order to take proper steps for their preservation.

Mr. Gillmor spoke along lines indicated above, and W. F. Todd, ex-M.P., appealed for support of the opposition candidates as a private citizen having an interest in the future of the province.

Mr. Copp. Mr. Copp was then heard in a masterly address, scoring point after point against the government and outlining his own policies which have been received with much favor by the people of the province.

REAL ESTATE IMPORT

Several in Negotiation Property—Mr. Finn action Closed—Sale

That the activity in Courtenay estate has barely commenced is the fact that negotiations are in progress for some of the largest deals in that section which have yet taken place.

An interesting purchase was made yesterday when H. F. Gordon, of Toronto, bought the two lots on the east corner of Red Head and Leonard roads on Tisdale Place.

The sale of a large block of property in the south-east corner of Brunswick and Victoria streets, owned by Henry Finnegan, has been completed and the transaction is being handled by Messrs. W. B. Chambers, of Toronto, and Messrs. W. B. Chambers, of Toronto, and Messrs. W. B. Chambers, of Toronto.

Alfred Burley has just completed the sale of a two-acre plot and house on the side to Hans Pedersen who is going to build a large house on the property.

Advices from various government forces are making political intimidation a thing of the past.

Liberal committees in their guard against the effects of the provisions of the law against bribery.

On Wednesday, June 5, a very event took place at Dunsmuir, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. McRobbie, at Pandemonium, when a very handsome silver cake was presented to the occasion.

At the conclusion of a dainty dinner, Mr. and Mrs. J. McRobbie, on behalf of the visitors, presented a very handsome silver cake to the occasion.

Mr. Copp made a most effective criticism of the government's administration of this province, and said the chief cause of the exceptionally high cost of the money was expended under partisan direction for political effect.

Mr. Copp went on to speak of the increased terms of payment of the additional money never got on the roads, but went into the pockets of party friends.

He gave several instances of cases of this kind, and said that the money was paid to officials in salary and commission.

Mr. Copp said that in visits to nearly every county in the province during the present campaign he had found the roads, except within a few miles of the larger cities, in most cases in a disgraceful condition, and often almost impassable.

"Take the road money absolutely out of politics and put it as closely in the hands of the people as possible, is the policy," declared Mr. Copp, and the meeting applauded his statement.

The meeting closed with cheers for the king and candidates.

Mr. Copp. Mr. Copp was then heard in a masterly address, scoring point after point against the government and outlining his own policies which have been received with much favor by the people of the province.

REAL ESTATE IMPORT

Several in Negotiation Property—Mr. Finn action Closed—Sale

That the activity in Courtenay estate has barely commenced is the fact that negotiations are in progress for some of the largest deals in that section which have yet taken place.

An interesting purchase was made yesterday when H. F. Gordon, of Toronto, bought the two lots on the east corner of Red Head and Leonard roads on Tisdale Place.

The sale of a large block of property in the south-east corner of Brunswick and Victoria streets, owned by Henry Finnegan, has been completed and the transaction is being handled by Messrs. W. B. Chambers, of Toronto, and Messrs. W. B. Chambers, of Toronto, and Messrs. W. B. Chambers, of Toronto.

Alfred Burley has just completed the sale of a two-acre plot and house on the side to Hans Pedersen who is going to build a large house on the property.

Advices from various government forces are making political intimidation a thing of the past.

On Wednesday, June 5, a very event took place at Dunsmuir, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. McRobbie, at Pandemonium, when a very handsome silver cake was presented to the occasion.

At the conclusion of a dainty dinner, Mr. and Mrs. J. McRobbie, on behalf of the visitors, presented a very handsome silver cake to the occasion.

Mr. Copp made a most effective criticism of the government's administration of this province, and said the chief cause of the exceptionally high cost of the money was expended under partisan direction for political effect.

Mr. Copp went on to speak of the increased terms of payment of the additional money never got on the roads, but went into the pockets of party friends.

FARVILLE SOLD FOR BENTLEY AND ANOTHER PERSON

Gives Them Rousing Reception Cheers for Candidates and Hon. Dr. Pugsley

The Liberal campaign in the county was given a decided boost last evening by a successful meeting in the Temperance hall, Fairville, at which Messrs. Bentley and Anderson were heard...

Strong Objection to Dual Position of Recorder Baxter, and County People Are Not Likely to Overlook Their Own Interests—The Broken Pledges of the Fleming Government.

The Auditor General's report, which was published in the Journal of the House of Assembly for 1911, April 12, the following appears: "Your committee has pleasure in adding that of the many bridges and road accounts critically and fully examined not an error, overcharge or irregularity was discovered..."

“DOCTORED” EVIDENCE CIRCULATED BY TORIES TO HIDE THEIR GUILT

“Doctored” the public accounts to conceal the evidence against itself is the latest trick of the Fleming government forces. Only agents of an administration that felt itself condemned by the evidence would attempt to tamper with the official figures and documents as has been done. Read the facts: Under the heading “Detailed statement of ordinary bridges, 1910,” a “doctored” report is being circulated in the various counties of New Brunswick, purporting to show general expenditures by the government. This misleading account concludes with the following “certificates”:

“The foregoing detailed statement prepared by the department of public works, re expenditure on ordinary bridges for the fiscal year 1910, has been examined by me and the totals in the case of each bridge agree with the totals as they appear in the auditor general's report for 1910, although the arrangement of the details is different.”

W. A. LOUDON, Auditor General. Before concluding, Mr. Bentley made a slight reference to the duties of Mr. Baxter. “No man,” he said, “can serve two masters. On one occasion in the assembly a citizens committee from St. John was asked to investigate the proposed new charter. In one section they asked that the city be given the right to appoint their own recorder. Mr. Baxter objected to this section, and when I asked him on what grounds he objected to this section, when the city paid the recorder, he was unable to offer any satisfactory explanation, and gentlemen, he knew that if the city had the appointment the recorder would not be Mr. Baxter while he could retain his position as recorder of the government.”

“If it took so many months, however,” said Dr. Pugsley, “to merely write the name to the contract, I can readily believe that the state department has been able to complete the contract in a few days. The state department has been able to complete the contract in a few days. The state department has been able to complete the contract in a few days.”

million dollars, and they are now $200,000 behind. That is a bad record, and it is for you to say whether or not you are going to endorse it.” (Cries of we won't and applause.)

WRONG EXPENDITURES

Mr. Bentley then made a reference to the repairs made to bridges and the construction of small ones, and showed that the amount paid to the superintendent for his services was nearly as much as the total pay list. “I do not say that the inspector is dishonest,” he said, “for he may drive from one end of the province to the other to inspect small repairs, and the amount paid may be a legitimate charge, as he would be entitled to travelling expenses, three or four days pay more, and for making the trip and perhaps for the hire of a team. What I do say is that the system is wrong.”

“What we want to do is to place the record straight before the hands of the people,” (Cries of hear, hear, and loud applause.) The speaker next dealt with the repairs made to the suspension bridge in the fall and summer of 1911. The cost of these repairs was $10,800.31. He had made an examination of these repairs expecting to find a whole lot of work, but he was surprised to find that there were only a few new planks at the end and new girders where they were needed. It was a surprising discovery, and he was sure that the contractor who did the work must have robbed the government tremendously.

MORE ABOUT THE MURDER OF F. P. SHAW

Slain in Honduras Evidently in Revenge for Term in Jail—Threats Had Been Made. It is now learned that Frederick Pierpont Shaw, formerly of Lowell (Mass.), who was well known in this province as president of the Canada Coal Corporation, was assassinated by a native at Black River, Triona, Honduras, on June 5. Mr. Shaw was in South America on a mission for the court of Illinois in the case of the Central American Commercial Company.

Mr. Shaw is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Bessie Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, of Maryville (N. B.), and one son, Gibson, and his father, Dr. Thomas P. Shaw, of Lowell (Mass.). The New York American of Saturday gives the following account of the circumstances attending Mr. Shaw's death: News was received yesterday of the assassination in Honduras of Frederick Pierpont Shaw, a New York lawyer, who lived at No. 140 Claremont avenue. The dispatch, which was received first by the Star Department at Washington, gave no details except that the assassin had been captured. It did not give his name.

Mr. Shaw went to Honduras about two months ago with George A. Malachuk, also of New York. They represented the Chicago Title & Trust Company, receiver of the Central American Commercial Company, and their mission was to take possession of certain plantation property owned by the latter company. They were acting under orders of the federal court of the northern district of Illinois, and as such were really federal officers. This leads to the belief that international complications may follow the death of Mr. Shaw.

When the agents reached their destination, according to Mr. Terry's recollection, they found a man named Brunner and several others on the property as “squatters.” These men were evicted, and when they refused to go were ordered and some of them placed in jail. They threatened to “get even” with Shaw and Malachuk when they were liberated. They were set free about ten days ago. It is believed that they at once tried to make good their threats and that Mr. Shaw was a man of a little over thirty years, very powerful and athletic, refused to be frightened, determined to fight it out with them and was slain.

Neither Mr. Malachuk nor Mr. Shaw anticipated trouble after the men were jailed. This is shown by the fact that Mr. Malachuk returned to New York, arriving here Thursday. He could not be located last night, and so far as known is ignorant of Mr. Shaw's death. Mr. Malachuk had completed his share of the business in Honduras and left Mr. Shaw there as resident manager of the property. The dispatch to the state department telling of the murder was sent by Dr. D. White, American minister at Tegucigalpa, who received his message from Harold D. Glum, the American consul at Comayagua. The state department has called to Mr. White, instructing him to make a thorough investigation of the tragedy, and it is possible that a special agent of the state department will be sent to Honduras to attend the trial of the assassin. Mr. Shaw is a niece of Mrs. R. S. Irving of this city, and granddaughter of Alex. Gibson.

ANOTHER TEMPERANCE MAN HEARD FROM. A. C. M. LAWSON, G. C. T. of the I. O. G. T., writes from Fredericton to The Telegraph under the caption “How I vote (D.V.) on June 20.”

“My ballot or vote is a gift obtained for me after many years of struggle. I have in the power of a king. I have a voice in the government of my country. My vote counts the same on election day as the vote of the millionaire. I am on the jury and am to act as a judge. The case has been laid before me for my judgment. My vote is a public trust and not a chattel. I vote according to my best judgment after due consideration. I am the master of the politician on election day. The main question in the present election campaign to me is the one of temperance or intemperance. Temperance to me means total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for our country. I have tried to find out my nation's service when he is at the same time the sworn officer of the city.

Dr. Pugsley charged the government with delaying the proclamation of the vesting of the appointment of the recorder in the common council until after Col. Baxter had received the appointment, the bill stating that it would not become effective until after the death of the present incumbent, although this bill was prepared and approved by Col. Baxter while he was a member of the council and Mr. Skinner was recorder. Besides inconsistency, Dr. Pugsley charged Col. Baxter with violation of the spirit of the independence of parliament act, under present conditions, he holding his office at the pleasure of the government.

“In speaking of the attacks upon himself, Dr. Pugsley stated in making them the government was admitting weakness in not wishing to be judged on their own record. He then repeated his charge made at other meetings during the campaign and still unchallenged, that the Central Railway report was false and that Mr. Hazen knew it was false when it was presented to the legislature. Dr. Pugsley further charged that the Hazen-Fleming government had made no effort to make the Central Railway pay for the debt given it away to the C. P. R. simply for the purpose of discrediting the old government and making political capital. His exposure of the improvident bargain by which the C. P. R. practically handed over to the C. P. R. practically a free gift leaving the province with a very heavy interest to pay on the cost, was very forcible and made a telling impression on the audience. He closed with a tribute to the candi-

TORY "REFORM" When Mr. Fleming was in opposition he promised that if his party got into power at Fredericton the people's money would be guarded most faithfully against partisan influences and improper expenditures of all kinds.

Mr. Fleming is still making professions of political virtue and business integrity; but let us examine one of his most conspicuous transactions. The company that is building the Pinder spur railroad, the bonds of which the province guaranteed for $130,000, without knowing anything about the cost of the road, has among its directors the following distinguished patriots:

One son-in-law of the manager of the Tory newspaper in Fredericton. One law partner of O. S. Crockett, M. P.

One son-in-law of J. K. Pinder, the chief beneficiary of the Pinder railroad. The government, as has been said, guaranteed the bonds of this line to the amount of $130,000, thirteen miles at $10,000 a mile, and already $50,000 of the amount has been paid over.

When Mr. Uphan of Carleton county made enquiry in the Legislature as to this railroad he was told that the government had guaranteed the bonds, but that it had no information as to the cost of the road per mile.

No information as to the age, or weight per yard, of the rails used. No information as to whether or not the wages of the men had been paid.

No information as to from whom the rails had been bought. No information as to several other matters always regarded as essential in the case of a bond guarantee.

The railroad in question is a feeder of the C. P. R. Mr. Pinder, a member of the late Legislature, and a disappointed aspirant for cabinet honors under Premier Fleming, was the promoter of the road. The character of the directorate may be judged from the facts given at the beginning of this article.

Now, a question for the consideration of the electors of the province is: How does this transaction square with the professions of virtue made by Mr. Fleming and his lieutenants?

This is an example of the Tory "Reforms" which the voters of New Brunswick are now asked to endorse.

moreover, even if Mr. Fleming's policy were carried out, he could at most purchase 100 farms of low value, whereas his own estimate is that there are 3,400 abandoned farms in the province.

Mr. Fleming aims chiefly at the introduction of immigrants to take up this unoccupied land; but Mr. Copp proposes a measure designed to aid New Brunswick farmers who have shown their faith in the province by remaining here and who desire that their sons shall remain also.

The leader of the opposition believes that the first duty of the government is to assist in promoting the prosperity of our own people and in making it possible for farmers' sons to take up new land for themselves or enlarge upon their present farming operations.

To this end he has outlined a plan to raise money upon the provincial credit and loan it to farmers at a low rate of interest and upon easy terms of repayment.

If desirable immigrants can be secured upon fair terms, Mr. Copp is in favor of bringing them in, but he first makes it clear that his policy will be to encourage and retain in the province our native sons.

He proposes also to assist in the extension of telephones throughout the rural districts, and to place the management of the roads directly in the hands of the people themselves.

Here, to go no further into his platform, Mr. Copp provides a group of measures designed directly to protect the comfort and prosperity of the agricultural population throughout the province.

Comparisons are in order, and all over New Brunswick today residents of the country districts are comparing the policy of Mr. Copp with the weak and belated proposals of Mr. Fleming, and are keeping in mind the fact that after being four years in office Mr. Fleming has only now waked up to the necessity of making an eleventh-hour bid for support among the farmers.

Mr. Fleming is late and impractical. Mr. Copp's platform is receiving hearty endorsement everywhere.

THE REWARDS OF PROFESSIONAL LIFE A British finance minister once contended that the most heavily taxed people in England, in proportion to their means, were the small income taxpayers, "where the cloth coat leaves off and the fustian jacket begins."

This is probably true in all countries. There is no class interest among professional men. They are not organized into aggressive defensive units like the trades unions.

They put the general interests of the community first and they have the reward of their altruism in the form of respect and esteem.

Johnson's Grub Street couple expressed the law of rewards in this case: "There mark what ill the scholar's life asseal, Toll, envy, want, the patron, and the jail."

It is almost impossible to focus class interest among professional men. The doctors in England are experiencing the truth of this in their protest against some of the conditions and clauses of the new insurance act.

They claim to have been betrayed by the politicians, but have only succeeded in arousing a mild, impersonal interest in the matter among physicians.

The remuneration of teachers, artists, poets and professional men is proverbially meagre. The exceptionally gifted lawyer is said not to scruple to exact large fees; and the same thing has been hinted of eminent specialists in medicine.

Even the artist sometimes prostitutes his art to worldly ends, and the author turns out "the best sellers" by the yard as a factory turns out cotton; but, as a rule, it holds true that professional men who aim to make money should turn to other and more remunerative callings.

The largest margin of their reward cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents. It must be charged to other accounts. The professional man may lead a precarious existence, but the world cannot afford to lose his humanizing influence in this age of iron and concrete.

A recent enthusiastic writer speaks of the great poetic age to come: "When our present tongues have ceased, men in the likeness of angels as they walk by the river of the water of life and stand amid the splendors of the city of pearl and gold, will still treasure poetry." We are far enough removed from that age at present, and formal poetry seems to exercise less influence in the world than it has done in other periods.

LIBERAL PRINCIPLES Mr. Lloyd George, in speaking some time ago on the relation of the Liberal party to the question of the taxation of land values, declared that "if Liberalism leaves the matter there and does not substitute some more rational system, it must inevitably suffer for its lack of courage and foresight."

It would be difficult to accuse the Liberal party in England of lack of courage and foresight. It has gone forward with one reform after another, and as so rapid a pace that the people find it difficult to keep up with it.

Whether it has gone far enough, or whether it has gone too far, is a question which the Chancellor of the Exchequer was then discussing. It is a matter on which there may be difference of opinion, but certainly the present government has well maintained the most of the best traditions of Liberalism.

Mr. Gladstone once defined Liberalism as trust in the people qualified by prudence. Conservation being mistrust of the people qualified by fear.

The qualification leaves room for party leaders, who, when they fall short of their creed, calmly reply that they are actuated by prudence.

There was a general feeling among the old line Liberals, after the victory of the party in Canada in 1896, that prudence was much evidence, perhaps more than trust in the people. A Liberal party will inevitably suffer for lack of courage and foresight. It must fight against inequality. A true expression of Liberal principles will represent in politics the law of progress. Trust in the people is always a sound principle for a Liberal party to go upon, and for that reason it must aim to remove all obstacles created by man which prevent all from having equal opportunities. There are natural inequalities which cannot be removed, but artificial inequalities are generally mischievous. It is safe, wise and beneficial for a Liberal party to war against these.

It cannot prosper through "doles" to special interests, and it must pronounce its veto upon legislative nepotism. Everyone should stand in the same position before the law, should have the same voice in the making of the law, and everyone should have the same political privilege and responsibility.

Mr. Borden is at present devoting ways and means by which he can manipulate our fiscal system so as to enable the sinister interests that are entrenched to freely to raise their heads above the water.

He aims to create, maintain and extend, privilege and monopoly, and all the evils flowing therefrom. Mr. Arthur Chamberlain, a manufacturer, and brother of Joseph Chamberlain, said: "Give us protection and we manufacturers will show you something in the shape of trusts and rings which you little dream of."

The supreme sanctions of Liberalism are the interests and welfare of all the people, and a system that protects and buttresses monopoly is entirely alien to its spirit. It must fight for some more rational system or inevitably suffer for its lack of courage and foresight.

If there is to be tariff revision in Canada it must be revision downward, not upward.

MR. COPP ON THE OUTLOOK Mr. A. B. Copp, leader of the opposition, in the course of the great meeting at Milltown Tuesday night, spoke concerning the chances of victory, and all over the province his words will be read today with keen interest, and in opposition circles with unqualified satisfaction. He said: "Many independent Conservatives are opposing the government, and almost daily I am in receipt of assurances from this class of voters that they are in hearty sympathy with the opposition."

"Those who are closely allied to the government organization now practically admit that we will carry the seats in Kent, Gloucester, Albert, Westmorland, Madawaska, Victoria and Queens, and with nineteen seats to start, with the rest of the province a good fighting ground with a certainty at least of our receiving a good working majority in the next Legislature."

The constituencies referred to by Mr. Copp are, as government leaders privately admit, as good as lost to the Fleming administration, and in addition to those the opposition will certainly have supporters from St. John city and county, Kent, Kings, Charlotte and other places.

With the nomination yesterday of an independent ticket in Northumberland—a ticket bitterly hostile to Mr. Morrissey and the administration—the government finds itself with a losing fight on its hands in every constituency in the province. Its hope was that in several counties there would be no opposition, but that hope disappeared early in the campaign, and there are now no counties in which the government is not finding that it has more than its hands full.

Whatever influence and whatever money can be commanded by the federal and the local governments will be used unsparringly in the attempt by corruption to purchase another lease of power for the unworthy Fleming combination, but as the campaign goes forward it is being discovered that the revolt against misrule, extravagance, and violated pledges is too grave to be controlled by the use of money and political intimidation. Impartial observers will deprecate Mr. Copp's expectation of victory is well founded.

THE CONTEST IN THE CITY Messrs. Foster, Knowlton, Mahoney and Keirstead, who have been conducting a personal canvass in the city, and who have been received enthusiastically by the electors in every ward, held their first large public meeting in the North End last night, and the fine attendance and hearty applause clearly indicated their strength in that part of the city. It was a fine meeting, and will go far to strengthen the new general impression that the whole opposition ticket in the city will be returned easily.

From the first this ticket has made an excellent impression. Here are successful and representative business men, with clear-cut ideas as to the administration of public affairs, who are devoting their time to politics with the simple and straightforward desire to better conditions in this province. Their discussions of the issues have been thoughtful and effective, and, in addition to the party strength, each member of the ticket has a strong personal following the effect of which will be felt on election day.

Certainly the opposition campaign in the city is going with a fine swing, and with every hope of a splendid victory. The province at large looks with interest upon the St. John contest and the opposition forces everywhere are hoping that this city will lead the way in giving Mr. Copp a good working majority. There is abundant reason today for the conviction that St. John will not disappoint the province. The addresses of the candidates last evening prove that with their election on June 20 this constituency will be admirably represented in the Legislature.

PROGRESS OF THE FIGHT The fine reception given the city opposition candidates in the North End last night, the rousing opposition meeting addressed by Hon. Mr. Pugsley at Little River, the cheering reports from Messrs. Bentley and Anderson, the big opposition meeting at Milltown addressed by Mr. Copp and the great rally in Moncton where Hon. Mr. Emmerson and Mr. Robinson were heard, indicate how actively the opposition campaign is going forward and what a satisfactory reception the opposition is being accorded by the electors. At these meetings, reports of which are given by The Telegraph this morning, the weakened and falling Fleming administration received telling blows.

To the more serious charges preferred against the government by the opposition speakers Mr. Fleming and his ministers have made no adequate defence. They have talked wide of the mark. They have not attempted to explain what they have done with the provincial funds, or why they have not produced better results. They attempt to obscure these matters by pretending indignation over the conclusions of the opposition.

From the beginning of the campaign it has been clear—and the fact surely stood out conspicuously at all of last night's meetings—that the government has had the worst of the argument. It is seen now by Conservatives that Mr. Fleming, through timidity or incompetence, made a tremendous mistake in going to the country before he had prepared some sort of constructive platform on which to appeal to the taxpayers.

Fair-minded men in every county are contrasting Mr. Fleming's failure in this regard with Mr. Copp's very practical and progressive platform, the carrying out of which would so directly benefit and stimulate the principal occupations of our people.

IN THE COUNTY Good reports come daily from the county concerning the progress of Mr. A. F. Bentley and Mr. Amador Anderson, the opposition candidates. Mr. Bentley, since he entered the Legislature, has made an enviable record as a public man. He has been courageous, faithful in his attention to business, independent in his attitude toward public questions, and ever watchful of the public interest. His merits as a representative are freely admitted, even by his opponents, and although Mr. Fleming degraded himself by deliberately misrepresentation of Mr. Bentley on more than one occasion it is generally conceded that the course of the Premier did Mr. Bentley no harm and certainly did Mr. Fleminging no good. Mr. Anderson, a representative and popular farmer who was selected as Mr. Bentley's running mate, has a wide acquaintance in the county and has everywhere been heartily welcomed by the electors.

Reports from the county allege that the local government forces have been distributing money freely on the pretence of having road work done, but really for the purpose of corrupting doubtful voters. Such tactics now cannot blind the people of the county to the government's miserable failure in the matter of the roads and bridges, and will only show how desperate the government cause is admitted to be by the Tory forces. There is every reason for believing that Messrs. Bentley and Anderson will be returned on June 20 by handsome majorities.

"OUT OF THEIR OWN MOUTHS" In the auditor general's report for 1911, page A 22, there is found official evidence that the cut of lumber on Crown lands has increased. The Standard and the government have denied that there was any increase in the cut, and have denied that there was any official evidence of such increase, and the Standard yesterday strenuously denied that anyone connected with the government had ever admitted an increase.

The attention of all and sundry is, therefore, directed to the following, taken from the auditor general's report, 1911, page A 22.

September 23, 1911. W. A. Loudoun, Esq., Auditor General. The Appropriation for Collection of Stumpage will not be sufficient to pay all the bills of that service to the 31st of October, 1911, on account of the INCREASED CUT OF LUMBER, and under Section 27 of the Audit Act, I now ask that an additional amount of $900 be granted to meet this service.

T. G. LOGGIE, Deputy Surveyor General. The treasury board on September 23, 1911, ordered that the sum asked for "to be placed to the credit of collection of stumpage, Crown Land Department."

Now, since the Fleming government made an extra appropriation because of the statement of the deputy surveyor general that the cut of lumber on Crown lands had increased, what do Mr. Fleming and Mr. Grimmer and other ministers mean by denying the increase?

This increased cut, proof of which is thus afforded, was, of course, responsible for the greater stumpage returns. The cost of collection was greater, and no doubt the officials and employees of the department were not only increased but had more work to do than formerly. This confirms the statements of Mr. Copp and many other members of the opposition that the government's boasted vigilance in collecting the revenue amounted to nothing, the simple fact being that more lumber was cut on Crown lands.

Probably the production of Mr. Loggie's letter, and the evidence that the money was voted for the reason he gave, will settle this particular question.

"DOCTORING" THE EVIDENCE The Fleming government, finding how generally its partisan payments to road foremen, bridge "superintendents," "various persons," and the like, are condemned by the people, is attempting to profit by the "doctoring" of the records.

In several counties now, there are being circulated what purport to be extracts from the auditor-general's report for 1910; but a comparison shows that some items in the official report for that year have been changed for use in the circulars, evidently for the purpose of misleading the public with respect to many real extracts from the report of the auditor-general which have been circulated by the opposition.

This, for example, in the report for 1910, thus appears: "Canterbury bridge, A. W. Chapman, foreman, $119.00." The "doctored" documents now being circulated the foregoing item is changed, to read as follows: "Canterbury bridge, parish of Dorchester, A. W. Chapman, lumber and stone, $21.00."

The man in question was a practicing lawyer in Dorchester, and evidently the government forces found that they were suffering from the attention which had been directed to such payments and so have resorted to garbling and "doctoring" the evidence for campaign purposes.

It will be remembered that in the last auditor-general's report many payments are concealed under the head "Various Persons," but the opposition had made many questions from the reports for previous years and have made the province well acquainted not only with payments to "Various Persons" but with many items in which names and amounts were given in detail.

What sort of a government is it that is compelled, in its fight for existence, to profit by the circulation of garbled and false statements, such as that to which reference has been made? Why does the government find it necessary to issue such a "second edition" of the auditor-general's report for 1910, or of alleged portions of it, when its own committee for that year certified that the official report was absolutely without error? The effect of this will be not to screen the government's conduct in its distribution of money to partisans, but to make the electors everywhere justly suspicious of every circular or document sent out by the government and its agents during the present campaign.

The electors know what it means when a government, or its agents, begin to resort to "doctored" evidence.

THE GOOD OF THE PROVINCE Electors who desire on June 20 to vote for the good of the province will do well carefully to compare what Mr. Fleming has actually done for New Brunswick during the last four years with the constructive policies proposed by Mr. Copp. Mr. Fleming, though he has promised much, has done nothing for agriculture, which is the backbone of the province, beyond creating new positions to be filled with partisan officials at liberal salaries. But Mr. Copp puts forward a definite and progressive programme for the betterment of conditions in every county. Let us examine a few of the statements he made in his speech at Milltown:

"As I have stated in my manifesto, I will choose practical farmers as my commissioners of agriculture, who will see to it that the officials appointed know their business."

"If I am elected to office I will undertake to see that the farmer will directly benefit from the provincial treasury, with the object, principally, of keeping our own boys at home. I will inaugurate a system of loaning money, or guaranteeing loans on farm properties at a low rate of interest on easy terms of payment. I have no objection to the assistance of immigration, but I believe our first duty is to our natives. Premier Fleming's ready-made farms scheme is intended principally to attract large families, instead of their country is made up largely of subsidies to railways and guarantee of bonds, measures for the benefit chiefly of the wealthy, represented by railway companies. When subsidies were granted the province had absolutely no security, while in the case of bond guarantees the security is one mile of railway for the amount of the guarantee per mile."

"By taking proper safeguards and loaning only a percentage of the value of farms, I believe that a policy will be evolved which will aid materially in the increase of the production from the soil, which, after all, is the best contribution we can make to the prosperity of the province."

"If we can get young men, who are members of large families, instead of their leaving the province to take up new land with the money he secures at a low rate of interest, or to improve the land already in the possession of his family, so that it supports a large number, then we are doing a splendid service for New Brunswick."

Mr. Copp made a most effective criticism of the government's administration of the roads and bridges, and charged that the exceptionally bad roads were that the money was expended under partisan direction for political effect.

Mr. Copp went on to speak of the increase in taxation, and said that the additional money never got on the roads, but went into the pockets of party friends. He gave several instances of cases of this sort, and charged that about 50 per cent of the money which was voted for roads was paid to officials in salary and commission. Mr. Copp said that in visits to nearly every county, the proceeds during the present campaign he had found the roads, except within a few miles of the larger cities, in most cases in a disgraceful condition, and often almost impassable.

"Take the road monies absolutely out of politics and put them as closely in the hands of the people as possible, is my policy," he declared.

If Mr. Fleming had really intended to inaugurate and carry out any really constructive policy, he surely would have set about it before four years had expired. It is time to give Mr. Copp a chance.

NOTE AND COMMENT Cheering reports from every county. These frequent rains bring out all the beauties of the Fleming roads.

Mr. Fleming has the money, but the people are against him. He has had his change and failed to "make good."

Nomination day, and the government finds its ticket opposed in every constituency by men conscious of victory.

Government candidates are met everywhere by indignation over the government's broken promises, its waste and petty partzanship.

Hon. Mr. Haysen is going to respond to a cry for help from Charlotte county. Evidently the government forces realize their weakness in that quarter.

The West Side gave the opposition city ticket a fine reception last night. The government forces are weaker than usual on that side of the harbor.

The county candidates, and Hon. Dr. Pugsley were greeted by a great audience and an enthusiastic one in Fairville last evening. That rally had the swing of victory.

Despatches regarding opposition prospects in the outlying constituencies are exceedingly cheerful. Everywhere the impression grows that the government is on its last legs.

Mr. J. W. Keirstead gave very convincing reasons for his candidature last evening. His arraignment of the government was very forcible and well-argued. It will take some answering.

That independent ticket in Northumberland is one calculated to keep Hon. John Morrissey and his ticket associates awake at nights. In every county now the government finds itself up against the stiffest kind of fighting.

Messrs. Bentley and Anderson and Hon. William Pugsley got a grand reception at Little River Tuesday. "It is all right in the county," was a remark frequently heard after the meeting. The speeches were of the hard-hitting variety, and will mean many votes.

That burning temperance advocate, Hon. Robert Maxwell, has brought a hornet's nest about the ears of the Fleming party. The temperance people have most thoroughly exposed the government's bad faith in the matter of temperance legislation.

With Mr. Copp, Hon. Mr. Pugsley, Hon. Mr. Emmerson and Mr. F. B. Carvell all speaking in the opposition interest this week, and with all the opposition candidates on the firing line, the campaign will be warm. Every day sees a gain for the opposition forces.

The chief beneficiary of an increase in the British preference to fifty per cent would be the people of Canada—Ottawa Free Press.

The sole obstacle in the way of such an increase is the Borden government, which was elected on the "loyalty cry."

Every member of the government's city ticket is canvassing for himself rather than for the combination. "Vote for me if you can't vote for the others" is an appeal which many electors have heard from the Fleming standard-bearers. Everybody knows what that means.

Dr. Pearson was quite correct in saying that the auditor general's report proves that the cut on Crown lands was increased. The letter of the deputy surveyor general proving Dr. Pearson's statement is reproduced on this page today. The Standard's reputation for foolish misrepresentation is recognized wherever it is circulated.

A New Brunswicker who is visiting Regina says in a recent letter to a friend in this province:

"The western provinces are demanding a larger market and will eventually get it; everything points to a landslide for Scott in Saskatchewan and for Sifton in Alberta."

Quebec has just been heard from, New Brunswick speaks next.

During last winter the Fleming government announced that it was about to build a new bridge at the reversing falls. Have the electors of this city and county seen any evidence that the government will build a bridge this year? Beyond some election surveys nothing has been done. This was one of the many promises Mr. Fleming made to the people of the St. John constituencies. It is the old story.

A peculiar attempt at deception has turned up in St. John county. A government canvasser there has had the opportunity to assert that the reciprocity agreement had been carried, could not have been repealed without the consent of the United States. This statement is, of course, a foolish falsehood. Both countries reserved the right to terminate the agreement at any time. This fact is so well known that the Conservative canvasser will only be laughed at.

The Standard yesterday quoted Mr. J. B. M. Baxter as having said in a speech: "It has been said, and the Telegraph insinuated," he remarked, "that because I was friendly with Mr. Lowell there would be a saw-off in this constituency. There is only a short time to arrange a saw-off; the proposition if made at all must be made by the other side; and I want to tell you it would not be entertained. Mr. Carson and I are going to fight to the finish, because we feel the people want us to."

This is a very poor bluff. The only talk there ever was about a saw-off came from the government forces. Mr. Baxter will find that this sort of bluster does not pay. He will have all the fighting he can stand before the polls close on June 20.

Mr. W. E. Foster made several highly important criticisms of the local government's railway policy last evening. He pointed out for example that while Mr. Fleming is presenting the Central railway to the C. P. R. free of charge that corporation is paying $15,000 a year rental for the N. B. Southern although its earnings are only $500 a mile as against $1,200 a mile for the Central. These are hard facts showing how indefensible and unnecessary Mr. Fleming's gift-policy in connection with the Central is. But, if Mr. Fleming could have his way, he would give the Valley road to the C. P. R. as well.

Mr. Foster, in discussing the notorious Pinder spur line, showed that no branch road of thirteen miles in length in the Dominion is paying $1,250 a mile, yet unless the Pinder road produces that sum the taxpayers of the province will have to pay the interest on the bonds for $120,000 which the Fleming government has guaranteed. It's a nice combination.

TEMPERANCE AND THE CAMPAIGN

Vain Effort of Conservatives to Escape Punishment for Breaking Faith With Temperance Party.

In reply to a request sent to all candidates in the present campaign for their signature to a pledge to introduce and support a provincial prohibition measure if elected, the Temperance Federation has received letters from five of the candidates, signing the pledge in question. Other signatures are expected by the Temperance Federation officers, who express themselves as greatly encouraged by the fact that these men have responded so promptly and in such a hearty manner. All pledges are to be received by June 12. A copy of the pledge and of the names of the candidates who have signed follows here:

"I,, a candidate in the forthcoming provincial elections, do solemnly promise that if elected as a representative to the provincial legislature I will endeavor to have introduced and by my vote and influence support a provincial prohibition law and all other legislation favorable to the prohibition of the liquor traffic."

(Signed) J. N. KILLICK, C. M. LEGER, H. F. FLEWELLING, GEORGE W. PEARSON, J. W. KEIRSTEAD.

The members of the St. John Liquor License Commission yesterday addressed the following letter to The Evening Times: "St. John, N. B., June 10, 1912. To the Editor of The Times: Sir—In view of the reported statements of certain speakers at the temperance political meetings held yesterday, we would beg to quote the section of my vote and regulated the number of licenses to be granted in the city.

"In cities and incorporated towns respectively, according to the following scale, and that is to say: In any ward of such city or incorporated town one for each full 250 of the first 1,000 of the population in such ward, and one for each full 500 over 1,000 of the population. Provided further that in the city of St. John subject to the provisions of sub-section 4 there shall not in any year be issued more than twenty-five licenses."

Under the terms of this section the following table will show the number of licenses at present issued, as well as the number which might be issued:

Table with 3 columns: Licenses could be issued, Population, and Licenses issued. Rows include Kings, Wellington, Prince, Sydney, Lansdowne, and Dufferin.

(Signed) H. C. WETMORE, THOS. KICKHAM, W. D. BASKIN, J. B. JONES, Inspector.

This letter does not at all meet the criticism of the Temperance Federation speakers at the various meetings on Sunday. The fact that cannot be disputed is that the Fleming government, in a government measure, in 1902, expressly changed the old law and made it possible to have more licenses in St. John city than were legal under the old government. The number of licenses was the case very clearly, and undoubtedly the statements he made were beyond dispute. He said:

"These amendments would have served a useful purpose had no other amendments been introduced, but other amendments were introduced, and that without the knowledge of the temperance people. The effects of such other amendments have been to nullify and render abortive the amendments asked for by the Moral and Social Reform Council. For instance, in 1903 under the old government, Section 19, sub-section 1, said: 'The number of tavern licenses which may be granted in the respective municipalities shall not in any year be in excess of the following limitations: In cities, in incorporated towns respectively, one for each full 250 of the first 1,000 of the population of each ward taken separately in which licenses may be issued, and one for full 500 over 1,000 of the population of each ward; provided further that in the city of St. John there shall not in any year be issued more than twenty-five tavern licenses.'"

"In this section the number of licenses which could be granted in this city under that section should be: In Queens ward, 6; Wellington, 7; Sydney, 6; Lansdowne, 7; Dufferin, Kings, 4; a total of 42. But this was amended by the present government in 1902 cutting out the words 'each ward taken separately,' and the words 'of each ward,' throwing these words open to the people refused to do by their votes. In other words, the people say 'we don't want fifty-three saloons'; the government says, 'yes, you must have them.'"

"So an amendment is smuggled in, in order to oppose the will of the people. When Mr. Maxwell was asked about this point he said that he had no knowledge and didn't know such an amendment had gone through. So that, notwithstanding this great watchdog of temperance, these amendments went through. We will leave the people to judge as to the value of such legislation."

CONDUCTOR, COUPLING CARS AT DIGBY, BADLY CRUSHED

Digby, N. S., June 12.—An accident that may prove fatal occurred on the government pier here today. Conductor A. G. Herbert, of the suburban train, was in the act of coupling the engine to one of the passenger coaches when he got caught in the space between. He was jammed against the chest and his impulse in throwing up his hands above his head only saved him from being crushed to death. He was rushed in an automobile to Dr. Reed's office, and afterwards placed aboard his train and taken to his home in Annapolis where he will undergo further medical examinations as to his injuries.

NORTH END GIVES FINE RECEPTION TO LIBERAL CANDIDATES

Rousing Speeches Tuesday by Messrs. Foster, Knowlton, Mahoney and Keirstead

Government's Railroad Policy Condemned and the Great Loss Which the Province Must Suffer Explained—Duplicity of Mr. Fleming and His Colleagues in Regard to Temperance Legislation Exposed—Disgraceful Condition of the Roads—Mr. Copp's Progressive and Practical Policy.

Wednesday, June 12

The personal assurance of hearty support which the St. John city Liberal candidates have been receiving from the electorate during the last few weeks were given a most decided emphasis last night in the Temple of Honor hall, Main street, when W. E. Foster, F. J. G. Knowlton, W. J. Mahoney and J. W. Keirstead made their first public addresses at a campaign meeting.

It argues well for the cause of the opposition in this contest that, on such a fine June night, when the appeal of the outdoors is so strong, there responds to the invitation to attend a political meeting such a large representation of the electorate as gathered last evening to hear the Liberal candidates lay their case before the people.

The meeting, too, was full of enthusiasm and fire, the points made by the speakers found quick and hearty response and time and again the hall rang with the applause which marked features in the duties something above that; they were there to try the government at the bar of public opinion and this they certainly did with vigor and effectiveness. As to the verdict, there need be no doubt in the North End of the city; it was written in the record of that meeting, a Liberal triumph on June 20.

The Liberal government is what the North End wants. The chairman Gregory in introducing one of the speakers, and all present last night, felt no doubt that the want would be satisfied ere many days.

Make Fine Impression.

All the candidates made a most favorable impression on their initial appearance, and as they had much material in the Fleming failures and the broad policy of Mr. Copp, there was no lack of subject matter. They made a plain, commonsense presentation of the facts upon which the voters must decide when they go to the polls; they pledged loyal service to the people and support to Mr. Copp in carrying out his projects for advancement of the province, and there they rested their case, knowing that to be all-sufficient. All were given a rousing reception and at the close of the meeting there were rousing cheers for the king, Mr. Copp and the St. John candidates.

W. E. Foster, the first speaker introduced by the chairman, J. Fraser Gregory, caught the attention of all at his business-like presentation of the Liberal case. The Conservative speakers had given but a rehash of the matters of the last campaign; nothing new. There was no outline of what they would do for roads or for agriculture, and the Fleming manifesto also was barren. On the other hand, Mr. Foster laid down a definite, broad policy and the speaker had no doubt of the result if the voters were just to read those two documents and decide on them alone.

Mr. Foster made a strong arraignment of the government for incompetency in financial affairs as instanced in the Pinder railroad guarantee of bonds, the Minto and Gibson railway for the proposed handing over the Central railway to the C. P. R. practically as a gift. He judged them from the business man's viewpoint and he found them sadly lacking.

Mr. Knowlton showed the piling up of a million dollar debt by the Conservative government despite the enormous revenue enjoyed, greater than ever in the history of the province. He attacked their road administration with vigor and promised support to the project to left the roads out of politics, public contracts by public tender, fair wages in all contracts and aid to settlement on crown lands with the idea of keeping New Brunswick boys at home.

Mr. Keirstead arraigned the government for its duplicity in the temperance matter, its deception in the Valley Railway matter and the graft methods shown in the road and bridges administration. The old government, he said, had been attacked but he could find nothing in its record to compare with the Jones-McCleary matter or the same paid superintendents out of all proportion to that for labor and material. If the old government was bad, it seemed to him the present one was worse. He also criticized the government for its slap at union labor in turning down W. F. Hatheway and he arraigned the government severely on the St. John Hydro-Electric Company franchise legislation. In connection with this $5,000,000 organization he asked: "What is the meaning of all this, gentlemen?"

"Voice—'Boodle.'"

Mr. Keirstead—"That seems to be the answer."

And the hall rang with applause.

THE GOVERNMENT'S GIFTS TO THE C. P. R.

Mr. Foster Deals With Fleming's Railway Policy and Shows How Province Loses Heavily.

The chairman, J. Fraser Gregory, in opening the meeting, expressed confidence in the Liberal government. "A Liberal government is what the North End wants," said he, amidst the applause of the electorate of that district.

W. E. Foster, who was introduced as the first speaker of the evening, was greeted with great applause. In opening he remarked that the opposition ticket was opposing the present government because it was a Liberal government, and because they had made and because they did not even now guarantee that they would keep their promises in future. "The government candidates in their speeches," he said, "are only rehearsing what was said four years ago with reference to the acts of the former government."

"But we are not concerned in the old government," he said, "we are concerned in the present government. We are concerned in the administration of Mr. Fleming."

A Chance to Judge.

"I ask any fair-minded man to read the manifesto of Mr. Fleming and then read the manifesto of Mr. Copp and I am sure his vote will be cast for me on the 20th day of June." (Applause.)

"Some nights ago a gentleman supporting the government on this very platform made a personal attack upon me. It is not intended to discuss personal matters. Nor am I going to answer that gentleman here to-night because I know you are here to listen to the discussion of the province, and not to hear personal attacks. But if these attacks on me are continued, I will answer them in no uncertain manner." (Hear, hear and applause.)

Pinder's Road.

The speaker then made reference to Mr. Pinder's railway. "The government," he said, "has guaranteed the Pinder railway the interest on $120,000 at 5 per cent being $6,000 per annum, and when operated by the C. P. R. on the basis of 40 per cent of the gross earnings it will take gross earnings of $16,250 or $1,250 per mile for thirteen miles.

"Now, in looking into the railway statistics I find that there is not a railway in New Brunswick, not a railway in Nova Scotia, nor one in the whole Dominion of Canada having a length of only thirteen miles, that is earning $1,250 per mile. How, then, is the government going to pay this interest?" (Applause.)

"The earnings of branch railways in New Brunswick I find as follows: Elgin & Havelock railway, $362 per mile; Kent Northern railway, $700 per mile; Buctouche railway, $764 per mile; North Shore railway, $400 per mile; N. B. Coal & Railway Company, $1,146 per mile.

"Now, suppose this railway promoted by Mr. Pinder costs $800 or even $700 per mile, for thirteen miles, equal to $9,100, forty per cent of which would be $3,640, there would be a deficit of about $5,000 in the operation of this railway, which the people will be called upon to pay."

Mr. Foster also referred to the Minto branch railway, and showed that the savings of this road also could not possibly pay the interest on the bonds guaranteed by the government.

The Central Road.

"Again, gentlemen, I ask anyone in this audience what he thinks of giving away the Central railway to the C. P. R.?"

"Not only the Liberal government but their own government has been carrying this railway on their books at a valuation of over a million dollars, and what do you as business men think of giving away an asset that you value at over a million dollars? What is their excuse for making a gift of it to the C. P. R.?" They say it does not pay. And why doesn't it pay? The statistics which I have read to you, and which is obtained from the Department the roads out of politics and will guarantee value for every dollar expended.

Mr. Copp's policy of letting all public works by tender and guaranteeing fair wages to the workmen was explained and operations and we find in the report of the directors to the shareholders published last year they the consent of the shareholders and sanction a lease made by them for 999 years of the New Brunswick Southern railway at $15,000 per annum, road not equal in any way to the Central railway I refer to and whose gross earnings only showed $800 per mile against nearly $1,250 earned last year by the Central railway."

The speaker then made an appeal for the support of the independent voters and particularly the young voters, those who perhaps will cast their vote in the coming election. "Unite with the Liberal party—the common people. Put us in power," he continued, "and various persons will be disappointed in what they had performed. He had advocated the acceptance of the amendments that had been made and on their own record he was forced to oppose them."

One matter in which they had showed their duplicity was the temperance question. "Hear, hear!" He had approved what they had promised but had been disappointed in what they had performed. He had advocated the acceptance of the amendments that had been made and on their own record he was forced to oppose them."

Mr. Keirstead, who was greeted with vigorous cheers, referred to the fact that he had taken the platform at meetings of temperance and other reform organizations, that he had been in the province, and he now advocated was of equal righteousness to any on behalf of which he had ever addressed them. (Applause.)

Mr. Mahoney was heard with marked attention and his remarks were frequently applauded.

F. J. G. KNOWLTON MAKES ROUSING SPEECH

Shows Up Opposition Reports and Asks for Some Important Explanations.

F. J. G. Knowlton, on being introduced and on rising to speak, was given a magnificent reception. His attention, he said in opening, had been called to a statement in a government organ that the opposition party today is represented by equal numbers which preceded that of Mr. Hazen. "I say most emphatically for myself—and I think I am voicing the sentiments of the whole ticket—that we are not here to uphold or diminish that administration, but we are here to call the Fleming government to account. During their four year term of office they have increased the public debt one million dollars, and a year, during those years, the total income of the province was $200,000 a million more than during any previous term."

The speakers had also been told that the labor party, and the refusal to place Mr. Hatheway in charge of the labor bureau as requested by the labor leaders, even by the treatment accorded the speaker by the government, had offered to do the work gratuitously.

Another subject on which the government had earned condemnation was their action with regard to the proposed hydro-electric power dam at the Meductic. Experts had reported that the scheme was commercially impossible. The salmon fishermen had protested against it. The lumbermen had joined in its condemnation. The St. John Board of Trade had sent a delegation to oppose it. The lumbermen had reported that the scheme was commercially impossible.

What was the explanation of all this?

"Voice—'Boodle.'"

Mr. Keirstead—"I am afraid that may be the right answer."

Tracing the history of the bill through the committee he showed the peculiar circumstances attended to its progress which gave further grounds for suspicion regarding it.

"With reference to the agricultural development, if elected it will be our policy to keep New Brunswickers on New Brunswick soil and while we will carry out the idea of encouraging immigrants to come to this province, it is not our intention in this regard will be the retention of people already residing in the province."

Mr. Fleming, said the speaker, made much of his endeavors to have it arranged that New Brunswick representation in parliament should not be decreased; that as extensions of boundaries had been given Ontario and Manitoba by the federal government there should be compensation lessening of her representation at Ottawa. This had a familiar sound. It appeared to be the speaker that that very matter had been suggested in some kind of a letter from Wm. Pugsley and he wondered how it had come since to find lodgment in the brain of Premier Fleming.

Mr. Fleming, too, now promised to assist in the pulp and paper industry in New Brunswick. But he did not say how. Had he made a secret compact with the lumbermen? What was there in this mysterious indecipherable statement?

In closing, he promised the best efforts of every member of the ticket on behalf of the electorate of the city and appealed to the audience for their undivided support. The audience's appreciation of Mr. Knowlton's remarks was displayed in vigorous applause.

ROADS NEVER WORSE THAN NOW

W. J. Mahoney, who was next called upon, was given a hearty reception. He expressed his appreciation of the honor of the nomination and predicted that after June 20 the Liberal candidates would be members of the government side of the legislature with Hon. A. B. Copp as premier.

Referring to the claims of the present administration that they had formed a coalition government, Mr. Mahoney said that although the leaders had expressed their thanks to the Liberal electors who had placed them in power it was not long before they were discharging Liberals to make places for their Conservative friends.

After the election Mr. Hazen lent the whole weight of the provincial government to the Conservative party in both federal elections and had helped their provincial victory as a Conservative triumph.

The speaker dealt effectively with the financial policy of the provincial government with regard to the crown lands. He Nova Scotia a survey had shown that the present rate of cutting would soon wipe out the forests. In New Brunswick the operators are going on on a larger scale and the owners of crown land leases are stripping the forests in their efforts to get as much as possible out of the land before their leases expire. (Applause.)

That Road Policy.

Referring to the boasted road policy of the government the speaker said that from his personal experience he could state that the roads were never in such a deplorable condition as at the present time. (Hear, hear.)

Mr. Copp on the other hand has promised a progressive policy which will take the roads out of politics and will guarantee value for every dollar expended.

Mr. Copp's policy of letting all public works by tender and guaranteeing fair wages to the workmen was explained and operations and we find in the report of the directors to the shareholders published last year they the consent of the shareholders and sanction a lease made by them for 999 years of the New Brunswick Southern railway at $15,000 per annum, road not equal in any way to the Central railway I refer to and whose gross earnings only showed $800 per mile against nearly $1,250 earned last year by the Central railway."

The speaker then made an appeal for the support of the independent voters and particularly the young voters, those who perhaps will cast their vote in the coming election. "Unite with the Liberal party—the common people. Put us in power," he continued, "and various persons will be disappointed in what they had performed. He had advocated the acceptance of the amendments that had been made and on their own record he was forced to oppose them."

Mr. Mahoney was heard with marked attention and his remarks were frequently applauded.

THE GOVERNMENT'S DUPLICITY EXPOSED

Mr. Keirstead, who was greeted with vigorous cheers, referred to the fact that he had taken the platform at meetings of temperance and other reform organizations, that he had been in the province, and he now advocated was of equal righteousness to any on behalf of which he had ever addressed them. (Applause.)

Mr. Mahoney was heard with marked attention and his remarks were frequently applauded.

F. J. G. KNOWLTON MAKES ROUSING SPEECH

Shows Up Opposition Reports and Asks for Some Important Explanations.

F. J. G. Knowlton, on being introduced and on rising to speak, was given a magnificent reception. His attention, he said in opening, had been called to a statement in a government organ that the opposition party today is represented by equal numbers which preceded that of Mr. Hazen. "I say most emphatically for myself—and I think I am voicing the sentiments of the whole ticket—that we are not here to uphold or diminish that administration, but we are here to call the Fleming government to account. During their four year term of office they have increased the public debt one million dollars, and a year, during those years, the total income of the province was $200,000 a million more than during any previous term."

The speakers had also been told that the labor party, and the refusal to place Mr. Hatheway in charge of the labor bureau as requested by the labor leaders, even by the treatment accorded the speaker by the government, had offered to do the work gratuitously.

Another subject on which the government had earned condemnation was their action with regard to the proposed hydro-electric power dam at the Meductic. Experts had reported that the scheme was commercially impossible. The salmon fishermen had protested against it. The lumbermen had joined in its condemnation. The St. John Board of Trade had sent a delegation to oppose it. The lumbermen had reported that the scheme was commercially impossible.

What was the explanation of all this?

"Voice—'Boodle.'"

Mr. Keirstead—"I am afraid that may be the right answer."

Tracing the history of the bill through the committee he showed the peculiar circumstances attended to its progress which gave further grounds for suspicion regarding it.

"With reference to the agricultural development, if elected it will be our policy to keep New Brunswickers on New Brunswick soil and while we will carry out the idea of encouraging immigrants to come to this province, it is not our intention in this regard will be the retention of people already residing in the province."

Mr. Fleming, said the speaker, made much of his endeavors to have it arranged that New Brunswick representation in parliament should not be decreased; that as extensions of boundaries had been given Ontario and Manitoba by the federal government there should be compensation lessening of her representation at Ottawa. This had a familiar sound. It appeared to be the speaker that that very matter had been suggested in some kind of a letter from Wm. Pugsley and he wondered how it had come since to find lodgment in the brain of Premier Fleming.

Mr. Fleming, too, now promised to assist in the pulp and paper industry in New Brunswick. But he did not say how. Had he made a secret compact with the lumbermen? What was there in this mysterious indecipherable statement?

In closing, he promised the best efforts of every member of the ticket on behalf of the electorate of the city and appealed to the audience for their undivided support. The audience's appreciation of Mr. Knowlton's remarks was displayed in vigorous applause.

ROADS NEVER WORSE THAN NOW

W. J. Mahoney, who was next called upon, was given a hearty reception. He expressed his appreciation of the honor of the nomination and predicted that after June 20 the Liberal candidates would be members of the government side of the legislature with Hon. A. B. Copp as premier.

Referring to the claims of the present administration that they had formed a coalition government, Mr. Mahoney said that although the leaders had expressed their thanks to the Liberal electors who had placed them in power it was not long before they were discharging Liberals to make places for their Conservative friends.

After the election Mr. Hazen lent the whole weight of the provincial government to the Conservative party in both federal elections and had helped their provincial victory as a Conservative triumph.

The speaker dealt effectively with the financial policy of the provincial government with regard to the crown lands. He Nova Scotia a survey had shown that the present rate of cutting would soon wipe out the forests. In New Brunswick the operators are going on on a larger scale and the owners of crown land leases are stripping the forests in their efforts to get as much as possible out of the land before their leases expire. (Applause.)

That Road Policy.

Referring to the boasted road policy of the government the speaker said that from his personal experience he could state that the roads were never in such a deplorable condition as at the present time. (Hear, hear.)

Mr. Copp on the other hand has promised a progressive policy which will take

MONCTON IS SAFE FOR LIBERALS

Enthusiastic Rally Last Night

The Candidate and Hon. Mr. Emmerson the Speakers

Mayor Robinson Refers to His Tax Reform Attitude—Ex-Minister of Railways In Masterly Speech Exposed Fleming's Generosity to the C. P. R. and the Danger of the I. C. R. Being Gobbled Up.

Moncton, N. B., June 11—The first public meeting of the present campaign in Moncton was held this evening in the Grand Opera House when vigorous speeches were delivered by Mayor Robinson, Liberal candidate, Hon. H. H. Emmerson, the latter returning particularly to the present provincial election in its relationship to the Intercolonial.

Mayor Robinson spoke first, and was followed by Mr. Emmerson, who aroused much enthusiasm in dealing with the issues affecting the Intercolonial and the people of the province generally, pointing out the danger of the Fleming government in its attitude towards the I. C. R. as the greatest obstacle against carrying out the I. C. R. branch line policy.

He saw in Mr. Copp's platform evidence of a magnificent conservative statesmanship, and in Fleming's appeals to the people, destructive statesmanship.

H. C. Charters, president of the Moncton Liberal Club, besides the speakers of the evening, were Senator McSweeney, Ald. W. H. Price, Dr. C. T. Curdy, Dr. A. Murray, George Sangster, J. Jones, Murdoch McLeod, J. T. Ryan, B. A. Lutes, A. E. McSweeney, M. B. Jones, Joseph Bourque, B. E. Smith, James Doyle, O. J. Peters, F. E. Dennison.

Mayor Robinson, who was received with loud applause, began by referring to local matters. He spoke of a statement made by Dr. Price, at a meeting addressed a few nights ago by Premier Fleming, that he (Robinson) would have little influence with the government at Fredericton. Moncton people, he said, know how much influence Dr. Price has in political affairs, and particularly with the I. C. R. Board of management.

I. C. R. Men Unfairly Taxed.

Mayor Robinson then spoke of tax reform. He said he was in favor of changing the present assessment system of Moncton. At the present time the Intercolonial employees are assessed more heavily than other people in Moncton. The income of I. C. R. men is readily obtained by reference to the books, but nothing is known about the earnings of others. He expressed himself in favor of making it compulsory for all taxpayers to file a statement regarding income with the assessors. The present assessment, he declared, is not fair, and it would not be satisfied until something is done in regard to amending the assessment act of Moncton.

At the closing session of the afternoon, Mrs. Ross, of Toronto, addressed the convention on Our Work in Frank (B. C.), and among the Ruthenians. Mrs. Ross visited these missions last year, and so her snap-shots of the work and workers were especially interesting, presented in her attractive style of speaking.

Greetings were received from the Nova Scotia branch, to which a suitable reply was sent.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed by the convention to the quarterly board of the church, to the choir and organist, to the C. P. R., the I. C. R. and D. E. I. railway for courtesy extended to the present convention, and to the friends in Woodstock who have so hospitably entertained the convention by opening their homes to the many delegates in attendance. Special mention was made of the kindness of the pastor, Rev. Wm. Caldwell, president of the branch, and Mr. Couillard, president of the board of management, will wish for England next week and the best wishes of all follow them in their journey.

the extent of the principal $1,250,000 and an annual interest charge of $50,000.

If there had been no other transaction than this by the Fleming government it is enough to condemn them," said Mr. Emmerson.

Mr. Emmerson then pointed out how the C. P. R. is strengthening its grip in the St. John river valley and also in the Annapolis valley by securing control of the Dominion Atlantic railway. The C. P. R. wants to secure running rights over the I. C. R. because it meant the gobbling up of intermediate traffic and damaging the I. C. R.

Mr. Emmerson feared conditions fast ripening which will imperil the I. C. R. It behoves the people of Moncton and the maritime provinces to be watchful and resist this corporation's efforts to get control of the Intercolonial. "The C. P. R. is alert and greedy," he declared.

R. L. Borden before the last election had promised the acquisition of the branch lines, yet the Central railway was not taken over by the I. C. R. but absorbed by the C. P. R. The consequences of the acts of the Fleming government in connection with the Central are menacing, he said.

In conclusion, Mr. Emmerson referred to local matters, stating that he had always been opposed to the I. C. R. management on principle. In Mr. Copp's platform, he said, he recognized force and constructive statesmanship.

Mr. Emmerson, throughout his speech, avoided personalities. At the conclusion of Mr. Emmerson's speech rousing cheers were given for the king, Robinson, Copp and Emmerson.

Amherst, N. S., June 11—(Special)—Percy Cooke, better known in the town as Jose James, met with an awful death early this morning. His body was found by the side of the railway track in a frightfully mangled condition. He had traveled with circus companies for years and it is reported that he told friends last night that he was going to leave Amherst for N. S. by train at 1:40 a. m. He probably met his death while endeavoring to jump on the train while it was in motion, and slipping under the wheels. Coroner Ayard and a jury viewed the body this morning and the inquest will be held this evening.

Mrs. Rufus Coates met with a serious accident this morning while burning waste paper in the stove. Her wrapper caught on fire and she was soon enveloped in flames. She rushed out of the house, screaming for aid, which was to hand in quick order, but until the unfortunate woman was severely burned. She is about eighty years of age and one of the oldest and best known residents of Amherst.

METHODIST W. M. S. CONVENTION ENDED

Woodstock, June 6—During convention week the weather has been fine and exceptionally warm.

The closing sessions were characterized by the same interest as manifested from the beginning of the branch meeting.

The morning was occupied with the election of officers for the ensuing year, and the presentation of memorials and resolutions.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. J. D. Chipman; president, Mrs. W. B. Couillard; 1st vice-president, Mrs. H. E. Stewart; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. S. Howard; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. Waller; recording secretary, Mrs. G. F. Sanford; treasurer, Mrs. F. Williams; secretary of mission board, Mrs. Enman; superintendent of Christian stewardship, Mrs. Townes.

Mrs. E. C. Hickson of St. John, was elected to the board of management, which will meet in Central church, Toronto, Sept. 24. Mrs. H. E. Thomas and Mrs. Lucas were elected alternates.

Mrs. H. E. Stewart was elected to represent the branch at the annual Methodist conference, to be held in Fredericton next week.

At the closing session in the afternoon, Mrs. Ross, of Toronto, addressed the convention on Our Work in Frank (B. C.), and among the Ruthenians. Mrs. Ross visited these missions last year, and so her snap-shots of the work and workers were especially interesting, presented in her attractive style of speaking.

GEO. W. KIMBALL FOR SUNBURY

Liberals Nominate Him in Place of A. R. Miles, Who Retired

A STRONG TICKET

Opposition Convention Marked by Stiring Speeches That Indicate the Tories Have the Fight of Their Lives on Their Hands.

Fredericton, N. B., June 11—The Liberals, in convention assembled at Ormonde today, nominated George W. Kimball, of Lincoln, to take the place of A. R. Miles, on the opposition ticket in the coming election. Mr. Kimball is one of the best known and most popular men of Sunbury county and the ticket composed of himself and Milton A. Smith, of Blavias, LeB. Young presiding and G. W. Fournier acting as secretary. A. R. Miles, who retired from the opposition ticket on account of ill health, was present. He addressed the convention, explaining that the advice of his physician had been compelled, against his desire, to keep out of the election contest.

George W. Kimball was then nominated by the convention, scoring the Fleming administration for broken pledges and maladministration. Mr. Kimball's nomination was received with great enthusiasm and there is little doubt that he and Mr. Smith will be returned on the 20th inst.

Speeches were also delivered by Milton A. Smith, C. H. McLean, A. Harrison, Harvey Upton, of Lakeville; Samuel Alexander, of Fredericton Junction, and J. E. Stocker, of Ormonde.

The convention closed with cheers for the king, the candidates and Col. H. W. McLean, M. P.

A campaign league was sprung in Fredericton today by those handling the government ticket. A number of young men, a number of engineers employed in the industries west of the city, were ordered to come in and get busy about Fredericton in order to give the people an idea that there is great activity in the building of the St. John & Quebec railway.

ORIGIN OF THE ALPHABET

Prof. Flinders Petrie Traces It Back to 7000 B. C.

In a lecture at the Royal Institute Prof. Flinders Petrie has attacked the long accepted theory that the origin of the alphabet is to be found in Phoenicia, whence it came to Egyptian hieroglyphs.

According to Prof. Petrie the researches of the past twenty years have shown that signs were earlier in use, and that it was the alpha and beta of one civilization and the A B C of another.

Just as the pharaoh had discovered one entire system of language, so the alphabet had discovered in the diversity of alphabets an original prototype of all. Prof. Petrie's work in the Phoenician alphabet has discovered in the diversity of alphabets an original prototype of all. Prof. Petrie's work in the Phoenician alphabet has discovered in the diversity of alphabets an original prototype of all. Prof. Petrie's work in the Phoenician alphabet has discovered in the diversity of alphabets an original prototype of all.

It was to pottery, said the professor, that Egyptian and other were indebted for these signs, and their development was worked out on these lines. Flatness made it put and a mark on it to show that it was in the stone. Her wrapper caught on fire and she was soon enveloped in flames. She rushed out of the house, screaming for aid, which was to hand in quick order, but until the unfortunate woman was severely burned. She is about eighty years of age and one of the oldest and best known residents of Amherst.

Wife of Head Campaigner Husband by Subscribing for Both of Them.

Halifax, N. S., June 6—Twenty thousand dollars were the Dalhousie College fund by the wind campaigners today, putting exclusive of W. H. Chase's ten thousand which figures at $20,000.

A dramatic scene was witnessed at the headquarters of the fund. The Dalhousie fund was then $15,000. Campbell, chairman, was telling the remaining days and was money must be raised, when a letter was heard. It said: "We will do more."

"Who?" said Mr. Campbell, who caught the import of the words. "You and I," the voice replied. "That $5,000 is all right," said Mr. Campbell, who thus confirmed the cheer which was intense. Mr. Bell had previously given $7,500.

REV. W. R. ROBINSON'S REPLY

To the Editor of The Telegraph: Sir—The letter sent to the evening papers last evening, signed by liquor license commissioners H. C. Wetmore, W. D. Baskin, Thomas Kichham, and endorsed by J. B. Jones, liquor license inspector, in reply to a statement of myself and others that the ordinance of 1909 by the present government of the liquor license act of 1903 of the old government, increased the number of saloons in this city, is not correct. It is disingenuous to have your opponents prove your case, and this is precisely what this noble band of administrators and wards named, Philadelphia, June 10—Arr str R. Bowers, for St John. IN THE COURTS

The case of Charlton vs the King has been decided against the plaintiff and the case dismissed. The plaintiff, Sarah Ann Charlton, brought suit against the government for $1,000 for injuries alleged to have been caused by an I. C. R. train from which she was alighted, starting too soon after stopping at the station, on the morning of the summer of 1910. She alleged having serious external and internal injuries by reason of which her health was seriously affected. Her statements were substantiated by her physicians. The case was tried recently before Mr. Justice Audette in the exchequer court here. E. T. O. K. ROBINSON, Esq., A. C. Curry, K. C. appeared for the plaintiff and E. H. McAlpine, K. C., for the crown. Judgment was given in Ottawa yesterday in favor of the government. The plaintiff's petition and finding that she was not entitled to any part of the damages sought. Case Dismissed.

THE SOUTHAMPTON RAILWAY

The Editor of The Telegraph: Sir—I was much interested in your editorial of recent date on the Southampton Railway. To my mind this transaction alone is sufficient to damn the Flemming government in the eyes of all decent men. The promoter of this railway is James K. Pinder, a disgruntled member of the legislature. He aspired to a portfolio when Hon. Mr. Hazen formed his cabinet, but was beaten out in the race by his colleague, Hon. H. F. McLeod. Mr. Pinder conceived this railway scheme as a means of getting "quid" and was able to hold up the government for a bond guaranteed to the extent of $10,000 per mile for the thirteen miles of road. During the last session of the legislature, after the resignation of the government had been installed in office, the government passed an ordinance guaranteeing the bonds for five miles of the road. These bonds are now being offered for sale by the Royal Securities Corporation at 97 1/2, and an advertisement in the Montreal Herald tells us that they are "unconditionally guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the province of New Brunswick."

REPORTS INDICATE THE VICTORY FOR OPPOSITION

Liberal Candidates Everywhere Meeting With Unexpected Support and Workers for Mr. Copp and His Colleagues Are Very Confident—Sure of All Six Seats in St. John City and County—Liberal Campaign Going With a Swing.

REPORTS INDICATE THE VICTORY FOR OPPOSITION

Friday, June 14. With opposition candidates nominated in every constituency in the province and with one half the seats already certain to return opposition members and the chances of the Liberal candidates, Messrs. Bentley and Anderson, have been making a triumphant tour of the constituency and looking for St. John to give a quota of six to the following of Mr. Copp and their efforts are directed towards the end of the campaign. The campaign is progressing very favorably in all sections of this constituency and the opposition candidates are gaining strength on every hand. The reports from all points in the province show that the Liberal cause was never in better condition and even Conservatives of long standing have admitted that the Flemming administration is doomed. Five more working days are left in the campaign and the majority of the voters in the province will be in the polls before the Liberal candidates and in this way show their disapproval of the present government, which has broken practically every one of its pledges, given to the people of this province in 1908.

REPORTS INDICATE THE VICTORY FOR OPPOSITION

The people of Queen county have been encouraged by the weakness of the government and bridge policy of the present government and prominent Conservatives predict a smashing victory for Messrs. King and Bentley. The highways of the province have been allowed to remain in a disgraceful condition and people who have occasion to use the roads of New Brunswick declare that many places they are absolutely dangerous. Automobiles are loud in their condemnation of the Conservative government which has allowed such a state of affairs to exist, and many assert that the state of the roads in this province has injured the tourist traffic and has also kept farmers from settling in this part of the province.

REPORTS INDICATE THE VICTORY FOR OPPOSITION

Mr. Bentley referred to Recorder Baxter's unenviable position, pointing out the utter futility of his attempt to serve the county while a paid official of the city. As Mr. Baxter had intimated from the outset that he would be looking for a saw-off in the county, he was compelled to speak on a matter that he should otherwise have left untouched. As regards a saw-off, a proposition had already been made, not from the Liberals but from the Conservatives. (Prolonged cheers.) "I was approached," said Mr. Bentley, "by a person representing Recorder Baxter with the suggestion that an arrangement might be effected by which Recorder Bentley might be elected. When I asked what about Mr. Carson, this person merely laughed. My reply was that not under any circumstances would such a proposition be entertained at the Liberal office. There were both elected or if not they would lose in an honorable fight." (Prolonged cheers.) Mr. Bentley closed by a ringing appeal for the support of the Liberal ticket in order that the county might do its share in the great victory that was coming for Mr. Copp.

REPORTS INDICATE THE VICTORY FOR OPPOSITION

Mr. Anderson, who was introduced by the chairman as the farmers' candidate, was received with hearty applause. In a vigorous address in which he confined himself almost entirely to the Conservative policies of Mr. Flemming on the one hand and of Mr. Copp on the other, he carried the big crowd with him from the outset. He compared the unsatisfactory results of the Tory premier with the excellent proposals of Mr. Copp which would put the farmer again into his own hands. He promised to talk roads of every man present who had come over them last night knew their wretched condition. His reference to the road accounts and the handsome salaries paid some of the present who had come over them last night knew their wretched condition. On the chairman calling on James Alexander Johnston, of Upper Loch Lomond, was chosen chairman and after report to hoodwink the voters into supporting them, but the Conservative candidates are steadily losing ground and both of them see that they are working for a lost cause. TORIES ASKED BENTLEY TO AGREE TO SAW OFF

Liberal Candidate Exposes Scheme of Government Supporters in Desperate Attempt to Save Baxter—Bentley Cheered to the Echo As He Tells of Refusing Offer—Great Liberal Meeting at Loch Lomond.

TORIES ASKED BENTLEY TO AGREE TO SAW OFF

Friday, June 14. Before he was able to speak, all hands stood and sang Auld Lang Syne. "You're all right Jim," came from all sides. After thanking the gathering for their reception of him, he spoke of the reminder that all the force of the Hazen government in 1908 in the by-election was unable to defeat him brought forth great applause. It is suggested, he said, for his coming struggle and all that Flemming and his forces could do would not prevent the election of himself and Mr. Anderson. (Prolonged cheers.)

TORIES ASKED BENTLEY TO AGREE TO SAW OFF

The Flemming government was fighting for its life all over the province and the city and county of St. John were going to join with other counties made the province in sweeping it from power. Mr. Bentley spoke of the treachery of the Tories towards the Liberals who had helped to elect him in the by-election of 1908. These had shown what they could do in the federal election following which but two Conservatives were elected in New Brunswick. Again, in spite of the most assiduous appeals in the last federal election the Liberals were still able to hold the province by a good majority. It is suggested, he said, for his coming struggle and all that Flemming and his forces could do would not prevent the election of himself and Mr. Anderson. (Prolonged cheers.)

TORIES ASKED BENTLEY TO AGREE TO SAW OFF

The government cause is desperate, was made plain by the announcement by Mr. Bentley that a person representing the Tories had made overtures to him, looking for a saw-off in the county in order to save Baxter, the Tories being willing to withdraw Mr. Anderson from the Liberal ticket. Mr. Bentley stated that the offer had been spurned and that the Liberals would elect both again and again. "That the man who was able to win the by-election of July 1908 against the entire opposition, as the Liberal speaker, Mr. Bentley's appearance was the cause of the greatest enthusiasm. It was evident, too, that Mr. Anderson has jumped into great favor as the farmers' representative, as his vigorous address brought forth round after round of applause.

TORIES ASKED BENTLEY TO AGREE TO SAW OFF

One of the outstanding features of the evening was the ovation tendered James Lowell, and that he is still the idol of the county people, was shown beyond all doubt by the applause which he was called upon by the chairman to speak, and the signal for prolonged cheers and he got a reception that any public man might well be proud of. After rounds of cheers, all stood and sang Auld Lang Syne. During his telling speech, Mr. Lowell was cheered to the echo. The desperate attempt of the Flemming party to catch voters by placing men in the roads to work, is not to have the effect intended; in fact will act as a boom to the vigorous speeches by Mr. Bentley, sent farmers from various sections of the county last night, they repudiated the suggestion that they could be purchased in such a manner. The speaker also stated that the delegation present who had not some-thing to say about the terrible conditions of the roads. One of the speakers also in position to know that the cost of the road will not exceed $9,000 per mile at the outside, so out of the bond guarantee and dominion subsidy the company stands to realize a profit of about $4,000 per mile. Now, a word as to the personality of this enterprising concern. Its president is J. K. Pinder, an influential member of the legislature, and the former chairman of the board of directors are his son-in-law, Dr. H. H. McNally, Percy Guthrie, law partner of N. S. Crockett, M. P., and W. E. H. Crockett, M. P., and W. E. H. Crockett, the last named gentleman has never seen the road. All the money which the members of the Associated Farmers of the county have invested in the enterprise would scarcely pay for a night's lodging at a second class hotel.

TORIES ASKED BENTLEY TO AGREE TO SAW OFF

The government engineer, Mr. Wetmore, inspected the road but his report was never made public. Judging by the answer given to an inquiry in the legislature it is to be presumed that this business proposition does not know that the road is being cheaply constructed, and that it is being equipped with discarded C. P. R. rails. It is said by those in position to know that the cost of the road will not exceed $9,000 per mile at the outside, so out of the bond guarantee and dominion subsidy the company stands to realize a profit of about $4,000 per mile. Now, a word as to the personality of this enterprising concern. Its president is J. K. Pinder, an influential member of the legislature, and the former chairman of the board of directors are his son-in-law, Dr. H. H. McNally, Percy Guthrie, law partner of N. S. Crockett, M. P., and W. E. H. Crockett, the last named gentleman has never seen the road. All the money which the members of the Associated Farmers of the county have invested in the enterprise would scarcely pay for a night's lodging at a second class hotel.

NOMINATION PA MEN CONT AND CO

No Speech-making Here Standard's Attempt to in Northumberland.

Friday, June 14, 1912.

Nomination papers were filed at the court house for four candidates for the city of St. John and two candidates for the county of St. John for both the Liberal and opposition parties. In other constituencies in the province nomination papers were also filed and the results are now officially determined.

Sheriff E. S. deForest opened his office at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for the nominations. The first to be filed were those of the opposition candidates. G. Knowlton and W. J. Mahoney of St. John appeared as their agent, J. Lewis, as agent for the opposition candidates in the county, was the next to appear with nominations for W. E. Foster and Amador Anderson. B. R. Arr and J. C. Belyea then filed the papers for the government candidates in the Philipps Grant, C. B. Lockhart, L. Tilley and John E. Wilson.

G. Earle Logan, agent for the government candidates in the county filed papers for J. B. M. Baxter and F. Carson. The usual deposits of $100 for candidates in Canadian government elections accompanied each nomination.

At 12 o'clock the sheriff declared the nomination closed. His court remained open until 2 o'clock for the receipt of objections, but none were made, and at 2 o'clock J. D. P. Lewin and J. C. Belyea for the opposing candidates, demanded the sheriff, in accordance with a proclamation announced the election would take place on June 20.

ROOSEVELT HAS WON THIRTEEN DELEGATES SO

Taft Has Been Awarded 1 Charges of Bribery He Across the Floor by C paign Managers.

Chicago, June 13—Eight delegates Col. Roosevelt and eighteen for E. B. Taft marked the day's gains of the chief rivals for the Republican presidential nomination for the decision of cases by the Republican national committee. In addition the committee's disputes between rival Roosevelt in two districts of North Carolina settling the colonel's title to vote those sections.

It was a day of Roosevelt victories achieved with the full assistance of the Taft majority on the committee. Missouri's contests, threatened another battle between Taft and Roosevelt factions in which lines would be closely drawn, were promised so effectively that the contest were unanimous in giving Roosevelt and Taft six of the contested delegates from that state.

At the end of a week of constant over the contested delegations, the committee has given President Taft 119 delegates and Col. Roosevelt 107 of 126.

New charges of attempted bribery in the battle for delegates were made by Senator Dixon, campaign manager for Roosevelt. He charged that a member of the Republican national committee had been offered a United States marshal's office if he would vote for Taft on the convention under consideration.

"I am prepared to name the names necessary," said Senator Dixon, "in word to the committeeman that as a result of appointment made in the nature of a bribe for Taft votes would be held the senate."

Senator Dixon dared the Taft majority to be specific and give the name of the Roosevelt leader who is reported to have offered a bribe to a delegate in Alabama and the name of the man who received the money.

It was reported that the Taft majority have under consideration the introduction of a resolution in the convention requesting all delegates to vote according to instructions given by their state unless they are specifically instructed otherwise by the candidate. Taft is expected to control the situation, they expected to control the situation, committee by a vote of 22 to 21.

WEDNESDAY

NOMINATION PAPERS OF MEN CONTESTING THE CITY AND COUNTY FILED YESTERDAY

No Speech-making Here and Proceedings Were Brief—The Standard's Attempt to Deceive Regarding the Situation in Northumberland.

Friday, June 14. Nomination papers for four candidates for the city of St. John and two candidates for the county of St. John for both the government and opposition parties, in various other constituencies in the province, nomination papers were also filed and the line-up is now officially determined.

In the City. The opposition candidates for the city were nominated by: John E. Moore, J. Fraser Gregory, A. W. Adams, W. A. Lockhart, A. O. Skinner, Alexander Macaulay, W. J. Magee, John Keefe, A. M. Rowan, Geo. E. Day, W. G. McLaughlin, John A. McAvity, W. T. Hayes, W. R. Vase, T. H. Eatabrooks, W. F. Roberts, James H. Duddy, Thomas Gorman, James J. Russell, J. R. Craigie, H. P. Robinson, G. Herbert Green, A. S. Connor, D. J. Brown, D. J. Ruck, and hundreds of others.

The standard yesterday morning published a list of the candidates nominated in the different constituencies in the province, but left out of the opposition the names of the men chosen to oppose the government in Northumberland county. In fact, it designated them as independent candidates supporting the government.

At 12 o'clock the sheriff declared the nomination closed. His court remained open until 2 o'clock for the receipt of objections, but none were made, and at 2 o'clock J. D. P. Lewis and J. C. Belyea, for the opposing candidates, demanded a poll and the sheriff, in accordance with the proclamation announced the election would take place on June 20.

The opposition candidates for the city were nominated by: John E. Moore, J. Fraser Gregory, A. W. Adams, W. A. Lockhart, A. O. Skinner, Alexander Macaulay, W. J. Magee, John Keefe, A. M. Rowan, Geo. E. Day, W. G. McLaughlin, John A. McAvity, W. T. Hayes, W. R. Vase, T. H. Eatabrooks, W. F. Roberts, James H. Duddy, Thomas Gorman, James J. Russell, J. R. Craigie, H. P. Robinson, G. Herbert Green, A. S. Connor, D. J. Brown, D. J. Ruck, and hundreds of others.

Chicago, June 13—Eight delegates for Col. Roosevelt and eight for President Taft marked the day's gains of the two chief rivals for the Republican presidential nomination for the decision of contest cases by the Republican national committee.

It was a day of Roosevelt victories, but victories achieved with the full acquiescence of the Taft majority on the national committee. Missouri's contest, which threatened another battle between the Taft and Roosevelt factions in which the lines would be closely drawn, were completely effected so that the committee was unanimous in giving Roosevelt eight and Taft six of the contested delegates from that state.

At the end of a week of constant work over the contested delegations, the committee has given President Taft a total of 159 delegates and Col. Roosevelt a total of 139 delegates.

New charges of attempted bribery in the battle for delegates were made by Senator Dixon, campaign manager for Col. Roosevelt. He charged that a member of the Republican national committee had been offered a United States marshaling if he would vote for Taft on the contested delegates under consideration.

PREMIER FLEMING IN DANGER OF DEFEAT

(Continued from page 1) pent some time dealing with the question of bridges and the amount he and his colleagues had been able to obtain for Albert county for this purpose.

Mr. Carmichael, the next speaker, was received with an outburst of applause that was very gratifying and made a forcible speech. He said while he had listened with some degree of pleasure to the speech of Mr. Carmichael, he felt that the present administration had not been present.

Mr. Carmichael dealt quite a blow in connection with the promise of the government, who had stated they would do public work out to tender, when he showed that out of a sum of $22,000 expended in Albert county, $10,000 was expended in day's work.

A. B. Copp, the popular leader of the opposition, was received with great applause. He dealt in a forcible manner with present government's handling of the public funds and management of the provincial lands which was sending towards the people a large asset.

Mr. Copp also dealt, in a telling manner, with the government's railway and agricultural policy and closed his fine speech amid flattering applause.

Mr. Copp followed and took the old government as a base, pointing away to the future with a vigorous ten minutes speech, after which the gathering dispersed, a vote of thanks being extended to Mr. Copp, the chairman.

Mr. Copp, in the course of his address, reported cheering news from different parts of the province which pointed to a victory for the opposition on June 20.

IS FULL OF FIGHT

Issues Manifesto to the Electors Scoring Government for Its Crown Land Policy, and Giving Out Public Works Without Tender—Little Comfort for Flemming or Morrissy in the Severe Indictment of the "Independents."

The following manifesto from the Independent ticket in Northumberland appears in the Conservative Chatham World. It is a fair opportunity to express their opinion of the deal that gave the candidate of the opposition convention the government's support.

Mr. Swin was nominated by the supporters of the government, and the chief commissioner used the government influence to defeat him and elect the opposition candidate.

That was an insult that no self-respecting Conservative can condone. It was a display of one-man boss rule that every self-respecting elector ought to rebuke.

The people did not elect Mr. Morrissy to rule over them, and choose representatives for them.

But, instead of calling a convention, he selected one of the "lumber lords" he used to assail, and put him up for election. He did this without consulting his colleagues in the county.

And then, when this gentleman retired, the chief commissioner urged Mr. Burchill, whom he had denounced as one of the worst Northumberland deals, to accept a nomination from the Liberal convention and promised him the government support.

Mr. Burchill made no advance to him, but volunteered the statement that he would, if elected, sit as an Independent Liberal, a promise that he kept in the house.

Northumberland was disgraced by the foolish proceeding. The county was laughed at. It is still remembered to our discredit.

We will, if elected, support the government so long as its measures commend themselves to us as being in the best interests of the province, and we will support the land-grabbing lumber kings, against whom the people of this county have struggled so long for a share of the public domain.

We will not be tame followers of the government of the day, like gentlemen who represented you in the last house but will be ready at all times to stand up and fight for the rights of the county.

The same followers in no case. He is only a voting machine, and votes as he is hidden.

SMALL CROWD AT YORK HUSTINGS

Downpour of Rain Prevented People from Attending—Speeches Were Short.

Fredericton, June 13 (Special)—Nomination proceedings here today were the quietest in years. Sheriff Howe opened his court at 11 a.m. and soon after that hour both tickets were nominated.

The opposition candidate, Mr. Burchill, was nominated by the supporters of the government, and the chief commissioner used the government influence to defeat him and elect the opposition candidate.

QUEENS COUNTY NOMINATIONS

Efforts of Tories to Break Up Messrs Carpenter and King in Their Speeches Fail—No Doubt of Liberal Success.

Gagetown, N. B., June 13 (Special)—Nomination proceedings here today were very slimly attended owing to the unfavorable weather and had been throughout the county, and the joint debate this afternoon was listened to by a very small number.

As is usually the case there was a concerted attempt on the part of Gagetown Tories to start a disturbance when the Liberal candidates started to speak but they gained nothing by their unfair tactics.

Mr. King treated the issues in his trenchant style far more than an hour might afford some time ago to get a place on the government ticket in York, spoke briefly to a handful of electors.

The opposition campaign in this county is well under way but is not accompanied by any flourish of trumpets. The government party in York county view that the acts of the present administration have estranged many who voted for the Tories in 1908 and are working in anticipation of a hard fight and the opposition forces expect to give them that.

The condition of the highways in all parts of the county was never worse and on that account formal votes in all parts of the constituency will go strongly in favor of the opposition candidates.

There are few farmers who can handle public questions like Mr. Carpenter when he gets on the platform and he was at the head of the parade along with the smooth-tongued lawyer from Fredericton who has given the county but indifferent service since he was elected as one of the representatives of the county in 1908.

The people of Queens want King and Carpenter as their next representatives and there is no doubt of their election.

Sheriff Williams opened his court this morning and received the nominations of George H. King and I. W. Carpenter as opposition candidates, and A. R. Shipp and W. Woods as government candidates.

The sheriff also presided at the joint debate this afternoon held in the court house. Mr. Shipp spoke first, followed by Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Woods then presented for another hour with the patient people and Mr. King closed the debate in an excellent address, reviewing the issues of the campaign and presenting the progressive policy of Mr. Copp, as outlined in his manifesto.

ROOSEVELT HAS WON THIRTEEN DELEGATES SO FAR

Taft Has Been Awarded 159—Charges of Bribery Hurdled Across the Floor by Campaign Managers.

He charged that a member of the Republican national committee had been offered a United States marshaling if he would vote for Taft on the contested delegates under consideration.

It was reported that the Taft managers have under consideration the introduction of a resolution in the convention requiring election to be according to the instructions given by their state until they are passed by the candidate. Taft leaders expect to counter the credentials committee by a vote of 32 to 21.

TEN CANDIDATES IN WEST MORLAND

Tories at Loggerheads, Try at Last Minute to Down Price, the Party Choice.

Special to The Telegraph. Moncton, June 13—The official nominations for Moncton city and Westmorland county took place today at Dorchester.

A. B. Copp, provincial opposition leader; C. M. Leger, Fred Magee and I. N. Killian are the standard bearers of the Liberal party in the county while Mayor E. C. Robinson is the Liberal nominee for election in the county.

The opposition candidates were nominated by: Scott Merrett and Hugh Warnock, both of whom were endorsed by the party; George H. King and I. W. Carpenter as opposition candidates, and A. R. Shipp and W. Woods as government candidates.

The sheriff also presided at the joint debate this afternoon held in the court house. Mr. Shipp spoke first, followed by Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Woods then presented for another hour with the patient people and Mr. King closed the debate in an excellent address, reviewing the issues of the campaign and presenting the progressive policy of Mr. Copp, as outlined in his manifesto.

U. S. TREASURY SUPPLIED FUNDS TO STAY PANIC

Evidence at "Money Trust" Inquiry That Government Deposited $29,000,000 and Morgan Ordered it to Be Loaned.

New York, June 13—Evidence intended to show that the $25,000,000 which J. P. Morgan has been generally credited with placing upon the New York stock exchange during the panic of 1907, was really supplied by the treasury of the United States, was introduced today at the hearing of the Puff committee of the House of Representatives which is investigating the so-called money trust.

Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the committee, obtained from George B. Cortlandt, secretary of the treasury, under the Roosevelt administration, who came to New York during the panic, the assertion that "he understood" the money loaned by the government to the banks at that time was to be used on the stock exchange.

From the New York sub-treasury the attorney secured a statement showing that on the day October 24, when Mr. Morgan told R. H. Thomas, president of the exchange, to announce the $25,000,000 loan to the exchange loan brokers, the government had deposited with the banks nearly $29,000,000.

From Charles Steeles, a partner of J. P. Morgan, he obtained a statement showing that Morgan had "agreed to" to the stock exchange on that day. The total amount "agreed to" was $28,500,000, but the amount actually loaned to the banks was $25,000,000.

It is not generally known that the ordinary brown kitchen soap is a strong disinfectant. A doctor who has spent most of his life in a laboratory succeeded in hatching out bacteria in every soap except that which contained lye, in however small a quantity. Lye is an ingredient in all brown and yellow commercial soaps, and for this reason these soaps have a distinct disinfectant value.

RESTIGOUCHE SAFE FOR THE LIBERALS

Crowd at Hustings Speeches Largely in Favor of LaBillois and McKenzie.

Dalhousie, N. B., June 13 (Special)—There was a good attendance at the nomination proceedings today, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was very hot.

The opposition candidates were nominated by: Scott Merrett and Hugh Warnock, both of whom were endorsed by the party; George H. King and I. W. Carpenter as opposition candidates, and A. R. Shipp and W. Woods as government candidates.

AMERICAN FISHERMEN FILE CLAIMS AGAINST NEWFOUNDLAND

Will Ask Their Government to Collect Dues and Duties Paid—Amount Involved About $60,000.

Boston, Mass., June 13—Claims against the Newfoundland government for light dues, duties, etc., paid by Gloucester fishermen on Newfoundland grounds on the treaty coast will be filed with the state department at Washington this week and many of them, if not all, will come before a commission in the fall.

The claims amount to over $60,000 some ranging as high as $10,000. Most interest is being manifested in the outcome of the case for in event the petitioners of the successful other claims will be filed it is stated.

Presentation at Millstream. Millstream, N. B., June 12—On Saturday evening the home of Mrs. Brundage, Millstream was the scene of a large gathering when about 100 of her friends met there and presented to her a token of esteem and regard. Her friends here regret very much the removal of the family.

Mrs. Brundage has been a valuable worker in the church and Sunday school. The presentation was made by Rev. A. C. Bell. Short addresses were made by others and refreshments were served. Mrs. Brundage and family will be in a short time in join Dr. Brundage in Gainsborough (Sask.)
