HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE CO.

BRITISH AMERICA ASSURANCE CO.

This Agency offers protection against loss and damage by fire, on terms as favorable as the character of the risks will justify.

Marine Insurance effected on vessels, cargoes and freights to and from any part of the commercial world; time and voyage policies issued at once, on terms and conditions as customary. Rates moderate, and losses promptly paid, as maturity, in cash.

The undersigned begs respectfully to inform all his customers and friends, whether in this city or elsewhere, that it is now absolutely necessary that all premiums for Fire Insurance, due him at the time of the recent fire, be paid at once, either at his Agency, German Street, Market Buildings, or at the office of his Agents respectively throughout the Province. Policy holders will recognize the importance of complying with this suggestion, by reference to their Policies.

In consequence of the loss of General Index and Expiry Book, he will not at present be able to send notices as to Insurance maturing, so that holders of Policies will each for himself refer to his Policy, and if renewal be effected the premium should be paid at the time. In this way only can misunderstanding be avoided.

Severe Storm in Great Britain and Ireland.

On Sunday night, October 14, the most sudden and violent storm experienced for many years on the European coast burst over the British Islands. The rapidly with which the tempest extended in area was extraordinary and creates the utmost astonishment here. Throughout England the damage caused by the storm is very great, and reports reach London from all parts of the country describing the destruction of property of every description. The storm and gale struck London about ten o'clock on Sunday night, and raged with unabated fury until five o'clock on yesterday morning. The wind fairly howled over would have been trapped before now and made to suffer for purchasing stolen goods. We wish the Government to take his advice and discharge every official from Chatham down and appoint one good responsible man, and give the names of A. McDonald and James Grant, he must have made a mistake in the last named, he intended to have written John Grant as he is the man (in his own estimation) who would make an independent overseer in the interests of Lower Newcastle. If the Government take my humble advice they will make no change whatever, as Officer Russell is the right man for the Office he holds, and performs his duties in a fearless and independent manner, neither opposing the fishermen nor allowing them to trample on the regulations.

Salmon. Further, that the law making the close season for Bass until the first of Oct. is one of the best that ever emanated from the Inspector, this statement shows the selfishness of the writer, as the law just suits the locality where he resides but cuts off all the district below that, the Bass commences to go up about the 1st of Sept., and the fishermen must be allowed to catch them during that month, as after the 1st of Oct. the fish are scarce and they do not catch any after that, but the catch commences for Lower Newcastle up, but if the fishermen are allowed to come down to set nets during the month of Sept. they would catch large numbers of salmon, which is just what the writer of the letter wants.

What is said about 170 votes being controlled by Canada in that district are as independent as those of Lower Newcastle, in fact more so as some of them are trying to get a good officer discharged and one of themselves appointed in his place. When the time comes that their votes are required the Manager's Master will not have many to count on.

There has been a great amount of writing for a length of time about fishery affairs each party abusing the other and both abusing the manager. If this gentleman would visit Miramichi, meet with the fishermen in the different districts, hear their grievances, and the remedies they propose, he would be enabled to make such regulations as would in a great measure please all parties and put an end to the strife that has existed since he came into office.

Yours, Observer.

NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, N. B. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1877.

THE ELEVENTH VOLUME.

With this number the ADVOCATE enters upon the eleventh year of its existence, with fair prospects of future success. The past course of the paper has not been one of great success, financially speaking, yet its proprietors and founders, in taking a retrospective of the past ten years, can see much to warrant encouragement and hope for the future. It has always been the endeavor of the proprietors to take such a course in all public matters as in their opinion would best conduce to the general interests and welfare of the people, and whatever influence a country paper can exert has been put forth by the ADVOCATE as its business in working such changes in public matters as were expedient and necessary.

In doing so the publishers have sometimes been compelled to oppose the party in power, and when in opposition to withdraw support from those with whose interests it had been associated, believing in the principle that a newspaper should not be so wedded to any party as to be unwilling to support any good measure introduced and carried by the party in power. Neither unwavering support or bigoted opposition can be said to be consistent with the first principles of true journalism. There have been periods in the history of this paper, when by desertion from party to the ranks of those who had gained the reins of power, the publishers might have enjoyed a larger meed of financial prosperity, but it could only be done at the expense of the respect of both friends and opponents, choosing rather to retain old friendships and to have, at least, the respect of political opponents, by pursuing a manly course, one consistent with the principles of true and honest journalism. It shall be the aim of the publishers to continue as they have been—to uphold every good measure, by whomsoever brought forward—to oppose every public act calculated to retard the development of our country's industries and resources—and to give a firm support to every moral and social condition of the people.

The publishers owe much to the people of the North for the generous support extended to the ADVOCATE during the past ten years, and it is a gratifying fact that notwithstanding the general depression felt in various branches of industry, the subscription list of the paper shows little if any diminution. During the last month nearly sixty new names have been received.

Since 1867, the year in which the ADVOCATE was established, many changes have taken place, some of which had an important bearing upon the commercial interests of the country. Among these may be mentioned the International Railway, an international work of the greatest importance, which has lifted this Northern section out of the comparative isolation which for so long a time acted as a drawback during five months of the year at least. As was frequently predicted in the columns of the ADVOCATE, this road has been of immense benefit to the people, and particularly to those representing the agricultural and fishing interests, who have been enabled to export their produce and fish with greater facility and less expense, thus enabling them to compete with their countrymen in many places who have enjoyed the privilege of uninterrupted communication from a much earlier period. The railway authorities have not been slow to encourage this traffic by establishing flag stations and sidings at many points between regular stations; but there is yet much to be done before the regulations that "hard times" had not yet ventured within its limits. Quite a village is springing into existence in the vicinity of the station grounds. During the past year or so a number of new buildings have gone up, a greater number being occupied. They are as follows:—

Adam Duncan, a large and substantial looking residence, 24 stories, 37x25 feet.

Geo. Duncan, a commodious dwelling, situated on an excellent site—Size, 40x16 feet and a half stories.

Daniel O'Keefe, new building for hotel purposes, 40x28, two and a half stories, with large ell.

William Glover, a large building near the machine shop, two stories, 45x28. The north end and upper flat is occupied as a residence, the other portion being used for a store by the owner, where a general assortment of goods is kept for sale.

Robert Watt, late of Newcastle, has erected and now occupies a new building adjoining that of Mr. Glover's. It is 25x30 feet, and is occupied as a shop and residence. Mr. Watt also has a refreshment saloon in connection with the shop.

Near by is the new residence of Allan Adams, occupying a space of 35x25 feet, one and a half stories.

Finlay Fraser, residence, 35x25, one and a half stories. A wing is being added at the west end, 25x15, which is intended for a store, and will probably be occupied next season.

Almost immediately opposite is the residence of James Lyons, size 29x24. Robt. G. Gordon has erected a very comfortable dwelling, 30x26, with dormer window. Two and a half stories, one of which is a basement story, for kitchen and dining room.

James Taylor, foreman of the round house, has in course of erection a neat office, occupying an elevated site and facing the river, having a dormer window. Size, 29x24, 14 stories, with ell, 15 feet square.

A large building is being erected on William Street for Dr. Balcom's site, 38x24 feet, 2 stories with bay window facing the river. The upper flat will be occupied as a residence. The lower flat is divided off into a surgery in the rear, and a fine store in front, with a large and handsome plate glass window. The builder is Allan K. Thompson, late of Chatham.

A new street has been laid off on the property of Hon. John McMillan, which runs parallel with the railway. The first house on the new street is a neat and comfortable looking residence, built, owned and occupied by Thos. Ritchie. In size it is 31x27 with ell, 25x15. The house has dormer windows in front and rear. Barn, 28x18.

The next is a very neat residence erected for J. B. McKenzie, merchant. Its dimensions are 36x24, 16 feet post, with ell 16x22, 11 feet post. There is a large dormer window and verandah facing the bay, which there is a fine view. A new barn, 30x30, has also been built. Mr. McKenzie moved into his new residence a few days ago. Built by Thos. Ritchie.

A few yards further on Prudent Roy is putting up a nice dwelling for Mr. J. Cord, the popular manager of the Montreal Telegraph office, for outside of the North District. The house is 36x26 feet, 14 story, with verandah and dormer window. The ell is 22x16 feet, 14 story.

On the same street Mr. Roy's building a residence for Octave Christie, and also one for Alfred Bick. Both buildings have dormer windows, and are in size respectively 37x23 and 20x21.

Mr. Roy also built Daniel O'Keefe's hotel, and is the contractor for Mr. James Taylor's new residence. There are a number of smaller buildings going up, which give to the town an appearance of activity not at all in keeping with the cry of "hard times."

I omitted to mention that J. P. Mowat, the proprietor of the large refrigerator on the station grounds, is having laid the foundation of a new residence, the frame of which is to be erected this fall.

MOLSON'S BANK.

Mr. G. C. McGregor, of Molson's Bank, Campbellton, left on Friday morning for Sorel, near Montreal, to take the position of accountant and teller in the branch of Molson's Bank at that place. The young man was very much liked here, and though his departure, they are pleased to know that the change brings with it advancement. On Thursday evening a few friends entertained Mr. McGregor at an oyster supper. His place in the Bank is filled by Mr. A. Howard, from the office of Molson's Bank, Montreal. The branch is under the direction of Mr. A. A. C. Denora, who is an courteous and accommodating officer. The Bank is slowly but surely increasing its business here, and is a source of very great accommodation to the people.

ANCIENT ORDER OF FORESTERS.

A new court of this Ancient Friendly Society, the 1st in New Brunswick, was opened in Sorel, near Montreal, on Saturday, the 29th inst. The new court is under the jurisdiction of the Montreal United District, and was opened by Past District Chief Ranger Allan M. Farlane, assisted by W. Gandy, R. K. Sub-Chief Ranger, and Conroy Water, Senior Deputy, brethren of Court "Britannia." Three children by diphtheria, two were scarcely expected to survive. The Government steamer "Napoleon II," arrived in Quebec this morning, 29th, from her trip, taking supplies to the light-houses in the Gulf. The Montreal Times announces that a fair friend sent in an apple weighing 20 ounces, the girl of which was 14 inches in CAMPBELLTON, Oct. 29. BUILDING OPERATIONS.

The general complaint everywhere is "hard times," but if one were to judge from the extent of building operations now going on in this town, the conclusion arrived at would be that "hard times" had not yet ventured within its limits. Quite a village is springing into existence in the vicinity of the station grounds. During the past year or so a number of new buildings have gone up, a greater number being occupied. The Government steamer "Napoleon II," arrived in Quebec this morning, 29th, from her trip, taking supplies to the light-houses in the Gulf. The Montreal Times announces that a fair friend sent in an apple weighing 20 ounces, the girl of which was 14 inches in livered by Bro. Allan M. Farlane. The proceedings were most interesting. There were 15 initiations and 12 proposers for membership. The following officers were elected: Bro. J. A. Balcom, Chief Ranger; Bro. W. P. Price, Sub-Chief Ranger; Bro. A. W. Harty, Treasurer; Bro. Horace M. Phee, Secy. Bro. J. A. Balcom, was appointed Supervisor for the Court. This session is practically a benevolent society. During sickness, members are entitled to a weekly benefit of $5.50, and in the event of the death of a member, the widow or relatives receive seventy dollars with which to defray the expenses of burial. When the members die, the sum of thirty dollars is granted for the same purpose. The expenses of a member, the widow or relatives according to age, and the Monthly dues from sixty to seventy cents. The Order is supposed to have a very large number of members. It now comprises 283 districts, 4,376 Courts, 509,519 financial members, 11,707 honorary members, and 1,344,344, 960 sterling. It is expected that a new Court will shortly be established at Metepolia.

Another Defeat.

Mr. Laurier, the new Minister of Inland Revenue has been handsomely defeated in Hammond & Arthabaska, whether he had returned for re-election. Mr. Laurier had been elected by a majority of twenty-nine votes. This is a crushing defeat for the Government, who professed to be confident of the return of their candidate, who appears to have been defeated solely on account of the strong feeling against the present Government.

The first shipment of fresh meat was despatched from New York on Friday, 19th, for France by the Havre steamers, Geo. L. F. X., the well known company of the Cambridge, Mass., a few days ago. He was over fifty-two years of age. After 300 years of absence, a show of herring appeared this year on the coast of Denmark. This fish was for many centuries the chief source of revenue of the country. The large herring-boat, which in the New York aquaria gave birth to fifty small boats on Saturday night—was on the coast of Denmark. The family is kept in a large glass box. The mother is fifteen or sixteen years old, and her young about two feet in length.
